JUDGES HAVE SUPPORT FOR RE-ELECTION

Both Parties Unite To Stand Behind Circuit Court Incumbents

From inquiry among the voters of Northville and Plymouth it is apparent that many republicans and democrats are going to stand together behind the present judges on the circuit bench at the election on Monday.

So far there has been no opposition developed to a single one of the men who have had so much to do in making the Wayne county circuit bench one of the most outstanding in the country.

Some prominent democrats of Plymouth, Northville and other out-county communities have stated that this is a time when politics can be forgotten, and they plan Monday to aid in the re-election of the judges who have brought honor and distinction to the circuit bench of Wayne county.

In order that voters who plan to split their ticket may make no mistake in the election of the judges who have served this county so well, it is recommended that the list of names below be clipped out and taken to the polls Monday

Eighten judges are to be named. To insure the re-election of the present judges place a cross in front of each of the following names

Republican:
Clyde I. Webster
Harry B. Keidan
Arthur Webster
James E Chenot
Theodore J Richter
DeWitt H. Merriman
Ira W. Jayne
Robert M. Toms
Adolph P. Marschner
Lester S. Moll
Homer Ferguson
Vincent M. Brennan
Guy A. Miller
Joseph A. Moynihan
Allan Campbell
Harry J. Dingeman
Democratic ticket:
Thomas J Murphy

Then, to complete the full list of 18, select one name from any of the following "Preferred Candidates," as recommended by the Detroit Citizens League, and place a cross in front of that name:

Republican ticket:
Sherman D. Callendar
Henry C. Nichol
Democratic ticket
W. Leo Cahalan
Eugene G. Donohue
Arthur F. Lederle

"I sincerely hope the people of Wayne county will realize, before it is too late, that the extraordinarily able Circuit Court which they now have, was not built up in a day and that it cannot be reconstructed without years of costly effort, if the organization once is broken down," said Prof. E. R. Sunderland, of Ann Arbor, member of the Judicial Council of Michigan and of the Law Department faculty of the University of Michigan, in discussing next Monday's important judicial election.

A close observer of law courts in all parts of the United States, Prof. Sunderland believes emphatically that the present Wayne Circuit Court should be retained in office.

"In a court which stands at the very head of the great city courts of the United States," he said, "and which probably has done more than any other to find better ways and means of administering justice in our metropolitan centers, the number of judges who could be displaced to the advantage of the public must be comparatively small.

"A general turn-over in personnel will be almost certain to substitute a mere aggregation of individual judges for a well organized Court working under the best direction and closest cooperation to be found anywhere in this country.

"It would be a calamity, both to Detroit and to the nation, if the voters should treat the judgeships as merely political plunder and by distributing the offices at random among the candidates, destroy the efficiency of the Court."

FARMERS' UNION PARTY

Under auspices of the South Oakland Farmers' Union a pedro party and dance will be held at the Wixom community hall Friday evening. Lunch will be served. Proceeds for the milk protection fund.

JUST A YEAR AGO DEEP SNOW FELL

With tulip bulbs poking their noses up out of the ground, buds swelling and early wild flowers, known as "salt and pepper" blooming in the woods, it is hard to realize that just one year ago Tuesday, March 26, that Northville vicinity was buried deep in the heaviest snow fall of the season.

Cars were stalled, driveways blockaded with drifts and many a man who usually drives to work was obliged to wallow laboriously through snow banks.

To clear the roads the county called out a great gang of men who shoveled in steady shifts to open the way for traffic.

No monotony in Michigan weather.

SCOUTS HOLD HONOR COURT

Fred C. Fisher, deputy county school commissioner, was the principal speaker and presented the merit badges at the court of honor held by the nine Boy Scout troops in the Plymouth district at the Wayne County Training school Thursday evening, March 21, which more than 500 persons attended.

Mr. Fisher spoke on "The Significance of Scouting to American Youth." George A. Smith, superintendent of the Plymouth public schools, conducted the court of honor.

The scouts and their families and friends came from Northville, Plymouth, Rosedale Gardens and the areas between. In addition to these troop 91 of Detroit was represented by 14 scouts.

Two Eagle awards were made to boys in the training school. Harry Waltz and Harold Orden, who are now believed to be the youngest Eagle Scouts in the Detroit area

Before the court formally opened the Plymouth high school band played several selections.

In addition to the Boy Scouts, 15 members of the Girl Scout troop of Plymouth attended.

Among the scout officials present were Amos H. Shields, scout executive of the Detroit area council; William Hodson, Jr., of Rosedale Gardens, Scout commissioner of the Plymouth district; Orlow G. Owen of Northville; Sidney D. Strong, Allan V. Strong, F. J. Mathies, and John W. Jacobs, of Plymouth; and Herbert H. Stewart of Rosedale Gardens.

DEARBORN COACH CO. CHANGES SCHEDULE, EFFECTIVE APRIL 1

Several changes in schedule have been made this week by the Dearborn Coach company, to be effective April 1, it is announced by T. P. Biddle, who is the manager of the bus line which operates between the Mayburg San and Five Points.

The two Plymouth trips, one of which was in the morning and the other in the evening, have been discontinued because of the lack of demand for them.

The evening schedule has been changed so that the buses which left Five Points at 9 p. m. and 12 p. m. have been dropped in favor of three trips to leave there at 8, 10 and 12 p. m.

A few other minor changes were made. A copy of the complete new schedule is printed in this week's Record.

DOLLARS FOR DOUGHNUTS EARNED BY THE LEAGUE

With the last crisp doughnut dipped from the sizzling kettle and with the savory order of smoking fat still clinging to them, a number of young women of the Service League took off their aprons late Saturday evening and "called it a day" after being on the job since six o'clock that morning.

"Two hundred and seventy-five dozen!" announced the "general," Mrs. M. J. Koldyke, all delivered fresh and warm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Blowers, Gardner avenue, offered the use of their home bakery kitchen where a bevy of young women bustled around assisting Mr. Blowers who rolled the toothsome doughnuts.

Maurice J. Lapham and Dick Ambler were pressed into service in helping deliver the fried cakes. The Service League is grateful to them, to the Blowers, to Joan Vroman and Peggy Ely, and to the generous patronage of the public for their successful enterprise which added approximately $40 to their treasury.

THE MAN FOR THE JOB—Leland (Smitty) Smith, Democratic candidate for Township Treasurer.

4 STREETS TO BE IMPROVED IN NORTHVILLE

Tarvia Surface Will Go On Randolph, S. Center, Base Line Road

Several of Northville's important streets will be surfaced with tarvia during this year, or in other words will be "black-topped" by the Wayne County Road commission.

The largest of these projects is South Center street and Novi road, as it is called south of Phoenix road, all the way to the Ann Arbor trail. This improvement will invite motorists to use the road as a short cut to Ann Arbor and other points on the Plymouth road west of Plymouth instead of using the Northville road through Plymouth, which is now the only improved route in that direction.

Randolph street will be re-surfaced from North Center street to Taft road, and the Base Line road will be re-surfaced from Center street to the intersection with Griswold road. It is also planned to "black-top" the west-bound lane of Griswold road, which has never been paved, the other lane being concrete.

This project will give motorists driving through Northville on Eight Mile road, on Base Line road an improved stretch of road from Griswold road, which is as far as the road is improved now, to Taft road.

Surveyors for the road commission finished their work this week of placing stakes at points along all of these streets, and of recording the necessary figures needed for the actual re-surfacing

Although spokesmen for the road commission cannot state the exact time that the "black-topping" will commence, it has been established that the work will be done sometime during the year.

COCHRAN ASKS VOTE FOR PRESENT JUDGES

To The Northville Voters:

The United States is the leading farming country in the world In spite of this fact it now imports more foodstuffs than it exports. Its farm exports are at the lowest level in fifty years. That is the result of wanton waste and destruction of food and agricultural products by government edict

The political party guilty of producing this condition, came into power suddenly, and by all that has transpired one must believe that it was wholly incompetent to cope with the demands of government. Its whole trend has been one disastrous experiment after another. It promised a reduction in the cost of government, and our present government is many times more expensive than in any former administration. There is not space enough in the ordinary weekly paper to go into the history of even a limited number of blundering experiments.

The sudden popularity of the democratic party has flooded it with "fly-by-night" politicians all of whom are clamoring for political jobs. This has resulted in Wayne county in an unheard of number of applicants for the Circuit bench. Prior to the nomination it was difficult to find a Polish lawyer in and about Detroit who was not running for the job. That has resulted in the nomination by the democratic party of a large number of aspirants without any reasonable qualification. To the majority of litigants the Circuit Court is the Supreme Court because the expense of an appeal from the Circuit to the Supreme Court is beyond them.

The importance of the office, and the importance of having it filled by men of ability and experience should not be thought of lightly, and if we are to consider things that have happened to us from Washington under democratic administrations and are happening daily we must conclude that this administration is not the sort to continue.

The roots of governmental mismanagement spread throughout all minor offices until inefficiency reaches our very doors and we sense it at every turn.

The Wayne county Circuit Court stands, at the present time, as one of the highest-grade Circuit Courts in the United States, and if the voters so evade responsibility next Monday as to permit new and untried judges, many of whom are not good in the law profession, to take over the responsible position of sitting in

Northville Voters Are Urged To Help Meet A Serious Situation In Selection of Circuit Judges

(By The Editor)

Wayne county faces a crisis in the election of 18 circuit judges at the election Monday, April 1.

Northville township voters can do their part in meeting this critical situation by helping to return to office the present group of judges. A general turnover in the personnel of the present bench would be a "calamity" according to thoughtful students of the Detroit situation.

Both republicans and democrats are uniting to forget politics in electing the present judges.

The members of the Detroit Bar association in several polls have voted overwhelmingly in favor of the present judges. The situation is so serious that the Detroit Citizens League—a non-partisan organization which seeks to aid the voters to elect good men to office—had this to say in its recent appeal to the voters:

The result of the recent primary for nomination of judges, especially in the democratic party field, confirms what had been political gossip for some time: That one local group of nationals (Polish) had solidified for the purpose of electing representatives of that group to the Circuit bench, with little or no regard to the question of individual competence or experience.

Such a movement, in our opinion, is decidedly un-American; it is fraught with grave danger for the future; and it should be emphatically rebuked by the voters. A candidate for the Circuit bench should be selected because of his personal qualifications, not because he happens to belong to any particular group, race or nationality.

Eighteen judges are to be elected for terms of six years each. The Record urges that all Northville voters study the selection of these judges with the utmost care and that every citizen interested in good government read the list of preferred candidates given elsewhere in this issue. It is a serious situation

ROTARIANS ATTEND DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Together with over 1000 enthusiastic Rotarians and "Rotary Anns" of the twenty-third district, Northville folks joined Monday evening in the banquet, the high light of the three-day district conference held at Cranbrook in Bloomfield Hills

The large gymnasium of the Cranbrook school was the scene of this event and the serving of this immense crewd was accomplished under great handicap, the Pontiac Creamery having cooked the food in their home town, bringing it packed in heat-retaining receptacles.

A colorful picture was the great hall, hung with blue and gold, the Rotary colors, and the flags of both nations represented in the throng, Americans and Canadians.

In a spirit of true democracy, the

MARZ FACTORY TO LOCATE ON CADY ST.

The Marz machine shop will move within the next two weeks from its location in the rear of the Ford show room on West Main street to the old Superior Churn Co building at the corner of East Cady street and Park place, it was announced Thursday by Arthur R. Marz.

The change is being made for the double purpose of giving more room to the service department of the showroom and to provide more quarters for the factory which has been expanding so that its present space is no longer adequate

A new floor is being laid now in the Churn Co. building. Various units of the machinery will be moved as the new floor progresses. The interior will also be thoroughly cleaned and painted white to make desirable working conditions for the employees.

The first council fire of the year of the Northville Camp Fire group was held Monday evening in the recreation room of the McLoughlin home. They were especially fortunate to have the large fireplace for the fire lighting ceremony which was beautiful and impressive.

The girls were delighted to have their mothers and sponsors with them for the evening. It gave them an opportunity to meet Miss Catherine Stearns, who came from Camp Fire headquarters in Detroit, and gave us all a chance to get better acquainted. They were sorry that six of the mothers were unable to attend. Otherwise their evening was a very happy one.

The council fire opened with the whelo call and procession after which the Camp Fire law was repeated in unison: "Seek beauty, give service, pursue knowledge, be trustworthy, hold onto health, glorify work, be happy."

The fire lighting ceremony followed with Louise Alexander lighting the light of work, Dorothy Heaton the light of health, and Jane Van Atta the light of love. The councillor, Miss Stearns, held a lighted taper from which each girl lighted the one she carried and then each in turn lighted the council fire. As the flames leaped up the entire group who were seated in a circle before the fire sang "Burn, Fire, Burn."

Honors were awarded by the guardian, Mrs. H. H. Burkhart. Geraldine Johnston, Jane Van Atta, Vivian Grosvenor, Dorothy Heaton and Jean Lyke were awarded the honors for which they had earned their woodgather's rank. Janet Stewart received her firemaker's honors and Marjorie Chase was awarded twelve nature craft honors.

Pat McLoughlin and Shirley Condit received their flying fish honors; Jean Saley, Kathryn Marburger and Lucille Lapham were awarded honors for which they are working for their woodgather's rank.

One of the requirements for this rank is that each girl tell the meaning of the name she has chosen for her Camp Fire name and explain her symbol

The girls who did this were Jeanne Atchison, Maxine Ware, Laura Bolton, Kathryn Marburger, Lucille Lapham, Jean Saley, Betty Armstrong, Shirley Condit, Doris Hogan and Marie Angove. These girls hope to receive their rank in May.

Marjorie Chase told us how she had earned one of her nature honors.

A quartet, consisting of Louise Alexander, Vivian Grosvenor, Pat McLoughlin and Shirley Condit sang "Beauty Stands at the Crossroads." Miss Stearns gave the girls an interesting talk on "Earning Honors" and the council fire was closed with the singing of taps.

Refreshments were served, each girl first serving her mother or a guest. The evening was closed with a group of Camp Fire songs.

NEW LAUNDRY BEING BUILT BY FRID BROS.

Excavation Is Begun This Week; New Ice House Also Under Way

Two new business buildings are being erected in Northville, both on North Center street north of Dunlap.

The latest of these, upon which excavation began this week, is a modern one-story structure on the west side of the street to house the plant of the Northville laundry, operated by the Frid brothers. The other, which has been underway nearly two weeks, is an ice storage and delivery station being built by Carl R. Ely and Sons, on the east side of the street about 50 feet south of the new laundry.

The laundry building will be constructed with an eye to cleanliness as well as architectural beauty. Its exterior will be either of red brick or of a new building material, a brick 12 inches thick which resembles tile except on the side which shows. The interior wall will be of glazed tile, chosen because it is so easy to keep spotless

The cost of the structure is estimated at $5,000. It is expected that it can be completed within two months.

Some new machinery will be installed, Mr Sidney Frid says, although it is not definitely known just what will be included The entire room will be in the basement, the boiler to be equipped with automatic stokers

Mr Frid says that they will be able in the new plant to increase both quality and the quantity of their work The Frid brothers appreciate the patronage and support of the people of Northville, and are building the new plant as an expression of their confidence of the continued good will.

The exterior wall and the roof of the new Ely ice house are expected by Mr Ely to be completed within the next ten days The foundation is already completed.

NOVI BOY IS KILLED BY AUTO ON U.S.-16

Eleven-year-old Harold Sperkowski was killed instantly about 7:30 p m Thursday evening, March 21, when he was struck by an automobile driven by Chester J. Williams, of Grand Rapids on Grand River road near the intersection of the Northville-Walled Lake road in Novi.

The accident came when Harold, who had been helping another boy to deliver papers, jumped off the porch of the home of John Richter, which is almost flush with the highway, into the path of the oncoming car too late for Williams to swerve away from him.

Williams, very much overcome by the occurence, made a statement to Deputy Sheriff E. J. McKinley, and then made arrangements to pay all of the boy's funeral expenses. He said that he had two boys of his own about the same age as Harold.

Harold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sperkowski, of 121 Novi road. Funeral services were held Monday at 9 a. m. at the Lady of Sorrows Catholic church in Farmington. Interment was at Mount Calvery cemetery.

TWO FEAURES TO COME SATURDAY AT PENNIMAN-ALLEN

The Penniman-Allen theatre has received so many requests from its patrons for two of last season's most popular productions that it is with pride that manager Manna G. Blunk is able to comply with these requests and place both great pictures on one program.

The Penniman-Allen is presenting Jack Oakie, Lanny Ross, and Joe Penner in "College Rhythm" and Randolph Scott and Monte Blue in "The Last Round-up" both on one great double-feature program.

If you have missed these great pictures, here is your opportunity to see them both in one great show Saturday, March 30, and if you have seen them before, they are well worth seeing again. A special matinee will be given at 2:30 p. m. and also the regular shows at 7 and 9 p. m.

LOCAL BOYS VISIT SOUTHERN STATES

As a climax to a winter of furious hustling for funds and eager planning, on a trip South, six local boys, who call themselves the mysterious name the I. S. T. club, embarked in an old Ford and headed southeast before daylight Sunday morning

Before 6:30 that evening the crowded car was nosing its way among the steep hills of West Virginia. At Huntington they stopped for a night's rest, the card home announcing that they "slept three in a bed for 50 cents," and Tom Carrington added "Mother ought to be here and see the trees all blossomed out."

By gathering old papers and trucking them to a market in Detroit the boys have been able to earn their entire expenses for the trip, each receiving the small sum of $1.50 with a parental blessing in parting. Those in the party were Tom Carrington, Maurice Giles, Stanley Taylor, Eddie Bender, Melvin Stromoski, and Ronald Keeping.

The length of the trip was to be measured by the length of the purse. (The boys are now back home.)

VILLAGE BUYS DUMP TRUCK

The village purchased a new Ford dump truck this week to replace the worn out vehicle that has been in service for the last five years.

This action was taken at a special meeting of the village commission at the village hall Monday evening after reviewing several bids, and after considerable debate as to whether it would be advisable to buy a used truck and still retain the old one as well

The point was brought up that it would be wise to keep the old truck for the FERA workers to use since they have borrowed it many times. Since it was were to many of them who drove the truck it was the general belief of the commissioners that these men are in a large measure responsible for the present condition of it

Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery was instructed to regulate the use of the new truck and to be certain that only a certain few of the FERA men drive it when it is used in the work

Bids were received and read at the meeting of the commission on a new police car and pick-up, and it was first intended to purchase all the new equipment at the same time.

It was decided, however, to retain the bids and act on them later in the year. More funds will be on hand after taxes begin to be received in June.

PHILIP DONON IS ENDORSED BY JUDGES

To the Citizens of Northville:

I was this day informed that Mr. Philip Donon, of your city is running for the position of Constable for the Township of Northville.

It has been my privilege and pleasure to have known Mr. Donon for some time and can, without any hesitation vouch for his honesty and integrity and can truthfully say that he has always upheld the duties of Constable to the best of his ability.

In passing, I might also mention that recently I have been conducting a one man grand jury investigation with respect to the Constables of Wayne County, and have found Mr. Donon to be one of those whose record of service was honest, clean and lawful.

It is a pleasure to recommend Mr. Donon to you for re-election.

Judge John D. Watts,
Common Pleas Court.

We, the undersigned Judges of Common Pleas Court, Wayne County, hereby endorse Mr. Philip Donon for Constable for the Township of Northville, County of Wayne. We can vouch for Mr. Donon's honesty and integrity and can truthfully say that he has always upheld the duties of Constable to the best of his ability.

Ralph W. Liddy,
Gerold W. Groat,
Edward Z. Wrubleski.

NOTICE TO VOTERS

To insure that all citizens of Northville will vote on election day, Monday, April 1, free transportation to the polls will be available to all who desire it.

Anyone wishing to take advantage of this service can do so by telephoning the office of Elmer L. Smith. The number is 470. The polls will be open from 7 a. m. until 8 p. m.

COUNTY, STATE TOWNSHIP TO ELECT APRIL 1

W. A. Ely, A. C. Balden Head Tickets In Race For Local Offices

Voters will go to the polls Monday, April 1, to elect officers for Northville township, Wayne county, and several for the state of Michigan.

With only a short time remaining before election day, the atmosphere is quiet and orderly, in sharp contrast with the hard fought and exciting compaigns of the last two previous years.

The contests for the township offices hold the interest here.

The republican slate:
Supervisor—Willard A. Ely.
Clerk—Elmer L. Smith.
Treasurer—Mrs. Mollie Lawrence.
Justice of the peace—Dean P. Griswold.
Highway commissioner—Harold M. Parmenter.
Highway Overseer — Arthur J. Gotts.
Constables—Philip H. Donon, Ulie A. Tibbits, Ward W. Masters and Frank H. Perrin

The democratic nominees are:
Supervisor—Adolph C. Baloen.
Clerk—Miss Ruth Gillis
Treasurer—Leland Smith.
Justice of the peace—Wellington Roberts
Constables—Fred Hicks, Charles A. Sessions, Jr., Martin Schrader and Roy H. Graham.

The republicans, having chosen a slate composed for the most part of incumbents, expect to have things their way again this year by reason of the records of the nominees in their offices, and because they usually have been able to obtain a majority vote

The democrats have another story to tell, declaring that it is time for a change and that their candidates should be the logical choice.

In addition to choosing township officers the voters must choose 18 circuit court judges, auditor and school commissioner for Wayne county, and for state offices two regents of the University of Michigan, superintendent of public instruction a member of the state board of education, and two members of the state board of agriculture

Voters in Wayne county will also decide on the proposed amendment to section four of article XVI of the constitution, which provides that all cases of the votes or contested elections or any recounts for any state office except that of a member of legislature, shall be conducted by the board of state canvassers.

The 16 republican incumbents in the circuit judge contest were the overwhelming leaders in the primary March 4. They are Clyde L. Webster, Arthur Webster, DeWitt H. Merriam, Joseph A. Moynhan, Harry B. Keldan, Homer Ferguson, Ira W Jayne, Guy A. Miller, Robert M. Toms, Vincent M. Brennan, James E. Chenot, Theodore I. Richter, Adolph P. Marschner, Lester S. Moll, Harry J. Dingeman and Allen Campbell.

Thomas J. Murphy, the only democratic judge on the circuit bench at this time, led the other nominees of his party in the primary and is again a candidate.

NOTICE

To the Voters of Northville Twp:

Having received the nomination for township clerk at the recent caucus, I am asking your support at the spring election to be held Monday, April 1, 1935.

You are all aware that my office is centrally located, always open and I am always willing to give you any information at any time relative to township affairs.

If you feel that the duties of the township clerk have been properly looked after in the past, your vote will be appreciated at the coming election.

Yours very truly,
ELMER SMITH, Township Clerk.

THE MENACE OF DUST STORMS

We all read with pity of the devastating dust storm which last week swept across sections of the Middle West and Southwest. Following similar storms of last year, this blanketing of vast areas with a thick coating of soil, stripped from the growing fields of grains, will bring many farmers to the point of sheer desperation.

Last year, in connection with this plague of dust storms, there appeared articles that indicated that there is a possibility of another American desert. That would not be pleasant to contemplate. Anyone who has ever crossed the pitiless Mojave desert on the way to California, wants no more deserts to cross.

It would be an interesting study to know what part of our drought and storm losses of this kind have come from the ruthless American policy of cutting down trees. Our water sheds, in many places have been stripped of the trees and underbrush that nature designed to help conserve our water supply. The result has been that the water, when it did come, has run away and has not gone down into the soil, as it formerly did.

Michigan has been criminal in the cutting down of vast areas of trees. Greedy men, unstopped by public sentiment or mandate of law, have given us vast sections of "second growth" where we should have beautiful forests and woods. It is too late to save the millions of trees that have been butchered from the face of our marvelous peninsulas, but it is not too late to save those that are left nor too late to plant other trees. There are other factors that are helping our state from being subject to these devastating dust storms, but even so, there are many reasons why scientific study should be given to the conservation of the tree life of the state.

The time may come when no one in Michigan will be allowed to cut down any tree anywhere without permission of those who know the value of trees to us all.

SUPPOSE THE STORE WEREN'T HERE!

One of the very first things the writer heard, over four years ago, when the editorial family came to Northville was that this little city had in the Schrader furniture store one of the finest business places of its kind in the whole state of Michigan.

Northville still has the Schrader Bros store and it still is one of the best stocked stores to be found anywhere in cities even two and three times as large as Northville.

Do we appreciate this?

We ask this question because we read just a few days ago in the editorial column of a newspaper in a city of 5,000, of the great loss that came to the place because its only furniture store had been moved away. The town, said the writer, now realized (too late) just what the fine furniture store had meant to the whole community. People took it for granted that the town would always have the store but lack of loyal support caused it to quit.

As a neighbor across the street from the big Schrader store, we want to say that Northville does appreciate the fact that Nelson C. Schrader is keeping this outstanding business place right on the map of Northville and Wayne county.

All through the depression—now happily drawing to a close— Neighbor Schrader kept on selling furniture and did not let his stock "run down." This "heads up" spirit brought in business—sometimes from quite a distance. The optimism displayed by "Nels" has been an inspiration to all other business men. This "go ahead" attitude will certainly be rewarded with a lot more business in the days to come.

The Schrader furniture store is one of Northville's best civic assets. And Northville appreciates it.

OVER PUBLIC SPENDING

The reckless spending of huge sums by our government is bringing just what a thoughtful person would expect, viz., much talk of graft and corruption.

In Ohio we have the spectacle of the governor fighting with the federal authorities over charges of graft in the welfare work. The situation was said to be so bad that President Roosevelt had to take a hand. In Texas a bunch of engineers and contractors have been indicted on charges of plotting to defraud the government on a five million dollar irrigation project—a child of the PWA.

In the meantime the public debts accumulate and the people will foot the bill—now and for many years to come—and a lot of the crooks and grafters will go free.

One of the best benefits of the whole set-up of scandal will be that after a while Brain Trusters will quit trying to reform the country by a lot of fantastic plans. The whole mess has gotten so bad that in the Illinois legislature the other day one representative said: "I, for one, am about to tell the Washington bureaucracy to go to h—."

WILL WAR COME IN EUROPE?

Will there be war in Europe? And if there is, will it involve the United States?

These questions that even the casual readers of the daily newspapers have to think about these days. War news is getting the big streamers in many of the papers.

No one can say whether there will be war or not—now or in five or ten years. A little spark can cause the conflagration or, on the other hand, war may not come, even when all signs point that way. Experts will tell you that no war is "inevitable." Europe is full of hatreds and of scheming coteries. Yet every diplomat across the seas knows that no nation ever wins a war. Yet the crazy race for armaments may drive the nations into war.

Certainly war in Europe could not continue for long. Why? Just because the nations there are still tottering from the devastation of the World war and bankruptcy would soon bring the bloodshed to an end.

Another reason to think there will not be much war in Europe now is that the United States will have to provide much of the munitions and the backbone for war. And if we loan money for this, as we did in the last war, we are more stupid than we think.

We are more afraid of a war in Europe in ten or twenty years than we are right now.

The bill of Senator A. L. Moore, introduced in the state senate, to cancel delinquent taxes, is arousing intense opposition. It is pointed out that if this is done, great injustice will be done to those who have—often at a great sacrifice—paid their taxes.

The Northville man or woman who plans a garden, works among the flowers or plants a tree, will never become a radical—no matter by what name called— who thinks that the world is all wrong. Northville is a worthwhile community because so many of its residents are home lovers and home owners.

This statement was made in the Record office this week by a well-informed local resident: "Eighty-two per cent of the people who die leave nothing. And only five per cent have any considerable amount of life insurance." No wonder that the movement for providing some form of old-age pension is rapidly gaining strength.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

(Asked this week by a Northville visitor). "When is your town going to widen its main street?"

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

HOW TO GET PEACE

(George R. Averill in Birmingham Eccentric)

What a great peace comes to those who live within their income!

Earning a living is an excellent vocation, but extravagantly spending that living never brings a livelihood!

Of course, hard times come upon people, and there may be a temporary excuse for living (or shall we call it existing?) beyond one's means. But, to continuously spend more than one earns, and thus face the gnawing fear of the creditor, makes people prematurely wrinkled and wretched, gray and gaunt. And, besides, to self-discipline one's self to the end that every creditor is paid is putting one's savings in a bank—one thus deserves better days and, with reasonable effort and thought better days will come! The law of absolute morality guarantees that!

HE READ A BOOK

(Chicago Tribune)

Whatever we think of progressive polygamy in Hollywood, our hearts bleed for the grand duchess of cinema bed scenes who has just divorced her third husband.

That callous brute, she charged, made a practice of sitting up in their connubial chamber until all hours of the morning reading books.

It seems plain that the sin charged was one of commission and not ommission, since she also related that (plainly as a result of his outrageous eccentricity) he was sarcastic, embarrassed her at social functions, and refused to mingle with her guests.

Imagine, if you can, the torment of this brave little girl as she swept into some gay ballroom. With a gracious smile to rival sirens, she sought to hide the bitter knowledge that they were already pointing out her escort as the man who read a book. Judged by the mental standards of the community, the fellow was nuttier than a flagpole sitter.

FORD V-8

In A Class By Itself

THERE is no way to compare the Ford V-8 with any other car because there is no other car like it.

The Ford enables you to step up into the fine-car class in performance, beauty, comfort and safety. But there is no stepping up in price. That is kept down by Ford low-profit policies and unique manufacturing methods. These are as different as the car itself.

It takes eight cylinders to give the modern performance you need these days. The Ford is powered by a V-8 — the finest type of eight-cylinder engine. You have to pay more than $2000 for that in any other car.

New Ford V-8 Truck for 1935

V-8 Performance with Proved 4-Cylinder Economy

The Ford V-8 Truck engine develops more than 80 horse-power. Uses no more fuel than a "four." New directed-flow crankcase ventilation reduces corrosion and oil dilution. Heavy-duty copper-lead connecting-rod bearings. Exhaust valve-seat inserts make valve grinding rarely necessary. Light-weight cast alloy pistons. Truck-type cylinder heads. Dual carburetor and dual intake manifold increase fuel economy.

New, Larger, Heavy-Duty, Truck-Type Clutch

The new heavy-duty truck-type clutch is built for longer life and smoother engagement. The newly designed clutch has lower pedal pressure at idling speeds. The clutch release levers are weighted at the outer ends and increase plate pressure by centrifugal force as the engine speed increases. This arrangement assures maximum resistance to slippage. The diameter of the clutch is increased to 11 inches, and has a larger frictional area. The design is simplified; fewer parts are used. Clutch is ventilated for cooler operation. Clutch housing is integral with transmission housing. Heavy-duty four-speed truck transmission.

Full-Floating Axle

Most dependable type of axle construction. Load is carried on heavily reinforced axle housing. Only function of axle shafts is to turn the wheels. Axle shafts can be removed without jacking up the truck. Straddle-mounted driving pinion. King gear backed by thrust plate. Wheel bearings located directly under the load centers with dual wheels. High or low speed can be obtained on these new 1935 V-8 trucks. Auxiliary springs recommended for unusually heavy loads.

Quick-Stopping, Rib-Cooled, New-Type Brakes

Cast alloy iron brake drums with integral cooling ribs. An extra large reinforcing rib serves to prevent distortion. Cast iron braking surface minimizes scoring. Drums will not "bell-mouth" or expand to cause "fading" when making a series of quick stops in rapid succession. Brake shoe pressure is more evenly distributed by newly designed internal mechanism. Longer life between adjustments. Moving load center forward results in an improved distribution of braking. Brake shoes have an exchange price.

"DODSWORTH" WILL BE PRODUCED AT WILSON THEATRE

Starring Walter Huston, Max Gordon's production of "Dodsworth," dramatized by Sidney Howard from Sinclair Lewis' most famous novel of the same name, and with Fay Bainter playing her original role, will be the welcome attraction at the Wilson Theatre, Detroit, beginning Thursday, April 4. There will be eleven nights and three matinees of the play, the engagement ending Sunday evening, April 14.

Coming almost direct from its 42 weeks triumph in New York, "Dodsworth's" engagement here will easily be a high-light of the season.

Sidney Howard, who adapted "Dodsworth" for the stage, is one of the outstanding American dramatists. He won the Pulitzer Prize in 1924 with the Theatre Guild production of "They Knew What They Wanted." Among his best known plays are "Ned McCobb's Daughter," "The Silver Cord," "Allen [illegible]

"Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no man cometh unto the Father but by me," John 14, 6.

A missionary to India tells of being aroused at three o'clock in the morning to begin a journey through the jungle and past an ancient buried city. It was very dark, and his native guide said to him, "Keep close to me!"

As they went through the darkness, the missionary following close on the heels of his leader, no path could be seen. They seemed to be turning first this way and that, until the missionary was convinced that they had missed the way. Finally in his anxiety the missionary cried out, "Where is the way?"

"I am the way," came the calm reply. "There is no way to be seen but here with me. Follow step by step and the end of the journey will come."

Christ tells us He is the way. He is not one of several ways, but THE WAY. No one can come to the Father but by Him.

Here is the great test of human leadership. Are those who are calling to us to follow leading in the true way or some other way?

We need to be discerning here. Many human leaders today claim to be following Christ. But if we will listen carefully and prayerfully and check up with God's word we will see that all who profess to be following Christ are not following the Christ of the Bible.

Some present to us an ethical Christ—one whose ethics are to be adopted, but who was not necessarily what He claimed to be, the Son of God.

Others hold up to us a social service Christ—one whose deeds of love and mercy are to be emulated, but who is not our Savior and coming King.

Still others point us to an exemplary Christ, who came to show us how to live, and yet was only the flower of humanity, divine only in the sense that all men are divine, because they have in them a spark of the Infinite.

But Christ came primarily to redeem man. If we want Christ as OUR way then we must believe in Him as our God and Savior.

"Because Thy blood was shed for me;
Because Thou bidd'st me come to Thee;
O Lamb of God, I come."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (I Kings 8: 57, 60): "The Lord our God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us. That all the people of the earth may know that the Lord is God, and that there is none else."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 275): "All substance, intelligence, wisdom, being, immortality, cause, and effect belong to God. These are His attributes, the eternal manifestations of the infinite divine Principle, love. No wisdom is wise but His wisdom; no truth is true, no love is lovely, no life is Life, but the divine; no good is, but the good God bestows."

HARRY WHITE TELLS EXCHANGITES ABOUT WONDERS OF HAWAII

Hawaii, the paradise of the Pacific, was briefly described by Harry White at the meeting of the Exchange club Wednesday noon.

The location of the islands, the picturesque beauty of this tropical land, the several races there were pictured in as colorful language as one could command.

Mr White said the schools were modern and the courses up to date, the people liked company and were entertaining.

The islands produce great quantities of sugar and pineapples and result in much commerce.

Business is not as serious a matter as it is with us. If a shopkeeper wants to close at 3 o'clock he does so, and goes home or on a picnic and no one thinks anything about it.

Mr White told about the active and inactive volcanoes, the native foods, the hula and other dances, the question of servants and many other interesting items.

Dr Dan A. Brief, vice-president, presided and saw to it that the guests were introduced and was instructed to give his life's history. He made it as brief as his name.

The formation of a class in aviation is in process and will be taken up more fully next meeting day.

IS HOME LIFE DECAYING?

(La Grange, Ind., Standard)

It is easy for all of us to blame the school, the church and the community influences for failing to bring up the youth successfully.

We ought to ask ourselves first, whether the family influences in our homes are right. Is home just a restaurant for the boys and girls or is it an institution of moral and cultural training?

There are charges that the modern home has decayed—that it is no longer an institution.

Will our boys and girls look backward in later years, to early home life in which good reading, good music, good times in the family circle and wholesome moral influences were notable?

Perhaps it is one of our biggest jobs to make successful homes for our children.

That Is Going Some

Obituary

CHARLES NELSON HINMAN

Charles Nelson Hinman, aged 59 years, passed away Tuesday evening about 5 p. m. at his home at 402 Yerkes street after suffering a paralytic stroke.

He had been confined to his bed since March 3, after a similar attack.

Mr Hinman was born on the Hinman farm on the Seven Mile road the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Hinman.

He was united in marriage to Edna Morgan. Born to this union were Irene now Mrs Harold Stewart of Plymouth, Walter Maylon, Harry and Clyde.

Mrs. Hinman died in 1922 and Harry in 1924.

He was a well-respected citizen of the community and was greatly liked by many friends.

He is survived by his daughter, Mrs Harold Stewart, three sons in Northville, Walter, Maylon and Clyde, two grandchildren Irene and Robert Stewart, four sisters, Mrs Edith Bebee, Mrs Robert Marshall and Mrs Bertha Hinman, all of Detroit, and Mrs Maude Bunzel of Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today (Friday) at Schrader's funeral parlor with interment in Rural Hill cemetery.

JOHN ZEILMAN

John Zeilman, well known citizen of Hamburg, passed away Monday morning, March 25, at the home of his daughter, Mrs Charles DeWolf.

He was born in Nuremburg, Germany, October 25, 1848, and came to the United States in 1872 after serving in the Franco-German war of 1870-71.

He settled in the vicinity of South Lyon and in the surrounding communities and was united in marriage to Caroline Dumke of Detroit April 30, 1877.

To this union were born five children: Mrs. Charles DeWolf of Hamburg, William Zeilman of South Lyon, Mrs. Martha Green of Green Oak, Frank, who died in 1934, and Bessie of Hamburg, also surviving. There are also ten grandchildren and one great grandchild. His wife passed away January 16, 1913.

In 1914 he was united in marriage to Miss Minnie Balko of Northville. Since her death in 1931 he has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Charles DeWolfe, of Hamburg.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the home and conducted by the Rev. Leo Eckstaedt.

Happenstance

The nonsense word happenstance is a humorous telescoping of happening and circumstance. Possibly it may be found in humorous verse, but it has never received literary sanction. In formation it is similar to upendicular, a telescoping of up with perpendicular.—Literary Digest.

Canvasback Fastest of Ducks

The canvasback is perhaps the most famous of all our ducks, says the American Nature association. It is one of the fastest of ducks, and moves often in great flocks on the fresh water lakes, larger streams and less brackish bays and inlets. It nears its young from Alaska to Nebraska, and winters chiefly in the Middle Atlantic and Gulf states to Mexico.

"College Rhythm," "Wagon Wheels" Both To Be Shown Here Saturday; "Romance In Manhattan" Wednesday

"College Rhythm"

Girls, melody and laughs play an equal part in Paramount's campus comedy, "College Rhythm," coming Saturday, March 30, to the Penniman-Allen theatre, with Joe Penner heading the featured cast.

Directed by Norman Taurog, "College Rythm" presents Penner, Lanny Ross, Jack Oakie, Helen Mack, Lyda Roberti and Mary Brian in a story about the campus cut-ups who turned the department store business into a college football campaign.

The story has its beginning at a state college where Jack Oakie, as "Love and Kisses" Finnegan, a football hero, becomes Lanny Ross' deadly rival for the love of Mary Brian.

Their rivalry is carried over into the business world, but temporarily submerged when Oakie gets a job in the store owned by Lanny Ross' Father.

"Romance In Manhattan"

"Romance in Manhattan," which comes to the local theatre Wednesday, April 3, Hollywood has sent to the screen a beautifully acted drama of bitter-sweet romance, touching pathos and the struggles and dreams of two of New York's millions who face life's eternal problems a bit afraid but with sunny optimism. It is a picture that must appeal to all ages and all castes because of its vivid human theme and its stirring, lifting spirit of courage highlighted with episodes of delightful humor.

The school champion for the Detroit News spelling contest will be named on Friday.

Helen Zarsih has to stay at home because of the illness of her brother who has the measles. We hope that Helen does not have them too.

Several from the ninth and tenth English classes are taking up extra credit work in literature.

The seventh grade arithmetic class will spend this week and next on graphs. Most students like to make them.

THE MENACE OF DUST STORMS

We all read with pity of the devastating dust storm which last week swept across sections of the Middle West and Southwest. Following similar storms of last year, this blanketing of vast areas with a thick coating of soil, stripped from the growing fields of grains, will bring many farmers to the point of sheer desperation.

Last year, in connection with this plague of dust storms, there appeared articles that indicated that there is a possibility of another American desert. That would not be pleasant to contemplate. Anyone who has ever crossed the pitiless Mojave desert on the way to California, wants no more deserts to cross.

It would be an interesting study to know what part of our drought and storm losses of this kind have come from the ruthless American policy of cutting down trees. Our water sheds, in many places have been stripped of the trees and underbrush that nature designed to help conserve our water supply. The result has been that the water, when it did come, has run away and has not gone down into the soil, as it formerly did.

Michigan has been criminal in the cutting down of vast areas of trees. Greedy men, unstopped by public sentiment or mandate of law, have given us vast sections of "second growth" where we should have beautiful forests and woods. It is too late to save the millions of trees that have been butchered from the face of our marvelous peninsulas, but it is not too late to save those that are left nor too late to plant other trees. There are other factors that are helping our state from being subject to these devastating dust storms, but even so, there are many reasons why scientific study should be given to the conservation of the tree life of the state.

The time may come when no one in Michigan will be allowed to cut down any tree anywhere without permission of those who know the value of trees to us all.

SUPPOSE THE STORE WEREN'T HERE!

One of the very first things the writer heard, over four years ago, when the editorial family came to Northville was that this little city had in the Schrader furniture store one of the finest business places of its kind in the whole state of Michigan.

Northville still has the Schrader Bros. store and it still is one of the best stocked stores to be found anywhere in cities even two and three times as large as Northville.

Do we appreciate this?

We ask this question because we read just a few days ago in the editorial column of a newspaper in a city of 5,000, of the great loss that came to the place because its only furniture store had been moved away. The town, said the writer, now realized (too late) just what the fine furniture store had meant to the whole community. People took it for granted that the town would always have the store but lack of loyal support caused it to quit.

As a neighbor across the street from the big Schrader store, we want to say that Northville does appreciate the fact that Nelson C. Schrader is keeping this outstanding business place right on the map of Northville and Wayne county.

All through the depression—now happily drawing to a close— Neighbor Schrader kept on selling furniture and did not let his stock "run down." This "heads up" spirit brought in business—sometimes from quite a distance. The optimism displayed by "Nels" has been an inspiration to all other business men. This "go ahead" attitude will certainly be rewarded with a lot more business in the days to come.

The Schrader furniture store is one of Northville's best civic assets. And Northville appreciates it.

OVER PUBLIC SPENDING

The reckless spending of huge sums by our government is bringing just what a thoughtful person would expect, viz., much talk of graft and corruption.

In Ohio we have the spectacle of the governor fighting with the federal authorities over charges of graft in the welfare work. The situation was said to be so bad that President Roosevelt had to take a hand. In Texas a bunch of engineers and contractors have been indicted on charges of plotting to defraud the government on a five million dollar irrigation project—a child of the PWA.

In the meantime the public debts accumulate and the people will foot the bill—now and for many years to come—and a lot of the crooks and grafters will go free.

One of the best benefits of the whole set-up of scandal will be that after a while Brain Trusters will quit trying to reform the country by a lot of fantastic plans. The whole mess has gotten so bad that in the Illinois legislature the other day one representative said: "I, for one, am about to tell the Washington bureaucracy to go to h—."

WILL WAR COME IN EUROPE?

Will there be war in Europe? And if there is, will it involve the United States?

These are questions that even the casual readers of the daily newspapers have to think about these days. War news is getting the big streamers in many of the papers.

No one can say whether there will be war or not—now or in five or ten years. A little spark can cause the conflagration or, on the other hand, war may not come, even when all signs point that way. Experts will tell you that no war is "inevitable." Europe is full of hatreds and of scheming coteries. Yet every diplomat across the seas knows that no nation ever wins a war. Yet the crazy race for armaments may drive the nations into war.

Certainly war in Europe could not continue for long. Why? Just because the nations there are still tottering from the devastation of the World war and bankruptcy would soon bring the bloodshed to an end.

Another reason to think there will not be much war in Europe now is that the United States will have to provide much of the munitions and the backbone for war. And if we loan money for this, as we did in the last war, we are more stupid than we think.

We are more afraid of a war in Europe in ten or twenty years than we are right now.

HOW TO GET PEACE

(George R. Averill in Birmingham Eccentric)

What a great peace comes to those who live within their income!

Earning a living is an excellent vocation, but extravagantly spending that living never brings a livelihood!

Of course, hard times come upon people, and there may be a temporary excuse for living (or shall we call it existing?) beyond one's means. But, to continuously spend more than one earns, and thus face the gnawing fear of the creditor, makes people prematurely wrinkled and wretched, gray and gaunt. And, besides, to self-discipline one's self

It seems plain that the sin charged was one of commission and not ommission, since she also related that (plainly as a result of his outrageous eccentricity) he was sarcastic, embarrassed her at social functions, and refused to mingle with her guests.

Imagine, if you can, the torment of this brave little girl as she swept into some gay ballroom. With a gracious smile to rival sirens, she sought to hide the bitter knowledge that they were already pointing out her escort as the man who read a book. Judged by the mental standards of the community, the fellow was nuttier than a flagpole sitter.

Truck owners know economy THAT'S WHY THEY BUY CHEVROLET TRUCKS

Illustrated: 1½-Ton Panel Truck (131" Wheelbase)

MEN who study haulage costs know that Chevrolet trucks are as outstanding in economy and durability as they are in price. Chevrolet trucks handle tough hauling jobs day after day at small operating cost, because they are built to Chevrolet's own high standards of quality in every part. The powerful six-cylinder valve-in-head engines are truck motors, especially designed to give sustained pulling power and to keep on working under the hard punishment of road and load. Features that assure stamina and long life are evident in every detail of the precision-engineered chassis. Chevrolet trucks offer maximum capacity, economy and quality—because Chevrolet is the world's largest builder of trucks

CHILDREN, PARENTS WARNED NOT TO USE ANY FIRE CRACKERS

Several have complained of fire crackers in Northville, and it might be well for those who have brought them here, or possesses them, to know that the law of this state provides severe penalties for those who furnish the fireworks or have anything to do with them,' Fred J. Cochran, village attorney, says.

The largest fire cracker permitted in Michigan is not above 3-2 inches in diameter and 2 inches long, and loaded only with black powder.

The law also excludes blank cartridges, toy pistols, toy guns, or toy cannons that can be used to fire blank cartridges.

It would be advisable for parents to take their children in charge and make certain that they do not break this law, Mr Cochran says

The presence of explosives is very easily traced The penalty is $100 fine or 90 days' imprisonment, or both.

GOD'S TURN, by Henry S. Coffin.

"Here is liberal preaching at its best, exhibiting much of the strength of that school and a few of its most patent weaknesses The book is to be recommended quite as much for its method as for its content; the sermon entitled 'Shields of Brass' constituting a striking treatment of an obscure Old Testament text. Churchmen will consider the Trinity Sunday sermon inadequate, but any clergyman will profit by a careful study of Dr. Coffin's brilliant homiletic style."—Living Church

MRS. SMITH URGES WOMEN TO SUPPORT CIRCUIT JUDGES

Mrs. Frank Day Smith, who has been working in the interest and with the "Committee for Good Judges," is making the following appeal to the women of Northville to get out on April 1 and vote, and to vote intelligently.

"Do you know the welfare of Detroit and its business future depends on what kind of men we put into office in the April 1 election?

"Do you realize that in Wayne county there are approximately 140,000 registered women voters, and that if we properly informed ourselves and voted, we could put into office the men who are fully qualified by experience to administer the affairs of our city and county?

"At the primary election less than one-third of the women voters of Wayne county voted Do not let it be charged against us that because of our civic neglect the candidates wholly unqualified have slipped into office. The affairs of Wayne county are fully as important to the women as to the men. May we realize this and also realize our duty to select the candidates whose selection will insure the highest standard of government.

"A glance at the two slates of candidates should convince every serious-minded woman that the calibre of some of the candidates is very poor and that they do not merit our support.

"This issue is of critical importance. Read, inform yourself, and vote on April 1. Then do your best to get the largest number of other voters to do likewise."

STEVE ARMSTRONG'S HOUSES, BUILDINGS WILL BE PAINTED

Steve Armstrong, garage proprietor of 577 Randolph street, announced this week that he will have a number of buildings painted this spring.

Included among these are seven buildings on his farm on Beck road near Walled Lake, which has a seven-room house and a 70 by 36 foot barn.

The house and garage Mr. Armstrong owns at 223 Church street as well as his residence on Randolph street will also receive a coat of paint.

"DODSWORTH" WILL BE PRODUCED AT WILSON THEATRE

Starring Walter Huston, Max Gordon's production of "Dodsworth," dramatized by Sidney Howard from Sinclair Lewis' most famous novel of the same name, and with Fay Bainter playing her original role, will be the welcome attraction at the Wilson Theatre, Detroit, beginning Thursday, April 4. There will be eleven nights and three matinees of the play, the engagement ending Sunday evening, April 14.

Coming almost direct from its 42 weeks' triumph in New York, "Dodsworth's" engagement here will easily be a high-light of the season.

Sidney Howard, who adapted "Dodsworth" for the stage, is one of the outstanding American dramatists. He won the Pulitzer Prize in 1924 with the Theatre Guild production of "They Knew What They Wanted." Among his best-known plays are "Ned McCobb's Daughter," "The Silver Cord," "Alien Corn" and the adaption of "The Late Christopher Bean."

Walter Huston last appeared on the stage before going into the movies in "The Commodore Marries," adapted from a novel by Smollett. He made his first great success in "Desire Under the Elms" and later played in "The Fountain," "The Barker," "Kongo," and "Fast Company."

Fay Bainter, famous as a star in "The Willow Tree," "East Is West," and "The Admirable Crichton," made an outstanding hit with her performance as Topsy in the Player's club revival of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" last spring. Frederick Worlock will be remembered for his performance as leading man for Elsie Ferguson. Nan Sunderland played Desdemona to Walter Huston's Othello at the Central City, Colorado Festival last summer. Ethel Jackson played the title role in the original production of "The Merry Widow."

There are, in all, forty players in "Dodsworth." The revolving stage will facilitate shifting of the sixteen scenes in the production. The play was staged by Robert Sinclair, who appeared from time to time as the playwright of "Once In a Lifetime" and who staged the dynamic "Peace On Earth," now running at the City Repertory Theatre in New York.

Max Gordon, producer of "Dodsworth," is rapidly assuming leadership of the American producers. The scenery for "Dodsworth" was designed by Jo Mielziner, whose settings for "The Little Show," "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" and "Alice" won high applause.

NEW STREET SIGNS WILL BE ERECTED SOON IN NORTHVILLE

Within the next 60 days Northville streets should all have glistening new signs at each corner.

The FERA men have been working on the signs for some time now and they would have been ready much sooner except for the fact that the men are able to spend only a few hours a day on the work.

The signs will be made of wood, and their color scheme will be black letters painted on a white background. The present sign posts will be used for the new signs.

Several are absent because of sickness.

In art class the children made Dutch windmills.

We have our first bouquet of pussy willows.

Each child in the second grade made a set of addition combination cards and each third grade child made a set of cards for multiplication facts.

In English class we are having letter-writing. The children all learned "Sweet and Low" and can sing it.

The boys and girls of our room sadly miss their school-mate, Harold Sperkowski, whose sudden death shocked us all.

Richard and Jack Appling are new entrants to our room, Jack being in the sixth grade and Richard in the fourth. A number of the boys and girls are out because of measles and chicken pox.

About 20 from the 9th and 10th grades visited the state capitol at Lansing last Wednesday. Some of the students were fortunat enough to secure the governor's autograph.

Our seventh grade is growing in number. Kenneth Rippey came from Detroit this week to enroll.

The school champion for the Detroit News spelling contest will be named on Friday.

Helen Zarsih has to stay at home because of the illness of her brother who has the measles. We hope that Helen ds not have thm too.

Several from the ninth and tenth English classes are taking up extra credit work in literature.

The seventh grade arithmetic class will spend this week and next on graphs. Most students like to make them.

"College Rhythm," "Wagon Wheels" Both To Be Shown Here Saturday; "Romance In Manhattan" Wednesday

"College Rhythm"

Girls, melody and laughs play an equal part in Paramount's campus comedy, "College Rhythm," coming Saturday, March 30, to the Penniman-Allen theatre, with Joe Penner heading the featured cast.

Directed by Norman Taurog, "College Rythm" presents Penner, Lanny Ross, Jack Oakie, Helen Mack, Lyda Roberti and Mary Brian in a story about the campus cut-ups who turned the department store business into a college football campaign.

The story has its beginning at a state college where Jack Oakie, as "Love and Kisses" Finnegan, a football hero, becomes Lanny Ross' deadly rival for the love of Mary Brian.

Their rivalry is carried over into the business world, but temporarily submerged when Oakie gets a job in the store owned by Lanny Ross' Father.

"Romance In Manhattan"

"Romance in Manhattan," which comes to the local theatre Wednesday, April 3, Hollywood has sent to the screen a beautifully acted drama of bitter-sweet romance, touching pathos and the struggles and dreams of two of New York's millions who face life's eternal problems a bit afraid but with sunny optimism. It is a picture that must appeal to all ages and all castes because of its vivid human theme and its stirring lifting spirit of courage, highlighted with episodes of delightful humor.

The Methodist Aid society will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmes next Thursday. Dinner will be served at noon and the public is invited.

Albert Holmes is working at the Oldsmobile service station at Redford.

Miss Esther Harnden, Mrs. Julia Harnden and Mrs. Jennie Harnden visited a relative, Mrs. Delia Todd, at Mt. Pleasant Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Burton Munro is ill with complications resulting from the flu. Mrs. Mockeridge is caring for her.

Delos Leavenworth is ill with pneumonia. He was better at this writing.

HAROLD SPERKOWSKI IS KILLED BY MOTOR

Tragedy entered the village of Novi last Thursday evening when Harold, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sperkowski, was accidentally struck and killed by a car driven by a Mr. Williams of Grand Rapids, at West Grand River Ave., opposite the Novi Postoffice and instantly killed.

A prayer service was held at the Novi town hall Monday morning before the body was removed and taken to Our Lady of Sorrows church at Farmington where the funeral service was conducted. Six little school mates, Jack Schoun, Walter Lorion, Carold Baker, Perry Keuler, Albert Brauer, and Jolly Cramer, acted as pall-bearers.

Burial was in Mt. Calvary cemetery at Redford.

Kind neighbors and friends did all they could to soften the blow for the sorrowing family and brought many beautiful floral offerings as an expression of sympathy.

Harold was born in Detroit, May 16, 1923, and passed away on Thursday evening, March 21.

Surviving are his parents and the following brothers and sisters: Leonard, Edmund and Joe, Jr., of Detroit, and Raymond, Dorothy and Bernice at home.

MAKE YOUR GRASS HELP YOU CHOKE OUT WEEDS!

● Grass roots become active earlier in the spring than weed roots. By giving your lawn a square meal as soon as the frost is out of the ground, you can give the grass such a quick, healthy start that weeds will find little room to grow.

But it takes a very thick turf and a deep, matted root system to choke out weeds. You can have this kind of grass only by feeding a complete, balanced plant food, such as Vigoro.

With Vigoro you take no chances. It supplies all the food elements growing things need from the soil. It is sanitary, odorless, easy to use. Economical, because its results are sure.

VOTERS!

Is it about time to cast aside petty politics and elect into office the candidates best qualified? With this thought let us lend our support in the re-election of for Auditor of Wayne County. His long record of honest, courteous and efficient performance of the duties of this office should merit the approval of every voter.

Jack always remembered Northville! Let Northville remember him!

No one should overlook the experienced candidates for the several JUDGESHIPS on the REPUBLICAN TICKET!

The Golden Gate

The Golden Gate is a channel at the entrance to San Francisco bay, between the peninsula on which is located San Francisco and the one upon which Sausalito stands. The average width is two miles, and the depth is sufficient for ocean steamers. It is guarded by Forts Pointe and Mason, both on the south shore. The name was given to this channel by Drake, about 1573.

Finally It Happened!

Someone killed—someone injured—cars smashed! And the man who "never had an accident" found out that "carrying his own insurance" cost him many times the small premium that his agency charges for adequate Automobile and Fire Insurance.

Society Notes

Ladies Are Guests of Mrs. Deal At A Luncheon Thursday—

Mrs. Gary W. Deal was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday at her home on West Main street. Her guests were: Mrs. Hiram E. Blowers, Mrs. Albert Batman, Mrs. Clifford Casterline, Mrs. Clyde L. Casterline and Mrs. August A. Holcomb.

Teachers Listen To Royal Oak Educators Thursday—

The Northville Teachers club held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday and listened to two outstanding speakers.

Ray Ebaugh, President of the Royal Oak Teachers' club gave a report on several meetings he attended while at the National Education Association in Atlantic City, last June.

Miss Constance Kingan, who is chairman of the sixth district of the Michigan Education association, also spoke on laws that were about to be enacted which would be beneficial to teachers.

Mrs. P. E. Aldrich, the mother of Mrs. O. P. Rengo, who teaches in Royal Oak, was also a guest of the meeting.

Mrs. Griswold Welcomes W. R. C. Wednesday Afternoon—

Mrs. Dean P. Griswold cordially welcomed 20 members of the Woman's Relief Corps at her home on West Dunlap street, Wednesday afternoon. Some passed the time playing games while others chatted sociably over their needlework.

Cake and tea were served by the hostess.

Alice Masters Reaches Her Sixteenth Birthday—

Alice Masters was honored on her 16th birthday on March 23 by a surprise party given by Marianna Nelson. A beautiful cake decorated in green, was presented by Norene Blake. Others present were: Doris Beasley, Thyrza Lester, Wanda Bender, Lula Lyke, Verna Little, Mr. and Mrs. Hadcroft of Detroit. Bunco and dancing were enjoyed.

Miss Goodale Gives Dinner Honoring Friend on Her Birthday—

Miss Eva Mae Goodale was hostess to a group of young friends at her home on the Base Line road honoring Miss Betty Jean Clark on her birthday, March 23.

The following guests enjoyed dinner together: the Misses Goodale, Clark, Vera Lewis, Donna Lemmon, Henry Clark, Clarence Holman, John Holman and Vincent Forshee. Later in the evening the guests attended a dance.

Irma Jane Busby Is "Seven Times One" Tuesday, March 26—

Irma Jane, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Busby, celebrated her seventh birthday Tuesday by being hostess to a party of 14 children at her home on the Beck road. After an afternoon of games and contests, the children were served a dainty lunch with a birthday cake lighted by seven candles.

Among the guests was Joyce Hale of Detroit.

Miss Ira Horsfall Weds Roy Sargent Saturday, March 23—

On Saturday evening, March 23, the home of Mrs. Ethel Elliott on the Territorial road was the scene of a charming home wedding when Miss Ira Horsfall became the bride of Roy Sargent of Salem Township.

Mrs. Harmon Gale played "In An Old-Fashioned Garden" and the Mendelssohn wedding march. A beautifully decorated arch-way formed the back-ground for the bridal party. The petite bride was unusually attractive in white satin, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink and white carnations and anthurium.

Mrs. Elliott matron of honor, wore a dainty pink satin frock and her bouquet was a corsage of ageratum. Mr. Sargent was attended by Milo Horsfall. Rev. Cora M. Pennell of the Salem Federated church read the service which was followed by a buffet supper.

"C. I. C." Class Meets Friday Afternoon With Philip Baldwin—

Fourteen lively boys, comprising the "C. I. C." class (which means "Class in the Corner"), taught by their capable Sunday school teacher, Miss Mable Chamberlain, gathered at the home of Philip Baldwin Friday after school.

A lively ball game gave the boys hearty appetites for the wienie roast around the fireplace and afterward the group sat in a semi-circle on the floor for their business meeting. Directed by their teacher who has a "way with boys", a business meeting was conducted with the president, Harold Schoultz, presiding.

The class has grown from a small number to about 17. They will put on an original play at the opening exercises of Sunday school. Miss Chamberlain is teacher of the De-Kay school on the West Seven mile road.

Mrs. Saley Honored By Thirty Friends at Housewarming—

On Friday afternoon a party of thirty friends of Mrs. D. H. Saley dropped into the new home on the Beck road to surprise her with a hearty housewarming. Baskets full of good things to eat were unpacked and a delicious luncheon was enjoyed together with bridge games following.

As a token of their good wishes for happy years in the pleasant home, the guests presented Mrs. Saley with a lovely white lamp and a boubutt of snapdragons. The Saley house is one of four new homes built for resident physicians' families of the Maybury sanatorium. The home is modern in every detail and its charm lies in the location on a hill commanding a sweeping view over the valley.

Street Half-Mile Long

The Street Called Straight, in Damascus, is but half a mile in length. Here may be seen the site of the house of Judas, where the light of Christianity dawned upon Paul.

Home Missionary Society Holds Lenten Meeting With Mrs. Fuller—

A good attendance of members of the Woman's Home Missionary society gathered at the home of Mrs. A. E. Fuller on the Fishery road on Thursday afternoon for the annual Lenten program which was in charge of the hostess.

Mrs. Chas. E. Rogers led devotions and an interesting "skit" was put on by Mrs. H. Brendt and Mrs. Fuller.

Mrs. I. H. Riddick of Albion, a guest, made an impromptu talk on her experience gathered during her three years of service as president in her local auxiliary.

In the absence of Mrs. Jas. C. Lapham, Mrs. E. J. Cobb presided. Rev. H. H. Mallinson dropped in to enjoy the cooperative luncheon with the society and before leaving early made a few pointed remarks inciting the women to loyalty to their purpose, stressing the fact that their home missionary work should be begun in their own town.

Mrs. Keskey Entertains Company of Frinds Honoring Mrs. Eaton—

Mrs. Sterling Eaton of Plymouth was a guest of honor at a lovely luncheon given by Mrs. Geo. Kesky of Detroit, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Chas. L. Blackburn, Saturday afternoon.

Luncheon was served at one long table in the dining room, the guests enjoying heartily the opportunity for a pleasant renewal of long-time friendship. A bowl of snapdragons was used as a table decoration.

Present with the hostess and Mrs. Eaton were: Mrs. Harold Bloom, Mrs. H. F. Wagenschutz, Mrs. Robert Coolman, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. Alfred Strassen, Mrs. Ward Masters, all of Northville, and Mrs. John C. Burkman, Miss Margaret Murdock and Mrs. Geraldine Hoskins of Detroit.

Mrs. Sarah Leadbeater Is Honored On 83d Birthday—

Proving that 83 years of age is not very old, Mrs. Sarah Leadbeater surprised her friends by dancing the "Heel-toe" polka and schottische with her brother, Wm. Cook, on her birthday, March 25, when her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Kator entertained a party of friends in her honor at their home on North Rogers street.

To the music of the piano played by Mrs. Nelt Stegmeyer, and of two violins played by Elmer and Harry Kator, all the company joined merrily in dancing the old-time dances concluding with the Virginia reel.

At the dinner a lovely birthday cake, the gift of her grandchildren, centered the table. Out-of-town guests who came to honor Mrs. Leadbeater were: Mrs. Stegmeyer of Traverse City, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kator of Pleasant Ridge, Wm. Cook of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Burnett and daughters, Nola and Reva, of Detroit.

Mrs. Leadbeater was made happy by many cards of greeting and a number of beautiful gifts, among them a plant sent by Ionic chapter, O. E. S. of which Mrs. Stegmeyer and Mrs. Kator are members.

COCHRAN ASKS VOTE

judgment where our rights and those of our neighbors are at stake it would be a disaster.

A large majority of those now seeking your ballot as democrats will be seeking it as republicans as soon as the republican party gains the ascendancy, such aspirants for office are not the kind who are entitled to your vote.

To change parties to run for office does not signify a change of political policy, but does point to a desire for a job at the cost of the general welfare. It is not a mark of good citizenship.

You have a right in the ballot which carries with it a grave responsibility and unless you exercise that right on election day you may, by your neglect, place your community and your country in the hands of politicians who care nothing for the public welfare so long as they get a job. Everyone should exercise the right to vote and do so thoughtfully.

Trinity Shrine Installs Officers Thursday Evening—

Trinity Shrine No. 44 held public installation of officers in the Presbyterian church house Thursday evening. Palms and spring flowers were used in decorating the auditorium.

The officers were seated to represent a cross, the emblem of the white Shrine.

The installation ceremonies were in charge of Mrs. Gertrude Webster, Past W. H. P. of Trinity Shrine, and she was assisted by the following Past W. H. P. and Past W. O. S.: Mrs. Lella Gundry and Wm. Morris of Pontiac Shrine, Ruby Adams of Shrine No. 20, Detroit; Julia Rogge of Highland Park Shrine; Orraaya Hadley of Western Shrine, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Craten of Dearborn Shrine; and Flora Van Dyne, Merenna Hay, Ada Bond, Betty Rice, Imogene Bicking and Velma Seibaldt, of Trinity Shrine. During the installation of the W. H. P., Miss Marion Turnbull sang "This Is My Task," accompanied by Miss Mary Louise Boden. Mrs. Vorheis of Pontiac Shrine presided at the piano during the installation ceremonies.

At the close of the installation the following program was given: vocal solo by Mrs. G. S. McCluskie of Northville, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Norman F. McKinney; several dance numbers given by little Miss Delores Boucher of Farmington; a vocal solo by Ben Stewart of Plymouth, accompanied by Mrs. Vorheis.

The following officers were installed: W. H. P., Nellie Seaton; W. O. S., Ralph Auten; N. P., Mary Cassle; Scribe, Merenna Hay; Treasurer, Emeline Slover; Chaplain, Laura Holloway; W. Guide, Edith Strauss; Herald, Flora Van Dyne; Wisemen, Reed Webster, Karl Hillmer; Handmaids, Lillian Hay, Hattie Dennison and Florence Brear; King and Queen, James Van Dyne and Betty Rice; Guard, Grace Arten; Guardian, Trena Jensen; Organist, Carrie Hillmer; Queen's attendants, Ida Worsford, Mae West, Jennie Turnbull, Anna Oliver, Edith Tolman, Ada Goers, Augusta Thompson.

LOCAL ROTARIANS VISIT CONFERENCE OF 23D DISTRICT

crowd mingled, some in tuxedos or trailing formal gowns, others in just their "Sunday best." All seemed equally at ease for orders had gone out "Wear what you please."

The outstanding feature of the occasion was the fervent talk by Dr. Fred B. Fisher, pastor of Central Methodist church, Detroit who offered the purpose of his brother Rotarians to live up to the code of ideals for which they stand.

Answering a criticism of a youth that "You Rotarians may frame your ideals but you do not live up to them," Dr. Fisher justified the idea by maintaining that "A code of ideals is a standard toward which we aim. Having ideals beyond our realization is what marks men as different from beasts."

Wm. H. Marbach of Pontiac presided and Emmett Richards of Alpena was toastmaster. Singing by the University of Michigan Glee club was an interesting part of the program.

A tour of the Cranbrook school for boys and Kingswood school for girls in the afternoon preceding the banquet was a novel experience for the visitors who were amazed at the beauty of the landscaped grounds and the artistic perfection in every detail of the beautiful buildings.

A pause in the impressive stillness of the great stone church with its mural paintings and elaborately carved woodwork was a memorable part of the visit to Cranbrook. Some there were in the party, including Superintendent R. H. Amerman and Leslie G. Lee who climbed laboriously the 160 stone steps in the high church tower where they felt repaid for the effort by a panoramic view for many miles.

Those attending the conference were E. L. Millis, Floyd Northrop, H. B. Clark, E. M. Bogart, Leslie G. Lee, R. H. Amerman, Percy Angove, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Lapham, Fred Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Baldwin, Mrs. Northrop and Mrs. Forney attended the Sunday evening session with their husbands.

NORTHVILLE WOMEN WILL VISIT WWJ

The attention of the members of the Northville Women's club is called to the invitation of WWJ at their Detroit studio this afternoon (Friday). Those wishing to go will meet promptly at the village library at 12:30, having called Mrs. E. M. Bogart previously for transportation.

A trip will be made through the Detroit News building with a visit to the broadcasting station where a program will be heard first hand. A tea, served at courtesy of the Detroit News, will be served.

Guests will be welcome. A most enjoyable afternoon is anticipated.

Walled Lake Schools Hear Musical Program

Forty members of the Girls' Glee club of the Milford high school, gave a concert in the Walled Lake high school auditorium Monday afternoon.

The Glee club was directed by Miss Helen Clark, instructor in vocal music, and was accompanied by Miss Adeline Krueger.

Junior Play Great Success

Walled Lake juniors presented their annual play, It Happened in Hollywood" before a capacity crowd in the high school auditorium Friday evening.

Music between the acts" was furnished by Grace Potts, Robert Helvey, and Bernice Hubbel with accordion, mouth organ and piano solos.

The setting of the play, a modern sitting room, had been tastefully arranged under the direction of Marion Murray, stage manager. Ticket sales were managed by Kenneth Coe, and properties secured by Helen Buffmyer. Raymond Harris and Millard Mitchell had assisted with details.

Theral Herrick, director of the play, was presented with a beautiful leather bill fold and key case by Robert Burton, junior class president, before the play began.

The play proceeded without a hitch and was far superior to the average amateur production. Many regular patrons of high school productions pronounced it the finest dramatic event in the history of the school.

The cast of characters was as follows:

(In order of their appearance)

Jaris, the Pembroke butler—Elmer Tolettene; Messenger boy—Wendell Power; Tom Garrity, a press agent—James Parley; Alan Tremayne, with movie aspirations—Robert Burton; Josie Pembroke, the daughter of the house—Maxine Jenkins; Princess Dolores, her dearest friend—Shirley Watson; Phyllis Dugenne reporter on "The Movie News"—Doris Lare; Bert, temporarily a chauffeur—Lawrence Sims; Doreen Downing, a movie star—Laura Tolettene; Polly O'Connor, a comedy actress—Georgia Graham; Mrs. Pembroke, the mistress of the house—Bernice Hubbel; Sir Humphrey the Prince's guardian—Robert Culver.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Moss and children of Ann Arbor and Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Staples of Detroit were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Moss Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Bell of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Philp and granddaughter Barbara, of Ferndale were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Philp.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard Stuart returned Thursday from St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. Dan Bentley and family returned to their home Friday after spending the winter in Pontiac.

The Civic Welfare club of Walled Lake is giving a benefit card party Wednesday evening, March 27, at eight o'clock at the Wimmer building. Both bridge and 500 will be played. Refreshments may be obtained in the dining room. Mrs. Wm Kothe is in charge of arrangements.

Home Economics Extension class will meet at 10 a. m. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Glen Buffmyer. The lesson will be "Reconstructing Old Furniture."

The Message Must Go Through

CREWS of men, along a gale-blasted road in Michigan, toiled in drifted snow, battling against a lashing wind. All about them broken poles—casualties of the storm—lay sprawled on the ground amid tangled copper wires. And every wire was heavily burdened with the telephone's arch-enemy—sleet.

At the first warning of this enemy, mobilization begins. Word is flashed through every department. All hold themselves in readiness. Repair trucks, fully manned, rush to the damaged area and the telephone storm troops go into action.

During such emergencies there can be no waiting for good weather; there can be no thought of cost or comfort in the work of restoring service promptly. The messages of Michigan subscribers must go through!

But it is not only in emergencies that the work of safeguarding the service is carried on. It is a year-round job. Millions of dollars are spent annually for new and improved equipment. Day by day rigid inspection and maintenance go forward.

Outdoors, patrolmen examine every foot of Michigan's aerial cable once a year. All long distance cable is tested regularly with the galvanometer, an instrument which can instantly detect a flaw and, even on a cable miles in length, locate that flaw almost to the foot.

Indoors, constant tests are made of all the intricate machinery of the modern central office. And the search for improvement moves steadily on, an endless search for equipment that shall be still more sturdy, still more efficient.

Neither trouble nor expense can be considered in the task of keeping open Michigan's copper lanes of speech; for today, as in the past, the guiding principle is the tradition which demands—fair or stormy, day or night—that the message must go through.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL
And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go
If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks gloomy, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, nasty candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.
For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.
If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blows up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.
It takes those good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.
But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Insist on a substitute. 25c at drug stores. ©1931 C. M. Co.

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

By Harrison Chandler

Spring Is Here!

Spring is coming to Northville—in fact the first section of its joy train has already rolled into town. It arrived very much in earnest last week to give us some most enjoyable weather.

It's really a thrill to see all these swelling buds on the trees once more. As R. T. B. says, the "eternal miracle" is another year amazing us with the greatness of the all-wise creator.

It Means More This Year

But spring means more this year to us somehow than it has ever meant before. For search our memory as we will, we can never remember being in any place during our young life where spring held more prospects of being glorious.

You see, if you will pardon the mention of this person, we have always been hemmed in by a big, dirty city where everyone was too busy to think of anything so "trivial" as the wonders of nature, or if they were interested they would find no satisfaction there, or we lived in smaller communities whose geographical beauty did not compare with that of Northville.

Maybe this is a slight exaggeration, but if we have ever lived in a prettier place than Northville, we must have been too young to recall it.

We Are Ready For It

We had the experience of arriving in Northville for the first time only a few months ago in the midst of the winter. Ever since then we have been looking forward to the time when we could observe the grass turning green again here, the first robins singing, and the first flowers blooming.

Now that time is already arriving. Spring has seemed to arrive suddenly in Northville. For that reason some sharp winds and even snow would not be out of the ordinary for this time of the year. But we hope for the best. The tennis racquet, swimming suit and all those things have been dug out of the mothballs, and we are all prepared for the most beautiful spring—and summer yet.

FEED THE LAWN

Authorities on lawn culture advise giving the turf a good feeding of fertilizer at this season. Commercial fertilizer is more convenient to use and more quickly assimilated in the soil. Now is the time to use it. Before the spring rains come and soak it into the ground.

Lighter feeding should be applied at intervals of six to eight weeks throughout the season.

BUILD FIRMLY the pillars of GOOD GOVERNMENT..

Elect These Candidates!

Protect Your HOMES, SCHOOLS and COURTS

When you, as a voter of Michigan, go to the polls on April 1st to elect the officials who shall administer important affairs of your State, you go weighted with a responsibility that demands your keenest judgment.

In your hands is placed the power to build a firm and clean government; to protect and safeguard the interests of your home and fireside; to insure your children the right of a free and adequate education; to acquire social justice and economic security for yourself and your fellow man.

The eight State offices to be filled in this election are important pillars of the State government. The Republican Party has therefore, with the greatest consideration, placed its stamp of approval upon the candidates selected for these posts. They are persons widely known for their ability in their chosen fields; for their fine sense of public service; for their integrity and experience. They are your guarantee of good government.

Voters of Michigan, your duty is clear! Go to the polls on April 1st and elect these eight Republican candidates. It's up to you!

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

The coming township election on Monday, April 2, promises to be one of the hardest fought in years. Willard A. Ely and Dr. E. B. Cavell head the republican and democratic tickets respectively as candidates for the office of supervisor.

A snowfall estimated at from 12 to 15 inches in depth, and called the heaviest in years, came down Monday, March 26. It looks like a "white" Easter for Northville.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Alexander Saturday, March 24, a seven and one-half pound daughter. The little miss has been named Joy Lou.

Starr Bray, who lives one and one-half miles from Northville on the East Base Line road, has given up farming and will hold an auction at his farm on Friday, April 6. Mr. Bray and his family plan to move into Northville.

A large crowd attended the O. E. S.—Masonic ball Friday evening, March 23, at the high school to dance to the music of Strassen's orchestra.

John Munn, a native of Salem, passed away Sunday, March 25, at his home in Lansing at the age of nearly 79 years.

Former Governor Wilbur M. Brucker was the principal speaker at the Republican banquet held here Monday evening at the Methodist church.

5 YEARS AGO

Additions and necessary improvements to the Maybury sanatorium have been approved by the city of Detroit, and a total of $400,000 will be spent during the spring and summer.

Mrs. Mary Stewart, Mrs. Edith Yerkes and E. C. Hunley have been appointed as the enumerators to take the 1930 Northville census.

Bruno Freydl has let a contract to George Hicks for the installation of a new front in his store on East Main street. The changes will probably be completed within the next week.

Older residents of Northville will regret to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Lillie B. Peck, for over 40 years a resident here.

For nearly a week Northville and the rest of the middle west have experienced just as good a January blizzard as ever swept over the state.

The first theft of an automobile in Northville in a long time took place last Saturday evening when the car of Clifford Preston was driven away. It was found the following night at Farmington Junction where the thieves abandoned it.

Mrs. R. C. Salow, who has been spending the winter in Long Beach, Calif., is expected home in Northville during the latter part of the week. She writes that it is an ideal place to live.

An engagement announced of more than ordinary interest to Northville is that of Miss Mary Aston of Detroit to Robert G. Yerkes, son of Attorney and Mrs. George B. Yerkes.

10 YEARS AGO

Mrs. B. J. Holcomb of Plymouth, who was a teacher in the Northville schools for more than three years, died Saturday night at Harper hospital in Detroit from the results of burns which she suffered at her home about noon that day.

The local Red Cross chapter sent a contribution of $100 this week to help raise funds to relieve suffering throughout the cyclone area of Indiana, Illinois and Missouri.

This evening at their hall the members of Court Northville, No. 65, Foresters of America, will have their twenty-third annual banquet.

Lydia S. White, who was the only daughter of Harvey and Harriet White, and a sister of the late Henry M. White, died Wednesday, March 18 at the age of 83 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Theune left the first of the week for Florida where they expect to make their future home.

USE THIS NEW DETROIT EDISON Service

There is no substitute for the services of an eyesight specialist, but proper lighting helps to protect eyes good and bad, young and old. Your child's eyesight is far too precious to gamble with. His eyes are one of his most important possessions, and defective vision will handicap him in his school activities, in his studies, in later life. Poor lighting is a major cause of crippled eyesight . . . figures show that one out of every five school children has defective vision. Is YOUR home lighting adequate? You owe it to him to see that he has GOOD lighting now in these critical years.

Here are 5 simple rules that will assure reasonably good lighting in your home. They are practical and easy to follow: (1) Use correct size lamp bulbs—"WATTS." In table and floor lamps with three sockets, use 40 watts in each socket; with two sockets, 60 watts; with one socket, 100 watts. (2) Have at least one-tenth as much light in the rest of the room as you have on your book, newspaper, sewing, etc. (3) Use SHADES on all lamp bulbs to prevent GLARE. (4) Use shades with light-colored linings to get the most light. (5) Have enough lighting fixtures or portable lamps to insure the proper intensity of light throughout the room.

Homemaker's Corner

By MRS. EDITOR

"I'm Never Lonely"

"I was all alone so I thought I would come over. I just can't bear to be alone," and the neighbor dropped down in an easy chair as the other reluctantly laid aside her book, sighing to herself, "Well, I was alone for a few refreshing minutes and was just enjoying my own company."

The difference is, one had sources of satisfaction within her while the other had to be amused. The first woman could be contented sitting alone in a twilight garden or by the shore of a quiet lake. She would find plenty of thoughts to make her happy. The other would demand a crowd, a movie or a game with someone to keep her from being bored.

The other day Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, who is staying with Mrs. Chas. B. Rogers while Mr Rogers is in the west, said, "I never get lonesome. There is too much to make life interesting."

"Write it up" we asked, and this is what Mrs. Jenkins says:

I am never lonely. With the daily paper, the radio, a few magazines, a book or two, and some sewing or knitting for the idle hands, life can really be quite full.

At intervals during the day and evening, I am entertained by our various radio friends with a laugh from Amos and Andy or Clara, Lu and Em; with the interesting news of the day by Lowell Thomas or C. C. Bradner; or with Mother Moran's problems of her Today's Children.

Many dreams and beautiful thoughts, many schemes and plans can be woven into the darn on an old sock.

A walk outside will reveal wonderful things, buds, flowers, and trees. Even though the scenes are the same, they change with the weather and with the time of the year.

With all these things, and many more, I wonder how anyone can be really lonely.

Vegetable Casserole

A Northville hostess served the following delicious dish at a luncheon recently. It would be especially appropriate as a meatless dish for Lent:

Two eggs well beaten, 1 cup lima beans, 1 1-2 cup peas, 1-2 cup diced celery, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, 1 tablespoon sliced onion, 1 1-2 cups tomatoes, 27 soda crackers, crushed, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons melted butter.

To the well beaten eggs and ingredients in the order given. Put in buttered pan and bake 40 minutes. Serve hot.

Add the following sauce when serving:

Hollandaise Sauce

3 tablespoons butter in double boiler, 2 tablespoons flour. Blend and add 1 cup boiling water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1-2 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper. Stir constantly until thickened. Leave over low heat until ready to serve. Just before serving pour mixture over 2 well beaten eggs.

Salmon and Macaroni Balls

Flake one-half of a tall can of salmon and add one cup of cooked macaroni which has been cut in small pieces. Add one cup of thick white sauce, one teaspoon lemon juice, and salt and pepper to season highly. Spread out on a plate to cool, then form into eight balls. Roll these in one-half cup of cracker crumbs, or fine bread crumbs, then in one egg which has been slightly beaten with one tablespoon of water, and then roll in the crumbs again. Just before serving, fry until golden brown in deep fat at 390 degrees. Serve two balls to each person and pour over them the following sauce:

Peas in Cream Sauce

Make a white sauce of one tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon flour and the liquor from one 11-ounce can of peas, adding sufficient milk to the pea liquor to make three-fourths cup of liquid. Season with salt and pepper and add the peas from the 11-ounce can. Heat and pour over the balls.

Party Peas

The following suggestion for a pea dish has been selected with an eye to both vogue and "good taste." It is yours for better parties.

Pea Puff With Pineapple

Drain the contents of one No. 2 can of peas, reserving the liquor, and press through a sieve. Make a thick white sauce of four tablespoons butter, four tablespoons flour, one cup of milk, and then add the pea pulp. Season to taste with salt and pepper, add three well-beaten egg yolks and fold in the three stiffly-beaten egg whites. Pour into a buttered baking dish and set in a pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven—350 to 375 degrees—until set and a delicate brown. It will take about twenty-five to thirty minutes. While baking, cook two tablespoons butter and one cup of crushed canned pineapple together until thick and rich. Spread this over the baked puff and serve at once. This serves eight persons.

Scalloped Tomatoes Scotch Style

Bring to boiling point the contents of one can of tomatoes, three-fourths teaspoon salt, one tablespoon sugar and a few grains of pepper. Add one-half cup of quick-cooking rolled oats and pour into a buttered dish. Cover the top with buttered crumbs and bake in a hot oven—375 degrees—for thirty to forty minutes. This serves six persons.

THE VOICE OF THE PULPIT IN NORTHVILLE

Building On Solid Foundation

(By Rev. Kendal S. North)

"Therefore, whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man who built his house upon the rock, and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat upon that house, and it fell not, for it was founded upon a rock." Matthew 7 24 25.

We are living in a stormy period of the world's history. No one can tell what the next day will bring forth. War clouds loom, and rumors fly thick and fast. Nations are making demands of each other and diplomatic relations are being strained to the limit. People are nervous, restless, dissatisfied, and many are breaking under the strain. The turbulent waves of jealousy, hatred, selfishness and crime are beating in upon us, and the question facing us as men and nations is, whether or not we can stand the storm.

Jesus tells us in our text that there is a foundation upon which we may build our lives, and rest assured that no storm can break us down. "Your lives," Jesus is saying, "Are like houses that you are building day by day. But remember that no matter how fine they may look, or how nicely furnished they are, they are no good at all unless they can stand firm against the fury of the storm, and destruction of the flood. To insure this safety they must be built upon a solid foundation. Your lives are built upon a rock foundation only when you hear and do my words." Hearing is not enough. We must put his teachings into practice, we must build them into our lives and make them a part of us. If we are to stand all the storms of life, and not break under the strain, we must put his teachings into actual living. Let us look at three of these vital principles which Jesus sets forth in his sermon of the Mount.

First, he makes it very plain that our religion must be far more than the observance of certain rituals and ceremonies. "For I say unto you that unless your righteousness exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no wise enter into the kingdom of heaven." These hypocritical leaders of religion, had lots of religion, but it didn't go very deep. They insisted upon keeping numerous laws and ceremonies, many of them bordering on the ridiculous. They paraded their piety before men, and Jesus said that they had their reward, for they know they were regarded by men. While God saw beyond their externalism. He knew that such a religion could not stand the trials to which it would be subjected. Religion in order to endure, must be a religion of the heart. That is why the person who knows God through the experience of an indwelling Christ, can stand against the storms of ridicule and persecution while the pretender crashes to earth. Our religion, if it centers about our lives for a personal Lord and Saviour in Jesus Christ, will hold as firm in the face of every trial.

Again Jesus informs us that we must not put all our efforts into winning and earning earthly riches. "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through, and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven." Material wealth is a poor foundation upon which to build our lives. Many have found that out to their great sorrow during the last few years. On the other hand there are heavenly riches in which we may invest with the assurance that they will be forever secure. Financial depression will have little effect upon the man who has given his life to winning others to the Lord Jesus Christ, and helping his fellow man. He may not have much to eat or wear, but he has riches in Heaven.

Above all, the greatest foundation upon which we can build strong and effective lives, is an implicit faith in God. When the storms of anxiety and worry come upon us let us remember that God who clothes the grass of the field and feeds the fowls of the air has promised to take care of his earthly children. Jesus said, "If ye being human know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in Heaven give good gifts to them that ask Him?" Trust in God.

What a different world this would be if we would be careful to build our lives on these teachings. All the forces of evil combined, although they may trouble and confuse us for a time can never succeed in throwing us from our foundation in Jesus Christ.

THIS WEEK

By B. H. WHITE

One could not help but feel a great reverence and kinship for the characteristics displayed by Mrs. Wiggs as they were portrayed on the screen the other night in our local theatre.

This humble lady of the cabbage patch showed a heroism in facing the tragedies of life that was bordering short of being divine.

She seemed to realize that other nature and capacities were limited at best. Her situation in life was almost enough to batter down the most adamant heart, yet she faced it with as fine a courage as any soldier could on a battle field.

Most of us belong to the majority of the masses and our personalities and lives are only known to the limited few in our life. So many of us move along in the rank and file of humble humanity. Accepting the limits of our nature and lot we walk, talk and live with the ordinary folk.

Mrs. Wiggs found contentment and happiness in her lowly lot realizing no doubt that fame and fortune were at best transitory and fleeting.

Yet these limitations need not dwarf our usefulness to those about us. Greatness does not lie entirely with fame and genius. If we read the lives of some of the great we find they were simple, humble and kindly folk.

We write no great poem, paint no great picture or build a great memorial. We accept our lot among the lowly and simple, everyday people.

Yet great lives can be and are lived among the lowly without being of any dazzling genius displayed.

It is such lives as these which make the world decent and fit to live in and without such it would sink into the mire of stagnation, decay and die.

AUCTION SALE TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY AT CHRISTENSEN'S

An auction sale will be held today (Friday) at the Christensen farm at the corner of Nine Mile and Taft roads of horses, cattle and complete farm machinery and tools the property of Harold Knapp, who is giving up farming to accept a position in Pontiac.

The two draft horses are each approximately 1500 pounds in weight. The cows include eight Holsteins, four yearling heifers and two Jerseys.

Included in the farm equipment are a Ford truck, a McCormick corn binder, a six-foot cut mower, an International hay loader, a new riding cultivator, a three-section drag, two-section drag, and other machinery. There is also a large amount of corn, hay, straw and potatoes.

Knapp has been renting the farm from Sam W. Christensen on the Base Line.

AL ZIMMER TO RUN FOR CONSTABLE ON "STICKER" BALLOT

To the Voters of Northville:

Al M. Zimmer's candidacy for constable is sponsored by Northville Young Republican club.

In voting a straight republican ballot all that is necessary to give Zimmer a vote is to place one of his stickers over the name of one of the present candidates; if voting a democratic ticket and you wish to vote for Zimmer, place his name over one of the republican candidates' name for constable and place a cross in front of his name.

The Northville Young Republican club is not only entitled to representation in Northville Township affairs, but it was understood they were to have the constable jobs for the coming year.

It is not the object of the club to take a position away from the older men. We swing our support to Perrin and Tibbits for the following reasons: It is understood that Frank Perrin has already established a record and wishes to go still further and establish an all time record for holding a constable job in any one locality. We also realize that Ulie Tibbits, who came to the club and asked for their support, and who has been a long-time resident of Northville, perfectly capable of serving papers, should be supported.

Wishing representation for the Young Men's Republican club, we feel that Ward Masters and Al Zimmer, sponsored by us, should be elected.

These men have been citizens of Northville for a number of years, active in civic affairs, and we feel they are the type of individuals to serve Northville as constables for the ensuing year.

The Northville Young Republican club.

EMERSON GILL AND BAND GIVE CONCERT FOR SAN. PATIENTS

Emerson Gill and his orchestra featured at the Webster Hall hotel in Detroit, journeyed out to the Maybury sanatorium Tuesday afternoon to provide a good time for the patients.

The concert was arranged by Pat Dennis, radio editor of the Detroit Times, who has earned a reputation as a great friend of the sanatorium.

Marian Mann and Johnny Drake, vocalists of the orchestra, were present and sang many popular requests for the popular melodies of the day.

In addition to the orchestra, Felix Holt, radio comedian of station WXYZ, Detroit, appeared as "Two Nuts" after some beer, and gave a performance that drew enthusiastic applause.

John Augustine, president of the Goodfellows club, which is composed of all the patients, acted as master of ceremonies.

The patients are all grateful to Mr. Dennis for bringing them another outstanding orchestra to entertain them.

MOTHERS AND SONS TO DINE TOGETHER

An excellent dinner which Mother can enjoy without jumping up and down to refill empty plates with her, son as her escort, will be served on the evening of Friday April 12. The occasion will be the Mother and Son banquet.

For years it has been the custom for an annual Mother and Daughter banquet to provide a pleasanter tie between the girls and their elders and the idea of having a similar occasion for the boys grew out of this.

Mrs. Fred Rieger is chairman of the dinner to be served at the Methodist church house and it goes without saying that the menu will be all that could be wished.

An equally excellent program will follow, details to be announced later. The price per ticket will be 50 cents and they will be found on sale at Penniman's store, the Holmes Gift Shop and The Record office.

FIRE AT D. H. OF C. BURNS SMALL SHOP, RUINS MACHINERY

A fire of unknown origin destroyed the roof of a factory and did considerable damage to the machinery within it at the Detroit House of Correction Monday.

The blaze started shortly after 12 o'clock noon and thus had almost an hour to get under way. When it was discovered it had already gained such headway that the flames were shooting up through the roof.

Northville, Plymouth and the Wayne County Training school fire departments were called to the scene. The men at the House of Correction succeeded in getting it under control in short order, however.

It was first feared that the fire would do much more damage, since a building of dry kilns adjoins it, which has a large quantity of lumber stored in it. Officals there believe the only thing that saved it was the fire-resisting roof.

The building burned had several saws and other machinery for shaping wood. Damage was estimated at $500.

A. Blake Gillies, assistant superintendent, said that the Northville fire department deserved great praise for their promptness in responding to the alarm. They reached the scene long before he expected they could.

JOHN C. COWAN AGAIN NAMED FOR COUNTY AUDITOR

John C. Cowan, republican candidate for re-election for Wayne county auditor, has a record of business competency in that office.

One of his achievements is the Ten-Year plan, which restricted the annual expenditure of county income for building and expansive programs by spreading such activities over a period of years.

Recently Mr. Cowan saved in one activity alone more than $1,000,000 of public funds. This savings was realized as a result of a survey he made in the cost of caring for tubercular patients. The estimated savings per day on this item is $1500.

His objective is not to build up a political machine, but to build up an efficient, business-like organization designed to effect still greater economies for the taxpayer, and yet provide adequate service to the public.

The eminently sensible trend of Mr. Cowan's votes on the Board of Auditors, his solicitude for the minority groups, and his familiarity with county affairs merit for him admiration and support in the coming election.

MUST WOMEN PAY
HE PRICE OF FALSE NOTIONS ABOUT WATER HEATING?

If you think any old-fashioned or makeshift methods of water heating actually afford a saving over modern AUTOMATIC gas water heating, you owe it to both yourself and pocketbook to investigate this special offer.

No man wants his wife to spend her health and appearance on needless drudgery. And yet thousands of women are doing just that . . . climbing stairs, shoveling fuel, wasting hours on wholly unnecessary housecleaning. What is worse, they do not have hot water when needed, nor do they save any money by such painful sacrifice. What a price to pay for false notions of water heating economy!

Istanbul Name Changes

Istanbul is quite accustomed to name changes. Back in 660 B. C. it was called Byzantin. Constantinople, in the year 330, called it New Rome. Then the Turks baptized it Stamboul. For a long time it was called Constantinople, and then the Russians, with premature expectations of annexing the city, called it Czarigrad. Since the birth of the new Turkish state it has been given the name of Istanbul.

Many Seminole Relics Found

Thousands of Seminole Indians inhabited the narrow necked peninsula of Florida before the coming of the white man. Evidences of the great colony of Red Men often are found within the city of St. Petersburg. The dead were buried in shell mounds in a sitting posture, facing the east—and their personal belongings were buried with them.
