SENIORS

The Future Belongs to Those Who Prepare for It

The first meeting of the class of "59" was held in September 1955. The officers were: President, Jim Strange; Vice President, Barb Mapes; Secretary, Jean Mobarak; and Treasurer, Sherrill Louton. The highlights of our Freshman year were: selling pom-poms, building a float, sponsoring a dance, and selling greeting cards and stationery. We ended our Freshman year with a picnic at the Willows, and $343.61 in the treasury.

Bob Niemi, Fred Schwarze, Jean Mobarak, and Jim Strange were our Sophomore officers. Special projects included: a work week, and a car wash. Selecting our class rings in the Spring made us realize that we were approaching our two most glamorous years. Our successful Junior year got off to a good start by electing four capable officers, Bob Starnes, Fred Schwarze, Diane Luchtman, and Jim Strange. Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mr. Skow were chosen as sponsors.

Our activities consisted of a successful magazine sale; the J-Hop, "Somewhere Over the Rainbow"; the Junior Play, "The Defiance of David Charles"; and a Junior-Senior Banquet.

For our fabulous last year we chose the following officers: Bob Niemi, Roger Cheeseman, Suzie Wallace, and Jim Strange. Our play, "Harvey," was a tremendous success. Excitement ran high when we ordered our Senior pictures, graduation cards and announcements. The Senior Prom was an event never to be forgotten, as was our trip to Washington. Our class was the first to go by bus on the Senior trip.

We arrived in the summer of 1958 to spend a year in Northville and to learn about the American way of living. At first the differences between Germany and the United States seemed tremendous, but after several months we became so used to American customs that we could hardly imagine a different way of life. Unfortunately, Almut had to return home in January and she regretted being unable to complete her full years. When we return, we will always remember our friends in Northville. We plan to tell the people in our country of our interesting experiences.

Senior Trip

The class of 1959 was the first to visit Washington via bus. The fun started May 10 when we boarded the two-level buses. In Washington, memorable nights were spent at the Lee House. We visited many educational and historical places including Gettysburg, Mount Vernon, Annapolis, and Arlington.

Old and New

From now on only the Junior High will be boarding buses behind the Community Center. The bleak and wintry expanse shown below will be busy with arriving and departing students.

The opening of the new high school was the most exciting occasion of the school year. For the first time in many years the halls of N. H. S. are uncrowded. The new building contains many more facilities for Home Economics, Driver Training, and sports. The auditorium and music areas are acoustically treated, a great improvement over the older gym. The library will also be much more advanced containing many more volumes for reference work as well as leisure reading. Our speech department will include a stage and radio facilities. Our new school is one of the most up-to-date in the United States. We are proud and happy to be in it.

Bands

One of the busiest seasons of its history was experienced by the band this year. Fall brought our annual appearance at the State Fair, and participation in Band Day at Ann Arbor. Under the guidance of Mr. Williams we did half-time shows of precision drills at the football games. The band joined forces with the choir for presentation of the Christmas concert. We were fortunate in having thirty-three members in All-League Band. Several members participated in the Solo and Ensemble contest where they received five "one" ratings. We also received straight "one" ratings in the District Festival at Willow Run. After completing these festivals we journeyed to Jackson where we competed in the state festival. Spring brought with it the Memorial Day Parade, and the annual banquet honoring the seniors. Throughout the year guest conductors visited the Monday night practices. We all wish to thank Mr. Lee and Mr. Williams for making this year a successful and enjoyable one.
