MEMORIAL DAY.

It Was Fittingly Observed Here Wednesday.

HON. J. M. SWIFT'S ADDRESS

Was Brilliant and Patriotic—Long Procession—Large Representation of Secret Societies.

Memorial day opened up in a cloudy manner and instead of the usual bright warm sunshine calling for summer suits, straw hats and fans the thermometer gave notice that overcoats and mittens might be a comfortable equipment. Toward noon a dismal rain fell in and the opera house was secured for the exercises.

The procession formed promptly at 2:30 in the following order: Firing squad; children with flowers; WRC; Northville band; Uniform Rank, K. of P.; honorary escort to the post; G.A.R. post; secret societies; citizens. The line of march was from Main street square to Wing, to Dunlap, to opera house. The procession was over two blocks long and presented an imposing appearance.

Only about two-thirds of the crowd were able to gain admission to the opera house. This was to be regretted for the exercises were of more than ordinary interest. The music by the band and chorus class was especially good. The recitations by Miss Sabitt and Mr. Hutton were very fine and each met with well merited applause. The address by Hon. J. M. Swift was the feature of the occasion. It was a masterly effort, delivered in that expressive and feeling manner which is so characteristic of the doctor and of which he alone is so capable. Rev. P. Ross Parrish offered a fervent and touching prayer.

At the conclusion of the exercises here the procession again formed and marched to the cemetery, where the graves were decorated according to the established rules of the Grand Army.

THERE WAS A BIG CROWD

To Hear the Memorial Address Sunday Night.

Union memorial services at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening brought out an unusually large crowd, many indeed being glad to even obtain standing room. The edifice was elaborately and tastefully decorated with flags, flowers and foliage.

Allen M. Harmon presided and the WRC ladies were in attendance in a body and occupied seats well in front which had been reserved for them.

Rev. Arnold's address, though somewhat out of the usual old routine, was all the more interesting because it had the appearance of being something new and original. After viewing retrospectively some of the hardships and sacrifices made by the boys in blue the speaker dwelt on a few of the evils which menace our country today, fully as great as those of the dark days of the sixties. The greatest of all he thought to be political corruption. He handled our national law-makers with out gloves. "What we need," he said "is a party of principle." He paid a glowing tribute to the "Maine shoe-maker" who was the first to enlist from his own native state as Alvin M. Harmon was from Northville; who dared today, as in the past, to stand out for right and the people, regardless of power, opposition or newspaper condemnation, as the mayor of Detroit—Hazen S. Pingree. Along this line Mr. Arnold reached the climax of his address when he said in such earnest solemn tones that they sounded more like prophecy than a mere wish: "May the mayor of Detroit yet succeed the mayor of Buffalo in the white-house." The occasion, the day and the place alone prevented a wild outburst of applause at these concluding remarks. The male quartette, Messrs Rev. Belding, Brown, Jenkins and Blackwood, rendered some good music.

Around the Country

Fenton has a new brass band! Plymouth's health board recommend a general vaccination.

C. E. Wakeman of Pontiac is trying to fill a long-felt want by making a pneumatic bicycle tube out of felt.

Mayor Clark of Wyandotte is out for republican state senator. Don't know where a better candidate could be raked up in the district.

Furman B. Clark, father of Rev. L. G. Clark a former Baptist pastor here died at his home in Hartland last week of cancer of the stomach.

Dundee has contracted for an arc system of electric lights. Sixteen lights for $300 will do the business in that little village, so 'tis thought.

To save wear and tear on the merchants' nerves, Milford burglars now go in three-of-a-kind deals. Three stores in one evening were touched for various sums last week.

Miss Anna Schoenemann closed a successful eight months' school in district No. 5 with a picnic last Friday.

Milford Times.

During the summer vacation Anna should endeavor to get rid of that name.

Rattlesnakes are numerous in Plymouth. One was killed there a short time ago that had sixteen rattles.

Wayne Review.

Fifteen, my dear Review, fifteen. In matters of this kind the press cannot be too accurate in their statements.

If there is a town in Michigan that hasn't got some of the best ball clubs in the state, please drop us a postal card.—Northville Record. It is quite evident, from the way the Northville club is playing, that Northville hasn't.

Wayne Tidings.

We said drop us a postal card, didn't we?

A farmer of White Lake raised 1,000 bushels of pop corn last year and stored it in a barn. The barn caught fire, the corn began to pop and filled a ten-acre field. An old mare in a neighboring pasture had defective eyesight, saw the corn, thought it was snow, and laid down and froze to death.—Bolly Advertiser.

Speaking about here—

The Pontiac Times has again changed hands. Will H. Shinn having sold the plant back to Messrs Weir & Gee. The Times as a news gatherer and putting the same in shape is not surpassed by any paper in that city, and its advertising patronage speaks flatteringly of its successful management.

The Detroit Free Press celebrated its 63d anniversary Sunday by issuing a 36 page edition from its new home on Lafayette avenue. A four page supplementary sheet printed in colors showed the wonderful progress made by the Free Press company since its first issue in 1831.

In speaking of Messrs Freydl and Buzzel's mishap two weeks ago the Dundee Ledger says: "Don't blame the animal a bit. Any beast that is forced to drag two such names as the above around behind him has a right to shiver anything in sight, even unto himself." Now Dundee has such a nice lot of names. Used to live there till we got bow-legged trying to pronounce them. For instance for snice pocket piece name there's "Jim" Pockington the hotel man; another good one to tie to is Hitchens the coal baron; then Litch the tailor is another name not to be made light of; the next turn at the wheel brings up "Bill" Pulver the wagon maker; Spubler is a picture taker; Groaner is laundryman; a broad shouldered fellow named Egabroad is a book-seller; and then there's Galsaday the clothier; Hitting the shoe dealer; Sloman the knight-of-the-razor and so on ad lib. These are just common names. No printing office type could ever be adjusted to fit the worse ones.

Mrs. Carpenter Injured.

While driving at Walley Lake yesterday forenoon, Mrs. A. K. Carpenter, with little Gladys Johnson on her lap, and Miss Lottie Hoyt and her younger sister on her's, were all thrown out and severely, though fortunately not seriously, injured about the head, shoulders and arms. Mrs. Carpenter remained unconscious for twenty minutes, but both she and the child were able to be brought home in the afternoon. This morning they were as comfortable as could be expected. Miss Hoyt and sister were not so badly hurt.

Free Vaccination.

The council held a special meeting last night and decided to offer free vaccination to all residents of the village who had not been vaccinated within the last 10 years. Councilmen Dolph and Sessions, who were appointed with power to act, have arranged with Dr. Burgess to do the work. His office hours for this purpose will be: 8 to 9 a. m. and 3 to 5 p. m.

HE'S NOT A CANDIDATE.

Congressional Nomination Is of Too Small a Fry.

The nomination for congress by the Ypsilanti of our honored townsman F. R. Beal was probably meant all right, but apparently it was a little premature, while there was another hen on.

Following communication is self explanatory:

Northville, May 26, 1894.

Editor Northville Record,

My Dear Sir: When I was just congratulating myself how nicely I would fit into the chair now occupied by Gov. Rich (A. D. 1900), or that possibly I might be induced to accept an embassy to some foreign country; (Minister Plenipotentiary to the court of St. James might do.) It is too bad to have some political admirer in a neighboring town, shoot off his little congressional fire cracker under my chair. Besides, I am too busy trying to keep the Democratic "hard times" wolf out of my business enclosures, to think of allowing a prospective seat in Congress to divert my attention from the business in hand. Please call that enthusiastic Ypsilanti down. Yours very truly, F. R. BEAL.

Sunday Excursion.

The D. L. & N. R. R. will run another of their popular Sunday excursions to Detroit on June 10. Special train will leave Plymouth at 10:10 a. m. arriving at Detroit at 11:00 a. m. Returning, leave Detroit at 7:30 p. m. Round trip rate 50c. This is the finest time of the year to visit the city and we hope that our efforts to afford our patrons an opportunity to do so, at a low rate of fare, will be appreciated to such an extent as to encourage further excursions of this character. well known Northville citizen and barber, leaves with his family next week for Flint where Mr. Sutherland will engage with another gentleman in the same business. May success attend him.

We are glad to note that Eugene Riggs, the tonsorial artist, has again
taken up his residence in Northville.
He has already commenced wielding
the razor in Peter Connell's popular shop. "Gene" is a first-class artist and he will receive a warm welcome.

Rev. L. G. Clark is with Northville friends again this week. Mr. Clark says that Michigan and Northville never seemed so beautiful before. He says he enjoys his work in Montana and Idaho very much. Mrs. Clark and Myral are enjoying good health.

Prof. Frank N. Bovee, a former well known Northville boy, will be at

NORTHVILLE LOCALS.

The world is like a crowded bus.
A few good men perhaps
May find a seat; but most of us
Must hang on by the straps.

But who are those who fill a bus
And get so nicely trapped?
They must be full-a-bustin'
Else why so quickly strapped?

The Pontiac wheelmen will run over

of copper but weather as well.

Our N. H. Power has been called upon to deliver the sheep-skin speech on the occasion of the graduation exercises at Farmington. Where is the moderator that he doeth it not?

The Epworth League will worship
with the CE society at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, while the Methodist church is undergoing a cleaning process.

The Record gives due notice, now,
that Northville proposes to celebrate the glorious 4th of July in 1895! Hip!
Hip! Hurrah!—Ann Arbor Courier.

That's right, let'er right out, but remember the day and date.

The Record does not wonder our local sheep raisers are out of sorts. A farmer near Northville who has a flock of one hundred or more sheep
has just disposed of the wool and reckons up $23.51 on the annual out put.

The library will be opened for drawing books Saturday evening. A good program will be furnished, including ice cream and cake for ten cents. Miss MacKean will furnish some violin solos. Everyone cordially invited.

The Plymouth ball club were not courteous enough to allow our boys to beat them when they were their guests last Friday afternoon. The score was 7 to 10 in Plymouth's favor.
Now when a neighboring club comes here the Northville club is not so rude.

An old Northville housewife says
the toughest of beef and chicken can be made tender and palatable by putting a spoonful of good cider vinegar in the pot in which it is boiling, or in the juices with which the same are basted when roasting. It does not injure the flavor in the least.

The picture social at the Presbyterian parsonage Tuesday night was a large success. Orr Webster guessed the larger number and as a reward received a beautiful etching by Meaking.
Chas. Northrop stood second and S. E.
Craason third. The next social the young ladies will try their luck at guessing.

On the occasion of the Yarnall Gold cure reunion here next Wednesday
there will doubtless be a hundred or more strangers in town from various parts of our state. Our people should vie with each other in seeing they are well-entertained and that they have a further taste of Northville's well known hospitality.

The Knights of Pythias of this place will observe their memorial day on June 12. The lodge is also arranging to attend divine services in Detroit June 17 together with Plymouth, Pontiac, Birmingham, Delray and the metropolitan lodges. A special train will carry them in from here at about 2:30 p. m., returning soon after the services.

Remember the stereopticon and graphophone entertainment at the Baptist church next Monday evening.
It will be the last chance you will have of hearing the phone and seeing these views. The profits go to help the band. Ten cents admission.

The Methodist ladies Guild will hold an ice cream social on the parsonage lawn Saturday evening. The band have been invited to give a concert in connection. A delightful occasion is promised. Come. If cool coffee and cake and ice cream in the church.

An Orion woman rushed into the telegraph office there one day last week and requested Operator Farrell to write a dispatch for her to the following dictation: "To Wamamaker & Brown, Philadelphia. Please send me at once seven yards of goods like this sample," after which she showed the sample towards the astonished operator, who was obliged to rise and explain.

The Manchester "Grammar Roomers" walked the syntax out of the Northville at ball last week. They were decidedly "active, transitive."
—Adrian Press.

That's right, if any ball club gets beat at any point within a hundred miles of us, say it was the Northville club. The Northville club never heard of Manchester, but just because they have lost three or four games, this season every club in the state has an idea it has been their victim.

"Am I Am?" and if not who the d—am I?" said Ami Wilsey Saturday night when one of his carriage wheels turned wrong side out as he rounded the curve corner Wing and Cady street. Besides Ami, Mr. Laney and two young ladies filled the rig to overflowing and when the wheel performed the acrobatic act the overflow flew out. The boys sprang heroically to the rescue and while one held up the carriage the other spent his efforts towards stopping the restless steed.
The inventory showed one wrecked carriage, one damaged harness, two scared gentlemen and a couple of frightened ladies.

The Presbyterian church was crowded last Sunday morning at the memorial services held for Mrs. Belding.
Mrs. Brooks and Mr. Rootwell. The address was a loving eulogium on the worth of christian character as manifested by these recently departed saints. The floral display of horse-chestnut and mandrake blossoms was both unique and beautiful. Those in attendance were much pleased with the tasty ornate decorations both morning and evening. The committee responsible was made up of Misses Jennie Babbitt, Nellie Joslin, Maggie
Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Craneon, H.
F. Brown and Orr Webster.

Many good housekeepers are often at a great loss to know how to keep varnished furniture, and the kind generally known as "old finished," looking fresh and new, without going to the expense of having it revarnished or gone over by a finisher. Here is a never failing polish which we have tried: After thoroughly dusting the article and cleaning whatever specks
may be on it, mix and apply the following: One teaspoonful of pure cider vinegar adding to it one gill of pure linseed oil. Shaking thoroughly until well mixed and apply with a woolen rag, rubbing gently. It is only necessary to dampen the rag with the mixture and not to thoroughly wet it.
It soon dries and leaves the article
with a bright face. This preparation has the advantage of not gumming,
but giving a fresh look to every article
of furniture it is applied to.

Some of our local artists together with others wishing to make a correct
start in drawing, sketching, painting,
etc., are trying to organize a class
under the tutorage of A. Wort Currier of Detroit who has promised a full half day's instruction weekly if a sufficient number of pupils can be obtained.
All who are interested or would like instruction are cordially invited to meet with Mr. Currier at 3 p. m. tomorrow, Saturday, at the studio of Mrs.
Highland who is taking an active part in organizing the class and who has kindly offered the use of her studio gratis. Mr. Currier is a remarkably versatile artist and a thorough instructor in landscape, portrait and figure painting, either in oils, pastel or water colors. Some of his admirable work is in Brown & Co's gallery where it has attracted attention and unlimited praise. Those interested should be sure and meet him.

The census enumerators start out today. Look out for them.

The Record acknowledges receipt of fifty cents from Jake Miller to apply

A meeting was called last night for the purpose of organizing a base ball company here.

The Preferred Bankers Life Assurance Company of Lansing, Mich.,
organized by 100 Michigan bankers have reached Northville and have made the Northville State Savings Bank one of its depositories. L. A.
Babbitt holds $2,000 insurance in the company. S. R. Snell, a live enterprising agent of the company, is on the ground. This plan of insurance has only cost $8.00 per $1,000 and has many very attractive features. Dr. J. M.
Swift is the medical examiner for the company.

NOVI.

Jay Leavenworth has purchased a new carriage.

Mrs. Nicholson spent Monday and Tuesday in Detroit.

Mr. Tattle and wife spent Sunday with Mrs. Hulet.

"Circus?" No Sir. Advantage of the cheap rates to visit—friends.

Remember the strawberry and ice cream social this evening on O. M. Whipple's lawn.

Mrs. Blackwood and Miss Sprague of South Lyon visited Mrs. Wixom last week Friday.

Prof. Craft and wife of Clarkson and Mr. Miller and wife of Plymouth Sunday with Lee Wooster and wife.

Owing to the teacher having to drill the children for decoration day we cannot give the grade of the scholars until next week.

That item in Novi correspondence last week about H. Skinner's "Jersey cattle" has caused much mystification around here, as no one seems to know what it means.

The discourse at the Baptist church Sunday morning last was a memorial sermon. The war reminiscences were very interesting as well as the rest of the talk. As Mr. Brundage is a cavalry veteran, he knows whereof he speaks on army subjects.

Do not forget the photographic entertainment to be given at the town hall Friday night, but let all come, as it will be worth the money. Mr. Bennett comes well recommended from different places where he has given his entertainments. Prices fifteen and ten cents.

C. M. Wight has inclosed his premises with a beautiful spruce hedge, the work being supervised by H. R. Babcock. Mr. B. evidently fully understands his business and has done a very fine job. The general appearance about Mr. W's residence has been greatly improved.

Our Farmington correspondent thinks there will be an electric railway from that place to Detroit. Well, may be there will, and when it is completed we will congratulate you, but we would just remind you of that old adage "Never count your chickens till they are hatched."

On decoration day the school children formed in line at the school house and marched to the cemetery. Six flower girls dressed in red, white and blue decorated the graves of the fallen heroes. Each of the children carried flags, with Willie Tingle as color bearer. Much credit is due our teacher for the extra labor she was to in drilling the pupils.

Our butcher thinks the Northville people have entirely forgotten the "golden rule." They send two or three meat wagons around through Novi every week and then just let our man venture within sight of Northville and he is arrested. We think as long as Novi has a No. 1 meat market the inhabitants should patronize it and not those wagons from other places.

No need for the inhabitants of Michigan to travel in search of a variety of climates. We have all sorts right here on the shortest possible notice. Last week the mercury fell fifty degrees in about twenty hours. Last Saturday people were again complaining of the heat, while Monday morning ice was found as thick as ordinary window glass. One who dresses to suit the weather needs lots of spare time.

FARMINGTON.

J. P. Hiles was in Mt. Clemens a part of last week.

J. W. Collins is having his residence newly painted.

Mrs. C. H. Keyes is entertaining an uncle from Detroit.

Mrs. D. A. Durfee of Novi is the guest of her parents.

The cemetery was cleaned and prepared for May 30.

Miss Pearl Conroy who has been very sick is now better.

Another railroad meeting held at the town hall Monday evening.

Mrs. Ralph Willis is able to be around after her recent illness.

Mrs. Kennedy of Detroit is the guest of her daughter Mrs. H. B. Pierce.

The Misses Nelson have again opened their ice cream parlor for the season.

Wm. McManus is again able to be out after his long and serious illness.

A. J. Crosby of Ypsilanti was among Farmington's guests a part of last week.

Mrs. Wm. Shatow of Northville was the guest of her parents last week Friday.

N. H. Power of Northville was gladly welcomed by his many friends here last week.

The lawn around the town hall has been mowed and it now presents a fine appearance.

Mrs. John R. Pinkerton of Northville was the guest of her father, Ira L. Power, and family last week.

Miss Marie Gill will display millinery goods at North Farmington Monday and Tuesday of each week.

Mrs. Getells Murray spent part of last week with her brother George Spencer and family at Wixom.

John M. Conroy and wife spent last week Friday at Novi the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Jane Smith.

H. W. Moore and Miss Carrie Murray spent last Friday and Saturday at Wixom, the guests of Geo. Spencer and wife.

Prof's Bennett and Curtis of Plymouth will give their photographic and stereoptical entertainment at the town hall Saturday evening, June 2, under the auspices of the L. U. society.

Memorial services were held Sunday afternoon in the Methodist church.

The edifice was decorated with the stars and stripes and fine pictures of some of our presidents and generals.

Beautiful bouquets of flowers filled the room with their sweet aroma. Rev. Jas. Ball delivered an excellent address closing with an original poem to the G.A.R's. Rev. Mr. Barry assisted in the exercises. Rev. Mr. Nash was also present and sat with our brave Michigan boys. The choir discoursed fine and appropriate selections of music. There was a large attendance although the day was stormy.

MEAD'S HILLS.

Our school continues five more weeks.

Mrs. Taggy of Detroit was a guest of Mrs. Downey.

Bert Hughes has moved into Wm. McRoberts' house.

Frank Johnson and wife spent Sunday at F. Whitaker's.

Miss Lautenslager spent Sunday with Mrs. Huntington, Plymouth.

Mrs. Bert Hughes is improving and is able to sit up a part of the time.

Mrs. H. Atchinson who has been sick for several weeks is very low at this writing.

H. Green was home from the city over Sunday. He expects court will adjourn next week.

We were seeking some cool retreat on Saturday and on Monday a good fire was a most comfortable thing to be near.

SALEM.

Mrs. Harbin of Forest, Ont., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. Haywood.

Miss Perkins, typist, sister of our station agent, was home this week from Belding.

Rev. Clark of Plymouth gave an address on "Good Temperance" in Stanbro hall Tuesday night.

A good many people from Salem were in Ann Arbor Friday to hear the eminent orator, John G. Woolley.

Chas. Stark has been engaged to teach the public school next term. The present teacher, F. J. Wheeler, did not reapply.

L. M. Larkins, according to his annual custom, went to Howell on decoration day and manifested his appreciation of his late wife by placing choice flowers upon her grave.

The memorial service in the Congregational church Sabbath afternoon was well attended, despite the unfavorable weather. Rev. Benton, Methodist pastor, delivered a very able sermon. About thirty of the G.A.R. boys were present.

Our village constable, Frank Haywood, who bids fair to be one of the best blacksmiths and horse shoers of the rising generation, walked into the store of our general, tinsmith, Ned Walker, who with contempt stamped on his visage was busily at work filling up with his own handwork the constantly occurring vacancies on his shelves with the best block tin ware. Without further notice the constable placed him in durance vile on charge of robbery, issued by Chas. Stanbro, a citizen who will shave you, give you a shampoo and a dish of ice cream all for a quarter. The case came up for hearing before Justice (?) Louis Traub, who, by the way, is as good a shoe-maker as will be found this side of Detroit. Stanbro stated that while in the store of the defendant he had been robbed by him of one cent and that the same had been squandered by Walker, who pleaded not guilty. The only witness on the part of the prosecution had gone fishing so the case was adjourned for one week but not before the judge had scored the complainant for going about in his Sunday clothes tempting men with such sums.

NORTH LIVONIA.

Miss Anna P. Squires who is visiting at her aunt's is still improving.

Mrs. Pitt Everitt has returned home from Detroit accompanied by Abbie O'Co near.

Mrs. Nelson Everitt has returned to her home after spending a short time with her sister, Mrs. Pennfield, Detroit.

That gentleman living not far from Northville who has never had a ride on the railroad should take one at once.

We wish that gentlemen who call for his cows so early in the morning would do it a little more quietly as three o'clock is a very good time for the rest of us to sleep.

W. M. Johnson of Northville who was called to attend the funeral of his niece, Anna M. Johnson, has returned home. Emma J. Johnson of Pennsylvania, another niece accompanied him home.
