

SAMUEL H. LITTLE, Editor.

SATURDAY MORNING, JAN. 21, 1871.

United States Senator.

The Republican National caucus, composed of sixty-five Republican members of the Senate and House, met in the Hall of Representatives at half past seven o'clock on Wednesday, January 14th. Speaker Woodman was elected chairman, and Senator Randall, Secretary. The chairman appointed as tellers, Representatives Gray, Senators Jenks and Barber.

On motion the caucus proceeded to ballot for Senators. After five formal ballots came the sixth as follows:

Jan. 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27	Thos. W. Ferry	31	37	41	50
	Austin Blair	20	22	25	28
	Wm. A. Howard	17	16	9	5
	Jacob M. Howard	20	18	15	4
Total		97	97	97	97

As the result was announced the lucky candidate, Thos. W. Ferry, made a few remarks thanking his friends for their work of their esteem and his determination to discharge the duties that would devolve upon him to the advancement of the State interests.

European War News.

Danger upon danger, failure upon failure, seems to be the order of exercises to the French army. Every now and then the hopes of the people are raised by the expected great exploits of some popular general, and all await with feverish anxiety the battle's result, but only to learn that the Prussians are again victorious and in hot pursuit of their vanquished foe. Such was the case with Chanzy, he who was to be the Deliverer of Paris. The success of his "flower of the army" is evident from the following dispatches:

London, January 13-2:30 a. m.—The army under Gen. De Chanzy was completely defeated near Le Mans by the second German army, commanded by Prince Frederick Charles and the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg. The Germans occupied Le Mans, capturing large quantities of supplies and war material. The French are being pursued.

Special to the N. Y. Herald.

YERGEN, January 10.—The supply of ammunition will last for 18 days from today, and the surrender of Paris is believed certain before then.

YERGEN FOR FRANCE.

London, January 12.—A Vienna dispatch of the 11th says that Austria will continue peace, and that the proposals for a conference are being considered.

THE MONARCHIST.

London, January 14.—The bombardment of Paris yesterday was terrible. The whole district south of a line drawn through Portenouille, Champ de Mars, Hotel de la Ville, Luxembourg and Fort de Vincennes is now a vast field of ruins. The other portions of the city are perfectly safe.

Local Briefs.

Our warm weather has taken a cold. W. P. Mangruff is absent this week attending the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows at Hahamawoo. Fuchs—A Comforter, the owner can obtain it by calling at this office and paying for this notice. The communication from Novi entitled "That Very Neutral Position," will appear in our next issue. Go and see that fine lot of Checks at A. E. Rockwell's. Don't forget to hear the Poem to be read by Rev. A. J. Boell, at the Presbyterian church, Wednesday evening Jan. 21st. Mr. O. F. Whipple, of Novi, visited our saunter on the 19th, and added his name to our subscription list. More visitors to the same object will be received with pleasure. Mr. M. Lally has the contract for grading about nine miles of the Holly, Wayne & Monroe railroad, from this village north. Mrs. Alice Baker has disposed of her house and lot to Mr. Smith of Redford for $1,100. Mrs. Helen Smith, daughter of E. P. Kellogg, with one of her two children, returned lately from a six months visit among relatives in the east. The brothers, John and James Armstrong, of our village, received intelligence last week that a brother in Ottawa, Canada, was very dangerously ill and with no hopes of his recovery, requesting their presence. Both left on the 17th. Since our last issue the fine sleigh has disappeared; warm weather come and, every indication of April days have manifested but that we knew cold snaps were yet to arrive, we could have hailed the event with joy. We were favored on the 17th with a call from Mr. Andrew J. Fuller, formerly of this place, but at present residing in Hudson. Mr. F. was born and brought up in this vicinity, and comes now to visit relatives and friends for the first time in twelve years. He expects to return in about a week.
