

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

Vol. XXVI, No. 13.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1894.

$1.00 per year, in advance.

Around the Country.

Abram, Pelham of Plymouth has been granted a pension.

Pontiac Baptist people are about to build a new $10,000 church.

Frost is said to have damaged the potatoes in Oakland county to considerable extent.

Holly's A. J. Bates said bagged sensation turns out that Bates was slightly light headed and robbed himself, so to speak.

The Chicago souvenir coin of the great world's fair is to become a current half dollar, and they will soon be as plentiful as common every day halves.

A kick from the horse which he was blanketing fractured Walt Palmers jaw at Milford last week. Young Palmer thought a lot of words he couldn't utter.

"That's my last," said a Trenton shoemaker named Bailey as he went kerplunk in the mud, the result of a backward leap from a motor car there last week.

Holly merchants will close their stores at 7 o'clock for three weeks to give their clerks an opportunity to get converted at the revival meetings now in progress there.

The Adrian Press issued a very handsome trade edition last week. The interesting reading matter was exceptionally well illustrated with half-tone cuts of people and places.

The editor of the Trenton Visitor had to climb up a tall apple tree last week Thursday morning or go without a front gate. The editor now knows how Hallowe'en "looks to a man up a tree."

Drunkenness has no comparison in evil effect to the opium or morphine habit, when firmly fixed on the hapless victim—Clarkston Advertiser.

Why don't you come down here to the Gold Cure.

Ohio's law permitting females to vote at certain elections has developed a most remarkable fact. Every woman who has registered was born in 1873. She is just old enough to vote, and no older.

The Northville Record speaks up with pride and says "there is not a better posted or more skilled undertaker in the state than Mr. Porter." And the Argus will further add that no man whose business he ever did has spoken a word against him since.

Miss Wolbertson left at this office the first of the week samples of cherries freshly picked. She informs us that she gathered and canned the fruit last week, and it was of excellent quality.

We suppose it is nothing to talk like this after one gets accustomed to it.

The Holly Advertiser says: "The Milford Times is after the young hoodlums who persist in hounding people simply because they get married. We agree with Miss Jackson that anyone who has the good common sense to get married ought to be left alone."

Now we are not so sure whether the editors of the Times agrees with the Advertiser on this "common sense" question or not.

The smallest dog in the world is a skyblue Scotch Terrier owned by Geo. H. Hammond, the Ypsilanti horse-breeder. The diminutive specimen answers to the name of "Gip," is 1 year old, and weighs but four ounces. Some idea of its size may be inferred when it is known that the little animal finds a comfortable nest in an ordinary teacup, and would be dwarfed in comparison with the common house rat.—Detroit Free Press.

Bro. Neal of the Northville Record, has been several times mistaken for one of the ministers of that place. The Holly Advertiser cruelly charges that Bro. Neal feels much elated over the mistake, but that the feelings of the minister are correspondingly depressed, and it will take him some time to recover from the shock.—Brighton Express. One thing is certain, the editor of the Record is accustomed to Neal.—A. A. Courier.

But Neal isn't accustomed to this record. Another new swindle is being sprung on the farmers in some sections of Michigan, and people are warned to look out for it. A smooth-talking individual comes along and nails a patent medicine advertisement on the farmer's fence and pays $5 for the exclusive use of the fence for his medicine. It's so much like finding money that the farmer signs a receipt. In about ten days the signature turns up affixed to a good sized note.

The Ypsilanti Commercial does not believe that the sheriff should receive more than 12 cents per meal for board of prisoners, and argues this way:

Good board can be had in dozens of houses in this city at $2 a week, which is a fraction below 9 cents a meal; and hundreds of students and others are boarding here satisfactorily at $1.75, or 8 cents a meal, while some houses have a price as low as $1.50, or a fraction above 7 cents a meal. Now we ask, in all candor, does that cut any pie?—A. A. Courier.

And with the same candor we reply no, but it takes the cake.

The Wyandotte Herald showed its enterprise on Wednesday by getting out a special edition containing the entire city vote.

Editor Muenger of Dundee has a $5,000 libel suit to answer for. The democrat Register of deeds of Monroe is the complainant.

Daniel McIntosh and Francis Cramer of Plymouth are married; and so are Frank Reiman and Nora Munyon of Wayne.

It is no longer considered proper for a gentleman to precede a lady up the aisle of a church or theatre where there is a regular usher. The gentleman should follow the lady.

There are at present in the United States 110 women lawyers, 165 women ministers, 323 women authors, 588 women journalists, 2,016 artists, 2,136 architects, 2,106 stock raisers and ranchers, 5,135 government clerks, 2,438 physicians and surgeons, 13,182 professional musicians, 56,800 farmers and planters, 21,071 clerks and book-keepers, 14,465 heads of commercial houses, and 185,000 women school teachers.

See what a little mistake in the Ann Arbor Courier's "make up" this week caused Mrs. Gibson of Willis to build. Mrs. Gibson is building a new house in Willis. One cigar factory employing a number of men well equipped and efficient fire department. Healthfulness and remarkable low death rate. One good flouring mill sending its goods to all parts of the country. One good saw and planing mill, also cooper shop, evaporator, etc.

We notice that some of our exchanges are still advising the people to "Spend their Outing on the Great Lakes." Our advice from the present outlook would be: Don't.—Ann Arbor Courier.

And we notice that the Courier is still advising people to spend their outing at "Northern Michigan Resorts" which are so "peculiarly inviting during this hot weather." Same advice, dear Courier.

The government has issued an entire new set of postage stamps. They are the same size and general color and design as the old red two cents stamp. The color is lighter, being a light rose that looks at first sight as if the new stamp was one of the old ones washed in the rain for a day or two. The vignette of Washington is the same and the numerals and lettering are unchanged. The only new feature in the design is a triangle in the upper corners where on the old stamp the background was plain.

We didn't ask the Orion Review to lie about it, therefore the statement that a potato is on exhibition over there weighing four pounds and nine ounces is uncalculated for.—Northville Record. You didn't, hey? Well then, have a care that in future your expansion in the puff ball line is more astute, else the impression will prevail that you are a lover of Boston baked-brain food.—Orion Review.

Now we didn't, hey! And now look a here young man we were not in on that puff ball exaggeration either. We respectfully refer you to the Clarkston Advertiser.

A SHORT MEETING.

The Council Met Monday Night Only to Adjourn to Last Night.

The council had but a very short meeting Monday and even then they grew restless. Whether the political meeting at the opera house effected them or not we cannot say, but they were soon out of the municipal building.

When the bill of $173 of Street Commissioner Vradenburg and others for work was read Ald. Wheeler said this bill included a lot of work on Wing street which had never been ordered by the council. He objected to the street committee usurping the council's power. It used to be considered, he said, that the committee was subject to the council's orders but it seemed now that the council was subject to the street committee. He said he would not vote for the bill. Ald. Rayson said the committee had always gone ahead and done this work. They had time and again asked the council for instructions but they had never said anything, or what they wanted done and so they had gone ahead. Ald. Wheeler said committee was ordered to do necessary work but that they had no business to go ahead and do such work as this without orders. He objected to it. The bill was allowed by five ayes and one nay.

The council had another meeting last night, a full report of which will appear next week.

Council Proceedings.

A regular meeting of the common council was held at the council room Monday evening, Nov 5, 1894.

Present: President Hutton, Councilmen Wheeler, Burgess, Clark, Dolph, Rayson Sessions.

Reading of minutes of previous meeting dispensed with.

Bill of E. Vradenburg and others of $173 for street work was on motion allowed and ordered paid, Councilman Wheeler voting nay.

Council adjourned till Thursday night. C. H. JOHNSON, Clerk.

Notes from the Election.

Election passed off very quietly here Tuesday. The day was a model one, warm and pleasant. The republicans did a big lot of hustling and in consequence polled the largest vote for years, their majorities being about 210 a gain of something like 140 since 1892.

There were 541 votes cast at the two precincts here, 298 being straight republicans, 112 democratic, 31 prohibition, 1 populist and 99 split. Spalding for congress received the highest number of votes cast on the ticket, 352. A number of tickets contained a vote for but one man and others contained marks evidently made by people who had as yet failed to learn how to properly do the act, notwithstanding the repeated instructions. One man came out of the booth leaving his ballot hung up on a nail. Another tore the strip containing his party completely out of the ticket which he wished to vote and presented it "straight" to the inspector. Two or three votes were challenged because of non-registration but they were finally sworn in and allowed to pass. The democrats made but little effort and it is said that in these two precincts alone more than fifty voters did not exercise their privilege at all. There was some dissatisfaction about the inadequate accommodations of the 1st ward voting precinct, but it went just the same. The returns were received at night up to two o'clock, but were too one sided to cause any marked enthusiasm.

THE RECORD.

F. S. NEAL, Publisher.

NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN.

The report of Queen Lili's insanity seems to have arisen from the fact that there are two meanings to the word mad.

JOHN E. SULLIVAN's announcement that he will go into the prize ring again is nonsense, of course, Sullivan is too old for prize fighting, and he knows it. And besides, he hasn't the remotest notion of going into anything that will interfere with his absorbing his quart a day.

THE trial trip of the battleship Maine in a heavy sea shows that she possesses great stanchness as well as speed. There are so many war clouds on the horizon of almost every other great power that America should chuckle soft satisfaction to herself as ship is added to ship in her growing navy.

As to whether we may call it the "bike" authorities differ. The Brooklyn Eagle thinks it is just as proper to say that a woman "bikes" as it is to say that she is a "beaut." Harper's Weekly thinks that "as between 'wheel' and 'bike' the latter is the better word. The Wheel, the cycling review, says "bike" and "gent" are distantly related. It looks as if there would have to be a convention to arbitrate this question, but we rather think the bike will survive in the vernacular.

The advent of frost may be said to have removed all further danger of any foreign epidemic reaching our shores, and our freedom from such a visitation during the past summer is something on which we may congratulate ourselves. The heated term was of such intensity and so debilitating that the presence of yellow fever or cholera, or even the dread of it, would have been a serious calamity, but our improved system of quarantine inspection served to ward off plague, and the lesson which has been learned will undoubtedly be kept in remembrance.

A QUESTION that will come before the next session of congress is that of providing a better system of government for Alaska. In the last five or ten years many investments have been made in that almost unexplored quarter, and it is, of course, desired that something should be done by means of which these investments may become profitable. One plan proposed is that Alaska should be organized after the manner of other territories and allowed a representative in congress, but this is opposed on the ground that there are not enough white people in the whole of Alaska to organize and maintain such a government.

THE impetus given to the study of American history by the societies of Sons and Daughters of the Revolution is in itself sufficient excuse for their existence. Interest has been aroused in subjects of patriotic moment, the collection of valuable books and papers of the early period has been stimulated, and honest pride taken in matters which before were but little considered. Not every American can trace his ancestry back to the colonial period, or produce documentary evidence to prove it, but all may rejoice that the memories and traditions of the most trying season in American history are to be treasured up by those who hold those memories dear.

LAST year the national fish commission distributed more than 600,000,000 fish of various kinds consisting largely of shad, whitefish, and pike perch. Several millions of salmon were also sent out on the Pacific coast, and 90,000,000 lobsters were bred and loosed from Woods Hall, Mass. In addition to this most of the states have fish commissions, and it is to these that private streams and lakes must look for replenishment. It would be an unfortunate thing to further reduce the fish supply of the country, but unless the sportsmen and people generally rise to the aid of the fish commissioners in restocking the streams, and help to maintain the laws against wholesale slaughter, that end is not far off.

THE national fish commissioner is engaged in a work whose magnitude and scope are little understood by the people at large. Few who are unacquainted with the facts have any idea of the immense quantities of fish taken annually from the streams of this country, yet no one can have failed to notice the collapse of the supply in some particular locality. "Fished-out" rivers, lakes, creeks and brooks are becoming much commoner than those in which anything can be caught with a fair amount of skill and labor. At present the mountain streams of the Northwest, the lakes of the North and scattered localities elsewhere alone can under this head. At the rate of the last few years the total annihilation of game fish in American waters is by no means an impossibility.

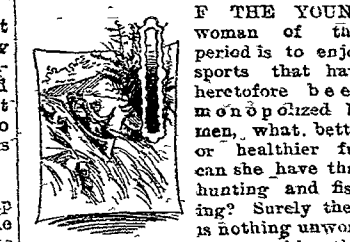

THE author who read an original poem to the jury in a copyright suit in New York has received an award of $5,000 damages. Statisticians are figuring now as to what the amount would have been if the poem hadn't been read.

GENERAL McCook recommends the adoption of the bicycle in the signal service corps. General McCook will find, however, if he tries it, that in attempting to make signals from a bicycle he is liable to run into a cycle car.

TWO PRETTY DIANAS.

ONE OF THEM POSSESSES A BEAR'S HIDE.

The Other Is a Professional Hunter—The Misses Clark and Hunter Know How to Take Real Enjoyment Out of Life.

THE YOUNG woman of this period is to enjoy sports that have heretofore been monopolized by men, what better can she have than hunting and fishing? Surely there is nothing unwomanly in that enjoyment, nothing that the critics may complain of.

The other day the sportsman's blood tingled when he read that a bear had been killed in the north woods by Miss Eveline T. Parker, daughter of President Forrest H. Parker of the New York Produce Exchange bank. When a woman can kill a bear what can she not do with a gun?

It is delightfully refreshing to read of the hunting exploits of Miss Marie Clark, a California schoolgirl of 17 years. When vacation time comes she does not pack a trunk full of ball and tennis gowns and while away the hours in flirting on the verandas of a summer hotel. She starts out with her father and an outfit of English coppers, guns and camping goods. Together they tramp the hills and valleys, catch fish and kill snipe and deer.

Miss Clark, first of all, dresses sensibly. She wears a shirt waist of light woolen material, a light canvas skirt of sensible length, and a regulation hunter's canvas coat. In upland shooting she wears Canadian hunting boots of light alum tanned leather, lacing to the knees, and with the sole flat and studded with nails. When fishing in the river she wears rubber boots.

Miss Clark recently had a lively chase after a deer. After a day of unsuccessful hunting she reached a canon, and after climbing 500 yards up the rough and steep sides stopped to rest. She saw two deer traveling together on the opposite side, and after waiting until they were within full range she fired her first shot. The deer wheeled about and ran down the side of the canon, and Miss Clark fired again. This one of the deer fell and was lodged in a clump of pine trees on the mountain side. While Miss Clark was firing at its companion the stricken deer reared the bottom of the canon and started on a broken run for the creek. With two long shots, one through the head and another through the neck, this hunteress finished the animal, a fat spike buck. She did not stop there. She bled the deer, cut him up, and prepared him for carriage.

Her success at fishing is regarded as beyond the ordinary meaning of luck, and as a snipe shooter she holds her own with the best of them. She knows how to cook all the game that she brings into camp. In other words, this young girl, equipped with gun, ammunition, and fishing rod, can go into the woods alone for a month's vacation and take care of her self. She returned to the high school, where she is a hard student, wearing a brown, healthy glow on her face and equipped with plenty of real and exciting stories to tell to her school friends.

A Rich Duke's Daughter.
The Lady Margaret Grosvenor, whose engagement is announced to the young Prince of Teck, a brother of the Duchess of York, is a daughter of the Duke of the richest duke in England. The Grosvenors are also one of the oldest families in England, the first of the family coming over with William the Conqueror. The family name comes from this ancestor who was Lady Grosvenor, a great hunter, and his lovely representative in this nineteenth century has all the hereditary fondness for horses and hounds. The income of the Duke of Westminster Lady Margaret's father, is said to exceed $1,000 a day.

BANK OF ENGLAND PAPER.

Its Unique Qualities and Wonderful Water Marks.

The paper alone is remarkable in many ways—notably for its unique whiteness and the peculiar "feel" of crispness; while its combined thinness and transparency are guards against two once very popular modes of forgery—the washing out of the printing by means of turpentine, and erasure with the knife. The wire mark, or water mark, is another precaution against counterfeiting, and is produced in the paper while it is in a state of pulp. In the old manufacture of bank notes this water mark was caused by an enormous number of wires (over 2,000) stitched and sewed together; now it is engraved in a steel-faced die, which is afterward hardened, and is then applied as a punch to stamp the pattern out of plates of sheet brass. The shading of the letters of this water mark further increases the difficulty of imitation. The paper is made entirely from new white linen cuttings—never from anything that has been worn—and the toughness of it may be roughly estimated from the fact that a single bank note will, when unrolled, support a weight of thirty-six pounds. The paper is produced in pieces large enough for two notes, each of which exactly measures five inches by eight inches, and weighs eighteen grains before it is sized, and so carefully are the notes prepared that even the number of dips into the pulp made by each workman is registered on a dial by machinery. Few people are aware that a Bank of England note is not of the same thickness all through. In point of fact the paper is thicker in the left-hand corner to enable it to retain a keener impression of the vignette there, and it is also considerably thicker in the dark shadows of the center letters and beneath the figures at the ends. Counterfeit notes are invariably of one thickness only throughout.

CHIEF OF PYTHIAN SISTERS.

An Ohio Woman Who Has Risen to Eminence in the Order.

At its Cincinnati session in 1885 the supreme lodge Knights of Pythias granted permission to the wives, mothers, daughters, sisters and widows of knights to form a sisterhood. Under this permission the first temple of Pythian sisters was instituted at Warsaw, Ind., in 1888. The order has since then spread with gratifying rapidity and is now represented in nearly every state in the union. Mrs. Hattie A. Robinson of Dayton is at present supreme chief of order, having been the first woman in Ohio to sign an application for a charter. At the organization of the grand temple in Sept. 1889, she was elected to the office of grand chief, and at the organization of the supreme temple at Indianapolis in October following she was elected to the office of supreme senior, the second office of that body. As an executive officer she possesses excellent ability and ornaments whatever station she serves. In other orders Mrs. Robinson has attained high rank. She became a

MRS. HATTIE A. ROBINSON, daughter of Rebekah in 1880, in temple lodge No. 80 and soon thereafter, passed the chairs.

JACK NAPOLEON.

Murphy's Famous Bull Dog is Quite a Sporting Character.

An interesting spectator at many of the great bicycle meets nowadays is Jack Napoleon, the remarkably clever bulldog owned by William F. Murphy, the famous Brooklyn racing man. Jack wears a stovepipe hat as jauntily and airily as a Fifth Avenue (New York) swell, and as he is doubtless somewhat near-sighted, he is compelled to resort to the use of eye glasses when he examines the entries on the program or when he eagerly scans the riders as they come sprinting to the tape on the last lap. Jack is very fond of a "dry smoke," for whenever he walks along the street or attends a bicycle meet he invariably has a very English-looking briarwood pipe in his mouth. If the sport moves him to utter barks of joy as his owner wins a race, or growls of rage if Murphy isn't in it at the finish, the fact that he has a pipe in his mouth doesn't bother Jack Napoleon at all. He barks or growls, as the case may be, regardless of consequences and the pipe, but he never fails to cling to the pipe. When Jack was young and aggressive, he was considerable of a fighter, and is the hero of many a hard fought battle in the pit, but he has long since retired from the arena, and earns five good meals a day as mascot for his master and a well-known bicycle race team. His potency as mascot is in no way interfered with by the fact that he is just 13 years old. Jim Corbett once offered Murphy $500 for Jack, stovepipe hat, glasses and pipe, but the Brooklyn wheelman scorned the offer. Jack's chum on the team is a monkey named McGinty, who sits on Jack's neck and rides through the streets as proud as a Simian king.

WITH PREMIER TYPEWRITER.

It is the highest product of the art, the machine is carried on steel balls between two guides; the type arms are hung on conical bearings in, apart and have compensating screws; there are two motions to the ribbon; a brush which enables you to clean all type in ten seconds without soiling the hands; the same touch to every letter. It has many other special features making it absolutely the fastest and most durable typewriter constructed. Send for catalogue.

Non-pull-out

Is an arbitrary word used to designate the only bow (ring) which cannot be pulled off the watch.

It positively prevents the loss of the watch by theft, and avoids injury to it from dropping.

IT CAN ONLY BE HAD with Jas. Boss Filled or other watch cases bearing this trade mark.

All watch dealers sell them without extra cost. A watch case opener will be sent free to any one by the manufacturers.

SPEND YOUR OUTING ON THE GREAT LAKES.

Visit picturesque Mackinac Island. It will only cost you about $12.50 from Detroit; $15 from Toledo; $18 from Cleveland for the round trip, including meals and berths. Avoid the heat and dust by traveling on the D. & C. floating palaces. The attractions of a trip to the Mackinac region are unsurpassed. The island itself is a grand romantic spot, its climate most invigorating. Two new steel passenger steamers have just been built for the upper lake route, costing $300,000 each. They are equipped with every modern convenience, annunciators, bath rooms, etc., illuminated throughout by electricity, and are guaranteed to be the grandest, largest and safest steamers on fresh water. These steamers favorably compare with the great ocean liners in construction and speed. Four trips per week between Toledo, Detroit, Alpena, Mackinac, St. Ignace, Perogskoy, Chicago, "Sooy," Marquette and Duluth. Daily between Cleveland and Port Huron. The cabins, parlors and staterooms of these steamers are designed for the complete entertainment of humanity under home conditions; the palatial equipment, the luxury of the appointments, makes traveling on these steamers thoroughly enjoyable. Send for illustrated descriptive pamphlet. Address A. A. SCHANTZ, G. F. & T. A., & C. Detroit, Mich.

Don't fail to hear the phonograph, a machine that speaks for its self, introducing bands, orchestras, quartets and solos of all kinds. It will only cost you ten cents. Tomorrow evening.

Dead leaves which are now so abundant about the lawns make an excellent fertilizer for the garden and instead of being burned should be raked up and thus wisely disposed of.

Charley Dubuar says it will be the proper thing now for President Cleveland to rise up and say: "Gentlemen, I move that the election by the republicans in the United States be declared unanimous."

The Presbyterian ladies will give a "Chrysanthemum Tea" at the parsonage Friday evening Nov. 16, from 5 to 7 o'clock. It is to be a very unique affair. Don't fail to come and see what the ladies can do.

Charley Merritt now takes the belt as champion duck hunter. He went out one day last week with a "22 short" rifle and with two shots bagged three nice big ducks and brought them home all inside of two hours.

Plymouth has a lady minstrel company, composed of thirty of the leading ladies of the place. They will give their first entertainment at Plymouth some time next month. Arrangements will be made with a view of getting them to appear here.

The LTL's have secured the Edison phonograph Co. to give one of their first class concerts at the WCTU hall tomorrow (Saturday) evening. They will give their share of the profits to help liquidate the debt on the hall. Patronize them. The band will play if the weather permits.

The Record force returns thanks to the Holly Advertiser's employees for the present sent Saturday and begs to assure them of a reciprocation day in the near future. For uniqueness the article goes over all the rest and though it comes not short of our expectations, the sacrifice is appreciated.

Next week we will publish full particulars as to our Thanksgiving offer. This year it will be a beautiful picture 12x17 entitled "which is the sweeter." A copy of the picture will be presented to each reader of the Record upon presenting the coupon, properly signed, appearing in our Thanksgiving number.

Editor Record:—Please put this in this week's paper and oblige.

Come to the Library rooms tomorrow (Saturday) evening, and join in college songs. The ladies will also serve pine apple sherbet and cake for ten cents. If the refreshments do not tempt you, come and enjoy the songs. Our musical and literary programs are always free and you are most cordially welcome every Saturday evening. (Signed) The Ladies.

City police court has had more business than Detroit during last week and this. First one man would have another arrested for assault and then the assaulter would have the assaultee pulled and so it went until a little friendly (?) scrap at the depot had caused the sitting of Justice Webster's court some five times during that period. The prescribed fine seemed to be $3 and costs. The end is said to be not yet.

Saturday evening the good people of Bealtown who had been interested in the meetings, tendered a pleasant reception to Mr. Sayles and the city pastors. The event was held at the pleasant home of Mrs. Mary Wilkinson, Yerkes avenue. The tables groaned under their abundance. The social part of the gathering was full proof that eighty guests were happy and that their hearts were in the right place.

The Diamond Crystal table salt is one of the finest and purest grades of salt in the market. It is on sale at C. E. Smith's store, and perhaps other places, in our village. Manufacturers, hearing through the RECORD that the Methodist ladies here were raising an improvement fund to paint their parsonage with etc., have authorized us to make the following offer. The salt sells for 10c per box and we will pay 10 cents into the Methodist ladies improvement fund for each box cover brought to this office during November and December.

Presbyterian notes:—Sunday topics: Morning, "Lessons from the election." Evening, "Gathering up the Fragments," echoes from the Sayles meetings. Ladies Aid today at Mrs. Dr. Roots. Sunday evening the young people will follow the interesting program of the united society. The ladies are arranging for a chrysanthemum tea to be held at the parsonage. Communion will be celebrated the first Sunday in December. Our ladies lose an efficient helper and friend by the removal to Detroit of Mrs. E. S. Horton. Rev. J. M. Belding expects to conduct a series of meetings in Johet under the auspices of the Kings Sons of the Central Presbyterian church.

Owing to the continued illness of Miss Dunlap, H. F. Brown has purchased her interest in the photograph and picture framing business, and will continue the work alone. Mr. Brown has been in the business here for some eight years and in that time has built up a large and profitable business. As a skilled photographer Mr. Brown has few or no superiors in the profession and outside of some of the larger cities like Detroit or Chicago we believe he has but few equals. The photos exhibited in the display case at the foot of the gallery stairs from week to week shows a class of work comparing in tone, style and finish with any gallery in this country. Northville is indeed fortunate in having so skilled an artist within her boundaries. Mr. Brown has lately added a complete picture framing outfit to his gallery and in this line of work he is as careful as in taking photographs.

ONE SPECIAL! ONE SPECIAL!

For the Ladies of Northville and Vicinity:

Saturday Morning, Nov. 10th,

I shall place on sale one case of 38 inch, strictly All Wool Dress Flannels, in Fancy Stripes, Beautiful Colors and the latest. These Goods are worth 50c per yard--they are 50c Goods. Now I have several hundred yards, enough for all, if you come early you will get the choice of the entire lot. Now what about the price of those Beautiful Flannels?--25 cents.

That means just 1-2 price. Remember that they will go quick, for they are 50c goods--the same goods other dealers are asking 55 and 60c for. Once more 25c per yard. Remember from now on you will find Bargains at the Busy Big Store.

T. G. Richardson, THE CASH-OUTFITTER.

NOVI LOCALS.

Mrs. Frank Boyden and little son of Sioux City are with Novi friends.

Miss Kate Dunham has been entertained for a week or so by Farmington friends.

The Baptist and Methodist ladies served dinner in the basements of their respective churches on election day.

School commenced Monday at the Griswold school-house with Miss Fisher of New Hudson installed as teacher.

Through a misunderstanding the annual meeting of the West Novi debating club was announced for last Saturday evening. The meeting occurs this week Saturday (tomorrow) night.

Novi people with one accord are much pleased that our Geo. Hogle and A. N. Kimmis were elected Tuesday and they are receiving congratulations upon all sides.

"The other correspondent" must suggest to the other correspondent, that a person who has been buying groceries and dry goods for about 20 years would naturally be supposed to have received enough practical demonstration of price variation to make special "investigating" somewhat superfluous. To begin with, the statement we "attempted to rebut" was verbatim in this: "In fact, all kinds of groceries are high." We must firmly and respectfully persist in our contradiction of that and it seems to us that a glance at the local advertisements of the Record is sufficient supporting evidence. Nothing was said in either our article or the one which called forth our remarks as to whether groceries etc., had depreciated or not in "the last six months." Neither did we say that wages were not low, and from the farmer's standpoint it looks as if it were time he could hire help without turning in the entire available product of his farm to pay his hired man at the end of the season. We mentioned incidentally the extremely low price of dry goods. Of course we know, by hearsay at least, that many kinds of manufactured articles used many years ago did wear much longer than now, but not enough longer it seems to us to over balance the difference in prices. However we will have to go back considerably farther than 20 years, even at the risk of quoting "ancient history" to find that time. Experience is the surest criterion, and ours in buying and wearing dry goods etc., reaches that far back at least, and prints, worsteds and shoes last us just as long as then, and our occupation tells just as much on wearing apparel as then. If we ask our fathers and mothers we will undoubtedly find that by doubling the aforesaid number of years we may find those good old times when folks could hardly wear out their clothes. As for "relative qualities," we hardly think that sugars, crackers, lard, butter, molasses, etc. will fail to compare favorably with, and go just as far as those of 40 years ago. We have old expense accounts of considerably less than 20 years ago showing that we were paying 8c cents per pound for the same quality of sugar which some Northville grocers are selling at 4c today, and five or six years ago, granulated sugar was retailing everywhere at 7 cents. As for dry goods, they were remarkably low in price a year ago, and though our friend says "it is not the case" we can buy some of them for less than we could then, and those too where "relative qualities" present no differences, as in the case of standard goods like those beautiful Lonsdale and Fruit of the Loom cottons which can be bought at a Northville house for 7 cents a yard, and the excellent heavy men's underwear which was 50 cents last year and sells now for 29 cents. To conclude, in reference to that footgear mentioned, those folks who wear out a pair of shoes in two months must "get there with both feet." We thought we did at our place, but the busy house keeper of our family is wearing a pair of $2 shoes which were bought in Oct. 1893, and have been in daily wear since last April, and the other half of the firm has worn a pair of $1.30 shoes for "every day" since last spring and considers that after a winter's rest they will be good for part of another season of farm work. As for clothing we might give some personal facts along that line, but fear we have already taken too much space. These remarks with kindest of feelings towards our fellow correspondent, as was doubtless the case with the other side, and we haven't a doubt that we were to meet and discuss the question we would each be thoroughly convinced--that the other was mistaken.

MEAD'S MILLS.

We had a snow storm the night of the 5th.

Mead Mills democrats have all fled to the woods.

Mrs. G. R. Patterson of Plymouth visited friends in this place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Martin have been in this place spending a few days under the parental roof.

The LTL will give a social next Wednesday evening. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

G. H. Wallace spoke on prohibition at our school house on the evening of the 1st. No slang was indulged in and the lecture was one of facts and figures which he proved by the old parties.

From Another Correspondent.

Editor Record: As you are anxious for sayings and doings from all quarters, I herewith give you an item: On the evening of the 1st Mr. Wallace of Plymouth gave a lecture at the Waterford school house in the interest of prohibition. In the course of his remarks he said he hoped in ten years the liquor traffic could be counted a thing of the past. For fear that that might be the case we hear that two of our rank and file republicans thinking to make the most of the time commenced proceedings the next day. They procured a jug of cider and with the aid of that they discussed prohibition pro and con, from ten o'clock a. m. until ten p. m. 3X

WIXOM.

L. C. Perrigo will have an auction sale of cows, farm implements, grain etc., at his place one mile south of the village next Tuesday, Nov. 13. Mr. Perrigo has sold his farm and will move to the city.

FARMINGTON.

L. C. Philbrick is on the sick list. Lote Smith of Rockwood was in town over Sunday.

Miss Mate Lee of Belle Branch was a Farmington guest this week.

The RH society realized $12 from their ten cent lunches Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Turner were in Pontiac and Detroit a part of last week.

Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Moore were among Pontiac guests one day last week.

Quarterly meeting services were held Sunday morning in the Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Batcheller were guests of their daughter, Mrs. Ira Power, Sunday.

Edwin J. Mead of Detroit has been the guest of A. A. Neundorf for a few days past.

Mate Caverly of Salem formerly a resident of this place has been in town for a few days.

Ed. Lundy returned from Forest Tuesday where he has been visiting the past week.

The Misses Hitchcock of Canada are the guests of their brother Thomas Hitchcock and family.

Mrs. Dunham and daughter Kate are the guests of Mrs. Cetella Murray and family this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Holcomb were at Novi Tuesday to attend Mrs. Geo. Gilbert who lies very low at this writing.

Mrs. E. R. Edwards who has been quite sick is again much better. Dr. T. H. Turner attending physician.

Mrs. C. T. Allen and daughter of Detroit were the guests of Rev. C. E. Allen and wife Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Jane Smith returned to her home in Novi Sunday after a few days visit with her sister, Mrs. M. Augustus White.

Clarence Armstrong and wife of Highland were entertained over Sunday at the home of editor Bloomer and family.

Mrs. Palmer Sherman left last Friday for Entrican to visit her son Hudson who lies very low, with but little hopes of recovery.

Messrs. John Eisenlord of Chicago and Nate Eisenlord of this place were entertained at the home of M. A. White and family Wednesday night.

The entertainment held Sunday evening at the Universalist church was largely attended and was pronounced good. It was under the auspices of the YPSU.

Mrs. Thomas McGee spent Sunday in Pontiac the guest of her son John. She left Monday for Cass City where she will spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Dr. Truscott.

A cordial invitation is extended to all the young people to meet at the Methodist parsonage this Friday evening to spend a social hour or two and become acquainted with the pastor and wife.

This township gave our Fred Warner a majority of 236, the largest in its history. He ran nearly 100 ahead of his ticket here. His majority in the district is about 1,600 and our village is highly elated over his success.

John Eisenlord of Chicago has been here for the past week visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Esther Eisenlord, who has been very sick at the home of her son John P. Eisenlord. At this date she is somewhat better.

A large number of wasps have been located in the Methodist church for some time to the annoyance, and occasionally something worse, of the congregation. A fight is now in progress to see who will come off victo-

The democratic meeting Monday evening was largely attended. Mr. Patterson of Pontiac came over in place of Mr. Fitch who was detained at home on account of sickness and made a short address which was followed by a lengthy one by Hon. Jas. Lynch, after which the young people enjoyed a social dance for a short time.

At the regular meeting of the RH society held Friday, Nov. 2, at the home of Mrs. Wm. McDermott the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. C. E. Allen, vice president, Mrs. Evans; secretary, Mrs. Henry Lee; treasurer, Mrs. E. C. Grace. The next meeting will be held Friday afternoon Nov. 16 at the home of Mrs. M. B. Pierce.

Rev. C. T. Allen, presiding elder of Detroit district, preached an excellent sermon Sunday evening in the Methodist church. The house was crowded and all felt that they had enjoyed a sumptuous feast of spiritual food. The four candidates taken into the church in full connection were George Moore and wife, Albert Brown and Mrs. Job G. Francis. Mrs. A. L. Gates was taken in on probation and Mrs. C. E. Allen united by church letter from Pontiac church.

The political address, by Hon. S. W. Smith of Pontiac, given Saturday evening at the town hall was excellent and some of the democrats were even heard to say that his remarks were very convincing. The hall was beautifully draped with the dear old flags, and banners waving bearing inscription "For State Senator Fred M. Warner." A life size picture of Mr. Warner also draped with flags was another attractive feature. A large delegation was present from Novi. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity with enthusiastic people.

The Game of Life.

"Man's life is but a game of cards. First it is cribbage." Next he tries to "go it alone" in a sort of "out, shuffle and deal pace." Then he raises the "duce" while his mother "takes a hand in" and, contrary to Hoyle, "beats the little joker with her five." Then with his "diamonds" he wins the "queen of hearts." Tired of playing a "lone hand" he expresses a desire to "assist" his fair "partner." "Throws out his cards" and his clergyman takes a $10 bill out of him for a "pair." She "orders him up" to build the fires. Like a "knav" he joins the "clubs," where he often gets "high," which is "low," too. If he keeps "straight" he is sometimes "flush." He grows old and "bluff," sees a "deal" of trouble, and when he at last "shuffles" off his mortal coil, and "passes in his checks," he is "raked in by a spade." Life's game is ended and he waits the summons of Gabriel's "trump," which shall "order him up."

SALE.

The Record's thanksgiving gift will interest Salem readers.

Hiram Thayer and F. G. Terrill were on the election board at Northville this week.

Arrangements are being made for a big Sunday school concert for the third Sunday of this month. All the schools will unite in this effort. Rev. Mr. Belding delivers the address. Subject "Don't Step Here."

Republicans are wild with delight over election news, and democrats are correspondingly depressed. Republicans expected successes, but were not prepared for such a deluge. The entire county ticket of Washtenaw was elected--a thing that has not happened before since the war. Election news overshadows everything--no talk of anything else.

WALLED LAKE.

Chas. Ranous is moving back to his farm.

Frank Maxwell has moved to Dearborn.

Mrs. Seroce is visiting friends at Highland.

Will Creger and family have moved to a farm near Grand Rapids.

Mr. Somerville and Mr. Hunt of Northville were the guests of Miss Daisy Gould last Sabbath.

A nine pound boy arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Strong Thursday evening, Nov. 1.

The Baptists have hired a new minister, Mr. Dunning. He is expected to move into the parsonage soon.

Will Bickling has purchased the house and lot formerly owned by Mrs. Austin and is moving from Novi. He will manage the wheat elevator for Wixom & Sibley.

The following persons received baptism at the Methodist church Sunday morning: Mrs. W. P. Seeley and daughter Ethel, Mrs. Alfred Phelps, Homer Saxton and Geo. Whitney.
