NORTHVILLE RECORD,
 Every Friday Morning,
F. S. NEAL, PUBLISHER.

PURELY PERSONAL.

Mrs. F. W. Payne is on the sick list. Bert Lang was in Chicago over Sunday visiting his brother.
 Lyman Yerkes has moved to his farm, "Pleasant Valley."
 Miss Ella Bradley visited among Plymouth friends this week.
 Mrs. Sam Knapp is making an extended visit with friends in Owosso.
 J. A. Brokenshaw of Oxford visited at H. Priest's a few days this week.
 Mr. and Mrs. Jacobus of South Lyon were guests of the Mesdames Highland over Sunday.
 Kern Babbitt of Denver is expected home next week.
 Miss Gracie Yerkes gave a birthday party to a number of her young friends Tuesday evening.
 Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Lewis spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Taft, at South Lyon.
 Robt. McKahn who has been on the Whitaker place is removing to his new location on the base line.
 Mrs. S. E. Carrington is receiving a visit from her sister and husband, who are on their wedding tour.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joshua McCrumb of Novi visited with their daughter Mrs. W. W. Brown over Sunday.
 Carleton, E. Beau inspector of U. S. fish stations has been visiting the government hatchery here this week.
 N. H. Power of Farmington will move here next week and occupy the Asil Blair place, so we understand, on Wing street.
 Sunday evening Mr. Walker, organist of the Cass avenue Episcopal church officiated at the organ at the Presbyterian church.
 J. M. Showers of Fenton was in town Monday. Mr. Showers has charge of the Baptist ministers' home at that place.
 Miss Minnie Smith and mother who have been over here from Ypsilanti on account of their illness expect to return next week.
 Carl Doyle was in Northville over Sunday. He has sold his laundry business at Portland and will locate elsewhere shortly.
 Clarence English of South Lyon is again working in the Record job rooms. Clarence Showers of Fenton is also another new employee.
 Mrs. C. A. Shaw, Mrs. O. A. Marsh, and Mrs. N. C. Johnson, sisters and mother of Mrs. F. W. Payne, are visiting at the residence of F. W. Payne.
 The big Y. P. S. C. E. convention in Detroit this week was attended by Messrs. Thad Knapp and B. O. Webster and Miss Minnie Smith as delegates.
 C. D. Woodman is at the U. of M. hospital at Ann Arbor. The physicians there pronounce his ailment as inflammation of the spine. He will be obliged to remain for some time.
 Denver is having a hard time of it and under marshal law. Donald Fletcher, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church here, has been appointed chairman of the citizens committee on safety.
 Misses Ada Courtwright, Nethe Malaskey, Bessie Peck of Ann Arbor, Miss Lottie Howlett, Mr. C. E. Yerkes and Mr. Jas. McFarland of this place were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Griswold Sunday.
 The delegates to the Epworth League convention at Ypsilanti this week were Misses Laura Evans and Mae White. The Junior League was represented by Master Willie Dolph. Rev. Parrish was down on the program for several addresses.
 Referring to the recent entertainment at Milford the Times has this to say of two well known Northville ladies. "Mrs. Yerkes and Miss Babbitt are both proficient and talented elocutionists and they succeeded in pleasing their audience most thoroughly."
 Henry White, A. Houk, Jas. Hamilton and E. K. Starkweather attended the state G. A. R. encamp at Owosso this week as delegates from the Northville post. Lewis Kernitz was elected state commander. There were about 500 men in line. Owosso did herself proud in the way of entertaining.
 President W. H. Strong of the state Endeavor society brought nine young Detroiters with him to Northville last Friday night. They were entertained at the Presbyterian parsonage. Among those present were Walter C. Robinson secretary of the Detroit union, Hans H. Muehke, corresponding secretary and Chas. G. Cady.
 About two score and ten of Mr. Chadwick's and Mrs. Fry's Sunday school class gathered at the former's country home Monday night and with Farmer Chadwick for a leader made a moonlight raid on his sugar camp. Sap, syrup, jack-wax, sugar and fun, served just-as-you-like-it, was the program and those who didn't have a sweet, jolly good time were those who were not there.

Methodist Church Notes.

Special Good Friday service for the training class tonight.
 The W. F. M. society thank offering last Sunday evening netted $23.
 On Friday evening of next week the Ladies Guild will give a "Hard Times" social at L. W. Hutton's. Admission nine cents.

ADULTERATED WINE
 is injurious, but nothing gives strength, and tones up the stomach like a pure old port wine. "Royal Ruby Port," so called for its royal taste and ruby color, is on account of its purity, age and strength, particularly adapted for invalids, convalescents and the aged. Sold only in bottles (never in bulk) while cheap wine is sold by the gallon and gives a larger profit to the seller but less to the user. This wine is absolutely pure, and has the age without which no wine is fit to use. Be sure you get "Royal Ruby", quart bottles $1, pints 60 cts. Sold by C. R. Stevens, Northville, Mich.

NORTHVILLE LOCALS.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cager, March 21, a son.
The menu club have placed a first-class cook stove in the library room.
The next regular U. R., K. of P. meeting occurs the second Monday in April.
We note that Ameal Billat and Augusta Creger of Commerce are married.
The attention of our readers is particularly called to Yerkes Bros' new ad in this issue.
W. W. Brown has sold his oil route to Mr. Hamilton. Mr. Brown continues his tinning business.
An attempt is being made to secure better salaries for the railway postal clerks, which ought to succeed.
The present postal note will stay with us until July 1st when the new, better and safer style will come into use.
C. D. Waterman recently sold an eleven months old dressed hog to one of our local markets that weighed 367 pounds.
We are prepared to furnish any of our subscribers Stead's much talked of new book, "If Christ Came to Chicago" at fifty cents per copy.
Will Nichols sent his wife up a very handsome wild-cat skin which had been presented him by San Antonia friends. Will is still on the gain.
F. & P. M. corrected time card appears on local page of this issue: The one on inside page is not correct but will be fixed all right for next week.
C. D. Waterman is about to build a new house on his double lot on north Center street. He will also move to the village and occupy his Main street residence.
Mr. Green of Lockwood & Green has disposed of his interest in the dray business to Mr. Lockwood. Mr. Green accepts the position of clerk at the Park house.
It may be of interest to our readers to know that they can buy those newspaper coupon art portfolio pictures at almost any reliable art store for about six cents each.
The Weekly Witness of March 7 contains a good sound practical temperance sermon from the pen of Tolle Morgan. Domestic Journal, which is well worth reading.
The Ladies of the Maccabees will serve maple syrup, fritters and coffee, from five to nine o'clock, at the library rooms Tuesday evening, March 27. Bill ten cents. All are cordially invited.
The Shakespeare club finished the study of Hamlet Monday night. They will now take up Henry VIII for study. Anyone wishing to join the class may speak to Miss Alexander or Mr. Belding.
The Turk who lectures on the social life of his people at the Methodist church Monday night was the Star Course attraction at Detroit last week. The Detroit papers spoke very highly of his address.
There will be a box social and a fine entertainment of vocal music declamations and specialties by Messrs. Osburn and Allen, at the Yarnall Gold Cure institute for the benefit of the Ladies Auxiliary tonight. Everybody invited.
It gives me special pleasure to recommend Mr. Yovtcheff to all as a very interesting and instructive lecturer. My people and I have felt the highest satisfaction in hearing him. REV. JOHN WHITE CHADWICK, Brooklyn, N. Y.
There is something vilely wrong with society when wheat is at the lowest price ever touched in the history of the country and at the same time the largest number of people ever known in America are starving or living on charity.
We do not boast of doing better job printing than any other office, but we are always able to suit our customers, which is a sufficient guarantee of good work. Our prices are always reasonable. Give us a call if you want any printing done.
Geo. H. Dennis' auction sale which was to have been held Tuesday, Mar. 20, was postponed on account of bad weather until next Monday at 9 a. m. Mr. Dennis has a valuable lot of stock farm implements, grain, household goods, etc., to dispose of.
Next Sunday morning Rev. J. M. Belding, upon invitation, preaches an Easter sermon to the Knights Templar. The committee on decoration are Mrs. C. M. Joslin, Mrs. C. R. Stevens, Mrs. Eli Simonds, Mrs. Dr. Burgess, Mrs. E. S. Horton and Mrs. Dean Griswold.
Mrs. Highland's sketching club is divided into classes of five; No. 1 meets Thursday afternoons of each week. No. 2 will meet at her home Saturday night and set their day. Anyone not advanced in painting can join the club just as well as those who are.
I one thing more than another is needed in Northville it is a hustling man and pedues buyer. There is more here, though Nov. Wixom, Plymouth and every other small town around is well cared for in this respect. There is a good opening for some one.

The refrigerator folks have orders ahead for something like 1,000 refrigerators and in consequence the factory has been working nights this week. Among other orders sent in this week by Geo. Waterman was a large one from John Wannanaker of Philadelphia.
In response to a cordial invitation the Northville Lady Bees were present at the first birthday of Lily B. hive of Farmington last week. They were agreeably entertained by a most excellent program, followed by an elegant banquet, which was heartily enjoyed by all.
After looking over the vast amount of work that goes with the honor of the village clerkship, Mr. Johnson, clerk elect, has declined the office. Mr. Stevens has made a most excellent clerk the past year and the council can do no better than to re-appoint him.
The postoffice department recommends that parties sending packages through the mails write the address on the article as well as on the wrapper, so that if the latter be destroyed the article itself would show for whom it was intended, thus rendering its delivery possible.
Friends will please be prompt in sending us reports of meetings and other events. Remember the chief value of such matters generally is in getting them before the public promptly. Never take it for granted that a week makes no difference.
We suggest to our three local pastors that next Sunday after giving out the regular church notices they say: "For notices of the remainder of the week's entertainments see the Northville RECORD." Nearly every entertainment held in the village is gratuitously announced in the RECORD each week and it is an imposition on the part of the public to insist, or even ask, that the pulpit be made a bulletin board every Sunday.
Ella S. Yovtcheff, the learned Turk, now in America as a political refugee, will lecture at the Methodist church next Monday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League. The subject will be, "The social life of the Turks." We judge the name is pronounced with a grippy sneeze, holding the head well bent toward the front, lips partially open and let'er go. Those not afflicted with the grip can get the correct pronunciation by dropping a little cayenne pepper on a red-hot stove. The lecture will be a most interesting one however and a treat. Admission 25 cents; children 15.
Last Sunday completed the first year of Rev. J. M. Belding's work in the Presbyterian church here. The tally of the year shows it has been one of the best in its history. The gifts to the denominational boards have been increased, while the trustees have lifted the debt to something more than $300, which for many years has called for interest. About $500 has been expended in repairs. The ladies report only $50 yet to be provided for. The Sunday congregations and Sunday school have largely increased while the prayer meetings have about doubled. Between forty and fifty additions have been made to the church and its spiritual life has been deepened. The young people's society is the largest in Northville and is doing splendid work. Surely everything points to a successful future for this organization. When the churches are aggressive then peace and harmony abound in a community.
The RECORD force took a regular cyclone change within the last two weeks. Miss Priest who has charge of the newspaper department had been sick for three weeks and a week ago Saturday night Miss Stoddard, Miss Priest's assistant, was compelled to resign on account of the illness of her mother. Our extra man struck, saying $1 per day was no object to him as sitting around doing nothing was preferable. We found another lady to set up the newspaper, but at five o'clock Thursday night she notified us she had visiting fever and would leave for a trip to Canada the very next day. Fortunately Miss Priest was well enough to come to our rescue Friday morning and with the aid of our stenographer, Mrs. Ely, the paper was out on time though we were buried up with job work. And then as if to cap the climax, our foreman, Walters, notified us as he was quitting work Saturday night that he had another job over in Canada and would leave at once for the Queen's country. We were disfigured, but still in the rug and in less than an hour had another job printer enroute for our town and another arrived Tuesday. Miss Priest has also resumed work and once more all is serene.

HER "RIGINAL EGG."

HER "RIGINAL EGG." U N T D E B SAT near the front window of her little house, darning a great hole in the heel of Chloe Ann's stocking, and wondering "w'at fer dat chile so late."

"AUNT DEB," SHE GASTED. final sig sho' ter git a prize ob ten dollars. Here Chloe Ann panned an instant to give Aunt Deb time to take in the full import of this announcement. Then she proceeded with her tale.

Jané. I done sot dar ar hen dis mornin'." Not in the least abashed, Chloe Ann bounced out of her chair and clapped her hands, declaring that she knew "zackly w'at ter put in de inside o' dat sig, an' she shouldn't as 'nobody, kase dey was all 'blongin' ter her."

With this cheering assurance Chloe Ann jumped into bed, and was soon fast asleep. Aunt Deb spoke truly when she said that the girl was "clar grit."

The poor child could neither read nor write when she entered the village school; but being "clar grit" she ignored the ridicule of the little children with whom she was obliged to reside, and worked with all her might to make up for lost time.

Mrs. Dodd, a wealthy and benevolent woman, was at this time greatly interested in raising funds for the orphan asylum which she had been the means of starting in the village. She conceived the idea of interesting the schoolgirls in the enterprise, and proposed that they should have an exhibition of Easter eggs of their own invention.

She would give a prize of $10 for the most singular and unusual production. Ten cents admission fee should be asked at the door. The ladies should provide refreshments, and after the committee had decided on the "most original egg" there should be a grand sale of the eggs for the benefit of the asylum.

In less than half an hour she was back again. There was a package in her arms, and a look of solemn joy on her face. "Come in de udder room," she said in a hoarse whisper, and Aunt Deb went into the other room without a moment's delay.

When the two emerged from the little bedroom, they quivered with the awfulness of the secret in their possession. "Spec you got to sew de fus' lot ter de clof," said Aunt Deb. "Atter dat dey'll stuck fas' 'nough."

When she opened the door she was dazzled with the sight. The boys had trimmed the large room most tastefully with evergreens, and had arranged flags and other draperies with charming effect.

The Easter eggs were displayed on tables near the wall. There were smerys, almost "as small as sparrers' aigs," with a resette and loop of very narrow ribbon at each large end; eggs of dainty satin, filled with tempting candies; eggs covered with swan's-down, containing bottles of perfume, or waiting to receive a lady's jewels; and eggs resplendent in blue and red velvet or plush, large enough to hold comfortably the elegant dolls that lay within.

Chloe Ann drew a long breath. "Len' o' glory!" she exclaimed at last. "Dey's han' some! Cose 'twas all mighty foolish ter make calculations on dat ar ten dollar. But sakes 'twee! I aint gwine ter bodder 'bout dat. Somebody'll buy my aig, cert n' sho'."

"Law, Mis' Dodd! You cudn't pen on me, newhow, fer ter git dat aig fum de house ter de school safe and soun'." "Spec' hit's kase I'se 'laakin' in reppose ob manners," she added, with a chuckle.

"Well, it's a very strange if a girl 14 years old can't be trusted to carry a parcel!" said Mrs. Dodd, impatiently. Just as the committee who were to award the prize were about to withdraw for their conference, Chloe Ann opened the outside door and thrust a very anxious face out into the darkness.

"Here I is!" panted Aunt Deb. "An' you kin praise yo' sta's dat I'se come. I aint neyer on 'ertuk no sech-skittish job as dis afe." An' you aint never yere no sech racket as come fum de inside o' dish yer aig! I clar ter goodness! 'Twas wuss'n totin' a clock! An' I'se 'raos' 'feard some ar dem kunnels dun drap off in de road."

"Here, Judge Carleton!" said Mrs. Dodd, taking the huge bundle from Aunt Deb's reluctant arms, and giving it to a gentleman standing near her. "It is so late that you will have to exhibit this egg from the platform."

Judge Carleton proceeded to the platform, closely pursued by Aunt Deb, who removed the wrapping of tissue paper as he mounted the steps. "Hullo!" shouted a small boy. "A pop-corn egg!"

A pop-corn egg sure enough, and shining and sparkling as if Jack Frost had breathed upon it! A murmur of surprise and admiration ran through the room.

"Look out dar, Marse Carleton!" cried Aunt Deb, excitedly. "You'se gwine ter keel bit over. Keep hit de leetle end up, sho'!"

Mrs. Dodd stepped upon the platform and assisted Judge Carleton to raise the upper half of the great egg. When Black Jane, Aunt Deb's favorite hen, was disclosed, sitting on a nest of white cotton-batting, every-body began to clap. Then a dozen fluffy little black heads thrust themselves out from under the wings of the old hen, and the applause became deafening. At this all the little black heads disappeared, and everybody laughed.

Of course Chloe Ann's egg took the prize. The committee were not absent from the room more than five minutes; and as soon as the sale began, Mrs. Dodd was sorely perplexed, for it seemed as if every one wanted to buy Chloe Ann's egg. What a jolly time they all had! How the people laughed and cheered when excited individuals bid against themselves!

At last "dat 'riginal aig" was knocked off at $15 to old Mr. Clapham, who had been very much opposed to the asylum. "Chloe Ann, how did you ever happen to think of putting that brood of chickens into your egg?" inquired one of the ladies.

DURING hard times consumers cannot afford to experiment with inferior brands of baking powder. It is NOW that the great strength and purity of the ROYAL make it indispensable to those who desire to practise economy in the kitchen. Each spoonful does its perfect work. Its increasing sale bears witness that it is a necessity to the prudent—it goes further.

In the charge of a steamer which recently arrived at a Pacific port from China were a number of boxes of silk worms in transit for London. After the steamer arrived in port the worms began to crawl out of their cocoons.

A perfect cure! Mr. Edward E. Broughton, 130 West Nineteenth street, New York City, N. Y., writes: "I have used several bottles of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family and find it a perfect cure. I cheerfully recommend it."

The best remedy for rheumatism that has yet been discovered. Mr. D. H. Tyler, 130 West Main street, Galesburg, Ills., writes: "I have used a good many bottles of Serravallo's Oil, and think it the best remedy for rheumatism I ever used."

Scott's Emulsion, a preparation of cod-liver oil almost as palatable as milk. Many mothers have grateful knowledge of its benefits to weak, sickly children.

THE EGG THAT TOOK THE PRIZE.

THE EASTER TREE.

The party came off on Easter Monday, and all the cousins were there. A merry time they had of it with all sorts of Easter games, and then came tea, with pretty sandwiches and cakes and ices and fruit, and then a door was opened into another room where stood a tree hung with the most charming of Easter tokens!

Friendly Regard is never entertained by the children for a medicine that tastes bad. This explains the popularity among little ones of Scott's Emulsion, a preparation of cod-liver oil almost as palatable as milk.

NOVI.

Mrs. Barnhart spent Friday at Milford.

W. S. Goundrill of Saginaw was in town Monday.

Frank Cudworth returned home from Okemos Saturday.

C. E. Goodell has treated his store to a new coat of paint.

It begins to look as though our sugar weather was over for '94.

Mr. Vannocker of Holly is the guest of his brother M. Vannocker.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilburn were the guests of friends here the past week.

Jessie West commences her school in the West district Monday next.

J. A. Smith of South Lyon was the guest of D. Leavenworth Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Burch of Wixom spent last Sunday with friends in town.

Mrs. Dickerson and children of Detroit are visiting her sister Mrs. Sam Spencer.

Roblin & Parker have purchased a new boiler for their engine at the tile works here.

A temperance sermon will be delivered by the pastor at the Methodist church April 1.

Miss Lillian Tingle left yesterday to visit friends and relatives at different points in Ohio.

Geo. W. Fast Sundayed in town. He is putting up windmills for P. J. Taylor and others.

The principle excitement lately at Novi, has been C. M. Wight's auction. Every body goes.

Carl Doyle of Portland having sold his laundry there is now visiting his parents and friends in this vicinity.

Geo. Dennis' sale which was to have been held Tuesday, was postponed on account of the rain until next Monday.

Mrs. Hulett returned Saturday from her Detroit visit. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Oren Hulett.

The several party caucuses are as follows: Democrat, March 24; Prohibition, 28; Republican 27, all at 3 p. m. at the town hall.

The mask social at P. J. Taylor's Monday evening was well attended and furnished much fun and amusement for the young people.

Mrs. L. C. Ferrigo met with a very painful accident Tuesday evening, by stepping on a rusty nail which ran nearly through her foot.

There seems to be a new store started in town, called the parlor store, as Mr. McCrumb has moved his goods into the parlor of his house.

The N. P. C. will hold a public meeting in the town hall next Tuesday evening. Miss Dawson of Pontiac will be present. Come and hear her.

People who drive into the city of Novi, sincerely wish that the Sons of Rest would meet oftener so that a supply of those minutes, which are so fatal to canine existence could be obtainable on short notice. It makes things rather too lively when five or six of the aforesaid quadrupeds are mixed up under a horse's feet all at once.

David Patterson of Detroit was in town Monday setting a monument in the cemetery for Mark Hance of Detroit, it being the largest and best monument now in the cemetery, weighing three tons. The base is five feet square and it stands eight feet four inches in height, costing $600.

The "hammer and button" social at A. N. Kimmis' Tuesday night, was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. There were vocal and instrumental music, games and recitations, besides the fun of seeing the ladies drive nails into dry beech wood and the gentlemen sew on buttons of all sorts and sizes. The prize for the most nails driven in two minutes was won by Mrs. Jay Hazen. There were several close seconds. A. N. Kimmis captured the prize for the best job of button sewing. Loren Flint receiving honorable mention while Nellie Tibbitts and Steve Gage were the grateful recipients of the booby prizes. Refreshments consisting of pop corn and delicious home made candy were served. A jolly load of twenty from Novi, made the night melodious (?) with vocal and instrumental music on the way, (yells and tin horns) The young people realized about $4.00 for their aid work.

In view of the well filled houses the W. N. D. club has had on some very unfavorable nights during the past winter, such a perfect evening as that of last Saturday might have been expected to have brought a large audience but counter attractions in different directions kept quite a number of the usual attendants away from the meeting. The most striking feature of the evening was a recitation by little Johanne Power, given in a style that would have done credit to a professional elocutionist. The discussion of the question, "The Press vs. the Pulpit," was interesting and some excellent points were brought out on both sides. The pulpit side was victor by one vote. It was decided by the society that Saturday evening, April 7 should close the meetings for the season and Mr. Kimmis, Miss Dunham and Miss Bogart were appointed to prepare a special program for that occasion—something extra—as is the usual custom of the society for the last meeting before adjourning for the summer. It was voted to invite Mr. Lovewell of South Lyon to occupy one of the remaining evenings with an address on the world's fair and he will probably come the 24th or 31st of this month. If he does not come next Saturday evening the program for that meeting is as follows:

- 1 Usual business.
- 2 Instrumental music—Mr. Gage and Miss Dunham.
- 3 Reading—Mrs. Richardson.
- 4 Ten min. talk, selected subject—A. N. Kimmis.
- 5 Recitation—Miss Lulu Bogart.
- 6 Vocal music—Misses Brown and Dunham.
- 7 Paper, "Farmer's Wives,"—Mrs. Kimmis.
- 8 Impromptu—N. A. Clapp.
- 9 Recitation—Aggie Smith.
- 10 Answers to queries.
- 11 Recess.
- 12 Collection of queries.
- 13 Song—A. N. Kimmis.
- 14 Discussion—Resolved, "That temperance is a moral, not a political question and should be taught in the public schools." Affirmative, Gage, Kimmis, Johnson. Negative, Leavenworth, Clapp.

THAYER'S CORNERS.

Chas. Strauss is at Ann Arbor this week for treatment of his eyes by Dr. Carrow of the University.

Tid Walker is to have an auction sale of horses at his place three miles west of here on Saturday at one o'clock p. m. sharp. This is a rare chance to secure good horses at reasonable rates.

A large delegation of farmers from Salem were in Ypsilanti on Monday with their last season's crop of wool, bought by Sloman & Murray at prices ranging from ten cents for fine unwashed, to fourteen for coarse washed. It would seem no more than fair, that if Gov. McKinley or Prof. Wilson are either of them to blame for this unremunerative price for wool, that they should take off their hats and apologize to every sheep they meet. The poor meek animals are brought into disgrace and disrepute and are assigned an undignified and unimportant place in the domestic economy because of the insignificantittance offered for their fleeces.

FARMINGTON.

Mrs. Frank VanDenberg was in Detroit last week.

Mrs. Chas. Keyes has returned from her Flint visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wilson had a pleasant visit from their daughter, Mrs. S. M. Gage of Walled Lake, last week.

David Forshee residing south of Salem died on Wednesday of last week. The funeral services were held Friday. He had been a sufferer for some months.

A Baptist church has been organized at South Lyon with about twenty-five members and Rev. D. H. Conrad of Salem as temporary pastor. He preaches there each Sunday afternoon.

The union Sunday school concert will be held in the Congregational church next Sabbath and will be of more than usual interest. It being Easter the exercises will be appropriate to the day.

A Neal Dow anniversary service under the auspices of the Salem W. C. T. U. was held in the Baptist church Tuesday. Evangelist Wain addressed the meeting. Mr. Bryant and others also participated in the program which was of an exceedingly interesting character throughout.

MEAD'S MILLS.

Mr. J. Martin is visiting in Ionia this week.

Our teacher has been on the sick list for several days past.

Charles H. Rogers of Ypsilanti is at his sister, Mrs. Loud's, this week.

Mrs. Loud expects to build quite an addition to her house this spring.

The party at Harry Kings last week was well attended and the verdict rendered was, "We had a fine time."

The winter term of our school closes Friday. Next week will be vacation. Miss Lautenslager goes home for the time.

The Globe Orchestra of this place played at Mr. Schoofs on Tuesday evening for the trippers of the light fantastic toe.

Herb Pickle of Northville feels as green as a cucumber over a little circumstance that befell him the other evening. His affections were hooked up in the wardrobe of a young lady and having tarried till a late hour, he sought to ride home in a passing carriage, whose occupants he knew, but who knew not him. And knowing him not, he was mistaken for a robber, shot at several times, and narrowly escaped being pierced in the epidermis. —Adrian Press.
