Predict Large Crowds For Two Last Fair Days

MORE, FINER ENTRANTS IN HORSE SHOW

130 Are in Junior and Senior Events; Come From Far and Near

Northville's horse show, with the largest and finest field of entries in its history, will begin promptly at 1 p. m. today at the fair grounds.

Keeping pace with every other department of the 19th annual Northville fair, it promises to be better than any of its predecessors, according to John L. Nelson, chairman of the committee.

"We will have about 130 entries in both the junior and senior shows," Mr Nelson said, "and this is far more than were ever entered in the show in the past.

"One of the events alone, the Hunter stake, will have 19 entries, he said, "and this is an unusually large number for a show as small as ours. Before, none of the events ever attracted more than about 10 entries."

The good purses this year are attracting some fine horses, he said, including two from Walter O. Briggs' Walbri stable, four entered by Mayor Frank Couzens of Detroit, and four from the Playmor Executive club of Flint

Several of the exhibitors in the show have come a long distance, including Miss Ina Warden of Cleveland Three more, Mrs Floyd Crandal, Mrs J Lansbury and Mrs. Robert Elrod all from Toledo have entries.

Robert S Moore of Nashville Tennessee, who judged the 1932 horse show here, will be the judge again this year He is a national authority on saddle horses

Every known horse show event will be scheduled during the two days of the show

As is the usual custom, several social gatherings will be held during "horse time"

All the contestants will go to the Phil H Greenan ranch for a big dinner party tonight at the end of the show Saturday breakfast will be held at the home of Mrs Wm Rawle Brown, Arrowhead Farm. Dinner will be held in the evening at the residence of Mr and Mrs. E. L. Lindsey.

The junior horse show, with at least 50 horses entered was held yesterday. James Casson of Jackson was the judge of the events and was assisted by a woman from Indiana who is said to be a horse authority.

TREASURE HUNT WILL BE STAGED ON AUGUST 31ST

Merchants Work Out Plan to Insure Every Prize Is Claimed

Because of the outstanding success of the first treasure hunt of the year held in Northville August 3, when several thousands of people crowded the business streets here, another hunt will be staged Saturday night, August 31, it was decided this week.

Merchants of the village, in a meeting Thursday evening August 15, in the Schrader Bros. furniture store, were all of the opinion that the public has indicated another treasure hunt will be welcomed. Preliminary plans for the occasion were made at that time

To be more certain that all the treasures are claimed on the new hunt, the merchants have decided to assign lucky numbers to all treasures that evening at 8:30 o'clock If any remain unclaimed at 9.30, new winning numbers will be assigned to them. Several of the treasures were not claimed during the first hunt on August 3

The new system will give shoppers more chances than ever to win a treasure with the two numbers being given to them, members of the committee said. On the last hunt everyone had 35 chances to win one of the prizes, there being that many local stores taking part.

Another big evening for Northville is confidently expected by the businessmen, all of whom are planning to have many bargains at that time in their stores.

DESIGN PLANS FOR NEW SCHOOL UNIT

Board of Education To Ask For Direct Grant From WPA

Detailed plans for the proposed addition to the Northville high school building, to cost $25,000 together with specifications and cost of materials lists are being prepared now by Eberle M Smith, Detroit architect, and will be submitted to the school board at its next meeting, Tuesday, September 2.

Mr Smith came to Northville Wednesday to show to R. H Amerman, superintendent of schools, five different sketches of how the new unit, which will accommodate at least four new classrooms, could be built.

All of these plans will be submitted with the detailed plans of

TO IMPOUND CARS FOUND ON PARKWAY

Village Determined to Keep Autos off "Beautiful Approach"

To protect the Plymouth avenue parkway from being ruined by motorists who drive their cars over it without regard to the "No Parking" signs there, power to impound vehicles illegally or improperly parked was given to the Northville police by the village commission Monday evening at the village hall.

The action taken by the commission was to amend village ordinance No 97 section 4, to the effect that the police here shall have the power to tow away all cars found on the parkway, and in other places where a law is violated. "This means," commissioners explained, that even cars found double-parked can be towed away."

The commissioners all expressed regret that motorists have been so careless and so heedless of the signs as to drive over the parkway, which was entirely regraded recently by the Board of Wayne county road commissioners, shrubbery planted there and grass seed. This work was done by the county on the condition that the village keep cars off

The parkway put in several years ago, was expected here to be a "beautiful entrance" to Northville The county never went ahead with its plans for beautifying it until now, however, because motorists constantly drove their cars across it, and parked there.

The beautifying work on the parkway is well advanced now, and with the blades of grass already showing above ground, the commissioners were of the opinion that before very long their hopes will be realized that is, if they can keep all automobiles off it

Arrangements will be made by police here, the commissioners decided, with a local garage with an available tow-car to keep all impounded cars until the violators have paid their fines and towing fees.

The commission also decided to purchase at once a new police car, the present one being badly in need of repairs. The new car was put into service Tuesday. It is a new Ford V-8, purchased from Rennie-Mobrle Inc.

Instructions were also given to Street Commission Earl H. Montgomery to extend the sewer main on West Main street from Spring drive 250 feet to the recently purchased lot of W. P. Chapman which is located just inside the village limits on that street. Mr. Chapman expects to build a home there.

HERBERT WARE, MISS LEMMON ARE WED AT FAIR CEREMONY

carnival background, preceded by a trapeze act a ceremony of solemnity and dignity united Madeline Lemmon and Herbert Ware in marriage on Wednesday, the opening night of the Northville Wayne County Fair.

The wedding, which followed the vaudeville performance, was performed by the Rev. H. G. Whitfield, and took place before a crowded grandstand.

Both local residents the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lemmon, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ware.

With the more artificial atmosphere created by the vaudeville artificial moon and trees softened by colored lights, and surrounded by a host of attendants in garden frocks of pink and white, the couple had a beautiful garden background for their wedding. The bride was dressed in a ruffled dress of white, complemented by a large picture hat of white while her sister, Donna Lemmon, acting as her attendant wore yellow set off by a garden hat of matching color and a yellow corsage. Paul Cummins, a friend of the groom's, acted as best man

The "Fads and Follies" chorus stopped their dancing routine to provide color and picturesqueness.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Lemmon, wore blue and Mrs. Ware was attired in a dress of golden yellow. A solo by Miss Corrine Ludherer, "O Promise Me," preceded the ceremony.

Cars driven to the runway of the stage carried the couple away from the crowd immediately after.

CHARGE LOCAL MAN OF ATTACKING GIRL

Henry Herman Pleads Not Guilty; to Appear Tuesday

Charged with attempting to attack a six-year-old girl here Sunday afternoon, Henry Herman, aged 62, pled not guilty when arraigned at 10 a m Tuesday before Justice Arthur S. Nichols.

Herman has already served an 11½-year term in the Jackson prison, officials said, for a similar offense

Justice Nichols set his bond at $5,000, two sureties, and announced that his examination by an official of the Wayne county prosecutor's office will take place at the office of the justice here at 2 p m. Tuesday Following his arraignment he was transferred to the Wayne county jail in Detroit. If he is held his trial will take place in the Circuit court

Herman was found with the girl by her grandfather on a haystack on the grounds at the corner of Fairbrook and South Center streets, where he had dragged her after stuffing his handkerchief in her mouth and covering her eyes with the sash off her dress He saw her feeding a horse there, she said, and when she refused to come, he picked her up and took her with him.

Her grandfather came out of a barn there, hearing the child scream, Herman immediately running away. He chased him with a pitchfork but was not able to catch him, he said.

Chief of Police Wm. H. Safford and Street Commissioner Earl H. Montgomery were informed a few minutes later of the occurrence, and hunted two hours for Herman finding no trace. Mr. Safford called Wayne county deputy sheriffs in New Hudson then, who found Herman Monday morning, only to have him escape on the pretense of making a phone call. He was again found there about 10 p m Monday evening, however, and brought to Northville where he was jailed.

PRODUCTION STARTS AT FURNITURE PLANT

Force of 20 Men Employed Now; More Will Be Added Soon

The sound of motors humming and of wood being cut and shaped is being heard these days in the Northville plant of the Michigan Wood Products Co. located in the old Globe Furniture building, where production has definitely started

Thursday morning August 15, the plant was put into operation, D. B. Merrifield, vice president of the company said Tuesday Two box shipments of lumber, which arrived at the plant last week made it possible to start work then

Within about 30 days, the factory should be in full swing for the fall production schedule Mr Merrifield said and then we will employ 45 or 50 men

About 18 men are working at the plant now he said and most of them engaged in some operation on the dinettes or informal dining tables and chairs for kitchenette or cottage, which the company specializes in making

The Detroit plant of the company is still in operation he said, but the only work being done there is finishing the main part of which is painting. About four or five men are working there.

We can't take a chance on moving that machinery out here yet he explained "until we have got far enough ahead on our orders to merit stopping work there. Those machines are a little like humans. They might not like being moved to a new location, and are likely to give us a little trouble."

From now on he said business will be steady all through the winter and spring. In a short time the machinery will be moved here from the Detroit plant and from then on, all operations will be conducted from this point.

"These dinettes are a popular article," Mr. Merrifield said "They or similar products are in all the new apartments, and they are always something that newlyweds think of buying before they purchase a formal dining suite"

C. T. THORNTON DIES TUESDAY AT HIS HOME

63rd Birthday Celebrated on Day Before He Was Taken Ill

All Northville and its vicinity were touched deeply by the sudden death of one of its life-long citizens, Chas T Thornton, who passed away at his home on the Nine Mile road Tuesday morning, August 20 after only a few days illness

Just one week previous to his death, Mr Thornton had attended a picnic of the Rotary club of which he was president, and seemed to be in his usual health and good spirits. It was largely due to his efforts that the occasion was one of the happiest in the history of the club

On the evening before he was stricken, Mr. Thornton enjoyed a family gathering at his home in celebration of his sixty-third birthday. On Friday, he suffered a stroke of paralysis from which he did not regain consciousness.

Mr Thornton, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Monroe Thornton, pioneers in this part of the state was born in the old homestead adjoining his late home, August 15 1872. He attended school in Northville and later took a business course in Cleary Business college in Ypsilanti

For over 40 years he was

WHEELS STRIPPED FROM ICE TRUCKS ON SUNDAY NIGHT

Four front wheels were stolen from two of the delivery trucks of the C. H. Ely & Son Coal and Ice company sometime Sunday night, the police have been told. The tires were taken from the trucks to lift the

The loss of the wheels was discovered at about 11:30 p m when one of Mr Ely's employees who lives in the building at the rear, heard some noise from the garage which is on the back of the warehouse. He did not think of it being a robber, however, and waited on

Thus far police authorities have not found the thief Mr Ely said he thought it must have been a local man because an outsider would not have known the situation.

The garage with space for four trucks was not yet provided with doors. It was completed only a few weeks ago Mr. Ely said He had expected to equip it with doors early in the fall The two trucks were found Monday morning still jacked up One of the trucks was put into service only about a month ago, Mr. Ely said Another truck in the garage was left undisturbed.

In the meantime passenger automobiles have had to be pressed into service to deliver ice to the customers and maintaining efficient service has been a big problem.

NEARLY 5,000 PERSONS THRONG FAIR GROUNDS THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Two Automobiles To Be Given Away Today and Saturday; Free Acts Will Be Completely Changed

HIGH AERIAL ACT THRILLS PATRONS

A crowd of nearly 5,000 persons thronged the fair grounds yesterday as the 19th annual Northville Wayne County Fair gathered momentum for the two big days—today and Saturday.

Fair officials emphasized the necessity of persons having tickets on the free automobiles being on the grounds at the time the cars are awarded. One car will be given today and another tomorrow.

A complete change of free acts will start this afternoon at one o'clock. Horse races on the track in front of the grandstand will be continued and the first of the senior horse show will commence A ball game is scheduled.

The 135-foot free aerial act, the highest of its type in the world, will be shown each day. This act, which engulfs with the performer sliding clear across the race track into the grandstand, won the acclaim of the crowd both Wednesday and last night

It was estimated that nearly one-half the persons on the grounds were from the neighboring village.

Fair officials expected that former Governor William Brucker and Circuit Judge Homer S Ferguson, both of Detroit, will be on the grounds

Wedding Bells Ring Again For Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groth of Salem Friday as Their Golden Anniversary is Celebrated

An elderly couple heard wedding bells peal forth all over again Friday at the town hall in Salem and the hearts of this couple, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groth were filled with joy as well over 100 of their friends from all over the state gathered to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

The ceremony and celebration which followed were a complete surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Groth, who were taken for a drive that morning by their grandson, Charles C. Groth, of South Lyon. They began to wonder just what this was all about when he stopped the car at the town hall instead of their home but were unprepared for what followed

With the Rev. Alfred Maas officiating they spoke their marriage vows, and then turned to be congratulated by their many friends. Mr. Maas is a favorite pastor of Mr. and Mrs. Groth. For the last 15 years they have known him and heard him preach both at the Lutheran church in Plymouth and at the Northfield Lutheran church, of which he is the pastor now.

A luncheon at the town hall climaxed the reception, which followed the ceremony, the center of interest being a huge three-tiered wedding cake with the figures of a bride and groom standing on top of it. Other cakes were brought also as well as rolls, salad, sandwiches, coffee, tea and lemonade.

Friends and relatives were there from Grand Rapids, Lansing, Ypsilanti, South Lyon, Northville, Detroit and Toledo. Mr. and Mrs. Will Groth of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Groth of South Lyon, the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Groth, and their wives, planned the affair.

Forty-nine of these years of married life were spent right in the house at the corner of Dickerson and South streets where Mr. and Mrs. Groth live now, they said Mr. Groth, by trade a wagon maker, who won a wide reputation throughout this district for his skill at making wood products, did most of the work himself in building the house.

During the first year after they were married they lived at Lapham's corner two miles south of the village of Salem.

Both were born at Brandenburg, Germany, and went to school together there as children. Mrs. Groth came to the United States after she had finished school, her family settling on a farm near Northville. Mr. Groth followed three years later, making his trip across the ocean in 1884. Strangely enough, his family located at South Lyon.

Being so close to each other, it was not long before they met again and the following year they were married in the Lutheran church in Plymouth.

Mr. Groth, who is 79 years old, after following his trade as a wagon maker ever since he was 16 years old, was forced to entirely discontinue his work three years ago when he suffered a stroke. He had a smile and many pleasant words to say when interviewed, however, as did Mrs. Groth, who is 71 years old.

MEADOWBROOK HAS CARNIVAL ON FRIDAY WITH 300 ATTENDING

More than 300 merrymakers were present Friday at the Meadowbrook country club to attend the all-day carnival there that not only included golf but also attractions that gave it a real carnival atmosphere.

Seven booths were in operation most of the day where those with a gambling instinct could try their luck at winning many beautiful and valuable prizes, which included many useful articles for the home and for the individual

A total of $1,000 in prizes was given away during the day, part of it being spent on the prizes for the men's and Women's golf.

A buffet luncheon was served all afternoon, and dinner with dancing in the evening. The next dinner dance to be held at the club will be on Saturday, September 7.

FAIR IS CALLED 'GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY' FOR DETROIT

(From the Detroit News)

To Detroit, the Northville Wayne County Fair which opens its gates Wednesday, is always a golden opportunity. If there is one characteristic that sets Northville apart from other communities in the Detroit metropolitan area it is that despite its proximity to a great industrial center, it has cherished and preserved its original flavor.

Thus in presenting the Wayne County Fair, Northville has avoided the error of over-reaching. Rather than attempt to encompass the wonders of Wayne County within the limits of its spacious fair grounds, it has made the fair an opportunity for Wayne County to become better acquainted with the resources of Northville.

This year, with the landscaping of the River Rouge scenic highway and the expansion of Cass Benton park almost completed, there is more reason than ever to visit Northville in fair time.

'Dark Horse' Steals March on Rivals And Wins Honor of Building First Home Of Year Here Even If It Is Small One

A young couple who had not been considered as the answer to the question "Who will build the first new home of the year in Northville?" have stolen a march this week on the proposed "model home" project, and on any others who are planning to build

Who is this couple?—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dethloff. Mr Dethloff is employed in the laboratory of the Maybury sanatorium Their new home is a small bungalow located on Nor street, just south of the Base Line road.

But the interesting feature of this new little home is that Mr. Dethloff and some of his fellow workers at the sanatorium have done all the work themselves on the house, working each evening. And they have made such remarkable progress that the outside walls are finished with one coat of paint on already and the roof is shingled—and all this work done within a week. They did not start work on the house until Thursday, August 15

All day Sunday about six or eight men toiled under the hot sun and the sound of nails being driven and wood being cut was never steadily in the neighborhood In fact the scene had all the aspects of a barn raising except it was a home they were building. The men had brought their lunches, and when the time came for it, they laid some planks across their saw horses and enjoyed their meal right there.

The work is being pushed Mr. Dethloff said, so that as soon as possible, he and Mrs. Dethloff can move in their new home—the first one built this year—or for the last few years for that matter.

It's a small home, not being equipped with a basement, and has only a small attic, but it will always be an attractive place to Mr and Mrs. Dethloff because with their own hands and those of their kind friends it was built.

GOOD-BY TO WILL ROGERS

With millions of others in the United States, the folks of Northville and surrounding area mourn the untimely death of Will Rogers. Hundreds here, who knew this lovable man both on the movie stage and over the radio, feel that they have lost a friend.

Will Rogers died as he lived, "with his boots on." Passing out so tragically, at the age of only 56, he had seemed to have another decade or so of useful service [illegible] without doubt Rogers was the most beloved man in the United States. His quaint philosophy, his clean humor, his marvelous knowledge of human nature and his courage in stating his convictions drew men, women and children to him. Without formal education, he knew life as few do and in the great school of experience had won his doctor's degree."

Who else will rise from the life of the humble, as did Rogers, to become the most beloved of our movie actors? His only rival at the box office was Shirley Temple and yet the two occupied different positions in the field of entertainment. Will Rogers stood alone in his class. Here in Northville at the Penniman-Allen theatre, the announcement of a Will Rogers picture meant usually a packed house. Our people came from hearing and seeing him, "cheered up" and with a little more spirit to carry [illegible] problems. They also came away with clean minds for Will Rogers had no place for smut in his pictures. It is said that at Hollywood, when such suggestions came up, he would show his contempt by just disappearing for awhile. The clean, fresh air of the western prairies, where he grew up as a cowboy, went through his pictures and kept them wholesome and inspiring. You could take the whole family to see Will Rogers without apology to the most sensitive child.

We can all be glad that the Rogers pictures will live after him. We [illegible] though one of our own had suddenly passed from life. Yet his influence will abide and we shall be grateful that he was with us as long as he was.

The world will [illegible] because of the passing of Wiley Post, who was the companion in death of the cowboy-philosopher. But because he was so little known to the average person the loss of the around the world flyer does not come as a personal grief to millions as did the tragic end of Rogers. "Yet in his own realm he was as great as the inimitable hero of The County Chairman." The country can ill afford to lose two such valuable men.

CRITICISM OF THE STORES

We sometimes wish that the people who criticise the Northville stores—and they should be expected to make such criticism—would go right to the business man himself and make the complaint.

Every real business man wants and will take to heart constructive remarks that may not be exactly flattering. It was a little matter—yet there are no little matters—but the other day an out-of-town visitor said that the Record front screen door needed a coat of varnish and that our customers' counter didn't "look so hot." Well if that visitor comes back he will find the screen door painted and re-wired and will see some of the Schrader store covering on the counter.

"Why hasn't that store (naming a well known place) a message to the buying people in The Record every week?" was asked just the other day. And "why do we have to go to Detroit to get that?" asked another person the very day we write this. The critic went on to say: "I should much prefer to buy it in Northville but they don't let me."

Northville is a fine suburban town, as we have said a hundred times but our merchants have a definite responsibility in keeping up with these changing modern times. We have a very large buying power here and more of this real money could be kept in Northville if our business section went after this business in a more aggressive and progressive way.

Friend reader, don't be afraid to tell the local merchant what you think he could and should do to make his store more attractive to you and your neighbor. He should thank you for honest and kindly criticism.

o—o—o

WELL, WHY NOT ONE FOR NORTHVILLE?

We are going to keep on asking it until we get one: When will Northville get a public swimming pool?"

Wyandotte is now carrying on a campaign for such a pool and the editor of the weekly paper at Charlotte comes out and says that that fine Eaton county city needs a down-town swimming pool.

Here we are just emerging from another tropical summer—the same kind we had in 1934—and our young people have had to resort by the scores to nearby lakes. Treacherous Curtis lake has been the haunt of some of our swimming young folks and what parent hasn't drawn a sigh of gratitude when the swimmers are safely home from there.

With a charge of ten cents a swim, we haven't the slightest doubt that a public swimming pool here, properly supervised, would actually be a paying proposition. In addition to that, it would be of uncalculable value in a health way. The only losers in such a project would be the sellers of gasoline who each summer now pump out hundreds of gallons of gasoline for young folks who want to "go swimming" and who do go to Whitmore lake, Walled lake and more distant points where there is water.

Some day Northville will have a public swimming pool. We have the water; let's bring on the "will to do."

o—o—o

WHERE THE TAXES GO

The other day four or five men walked slowly down Rogers street, sweeping the side of the pavement as carefully as the housewife cleans the dining room after company. It is nice to sweep the pavement sides but it wasn't done 25 years ago. This is just an illustration of the reason for soaring taxes that are breaking many backs. We are spending a lot of money for services that we didn't need years ago.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

Thrice welcome to our fair!

Have you returned that borrowed book?

Nomination for a courteous gentleman — T. Glenn Phillips, well known landscape architect.

Correct this sentence: "All Northville boys and girls will be glad to start school on Sept. 3."

If you earn $1,000 a year, something like $250 goes into the tax pot somewhere. If you doubt it, sit down and see how many different places you pay a tax. How do you like the idea?

A fine spirit of co-operation backs the Northville fair—and that is something of which we can all be proud. There is nothing that can stop a community that gets together and faces the world with a smile and a spirit of pull together. "Forward with Northville!"

It was a pretty mean term of graft for those Wayne county officers who made some dirty dollars by arresting boys who were riding freight trains and then taking them long distances to go before their confederate justices of the peace, where they were sentenced to the House of Correction. The Belleville Enterprise should be congratulated on its courage in rebuking in its columns its chief of police who had a hand in this practice. The Belleville chief went as far as Plymouth to pick up boys from trains.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

Would it be feasible for the community to get together and in some way finance a suitable gate and approach to the Northville Wayne county fair grounds?

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

1 YEAR AGO

All Northville turned out Wednesday evening to see the side-splitting parade of progress which opened the Northville fair.

With [illegible] horses entered in the horse show and 75 of the best horses in the state in the sensational horse show again merit a high place on the program of the fair.

All water-meters which are more than two quarters delinquent will be shut off on Sept. 4, it was decided Monday by the village commission.

The Northville polo team will take on the Detroit team Sunday at the Detroit Riding and Hunt club on the Seven Mile road. Both are considered fine teams.

The game between Harry Germain's Old Timers and the American Legion Juniors at 1 p. m. this afternoon promises to be one of the highlights of the fair this year.

The Rev. Dr. H. H. Savage of the First Baptist church of Pontiac addressed a mass meeting Sunday afternoon at the grandstand of the fair grounds, declaring that the greatest need in America today is to give God a chance.

A community swimming pool for Northville was advocated at the Rotary club meeting Tuesday noon by various members of the club.

In the presence of 100 relatives and friends the marriage of Miss Marguerite B. Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Warner, South Rogers street, to Irvin W. Ruttan of Detroit, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at the Methodist church.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

MARY PICKFORD TALKS

(M. H. DeFoe in Charlotte Republican-Tribune)

"Why Not Try God?" by Mary Pickford is well worth the twenty minutes required to read the little volume. It is a chatty talk about the power of thinking for good or evil. Here is a typical paragraph or two:

"Today is a new day. You will get out of it just what you put into it.

However, if you have made mistakes even serious mistakes, there is always another chance for you. And supposing you have tried and failed again and again, you may have a fresh start any moment you choose, for this thing that we call 'failure' is not the falling down but the staying down. And we can always take courage in the fact that we are part of the universe, God's universe, and not victims of it.

Most of us want to live in a world of goodness, of love, of friendliness, of happiness, of contentment, of abundance, of success, of joy and of harmonious relationships, and more and more I am coming to see that if we would experience these things, each of us must first of all plant them in our individual worlds of thought. For, 'whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.'

The kingdom of God is—where? Up in the clouds? Over on the other side of the mountain? Beyond the experience called death? Not at all. 'The kingdom of God is within you.' Could anything be plainer than that?

The biggest thrill you will ever get will be when you see that you have accomplished a great purpose through right thinking.

'One with God is a majority.'"

WHY HE QUIT SMOKING

(Ray Corliss in Parma News)

The statement in this column last week wherein James Cameron declared the average cigaret smoker had burned up $1,000 by the time he was 36 years old, caused considerable comment, mostly "Jim" says, from men whose wives were now nagging at their extravagance. However, from Mrs. Carl Wolff comes the following statement:

"It certainly was very manly of Mr. Cameron, being a smoker himself, to make that admission, and it should carry a lot of weight with young people. My husband used to smoke cigars and I broke him of the habit by taking as much money and putting it away as he spent on cigars. We started one New Year's day when he bought a dollar's worth of cigars. I told him I was going to match his "smoke" money for a year. By May I had saved $37.75 and when I showed it to him he stopped smoking."

ROOSEVELT IS RIGHT

(Frank Bryce in the Grand Ledge Independent)

We can not help but agree with President Roosevelt [illegible] relative to the so-called strikers in New York. When people are living off the bounty of others and then strike because the bounty isn't big enough, that strikes a chord which excites disgust in the minds of right thinking people. There is little doubt but that the very excessive, unbridled, uncontrolled, wasteful, handing out of taxpayers money in doles has given many who are living off that bounty reason to think that they are entitled to the luxuries instead of the necessities of life.

WHY THE WORLD IS SICK

(Father Joseph Lonergan, of Menominee, Wis.)

"All competent analysts whatever their religion or lack of it are agreed that the present world malady is the result of the moral lack, not material want. Recovery lies by the way of moral reform and rehabilitation.

THE RISE OF THE "HOT DOG"

(Bill Cansfield in the Livingston County Republican Press)

The other day we stopped over at Charlie Henderson's [illegible] and partook of a hot dog.

We wondered how many "hot dogs" were eaten in this county by just such gullible individuals as ourself.

One of the country's oldest industries is that of supplying the 4,500,000,000 hot dogs which Americans eat every year. It is estimated that if all the hot dogs eaten by Americans during a year were stood 5-inch ones, like Charlie's, they would reach from the earth to the moon, with many thousand miles of hot dogs left dangling in space, to become a contradiction in terms, cold hot dogs.

Hot dogs are most popular in the East, after that the West Coast. In the Middle West, at ball-games and outdoor sports events, ham sandwiches outsell them, and in the south, hamburgers and other local delicacies do the same.

The hot dog's popularity dates from about 1900 when a New York caterer, Harry Stevens, found out that they remain hot, due to their skins, on cold days at the ball games. The late Tad Dorgan called them hot dogs in his cartoons, and from that time, about 1907, they have risen steadily in demand.

SHALL AUTOS INVADE MACKINAC?

(W. H. Berkey in Cassopolis Vigilant)

We note a considerable controversy about whether or not automobiles should be allowed on Mackinac Island.

Being just a "hick" country editor we probably don't know the right answer, but we do believe that more of we folks who are "just folks" with somewhat limited funds would stop and take a look at our island if it wasn't for that ban on autos. We have passed the island on the ferry and "passed it up" rather than leave our car at Mackinaw City and then have to go back after it.

Of course, when we think back to the days when we used to take the girls buggy riding we get the idea that maybe we would enjoy a buggy ride around the island—but, maybe it wouldn't be half so much fun now as we used to think it was. Either way will suit us, gentlemen, because we may not go there anyway.

THE COST OF CIGARETTES

(Ray S. Corliss in the Parma News)

After many years of cigaret smoking, Postmaster James Cameron has become appalled by the cost of his extravagance. Says he:

"The average cigaret smoker has smoked up $1,000 worth of cigarets by the time he is 36 years old. I've been figuring it up and I am astounded by the thought. That would buy a life insurance endowment policy. And of course, the cigar smoker burns up even more cash."

Young men and women smokers, with whom the habit has not become too fixed would do well to re-read Mr. Cameron's statement. Aside from the constant irritation of nerves, the dulling of the mental processes, the breaking down of moral resistance and the weakening of lungs to make tuberculosis easier to contact, smoking is a senseless waste of money.

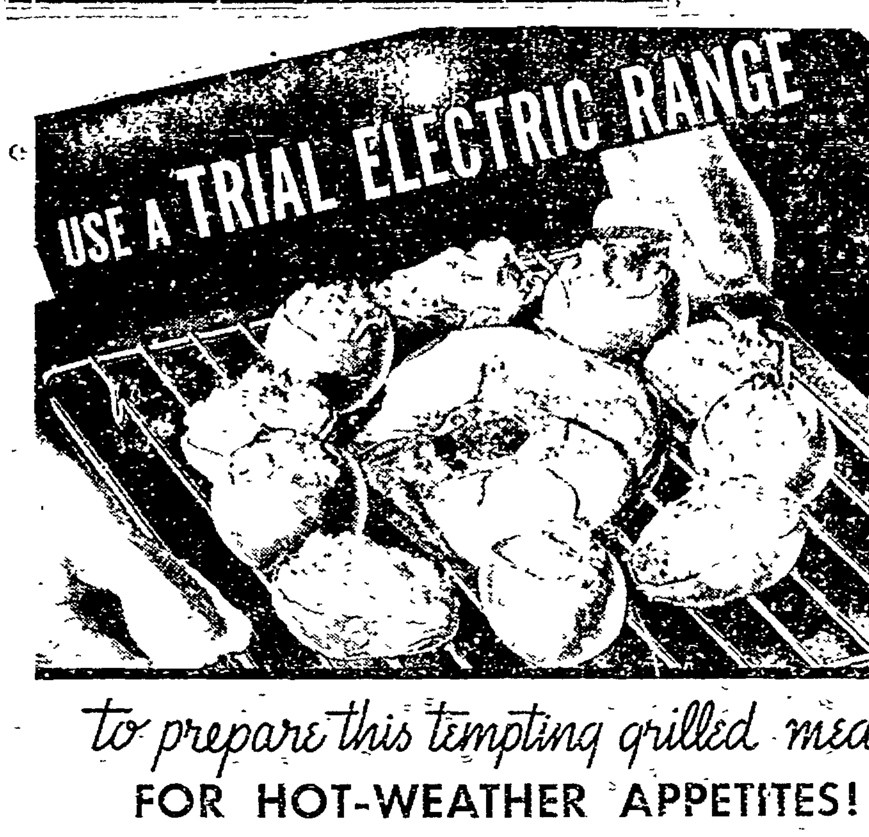
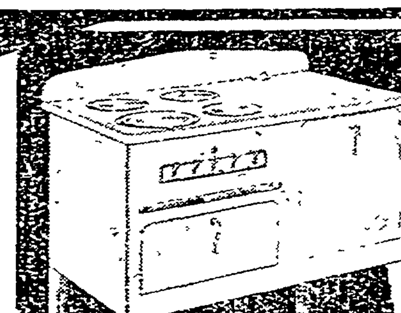
USE A TRIAL ELECTRIC RANGE



to prepare this tempting grilled meal

FOR HOT-WEATHER APPETITES!



THIS delicious grilled oven meal can be prepared with only one utensil, and consists of tomatoes, broiled ham, and potatoes-on-the-half-shell (the potatoes having been previously baked). The flavor-conserving heat of an electric oven makes the preparation of this meal far superior to ordinary methods. Flavor is sealed-in, and food values are retained. The gentle, even heat of the electric range assures the utmost tenderness in the ham, and the tomatoes and potatoes are evenly browned and cooked. This delicious meal is only one of many you can enjoy with a modern electric range—and you can try a range in your own kitchen by means of the Trial Plan.

The plan briefly is this: We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, so that you may give it a thorough trial. During this trial period you simply pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Send in your application for a trial range today!

'The Gay Divorcee,' Musical Comedy Hit, Starting Monday Night, Will Conclude First Season of Opera Under the Stars

Opera Under the Stars brings to the mammoth outdoor stage at Navin field as the last production of it's first summer season, the most outstanding musical comedy in years, "The Gay Divorcee." It will start its week's engagement Monday night, August 26.

This rollicking romance held sway on Broadway for almost a year and then was produced in London where it enjoyed a six months' engagement. Following this it was made into a motion picture and in this form "The Gay Divorcee" became one of the outstanding screen hits of the year.

For a fast moving story, hilarious comedy and catchy music this musical show is hard to beat. Among the many songs is the sensational hit "The Continental;" there is also the dance of the same name which is one of the flashy-points of the whole show. Elaborate dance numbers, gorgeous girls and colorful costumes make this show bubble over with life and action.

The whole of this delightful comedy is woven around a situation that is harrowing to the people in-volved but hilarious to onlookers. Guy Holden glimpses Mimi and falls head over heels in love. He pursues her madly hither and yon, singing and dancing into her heart. She cannot return his love, however, because she is under obligations to another man. To free herself from these obligations she hires, through a friend, a professional flirt, intending to stage an affair which will make her former sweetheart jealous. Her plan backfires ludicrously when Guy, about whose private life she knows nothing, comes upon the scene in circumstances that cause Mimi to believe that HE is the professional flirt. From this point on eventuate the dizziest sort of romantic complications.

A brilliant all-star cast appears in this musical comedy. Jack Good, who plays the role of the love-struck-dancing suitor, Guy Holden, is one of the cleverest and most colorful dancers on the stage today. The laughing, singing and dancing Mimi is played by Sandra Ward, who will take her place in the limelight as one of the leading stars of the entire season. Miss Ward and Mr. Good as a dance team promise to be sensational. The comedy roles of Aunt Hortense and Tonetti, a giglo, are played by Hope Emerson and Harry K. Morton, who have been the comedy stars of the 'opera' and who are acknowledged to be about the best in their line in the country. Leonard Ceeley will appear as Guy's comic friend, Egbert. Many other well known favorites will be seen in the cast as well as one of the largest and most beautiful dancing choruses ever seen on the legitimate stage.

This gay and colorful musical comedy, which will have its last performance on Sunday night, September 1st, will bring to a close in a blaze of glory Detroit's first summer season of outdoor musical shows, which has been most unusual and successful.

All seats are reserved; performances start at 8.30 nightly

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

BY HARRISON CHANDLER

A Pennsylvania Fair

We used to think that was quite a fair—many thousands of people, it seemed, always attended it—and it had to our casual eyes many interesting exhibits. It is the Beaver county fair, held in the very center of Beaver valley, one of the country's greatest industrial centers. That fair has had at least six towns ranging in population from 5,000 to 20,000 to draw on, without even considering the many farmers of that section.

And yet that fair has been dissolved. The old grounds are run-down with weeds now, the race track too, and the grandstand and other buildings look ready for kindling wood.

A Startling Contrast

Northville's fair, on the other hand, which advertises itself to only a fraction of the population of the same amount of territory in Beaver county, Pennsylvania, is marching on through the years, has definitely weathered the depression, and now is going ahead to what promises to be as good a fair as has ever been presented here. That speaks very well of the spirit and ability of the men who are responsible for it. Nelson C. Schrader, Floyd A. Northrop and all the rest. It also shows that Northville and the surrounding communities are interested in the fair and are giving it their support every year. We'll see you there.

Are You Lucky?

Wonder who will win those three cars. We would not mind getting one. And the interest in them is getting greater each day. It's going to be a lot of fun to see who holds the right tickets.

The Show's On!

[illegible] county fair [illegible] in its third day [illegible] reaches the [illegible] [illegible] It will be anything like the fair we used to [illegible] the [illegible] [illegible]

A Busy Place

We found the [illegible] a [illegible] work before things officially were opened to the public. To be frank we had never before walked around the grounds at all [illegible], down there before only [illegible] occasional ball game.

It seemed as though a circus had come to town [illegible] was [illegible] merry-go-round [illegible] Ben Ber[illegible] was [illegible] about Tuesday [illegible] The only thing lacking was the "big top" for the animals were there, not all of them looking as though they needed Clyde Beatty to tame them, of course. But there are really some prize specimens there, we understand.

Let's Do It Here

Just as an afterthought and this has nothing to do with the fair, we think it would be splendid for some of the organizations here to provide a place where the young people could come and enjoy themselves under circumstances where the most righteous mother in town would not fear to send her daughter.

There is such a place in Royal Oak on the Nine Mile road just west of Woodward avenue where young people—and it seems that a very fine grade of people frequent the place—can go and enjoy refreshments and dancing in a pleasant atmosphere. No beer is served there or any alcoholic drinks, and yet it is growing daily in popularity as more find out about it. Why could that not be done here?

SCHOOL EXHIBITS AT FAIR INCLUDE ART, FURNITURE, DRESSES

The exhibits of the students of Northville and Plymouth schools at the fair in the Educational building are well worthwhile seeing, according to Mrs. Ida B. Cooke, Northville teacher and principal of the junior high school who is in charge of the exhibits.

Art work of the students make a large part of the articles displayed, both Plymouth and Northville children's drawings meriting more than a passing glance. One of the most outstanding is a large crayon drawing of a lion shown licking his paws after a full meal. It was made by Leo Hollis Jr., in the fifth grade. Other art work includes free hand drawings, cut-out work and pattern work.

On the Plymouth side of the room are some well mounted butterflies, each exhibit covered with cellophane, some clever water color pictures, an attractive charcoal sketch of some crockery by a high school boy and some pillow cases with crayon designs on them.

The dresses by the girls in both towns are an outstanding part of the exhibit. Included on the Northville side was the prize winning senior graduating dress of the 1935 class, which was made by Miss Helen Christensen. Others there were made by the Misses Vera Coleman, 1935 class, Alice Eaton, tenth grade, Winifred McCardle, 1935 class, Margaret Nagy, tenth grade, and Barbara Simmons, eighth grade.

Work by the Northville high school manual arts class included a walnut book case, two end tables, and a floor and table lamps.

ROTARIANS HONOR CHARLES THORNTON

Members of the Northville Rotary club abandoned their regular program at their Tuesday noon meeting at the Presbyterian church house and instead paid tribute to their president, Charles T. Thornton, whose death had occurred a few hours earlier.

Opening the meeting, Father Jos. G. Schuler, a former president of the club, asked all the members and guests to bow in silent prayer for a moment. The usual singing by the club was given up but Leslie G. Lee, whom Mr. Thornton followed in the office of president, played several memorial numbers on the piano, among them well known hymns.

E. H. Lapham, vice president, was in charge of the meeting and spoke feelingly of Mr. Thornton, whom he had known since both were boys here together in Northville. "Charlie," said Mr. Lapham, "always considered the other fellow. I can not remember that in all the years that have passed that we ever had a word of difference."

Mr. Thornton was a charter member of Rotary, which was organized here ten years ago and had the remarkable record of having had a perfect attendance record for the first eight years of the club's history. His devotion to the organization was most unusual, and his faithfulness to the high principles of Rotary had made him well known in nearby places that have Rotary clubs. He had been in office only a month but had planned earnestly for the activities for the coming year. He was the first Northville Rotarian to die while in active membership in the club.

Following tributes by individual members, the following resolutions were passed:

WHEREAS, CHARLES T. THORNTON passed from this life on Tuesday, August 20, 1935, and

WHEREAS, His sudden departure comes with a deep personal grief to every member of the Northville Rotary club, bringing a keen sense of sorrow in the loss of our President, and

WHEREAS, He was a charter member of the Northville Rotary club and had made a record of perfect attendance, unequalled by any other member, and along with this achievement had brought to the club a service and loyalty that in every way matched his attendance; and his faithful, modest and never failing devotion to every Rotary project had been a constant inspiration to Rotarians here and in other places; and his sacrifice for the club and his vision in planning for its interest had been perpetual reminders of our slogan, "Service Above Self," and

WHEREAS, the kindly, constant, unstinted and sympathetic devotion that "Charlie" Thornton gave to the Northville Rotary club found similar expression in his life in his own community, making sincere friends for him in all walks of life; and the splendid years of right living that he had spent among our citizens had given him a high place of esteem and affection among all.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the Northville Rotary club hereby record their profound sense of personal loss in the death of their fellow member and president, that we extend to his family our deepest sympathy and ideal service that he has left as an enduring treasure to us; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a plaque in his memory be prepared for the Rotary club, and that these resolutions in memory of Charles T. Thornton be placed among the permanent records and that copies thereof be sent to Mrs. Thornton and other members of the family, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the chair of our departed president, Charles T. Thornton, be draped in mourning and left vacant for thirty days.

PROJECTS TO CONTINUE

The work relief projects here, which were to have stopped yesterday, will be extended until Sept. 1 according to word received on Wednesday. All of the 54 men will continue at work.

The following was written at the end of our first week's stay in Wanakena, but did not arrive here in time to make the deadline. We got into Northville at 7.30 p. m. Wednesday, coming from Syracuse with Mr. and Mrs. Merritt Meaher and family.

IN THE MOUNTAINS

Here we are in Wanakena, increasing its crstwhile population to [illegible] for these hours. It is nestled in the Adirondack mountains right on the Oswagotchee river

According to Prof. James F. Dubar, Wanakena's number one citizen and son of Charles L. Dubar of Northville, with whom we are staying, the river got its name from an Indian who spoke broken English. The brave had lost his horse, chased it a mile or so and finally caught it after swimming a river. Upon grabbing the animal, the Indian said, "Oss we go chee." And that is how the river got its name—or so Jim says.

Wanakena is famous, among other reasons, for being near the New York State Ranger school—the only one of its kind in the world. The school trains foresters [illegible] and is a very unique [illegible]

We're having one grand time Going around in a pair of high top [illegible] and [illegible]

Out here we are [illegible] weeks with [illegible] the world's [illegible] and Professor—Mr and Mrs. James F. Dubar

THE MOUNTAINS.

[illegible] are steep, are majestic and beautiful beyond words

Villages in these parts named after lakes have a strange way of not being on the lake after which they are named. Thus Tupper Lake is not on Tupper lake and Lake Placid is not on Lake Placid. [illegible]

Lake Placid is a beautiful place. We walked up its famous ski jump, which was used in the 1932 Olympic games, explored its 150-mile-an-hour bob sled run and saw its millionaires riding in their chauffeur-driven automobiles.

In Lake Placid, rich men, to paraphrase a remark Will Rogers once made, are as thick as they are at a state constitution convention.

And speaking of Will Rogers, along with millions of others, we were grieved to hear of his and Wiley Post's tragic deaths. The news of it did not filter back into Wanakena until Friday night.

THE ARMY

Less than 25 miles from Wanakena is Pine Camp, where the greatest peacetime military maneuvers in the nation's history are going on. The long columns of troops are a familiar sight. But those commanding the 35,000 men in the [illegible] Army chose not to be spied [illegible] guards were plentiful and the Average Citizen had no more chance to see his land forces at [illegible] than a lamb in a lion's [illegible]

[illegible] is on Cranberry lake [illegible] Oswegotchee river. The lake has 165 miles of shore-line, being one of the biggest lakes in the Adirondacks. We went over it—so we were able to see almost every part of the entire shore—Friday in the U. S. mail boat.

The boat was piloted by a peculiar old chap and his sister both of whom needed a bath, but who could tell some tall stories.

There are lots of that calibre in Wanakena. To hear the stories all you have to do is to go down to J. Otto Hamele's general store around nine a. m. and get your seat. The Wanakenans wait there for the mail to come in and discuss the "situation in genal."

60 BELOW ZERO

On the ranger school property is the Adirondack's famous frost pocket, described by Lowell Thomas, where in winter the mercury falls to 60 degrees below zero. Even when the temperature is up to 80 in the summer (they call that hot up there), it is always cool in the frost pocket, and that is not a tall story!

You can see it when you sit and dangle your heels over Cathedral rock—and from that place, as well as Cat mountain and High rock, you get a wonderful view.

BEAUTY

We climbed High rock, the highest point on the Ranger school property—1800 feet above the level of the sea at mean tide—one evening about 7.30. The high yellow orb they call the moon up here, hanging dangerously close it seemed, was just coming up over some peaks in the east. There was only a cool breeze to break the perfect stillness. It was beautiful.

DOG QUARANTINE IS IN EFFECT NOW IN OAKLAND COUNTY

Deputy Wellie Coe of Walled Lake calls attention to the recent quarantine of dogs against rabies, ordered by the State Board of Health as a result of several cases of the disease found in seven counties, including Oakland county.

Deputy Coe warns all persons desiring to protect their dogs from other infected animals as well as from possible extermination by police to be careful to comply with the restrictions of the quarantine which requires owners to chain their dogs or otherwise confine them, except as permitted by the commissioner of agriculture or authorized representative.

To secure such permits, dogs must be tagged and vaccinated prior to issuance of such a permit.

County dog owners may apply for their permit to the sheriff of the county.

WHEAT GROWERS OF STATE TO BE GIVEN CROP CONTROL PLAN

adverse decision by the Supreme Court should materialize at some future time, the contract in its present form is admirably devised to protect both the farmers and the government.

"The government would have both a moral and a legal obligation to compensate farmers fully for performance up to the date of such a decision. The Government, in fairness and honesty, would pay, and legally would be bound to pay in full for their compliance up to that time, but not beyond that time" he said.

The contract will call for a reduction of wheat planting of 15 per cent from the grower's base acreage, which is already established. The contract signer cannot plant more than 85 per cent of his base acreage nor less than 54 per cent of the base. Plantings for years following 1936 may be varied up or down within a 25 per cent maximum as demanded by conditions.

The contract period is for four years, beginning with 1936, but the grower can terminate the contract at the end of two years

THE BEST PARTNER ANY MAN EVER HAD

It has been a long time since anybody regarded an automobile as a luxury. With few exceptions every automobile driven by men is contributing far more to the owner's income than it cost.

This has led men to look carefully into those car specification features that contribute to operating efficiency, low maintenance cost and length of life. And this is one reason why car buyers make sure that they get an adequate measure of local dealer responsibility when they buy a car.

We invite the closest inspection of the complete Ford line and of the responsibility of this organization for the constant satisfaction of Northville and community owners.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Wayne, ss.

Carl B. Schoultz, President and Irvin E. Van Atta, Secretary, being duly sworn depose and say that they are President and Secretary of the Northville Loan & Building Association of Northville, Michigan, and that the foregoing statement and report is a full and correct exhibit of the assets and liabilities, of the receipts and disbursements and of the general condition and affairs of said corporation on the 30th day of June, 1935, and for the year ending on that date.

CARL B. SCHOULTZ, President
IRVIN E. VAN ATTA, Secretary

Subscribed and sworn to before me on the 19th day of August, 1935.
LOYLE M. GERMAN,
Notary Public, Wayne Co., Mich.
Commission Expires Jan. 28, 1939.

September First is the last day to pay your taxes for 1932 and prior years without interest or penalty!

AND now, after years of postponement and delay, the time has come for you to pay your taxes.

You can't put off this duty any longer. Your peace of mind and domestic security demand it.

Fortunate, indeed, are the tax-payers of Michigan. A thoughtful legislature has acted boldly to lighten their burden. Never before has the tax-payer met with such prime consideration.

You, who still owe taxes for 1932 and previous years can now pay in the original amount. Although years have passed you need pay no interest or penalties here alone saving yourself from 27% to 45%; and even more.

But your law-makers have not stopped at merely cutting interest and penalties. Well they know that debts piled up with the years can not be met over night, even if the totals are reduced. So They Created The "10-Year Plan"!

Now you can pay your back taxes for 1932 and prior years so as to take advantage of big and worthwhile savings. If you cannot pay in full at this time you can pay as little as one-tenth and pay the balance over a period of years, with only a small carrying charge.

September first is the last day to pay back taxes for 1932 and prior years without interest or penalties. Do not delay! Act Now! Your County Treasurer will quickly tell you the exact amount of your tax. He will accept your payments and restore you to good standing as a faithful tax-payer of a great State.

Are High School Athletics Worth While?

Have you an athletic high school boy in your family? Then listen to the experience of a trainer of boys in a city Y.M.C.A. who talked to us the other day.

Contrary to the common opinion that high school athletics are a benefit to boys' health, if the real truth were known; many a boy is handicapped for life by overdoing in competitive sports.

"Doctors tell us," asserts this boy authority, "that a growing boy's heart, which is normally taxed to its limit by the job of keeping pace with his body, in many cases is ruptured by the strain. Especially strenuous is basket ball in which there are no rest intervals during the game. A doctor made the public declaration recently that many cases of leakage of the heart may be traced to athletics during this growing period. After the boy has his growth there is less danger."

"It is not easy for parents to oppose entering athletics for their boys who would rather die than not play." It is a wise parent who will insist upon a thorough physical examination by the home doctor before fall practice begins.

"Rest and lots of sleep" says this Y.M. man, "are what make strong boys. Give the boy long hours of sleep in the fresh air and his mind will take care of itself. Contrary to the idea that soldiers in the training camps grew stronger because of the military drill and good food, it was the enforced regular hours of sleep that turned them out healthier than when they entered camp."

Summer Round Up

And, speaking of health, with school just around the corner it might be well for parents to consider the summer "round up." The following comment comes from a child authority:

Parent Teacher Associations are endeavoring to get all parents to look after the children's eyes and teeth in the summer, that they may be ready to do their best in school next winter. To attend to this now will save confusion later when everybody is busy, and when the children would probably have to miss some school days to do it.

The medical examination saves ten times its expense and suffering and possible death—which is so permanent—later. Many a wee danger signal, which would never appear to the naked eye, is discovered by the doctor, for a very small cost. This symptom, neglected, is almost sure to develop into a serious illness, costing cash, anxiety, loss of time, suffering—and perhaps mourning. Discovered in time, the incipient ill may be nipped in the bud and the victim live long and happily, if not "ever after" at least much longer than he would otherwise.

Round up the whole family at once—and call upon your doctor, your dentist and your oculist for the periodical "once over." Then you may laugh at Fate and run along for your vacation.

Ripe Tomato Luncheon Salad

Serves six. Dip 6 tomatoes in hot water for a few seconds, plunge into cold water, then skin. Chill well. Combine and mix thoroughly 1 cup coarsely ground cooked pork or veal, ½ cup either finely chopped or shredded raw carrot, ½ cup finely chopped celery, 2 tablespoons India Relish, 3 tablespoons Mayonnaise, and salt to taste. Place each tomato, with stem end down, in a cup-shaped leaf of lettuce. With a very sharp knife, cut the tomato within about ½ inch of the bottom, dividing into 10 or 12 sections. Pull sections gently apart and fill with meat mixture. Garnish with watercress and serve, with additional Mayonnaise. Note: this makes an excellent mock chicken filling.

Apple Vegetable Salad

Sprinkle 2 cups unpeeled, cubed red or green apple with 2 tablespoons Cider Vinegar. Add 1 cup shredded raw carrot, 3 stalks of celery, chopped, ½ teaspoon salt and 1 teaspoon sugar and mix well. Slightly moisten with Mayonnaise and arrange in nests of lettuce and garnish with additional Mayonnaise. The combination of yellow carrot and red or green skin on apple makes a pleasing combination of color.

Pickle Recipes

(Courtesy Northville Laboratories)

Pickles should be carefully handled and all bruised, spotted, or imperfect ones discarded. Use only fresh spices; either whole or bruised. If ground, tie in thin muslin bag.

To green pickles, line a vessel with fresh grape-vine leaves and pack with alternate layers of pickles and leaves. A little SUPREME POWDERED ALUM sprinkled among the layers will assist in setting or fixing the color. Cover with cold water and boil until color is satisfactory. Boiling will soften the pickles but they can be restored to firmness by dropping into cold or iced water for a few hours.

COLD PROCESS PICKLES
Quick and Easy Process

1 Clove of Garlic
1 Pint Small Onions.
1 Gal. Cider Vinegar.
½ Dram SUPREME SACCHARIN.
1 Cup Salt
1 Cup Mustard Seed.
1 Cup Grated Horseradish.

Mix together and stir well. You may put as many pickles in as is convenient each day until the solution won't cover any more. Keep pickles down in solution. They are ready for use in a few days.

FOR CANNING

Soak pickles over night in brine of sufficient strength to float an egg. Wipe each pickle dry and place in jars. Pour the following solution over pickles and place small amount of dill seed in each jar:—

1 Cup Mustard.
1 Cup of Salt.
1 Dram SUPREME SACCHARIN.
1 Gal. Cider Vinegar.

sufficient spices to suit taste. Heat to boiling, and pour over pickles. Seal in jars.

COLD PROCESS PICKLES

To one Gallon Cider Vinegar, add One ounce each of Ground Mustard, White Mustard Seed, Ginger Root, Cinnamon Bark, and Whole Black Pepper; one-half cup Salt and ¼ Dram of SUPREME SACCHARIN. Bruise spices and mix with vinegar and pour over pickles in stone jar. Let stand four or five days and they are ready to serve.

COLD PROCESS PICKLES

200 Small Pickles.
1 Gal. Cider Vinegar (diluted with 1 gal. water).
½ Cup Mustard.
1 Dram SUPREME SACCHARIN.
Cup Mixed Spices.
1½ Cups Salt.
1 Clove of Garlic.
1 Pint Small Onions.

Wash pickles and place in stone jar. Mix above items and pour over pickles. Place plate with weight over pickles to keep them down in solution. Let stand a week before using.

MIXED PICKLES
(For Canning)

1 Qt. Large Green Cucumbers.
1 Qt. Small Green Cucumbers.
1 Qt. Small Onions
1 Qt. Green Tomatoes (sliced and cut in cubes).
1 Large Cauliflower (pulled into tiny flowerets).
4 Peppers (sliced and cut into cubes).

Do not chop the ingredients, but cut into cubes or chunks ¼ to ½ inch in thickness. Soak for 24 hours in weak brine of one cupful of salt in a gallon of water. Place the whole on the fire, bring to a boil and pour into a colander to drain. Mix together in a bowl: 6 tablespoons of Ground Mustard

1 tablespoonful of TUMERIC
½ Cupful Flour
¼ Dram of SUPREME SACCHARIN
1 Cupful Brown Sugar.

Mix dry, rub into a smooth cream with a little vinegar and then dilute with 2 quarts of Vinegar. Pour the mixture into a preserving kettle and let it boil until it thickens, then stir in the pickles, let them boil up. Pour into suitable jars and seal.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY — AMERICAN TELEPHONE & TELEGRAPH CO. — BELL SYSTEM

The Symbol of an Ideal

THE history of American industry affords no example of lasting success that came by chance. Instead, it shows that enduring institutions are products of an honest policy applied intelligently and faithfully over a period of years.

The vital place which the telephone occupies in modern life did not result from accident. It was won—and is held—by supplying the public with a service of genuine and steadily increasing value.

To better that value is the abiding principle of the Michigan Bell Telephone Company's policy. Even during the recent years of sharply reduced revenues, years in which all values were subjected to bitter tests, this company did not relax in its obligation to achieve further improvements in its service.

As a direct result of this policy, the people of Michigan are receiving a higher grade telephone service than ever before. This statement is not made lightly. The improvement is revealed by carefully compiled records of daily performance. They show a greater speed and accuracy in handling local calls; a continued decrease in "out-of-order" reports; more prompt repair service; and a greater proportion of out-of-town messages completed while the subscriber holds the line.

These records, though undramatic in themselves, are important as milestones of progress toward complete satisfaction for the users of this vital public service. The improvements they signify were not won by chance—they did not "just happen."

They were achieved by this company's rigid adherence to a policy having as its basic ideal the best possible service for the least possible cost that will maintain the present standards and assure the improvements of the future.

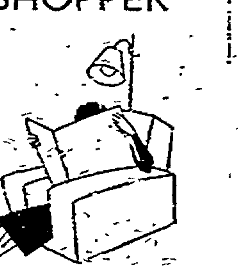
THE RECORD SHOPPER



By ELEANOR BLUM

With the first talk of school opening there comes the urgent need for something new to wear the first few days. Most mothers won't want to get their sons and daughters completely outfitted until the fall things come in—but they can satisfy the urgent need for change with a sweater or some other between summer and fall fill-in.

One of the local stores carries several inexpensive articles that will strike a boy or girl's fancy on returning to school. The "sweat" shirts that are so much the apple of every boy's eye can be had in cotton brushed on the inside to simulate wool and to take the chill off the first fall days. They have further value with the Jackie Cooper pictures on them, or with the comical features of a clown making grimaces at the world from the front of them.

Sport shirts in brown and blue and white will be the boyish idea of masculinity, and the zipper will be an added attraction. The white slip-ons are always favorites too. For the girl, you might get a little broadcloth dress for the first days of school, when it's still too hot for wool.

We'll have more about school togs when fall is a little more with us, but in the meantime perhaps you will be looking for a gift for the college-goer. Nothing could be more appreciated than the study lamp one of the local shops is showing. Done in the now so fashionable chrome plate the lamp is particularly well adapted to both ornamental and useful. Most college rooms are badly in need of dressing up and this lamp with its chrome surface and graceful contours will do just that. It is designed in a half-circle with the metal fade in [illegible] shape and moveable so that it can be easily adjusted to [illegible]. The switch on the base will be an added [illegible].

PEACE AND QUIET IN GALIEN

(F. W. M. Goff in Redford Record)

Galien is a little village in the southwest corner of Michigan, three miles from the Indiana State line, 20 miles from [illegible] and superb [illegible].

It boasts [illegible] of them residents [illegible] standing. It is a short little town well kept [illegible] through the interstices of lofty maples. Everybody knows everybody else, everybody is cordial and friendly. Life is quiet and simple and charming. Twenty miles away the big blue lake booms on its white sandy shingle and the highway is a mad tangle of cars, but Galien pays no attention. One could live there forever without any fret about traffic—there is no such problem in the town—there is not even a stop light.

At that there is something about the dignified little town which halts swift traffic to a slower pace. Those who have read Helen Hull's "Heat Lightning" will know just what kind of a town Galien is for she described such a Michigan village in this book.

Christian Science Churches

"Mind" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, August 25.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (Rom. 11:34-36): "For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? ... For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen."

Some one has defined leisure time as [illegible]. But perhaps a more definite and more accurate [illegible] time that we have the privilege [illegible]. On first thought we might say that we have very little leisure time. Yet in this day and generation there are few of us of whom it may be truthfully said. There are certain hours that we must give to school or to work. We require a certain number of hours for sleep each day. And most of us have obligations in and about the home that require a part of our time. But if we will figure up the number of hours each day over which we have absolute control perhaps we will be surprised at the amount.

We need to remember that many of the engagements that we make must be included in our leisure time. Our hobbies must be counted as leisure, although they may involve real work. There is a certain amount of other work that must be included also as a part of our leisure time—things that we choose to do because we want to, or to help some one else. If such work is not absolutely necessary we have the privilege of saying whether or not we shall do it.

A Christian, conscientious in the use of his time, will find minutes, hours, and even days that can be devoted to useful, God-pleasing things. By carefully planning our days during our time, moments that would otherwise be irretrievably lost may be devoted to God and His Kingdom.

Take my life and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee.
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

The hour for worship every Sunday morning is 10 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us.

BY THE WAY . . .

By R. W. L.

Did you know that the Burkman house at the corner of South Center and Fairbrook is progressing nicely and presents some most interesting historical background? In the first place those who know, state that the house is well over 100 years old—a native son who has lived 83 years states that the house has been there as long as he can remember. The house is of the early Michigan farm house style of architecture and that style is going to be maintained in the new structure as near as is possible.

Mr. Burkman states that when they took the old shingles off the roof they found that the roof boards were of black walnut and even more interesting than that the eavestrough was a hewn beam—troughed out with a drilled hole at the outlet end.

Those who have the history state that Mrs. Samuel Williams was at least one of the earliest residents of the house; Mrs. Williams was a Northville milliner. It is stated that in those days the lot extended from the present building location clear down to Center street and the approach was from that street. One of the early settlers says that he remembers walking up the path from Center street to the house delivering papers and that both sides of the path were lined with flower beds.

Another native Northvillian states that 50 years ago Joan Simonds, professor of music, lived in the house and he was followed by the Frank Dolph family who lived there for a number of years—it has recently been known as the Van Sickle home, Mrs. Van Sickle being a Dolph daughter.

You will find this project a most interesting one and the Burkmans most enthusiastic in their rebuilding plans—and more than that you will be interested to observe how thoughtfully they are planning the whole home—more about this next week if you care for the reminiscent narrations.

While gathering some history of the past we talked with Dean Griswold of the Lovewell Dunlap street. In addition to many reminiscent bits we were particularly interested in one of the apple trees that bears three distinctly different apples. [illegible]

MOTORBOAT STOLEN LAST WEEK FROM WALLED LAKE MAN

Ralph Richardson, a Walled Lake resident was the victim of a robbery early Wednesday, August 14, about one o'clock a. m. It is reported the thieves broke a chain lock fastened to an outboard motorboat to which the motor remained attached and loading it on a trailer departed.

A number saw the thieves at work but gave it no thought until he learned of the theft later that morning.

Deputy Wallie Coe was not called to investigate the scene of the act until nearly noon Wednesday and so far has been able to find little trace of the thieves. The sheriff's deputies are continuing their investigation.

LUBRICATION UNIT WELL RECEIVED AT WARNER'S STATION

B. E. Warner, who has recently added a lubricating and washing service to his service station stated this week that he is very much pleased with the response of the public.

Mr. Warner, a local man, is investing his own money in the expectation that the folks of Northville will appreciate the added service and convenience.

"During the short time that we have had this new service available we have had a most heartening increase in trade and are glad of this opportunity to express our appreciation," stated Mr. Warner.

One of the unusual services Mr. Warner declares the service station renders is to call for and deliver cars for wash or lubrication.

Two Features To Be Shown Saturday At Penniman-Allen; Edmond Lowe in 'Werewolf of London' on Wednesday

Edmund Lowe is off to a new peak of popularity as a result of his performance in "Black Sheep," which comes next Wednesday to the Penniman-Allen theatre. He portrays a new character—far removed from any type he has yet done.

In Fox Film's latest comedy-drama, "Black Sheep," which has received great ovations wherever it has played, Edmund Lowe plays the part of a professional ship gambler who is returning to New York on the second-class deck because the cards and the horses wouldn't behave abroad.

Claire Trevor, as an actress who is "walking home" from her first trip to the Continent, joins forces with Edmund Lowe to back a romance and keep a captivating adventuress, Adrienne Ames, from a desperate move involving the life of a young playboy, Tom Brown, who wouldn't play her game.

The story zips merrily along in a fast comedy vein with the underlying drama coming more and more frequently to the surface.

The romance between Edmund Lowe and Claire Trevor is one of the most refreshing ever seen on the screen and has been well-received everywhere.

"Black Sheep" was produced for Fox Film by Sol M. Wurtzel and directed by Allan Dwan. Among the favorites in the supporting cast are Tom Brown, Eugene Pallette, Herbert Mundin and Ford Sterling.

The oddest, most gripping and daring film of the year has been booked for a showing at the Penniman-Allen theatre tomorrow, Saturday. It is Universal's "Werewolf of London," a story based on the fabled werewolf legend which has been handed down through the ages, and is still prevalent in Central Europe.

A werewolf is a man who became transformed into a wolf each night during the full of the moon. The remainder of the time he assumes his natural form and leads the same life as any other human. The legend is that if a person is bitten by a werewolf he then becomes a werewolf himself.

In "Werewolf of London," Henry Hull, great character actor, is the ... who has been bitten by a werewolf. And the ... story ... Hull ... terrible affliction. His struggle to prevent the transformation ... terrific ... and ... [illegible]

Warner Oland, Valerie Hobson, Lester Matthews, Spring Byington, Clark Williams, J. M. Kerrigan and Charlotte Granville are a few of the other noted players in this film, which was directed by Stuart Walker, the man who directed "The Mystery of Edwin Drood."

What should a young bride do when her relatives threaten to destroy her happiness by imposing on the good nature of the man to whom she is married? Such a situation is faced by June Clayworth who appears in the feminine lead of "Strange Wives," a Universal production showing tomorrow at the Penniman-Allen theatre.

Torn between love for the only man she ever cared about, and a hereditary devotion for her own flesh and blood, she has to decide between them. Everything in her life depends on that decision. How she makes up her mind at last and what happens then, makes one of the most interesting films of the year.

Edith Wharton, one of the most famous women authors of today, is the writer of the original story, which ran serially in the Cosmopolitan Magazine under the title "Bread Upon the Waters."

It's real, human, and pulsating drama, tempered with rib-tickling comedy and situations every married man and woman will easily recognize.

A meritorious supporting cast of players participates, including beautiful Esther Ralston, Hugh O'Connell, Ralph Forbes, Cesar Romero, Valerie Hobson, Francis L. Sullivan, Ivan Lebedeff, Leslie Fenton, Doris Lloyd and many others.

The male lead is played by Roger Pryor and the film was cleverly directed by Richard Thorpe.

C. F. THORNTON DIES TUESDAY AT HIS HOME

sociated with his brother-in-law, Chas. E. Rogers, in the manufacture of milk condensing machines. With him he spent a few years in the west.

Later he became manager of the condensed milk plant of the Gordon Baking company here until its removal to La Grange, Ind., over a year ago.

On Christmas day of 1896 he was married to Miss Mae Hazen, and to this union were born two children, Marjorie, who died 13 years ago, leaving an infant son, Billy Ferguson, and Chas. Hazen Thornton, now of Detroit. Mrs. Thornton died in 1909 and in 1911 Mr. Thornton was united in marriage with ... Mrs. Florence Mal... who survives.

Besides the widow and son, Mr. Thornton is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Chas. E. Rogers and Mrs. Jennie Robert of the latter of Detroit, and one brother Wm. H. Thornton of Fair... One brother Albert passed away a year ago in Monroe, La.

For ... many years the Thornton home adjoined the home of Mr. Thornton's sister, Mrs. Rogers, and Mr. Rogers ... that ... have been enjoyed.

Here in his pleasant home among his acres of apple trees which he enjoyed as a side issue, Mr. Thornton greeted his friends in warm hospitality. With never a reference to the physical limitations with which he was handicapped he faced life courageously and might have said:

"In the fell clutch of circumstance I have not winced nor cried aloud."

Cheerful and kindly always, he endeared himself to a large circle of friends.

Chas. Thornton was a true Christian gentleman.

One of his community interests was the Rotary club of which he was president at the time of his death. He had the enviable record of perfect attendance. In token of their high regard, the Rotary club acted as honorary pall bearers at the funeral, which was held at the home Thursday afternoon. Bearing the body to its last resting place were his close friends Harry B. Clark, Edward C. Langfield, Edward H. Lapham, Chas. A. Schoedra, Floyd A. Northrop and Dr. ... P. Yerkes.

The service was conducted by his former pastor, Rev. Wm. Richards, of Belleville, who was assisted by Rev. Harold G. Whitfield. Interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

judged by Miss Eva Wall of Detroit. Mrs. William Jones judged the flower exhibit.

Heads of the livestock department were united in the opinion Thursday that their display was the biggest and best it has been in several years. Among the largest exhibitors of dairy cattle is the Wayne County training school, the Detroit House of Correction farm and Eloise hospital, all of which are showing Holstein cattle. Dr. H. Grennan has several head of fine Jerseys selected from his prize winning herd.

Janis Perrith and Son, owners of the Water-Cress stock farm, have four of their finest purebred Belgian draft horses here. Among them is the 2125-pound mare, Brookyn Marie, that took first place at the Michigan State Fair in Detroit last year. The quality of these horses according to E. M. Starkweather, member in charge, is ... of the entire horse display.

The swine and sheep are also of excellent quality and show an increase in number, those in charge declared.

Early Wednesday morning A. E. Fuller was turning away persons trying to exhibit their poultry. The exhibit is much larger than last year, he claims, and of superior quality. The Barred Plymouth Rocks and Bantams are especially outstanding, he said. The poultry show is supplemented this year with a tropical fish exhibit, entered by fanciers in this area and a wild life exhibit, erected by E. Harper, Ann Arbor taxidermist.

WALT'S GARAGE GETS NEW IMPROVEMENTS

Walter Tuck, proprietor, stated this week that Walt's garage in Novi has recently completed some improvements that make this garage among the very best in its ability to render the public service.

In addition to a computing gasoline pump Mr. Tuck has installed a drive-way signal system so that as soon as an automobile passes over an electrified signal strip a bell sounds off so that men in the shop or office will immediately wait on the customer.

FIRE TRUCK COMES TWICE TO FIRE AT HAGEMASTER HOME

Blazing into view after it was thought to be out, a fire damaged the kitchen of the home of Mrs. Louise Hagemaster at 110 Rayson avenue, Thursday afternoon about 4 o'clock, and the fire department was called for the second time.

The fire was caused by a kerosene stove, which caught fire, the flames shooting up into the ceiling immediately. Mrs. Hagemaster, assisted by a boarder, Lud Klades, pulled the stove out the back door and down the steps while it was still burning.

When the fire truck arrived, the stove was the only visible trace of any fire, so the firemen left. It was only about 20 minutes later when Mrs. Hagemaster had cleaned up the "mess" in the kitchen that she heard a crackling noise and felt heat. When she stepped outside the back door it was to see the flames shooting high up into the air. Only the prompt action by the firemen again saved the house from being entirely burned, she said later.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25¢ at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

Quetzalcoatl's Temple

The pyramid on which Quetzalcoatl's temple once stood was not only the greatest in the New World, but in mass exceeded the pyramid of Cheops on the banks of the Nile. The remains of the giant structure, now crowned by a Christian church, are said to be seen [illegible] the outskirts of the modern town of Cholula. Hither in ancient times came pilgrims from all parts of Mexico. As the god of [illegible] Quetzalcoatl came to be considered the greatest chief of Mexico.

Growing Holly

Of the 300 or so species American holly, Ilex opaca, is the most adaptable variety. It forms a fine pyramidal tree, frequently 40 feet high at maturity, and on estates where it has been protected for generations it will rise to 60 feet with a circumference of as many inches. The tallest broad-leaf natural evergreen for cold regions, it will thrive in the United States wherever rhododendrons and azaleas are found.

"About five years ago I offered for sale, a dining room suite that originally cost $250.00. The best offer I got was $40.00, which seemed ridiculous so I decided to keep it, when a woman I knew advised me to polish it with Liquid Veneer and that I would easily get more money. I did and made such a swell job that I sold it for $90.00.

"I became full of ambition and decided to buy used furniture, polish it up and sell it. At first my husband objected but I soon won him over and since then he has resigned his position and is now in my employ as a successful furniture dealer.
