FALL IS HERE
With All Its Beauty. Say Good-By to the Glorious Summer of '35

Volume 65. No. 9 Section One Northville, Michigan, Friday August 30, 1935 24 Pages $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

SCHOOL HERE TO CONVENE SEPTEMBER 3

Short Classes Will Meet Tuesday a. m.; Expect Large Enrollment

The Northville schools will open at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday to run ten months for the first time since 1931.

More than 250 high school pupils registered with Assistant Principal Paul B. Thompson during this week and estimates place the probable number of grade children at around 350. These, together with those who will come in next week, will bring the enrollment up approximately to what it was last year—nearly 775—or over, Mr. Thompson declared.

High school students will convene in the assembly, according to Supt. R. H. Amerman. Teachers are to report to Mr. Thompson before 8:30 a. m., he said. Classes will meet just long enough for attendance to be checked, announcements to be made and assignments for Wednesday given out.

In the grades, teachers are asked to report to Miss Selma Jarvis, grade principal, before 8:30, and the students to report to her as soon as they reach school. By Thursday, Mr. Amerman stated, "we are prepared to have the school running smoothly."

There will be no school Tuesday afternoon, which time will be devoted to a general teachers' meeting in room 21 of the high school building, starting at 1:30 p. m. Wednesday morning, however, classes will run on the usual eight hour schedule.

Wednesday morning a total of 295 high school students had registered, but Mr. Thompson expected approximately 70 more next week. This week's enrollment included 69 freshmen, 40 sophomores, 41 juniors and 45 seniors. The final enrollments a year ago showed 66 students in the tenth grade, 54 in the eleventh and 62 in the twelfth. The state this year pays tuition of students living outside the school district, and a large number of country youngsters are expected.

There is a large demand for the home economics class, taught by Mrs. Claude Zimmerman, Mr. Thompson pointed out, although there is still room in the eighth hour typing class, directed by Mrs. Jack Taylor, and in the first hour French one, taught by Miss Ione Palmer. Latin one, under Miss Palmer, was filled, although room still remains in Miss Doreas Corrin's advanced algebra class, according to Mr. Thompson. His manual training classes were over crowded and he reported the 48 persons in Mrs. E. A. Chapman's freshman English class as the largest in the curriculum.

Leslie G. Lee, librarian, announced Wednesday that he would sell books all next week, but would not buy second hand ones. Mr. Lee operated the "book store" most of this week.

HEART ATTACK FATAL TO INZA LEE SUNDAY

Mrs. Inza Lee, 52 years old, died Sunday night from a heart attack brought on by an excessive dose of allonel, a common sedative.

Mrs. Lee had been living here for nearly a year with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams of Yerkes ave., during which time she had been ailing. Before coming here, she had lived in Saginaw for several years.

Mrs. Lee was born in Pontiac, August 23, 1883. She is survived by Mrs. Williams, her mother, and Mr. Williams, her step-father.

Funeral services were held from the Schrader Funeral home Wednesday, the Rev. H. G. Whitfield officiating. Interment was made in Rural Hill cemetery.

INTRODUCING . . .

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Truxell and small son, C. W. Jr., 3 years old, who will move to Northville soon. Mr. Truxell is research engineer for General Motors. They will live in the C. R. Horton home on E. Main.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex M. Rennie and two children, Rosemary, 13 years, and Hugh, 5 years, moved Wednesday from 223 Tuxedo avenue Detroit, to 223 Linden, Northville.

Audry Kelnsley of Monroe, 13-year-old niece of Miss Ethel Kelnsley, chief telephone operator, is spending a few days here.

A bake sale given by two circles of the Presbyterian church will be held Sept. 7.

WILL BE GRIDDER

NELSON C. SCHRADER, JR.

SCHRADER, PERRIN CALLED FOR M. S. C. ATHLETIC TEAMS

Two Northville college students, Nelson C. Schrader, Jr. and Elmer Gene Perrin, have been issued invitations to try out for varsity athletic teams next week at Michigan state college.

Schrader, entering his sophomore year, will try out for the football team, and leaves for the campus Monday, September 9. He played on the freshman squad last year and was captain of the high school eleven here.

Perrin, who was a member of the varsity debating team last year, will report Saturday, Sept. 14, for the cross-country track squad. He will be in his junior year.

TREASURE HUNT TO BE HELD SATURDAY

One Hour Sale Planned For 7:30—8:30 P. M. Tomorrow Night

Thirty-five treasures will be the goal Saturday night of all those who have that "pioneer yen for undiscovered and hidden loot."

At 8:30 numbers will be given each of the treasures—some one will have a number corresponding to each treasure number. These numbers are available in the Northville stores and will be given with each 25-cent purchase.

In case the treasures are not claimed by 9:30 p. m. Saturday new winning numbers will be assigned so that every treasure can be claimed by some one.

The treasure hunt will be preceded by a "one-hour-only-sale" on the part of twenty-two merchants. The advertisements for these specials are found on the first page of the second section. It is suggested that it be cut out and used as a shopping list.

The one-hour-only-sale is a new venture in Northville and the merchants are very much interested in presenting their very best bargains. The merchants state that they wish to prove to the Northville buying public that it pays to buy in Northville and that the prices here can be compared with prices anywhere. "Buy in Northville" is a motto that is more and more on the tongues of Northvillians.

HORSE SHOW IS MARKED BY KEEN RIDING

$100 Stake Classes, Jumping Events Attract Attention, Win Praise

Keen competition in the three $100 stake classes and in the jumping contests climaxed the horse show which, held as a part of the Northville Wayne county fair, was ended Saturday with the timed steeplechase.

The Arrowhead $100 stake for three-gaited saddle horses was won, and with it the Wm. Rawle Brown memorial trophy, by Miss Margaret Ann Warden's Mountain Air from Cleveland, the horse from the farthest distance. Mountain Air was ridden by James Casson, flashy Jackson veteran, who judged the junior show on Thursday with Miss Warden's assistance. The trophy captured last year by E. J. Hoffman's Patty Dare of Detroit must be won three consecutive times before it can be kept permanently.

The Farmcrest $100 stake for five gaited saddle horses, which was cited along with the Arrowhead stake class by Robert Moore of Nashville, Tenn., who judged, as "one of the most outstanding," was awarded to M. E. Crittendon of Detroit on his Blaze of Gold.

Miss Viola Hammond of Birmingham on Bird-In-Hand, classed by Dr. Otis Case of Buffalo, judge of hunters and jumpers as one of the finest horses in the show, won the $100 hunters' stake class, and Arcadia Boy, an Arcadia Ridge farms entry, took the jumpers stake.

In addition to the stake classes, interest also reached a height over the knock down and out class and the hunters' and jumpers' timed course for the president's cup. Seventeen contestants entered the knock down and out event, which was won by Lt. Royce A. Drake of the Michigan State college R.O.T.C. at Lansing on his Watch Me. It took nearly an hour to run the class off, and according to Dr. Case, it was one of the hardest he ever judged. The obstacles were pushed up to an even five feet.

The hunters' and jumpers' timed event, run over a three-quarter mile course in and around the outside of the ring, was won by Fred L. Arner, Jr., on his Mouth Organ in 31.2 second, cited by Dr. Case as "a fair time for this type of course." This class concluded the show which started at 1 p. m. Friday and lasted until 6:30 p. m. Saturday.

The only serious accident of the show came when Mrs. Charles Gauger, the former Evelyn Grennan who was but recently married, fell from her mount, Grove Cullum, as he clipped a bar in the hunters' stake event Saturday. Mrs. Gauger lost several front teeth and suffered severe bruises on the head and shoulders. She narrowly escaped being rolled on by her horse as he too went down. She had been riding the two Grennan mounts entered in the show, exhibited under her own name, during most of the contest.

The junior show which was again handled by Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown of Arrowhead farms, won the unanimous approval of horse experts at the two shows. Casson, who was head judge, termed it "substantially better than last year from point of view of horses and horsemanship."

WHAT THEY SAID AT THE FAIR

Exposition Praised by Brucker and Others

Various personages interviewed while at the Northville Wayne county fair last week made the following comments:

Former Governor Wilbur M. Brucker: "I always like to come here. This is one of the nicest fairs I've seen, and I've seen a lot. You keep things up so well. Business has surprised everybody. Instead of sliding down, it has tilted up. Roosevelt is slipping; it is only a question as to how far."

Dr. Otis Case of Buffalo, who judged hunters and jumpers in the horse show: "Your fair does a lot to encourage horsemanship through its fine shows. It's a fine fair. Everybody is having such a good time."

Jimmie Casson of Jackson, who judged the junior horse show: "I would rather come here than any place else. The whole thing is wonderful."

Paul H. Grennan: "The fair and the horse show are both better than last year."

Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea: "I am very pleased with the entire fair. It is very enjoyable."

JOHNSONS WIN FROM ELYS IN CLOSE GAME

Infants Defeat Maybury and Edison Is Victor Over Ford

The Johnson team defeated the Elys Thursday, Aug. 22, to advance still closer to the Owens, who are leading the Recreation league, and were scheduled to play them yesterday (Thursday) in a game in which first place was at stake. The Owens had no games scheduled during the past week.

The Elys will have their chance to come back tonight (Friday) when they meet the Orioles. The Johnsons will meet Edison Tuesday evening. Thursday evening the Infants play the Owens. The Elys play Ford Friday night.

A tough opponent was found in the Ely team, however, the Johnsons winning by the score of 4-3, and getting nine hits to seven for the Elys. Alex Johnson was the winning pitcher; Don Smith pitched for the Elys.

The Infants were victorious over Maybury Monday evening, winning 5-3, although they were outhit. Maybury batters got nine hits and the Infants eight. Don Bray for the Infants and Ted Dickerson for Maybury were the opposing pitchers.

Tuesday evening Edison defeated the Ford team, 19-7, collecting 11 hits.

HENRY HERMAN WILL BE EXAMINED HERE TUESDAY, SEPT. 17

The examination of Henry Herman, 62, charged with attempting to attack a six-year-old girl here, which was scheduled for Tuesday of this week at the office of Justice Arthur S. Nichols, has been postponed until Tuesday at 2 p. m., September 17, it was decided this week on motion of the Wayne county prosecutor's office.

The postponement was found necessary after it was learned that the girl, whose name was not disclosed, was stricken with appendicitis Sunday, and was taken to the University hospital in Ann Arbor to be operated on.

Herman was found with the girl Sunday, August 18, on the grounds at the corner of South Center street and Fairbrook avenue by her grandfather, who chased him away with a pitchfork.

He was traced the next day to New Hudson where he was picked up that evening by deputy sheriffs and brought to Northville. He was arraigned the following morning before Justice Nichols and then committed to the county jail with bail set at $5,000. Police records disclosed he had served 11½ years in Jackson prison for a similar offense.

MARVIN BOGART, 95, WITNESSES FAIR

Marvin Bogart of Wixom, who has reached the age of 95 years, kept up his custom last week of attending the Northville Wayne county fair every year, and visited the exhibits Thursday, August 22. He was there both in the afternoon and evening, and said that he was feeling great and was enjoying the fair.

Mr. Bogart was honored when Henry Ford visited the Bogart farm home on 12 Mile road Saturday. Mr. Bogart and Mr. Ford are old friends. The automobile magnate took back to his Greenfield Village collection, a what-not owned by Mr. Bogart's mother. Also honored on this occasion was Mr. Bogart's grandson, Louis, who was presented with a watch by Mr. Ford.

See the new John Deere Corn Binder now on display, also Tractors and Plows. Good stock of repairs. Rocker Bros., Wixom, Mich.

NO PARKING LAW IS BEING OBEYED NOW

Police Have Power to Take Cars, But Find No Offenders

The problem of keeping motorists from driving across or parking their cars on the parkway in the center of Plymouth avenue is rapidly clearing up this week.

Since the village commission gave Northville police Monday evening, Aug. 19, the power to tow away all cars found on the parkway, no automobile has been parked there, William H. Safford, chief of police, reported Tuesday.

The commission decided to have all cars found there towed away, and the owners fined, after it was found that no attention was being paid to the "No Parking" signs there. Power was also given to impound cars parked elsewhere in the village in such a way that an ordinance is violated.

Newly planted grass is rapidly appearing in the center of the parkway, which is being improved by the Board of Wayne county road commissioners. The work was begun at the request of the village, the understanding being that no autos would be permitted on it.

A number of additional "No Parking" signs were added last week in the parkway. John Norton, beer garden proprietor, placed red lanterns on two of the signs in front of his business place so they could be plainly seen at night, and earned the respect of village officials for his action. Many complaints had been made previously that patrons of his beer garden comprised a large majority of the parking offenders.

County road commission workers were engaged this week building up the ground between the street and the Pere Marquette railroad right of way. Many loads of soil have been brought there. Men working on the project explained that the improvement was being made not only to bring that part of the parkway up to a level with the street but also to improve the drainage. Grass seed will be planted there also as soon as the grading work is completed.

Mr. Safford made arrangements last week, as soon as the commission took action on its impounding measure, with the Center Street Service station, operated by Frank L. Sumner, to tow away and provide room for any illegally parked cars in the village.

PHIL HARRIS AND ORCHESTRA PLAY AT SAN THURSDAY

Phil Harris, famous Hollywood dance maestro, and his orchestra, who are playing an engagement now at Westwood Symphony gardens in Detroit, were scheduled to give an afternoon concert yesterday at the Maybury sanatorium for the patients there.

As has been the case with all the other well known entertainers who have come out to the sanatorium in the past few years, Harris' visit was brought about by the efforts of Pat Dennis, radio editor of the Detroit Times.

PRIZE COW PICKED FROM MAYBURY HERD

The grand champion cow at the Northville Wayne county fair last week was selected from among Howard Whipple's William H. Maybury sanatorium Holstein herd.

Mr. Whipple, long known as a farmer here, has had charge of the sanatorium farm since its beginning. According to sanatorium officials, his work has gradually and steadily increased the quality of the cattle. The herd now numbers 30 head.

6,000 PERSONS SEE MRS. LYKE WIN FAIR AUTO

Nineteenth Annual Event Is Financial Success, Wins Approval

Nearly 6,000 persons saw Mrs. Russell Lyke win a Ford V-8 in front of the grandstand late Saturday afternoon as the nineteenth annual Northville Wayne county fair came to a successful close.

Three winning tickets were chosen by little Marie Angove. The first was 195198, and Donald Whybrew of the Ten Mile road rushed up claiming he had it. His beaming face fell as he failed to find it, and another number, 2902002, was selected. No one answered to this. Finally the number 219398 was announced, and Mrs. Lyke made her way through the milling thousands and announced calmly, "I have it." She had only 70 tickets.

The Terraplane has been awarded the day before to Mrs. William Bowman of Plymouth, and Mrs. William Hansor of Novi won the Plymouth Thursday. According to fair officials, "all three cars went where they were needed and welcome."

In the opinion of Secretary Floyd A. Northrop, two things stood out in the nineteenth annual fair: the splendid cooperation of the Northville people," and the "flood of unusually excellent exhibits."

Mr. Northrop also expressed appreciation for the cooperation of Plymouth. Plymouth stores closed Thursday, "Plymouth Day," and nearly 2,000 persons from the neighboring village were present. An attendance of nearly 5,000 was present Thursday.

Friday the crowds fell off a little, but recovered Saturday when the record for several years—6,000 persons—was reported. Although a detailed financial report could not be obtained as The Record went to press, fair officials were unanimous in the opinion that the exposition was a financial success. "We spent more money than in many a year," the secretary said, "but I am confident we shall come out on top."

A total of 347 persons exhibited in the fair, placing on display nearly 1500 entries. Mr. Northrop cited this as a 25 per cent increase over last year. In the woman's department alone, Mrs. Kitty Harmon, member in charge, and Mrs. Helen Morris, superintendent, reported 1681 entries with 961 paid premiums. Mrs. Harmon called this more than a 25 per cent increase over a year ago. The exhibits in this department were typical of those elsewhere, Mr. Northrop declared—"more of them and better quality."

The live stock exhibits, always of good quality, were reported up to their usual standard, and in several departments, entries had to be refused. Outstanding exhibitors were the three institutions, William H. Maybury sanatorium, Wayne County training school, and Detroit House of Correction. The live stock was paraded in front of the grandstand Saturday afternoon in its annual march up the race track.

The poultry exhibit, in charge of A. E. Fuller, noted poultry expert, was cited by fair board members as one of the most outstanding. "The entries are real show birds this year," commented W. A. Elliot of

DEADLINE FOR TAX PAYMENTS IS TOMORROW

Mrs. Lawrence, Litsenberger Report Large Sums Being Paid In

With Saturday the deadline for payment of taxes for 1932 and prior years without penalty under the 10 year plan, Northville residents have already paid substantial sums to Mrs. Leo. L. Lawrence, township treasurer, and John Litsenberger, village treasurer.

Mrs. Lawrence reports that more than $1,800 has been taken in for taxes due for 1932 and prior years since she has sent out statements some three weeks ago. This includes township, county and state taxes. Mr. Litsenberger said he had no idea how much had been paid him yet, but believed it was "considerable." Both treasurers expect last minute rushes today and tomorrow.

All over the entire state the payments are coming in rapidly, it is reported from the office of State Treasurer Theodore I. Fry. From the office of the auditor-general, it is shown that more than $12,000 in back taxes have been returned to the paying columns by the plan.

TO SHOW PAGEANT 2ND TIME TONIGHT

Show Will Benefit Fund For Free Lunches, Milk; 75 Taking Part

The Parent Teachers' Mother Goose pageant opened last night to present a new and unique way of making money to go toward the school's free lunch and milk fund. The play will continue tonight to what is hoped by the committee will be a capacity attendance.

The committee in charge of the pageant, which presents approximately 75 children in colorful acts chosen from numerous delightful mother goose tales, hopes that the money made from the two presentations will surpass that made by the numerous other money-making devices used in the past.

Children from kindergarten to senior high school age will perform again tonight in the colorful array of stunts, games, dancing and song which comprise the pageant.

Although the committee was energetic and active in the past years, there was usually a deficit after paying for the lunches needed for the children. One year a supper was staged to raise the necessary money, and during the past years the various methods included a raffle on a picture, bake sales, and donations mostly received in the milk bottles placed in stores for dropped coins.

The pageant executive committee composed of Mrs. K. E. Babbitt, Mrs. Eber Ward Lester, Mrs. Lloyd Morse, Mrs. E. M. Bogart and Mrs. Loretta Reng, has worked tirelessly to take advantage of the opportunity which presented itself at this time of year. With many of the executive committee away, the opportunity to put on the pageant came when Miss Dorothy Mitchell, who has directed many similar presentations, while visiting Mrs. Babbitt was persuaded to drill Northville young people for the occasion.

The pageant nicely coincides with the opening of school so that parents and children ought to be back in town and willing to support so worthy a cause, the committee believes.

MRS. MURPHY IS AWARDED LEGION POST

Elected State Vice President of Auxiliary at Flint Convention Monday

Mrs. Charles P. Murphy was elected vice president of the state American Legion auxiliary at its meeting in Flint Monday.

Mrs. Murphy ran as the nominee of the seventeenth district. Along with her, Mrs. Pearl Goetz of Monroe was also elected vice president.

"I'm awfully pleased, of course," said Mrs. Murphy. "I did not go into politics to get it, but I am glad for the seventeenth district." This district is the youngest in the state, being organized along with the corresponding congressional district in 1932.

Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. Goetz will serve as assistants to Mrs. Carl Schrumpf of Niles, newly elected auxiliary president. Both are on a par, there being no first or second vice president.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were pleased that the Detroit unit of Mr. Murphy's old regiment, the Red Arrow, gave its unanimous vote unsolicited to Mrs. Murphy.

"The Lloyd H. Green Post and its auxiliary is greatly pleased at Mrs. Murphy's election," stated Claude Ely, local legion commander. "It is quite an honor for the post and the community."

At the American legion convention which was held simultaneously in Flint, Lisle Alexander of this post was installed as state committeeman from the seventeenth district.

SCHRADER PLEASED WITH FAIR CROWDS, HE TELLS EXCHANGE

Satisfaction and gratitude that the attendance and the interest in general about the Northville Wayne county fair were much more than of recent years was expressed by Nelson C. Schrader, president of the fair board, to the Exchange club Wednesday.

Although it is a little early to determine the financial condition of the fair, it did show a profit, he said.

The hard work of getting the many and varied items together and in running order was also cited. The criticisms were not so many as they might have been, he said, but the management tried to profit by them.

"All Northville benefits by the fair," he declared, "and the fair needs the co-operation of all."

Paul B. Thompson, assistant high school principal, attended the meeting after an absence of most of the summer, and told of his work and play during that time.

Garnet Rush of Detroit and Ray Richardson were the only guests present.

LESLIE LEE WINS MASTER'S DEGREE

Leslie G. Lee, music director and librarian of the Northville schools, will soon receive his Master of Arts degree from the University of Michigan, it was disclosed this week.

The degree, which is in education, comes as a culmination to Mr. Lee's nearly five years of part time work at the University. He and Miss B. Ione Palmer, language teacher, will be the only two members of the local faculty with their M.A. degrees. Mr. Lee's thesis was entitled "Choral Music Presented Before the Public by 69 Michigan High Schools during 1934-35."

WOMEN'S COUNCIL OF G. O. P. DAVIS GUESTS

The members of the council of Wayne county Republican women's clubs were entertained at her horse show box at the fair Friday by Mrs. Leo. Davis of Redford.

Those present were Mrs. Lotta Martz, Mrs. Clara Brunk, Mrs. Hazel Moran, Mrs. Frank D. Smith, Mrs. Alec Gilkilan, Mrs. A. McClellan, Mrs. Sylvester Shear, Mrs. J. Hendrix, Mrs. T. Fisher, Miss Lelia Baker and Miss Delta Baker, all of Detroit and surrounding vicinity, and Mrs. Eber W. Lester and Mrs. Jennie Couzens of Northville.

Former Governor and Mrs. Wilbur M. Brucker of Detroit were guests of Mrs. Davis Saturday night.

YOUR NEXT PARTY will be a great success if you serve Fry's delicious home-made ice cream. Economical, pleasingly different, and a real treat. No extra charge for cutting and wrapping. Royal Ann Cafe, Northville.

'Heaven Comes Right Down To Earth,' Declare the Hunter Boys as They Tell About Their Trip To Camp

By RAY W. LABBITT

Of all the tough periods in one's life no period in a boy's life is quite as bad as that from 10 or 12 to 18 unless a feller has some real friends. Bob Hunter and his two brothers, Frank and George, think the Masons who sent them to Camp Rademaker are about the best friends a boy could have. And did they have a good time! I had a short interview with them in their hut on the back of their mother's lot on South Wing street.

It seems that Bob has had a bad time with asthma, and last winter added pleurisy and pneumonia to his difficulties. He had never been in camp and Camp Rademaker is built for just such boys as Bob. You see, Mrs. Hunter was left a widow several years ago with three growing boys as her responsibility.

When the committee from the local lodge of Masons called and told Bob that they wanted to send him to camp for two weeks—well, Bob says he felt that heaven wasn't just around the corner. It was right there then. After the committee decided to send Bob they realized that Frank and George probably would get a lot out of camp too. The committee suggested that they would send them, but here was a problem. Bob had Frank's sweater and he also had some of George's clothes (you see we can get along O.K. when all of us are at home, Bob said, but to go away to camp is something else). Plans were made for Frank and George to go when Bob got back and so they did.

"Well just what did you get out of camp?" he was asked. "I learned how to swim and I had a lot of fun," the answer came. "You know our cabin (there are 8 or 10 boys in each) won a big apple pie for having the neatest cabin at in-

Winnings of Kathryn Marburger From Horse Show Include Seven Blue Ribbons, One Red One, Five Trophies and $35.00

The proverbial "worm turned" for Miss Kathryn Marburger in the horse show this year, and now she has so many blue ribbons and trophies won in both junior and senior classes that the table in the living room of her home on East Main street is covered with them.

This is only the third year she has entered the show, and although she has won ribbons before, she always had to be content to see the children of Dr. and Mrs. Fred L. Arner, Fred Jr., Marietta and Ruth, of Ann Arbor, take home the lion's share of the winnings.

Now she has as the fruit of her efforts in this year's show, however, no less than seven blue ribbons and one red one, which she captured with her horses, Mary Dare and Silver Hoarde. Then there are five trophies on that table, including the beautiful Roberd G. Yerkes trophy, a large silver platter, which was won in the three-gaited combination class. Fred Hoffman rode and drove Silver Hoarde in this class for her.

And besides all of that, she has $35 in cash, which she won by taking first prize Saturday in the three-gaited saddle horses over 15.2 hand class, riding Silver Hoarde, and by getting second prize in the three-gaited, 15.2 hands and under on Friday. Mr. Hoffman rode her horse, Mary Dare, in this class.

Her first prize won in the Park-Hacks class of the junior show is a handsome leather fitted toilet set given by Mrs. Harry B. Clark. In this class she rode Silver Hoarde.

Another trophy was won in the children's saddle class in which she was awarded a cup from Dr. W. F. Davey. In the children's saddle horses pair class, Henry Hoffman rode with her on Silver Hoarde, and

CHARLES T. THORNTON

"In all the years that I have lived in Northville, I never heard a word against the character of Charles Thornton," said the Rev. William Richards, former local pastor, who officiated at the funeral of Northville's well known citizen.

"From the time he was a boy of ten years, I have known Charlie Thornton and in all the years since, I can not remember that we had a word of difference, not even those differences that growing boys usually have," stated E. H. Lapham in a tribute to Charles T. Thornton at last week's meeting of the Rotary club.

Here are two tributes that mark a real man, a true friend and a builder of his community. We shall all keenly miss this kindly-minded, splendid citizen. He had literally grown up with Northville and lived every part of it. He was not the demonstrative kind of man but he did put his roots down deep and he did make a profound impression for good upon his fellow men all through the years. He favored every good cause and gave of himself in his modest and unobtrusive way. Physically handicapped early in life, in the loss of one hand and a nearly blinded eye, he did not complain that life had not given him a square deal. On the other hand he went smiling through the years and uncomplaining through the tasks of every day. That is the test of character. As men would say: "Charlie Thornton had 'stuff!'"

Under the smiling skies of a perfect August day, out under the branches of the trees in his yard that he loved so well, the final rites were said for this good man. While the preacher paid sincere tribute to the man with whom he had often talked and walked at "Thorn Acres," the butterflies flitted among the banks of flowers that friends had laid in memory of their good friend; the summer breeze stirred the leaves of the apple trees. The whole scene was typical of the life of Charles T. Thornton. He had lived a kindly yet buoyant, inspiring life. Those who knew him best cannot forget him.

CITY COUSINS GET LESS SNOBBISH

"When I came from the farm to go to school in the little nearby village, there were just three girls in the school who treated me courteously and not like a 'hick'," said a well known Wayne county citizen the other day.

Better days have come for the boys and girls on the farm who have to drive into town to go to school. No longer are they "rubes" and "hicks"—or perhaps we should say that those city folks who think country folks are still "green" should drop around and see some of these modern city homes in the country. A true story will illustrate.

A young lady in a Michigan city, still imbued with a little of this city snobbishness toward folks living in the country, condescended to ask one of her "country cousins" to come in for a city dance. The city girl forthwith got the shock of her young life. The country lass came in, dressed like a million dollars and proceeded to "steal the party" as they say. The city youths promptly forgot where the visitors came from but saw only a vision of loveliness and they began to clamor for dances with her.

Well, it is a good thing that these lines of difference between city and country have gone. Farm boys and girls have suffered taunts and slights and meanness from city boys and girls in days gone by but the days of such foolish snobbishness are history, we hope.

And incidentally, the man mentioned above, for whom only three girls had words of friendliness when he drove in from the country, now holds a most responsible position (not job) and is a big factor in the life of this community—and even outside. A lot of these farm "hicks" certainly have made good.

SEEING MICHIGAN FIRST

When The Record for August 30 goes out to its readers the editor and family will be enjoying a change and rest at what we think is just about Michigan's finest body of inland water—Crystal Lake, near Beulah and Frankfort, not far from Traverse City.

We wish that all men, women and children could have the right kind of a vacation. Especially for those who carry burdens of responsibility and work, is a vacation a good thing. We all get in the rut and sometimes hardly realize how deep is that channel of routine which we have digged for ourselves. We all need a change of atmosphere for it makes us realize just how fortunate we are in our surroundings. A vacation breaks up our little prejudices and shows us that our little community is only a small slice of a big world and that our little interests are only a small part of a big world of many activities. One should come home from an honestly-earned and sensibly spent vacation rested in mind, body and spirit and a little more buoyant to meet the year ahead.

We are able to take this vacation because of the ability and resourcefulness of The Record staff. They are fine and capable when we are on the job with them but they seem to rise to higher heights and get out a better paper when we are gone. For that we are truly grateful.

THANK YOU, DETROIT

The Detroit News and The Detroit Free Press were most generous in their publicity for the Northville Wayne County Fair. Also our genial friend, C. C. Bradner, comes in for a meed of praise in his radio boosting for Northville's unique August days of festival. "Brad" missed a cog in mentioning the fair in his broadcast of August 20 but when reminded of this, he surely came back the next day with a five-minute talk for the fair that was a "honey."

All this contribution for our big civic event is most gratefully appreciated. Northville thanks its Detroit newspaper friends most sincerely.

WANDERING THOUGHTS

We look for a great year for the Northville schools.

"Be temperate and you will be happy," said Ben Franklin. Still true.

* * *

Nomination for one of the finest business executives in this part of the state: E. L. (Ned) Millis.

We'll remember this about Will Rogers: He made us laugh as few men have. And a little laughter is like a lot of good medicine.

* * *

"I have good neighbors—I owe much to them," said a prosperous farmer up at St. Johns when he was congratulated on his success in life. Good neighbors, whether on the farm or on the village street, help make life worth while. And say, how long is it since you called on that neighbor whom you have been planning to see?

* * *

The splendid success of the Northville Wayne County Fair is another indication of the fact that co-operation will move mountains. When you have the kind of teamwork that Northville and Plymouth show, they just can't stop you. To make a list of the folks who helped make the 1935 fair such an outstanding achievement would take a good part of a page of this paper. The best way to do is to say that everybody thanks everybody else.

Miss Florence Sullivan, formerly of Northville, became the bride of Earl Bowers of Detroit Thursday evening.

5 YEARS AGO

The 1930 fair which has just been finished is called the greatest in the history.

Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich have just returned from a motor trip to the Imperial Valley in California where they visited for several weeks.

The Northville baseball team won three games last week with "Grandpa" Harry German pitching each time, and showing the fans that he can still strike them out.

T. J. Knapp will assume charge of the Northville schools when they open Tuesday, September 2.

Homer Kern, aged 80 years, former resident of Northville, who died August 18 in Los Angeles, was buried here Tuesday in the Rural Hill cemetery.

Health service will be supplied beginning this year to the Northville schools, a physician and dentist being supplied for the purpose.

A double wedding was solemnized Saturday, August 22, here when the Rev. Williams married Miss Neva Maurine Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Dickerson of Northville, to Mr. Robert S. Killeen [illegible] Miss [illegible] daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Niles of Lemmon, to Mr. Horace J. Dickerson.

Rotarians heard Monday Capt. William Galbreith, successful promotes of the Dixie highway project and for years head of the Detroit automobile club.

George Rattenbury drove his 14-year-old Ramey Payne to a new Record for the Northville race track Friday during the fair, when he took one heat in a pace in 2:08.

10 YEARS AGO

William Wise, who for eight years has judged the Northville Wayne County Fair exhibits, and who is the superintendent of the Michigan State fair this year also, was honored Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Fuller and presented with a fine watch. He and his family are leaving for San Gabriel, California where he has accepted a position.

Funeral services for Mrs. Scott A. Lovewell were held Friday afternoon at her late home, the Rev. William Richards officiating.

A. Mills Wilbur, who was a member of the Northville school teaching staff last year, has accepted a position as an automobile salesman in St. Louis.

Many of the buildings for the Wayne county training school near Northville are already completed, and it is expected that all can be ready so that they can be turned over to the county by the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Roxbury of Ann Arbor are the parents of a son, born Thursday, August 20. Mrs. Roxbury was the former Miss Margaret Sessions of Northville.

Mrs. F. E. Bradley entertained a large number of local women in honor of her 37th birthday Monday.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

MORE ON WAR COSTS

(Dearborn Press)

If there have ever been any doubts in the minds of citizens regarding the almost unimaginable expense there is to war, let this fact be considered. Today, 70 full years after the close of the Civil War, the Federal government is still paying out $5,000,000 a month to settle the cost of that conflict.

Seventy years adds up to a very long time. Since the last shot was fired in the war between the states, children have been born, grown to old age and died—and all this while the nation's purse has been heavily drained to pay the bills.

Most of the $5,000,000 paid out each month goes to veterans and veteran's dependents in the form of pensions. This expenditure grows progressively less each year, of course, and in some future date it will vanish entirely. Nevertheless, it is appalling to reflect on the length of time war costs can hang on. Our grandfathers and great-grandfathers fought that war. We are still paying for it.

Not that the pensioners are undeserving of the stipend which they receive, but add to the foregoing figures the tremendous cost to the people of the later wars and it is not difficult to realize that war, as well as crime, does not pay.

LINCOLN ON PROPERTY

(Gratiot County Herald)

In view of the current loose thinking on wealth, it might help to reconsider these words of Abraham Lincoln, spoken on March 21, 1864: "Property is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; it is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built."

CONTROLLING A ROTTEN MESS

(N. J. Brown in Ingham County News)

Governor Frank D. Fitzgerald and Judge John S. McDonald, chairman of the state liquor control commission, seem agreed on one point at least. That point is that the liquor business is hard to control and that in all probability it will remain and continue a mess.

This thought is borne out in rather strong language used recently by George Rowe who resigned after several months as member of the Elkhart county, Indiana, liquor control commission. In handing his resignation in to the mayor of Elkhart, Mr. Rowe said, "You can no more control this rotten mess than you can control a snowball in hell."

The truth of the matter is that neither in Michigan, in any other state to our knowledge, nor in the United States has an honest attempt yet been made to control it.

The only difference between the present regime and the old is that under the old saloon keeper was in the business for profit whereas now the states want to reap the harvest and officials still seem to be laboring under the impression that everyone else will remain good and let the states reap the golden harvest.

If the state really set itself about the control of liquor selling, the element of profit would come out. Once the element of profit is out, a great deal of what is now objected to will vanish.

RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION

(George Awgill in The Birmingham Eccentric)

It would now appear that the Nazi attack on the Jews which began early in the Hitler regime was but a flying wedge for the destruction of all religion in Germany. They next began to make life uncomfortable for the Lutherans and Protestants in general and have now begun on the Catholics. While fundamentally unsound in much of his thinking Hitler or his advisors evidently are fairly well posted in the art of getting things done. Long ago Sertorius put two horses in the center of a ring made up of his discouraged soldiers. One horse had a beautiful, thick tail of long, flowing hair. The other horse had a very sparsely settled tail. By the horse with the sparsely settled tail he placed a young rugged giant. By the other horse he placed a little weak old warrior. At a signal, they were to start denuding their horses tails. The giant soldier grabbed both hands full of hair and began wrenching with might and main. The little old man began on his bigger job, one hair at a time. The young giant was still wrenching and jerking when the little old man had finished. Sertorius then drove home his point. "Problems which in their collective capacity offer too great resistance may be conquered when attacked singly."

Hitler was clever to a degree in not attacking the religious of Germany en masse. But he showed consummate ignorance when he began persecuting. History should have told him that religion thrives under persecution.

"Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,—
The eternal years of God are hers;
But Error, wounded, writhes with pain,
And dies among its worshippers."

Hitler's attack on religion may be his downfall for several reasons but partly because though he attacked three great branches of religion separately he didn't know the story of the two horses. Religion only dies out to the degree that individuals become indifferent.

THE OFFICE WASTEBASKET

Filled By "WARNER WINCHELL"

WE DID TOO

Up in the Adirondacks we got razzed by the forestry professor about being a Michigan journalist. One of the gentlemen, just to make us feel at home at a dinner party, told this story.

A forester once got caught in a log jam. He pulled and pulled but couldn't get himself loose. He grew desperate. Then all of a sudden he happened to think that he came from Michigan. And he felt so small he walked out.

But Jim came back with a crack at one of the Sons of Old Eli. When Benny Friedman was coaching at Yale, he slapped the star quarter-back on the shoulder as he went on the field and said: "Forget you're a Yale man and use your head."

EUROPEAN DOPE SHEET

The Afria-European situation is not looking so hot—or rather too ho. But we aren't so very worried so far. And when England says To our mind the whole affair hinges on the action of Great Britain.

It appears almost certain that she cannot afford to allow Italy to dominate Ethiopia. That would mean sharing her complete control of the Mediterranean Sea with Italy and placing her vast Eastern possessions proximate to a foreign power. If the history of British foreign policy means aaything, this the English will try to prevent at all costs.

And if she tries, we feel confident that Il Duce will back down. Britain is still the world's greatest maritime power. She could close the Suez canal, which she absolutely controls, bottle up the Italian fleet in the Mediterranean and shut off the Italian peninsula from intercourses on the Atlantic. France would back England. Austria is hostile to the Fascist state. Where would that leave Italy?

If England decides to crack down, it would be just too bad for Mussolini. He may boast about fighting the world, but even before he can fight Emperor Haile Selaisse, Italy must have food and resources—both of which she must import.

If Signor Benito has any stuff above his ears—and any reader of his autobiography cannot help but believe that he has—he will go only so far. And when England says stop in a stern enough voice, he will stop.

But even such great analysts as we and Iffy the Dorchester are sometimes wrong.

KER-CHOOOO

Sneezes, sniffling noses and itchy eyes herald the hay fever season. We've been taking "shots" and do not have the disease too badly this year—but it's bad enough.

"What did we ever do to deserve this?" we soliloquized the other day. And up pipes the office wit: "What'sa matter," he said. "Don't you ever read you're own column?"

ALL ABOUT THE FAIR MEN

The fair officials, Secretary Floyd Northrop in particular, have what it takes to get there. Floyd can take it. And to bear the brunt of the work the way he does, he has to be able to. Northville should be thankful it has him and all the others to run its fair so capably.

Monday morning Elmer Smith was looking as spry as if he hadn't lost five pounds managing the free acts. "Already for another fair," he declared as he rigorously walked down the street, swinging his arms as only he can do.

Mrs. Marian Wells of Detroit, charming assistant secretary of the horse show committee, was on the job again this year. To her as much as anyone, credit for the show's success goes.

WE'RE A BLOOMER BUTTON

We didn't particularly enjoy the horse show. We somehow can't overcome our inborn fear that a horse will get loose, walk up close to us and whinny in our ear. Gertrude was brave as usual, though, and sat in the boiling sun right close to the ring all through the show.

NARROW ESCAPE

Monica Porter, who is Judy O'Grady, the colonel's lady in the News society section, was here Friday with a couple of photographers. We talked to her and had to talk fast in order to escape having our name on the society page. Horrors!

As News correspondent, "It is not ours to question why," but we can't resist remarking that we do not like the new upper and lower cheltenham style headlines they started using recently.

Of course they'll change right back now.

Properly Stowed Bags Add to Comfort

Comfort, pleasure, and safety on a tour depend largely on efficient loading of the luggage, and modern body designs have done much to ease the problem, as these views of Chevrolet models reveal. In the upper left view, the suitcases have been fitted in snugly, the adjustable front seat having been moved forward to allow extra leeway, and the driver is now pushing back the seat to clamp the bags in place for the day. Upper right, the tourist is utilizing the baggage space back of the rear seat. The two lower pictures show the loading of a coupe compartment and a sedan trunk.

THE TALK OF THE TOWN

BY HARRISON CHANDLER

A Promise Fulfilled

Well, it's all history now, and its sponsors have made good their promise that the fair has gone back to the "good old days" stage when big crowds attended the Northville Wayne county fair. Even the most conservative observers say that not for at least four years has the attendance been so large, which is as it should be.

Stand Up and Cheer!

We were really glad to see the fair go over. Nelson Schrader, the board of directors and Floyd A. Northrop, especially the latter, worked hard on it from start to finish. Their efforts have been rewarded. Mr. Northrop is probably still resting up, and Mrs. Northrop too for that matter. He was certainly the busiest single person at the fair. And Mrs. Norhrop was always in he office, it seemed. We don't know when she was able to rest.

Can You Duplicate It?

What stood out in our minds about the Northville fair as against other county fairs of a similar size is the fact that your admission ticket entitled you to see so much. Just try and find one in a locality like this that has in addition to some unusually good exhibits, harness races so fast and with such large purses, such fine free acts including "The Mighty Seldon" on his high-flying trapeze, baseball games, free cars, and two outstanding horse shows that are putting Northville on the map in their own right. Our hat is off to John Nelson, the senior horse show committee, and to Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown, who managed the senior and junior shows.

What We Liked Best

Although we had never witnessed a horse show before, we were so attracted by what took place in the show ring out there in the center field that we found very little time during the afternoons of the fair to see much else that went on. Our worthy associate, none other than Warner Neal, was dashing all around the remainder of the grounds most of the time as well as the horse show ring, so that gave us a break. Thanks, Warner.

Did You Try It?

What did you think of the Loop-O-Plane? If you failed to have at least one ride in that thriller, you missed a very popular and interesting feature of the whole fair. It was certainly a new and unique sensation when the thing stopped in mid air with your head pointing toward the ground, and then start spinning you around in the opposite direction. It's a brand new invention and there are only about half a dozen in the entire country but we wager there will be many more soon.

MABLE GERTRUDE ROBERTS

Mable Gertrude Andrews was born March 22, 1882 at Ransom, Michigan.

On June 9, 1904, at Whitehall, she married Forrest W. Roberts, a life-long resident of Salem, and resided at the family homestead on the Six Mile road. Mable Roberts was a member of the Baptist unit of the Federated church and when she was well taught the Young People's class and served faithfully in the Ladies' Aid society.

For many weeks she was tenderly cared for in St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor, and her spirit was called from her body on Friday evening, August 9.

Mrs. Roberts, willing if her Lord so ruled, "to be present with the Lord," planned the details for the service which was held in the Federated church on Monday morning. Her wishes were lovingly carried out with her pastor Rev. Cora Pennell in the pulpit, Mrs. Sarah Stanbro at the organ and the choir singing "Lead Kindly Light." The body was laid to rest in Thayer cemetery beside that of her "daughter beloved," Elsorah Curtis Roberts.

Mable Roberts leaves to treasure her memory her husband, two sons, Earl Forrest and Clarence W.; also two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Davis of Salem, Mrs. Jennie Bugbee of Hillsdale; a brother, Earl Gilbert of Muskegon; and two nieces, Mrs. Ruth Moon of Detroit and Mrs. Addie Eyke of Muskegon.

BOX SCORE

In a recent survey by a nationally-known research organization, automobile salesmen in 126 middle west towns and cities were asked this question by impartial investigators:

What gasoline do you usually use when you demonstrate your cars?

On the basis of this survey, the ratio of gasoline preference per 1000 Plymouth salesmen is as follows:

STANDARD'S LIVE POWER GASOLINE	167
Second Brand	117
Third Brand	108
Fourth Brand	87
Fifth Brand	67
Sixth Brand	54

• The men who make their living selling automobiles know what it takes to put a car on its best behavior. So the fact that a big majority of them go for Standard's Live Power gasoline should be a good tip for you. After all, it stands to reason that a motor fuel which delivers more live, fast-working power to an engine is the gasoline that will get out of a car the maximum performance that the car makers built into it. You'll find that's true no matter what make or age of car you drive—when you take on a tankful of real Live Power—

LIBRARY OFFERS NOVELS OF 1934

The library lists this week some of the most popular novels of 1934. The novels have been secured from Detroit and may be taken out from the Northville library. Some of them are:

The Nine Tailors, by Dorothy L. Sayers—Interesting accounts of bell ringing, good characterization and fine descriptions of the Fen country make this more than an ordinary English detective story.

Once A Wilderness, by Arthur Pound.—This engaging family chronicle, opening in 1890, has for its background Mark section, the 640 acre Michigan farm owned by Captain John Mark, on which he and all of his children and their families still lived.

So Red The Rose, by Stark Young.—This novel of the South, just before and during the Civil war, portrays with beauty and understanding the life of the wealthy southern planter at its best. The story concerns the families of two plantations near Natchez, and the course of the war is described only as it touches these people.

Alcck Maury, Sportsman, by Caroline Gordon.—The author tells quietly and without sentimentality of his life's devotion to his hunting and fishing around which his real existence centered.

Full Flavour, by Mrs. Doris Leslie.—Catherine Durrox, not altogether a slave of Victorian convention, inherits her father's cigar business and makes a success of it. This chronicle of English life begins when Catherine is a child and follows her through her career, and through the tragedy that overtakes her marriage, and ends just as her grandson is starting off to the Great War.

A Nest of Simple Folk, by Sean O'Faolain.—The story of three generations of Irish people living, between 1854 and 1916, in southwestern Ireland. Their simple, poverty-stricken existence was punctuated with the violence of revolutions and family dissension. In spite of the sordidness of many scenes, the book as a whole is lifted above its frequently somber tone by touches of idealism and excellent descriptive passages.

Good-Bye, Mr. Chips, by James Hilton.—Courage of the finest type, loyalty, and a sense of proportion that often expressed itself in jokes and humorous observation — these were the characteristics of Chipping, an English schoolmaster.

Oriel Window's Origin

The architectural predecessor of the oriel window is the turret, used as a defense in the medieval home. The outside stairway and roofs built at different levels are descended from the old French farmhouse.

Catholic Church Members Sponsor Card Party Thursday—

A group of women from Our Lady of Victory church will sponsor a card party to be held Thursday, Sept. 5, in the church basement. Refreshments will be served and card games will supply the entertainment with a table prize as the reward. The admission price, according to the committee, is 25 cents.

King's Daughters Will Hold Initial Meeting of Season—

The King's Daughters will hold their meeting at 3 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 3, at the home of Miss Inis Bryan on S. Wing street. This is the first meeting of the season so plans for the coming year will be discussed. The organization meets every first and third Tuesday in the fall and winter.

Twenty Guests Attend Luncheon In Honor of Mrs. C. C. Chapman—

Mrs. W. P. Chapman honored her mother-in-law, Mrs. C. C. Chapman, of New York, at a bridge luncheon Thursday. Guests were: Mrs. Ray Richardson, Mrs. L. C. Stewart, Mrs. Leroy Stewart, Mrs. Elmer Smith, Mrs. Ralph Ayers, Mrs. E. L. Millis, Mrs. John Walker, Mrs. H. S. Willis, Mrs. William Davis, Mrs. Nelson Schrader, Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips, Mrs Percy Angove, Mrs. Floyd Northrop, Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Mrs. Dayton Bunn, Mrs. E. C. Hinkley, Mrs. Margaret Curtis, Mrs. George Hills, and Mrs. Charles Murphy.

Secretary Issues Invitation To Attend Belle Covert Reunion—

Plans have been going forward for the Belle Covert reunion to be held Sept. 7 in Cass Benton park. The secretary, Mrs. Bertha L. Van Zile, who has not the addresses of all the former pupils, urges them to attend without a formal invitation. "Everything points to a good time at Cass Benton," she said. "Enthusiasm is high, for we all realize that it is a privilege to have such a large number of classmates and friends of thirty and forty years ago get together and renew the old times of their school days."

Mrs. Van Zile continued her invitation saying that many messages would also be read from "far-aways." "We are hoping for many new faces this year, and of course all who have ever attended will be there at 2 p. m. Saturday in Cass Benton park, Northville."

Mrs. L. C. Stewart is Hostess At Evening Bridge Party—

Bridge entertained the guests of Mrs. L. C. Stewart at the party at her home Tuesday evening. Those who made up the two tables were: Mrs. W. P. Chapman, Mrs. Nelson Schrader, Mrs. Leroy Stewart, Mrs. George Hills, Mrs. E. B. Cavell, Mrs. E. L. Millis, all of Northville, and Mrs. C. C. Chapman, of New York.

Former Northville Student Marries Ann Arborite—

The marriage of Miss Lena Severance to Donald Staebler of Ann Arbor was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents Wednesday, August 21, at Grass Lake.

The bride was a pupil of the Northville school in 1924-25, and will be remembered by many Northville friends.

Mrs. Ernest Miller Entertains Bridge Club Tuesday—

Mrs. Ernest Miller entertained at a dessert luncheon for the bridge club of which she is a member Tuesday afternoon. The guests were Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips, Mrs. Sherwin Hill, Mrs. William Yerkes, Mrs. S. A. Lovewell, Mrs. Ben Filkins, Mrs. F. C. Hinkley, all of Northville, and Mrs. Jennie Westlake, of Detroit.

Miss Evelyn Simmons, who formerly attended school here was a visitor in Northville last week.

Alice Eaton Gives Picnic On Fifteenth Birthday—

Miss Alice Eaton was hostess to fourteen girls on the occasion of her fifteenth birthday August 26. The afternoon picnic party was held at Cass Benton park where the girls played tennis, shuffleboard and beanbag. The picnic lunch, with a color scheme of yellow and white, was served at 5 p. m.

The girls attending were: Margaret Hein, Marjorie Chase, Bernice Pord, Virginia Washburne, Lucille Simmons, Jean Anderson, Lois Chapman, Nancy McLoughlin, Doris Tewksbury, Mary Jane Boelens, Leona Mae White, Jane Van Atta, Betty Greer and Gwendolyn Jones. All had an enjoyable time in spite of the fact that the day couldn't make up its mind to be rainy or sunny.

Mrs. Williams Invites Group Of Friends to Luncheon, Tea—

Mrs. William Williams was hostess to a group of Northville friends Monday at her home near Wheatley, Ontario. Mrs. Williams had invited enough for four tables of bridge; she entertained the guests doubly with a luncheon and bridge.

House Guests Fill Northville During Week of Fair—

Northville was literally a city of hosts and hostesses for the three days of the fair; almost every family had one or more guests for the occasion.

Among the persons who did extensive entertaining were the members of the Schrader family. The Misses Reva and Betty Schrader and Nelson Jr. had as their house guests for the three days of the fair, Miss Nancy Jane Brown of Pontiac; Miss Patricia Roberts, and Miss Vera Holwedel, both of Detroit, Miss June Allen and Russell Allen, both of Flushing, Long Island; and Orson Coe, of Ionia.

An open-house Friday after the horse show brought several more guests to the Schrader house. Al Neill, Dr. Max Laffery, Miss Dee Smith, Dr. J. Hogan, all of Detroit, Miss Marietta Arner and Miss Marguerite Ganzhorn, both of Ann Arbor were among them.

Schoolmates of Miss Delphia Hill, Miss Dorothea Humphreys, of Forest Hills, Long Island, and Miss Sofia Kernan of Utica, N. Y., were guests at the Hill home on the Base Line road for two weeks. Both Miss Hill and her guests are Vassar students and will return to school Sept. 19.

Mrs. Arthur B. Marx entertained her sister, Mrs. William Mueller, and two nieces, Miss Catherine Mueller, and Miss Margaret Hausz, during the fair.

Over 150 persons swarmed the lawns and house of Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown for the luncheon party which she gave in honor of the horse show committee and participants Saturday.

Northville Women Attend Luncheon At Meadowbrook Country Club—

A luncheon at Meadowbrook Country club given Wednesday by Mrs. E. M. Smith of Farmington road included several Northville women among the 14 guests. Among them were Mrs. D. R. Saley, Mrs. S. A. Lovewell, Mrs. Sherwin Hill, Mrs. E. L. Millis, Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips, Mrs. Crosby Washburn, Mrs. Ernest Miller and Mrs. John Hetchler.

THOROUGHBRED MARE BREAKS LEG, DIES HERE ON SATURDAY

A thoroughbred mare, known as Dainty Miss, and owned by Mrs. Wm. Rawle Brown, broke its leg in a fall Saturday, Aug. 17, while being ridden by Miss Barbara Phillips on the bridle path on the East Eight Mile road and had to be disposed of by the veterinarian who was called.

Miss Phillips, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips, was riding on the bridle path along the road when the mare shied and wheeled, landing in an adjoining ditch.

Mrs. Brown stated after the accident that she in no way blames Miss Phillips, for she considered her an excellent young horsewoman. Miss Phillips suffered no injuries other than shock from the accident, although she was pinned under the horse. The death of the mare was considered a particular loss at this time due to her being entered in the Northville horse show, to be held in conjunction with the fair this week. The mare was a great favorite of Mrs. Brown.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION

I would much rather have written personal "thank you's" but there are far too many for me to complete for some time, so I am using the columns of our newspaper instead.

A word of appreciation to the many friends, acquaintances and organizations for the personal gifts, flowers, calls, greeting cards, offerings of food to my family and inquiries as to my progress. Words are inadequate to properly express just what all these kindnesses have meant to me and mine during my illness.

May it all be returned to you when your need comes.

Another of 'Chan' Mystery Series Will Appear at Penniman-Allen Tomorrow; Buck Jones Comes Wed.

"Charlie Chan in Egypt"

Audiences everywhere have hailed Charlie Chan in Egypt as the most thrilling, engrossing and ingenious of the "Chan" series to date. Once more starring Warner Oland, the picture comes tomorrow to the Penniman Allen Theatre. It's the story of Charlie Chan's eerist adventure in the land of the Pharaohs promises to be the biggest thrill ever offered to audiences in this city.

Priceless gold and jeweled treasures from the tomb of Ameti, an ancient high priest, are stolen from among those brought to light by the French Historical Society's expedition, near Luxor on the Nile, the great river and land over which Cleopatra once ruled.

Charlie Chan is hired by the Society to trace the thefts and to apprehend the thieves. Three murders occur and everybody wonders whether it was Sekmet, the cat-headed Egyptian goddess of vengence who struck down those disturbing the monarchs in their final slumber.

Death casts its shadow over the entire family of the expedition's leader and Charlie Chan's skill and courage are tested to their limit, but he finally solves the crimes in one of the most thrilling sequences ever filmed.

Pat Patterson, as the daughter of the expeditions leader, gives unusual support to Warner Oland and Stepin Fetchit, as a native of the desert sands who becomes Charlie Chan's strange and frightened aide, creates many comic situations. The bewitching Rita Cansino displays her charms and ability to good advantage, while Thomas Beck holds up his role with some good manly acting.

"Outlawed Guns"

Bang! Bang!

Lovers of exciting action will revel in "Outlawed Guns," the Universal drama which comes to this theatre on Wednesday and Thursday.

Buck Jones, the screen's outstanding adventure star, plays the leading role in this fast-moving story of the Western frontier, and almost single-handed wages unrelenting warfare against a gang of bandits.

The ravishing Ruth Channing is the girl in the case, and other prominent roles are played by Roy D'Arcy, Frank McGlynn, Sr., and Pat O'Brien. The story is told against a background of California's most beautiful scenery.

Don't miss "Outlawed Guns." Its swift action and spine-tingling situations will hold you spell-bound. See the Stalwart Buck Jones in his finest picture!

"BORDER BRIGANDS"

All the color and romance of Canada's famous Royal Northwest Mounted Police are seen in "Border Brigands," the stirring Universal drama which opens an engagement at the Penniman-Allen theatre also tomorrow, with Buck Jones in the starring role.

The story is laid on the border between Alaska and Canada's northermost territory, and the action takes place alternately in an isolated post of the "Mounties" and a rough settlement on the American side. The picture tells a revealing and highly interesting story of those picturesque law officers who, according to fabled report, "always get their man."

Jones is seen in the role of Lieutenant Berry, whose brother is slain during a robbery by a band of cut-throats, committing many of their crimes on the Canadian side of the border and fleeing into American territory, where they are safe from pursuit by the Mounted Police. In order to be able to follow them to their stronghold, Jones resigns his commission in the Mounties, and the remainder of the story details his thrilling adventures after he and a companion are accepted as members of the band.

UNIQUE SCALES ARE PUT INTO SERVICE AT E. M. B. STORE

An unusual and brand new computing scale has been added to the equipment of the E.M.B. Food Market. E. M. Bogart, proprietor, announced this week.

This scale is known as the Paskon Duplex scale and has been on the market less than one month. It is made of a product known as Paskon, which is reputed to be ten times stronger than aluminum.

The manufacturers of the scales draw attention Mr. Bogart said, to the fact that there are 98,400 numerals on the dials, and that the dials are magnified electrically by five times.

LOCAL RESIDENTS ARE IN AUTO CRASH

Bruises and minor injuries were the result of an accident occurring last Wednesday when a car driven by Karl Kysor of Northville rammed into the side of a standing car owned by Mrs Burt Elliot.

Mr. Kysor was approaching the intersection at Greenfield and 8 Mile roads and in stopping for the red light, something went wrong with the steering, he believes.

Kysor suffered a sprained wrist, and his wife severe bruises. Mrs. Elliot and her friends who were with her in the car were not injured although a great deal of damage was done to their car. The Kysor car is also almost irreparably smashed.

Twin Brother of Sleep

Thanatos, the Greek god of death, was considered the twin brother of Sleep.

SELDON FEARLESS AS HE SWAYS ON SELF-MADE POLE

The man who exposed himself to death twice a day before fair patrons in order to earn a living—the "Mighty Seldon"—is an unusual person.

In the first place he is a mechanical engineer. He built his own high trapeze apparatus. He works at it "because to me that is living."

His name is Arengo Seldon. He was born on a farm near Lansing. When a boy of 11 years, he left home with his father's permission and joined a stage company where he gave exhibitions of hand walking. "The old timers took an interest in me," he said, "and I guess I learned fast. Soon I was doing trapeze work. And now, I wouldn't do anything else."

"What do you think about as you balance yourself on that swaying, 150-foot rod? Are you afraid? Do you think what a terrible thing it would be to fall?" He was asked.

"Oh," he answered in a matter-of-fact tone, "I just think about doing my job. No I'm not afraid. I have confidence in myself. When you drive an automobile, you know that you may be killed—that when you go to stop the brakes may not work. But you don't think about it, do you? Well, it's the same with me. If I fall, I fall."

Seldon's wife was killed five years ago doing a similar trapeze act.

"I'll tell you though," he added confidentially, and he smiled, "I am afraid somebody will learn my age. That's the one thing I never tell."

BROKE HIS BACK TWICE; SECOND FALL CURES HIM

Roy D. Cramer Cheated Law of Nature; In Perfect Condition Today

The unusual distinction of breaking his back twice and not only still living to tell the story but of being in perfect physical condition today belongs to Roy Cramer, who with his wife and children, Keith and Maxine, visited in Northville recently.

Both of the accidents which caused the breaks happened in Northville when Mr. Cramer was a line foreman for the Detroit Edison company. The first time he fell from a telephone pole and was taken to Grace hospital in Detroit where he lived a long time in a straight jacket of steel and plaster. He was warned then to never climb a pole again.

About a year later, however, one of his men got hold of a live wire and was being burned to death. Mr. Cramer came to the rescue but came in contact with the wire and was thrown 20 feet to the ground. He was picked up unconscious with another break in his spinal column.

The last injury, which was at first thought to be fatal, mended quickly and Mr. Cramer completely recovered. What is more, the other break, which doctors said was not properly healed, finally mended after his back was broken the second time, and Mr. Cramer has twice cheated nature's law, which says that he should have met death each time.

Mr. Cramer moved from Northville with his family ten years ago to Niles, Michigan, where they have since lived. His friends here pronounced his physical condition as being "very robust," several telling him that he "did not look a day older."

They have been staying with Mr. Smith's uncle, John Tinhan, and also with friends at Ann Arbor. The Smiths are former residents of Northville and mentioned particularly Mrs. C. C. Yerkes, Thad Knapp, Ralph Horton and Hoyt Woodman as persons they had gone to school with. Mr. Smith is the president of the Larimer County Abstract Co. of Fort Collins.

FAIR SIDELIGHTS

As Picked Up By The Record Staff

The three or four thousand fair patrons did not know it, but there was considerable excitement among fair officials Friday night. Deputy sheriffs got word that a lunatic had escaped from the Eloise hospital and was headed for the fair grounds to get his wife. They found the woman, who was scared stiff, and finally took her to Detroit under police guard. Her husband did not show up.

—O—

Phil H. Grennan, who for the first time did not mount a horse during the fair, was an interested patron of the Loop-O-Plane Saturday night. He went on it twice in succession and then again. He can take it!

—O—

Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea of Detroit was angry when refused admittance at the east gate. He went to the west gate where he was let in, and then rushed to the secretary's office where he made a complaint. The gatekeeper was praised for his diligence.

—O—

The people that handled the pari-mutual betting underneath the grandstand did not have such a good year at the fair. "Times has been better," sighed one of the operators.

—O—

It was an embarrassing moment for Floyd A. Northrop, fair secretary, and the man on the sprinkler wagon Saturday afternoon at the horse show. In spite of everything the wagon came too near the south side of the show ring, and a number of people had to jump up and run out of their boxes—and some did not jump in time!

—O—

Did you notice that just before "the Mighty Seldon" came shooting down that wire into the grandstand at the conclusion of his "death-defying act" on the 150-foot pole that the master of ceremonies always announced that he would hang by his teeth? As a matter of fact, Seldon hung to the little attachment on the wire by a band of heavy cloth which was around the back of his neck. He said he used to use his teeth several years ago but after he had them jerked out that way he decided it wasn't worth while!

—O—

There was a different master of ceremonies for the free acts after the first night. It was noticed. It must have been because the first M. C. was a little too ambitious. He not only insisted on kissing the bride, but also her attendant and the soloist as well who sang "O Promise Me." To that man should have profited by the example of history. Caesar was ambitious—they stopped him.

—O—

The liberal purses in the harness events attracted Tom Hogan, owner of the new racing track at Chicago, to the fair. He won the 2:21 trot in three straight heats with Drum Major, winning $182.50, and was in the money with My Sister Mary in the 2:22 pace to the tune of $21.50. He declared he was pleased with the treatment he received, and the way the races were handled.

—O—

The familiar face of Rustace Blake, with its white mustache, and his drawling voice were missed at the horse show this year. Mr. Blake, who has acted as announcer for several years, is seriously ill at his home in Detroit. His place was taken by Charles Newkirk of Dearborn.

—O—

One of the most popular exhibits in the fair last week was that of the Northville branch of the Wayne county libraries, which was located in the main building. A collection of late books was exhibited on a modernistic setting, cleverly lighted. Books could be taken there and then returned to the library.

Soap Box Orator's Asset

Jud Tuttons says a soap box orator has at least one asset. In a blizzard he can use the soap box for kindling.

Church News

Christian Science Churches

"Christ Jesus" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, Sept. 1.

Among the Bible citations in this passage (Luke 2: 10,11): "And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 332): "Jesus was the son of a virgin. He was appointed to speak God's word and to appear to mortals in such a form of humanity as they could understand as well as perceive. Mary's conception of him was spiritual, for only purity could reflect Truth and Love, which were plainly incarnate in the good and pure Christ Jesus."

Salem Federated Church

Come and hear the message on "Satan's Blindfold" on Sunday morning, Sept. 1, at 10:30 o'clock.

In Bible school at 11:45 a. m. we have a Labor Day lesson. "The Church and the Toiler," Act. 20:33-35. Philippians 4:4-13. Memory verse: "In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring ye ought to help the weak." Acts 20:35.

Following the services we plan to go to Willow Bend at Cass Benton park for a picnic dinner with the Salem Congregational church. Bring a picnic dinner and silver and dishes for your family.

Salem Congregation Church

Lucia M. Stroh, Minister

Next Sunday service 10:30 a. m. in the church. The pastor will preach. Sunday school following. After the services the entire congregation will go to Parkway park, between Five and Six Mile roads, for a happy picnic dinner. All are cordially invited to unite with us.

Wednesday evening prayer meeting.

This coming Saturday, August 31, is the monthly bake sale in the Keyser-Bartlett store in Plymouth. Please send your baked goods in time to Salem or Plymouth before 10 a. m.

The Ladies' Auxiliary society will be entertained by Mrs. Helmuth Ringel Thursday Sept. 12th, in her home on the Six Mile and Nankin roads. All are welcome.

First Baptist Church

Service Sunday Sep. 8, 1935.

10:00, morning worship and sermon, also up at the Post. Lord's Supper. (Please note change in time.)

11:45, church school.

7:30 an interesting service in which we will be assisted by several young people from the Novi Baptist church. Subject: "God and the Great Out of Doors."

Wednesday, 7:30, mid-week service.

Union Services

On Sunday, Sept. 1, the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations will worship together in the Methodist church. Service begins at 10 a. m. followed immediately by church school. The congregation will vote as to the advisability of continuing the 10 o'clock hour in preference to the 10:30 hour.

Let us have a good turnout for this last union service. Do your part.

ANNUAL REUNION OF STONE SCHOOL HELD WITH SIXTY PRESENT

More than 60 people were present to attend the fifteenth annual Stone school reunion Friday, Aug. 16, the affair taking place on the old school grounds, five miles east of South Lyon.

Officers elected for the coming year were P. W. Sterner, president; Norton Jones, vice president; and Miss Margaret Carpenter, secretary-treasurer.

One of the features of the exercises was the short talk by Marvin Bogart of Wixom, who is the oldest member.

Members of the group came from far and near to join the celebration, the award for the one coming the greatest distance going to David Brooks. He made the trip here from Spokane, Washington, and was also awarded for giving the best reminiscence.

The newest member of the group in birth was Miss Alice Brooks, the latest by marriage, Mrs. Russell Yerkes.

Rev. Chas. A. Strait will be the special speaker at both services on Sunday and every night next week, except Saturday at 7:30.

Evangelist Strait is a strong Gospel preacher and successful soul winner. His wife plays the autoharp and sings.

Inspiring congregational singing and fine special singing. Everybody invited.

St. Paul's Lutheran

"He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake." Psalm 23. 3.

What a fine word of comfort we have in this sentence from the Shepherd's Psalm. We may faint in the daily struggle with Satan, the world of our flesh and grow weary in the strife, but the Good Shepherd restores us again and again revives us when our last strength seems to ooze away, and quickens us with new life, new vigor, new hope. This He does through His Word and Spirit. He assures us repeatedly that our sins are forgiven, our transgressions covered by His own blood and righteousness, that we are God's dear children and heirs of the promises. He restores unto us the joy of His salvation and upholds us with His free spirit.

He also gives us the promise of His continued presence. As the faithful Shepherd leads the sheep along safe paths to the best grazing places, so our Good Shepherd leads us in the paths of righteousness. The sheep do not always know why a certain road is taken, but they follow because they trust the shepherd. The paths over which our Good Shepherd leads us often make us question the wisdom of our Guide. But that is weakness and lack of faith on our part.

All the ways He takes us are paths of righteousness. "All things work together for good to them that love God." The roads we would choose ourselves are sure to lead to ruin, no matter how pleasant and delightful they may appear to us. The paths He takes us will lead to Heaven.

For His name's sake—not because we deserve such condescension, but for our merit's sake. But because He is gracious and good.

The hour for worship this Sunday morning is the usual one, 10 o'clock. The pastor will preach.

Two weeks from this Sunday, Sept. 15th, we will celebrate our annual Mission Festival with two divine services, 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. Please remember this date and invite your friends to come with you.

The Mission Coin Collectors which have been distributed to the members last December for Missions should kindly be returned to the congregation this Sunday morning or the following.

The Ladies Aid will meet again the second Thursday afternoon in September.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to worship with us!

SEVERAL HORSES IN RACES ARE SIRED BY LOCAL STALLIONS

E. M. Starkweather, local race horse breeder, owns the sires of a number of the most outstanding trotters and pacers now racing at the Northville Wayne County fair, racing experts revealed Wednesday.

Among these horses is Uhlan Dillard, who is returning to his home town after an absence of nearly two years. He was formerly owned by Len Coe of Northville and is now in the possession of Clarence Burse of Sandusky, Mich. During the past few years he has rapidly developed into a great pacer, having a mark of 2:08¼. He was sired by Uhlan Brooks.

The premier of the Starkweather farm, Morgan Dewey, a beautiful chestnut stallion, has two of his offspring in action in the races. They are the pacer, Melba Dewey, 2:05¼, owned by William Meyers of Fowlerville, and Diamond Dewey, a trotter, owned by George Rotch, Lansing horseman.

Another horse raised from one of Starkweather's sires is Ravenwood, a descendant of Raven Direct. He is owned by Stanley Ladd of Howell who also owns Gene Hal, fast pacing mare with a mark of 2:05¼.

In addition to these horses now in their racing prime, Starkweather has a number of young colts from his three leading sires, Morgan Dewey, Uhlan Brooks and Raven Direct, which he expects to develop into very fast horses during the next few years.

A grateful public is paying its taxes and saving its homes

FROM all parts of the state come gratifying reports of the way the Michigan public is responding to the current tax-collection drive. Men and women everywhere are determined to save their homes, and benefit by the savings that a thoughtful legislature has provided.

Few indeed are the property-owners who cannot now pay their back taxes, either in full or on the ten-year plan.

If you have not yet made arrangements to take care of your back taxes SEE YOUR COUNTY TREASURER AT ONCE. Bring him your old tax-bills, or at any rate, the legal description of your property. He will tell you quickly the amount that you owe and advise you as to how you may meet this important obligation. Upon request he will give you a descriptive folder that tells in simple terms just what you must do to save your home.

REMEMBER! September first is the last day on which you can pay your back taxes for 1932 and prior years without interest or penalties. It is also the last day on which you can put these taxes on the "TEN-YEAR PLAN" without incurring additional interest. ACT NOW. Delay is dangerous.

By co-operating with your state in this far-flung tax-collection drive you SAVE YOUR HOME, SAVE 27% TO 45% AND EVEN MORE in interest and penalties, and save yourself from worry over the possibility of losing your home. ACT NOW. Help yourself while helping your State, County, City, Village, Township and Schools.

Homemaker's Corner

By MRS. EDITOR

Health and Peace

"Is life worth living?" asked the person with the "blues" and the wise old doctor replied "that depends upon the liver."

Who wasn't surprised to read an article, "Health and History" in the September Reader's Digest? Says Beverly Nichols: "The Kaiser has been spending much of his time, since the war, in chopping logs in his Dutch garden. If he had spent an equal amount of his time chopping logs before the war, there might not have been any war at all."

He says further "If Napoleon had taken a little more exercise, Europe might still be a department of France. And I am quite certain that if all the members of the Disarmament Conference at Geneva had been forced to do a little compulsory gardening every morning, they would have got something done."

So much for this discussion of "Health and History."

After all, we think as we shake the rugs and hang out the washing, work isn't so bad. It keeps our muscles strong—and what is indigestion anyway?

"My garden is my sanatorium" said a neighbor who had plenty of reason to be a neurotic lying among soft pillows. But instead she dug among her flowers and was happy.

"What's the matter with our family? We're the crossest folks on earth!" and the young girl went off to her room to nurse her peeve—when the only trouble was everyone was suffering from too much fair. Late hours, "hot dogs," taffy and merry-go-rounds do not help domestic tranquility to flourish. Many a domestic "war" could have been avoided if the participants could have "chopped logs" like the Kaiser is doing.

A wood pile is a mighty handy thing.

Their First Home

By Florence Riddick Boys

It is true there are certain furnishings which the bride and groom must have—pots and pans, a cook stove, a table, a bed and a few chairs. But there are many things which they can do without or can make out of store boxes, paint, a few yards of cheesecloth, wire, nails and ingenuity.

Most married people stock up with a lot of cheap furniture when they begin housekeeping. In later life they can afford better, but since they have this, it seems extravagance to replace it with something in finer taste. And then, it would be such a job, because all the furniture in the house is of the cheap type and all of it would have to be discarded, to have things harmonious.

It is wise for the bride and groom to buy only good furniture—simple and good, which they can use and love and delight in as long as they keep house. It may not be used in the best room always, but will be appropriate in some other room, and will never be too shoddy to use.

Temporary book cases may be made of boxes, as also the dresser, the settee, and the cupboard. The dining table may be really a kitchen table, to be demoted when the family purse grows fatter. Carefully study each furnishing, and make it a rule to purchase today only what is good enough to use for years, and do without or devise some makeshift for what you cannot afford to buy in refined taste.

Peach Cup Salad

8 peach halves
1 pk. cream cheese
2 T. chopped nuts
French Dressing
1 T. mayonnaise

Mix mayonnaise and nuts with cheese, fill peach halves with the mixture. Serve on lettuce; with French dressing if desired.

Pickled Pear Salad

Stuff six canned pear halves with one package of cream cheese into which has been worked three tablespoons chopped sweet spiced pickle. Serve on lettuce with a French dressing made with vinegar from the minced pickles.

Chocolate Biscuits

Make standard baking powder biscuit recipe. Knead dough for about twenty seconds. Roll out one-third inch thick and cut. Brush half the circles with melted butter and place a square of milk chocolate in the center of the circle. Cover with a second biscuit circle and bake twelve minutes in a 425-degree oven.

Nut Brown Bread

2 c graham flour
1 c white flour
1 c chopped walnuts
½ c brown sugar
1 scant teaspoon soda dissolved in
½ c molasses
2 c milk
1 t salt

Combine all ingredients and bake one and one-half hours in moderate oven. This batter will seem very much of a liquid, but it makes a splendid firm loaf, for slicing thin for sandwiches.

TEACHERS' PAY AT WALLED LAKE IS GIVEN BIG BOOST

Substantial increases in salary for all the teachers and other employes of the Walled Lake Consolidated school district were decided upon at the recent meeting of the board of education there, it was announced this week.

The Walled Lake school will begin the 1935-1936 school year on Tuesday, Sept. 3, with an enlarged staff of teachers, considerable new equipment, and an increase of from 25 to 50 pupils. Several communities in the environs of the school district have been taking advantage of the facilities of this consolidated school and more will do the same the coming school year. Seven buses are operated, three of them of large and latest designs. These are kept in a new garage which was the result of a CWA project.

The Walled Lake school was admitted last year to membership in the North Central association of colleges and secondary schools and maintains courses in shop, vocational agriculture, commercial subjects and home economics.

SCHOOL AT WALLED LAKE EXPECTS MORE PUPILS

From all indications the Walled Lake Consolidated school will have an increased attendance of from 25 to 50 pupils this coming year over last year.

The board of education has received inquiries from a number of rural schools in regard to sending all or part of their grades to the consolidated school. Last year there were 15 non-resident pupils and this year there will be a larger number.

Enrollment in the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades will take place on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, the last three days of August. The grade pupils may also get their books on these days but they will not be enrolled until the first day of school, Tuesday, Sept. 3. The superintendent is anxious to meet the high school students before the first day of school and advise with them in regard to the various courses offered, he said.

Members of the faculty will be: Miss Jola Sidman, first grade; Miss Bernice Lawrence, second grade; Mrs. Doris Wood, third grade; Miss Margaret Tuttle, fourth grade; Miss Kathryn Rupert, fifth grade; Miss Jean Wallace, sixth grade; Harold Hafen, manual arts, social science and athletics; Miss Margaret Heinz, commercial.

Charles A Ridley, English, debating and library, William Blackler, history and glee clubs; Miss Helen Henrickson, home economics; Waldo Proctor, agriculture; L. E. McLaughlin, principal, science and mathematics; C. A. Hoffman, superintendent, language.

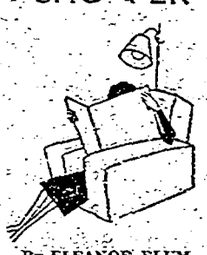
THE RECORD SHOPPER



By ELEANOR BLUM

With canning season on, the kitchen has become a hot stuffy place, hard to ventilate and in hot weather, hard to cool. One of the local shops carries a remedy for that situation which seems to be just the answer. The apparatus is an electric ventilator hung on the wall over the stove pipe.

Possibly the men around your house have already tried a home made ventilator, with the same principle, for this strikes me as the perfection of an old but very useful idea. The fan assists the natural draft of the flue, expelling the hot, grease-laden air. With fall right upon us the need for such an inexpensive, compact kitchen aid will be just as great as the summer need for even with the windows closed the ventilator insures a complete change of air every five minutes.

And going from the kitchen, almost exclusively feminine, to the masculine perhaps we could interest the men in the new metal radio tubes that they have been reading so much about in Detroit papers. A Northville shop has the tubes in stock now, and the performance seems to carry out the claim that they will make foreign reception better on short wave and eliminate a lot of static and noise.

The makers of the tube have considered it important enough to build a complete new radio model around it. Amazingly small, these new metal tubes are self-shielded and so sturdily constructed that they insure a more stabilized performance. If we knew more of the technical side of "air mysteries" perhaps we could explain more fully the apparent advantages of this revolutionary change in tube types. Since we don't, all we can really say, is that the radio in which we have heard the new tube have a clear tone, at a continual "concert pitch."

NEW BRUNSWICK IS 'BEAUTIFUL,' PERRINS DECLARE AFTER TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Perrin, their daughter, Kathryn Jean Lyke and Geraldine Johnson returned late Friday night from a two weeks' motor trip to the Tobique river district in New Brunswick, Canada, which Mr. Perrin described as "beautiful country."

The Riviere Dubloup falls there presented the most beautiful sight we saw on the whole trip," Mr. Perrin said, and described these falls as being even more awe-compelling than Niagara itself.

The little group spent nine days there, visiting the parents of Mrs. Perrin. One of the things which the children will not soon forget about the trip was the deer they saw. Several were seen one evening close to the house in which they stayed.

Hatchery Bettering Michigan Anglers' Chances Now With Daily Shipments of As High as 40,000 Bass and Bluegills

With anywhere from 2,000 to 40,000 bass and blue gills being shipped daily now from the U. S. Fish Hatchery here, to be placed in the lakes and streams of the state, prospects for good fishing in Michigan are being given a considerable boost.

Most of the fish being shipped are bass, E. R. Widmyer, superintendent of the hatchery said. They are all about two months old, and range in length from two to six inches. "Some of them are almost big enough to catch," Mr. Widmyer said, as he led the way around the rearing troughs in the hatchery, the water in which fairly churned in places with these lively little fish. They will all be distributed in Michigan, none going to the northern peninsula.

Outside the hatchery building the nine bass ponds resemble fields of wheat which have been cut and shocked. They have all been emptied of water and of their valuable cargo. All of the bass which are kept at the hatchery have been transferred to one pond, the "wintering pond," Mr. Widmyer explained, and there they will remain until next May when they will again be distributed into the various ponds.

The "shocks of wheat," he said, were really just the green algae, a form of moss, which grows in the ponds, and which must be cleaned out each year.

Thus another important phase of the year's work at the hatchery has been completed. The bass were allowed to make nests in the ponds where they laid millions of eggs. About two months ago the last of the eggs were hatched, and the work of the rearing stock of bass was over. Now after much watchful care, shipments of little bass are being made daily to be released in the lakes and streams of Michigan.

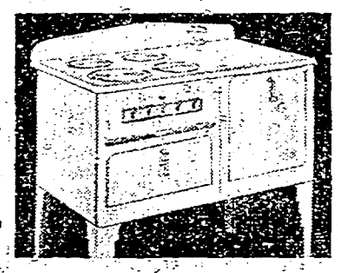
Use a TRIAL ELECTRIC RANGE to bake

THIS DELICIOUS BUTTER CAKE in your own kitchen



YOUR family will praise your cake-making ability, once they have tasted this delicious butter cake that "melts in your mouth!" Light and golden and fine-textured, with thick icing, it even surpasses the cakes that "mother used to make." And there's no secret about it: It was baked in an electric oven. So of course there is no guesswork. You simply set the dial for the correct temperature, and the accurate oven heat control does the rest. An electric range makes baking a cake as easy as mixing it.

Wouldn't you like to bake a cake like this in your own kitchen, using a modern electric range on trial? Our Trial Plan puts you under no obligation whatever, and briefly is this: We will install an electric range in your kitchen without initial charge, so that you may give it a thorough trial. During this trial period you simply pay for the service as registered by your meter, plus a monthly charge of $1 for the range. If you decide to keep the range, your monthly payments will be applied toward the purchase price. If you decide that you do not want it, the range will be removed at our expense. Send in your application for a trial range today!

BY THE WAY . . .

By R. W. L.

Have you been by the Burkman building project recently? They are making progress. Two things interested me this week—the pilasters on each side of the front door are the originals and are to be kept there. They are the colonial type one-piece hand-grooved plank nine inches in width. The same architectural design was followed in the room to be used now as a dining room—it was the parlor. This room was evidently the show place of the home and was reserved for state and unusual occasions. The finish in this room is of the same hand-grooved panel design. The entire window frame is of this style and in addition the medallion from which the lamp was hung was wrought after the same fashion as the woodwork but of course in plaster. The baseboards in this room are about a foot in width. A mantle of the same general design has been saved and will be used for the fireplace that is now being built. If you haven't seen this place in the transformation period it will be worth your while, particularly if you are interested in architectural designs and types.

The Northville-Wayne County Fair was an eye-opener to some of us who have just recently come to Northville. Never before have we witnessed as large or as well planned a county fair, and the public of the county evidently appreciate it for they came in great numbers. The management of the fair should be sincerely congratulated on the quality of their entertainment and the residents of the county too are in the position where they should pat themselves on the back for having so easily available an exposition of such quality and quantity.

It has occurred to some that some of the facilities that are used for the fair might be used during the year, making the fair board's investment give them a return for more than the four days each fall. Is it a fair question to ask whether it is possible to build an indoor skating rink in one of the buildings and make it available for all of Wayne county, at an entrance fee that would make it a fair investment for the fair board and a great recreational benefit to all of us? There are so few days in the winter when outdoor skating is really good.

WATSON IS ENTERED IN "JACKPINE RACE" SUNDAY AT LANSING

Jack Watson well known cyclist here, is entered, along with other contestants from 12 states, in the annual "Jackpine" race Sunday, which will have as its course "the worst roads in Michigan" that can be found between Lansing and Oscoda, the announcer this week.

The run will begin Sunday morning from Lansing. Stopping at Oscoda overnight, the riders will begin their return trip Monday morning over a different route. No good roads will be used for any part of the run. Winners will be decided upon their ability to maintain a given average speed.

Watson placed second in the "74 pen" class in the speed trials sponsored by the Eagle Motorcycle club of Detroit Sunday on the Schoolcraft highway between the Farmington and Six Mile roads, where here is registered mile.

HORSE SHOW MARKED BY KEEN COMPETITION

Phil H. Grennan, in praising the horse show part of the fair, declared that "the junior show is undoubtedly one of the best in the country. I thought this year it was better than ever."

Kathryn Marburger of Northville divided honors with the two daughters and the son of Dr. Fred L. Arner, of Ann Arbor. Kathryn won four first prizes in the junior show to say nothing of three first and a second in the senior division. The Arners, Fred, Jr., Marietta and Ruth, won a total of two first, four second, two thirds and two fourths with Happy Monarch, Sweet Esther, Boots and Bulzine. Dr. Arner, who has been entering his horses here for six years, agreed that the senior show was as good as last year but said that "the junior show was better."

Leo J. Davis Jr., of Northville entered three horses in the junior show and came off with a blue ribbon in the obstacle race, a second and two fourth prizes.

Peggy Gouzens, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Frank Gouzens of Detroit won first prize in the children's saddle pony class with her brown pony, Lindy.

Entrants in the infants' class won the applause of everyone around the show ring as they all received silver cups and blue ribbons, the gifts of Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Brown competed in the Fine Harness Horses class of the enior show Saturday, driving J. J. Hetiche's Miss Lark, and won third prize. Earlier in the same afternoon she drew a big round of applause from the gallery when she exhibited her prize winning pair of hackney ponies. Here she won a blue ribbon.

Music for the show was furnished by the Northville community school band under the direction of its new leader, Leslie G. Lee.

PROJECTS ORDERED TO STOP SATURDAY

Unless some further word reaches village officials today or tomorrow, and none is expected, all of the Wayne county Emergency Relief administration projects here will stop Saturday, and a total of 65 men, 54 of which are working in the village, will be laid off.

The remaining men are employed at the U. S. Fish Hatchery here. Most of those employed are men that were sent out from Detroit for the projects.

The projects were originally scheduled to stop Thursday, August 22, but a special order from the main office of the county administration in Detroit continued them until September 1.

At least one project, that of constructing the new Boy Scout building at the corner of Sutton and East Dunlap streets, will be stopped before it is completed. So far only the foundation has been finished. The old building, which stood on the school grounds, was torn down several months ago.

Village officials have thus far received no information from the Works Progress Administration relative to the time that the new reservoir here can be built, and are in hopes that the project will have passed through all the government red tape soon.

The project, which was signed by President Roosevelt Thursday, June 27, is estimated to cost $21,000, $9,000 or 45 per cent of which will be provided as a direct grant.

OFFER COURSE IN BIBLE LITERATURE

A course in bible history and literature will be offered again this year, according to school announcements. The course has been conducted for the past few years by various members of the local ministry.

The course will probably be offered during the fourth hour as in the past when the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist ministers taught it from two to four days per week on their own time.

The Rev. H. G. Whitfield will introduce the course this fall, followed by the Rev. Harry Lord the second semester. The Rev. B. H. Mallinson, and the Rev. K. S. North conducted the studies last year.

Designed to give students a knowledge of the movements in Jewish thought and history, a knowledge of which is necessary to the appreciation of the Christian religion, the course will make no attempt to dogmatize or do violence to any sectarian belief, Mr. Whitfield said.

here there were two silver plates, one of which she gave to Hoffman. John L. Nelson, chairman of the senior show, presented her with the trophy for winning the Young People's saddle class Friday, in which she used Mary Dare. Ypsilanti, superintendent. The poultry, including chickens and pigeons, the rabbits and the cavies were supplemented by a tropical fish display and a wild life exhibit. Probably more entries were turned away from this department on account of lack of space than from any other.

While never completely filled, the grandstand seated nearly 3,000 persons every night of the fair as highly complimentary comments were heard from the spectators on the quality of the free acts.

Past times were recorded in all harness events, which began Thursday and were continued on Friday and Saturday afternoons. The races were characterized by the unusually high purses, furnished by merchants of Northville, Plymouth and Detroit.

The winners of the races? 2:18 trot, first heat, Worthy Girl; second heat, Senator A; third heat, Worthy Girl. Times—2:12½, 2:11½. 2:12 2:15 pace, first heat, Figaro; second heat, Figaro; third heat, Deep Run Todd. Times—2:09, 2:12½, 2:09½. Three year old and under and 2:27 trot, first and second heats, Czar Patchen; third heat, Iva Worthy. Times—2:13½, 2:13, 2:13½.

Three year old and under the 2:27 pace, first heat, Rosemore; second heat, Betty Lee; third heat, Rosemore. Times—2:12½, 2:13½. 2:13½. 2:22 pace, Ivanwood won all heats. Times—2:11¼, 2:10, 2:12 2:22 trot, Drum Major won all heats. Times—2:12, 2:11½, 2:13.

Free for all pace or trot, first heat, Harry Ladder; second and third heats, Calvin May. Times—2:09¼, 2:08¾, 2:09¼. 2:14 trot, first two heats, Diamond Dewey; third heat, Margaret Dillon. Times—2:12¼, 2:10¼, 2:10¼.

Some complaints were heard regarding concessions on the midway, and these became so rigorous by Saturday that fair officials had to close some of the booths.

CAMP WAS GRAND, HUNTER BOYS SAY

spection time and did we go after that pie! But one time our gang had to spend our fun period scrubbing the walls of the cabin—one of the boys got some charcoal and we all did a swell job of interior decorating—drawing pictures and writing names on the wall—we really learned how to use soap and water. But we soon forgot—a swim in Bear Lake which is located near Lake Michigan can wash away all your troubles in no time flat."

Frank told me that George belonged in a cabin that called themselves the "gas house gang," and that George stayed in bed all of one day because he got out of his cabin after taps had been blown but George says he needed the rest anyway.

Frank came home with a trophy, a ribbon showing that he won a 50-yard track meet event and is he proud of it, but one thing that seemed to impress the boys more than anything else at camp was the crowning of the King. This took place in what is called Templar hall. A newcomer to the camp was crowned and the final act in the ceremony was the dousing of the crowned king with a pail of water in answer to a question as to whether he wanted some refreshments.

Finally the mother was drawn into the conversation and I asked her what seemed to impress her as being valuable to the boys at camp. Mrs. Hunter says she thinks that what they call Cookie duty is a fine part of their work. The boys had to take their regular duty in washing and wiping dishes and after that experience the few dishes they have here at home seem so small that she hasn't heard a murmur about doing the dishes, she said. The boys say that those dishes piled up after each meal looked like mountains.

The one thing that the boys said that impressed me most was the fact that they wished their "Mom" could be there and have the fun they were having. "You know Mom has a pretty tough time and we wish she could have fun like this—we certainly thank the men that sent us to camp."

AMERICAN LEGION DISTRICT MEETING IS HERE SEPT. 17TH

Plans are already under way for the meeting of the combined American Legion posts and ladies' auxiliary units of the seventeenth district in Northville Wednesday evening, September 18, it was announced this week.

The gathering, which will probably number more than 200, will begin with dinner and will likely be held in one of the churches of the village. Full details will be announced soon. The Ladies' Bugle and Drum corps of Karet Park may come and play some selections during the evening, Claude Ely, post commander, said.

The Northville Legion post and the auxiliary will meet for a joint dinner at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, Sept. 10, in the Legion home on East Main street.

HOMECOMING DAY AT WALLED LAKE TO BE HELD SEPTEMBER 17

The 31st annual celebration of the Walled Lake Homecoming society will be held at the Walled Lake Baptist church Saturday, Sept. 14.

The morning session will open at 10 a. m. and will be devoted to a memorial service.

Dinner will be served at noon by the Baptist Ladies' Aid, price 35 cents.

The afternoon program will consist of a short business session, an address by a speaker and a literary program.

Many invitations have been sent out and the committee issues a cordial invitation to everyone in Walled Lake and surrounding towns who is interested in the event to attend.

Russia is Praised and Damned By Haisley, Ann Arbor School Superintendent in Rotary Talk

Pointing out some things in the Soviet experiment which merit the consideration of the people of the United States and of the world, Otto Haisley, Ann Arbor superintendent of schools, described his recent visit to Russia to the Rotary club Tuesday.

Mr. Haisley's address was timely in that it came only one day after the U. S. state department charged the Russian government with "flagrant violation" of its agreement to keep communistic propaganda and seditious literature out of this country.

Mr. Haisley appeared most impressed with the experiments in social security, "the attempt to eliminate fear." He told of interviewing a farm hand who expressed himself as satisfied with the situation because he had medical care, education, and old age security all furnished him.

"I was most astonished by the prisons," he said. He described one that he visited, "one typical of but a third of Russian prisons," which had no bars or guards. The inmates live with their families in modern apartments, attend clubs and get recreation, he related, in a manner on a par with or better than the average American family.

"The idea," he explained, "is to rehabilitate the criminal. The Soviet government believes that in eliminating capital, it does away with the foremost causes of crime. So well are the prisoners treated, according to Mr. Haisley, it appeared to one Rotarian that the criminal was sent to prison "as a reward for his crimes."

The Ann Arbor superintendent was "shocked" by seeing Russian women working in factories, on building jobs, and doing all work usually left for men.

He praised the attention Russia is giving its youth, but remarked "No country in the world has done as much for its youth as the United States."

The Russians found, according to Mr. Haisley, that the true communistic theory would not work, and so they substituted a "so-called differentiated wage scale based on one's ability to produce."

"I would not like to see the experiment tried here," he said, "but there are some advantages in having it tried in Russia. I feel that the entire world should watch that nation."

Asked after his talk as to some of the "bad things" he saw in Russia, he mentioned the "complete abrogation" of the personal liberties of the individual.

Guests of the club were E. S. Beard, N. C. Schrader, Edmund Yerkes, Robert Willoughby of Plymouth and Dr. W. S. Davey of Daytona Beach, Fla.

CLEANING SERVICE AT LAUNDRY WILL BEGIN NEXT WEEK

Dry cleaning service will be available beginning next week at the Northville laundry, the installation of equipment having been completed this week, Sidney Frid, who with his brother, Cyril, owns the business, announced Tuesday.

The various machines necessary for cleaning clothes represent an investment of more than $3,000, Mr. Frid revealed.

These include the cleaning machine itself, which is enclosed in a cabinet equipped with a fan to draw away the fumes. A pressing machine, ironing table and spotting tables are also included.

Garments will be cleaned by the "Miracle" process, he said. The cleaning machine uses a special fire-proof, odorless fluid.

MORTGAGE SALE

Default has been made in the terms and conditions of a certain mortgage made by WILLIAM H. URQUHART and GRETA W. URQUHART, his wife, of Grosse Pointe Park, Michigan, Mortgagors, to THE DIME SAVINGS BANK, of Detroit, Michigan, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of Michigan, Mortgagee, its successors and assigns, bearing date the tenth day of September, 1926, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, on September 11th, 1926, in Liber 1804 of Mortgages, on Page 337, which mortgage contains a power of sale. On to-wit the 21st day of May, 1929, the aforementioned mortgagee changed its name to Bank of Michigan, a Michigan corporation, of Detroit, Michigan, and thereafter on to-wit the thirtieth day of April, 1930, said mortgage was assigned by the said Bank of Michigan to Peoples Wayne County Bank, a Michigan corporation, of Detroit, Michigan, by assignment dated April 30th, 1930, and recorded May 1st, 1930, in the office of the Register of Deeds for said County of Wayne in Liber 244 of Assignments, on Page 160. On to-wit the eighth day of October, 1932, the aforementioned assignee of mortgagee changed its name to FIRST NATIONAL BANK - DETROIT, a corporation organized under the laws of the United States of America, of Detroit, Michigan. There is claimed to be due and unpaid on said mortgage at the date of this notice, for principal, interest, taxes and certification of abstract, the sum of EIGHT THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED EIGHT and 57/100 ($8,808.57) Dollars. No suit or proceeding at law or in equity has been had or instituted to recover the debt secured by said mortgage or any part thereof.

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the power of sale in said mortgage contained, and pursuant to the statute of the State of Michigan in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on THURSDAY, the TENTH day of OCTOBER, 1935, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard time, said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale at public auction to the highest bidder, at the southerly or Congress Street entrance to the County Building in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, (that being the place where the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held) of the premises described in said mortgage or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due, as aforesaid, on said mortgage, and any sum or sums which may be paid by the undersigned at or before said sale for taxes and/or insurance on said premises, and all other sums paid by the undersigned pursuant to law and to the terms of said mortgage, with interest thereon at seven per cent (7%) per annum, and all legal costs, charges and expenses thereon, including the attorney fees allowed by law, which said premises are described as follows, to-wit:

The parcel of land situated in the City of Detroit, County of Wayne, State of Michigan, described as:
