WORKING MEN.

They Were Strictly in it at Monday's Election.

ELECTED EVERY MAN ON TICKET

288 Votes Cast—A Number Were Spoiled.

Monday's election again demonstrated that the "working men" could sweep things if they wished. There was no excitement however, and all went "merry as a marriage bell."

Following is the correct count, the "workingmen's" name appearing first:

President:
C. A. Hutton, 147
J. M. Swift, 131

Trustees:
C. A. Sessions, w 170
A. K. Dolph, w 161
Geo. Rayson, w 150
John Highland, c 98
H. Yerkes, c 100
F. A. Miller, c 130

Clerk:
C. H. Johnson, 154
Chas. Stevens, 117

Treas:
D. B. Northrop, 164
L. A. Babbitt, 113

Assessor:
W. H. Ambler, 147
E. S. Horton, 120

St. Com:
E. Vandenburg, 170
I. N. Blackwood, 106

Constable:
W. H. Brigham, 168
P. E. White, 105

There were 452 votes registered and 288 votes cast. 76 were straight working men and 36 straight citizens. Four were thrown out entirely because no one could tell for whom the male citizen had tried to vote, though he had been told how to manipulate the new voting system hundreds of times before. These were ten or a dozen other ballots that were so improperly marked that sometimes the voter voted for only one or two candidates. The highest number cast was for president, being 278.

"UNCLE" JOHN GARDNER

The Funeral Occurred Monday Afternoon.

The funeral of "Uncle" John Gardner, whose death was briefly announced in last week's issue, occurred from the Methodist church Monday afternoon, Rev. Geo. Hudson, of Saginaw officiating. And thus another pioneer of Northville has passed over the river. He was born in Reenselaer Co., N. Y., May 9, 1814, came to Michigan in 1837, and located a farm on the base line in the township of Novi, three miles from this village. Mr. Gardner had two children, a son and a daughter. The son died many years ago. The daughter is now the wife of Asa Smith, of this place. Mr. Gardner was a man of strict integrity, a kind husband, an indulgent father, strictly honest and upright in all his dealings with his fellowmen, loved and respected by all. By industry and frugality he acquired a handsome property. He was a farmer in the strictest sense of the word, and nothing else, always refusing public offices frequently tendered him by the citizens of the township of Novi, where he spent nearly fifty years of his life.

His first wife died in 1879. He subsequently married Miss Farley, a lady well and favorably known in this community, who has ever been his faithful and loving helpmate. In the loss of his eight Mr. Gardner found in his wife his second eyes and constant attendant.

No longer able to superintend the management of his farm, he rented them and moved to this village.

Though always highly esteemed, Mr. Gardner came into more than ordinary prominence in Northville by his recent presentation to the village of the valuable town clock, which all along down through the ages to come will be a fitting monument and a lasting remembrance to his memory.

DEATH OF MR. ROCKWELL

It Occurred at the Setting of Sunday's Sun.

A. E. Rockwell the well known jeweler, died Sunday evening. He was slowly recovering from hemorrhage of the lungs which had occurred some two months ago. He was taken ill again two weeks ago Monday, but as noted in Friday's paper he was on the gain again. Another hemorrhage occurred Sunday toward night, and in a few moments another of our land marks of business men had passed over with the silent majority.

Mr. Rockwell was a native of New York State, where he was born nearly forty-six years ago. For nearly a quarter century he had been engaged successfully in the jewelry business in this village, and for some twenty years in the same store. He was always upright and honorable in all his dealings and was highly respected in both business and social circles.

Mr. Rockwell was a member of the original Northville cornet band, and assisted in its organization twenty-three years ago. He was all through the late war and held the office of sergeant. He was a member of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias and was one of the charter members of both subordinate lodge and the Uniform Rank.

The funeral, which was private, was held from the residence on Dunlap street, Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Belding, of the Presbyterian church, of which society deceased was a worthy member, officiated.

Teachers meet at Milford today and tomorrow.

The South Lyon Excelsior has just entered up its bright, fourteenth year.

Thos. Thorabill Jr. is Milford's new postmaster, or will be soon as his commission arrives.

Abundant Oakland county Sunday school association meet at Pontiac Methodist church March 20 and 21.

The registration board at Newage, met this year in a blacksmith's shop. Irony place that for a board meet.

Pontiac's gold cure is closed up and the promoter has returned to his New York home. The Northville cure is now at its best, with patients arriving almost daily.

The village of Wayne will be properly side-walked whether or not. Amateur theatricals are now being prepared with which to make in-enough shekles to do the deed.

The F. & P. M. R. R. will sell tickets to Detroit March 20 and 21, limited to return March 23, at one and one third fare for round trip, on account of the Christian Endeavor meet.

The election of village officers at Milford Monday resulted in a majority for the republicans. John Crawford, president; Arthur Wells, Andrew Coulter, William Palmer, trustees; George P. McCoy, clerk; J. S. Hewitt, treasurer.

Now will the Record please advise us what affinity there is between Chinese firecrackers and American patriotism? Cracking of jokes barred out.—Ann Arbor Courier.

Barring the "Chinese" part we should say the same that the hatchet and cherry tree bear to February 22.

The Christian Endeavors now have 30,000 societies aggregating a membership of 750,000. Michigan alone has 700 societies with a membership of 30,000. These will doubtless be represented at the convention held in Detroit next week.

But these were not fine tooth combs—that sale comes on later of which due notice will be given.

To show how careful some publishers look after their subscription lists we note that the Pontiac Post has been sending the Record two copies each week for nearly two years. is a good paper however, and we read both copies.

The Wayne Review has a County House correspondent who writes poetry. Last week his whole column of correspondence was in rhyme. The fellow is under Dr. Bennett's treatment and it is thought will recover in time.

As a result of a warmly-contested election at Plymouth, the entire citizens' ticket was elected, as follows: President, George Hunter; clerk, Jas. O. Eddy; treasurer, E. K. Bennett; assessor, George C. Peterhans; street commissioner, Ed. Corbitt; trustee, R. L. Root; C. A. Roe, D. Jolliffe; constable, Josiah Cochran.

At Holly Monday, Jas. Slocum, editor of the Advertiser, came within a pedro of getting elected president of the village. It was nip and tuck but Phil Calkins beat him by five votes. An editor has no business to run for anything anyway, except perhaps it be an irate subscriber with a club. It is the editor's business to see that everyone else is elected.

We are pleased to note that the Newage Democrat has undergone some very noticeable improvements for the better, under E. Roscoe Reed's management. The trouble with Reed was he had always missed his calling heretofore. He started in as a republican, then became a prohibitionist, next a farmer, but all were failures till he at last turned into a full-fledged Democrat, and now he is getting right to the front.

An Explanation.

As an explanation in justice to B. A. Wheeler I wish to say that the various reports in regard to the business relations of Mr. Wheeler and myself are groundless. He has satisfied me in the way of a bonus for the unexpired time that he was to remain out of business as per agreement at the time of purchase. I am in no way connected with his business or he with mine as has also been reported.—ROLLIN H. PURDY.

and contemptible; several negroes, promiscuous, brutalized and sly—such was the town census of Doone. The latest fad which had seized upon the town was engineered by the faith cure apostles, who held meetings night after night in the meeting house; who cured old Dots rheumatism and made pale Mergie Mole, the druggist's daughter, throw away the crutch and walk and dance. Great excitement and enthusiasm was the result of these successes, which the gross ignorance of the townspeople pronounced a miracle, with their usual impetuosity they raved and believed, and when the only really pretty and pure child in the town was stricken with fever, they again gloried in the occurrence and res down to wait for another faith cure miracle. This child was the pet of the whole community, from the forest giant in the pine woods, whose heart melted under the soft gaze and light coress of the little winsome maid, to the postmaster, who ran to lift her over the counter and cry: "Missus—ere's little Missie a-rattin' in." She was worse than fatherless. This bairn, for her mother was a deceived and deserted girl. Really deceived, for she had believed herself a lawful wife, until the small girl was a year old, and had held up her early head in innocent pride of her "handsome gentleman," as the admiring townspeople called her husband. Had Doone folly laid hands on him after his deceit was known, the "handsome gentleman's" career would have summarily ended, but he disappeared too quickly even for Lynch law. When

Little Missie fell ill, the people interviewed the faith cure apostles and gave them clearly to understand that her cure was imperative. They believed, but they used strong pressure.
 Great sons of Anak came, and thick-lipped negroes and terrible women and tobacco-chewing men, and with one voice the nations demanded that little Missie be "lighted." The head apostle, a silver-haired, fat man, and his confreres, a hollow-eyed and lanky exhorter, bowed gravely and, summoned the sisters, who completed the quartette, to the bedside of the unconscious child. They touched the palms of her burning little hands with holy oil, and moaned and postured beside her. Then, as she muttered and moaned they sang and the watchers joined in the chorus. Her mother went from the room with flaming eyes, she seized upon the quiet wife of the postmaster.
 "Get a doctor," she gasped, "they are killing her."
 The postmaster's wife led her away to where the crowd could not see or hear.
 "My dear," she said, "I reiterate at once to my niece who's a doctor, and she will be here on the train to-night.
 But you must not quarrel with the people, you must outwit them."
 Then as the girl-mother stared at her uncomprehendingly, she added:
 "When my niece comes she will find a way!" The whistle of the incoming train sounded as she spoke. "Go back—try and bear it a little longer," she whispered and slipped away.
 One sister was exhorting the crowd in the tiny sitting room to prayer, and beyond, on her white bed, lay tossed and raved little Missie, all unconscious of the din which seemed like agonistic torture to the outraged mother. They sang as they prayed, and as they lustily lifted a favorite hymn, "Come Spirit, Heal the Child," the outer door flew open and in the gathering gloom stood a very spirit form with smiling face and golden hair, with wide blue eyes and a faint, lovely form robed in classic garments. A little Roman lamp was in her hand and her other hand was raised as if to combine the silences from the awe-struck singers.
 The faith cure quartette fell on their knees and covered their faces as the radiant form glided slowly toward them. Softly she raised the little child in her arms and as slowly glided from the room into the darkening night.
 The postmaster's wife closed the door and said, "Let every one sing the Doroology."
 And sing they did, once, twice, thrice, and then the faith cure quartette were beset with questions.
 "Was it an angel?"
 "Had the child been taken to Pär-dise?"
 "How did they account for it?"
 The quartette were strangely silent they bowed their heads and looked at one another, and finally when the postmaster's wife suggested that the crowd should all go home, and offered to remain with the girl's mother, they rushed out in tumultuous and delighted excitement with the story of the visitation. The faith cure quartette were last to quit the room: as they went the black-headed man turned and said in hollow tones, "I used to be sure that mores at boys' things," and the postmaster's wife responded scornfully, "Oh, you got out before the warrant came," which he did with a very ugly word.
 Then the door of an inner room opened and the spirit came, and back still holding the child in her arms.
 "You poor little woman," she said compassionately to the mother: "I am going to take this child back with me to the city hospital. She is very ill. Will you come, or will you stay with Annie? I'll take good care of her and bring her back when she's well. Oh, Annie, wasn't it a success! And now I have thought, any old Greek tabernacle rig would have carried it off so well!"
 The postmaster's wife took the stellar child into her arms.
 "Go in and change your things before you take cold, my dear," she said, laughing. Then she turned to the child's mother. "Will you trust her with little Missie? You can go up to the city if all doesn't go on well, but I am sure my niece will cure her."
 The girl-mother looked at the golden-haired figure in its bare feet and classic robe.
 "Is she a real woman?" she said
 nervously.
 "To be sure I am: a real woman,
 doctor, and I must take your baby away from this pest of thieves and impostors before they murder her.
 Apostles, indeed! That lantern-jawed man was under arrest for that in our hospital and jumped his bail, and I think I know the ugly faces of those sisters, too! The old chap was dismissed from the church for drinking.
 A nice lot! Now, Annie, I'll show you and clothed and have just ten minutes before train time. Shall I take Missie with me?"
 The young mother faltered, looked into the kindly waiting face, and silently placed Missie in the outstretched arms of the Healing Spirit.

Now a Little Old Woman Caught Her Train in Chicago.

Charles Averill is the biggest railroad conductor who runs a train in Chicago. He is six feet six inches in height and turns the beam at 330 pounds. And his popularity does not take second place, even to his size. Those who have seen him under circumstances calculated to call out any evil in a man's nature are willing to aver that his heart is proportionately the largest organ in his huge anatomy. Averill grew what is known as the Libertyville accommodation on the Milwaukee and St. Paul road out of Chicago every evening at 5:20 o'clock. It is a popular train, and as it is the only one which many suburbanites can take in leaving the city, it is generally crowded. The crowd is big enough sometimes to cause delay for a minute or two beyond schedule time. It was bigger than usual the other evening.

When the train got to Pacific Junction more time was lost. It did seem as if the last passenger that wanted to dismount there would never leave the car platform. Conductor Averill's impatience was clearly visible on his usually good humored countenance, and the feet of the last passenger had barely touched the ground when he swung his lantern, and the train started.

Hardly had the train begun to revolve when a piercing shriek was heard from the rear end of the train. Men jumped to their feet in alarm and everybody supposed that some frightful accident had occurred. Conductor Averill's face turned white as a sheet. Had his impatience in starting the train been the cause of injuring somebody? That was the first thought that suggested itself to his mind and it made him shudder. Grasping the cord that sets the air brakes, he had the train at a stop again in a twinkling.

"Oh, oh! oh! What will I do?" came from the rear end of the train in heartrending tones that struck dismay to every breast. A stride or two and the big conductor was at the spot from whence they proceeded.

"Oh, oh! oh! I have missed my train, and what will I do? I don't get home to-night, and a little old woman, with heavy basket on arm, waded laboriously through the deep snow viewing the rear end of what she supposed was the departing train. Averill picked her up under one arm, threw her up on the car, and again signaled the train to proceed. His face was a study for a minute or two. Feelings of relief, annoyance and mirth contended for mastery in expression.

"Well," said he, as he last found words, "I'm thankful that that poor body is not ground to a pulp, as I supposed; but what made you scream so?" he added, addressing the woman.

"Oh, I'm so glad I did," the woman replied. "I'm so glad you stopped the train. Now I can get home to-night," and the little old woman broke into a merry laugh.

Now it is a standing joke with the passengers of that train about Conductor Averill's experience with the little old woman.

A Valuable Dog.

When Sheridan was a manager, he even indulged in such catering to the public taste as offering to the public a dog piece," by Reynolds, entitled, "The Caravan, or the Driver and His Dog." Of its first presentation it is recorded that Sheridan, after witnessing the performance, suddenly entered the green room, shouting: "Where is he? Where is my guardian angel?" Presuming he meant to congratulate the author, Reynolds replied: "Here I am!" "Fool," replied Sheridan, "I don't mean you; I mean the dog." Later, one Birnam, who played in the piece, approached Sheridan one night with words of countenance, saying: "Sir, there is no guaipling against illness. It is truly lamentable to stop the run of a successful play like this; but really—"

"Really what?" cried Sheridan, interrupting him. "I am so unwell that I can not go on longer than tonight." "You!" exclaimed Sheridan; "my good fellow, you verriified me! thought you were going to say the dog was ill!" —Argonaut.

O'Connell had got a man off at one time for highway robbery, and, at another, for burglary, but on a third occasion, for stealing a coasting brig, the task of hoodwinking the jury seemed too great for even his powers of cajolery. However, he made out, though the crime was committed on the high seas, and ob tained an acquittal. The prisoner lifted up his hand and eyes to heaven and exclaimed: "May the Lord long spare you, Mr. O'Connell, do ye!" —Argonaut.

Remedy.

Numerous writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application, and one that will reach the remote parts undisturbed. From our own experience we have found catarrh is proof positive that only one remedy has completely met these conditions, and that is Dr. Pierce's Cream Balm. This safe and pleasant remedy has unaltered efficacy against everything else has ever done, and without offending and patients freely concede this fact.

Pictures of helmets appear on the Egyptian monuments.

That old established cough remedy, Dr. J. C. Williams' Cough Syrup, is also a valuable active compound. It is a home remedy, and in this locality needs no words of praise. It is a simple, yet powerful, remedy, and it is the standard remedy for coughs, colds, and all throat troubles. With great confidence we can recommend it to all those who are afflicted with these ailments. It is a valuable recommendation of Dr. J. C. Williams in itself—a Burlington, Vt., Free Press, Jan. 26, 1892.

The reader of this paper will be pleased to learn that such a cure has been able to cure all the cases and that it is now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Dr. J. C. Williams' Cure is taken internally acting directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system thereby restoring the system to health and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature to destroy its source. The practitioners have much faith in its curative powers, that they offer one hundred dollars for each case cured and sent them to the list of testimonials. Address, Dr. J. C. CAUTION—If any dealer offers you W. L. Douglas shoes at a reduced price, or says he has them without the name stamped on the bottom, put him down at a fraud.

THIS IS THE BEST $3. SHOE IN THE WORLD

W. L. DOUGLAS Shoes are stylish, easy fitting, and give better satisfaction at the prices advertised than any other make. Try one pair and be convinced. The stamping of W. L. Douglas' name and price on the bottom, which guarantees their value, saves thousands of dollars annually to those who wear them. Dealers who push the sale of W. L. Douglas Shoes gain customers, which helps to increase the sales on their full line of goods. They can afford to sell at a less profit, and we believe you can save money by buying all your footwear of the dealer advertised below. Catalogue free upon application. W. L. NORTHVILLE RECORD, Every Friday Morning.

F. S. NEAL, PUBLISHER.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. C. H. Ball has returned home. L. G. Pierson of Detroit was in town last week.

J. N. Emory of Detroit, was in town last week. Lyman Yerkes is moving out to "Peaceful Valley."

Miss Mary Lapham is preparing for a summer abroad. H. F. Brown spent Sunday with his folks near Plymouth.

W. T. Balford and wife spent Saturday with Holly friends. Miss Nina Ambler spent Sunday with Farmington friends.

Mrs. Don C. Yerkes, of Milford, was among Northville friends last week. Jacob Leechman and wife, of Pontiac, were in town a few days last week.

F. D. Root left Wednesday for Longsight, to resume his railroad duties. Wm. Thurtell and wife, have been rusticated in our village a week or two past.

We understand that H. E. Lake and E. S. Horton leave for California, next week. Mrs. Grace Allan of Detroit is visiting her mother, Mrs. Blackwood, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurtell and son expect to leave for the Pacific coast next week. Rev. J. M. Belding spoke at the McGrath mission, Detroit, Tuesday night.

Mrs. F. A. Sutherland is visiting her parents at Argente. She will return this week. Mrs. Hutchinson has gone to Durand to spend a few weeks with her son, H. Hutchinson.

Dr. J. S. Moffat, of Lansing, a former owner of the opera house property, was in town this week. Henry Dunlap returned Tuesday from Jacksonville, Fla. where he has been spending the winter.

Miss Iver Ethelyn Smith, soprano of Detroit, will assist the Mozart quartet at Wednesday evening's entertainment. Miss Eaton is filling Miss Priest's place in the Record office this week.

The latter expects to resume work next week. Clarence English, a former employee of the Record office, and a Mr. Westfall, of South Lyon, were Northville visitors Saturday.

Letters from Will Nichols in Mexico, show him to be steady on the gain. He now weighs 127 pounds, a gain of seven since leaving here.

Master Pierre Sackett leaves today for Iowa to live with his uncle, C. W. Platte. Wednesday night sixteen of his schoolmates gave him an enjoyable surprise.

Chas. R. Stevens retires from the office of village clerk this week with the credit of having made one of the best, if not the best, clerks the village ever had.

Miss Pearl Stoddard, a faithful employee of this office for six months past has been obliged to resign her position on account of the continued illness of her mother.

W. Y. Wentworth, ex-state game warden of the southern district of Wisconsin, Fort Atkinson, was here this week attending the funeral of his brother-in-law, A. E. Rockwell.

L. W. Wager left Monday for Detroit where he has been given, and has accepted, the office of assistant chief operator in the main telephone office. The company consider him as one of their most expert operators.

Married—at the home of the bride, Wednesday March 15, by Rev. F. E. Arnold, Mr. Ernest J. Kellogg of Northville, and Miss Alice Reese of Plymouth. Only the immediate relatives of the two families were present.

We wish we could impress more fully upon our readers that our "purely personal" column is theirs not ours. We want the names of every visitor in or out of town every week. No matter who, we want them all. Tell us personally, leave a note at the office or drop a line in our item box at the post office.

MILLINERY OPENING—Mrs. Dickerson & Slater will have their millinery opening (in the Beal block formerly occupied by Teichner & Co's. grocery,) next week Wednesday and Thursday. All the ladies of Northville and surrounding country are cordially invited to attend.

Notice. The undersigned will pay no more bills contracted by anyone without a written order signed by myself, Mrs. E. S. Fox.

READ CAREFULLY. Dullam's German Medicine Co. Gents: For over 4 years I have been afflicted with an eruption of the skin, which became very troublesome and I could get no relief. I was also troubled very badly with constipation, which nothing I tried gave me permanent relief until I took Dullam's Great German Blood Purifier, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Remedy, and since taking I have been entirely cured. For a tonic blood purifier and general health restorer I can heartily recommend it.

Mrs. Wm. Copeland, Flint, Mich. For sale by C. R. Stevens, Druggist.

FOUR BIG SUCCESSSES. Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, coughs and colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for liver, stomach and kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at C. R. STEVENS' drug store.

A POSITIVE FACT. Ladies do not delay your valuable time by waiting and suffering, but secure a bottle of Dullam's Great German Female Uterine Tonic and be cured of your trouble either in old or young. It is the very best prescription I have ever prescribed in my extensive practice. It has given the best results in the greatest number of cases of female troubles of any medicine that I ever used. I do not make a practice of using or recommending patent medicines, but this remedy is prepared by a very competent physician and chemist of my acquaintance and I can cheerfully and conscientiously recommend it as the best.

A. C. Frush, M. D. For sale by C. R. Stevens, Druggist.

WHY? Taste of "Royal Ruby Port Wine" and you will know why we call it "Royal." A glass held up to the light will show why we call it Ruby. $500 reward for any bottle of this wine found under five years old, or a any way adulterated. It is grand in sickness and convalescence, or where a strengthening cordial is required; recommended by druggists and physicians. Be sure you get "Royal Ruby," don't let dealers impose on you with something "just as good." Sold only in bottles; price, quarts $1, pints 60 cts. Bottled by Royal Wine Co. Sold by C. R. Stevens, Northville, Mich.

SPECIMEN CASES. S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis. was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him. Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill. had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg, doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold by C. R. STEVENS' drug store.

"TIME!" is the main thing—in a watch—accurate time. When you can get that in a handsome, genuine case for ten dollars or less, it is folly to pay fifty for the same thing. The "TIME!" to purchase Sterling silver goods is when you can get 1-2 doz. heavy Sterling Teaspoons, of Rockwell for $5.33, and Tablespoons and Forks as low in proportion to weight.

IT IS "TIME!" to have your eyes fitted with Spectacles or Eyeglasses just before the peddler calls and sells you a pair that is a misfit. Our prices are just as low and we test your eyes in a scientific manner.

Executor's Sale. NOTICE is hereby given that I will sell at public auction on the premises, March 27, 1894, at 10 o'clock a. m., that portion of the estate of Jonathan Neal, deceased, which is situated on section 20, in the township of North, Oakland county, Michigan, consisting of 47 1/2 acres.

HELEN N. WRITING, Executrix of Said Estate.

NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of a license to sell real estate granted on the 6th day of February 1894 by the Probate Court for the county of Wayne State of Michigan, in the matter of the estate of SUSAN WEBBER deceased, I shall on the 27th day of March, A. D. 1894, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the mill of the Yerkes Brothers in the village of Northville, Wayne county Michigan, offer for sale the following described piece of parcel of land situated in the township of Plymouth, Wayne county Michigan, to wit: Beginning at the point where the high water mark of the Northville Mill's mill pond intersects with the west line of the Flint and Pere Marquette Rail Road on the south side of said pond, running thence southerly along the west side of said Rail Road to the north line of lands owned by Orange Butler, thence southerly fifteen (15) rods to a point on north line of highway, thence north to the highwater mark on south side of said pond; thence easterly along the south line of said pond to the place of beginning.

The prohibitionists will celebrate Neal Dow's thirtieth birthday at the W. C. T. U. hall, March 20.

Miss Kate Buchner will open a dress-making shop over the new millinery store on Main street.

R. H. Purdy, the well known grocery man, has contracted for double his old advertising space for another year.

The calculations are the Globe factory will start up full force, on eight hours time, commencing tomorrow.

Mozart Male quartette at the opera house next Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Young Men's league.

Please bear in mind the regular quarterly meeting of the Ladies Library Association at the library, rooms 203-204 this afternoon.

Lost—A copy of the book "China and the Chinese," by the Rev. John L. Nevins. Finder will please leave at Record office. J. N. Emery.

It is perhaps singular, but nevertheless true, that we seldom have one death in the village but what there is another before the funeral of the first is over.

The reception tendered the young people from Detroit, will be held at the Presbyterian parsonage this evening. A dozen of the city churches will be represented.

The attention of our farmer friends is called to the Globe Furniture company's plan in this issue. The quality of the plan and the price asked speaks for itself.

"What shall we do?" A plain homespun talk from Rev. J. M. Belding will precede the communion service Sunday morning. Preparatory service Saturday afternoon at 2:30.

The teachers examination to be held in Detroit March 25 and 30, will be held in Caton's business college, Rowland street. Remember, Caton's business college, Rowland street.

Send a postal card to the Keystone Watch Co., Philadelphia, and get free of cost an ornamental charm in the shape of a watch case opener. State that you saw their ad in this paper.

The members of the Yarnall Gold Cure club are urgently requested to attend a meeting to be held at the institute on Sunday next at 4 o'clock. Important business calls for special attention.

F. R. Beal gave the talk at the Men's meeting Sunday afternoon. He took the title of Kossuth for his subject. It was an exceedingly interesting address and listened to with close attention by the large audience present.

The donor of the town clock, Mr. Gardner, and the gentleman of whom it was purchased and who was employed by the village to care for it, Mr. Rockwell, both lay cold in death at the same time.

An interesting letter from the secretary of the Yarnall Gold Cure, W. T. Walker, of Detroit, in Saturday's News is well worth perusal and careful thought by every intelligent person of this country.

Our readers will confer a favor when purchasing goods advertised in these columns by saying they saw the advertisement in the Record. This costs nothing on the part of the customer and will be appreciated by both merchant and publisher.

At Sunday's meeting of the Young Men's league, the following officers were elected for ensuing year. President, Prof. D. C. Bliss; 1st vice, Chas. Dolph; 2nd vice, Frank Ainslie; secretary, Frank Lewis; treasurer, Fred Ward.

If you have an out of town friend visiting you, or you are visiting out of town yourself, or know of anyone who is, see that the Record is notified. Even such an item is of interest to some of our readers. We endeavor to make this a feature of the paper. Please oblige us just this much.

Major Doctor Lansing, of Detroit, inspected Northville division, Uniform Rank, K of P, last week and installed the new officers. The division proposes to get a bustle on it the coming year, and some of the boys will doubtless attend the national encampment at Washington in August.

The Bay View Reading circle is doing finely, having just completed half of the year's work. The next session will be held at the home of F. R. Beal on Wednesday evening March 21, with the host as instructor. Canon Row's charming handbook on "Reasons for Believing in Christianity" is the next topic. Let every member of the circle be present.

H. M. White, our township treasurer, has successfully finished his work on the tax rolls and last week made his returns to the county treasurer. Of the $20,477.94 which appeared on the roll, but $79.82 was returned and $20,398.12 uncollected. Mr. White wishes to thank the people for the kindness they have shown him. Mr. White says the county treasurer reports the taxes as coming in very slowly. Of the nineteen townships but four or five had made their returns on the 9, when they ought to have been in on the 7.

The Ladies Guild will hold a "Ladies' social" March 30, at the home of Mrs. L. W. Hutton.

This township's uncollected tax returned in 1892 was $40.09 and 1893, $79.84. Livonia was $39.20 in 1892 and $124.38 in 1893.

The Ladies Guild are anticipating another pleasant rally in the lecture room of the Methodist church at 2:30 p. m. today.

Does not some lady want a box or a kid glove, or some gentleman a pair of overalls, or either a thin key? The articles await any owner at this office.

The Epworth League convention for Detroit District will be held at Ypsilanti on Monday and Tuesday evening of next week. Northville will send a liberal delegation.

A ten cent special will be given by the Christian Endeavor society, at the home of J. M. Belding this Friday evening. About fifteen of the Detroit C. E. workers will be present. All are cordially invited.

Geo. H. Dennis will have a sale of live stock, household goods, farm implements, grain, hay, etc., at his place, two and one-half miles north of here, Tuesday, March 20. Sale commences at 9 a. m., with lunch at noon.

Following letters are advertised at the post-office this week:

Editor-Record: Please insert the following ad to run one week:

To the farmers of the vicinity: The undersigned would like to meet parties who expect to have need of our services during the hot and dry summer months at Northville, May 3, 1894. A. W. Wagner, Mgr. Montrose Rain Making Co.

The Kullbiss Temular have elected the following officers for ensuing term:

E. C. O. R. Stevens.
Gen. E. K. Simmonds.
Capt. Gen. F. N. Clark.
Private J. L. Harland.
Recorder—L. A. Babbitt.
Treasurer—L. W. Simmonds.
S. Wardlaw—E. S. Horton.
J. Warren—Chas. Booth.
Sword Bearer—D. Leavenworth.
Sgt. Bearer—O. F. G. Iswald.
Sent—J. R. Nash.

The Townsend Dramatic company gave a creditable performance at the opera house Saturday night as a band benefit. The attendance was small and in consequence the band boys were in the hole. Northville has a band that all are proud of. They are always liberal in donating their services for various village entertainments during the season, and they certainly deserved a better patronage.

The will of the late John Gardner will probably be offered for probate today. The estate is divided as follows: Mrs. Gardner is given the life use of the 160 acre farm. Dunlap street home was deeded to her some ten years ago. The 160 acre farm at Mrs. Gardner's death goes to Harry Clark. Mrs. Geo. Clark gets the 140 acre farm which they have occupied for many years. The two grandchildren, John Gardner, and Mrs. Byron Hewitt each get $2,000 in cash, and to Mrs. Hewitt's child $100 is given in trust till he becomes of age. Mrs. Smith receives $1. Frank Terrill is administrator of the estate.

Look out for a fellow travelling about the county representing himself to be the advance agent of a travelling show, and rents space on farm buildings and fences to be used for the posting of bills of the alleged show. He pays the farmer two dollars for the privilege, and then produces a printed blank which he says is a voucher that he has paid the money and which the farmer unsatisfactorily signs. A few days later the farmer receives notice from a third party that he holds a note against him for $200 which he will please call and pay at his earliest convenience.

Lockwood & Green's dray team got a little frisky while tied at the depot Tuesday morning and meandered down Plymouth avenue at a J. I. C. gate. Seth Tubbs was coming up the Avenue about the same time, and to give the outfit a clear track in their race against time, he drove his rig under the shade of some tall maples in front of Mr. Stevens residence. This however acted only as a decoy and the racers made a bee-line for the audience by the trees. During the excitement, Mr. Tubbs's buggy and harness was badly shattered but fortunately no person or any of the animals were injured, and the runaways were soon secured.

An extra new line of boys' knee pants at Gorton & Co's.

Will Lockwood has bought back his old place of F. D. Butler, and moved therein.

The village authorities are busy these days clearing up our streets, and they again begin to present an attractive appearance.

Next Sabbath will be a special day at the Methodist church. The annual thank-offering service of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society, will occur at 7:30 p. m. All welcome.

The K. P.'s worked the second and third degrees Tuesday evening. A large delegation was present from Detroit, Salem and Plymouth. Every one had a delightful time, excepting the candidates.

A very courteous letter to the Record from Superintendent Corbett of the W. U. Telegraph Company this week says: "The same will receive attention. Everything possible will be done to make the service at Northville more satisfactory."

It is understood that E. S. Horton has bargained for the Argo mill for $5,000, and will take possession on his return from California. Mr. Thurler offered $3,000. He intended constructing a large elevator and make a specialty of grain buying in addition to the flouring business.

MOTHERS AND DAUGHTERS.

Over twelve years I was afflicted with a very serious female difficulty and for the last sixteen months was under treatment of three of the very best physicians that money could employ. Under their skillful treatment I gradually grew worse until they decided they could render me no permanent help. One of my friends persuaded me to try a bottle of Dullman's Great German Uterine Tonic, and after taking the bottle, can say I am better health than I have been for 26 years and am now sixty years old, but feel as young as at 30. June 2, 1890.

Richardson's Salesmen
Saturday, March 17.

SOME people say that it is "hard times" and perhaps they are, but we are ready to help you out and prove to you that times are not so hard provided you trade at the right place, and that place is always at the Busy Big Store! Some may say that talk is cheap, but "the proof of the pudding is in chewing the string" or broom splint, either one; and as we never attempt to bamboozle our trade by advertising in any manner special day sales as a figure head without giving them the prices of every article advertised, bargains advertised in this space are always of merit and we never fear of giving the prices. Here goes for

Saturday, March 17.

20 Dozen or 240 Pair Men's extra heavy cotton pants, good lookers and every seam warranted not to rip, and also warranted to be as good as any pant bought anywhere in the state of Michigan at $1.00 per pair and our special sale price will be but 59 cents per pair. To go with these we will sell 240 plaid Jackets at 39 cents each; thus you see you will be able during this sale to buy a Complete Suit for 98 Cents.

I think they are dandy's: so much so that I am wearing a suit of them myself and my salesmen were so well pleased with them that they are also each wearing a suit of them; therefore you need not be surprised to see some well dressed clerks on Saturday. Oh, by the way, we forgot to tell you that we will have a "Shoe Sale" on Saturday, and here is the price: Ladies Kid Button, or Lace Shoes, Patent toe tip, either Square or Opera toe, worth $2.00, of anybody's money! but our "shoe sale" price will be $1.25 per pair. Enough said.

Come and see us Saturday, March 17.

Yours without a struggle.

T. G. Richardson, THE CASH — OUTFITTER.
