

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

Vol. XXV, No. 17.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1893.

$1.00 per year, in advance.

Around the Country.

Plymouth has three fire companies and have ordered three hose carts and other complete equipments.

Farmington people are now obliged to go over to the hotel for a drink—cause the town pump's frizzed up tighter'n a jug.

The estate of R. A. Beal is the largest tax payer in Ann Arbor. This year its city, state and county tax amounts to $1,357.69.

A home for feeble minded men should now be made for the committee who selected Lap-er as the "home for feeble minded women." Where is Lap-er anyway?

Wayne's new depot is all furnished but it isn't of any use for people can't get to it. There is no sidewalk built and its a stand all the time between two feet of mud or snow.

Charley Curtis has opened up a new bologna sausage factory at Wayne, and the city fathers have since abandoned the dog pond and discharged the village poodle catcher.

The council at Holly have ordered the chief of police to suppress the sale of the Detroit Sunday Sun in that village. The scurly sheet was driven out of Northville some years ago.

Pontiac's sewer election earned "yes" last week. The results show that the kickers were mostly men past seventy and never cared a continental whether the city had another improvement or not. Lasmuch as they expected to soon leave for parts unknown.

Nearly 16,000 couples have been married in Wayne county since the license law went into effect, but still Editor's Haven of the Wyandotte Herald and Bailey of the Wayne Review, the only unmarried news paper men in the county, hang on the singular side of life with tenacious grip.

The Pontiac Republican says, "the counter on our press registers 1,247." That's nothing the counter on our press registers 1,459. In fact it has registered that number every week for six months past, and it will register that amount for six months to come, unless we get it fixed. The darn thing is broke.

Geo. C. Allworth started up the condensed milk factory again on Monday with better prospects than ever before. His brands of milk and cream have become well established throughout the Dominion and we see no reason why this factory should not be one of the most successful in the country. —Aylmer, Ontario Express

There's a lawyer-up at Fenton named Tinker; a judge named Wait; an undertaker named Rubottom; a doctor named Sue and an auctioneer named Stile. Quite a combination. Now if Rubottom should knock the top off the "Stile" and he in turn should undertake to "Sue" him we wonder if they would have to "Wait" long before they could "Tinker" up a law suit?

Samuel B. Adams, a well known Newport, Monroe county, farmer is seventy-four years old and is as hale and hearty as most men at fifty. He has one of the finest 160 acre farms in the state, and with the aid of one man accomplishes the entire farm labor, excepting of course through harvest time, the season through. Few farmers in the country do more work the year around than does Mr. Adams.

"We don't want any one chewing gum here," said Rev. Sam. Betters the other evening at church. "I see at least seven women chewing gum. If there's anything I hate to see it's any one with the mouth a-going yum-yum-chew-chew. There's one old girl back there about forty-five chewing gum. Ain't you ashamed, old girl?" It is said that several women nearly choked in their efforts to swallow their "cud" and one did not dare to chew so long a time her jaws were stuck together. Next time the women go to hear Sam they'll leave their gum at home. —Oxford Cor Orion Review.

3 MORE BURGLARS.

Clothing and Jewelry Store Broken into Tuesday Night.

THERE'S LUCK IN ODD NUMBERS

There Was Three of Them As Usual.

Three more bad burglars forced an entrance into Rockwell's jewelry store Tuesday night by boring out the panel of the back door. The big burglar proof safe which contained all the jewelry was probably too much for them to carry off and they only took a pair of gloves so far as discovered, and these they left in Johnson & Co's clothing store next door where they evidently found hand coverings more to their fancy. The trio gained an entrance into Johnson & Co's by breaking a rear window glass. Here two of the fellows selected entire outfits, including underclothing, socks, shirts, coats, pants, vests, gloves, hats and overcoats. In addition to this duplicate outfit, one boys overcoat, size 18, is missing showing that there was evidently two men and one boy in the affair. The thieves left two complete outfits, a little the worse for wear in place of the ones taken.

In Rockwell's store was found a chisel with H. O. Waid's name on the handle, showing that Mr Waid's shop had been visited in order to obtain an op-n saw-into the Union block stores.

Johnson & Co figure their loss at about $75. Detective White is looking after the case.

Evangelistic Services.

The union gospel meetings began at the Methodist church on Tuesday evening, Rev. Arnold preaching from II Kings 4:26, "Is it well with thee, etc?" There was a good audience and excellent interest. There is no question that this will prove a campaign of real value.

Rev. F. A. Smart, the ex-business man, pushing pastor and successful evangelist comes Saturday to lead on the hosts for ten days or two weeks. He will be accompanied by Mr. G. H. McLachlan a sweet singer and consecrated worker.

Rev. John L. Nevius, D. D. Dead.

News has been received by relatives here of the death of Rev. John L. Nevius, D. D. for over forty years a missionary to China. He will be remembered by many in this community having visited Northville each time he has returned to the United States, making a short visit here about a year and a half ago for the last time. He had seemed in better health for some months past than at the time of their return to Chefoo last year; was able to work on the bible revision and translation all summer, had finished the part assigned him and had begun going over the work of some other members of the committee. His death occurred on the 19th of October as he was engaged in conversation with his physician who had just been called in as his hear was troubling him somewhat, and was with a smile about to speak when his head fell forward—there was a few short breaths and he was gone. Thus passed away one of the best known missionaries in the foreign field. The letter says he "was so beloved that both the native and foreign community feel his death a personal bereavement."

THE RECORD.

F. S. NEAL, Publisher.

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN.

Another infernal machine has exploded in Marquette without doing very serious damage.

How fortunate it is that these machines are usually more infernal in intention than they are in execution.

It seems to be as hard to invent an infernal machine that will really work as to invent a flying machine that will really fly.

GASOLINE is an expensive fuel in the end although its first cost is trifling.

People continue to risk their lives and their property by using gasoline because it costs a few cents less per gallon than nonexplosive oil.

The oil inspectors seem to have no authority to prevent its sale and the underwriters pay losses caused by its use.

So long as this state of affairs continues the crop of explosions and fires will not diminish. Some people will take any chances in order to save ten cents a week.

That some of them are blown up or burned to death does not deter others. The case is apparently hopeless.

THERE has been a great influx of idle men into San Francisco and other towns on the Pacific coast during the past few weeks, and the question of what to do for them or with them has become very prominent and serious.

Most of them are tramps of the ordinary, disreputable species, but there are also many honest workmen out of employment among the army that has besieged the coast.

These men have been coming into California, beating their way on freight and passenger trains, sometimes fifty to a hundred in a single company.

They have captured freight trains, and the railroad companies have notified the freight conductors to permit them to ride, because the gangs are so numerous they can cause serious trouble, and have done so where transportation was refused.

It is gratifying to know that the government of Guatemala has decided to "emancipate the laboring classes."

It was not a matter of general information that the so-called lower classes in Guatemala were practically in a state of slavery, but it seems they have really been the serfs of the government, its military agents being at liberty to take them in hand and put them to work whenever it pleased the authorities to do so.

An insight is thus afforded to the grotesque farce of republican government in Guatemala. Instead of the people running the government it bosses the people and puts them in servitude at its will.

These military republics to the south of us are the greatest humbugs in all creation. But the news that the so-called president's decree of emancipation of the Guatemalan laboring classes will go into effect March 15 next is a note of real progress.

THE existence of a lively military spirit among Americans was made manifest at the outbreak of the civil war. The most eager fighters were the volunteers. But a civil war is not the best, nor a good, test of the military spirit. It takes a war with a foreign power to bring fully into play this quality in a race or nation.

It is apparent that if we should have trouble with any other country the government could bring out a million volunteers in a week. The American people may not have the old Scotch zeal for fighting—they would not rather fight than eat—but undoubtedly they have a warlike enthusiasm fully equal to that of any other modern nation.

The rush of men to volunteer for service on the lately purchased warships of the Brazilian government, fitted out in the port of New York, is an illustration of this spirit. The lieutenant who had the shipping of the men in charge turned hundreds away.

GERMAN doctors some years ago came forward to protect the German breeders of hogs from American competition, by starting a false report that American pork was infected with trichina.

The scheme worked—Bismarck, who is one of the greatest land holders in the German empire, was then at the head of affairs, and he made this slander on American pork a pretext for excluding it from the empire.

This made pork dearer than ever in Germany, and was one of the causes of the low price of pork in this country for many years. Now there is a demand in Germany for American hogs, and German chemists are brought to the front again to declare it less nutritious than German-grown hogs.

Besides, they fear that with American hogs now and dangerous insect pests will be introduced. It is an idle fear, but this time it cannot hurt American farmers as the other did. Germany must now either import large quantities of American hogs or grain or it must lessen its live stock and be more dependent upon this country for pork and beef.

A DENTIST at Birmingham, England, has just been mulcted in $250 damages for the extraction of the whole of the teeth of a married woman. She only asked him to extract one tooth. Previous to the operation she testified she could eat a crust or pick a bone with anyone.

THE Camperdown, the vessel which rammed the Victoria, is again cruising in the Mediterranean in company with the ships of the British squadron. Rear Admiral Markham is in command.

THE PUBLIC DEBT.

The Statement Issued by the Treasury Shows a Big Increase.

Washington special: The public debt statement shows the net increase of the public debt, less cash in treasury, during the month of November to have been $9,716,495.

The interest-bearing debt increased $180. There was a decrease in the cash balance in the treasury during the month of $7,094,674.

The interest-bearing debt is $535,039,329 and the debt bearing no interest $374,589,716, a total debt of $909,629,045.

The certificates and treasury notes offset by an equal amount of cash in the treasury amount to $399,229,302, an increase during the month of $11,019,441.

The net gold reserve is $32,959,049 and the net cash balance $12,240,367, a total available balance of $45,199,416, a decrease since the first of November of $7,094,674.

The total cash in the treasury is $734,820,433. The receipts of the government for the month of November were $23,979,491 and the expenditures $31,892,926.

The expenditures on account of pensions during the present fiscal year amount to $59,431,572 against $65,431,795 for the same time last year.

The customs receipts this fiscal year have fallen off $23,589,830 and the internal revenue receipts $7,666,678, as compared with last year.

The total gold in the treasury, coin and bullion, is $161,123,128, the gold certificates in treasury cash $143,090, the gold certificates in circulation $75,163,079 and net gold in the treasury $32,959,049.

Sensational Double Suicide

A dramatic double suicide occurred at the Virginia Hotel, Chicago.

The dead bodies of Victor Cyrus, a young French drug clerk, and of Mrs. L. E. Carson, the wife of a druggist in whose employ Cyrus recently was, were found in the same room by a chambermaid.

The woman, who was several years the senior of Cyrus and a beautiful little brunette, had died of poison.

Cyrus had shot himself three times and died stretched across the foot of the bed in which the woman lay.

Mrs. Carson and Cyrus had been at the hotel several days and were known as Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Lapointe, under which name Cyrus registered as from St. Paul.

They had conducted themselves like persons of refinement and were apparently very happy together. Cyrus was single while Mrs. Carson had left her husband and three children.

Michigan special: The Michigan association held its annual meeting and elected its officers, and voted to have its next annual banquet on Jan. 25.

The new officers are: Frank H. Hosford, of Detroit, president; W. J. McGee, of Marshall, vice-president; Benjamin F. Harlan, of Grand Rapids, secretary, and A. W. Bingham, of Jackson, treasurer.

An executive committee, consisting of Henry H. Smith, of Kalamazoo; William B. Thompson, of Hudson; Henry Sherwood, of Bredsville; Van Buren county, Alexander Grant and E. B. Moore, of Grand Rapids, was then appointed, and several new members, including Private Secretary Thurber, Assistant Secretary Uhl, Henry A. Robinson and others were elected.

New French Cabinet

Paris cable: President Carnot has experienced great trouble in securing a new cabinet; several prominent men he called upon to form a cabinet either refusing altogether or failing in the attempt.

M. Casimir-Perier, who won considerable notoriety during the Panama investigation in the chamber of deputies, has at last succeeded.

The new list is as follows: Premier and minister of foreign affairs, M. Casimir-Perier; minister of interior, M. Raynaud; minister of finance, M. Burdeau; minister of education, M. Spullier; minister of justice, M. Dabose; minister of commerce, M. Marty; minister of war, Gen. Mercier; minister of works, M. Jonnat; minister of husbandry, M. Viger; minister of the colonies, M. Druze; minister of marine, Admiral Lefevre.

Foster's Finances

The creditors' committee having charge of the affairs Foster & Co., visited ex-Secretary Foster at Fostoria, O., in reference to the plan of settlement first decided upon—the acceptance of 50 per cent in full of all claims and to them the ex-secretary stated that he thought a settlement could be made on that basis; at least he was confident that he could raise the necessary funds. Mr. Foster stated today that he would be ready to meet the committee, and would be prepared to make a favorable proposition to them. If this step is taken it will result in the withdrawal of the suits recently filed and stop all litigation.

Servia in a Critical Condition

London cable: A dispatch from Vienna says: A mistaken foreign policy has placed Servia in a dangerous position. A complete change in her system is necessary to avert a financial catastrophe and a conflict with Austria. The internal conditions of the country are desperate and there is no money to pay army and government officials. For this condition the radical government is responsible as in order to remain popular it failed to fully levy taxes.

Canada Don't Want Reciprocity

Hon. MacKenzie Bowell, Canadian minister of trade and commerce, now in Australia, is reported to have said that Canada will not renew the reciprocity treaty with the United States. If Canada is to have free trade relations with all she must be at liberty to extend them to the mother country. Imperial federation, he said, was a fine theme for idle moments, but it is not a practical question in Canada.

Female Scout Dead

Mrs. Fryer, better known as "Pauline Cushman," the noted female scout of the rebellion, died at San Francisco, Cal., from the effect of a dose of morphine which she took some time during the night, but whether accidentally or with suicidal intent has not been determined.

George McKay, a Deratur local option law violator, has been sentenced to 60 days in jail.

Mrs. Thomas Dennis, of North Branch, fell and broke her thigh and hip, proved fatal in a few hours.

WILLIS STILL WAITING.

Hawaii in the Hands of the Provisional Government and Willis is Uncertain.

The barkentine Kikickit, Capt. Cutler, has arrived at Port Townsend, Wash., from Honolulu, with advices to Nov. 20, four days after the steamer Alameda sailed for San Francisco.

In an interview published in the Evening Star, Minister Willis is reported to have said: "You are authorized to state that no change in the present situation will take place for several weeks. I brought with me certain instructions from the United States government in the Hawaii situation. Since my arrival the United States government has not yet decided upon a course of action which neither the United States government nor myself were aware when I left Washington. I have thought best, in exercise of the discretion allowed, to submit those matters to Washington before proceeding further to carry out my original instructions. No one need fear trouble and no lawlessness will be permitted."

Capt. Cutler in an interview said: "Minister Willis told me he was surprised to meet so many broad-minded, law-abiding and thoroughly intelligent people in Hawaii. Willis, who is religiously inclined, to a considerable extent associated with the missionary element in the islands and came in contact with the ablest, most of whom are strongly opposed to the restoration of the monarchy and especially to the queen, on account of her supposed unbecoming conduct. This class of citizens were careful to see that Willis was correctly informed of certain facts that Blount did not choose to consider."

The Honolulu Commercial Advertiser in commenting upon Minister Willis' interview, as above, says: "He added that any attempt made by any person or persons who tried to make trouble would be promptly checked and punished. Were the representative of any other power near the Hawaiian government to take such declaration, there is no doubt that not only this government, but also the United States would resent it in the most energetic manner as unlawful interference with the internal affairs of this independent nation. We do not question the propriety of Mr. Willis' declaration. We simply point out that the government of the United States holds itself charged with the special duty of maintaining public order and security in Hawaii. To this extent at least America exercises partial protection over this country."

San Francisco special: The United States revenue cutter Corwin sailed from here at midnight. Her destination is a secret, but it is supposed she is going to Honolulu with instructions for Minister Willis. It is reported that one of the sailors on the Corwin has been bribed to take dispatches from Minister Thurston to President Dole.

Kalamazoo: Arrested for Assault

John H. Burke, a wealthy liquor dealer of Kalamazoo was arrested on a capias in a damage suit for $10,000 for criminal assault preferred by Mrs. Carrie A. Deal. Mrs. Deal's complaint alleges the offense was committed November 1 when she and Burke were alone in the house where she was employed as a domestic. Burke claims blackmail.

The Viking Ship Sank

Cable from Buda-Pesth says that the Viking ship, which was on exhibition at Chicago, and which was on her return from the United States to Christiania, has been wrecked in the Bay of Biscay and sunk. Her captain and crew were saved by the Austro-Hungarian steamer Deakadia.

Weekly Review of Trade

New York, December 4.—R. G. Dun's weekly review of trade conditions says: Business during the past week has grown better or worse. For some days the gain in demand and in transactions which had been previously noticed evidently continued. But afterwards tariff uncertainties were thought to affect some branches of business and whatever the cause, the state of trade was less clear. Money was everywhere abundant, with rates comparatively low and the commercial demand was remarkably small, while the demand for speculative uses appeared to be increasing. The volume of trade has been small, increasing and yet not as much as expected. Wheat is slightly stronger, western receipts being considerably smaller than in recent weeks. The export are also remarkably small. Corn is unchanged in price with heavy western receipts and large exports. Pork and hog products are practically unchanged, as are also the prices of a shade lower. At present the iron industry shows no sign on the whole. It is questionable whether the working force employed is larger than it was a week ago. The cotton manufacturer enjoys a decided improvement because the market is in absolute need of more cotton. Apples and other fruits are in good supply. The market for loans amounting to many millions which were voted in Europe to avert a crisis last summer, hence it is that the condition of the treasury commands attention, with its total cash reserve down to $40,000 and its available gold only $15,000,000. Failures during the last week numbered only 77, a slight increase for the same time last year and in Canada, against 33 last year.

Romeo has voted to light its streets with electricity.

Abel Stein & Co. of New York City, importers of goat skins, niles, etc., the largest firm of the kind in the United States, has failed. They do a business of $5,000,000 per year.

The Noanatum Worsted Company with mills at Newton, Mass., has formerly notified its 300 operatives that the reduction of the tariff by the proposed new law will make it absolutely necessary to reduce wages or stop the mills. These mills have been operated for 14 years without interruption.

Remember one thing about excellence in pneumatic tires. There must be an inner tube removable through the rim. Victors are built that way and they lead the world. The most elegant bicycle catalog ever seen is yours if you say so.

Everyone seemed in for a good time and altogether they had it. The hall was finely decorated and presented a very nice appearance. The hall itself is something that the Plymouth people can well be proud of. The ventilations are perfect. It has on the right and left of the stairway a large and spacious dressing room, one for ladies and one for gentlemen. There will be some elegant parties given there this winter which doubtless will be well attended.

Editor Record,
I notice that notwithstanding his declaration of last week, Mr. Belding again on the warpath, yet I fancy his best friends will regret he did not adhere to his resolution and retire with what grace he might from the very foolish and embarrassing position he placed himself in.

I am aware that all intelligent readers are of the opinion that his letter does not deserve notice. I do not write to refute proof of which there is none, but to repeat his unworthy attempt to offer to name the stigma of falsehood. You, Mr. Editor, know it was my wish to have the pronouncement of the protestant clergy, printed in full, but as that could not be done I sent you a copy of the paper for the express purpose of giving an opportunity to every protestant who cared to do so, to read and judge for himself. I again invite attention to the document, for in it will be found a complete refutation by gentlemen whose motives are beyond suspicion of the calumnies raked up by Mr. Belding.

The rest of the letter bears the impress of the man's mind as reflected in his former effort, viz. reckless assertion, unwarrantable assumption and complete disregard for the rules and amenities of debate. I will just give one instance as a fair sample of the rest. He gives a quotation over the name of Bishop O'Connor. The public will hardly be surprised to learn, considering what they now know of Mr. Belding's style of argument that there is no Bishop O'Connor in the U. S. No catholic Bishop ever made the statement in question. The sentiment it embodies is as opposed to catholic teaching as it is repugnant to enlightened American opinion—the statements attributed to the popes are equally groundless. Mr. Belding has allowed himself to be imposed upon by unscrupulous forgers and calumniators. His sweeping assertion about Spain and the historians is also contrary to fact. All the writers mentioned (with perhaps the exception of Gibbon who was condemned denying the divinity of Christ) are read in every good catholic school yet Mr. Belding bases his claim to the respect and confidence of his people on his "correctness of statement."

With these few remarks I beg to take leave of him and his charges. He sounded his trumpet "on account of the recent doings and utterances of catholic leaders." Where are his proofs and authorities fearing on anything real or recent? Echo answers where?

W. C. Sauer, civil engineer and map publisher of Detroit, has just finished a very complete and exhaustive work
—atlas of Wayne county. The book is large, containing seventy-nine plates, and accurate, being approved by the county officials and township supervisors. Mr. Sauer is at present making a canvass and delivery of this county. A copy of the work may be seen at this office.

Two new and handsome stained glass transom sign windows, the work of Frank Woodman of Detroit, have been put in at the Park house. Mr.
Woodman has also just completed an elegant hang-out light for the Uniform Rank, K. of P. This work of our former Northville boy is highly artistic and reflects great credit on his skill.
We understand that Mr. Woodman and his partner are doing an extensive business in this line in Detroit.

The Northville Record seems to feel a little sore toward the Republican.
We don't blame him any. When an agent of his paper goes over a road within a stone's throw of his office and can't get a subscriber and our agent follows him within an hour and seizes five names inside of a mile, that he couldn't get, he ought to be mad. It's enough to provoke a saint.
—Pontiac Republican.

Now we assure the Republican that quite to the contrary the RECORD has only the most friendly feelings towards the Republican and instead of being sore we always admire the real success of others. We should like to know however if those "five names" were the ones the Republican traded for those election roosters or the ones they exchanged for the washing machine.

Saturday evening at the library was a very enjoyable one. Miss Dubuar's Beethoven-Sonata showed through training and should be a stimulus to our younger players to work to the same end. Miss Thompson gave a spirited rendering of Jennie MacNeil and Miss Clark captured us with a recitation whose name we don't know.
The feature of the evening was the playing of several selections by Miss Blodgett, the Chopin Etude and the Rubinstein waltz were delightfully given. The following joined the library: James Hamilton, Dr. Blanchard, Charles Northrop, Mrs. H. E.
Lake, Mrs. Geo. I. Bradley, Mrs. L. A.
Yerkes, Mrs. M. E. Barnhart, Mrs.
Spencer Clark, Misses Steer, Effie
Risner, Camilla Risner.

The new reading room had a very successful opening Monday evening.
Dr. Swift gave a very interesting and logical talk. He said that young men should cultivate a taste for deeper and more sound literature. He believed that nine-tenths of the fiction now in circulation and in the homes of the people should be consigned to the fire. "Study politics," says the doctor.
"Not in its narrow partisan, backbit-ting and slanderous ways, but in its broadest sense. It is the corner stone of all that is good and elevating which we as American citizens hold dear."
"Shallow headed people," said the doctor, "are denoted by their giggling and frivolity." "Read logic and rhetoric." It was a splendid discourse and highly enjoyed by the large number present. The hall, which had been so kindly donated by the ladies library association, was this morning opened. The tables were filled with the leading periodicals and newspapers of the day while games and other amusements, and writing material was provided the entertainment of others. The library association have kindly tendered the use of all the books in the library free of charge.
There are many dollars worth of valuable books in the building and this kindness on the part of the association will doubtless be highly appreciated.

THE MICHIGAN NEWS

OF MORE OR LESS IMPORTANCE
CONDENSED.

Textile State of Affairs in the Poverty Stricken Mining Country in the Upper Peninsula as Seen by an Investigating Committee.—Accidents, Fires, Etc.

That the condition of the poor, unemployed miners in the Gogebic range in the upper peninsula of Michigan is worse than was reported has been clearly shown by the tour of the members of the investigating committee of Michigan citizens. This committee is composed of W. C. Maybury, R. H. Effe and Eben W. Cretzler, prominent Detroiters. The committee's work was to look thoroughly into the needs of the destitute miners in the snow-bound regions that the people of the state might act intelligently in their giving.

The first place the committee visited was Ironwood. This town was found in terrible straits; the epidemic of typhoid fever which took away scores of the inhabitants had left many homes without a head, the widows and orphans were without support all summer and now when the snow is two feet deep and old Boreas send the mercury tobogganing down to several notches below the circle the poorly clad, hungry little ones huddle together in the cottages trying to keep warm. Public funds of the local charities were long since exhausted.

At Iron Mountain the people were in as great want as at Ironwood. At Bessemer the snow was deeper, the houses more scattered the opportunity to aid the suffering is made difficult from the fact that travel over the hills in three feet of snow with cutting winds and frosts from all sides is anything but an agreeable task. At least 2,000 people will have to be clothed and fed in Bessemer until the snow melts next year.

Waukegan is a town built up with rude shacks, by courtesy called houses. There are five mines to support the town ordinarily. Three of these closed down last spring and the other two in August. Usually there are about 1,500 in the town, but many have left since the mines closed. A number of men were given work by the authorities until the snow stopped that, and now the town is as utterly dead as can possibly be, there not being work enough to keep one boy busy and not a penny in circulation. Between 800 and 900 people must be kept alive here by the generosity of Michigan's more fortunate citizens.

The investigation committee reports that there are very few cases of imposition, that everybody can help his neighbor does so; that aid is seldom asked except when absolutely necessary, that the distributing and relief committees in the different places are thoroughly reliable; that although in want the people keep their homes in the best order and are extremely neat and clean; that all warm winter clothing intended for these people should be sent at once; that everything direct should be addressed to the Michigan County Relief committee, Ironwood, Mich., by whom it will be faithfully distributed.

For food distribution at the various points a big store will be established and each head of a family will be credited with so much per individual for the month, and be permitted to draw that in provisions as he needs them. In connection with this the expert figures on what they will allow each person to sustain life is interesting. For a family of four the following will be allowed: 100 pounds of flour, 15 pounds of pork, 10 pounds of beans, 3 pounds of sugar, 10 pounds of oatmeal, 4 pounds of rice, 1 bushel of potatoes, 6 bars of soap, 10 cents worth of yeast, 5 pounds of lard, 1 pound of tea and 1 gallon of molasses. This will cost a little less than $3 per individual per month.

State Teachers' Convention.
The program for the 43d annual meeting of the Michigan State Teachers' association to be held in Representative Hall, Lansing, December 26, 27 and 28, has been completed and it embraces many attractive features. On Tuesday, the 27th, a reception will be given by Gov. Rich and Superintendent H. R. Pantegill. Besides papers, addresses, etc., by the leading educators of the state several prominent scholars from other states will contribute to the interest.

Among them a paper on "Manual Training," by Prof. H. H. Belland, of the Chicago Manual Training school; "The Spirit of the Teacher," Hon. A. S. Draper, of Cleveland, O., and an address on "A Teaching Profession."

In connection with the meeting of the state association there will be an exhibit of the work of the schools of the state. Exhibits will be confined to the following subjects: Kindergarten work—Paper folding, sewing, clay modeling, painting, color work. Language work—First, eighth grades. Geography—Grades three, four, five and six, map of North America; third grade, map outline; fourth grade, outline with mountains, rivers and 10 cities; fifth and sixth grades, a product map with the cities and rivers before mentioned. Any written work deemed desirable by the teacher. In order that all shall have a fair chance, the exhibit will be divided into three classes: Class A, rural schools; class B, village schools employing from two to ten teachers; class C, city schools.

Fatal Sledging Accident.
Mrs. David Judson was mortally injured at Benton Harbor by being thrown from a sleigh against a water hydrant. Her horse became frightened while she was waiting for her husband to do some errands, and ran like a wild horse through the streets. She was partially crippled from paralysis and about 70 years of age.

An English capitalist has submitted a proposition to put in a deep water channel between Grand Haven and Grand Rapids and charge toll to pay him for his investment.

U. P. Mines Resuming Work.

Special from Ishpeming: The Winthrop mine employees, who went out on a strike, have returned to work under the old wage agreement. They will be given a cash payment this month, as was promised them in July when Mr. Braastad assumed control of the mine. The Lake Superior Iron Co. also resumed operations at their section 16 mine, taking on 173 men.

Negaunee: The Escanaba River Land & Iron Co., owners of the Swanzy mine, have resumed operations in one shaft at that mine. The mine has not been wrought since Oct. 1. About 25 men will be employed.

Republic: The Republic mine has resumed operations with a force of 150 men. A few more men will be taken on later.

University School of Music.

The new building of the University School of Music, costing, completed, $15,000, was dedicated at Ann Arbor with appropriate ceremonies. The building is the outgrowth of a desire to see higher music taught and flourish in the University city. The new building is to serve as the home of all the musical societies of the university. Addresses of congratulation upon the completion of the beautiful structure dedicated to music were made by Prof. Francis W. Kelley, president of the school; President Angell, of the university; Prof. A. A. Stanley, of the university and director of the School of Music; Prof. Dupont, president of the Choral Union; Prof. Pease, of the State Normal Conservatory of Music, and others.

Nearly Killed for Only $5.

A stranger called Mr. Gombberg's house at Muskegon after he had closed his store for the night and asked him to go to his (Gombberg's) store and sell him some feed. The store adjoins Gombberg's residence. Gombberg didn't return and his wife, becoming alarmed, went to the store and found him lying insensible and bleeding from wounds on the head. He revived long enough to say that while doing up the feed for the man the stranger knocked him down and took between $6 and $8 out of his pockets and that the man drove a white horse. Gombberg has been conscious only at brief intervals since the attempted murder but it is thought if he could only talk that he would be able to state who his assailant was. Gombberg's condition is serious and he may not live.

Probably a New Professor at the M. A. C.

Secretary Baker of the state board of health appeared before the state board of agriculture and urged the establishment of a chair of hygiene and bacteriology at the Agricultural college. President Wells, Dr. Milner, of Grand Rapids, Prof. Fall, of Albion college, and Prof. Vaughn, of the University, constituting a majority of the board of health, endorsed Dr. Baker's recommendations, and the latter joined him in recommending for the position Prof. F. W. Brewer, who for the past year and a half has been superintendent of the bureau of hygiene in the department of liberal arts at the World's Fair. The board took the matter under advisement.

Costly Blaze at Milan.

The brick stores of Mrs. Phoebe Eel-sey in Milan were burned out. The loss by fire and damage of moving is estimated to be from $15,000 to $20,000. The insurance is very light, probably not over $7,000. This is the second time within a few years that the business blocks have suffered from a severe fire.

While hunting near White Pigeon W. O. Hollar, a car inspector, received a charge of shot in his arm. Amputation necessary.

Alex. Graham, of Standish, was thrown from his wagon by a runaway horse and injured his leg so badly that it had to be amputated. He may not survive.

The eight-months-old child of Mrs. Joseph Luchinski died in a peculiar manner at West Bay City. The mother supports herself selling milk and left the child in charge of an aunt. The little one was using a nursing bottle when the rubber nipple came off and lodged in its throat, choking it to death.

THE HIGHEST AWARD.

Royal Baking Powder Has All the Honors
—Is Standard and Value 20 Per Cent.

The Royal Baking Powder has the enviable record of having received the highest award for articles of its class—greatest strength, purest ingredients, most perfectly combined—wherever exhibited in competition with others. The result at the Chicago World's Fair is no exception. In the exhibitions of former years, at the Centennial, at Paris, Vienna and at the various State and Industrial fairs, where it has been exhibited, judges have invariably awarded the Royal Baking Powder the highest honors.

At the recent World's Fair the examinations for the baking powder awards were directed by the chief chemist of the Agricultural Department at Washington. The chief chemist's official report of the tests of the baking powders, which was made for the specific purpose of ascertaining which was the best, shows the leavening strength of the Royal to be 160 cubic inches of carbonic gas per ounce of powder. Of the cream of tartar baking powders exhibited, the next highest in strength tested contained but 133 cubic inches of leavening gas. The other powders gave an average of 111. The Royal, therefore, was found of 20 per cent greater leavening strength than its nearest competitor, and 44 per cent above the average of all the other tests. Its superiority in all the other tests, its purity, its quality of the food it makes as to fineness, delicacy and wholesomeness, could not be measured by figures.

It is these high qualities, known and appreciated by the women of the country for so many years, that have caused the sales of the Royal Baking Powder, as shown by statistics, to exceed the sale of all other baking powders combined.

SIGNIFICANT SIGNS

The Eternal Fitness of Things as Seen by the Gay Parisians.

The eternal fitness of things is never lost sight of by Parisians. Even their shop signs, are carefully adapted to the character of the wares they advertise. Every place where things are sold, from the largest to the smallest, has its designation. Some of the names are pretty, some odd and grotesque; some have an inwardness of meaning that has to be sought after perhaps, but when found its application is unforgetfully good.

Probably the most familiar illustration is the great establishment known to all the civilized world as "Au Bon Marche." Be not too literal, oh student with small knowledge of French. This does not mean the good market, as some have translated it, but "At the cheap place." A florist's place is called "The Crown of Peace," and when you see that it is near a cemetery you acknowledge the appropriateness of the name. "The Little Balcony" inscribed over a balcony gay with flowers is an attractive name for a wine shop. There's quite room enough for a few chairs round a table holding a bottle of wine and glasses. In order to get the full meaning of one old sign, "Better Here than Opposite," one must learn that a prison once stood across the way from it.

The "Miraculous Draught of Fishes" is seen over both a fishing tackle shop and a fish market on the banks of the Seine. Many shops which sell kindling wood and small fuel have the suggestive sign, "Diabolical Charcoal." The curiosity and the odds and ends shops continue the idea in their fanciful appropriate names. Of these are "At the Knock-knocks of Bygone Times," "At the Old Times," "At the Masoch," etc.

The chemists rarely have any sign besides the names of the dealers, but here is a rather nice one: "At the Pharmacy of the Pastor," the little shop standing near a church. Dairies are often named after saints. For restaurant names, "The Delicacies of a Palace," on the one hand, and "At the Pewter Dish" on the other, form about as great a contrast as could be found. And for a shoe shop what could be more delightful than "Cinderella's Shoes?"

Anything for Money.

Some people will do anything for money. Recently two physicians advertised in New York for a man who would submit to a surgical operation which might possibly be fatal, in consideration of $5,000. They received 142 replies, the greater number of which were bona fide.

UNUSUAL HAPPENINGS.

Adolphus Omborg died in Rome, Ga., recently, from a mosquito bite on the foot.

Lightning struck a tree in Ditchburg, N. Y., the other day, and laid open a cavity filled with choice honey. But not a bee, dead or alive, was visible.

Heaven furnished horseshoes to Frank Morris' horse at Worthington, W. Va. Some years ago an aerolite fell near there which contained iron, which was smelted out and made into horseshoes.

The wind blew the flag from the staff over a police station near Philadelphia, lately and fastened it around a neighboring telegraph pole, from which it floated proudly, not only by the dawn's early light, but during the day.

The new Congressional library in Washington will, Librarian Spofford estimates, accommodate copies of all the books of the world for 100 years to come and still leave seven-eighths of its available space applicable for other purposes.

It is estimated that the richest of civilized peoples is the English, with $1,366 per capita. In France the average is said to be $1,102, in the United States $1,020, while by the sale of their lands to the United States government some of the Indian tribes are worth from $5,000 to $10,000 per capita, man, woman and child.

THEY'RE AT IT AGAIN.

533D CONGRESS ASSEMBLES
IN REGULAR SESSION.

The President's Message Read on the Opening Day Elicited but Little Interest—Michigan's New Representative Sworn In—The Proceedings.

A large number of people were present when Vice-President Stevenson rapped the Senate of the first regular session of the 53d Congress to order. New carpets, highly polished desks, numerous floral designs and the pretty colors of the lady spectators' costumes gave the Senate chamber an additional charm. The roll call was responded to by 59 Senators. The usual resolutions notifying the House of Representatives of the meeting of the Senate and the resolution for a committee of two Senators to join a similar committee of the House to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that Congress had assembled and was ready to receive any communication he may desire to make, were offered and agreed to. Mr. McPherson, Dem., N. J., and Mr. Sherman, Rep., O. were appointed as the committee on the part of the Senate. After a resolution had been adopted that the hour of daily meeting shall be 12 o'clock meridian, a recess was taken for one hour to enable the committee to wait on the President.

Upon reassembling Mr. McPherson announced that the President had sent a communication to Congress. Secretary Prudden then read the President's annual message, which occupied one hour and a half. But little interest was manifested, most of the Senators either talking or reading, and at the conclusion all but 25 Senators had left the floor for a smoke or a stroll through the cloak rooms. Mr. Dolph secured the floor when the reading was ended, and gave notice that on the following day he would address the Senate on the Hawaiian question. A message from the House announced the death of Hon. Charles O'Neill, of Hon. William Lilely, of Pennsylvania. A resolution of sorrow was adopted and as a mark of respect the Senate adjourned.

In the House of Representatives 240 members responded to their names. H. S. Bundy, as successor to the late Representative Enoch, of Ohio, and Levi T. Griffin as successor of the late Representative J. Logan Chipman, of Michigan, were sworn in. Messrs. Wilson, Outlaw and Burrows were appointed a committee to wait upon the President. The reading of the President's message was not followed with any great degree of interest, but it was appreciated and finished. Gen. Bingham of Pennsylvania called attention to the vacant seats of the late Representatives O'Neill and Lilely, a committee was appointed and the House adjourned as a further mark of respect.

Second day.—In strong contrast to the previous day the galleries were deserted and an air of quiet pervaded the chamber that was almost oppressive. Hear offered a resolution requesting the President to furnish the Senate with a copy of all instructions which may have been given to any representative of the United States or any naval officer since April 4, 1891, in reference to the preservation of public property or the protection of life and property of American citizens or the recognition or support of any government. A considerable discussion resulted in the resolution being laid on the table. Mr. Dolph then addressed the Senate on that portion of the President's message referring to the Hawaiian question. He took for his text the statement of the President that he took for his attitude in the matter, and especially for the air of secrecy with which he aimed to surround the action of the government in relation to Hawaii. Mr. Dolph expressed the opinion that the President had not the constitutional power to restore the Hawaiian Kingdom. He said that the Hawaiian Kingdom was a republic and that the President had no right to take for his attitude in the matter, and especially for the air of secrecy with which he aimed to surround the action of the government in relation to Hawaii. A Late Steamer Goes Ashore.

The steamer F. W. Wheeler, coal laden from Buffalo to Chicago, went ashore three miles east of Michigan City at 2 a. m. At first the life-saving crew went to her, but the captain declined assistance and sent for men to jettison the cargo. The boat was lying easy on sandy bottom and in no danger, but the wind shifted and blew a great swell of water over the bow. The crew of the life-saving crew took them off. The sea was washing clear over the boat. The life-saving crew launched their boat off the ice banks which lined the shore, and made two trips landing them all in safety.

The Wheeler was loaded with 2,100 tons of coal. She was commanded by Captain George N. Trotter and owned by David Whitney, Jr., of Detroit.

Locomotive Exploded—Three Killed.

The boiler of a Texas & Pacific engine drawing thirteen cars exploded near Eastland, Tex., killing Engineer Charles Elliott, Fireman Charles Beavers and Brakeman Frank Spence. The air pump was blown 700 feet and the main portion of the boiler 250 feet. Considerable track was torn up and nine cars were wrecked.

25 Deaths From Grip in 10 Days.

Twenty-five deaths from grip have been reported in ten days at Leavenworth, Kas. The disease is almost epidemic, and every physician in the city and country is kept busy night and day. It is estimated that within the past two weeks fully one-half of the homes in that city have been visited.

Barber Shops Can Open on Sunday.

E. R. Winkler, foreman of the Midland, Mo., barber shop, was tried before a jury in a justice court charged with violating the law by shaving a man on Sunday. The defence was that the shaving was an act of necessity. The jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The circulation of counterfeit dollars and half dollars is general throughout the northern counties of the lower peninsula, and it is believed that their place of manufacture is somewhere in Missaukee county.

The coupons for each of the 20 parts of the series run one entire week, but only three coupons of those published during the week are required to secure any one part. Dr. Johnson left his horse without hitching one day last week while visiting a patient. The result wasn't so very bad as it only cost him a dollar and a half to get things fixed up.

There is somebody in the West Novi neighborhood who means to hustle around and get something to live on, this cold weather. This would be very praiseworthy if said somebody didn't get said provision out of the neighbors cellars without permission. However, if people leave their cellar doors unfastened they are giving such undesirable citizens a tacit invitation to help themselves.

Somebody always goes to the W. N. D. club meetings no matter what the weather may be, a fact illustrated by the gathering of twenty-five or thirty at the school house last Saturday evening during the severe snow storm which prevailed at that time. The exercises were of course somewhat abbreviated by the absence of some who were on the program, but the rest pluckily braved the inclement weather, and it goes without saying that their parts were well performed, as the kind of folks who are not afraid of making a little extra effort are usually the ones whose work shows just that kind of a spirit. The discussion, "Eloquence vs. genius," was carried out with spirit and the audience decided in favor of the champions of the former. The executive committee, Mr. Bogart, reported as follows for Dec. 9:
1. Secretary's report.

2. Miscellaneous business.
3. Music—Alta Bagart, N. A. Clapp.
4. Recitation—David Wilson.

12. Reces—19 minutes.

14. Discussion—"Resolved, that justice and humanity demand the repeal of the Chinese immigration act."

Influenza set in, complicated with quinsy and bronchial trouble, and although everything was done for his relief he rapidly sank. His death removes another of the old and highly esteemed settlers, having resided in this locality for years. He owned one of the best farms of the district which he had brought up to its present richness by hard toil. Mr. Carey was a quiet, lovable man; respected and possessing the esteem of everyone who knew him. He leaves a widow and one daughter. Funeral took place Monday, services conducted by Rev. W. H. Benton in Lapham's Methodist church and the remains were interred in the neighboring cemetery, a large concourse of friends and relatives attending.

Elkhart, Ind., July 1st, 1890: Dullam's Great German Medicine Co. My daughter has been afflicted with female trouble for over six years and I have paid out over $750 in vain trying to find relief for her. A lady friend advised me to secure a bottle of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and she has been completely cured by it. We gave it a fair trial and the results were wonderful.
