TOWN TALK.

Get your election printing at the RECORD steam printing office.

The revival services in the Baptist church show an increasing interest.

We shall be pleased to publish all canon's notices of this or adjoining towns.

One thousand dollars will buy a nice home within one block of the Baptist church.

South Lyon yearns for a lawyer. Of course she cannot be a first-class village without one.

A literary ice cream and cake social will be held at the Methodist parsonage this (Friday) evening.

One evening this week there were twenty boys in the Y. M. C. A. reading room at one time.

George Hueston's store is open again and he is running it as of old. His friends are glad to see him at his old stand again.

There will be services in the Presbyterian church on Sunday as usual. Rev. Mr. Lancashire, of Detroit, will act as supply.

Albert Johnson, better known as "Rip Van Winkle" called upon the Northville boys while at school at Ypsilanti last week.

We have a large stock of those ginned election slips and can supply every candidate in this and every adjoining township with them.

Wm Sanderson has bills out for an auction sale of his personal property on his farm Tuesday April 3. He has rented his farm and consequently the sale.

The ladies of the W. G. T. U. are making arrangements for getting up an old fashioned spelling school. They will hold it before the flowers begin to bloom.

Mr. W. H. Arribler's Sunday school class are arranging for an entertainment to be given in the church in the near future. It will probably be the evening of Monday March 28.

When you have friends visiting you or know of any item, write it down and drop it in our item box at the post office. Always sign your name, not for publication but that we may know from whom it comes.

As we predicted! a couple of weeks ago the Gale plow works, of Alton, are preparing to get a large bonus from Alton or else they will remove. Alton has snappet the bait and will give that company $30,000 to appease their avariciousness.

The village board of South Lyon are trying to shut out bill playing in that burg. They have passed an ordinance that it shall be unlawful to do so on any street, alley or vacant lot within the limits of the village. Wonder what the cranks will do now?

Mr. Allen who was deserted by her husband and has been so sick, and for whom we asked for charity last week is but little better if any. She has received considerable help and care from neighbors. One of her five children is now very low and not expected to live. She yet needs much help.

Lots—Since our forms went to press we learn the child is dead.

At the citizen's caucus last Friday evening the following named gentlemen were appointed as a committee: E. R. Reed, J. R. Nash and J. V. Harron. And at the workingmen's caucus A. H. Kohler, L. H. Sutton and A. B. Cook were appointed as their committee. For the report of their nominations see the report of the elections.

A new time table went into effect on the F. & P. M. Ry last Monday. The only change of trains leaving here in the day time is the train going north in the afternoon it leaves now at 1:27 instead of 2:24 heretofore. The night train that went north at 2:20 now goes at 3:55. This train that left Detroit at 11:30 at night now does not leave until 2:45 a. m.

The common council of every village should make the license so high that traveling auctions would be effectively barred from offering their goods in competition with legitimate tradesmen and residents of the place; or better still refuse them a license altogether. The merchant who has his capital invested should be protected against these snipes.

We can sell a new house and lot for $1,000, on contract, by payment of a few dollars down.

A correspondent writes the Plymouth Mail about the boys being out on the streets and places where they should not be evenings. Let that citizen start the idea of a free public reading room at that place for such youth and see, if he cannot inaugurate a movement for the benefit of such boys. One act in that direction is worth a whole volume of words.

The morning dailies have made arrangements to have their papers sent out on the line of this road much earlier than heretofore, and now the morning papers will be delivered here at 4:20 local time. Carriers will distribute them as early here as they will be delivered to city customers. This is an age of progress and much of it is due to the newspapers and railroads.

Our readers who smoke cigarettes may find food for reflection in the following from a gentleman who visited a factory and says that cigarettes are made of "cigar-butts picked up in the streets, barks of certain kinds, tobacco stems and refuse, heaped together in one filthy pile, and then saturated with opium, which gives the cigarette that soothing effect I desirable to all smokers." Ugh!

Last Sunday seven young ladies were admitted to the membership of the Presbyterian church. One thing worthy of notice was that thirty years ago that day, twenty-nine new members were received into the church among them Jane Hall (Mrs. Millerfield) and Miss Shepard (Mrs. Thomas Russell,) the mothers of Bertha Millerfield andabel Russell, who were admitted Sunday.

A desire has been expressed by several of the young men and boys of the place that the Y. M. C. A. reading room be kept open on Sunday so they can have a place to go and not stay on the streets. Consequently the officers have arranged to keep the room open from 10 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock in the evening and all are invited to attend. There will be ample present all of the time to maintain order in the room.

Theophilus of Plymouth township will open the spring campaign by holding their caucus in Amity Hall, Plymouth village, next Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, for the purpose of nominating a township ticket and electing eight delegates to attend the county convention to be held in Detroit Thursday, April 5th. All prohibitionists and all who intend voting with that party in the future are requested to attend.

Tuesday afternoon while the family of Charles E. Goodell, of Novi, were sitting in their house, neighbors came in and told them their house was on fire. They kept a grocery store in a building in connection with the house and nothing of the stock or household goods was saved. There was no insurance on any of the property. Mr. Goodell in connection with his store kept a covered wagon on the road selling groceries and was out canvassing at the time.

The National Harness Co's auction sale on Saturday last was stopped by the authorities on account of the proprietors refusing to pay their license, claiming that the goods offered for sale were consigned to a resident of this place. This theory was to implement to be accepted and an attachment was placed upon a portion of their stock and the sale allowed to proceed. Monday morning the consignment doige was abandoned, the much talked replevin suit given up and the license paid.—Brighton Citizen.

For the last week it has been rumored around town that A. N. Curtis was about to enter for the fifth time into the bonds of matrimony, with a maiden lady in Detroit by the name of Rose, and this morning he and Rev. Mr. Rose took the early train for the city and the knowing ones say that the wedding will come off to-day or tomorrow, when the happy couple will take a wedding trip to the east to spend the honeymoon. Success attend them.—Evening Correspondent of the Wayne Review. Mr. Curtis resided in this place for a number of years.

A STRANGE AFFAIR.

Last Tuesday evening a strange affair occurred either here or between this place and Wayne which is enshrouded in mystery and is awaiting a satisfactory solution. Willie Spencer an eighteen-year-old son of James Spencer who lives on the east line of Plymouth township is the subject. He says that while he was walking toward the depot here a couple of men came up behind him and knocked him in the head, that he immediately became unconscious and remembered nothing except the crossing of two bridges when he found himself in Wayne. He was brought back from Wayne Wednesday morning and Dr. Swift dressed his wound. He has a bad fracture in the forehead, a smashed nose, pounded eye, bruised shoulders, arm and hand. His nervous system was greatly shocked so that even at this time he is unable to completely control his actions or mind.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. K. F. Bunnell is very sick. S. H. Little, of Lansing, was in town over Sunday.

Albert Cobb is home this week nursing a severe cold.

Andrew Kingsbury, of Lappeer, is visiting relatives in town.

Mrs. Morrell Simmons, of Detroit, is visiting Mrs. B. A. Wheeler.

Charles Bennett, of St. Johns, visited with his editor's family several days this week.

Mrs. Oliver Westfall, of Northville, was in town part of last week.—Brighton Enterprise.

Arthur Allen, of Springport, Jackson Co., is spending a few days with Henry E. Hibborn.

Frank Stevens and wife, of Ypsilanti, were guests of J. H. Taylor and family over Sunday.

Myron J. Roberts and Rose Miller, both of this place, were granted a license last Monday to marry.

C. M. Thornton, Jr., has been called to Clinton County to act as auctioneer at an auction sale of farm implements.

H. A. Miller, of Ypsilanti, agent for the favorite White sewing machine was in town Thursday looking up trade.

Frank Harmon and wife left for their home near Omaha, Wednesday. They were accompanied as far as Chicago by Rev. G. P. Paddock, who goes to Minnesota to decide on accepting a call to a church there; also, by George Dean and John Kingman who are going to California to grow up with the country. All of these have been among our best citizens and it is with sorrow that we part with them. Northville will always have an interest in their welfare.

The Young Peoples society of the Methodist church are arranging for two entertainments, one by Prof. J. K. McCafferty, of the Detroit School of Elocution, and the other probably by the eminent artist and cartoonist Geo. D. Palmer, the rival of Thos. Nast. Prof. McCafferty will give his entertainment on Friday evening, March 23, 1888.

Tickets for the course 25 cents. They will be on sale next week. This course will give the people two good entertainments at small cost, either of these entertainments being well worth the cost of a ticket for the course. See small bills for further particulars.

Wednesday afternoon while Dean Griswold was hitching his team of colts to a land roller at the depot, they became scared and got away. They ran a short distance and stuck against Wild Jackson's dry when they became separated from the roller. They continued up town and in front of the M. S. F. Co's office ran into the back of Charles Noble's spring wagon turning it over and throwing the horses, wagon and himself into a pile on the ground. He escaped very fortunately from any serious bruises but his wagon looked as though a cyclone had struck it.

When the team started from the depot Edvard Horr, a brother of Dennis Horr, was holding them and was dragged under the roller. His injuries were a couple of broken ribs and some internal bruises. He is doing well at this time however.

GENERAL NEWS.

Dr. McGlynn is to have a monopoly of the anti-poverty business, the court on his application having granted as injunction restraining Henry George from organizing such societies.

The secretary of the treasury estimated that the destruction of paper money by fire, accident etc., has amounted to not less than $8,700,000.

Mrs. Ellen Miller of Trenton, N. J., has just received word that she, in company with six others, have been left $7,000,000 by an English attorney. Mrs. Miller is not surprised, as she knew her relative, Mrs. Miller Blake, was very rich, and that she intended to leave the money among her immediate relatives.

Commander Charles W. Pickering of the United States navy, died recently at St. Augustine, Fla., aged 57. He was in active service forty-six years. He was the only survivor of the crew which took out the Bear Flag exploring expedition many years ago and turned out afterward sailing to Graytown, Nicaragua to recover outrages on American citizens. He was the first commander of the fleet sent in to put down the filibuster's raid on the American vessels in the bay, which was said to be outside of Charlie too far to be a speedy boat in the evening of February 14, 1852.

Northville Record.

As a rule, an editor gets about 1,000 kicks to one ear. Once in a while he gets a kind word, and it warms and cheers his wither beaten, storm raked heart to the innermost core. Most people are afraid to tell an editor when he writes an article that particularly pleases them, for fear of making him proud, we suppose, but if they find anything that does not accord precisely with their views, they will neglect their business to beat him up and tell him of it! Pshaw! dear friends, don't think you will spoil the editor by giving him an occasional word of cheer, any more than you will spoil your child by complimenting it upon a piece of patchwork it has finished. Of course you could beat the job yourself, but that doesn't deter you from bearing words of encouragement on the child. It has done its best. So you could doubtless beat the average editor at running a paper? Of course you can. The man does not live who can't beat an editor at running a paper. The editor is willing to acknowledge that you can. He only runs it because you have not time to; but this fact need not deter you from giving him a word of encouragement occasionally.—Drastic, N. Y. brace.

CHURCH AND SALOON.

Among the most striking and effective matter published by the New York Voice in the interest of prohibition is its series of diagrams, charts and tables. These tell their story in a graphic manner which the monotony of typewritten facts. In its last issue the Voice gives comparisons largely made up from Dr. Fitchester's "Christianity in the United States," comparing the growth and power of the church and of the liquor traffic in this country since 1850.

The average citizen, confused by the strenuous and perfidious rhetoric of the prohibition advocate, will be not a little surprised to learn from these tables—after having been repeatedly warned of the growing influence of the rum power—that the proportion of ministers and church communicants to the population has steadily increased since 1850, while the proportion of liquor dealers to population has steadily diminished.

Thus, in 1850 there was one church to every 533 individuals and one minister to every 900, the proportion of population to each communicant being 6.57. In 1888 these figures had been changed so that there was one church for every 516 and one minister to every 692 of population, and the proportion of communicants had increased to one in 4.56. On the other hand, the saloons had decreased from one to every 250 of population in 1850 to one for every 277 in 1888.

The lesson which the Voice points out from the tables is "that while there is in the nation one liquor dealer with his vested interests in the traffic to every 277 of population, there is at the same time a church member to every four and eight-tenths people, bound by every sacred obligation to oppose the traffic to the uttermost." The Voice, however, is singularly silent on the fact that, notwithstanding the changes above noted, the consumption of liquor has just about doubled since 1850, when it was 6.43 gallons per capita; in 1888 it had risen to 12.62 gallons per capita—an increase much more than sufficient to offset any apparent advantage from the growth in the number of ministers and church members or the loss in the proportionate number of saloons.

FARM AND HOME

Best Size of Percheron Horses.

The French Government authorities have thoroughly investigated this subject and report adversely to the increase of size and weight in the Percheron horse, saying that it is carrying the thing to an unfortunate extreme; for what is gained in size is lost in activity, speed, pluck and endurance. It is to be hoped our importers will pay attention to this decision, and go back hereafter to the old style of medium size, etc., etc. For larger and slower-moving horses, it is better to crop the borders of France and Flanders for them, or continue the importation of the English Shire and the Scotch Clydesdale. These last are more suitable for the city trade, and medium-sized Percherons for farm and road work. The latter require quicker movement in the walk and trot, and these traits should not be neglected in breeding. As much more work is got from them during the day, while the horses thus bred are less fatigued by it than those of slower action. They are handy, docile, small consumers of food for their size, not liable to disease and quite enduring—in fact, perhaps the very best of horses for the farm, and also for such road work as teaming and ordinary driving, when an extra fast movement is not required, as is the case in the American trooper—American Agriculturalist.

Culture of Celery.

Celery is one of the most delicate and wholesome of vegetables. Every farmer's garden ought to have a bed of celery. Gardeners do not agree as to the best methods of culture any more than do wheat farmers agree about the best methods of wheat culture. But there are certain general principles that will apply and need not be discussed.

Celery seed does not germinate and grow rapidly. It needs moist soil constantly. And whether one uses horses or an ox to turn the soil must be left, now and then. In Kansas the seed may be sown any time from the 1st of March until the 1st of May.

FARMINGTON NEWS.

The village election held March 12, 1888, resulted in the following officers, vis: President, Dr. Joseph J. Moore; For Trustees full term, Edgar R. Bloomer, George F. Chamberlin, Byron M. Pierce; For Clerk, Judson J. Webster; For Treasurer, Gordon Webster; For Assessor, P. Dean Warner; For Constable, Thomas Hitchcock.

Forest Pierson, of Livonia, who has been working in Detroit was taken very sick and brought home by his parents in order that he might be treated by their family physician, Dr. J. J. Moore, of Farmington. Fred is now convalescent.

Mrs. William Daniels is quite sick at the present writing. Dr. E. Woodward attends her.

William Gibbs has been quite sick, but is now better.

Mr. Ledger Cowley is slowly improving in health.

The party held at the residence of John Pettibone Friday evening, March 9, was a success. Quite a number of the young people attended and all reported a good time.

A meeting for the election of new officers and teachers for the M. E. Sunday school will be held Friday evening, March 16.

Mrs. F. D. Clark is now visiting her sister at Utica.

Anyone wishing to have sewing or fancy work done, please call on Jessie L. White, Farmington.

WALLED LAKE.

Quarterly meeting was held in the Methodist church last Sabbath. Quite a good turn out despite the unpropitious weather. Elder Hazard received twenty-three into church fellowship, fifteen were baptised and eleven received on probation, nine of these last were from Novi. In the evening the Loyal Legion held their regular meeting. Rev. Mr. Sherwood read the scripture and made some remarks. Mr. Severance also spoke earnestly on the temperance question, his only trouble was in seeking for light, the sun rose in the west and set in the east.

Last week a pleasant evening was spent with Oliver Cronk and wife. It being their crystal wedding. A beautiful set of dishes was presented to them.

A reception is planned for the Rev. Mr. Sherwood the new Baptist pastor to take place at the parsonage next Friday. In the evening a social will be held at the home of Roswell Wesver.

Mr. Sherwood is to be married next Friday to Mrs. Olmstead, of Waterford.

Robert Brown is getting better slowly and expects to move to his farm in about three weeks.

The ice seems to hang on well, teams are still crossing the lake.

TWO of Wm. Penzel's daughters with their husbands are going to the summer stage before long.

Robert Carnes lost $5 in an ordinary saloon. Sorry for Bob. He will know better next time.

We hear bad news concerning your friend in Northville. [Did you ever say a good thing about a saloon?]
