Class of
'82

Kris, a very nice person. (joke)

Good luck with your Slopedz - I mean your band
Have a great summer
and good luck in the High School. Love
Becky

I am parts of many people. A teenager.

But MOSTLY adult and (I admit it) part child.

Kris, you're the kind of girl you can't put into words, well, you know. Are you ever going to get that girl that everyone said she beat you up.
well, good luck in everything you do.

Your long time
friend,
Alex

Mr. Longridge, Principal

Mrs. Peace, Secretary

Mr. Longridge and Mrs. Peace pause for a smile at the beginning of a busy day.

ADMINISTRATION AND FACULTY

Careers is the topic as Mrs. Cohen and Mr. James work with Amy Stuart.

Mrs. Marburger sets up the AV equipment for the day.

Mrs. Pernia, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Gram and Mrs. Fotis are always here to help.

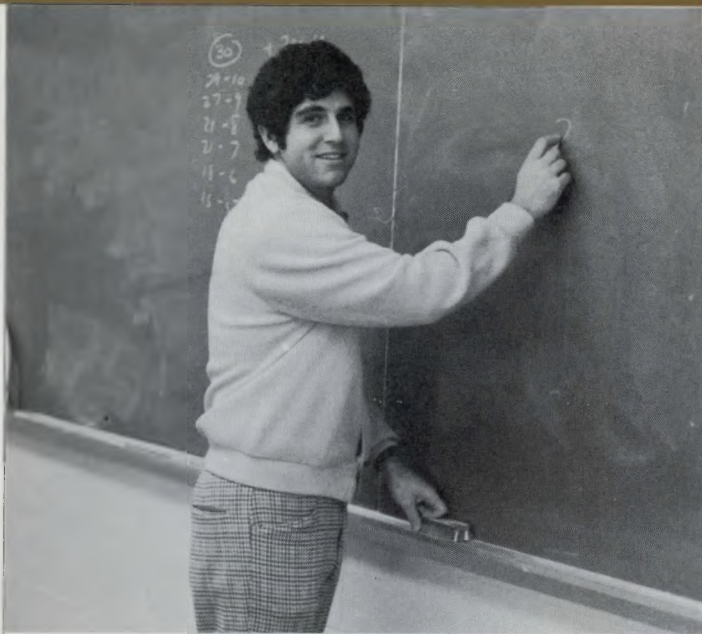

I.S.E.P. teachers and aides keep busy. Pausing for a moment in top picture Sue Padovich, Diane Mavian, and Flo Beeler. To the right is Jan Hiipakka.

Craig Brown helps Mr. Bell hold things together!

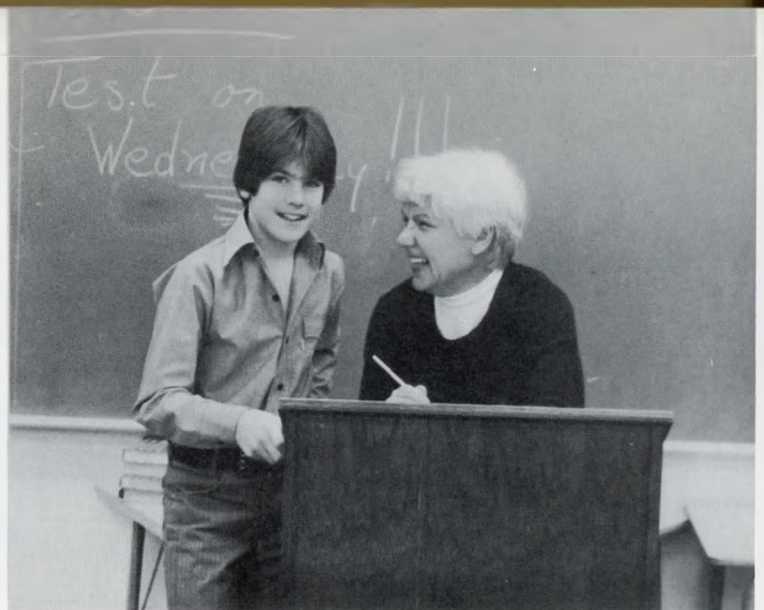

"Lunch time coming up!" Mrs. Sharp and Mrs. Hawkins prepare the daily lunch.

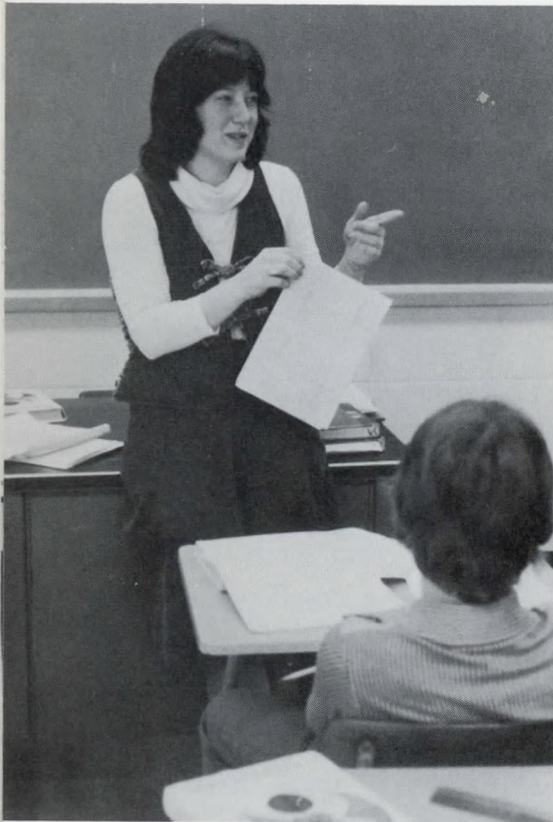

Mr. Janigian explains a math problem to the class.

Jeff Metz doesn't look too worried about the test on Wednesday. Maybe Mrs. Taylor is giving out hints!

MATH

While the class works on the assignment Mrs. Todd pauses to assist.

"Extra homework," exclaims Mrs. Scherf.

"Conference time can't be over already! I still have all these papers to check," sighs Mrs. Counzelman.

Dawn Wolfrom, Beth Storm, and Stacie Cornalino show Ms. Stewner that they really do know how to work with the steam tables.

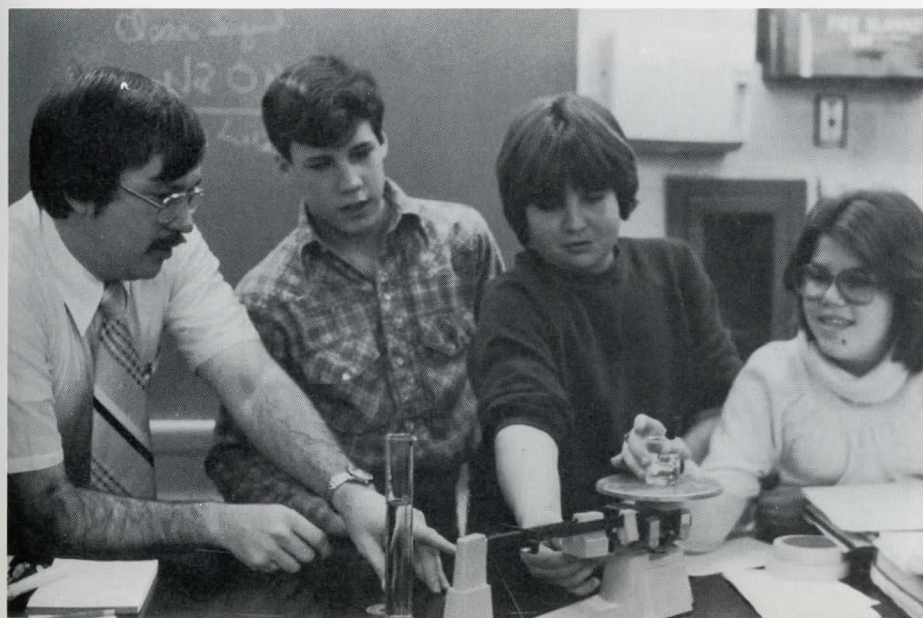

"Determining the distance between earth and sun is easy," Miss Burg explains to Charles Meredith.

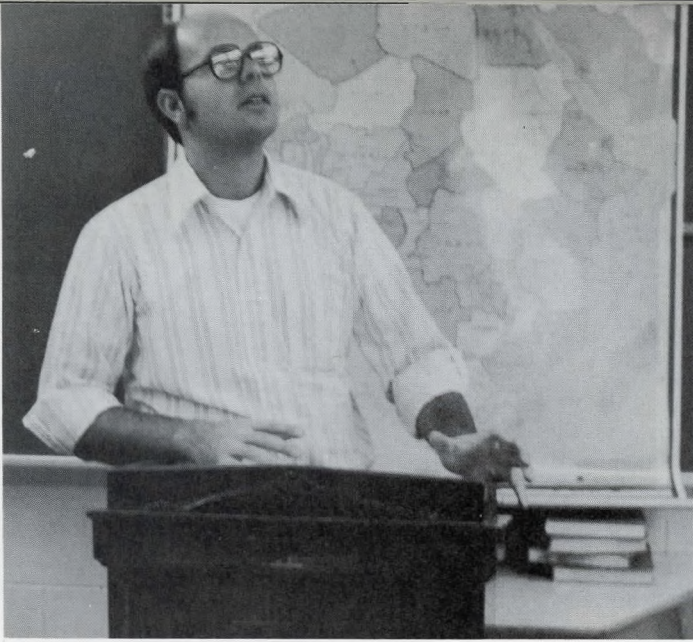

Laura Mitchell and Henry McFerran ask Mr. Hayes for some help with the experiments.

SCIENCE

Working with the balance are Mr. Dicks, Ken Keisner, Jim Wilson, and Sharon Lane.

"Ah, yes! Those were the good OLD days in Egypt," muses Mr. Simpson.

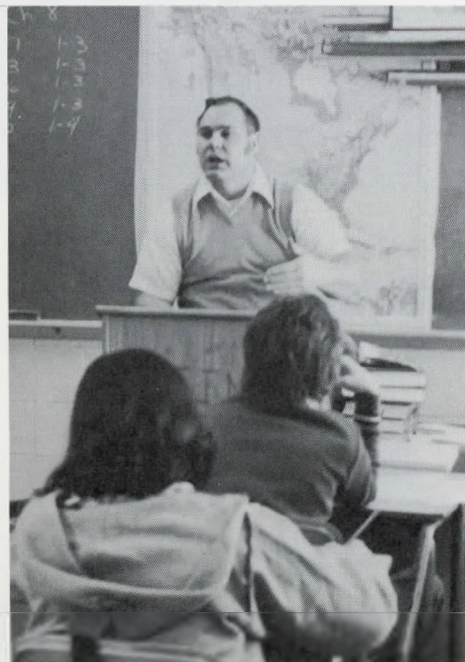

"Pass the popcorn," says someone, as Mr. Norton turns on the movie projector.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Explaining the daily assignment to the class keeps Mr. Nichols occupied.

Sue Meredith, Mrs. Pasco, Steve O'Hare, and Anne LaFave take time out on the "Wagon Train" trail.

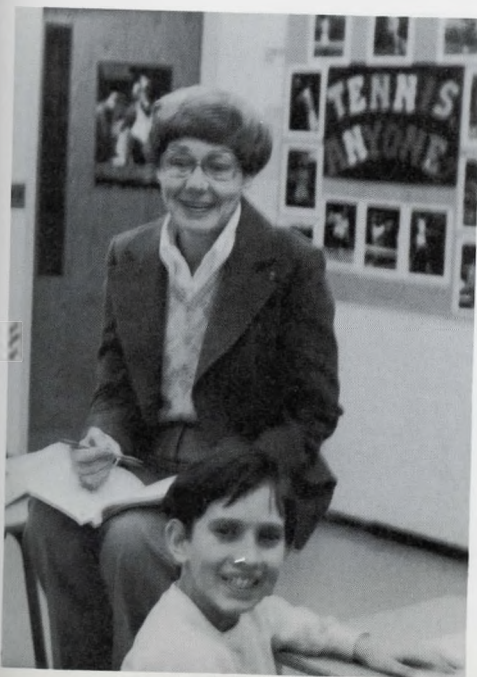

Happiness is good test results for Mrs. Armstrong.

ENGLISH

Mike Van Buren requests a little assistance from Mrs. Cook. Maybe tennis would be more fun but Mrs. Bach and David Carter seem to be enjoying English.

Mrs. Freydl's plant responds to attention by taking over the file cabinet!

"Presenting Mrs. Shutes," exclaims Craig Stuart. (PHYS. ED.)

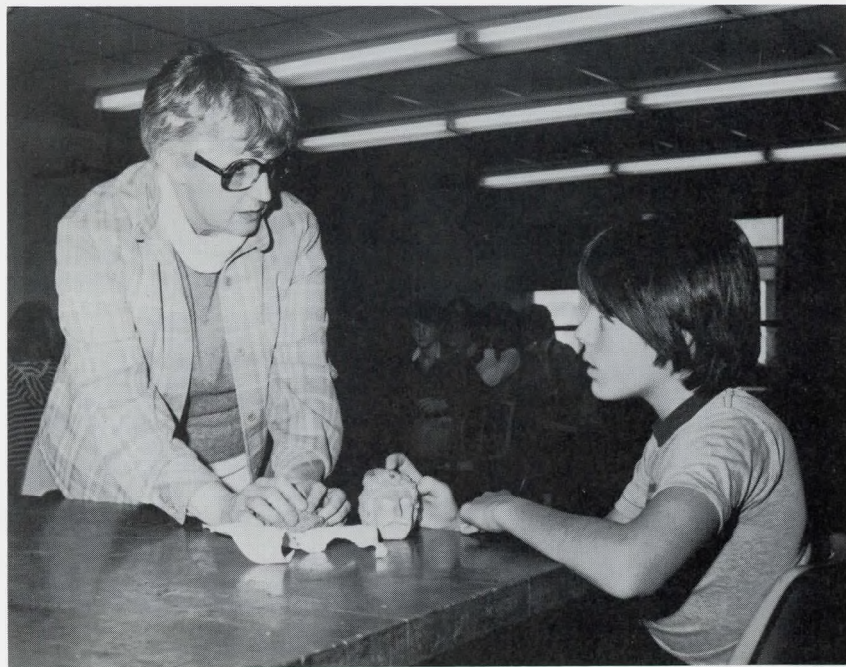

Mrs. Smith and John Young discuss the techniques of sculpture. (ART)

ELECTIVES

Miss Stanley supervises as Nadine Kitchen, Sharon Campbell, Janet Deane, and Mary Jane Skalski make blueberry pie. (HOME EC.)

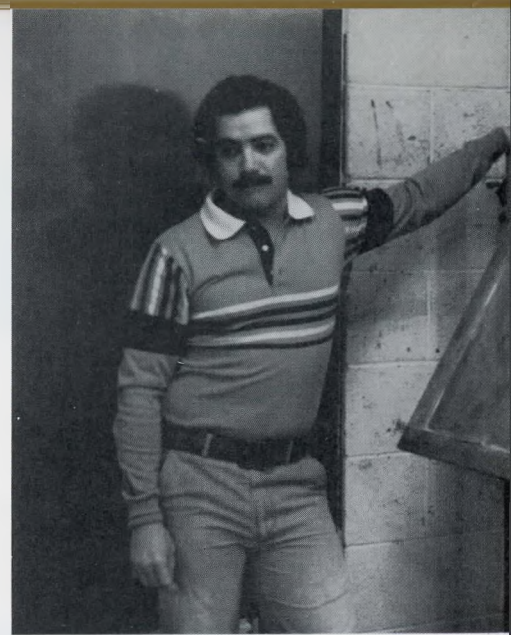

"Don't look at the keys," cautions Mrs. Cotter, as Sue Keiser types.

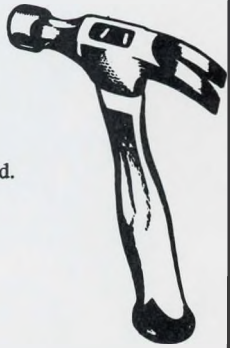

Time out from filing cards for Mrs. Hood. (LIBRARIAN)

Mr. Crossman must be explaining a very serious matter! (SHOP)

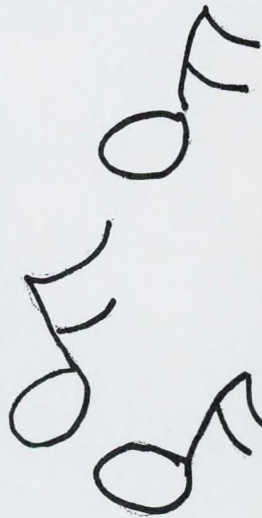

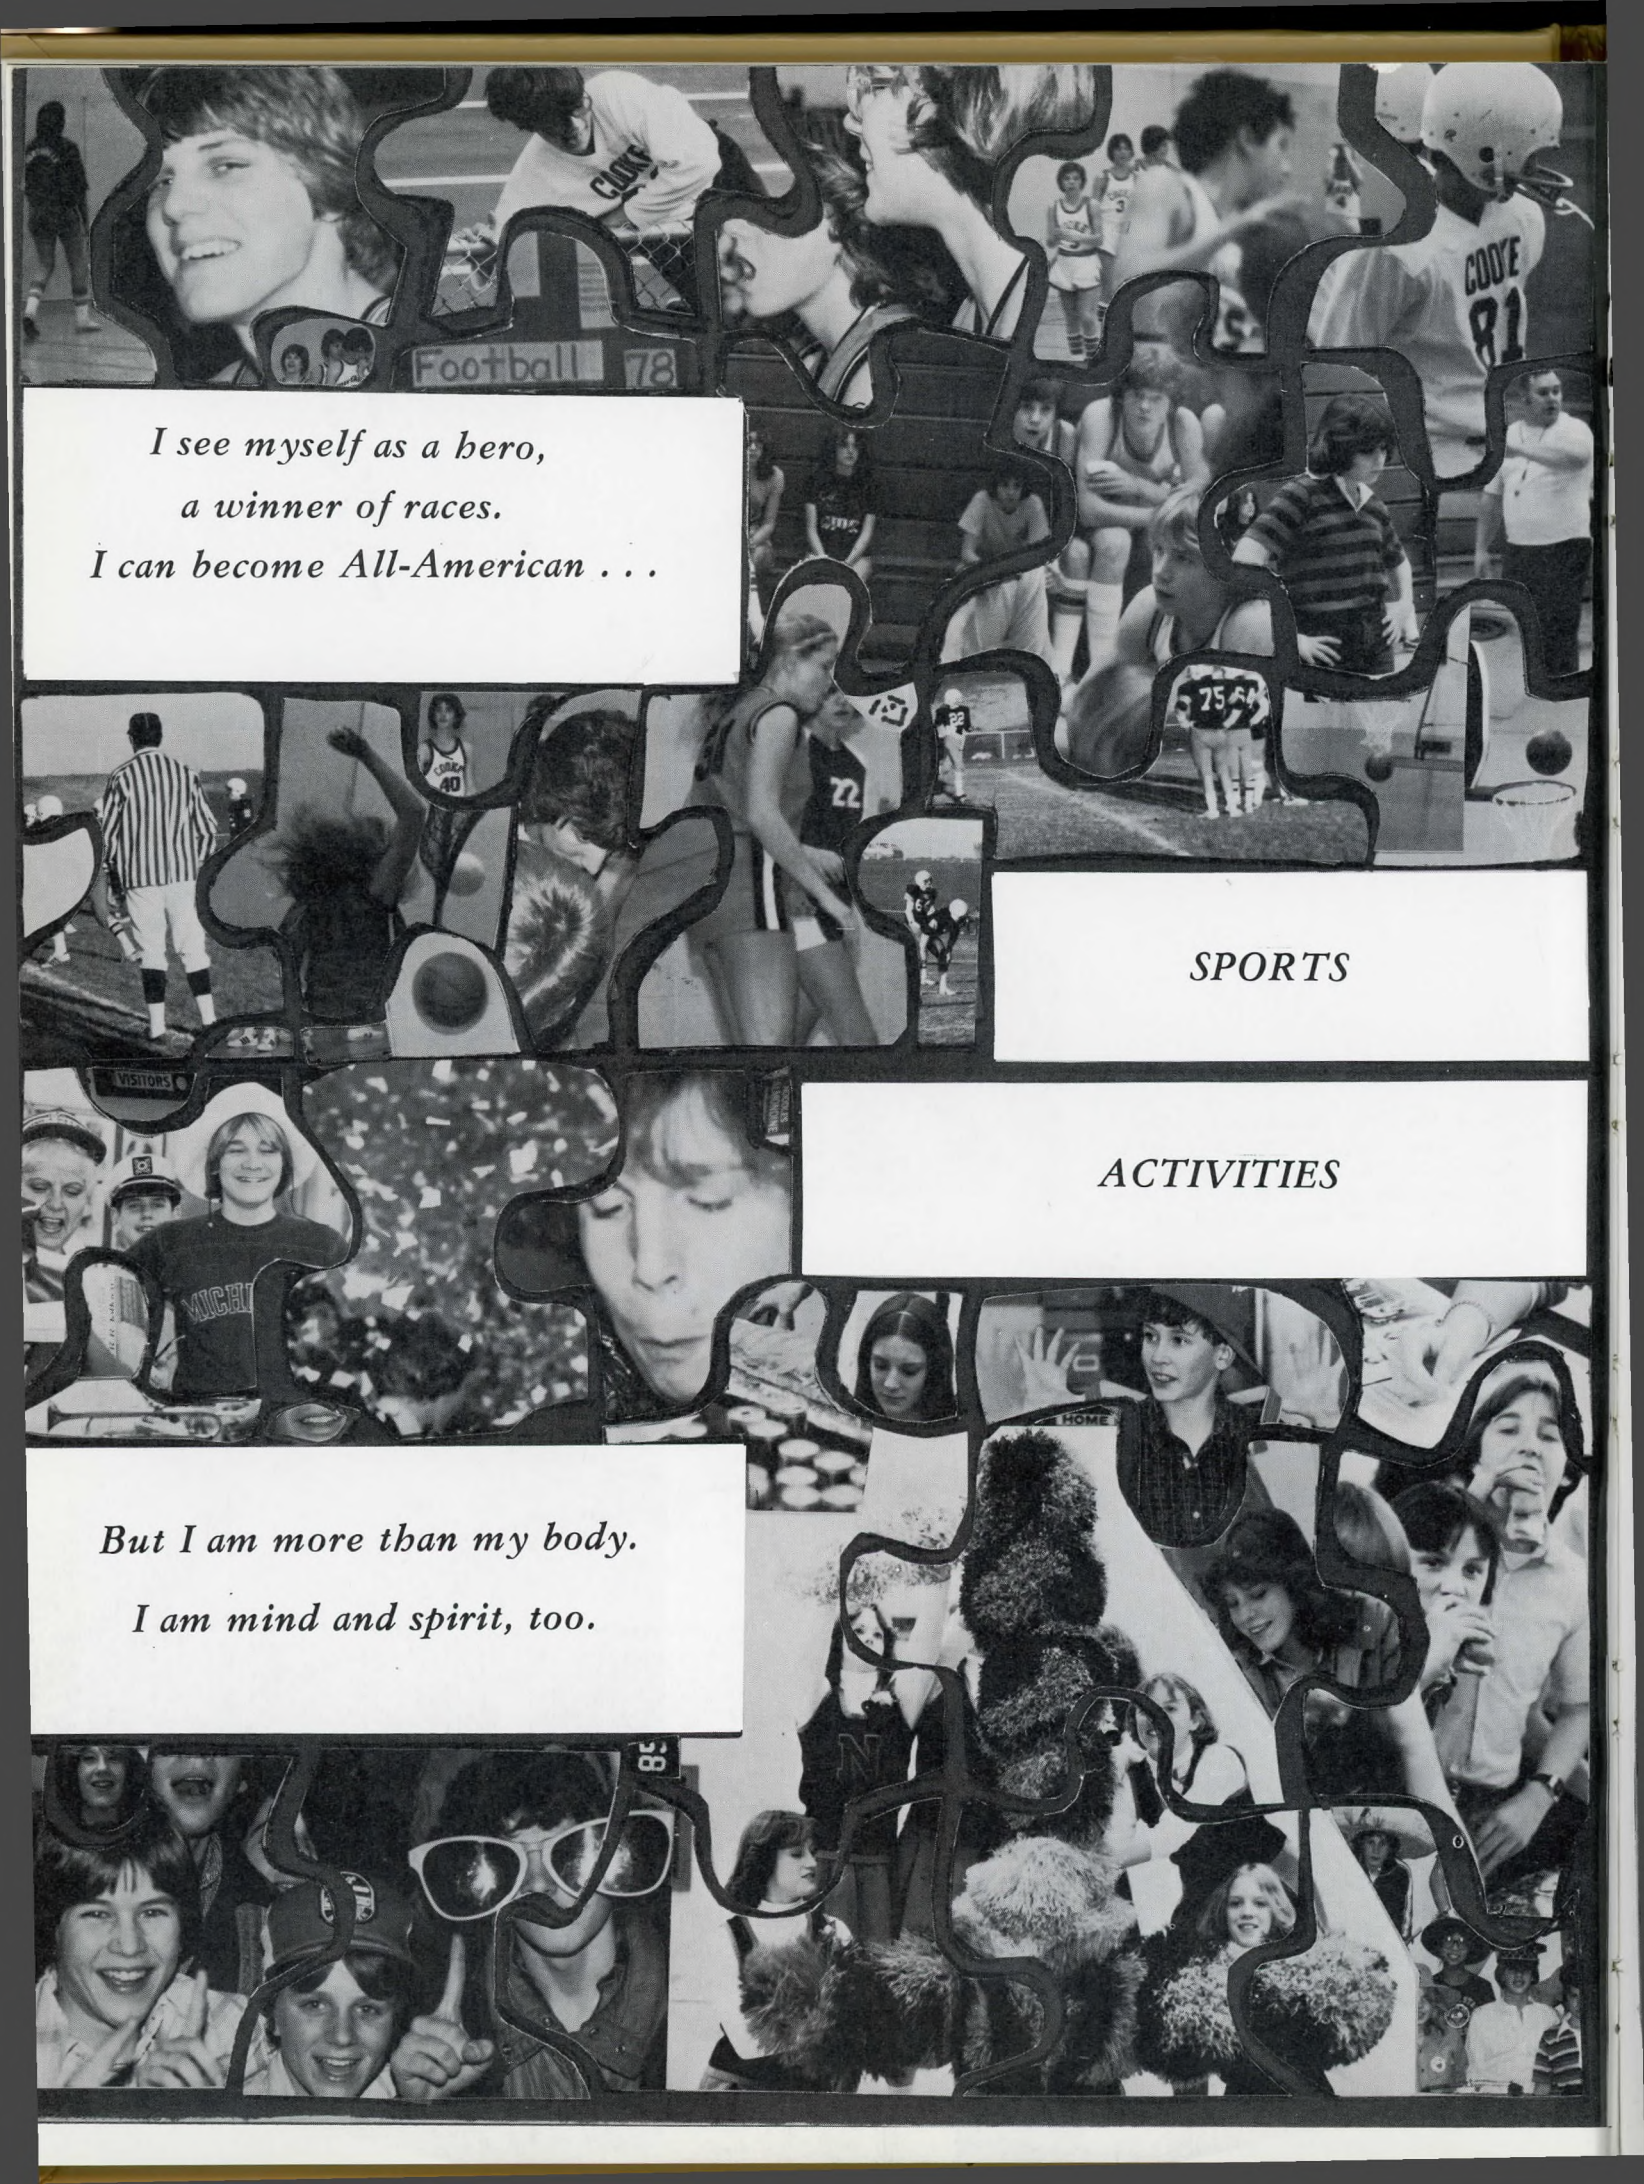

Guess which person is Mrs. MacDonald. (FRENCH-GERMAN)

Selecting a good speed reading topic requires some concentration. Mrs. Lenz assists Guy Loeffler (sitting) and Brent Madigan. (READING LAB)

Directing the band keeps Mr. Rumbell busy. (BAND)
