

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

Vol. XXVI, No. 36.

THURSDAY, APRIL 18, 1895.

$1.00 per year, in advance.

THREW STONES!

THROUGH WINDOWS IN TWO BEAL TOWN HOUSES.

The Inmates Had a Narrow Escape from Serious Injury.

The Deed Was Maliciously Done by Some One Unknown.

Between the hours of ten and eleven, probably 10:30, a stone was hurled through the window with terrific force into the sleeping chamber of Mrs. Wm. Wesley, who lives in No. 1 Fuller's house, corner Yerkes and Garden avenues. Mrs. Wesley was asleep at the time and had it not been for the heavy damask curtains which hung on the inside of the window, which stopped the force of the missile, she would doubtless have received severe, or perhaps fatal, injuries.

A few moments later a second crash occurred and this time another stone, which like the other was as large as a man's fist, crashed through the front window in John Lether's house, at Yerkes avenue, a few houses further north and on the opposite side of the avenue. In this case the stone found no curtain to obstruct its flight and it went through the room and on into the kitchen, where it landed among a lot of flower pots with force enough to level them all to the floor, bruised and broken.

In each case the occupants of the house went to the windows as soon as possible but could discover no one in sight. Some neighbors living near by heard the noise but thought nothing of it until the broken windows met their eyes Friday morning.

Doubtless the same party did the throwing in both instances and there is no much question but what the dastardly deed was done with intent to do someone personal injury, the result of spite work. A well known detective said in the presence of a Record reporter this week that if anyone was interested enough in the case to put up $5.00 to pay for the fine and trouble, that he would make it in a week, bring the guilty party to justice.

About Memorial Day.

To the sober thinking American citizen it would seem that this day (May 30) is being desecrated more and more as each year goes by. This day was intended, as we have always understood by the law which designated it as a legal holiday as an occasion for rendering respect and honor to the dead union soldiers and sailors of the civil war. The average American citizen, however, seems unable to see a legal holiday in any other light than as an occasion for merry making and having a big time in the fun line generally. It therefore frequently occurs that while veterans of the war are placing floral tributes on the graves of their departed comrades, and engaged in the other solemn services which befit the occasion, horse races, bicycle races and base ball games especially gotten up for the day, will be in full operation near by. We are pleased to say that just this has never occurred in Northville, still it has been the practice of the young men to get up a ball game after the services were over.

It seems to us that this sort of thing is not an object lesson calculated to exert a patriotic influence on the rising generation, but rather a reverence and respect for the flag and the institutions which it symbolizes.

For the reasons stated we think it was a great mistake to designate Memorial Day as a legal holiday. It was a day instituted by veterans of the war for a specific and sacred purpose, and before this legal enactment it was observed in this way only.

As Memorial Day is now proscribed we believe it would be better if Grand Army Posts and other veterans who wished to take part in the exercises would select some Sunday in the flower season of the year, on which to decorate the graves of their dead—attending divine services for the occasion at churches where arrangements could be made in the morning, and afterward proceeding in an undemonstrative and orderly way to the cemetery. Sunday is certainly a suitable day for so sacred a duty, and it is not likely to be desecrated in most sections of the land anyway—by the sports and amusements which leprive Memorial Day of its distinctive and solemn character.

STARK-TOLFORD WEDDING.

The Pleasant Event Took Place Yesterday.

At high noon yesterday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Tolford of Sand Creek, occurred the marriage of Miss Estella Tolford and Bert C. Stark. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Jackson of that place. The presents received were numerous, beautiful and valuable, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held both in Northville and at the bride's home. The bride and groom are so well known to the majority of our readers that any thing more than a very brief introduction would be superfluous. The bride spent one summer in Northville where she formed a wide acquaintance and won for herself a host of friends who will give her warm welcome as a permanent resident. The groom, as one of the firm of Stark Bros. the well known shoe dealers, has been a resident of this village for seven years past and is one of the best known and most popular young men in Northville.

After a brief wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Stark will return to Northville where they will make their future home. The Record joins with scores of others in bidding them a hearty welcome.

FORTY-EIGHT CTS

THAT'S THE SUBURBAN RATE RAILROAD FARE

For Round Trip Between Detroit and Northville.

Fifty Rides for Twelve Dollars Good for Thirty Days.

"Northville, Detroit's ideal suburban village," is about to be realized. The Record, after a brief correspondence with the P. & M. officials, received notice from Traffic Manager Patterson today that the company would put in effect between Northville and Detroit a commutation fare of $12 for fifty trips, limited to thirty days, for individual purchases. This makes a round trip fare of forty-eight cents. Of course the tickets are not transferable and will be of no use to anyone, except those living in Northville and doing business in Detroit, or vice versa, or going to and fro every day, or nearly every day. There are a number of families now living and doing business in Detroit who will gladly avail themselves of a summer home in Northville, the prettiest and most healthy village in the state. Let each individual interest himself in the matter and very soon Northville will be thronged with Detroit people.

Base Ballers Attention.

All those interested in the delightful sport of base ball are requested to be in attendance at the citizens' meeting called for tomorrow, Friday night at the city hall. Northville this year bids fair to have the best and most successful ball season for years if the people are interested enough to take hold of the matter with their usual enthusiasm. The Yerkes flats can be secured this year for $25.00 and they can be put in fine shape for a comparatively small sum. Besides this we have with us permanently German, the young twirler, who won so many laurels for himself and games for his club last year and who promises to be even more invincible this season. There is plenty of good material here now for both in and out field, in fact better than ever before, and with the new club grounds fenced in as they are, it can be made self-sustaining, or very nearly so, after a start is made. Every body turn out Friday night.

Dr. Bennett.

Michigan's successful specialist will be at the Mascomb House Wednesday April 24.

Chronic troubles of any name or nature he treats with unparalleled success, getting them well where other systems have failed. Go see him.

They Are All Right

WHAT? Purdy's Goods and Prices.

Note a Few!

- 3 lb can elegant Table Peach for 15c
- 3 lb can Good Pie Peach for 10c
- 3 lb can Good Apricots for 15c
- 3 lb can Elegant Apricots 20c
- 2 lb can Grazed Pine Apple for 25c
- 2 lb can Sliced Pine Apple for 25c
- 3 lb can Home Baked Beans 10c
- 3 lb can Boston Baked Beans 15c
- 3 lb can Tomatoes for 3c, 6c, 10c, 12c and 15c
- 2 lb can Corn for 10c, 12c and 15c
- 2 lb can Empire Brand Fine Peas 14c
- 2 lb can String Beans for 10c
- Gal can Apples 70c
- 1 lb Globe Baking Powder for 15c
- 1 lb Forest City Baking Powder for 15c

A Full Line of Sweet Goods Just Arrived.

- Try a pound of Bitter Nuts at 10c
- Try a pound of Iced Coffee Cakes at 12c
- Try a pound of Tribby Cakes at 15c
- Try a pound of Cocoa Wafers at 20c
- Try a pound of Macaroon Drops 20c
- Try a pound of Vanilla Wafers at 20c
- Fancy California Naval oranges 45c doz
- Fancy California Seedlings 70c doz
- Sweet California Seedlings 12c doz

Rollin H. Purdy,

Northville, 88 Main Street.

Suburban News.

Fred Smith aged 60, of Clay and Emma Sts of Detroit, was murdered. A competing paper at Ypsilanti accused the Ypsilanti of having won on the Sabbath.

Providing no one knew about it, a table had boys eggs that measure up six inches.

Ten dollars each is the price paid for a village clerk and marshal at Farmington.

Wayne has a village councilman named Hasty. That's the kind of a man to have.

Orión is asking for a few trunks of Northville's mill pond with which to feed their sea-serpent.

South Lyon has a quinine club doing the road. They may come to Northville, and again they may not.

The moving of South Lyon's saw mill to Fowerville has made a dearth of vacant houses in the latter place and an over plenty in the former town.

The Brewster Mfg. Co., of Holly of which Jas. Gleason is general manager, have secured the exclusive privilege of renting and checking bicycles on Belle Isle this season.

To reduce superfluous flesh Editor Korabacher of South Lyon was advised to procure a bicycle. He bought his first wheel last week and he has noticed an almost continual falling off ever since.

We see that Rev. Frank Brauner of Morenci, formerly of Northville and South Lyon, is getting to be quite an expert bicycle rider, making many pasorial calls and taking long rides in the country on his bike.

Out of 130 would-be teachers who were examined at Ann Arbor a short time ago only 67 received certificates. Among the lucky ones were Fred Burnett and Lillian Bailey of Salem and Estelle Donovan of South Lyon.

Mr. Quad, C. E. Lewis, has returned to Detroit and will again commence to write exclusively for the Free Press. "Mr. Quad" is a popular writer and the many Free Press readers will warmly welcome his wit again to its columns.

The Holly Advertiser advanced another step last week by commencing to publish its entire paper, eight pages, at home. The Record has been contemplating this same thing for some time past and expects in the near future to put in a new folder and

ANNUAL CLEARING SALE.

Picture Frames!

and Mouldings at Brewer's Gallery, for Two Weeks only, beginning Friday, April 19th. One Third Discount from the already low prices. Many patterns of Moulding chosen in this sale. No old stock, as I sell it up every year. Every pattern up to date.

NOW IS YOUR TIME TO BUY PICTURE FRAMES.

BROWN,

PHOTOGRAPHER, NORTHVILLE.

other machinery necessary to do the work.

A woman is visiting the towns in the state begging for money with which to pay for the removal of a cancer from her face. If she comes your way give her the go by, as both she and the cancer are frauds. The "cancer" is a rubber device which has all the appearance of the genuine article.

Belleville is all excitement over the prospects of utilizing a chain of lakes for a big dam with which to develop a 3,500 horse-power. With this they propose to, so says the Enterprise, supply power for Wayne, Plymouth, Northville, Belleville and Ypsilanti. Won't that be nice?

Here's something from an unknown exchange which is so near what we were about to remark that it is used here to save the trouble of the writing: "Trade with the merchants who are here to stay, those having an interest in our village. They are the ones who deserve your patronage. Don't be deceived by allying bait held out in the shape of bankrupt stock, because you will invariably get left. Trade with the merchant who will be here to make things right with you if the goods do not happen to be just as represented. Look over the advertising columns of your home paper, and deal with those you find represented therein. They will stand by you and every promise they make."

Our New Line!

Negligeé Shirts!

Are now open for your inspection.

Our 50c Unlaundered Shirt will suit you.

Our line 50c Working Shirts are winners.

NEW NECKWEAR, HOSIERY and HANKERCHIEFS.

M. D. GORTON & CO.,

92 Main Street, Northville, Mich.

At The Spot Cash Store!

PEAS!

In order to clear out our stock of Peas, we will sell two cans for 25 cents, regular price is 35 cents.

CORN!

Our seven cent corn is a regular ten cent brand, and it all goes at 7 cents a can.

- Large size Lemons per doz. 25c
- 1 lbs. Prunes per doz. 25c
- 1 lbs. Small size Oranges per doz. 25c
- 1 lbs. Pomegranates per doz. 25c
- 1 lbs. Small size Apples per doz. 25c
- 1 lbs. Small size Peaches per doz. 25c
- 1 lbs. Small size Plums per doz. 25c
- 1 lbs. Small size Nuts per doz. 25c

COFFEE!

Our 30 cent Coffee is all that we could find—it is better than much of the 35 cent Coffee that has a reputation. We also have a Coffee for one that is better than it looks. Try it.

Best PEANUTS, only 10c lb. The large amount of these Nuts that we are selling enables us to keep them fresh.

New CHEESE

Bergin & Co. Cream Packed Oats 10c 1/2 doz.

We are selling a regular 25 cent size bottle of Pickles for 19c.

B. A. WHEELER'S.

94 Main Street, Northville.

10 CENT BARN.

A rare opportunity for farmers to stand or feed their horses when in Northville. Go to the 10 cent barn. Water works connection.

Perfect Cleanliness. Most Skilled Attendance.

These are what you get at PETER CONNELL'S (Northville) Hair Dressing Saloon and Barber Shop.

Perrin & Tafft, Props.

"Quick Meal"

Admitted by all to be the best New Process Gasoline Stove on the market.

We are headquarters, and our prices can't be beat, on

Wire, Nails, Poultry Netting, Paints, Oils, &c.

Always glad to quote you prices.

CARPENTER & JOHNSON,

95 MAIN ST., NORTHVILLE.

That Tired Feeling

Is a certain indication of impure and impoverished blood. If your blood could at ways be rich and pure, full of the red corpuscles upon which the vitality depends, you would never be weak, nervous, or have pimples, eruptions, salt rheum, would never trouble you. Not only "made of living" but in all ways to poor, ventilated homes, too, which deplete the blood and there is loss of appetite and weakness. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the grand remedy for this condition. It purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood, overcomes that tired feeling, builds up the nerves and gives perfect health. Read this:

"Our daughter, Blanche, when four years of age had a humor break down on her hands and feet, which our physicians pronounced scurvy. If the food at reach her face or hands they would swell up, look almost purple, and headed blisters would form and break.

Discharging a watery fluid, and the burning and itching would drive her nearly wild. Unless we ceased her little hands, she would tear patches of skin from her face and hands. We tried many doctors and many remedies, and at last gave the case up as hopeless. Her son, daughter, Cora, tried Hood's Sarsaparilla, to cure a scrofulous lump near the eye, which caused her much pain and after taking 4 bottles it disappeared. Blanche, who is now eleven, had spent seven years of suffering, so I concluded to give her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took 5 bottles and her face is smooth and soft as a baby's, the color of a rose petal. Her hands are soft and white, where four months ago they were big and red and caloused nearly like leather. I cannot express my gratitude for her, or mouth, I repeat a sentence and our friends are surprised. Mrs. ANNA L. CLARK, 401 E. 4th St., Duluth, Minn. Ge. only Hood's, because

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the Only True Blood Purifier

SWAMP KIDNEY, LIVER & BLADDER CURE.
The Great
Dr. Rimmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y.

W. L. DOUGLAS $3 SHOE
IS THE BEST
CORROGAN
435 BEEF CAKE & KANGAROO
$3.99 PAIR, 5 SOLES.
$2.99 WORKING SHOE.
EXTRA PRICED
$2.99 BOYS SCHOOL SHOES
LADIES
$3.99 27.75
BEST DOUGLAS
$3.99 PAIR
Over One Million People wear the
W. L. Douglas $3 & $4 Shoes
All our shoes are equally as good
They give the best value for the money.
They cost less than shoes in style and fit.
Their wearing qualities are unsurpassed.
The price is uniform and returned as such.
From $1 to $5 saved over other markets.
If your dealer cannot show you wear.

PISO'S CURE FOR
CURED WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS
Best Cough Syrup, Patent Tonic, Use
10 to 15 Drops, Sold by Druggists.

Jackson Talk About the Little Enemies of the Backache.

STILL TALKING.
The People of Jackson Interested in a New Discovery.
(From Jackson Citizen.)
We have been talking to the public about a remedy for lame back, backache, and all kidney disorders; now the people are talking to us. If you are weak or weary, have had backache, or are aching, your kidneys are talking to you, warning you that they are overtaxed, and this talk interests you; listen:
This conversation occurred at 619 W. Ganson Street, the comfortable home of W. H. Ketchum, between that gentleman and our representative.
"Mr. Ketchum, I understand you have been taking Doan's Kidney Pills? Yes, I have, and they are all right. They have done me a great deal of good."
"What was your complaint?"
"I have suffered for quite a number of years with kidney and urinary troubles."
"What were the distressing symptoms?"
"Pain across my back; sometimes it was simply a twinge. Just before I began taking the pills was so bad I could not work, could not lift anything of even ordinary light weight. I had trouble with the urinary organism; had to get up two or three times during the night, and suffered pain and a scalding sensation in passage."
"Did you ever try anything else for your troubles before taking Doan's Pills?"
"Yes, I tried many things, wore bands and used plasters and other such means."
"And did Doan's Kidney Pills cure you?"
"Yes, they did. Since using them the pain in my back has left me entirely. I rest thoroughly at night without being disturbed, and all other troublesome symptoms are gone. I can lift anything without pain or trouble. I am willing that you should publish this story, as I feel that it is nothing more or less than a duty I owe to suffering humanity to let them know of a cure."
For sale by all dealers—price, 50 cents. Made by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name, DOAN'S, and take no other.

GIVE ME THE BABY.
Give me the baby to hold, my dear,
To hold and kiss, and to love and kiss,
All the while I will be so near,
As the birds in the nest of a bird's nest.
As warm for him as his face with cheer,
Give me the baby to hold, my dear.
Travelling playing to my kisses,
"Mother, you say, 'What a bother to me!'
To all my soul with such happiness,
As the birds in the nest of a bird's nest.
Smiled away while my heart, can hear,
Give me the baby to hold, my dear!
Ah, but the baby is yours, you say,
And would you, my face and clutch my
Woe, what would pleasure me more, I pray,
Than the touch and use of the wee, wee, baby?
The wee baby there, and the warm face here,
Give me the baby to hold, my dear!
The wee baby there, and the warm face here,
Give me the baby to hold, my dear!
The wee baby there, and the warm face here,
Give me the baby to hold, my dear!

That Winter Night.
BY ROBERT LUCHMAN.
CHAPTER XIII—CONTINUED.
"Silence!" she said, in a voice so faint and low as to be almost inaudible. "Do not speak to me; I can not bear it."
"One word—only one," she heard him moan. "Is it possible you know him—that Frenchman?"
The question recalled her to herself, brought back to her all the agony of her loss. With a face set like steel, she walked back to the bedside, and gazing into the man's face with tearful eyes, replied:
"He was my father!"
She shrank as if from a blow, and uttered a cry full of sorrow and compassion. At that moment she felt a touch upon her arm, and turning she saw the aged housekeeper, who had entered the room unperceived.
"Mademoiselle, it is I, I thought I heard you call. Mon Dieu! what is the matter?"
Blanche did not reply, but, shivering as if with cold, turned her face away; then followed by the dame, she walked into the outer room.
At last recalled to herself by the cold breath of the night, Blanche pointed to the inner chamber and bade the woman go there and take her place. With terrible resolution she conveyed to her the doctor's instructions, word for word. "For," she thought to herself, "I will be justified before God. When I go to meet my father up to-day (and it may be soon) he shall know that even to the last extremity, I have returned good for evil, and fulfilled the written and unwritten law."
Flitting through the dark chateau, while the wind shook the walls, and the snowflakes heaped itself at her feet, she reached her own chamber, threw herself wildly upon the bed, and sobbed hysterically, still with her father's name upon her lips.

CHAPTER XIV.
Between Life and Death.
"Doubtless," she said, "I found the wounded man still living, and lying in a heavy sleep. The old dame said by his side, gazing up at watching. From time to time during the night she had administered the quantity according to the instructions of her young mistress, and it seemed to have had a most beneficial effect."
Early in the morning, Mr. Hubert appeared at the chateau, and went up to the bedside. He saw at a glance that the man was past, and after a careful examination not possessing of the world, pronounced the patient out of immediate danger. During the examination the German doctor, and made a sign that he wished to speak to the doctor alone; so the old dame was dismissed, and the two men were left face to face.
"You have something to communicate to me," said the Frenchman, seating himself by the bed.
"Yes, my dear you to postpone the communication, unless it is very urgent. We have managed to silence the fever for the time being, but it may recur if you submit yourself to any unnecessary excitement."
"Ah, monsieur," replied the German officer, "it is not of myself that I wish to speak, but of her whom God sent to save me in my extremity."
"Mademoiselle de Gavroilles? Yes, you are right; you owe your life to her."
"More than my life, monsieur," cried the other, in a voice choked with tears. "All you do not know. But when I have told you, you will adore her and pity her. Better if I had died! Better if I do not live to look again into her noble face! Charity so infinite is more than I can bear."
Hubert looked puzzled, and began to think that the mind of his patient was wandering.
"I pray compose yourself," he said. "Where is she, monsieur?" asked the wounded man, eagerly. "Have you seen her?"
"Not this morning. Dame Gavroilles tells me that the young lady watched during a portion of the night, and then retired to her own chamber."
"Not before she had saved my miserable life! Not before she had snatched me from death, though she knew that I, of all men, was the most undeserving, monsieur, I remember. I was sickening fast when she interfered and succeeded me—me whom she should have left to perish—me whom she has cause to hate so much."
"Come, come," said the doctor, good-humoredly; "of course you know you are a German, one of the enemies of France. But a bullet, look you, absorbs all such enmities; and we people of France do not carry our ferocities into the hospital or the sick-room."
"Monsieur, listen. Do you know—have you heard—that she has lost her father?"
"No," cried the doctor, starting in amazement. "The chevalier? He is not dead?"

"Woe! beyond measure, in its utter misery and self-reproach, was the look upon the German's face as he replied.
"Yes, monsieur, I killed him."
"Thunder-struck and horror-stricken, the doctor shook off the other's touch and sprang to his feet.
"You killed the chevalier? Do you mean Hubert? Grand Dieu, it is too horrible! How?"
"He broke down the German told his story—as he had told it overnight to Blanche, but more clearly and in fuller detail. He described the incident of the surprise of the evening down at Gavroilles, of the scene enacted, and the way in which the Frenchman, who had committed the modicum to his enemy's care, Dr. Hubert, had known the chevalier well and esteemed him above most men, listened in simple horror.
"It is well for you," he exclaimed, when the other had finished, "that I did not know this before. I reproach myself now that you were not suffered to die like a dog. It is horrible—as is infamous! Even yet when the truth becomes known to the people, I will not answer for your life."
"My life is nothing, monsieur," returned the sick man, with a groan. "I set the stage by it. God knows, save for the sake of those whom I have left at home. It would have been better, perhaps, if I had died last night."
"But, Dr. Hubert stayed to hear no more. With a cry, almost inarticulate, he rushed from the room. In the lobby he came face to face with the old dame.
"Oh, monsieur, will you come to my young mistress? I have just been to her room, and I have found her lying there like one distracted. I am sure she has not slept all night, and she talks so strangely."
Gladly excited, Hubert accompanied the woman to the chamber, and there, stretched upon the bed, her face white with weeping, her hair disheveled, he found Blanche lying. Her eyes were open, but she seemed to see nothing, only as intervals, with strange motions and regularly, she gave vent to loud, terrible moans with which she had heard the German's tale overnight. The doctor bent over her, and spoke to her, but she did not seem to heed. Then, as he raised his finger upon her pulse, his face darkened with ominous concern.
"It is cerebral fever," he cried. "Look, she is quite unconscious. Poor child, poor child! It is fortunate that I came here."
Under Hubert's instructions, Blanche was undressed and put into bed by the old dame, who wept freely at her task, for Blanche seemed to her almost like her own child. Returning to her chamber, the doctor found the patient lying with the same fixed look and uttering the same weary moans. Had in her white nightgown, with her silver hair falling around her face and falling in a golden fringe, she looked strangely beautiful.
"I have only power," he murmured to himself, "what fatality! The man who killed her father, and the father's heart—Hubert, child, told me under the same roof as this night—yet under her care. It makes me heartily to think of it. Well, with God's blessing, will save her if I can."
Fortunately the German doctor had both skill and experience, and moreover, the information he had received enabled him to determine the character of the girl's ailment. There could be no doubt that it was, as he had rapidly diagnosed at the first, a kind of brain-fever, brought on by the excitement and horror of the previous night. He ordered the room to be darkened, and dispatched a message to the village for some necessary remedies.
As to the cause of so sad a business, he determined to keep his own counsel.
After all, he reflected, it was one of the accidents of war. Such things take place every day, and it is only the complication which brought the man here that makes the affair so horrible. If old Hubert and the others knew the truth, they would give the fellow a short shift, I am afraid, and though I could find it in my own heart to kill him myself, that would never do."
He walked back to the chamber where he had left the wounded man, who, as he entered, looked up wildly and exclaimed:
"Monsieur, have you seen her? For pity's sake, tell me of her. The thought of what she must suffer is wringing my heart."
"She is unconscious," replied Hubert, between his set teeth, frowning and drawing back from the other's outstretched hands. "You loved the father, and I fear you have destroyed the child. I doubt if she will ever recover."
"Giving a great sob, the German turned his face away and covered it with his trembling hands.

CHAPTER XV.
The Germans.
While these things were taking place at the chateau, the surrounding district continued in a panic of excitement, owing to the near presence of the victorious Germans. A little experience, however, showed the country people that the ferocity of the enemy was, to say the least, exaggerated. True, a sharp example was made of those peasants who, not being formally enrolled in the French army, were caught with war-like weapons; and every now and again a spy, or some one suspected to be a spy, received his deserts. Otherwise, the Germans did their spitting gently enough, paid for what they consumed, and sided with the peasants in any clear case of brutality or robbery on the part of their own soldiers. Street officers and spectacles were found strolling on the sea-shore. There was no more fighting, as all the French troops, only a handful at the most, had retired along the coast in the direction of Dieppe.
Two days after the wounded officer of Uthans had been carried into the chateau, and halted on the lawn beneath the terrace. The officer, dismounting, walked the steps to the door, and knocked. After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait," asked the old man, quaking in every limb.
"You have one of our officers lying here wounded," said the German in French. "I wish to see him."
"Certainly, monsieur," answered Hubert. "Will you be good enough to enter, and knock? After a delay of some minutes the door was opened by old Hubert.
"What, my monsieur, please to wait

We are lending Money at 7 per cent, long or short time.

We are writing Certificates at 4 per cent, for any amount not less than $1.00.

We are open every Saturday Evening from 7 to 8.

J. S. LAPHAM & CO.

Jacob Miller & Co.,

Are headquarters for

Fresh and Salt Meats,

Butter, Eggs, Etc.

75 Center Street, Northville, Mich.

Cows Pastured!

40c Per Week!
Adjoining Village on Plymouth Avenue, Running water. (Old "Cash" farm.)
CHAS. ESTELLE.

I Wish...

to call your attention to the fact that we carry a choice line of Groceries, Crockery and Canned Goods.

Also some very fine Maple Sugar, and the finest line of Cigars and Tobaccos in the city.

C. E. Smith

The Center St. Grocer.

Millinery.

All kinds of Millinery Goods, Trimmings, Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats in all the Latest Styles and at extremely low prices.

New Goods Arriving Daily.

The Ladies of Northville and surrounding country have a standing invitation to call.

Mrs. E. Kaiser & Co.

Main Street, Northville.

WEY NOT--

Those wishing Nursery Stock, why not buy of a Reliable Home man where you are sure to get just what you buy and at less price than you would pay Unreliable strangers. I want your orders.

C. M. THORNTON, Northville, Mich.

NORTHVILLE LOCALS.

Soon will the busy little fly Upon us, helpless, swoop, Harass us and at last find death Triumphant in the soup.

Where did some of our exchanges find the words "memorian" and "memorian"?

Eight persons were received into membership at the Methodist church Sunday evening.

A base ball meeting is the call for tomorrow night. It will be held in the city hall at 8:00 o'clock.

Subject for next Sunday evening at the Baptist church: "The proposed new license law of the state."

Freyd, Northville's popular tailor is making some special prices on pantings and suitings. Please read his ad.

Street Commissioner Stoeney and his men are doing some good work on the streets in the business part of the village this week.

Those interested in the band, and the Saturday evening concerts should not forget the benefit play at the opera house on Monday night.

Operations have already begun on the new American Ball foundry and the work will from now on be pushed as fast as possible to completion.

The many Northville friends of 221 K. Bennett of Plymouth sympathize with him in the death of his wife, which occurred Saturday morning.

Old papers, just the thing for pantry shelves or to put under carpets, for sale at this office in any quantity. Packages of 20 for 5c, or 20c per 100.

It will be well to remember the old saying, "stick to your nails until they stick to you," and even then, only exchange them for others a little lighter.

The advertised letters at the post office this week are for: Miss Kittie Desmond, Jno. W. Stevens.

C. A. DOWNER, P. M.

The men's meeting next Sunday will be led by C. A. Ediston. Every man should turn out and hear what our mayor has to say to the young men of Northville.

All persons holding library books will oblige the officers by returning them on or before May 4. Please do not say you did not see this notice--for of course you did!

Weather Prophet Hicks said: about the 15th and 16th of this month, reactionary changes will take place and the mercury equinox, central on the 20th will help to get in a period of cloudiness, storm and rain that will likely continue with little abatement until after the new moon on the 21st. The heaviest storms are apt to occur from the 23 to 24th. A sharp change in color will result about the 21st or 25th. The 27th and 28th will bring a change to warmer, with much tendency to storminess and general showers.

"Chick" at the opera house Monday night will not only be a very pleasing play, and more than worth the price of admission charged, but by patronizing it you will also be helping the band out financially. If the enjoyable evening concerts of last summer are to be repeated again this summer, the boys must have some financial aid to meet current expenses. New music and a leader cost money. If the band is appreciated and their music on the streets is desired again this year, show it by your presence Monday night.

No one need be surprised if on some of these fine days they see one of the front rooms on the second floor of the opera house go right up in the air, caused by a dynamite explosion, mingled with that air will be a band instrument or two and numerous portions of one or two play ers, mixed with clothing and various musical notes. The rooms directly over the RECORD office are occupied by some band boys and the terrible noises that continually drop down upon us from those regions are driving the whole force Pontiacward.

The first C. E. committee tea was held Friday evening at the Presbyterian parsonage. Mrs. Dr. Root, Mrs. Harrison Yerkes and Mrs. B. A. Wheeler served the company. The tables were beautifully laid. The toasts were full of wit and showed the young people were gifted in after dinner eloquence. Miss Alexandre responded to "Our Committee." Miss Minnie Smith "Our C. E." Albert Long "Our Good Looking Chairman." Edgar Thompson "Our C. E. Neighbor." H. E. Brown "Our Host." Or Webster "Our Organist." J. M. Belding "Our Guests."

If there is anything that makes the average housekeeper mad it is to find her front door steps covered with a lot of unightly advertising band bills. She never looks at them, but rolls them up into a ball and drops them into the nearest waste basket or stove, with an exclamation that would sound very bad if translated into the language of the average man. This is a nuisance that no community is free from, and front yards as well as door steps are frequently littered in this way. This advertising matter rarely serves the purpose it is intended for, but usually meets the fate mentioned.

CARPET WEAVING--Mrs. Wm. Crager is prepared to do all kinds of Carpet weaving at her home, No. 1 East street.

Awarded Highest Honors--World's Fair. DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER MOST PERFECT MADE. A Pure Cream of Tartar Powder. Free from Ammonia, Alum or any other adulterant. 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

Telephone rentals have been reduced in Northville to $24 for business places and $18 for private houses.

Alfred Noble of Chicago, son of Chas. Noble formerly of this place, has recently been appointed by President Cleveland as one of the members of the Nicaragua Canal Board. The board will investigate and report of the feasibility and expense of the proposed canal. The appointment is a good one and is a merited compliment to the ability of a former Northville boy.

The ladies lecture at the library rooms Monday afternoon by Miss S. M. Reynolds was largely attended and the audience was very favorably impressed with both the lady and her talk. Miss Reynolds is by no means a stranger to Michigan people and has a host of friends through the state. She is a lady in every sense of the word and her statements may be relied upon.

Mrs. E. K. Bennett, wife of Ed. K. Bennett one of the best known and most popular young business men of Plymouth, died Saturday morning. The funeral occurred Monday. Mrs. Bennett had been ill for several months and the most skilled physicians of the state could do nothing except to stay the dread messenger. And thus in a single moment a sweet and lovely life has gone out and a beautiful home is made desolate. A little girl of five months is left to the care of the husband.

Weather Prophet Hicks said: about the 15th and 16th of this month, reactionary changes will take place and the mercury equinox, central on the 20th will help to get in a period of cloudiness, storm and rain that will likely continue with little abatement until after the new moon on the 21st. The heaviest storms are apt to occur from the 23 to 24th. A sharp change in color will result about the 21st or 25th. The 27th and 28th will bring a change to warmer, with much tendency to storminess and general showers.

"Chick" at the opera house Monday night will not only be a very pleasing play, and more than worth the price of admission charged, but by patronizing it you will also be helping the band out financially. If the enjoyable evening concerts of last summer are to be repeated again this summer, the boys must have some financial aid to meet current expenses. New music and a leader cost money. If the band is appreciated and their music on the streets is desired again this year, show it by your presence Monday night.

No one need be surprised if on some of these fine days they see one of the front rooms on the second floor of the opera house go right up in the air, caused by a dynamite explosion, mingled with that air will be a band instrument or two and numerous portions of one or two play ers, mixed with clothing and various musical notes. The rooms directly over the RECORD office are occupied by some band boys and the terrible noises that continually drop down upon us from those regions are driving the whole force Pontiacward.

The first C. E. committee tea was held Friday evening at the Presbyterian parsonage. Mrs. Dr. Root, Mrs. Harrison Yerkes and Mrs. B. A. Wheeler served the company. The tables were beautifully laid. The toasts were full of wit and showed the young people were gifted in after dinner eloquence. Miss Alexandre responded to "Our Committee." Miss Minnie Smith "Our C. E." Albert Long "Our Good Looking Chairman." Edgar Thompson "Our C. E. Neighbor." H. E. Brown "Our Host." Or Webster "Our Organist." J. M. Belding "Our Guests."

If there is anything that makes the average housekeeper mad it is to find her front door steps covered with a lot of unightly advertising band bills. She never looks at them, but rolls them up into a ball and drops them into the nearest waste basket or stove, with an exclamation that would sound very bad if translated into the language of the average man. This is a nuisance that no community is free from, and front yards as well as door steps are frequently littered in this way. This advertising matter rarely serves the purpose it is intended for, but usually meets the fate mentioned.

Send your book binding, job printing and subscription to the record office. Charles Donoyan was down on his wheel from South Lyon Wednesday calling on friends.

It is understood that the firm of Holmes, Dancy & Co. will open for business here next week.

E. A. Shaffer has bargained for Frank Park's interest in the hotel here. The change is to take place May 1.

Our Farmington representative is suffering from an attack of the grip, thus accounting for no news from that town this week.

The Detroit C. E. Union numbering possibly four hundred, expect to pay the Northville society a visit soon. A splendid program is in preparation containing some of the best speakers in the city. This is quite a compliment to our little city.

The communication ticket rate between Detroit and Northville will be a boon to Northville real estate dealers and owners of tenant houses if they will properly take hold of the matter. We also believe a little judicious advertising in the city papers by the village officials would be a good investment.

The following are the nine longest words in the English language at the present writing: Substitutionalness, incomprehensibility, philoprogenitiveness, honorableness, andropogoniarium, disproportionableness, velocipedetransmission, transubstantiation, and proautismantantiquist.

At the quarterly meeting services held at the Methodist church Sunday evening the new individual communication service was used for the first time. Presiding Elder Allen was present and in a few introductory remarks he gave as his opinion that this service at no distant date would be generally adopted by all churches. Personally he was greatly in favor of it. The congregation was also very favorably impressed. Besides the fact that but one person drinks from the same glass or cup, instead of a hundred or more as in the old way, there is also the convenience whereby it is possible for several hundred to communicate in a very few moments. The services Sunday evening were very impressive and the church was filled to overflow.

Dewit Packard of near Plymouth was called before Justice Dingle at Novi last week Saturday to answer to the charge of selling diseased meat to Mr. Wright of that place. The timely poundage in question was offered at some of the local meat markets here by a couple of colored men who were working for Mr. Packard. The market refused to buy the pork and it was taken to Novi where it met a like fate. Mr. Packard took it to Waukegan and finally traded it there with Wright of Novi for fish and part money. The market's pig was broken some time previous and the ham in consequence was badly ulcerated, but this was not discovered by Wright until he started to eat the pig a few days later. The hearing was adjourned for one week.

It is safe to say that at least two-thirds of the families in Northville, and other towns as well, make a practice of plugging their milk tickets in the pail or picher when setting them out of doors for the milk man. If they don't do this, they put the ticket of money in their mouth and carry it out to the wagon in that style. This is a dangerous practice and should cease at once. Physicians and health boards tell us that often contagious diseases, such as fevers, diphtheria and small pox are thus carried from one family to another, getting into the system through the milk pail. The proper place for the milk ticket is under the pail, if one is afraid of its blowing away and if it is carried to the wagon don't place it in the mouth. The RECORD is not sure but what the milk ticket system should be abolished entirely and milk men be obliged to use coupon tickets and a punch. Another bad practice frequently indulged in is that of placing coins in the mouth when it is just possible that one previous owner of the coin had diphtheria or grip.

Rev. C. M. Welch, Lakeview, Mich., says: "I have used Adirondack Heart and Nerve Cure and have known my neighbors to use it and always with splendid results." Sold by Geo. C. Huestoc.

HAVE YOU HAD THE GRIP? If you have, you probably need a reliable medicine like Foley's Honey and Tar to heal your lungs and stop the racking cough incidental to this disease. C. E. Stevens.

Who made it possible to buy picture frames at reasonable prices in Northville? Those work on mats and frames is so neat and workmanlike? Whose judgment on how to frame a picture is most courted? Brown's! See his this week's ad.

UNFORTUNATE PEOPLE are they who are afflicted with pimples, boils, carbuncles, running sores, ulcers, proflus, cancerous or syphilitic affections, or any blood taint whatsoever, and do not try a 50c bottle of Foley's Sarsaparilla. C. E. Stevens.

C. L. Dubuar Lumber Company.

Drain Tile!

Better get your Drain Tile before the rush. Plenty of 2, 3 and 4 inch and other sizes in stock.

Full Stock Lumber

and other building material on hand.

C. L. Dubuar Lumber Company.

A Reminder.

4 Cardinal Points in Banking.

You will find them all at the Northville State Savings Bank.

4 Per Cent interest, payable semi-annually on savings deposits from $1.00 upwards.

New York or Detroit Drafts, $10.00 or less, 5c.

DIRECTORS: Dr. J. M. Swift, Dr. E. A. Chapman, W. P. Yerkes, F. G. Terrill, L. W. Simmons, C. J. Sprague, J. M. Simmons.

L. A. SABBITT, Cashier.

99 Main, cor. Center St.

NEW PANTINGS!

We have now a line of Pantings which we will close out at a VERY CLOSE PRICE, in fact at prices never before offered. They are all right good goods and up-to-date styles.

They are Yours for $4 and $5.

for a limited time. Get measured quick for they will go fast at that price. These are specialties. A few $20.00 Suitings left.

B. Freydt, Merchant Tailor.

103 Main Street, Northville, Michigan.

Just Received!

I have just received a full line of Ladies Fine Footwear, in all the latest styles of Toes and make-up, including Button, Lace & Congress in black and colored goods. Call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere. No trouble to show goods.

99 Main Street, C. A. SESSIONS.

Fine Repairing a specialty.

Gone to Smash!

The old prices on Gasoline and Kerosene have gone up like the captured Cities of China. Too bad! but wait a minute. We are selling

GASOLINE STOVES

CHEAPER THAN EVER.

A first-class one for a little over One-Half the price our competitors are asking the country over for no better stove.

Knapp & Yerkes,

Northville. Corner Hardware Store.

Ever-Lasting Shiners.

Our Men's Patent Shoes are not only "Shiners," but good wearers, made of the Best French Calf, and sell for $4.50.

Sell Royal Blue $4 Shoe is the best Calf shoe for the money in town. Sell District $3 Shoe, latest style and fit to perfection.

Our Boston Calf Shoe for $2 is a hummer.

Buy your Necktie Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Neckties, Gloves, Sweaters, Overalls, Pants and Underwear of Stark Bros., The Shoemen.

Agents for SELZ ROYAL BLUE $4 SHOE.

IN TWO PENINSULAS

MICHIGAN PEOPLE AND WHAT THEY ARE DOING

Michigan from the Lost Steamer Chicago... Mackerel brought and the Aunt Ann... charged with a storker Com... mitted Three Years Ago

A Message From the Chicago

J. H. Graham, president of the Gra... man & Mortuoline, received a message... from Saginaw, stating that a bottle... was picked up on the beach containing... a note signed by Robert M. Clark, ca... tanager of the Chicago, which read as... follows:

Mr. Graham thinks that it is worthy... of belief. This goes far to prove the... statement of a man named Blumner, of... South Haven, who stated that he saw... the Chicago near that point on the... afternoon of Jan. 21, and it will be... proved that the Chicago was only lost... by the breaking of her machinery or... losing the steering gear. Her hull in... this case is undoubtedly near shore... and secret will begin for it at once.

Arrested for Murder Three Years Ago

George W. King, a Muskegon druggist, was arrested on a warrant charging him with the murder of Nathan... daughter is the complainant. He lived... on his farm near Springport for many... years with his daughter, and had... deeded all his property to her. Four... years ago a son of King's went to... live with them, and about a year later... the daughter, Mrs. Douglas, the w... orety was then decided to his wife. The... officers claim that shortly afterwards... King went to Springport and remained... a week, and that within 10 days the... old man sickened and died. Mrs. H... H. Huston, King's aunt, was also ar... rested as an accomplice in the crime.

MICHIGAN HAPPENINGS

Vassar is about to organize a Y. M. C. A.

Whitcomb saloons will have to close...

Caldwell Episcopalians are organizing...

A small green bug is eating the heart...

Three weeks of revival services at Hudson...

Deceased's relatives row among the sleep...

The lawn furniture factory at Colon...

Amos House was severely injured by fire...

Within 18 hours all the gambling houses...

The Michigan Book company expects...

South Haven voted in favor of issuing...

Assistant Secretary of State Edwin...

Fireman Earl Graham, was so badly...

Dan Whitman, Jr., on the charge of...

Outing on mill owners were so anxious...

C. W. Walker of Flint, got 10 days in...

By a vote of 105 to 75, the taxpayers...

The state military board has decided...

Biycle riders at Kalamazoo and Battle...

George Perry, an old man who lives...

The cooling moths made his appearance...

Charlevoix has two Chandler townships...

Mayor Walker of Ann Arbor says...

Louis Flannick, employed in a Mem... mine...

C. G. Austin, of Crosson, visited a...

The Mouroe block, in which were...

The issue of $70,000 bonds for a city...

On May 11, of the suburban mail...

The Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co...

Clide and Leonard Corright, aged 11...

STATE LEGISLATURE

Editor Edward Forester has been ap...

Israel Austin, aged 10, was arrested... charged with beating his wife, who... lies in a critical condition.

The Kirby Carpenter Co.'s machine...

Receiver Snow of the Adrian Elec... tric light railroad, resumed running... street cars after the line had been idle...

Bull Hunt, alias King, an alleged...

The Hillsdale college authorities... are discouraged. The number of li... brary students in excess of that of...

Memorandum lumbermen deny the re...

Mrs. Spencer, state librarian, has... already had 15 applications for the...

The Antrim Iron company's furnaces...

Mrs. Dr. A. Jaffens and Mrs. W. M... Mosher, of Hubbardston, are said to...

Jennie Crothers, a 17-year-old girl...

Archie Davis, a young man, was... found drowned in a well near Harton.

Wm. Williams, was arrested at...

Dr. H. C. Quilford, for several years...

Mackinac island will be the greatest...

The Detroit and Grand Rapids man...

One of the ripest eggs beds in Mich...

At Lake County, aged 13, son of...

U. B. Wheeler, of Martin, will re...

in the state public school at Col...

Thus, Durly, Jew in the Kalamazoo...

At Waterbury, very proud of her pa...

Atty. Gen. Maynard's opinion that...

Report comes from Batavia, Mich...

A petition, signed by a large num...

Tramps broke open three freight...

An attempt was made to blow up...

For some time house of ill-repute...

Miss A. L. Richards, who has been...

A wholesale dealer, says the new...

The people of Elmhurst township...

James W. Scott, chief proprietor and...

The heaviest flood in 37 years caused...

The Hotel Raymond, at Passaden...

Fire started in the Stinson live...

John Reed was killed at Union City...

A hunting party of three unknown...

The body of W. J. Aul, of Darion, O...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

Fire started in the Stinson live...

John Reed was killed at Union City...

A hunting party of three unknown...

The body of W. J. Aul, of Darion, O...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

Fire started in the Stinson live...

John Reed was killed at Union City...

A hunting party of three unknown...

The body of W. J. Aul, of Darion, O...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

Fire started in the Stinson live...

John Reed was killed at Union City...

A hunting party of three unknown...

The body of W. J. Aul, of Darion, O...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

Fire started in the Stinson live...

John Reed was killed at Union City...

A hunting party of three unknown...

The body of W. J. Aul, of Darion, O...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

Fire started in the Stinson live...

John Reed was killed at Union City...

A hunting party of three unknown...

The body of W. J. Aul, of Darion, O...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

Fire started in the Stinson live...

John Reed was killed at Union City...

NEWS OF INTEREST AND MORE OR LESS IMPORTANCE

President Cleveland Japs Back at Silver

The business week of Chicago sent an...

Women in a San Francisco Church

The present situation demands that...

Empire of China, Qing His Throne

London, a dispatch from Shanghai...

A Reply to Cleveland

W. B. Brewster, chairman of the ex...

Double Murder and Suicide at Cleveland

Washington, it is authoritatively...

Nicaragua: Replies to Great Britain

The Nicaraguan made three demands...

The annual convention of the Tro...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

CASUALTIES

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

REVIEW OF TRADE

Progress toward better business...

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

CHINA, AND JAPAN AT PEACE

China Concedes All of the 'Big Claims'

London, a dispatch to the Times...

The Cuban Case is Lost

Madrid, Masco is captured and...

A CHANGE IN TONE

The Stand Taken by De la O, the...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

NEWS OF INTEREST AND MORE OR LESS IMPORTANCE

President Cleveland Japs Back at Silver

The business week of Chicago sent an...

Women in a San Francisco Church

The present situation demands that...

Empire of China, Qing His Throne

London, a dispatch from Shanghai...

A Reply to Cleveland

W. B. Brewster, chairman of the ex...

Double Murder and Suicide at Cleveland

Washington, it is authoritatively...

Nicaragua: Replies to Great Britain

The Nicaraguan made three demands...

The annual convention of the Tro...

George McKenna, a gripman, was...

CASUALTIES

Benjamin W. Burnett was instantly...

REVIEW OF TRADE

Progress toward better business...

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

CHINA, AND JAPAN AT PEACE

China Concedes All of the 'Big Claims'

London, a dispatch to the Times...

The Cuban Case is Lost

Madrid, Masco is captured and...

A CHANGE IN TONE

The Stand Taken by De la O, the...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

GRAIN, ETC.

CASUALTIES

REVIEW OF TRADE

A JURY IN JUDGE DUNN'S COURT

Chicago George W. Conder's verdict...

THE MARKETS

LIVE STOCK

