METHODISTS TO OBSERVE CENTENNIAL

Program of Notable Events Begins Oct. 28 And Ends Nov. 4

One hundred years have passed since the Methodists were first organized in Northville.

To properly celebrate this memorable anniversary the entire week of October 28-November 4, including two Sundays, will be given over to a full program of activities when interesting facts in this long history will be reviewed.

Old preachers and former members will come back to sit again in the familiar pews and shake the hands of old friends. Hospitality will abound that week.

On both Sunday mornings the pulpit will be filled by visiting preachers.

On Monday evening former pastors and local ministers will be guests at a "Fellowship Night." Reminiscences of other days will be brought back by these men who bore the heat of battle. An opportunity will be given to greet each other. Some will meet the one who performed their marriage ceremony, some the one who laid loved ones to rest.

Tuesday evening will be community night when hospitality will be extended to the members of the two local men's clubs, the Exchange and Rotary clubs, as representing the various activities of the village. These men will be guests of the church at dinner.

Following dinner the company will retire to the auditorium where Jas. Schermerhorn, former editor of The Detroit Times, will be the speaker. The presence of Mr. Schermerhorn is a very unusual privilege for Northville and the public is invited to this, as the other events of the week.

To relieve the seriousness of the week, Wednesday night will be designated as "Scream Night" with fun and an informal social time.

"Music Night" will be observed Thursday evening when a choir of fifty voices from the Boulevard Temple church in Detroit will present a fine program of song. There will be no admission fee at any of these events, but some collections will be taken.

On Friday evening a banquet will be given to all those who will be glad to join in the fellowship of the occasion. To make it possible for many to attend, the women of the church are arranging to serve this banquet for the small sum of fifty cents a plate. Visitors from distant towns are expected and an after dinner program will be of interest. Friends from other denominations will be most cordially welcome.

Dr. Sam Robinson, Superintendent of Bronson hospital, Kalamazoo, will give the talk after dinner.

It will be necessary to reserve plates for this banquet early. Call one of the following ticket committees: Mrs. Chub Smith, Maurice Lapham, Fred W. Lyke, Floyd G. Lanning and John Litsenberger.

The "grand finale" of this whole week will be the historical pageant to be given on the second Sunday evening when the history of these "followers of John Wesley" will be enacted by fifty-five characters in the costumes of their ancestors.

The doors of the church are thrown freely open to the whole community and a warm invitation is extended by the Methodists to their friends to join in this happy celebration.

BAPTIST WOMEN BUSY ON BAZAAR

Sewing machines are humming in the homes of many a Baptist woman these days as preparations are being made for their annual bazaar to be held on

Some are making aprons, some fancy work, some towels, while some of them seem to have returned to care-free days of girlhood as they sew on doll clothes.

These doll clothes, by the way, are expected to "make a hit" with the little girls of the village for they are being made in the very latest modes. Mrs. Earl Montgomery, who has charge of this booth, plans to stage a real fashion show of dolls dressed in up-to-date style.

Under Mrs. Susan Eaton's capable management, top shelves and attics are being ransacked for those things which folks are not using any more but which are the very thing other folks have been wanting. This "Thrift" booth promises to attract crowds who love a bargain.

Plan to do some early Christmas shopping at this coming bazaar.

AIDS CENTENNIAL

JAS. SCHERMERHORN
One of the finest orators in the United States, will be one of the speakers on the Methodist Centennial program.

SAUERKRAUT SUPPER DRAWS BIG CROWD

More than 150 people who like sauerkraut enjoyed the sumptuous supper served by the women of the Altar Society at the church hall of Our Lady of Victory church Tuesday evening.

The president, Mrs. C. A. McCullough, was ably assisted by a large corps of workers who helped make the affair the biggest success since its first kraut supper several years ago.

Believing that at least every year folks get "kraut hungry," the women have decided to make this an annual event. Not only a number of Germans, but even a few Irish and even Scotch, seemed to relish this dish.

The hall was attractive with its autumn decorations suggesting the approach of Hallowe'en. Lighted tapers in hollow pumpkins adorned the tables while corn stalks and autumn leaves were used about the walls.

The younger women of the church assisted in serving.

JOHN WALLER SPEAKS AT PLYMOUTH ON NEW HOUSING ACT

John Robert Waller, who has been active in government service many years, will address an assembly Friday noon in the Mayflower hotel dining room at Plymouth on the function of the Federal Housing corporation.

The meeting will be sponsored by the Plymouth Rotary club which holds its meeting at that time. Anyone interested may attend the program and for a small charge, may also partake of the noon luncheon.

Although a Rotary meeting, anyone contemplating the construction of a new home under the Federal Housing act or the modernization of their old home and who is interested is urged to attend. The act will be explained in detailed by Mr. Waller who has had an extensive government career and is mentioned in "Who's Who in America."

SESSIONS HOSPITAL

Mrs. Carl Schultz underwent a major operation Wednesday.

Mrs. Ella Stone will soon be returning to her home in Walled Lake.

Mrs. Myrtle Kenner was discharged from the hospital yesterday.

Mrs. Walter Fox is making good recovery and will be going home soon.

Mrs. R. C. Hall of Detroit is recovering from a major operation.

NORMAN WENDT DIES

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wendt were called to Snover by the serious illness and death of the former's brother, Norman Wendt. The funeral occurred today.

ATTENTION WOMAN'S CLUB

The program of the Woman's club will begin promptly at 2:30 p. m. on Friday at the home of Mrs. Chas. R. Rogers, Nine Mile road. Miss Velma Froude, harpist, who is substituting for Miss Virginia Krokos, still on a concert tour in the East, will appear on the program and will be obliged to return afterward to her teaching of harp in Cass Tech.

JEAN HILL CHAPTER

The Jean Hill Chapter of the Westminster Guild will hold its next regular meeting at the home of Frances Alexander, Monday, Oct. 22, at 7:30 o'clock. Initiation of new members.

METHODIST W. H. M. S.

The M. E. Woman's Home Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. H. Blowers, Gardner Ave., Tuesday, Oct. 23, for a pot luck dinner.

HUNTING SIGNS—At The Record office. Low prices for quantities. Good manila signs that will stand the weather. 15-18.

CLOSE TO 300 AT HAGGERTY TESTIMONIAL

Dinner Monday Draws Many Prominent Detroit Speakers

Northville residents turned out in force to pay tribute to John S. Haggerty Monday evening at a testimonial dinner held in the Mayflower hotel, Plymouth.

Close to 300 persons attended the dinner and of these, the majority were from Northville and Plymouth. Five townships of the northwestern part of Wayne county were represented at the unusually large gathering which paid tribute to Mr. Haggerty for his accomplishment as head of the Wayne County Road Commission in building what is termed the finest system of parkway roads in the world. This section of the county has been greatly beautified by the roads and the landscaping work done by the county.

Following an excellent turkey dinner an address of welcome and thanks for the turnout was made by Fred D. Schrader, Plymouth. Mr. Schrader introduced the guest of honor, John S. Haggerty, who in turn rose to his feet and thanked the assembly for their loyalty to him.

Mr. Schrader then introduced Judge Joseph A. Moynihan, of the Wayne County Circuit Court, who also paid his respects to Mr. Haggerty for his "loyalty, his many accomplishments and his sense of friendship." Judge Moynihan acted as toastmaster for the balance of the evening.

Robert G. Yerkes, on behalf of the Northville Exchange club, presented the members of the road commission with three gallons of Braeside maple syrup, a delayed gift. Judge Moynihan accepted the token on behalf of the road commission. Throughout the evening Judge Moynihan, as toastmaster, maintained active control over the banquet ceremonies and his wit and oratory enlivened the entire proceedings.

Judge Perry Richwine of Plymouth presented a bouquet of flowers to Mr. Haggerty and then Judge Moynihan began the program by introducing Dr. H. H. Burkart, president of the village of Northville, who dwelt on the appreciation of the residents of this town to John S. Haggerty for the roads he has made possible in and around the community. Following Dr. Burkart's remarks, Commissioner Edward N. Hines gave a brief talk on "Wayne County Roads and Parks" and stated that the system made possible by Mr. Haggerty was the finest in the world barring none. He paid tribute to Mr. Haggerty's genius both as a workman and a man with a deep sense of social responsibility. He cited Mr. Haggerty's interest in young men and illustrated his point by telling of a young man who had received his education and a start in the business world at Mr. Haggerty's expense.

Superintendent George A. Smith paid tribute to "Our Ladies" and added to the praise of Mr. Haggerty by saying that he was not a politician but a statesman and had been since his early days of government service when he served on the Michigan State Prison commission.

Homer Ferguson, Wayne County Circuit Court judge, Guy A. Miller, also of the Wayne County bench, and the Rev. F. C. LePevre, Plymouth, added their words of praise and commendation to that which had been spoken in favor of Mr. Haggerty. The meeting was turned back to Judge Moynihan, who, after a few remarks, concluded the evening's program.

Orlow G. Owen, Scott Montgomery assisting at the piano, was the song leader for the evening and led the crowd in several popular numbers which were well received.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Walter Nichol and the address of welcome by Geo. H. Robinson, mayor of Plymouth.

Nelson C. Schrader, chairman of committee in Northville, put the affair "over" for this community by his own personal efforts. Mr. Schrader directed the sale of tickets here and over 75 were reported sold.

Jason Robard Tells Exchangites That "Hard Work Is the Lot of Hollywood Motion Picture Actor"

Northville Exchangites and their guests were privileged Wednesday noon at their meeting in the Methodist church to hear Jason Robard, former motion picture star, in an informal talk on Hollywood and the cinema industry.

Mr. Robard was introduced by Robert G. Yerkes, president of the club, who is a close friend of Cullen Landis, also a motion picture star who was scheduled to speak but who was unable to appear.

Mr. Robard stated that he was born in Hillsdale county but left this part of the country at an early age. This is the first time he has been back to view a Michigan fall in ten years and his description of the foliage coloring was that it was "breath-taking in its grandeur."

Although a featured player for many years, Mr. Robard told his audience he is now engaged in the production of commercial films for the Metropolitan Motion Picture company in Detroit.

Speaking of conditions on the coast, and in the movie business, Mr. Robard stated that there is every indication of an upturn in the business and since the companies have turned thumbs down on wild extravagances more profit will be made.

"I have seen many Hollywood personalities come and go," said Mr. Robard, "and in many cases sudden success has gone to their heads. The tremendous publicity that attends their slightest actions is more than they can stand. On the other hand there are such steady, dependable workers as Allan Hale, Roscoe Karns, Myrna Loy who have worked their way up gradually to a position as contract stars. On the whole moving picture work is hard and the actor or actress has to be up and ready for the make-up artists at six o'clock. There are a few play-boys but they soon get weeded out."

So far as the number of prospective stars in Hollywood is concerned, said Mr. Robard, there are 18,000 people registered at the Central Casting office and of this number only 750 are employed per day.

However, declared Mr. Robard, California is a place where expenses are low and it's the easiest place in the world in which to starve.

Guests who attended the meeting included Lee Taylor, Detroit, Samuel Kerr of the Wayne County Training School, and James Richard Patrick Lyons, of Northville.

MALE CHORUS TO GIVE CONCERT AT PLYMOUTH CHURCH

Sunday evening, Oct. 21, in the First Methodist Church House at Plymouth, the Northville-Plymouth Male Chorus will give its first concert of the 1934-35 season.

This group of twenty-four men was organized as a chorus in the summer of 1933. Last year two concerts were presented by this group in Northville, one in Plymouth, and one in Walled Lake. This year a much more extensive program is planned. Six concerts in neighboring towns have already been "booked" and negotiations are underway for six or seven more. Among the towns to be visited are Tecumseh, Hartland, Walled Lake, and Plymouth.

The Plymouth concert scheduled for Sunday evening at 7:30 will be the first chance this season the local people will have to hear this group in a program of interesting and varied choral selections.

Two soloists, Mrs. Edna O'Connor, and another to be announced later, will assist in these concerts.

Leslie G. Lee will direct the chorus and Miss Barbara Bake will play the accompaniments.

No admission will be charged in Plymouth. A collection will be taken.

MRS. WOODMAN DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS

After a long illness Mrs. Frank Woodman, nee Nellie Waid, formerly of this village, died at her home in Detroit.

Mrs. Woodman spent her girlhood here and married a classmate, Frank Woodman. For the past 25 years their home has been in Detroit.

The funeral service was held at the home with Dr. Roy Vail, pastor of Woodward Ave. Presbyterian church, in charge. Interment was made in Rural Hill, Rev. H. G. Whitfield officiating at the burial.

Mrs. Woodman was a sister of Mrs. L. A. Babbitt.

PARENTS HERE TO ATTEND EDUCATION MEETING NOV. 1-3

A number of Northville parents are planning to take in the fifth annual Education Institute to be held in Ann Arbor Nov. 1-3. On this very fine program will appear speakers of note, among them Mrs. D. W. Stewart, president of Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, Dr. LeRoy Neuman of New York City.

Many subjects of interest to parents will be discussed in conferences. Mrs. Philip Donon will represent the local P. T. A. of which she is president.

Members of Parent-Teachers association are urged to attend these services. For accommodations get in touch with Mrs. Donon, phone 172, or Mrs. E. B. Foster, phone 166.

SALUTE "CAPTAIN" MURPHY

It's Captain Chas. Murphy of the Field Artillery, Michigan National Guard, now. Formerly a captain in the Officers' Reserve Corps, Charley is now honored by the Michigan National Guard. He had not applied for the commission.

PALESTINE FRIENDS ARE HONORED HERE

Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Willis entertained in honor of the parents of Mrs. B. H. Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. W. Kelsey, of Palestine, at an elaborate five-course dinner at the Lone Tee room Tuesday evening. Present were Dr. and Mrs. Douglas, Rev. and Mrs. H. G. Whitfield, besides the guests of honor.

PENNY SUPPER TUESDAY

Attention is called to fact that the next Methodist Penny supper will occur on Tuesday instead of Wednesday evening. This time there will be plenty of meat and the usual generous menu.

Dr. Bruce H. Douglas Honored by Election as Head of Michigan Tuberculosis Association at Meeting

Dr. Bruce H. Douglas, tuberculosis controller of Detroit, formerly superintendent of the Maybury Sanatorium, was re-elected president of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association at its annual meeting held at Ann Arbor Thursday, Oct. 11. This will be his second term in the office.

Dr. Henry Vaughn, health commissioner of Detroit, was re-elected to the Board of Trustees of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association at the meeting.

Among those from Northville who attended the meetings were Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Willis, Dr. W. L. VanSickle, K. P. Campbell, Anna M. Green, Mary VanDomelen, Mary Rulkuski, Mary Coleman, Inez Palm, Kathryn Rilland, and Clara Sharpe, all of William H. Maybury sanatorium, and Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Baldwin.

Promising that the Michigan Tuberculosis Association would take an active part in any movement by physicians and educators to safeguard the lives of high school and college students from tuberculosis, Dr. Bruce H. Douglas declared even more insistent warfare on the disease at a special dinner held Thursday evening.

The dinner, attended by approximately 150 from all parts of the state, concluded the day-long annual meeting of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, the Michigan Trudeau Society and the Michigan Sanatorium Association.

"We believe the tuberculin testing and x-raying of school children and young people today, to be of fundamental importance to tuberculosis control in the future," Dr. Douglas declared, "and the Michigan Tuberculosis Association strongly urges physician and teacher to unite in a common program designed to eradicate this disease from the young age groups."

As a living example of what is being done in Michigan's discovery clinics and sanatoriums every day, Dr. Douglas introduced Charles "Lefty" LeFevre, of Monroe, who, with his mother, was present at the meeting. In December, 1931, "Lefty" then captain of the Monroe basketball squad, was found by a Michigan Tuberculosis Association clinic with active, adult type tuberculosis infecting his lungs. He was hurried to a sanatorium, treated for a little over a year and a half, and today he is back in school.

"HOME RULE ENDANGERED," W. F. VON MOLL

Representation Will Be Lost If Amendment Passes

The half-million residents of Wayne county who live outside of Detroit, will have little or no voice in the government of the county, in case the proposed home rule amendment passes at the Nov. 6 election. This startling declaration was made to Northville Rotarians at their Tuesday meeting by W. F. Von Moll of Monguagon township, a very well informed member of the board of supervisors of Wayne county.

The out-county citizens are entitled to representation, said Supervisor Von Moll but this will be denied them if the amendment passes. Of the 147 members of the board of supervisors, 68 are from outside the city of Detroit and 79 are from the metropolis. Mr. Von Moll stated that the amendment does not specify any particular kind of a plan for government. "But suppose, for example," he said, "that it would be a seven-man commission. What chance would the out-county have to get more than one or two on such a board?"

The entire cost of the meetings of the board of supervisors, continued Mr. Stoll, is only $22,000 a year. "The townships are getting cheap representation," he said, "and they will not get this representation should the proposed amendment carry."

Supervisor Willard A. Ely presented Mr. Von Moll. Should the home rule plan pass, said Mr. Ely, the cost of caring for Northville township's budget at Eloise would be increased from its present rate of $7,000 to over $11,000, an increase of ten thousand dollars.

The meeting of the Rotarians was in charge of President Leslie G. Lee. Guests were Carl Shear and Robert Willoughby of Plymouth. Next Tuesday the members of the club will visit the Parke-Davis Laboratories at Detroit.

VILLAGE COUNCIL BUYS FIRE HOSE, PASSES WATER BILL

Purchase of 500 feet of fire hose and the problem of delinquent water bills were the two main items on the village council's bill of fare Monday evening at the village hall.

The purchase of the fire hose involved the opening of sealed bids from five companies. The contract was awarded to the American-LaFrance company and the specifications call for two and a half-inch hose in 50-foot lengths, double-jacketed, with pin lug couplings. The price paid by the village was 82 cents per foot.

Face to face with the problem of taking action upon delinquents who have not paid their water bills the council resolved no user of village water shall be permitted to use water except upon the following conditions: That he shall pay all current water rates within thirty (30) days after they shall be due and in addition thereto that he shall pay one-quarter of the delinquent rates which he shall owe and which were delinquent October 1, 1934, for use of water at any address in the Village of Northville hereafter.

Failure to comply with this resolution, says the commissioner's statement, shall bring about the immediate discontinuance of the water supply to the user without further notice.

The commissioners voted to pay all of the bills that were presented as read by the village clerk, Frederick Hedge.

MR. AND MRS. HOGLE FIFTY YEARS WED

On Monday, October 15, 1934, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Hogle of Farmington, known by many Northville people, observed their Golden Wedding anniversary.

In the afternoon they were "at home" and received many of their friends.

That evening their children entertained at a family dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Simmons. The bride and groom of fifty years ago were guests of honor, as were also Mr. and Mrs. James C. Hogle, of Ann Arbor, who were married September 27, 1934.

Guests were present from Farmington, Northville, Pontiac, Trenton, and Ann Arbor.

BISHOP GALLAGHER DRAWS LARGE CROWD

Taxed beyond its capacity was Our Lady of Victory church by those who were members of the Confirmation class, together with their many friends and relatives who came to witness the symbolical ritual of the conferring of this Sacrament by Bishop Gallagher last Sunday.

The fifty-five recipients each had his own adult sponsor who accompanied him to the altar to kneel before the bishop's throne where each one individually received the elements of consecration.

Bishop Gallagher was escorted from the rectory to the church immediately preceding the ceremonies. As this was the Bishop's first official visit to the congregation, this was done with full episcopal regalia. Eleven priests from the vicinity helped in the college assisted by all the children of the Confirmation class.

The bishop in his sermon, after a brief examination of the children, launched into the advantages of the sacrament of Confirmation, the purposes of which are to bring the influences of the Holy Spirit into our lives. With life a continual struggle against error, temptation and wrong the inspirations from on High are most needed.

HARVEST FESTIVAL AT SALEM, OCT. 24

On Wednesday Oct. 24, the women of the Salem Congregational church will put on a Harvest Festival. All kinds of produce from the past year's crop will be on sale; canned fruits, jellies, fresh fruits, and vegetables, including potatoes, and other things from the garden.

In another booth baked goods will be on sale—delicious home-made pumpkin pies, rich with real country cream, fluffy cakes made with fresh butter, juicy apple pies and crisp fried cakes.

These Salem women are good cooks and a real treat is in store for the townspeople who love to go out to a country supper. Generous servings and excellent cooking have made these suppers far-famed and a good crowd is expected.

FIVE ESCAPE INJURY IN CAR ACCIDENT SUNDAY EVENING

Pearl Booth, 16 years old, narrowly escaped serious injury Sunday evening when the car, driven by her brother, Harold, and containing three other sisters, was crowded off the Seven Mile road into a large black and white post that guards a deep ditch.

Although the truck was badly damaged Pearl escaped with only a bruised eye. The other girls, Shirley, Lillian and Virginia, suffered a severe shaking up but were uninjured.

NEW OFFICERS TO HOLD FIRST SESSIONS IN LEGION HOME

The regular meeting of The American Legion Auxiliary and the Lloyd Green post will be held Tuesday evening, October 23, at the Legion home.

New officers will be in charge and a good attendance is desired. Anyone having magazines for the Maybury Sanatorium should call Mrs. Blowers or phone 134 and the magazines will be picked up.

SUPT. GEO. A. SMITH TO DISCUSS GAS TAX AMENDMENT AT H. S.

George A. Smith, superintendent of the Plymouth schools, will speak in the gymnasium of the Northville high school on Monday evening, Oct. 22, at 8 o'clock, on the proposed amendment reducing the gas tax. The public is urged to attend. This issue is a vital one for every voter.

CAR ACCIDENT IS FATAL TO TOM SLESSOR

Runs Into Rear of Truck and Is Instantly Killed

Thomas Slessor, 38 years old, head greenskeeper for the Meadowbrook Country club, was instantly killed Wednesday evening when the car he was driving struck the rear end of a moving truck on the Ann Arbor road between Middlebelt and Farmington roads.

The car in which Mr. Slessor was driving alone hit the truck with such force that the engine was torn from its fastenings and the rear of Mr. Slessor's car caved in. Fire from the ignition started but was extinguished immediately by witnesses to the accident who hurried to the car. The accident occurred at approximately 8:30 o'clock near the Ray Watts drug store. Mr. Watts formerly managed what is now the Gunsell Drug store, Northville, and knew Mr. Slessor well.

Mr. Slessor had been greenskeeper and foreman for the Meadowbrook Country club since 1932. Born in Scotland Mr. Slessor lived there on a farm during his early years. He served with distinction in the World war with the Scottish forces and came to America soon after the armistice was signed. He obtained employment with the Meadowbrook club under Wm. Ephluck and then later worked for Wm. Slack at the same place. He married in 1925 and he is survived by his wife, Mary, and two children, a thirteen-year-old girl and an eight-year-old boy. He has a brother, John, living in Detroit.

Mr. Slessor was a member of the Northville Masonic lodge and also was a member of the Detroit District Greenskeepers' association. Those who knew him well say that he was known for his lasting good humor. He was always a favorite with children and his fellow workers say he was a loyal friend. He was fond of golf and played an excellent game. He lived with his family on East Eight Mile road next to the Meadowbrook Country club.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed but it is believed that the ceremony will be held Saturday.

ATTENTION NOVI CITIZENS

For 20 years I have solicited you, citizens of Novi, for memberships in the Red Cross organization of Novi. You have responded nobly in the past.

Through Providence and kindness of nature we have escaped the dire disasters that have fallen to many of our sister townships. Through this depression which has come to the people everywhere as well as in Novi township you will be pleased to know that the Red Cross has delivered to many in Novi, 648 garments made from yard goods and 1478 factory made garments, making a total of 2126.

Can we not respond to this roll call with one membership in each family?

D. B. Donnelson, Red Cross Director.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING

The following story was taken from Tuesday's Detroit Free Press:

The next time Ernest R. Jones, 45 years old, 15238 Greenlawn Ave., goes hunting he won't wear a hat that even remotely resembles a coonskin. Tired from chasing pheasants Monday afternoon near the House of Correction farm, Jones sat down behind a stump to rest. Up from behind a nearby bush popped William Hills, 273 W. Cady Ave., spotted Mr. Jones' hat and blazed away. Jones was taken to Redford Receiving hospital and five shotgun pellets removed from his head and hat. Mr. Hills apologized and pointed out that luckily, he was a very poor shot even at a distance of 30 feet.

LISTEN TO FRANK F. ROGERS

The evidence piles up that Michigan voters would be very unfair to their own interests and their own pocketbooks if they approve the amendment to reduce the gas tax. This amendment will be voted on at the November 6 election.

The word of Frank F. Rogers, former highway commissioner of Michigan, a pioneer in road making, ought to mean something.

He states that some of the arguments being made in favor of cutting the gas tax are "an insult to the intelligence of the voters."

He points out the danger of more and other kinds of taxes for the people if the gas tax is reduced, and hence more money will have to be raised for state purposes. He says this, which should appeal to the thoughtful voter:

"There is no more sense in taxing our homes and farms to build and maintain roads for the big trucking firms now doing an enormous freighting business over them, than there would be to tax the people to build and maintain the railroads. They both serve the public but the latter always has and always expects to build and maintain its tracks. But now the trucking interests are asking that the gas tax be reduced.

"The main trunk line highways must be paved with more durable materials and made much stronger than otherwise would be necessary because of the enormous loads of freight daily moving over them. And the cost of upkeep is directly proportionate to the loads they carry.

"No method of measuring this wear and tear on the highways has ever been devised that is so fair and accurate as to determine the amount of fuel consumed to propel motor vehicles over them. Then why not tax all automobiles and trucks in proportion to the use they make of the roads?"

SPEAKING OF CIGARETTES

"No boy or young man under 22 should think of smoking cigarettes," a doctor connected with the University of Michigan faculty, said to us last week at one of the sessions of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association at Ann Arbor.

And to be fair about it, the doctor himself smokes.

He went on to tell the writer: "If you have any stock of tobacco companies (Well, do you think we have?) get rid of it within the next five years. There is going to be a big reaction on this smoking business. Just wait and see."

Across from us at the dinner of the TB association sat a coach of one of Michigan's junior colleges.

"Coach," we asked him, "what do you think of high school boys smoking cigarettes?"

"Well, Mr. Baldwin," he replied, "I know this. Give me five boys on the basketball floor—one who smokes and four who don't and let them start playing. Anyone who knows basketball, and is a good athletic observer who will stand and watch them for five minutes, will tell you which one smokes. When it comes to college athletics, I don't think the difference is so great but in high school there is no question in the mind of any good coach of the damaging effect of cigarette smoking."

An editor of one of the state's best county seat weeklies, sitting near us, spoke up:

"The other day my wife and I were playing golf and got to the seventh hole when a young woman, who was following us, came up to the tee. She was puffing and panting like a tractor. I don't know how it came up, but she mentioned that during the day she had smoked two packages of cigarettes."

We submit to any smart high school lad—or any other kind of a clever young man—that if he is wise and wants to make the most of life he will think a good long time before he ties up to a habit that may chain him for life. There's plenty of time to start smoking after 21.

DETROIT LOSES ITS OWN CHAMPIONSHIP

We shall not soon forget it—that wild, rioting day when Detroit lost the World's baseball championship to a fighting, snarling tribe of Wild West men from St. Louis, Missouri.

We saw the unforgettable game—through the generosity of a brother. We saw the Detroit Tigers (who said: "pussycats?") take the worst licking any World Series team ever has taken. In the crowd of howling thousands were we, when a peppery and spike-throwing Mr. Medwick faced the jeers and fruit-throwing of a bleacher crowd of thousands. For a few minutes we thought that blood might be spilled if the mad fever of the mob were not checked. Only a short distance from Judge Landis, we saw him hold his "mountain justice" court and send the fighting Mr. Medwick to the showers.

All of us at that great exhibition of crazy baseball and mad human emotions, saw the complete collapse of a once great and fighting baseball machine. We saw the over-touted "Schoolboy" Rowe weak and beaten. We saw the helpless Greenberg and we saw the pitiful battling of a team that was helpless before the sure-armed Mr. "Dizzy" Dean.

Well, we are all grateful for the title that the Tigers won. We got our minds off our trouble for a whole half summer and that's worth millions.

But Detroit lost its own world championship. (Whatever that means): The Detroit newspapers made supermen out of group of young men and a few veterans. They made a semi-god of Mr. Rowe and gave him the idea that he could lick any team on earth by simply coming out and looking at them. The bride-to-be of the "Schoolboy" was brought in weeks before the finish of the season and then they expected the schoolboy to keep his mind on baseball. The Tigers were feted and banqueted until their heads were swelled. No wonder they lost the final game. You can't lose half your sleep, be "wined and dined," and then be able to do the day's work. The mountains of wild publicity helped wreck the great Tiger team for that last battle. Maybe next year Manager Cochran can stop some of this idol worship and let the team be just baseball players and human beings.

But after all, winning the American League title was glory enough. We thank the Tigers for that. We hope they all enjoy spending that extra four thousand dollars. And during the winter they may ponder this true saying of Babe Ruth: "You're a hero today and a bum tomorrow."

WANDERING THOUGHTS

The business critics predict a tough winter but an active boom next spring.

* * *

"The average man," says the New York Herald-Tribune, is a capitalist." That is what we tried to say in this column recently.

* * *

Did you know that Michigan spends less money for education than it does for liquor? And that the annual cost of crime in the United States is 13 billions and the cost of school is two billions? And still we call ourselves civilized!

* * *

The pageant which will be put on as part of the program of the Methodist Centennial shows that the church of 100 years ago had great difficulties. And today it is still criticized, although it is the one institution that goes on through all the years. What, except the church, has Northville now that it had back in 1834?

* * *

No one has any "steam up" yet over the coming November election. The World's Series just had to be taken care of first. And now the time is so short before November 6 that we doubt if the politicians can get anyone very much excited over the claims of the various candidates. What a contrast to the fall of November, 1932, when politics was on every tongue!

* * *

Northville is now the western terminus of the beautiful parkway system that extends into Detroit. This village, already known as the most picturesque spot of Wayne County, will get more and more fame as one of the loveliest communities of the whole state. You can get no finer thrill than driving out now and seeing this parkway system while the glories of the autumn are making marvelous pictures on every side.

GIVE US MANY MORE WORLD SERIES

(Joe Haas in The Holly Herald)

Those who paid to see world series games just for the baseball in them, didn't get their money's worth. It was our fortune to witness all of the four games played in Detroit, and we never made a better investment. The study of the crowds, system and pep was worth the price. It is such things that keep people young, and do more to restore our country's equilibrium than all the government panaceas and nostrums that have been devised by the political brain trusters.

ON BUYING AT HOME

(The Zeeland Record)

There is a truism in this simple statement: the value of the home-town merchant depends upon two things, first the quality and quantity of the merchandise he has for sale; second, the vigor and manner in which he tells his home-town folks about it.

People in these modern times of fast motor transportation are often hard put to maintain continuous loyalty to their home-town merchants—especially if they live near large cities. The best way for any local merchant, whether he be in Birmingham or Lapeer, Midland, or St. Johns, Crystal Falls or Gladstone, to compete with larger centers of trade is to forever and ever keep telling human beings in his community about his wares. While this statement, published in a newspaper that depends upon advertising for its chief revenue, may seem prejudiced, it is, nevertheless the absolute truth.

Every time the local newspaper goes to press without the advertisement of some local business that has something to sell, that local business is not cooperating with other advertisers in the common effort to keep local citizens buying "at home."

OCT. 25 IS DEADLINE

(Murl DeRoe in Charlotte Republican Tribune)

The campaign is getting under way. Don't believe anything written or spoken in opposition to a candidate after October 25th.

Whatever is privileged and deserves to be said or printed, should be given to the voters on or before that date. All such charges are known today. The public is entitled to the facts concerning the viewpoints and personal character of men seeking its favor and support but there is not going to be any change in these facts between October 25 and election day. In other words, give everyone plenty of time to reply to any and all charges—if they deserve such courteous dignity. There is considerable merit in this paragraph from the October Valve World, house organ of the Crane Co., Chicago.

A newspaper writer, famed for the vitriol of his attacks on men of opposite political views, is noted also for his solitude. He has few friends among the enemy. The reason, he says, is simple: "I can't know a man and hate him." When Carl Sandburg, the poet, was a young man he was a socialist and worked on a radical newspaper. He was especially bitter in his attacks on Julius Rosenwald, the head of Sears, Roebuck. Each spoke of the other in acid terms. Later, they became acquainted, and, drawn together by a common interest in the life of Lincoln, became fast friends. Dr. Johnson, I think it was, who on entering a coffee house one morning, pointed to a man across the room and said: "I hate that man." "But you don't even know him," protested his friend, Boswell. "Of course I don't," answered the great lexicographer, "that's why I hate him."

Is Father interested in his children and in the school? Usually he is. Then why doesn't he take a more active part in the Parent-Teacher organization? Perhaps he has not been asked. Perhaps he has not been given a job to do. Very likely a specific task is just what he has been waiting for.

There are many things that a father might do that would be of value to our children and to the home. For instance, the father might organize a guidance counsellor's group, a group of business and professional men who could give our boys valuable assistance in choosing a vocation.

They might sponsor some athletic event, a Boy Scout troop, a school picnic, some hobby, or a trip to some industrial plant or museum. Because of their more varied contacts they could assist greatly in building interest and valuable programs for P. T. A. meetings. They could become better informed as to school problems and school needs. Last but not least, the men could visit the schools and thus gain first hand information of the working of the public school system.

If the above program of suggestions are put into operation, in part or in whole, we are sure to see an increase of interest in our boys and girls and their school work, and a greater home influence and understanding on the part of the parent.

Finally, this organization will cease to be a Mother-Teacher Association and become truly a Father-Mother-Teacher Association.

"My childhood has seemed so perfect to me that I am trying to do things like my mother did," said a woman, herself a mother of three children now.

Leaning back dreamily she continued: "I remember a troubled woman once came to my mother. 'How is it,' she begged, 'that your daughters are always so lovely while I am always having trouble with mine? Do tell me the secret.'

Recently in reading a biography of Disraeli, I was much interested in a statement he made concerning success. It was this: He attributed his success in never allowing his powers and ambitions to rest on failure.

We often wonder why some men succeed in life and others fail. There in that sentence seems to this writer's mind to lie the reason. Sometimes we are told successful men have all the luck; or that fate is kind to them.

Church News

First Baptist Church

K. S. North, Minister

Sunday services for October 21, are: Morning worship, 10:30 a. m.; Church school, 11:45 a. m.; B. Y. P. U., 6:30 p. m.; Evening worship, 7:30 p. m.

Midweek service, Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Methodist Episcopal Church

Horace H. Mallinson, Preacher

Our young people cannot be expected to take an interest in the church when there are so many older people who treat it with respect, but at the same time with indifference. The responsibility of Christian culture for everyone depends upon the individual. It cannot be delegated to any institution. Hence we need the church-going habit to help us to keep our Christian idealism. Come to church on Sunday and have your heart warmed and your intellect stirred.

Preaching service at 10:30 a. m., church school at 12 o'clock. We are studying Methodism as never before. Let us be intelligent about our own church. The young married folks are taught by the preacher.

Plans are completed for the big week of Oct. 28th-Nov. 4. The whole community will be benefited by this week's activities. It is open to everybody. Clear the dates—Oct. 28th to Nov. 4th.

First Presbyterian Church

Harold G. Whitfield, Minister

Sunday, Oct. 21 at 10:30 a. m. a service of worship will be held in this church. The members and their friends are asked to invite someone to the service.

The church school meets at 12:00 noon. Classes for all—special effort is being made to build up our adult section. There was one hundred per cent increase last week. "The Christian Dynamic" is the subject for the young men and women's class. What motive and stimulus are behind Christian Life and service? Why do we endeavor to be Christ-like in character and conduct?

The second meeting of our Christian Endeavor will be held Sunday evening in the church house. The supper will commence at 6:00 p. m., the worship and discussion groups to follow. Intermediates and Seniors Make it a point to be on hand!

The choir will meet for practice Thursday evening, Oct. 25 at 7:30. We rejoice in the contribution the choir is making to the service. We commend the leader and members.

St. Paul's Lutheran

"Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is." Hebr. 10,25.

People find all manners of excuses to cover their neglect of church-going. One man says: "I do not go to church on Sunday because I was never taught to go when I was young, so I did not form the habit." Another man declares: I do not go to church on Sunday because I was forced to go when I was young and it grew to be distasteful to me." Others have still other excuses: It is too far to go. It is too inconvenient. It takes too much time out of the only holiday in the week. The pastor's sermons are too long, too uninteresting, too caustic, too lofty, etc. etc.

All of which does not, of course, discount the fact that it is our Christian duty to hear the word. Besides, however, those who deprive themselves of the privilege of hearing the Word and worshipping with their fellow Christians take out of their lives one of the greatest blessings.

A great preacher once rightly said: "Through the week we go down into the valley of care and shadow. Our Sundays should be hills of light and joy in God's presence; and so, as time rolls by we shall go on from mountain-top to mountain-top, till at last, we catch the glory of the gate, and enter in to go no more out forever."

In holy duties let the day
In holy comforts pass away;
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

The hour of worship and Sunday school is at the usual time, 10 o'clock. The pastor will preach.

Catechumen instruction is held every Saturday morning, beginning at 9 o'clock in the church hall.

The half hour of Faith and Fellowship is broadcast on Sunday afternoon over station WXYZ, beginning at 1:30.

Holy Communion will be celebrated for the last time this year on Nov. 4th.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us!

Salem Federated Church

October 21, worship and preaching service at 10:30 a. m.

The sermon topic will be "Alone With God."

Bible school, 11:45 a. m. The lesson, "The Christian at Prayer," Matthew 6:5-15.

Novi Baptist Church

Beginning last Sunday, Rev. T. H. Shinn is giving a short talk on Baptism doctrine each Sunday morning before the sermon.

Church 10:30 and 8 o'clock.
Sunday school, 11:45.
B. Y. P. U., 7:00 p. m.
Tuesday evening, a prayer meeting will be held at 8:00 o'clock.

Nazarene Church

Robert A. North, Pastor

Bible school, 10:00 a. m.
Morning worship, 11:15 a. m.
Young People, 6:30 p. m.
Evangelistic service, 7:30 p. m.
Revival meetings now in progress.

Meetings held every night at 7:30 except Saturday. Rev. Chas. A. Jacobs of Charlotte is the evangelist. Miss A. L. Hieber of Ann Arbor plays the accordion and sings. If you are dead in trespasses and sins, come and hear this man of God exalt Jesus Christ as one who is able and willing to save you from sin. Or if you are like the Ephesian converts and never heard of a second work of grace come and hear Rev. Jacobs tell about the beautiful experience of Santification.

"Have ye received the Holy Ghost since ye believed?" (Acts 19:2).

Christian Science Churches

"Doctrine of Atonement" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, October 21.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Matt. 16:24): "Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 22): "Walking in Christ's demand, mortals experience suffering. This causes them, even as drowning men, to make vigorous efforts to save themselves; and through Christ's precious love these efforts are crowned with success."

Church of Our Lady of Victory

The Sunday services consist of two Masses at 8 a. m. and 10 a. m. The official ceremonial and prayers of the priest are in universal language of Latin. The sermon at Catholic services must certainly be in the language of the hearers.

Religious instructions for children are held every Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The October meeting of the Altar society will take place next Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 23, at the home of Mrs. J. N. McLoughlin.

The representative attendance at our sauer kraut dinner last Tuesday evening merits our real appreciation.

Conception of the term "creed" by those who have a wrong idea of tolerance in religion, has become very faulty. Human creeds are fallible. But not so is the creed demanded by God. The items of belief set down by Him must be accepted. They alone are the true principles from which to proceed.

Salem Congregational Church

Rev. Lucia M. Stroh, Minister

Services next Sunday 10:30 a. m. The pastor will continue with her sermon subject on "The Signs of the Times and the Lord's Second Advent."

The Sunday school anticipates launching a very vigorous campaign beginning next Sunday. "All" the members of the church and Sunday school are asked to enter in the contest with their finest endeavors and energy. Each child is requested to be present at 11:45 a. m. sharp.

Next Wednesday, Oct. 24, the Ladies' Auxiliary society will give a "Harvest Festival" in the town hall beginning at 1 o'clock, lasting all afternoon. From 5 o'clock on the ladies will serve one of their famous suppers. There will be a rich supply of lovely canned fruits, jellies, preserves, fresh fruits, potatoes, vegetables and baked goods for sale. Do not miss this extraordinary opportunity of enjoying a delicious supper and laying in a supply of home canned fruits.

Prayer meeting will be held next Thursday evening in the church. Choir practice every Friday evening in the church.

The Ladies' Auxiliary society will meet Thursday of this week with Mrs. Archie Collins on Sheridan Road, Plymouth. Dinner will be served at 12 o'clock. All are cordially invited to the dinner—meeting in the afternoon.

Presbyterian Church

The all-day study class of the Woman's Union will be held in the church house on Wednesday, Oct. 24th. The Foreign Study Book Review will begin at 11:00 o'clock and a pot-luck luncheon will be served at 12:30. Every lady is requested to bring one passing dish. The book, "Suzuki Looks at Japan," will be presented by Mrs. Ralph Hay and Mrs. Bruno Freydl. Mrs. W. H. Yerkes and Mrs. Mary Yerkes will act as hostesses. Everyone is urged to come and enjoy an instructive and also a pleasant social day together.

Elmer Heichman was very busy all last week remodeling a building. He has made a great change in the appearance of it and it will be used for his large trucks.

Mrs. Annice Knights started for Chicago Sunday. Her son, Waldo Taylor, will take care of the store which is now complete with all kinds of groceries.

All Masons in West Point Park are invited to attend a church service in Redford in the church near the Masonic Temple, Sunday night, Oct. 21, at 7 o'clock.

Homer Coolman received the sad news that his mother was seriously ill. She had visited all summer with her son and family. Homer started west to be with her.

Mrs. Woodworth had charge of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gillespie's home and children while they both were in New York for a week. They returned home Friday.

The Old Time Dancing Club from Northville, Farmington and Clarenceville will start their Friday dances in the West Point Community Hall, Friday, Nov. 9. This club is always made welcome by our community.

A very happy gathering of relatives and friends met last Wednesday to assist in surprising Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Owen, it being their twenty-second wedding anniversary.

Community singing and refreshments after the business meeting made the evening a very enjoyable one. Officers and teachers are putting forth every effort to make these meetings interesting.

The Ladies' Association of the Presbyterian church is preparing for a harvest-home supper Wednesday, Oct. 24, at 6:30 p. m. The Dixie Eight performers will be present as entertainers for the evening.

Regular meeting of the P. T. A. was held in Pierson school house Thursday evening. A large crowd attended as the result of a contest of the four rooms. Dr. Metzer of Detroit gave an interesting talk on the subject, "What the Schools Are Trying to Do to Promote the Health of the Children."

Pierson Team Wins

A game of baseball was played between Pierson and John Grace high school, Thursday, on the latter's diamond. It was a good game, Pierson winning.

Lawrence Way, Carl Arnold and Walter Garchow took turns pitching for the home team. Maurice Wolfe was the catcher.

"Songs and Dances of Many Lands"

"Songs and Dances of Many Lands" is the name of the program that the 3rd, 4th, and 5th grades are presenting as their part in the school fair Oct. 25 and 26.

Two school children, Dickie and Nancy Wixom, are talking about their geography lesson. Dickie finds the British Isles on the globe and immediately six Scotch lads and lassies step out. They sing "Lassie O' Mine" and do a Scotch dance. The Irish come next followed by Robert Avey and Arthur Heikkert as Englishmen. The German band with Grant Dunn as the leader provide the comedy part of the program. Uncle Sam, Calvin Breakey, next appears. Dickie and Nancy are very pleased to see him. Uncle Sam brings some cowboys from the Western States. Dickie at once wants to be a cowboy. The cowboys are soon joined by some Indians and together they sing "Home on The Range." Edwin Lee and Philip Roach sing the solo parts.

The children from many lands make a final appearance on the stage singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Teachers Attend Institute

The teachers of the Walled Lake Consolidated school attended the sixth district institute in Detroit last Friday and Saturday.

Inspiring addresses, discussion of improved methods and business of the Michigan Education Association made the days busy ones.

In the business session, resolutions were adopted condemning the second and third amendments to be voted on Nov. 6, on the grounds that lowering the gasoline tax would take more of the burden of road upkeep from those who use the roads, particularly the large trucking companies, and would make it necessary for real estate property taxes to carry the load in retiring of road bonds and other expenses. The portion of the amendment that prevented the levying of any other taxes against oil companies and automobile manufacturers were particularly cited as pernicious legislation.

LISTEN TO FRANK F. ROGERS

The evidence piles up that Michigan voters would be very unfair to their own interests and their own pocketbooks if they approve the amendment to reduce the gas tax. This amendment will be voted on at the November 6 election.

The word of Frank F. Rogers, former highway commissioner of Michigan, a pioneer in road making, ought to mean something.

He states that some of the arguments being made in favor of cutting the gas tax are "an insult to the intelligence of the voters."

He points out the danger of more and other kinds of taxes for the people if the gas tax is reduced; and hence more money will have to be raised for state purposes. He says this, which should appeal to the thoughtful voter:

"There is no more sense in taxing our homes and farms to build and maintain roads for the big trucking firms, now doing an enormous freighting business over them, than there would be to tax the people to build and maintain the railroads. They both serve the public but the latter always has and always expects to build and maintain its tracks. But now the trucking interests are asking that the gas tax be reduced.

"The main trunk line highways must be paved with more durable materials and made much stronger than otherwise would be necessary because of the enormous loads of freight daily moving over them. And the cost of upkeep is directly proportionate to the loads they carry.

"No method of measuring this wear and tear on the highways has ever been devised that is so fair and accurate as to determine the amount of fuel consumed to propel motor vehicles over them. Then why not tax all automobiles and trucks in proportion to the use they make of the roads?"

SPEAKING OF CIGARETTES

"No boy or young man under 22 should think of smoking cigarettes," a doctor connected with the University of Michigan faculty said to us last week at one of the sessions of the Michigan Tuberculosis association at Ann Arbor.

And to be fair about it, the doctor himself smokes.

He went on to tell the writer: "If you have any stock of tobacco companies (Well, do you think we have?) get rid of it within the next five years. There is going to be a big reaction on this smoking business. Just wait and see."

Across from us at the dinner of the TB association sat a coach of one of Michigan's junior colleges.

"Coach," we asked him, "what do you think of high school boys smoking cigarettes?"

"Well, Mr. Baldwin," he replied, "I know this. Give me five boys on the basketball floor—one who smokes and four who don't and let them start playing. Anyone who knows basketball, and is a good athletic observer who will stand and watch them for five minutes, will tell you which one smokes. When it comes to college athletics, I don't think the difference is so great but in high school there is no question in the mind of any good coach of the damaging effect of cigarette smoking."

An editor of one of the state's best county seat weeklies, sitting near us, spoke up:

"The other day my wife and I were playing golf and got to the seventh hole when a young woman, who was following us, came up to the tee. She was puffing and panting like a tractor. I don't know how it came up, but she mentioned that during the day she had smoked two packages of cigarettes."

We submit to any smart high school lad—or any other kind of a clever young man—that if he is wise and wants to make the most of life he will think a good long time before he ties up to a habit that may chain him for life. There's plenty of time to start smoking after 21.

DETROIT LOSES ITS OWN CHAMPIONSHIP

We shall not soon forget it—that wild, rioting day when Detroit lost the World's baseball championship to a fighting, snarling tribe of Wild West men from St. Louis, Missouri.

We saw the unforgettable game—through the generosity of a brother. We saw the Detroit Tigers (who said: "pussycats?") take the worst licking any World Series team ever has taken. In the crowd of howling thousands were we, when a peppery and spike-throwing Mr. Medwick faced the jeers and fruit-throwing of a bleacher crowd of thousands. For a few minutes we thought that blood might be spilled if the mad fever of the mob were not checked. Only a short distance from Judge Landis, we saw him hold his "mountain justice" court and send the fighting Mr. Medwick to the showers.

All of us at that great exhibition of crazy baseball and mad human emotions, saw the complete collapse of a once great and fighting baseball machine. We saw the over-touted "Schoolboy" Rowe weak and beaten. We saw the helpless Greenberg and we saw the pitiful battling of a team that was helpless before the sure-armed Mr. "Dizzy" Dean.

Well, we are all grateful for the title that the Tigers won. We got our minds off our trouble for a whole half summer and that's worth millions.

But Detroit lost its own world championship. (Whatever that means). The Detroit newspapers made supermen out of group of young men and a few veterans. They made a semi-god of Mr. Rowe and gave him the idea that he could lick any team on earth by simply coming out and looking at them. The bride-to-be of the "Schoolboy" was brought in weeks before the finish of the season and then they expected the schoolboy to keep his mind on baseball. The Tigers were feted and banqueted until their heads were swelled. No wonder they lost the final game. You can't lose half your sleep, be "wined and dined," and then be able to do the day's work. The mountains of wild publicity helped wreck the great Tiger team for that last battle. Maybe next year Manager Cochran can stop some of this idol worship and let the team be just baseball players and human beings.

But after all, winning the American League title was glory enough. We thank the Tigers for that. We hope they all enjoy spending that extra four-thousand dollars. And during the winter they may ponder this true saying of Babe Ruth: "You're a hero today and a bum tomorrow."

ON BUYING AT HOME

(The Zeeland Record)

There is a truism in this simple statement: the value of the home-town merchant depends upon two things, first the quality and quantity of the merchandise he has for sale; second, the vigor and manner in which he tells his home-town folks about it.

People in these modern times of fast motor transportation are often hard put to maintain continuous loyalty to their home-town merchants—especially if they live near large cities. The best way for any local merchant, whether he be in Birmingham or Lapeer, Midland, or St. Johns, Crystal Falls or Gladstone, to compete with larger centers of trade is to forever and ever keep telling human beings in his community about his wares. While this statement, published in a newspaper that depends upon advertising for its chief revenue, may seem prejudiced, it is nevertheless the absolute

Her Mother's Secret

"My childhood has seemed so perfect to me that I am trying to do things like my mother did," said a woman, herself a mother of three children now.

Leaning back dreamily she continued: "I remember a troubled woman once came to my mother. 'How is it,' she begged, 'that your daughters are always so lovely while I am always having trouble with mine? Do tell me the secret.'

"My mother laid her sewing aside and said simply: 'Do you want me to tell you the truth? It is very simple. Well, I'm always here.'

"'When the children come home they always know where to find me and they always come to me first to talk over the small affairs of the day. I'm never too busy or too tired to listen with real interest. They know I'll understand so they are not afraid to tell me their little problems. We laugh together over the funny things and I correct them when it is needed.'

"'When they go out I never let them feel sorry for leaving me alone. They know I'll be happily occupied. I send them off with a smile—My, how nice you look. I'm proud of you. Have a good time and when you come home I'll be awake. Come in and tell me all about it.'

"'That's all there is to my secret. Simple, isn't it?'

"No daughter with a mother like that could do anything that she could not tell all about it to her," and the beautiful woman smiled as she said: "It's worth everything to have memories of a mother like that."

The Family Romance

By MRS. L. E. WARNER

There is something wrong with my husband. We have been married 14 years. We have one son 9 years old. When we were married things looked very promising. My husband had a good business and he was interested in it and quick at thinking up things that would make it better. For the past seven years he has been losing his interest. He seems not to care anything about it now. Sometimes he doesn't even go to the shop. It has nothing to do with the depression. It began too long ago. He has lost his initative. I have helped him all I could. Two years after we were married I went right down town and worked with him. Things boomed for a while. His friends commented on it. Now I have most of the work to do, it seems. Have you any suggestions?—M. B.

One suggestion. Get out of the shop. Men like to manage their own affairs. Sometimes another man can make suggestions, but a wife never. It looks as if you had destroyed your husband's morale, snapped his energy and weakened his initative.

Take the thing home. Suppose you had a flourishing little business and married a man who was much more capable than you, who felt that he could be a great help to you. He goes into your office, he rearranges your belongings, he changes your policies, he throws out his chest and tells you that things are beginning to look up. Even your friends come in and tell you what a wonderful man your husband is and how much better his ways are than yours were. What do you do? You begin to look about for something else to create, something else to manage, something new to do. The joy in the old work has all been washed away in a flood of chagrin. You couldn't do the job. Your husband had to pick up the loose ends and make the business the success it is.

That is the way you would feel and you are a woman. Your husband is a man and his psychology is a little different. To be bolstered up by a woman, to have all his friends running to tell him what a remarkably clever wife he has, what a business success she is, and to quietly tease him about turning over his business to the other half of the house, is no less than galling to his pride.

Men are strong. They ought to be strong. They like to be strong. They can't bear to be beaten by a woman. In fact they haven't yet come to the point of really cherishing the idea of women doing man's work. Certainly no man finds any thing invigorating about having his wife do his work.

The wife who has to have something to do outside her home should go in for golf or swimming or psychology, philanthropy, religion, or club work. She should get herself elected president of the P. T. A. or D. A. R. or she should become a director on the board of an orphanage or a home.

There is a great need for the executive woman. There is a place for her. She can budget and plan and direct her home in one-half hour so the place for her may not be in the home. But certainly the place for her is not in her husband's shop. He needs to be the boss of that. He needs to be boss, and his wife should go there only to get her allowance or to cash a check.

THIS WEEK

By H. H. WHITE

Recently in reading a biography of Disraeli, I was much interested in a statement he made concerning success. It was this: He attributed his success in never allowing his powers and ambitions to rest on failure.

We often wonder why some men succeed in life and others fail. There in that sentence seems to this writer's mind to be the reason. Sometimes we are told successful men have all the luck, or that fate is kind to them.

This seems to be superficial and without good foundation. Very successful men can have tremendously bad luck as those who do not seem to be so successful.

Opportunity or the making of opportunities would be the better word than luck or fate. There are the sort of people who nothing would stop from being successful in any enterprise they encounter except death.

They seem to have that divine spark within them which never says die. It is the desire to use every natural gift within their power than let them lie dormant and idle. It is the will to do and overcome obstacles that spurs them on to fulfillment of their desires.

The world has only use for brave men who will take a crisis and make a success out of it. One of lesser determination would lay down and die.

Men succeed in life where others fail simply from the desire to win over all obstacels. Therein lies the secret. It is a simple truth. Those that know about it and use it are the ones who win in the journey of life.

This trial plan

PUTS YOU UNDER NO OBLIGATION

TO BUY AN Electric RANGE

Suppose you have taken advantage of this Trial Plan and placed one of our electric ranges in your kitchen. Suppose you have cooked on it every day, used it steadily for preparing all your meals, and found that for some reason you did not like it. What then? . . . You simply call any Detroit Edison office. In a very short time our men will call for the range and remove it at our expense, with no further inconvenience to you. You will have tried electric cooking without investing a penny—and that is the purpose of our Trial Plan, EVEN THOUGH YOU DO NOT KEEP THE RANGE. You are placed under no obligation whatever.

Here are the details of this easy way to try an electric range. We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, and let you use it for six months, removing it without charge if you do not like it. During this trial period, you pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Send in your application for a trial range today!

A study of one thousand families using an electric range showed a cooking cost of LESS THAN 1¢ A MEAL A PERSON

"Grand Canary" Coming Saturday, "Charlie Chan's Courage" Shows Here on Wednesday, October 24

"Grand Canary," the fascinating best seller, by A. J. Cronin, is Warner Baxter's next starring vehicle, coming to the Penniman Allen Theatre, on Saturday evening, Oct. 20. It is a truly magnificent love story, which gives Baxter one of his finest romantic roles.

The story opens with Baxter as an eminent young doctor and scientist boarding a ship for Canary Islands. His career is apparently wrecked, and he believes he is sailing to oblivion. On the same ship is Madge Evans, sailing from an unhappy marriage. Although they are irresistibly drawn to one another, their sense of honor prevents them from admitting their love.

When they reach Grand Canary, the largest island in the group, Baxter's scientific skill is summoned to stem a plague of yellow fever. His love for Madge has restored his self-respect, and his desire to aid mankind. The climax is reached when Madge contracts the dread disease, and he saves her life. His heroic work has restored his scientific standing, and they sail back to London to build a new life together. It is a colorful story, amid tropical settings of rare beauty.

In preparing the novel for the screen, Producer Jesse L. Lasky has brought in a strong cast of players to support Baxter. Marjorie Rambeau has the picturesque role of the woman who runs a hotel in the islands. Zita Johann plays the nurse in love with Baxter, who figures dramatically in his romance with Madge Evans. One of the interesting characters in the picture is Roger Imhof, portraying the retired prize fighter who joins Miss Rambeau in maintaining the comic relief of the drama. H. B. Warner is the staunch friend of Baxter, whose faith helps him through his darkest hours.

Others in the cast are Barry Norton, Juliette Compton, Gilbert Emery, John Rogers, Gerald Rogers, Desmond Roberts and Carrie Daumery.

Irving Cummings directed the picture, from the screen play, prepared by Ernest Pascal.

"CHARLIE CHAN'S COURAGE"

Charlie Chan, portrayed by Warner Oland, solves another bloodchilling mystery in the Fox picture "Charlie Chan's Courage," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday, Oct. 24.

Who threw the deadly knife that killed a faithful Chinese servant? Why did a pet parrot scream, "Help! Murder!" Who killed the bird, silencing that scream forever? Who had been murdered at a millionaire's lonely desert mansion . . . and where was the body?

There are the questions bristling forth from this story by Earl Derr Biggers that have to be solved by the enigmatic oriental detective created on the screen by Warner Oland. It is one of his most baffling mysteries.

In current literature Chan has supplanted Sherlock Holmes and even Philo Vance. On the screen Warner Oland has become definitely identified as Charlie Chan. So much so that letters addressed simply to "Charlie Chan, U. S. A." have been delivered to Oland.

The leading feminine role has been given to beautiful Drue Leyton, talented star of the Broadway stage, who makes her debut in a leading motion picture role in "Charlie Chan's Courage." She is one of the Fox debutante stars. Donald Woods has the juvenile lead opposite her.

"Charlie Chan's Courage" is based on Biggers' novel, "The Chinese Parrot," and was prepared for the screen by Seton I. Miller. George Hadden directed under the supervision of Producer John Stone.

READING FUN IN STORE FOR BOYS

Here's important news for the boys of America. THE AMERICAN BOY—YOUTH'S COMPANION, the nation's quality magazine for boys, has been reduced from $2.00 a year to $1.00. The three-year rate, formerly $3.50, has been reduced to $2.00.

"For a long time we have been seeking a way to reduce the cost of THE AMERICAN BOY to readers," states Griffith Ogden Ellis, editor. "Recently we have effected savings that make the cut possible, and we think boys will agree that the new price is big news on the reading front. We hope boys will help us to spread the good news by telling their friends."

Along with the cut in cost, the magazine's publishers are planning a magazine that will continue to set the pace in fiction, articles, and departments. The favorite characters of millions of boys will parade through THE AMERICAN BOY in new stories. Douglas Renfrew of the Royal Canadian Mounted, Hiderack, the red and gold collie, Bonehead Jim Tierney, the detective, will give the reader many exciting hours in the months to come.

William Heyliger, whose true-to-life, gripping vocational stories have won him wide acclaim from parents and librarians, as well as the hearty approval of boys, is working on new stories. Staff writers are interviewing famous coaches and athletes and world-renowned explorers, to bring boys the color and fun of sports and travel.

In short, THE AMERICAN BOY, under its new price, will continue to give boys a magazine that measures up to the best standards set by adult magazines. Send your subscription to THE AMERICAN BOY, 7430 Second Blvd., Detroit, Michigan. Enclose your name and address and the proper amount of money, and THE AMERICAN BOY will soon be headed your way, loaded with reading thrills.

A Child's Love

Four-year old Ellen was being taught to eat and enjoy all kinds of food, so she was also given spinach and rather often, she thought. She ate at her own pretty little table, in her nursery with her big Teddy-bear, as companion, always opposite.

As she sat down at a wee table one day, she glanced at it and sighed: "Spinach again! Oh Teddy dear if I didn't love you so dearly I'd give you this."

Company of Federal Jury Women Dine at Royal Anne Cafe—

Sixteen women of the U. S. Federal jury came out to Northville Saturday to visit the Detroit House of Correction. They were taken courteously through both the men's and women's division. It was the first visit for many of these women who live in Detroit and surrounding towns.

Previous to the trip to the House of Correction the women enjoyed one of the good dinners at the Royal Ann Cafe. Mrs. E. C. Hinkley was in the number.

King's Daughters Listen to Report By Mrs. Hendryx—

In her own inimitable way, "Aunt Ida" Hendryx brought to a good attendance of King's Daughters some of the inspiration which she received at the recent convention of King's Daughters held in Saginaw.

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. M. N. Johnson Tuesday evening.

Aunt Ida took her hearers by vivid description to the various sessions where they listened to the accounts of the many achievements of the organization during the past year. They even sat with her organization at the banquet table and tasted the "luscious butterscotch pie" enjoyed along with the other good things.

The local chapter was spurred on to further interest in the cause of helping its fellowmen by the reports of the work in education accomplished in hospitals, the fine results of the girls' camps and the general good cheer carried to others "In His Name," the motto of the King's Daughters.

Very significant was the remark made at the conference: "As long as there are King's Daughters there will be Christmas in the hospitals."

The order stands for working for others and cooperation. It is an interesting fact that Jacob Riis, the great New York philanthropist, was the first man to become a member.

Miss Ruth Gillis, the second delegate, who accompanied Mrs. Hendryx to Saginaw, added a few side lights on the convention to the previous report.

Altogether the evening was very profitable. Plans were made to hold an all-day meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the home of Mrs. Mary Stewart when pot-luck dinner will be served at noon and the experience in earning the dollars this summer will be told. At that time a new comforter will be started. Members will come prepared to sew.

Miss Imo Blanche Campbell Is Wedded to Mr. Lynn Fraser—

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Farley of Plymouth was the scene of a pretty wedding Sunday afternoon, when their daughter, Imo Blanche Campbell, became the bride of Mr. Lynn Fraser of Northville. The nuptials were read by Rev. P. Ray Norton.

The attendants were Miss Vaun Campbell, sister of the bride, and Mr. Leslie Fraser, brother of the groom.

The bride wore an afternoon frock of brown polka dot transparent velvet with a corsage of white baby 'mums. Her sister's frock was tile crepe, with which she wore a corsage of bronze 'mums and snapdragons.

The groom's brother, Merle Fraser, sang "At Dawning," by Cadman, and "Oh Promise Me" by DeKaven. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ward Curtin.

Mrs. Fraser was graduated from Plymouth high school with the class of 1928 and from Ypsilanti State Normal in 1932. Mr. Fraser was graduated from Northville high school with the class of 1926. They will make their home at 106 Summit street, Pontiac, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser received many beautiful gifts.

P.-T. A. Opens Season with Successful Gathering Thursday Evening—

Before an unusually large attendance of fathers and mothers, together with the teachers of our public schools, Mrs. Jean B. Chamberlain spoke very frankly on the relation of parents to their growing children.

Parents are prone to feel that when they have taken care of the physical needs of their children and sent them to school they have completed their duty, said she, neglecting the moral and spiritual training.

The great trouble which Mrs. Chamberlain learned from her wide contact with youth is the lack of understanding between parents and their children. A number of pitiful cases were cited by the speaker most impressive being that of a young girl who exclaimed when advised to talk it over with her mother, "Why, my mother and I haven't a single thing in common."

Parents should keep pace with their children and try to be sympathetic with the changing ideas, she maintained.

Paradoxical, almost seemed her further statement that mothers' first duty is to their children: "When children must be neglected for the sake of the club drop the clubs," said Mrs. Chamberlain.

The speaker presented some very valuable suggestions which were appreciated especially from a woman who has had experience in meeting the needs of youth and parents.

Contributing much to the pleasure of the evening were the vocal numbers beautifully rendered by Mrs. Dorothy Krainbrink, of Ionia. Mrs. Krainbrink sang "Songs My Mother Taught Me" and responded to an encore. Miss Reva Schrader accompanied her.

An orchestra, comprised of Edward and Bob Angove, Chas. Straus, Ida Altman, with Frances Alexander at the piano played very creditably.

A social hour during the serving of light refreshments gave opportunity for a mutual getting-acquainted time for both parents and teachers. Mrs. Jack Taylor and Mrs. M. J. Koldyke presided at the coffee urns.

Preceding the meeting the school rooms were open for the visits of parents with each teacher in his or her room to receive them.

The P.-T. A. president, Mrs. Philip W. Doron, feels justly gratified with the first meeting of the new year and urges a still further attendance, especially by the fathers of the school children.

Richard T. Baldwin and sons Paul and Philip, visited Miss Ruth Mary Baldwin at Albion college Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Boyd Is Showered with Gifts By Her Friends—

Mrs. Marvin J. Multop and Mrs. E. A. Grosvenor delightfully entertained a group of fifteen friends and neighbors at the former's home, Wing court, honoring their neighbor, Mrs. Jas. Boyd, in a Sunshine shower.

The afternoon was spent with cards and at its close the honoree was presented with many lovely gifts.

Refreshments were served. Guests from out of town were: Mesdames Anthony and Norbert Gallagher of Dexter, Mrs. Avery of Plymouth, and Mrs. Warby of South Lyon.

Mrs. Dora Coe Is Honored On Her Birthday—

Mrs. Dora Coe, who lives with her daughter, Mrs. Don Hamilton, on the Beck road, was entertained at a family party honoring her 84th birthday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Keith, at Farmington on Wednesday evening, Oct. 10. Twenty guests were present from Farmington, Northville, Oxbow Lake, Novi, and Windsor. Pedro was played during the evening at four tables. A very nice supper was enjoyed. The birthday cake was made by Mrs. Arthur Coe, and was very beautifully decorated with pink and green. The honor guest received many nice presents and wishes for many happy returns of the day.

Daughters of American Revolution Meet at Dibble Home—

The Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter, D. A. R. met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Fred A. Dibble, Penniman Ave., Plymouth. More than twenty members responded to roll call, and an interesting program was carried out.

Mrs. Dwight Randall gave an account of a meeting in the home of Mrs. Mooney, where a nurse from Ellis Island told of the work in the hospital on Island No. 3, where 175 patients are being cared for, some of them bed-ridden, and others able to be taught some self-supporting occupation.

Mrs. Charles L. Dubuar, leader of current events, brought out many facts concerning the county reorganization amendment. Mrs. Henry Baker told of municipal lotteries, and Mrs. John F. Root talked of Mussolini and his latest plans for building up stronger defense for his country. Mrs. Sherwin A. Hill described vividly Constitutional Hall, and passed many beautiful pictures illustrating her talk. Mrs. George H. Wilcox told of patriotic education being carried on by D. A. R. for children and adults. The local chapter is particularly interested in Crossmore School, North Carolina, sending a box of clothing each year to help the poor whites in this school. Another line of work sponsored by the patriotic education committee is conducting essay contests of historical nature in the schools of Plymouth and Northville.

The next regular meeting will be held in Northville Nov. 19, in the home of Mrs. Charles L. Dubuar.

Obituary

MRS. LOUISA V. CRYSLER

Mrs. M. O. Crysler died at the home of her niece, Mrs. Frank Ayers, on Lycaste avenue, Detroit, at the age of 87 years.

Mrs. Crysler was born in Kingston, Ontario and was a resident of Northville for many years when her husband was employed in the Globe Furniture company. She was a member of the Methodist church. After the death of Mr. Crysler three years ago, she went to Detroit to make her home with her niece.

Her health had been failing for the past two years. The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the home with interment in Grand Lawn cemetery.

Surviving are a brother and two sons, Harry and Ray Crysler, of Northville.

Default has also been made in the conditions of an agreement between William M. Phillips and Dorothy M. Phillips, his wife, holders of the legal title to the mortgaged premises at the date of said agreement, and the undersigned, extending the time for payment of the debt secured by said mortgage, which said extension agreement is dated February 9, 1931, and was recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds, on May 13, 1931, in Liber 2590, of Mortgages, on page 107. Said agreement provides that said mortgage shall continue to be a first lien upon the mortgaged premises and that said mortgage and all the covenants and conditions thereof shall remain in full force and effect, except as therein modified, and that failure to pay any part of the principal sum secured thereby or any interest payment thereof, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms thereof, or any other breach of any of the conditions of said mortgage or of said agreement, shall at the option of the undersigned, render the entire debt due forthwith without notice. There has been default in the conditions of said mortgage and said agreement in the failure to pay principal, interest and taxes due thereunder, which default has continued for more than thirty days, and accordingly the undersigned has exercised its said option, does hereby exercise the same, and the entire debt is rendered due forthwith, on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal and interest, the sum of Five Thousand Two Hundred Thirty-six and 98/100 ($5236.98) Dollars.

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 3rd day of January, A. D. 1935, at 12:00 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon, and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, at or before said sale, necessary to protect his interest in the premises, including taxes and or assessments. Which said premises are described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Dearborn, (formerly City of Springwells), in the County of Wayne, and State of Michigan and described as follows, to-wit:

CAST CHOSEN FOR "SUN-UP" ON NOV. 16TH

Carolina Mountain Story To Have Real Southern Accent

Rehearsals for the play "Sun-Up," a story of life in the Carolina Mountains, have been underway for two weeks. Members of the cast are rapidly memorizing their lines and are acquiring a real southern accent. Everything is expected to be in shape so that the play can be presented on Friday evening, Nov. 16.

Marion Turnbull will play the part of Emmy, the daughter of an old mountaineer, Jack Stubenvoll. Widow Cagle, the main character of the play will be portrayed by Peggy Blake. Henry Hoffman plays the part of Rufe, her son. Maurice Giles represents Sheriff Weeks. The others in the cast are: Bud, Cecil Giles; Preacher, James Hochkins; and the Stranger, Tom Carrington.

Special scenery will be painted for this play

Long Live "Pegassus"

(By Florence Johnson)

"Aw, Nerts! Who wants to paint a car red?"

"Well, can you think of a better color?"

"How about yellow? That's a nice loud color for a car. You want something that will 'catch the eye.'"

"You must remember that "Pegassus" isn't a car. She's a pet—or a liability or somepin."

Such, I presume, were some of the remarks which floated into the air on one of those nights which were made for painting old dilapidated Model T Fords.

The real owner is Scott Cole but the car automobile is really the club property of the T. M. B. club, consisting of twelve members of the sophomore class. It was they who were debating the weighty problem of painting all "Gussie" as she is lovingly termed, "Gussie" being derived from Pegassus—her real moniker. The argument was finally settled by choosing a solid black color with all the trimmings. Slogans and such being added as they were found. The main one is "Watch the Ford go by."

One Friday they even went to a football game. The one in which N. H. S. played Van Dyke, to be exact. They set out merrily at 2:30 p. m. the sides of Pegassus fairly bulging, and reached their destination sometime during the second half of the game. Record time, you say?

They did so want to chauffeur the team to and from their games, but for some unaccountable reason the idea missed. It might be that Coach Watts didn't care to have the boys set out in the morning to be sure of getting to wherever they were going in time for the game. I hope you understand though that "Gussie" isn't what she used to be. Time tells—so they say.

The owner says that she will run if given a combination of gasoline, coal, and tobacco juice—with lots of water. She gets quite thirsty I understand. And——occasionally they have a flat tire——but what's a flat tire among those who enjoy changing them?—(No remarks, please).

Now that I am nearing the end, no doubt you are wondering what all this prattle is about. If so, ask Scott Cole—or any of the members of the T. M. B. club. They will most likely tell you that it is none of your business. That's what they told me!

JUNIOR CLASS

(By Robert Angove)

Looking out with interest at the financial outcome of our candy and bake sale, the Junior class is busy making preparations for a Junior dance to be held November 2. The committees are planning a gay evening at twenty-five cents per person with excellent music to be provided.

The class profited ten dollars and ninety-seven cents on the bake sale and six dollars and twelve cents on its candy sale.

The class ring committee received a representative marketing class rings and expect to take orders immediately.

The class officers ask the cooperation of its members to promote record attendance.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

Track Letters

Several of the track candidates have complained because they have not received their letters. Because of the Student Council's lack of ready cash it is impossible at the present time to furnish the letters. The Council will give you your letters if you will only have patience for a while. A bill can't be paid for until there is money to pay for it and it is not possible to get the letters without the money with which to buy them.

The student council should be given many hearty congratulations for the way they have progressed. If anyone has any suggestions for buying the letters without the funds the Council will be very grateful to you.

"Knicker Fad"

Just who was that certain football player who started the so-called "Knicker fad" around the school last Thursday? We have our so-called hunches but they may be very wrong; he tends to be their captain. That gives this guilty young man away. Now just what were his reasons for starting this new "Short pants Society?" Surely it wasn't N-Club initiations starting so soon? It may have been to start a little excitement among he students. Then again, there may have been a second reason. This is the equation, less dough—re—me, less pants. This sounds logical because of the prolonged depression. Although it does sound logical, it is absolutely absurd.

Now comes the question of "What should be done to anyone who starts such a scandal? "The Rickets" are a very handy way to settle such a person as the one who started this. The N-Club settles their problems by this method. It's only a suggestion, so don't take me seriously.

COMMERCIAL NOTES

The honor roll in the typewriting room is beginning to look quite starry. Mary Louise Boyden, Dorothy Richardson and Rita Heatly have the most stars which indicates that they have done the most accurate work so far during the practice period.

Did you notice the large tenth car class in typewriting on Monday? Part of the crowd was the result of putting energy and some of it was the result of absent-minded gum-chewing.

Stanley Taylor has been trying to show up the type students lately with his snappy left-handed-one-finger, "Hunt and Peck" method of typewriting.

Nick Reechko, Vera Lewis and Juanita Elkington were the first of the Commercial Arithmetic class to finish the required work in addition, getting a perfect record on it.

If you see any bookkeeping students with worried and unhappy looks on their faces it probably is those pesky trial balances which just simply won't balance!

SOCIETY

Betty Bolton and husband, Melvin, and Opal Raymond of Plymouth, attended a dance at Newburg Saturday evening.

Scott Cole spent the week-end at Half Moon lake.

Bob Lulgard from South Lyon and Rose Mae Bedore and Clarence Bolton attended the Grand Riviera theater Sunday evening.

Hunt Is Held Friday

A Scavenger Hunt was held Friday October 12. A slip of paper with several articles written on it was handed to each couple. The list contained such articles as follows: Snakes, oil, saw-horse, ear-muffs, etc.

Refreshments were served at 10:00 p. m. Present were:

Tom McLoughlen, Charles Strautz, Marge Hills, Dayton Deal, Maryanna Condit, Robert Angove, Isabell Tibble, Thomas Gregory, Frances Alexander, Essie Nirider, Nancy McLoughlin, Stub Dickerson, Barbara Phillips, Bill Duguid, Betty Schrader, Bob Lyke, Ida Altman, Roland Morris, Dorothy Keanbrink, Ed Angove, Jean Baldwin, Tom Carrington of Ann Arbor.

Others were present from Redford.

Marian Schroeder spent Saturday in Detroit and attended the Quilt Exhibit while there.

DEPARTMENT NOTES

The World History class has had some very fine modeling turned in by Miko Zayti, Lawrence Parmenter, Nathan Kirby and Betty Rix.

The World History class have two very fine posters on exhibit. They were made by Erlene Walker and Eleanor Reed.

Thyrza Lester and Mary Anna Nelson visited the Art Institute and attended the lecture on Jamestown. They also made a very fine report to the class telling them all about one of the United States' first settlements.

The radio is being repaired and will be of a portable model when finished. The speaker and the unit will each have their separate cabinet. The purpose of making this into a portable model is to have the radio in various rooms when such an occasion arises to arrange.

DID YOU NOTICE

Nick Reechko and the way he acts? He's been "Punch Drunk" ever since the Melvindale game.

The ambitious "Seniors" selling hot dogs at the game? Washington or bust.

That one of our well known faculty members has become quite a baseball fan? He even lets us out of class. Nice fellow, this Thompson.

What a fine fix the reporters are in when they are sent on an assignment and can't even find out a teacher's age? A fine faculty we have here.

It's funny how football men can't get used to lipstick. They either wipe it off or take it away from you. Just question Babs Brinza.

Yellow knickers seem to bother a few of these playful football men? The best way to get rid of the knickers is to make him stop wearing them.

The pretty khaki trousers" C. S. has been wearing? Just because of a little thing like a dare!

Bob Lyke back in history class? Let that be a lesson to you, Bob.

How Bob Angove can make the Juniors behave at a class meeting? That's the way to do it, Bob.

That Lindsey Lewis "can't take it" when you say that the Cards can't play ball? You'll have to learn, Lindsey.

The bad boys that tried to break up the scavenger hunt Friday. The girls told the officers they were football men. But I don't believe it.

How Tom McLoughlin and Helen Christensen are limping? Horse back riding doesn't seem to agree with them.

PLEA FOR MILK FUND

This is a plea for anyone who wishes to help in what has been known in the past as The Milk Fund, this being only to help the kindergarten children who cannot afford to buy their own milk. This is a very worthy cause and the price of the milk is only fiteen cents a week or sixty cents a month. Anyone showing interest in this can help by getting in touch with the kindergarten teacher, Miss Anne Richards, phone 111.

"GUSSIE"

(By Irene Modos)

If a some late hour of the night, or some early hour of the day, you should happen to be disturbed from a peaceful slumber by some uncanny noise, that sounded something like the Brail Brand, from Tin Pan Alley, don't start throwing things from Big Ben alarm clocks to the bed springs out of the window in the direction of that noise, because it might accidentally be "Gussie," either stepping out or just pulling in.

Now don't tell me you don't know who "Gussie" is. In case you don't, I'll tell you something about "Gussie" so you'll know what to expect if you should happen to meet "Gussie" somewhere or somehow.

"Gussie" is Scott's "Old Faithful." The Model T. Ford flivver with a streamline like the Michigan Central railroad's new box-cars.

She is a good ol' car even if her voice (horn to you) sounds like a frog with tonsilitis, and her back (axle) is weak with lumbago. She's had rheumatism in only three feet and needed only three new shoes and one spark plug. It isn't really necessary to mention the fact that she's run out of gasoline about three times because she gets extremely thirsty for gasoline, as well as water, sometimes. Even if she does go up a hill sounding like a flying express, she can make it down hill anyday almost as quiet as a cyclone with bells on. Another star she should receive to her credit is that she can turn the corner with one wheel-the spare as that!

"Gussie" might be third, fourth (or even sixth) hand, but Scott paid the whole sum of nine dollars and fifty cents for her. Would you pay a sum that small for such a dandy pile of ju—oops! I mean car?

She's going to get a physical examination and a new winter coat, now that the cold weather is coming.

"Gussie" spent her vacation at Half Moon Lake this summer. She took a 800-mile drive this summer, standing up, but she is only guaranteed for a ten-mile radius.

She is prominent on the social side, as she escorts and chaperons Scott and the lady friend in the evening as well as she does often in the day time.

One great sorrow she has in her old age, is that she hasn't been christened. Her owner hasn't been able to save enough money to buy some Champagne to christen her with. If someone will do a little donating, we'll have a party. You see she hasn't been really christened "Gussie," we only call her "Gussie." (Do you get the point?) I don't.

Now that you've met "Gussie" please have some respect for her and when you take a ride in her, please brush off your clothes and scrape the dirt off your shoes before you jump in.

THE OBSERVATION COLUMN

Probably everyone has observed this person, but if some one hasn't I shall observe him for their benefit.

He is of medium heighth, dark hair, which is kept nicely combed, in pompadour style. Even though he is a new member to our vicinity, he has so far given much rivalry.

During the fair he did a lot of "trucking" with a Ford car for the seniors (and has a very bad habit of running red lights when others tell him to.)

His hobbies seem to be driving a Ford car, writing notes (to certain people) and making dates (with certain people) even though he does act quiet.

All around, he is a very nice chap.

If you don't recognize this person—try your luck next week.

Teacher's Who's Who

(Miss Dorcas E. Corrir)

Born in Owosso, Michigan, a long time ago (refuses to give her age), on a bright and sunny morning. At the age of six she started school at Corunna. Ten years later she was graduated from there with high honors. Her favorite pastime seems to be reading books and she doesn't care whether they are mystery or love stories. After graduating from Corunna she attended Michigan State Normal college, where she taught mathematics during her Junior and Senior years. She was also Editor of their Senior Year Book. She taught school at Ypsilanti for six months before coming to Northville. Last year she was director of the Junior play which was a great success. She has been very successful in the art. She dislikes very much to be interviewed, but by just talking to one she gives all the information that is needed, excepting her age.

N. H. S. MEETS TRENTON THERE IN HARD GAME

Team's Chances Look Better After Rest of Two Weeks

N. H. S. meets the very strong Trenton team today. Northville in the past two years playing Trenton has lost both games, but this year Northville is out for revenge, vowing not to take another defeat from the Trenton lads. The starting line-up is still uncertain, but it probably will be as follows:

L. E.—Nirider.
L. T.—Strautz.
L. G.—McGee.
C.—Bray.
R. G.—Bord.
R. T.—Toussaint.
R. E.—Porter.
R. H.—Deal.
L. H.—Bender (Captain)
F. B.—Reechko.
Q.—Marburger.

Trenton was league champions last year and Northville will be out to hand them a defeat.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Violet M. Booth

Violet was born when the snow was falling quietly, so that probably accounts for her quietness (?) She was born on December 23, 1915, in Detroit, on West Grand Blvd. Soon after that the family moved to Redford. A few years later they moved back to Detroit for a year and a half and then to Northville where they have lived for about ten years. They trailed their tracks back to Redford again, and finally to Northville where she hopes to stay.

She is another Senior who doesn't care for her middle name, but just call her "Melissa"—she has a certain feeling toward that name!

Her favorite hobby is reading and she loves to travel. She has been down south and enjoyed it. She's fond of golfing and swimming. (Show me a Booth who doesn't like golf.)

She attended Redford high for her ninth grade, Miami, Florida, for the tenth, and Northville for the eleventh and twelveth grades.

After graduating from Northville school, Violet would like to take a beauty operator's course.

Eleanor Katherine Booth

Eleanor first saw the light of day on January 16, 1916, in Detroit, although her home was in Redford. She, like her sister, has spent most of her past life in moving. First she lived in Redford for two years, then in Northville two years, then in Detroit, where she went to Pattengill school one year, next to Redford, where she attended Five Point and Burgess schools, four years, and again Northville for five years. They moved back to Redford for her ninth and tenth grades and back to Northville again for her eleventh and twelfth years.

She enjoys going to baseball games (preferably to see the Tigers win) and is fond of playing, as well as attending, hockey games. She likes to go to shows and her hobby is golf (another true Booth). She enjoys doing things she is told not to do. By the way, she will have the public know that she is no relation to John Wilkes Booth.

She intends to attend the Detroit Business Institute after graduating.

A FOOTBALL GAME

(By William Owen)

One night I dreamed a dream so true
I woke in the morning all black and blue.
I dreamt of football, of a game so fine
Filled with runs, and downs, and iodine.
It was the last of the fourth, ten to go
The team lined up and time went slow;
We grabbed the ball and sprinted wide,
Thrown for a loss; five yards, our side.
Just seconds to go, last down for us,
So far to go, we've got to run!
We called a huddle, got the play;
Going for a touchdown, fun, I'll say.
I circled the end, going like heck,
Twenty-six men, I believe, were checked.
One great surge, over the bedstead I went;
No bumps on my head, but I carry a dent.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Do you, or do you not, like the pep meetings we are having this year?

Adelma Boyd—"At noon when our pep meetings are held it is disturbed by students coming back to school. I think it would be better if it was held just before the team leaves for the games."

Violet Johnson—"The pep meetings that we have this year are all right in my opinion. I do think that if they were held directly after school on the day of the game they would be more enthusiastic."

Dayton Deal—"By having the pep meetings at noon the students sort of lose interest, by having it before the boys leave for the field it would be more interesting and would have the football fellows at their highest pitch."

Eddie Bender—"I think the pep meetings have been all right so far but lots of people think its the fault of the cheer leaders but without the cooperation of the student body they are helpless."

Ken Porter—"If the pep meetings were held just before the team leaves for the field, I think it would be better because it would make more of the students want to see the game. No one seems to yell, they simply sit around and expect the next man to do their yelling for them."

C. Myers—"I think pep meetings so far this year have been under the usual standard. I think it is both the fault of the cheer leaders and student body at large. People that don't come to these pep meetings and the game always have something to say about each player's faults and not having any pep. Why should the player have it if the student body at large doesn't?"

Winnie McCardle—"I think the pep meetings are as good as usual but the students just aren't yelling and showing their school spirit as they should. Perhaps it would be better to hold them before the boys go to the field. We could try that for a few times and find out."

Bill McGee—"I think it ought to be held before the game. Because when it is held at noon, the students don't seem to put the spirit into the yells like they would if it was held just before the game. It would also give the boys more spirit to play."

Tom McLoughlin: "The pep meetings this year are well conducted and with the large staff of "yell leaders," we should have good meetings. I also think that if the pep meetings were held just before the team left for the field there would be much more school spirit and the team would be more pepped up."

SENIOR CLASS AND GIRL SCOUTS WILL SELL HOLIDAY CARDS

It has been officially announced that the senior class and the Girl Scouts will sell Christmas cards this year.

The cards are both inexpensive, and of very good quality.

The senior class and the Girl Scouts will appreciate the town's support and cooperation in this activity. The Girl Scouts will begin their sale of cards on the twenty-third of this month and will continue through the thirty-first.

The senior class will be selling their cards all the time up to December 25.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores.

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Bert E. Reiff and Kathryn E. Reiff, his wife, of the City of Detroit, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, to Detroit Housing Corporation, a Delaware Corporation, dated the 5th day of April, A. D. 1927, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Wayne and State of Michigan, on the 11th day of April, A. D. 1927, in liber 1925 of Mortgages, on page 43, which said mortgage was thereafter on, to-wit, the 11th day of April, A. D. 1927, assigned to The Columbia Life Insurance Company, an Ohio Corporation, and recorded on April 11, 1927, in the Office of the Register of Deeds for said County of Wayne, in Liber 159 of Assignments of Mortgages, on page 295.

Default has also been made in the conditions of an agreement between Harold P. Glazier and Edna G. Glazier, his wife, holders of the legal title to the mortgaged premises at the date of said agreement, and the undersigned, extending the time for payment of the debt secured by said mortgage, which said extension agreement is dated May 5, 1932, and was recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on May 18, 1932, in Liber 2649, of Mortgages, on page 131. Said agreement provides that all the covenants and conditions thereof shall remain in full force and effect, except as therein modified, and that failure to pay any part of the principal sum secured thereby or any interest payment thereon when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms thereof, or any other breach of any other of the conditions of said mortgage or of said agreement shall at the option of the undersigned, render the entire debt due forthwith without notice. There has been default in the conditions of said mortgage and said agreement in the failure to pay the principal and interest due thereunder, which default has continued for more than thirty days and accordingly the undersigned has exercised its said option, does hereby exercise the same, and the entire debt is rendered due forthwith; on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice, for principal, interest, and taxes, the sum of Seven Thousand One Hundred Fifty-four and 62/100 ($7154.62) Dollars.

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 8th day of November, A. D. 1934, at 12:00 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, at or before said sale, necessary to protect its interest in the premises, including taxes and/or assessments. Which said premises are described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Detroit, in the County of Wayne, and State of Michigan and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot Forty-three (43) Glendale Gardens Subdivision of the west half of the northeast quarter of Section 29, Town 1 South, Range 11 East, Greenfield Township, according to the plat thereof as recorded in Liber 23, of Plats, page 24, Wayne County Records and more commonly known as 13228 Mendota.

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by John Suminski and Bertha Suminski, his wife, of the City of Detroit, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, to Detroit Housing Corporation, a Delaware Corporation, dated the 4th day of April, A. D. 1927, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds, for the County of Wayne and State of Michigan, on the 15th day of April, A. D. 1927, in liber 1922 of Mortgages, on page 305; which said mortgage was thereafter assigned by said Detroit Housing Corporation to The Columbia Life Insurance Company, an Ohio Corporation, under date of April 14th, 1927, which said assignment of mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wayne County, Michigan, on April 15th, 1927, in Liber 159, of Assignments of Mortgages, on page 511;

Default has also been made in the conditions of an agreement between Helen Suminski, an unmarried woman, holder of the legal title to the mortgaged premises at the date of said agreement, and the undersigned, extending the time for payment of the debt secured by said mortgage, which said extension agreement is dated the 28th day of April, 1932, and was recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds, on May 10th, 1932, in Liber 2647, of Mortgages, on page 306. Said agreement provides that said mortgage shall continue to be a first lien upon the mortgaged premises and that said mortgage and all the covenants and conditions thereof shall remain in full force and effect, except as therein modified, and that failure to pay any part of the principal sum secured thereby or any interest payment thereon, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms thereof, or any other breach of any other of the conditions of said mortgage or of said agreement, shall at the option of the undersigned, render the entire debt due forthwith without notice. There has been default in the conditions of said mortgage and said agreement in the failure to pay principal and interest due thereunder, which default has continued for more than thirty days, and accordingly the undersigned has exercised its said option, does hereby exercise the same, and the entire debt is rendered due forthwith; on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal, interest and taxes, the sum of Eight Thousand Two Hundred forty-six and 07/100 ($8,246.07) Dollars.

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statue of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 25th day of October, A. D. 1934, at 12:00 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the county of Wayne is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, at or before said sale, necessary to protect its interest in the premises, including taxes and/or assessments. Which said premises are described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Detroit, in the County of Wayne, and State of Michigan and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot Eighty (80) of Smart Farm Sub. of part of fractional section 9, Town 2 South, Range 11 east, part of P. C. 41 and 36, Springwells Township, according to the plat thereof as recorded in Liber 34, pages 32 and 33, Wayne County Records, and more commonly known as 5612 Lonyo.

CAST CHOSEN FOR "SUN-UP" ON NOV. 16TH

Carolina Mountain Story To Have Real Southern Accent

Rehearsals for the play "Sun-Up," a story of life in the Carolina Mountains, have been underway for two weeks. Members of the cast are rapidly memorizing their lines and are acquiring a real southern accent. Everything is expected to be in shape so that the play can be presented on Friday evening, Nov. 16.

Marion Turnbull will play the part of Emmy, the daughter of an old mountaineer. Jack Stubenvoll, Widow Cagle, the main character of the play will be portrayed by Peggy Blake. Henry Hoffman plays the part of Rufe, her son. Maurice Giles represents Sheriff Weeks. The others in the cast are: Bud, Cecil Giles; Preacher, James Hochkins; and the Stranger, Tom Carrington.

Special scenery will be painted for this play.

Long Live "Pegassus"

(By Florence Johnson)

"Aw, Netta! Who wants to paint a car red?"

"Well, can you think of a better color?"

"How about yellow? That's a nice loud color for a car. You want something that will catch the eye."

"You must remember that 'Pegassus' isn't a car. She's a pet—or a liability of [illegible]."

Such, I presume, were some of the remarks which floated into the air on one of those nights which were made for painting old dilapidated Model-T Fords.

The real [illegible] is Scott Cole, but the [illegible] automobile is really the chief possession of the T. M. B. club, consisting of twelve members of the [illegible] class. It was they who were [illegible] the weighty problem of painting "[illegible]" as she is lovingly [illegible]. ([illegible] being derived from Pegassus, her real moniker). The argument was finally settled by giving her a solid black color with all the [illegible]. Slogans and such being added as they were found. The main one is "Watch the Ford go by!"

One Friday they [illegible] went to a football game. The one in which N. H. S. played Van Dyke to be exact. They set out merrily at 2:30 p. m., the sides of Pegassus fairly bulging, and reached their destination sometime during the second half of the game. Record time, you say?

They did so want to chauffeur the team to and from their games, but for some unaccountable reason the idea missed. It might be that Coach Watts didn't care to have the boys set out in the morning to be sure of getting to wherever they were going in time for the game. I hope you understand though, that "Gussie" isn't what she used to be. Time tells—so they say.

The owner says that she will run if given a combination of gasoline, coal and tobacco juice—with lots of water. She gets quite thirsty I understand. And—occasionally they have a flat tire—but what's a flat tire among those who enjoy changing them? (No remarks, please).

Now that I am nearing the end, no doubt you are wondering what all this prattle is about. If so, ask Scott Cole—or any of the members of the T. M. B. club. They will most likely tell you that it is none of your business. That's what they told me!

JUNIOR CLASS

(By Robert Angove)

Looking out with interest at the financial outcome of our candy and bake sale, the Junior class is busy making preparations for a Junior dance to be held November 2. The committees are planning a gay evening at twenty-five cents per person with excellent music to be provided.

The class profited ten dollars and ninety-seven cents on the bake sale and six dollars and twelve cents on its candy sale.

The class ring committee received a representative marketing class rings and expect to take orders immediately.

The class officers ask the cooperation of its members to promote record attendance.

Costly Delusion

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

Track Letters

Several of the track candidates have complained because they have not received their letters. Because of the Student Council's lack of ready cash it is impossible at the present time to furnish the letters. The Council will give you your letters if you will only have patience for a while. A bill can't be paid for until there is money to pay for it and it is not possible to get the letters without the money with which to buy them.

The student council should be given many hearty congratulations for the way they have progressed. If anyone has any suggestions for buying the letters without the funds the Council will be very grateful to you.

"Knicker Fad"

Just who was that certain football player who started the so-called "Knicker fad" around the school last Thursday? We have our so-called hunches but they may be very wrong; he tends to be their captain. That gives this guilty young man away. Now just what were his reasons for starting this new "Short pants Society?" Surely it wasn't N-Club initiations starting so soon? It may have been to start a little excitement among the students. Then again, there may have been a second reason. This is the equation, less dough—me, less pants. This sounds logical because of the prolonged depression. Although it does sound logical, it is absolutely absurd.

Now comes the question of "What should be done to anyone who starts such a scandal?" "The Rickets" are a very handy way to settle such a person as the one who started this. The N-Club settles their problems by this method. It's only a suggestion, so don't take me seriously.

COMMERCIAL NOTES

The honor roll in the typewriting room is beginning to look quite starry—Mary Louise Bogden, Dorothy Richardson and Rita Henly have the most stars which indicates that they have done the most accurate work so far during the practice period.

Did you notice the large tenth [illegible] class in typewriting on Monday? Part of the crowd was the result of untiring energy and some of it was the result of absent-minded [illegible].

Stanley Taylor has been trying to show up the type students lately with his [illegible] method of typewriting.

[illegible] were the first of the Commercial Arithmetic class to [illegible] the required work in addition, getting a perfect record on [illegible].

If you see any bookkeeping students with worried and unhappy looks on their faces it probably is those pesky trial balances which just simply won't balance!

SOCIETY

Betty Bolton and [illegible] Melvin, and Opal Raymond of Plymouth, attended a dance at Newburg Saturday evening.

Scott Cole spent the week-end at Half Moon lake.

Bob Lulgard from South Lyon and Rose Mae Bellore and Clarence Bolton attended the Grand Riviera theater Sunday evening.

Doris Beasley attended the Wixom dance with her parents Friday night.

Lena Coe spent the week-end with her cousin at Walled lake.

Ada Wheaton attended the wedding of Miss Imo Campbell and Lynn Fraser at Plymouth Sunday afternoon.

Marion Turnbull, Jane Grosvenor and Violet Johnson attended the Plymouth theater Saturday evening.

Helen Johnson went to the show at Plymouth Sunday evening.

Dorothy Tyler visited friends and relatives in Lansing Sunday.

Marguerite Norton spent Wednesday and Thursday evenings in Detroit with friends.

Barbara Phillips attended a tea dance at the Colony Club with Dawson Taylor.

Phyllis Flaherty, Paul Beard, Flora Mae Conklin and Bob Brey attended a show in Detroit Saturday night.

Winifred McCardle was a guest in Detroit over the week-end.

Vera Lewis visited with Betty Clark over the week-end.

Edythe Davis attended the Redford theatre Saturday evening.

Avis Perry attended a shower Friday evening at the home of Miss Janice Gotro.

Marguerite Norton attended the Plymouth theatre Sunday night.

Hunt Is Held Friday

A Scavenger Hunt was held Friday October 12. A slip of paper with several articles written on it was handed to each couple. The list contained such articles as follows: Snakes, oil, saw-horse, ear-muffs, etc.

Refreshments were served at 10:00 p. m. Present were:

Tom McLoughlen, Charles Strautz, Marge Hills, Dayton Deal, Maryanna Condit, Robert Angove, Isabell Tibole, Thomas Gregory, Frances Alexander, Essie Nirider, Nancy McLoughlin, Stuo Dickerson, Barbara Phillips, Bill Duguid, Betty Schrader, Bob Lyke, Ida Altman, Roland Morris, Dorothy Keanbrink, Ed Angove, Jean Baldwin, Tom Carrington of Ann Arbor.

Others were present from Redford.

Marian Schroeder spent Saturday in Detroit and attended the Quilt Exhibit while there.

DEPARTMENT NOTES

The World History class has had some very fine modeling turned in by Mike Zayti, Lawrence Parmenter, Nathan Kirby and Betty Rix.

The World History class have two very fine posters on exhibit. They were made by Erlene Walker and Eleanor Reed.

Thirza Lester and Mary Ann Nelson visited the Art Institute and attended the lecture on Jamestown. They also made a very fine report to the class telling them all about one of the United States' first settlements.

The radio is being repaired and will be of a portable model when finished. The speaker and the unit will each have their separate cabinet. The purpose of making this into a portable model is to have the radio in various rooms when such an occasion arises to listen in.

DID YOU NOTICE

Nick Reechko, and the way he acts? He's been "Punch Drunk" ever since the Melvindale game.

The ambitious "Seniors" selling hot dogs at the game? Washington or bust.

That one of our well known faculty members has become quite a baseball fan? He even lets us out of class. Nice fellow, this Thompson.

What a fine fix the reporters are in when they are sent on an assignment and can't even find out a teacher's age? A fine faculty we have here.

It's funny how football men can't get used to lipstick. They either wipe it off or take it away from you. Just question Babs Brinza.

Yellow knickers seem to bother a few of these playful football men? The best way to get rid of the knickers is to make him stop wearing them.

The pretty "khaki trousers" C. S. has been wearing? Just because of a little thing like a dare!

Bob Lyke back in history class? Let that be a lesson to you, Bob.

How Bob Angove can make the Juniors behave at a class meeting? That's the way to do it, Bob.

That Lindsey Lewis "can't take it" when you say that the Cards can't play ball? You'll have to learn, Lindsey.

The bad boys that tried to break up the scavenger hunt Friday. The girls told the officers they were football men. But I don't believe it.

How Tom McLoughlin and Helen Christensen are limping? Horse back riding doesn't seem to agree with them.

PLEA FOR MILK FUND

This is a plea for anyone who wishes to help in what has been known in the past as The Milk Fund, this being only to help the kindergarten children who cannot afford to buy their own milk. This is a very worthy cause and the price of the milk is only fifteen cents a week or sixty cents a month. Anyone showing interest in this can help by getting in touch with the kindergarten teacher, Miss Anne Richards, phone 111.

"GUSSIE"

(By Irene Modos)

If a some late hour of the night, or some early hour of the day, you should happen to be disturbed from a peaceful slumber by some uncanny noise that sounded something like the Brall Brand, from Tin Pan Alley, don't start throwing things from Big Ben alarm clocks to the bed springs out of the window in the direction of that noise because it might accidentally be "Gussie," either stepping out or just pulling in.

Now don't tell me you don't know who "Gussie" is. In case you don't, I'll tell you something about "Gussie" so you'll know what to expect if you should happen to meet "Gussie" somewhere or somehow.

"Gussie" is Scott's "Old Faithful," The Model T. Ford flivver with a streamline like the Michigan Central railroad's new box-cars.

She is a good ol' car even if her voice (horn to you) sounds like a frog with tonsilitis, and her back (axle) is weak with lumbago. She's had rheumatism in only three feet and needed only three new shoes and one spark plug. (It isn't really necessary to mention the fact that she's run out of gasoline about three times because she gets extremely thirsty for gasoline as well as water, sometimes. Even if she does go up a hill sounding like a flying express, she can make it down hill anyday almost as quiet as a cyclone with bells on. Another star she should receive to her credit, is that she can turn the corner with one wheel—the spare at that!

"Gussie" might be third, fourth (or even sixth) hand, but Scott paid the whole sum of nine dollars and fifty cents for her. Would you pay a sum that small for such a dandy one of ju—looks! I mean car?

She's going to get a physical examination and a new winter coat, now that the cold weather is coming.

"Gussie" spent her vacation at Half Moon Lake this summer. She took a 800-mile drive this summer, studding up, but she is only guaranteed for a ten-mile radius.

She is prominent on the social side, as she escorts and chaperons Scott and the lady friend in the evening as well as she does often in the day time.

One great sorrow she has in her old age, is that she hasn't been christened. Because hasn't bought able to save enough money to buy some champagne to christen her with. If someone will do a little donating, we'll have a party. You see, she hasn't been really christened. "Gussie," we only call her "Gussie." (Do you get the point?) I don't.

Now that you've met "Gussie," please have some respect for her and when you take a ride in her, please brush off your clothes and scrape the dirt off your shoes before you jump in.

THE OBSERVATION COLUMN

Probably everyone has observed this person, but if some one hasn't I shall observe him for their benefit.

He is of medium height, dark hair, which is kept nicely combed in pompadour style. Even though he is a new member to our vicinity he has so far given much rivalry.

During the fair he did a lot of "trucking" with a Ford car for the seniors (and has a very bad habit of running red lights when others tell him to.)

His hobbies seem to be driving a Ford car, writing notes (to certain people) and making dates (with certain people) even though he does act quiet.

All around, he is a very nice chap.

If you don't recognize this person—try your luck next week.

Teacher's Who's Who

(Miss Dorcas E. Corrin)

Born in Owosso, Michigan, a long time ago (refuses to give her age), on a bright and sunny morning. At the age of six she started school at Corunna. Ten years later she was graduated from there with high honors. Her favorite pastime seems to be reading books and she doesn't care whether they are mystery or love stories. After graduating from Corunna she attended Michigan State Normal college, where she taught mathematics during her Junior and Senior years. She was also Editor of their Senior Year Book. She taught school at Ypsilanti for six months before coming to Northville. Last year she was director of the Junior play which was a great success. She has been very successful in the art. She dislikes very much to be interviewed, but by just talking to one she gives all the information that is needed, excepting her age.

N. H. S. MEETS TRENTON THERE IN HARD GAME

Team's Chances Look Better After Rest of Two Weeks

N. H. S. meets the very strong Trenton team today. Northville in the past two years playing Trenton has lost both games, but this year Northville is out for revenge, vowing not to take another defeat from the Trenton lads. The starting lineup is still uncertain, but it probably will be as follows:

L. E.—Nirider.
L. T.—Stroutz.
L. G.—McGee.
C.—Bray.
R. G.—Bord.
R. T.—Toussaint.
R. E.—Porter.
R. H.—Deal.
L. H.—Bender (Captain)
F. B.—Reechko.
Q.—Marburger.

Trenton was league champions last year and Northville will be out to hand them a defeat.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Violet M. Booth

Violet was born when the snow was falling quietly, so that probably accounts for her quietness (?) She was born on December 29, 1915, in Detroit, on West Grand Blvd. Soon after that the family moved to Redford. A few years later they moved back to Detroit for a year and a half and then to Northville where they have lived for about ten years. They trailed their tracks back to Redford again and finally to Northville where she hopes to stay.

She is another Senior who doesn't care for her middle name, but just call her "Melissa"—she has a certain feeling toward that name!

Her favorite hobby is reading and she loves to travel. She has been down south and enjoyed it. She's fond of golfing and swimming. (Show me a Booth who doesn't like golf).

She attended Redford high for her ninth grade; Miami, Florida, for the tenth, and Northville for the eleventh and twelfth grades.

After graduating from Northville school, Violet would like to take a beauty operator's course.

Eleanor Katherine Booth

Eleanor first saw the light of day on January 16, 1918, in Detroit, although her home was in Redford. She, like her sister, has spent most of her past life in moving. First she lived in Redford for two years, then in Northville two years, then in Detroit, where she went to Pattengill school one year, next to Redford, where she attended Fire Point and Burgess schools, four years, and again Northville for five years. They moved back to Redford for her ninth and tenth grades and back to Northville again for her eleventh and twelfth years.

She enjoys going to baseball games (preferably to see the Tigers win) and is fond of playing, as well as attending hockey games. She likes to go to shows and her hobby is golf (another true Booth). She enjoys doing things she is told not to do. By the way, she will have the public know that she is no relation to John Wilkes Booth.

She intends to attend the Detroit Business Institute after graduating.

A FOOTBALL GAME

(By William Owen)

One night I dreamed a dream so true
I woke in the morning all black and blue.
I dreamt of football, of a game so fine
Filled with runs, and downs, and iodine.
It was the last of the fourth, ten to go,
The team lined up and time went slow;
We grabbed the ball and sprinted wide,
Thrown for a loss; five yards, our side.
Just seconds to go, last down for us,
So far to go, we've got to run!
We called a huddle, got the play;
Going for a touchdown, fun, I'll say.
I circled the end, going like heck,
Twenty-six men, I believe, were checked.
One great surge, over the bedstead I went;
No bumps on my head, but I carry a dent.

THE INQUIRING REPORTER

Do you or do you not, like the pep meetings we are having this year?

Adelma Boyd—"At noon when our pep meetings are held it is disturbed by students coming back to school. I think it would be better if it was held just before the team leaves for the games."

Violet Johnson—"The pep meetings that we have this year are all right in my opinion. I do think that if they were held directly after school on the day of the game they would be more enthusiastic."

Dayton Deal—"By having the pep meetings at noon the students sort of lose interest, by having it before the boys leave for the field it would be more interesting and would have the football fellows at their highest pitch."

Eddie Bender—"I think the pep meetings have been all right so far but lots of people think its the fault of the cheer leaders but without the cooperation of the student body they are helpless."

Ken Porter—"If the pep meetings were held just before the team leaves for the field I think it would be better because it would make more of the students want to see the game. No one seems to yell, they simply sit around and expect the next man to do their yelling for them."

G. Myers—"I think pep meetings so far this year have been under the usual standard. I think it is both the fault of the cheer leaders and student body at large. People that don't come to these pep meetings and the game always have something to say about each player's faults and not having any pep. Why should the player have it if the student body at large doesn't?"

Winnie McCardle—"I think the pep meetings are as good as usual but the students just aren't yelling and showing their school spirit as they should. Perhaps it would be better to hold them before the boys go to the field. We could try that for a few times and find out."

Bill McGee—"I think it ought to be held before the game. Because when it is held at noon, the students don't seem to put the spirit into the yells like they would if it was held just before the game. It would also give the boys more spirit to play."

Tom McLoughlin: "The pep meetings this year are well conducted and with the large staff of yell leaders we should have good meetings. I also think that if the pep meetings were held just before the team left for the field there would be much more school spirit and the team would be more pepped up."

SENIOR CLASS AND GIRL SCOUTS WILL SELL HOLIDAY CARDS

It has been officially announced that the senior class and the Girl Scouts will sell Christmas cards this year.

The cards are both inexpensive and of very good quality.

The senior class and the Girl Scouts will appreciate the town's support and cooperation in this activity. The Girl Scouts will begin their sale of cards on the twenty-third of this month and will continue through the thirty-first.

The senior class will be selling their cards all the time up to December 25.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at drug stores.

An attempt to push the U. S. Fleet through the Panama Canal as a single unit in 24 hours will be made November 1, when the Fleet concentrates in the Pacific.

MORTGAGE SALE

Default having been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by Bert E. Reiff and Kathryn E. Reiff, his wife, of the City of Detroit, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, to Detroit Housing Corporation, a Delaware Corporation, dated the 5th day of April, A. D. 1927, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Wayne and State of Michigan on the 11th day of April, A. D. 1927, in liber 1925 of Mortgages, on page 43; which said mortgage was thereafter on, to-wit, the 11th day of April, A. D. 1927, assigned to The Columbia Life Insurance Company, an Ohio Corporation, and recorded on April 11, 1927, in the Office of the Register of Deeds for said County of Wayne, in Liber 159, of Assignments of Mortgages, on page 295.

Default has also been made in the conditions of an agreement between [illegible] and Edna G. Glazier, his wife, holders of the legal title to the mortgaged premises at the date of said agreement, and the undersigned, extending the time for payment of the debt secured by said mortgage, which said extension agreement is dated May 5, 1932, and was recorded in the office of said Register of Deeds on May 18, 1932, in Liber 2649, of Mortgages, on page 131. Said agreement provides that all the covenants and conditions thereof shall remain in full force and effect, except as therein modified, and that failure to pay any part of the principal sum secured thereby or any interest payment thereon, when the same shall become due and payable, according to the terms thereof, or any other breach, or any other of the conditions of said mortgage or of said agreement, shall at the option of the undersigned, render the entire debt due forthwith without notice. There has been default in the conditions of said mortgage and said agreement in the failure to pay the principal and interest due thereunder, which default has continued for more than thirty days, and accordingly the undersigned has exercised its said option, does hereby exercise the same, and the entire debt is rendered due forthwith; on which mortgage there is claimed to be due, at the date of this notice, for principal, interest and taxes, the sum of Seven Thousand One Hundred Fifty-four and 62/100 ($7154.62) Dollars.

No suit or proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof, now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Thursday, the 8th day of November, A. D. 1934, at 12:00 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the Southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held), of the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, with the interest thereon and all legal costs, charges and expenses, including the attorney fees allowed by law, and also any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned, at or before said sale, necessary to protect its interest in the premises, including taxes and/or assessments. Which said premises are described as follows: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate in the City of Detroit, in the County of Wayne, and State of Michigan and described as follows, to-wit:

Lot Forty-three (43) Glendale Gardens Subdivision of the west half of the northeast quarter of Section 20, Town 1 South, Range 11 East, Greenfield Township, according to the plat thereof as recorded in Liber 33, of Plats, page 24, Wayne County Records, and more commonly known as 13238 Mendota.
