DETROIT GIRL DIES AFTER AUTO CRASH

Car Runs Over Embankment Tuesday Night Near Ann Arbor

Miss Marian Weaver, 19 years old, of Detroit, was fatally injured at 10:30 p. m. Tuesday evening, following an automobile accident in which the car she was riding plunged down an eight foot embankment and ran head-on into a tree at Territorial and South Lyon roads.

Miss Weaver died at 3:30 a. m. Wednesday in Sessions hospital of a fractured skull. The car in which she was riding was driven by Wayne Parker, also of Detroit.

Deputy sheriffs were of the opinion that Parker, through some means lost control of his car, and that no other car came in contact with his. He was not held.

Miss Weaver's body was taken to the Wayne County morgue by men of the coroner's office at 11 a. m. Wednesday. An investigation of the accident is being conducted by Washtenaw county deputy sheriffs.

COOKINGHAM TELLS ROTARY BENEFITS OF CITY MANAGER

"Plymouth has saved itself $75,000 during the last two years by having its present form of city government," declared Perry Cookingham, Plymouth city manager, at the Rotary club meeting Tuesday noon at the Presbyterian church house.

Mr. Cookingham has held his position for about eight or nine years, and runs the city's affairs like any other business, with a fixed salary. Plymouth became incorporated as a city two years ago.

"Under the new system the tax rate per $1,000 has been substantially decreased," he declared "as well as the bonded indebtedness of the city.

"This form of government would be ideal for any small town," Mr. Cookingham concluded.

Fred Foreman and E. C. Langfield both gave fine tributes to mothers at the Rotary meeting last week.

"MRS. BRIGGS OF THE POULTRY YARD" TO BE STAGED AT SALEM

If you need some fun to pep up your spring work, you will enjoy seeing "Mrs. Briggs of The Poultry Yard" in the Salem town hall on Friday evening, May 24, at eight o'clock.

The jolly play is given by the north circle of the Federated church assisted by some of the south circle. Special numbers are provided between acts and an evening of real diversion is promised.

Mrs. Frank Buers plays the lead, and others in the cast are Edwin Hamilton, Knowles Buers, Eleanor Bennett Renick, Doris Lyke, Curtis Hamilton, Alvin Waterman, Mrs. Ronald Lyke, Asa Whipple, Mrs. Cyril Spike and Mrs. Helen Sturgeon.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME OF VAN VALKENBURGHS

A blaze of undetermined origin threatened the home of Ray Van-Valkenburgh, 400 East Main street shortly after 1 p. m. Thursday, but through the prompt and efficient efforts of the Northville fire department, was put out within 20 minutes after the alarm had been sounded.

The fire started in the attic on the east side of the house, and had reached alarming proportions before it was discovered. The damage through both fire and water was estimated at about $200.

ROCK GARDENS ARE IN BLOOM IN NORTHVILLE

Of one thing at least, Northville may be proud of and that is her beautiful rock gardens. There are a number that are especially worth seeing among them are the gardens of Mrs. T. R. Carrington, Northville's "pioneer rock gardener," Mrs. L. C. Stewart, Mrs. Jos. Hoehl, Mrs. Franklin Knight, Mrs. A. C. Rorick, Mrs. E. C. Langfield, Mrs. Wm. Duguid, Mrs. Daisy Martin and Mrs. Floyd A. Northrop (notice it is usually the women who tend the flowers)

Junior Cole has made an interesting rock garden at his home and Willard Ely has a unique collection of rocks from all over the United States.

Right now these rock gardens may be seen blooming with a riot of color. Creeping phlox makes a splash of lavender, "basket of gold" glows with the color its name signifies, while baby iris, arabis and violets fill in the crevices of the rocks.

With gay beds of tulips and flowering shrubs all abloom, Northville is well worth seeing in Maytime. Lovers of iris should visit soon the back yard of Mr. and Mrs. M. N. Johnson where a choice collection of Chinese iris are about to bloom.

FURNITURE FACTORY BEING REMODELED

Expect To Begin Operating Soon After July 4, Official Says

The remodelling of the old Globe Furniture Company building, which was recently purchased by the Michigan Wood Products Company, is proceeding rapidly and soon after July 1 the "wheels of industry" will be turning there.

This company, which has its factory and office at different locations in Detroit at the present time, manufactures dinettes or informal dining room suites which can be used in kitchenettes or cottages. The market for the product includes Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois.

"We found that a great many alterations were needed," D. F. Marchano, president of the company, said Monday, "and we will have quite a job on our hands to get the building back into good condition. We mean to do a thorough job, though, so that once we begin operations, we will not be forced to stop."

A large amount of the old floor on the ground floor has been torn up and new flooring put in, and there still remains some more of the old flooring to be replaced.

The roof of the one-story part of the factory adjoining the main building, has been torn off and replaced as well as the floor in that part of the building.

"As soon as the building is ready we will move our machinery out here from our Detroit plant and begin operations," Mr Marchano said. "We will maintain our office in Detroit until the stock there has been disposed of and then the office will also be moved here and all operations will take place in Northville."

Asked about the number of men who would be employed at the plant, Mr. Marchano replied that

SUNDAY WILL BE CLIMAX OF CENTENNIAL

Community Joins Observance Of 100th Birthday Of Church

The Centennial week of the First Baptist church of Northville will come to a climax Sunday with two services. The morning service will have as its guest preacher, the Rev. Drury Martin, director of Baptist convention churches in Michigan and the evening program will consist of a union memorial service.

Sunday will also mark the one-hundredth birthday anniversary of the Baptist convention, and Mr. Martin will mention his work in this and possibly a little of its history.

All the churches of the village will unite in the union memorial service Sunday evening. Several organizations, the D. A. R., the Women's Relief Corps, the Lloyd H. Green post No. 147, American Legion, and the Legion auxiliary will attend this service in a body.

The church was well filled on Sunday, May 19, the opening day of the Centennial, at all three services, people coming from Detroit, Plymouth, Pontiac, Wixom, Salem, New Hudson, Farmington and Birmingham to Northville to join in the celebration.

The Rev. J. W. Priest, who was pastor of the church from 1926 to 1928, delivered the sermon of the morning service, taking as his text, Matthew 11:28, which was the identical one used by the Rev. Nathan Noyes in the first service in the church 100 years before.

"The peace that passeth all understanding is only granted to him who is under the yoke of Christ," he said, "and the yoke of sin is slavery."

The pulpit was beautifully decorated with flowers on Sunday. Dr. J. M. Burgess, Dr. Claude G. Burgess and Miss Mabel A. Burgess were the donors of one of these baskets of flowers in honor of Mrs

FORD EMPLOYES TO GET WAGE INCREASE

Daily Wage Rate Raised To Minimum of $6 For 126,000 Men

The 300 Ford Motor Company employees in Northville were jubilant Wednesday as they read in the daily papers that they, along with the 126,000 Ford employees throughout the country, would benefit from the increase in wages that is now established with a $6 minimum.

Announcement of the increase was made by the company Tuesday. Previously a $5 minimum wage per day was in effect. For the country as a whole the payroll will be boosted $2,000,000 each month.

In Detroit alone 41,000 employes will now have their wages raised to $6 a day, and 40,000 more who have been receiving $6 a day will be given comparative increases. The minimum wage is now up to the pre-depression level. "The average wage will be considerably above $6," company officials said.

NEW MARZ FACTORY BEGINS TO OPERATE

Building Has Been Repaired, Painted; New Floors Put In

On Wednesday afternoon the Marz factory got into active operation in its new location in the old Superior Church building on East Cady street and will continue to manufacture pump housings and impellers for Ford cars, Arthur R. Marz announced yesterday.

The building has been completely cleaned from top to bottom under the direction of Merlin Holycross, the foreman, and now offers the men a much larger shop and a well ventilated one as well.

Complete new lighting circuits have been installed on both the first and second floors. The shop is surprisingly light at night, Mr. Holycross said.

At the east end of the first floor, three rooms have been built, using cement blocks, a boiler room, fuel room and wash room. Steam heat will be used.

An entire new hardwood floor has been laid in the second story, and the walls, ceilings and pillars have received a fresh coat of white paint.

The first story floor has been given a surface of concrete. The walls and ceiling will be painted soon.

The moving process began Saturday at noon when the machines were shut down for the last time at the room at the rear of the Marz garage on West Main street. By Tuesday all machines had been moved to the new location and the only remaining work was to get them into their proper places and hooked up to the electric current.

This was a huge job, and everything went "without a hitch," Mr. Holycross said.

The factory now employs 21 men and manufactures approximately 6,000 pump housings and 3,000 impellers a day.

C. R. ELY & SONS ARE NOW LOCATED IN NEW BUILDING

The C. R. Ely & Sons Coal & Ice Company moved into its new building on North Center street Tuesday and "business is again going on as usual" Mr. Ely announced this week.

"We believe that we now have one of the finest ice-houses in the state outside the city of Detroit," Mr. Ely declared, "and we will welcome the people of Northville to inspect it."

Mr. Ely plans an "open house" at his new plant on Saturday, June 1. By that time he expects to have everything permanently arranged. That day all the modern features of architecture and operation will be demonstrated for all who wish to come and visit the new plant.

This week he was engaged in locating a few ammonia leaks, and checking the operation of the refrigerator machine, which cools the ice house. A temperature of 27 degrees will be maintained there all through the summer months, he said.

A four-car garage is being built on the rear of the building to house the trucks used to deliver the ice. The office, as well as the ice-house itself, will also be located in the new building.

Across the street the new Northville Laundry, which is being built under the personal direction of the Frid brothers, is rapidly nearing completion. The walls have been completely finished, and the roof partly completed. The building will be ready for occupancy within 30 days, Sidney Frid said Wednesday.

DAISY MFG. CO. TO ADD NEW BUILDING

Will Be Three Stories High With 11,000 Feet of Floor Space

Plans were approved and contracts let this week for a three-story addition to the Daisy Mfg. Co. plant at Plymouth, according to an announcement made by Edward C. Hough, one of the officials of the company.

The new building will have 11,000 feet of floor space and its dimensions will be 46 by 80 feet and will adjoin the present building on the south side along Union street.

The plans for the structure were prepared by Smith, Hinchman and Grylls, one of the best known firms of engineers in Detroit.

To provide room for it a small building, which has been used for steel storage, will be wrecked at once.

The new building will be used chiefly for service purposes for present existing departments. The first floor will be used for storage of steel but will be so arranged so that in case of future expansion big presses can be installed when they are needed.

It is planned to have the new service building, as it will be called, ready late in the summer so as to be ready for the fall business.

RAILROADS VITAL TO PROSPERITY, TEFFT TELLS EXCHANGITES

"The railroads more than any other one industry in the country, are vital to prosperity," declared L. J. Tefft, of Plymouth, tax commissioner of the Pere Marquette railroad, at the Exchange club meeting Wednesday noon at the Methodist church house.

Railroads are faced today with various forms of competition, including boats, highway and air traffic, he said, and recognize it all as being a necessary step in progress.

"The railroads, however," he said, "are heavily taxed, paying about 30 per cent of the state and county taxes in Michigan, or nearly 30 per cent of the revenues they collect; while truck lines pay only about seven per cent of their receipts back to the government in taxes.

"All the railroads ask in this is to be met fairly," he declared. "Figures computed in 1932 showed that three-quarters of the tons traffic of freight was shipped by rail, but the actual tons moved by the railroads were only one-half. At this rate, the railroads are being grossly overtaxed and the truck and bus lines pay hardly anything for the costly advantages they enjoy.

"Only the most rigid economies and improvements have kept the railroads from getting into debt," Mr. Teffet continued. "Contrary to the belief of some critics, they have made countless improvements, and today America has the finest rail system in the world, and by far the largest."

WHITFIELD ATTENDS THE PRESBYTERIAN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Rev. H. G. Whitfield left Tuesday for Cincinnati, Ohio, where he will be one of the representatives of this presbytery at a meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian church which meets annually with delegates from all over the United States.

This is a recognized honor to Mr. Whitfield which is gratifying to his many friends here. The other representatives from this presbytery are Detroit preachers, Dr. Roy Ewing Vale, Dr. Jos. A. Vance. The assembly will be in session until May 30.

1935 FAIR TO HAVE ADDED ATTRACTIONS

Purse of $500 To Be Given Winners Of Races On Three Days

The 1935 edition of the Northville Wayne County fair will have some new features that will make it more outstanding in many ways than any fair here in previous years.

This was the sentiment of the fair officials as expressed by N. C. Schrader, president of the board of directors, after the meeting of the board and stockholders Friday evening at the village hall.

The directors are contemplating as one of the features for the coming fair, giving a new automobile away on each day of the fair. This will be a new attraction that has never been offered here before at the fair, and in itself should bring many more people, Mr. Schrader said.

The dates have been officially set for Wednesday, August 21, to Saturday, August 24.

Another innovation of the 1935 fair will be stake races, with a purse of $500 to the winners on at least three days of the fair. Never before has the Northville fair offered any purses to the winners. Mr. Schrader said this move, the fair board believes will bring a much better and faster grade of horses to the fair than have ever been seen here before.

Many free acts are being already booked and they will be very much out of the ordinary from the free acts shown here before. Included among these will be the highest aerial act in the world, 120 feet up in the air, which will have some sensational trapeze work. This is one of the most outstanding acts of this nature ever presented in the state, the board believes.

"Prospects for a good fair are much more certain and reassuring than they have been in the last few years," Mr. Schrader said, "and we are making every effort to make the 1935 fair a big success. It will be thoroughly instructive and also entertaining."

The directors will hold another meeting probably during the coming week, and from now on will be continually planning to give Northville a bigger and better fair.

DONKEY BASEBALL GIVES GOOD SHOW

Games Provide Many Laughs As Players Attempt To Ride Mules

A brand new sport to Northville, called Donkey Baseball, was introduced Monday and Tuesday evenings at the Northville Wayne County fair grounds and registered as a big hit with the large crowds which braved the cool weather to see this unusual game.

The contests got under way each evening at 8:30 p. m., the playing field being illuminated with powerful arc lights.

On Monday evening the Northville business men played the Detroit Edison company, and this fierce contest ended at the end of

WOLVERINES DEFEAT PLYMOUTH NINE, 11-4

Will Meet Them Sunday At Riverside Park In A Return Game

The fast Northville Wolverines defeated the Schrader-Haggerty baseball team of Plymouth Sunday afternoon by the one-sided score of 11-4 in a game packed with excitement, and will play them in a return game this coming Sunday at Plymouth Riverside park.

"All of our men showed good form in the opening game," Manager Arnold Jacks said, and the line-up will be used in the return game at Plymouth.

Lefty Barrett, new Wolverine southpaw, pitched the entire nine innings of Sunday's game, allowed seven hits and was never in danger.

For Plymouth, George Bowers started as pitcher, but I was only four minutes when he was sent to the showers. In favor of Harold Perkins, who remained in the box for the remainder of the game.

Plymouth was not only out-hitting seven to ten for Northville but also committed seven errors while the Wolverines were charged with only four.

In the first inning error were especially costly to Plymouth when three Wolverines reached first base in this manner loading the bases. Charles Wolfrom then came to bat and hit the only home run of the day, giving Northville a substantial lead that was never relinquished.

Plymouth scored one run in the first, but the Wolverines came back in the second to score three more runs, by means of another error, two singles, a base on balls and a stolen base.

Plymouth showed its only hitting punch in the third, getting three runs when Ray Westphall hit a triple with three men on base. These men were Berry, Smith, Al and George Summons who all hit singles.

Leonard Milross, Wolverine short stop, made the most sensational stop of the afternoon when in the fifth inning he came away over back of second base to scoop up a fast grounder with his glove hand and throw out the runner at first without even getting back into an upright position.

The Wolverines scored two more

BRUCKER TO SPEAK HERE ON THURSDAY

Public Service To Be Held At Penniman-Allen At 11:15 A. M.

Memorial Day will be observed Thursday, May 30, with Ex-governor Wilbur M. Brucker as the guest speaker at the Penniman-Allen theatre at 11:15 a. m.

The procession will form at 10:45 at the American Legion home, and, led by the stirring martial music of the high school band, will make its way to the theatre. First, will come the American Legion, bearing the flags, then the women of the Legion auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, the Boy Scouts in uniform, and finally the last surviving member of the Allan M. Harmon post, Marvin A. Bogart, who fought with the "Boys in Blue" in '61.

The program in the theatre will commemorate the sacrifice of the heroes who gave their service to their country. The main address will be given by Ex-governor Wilbur M. Brucker, a veteran of the World war. Music by the high school choir and appropriate patriotic readings will supplement the address. Commander Claude N. Ely will preside.

Immediately following the program the procession will again form in front of the theatre, this time joined by the school children bearing flags, and will make its way down Main street and to Oakwood cemetery where the school children will strew flowers on the graves of the "Boys in Blue" who lie there.

To the Oakwood cemetery the Legion and Auxiliary will act as escorts. At the grave of Allan M. Harmon Northville's first boy to fall in the "War of the Rebellion," a salute will be fired and taps will be sounded by the Boy Scouts.

As the procession winds its way on up to Rural Hill, with the Women's Relief Corps as escorts this time a salute will be made on the bridge crossing the River Rouge and flowers will be strewn on the waters as a tribute of honor to those who gave their lives at sea.

At the grave of Lloyd H. Green for whom the local American Legion post was named, again three salutes will signify the honor paid to all the boys who fell in the World war and again the impressive taps will be sounded by the Boy Scout bugler.

It is to be hoped that Northville will participate heartily in these ceremonies of honor to those who paid the price for their country.

Memorial Sunday Evening

On Sunday evening a union Memorial service will be held in the Baptist church. All members of the American Legion, auxiliary, Woman's Relief Corps, D. A. R. are asked to meet at the Legion home at 7:15 and march together to this service.

The speaker of the evening will be Rev. K. S. North and there will be special music.

At nine o'clock Thursday morning the Woman's Relief Corps, American Legion and auxiliary, with the help of the Boy Scouts will decorate the graves of all soldiers.

HOME, SCHOOL, NATION OWE DEBT TO YOUTH, SAYS CARROTHERS

Parents make the mistake of trying to mold their children in their own way instead of trying to find out what is best for them," said Dr George E. Carrothers of the Education department of the University of Michigan, in a thoughtful address at the Methodist church Sunday morning.

Dr. Carrothers spoke on "Living With Our Children," urging parents not to miss the chance to live helpfully and understandingly with their children. Take care of your own children," he advised. "Have them do the things that are good for them, not just the things that you want done."

In an intimate description of the humble home of his childhood, the speaker maintained that luxury was not essential to a happy home.

The charm of Dr. Carrother's talk was its sincerity and simplicity which held the close attention of his audience.

Enlarging the horizon of responsibility, the speaker placed the duty of helping youth to be its best upon the school, the community, and the nation.

Crew of U. S. Fisheries Railroad Car Has Unique Task Of Shipping Fish To Lakes, Streams Of Entire Country

Transporting the lochleven, crimson spotted brook trout and the beautiful rainbow trout from hatchery to nursery and from nursery to lakes and streams where they will be found next fall by Michigan sportsmen is a most unusual occupation.

It is, nevertheless, the work of V. W. Crandell and his crew of three men aboard the U.S. Bureau of Fisheries railroad car that can be found on the sidetrack at the Pere Marquette depot on various days now.

Here is work that really is specialized. "It is an awful job for me to try to explain to people just what we do," Mr. Crandell said, "because after I have told them about it, they most always are just as ignorant as ever."

The car arrived in Northville last week to begin the task of shipping the little trout from the Northville hatchery to nurseries in various parts of Michigan where their life will continue until they have reached a size permitting them to be released to their natural haunts. They have been at the Northville hatchery since January when they came out of their eggs and started life on an active basis.

Asked as to the capacity of a car load and how the fish were shipped Mr. Crandall showed the writer a peculiarly shaped can, which he said would hold five gallons. "That means about 700 fish to a can. And we can load from 250 to 300 cans on for each trip or a total of as many as 21,000. That," he said, "is a lot of fish."

The cans when in place containing fish are all hooked to an air hose which gives a continuous flow of fresh air into the cans. "This little detail is important," he said, "because if the supply ever stopped

Northville To Buy Poppies Saturday To Honor World War Dead; Money To Be Used For Legion Welfare Work

Saturday Northville citizens, along with millions of Americans in almost every city and town in the country, will pay their annual tribute to the World war dead by wearing their flower, the poppy.

Members of both the Lloyd H. Green post, No. 147, American Legion, and the Legion auxiliary will be on the streets here all day distributing these memorial flowers which are dedicated to those men who gave their services and their lives in defense of the nation 17 years ago.

Northville's share of the poppies will be 1,500 of the 10,000,000 that are expected to be sold throughout the country, for which a total of $1,000,000 is expected to be received. No price will be asked for the poppies, each person being free to contribute as little or as much as he chooses for his flower. All funds received will be expended within activities of the local American Legion post and the auxiliary among the disabled veterans and needy families of veterans during the coming year. All of the money received will remain right here in Northville.

The poppies have been made by disabled veterans working in 56 different government hospitals and convalescent workrooms located in 40 states. The flowers which will be sold here were made at the hospital in Battle Creek.

Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald has shown his co-operation with the American Legion in its program by proclaiming publicly the week of May 19 to 25 as Americanism week and endorsing the latter date as Poppy Day. During the week, by the press, the radio, in the schools and in the pulpits a promotion of 100 percent Americanism has been

THE CHAIN LETTER GAMBLE

The reason that quite a sizeable cross-section of our community and of other places "falls for" the chain letter delusion is that a lot of people want to get something for nothing. How else can you figure it?

Becoming a victim of the chain letter "racket" is following the urge—that is in us all, to a greater or less degree—to do a little gambling. This same urge takes a lot of folks to the race tracks where the odds are all against them but where, occasionally, the gambling spirit puts them on the winning side. But in the long run, "the house always wins" as many a gambler, big and little, finds out, to his sorrow.

The only winners in the chain letter swindle are the "early birds." Before the chain runs very long, some one will be holding the bag. How in the name of reason could it be otherwise? Do five and five make one thousand? Does water run up-hill? Do you pick apples from grape vines or roses from sun flower stalks? Who is going to pay you one dollar or one hundred dollars, for doing nothing, except to promise some impossible dream of some easy money?

Take the case of the hard-working 18-year-old boy who came to the writer a few days ago and wanted us to send chain letters to five people. He showed us the letter where it read that he would get over $1500 in return for starting the chain. "Well, Bill," (not his name) we told him, "do you really think you might get that much money, and if so, who would pay it and why should they pay it?" Listen to his reply: "I would get it if they were all honest." We like the boy very much and didn't care to say what we thought: "How honest would you be if you took $1500 that some other 'poor suckers' turned over to you in the vain hope of getting rich quickly?"

The chain letter foolishness will go the way of all other gambling devices that appeal to the cupidity of us mortals. The starters will reap the easy money from those who are fleeced. The finishers will wake up with a headache.

o—o—o

THE BONUS AND PRINTING PRESS MONEY

There are very grave dangers to the national credit in the possibility of using "printing press money" to pay the bonus to the veterans. As this is being written it looks very much as though President Roosevelt would veto the Patman bill and that the senate would not override his veto. We fervently hope that this is the case.

The economists point out that the last time that greenbacks were printed in the United States was during the Civil war times. We don't dare repeat that experience.

But the way that Germany went on the rocks recently is seen in the way that that country used printing press money. People began to lose faith in the credit of their country and soon one had to carry around a basketful of marks to make even a small purchase. If people lose faith in their nation's currency, the danger of national bankruptcy is very real.

Without question, many of the senators who voted for the Patman bill, at heart do not believe in the payment of the bonus. The plain facts are that they were frightened by the lobby of powerful veteran groups. They were threatened with a political boycott if they did not vote as the bonus bloc dictated. When you are talking about the dangers of our country, here is a real one. Government by mob rule is bad. Legislation that is forced by groups that invade the capital like a conquering army is bad legislation.

If we want to keep our democracy we must defy these blocs of legislation dictators and make our laws on the basis of right and justice for all groups and sections.

WHAT CAUSED THE DEPRESSION?

There has been a lot of loose thinking on the question: "What caused the depression?" The Communists would have you think that it was the "capitalistic system." When the banks went down, many people blamed the bankers for the world's troubles. And so on, down the line, there have been endless theories of why we have all suffered so much the past five years.

Few have stopped to think it through and put the blame for the collapse where it belongs, viz., on the World war that nearly wrecked civilization. In the aid of straight thinking read some words from the pen of Prof. Neil Carothers of Lehigh University, one of the soundest and most brilliant educators of the country. He gives a few of the principles which should be ground into the minds of our people, if we are to avoid the disasters which foolish financial policies have brought to some nations. He says:

"The depression is not due to the collapse of the capitalistic system, or to the exploitation of the workers by capitalists, or to the mistakes of the banks, or even to the orgy of speculation which swept over the country. It is due to the World war. It is not an American depression, but a world depression. It did not begin in the United States, but in foreign countries."

"If it comes to a choice between Communism, as seen in Russia (where millions have starved in recent years) and the 'capitalistic system,' give us the latter."

NORTHVILLE NEEDS PLAY PROGRAM

Have you noticed that a representation of Northville teachers and parents is trying to promote organized recreation for the community again this summer?

School will soon be closed for the long vacation and hundreds of youngsters will be turned loose with surplus activity. Unless this energy is directed there will be a lot of mischief done, a lot of bad habits picked up from hanging around undesirable places.

For children on the farm where there are plenty of chores to do there is practically no problem but in the village with limited play yards and busy parents, youngsters need guidance. A Detroit man was heard to say the other day, "I think it is safer to raise a child in the big city than in a town like Northville."

The plan is to have trained play directors keep the children and older youth so happily busy with their recreation program that there will be no chance for undesirable things. There will also be chances for learning to use the hammer and saw, or the needle and paint brush so that your child will come through the summer healthier and wiser and better trained to be a "good sport" in team play.

In Cleveland the judge of the Juvenile court says, "Whenever there is a place for children to play safely, at once we notice that juvenile delinquency is reduced. If you keep well-organized play grounds going you will finally put the Juvenile courts out of commission."

Let's boost for an organized play ground for Northville this summer.

Incidentally, the grown-ups will come in for their share of fun, too.

HIGH RENTS NOT DESIRABLE

It will be discouraging to the worker if rents should start soaring in Northville.

The average wage earner, we have just read, makes less than $1,000 a year. If his rent is $25 a month he has left $700 on which to pay the expenses of his family (and the automobile, for who nowadays goes without a car?). Not much chance to go to Europe on what would be left.

The answer to the rent question in Northville would certainly seem to be the modernizing of a lot of old homes and building of a reasonable number of new ones. A lot of money is being loaned these days for long periods at the rate of as low as two and three per cent. Certainly home ownership should return that much interest.

We all thank the Northville people who are painting or otherwise improving their homes. Such progress helps us all.

We are all glad that the efforts of Father Chas. E. Coughlin to bring social justice are not being analyzed and criticized along religious lines. A Catholic layman just tells us that he is against the Coughlin plan and in Detroit we have been told at different times by different people, that some of the most bitter opposition to the Royal Oak priest's teachings comes from Catholic laymen. On the other hand, we read recently in Washington correspondence, that a very large percentage of the Coughlin following is from Protestants. This situation should make it easy to discuss the radio orator's philosophy from a standpoint entirely removed from religion. That is the way it should be.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Why not have your children take out some life insurance?

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

FREEDOM FOR AMERICANS, OR?

(Tom Huckle in The Cadillac News)

Freedom of speech in America and a free press in America, for Americans is one thing, but loose talk and poisoned pens by radicals, agitators, and communists from foreign shores is another thing. Events of recent weeks plainly show, in our opinion, that too many, including both pastors and laymen, have jumped at conclusions and not gone to the bottom for real facts in the disturbances over so-called "peace" meetings.

As Prof. John A. Hannah, secretary of the Michigan State college, stated publicly at Grand Rapids, "The so-called peace meeting at Michigan State college was no peace meeting; it was not to foster peace but revolution.

"In my opinion," said Pro. Hannah, after describing the "peace" meeting as purely a Communist gathering; "the greatest problem of the public schools, primary, high schools, and colleges, in the next five years will be to deal with the insidious Communistic propaganda being so carefully spread in American educational institutions.

"At Michigan State we have nine students, eight of them from New York City, all of whom arrived at practically the same time on our campus, who came as avowed members of the Communist party. At the University of Michigan there are seven such students who arrived within a few days of the time the group came to our campus."

When such disturbing groups arrived at about the same time at the universities of the great states of Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio and others, surely one needs to investigate and ask why. Continuing his public address last Saturday the Lansing college secretary stated:

"They came to our campus, tried to take over our student organizations, failed in that, and then tried to start organizations of their own.

"All of us," continued Prof. Hannah, "are strong for peace. We abhor war. There is not an educator in the country, I believe, who would not gladly open his institution to any intelligent effort to make war less likely, to outlaw war.

"But when a group has for the crux of its doctrine that the government should be overthrown, not peacably, but by preference by revolution, can you call that a peace movement?

"When you ask students, as I have asked these students, 'Would you take an oath of allegiance to support the United States and the Constitution' and they say 'No,' and when I asked them again, and they say, 'No, we will not,' is there any excuse for using public money to educate young men and women whose purpose is to use their education to overthrow the government of the United States?"

NEW CHAIN LETTER

Mrs. Iona Fool
Mrs. Ura Goof
Mr. I. M. Tight
Mr. R. U. Easy
Insanity Ignorance Poverty

This screwy idea was thought up in a state of insanity and sent to you with the hope that it might bring you hard luck within three days. Make five copies of this letter and send me a dime wrapped in a ten dollar bill. Send the five copies to five of your friends or enemies whom you know to be sort of dizzy.

Leave off the five too names and add your own making application to the Insane Asylum for each of them.

In omitting the top name you write 15,625 letters and mail them out at the rate of 3c each and figuring your time, stationery and wear and tear on brain at 7 1-2c you will only be out $1562.50 and I guarantee you that you will qualify for this club.

Now, is this idea worth a plugged nickel? Of course NOT! Don't have faith in anyone. Don't join any more Clubs and Don't send me any more d — CHAIN LETTERS, or we shall certainly go NERTZ together.

After all this is the one only truly guaranteed plan. Just pass it along and collect one NICKEL cash.

COUGHLIN NOT ALL WRONG

(Geo R. Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric)

The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin is biting off some pretty big chunks of malajusted human relationship to digest. Before he is through with his present crusade, he will be sadder and wiser—and perhaps stronger. No one should honestly declare that everything Coughlin stands for is either wrong or incapable of attainment. But the radio priest, like President Roosevelt, will find that "Rome wasn't built in a day"—and that human nature may often be led up to the trough of good intentions, but will seldom continually drink the bitter waters of self-sacrifice and self-devotion to the methods required to build a better social political, and economic order.

The cheaper the politician the more he costs the country.

THE BEAUTY OF BULL FIGHTING

(W. S. Kennedy in Albion Evening Recorder)

Ruth Chatterton film actress, who has just returned from Spain, thinks bull fighting is a great sport. For whom, Ruthie? Not the bull, who isn't given a chance. He is infuriated by two-foot long barbed darts stuck in his back; he is led to chase around the ring trying to get at his tormentors, who hide behind red flags or vault the low barrier when the chase gets too hot. When he is exhausted and can hardly move, literally at bay, the hero of the performance, the matador, steps forward and kills him with a long knife.

Nor would one say it was much sport for the blind-folded horses, who are frequently gored in a way to turn the stomachs of slightly squeamish spectators and often sewed up to continue in the "sport."

You can have that sport, Ruthie, and we hope, when the youthful matador who killed a bull in your honor gave you its ears, you got blood all over your dress.

In a recent test Marconi talked over 10,000 miles. What a man for Congress.

More miles. Faster miles. Greater economy . . . that is the story of the Ford V-8. There are conclusive figures from owners to show that it is the most economical Ford car ever built.

A particularly interesting and complete report of costs comes from a national fleet owner who has owned 854 Ford cars which have run more than thirty million miles in business use.

175 were Model T Fords which were run 5,017,075 miles. 588 were Model A Ford cars which were run 24,041,632 miles. 89 are Ford V-8 cars which have been run 2,982,686 miles.

This owner's cost records show that Ford V-8 cars cost 12% less to operate than the Model A Fords and 31% less than the Model T Fords. And they covered more miles per month! The monthly average for the Model T Fords was 1509 miles. . . . For the Model A Fords, 1866 miles. . . . And 2571 miles for the Ford V-8.

Each year the Ford car gives you more in value and performance and costs you less to operate.

Actual Figures Show The Ford V-8 is 12% More economical than the Model A and 31% More economical than the famous Model T.

NORTHVILLE SENDS FIVE MEN TO STATE

Bray, Strautz, Giles, Hoffman, and Gregory Will Journey to State Meet

In the Regional track meet held at Ypsilanti Saturday, May 18, five of the N.H.S. men placed and will go to State Saturday, May 25. Two Northville men took first place and one tied for first.

Co-captain Bray won the 800, running it in 2:6.5. He ran in third place until he was about 220 yards from the finish. Then he took the lead and was 15 yards ahead of his nearest competitor.

Hoffman tied for first in the pole vault, but when the men drew cuts to see who would get first place, he was second. He pole-vaulted 11' 3". He was a little off form or he would easily have won, local observers said.

Giles was second in the mile. He ran it in 5 minutes flat. He had a lot left in him to give him strength to take the lead, but he was boxed in and unable to get out.

Strautz also took first place in the shot-put. He threw the shot 43 feet and won the event by at least two feet.

Gregory was third in the 440. He ran the race in 54.5 seconds.

ALUMNI BANQUET IS SET FOR JUNE 7TH

The annual Alumni banquet has been scheduled for June 7, the evening after the graduation exercises, in the high school gym. Miss Grace Angell, president, said the cost would be 50 cents per plate. There will also be a dance after the banquet.

Instead of having the business meeting before the dinner as in previous years, it has been decided to hold the election after the dinner.

No definite plans are completed as to the program, but it is hoped that only alumni members will take part.

The seniors of the 1935 graduating class will be the guests of honor.

Winnie McCardle danced to Duke Ellington's orchestra at Eastwood Park Sunday evening.

The juniors will hold a dance in the gymnasium on Friday, May 24, beginning at eight o'clock.

The admission price will be twenty cents per person.

LATIN CLASS HOLDS BANQUET MAY 16TH

On Thursday, May 16, the Latin class under the direction of its able instructor, Miss Ione B. Palmer, put on a banquet styled after the Romans of Caesar's time.

The banquet was held in Mrs. Zimmerman's room in the high school. At six o'clock the feast began and what a feast it was! There were three courses. The first was the appetizer, consisting of lettuce, olives and eggs. The second course was green beans, vealbirds, jelly and honey. The third consisted of wine, cakes, and apples.

Six slaves (members of the Latin class) acted as waiters. They brought in water for the banqueters to rinse their hands after each course, which is Roman style.

After the banquet a play was presented by some of the members of the class.

Two outsiders were present: Mrs Zimmerman and Mrs Burgess, who kindly donated their services in making up the menu for the dinner and preparing it.

SENIOR WHO'S WHO

Carolyn E. Wisehack

Carolyn was born in Redford on August 30, 1917. She lived there until she had completed the third grade. At that time she moved to Ten Mile road where she has lived since that time. Carolyn attended the Putnam school until she completed the eighth grade, after which she came here to attend school the last four years.

Carolyn's nickname is "Corky" and her favorite sports are basketball and football. Corky's favorite pastimes are hiking, going to movies and reading.

When she was in the sixth grade she was grade champion in a spelling bee, winning a dictionary. In the seventh grade she won both grade and school championships, winning a dictionary and [illegible].

After being graduated Carolyn would like to further her education along commercial lines.

'ROUND THE SCHOOL

Seniors Practice Commencement Program

The seniors have been very busily engaged studying for their parts in the play which is going to be given for Commencement. The play has been selected by the high school teachers and it is called "The Sails of Success."

What an Election!

If you had been an onlooker last Friday and had seen the excitement among the N. H. S. politicians and also the various officials, or shall we say candidates, you would have seen one of the most thrilling elections in your lifetime.

Donna Ferguson, and Spencer (The senior who believes in counting all of the ballots) Van Valkenburg were chosen as the official marker-uppers of the votes as they were counted by the election board.

This election was a fight from the start to finish and we believe the candidates who were elected to the various offices are well qualified and are very capable in serving on the student council next year. The closest race was that for mayor.

This election was carried on the same as those of previous years and we believe that this enables the students to learn more about voting, so that when they become of age, they may vote and know what they are doing and also know a little about how to follow the proper procedure. The students turned out at the polls about eighty-five per cent strong and voted for the candidates they desired to lead them the coming year.

Seniors are Really Going to Washington! ! !

It was only about a year ago this time that we heard a certain individual say the following words: "The seniors think they are going to Washington but they won't get any further than Salem or Novi." This seemed to be a challenge to the seniors who heard this remark which they thought was absurd. They have also proved to this individual, who really thought the seniors wouldn't go very far in accomplishing such a hard task, that the idea was absolutely absurd. This seems a very good time for the seniors to thank the people of Northville who made this trip possible for them. There will be about thirty or more seniors who will leave for the nation's capitol on June 9. The list will be published in next week's paper.

MR. DREARY SPEAKS ON SAFETY WEEK

Robert Dreary, of the Detroit Police department spoke to the students of the high school in an assembly May 15.

"Safety should be taught in [illegible] [illegible]. It is self preservation. There is nothing more important than to keep yourself from being killed or injured."

It is important that all learn safety habits, Mr. Dreary continued. A habit is important. A habit that should be learned is—when crossing the street go to the corner, stop, look and listen, and walk—do not run. In Detroit last year 9 out of every 10 accidents were due to running in the streets.

"The reason that so many older people are careless in crossing streets," he said, "is because when they were young automobiles were practically unknown and they acquired the habit of playing in the streets."

Some rules for driving are:

1. Thou shalt not have more than three in front seat.
2. Thou shalt not drive a car with your arm around anyone.
3. Thou shalt not drive and sit on anyone's lap at the same time.
4. No one shall sit on the driver's lap.
5. No one shall have arm around driver.
6. No one shall ride on the outside of the car.

In closing, Mr. Dreary advised the young people that if the spring weather got the best of them to drive up to the curb for a minute.

CAN YOU IMAGINE?

NIRIDER WINS MAYORSHIP BY 40 VOTES

McLoughlin Wins Race For Treasurer; Hills Is Made Secretary

The annual student council election was held last Friday afternoon in the high school assembly. Essie Nirider defeated Charles Strautz for the mayoralty race by 43 votes. The final tabulation gave Nirider 153 votes and Strautz 110.

In the election for treasurer Tom McLoughlin won by a sweeping victory of over 227 votes. Tom was a candidate for treasurer last year, but was defeated by Spencer Van Valkenburgh. Out of a possible 274 votes Tom received 240.

Marjorie Hills defeated the other candidates for the office of secretary. Isabelle Tibble finished in second position, receiving 57 votes.

After the votes had been tabulated and the final vote given, the three winning candidates gave speeches thanking the students for their support and also stating that they would try to do as well as did the various officials of past years.

The election board consisted of Mrs. Mildred Zimmerman, Asst. Principal Paul B. Thompson, Mrs. W. B. Taylor, Mrs. Ted Watts, and Mrs. Ina B. Cook. Spencer Van Valkenburgh and Donna Ferguson were chosen to post the results as [illegible] as the election board had [illegible] them.

The officers of the past year [illegible] Donna Ferguson who has [illegible] given her duty as mayor [illegible] to a [illegible] official. The students will refer to the mayor as Mr. Mayor Spencer Van Valkenburgh, [illegible] Johnson secretary.

HARRY RATTENBURY INJURES LEFT HAND

While cutting evergreens for [illegible] Banquet of the [illegible] Thursday evening, May 16, Harry Rattenbury severely cut his left hand. He went directly to Dr. [illegible] [illegible] when the blood could not be stopped there he was taken to [illegible] hospital.

The [illegible] found he had cut two of the tendons in his finger and one had already slipped up and had had to be [illegible] down into place. Twenty [illegible] stitches were taken and Harry spent the rest of the afternoon in the hospital.

Instead of the wide grin on his face, Harry had just a meek and rather weak smile when the doctor finished treating his hand for he had refused to take anything to deaden the nerves. He will carry his hand in a sling for about a month and then it is hoped that no complications will result from his wound.

DEPARTMENT NOTES

The girls in the eighth grade cooking class, supervised by Mrs. Mildred Zimmerman, have finished their study on dinners for the year and for their final prepared and served a complete dinner in the cooking class.

Monday at 3:40 p. m. the junior high is giving a program in the high school auditorium for their parents. One of the main attractions will be a style show given by the junior high girls. The dresses that will be modelled are made by the girl who models them. After the program the girls in the eighth grade cooking class will serve tea and cookies in the cafeteria to the parents attending the program.

The senior girls' dresses are nearly all completed and will be judged by the selected members of the Women's club June 3. The dresses will be on display in the high school gymnasium Tuesday, June 2, directly following the class night program for anyone to see if interested.

OBSERVATION COLUMN

This week's victim is a member of the junior class. She's rather small and has blonde hair and a beautiful voice. Therefore, she sings in both glee club and choir. She had a part in the junior play, but she isn't at all like the part she portrayed.

Altho' she has always been very interested in athletics, she was especially so in boys' basketball this year and she has taken a sudden interest in track and baseball. We wonder why?

She is a good student and is the youngest member of the junior class.

Her hobbies are horse back riding, tennis, swimming and hiking with a certain someone. Incidentally, she is a member of the "Simple Simons" [illegible]

GRADE NOTES

Miss Leonardson's enrollment is again approaching 40, after having seven pupils return Monday from a siege of measles. For a language lesson each child made a poster reminding the children to be "Safe" for Safety week. The best ones are on the bulletin board under the caption "Be Safe." Billy Farrant, Milton and Barbara Handorf are not planning on coming back to school for the remainder of the semester after being absent for the past two months.

In Miss Jarvis' room the following have returned after having the measles: Virginia Deibler, Lois Taft, Audree Keller and Grace Hansen. The pupils of Miss Jarvis' room went to the kindergarten Friday to see the movie "Little Black Sambo."

Mrs. Congo has two new pupils in her room, Patsy Hickey from Marine City and Royal Keller from Frankfort, making a total of 46 enrolled in the third grade. The girls won the spell-down last week, Harriet Carlson being the winner. They have been reading the book "The Green Gate to the Sea" and have a beautiful collection of shells belonging to Bruce Simmons and Miss Jarvis. Other children also brought their collections.

Mrs. Reng's pupils are doing column-addition in arithmetic. The first reading class has read through four books during the year and the second reading class has read through three books.

The sixth graders of Mrs. Hawkins' room made a castle showing how people secured protection in the days of feudalism. The sixth graders are also planning a mock radio program for this week.

Mrs. Babbitt's children are quite delighted that Phyllis Knight has been brought home and is getting along nicely.

Friday afternoon Miss Reineke's fifth and sixth graders had a program in which everyone took part doing whatever they desired [illegible] reciting poetry or singing. This [illegible] a language lesson. Nearly everyone in this room has returned after having the measles.

The pupils of Miss Perrin's room are making booklets of South America.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

One of the finest musical events ever presented at the local high school was the operetta "Lelawala," an Indian song-dialogue, given in the auditorium on Thursday and Friday evenings, May 17 and 18. A cast of 50 characters took part in the production.

Dr. and Mrs. H. Hancort returned to Northville Monday evening accompanied by the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willy Hess from Hamburg, Germany, whom they met in Baltimore, Maryland.

Friday, June 1, is the day on which all water taps for which the bills have not been paid within the required time, will be shut off, ordered the village commission Monday evening.

Playing with forbidden matches cost the life of Evangeline Rebtzie, aged six, Wednesday morning.

The Northville Wolverines took both games of a double-header from the strong Ann Arbor team Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds, the scores being 9-1 and 5-1.

Like a glimpse into one of the characteristic retreats of the "Vaterland" is the new restaurant named "Old Heidelberg", which was opened by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman Saturday at the corner of Main and North Wing Streets.

5 YEARS AGO

Between 30 and 40 members of the Northville Commandery of the Knights Templar will go to the annual state conclave to be held in Flint June 2-5.

Mrs. Harry Wheeler of West Point Park died in the Receiving hospital in Redford Friday morning from the effects of burns received in some mysterious way in her home.

Mayor Harry German remained in the box from start to finish in the opening baseball game here on Wednesday evening between Northville and Romulus. The game was won by the visitors, 5-0, but Mr. German was praised for his performance, which he did at the age of 56 years.

HOMER BURTON OF PLYMOUTH KILLED BY RAIL SPEEDER

Homer Burton, 53 years old, an old resident of Plymouth, and a Pere Marquette railroad lineman, was killed instantly Wednesday afternoon, May 15, when the "railroad speeder" on which he was making his return trip to Plymouth, was struck at a crossing at Inkster by a passing automobile, driven by George M. Bowen of Detroit.

Mr. Burton was hurled to the pavement, fracturing his skull. He apparently thought the driver of the car which hit him had seen him approaching the highway crossing.

Funeral services were held from his home in Plymouth Sunday May 19, under the auspices of Plymouth lodge, No. 47 F. & A. M., with the Shrine as escort.

THE VOICE OF THE PULPIT IN NORTHVILLE

The Mother's Question, Luke 2:48

We come to see the delight of a child's first visit to the city. He is fascinated by its glitter, its temple, its choir and its feast. We almost can feel the throb that the child must have experienced of being in the City of David, the throne of Solomon, very soon to be the scene of His own suffering. This scene gives us a glimpse of the home life which must have played a large part in shaping the human character of Jesus. The great service that Mary and Joseph could possibly have given to the world was what they provided—a beautiful home atmosphere in which Jesus could grow up. Homes where there is constant bickering and unloving strife, are creating atmospheres that give the children the wrong conception about the most beautiful and close relationship in life.

The lost boy was found, not taking in the sights, but in His father's House. It was perfectly natural for him to be among the "doctors." In his home life no restraint was put upon discussion. The tactfulness of the mother is shown by her question. It reveals her anxiety, her sorrow, but no anger. She felt that both of them had been badly treated. Most of our parents would have asked us at 12 years old "What have you done that for? Where have you been?" It was a very unusual thing to ask "Why have you treated us so?" She gave her boy a chance to explain. Many troublesome questions are cleared away by explanation.

I like to think that the home of Jesus was built upon reasonableness. The folks reason things out by discussion and understanding. Parents listen and try to answer the questions of the children. Jesus, asking questions in the temple was the result of a healthy habit that had been nursed at his home.

Parents, take some time to interest yourselves in the school life of your children. You will never be left on the shelf.

There was a great deal of affection behind this question of Mary. We know very little of Mary's hidden years, but her tenderness and affection is seen in her son. She was a woman of moods. Her heart had its moments of joy and gaiety. Recall the picture of the wedding feast at Cana, young life with its laughter and fun was there. Jesus was there, and also Mary, the mother of Jesus who missed the joy of her wedding to save the race. Thirty years before Mary stood by the cross of her son she herself had to face her own cross. At the presentation in the temple Simeon said, "A sword shall pierce thy heart."

Man-like, he could not see that the sword had already been at its dread work. We thank God for the "foolish" love of mothers. If our mother love had been according to our deserts how different our lives would have been.

I am sure that the question asked by the mother reveals that religion was a common topic in Mary's home. I never have thought that the home-life of Jesus was free from all care and worry. The environment was not all ideal. Yet out of that home Jesus came. A great deal of stress is being put on environment these days. Rightly so. Parents are anxious to give children the best advantage, a good start, and an education. Are we putting the emphasis in the right place? Jesus' greatest advantage was a devout father and mother. God's purpose was worked out through the right attitude of these parents.

Danger to many new homes today is the careless attitude toward religion. To neglect the religious life of the home is to raise religious illiterates and spiritual morons. When parents neglect to cultivate the spiritual side of the child's life, they are violating its full development for the child is naturally religious.

Parents, you are busy. But the hope of the world rests with you. Future of nations and of races is entrusted to you. In one of the world's greatest movements, the foundation of a great empire was built around a mother and her child.

Moses, born to a doubtful fate, was saved only by the foolishness that a mother's love invented. Your children will carry the picture and the thought of God you give to them. Do not be indifferent or careless with your own religious life—make it attractive enough that your whole family will cherish your religious memory. Keep yourself and the family in the church.

Horrace H. Mallinson, Pastor of the Methodist Church.

The Chain Letter Rage

Well, how many chain letters have you received and how many varieties have you seen so far? Are you making any money? Personally we have seen quite a few different ones and several we would not even mention in this column. It may now reached the point, we observe, that "Chain Letter Packets" are for sale in the stores priced at 10 cents, and including the five types forms for the ten-cent kind of letter.

It is astonishing how fast the craze swept through Northville, and the dollar kind especially. Our candid opinion is, and this is being written on Monday, four days before this paper is issued, that the rush is all over and that Northville can now settle back into its normal existence.

BEG YOUR PARDON

The article concerning our daughter, Doris in last week's Record, is erroneous on our part. It states that she won the district spelling contest the last three years and has been in the Metropolitan contest three times.

In justice to other contestants, we wish to state that Doris has been a district champion and Metropolitan contestant this year only. Doris has been school champion three years. In 1933 she was ill the day of the contest and the school runner-up, Marjory Poole, took her place. In 1934 Doris was in the district contest, but did not win.

KENNETH EICHEN OPENS NEW REFRESHMENT STAND

Kenneth Eichen, graduate of last year's class in the high school, assisted by his grandmother, Mrs. Charlotte M. Thompson, will open a new enterprise which will keep him busy after hours from his employment in the Kroger grocery. He will operate a refreshment stand with ice cream and other good things to eat to tempt the passers-by.

His location on the road to the Maybury sanatorium should draw a large number of patrons.

The World at Your Elbow

From any telephone of this company you can talk not only to localities throughout Michigan, but also to distant cities, ships at sea, many foreign lands—to thirty million telephones distributed all over the world. You can do this because the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is a component part of the Bell System.

In addition to wider service, that relationship enables us to give you better service; for it places at our disposal thousands of valuable patents and the most efficient methods of operation; it secures for us the benefits of constant research by hundreds of scientists in the famous Bell Laboratories, specialists whose only mission year in and year out is to develop means of improving the service — to find "a better thing or a better way." It assures us assistance in financing; it provides us with the world's finest telephone equipment, produced by the Western Electric Company, manufacturing division of the Bell System. It permits us, in short, to share in every progressive step in the evolution of the telephone.

And it enables us to render cheaper service; for all these assets —the fruits of a long-sustained policy of good management — come to us under our contract with American Telephone and Telegraph Company at a cost much lower than would be possible without our association in the Bell System.

America today holds undisputed world supremacy in telephonic communication. That leadership grew out of the facilities and the forward-looking policies of the Bell System.

And it is because the Michigan Bell Telephone Company is a part of that system that we are now supplying the people of this State with a service never surpassed in quality, and reaching to most civilized areas of the globe.

4 DIFFERENT SIZES IN . .

"DUTCH OVEN SUSAN"
The Electric cook

6-QUART SIZE $9.50
8-QUART SIZE $10.50
12-QUART SIZE $14.95
"SMALL SISTER" SUSAN 2-QUART SIZE $5.50 TO $8.50

Here is DUTCH OVEN SUSAN in half-a-dozen different sizes . . . one to fit your needs exactly. The 6-quart size will roast a 10-pound ham, a 6-pound chicken, or a large leg of lamb. The 12-quart size will easily accommodate a 15½-pound turkey. And if you wish something with a smaller capacity, "Small Sister" Susan is the answer. Small Sister Susan is an electric casserole, and in 2, 3, or 4-quart amounts, will prepare all casserole dishes such as waterless pot roast, Boston baked beans, fried chicken, baked potatoes, etc., to melting perfection.

Dutch Oven Susan is easy to use. You simply plug it into any convenience outlet, and it will do every cooking operation possible on a small stove. It will roast all cuts of meat; it will fry eggs, steaks, chops, etc.; it will bake cakes, pies, cookies, biscuits and muffins; and it will hold half-a-dozen pint jars when canning by the cold pack, hot water bath method. Yet it uses only about as much electricity per hour as an electric toaster, and it is so compact that it can be tucked away in a corner almost anywhere.

Dutch Oven Susan cooks a complete meal for a family of six—two vegetables, a roast, potatoes and gravy—and it permits you to go out for the afternoon while the meal is cooking. See this modern appliance on display at all Detroit Edison offices, Department Stores, and Electrical Dealers.

"Woman In The Dark," Starring Fay Wray To Be Shown Saturday; Double Feature Show Wednesday

A woman who found the price demanded for a career too high to pay is the central character in Dashiell Hammett's fast moving drama, "Woman in the Dark," a Select Production.

In this exciting "story of dangerous romance" which comes to the Penniman - Allen theatre Saturday, May 25, Fay Wray portrays the beautiful Louise Loring who borrows money to further her studies as a concert singer. When her debut is a financial failure, she learns that Robson, the man who advanced her the money, regards it not as a loan, but as an investment.

A familiar situation in itself, when linked with the swiftly-moving developments that follow it, adds a "problem" note to thrilling cinematic fare.

The action that follows when Louise, fleeing from Robson's house seeks refuge with John Bradley, a man on parole after serving a prison term for manslaughter, is breathless with suspense. As Bradley, Ralph Bellamy has one of the finest characterization rolls of his career. Together with Miss Wray and Melvyn Douglas, who plays the suave, polished Robson, he completes a trio of notables heading a distinguished cast in which Roscoe Ates, well known screen stutterer, affords the comic relief. Ruth Gillette, Nell O'Day and Granville Bates are also featured.

"Mr. Dynamite"

An author who believes his characters must be real and human if they are to be appreciated by his readers, is Dashiell Hammett, who wrote the original story of "Mr. Dynamite," coming to the local theatre on Wednesday, May 29.

Hammett is also the author of "The Thin Man," which proved to be one of the most successful motion pictures last year. The reason again was obvious. The characters in that story stood out as human beings, who at all times acted like real people.

The same is true of "Mr. Dynamite" which stars Edmund Lowe. It was Hammett's intention to depict a detective who can solve a murder mystery without indulging in any eerie bits of business, falling corpses and mysterious doors opening and shutting.

To this end the author has succeeded, while the screen adaptors, Doris Malloy and Harry Clork, have further elaborated on this idea of presenting a murder mystery on the screen as it might happen in every day life.

Miss Malloy and Clork are fast establishing a name for themselves as one of the leading writing teams in Hollywood. Clork is the author of "The Milky Way," sensational comedy hit of the New York stage last season, while Miss Malloy has written a number of successful screen scenarios.

Supporting Lowe in the cast of "Mr. Dynamite", are Jean Dixon, Esther Ralston, Victor Varconi, Verna Hillie, Robert Gleckler, Bradley Page and many others of importance.

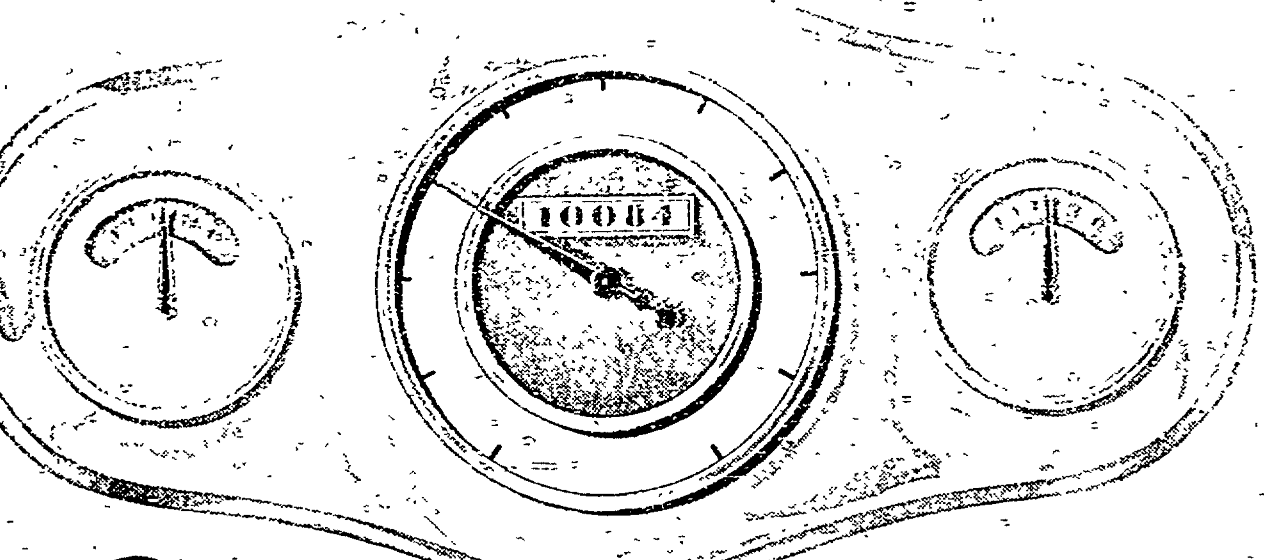
THE AVERAGE MOTORIST DRIVES 10,000 MILES A YEAR



8,000 of these miles are within 25 miles of your home

Constant starting, stopping, accelerating waste your money—if your gasoline doesn't have these Three Different Kinds of Power

10,000 MILES A YEAR! Enough to cross America 3 times! Don't you often wonder how you run up this MILEAGE?

It's the little trips . . . the 2 miles to school . . . the mile-and-a-half to market . . . to the bank . . . the continual stop-and-go that EATS UP GASOLINE!

These short trips call for 3 kinds of power in gasoline . . . POWER for quick starting . . . POWER for accelerating . . . POWER for steady runs. And these 3 must be present IN PERFECT BALANCE.

Super-Shell, the first truly BALANCED gasoline, cuts driving costs 3 WAYS:

Can save up to a cupful of gasoline on every "Cold" Start. Super-Shell starts instantly—often warms up in half the time of ordinary gasolines—with less wasteful choking and so you use less gasoline.

Can save up to a cupful of gasoline in 10 Minutes of Hard Pulling. Because of Super-Shell's even volatility, you can accelerate rapidly, or race your car up hills—on less gasoline, without knocking.

Can save up to a cupful of gasoline in One Hour of Steady Running—many motorists report. Every drop of Super-Shell vaporizes more completely at every engine temperature. So it saves on long runs, too.

THESE THREE SAVINGS of gasoline result in more mileage per tankful. Start saving money with Super-Shell TODAY!

The members of the Nellie Yerkes auxiliary were entertained at the home of Mrs. B. E. Larson Tuesday evening.

After the discussion of business matters the remainder of the evening was given up to a series of games with refreshments served at their conclusion.

Miss Hamilton And Mr. LeFevre Honored At Schnute Home—

A dinner party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schnute at their home last Tuesday evening, May 21, in honor of Miss Marion Hamilton and Lawrence LeFevre whose marriage will take place next week.

The table was made most attractive by a silver bowl filled with fruit blossoms and flanked on each end by lighted candelabra. The table was laid for eight guests.

An enjoyable evening was spent at cards.

Eastern Star Will Hold Initiatory Dinner Friday Evening, May 31—

Orient chapter No. 77, O. E. S. will hold a special meeting for the initiation of new candidates into our chapter, on Friday evening of May 31. The work will be exemplified by the officers of the local chapter at 7:45 p. m.

Pot luck dinner will be served at 6:30 p. m. Please bring one passing dish for the table and bread and butter for yourselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrlan Lyke of Salem Entertain Five Hundred Club In Their New Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Myrlan Lyke entertained for the first time in their new home the Five Hundred club of Salem Thursday evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. Lyke, Mr. and Mrs. McCullen, Mr. and Mrs. Dusharm and daughter all of the Hunter Dr., Varon farms, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Kahler and daughter, Majorie, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clement and daughter, Marline, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Speers.

First prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Dusharm with Mrs. Kahler and Mrs. Speers getting the consolation prizes. This was the last party of the season and was thoroughly enjoyed.

Miss Ruby Copeland, Former Northville Girl, Wed in California—

A wedding of interest to Northville occurred in the Hollywood chapel in California May 11, when Miss Ruby Copeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Copeland, former residents of this village, became the bride of Clark Phillips of Riverside, Calif.

A reception at the home of the parents followed the ceremony. The young couple will make their home in Los Angeles.

The information about this event came through a letter from George D. Tremper who extended best wishes to [illegible] [illegible].

Northville King's Daughters Attend Banquet In Howell—

Representing the local chapter of King's Daughters, Mr. Ida Hendryx, Mrs. Wm. B. Horton, Mr. H. [illegible] and Mrs. R. [illegible] [illegible] King's Daughters at [illegible] Howell [illegible].

The feature of the event was a [illegible] in the Methodist church [illegible] for but [illegible] not place.

Percy Andrews spoke in the address of the Crippled Children's fund. His hearers were impressed with the information that 4300 crippled children who have received treatment this past year are now being rehabilitated. There are, however, 2,600 children still on the waiting list who need help. The Northville chapter has the distinction of being the first to help in this work for crippled children in the University hospital. There are now 25 states who have taken up the cause.

W.H.M.S. Holds Pleasant Gathering With Mrs. Howard Greer—

Members of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church were guests of Mrs. Howard Greer at her lovely country home, "Brooklands" on the Nine road Tuesday afternoon. The affair was an "experience party", when each told her method of earning the money which she contributed to the fund apportioned to this society.

A very excellent review of "David Copperfield" given by Mrs. H. A. Borden followed the co-operative dinner. Mrs. Greer was assisted as hostess by Mrs. A. E. Fuller. A walk around the grounds with its three small lakes was enjoyed.

The next regular meeting will occur May 28 at the home of Mrs. Jas. Erwin on the Ten Mile road. The election of officers will take place. A good attendance is expected.

Surprise Shower Given For Miss Hamilton—

On Wednesday evening, May 15, at the home of Mrs. Fielder Schaeffer, of Rosedale Garden a surprise bath room shower was given to Miss Hamilton by the members of her bridge club.

After the evening of bridge the honoree was presented with verses telling where to find the hidden gifts.

Guests present who gave Miss Hamilton their hearty congratulations were: Mrs. Herman Bakhaus, of Plymouth, Miss Ruby Schumacher, Miss Lydia Schnabel of Dearborn, Mrs. Helen MacIntyre of Dearborn, and Mrs. Margaret Perkins of Detroit.

Service League Elects New Officers At Final Business Meeting—

The election of officers was the important issue of the Service League on Tuesday evening when Mrs. Leslie G. Lee was the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mary Groomer.

Following are the new officers who will begin their duties next fall: president, Mrs. Ruth Griggs; vice-president, Mrs. Lecta Ambler; secretary, Mrs. Frances Woodworth; treasurer, Mrs. Bessie Blovers.

The retiring president, Mrs. Beth Lapham, made a few remarks informally, expressing her appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the members during her term of office. Mrs. Lapham has the enviable record of having been present at every meeting during the past year.

Refreshments concluded the evening.

Attention is called to the fact that the next meeting will be held Monday evening, June 3 when pot-luck supper will be enjoyed at the home of Mrs. Woodworth, North Rogers street. Supper will be served at six o'clock so as not to interfere with [illegible] day exercises.

Many Mothers and Daughters Enjoy Banquet Friday—

[illegible] mothers and daughters participated in making the program of the annual ceremonial banquet on Friday evening the interesting occasion it will be. The tables were overflowing with the crowd on partly arranged the dining room of the Methodist church and it was necessary to set up other tables [illegible].

Baskets of spring flowers with dainty [illegible] bridge lamps at each place made the tables very attractive and the menu was both delicious and substantial. Several men volunteered their services as waiters so that the women could enjoy the banquet at leisure.

Rev. Lecta M. Stroh, pastor of the Salem Congregational church, offered the opening prayer. A community "sing" at intervals during the banquet put the company into easy spirits, with Mrs. Jean Sessions of Plymouth directing, Mrs. Sherill W. Ambler accompanying on the piano.

Mrs. H. H. Burkart, who qualified at this function, being the "Camp Fire Mother" of nearly 30 girls spoke feelingly of the meaning of this event and introduced the participants on the program.

Jeanne Atchison welcomed the mothers modestly, to which Mrs. George Biery responded. Mrs. M. J. Koldkye made her "maiden speech" welcoming the daughters and Miss Frances Alexander touched every mother present when, in her tribute to "My Mother," she said "If asked who is the nearest perfect of anyone I know, I would reply 'my mother.'"

A group of the little daughters appeared in charming songs: Patsy Frid, Phyllis Kreeger, Mildred Fritz, and Betty Baughman.

Northville's youngest pianist, Miss Marie Angore, played a difficult number well and Ida Altman pleased her hearers with her skill on the xylophone to which she responded with encore. Frances Alexander accompanied her.

Speaking of the "Mothers and Daughters of the Orient," Mrs. S. A. Sullivan of Pontiac, who had spent many years as a missionary, said, "the status of woman shows the civilization of a country" and emphasized the great advantages of the women of this country over their sisters of the orient and left each mother and daughter present more grateful for her state.

The oldest mother present was Mrs. Josephine Carr, mother of Mrs. A. E. Fuller. Mrs. Fuller also had with her a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Russell Fuller. Mrs. Stroh was accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Wittich, of Salem.

Mrs. Leslie G. Lee had perhaps the youngest daughter present, little Mary Louise, while Mrs. Ralph Ayers with Mary Ann, Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston with Patricia, Mrs. Earal Clark with Corinne, and Mrs. Geraldine Hopkins with Ann Joyce and Shirley Jean, were among other proud mothers of the littlest daughters present.

All the little daughters who were ten years or younger were asked to stand on the chairs beside their mothers and be introduced to the company. Like a bright bouquet these little maidens looked in their party dresses.

Mrs. Chas. H. Rogers was happy in having as her guests, three daughters-in-law, the wives of her sons, Dan Rogers and Russell, and five granddaughters, Mary, Jerry Florence, Harriet and Carol all of Detroit.

Mrs. Luxenberg, who is the mother of five daughters and five sons, was happy in having four daughters present, Mrs. Allen Junod, Mrs. Mary Whipple, Mrs. Carrie Tait and Miss Catherine Luxenberger and two granddaughters, Miss Mary Jane Junod and little Lois Tait.

Mrs. Pearl Baker sat with her daughter, Mrs. Jim Luxenberger, and granddaughter Joan, and two granddaughters, Mrs. Louise Balen and Mrs. H. B. Baker both of Detroit.

Mrs. Chas. H. Young had two little granddaughters beside her with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bud Young, and her daughter Geraldine Hopkins and Mr. Young's mother, Mrs. C. Le Phelps, all of Detroit.

Mrs. L. L. Vrauenburg had both her mother-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Vrauenburg and her daughter, Mrs. Walter Stenian, Mrs. Mae Lanidop enjoyed the banquet between her two daughters, Mrs. Merrill Sweet and Miss Lucille Lanning.

Mrs. Foster Van Alta was fortunate in having her mother Mrs. Florence E. Foster, with her, Mrs. Becka Salow, her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Floyd Salow, from Ann Arbor, and Mrs. Chas. F. Filkins, her daughter, Jane, now Mrs. E. M. Smith of Detroit. Mrs. Don P. Yerkes had not only her own daughter, Mrs. W. L. Holden of Rosedale Park, but also two granddaughters Marjorie and Jane.

Mrs. Lilly Angell, who mothers everyone, took her granddaughter, Miss Grace Angell.

In the large crowd were many other happy groups too numerous to mention. Some there were who had no daughter or whose daughters were far away and who borrowed others for the evening. Altogether it was pronounced one of the happiest events of the year.

Crew of U. S. Fisheries Railroad Car Has Unique Task of Shipping Fish To Lakes, Streams of Entire Country

there would be a car full of dead fish."

The rest of the car, which somewhat resembles an ordinary Pullman, has all the necessary conveniences for the crew, and includes even a bathroom with a real bath tub. Mr. Crandell has his office at one end of the car and at the other is the boiler room where large capacity water tanks are carried. Next to this is the bath room and a tiny kitchen where a big Negro cook prepares tempting meals. It's a one-man kitchen, and Simpson Miller, with his long arms can stand in one place and reach stove, sink, cupboard, and refrigerator with equal ease.

In response to the query of what territory was covered in his work, Mr. Crandall said that the car covered all but four of the 48 states.

"Travel is a great sport," he said, "but after the first few years of working it loses a bit of its novelty.

"We who work on these fisheries cars get a real education on the topics of the day," he said, "because we see the conditions first hand.

"And after you have worked at this as long as we have you can know how to get to any town in the country and tell just what railroads one would use to reach it, that is, providing it is on a railroad. We have it all over a railroad agent in this," he said, "because he only knows his own line, while we are familiar with all of them."

WALLED LAKE HIGH SENIORS HAVE BANQUET

The junior class of the Walled Lake high school gave a banquet to the senior class Wednesday evening in the high school gym. The dinner was served by the P.-T. A. under the direction of Mrs. James Farley.

Robert Bitton had charge of the program and Jim Farley was toastmaster. Shirley Watson and Bernice Hubbel gave the toast and gifts, seniors last will and testament to Thibedeau and Catherine gave the seniors last will and testament to the juniors. Rev. Wik and Rev. Evans were speakers and Bob Heiver and Theral Herrick gave musical selections.

MRS. KNAPP DIES SUNDAY, MAY 19

Mrs. Samuel Knapp, a long-time resident of Northville, died Sunday morning, May 19, at the age of 82 years.

Mrs. Knapp was in her usual health until about two weeks ago when she was attacked with pleurisy which developed into pneumonia. Mrs. Geo. Farwell, a niece, who has been like a daughter to both her uncle and aunt for years, cared for her with the assistance of Mrs. Burr until it was necessary to remove her to Sessions hospital for oxygen treatment. Due to her advanced age death was inevitable.

Elizabeth (intimately known as Libbie), Savage was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Savage and was born in Beloit, Wis., November 24, 1853. In early girlhood she came with her parents to Northville and the home was for years in a cottage on the site now occupied by the Dr. J. M. Burgess home.

It was while living here that she was married to Sam W. Knapp who for years conducted a grocery store in the building now used as the Men's Shop. Mr. Knapp died April 19, 1933.

For forty years Mrs. Knapp was an active member of the Northville Woman's club having belonged almost since its beginning. Only recently she was among others who were made honorary life members. A regular attendant, Mrs. Knapp was vitally interested in every program.

Mrs. Knapp was a member of the Presbyterian church and was regularly to be found in her pew when health permitted. She took an active part in the Woman's Union and gave to it her willing service.

The funeral was held in the home on West Main street Tuesday afternoon with a former pastor, Rev. Frank P. Knowles, of Allen Park, officiating. Pall bearers were old friends, Chas. L. Dubuar, Bert O. Stark, Wm. Ely and Floyd A. Northrop. Interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

Surviving in her immediate family are a sister, Miss Maggie Savage of Compton, Calif., and two brothers, Harry Savage, of Detroit and Jas. H. Savage of Northville.

"BUMPER FRUIT CROP" PREDICTS GOLDSMITH

Says Oliver Goldsmith, named for the poet who wrote "The Deserted Village," "Old apple trees which have not been in bloom for seven or eight years are blooming this year."

Mr. Goldsmith attributes this to the plentiful rainfall this spring and predicts a bumper fruit crop, also saying that farmers around here report that alfalfa hay in the fields has made as much growth as it had when they cut it last year.

In April, Mr. Goldsmith leased the Salem elevator and coal and feed yard.

HEAD-ON COLLISION OCCURS SUNDAY ON NORTHVILLE ROAD

A woman was thrown through the windshield of a car and three men were badly shaken up, bruised and cut when a head-on collision occurred at 2:30 a. m. Sunday morning on the Northville road at the junction of Seven Mile road.

Gerald Ross, of Waterford, driving north on the Northville road alone in his Pontiac coupe, was one of the participants in this accident that nearly caused the death of all. The other car, a Ford tudor, was driven by Paul Rebitzke, of Phoenix Park, in whose car Mrs. Charles Simpson, the woman who received the worst cuts, and her husband, Mr. Simpson, were riding. Mr. and Mrs. Simpson also reside at Phoenix park.

Both cars were badly damaged by the accident.

Elizabeth Burdick Burgess, Mrs. Elizah Burgess and Mrs. Amanda M. Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Moore gave flowers in honor of her mother, Mrs. Mary A. Burdick. The other flowers were in memory of Miss Alice Hinman and her brother, Joe, and were given by Mrs. Catherine Hinman and Miss Ruth Hinman.

After the morning service the Sunday school held a devotional meeting. At this time the Rev. A. K. MacRae, pastor of the church from 1922 to 1926, spoke briefly on "Service," and the Rev. N. E. Musser, pastor from 1910 to 1923 greeted his old friends publicly. He is now living in Royal Oak.

Following a co-operative dinner served in the church house by the ladies of the church, the "Reunion" meeting, an informal service, was held at 3:15 p. m. in the auditorium. Short talks by Mr. Priest and Mr. Musser were given, and the sermon by Mr. North, who spoke on "The Price of Redemption." Mrs. North sang "Did You Think to Pray?" as one of the musical numbers of this service, accompanied at the organ by Harry H. White.

The evening service was also featured by its excellent music, part of which was supplied by Jesse Bryan, bass soloist, of the Highland Park Baptist tabernacle. The Girls' quartet of the First Baptist church of Pontiac and the Male quartet of the local church also contributed to this service. [illegible] given by Dr. R. M. Traver, who talked on "A Good Baptist."

Monday night an evening of recreation was enjoyed under the direction of Howard Irish, who led the group in games.

"Community Night" was celebrated Tuesday evening as various representatives of the village gave their congratulations.

Mrs. E. S. Harmon spoke a few words in behalf of the library. C. R. VanValkenburgh represented the Presbyterian church in the absence of the Rev. H. G. Whitfield, the Rev. H. H. Mallinson spoke for the Methodist church, and R. T. Baldwin as spokesman for the Northville business men.

Other parts of the program included vocal numbers by Maurice G[illegible] accompanied by Mary Louise Borden and a brief talk by Dr. A. B. W[illegible] who voiced the appreciation of the patients of the Eastlawn sanatorium of the church services [illegible] to them through the [illegible] system which is [illegible] at the Baptist church.

Father Joseph G. Schuler sent his greetings and congratulations to [illegible] meeting.

The address of the evening was given by the Rev. W. Shaw of Ypsilanti who spoke on "The Church and [illegible] Community."

One of the high lights of the [illegible] banquet [illegible] Presbyterian church [illegible] Baptist [illegible] at [illegible].

A company of more than 150 enjoyed the pleasant social event at [illegible] of apple [illegible] and green and [illegible] were [illegible] to Maytime. The menu cards were ingeniously made by Mrs. Earl Montgomery, having a drawing of the Baptist church on the cover.

Mrs. Montgomery, chairman of the program introduced the toastmaster, Rev. K. S. North, who announced the program with much of humor thrown into his remarks.

The eldest member, Mrs. Susan Eaton, the youngest, Donna Dickerson, and Mrs. Murray of Plymouth, the granddaughter of the first paster of the church, Rev. Nathan Noyes, were all honored by beautiful bouquets.

A greeting sent by Dr. H. H. Burkart, village president, was read. Several numbers of the male quartet comprised of R. H. Amerman, Clifford Winters, Wm. Cornn and Rev. K. S. North, violin solos by Ernest Racz and two duets by Mesdames M. J. Koldyke and V. J. Lumley accompanied by Mrs. Sherrill W. Ambler, were thoroughly appreciated.

The address of the evening was given by Dr. H. C. Gleiss.

The history of the Baptist church, compiled for the centennial by Harry H. White, was received with much favorable comment among local citizens.

Ferrel's Law

Ferrel's law is to the effect that if a body moves in any direction on the earth's surface, there is a deflecting force arising from the earth's rotation which deflects it to the right in the Northern hemisphere and to the left in the Southern hemisphere.

HOUSING PROGRESSES HERE

Orlow G. Owen of the Men's Shop has just purchased the former Robert G. Yerkes home at 218 Dunlap street. Mr. and Mrs. Owen are remodelling and redecorating the home and hope to have it ready for occupancy in a very short time. This remodelling is in line with the plans of the local Housing Committee and the Federal Housing Administration and the Owens are to be commended for their activity at this particular time.

Louis Porter and C. O. Ball of the Detroit office of the Federal Housing Administration spent several hours in Northville with members of the local Housing committee last Friday. They both were enthusiastic about the housing project possibilities in Northville and offered their services whole heartedly in working out any plans that are possible in Northville and surrounding territory.

The Northville Housing committee composed of Donald P. Yerkes, Jr., R. H. Amerman, John A. Boyce, Edward L. Millis, Floyd A. Northrop, Elmer R. Perrin, Elmer L. Smith, and Ray W. Labbitt, met Monday evening to consider housing needs and program for Northville. Louis Porter of the Detroit office of the F. H. A. was present and gave the committee complete information as to the possibilities of the housing program and suggested ways of going ahead on the program. Mr. Boyce of the Depositors State Bank stated that the bank had already made a considerable number of loans for the improvement of local property and is now authorized to make loans under Title two.

Mr. Porter mentioned the fact that the Federal Housing program covers not only the village, but also farm modernization. He also mentioned that every $1.00 spent passes through eight hands before it finally comes to rest, therefore if it is possible for Northville residents to spend their own money or money secured through the F. H. A. co-operation, they will start Northville back on the road to prosperity. Another fact that was emphasized was the real need here for additional houses. Local real estate men state that their offices are beseiged daily by people looking for houses for rent or to buy.

Several committees were appointed to go into the matter of Northville's program in the F. H. A. plan. The committee is enthusiastic about their work and have outlined a program that will keep everyone busy from now on. Any suggestions that any resident may have or questions that should be answered will be directed to the chairman, Donald P. Yerkes, Jr., or to the Record office.

E. M. Bogart, of the E. M. B. Food Market, has started rather extensive alterations and redecorating operations on his home at 335 North Center street—another indication of a wave of housing improvements that is beginning to sweep Northville and vicinity.

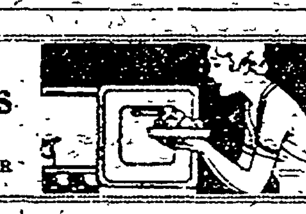
Homemaker's Corner

By MRS. EDITOR



"I Love Life"

"She might have been just a bride—that plump little woman bustling about her kitchen.

"Her household motions light and free
With steps of vague liberty."

The blue of her dress, the row of pretty blue bowls on the shelf over the shining sink, and the dainty blue polka-dotted curtains at the window all combined to make a picture and you guessed that your hostess liked "any color so's its blue."

Into the frying pan she laid pieces of chicken (company for dinner) and as they spattered lusciously she beamed happily and said: "Yes, I love life, don't you? There's so much I want to do, I want to live on for years and years."

Instead of bemoaning the fact that the fifth child had outgrown the home, this woman fairly sparkled with interest in all the little things that make up life.

"Yes, I dumped out all the old nicked dishes and the banged-up tea kettle. Why shouldn't I have things as dainty as a bride? We're past the 'iron age' when the dishes were broken by the wholesale."

We watched her work and recalled the days long ago when we had marvelled at the cupboard she had made from an old box, with the relic of a shirt for a curtain and the cozy window seat made from a storage box.

Through those turbulent days of uncertainty and readjustment she had come later to the years of devotion to the little brood of five who grew up around her [illegible] she had been too busy to change the house [illegible] all day and carried a [illegible] a baby [illegible].

Those were the years of singing lullabies, warming bottles, soothing bumps and making up games and fun out of common things. (And incidentally, those were the years that were mellowing her heart and stretching it big enough to understand and help all who need mothering.)

We had watched her through the years when later on, the house was filled with the noise and gay confusion of growing-up children, when there seemed always to be running up and down stairs, flutters of frilled party-gowns, scattered tennis racquets, beaux coming to the door. Candle-lighted suppers, raids on the refrigerator—and forever the blatant blare of popular tunes on the phonograph (that was before the days of radio.)

And now the house was still and so orderly. The last daughter had walked in dignity down the stairs on the arm of her solemn father and then had walked out into the [illegible] arm of another. And the house was very still.

But the mother smiled as she picked up scattered rose leaves and put the house in order. "It was such a pretty wedding and so like [illegible]" she said.

The purpose of life was not over for her. "I have time now to catch up on the things I have neglected all these years with the same vigor that [illegible] everything.

[illegible] and I may golf together and swim in summer. And [illegible] of books [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] a honeymoon were [illegible] husband and then [illegible].

dainty china on the pink embroidered tablecloth.

"Yes, we use our best things right along now. Why not? We enjoy it [illegible] nicely now. O, I love life, don't you?"

And we remembered that parable "A certain man built his house upon a rock and the rains descended and the floods came and beat upon that house and it fell not for it was founded upon a rock."

Cherry Pudding

The family of Mrs. T. R. Carrington smacked their lips over the following cherry pudding—which is never big enough. Put cherries in the bottom of pan, saving the juice for sauce. Pour over them batter made with 1 cup sugar, 1 tablespoon shortening, 1 egg, three fourths cup milk 1 3-4 cups flour with 2 teaspoons of baking powder sifted in. Bake very slowly. Thicken the juice a little and add a bit of nutmeg but don't tell the men!

Unbaked Brownies

2 squares of melted baking chocolate, 1 can (1 1-3 cups) condensed milk, 2 cups (1-3 pound) vanilla wafers or graham cracker crumbs, 1 cup chopped walnuts.

Melt chocolate in double boiler. Add condensed milk stirring over hot water 5 minutes until mixture thickens.

Add crumbs and one-half cup nut meats. Butter [illegible] pan and sprinkle [illegible] 1-4 of the nuts. Pour chocolate mixture [illegible]. Spread evenly. Sprinkle top with remaining nut meats. Place in refrigerator [illegible]. Cut [illegible] brownies.

THIS WEEK

By H. H. WHITE

Katherine Mansfield was a writer with a gay and gallant soul, and those who have read her letters and her stories which have an exquisite fineness, especially "The Wind Blows," which I recently read, can never forget her philosophy of life.

What is life for, she asks, and answers by saying it is to give.

Like the bishop in Les Miserables who tells Jean Val Jean the purpose in life is to give and not to take.

So many of us lose so much time in getting ready to live—that Life slips along to its close and may be over before we learn the secret of living.

We must first ask the question and answer it for ourselves: What kind of a life do we really want to live? That was what Jean Val Jean had to answer before he came to any decision after he left the bishop's where that gentleman gave him the candlesticks.

We should live more freely and widely and not let our selfishness and smugness nullify us to all the beauty, gaiety and fineness of life all about us.

We should not postpone Life in its finest and best form. It should be lived daily with all its fire and brilliance and force.

We have no time to waste and should not hesitate for one fleeting moment as if we had plenty of time to fitt away.

Why not live, putting all that we have into Life and use for a motto the philosophy of the bishop when he told Jean Val Jean that the purpose in life is not to take, but to give.

St. Paul's Lutheran

"Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me. Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me." Psalm 23, 4.

Sheep will follow their shepherds along paths on which danger lurks at every turn—where savage beasts may spring upon the defenceless flock from cave or covert; where thieves may lie in wait to steal. They are fearless because they have learned to trust their faithful protector, who will employ his power to deliver them from harm and impending peril. The shepherd's presence is cause for comfort, contentment, and peace.

So too, the child of God must learn to trust our Good Shepherd. Jesus Christ. Temptations will beset us, evils draw nigh, yet our Lord can turn them all to our benefit by His protecting power. Jesus calls, Follow Me! We fear no ill since we tread the path He has illumined. There is no cause for despair when Jesus is the Companion. Even death cannot harm us; our Lord's victory has turned death into a sleep from which the believing child of God shall awaken to eternal Life. Shadows may frighten, but our Savior allays our fears with His abiding presence. The blessed word of God's son shall guide and comfort us to the end of Life's pilgrimage.

"Without Christ—not one step! With Him—anywhere!" This significant statement was made by a Missionary who has consecrated his life to the preaching of the Gospel in a land that is hostile to the reception of our Lord's saving grace. But is it not a truth applicable to our own lives as well? The little child out at sea in the storm sleeps peacefully pressed to its mother's bosom, although all other passengers on board the vessel may be frightened. So we are ever safe in Jesus' protection and need not fear. "Commit thy way unto the Lord."

The hour for worship and Sunday school every Sunday morning is 10 o'clock. The pastor will preach.

To all who mourn and need comfort: to all who are lonely and want companionship: to all who love to sing God's praise; to all who sin and need a Savior; to all who seek salvation, St. Paul's Lutheran church opens wide her portals and, in the name of Jesus Christ bids [illegible] welcome [illegible].

Christian Science Churches

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 26.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Matt. 10:1): "And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of sickness and all manner of disease."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 311): "Through false estimates of soul as dwelling in sense and of mind as dwelling in matter, belief strays into a sense of temporary loss or absence of soul, spiritual truth. This state of error is the mortal dream of life and substance as existent in matter, and is directly opposite to the immortal reality of being."

PUT A COOL ELECTRIC RANGE IN YOUR KITCHEN *on Trial - - -

PROVE FOR YOURSELF THAT ELECTRIC COOKING IS COMFORTABLE COOKING

You have probably heard a great deal about the advantages of an electric range—the feature of COOLNESS, among others. Here is your chance to see for yourself how surprisingly comfortable your kitchen is—even in the warmest weather—when you do your cooking electrically. You can use the electric oven for baking or roasting and it will not noticeably raise the temperature of the room. This is because the oven is well-insulated and semi-sealed: There is no stovepipe to carry the hot air from your oven through the kitchen, heating up the atmosphere, as in a fuel-burning stove. And on the surface units, the heat goes directly from the electric element to the cooking utensil. All of the heat is used for cooking: Little can escape into the room, and there is no hot flame to heat the surrounding air and make the kitchen uncomfortable.

Electric cooking is COOL cooking.

* We want you to try an electric range in your own kitchen. We want you to enjoy cool electric cooking without making any investment or being under any obligation. So we have arranged a special trial offer. We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, and let you use it for six months, removing it without charge if you do not like it. During the trial period, you pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Since this trial plan was begun a short time ago, over 4000 of our customers have taken advantage of this offer. Send in your application for a trial range today!

A study of one thousand families using electric range showed a cooking cost of LESS THAN 1¢ A MEAL A PERSON

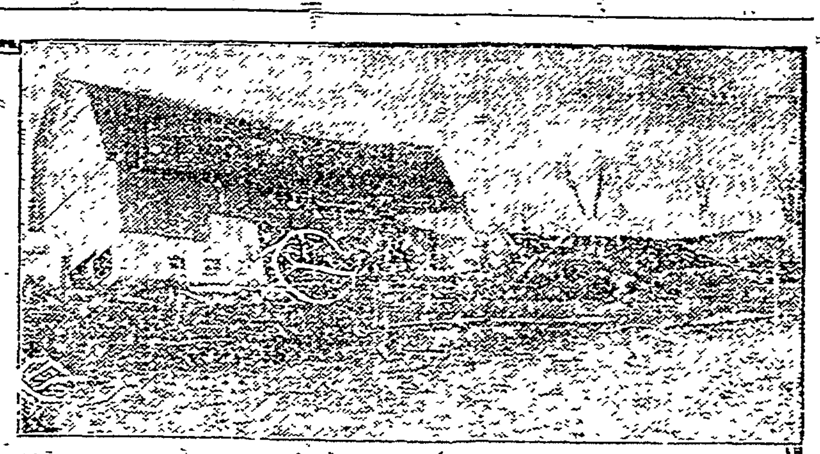
Half-Century Experience Proves This Company Asset to Michigan

The more than four and a half million dollars this big company has paid to Michigan property owners during the past 50 years has proven the value of this old insurance institution. This large amount represents $6,653 separate losses, and much of the property destroyed would never have been replaced without the insurance which the owners had in this company.

These property owners showed good business judgment by having one of our liberal windstorm policies. Be protected—the cost is low.



This was an exceptionally fine barn, 32x76 and 18x44, destroyed by windstorm, and owned by Arthur W., Jr., and Alice Laydin Jewett, section 8, Vevay township, Ingham county. LANGFIELD HAS GOOD PROOF OF HIS FISH STORY

A huge sailfish, seven feet, nine inches long, and weighing 62 pounds when caught, is proof of the best "fish story" told in Northville this year, and is being proudly displayed completely mounted now by C. E. Langfield, its captor, in the office of the Northville Laboratories.

Mr. Langfield landed the sailfish during the latter part of January off the coast of Florida, near Palm Beach. This is one of the two he caught during the winter season which he spent there with his father, E. C. Langfield. The elder Mr. Langfield managed to go his son one better, catching three of these splendid "denizens of the deep."

Together they set a record for the season, as sailfish are very difficult to catch. They hold certificates from a fishing club there verifying their word, and also giving official specifications as to weight and length.

LOCALS

The cream letters have dropped in circulation in Northville this week and it appears that they have gone as quickly as they came.

Mrs. Wm. O'Donnell, formerly of Northville, is spending the week here renewing old acquaintances and attending the Baptist Centennial.

Attending the Centennial banquet Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Smith of Ortonville, with whom Rev. K. S. North made his home in his early ministry. Their place is still "home" to Mr. North.

The decorating in the new A & P store on Main street is progressing rapidly. Most of the shelves have been installed and the store will open soon.

The Dearborn Coach company bus line from Northville to Five Points will change its schedule on June 1. The new schedule appears in this week's Record.

Miss Myrtle Fox spent Sunday at the home of Mr and Mrs Charles T. Thornton.

Mr and Mrs D. J. Stark and children visited Mrs Stark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cole, at Saline Sunday.

Miss Ada and Jessie Roe have one of the largest displays of tulips in Northville. Hundreds of the lovely flowers are open now, presenting a beautiful variety of color. Local folks are invited to visit the garden. Another beautiful tulip bed can be found at the home of E. C. Langfield on Fairbrook avenue.

Misses Lena and Permelia Kohler left Thursday for a trip to Newport, Tennessee and Pensacola, Florida with Mrs. Jennie Vradenburg.

Mr and Mrs. Frank Holt of Silver Lake attended the Baptist Centennial here Sunday. Mr Holt was a former pupil of the Baptist Sunday school.

Mrs. Julius Haddock and daughter, Doris, and son, Ray, and family of Detroit attended the Baptist Centennial Sunday.

Mrs. Catherine S. Gibson has moved into her home at 430 Yerkes avenue, following extensive redecorating there.

three strenuous innings with the score tied at three all.

The rules of this novel sport include that only the pitcher and catcher do not have to ride the mules. The other players are all required to ride their mules, never leaving them, and hanging on to the rope attached to the mule if they must stoop to pick up the ball. The batter stands at the plate until he has hit the ball, and then he must ride a mule to reach first base.

One of the mules who was used only by those batting, who answered to the name of Tom Mix, gave an unusually good show, never failing to buck off any prospective rider. The audience saw some of Northville's best known young men foosed to the ground in this manner.

On Tuesday, the American Legion junior baseball team defeated the Legion juniors of Plymouth, 6-3.

The receipts from the two games went to purchase equipment for the Northville Legion junior team for the coming season.

More than 250 people witnessed the games on each evening, and were repaid with many a laugh.

The Northville line-up was: Milross, short stop; Wolfrom, third; Jaska, second; "Whity" Martin, first base; "Dutch" German, catcher; John O'Brien, left fielder; Charles Wolfrom, center fielder; Lee, right fielder; and Burrell, pitcher.

Plymouth lined up as follows: Beryl Smith, left fielder; L. Simmons, right fielder; James Williams, first base; George Simmons, center fielder; Ray Westphall, second base; Edward Drinkert, catcher; Norman Atkinson, third base; Orson Atchinson, short stop; George Bowers and Harold Pankow, pitchers. George Buers and Ronald Lyke also entered the game as center fielder and catcher respectively.

A week from Sunday the Wolverines will play Northville, Jaska announced Monday. "We have some very strong teams scheduled ahead for the season," he said, "and will give the local fans some real baseball."

the personnel would be gradually increased to about 50 men, but that that many would not be needed at once.

"There is one principle in regard to our men that we abide by," Mr. Marchano said, "and that is that we do not believe in lay-offs. Our policy has always been ever since this company was organized seven years ago to have our men work five days a week throughout the year. When the slack time comes we keep right on going, and then when we get a flood of orders there is no rush—we simply fill the orders out of the accumulated stock."

There's no secret to the amazingly satisfactory service of this heater—patented principles put it far ahead of older ways. "Thermos bottle" design keeps water hot for hours while saving gas—pin-point gas opening lets only tiny jet burn, while high efficiency system of circulating heat cuts cost to figure never before thought possible. Ample storage capacity for all household needs.

Its year 'round economy makes it a bargain winter and summer. Many find it pays for itself because it cuts out other costly or wasteful methods.

Istanbul Name Changes

Istanbul is quite accustomed to name changes. Back in 660 B. C. it was called Byzantium. Constantinople in the year 330 called it New Rome. Then the Turks baptized it Stamboul. For a long time it was called Constantinople, and then the Russians, with premature expectations of annexing the city, called it Czarigrad. Since the birth of the new Turkish state it has been given the name of Istanbul.

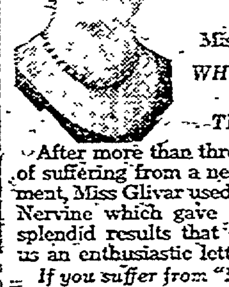
A Monetary Abbreviation

The abbreviation "d" as 6d for six pence is for the Latin denarius or denarii—penny, and pence—and was employed by the Lombard money changers who came to London in the Middle ages, and who are credited with giving Britain the crossed L which stands for the pound, but which was with the Lombards originally a symbol for the lira.

"Nerves" "NERVES" "Nerves"



Dr. Miles NERVINE "Did the work" says Miss Glivar

WHY DON'T YOU TRY IT?

After more than three months of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles Nervine which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter.

If you suffer from "Nerves." If you lie awake nights, start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order.

Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl.

IF YOUR BREATH HAS A SMELL YOU CAN'T FEEL WELL

When we eat too much, our food decays in our bowels. Our friends smell this decay coming out of our mouth and call it bad breath. We feel the poison of this decay all over our body. It makes us gloomy, grouchy and no good for anything.

What makes the food decay in the bowels? Well, when we eat too much, our bile juice can't digest it. What is the bile juice? It is the most vital digestive juice in our body. Unless 2 pints of it are flowing from our liver into our bowels every day, our movements get hard and constipated and ¾ of our food decays in our 28 feet of bowels. This decay sends poison all over our body every six minutes.

When our friends smell our bad breath (but we don't) and we feel like a whipped tomcat, don't use a mouthwash or take a laxative. Get at the cause. Take Carter's Little Liver Pills which gently start the flow of your bile juice. But if "something better" is offered you, don't buy it, for it may be a calomel (mercury) pill, which loosens teeth, gripes and scalds the rectum in many people. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name and get what you ask for—25¢. ©1934, C.M.Co.
