Vol. XXV, No. 26.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1894.

$1.00 per year, in advance.

THE BEAL-HOOVER WEDDING.

It Took Place at Jackson Yesterday Evening.

The event of the season of interest to Northville people occurred at Jackson last evening when Rev. M. M. Callen, pastor of the First Methodist church of that city, pronounced the words which made Mr. Louis A. Beal and Miss Minnie A. Hoover man and wife. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Shove, 429 Morrell avenue.

To the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march by the bride's niece, Miss Bertha Shove, the couple took their position in the spacious parlors where, surrounded by a large throng of relatives and friends, the pastor uttered the touching words that united the two.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white India silk, trimmed with cream silk lace and velvet, and carried pink and white bridal roses. The groom was also tastefully attired in a black dress suit.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party and guests repaired to the dining rooms where lunch was served under a canopy of pink and white ribbons festooned from corners of the room to the chandelier.

Guests were present from Flat Rock, Detroit, Northville and Jackson.

The happy couple left on the 7:40 p. m. train west for a short trip to the northern part of the state and visiting the bride's brother at Shepherd and other points. On their return here next week they will reside at the home of F. R. Beal until spring.

The bride and groom are too well known in Northville to need any introduction on the part of the Record, but to those outside of the circle, a few words will do much to prove of interest. The groom, the only son of our well known townsmen and manufacturer F. R. Beal, is the manager of the Columbia Refrigerator company, and he is also the treasurer of the big Globe furniture company. He is popular alike with all of fine appearance, pleasant manners and good business ability. He is a Northville boy from way back to the date of his birth.

The bride is best known to Northville people as a teacher in our public schools where for two years she very successfully conducted the first grammar department, finally resigning to accept a better position in the Jackson city schools which she held until December last. Miss Hoover is a Flat Rock girl. She is a bright, pretty young lady, possessing one of those sunny dispositions and sweet temperaments which all through her life has won and retained for her an almost countless number of friends. She will be warmly welcomed again in Northville's society which she, with her husband, is so well fitted to grace. The groom may well be proud of the bride he has won.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Beal, will come by the score but among them all none will be more sincere for their future happiness and prosperity than those extended by the RECORD.

Frank Barrett will have an auction sale Tuesday Feb. 20 of live stock, farm implements, household goods, etc.

In these days a chap never knows whether his best girl is wearing her hair in the latest style or whether she merely forgot to comb it.

The attraction of the season will be the "Children's Carnival" given under the auspices of the ladies of the Presbyterian church. Look out for dates.

Many persons who have paper recorded in the county clerk's office save them there, thinking that they are safer than at their own home. This is wrong, for if the clerk's office should be destroyed, both the original and the record would perish. When papers are recorded they should be taken from the office, so that if one is destroyed the other may be preserved.

Subscribe for the Northville RECORD if you do not already take it now is a good time to begin.

WHAT THEY DID

At the Council Meeting Monday Night.

When President Dubuar brought down his gavel Monday night he nearly smashed a beautiful bouquet which laid on his table with the compliments of the W. C. T. U. Another and larger one had been provided but for some reason it had not been sent to the meeting. There was no very important measure before the board and consequently the meeting was not very lively. President Dubuar read a notice from the Roes Valve company stating that they would hold the village for a few hundred dollars which the Lansing Iron & Engine works owed them. The president said he had informed the gentlemen that when the contract was finished they were prepared to settle with the L. I. & E. folks and not before.

Ald. Wheeler stated that he with Ald. Swift had examined the walks along Dunlap street and failed to find them in a dangerous condition.

The clock lighting committee report that there had been placed four sixteen candle power electric lights in the tower but they thought they would do and asked for further time to experiment. Mr. Rockwell offered to care for the clock for $25 per year and was given the job.

Ald. Wheeler thought that as the present street lighting contract expired with the current year, it was time to look for a new one. He suggested that some arrangements be made to that effect providing others were to be allowed to bid for the contract. The president thought that after the coming charter election would be time enough and the matter was left until that time.

Marshal White reported that some bad doings were enacted in our village one week ago Saturday afternoon and wanted to know if the council would support him financially in bringing the parties to justice. He stated that in the absence of Justice Ely that a Plymouth justice could do the job. The council informed the marshal that law and order should be preserved in our village, no matter what the cost.

Marshal White suggested that the council appoint Night Watch Giegler as special police, which was done. Giegler reported the rudeness of some young loafers, especially Sunday nights, along the streets, and said if he was made special police some arrests would follow. Giegler said he was getting a salary of $17.50 from the business men and thought the village should pay him $17.50 more to perform their work. In as much as the night watch could also look after the city's interest and give fire alarms, etc., some of the council seemed to think the matter of salary was worth considering and it was finally referred to the fire committee for recommendation. In the mean time Night Watch Giegler will preserve order even if some one gets "knocked down."

A motion to adjourn as the town clock struck nine was quickly followed by the city fathers quietly entering the elevator and after being conveyed to the floor below they were soon lost in the busy crowds along the streets.

The Wayne Pilot asks "did you ever read our Washington letter?" No, decidedly not and we wager that eleven-tenths of your readers are in the same boat. The "Washington letter" business we believe is the biggest chestnut ever published. The "Washington letter" is not in keeping with the other bright features of the Pilot.

Gasoline in a stove where there should have been kerosene caused a dangerous explosion at Fenton one day last week. The probabilities are the merchant who sold the oil did not comply with the law and attach a label to the can, thus causing the catastrophe. We notice that some of our Northville dealers occasionally neglect this.

Wm. Geer, a prominent and wealthy farmer of Superior township, Washington county, was leading a horse Tuesday afternoon by a strap wound around his thumb, when the horse suddenly shied and pulled with such force that Mr. Geer's thumb was nearly torn from his hand at the second joint, and hung by just a little flesh. The thumb had to be amputated.

Alice Westbrooke who figured in the sensational marriage at Kalamazoo last week Friday was formerly preceptress in the Northville school. THE RECORD.

F. S. NAL, Publisher.

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN.

AN Oakland man with three wives has been sent to jail for fifteen days.

This is almost cruelty. Only a fortnight's respite after all he must have suffered.

THE train robbers who have demonstrated such ability in breaking open express car safes are about ready for promotion to positions where they can practice their art with the superior facilities of prison bars.

PATTI sang to 7,000 people at full voices in Chicago the other night. It should be remembered, however, that the poor

we have always with us, while there is a possibility that there may come a time in the far-distant future when Patti will retire from the concert stage.

KING HENRI is an artist on the spot and he seems so apprehensive of the immediate future as to give his $20,000,000

savings securely housed in a London bank.

The hour for the dissolution of the kingdom of Italy does not seem very far off.

If an outcome of Italian republic should be formed, the American people will scarcely protest. How would the United States of Europe sound, made up of, for example, Italy,

France, Switzerland and possibly Spain and Portugal?

The western Indian's belief in a great spirit is written over the map of the Northwest. Manitoba is one record and lakes Michigan and Huron have many names that commemorate the piety or superstition of the Indians. A considerable space in the northern part of lake Michigan is called Manitou and here are North and South Manitou islands.

A considerable island in lake Huron is the Grand Manitou. Colorado also has its Manitou and it occurs, doubtless, elsewhere in the West.

THE sad ending of the Howard case has not seriously depressed the fraudulent industry of fabulous English claims. A Florida paper says that "there are several old-time residents of Jacksonville who are direct descendants and heirs to an immense estate in England, amounting to somewhere into the hundreds of millions." This is the "Townley estate" fraud, exposed by the cable dispatches from London. In an endeavor to check enterprise in this form of rascality the London Times publishes a report of all chancery cases of unclaimed money, and it appears that no really considerable sum awaits any claimant in any case of the kind.

A NOTORIOUS man of New York has become engaged to a belle of Baltimore and the affair has made quite a stir. A correspondent of the World, writing of the betrotted pair, says: "He has attended all the collisions during the season with her, the bouquets he gave her always attracting attention for their beauty. At the Christmas collision she had a beautiful bouquet, which is said to have weighed twenty-eight pounds and contained over 1,000 violets."

Any girl that can go about with a bouquet weighing twenty-eight pounds must be a hummer. At the same time most of us would think three or four times before marrying a maid of such masonic strength.

THE men who as humble members of a humble crew on board the steamship

Amsterdam, voluntarily gave up their lives to save those of a crew on board a foundered steamer deserve to be remembered in song and story. The perishing were strangers.

The would-be rescuers did not even know the name of the schooner to whose succor they were going. It was sufficient for them that they witnessed the signal of distress. The perils they must encounter to offer relief were of no consequence. It was of such men Addison sang:

Unbounded courage and compassion joined,

Temper: each other in the victim's mind.

Alternately proclaim him good and great,

And make the hero and the saint complete.

While their memory is fresh let the

The Engines of Death Recently Sent to the Emperor of Germany and His

Chancellor—Would Kill Hundreds—A

Narrow Escape.

SOME WEEKS AGO two infernal machines, of exactly the same design, were sent to the emperor and Chancellor von Caprivi. They had been mailed from a town in France at the same time and were addressed in the same handwriting. The machine that reached the chancellor's residence was accompanied by a note. The writer was evidently aware that gardening and horticulture generally were the diversions of Caprivi's leisure hours. He said the accompanying box contained a new and very rare variety of radish seed. The letters gave some particulars about the vegetable and spoke of the rapidity with which it came to maturity. The French police were unable to find the sender of the box. There was no such street as that from which he dated his letter. A serious accident was averted only by the happiest chance. The chancellor's private secretary began to open the box when he observed, as he pried at the lid, that grains of something that looked very much like gunpowder were falling to the floor. He suspended operations at once. The box that was sent to the emperor awakened suspicion immediately and no attempt was made to open it until it was placed in the hands of experts. The newspapers, probably by orders from the palace, attempted to belittle

the affair, and some of them asserted that the boxes were merely of the nature of a practical joke and that their contents would not hurt a mosquito. As a matter of fact they were infernal machines of an ingenious and deadly character, as will be seen by this illustration and description.

The boxes were neatly made of wood and were small, being only about five inches in length. This picture shows a longitudinal section.

Under the closed box lid were two stout rubber bands (A) stretched to a tension and connecting a needle (D) with a nipple and cap (E).

The needle was kept in place by a button (B).

Scattered over a thin partition (C) which the needle rested was loose gunpowder, which also filled the space below (G & H). This partition was broken by an aperture (I) filled with gunpowder and below it was a cartridge (F) filled with an explosive of high power. The exact nature of this explosive has not been revealed. Gunpowder filled the space between the cartridge and one side of the box and paper (H) was stuffed into the other side to keep the cartridge in place. The idea was that the button (B) would be raised by the lifting of the box lid, releasing the needle, which would be violently pulled against the cap by the contraction of the rubber bands. The explosion of the loose gunpowder and the cartridge would follow.

Of the many pretty and charming

Mrs. Cynthia Pierce died Friday morning Feb. 2 after a short illness of pneumonia. She was seventy-seven years of age.

Miss Marie Murray and Glen Power were in Detroit last week Wednesday on business pertaining to their school work.

Ye Farmington correspondent would like to say to a reader of this paper that the kindness extended was fully appreciated.

E. J. Walton and son left Monday morning for their home in Dakota, after a most enjoyable visit with relatives and friends here.

A session will be held Friday evening, Feb. 16 at the town hall for the benefit of Rev. D. Q. Barry, pastor of the Baptist church. All are cordially invited to attend.

The F. L. A. will give a musical and literary entertainment Friday evening Feb. 9 at the town hall. Mrs. Dawson of Pontiac will be present and address the assembly. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Admission free.

Monday evening Feb. 5 at town hall, Will T. Norris, the picture pilgrim gave his wonderful illustrated lecture "From the Jordan to the Sea" to quite a large and appreciative audience. Mr. Norris came under the auspices of the high school.

Sunday evening in the Methodist church, Presiding Elder C. T. Allen preached an excellent sermon to a large and appreciative congregation. Rev. Mr. Morgan of Redford offered invocation. Quarterly conference was held Monday evening.

The funeral services of Mrs. Cynthia Pierce were held Monday afternoon at two o'clock from the Methodist church, Rev. Mr. Belding of Northville officiating. The music was conducted by Edgar Kennedy one of the Mozart Quartette of Detroit assisted by Mrs. Henry Lee and Miss Grace Tremper. Deceased has been a resident of Farmington a good many years and therefore has many warm friends who extend their heartfelt sympathy to the family in their bereavement. She has always resided with her youngest son, M. B. Pierce, who has kindly cared for his beloved mother. The remains were interred in the Quaker cemetery.

WIXOM.

John Morse is on a business trip to Detroit.

Chas. Arnold has returned from a week's visit at Carleton.

Mr. Tomlin is here again from Detroit looking for apples. He stops at the hotel and is a great checker player.

Franz Power means to have enough ice. He has put in 2,000 pieces. Albert Cummings is also filling up his ice house.

Will Nobles is going to Detroit to work at the harness business. Will is a good workman and we hate to have him leave.

Elder Hagerty left Monday evening for Indiana where he will exchange pulpits with a view of preaching there permanently in the spring.

Mrs. Oldenburg and child were buried in the same coffin Monday. Rev. Hagerty officiating. Deceased had been ill but about twenty-four hours. Mr. Aldenburg is very lonely and receives much sympathy.

Editor Record:—I see my name in the Record last week, although I think it hardly worth my time in answering. I will say a word. I have been in the chute three weeks and do not find it such hard work and think it would be more manly of the one that advertised it, if he would set around less himself. JAS. W. GREER.

BUCKLIN'S ARNICA SALVE.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25c per box. For sale by C. R. Stevens, the druggist.

Children's Grand Carnival.

The latest attraction in the way of children's entertainment is the children's Carnival. The carnival is under the direction of Miss Nellie DeLong. It is a grand success during the past year in presenting this entertainment at Flint, Lapeer, Featon, St. Johns, Owosso, Detroit, Mt. Clemens and other places, and expects to make it one of the most unusual attractions and beauty in Northville. Miss Pierce wishes at least 200 children and young people between the ages of five and twenty-five in the carnival. All those desiring to assist in any of the drills, scenes, or dances, please meet at W. C. T. U. hall tonight at 7:00 o'clock.

Better Than Before.

The young people's societies encouraged by the success of the recent entertainment of the Outboard Co. have secured the services of the famous Mendelssohn, Quirrette Concert Co. of Boston, Mass., to give one of their fine programs. The coming of these people is due to an open date that was cancelled elsewhere and cannot be duplicated very often and it is to be hoped that the people will appreciate the enterprise of our young people and give them the deserved patronage. You will not regret the cost. The entertainment will be held at the opera house, with young people in charge, Wednesday evening Feb. 14. Admission at the door 25c. Reserved seats 35c. Doors open at 7:30.

Card of Thanks.

To the many and kind friends who by their presence and assistance aided me during my late bereavement I could return my sincere thanks.
Mrs. M. Fox.

Reduced Rates to Detroit.

NOTICE

is hereby given that in pursuance of a license to sell real estate granted on the 6th day of February 1894 by the Probate Court for the county of Wayne, State of Michigan, in the matter of the estate of SUSAN WEBER deceased, I shall on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1894, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the mill of the Yerkens Brothers in the village of Northville, Wayne county Michigan, offer for sale the following described piece or parcel of land situated in the township of Plymouth, Wayne county Michigan, to wit: Beginning at the point where the high water mark of the Northville Mill's mill pond intersects with the west line of the Flint and Pere Marquette Rail Road on the south side of said pond, running thence southerly along the west side of said Rail Road to the north line of land owned by Orange Butler, thence southerly, only fifteen feet, to a point on the north line of highway, thence north to the high water mark on south side of said pond; thence easterly along the south line of said pond to the place of beginning; FRANCIS G. TIERNEY, Administrator.

WANTED—Twenty bushels seedling peach pits. Will pay fifty cents per bushel, delivered at Bech Northville. No budding fruit pits will be received.
H. R. BAICOX.

NORTHVILLE LOCALS.

Northville needs a good skating rink. The Presbyterian's are putting more lights in their church.

Drills, dances, scenes, pantomimes, tableaux, etc., at the Children's Carnival.

The Globe folks held their annual meeting Wednesday and re-elected the same officers.

A Northville man has discovered that the reason his wife's stockings cost the more, is because his does not come so high.

Several teams are engaged hauling 97,000 feet of lumber from Dearborn for the Globe company.

A dozen or fifteen young men will attend the district conference of the Y. M. C. at Detroit Saturday and Sunday.

Six live frogs will dance "Ta-ra-boom-de-a" at the "Children's Carnival." The latest thing, don't you fail to see it.

Invitations are out for the graduates recital of Miss Carolyn Babbitt and Mrs. Mary Simmons—Yerkens to hold at the opera house Monday evening, Feb. 12.

It is estimated there were over 200 people unable to gain admission to the opera house Saturday evening. The opera house appears to be perfectly safe.

V. P. S. of Summit will give an entertainment consisting of dialogues and abasus, Friday evening, Feb. 16, at Summit church. Admission ten cents.

The morning topic at the Presbyterian church Sunday is "The Unchangeable God"; evening, fourth sermon on the Prodigal Son—"The Young Man's Repentance and Resolution."

C. S. Seely of near Salem sold forty-seven turkeys last week which averaged twenty-five pounds each. He disposed of them to Wilson parties at nine cents per pound and says it's the easiest money he has earned for some time.

Several parties are cutting ice from the Phoenix pond near Plymouth. The article talks about nine inches through. The Ambler company have hauled 3,000 tons of the winter fruit to be used at the forthcoming lawn socials.

The prohibition club met Monday night and elected following officers: President, F. D. Adams; secretary, Mrs. George Wagner; treasurer, Edward Whitaker. The next meeting will be held at John Saude's, Monday evening March 5.

Mrs. Ellen Lucinda Charter, wife of Edward Charter, died at 7 p. m. Wednesday. She was twenty-eight years of age. The funeral was conducted by Rev. Arnold at the Baptist church today and the remains interred in Oakwood.

In reference to the muf article in last week's paper the merchant in question requests we state that instead of abusing the boy he has not seen him at all as yet. He returned the muf by a neighbor and has not been in the store since the day the muf was found.

While skating on the pond Monday Louis Reed ventured on some thin ice and went into the cold wet water. He managed to keep his head above water until Will Capell got a pole out and successfully pulled him to a safe spot. It was a narrow escape and the boy probably owes his life to the prompt action of Capell.

The other morning Mrs. Jas. Palmer gave her new coal fire a generous donation of coal oil. There was a noise, a rush of smoke and flames and from pipe and chimney came a flood of flying soot. A volcanic eruption that caused a half day's cleaning took the place of what might have been a serious story. Experience doesn't seem to teach people not to monkey with the buzz saw or coal oil and matches.

It was no ordinary passenger train on which the jolly wedding party left for Jackson on yesterday morning. No, sir. Strictly speaking it was a special. The 729 domed, golden-painted lumber of the long non-ventilated freight train was so full of the fourteen people that some twenty-eight feet were noticeably protruding from the doors and windows as the long line of cars wended their way in a snake like manner around the curves and under the bridges, following the puffing engine on and on until lost to view.

Nothing like progression! The steady growth of business at T. G. Richardson's store necessitates adding to his force of help. The removal of the C. R. Smith stock from town also made it necessary for Grant Power, Smith's dry goods salesman, to obtain a new position. The two necessities combined for one common good and on next Monday, Feb. 12, Mr. Power takes a position as dry goods salesman for Mr. Richardson. W. H. Hutton still retains the position he has held for the past five years as head clerk and dry goods man, and by the present arrangement can devote more of his time to the other departments of the store. N. P. Ely continues in charge of the clothing department. Mr. Power, who is well and favorably known in this section, will be glad to see all of his old friends and customers in his new place of business.

A pair of silver bowed eyeglasses awaits an owner at this office.

Miss Mary Melow and Gust Gates of Stark were married here by Squire Forthrop last week Thursday evening.

The members of the Eastern Star with their families, together with the Masonic lodge and families are requested to be present at the joint social to be held in Masonic Temple this Friday night. By order of committee.

Last Sunday some of our people had the pleasure of hearing Dr. A. E. Bruiske, president of Alma college, who occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church morning and evening.

In the morning he presented the work of the college. The synod of Michigan has pledged $4,000 toward the current expenses of this institution. Mrs. L. A. Yerkens and Mrs. Mary Lapham form the committee appointed by the pastor to look after the raising of funds in the church. All subscriptions to be paid here on or after June 1, '94.

Orson Swift, second son of G. B. Swift of Fall River, Mass. grandson of Dr. J. M. Swift, with two others was killed by a passing Boston express train last week Wednesday.

They were in a sleigh ride party and though the sleds showed everything clear and safe the fast moving train struck the rear end of the sleigh as they were nearly across, with these terrible results. Northville people are grieved to learn of the sad accident.

Clarence Clark of Ann Arbor writes us that we were perfectly correct in our statement last week in reference to the U. of M. having more students than any other university in the new world. He informs us that there are over 2,600 students now in attendance, one-half of whom are candidates for a degree in the literary department, the others taking a professional course.

Our old townsman John S. Jackson has run across some interesting papers in his search about the house. Among others that he shows us is his commission as captain of the Livonia Rifle company, 4th reg. of the state militia, bears the signature of Governor Stephen Mason and Secretary of State Manning dated at Detroit June 21, 1838. Another is a personal letter from Adj. Gen. Roberts dated Oct. 26, 1843 expressing regret at Mr. Jackson's resignation as captain. Still another is a long list of 101 names of the officers and members of the company.

We think some of our clergy are a little unfair in their remarks toward the opera house. One is quoted as saying Sunday night that "there were only about three entertainments there during the year that were fit to be attended, and it were better did those not come at all." The Northville opera house is managed in the best possible manner and fully as commendable as any opera house in the state, more so than many. An opera house may be a bad thing for any town, but as long as this old earth exists there will be play houses and proper management is the next best thing. All church and other benevolent entertainments held at the opera house here have met much consideration in the past and reduction in prices. During the recent union revival meetings the house was closed three weeks when at least two different shows sought to make engagements for it. The remarks at most however will have no effect upon the attendance at the opera house unless it be when church entertainments are given there and this surely cannot be desired.

So much regret was expressed because the E. P. lodge here had decided to give up their annual ball this year as announced in last week's RECORD that they reconsidered their decision and will go ahead with new life and more energy. They have been quite celebrated for the sumptuous manner in which each year they have celebrated the birth of Pythianism, the 19th of February, and this year the Knights will endeavor to eclipse all former efforts in their celebration. They will add to their usual grand ball at the Princess rink a fine musical and literary program to be rendered in the earlier part of the evening in their beautiful and commodious new castle hall in the Tulon block. Those who receive invitations to this event may consider themselves favored for it will indeed be, as always in the past, the event of the season. This year it will be even more select than ever before. The decorations at the rink will perhaps not be quite as elaborate as usual as the lodge has been under heavy expense during the past year. However the Knights of Mystic lodge know how to entertain and no efforts will be spared to make the occasion one long to be remembered by both Knights and guests.

The rumor that C. A. Hutton contemplated going out of business is without foundation. Mr. Hutton is "here to stay," so to speak.

Chairs will be placed in the gallery at the opera house Wednesday evening to accommodate those who will not be able to gain admittance below on the occasion of the appearance of the Mendelssohn quintette.

Now that the Japanese Remedy company has left town and we cannot be accused of advertising their business which some of our people have termed as being a fake, swindle, fraud, etc., we wish to say just a word or two.

There has never, we believe, been a man in business in Northville three weeks or three years, who has done a more legitimate, straight forward business in a gentlemanly manner than did Dr. Hal Curtis. He guaranteed every article offered for sale to give satisfaction or money refunded. The medicine in some cases was returned and he cheerfully paid back the cash in just the same gentlemanly manner he received it.

He simply offered his goods for sale, and urged no individual to buy. The free entertainments given may have been extremely silly, but they never savored of the immoral or obscene. The conduct of the company upon our streets was exemplary. They took a hundred dollars or so out of the town, not to exceed, we dare say, $150, but they also left a few hundred in the town. No one believes and preaches more of patronizing home and working for home business than the RECORD, but these people were neither robbers nor vampires.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. Jas. Covert has been on the sick list.

Mrs. Chas. Eaton is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Miss Rock of Detroit is the guest of Mrs. A. K. Carpenter.

Mrs. C. C. Blodgett of Detroit is the guest of Mrs. L. A. Yerkens.

Mrs. Geo. Babcock of Milford was the guest of Miss McRoberts Wednesday.

Mr. Milford Wigle, of Kingsville, Ont., was a guest at Mrs. Eaton's this week.

Mrs. Anna Melligan has come to make her home with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ainsley.

Mrs. E. M. Peck gave a tea party to her Sunday school class Saturday afternoon. They had a good time.

Miss Talford of Sand Creek came here Wednesday to accompany the Beal-Hooper wedding party to Jackson.

Editor Osband of Ypsilanti was in town Wednesday to attend the annual meeting of the Globe Furniture Company.

Mrs. E. A. Hyatt left for her home in St. Louis, Mo., Wednesday. She has been spending three weeks with her sister, Mrs. A. W. Reed.

Miss Minnie Smith has moved to her home at Farmington where she will remain for a short time after which she expects to go to Pontiac to engage in the millinery business.

Duke McPhail and family have arrived safely at Portland, Oregon, and are settled in their new home. He will represent the Globe Furniture companies interests hereafter along the Pacific coast.

Will Nichols arrived safe and sound at San Antonio, N. M., last week and writes that he stood the journey better than he expected he would when he started. He has not been in the south long enough yet to realize its benefits.

Emmer White for a number of years employed in Miller's meat market here has gone to Bancroft to engage in the same business for himself. White is an experienced meat man, a tip-top good fellow and deserves the success which we expect he will receive.

Those who attended the Beal-Hooper wedding at Jackson last evening from here were, Mr. and Mrs. Beal, Mr. and Mrs. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Neal, Misses Mae Bovee, Jennie Babbitt, Messrs. H. F. Brown, E. G. Filkins and B. C. Stark.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kellogg of Plymouth, were in town Wednesday having their eyes examined and vision corrected by Willard Hagadorn, the optician at the Macomber house. Mr. Hagadorn must have done some pretty good work when he was in Plymouth in December to have them come this far to employ him. He is highly spoken of here. He is said to not only understand his business the best of any who have ever been here, but is perfectly reliable.

CHARGES AGAINST THE STATE CANVASSERS.

John Rich, a well-known politician, has taken another step in the matter of the salaries scandal. He has already asked for the resignations of Secretary of State John H. Johnson, Treasurer Hamilton and Land Commissioner Berry. Members of the state board of canvassers and not receiving them, the governor has filed charges against them as follows:

"Gross negligence. Public charges have been made and have come to my knowledge that gross errors were made in the canvass of the returns of votes at the election held in this state on the first Monday in April, A. D. 1903, for and against the adoption of joint resolution No. 10, approved March 9, 1903, proposing an amendment to section 1 of article 9 of the constitution of the state, relative to the salaries of state officers, which it was made to appear that such amendment had been approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, whereas it is alleged that by a gross and wilful canvass of the returns of such votes, the said amendment was defeated."

"Under the power as granted and only imposed upon me as governor of this state it becomes my duty to inquire into the condition and administration of your several offices, and especially into the manner in which you have performed the duties of the board of canvassers, of which you are ex-officio members for the purpose of determining whether you have been guilty of gross neglect of duty in the manner of canvassing said returns. You are, therefore, severally cited and required to appear before me at the executive office in the city of Lansing on the 10th day of February, 1904, at 10 o'clock in the afternoon, then and there to answer to the following specific charges, viz:

"That you (giving names) who are the board of state canvassers under the constitution and laws of this state, were guilty of gross neglect of duty in this, that you did not examine the statements or returns of votes from the several counties filed in the office of the secretary of state, showing the number of votes cast for and against said proposed amendment to the constitution relative to the salaries of state officers by the electors in this state at the election in 1903. A. That you grossly neglected your duty in this, that you did not ascertain and determine the true result of such vote, nor perform with due and proper care the duties relative to canvassing the statements and returns from the several counties of the votes given. 3. That you are, severally guilty of gross neglect of duty in this, that you made and suffered to be made gross errors in the canvass of the statements and returns filed in the office of the secretary of state of the votes given in the several counties at said election making it appear that the proposed amendment was approved (when a correct canvass shows the opposite). 4. You are further required then and there to show cause why you and each of you should not be removed from office for gross neglect of duty."

More Smith-Fox at Otsego.

Dispatches from Allegan say: In spite of the efforts of the health authorities to prevent the spread of small-pox, the disease has again broken out in Otsego. A boarding house keeper came down. During a recent illness she was attended by Dr. Chase, who was exposed in caring for the late Abram Burnside. The doctor at that time, supposed he and chicken-pox. The woman's boarders all work in the chair factory. They have been quarantined. Mrs. Shepherd also is said to have the small-pox.

The Law Refuses Them a Living.

Deputy State Game Warden Kennedy, of Grand Rapids, arrested 22 men at Hamlin Lake, where they were engaged in spearing fish. The associated charities of the city prevailed upon the justice to let them off on suspended sentences, as the men were thus gaining a livelihood. A great deal of indignation is felt in the city, as this has been a means of many poor families getting sufficient to eat.

HAWAIIAN'S CELEBRATE

The Anniversary of the Overthrow of the Monarchy—Willis Woaden's Fate Part.

News received from Honolulu by the brig W. G. Irwin, tells of the celebration of "Abrogation Day"—the first anniversary of the abrogation of the Hawaiian monarchy. Among the chief exercises were a parade of military forces, a reception in the council room (formerly the throne room), and a mass meeting in the evening on Palace square, which has just been named "Union Square" by the Annexation club. United States Minister Willis Woaden, for himself and the admiral and United States naval officers. President Dole's invitation to the reception. He closed his note by expressing the hope that more satisfactory relations may soon be obtained between the two governments.

The American league is rapidly growing, and is coming to the front as the chief political organization in support of the provisional government and the cause of annexation. It is developing a strong opposition to what its members regard as an endeavor of the planter-capitalists to control the government in their own interests, in opposition to those of the working classes of whites. A strong resolution was passed opposing the further importation of Chinese laborers. The league desires to see Hawaii become a white man's country, and not mainly given up to the great mass of capitalists, managed by Asiatic laborers. To this end they prefer to see a portion of the profits of the planters sacrificed, and some of the sugar estates given up and the land divided into farms for white immigrants. It is becoming evident that party lines are being run mainly upon these issues for the future. The planter interest is certain to make a strong fight for itself. Planters as a class, however, are unlikely to antagonize annexation or any government which tends towards it.

TOBACCO WAS THE CAUSE.

Notable. On the Tobacco Habit and Consumption. Great excitement and interest has been manifested in the recovery of an old-time resident of Two Rivers, Wis. Mr. Joseph Bunker, who was for several years considered by his friends a hopeless consumptive. Investigation shows that for over thirty-two years he used three and a half pounds of tobacco a week. A short time ago he was induced to try a tobacco habit cure called "Notobac." Talking about his miraculous recovery to-day he said: "Yes, I used Notobac, and two boxes completely cured me. I thought and so did all my friends, that I had consumption. Now they say as you say, 'how healthy and strong you look, Joe,' and whenever they ask me what cured my consumption, I tell them Notobac. The last week I used Notobac I lost four pounds. The morning I began the use of Notobac I weighed 127½ pounds; to-day I weigh 123½, a gain of 4½ pounds. I eat heartily and sleep well. Before I used Notobac I was so nervous that when I went to drink I had to hold the glass in both hands. To-day my nerves are perfectly steady. Where did I get Notobac? At the drug store. It is made by the Sterling Remedy company, general western office, 45 Randolph street, Chicago, but I see by the printed matter that it is sold by all druggists. I know all the druggists in this town keep it. I have recommended it to over a hundred people and do not know of a single failure to cure."

FIVE MEN DROWNED.

Seven men left Pensacola, Fla., in a small sailboat to go to Big Sabine in Santa Rosa Sound, about 13 miles. They were A. H. Rollins, foreman; G. M. Washburn, turner; Ed Moberly, finisher; Mossick, a machinist; all employees of Harrell's furniture factory; a Mr. Boulder, an unknown man and Hiram Brown, the latter sailing the boat. A strong norther was blowing about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, as they started to return, and the boat capsized. The seven men clung to the boat for hours, but Rollins, Washburn, Moberly, Mossick and Brown became exhausted and sank to their death one by one. The other two men held on and were rescued about noon the next day almost unconscious, by a lumber lighter. They were almost insensible. The men were recent arrivals having come from Michigan and Iowa to work in the furniture factory. All of them were single men, except Rollins.

OLD WOMEN'S GOSSIP.

Remember that Ex-President Harrison is to marry late Senator Stanford's widow.

A number of Indiana newspapers publish a story to the effect that ex-President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Stanford, widow of the late Indiana Senator, the California millionaire and United States senator, will shortly be united in marriage. The ex-president is soon to leave Indianapolis for the Stanford university at Palo Alto, Cal., to deliver a series of lectures, and while there he will be married to Mrs. Stanford, whose wealth is estimated at $30,000,000. Mrs. Stanford was a warm friend of the late Mrs. Harrison, and during the late Republican administration the Harrisons and Stanfords formed a close and lasting friendship, and one which is to terminate in the rumored marriage.

The friends of ex-President Harrison say that this report is a cruel hoax originating with some unscrupulous sensational newspaper.

It seems he enticed the girl into his room by means of a trick and then forcibly committed the crime with which he is charged. The girl escaped from his clutches and ran screaming into the streets. She found a policeman, and in a few minutes the Negro was in custody. There were threats of lynching.

FROM MANY PLACES.

VARIOUS KINDS OF NEWS FROM VARIOUS PLACES.

Yallant, the Bomb Throwing Anarchist of Paris, Loses His Head on the Paris Guillotine.—Several Items from Brazil. Wilhelm Talks of the Russian Treaty.

Paris cable: Yallant, the bomb thrower, was executed Feb. 4, at 7:30 a. m. His last words were: "Death to society; long live anarchy." There were no incidents of an exciting nature other than this.

When the hour of execution was announced the night before large crowds began to assemble, and it became necessary to erect barricades in all the principal streets leading to the square. At 3 a. m. four companies of the Gardes Republicaines and a squadron of mounted Gardes formed around the square. Meanwhile the crowd continued to increase, and signs of approaching turbulence on its part were noticeable. An angry rush of men and women up the Rue de la Roquette took place at 4 a. m., but was stopped by the police.

Promptly at 3:30 o'clock M. Deblere, the executioner, appeared at the starting of the guillotine. A few minutes later the two familiar vans rumbled into the square. They brought the guillotine and Deblere's assistants. The guillotine went to one van, and by the light of lanterns examined the knife and ropes as they were brought out. The construction of the guillotine proceeded rapidly and silently, but for the occasional third of a piece of wood falling into place. M. Lepine, prefect of police, was at hand to see that all precautions against anarchistic plots were taken.

At 7 o'clock the guards appeared with the prisoner, and after conversing with M. Deblere for about two minutes he was led to the guillotine. All was made ready, and at 7:10 o'clock Yallant's head fell into the basket.

Remedy from Rio.

Cable from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil: Admiral De Gama has given notice that he will soon blockade Rio, and has disposed his fleet accordingly. This step is intended to assert belligerent rights for the insurgents. The action of the foreign commanders is awaited with anxiety.

President Peixoto received United States Minister Thompson. No foreign diplomat has been received by Peixoto since the breaking out of the revolt and the occupation is now made in the case of Minister Thompson in recognition of the attitude of strict neutrality which the United States government and its representatives have preserved during the troubles in Brazil.

Admiral Benham is about to send the cruiser New York to Desterro in the south to look after American interests there which are menaced by the insurgents.

Admiral De Mello has formed a plan to transport 2,000 troops from Rio Grande do Sul and land them outside the harbor of Rio Janeiro and to make a combined land and sea attack.

Admiral de Gama had prepared to land his forces and attack Niteroy, believing that the national guard there would support him. His plans were discovered and he abandoned the scheme.

England's underhanded methods have again been manifest. Mello and Da Gama's friends among the nationality have been supplying them for some time with rifles and ammunition. The English tug Cardiff was captured by President Peixoto's orders shortly after she left the wharf. She was found to be laden with dynamite, which she was taken to the insurgent warship Trajano, lying outside the harbor in Rio Bay. The tug was run aground by the shore and the explosives removed. The captain of the Cardiff then complained to be British officials. The English are indignant and revert to the "highlanded outrage" with considerable heat.

Emperor William Says Something.

Berlin cable: Emperor William attended the dinner given by Chancellor von Capri to members of parliament and delivered a speech. In this he announced the fact that the treaty of commerce with Russia had been signed. His majesty said that never before had the reichstag to make a decision fraught with such important consequences as this treaty. Its rejection, he said, would be inevitably followed by a tariff war and at not a very remote period by a real war. "Let every deputy," he continued, "realize his responsibility. The favorable terms of the treaty were entirely due to personal intervention of the czar and his strong love of peace. The treaty is marked throughout by love of peace. The czar had been compelled to overcome a vigorous resistance on the part of the manufacturing and commercial interests of Russia."

Emperor William was exceedingly gracious and animated, and remained at the soiree for three hours. Herr Levitzow, the president of the reichstag, submitted to the emperor the grievances of the farmers against the financial reform bill. His majesty listened attentively and then repeated that the passage of the bill was of high political necessity. By passing it the reichstag would win the lasting gratitude of the Germans, and he concluded by saying that patriotism and responsibility forbade its rejection.

One of the Brandt flour mills at Wilmington, Del., burned. The loss is estimated at about $200,000.

Dwight L. Moody, the world renowned evangelist, and Ira D. Sankey, the great oratorical singer, have begun a series of meetings in Washington, D. C. The meetings are to have the support of all the evangelical organizations and everything points towards an unusually successful series.

CONGRESSIONAL NEWS.

Senators—Forthright day.—The resolution of Senator Stewart, declaring that Secretary Carlisle has no power to issue the bonds for which he has been advertised, was discussed, but no action was taken. The internal revenue bill was added to the Wilson tariff bill after a stormy discussion. The principal feature of the bill was to increase the tax upon whisky from 35 cents to 50 cents, and to extend the bonded period from three to eight years. These provisions were the looking point of an increase of the bonded period, were bitterly opposed by prominent members upon both sides of the House, and despite the opposition the latter proposition was the one to increase the bonded period to eight years was struck out, while the increase of the tax was retained. Only one other amendment of importance to the internal revenue features of the bill was carried. It was a provision to extend the operation of the income tax to all money and personal property given or bequeathed by inheritance. This, it is estimated, will increase the revenue from the income tax to about $3,600,000 per annum.

Senators—Forthright day.—The bond issue was again discussed. Senator Stewart and Mr. Wilson were the principal speakers. Mr. Wilson had no authority to issue bonds as proposed. No action. House.—The tariff bill passed by a vote of 154 yeas to 104 nays. The vote was full of excitement and in the Wilson tariff bill, with the income tax, was reported to the House. The bill was then taken up for consideration. The speaker said that the bill was a high piece of legislation, and that the House should not pass it without a full discussion. The speaker then read the bill, and the House proceeded to consider it. The bill was passed by a vote of 154 yeas to 104 nays.

GEORGE W. CHILDS DEAD.

The Celebrated and Beloved Philanthropist Gone to His Reward.

On January 16 George W. Childs, the well-known philanthropist and editor of the Public Ledger, of Philadelphia, was stricken with a second attack of apoplexy. Multitudes of friends made anxious inquiries from all parts of the country, and were told that Mr. Childs would recover. But, notwithstanding this, he slowly sank until at 3:01 a. m., February 3, his spirit fled.

George W. Childs was born at Baltimore, Md., Mar. 12, 1829. He entered the United States navy at the age of 15, and spent fifteen months in the service. He then settled in Philadelphia, where he obtained employment as a shop boy in a book store. At the age of 20 he had saved a few hundred dollars, and set up in business for himself, and when he was 21 he was a member of the publishing firm of S. W. Parsons & Co., afterwards Childs & Peterson. He was successful as a publisher. In 1858 he retired from the firm, and on December 3, 1858, became the proprietor of the Public Ledger, which he has since conducted. Mr. Childs has made splendid use of his vast wealth. He was philanthropic in the best sense. He was a close friend of Gen. Grant, and he gave him a large sum of money. He was a close friend of the late President Lincoln, and he gave him a large sum of money. He was a close friend of the late President Grant, and he gave him a large sum of money. DRESS GOODS!

There is a time for everything and now is the time for all Ladies who are looking for an opportunity to buy a Nice Dress, Cheap, to call and look over the line of Dress Goods we are showing. The stock is in first class shape but we are going to reduce it in order to make room for the Spring Stock which will come later in the season. Here they go: As a starter we will place on sale on Saturday morning, Feb. 10th, a line of STRICTLY ALL WOOL DRESS FLANNELS, in desirable shades and novelties, measuring 36 and 38 inches in width and have sold all this season at 50 cents per yard, and close the entire line at just 1-2 price, or 25 cents per yard. Come and see them they speak for themselves. To go with these we will sell another lot of that CREAM WHITE DOMET FLANNEL at 4c per yard, and one lot of good CANTON FLANNEL, former price 10 cents, to close at 7c per yard. No comment necessary; the goods at these prices tell the story.

Willis Nash has been at his brother W. E. Nash's assisting in the building of a carriage house.

E. B. Hosley and wife of Howell were the guests from Friday till Sunday of C. and E. Harmon and families.

The secretary of the Sunday school at the Griswold school house is ten years old. The fact of her being re-elected was mentioned to show that she had satisfactorily filled the position when younger still. (Seems as if the editor isn't "up" in the intricacies of syntax. If we had meant that she had held the office ten years wouldn't we have been likely to say "an old ten year secretary?")—[All our fault. Ed.]

Last week Thursday and Friday, Feb. 1 and 2, the convention which has been planned for some time by the farmers clubs of Michigan met at Lansing and organized under the name of the Michigan Association of Farmers Clubs. Twenty-two clubs were represented. A. N. Kimmie and Frank Durfee of Novi attended as delegates from the "Argonaut," a farmers club of this town. Mr. Kimmie was one of the committee appointed to draft the constitution and by-laws.

Hugh Smith of Novi died in 1879 leaving a portion of his property in trust to his grandson, Guy Smith, to be delivered to him upon his reaching his majority. Guy, however, died before becoming twenty-one years of age and the question arose as to whether the property left him should go to the other heirs, having lapsed; or should go to the heirs of Guy. The question was argued before Judge Patterson last Saturday. Taft & Smith appearing for the original heirs and Aaron Perry for the heirs of Guy. Taft & Smith contended that the boy not having reached the requirements of the will did not therefore legally come into the property, while the other side claimed that the property was his by rights and should go to his heirs. The judge decided in favor of the latter and the property will go to his mother.—Pondus Papers.

All the extra seats available were brought into the school-room Saturday evening to accommodate the folks who came to the W. N. D. C. meeting. Besides the prepared program of which but three numbers were missing there were recitations and music by several of the visitors. In the discussion—Resolved—"that the theory of creation by evolution does not conflict with science or the christian religion," the other disputants gave all their time to Mr. Leavenworth and Mr. Kimmie who gave extremely interesting arguments on their respective sides of the question. The negative, as represented by the last named gentleman, was victorious as the resolution was lost. The arguments were so evenly balanced that some did not vote for the reason that they were unable to decide which was "most convincing." Program for Feb. . .

Mr. Robinson of Plymouth has charge of the Sunday school.

Why should even a school teacher write a letter last Thanksgiving time and forget to mail it until Feb. 1st?

A few days ago a peddler called at the house of Mr. Benton of the dairy farm and while engaged showing his wares Mrs. Benton discovered that his coat was on fire. He had hastily put his corn clobber into the pocket with out emptying the bowl and thus came near cremating himself.

A HORRIBLE R. R. ACCIDENT.

Is a daily chronicle in our papers; also the death of some dear friend, who has died with Consumption, whereas, if he or she had taken Out's Cure for Throat and Lung diseases in time, life would have been rendered happier and perhaps saved. Heed the warning! If you have a cough or any affection of the Throat and Lungs call at C. R. Stevens, sole agent, and get a trial bottle free. Large size 50c. No 7
