THE STATE FAIR.

GENERAL GLIMPSE IN THI DIFERENT DEPARMENTS.

The Saginaw Valley Destined to be one of the Proudest Agricultural regions of the -State-

[From Our Special Reporter.]

The State Fair passed with the best of order; owing to the fact, that a strong and effective police force was on duty; and that all the officers connected with the Society took especial paint to me that every thing was well done in every direction; and none any the more so than Secretary C. F. Kimbal, lot Pontiac, who seems per-fectly fitted to his task and by his manly address has gained many warm friends On careful examination we conclude that all the various Depart ments were well up to the standard of State Pairs, except perhaps that of the Poulty exhibition, which was rather ordinary.

The Horse showing was grand and

THE recent arrival of exylice President Colfax in Denver recalls to mind/a half-drooten but never published incident growing out; of his famous urip across the plains in 1884 or 1883. At that time Capt. Humphreville's Company K, of the Eleventh Ohio Cavally. Volunteers, was stationed in garrison at Port Halleck, a small log fortress on the Greek and Stage Line, near the base of Medicine Bow Mountain. This fort has long time been abandored as a military post, the Pacific Railroad having the since been abandored as a military post, the Pacific Railroad having the military protection to stage-coaches unnor sarry. When Colfax and his Congressional party passed through Fort Halleck, the writer happened to be one of the detail of four soldiers ordered out as a special second or social to follog it is sufficiently be say the coach with its load of notas as facial second or social to follog it is sufficiently. We say the coach with its load of notas bles go dashing down the other side of the range, and with merry hearts and gleefel voices turind our horses for a gallog back to the fort. As we moved rapidly along through the sage brush and greasewood in the valley between Medicine Bow and the Elk Mountains a drove of sage-hens attracted our attention and separated our party. Fastl temptation! We little thought of the four and separated our party. Fastl temptation! We little thought of the four when with a chorus of horrible whoops and yells, a party of Stour, ode up our of a ravine which, with the sage-brush had concealed them from obser just empired his carbine at a sage pendigrouse, when with a chorus of horrible
