AWFULLY FUNNY

Were Some of the Men's Experiences to Earn a $

AS TOLD AT THE SOCIAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Large Crowd Present and the Society Nets $180.

With the Amount Pledged It Makes the Methodist Church Debtless.

L. W. Hutton's spacious residence was a blaze of light Wednesday night in honor of the men's experience social held there. Before 8 o'clock the house was crowded and by the time the brave men, in dulcet or quavering tones, according to whether they had earned the money themselves or their wives had been obliged to give it (to the) field of what they endured or engaged in to secure the "corker," pledged dollar, there was a veritable crush, about 250 persons being present.

A male quartette—Brown, Buchner, McPhail and Nichols with Dierens at the organ regaled the audience with a choice selection, which received an encore. They responded, the organist struck the chord; the quartette gracefully bowed and intimated "April Fool."

George Harley's experience headed the list and when he said he had been "bitting dog's feet for Mr. Beal's" a whisper of "later" followed points him pointing. If it had been dog's feet he might have understood etc. etc. until some bright child said "Dora's carver." The following is a partial list of those who engaged and the thrilling or humorous experience gained.

W. H. Turner had a "point" which set forth great struggles with aching angel calls, and removing chairs.

C. C. Chadwick slept with his baby, and refused to tell more saying he would have to write a book.

Bert Taylor had a flower stand.

John Dolph (whispered) my wife earned it for me.

Fred Withee took a bureau a hundred years old and made a 19th century sideboard. Herb Lee said "I did the washing." My wife said "I could do it but the sure was nine or eleven."

C. Blair played cochinna and peddled nuts. G. A. Hutton got an experience to earn $5 by giving his opinion, culinary work, dish-washing, "mowed" straw away and sold Pingree buttons for the balance. Hoy Woodman piled brush, washed dishes and graded horse-radish.

C. Wilson wiped dishes, but earned another in an effort to get the first, his partner refusing to pay promptly.

L. W. Hutton's dollar came from the mint and was 16 years old. L. A. Beal borrowed a dollar of his wife. W. H. Hutton kept house, hooked wife's dress and shovelled dirt. M. S. Ambler worked over hours.

Al VanDyne did house work. C. F. Hutton was stuck because his wife refused to pay as per agreement and he had to donate from his own pocket. Dr. Blainard attended one of the Guild ladies who was opportunity in—Mr. Beal mended a door bell, etc. worth and donated the balance. Mr. Becker cooked, and washed dishes—Mr. Durbin peddled fried-cakes—Chas. Filkins fixed a pump and danced a jig—W. E. Ambler took a man to Plymouth.

A number of neat things were read by ladies who had found out the weaknesses and misfortunes of their friends, and then Mr. Turner was handed a box which contained a knitted purse, inside of which was fifty-two dollars to apply on the church debt with the ladies' commitments.

The Junior League brought their mite, a half eagle, which was earned and donated by the workers of that body and it was one of the best things of the evening.

F. R. Beal had made a stand, doing the work on the table as in the said langsyne. This was sold at auction to the highest bidder, and it took a V from L. A. Beal to secure it.

When the ladies of the Guild went out to supper they were treated to a touch of the men's making, and serving, the principal of which was biscuit staffed with cotton.

The event, including the admission at the door, from the Junior League and from the ladies, will net the society $180 which with the amount already on Mr. Turner's subscription list will place the Methodist church entirely out of debt.

IT'S AGAINST THE LAW

To Sell, Give or Furnish Tobacco to Minors.

The following law regarding the supplying of tobacco in any form to a person under 17 years of age unless by written request of parent or guardian is handed us with the request to publish.

Section 7. The people of the State of Michigan enact, That it shall not be lawful for any person by himself, his clerk or agent, to sell, give or furnish any cigar, cigarette, pipe, chewing or smoking tobacco, or tobacco in any form whatsoever, to any minor under seventeen years of age, unless upon the written order of the parent or guardian of said minor.

The fine for the violation of this act is $5 to $50 or ten to thirty days in jail or both.

HAS FOUR HUSBANDS.

THE LAST ONE WAS BURTON HAYWOOD OF SALEM.

May Stevens, with Several Aliases, Was the Girl.

Burton Haywood a well known and respected Salem blacksmith married an attractive woman known as May Stevens in Detroit last December and it now transpires that there were three other husbands who had claims previous to Haywood's.

Haywood and husband No. 3 have had the woman, who loved not wisely too many, arrested for trying to get a "corker" on men and thus forming a monopoly contrary to the inflexible committee law.

The case is an extraordinary one. A man with several wives is occasionally heard of but a woman with four husbands is truly remarkable. Surely the wonders at the close of the 19th century are getting greater and more of them.

WAS A "CORKER"

The Detroit Union of Epworth Leaguers

MADE THINGS LIVELY HERE LAST NIGHT.

Two Hundred and Fifty Came by the Special Train.

The C. E. and B. Y. P. U. Assisted in the Rally.

To be exact 246 enthusiastic leaguers from the twenty different chapters of the Detroit Union of Epworth Leaguers landed in Northville by special train at 8 o'clock last evening for a rally with the local League. They were met by the local chapter and headed by the Girls' band, with the Junior League for escort, marched to the Methodist church where after a hearty lunch Rev. F. A. Smart conducted a song service accompanied by the state leaguers' cornet quartet, with Mrs. Long as organist. Rev. C. C. Turner gave the welcome address, and the fraternal greetings were by H. F. Brown for the local C. E. and Frank Moore for the B. Y. P. U. The response was by President Seely of the Detroit Union.

Dr. C. T. Allen then gave his address, entitled "The Field and the Battle." It was not only a brilliant one but as the doctor said the boys had labeled it "brand new." The "field" was the free land of America and the "battle" was against political corruption and for an honest ballot box.

Dr. Allen said when men come to realize what it cost to make a free American ballot, they would not cast it carelessly. He would like to see the 2,000,000 Leaguers draw swords and stand to do battle until the door of every saloon in America was closed. He said the saloons were the recruiting places of all political corruption. No reform was possible until they were abolished.

State President McEldoway talked of the Ludington state convention and Rev. Mr. Haller of the national convention to be held in Cleveland. The

About Teachers' Contracts.

The following from the state superintendent of public instruction may be of interest as well as news to many teachers as well as school boards:

All contracts with teachers should be authorized at a regular meeting of the district board. If authorized, it is the duty of the moderator to sign the contract. A contract, however, signed by a majority of the district board will bind the district if properly authorized at a regular meeting of the district board.

The penalty on officers for neglect of duty is as follows:

P. 141, Sec. 27—Any person duly elected to the office of moderator, director, assessor, or trustee of a school district, who shall neglect or refuse without sufficient cause, to accept such office and serve therein or who, having entered upon the duties of his office, shall neglect or refuse to perform any duty required of him by virtue of his office, shall forfeit the sum of ten dollars.

A Married Man's Rights.

"I see," said a friend the other day, "you are an old hand at it. I have only just got married and don't understand much about the business. I should like to know whether a married man has any rights left when he takes unto himself a wife?"

"Rights? Yes, lots. He has a right to pay all the bills."

"Stop! I mean this. Let me give you an instance. Every box, every chest of drawers and portmanteau, and in fact, every available receptacle of every description is stuffed full of my wife's property, and when I want to put away a few collars and cuffs—"

"Hold on. I know what you mean. Listen, young man. If your bedroom were 200 yards long, lined to the ceiling with shelves, and you wanted a place to stow away a couple of neckties and a collar button, you couldn't find a hook that wasn't full of hairpins, empty boxes, scent bottles, odd gloves, powder puffs or little bits of tape, so just accept the inevitable. Wrap your personal property in an old newspaper parcel and hide it under the bed."

He gazed ironically, but passed on, a sadder and wiser man.

The YMCA ball this evening promises to be one of the finest affairs held in the village this season. Finney's orchestra will be the leading attraction and everything will be done by the society to make the event a fitting closing of the year's festivities. Indications point to there being a large number of spectators present.

C. Chadwick's talk at the men's meeting Sunday was well enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Arnold comes next Sunday with "The Jews" number five—a preacher's view.

The ladies aid society of the Baptist church will hold their talent social April 15, afternoon and evening. Supper served at five o'clock, also refreshments in the evening together with a fine program.

The law requiring pensions to be paid hereafter by check to the pensioners' address goes into immediate effect, and they will hereafter be paid that way. This will in many cases be a gain to the pensioner and a loss to the cities where the pensioners' offices are located.

Music recitations and hot syrup will make a most delicious dish which served up in the right proportions by the juniors at the right on the evening of April 10. Elliott's orchestra. The class of '07 will be in attendance to fill your orders and receipt your bill for 10c.

Rev. Mr. McTearle of Detroit occupied the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday morning and evening in the absence of Rev. Mr. Mohrner who has been on a two weeks lecture tour in the south. Mr. Mohrner returned home this week and will occupy his pulpit as usual Sunday.

The ten o'clock p. m. Detroit train now has a push clock on the front car instead of going over dead ends. This will be a great convenience and the only wonder is that the arrangement was not made long ago. It will now be possible to send a letter from Northville to Plymouth and other towns and get a reply back the same day.

During the exercises at the ring last Tuesday evening the dancing class presented their tutor, W. H. Yerkes, with a very handsome willow rocker. Mr. Yerkes has proved himself an expert teacher as is proven by the remarkable proficiency obtained by the class in twelve lessons. Mr. Downer made the presentation in a very neat little speech and the surprise was a regular illustration for Mr. Y.

H. E. C. Daniels and H. W. Dancer have rented the Ely house, 121, 123 Main street, and will occupy the same with their families about May 1, at which time Mrs. Ely will move to Gladstone where Mr. Ely is engaged in the manufacturing of dowel pins. Mr. Daniels will move into 123 and Mr. Dancer into 121. The departure of Mrs. Ely and family from Northville is an event to be contemplated with sincere regret.

Bert Knapp, a former well known Northville boy, died at his home in Detroit on the afternoon of March 27th. The funeral was held in that city on Monday and the remains brought here for burial in the Knapp cemetery. Rev. C. C. Turner officiated in the funeral service at the grave. Bert was about twenty-five years of age and, until a few years ago when with his parents he moved to Colorado in search of health, had always lived in this village. He was a bright young man and had a host of friends who sorrow at his untimely end.

Last week the Northville Record found its space crowded and printed a supplement. We did not realize the presence of the supplement until the devil called our attention to the fact that a "dogger" had fallen upon the floor. We hardly expected such entrance from Northville.—Springwells Times.

And yet that "dogger" contained more than one and one-half columns of set reading matter, as much as some country papers have in their entire edition. The Times' attention is called to the fact that there is a vast difference between devil and "dog" and the editor should beware of too close association with his satanic majesty. Note—Advice free.

WANTED—Girl for general house work. Apply to Record office for particulars.

More indications of spring. We notice that our neighbors have this week put their screen doors on tap—probably a warning for future flies to apply elsewhere.

The advertised letters at the post-office this week are for:
Mr. D. Hazen
Mrs. G. H. Smith
Mr. Edgar Smith

C. A. Downer, P. M.
The Record has made no inquiry and has not the least idea whose duties President Swift will present to the council for confirmation as marshal and street commissioner, but there is one thing certain, the village was never better cared for in this respect, both as regards expense and efficiency, than during the past year by the present incumbents of those respective offices.

A. W. Reed is about to close out his business here and move to a town near Flint. Mr. Reed has been a business man here so long and has been allied in such a friendly way with everything for the advancement of the village that there is none but whom will regret his departure. Mr. Reed is now advertising his "Removal Sale" to continue until April 15th at which time he will close his store here.

The Colonus Mandolin Club composed of students attending the U. of M. consisting of seven, three mandolin guitar, banjo, flute and violins, will appear in the Northville opera house Tuesday evening April 17th. The club will render selections from the leading composers. Prof. M. Gellespie of Ann Arbor is director and T. W. Balkeger is manager. The program will consist of about fifteen numbers.

The prohibitionists of this township have put the following good tickets in the field: Supervisor, George E. Bradley; clerk, Geo. H. Bryant; treasurer, Frank B. Adams; justice, Henry Ford; highway commissioner, Theodore F. Clifton; drain commissioner, Maj. D. Gorton; school inspector, Arthur D. Stevens; bd. of review, full term, R. C. Safford; to fill vacancy, Chas. Crawford; constables, Jas. Manzer, Daniel McDowd, Frank D. Adams and Peter Farley.

The Plymouth township democratic caucus was held here last Friday afternoon and the following officers nominated: Supervisor, D. B. North; clerk, H. G. Baker; treasurer, E. C. Jauffer; school inspector, Chas. Booth; justice, J. D. Murdock; member of review, L. W. Simmons; Geo. Lee; highway commissioner, John M. Ward; drain commissioner, Seth A. Talbot. This is considered with but one or two exceptions, an unusually strong ticket.

The funeral of Miss Cynthia Smith, of whom a brief notice appeared in last week's issue, occurred from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. D. Livingston with whom she had long made her home on Monday afternoon. Rev. Lee McCullister of Detroit officiating. The funeral was in the Quaker cemetery, Farmington. Deceased was born in Liverpool in 1840 and had always lived there and in this village. She was of a retired disposition but those who knew her better in high esteem.

One of our well known citizens will endeavor to start a club for the men's "experience" social by blacking boots on the corner Saturday.—Northville Record.

If he has half the pluck of chief engineer Bowen of the Adrian fire department, he should earn several dollars. Bowen fell to his death from a hot day last June and $7.50 was the sum he made blacking shoes. Bowen, who is one of the wealthy men of Adrian, gave the money to the boy who owned the blacking outfit.—Montrose Democrat.

Plymouth may keep Northville auring in a great many directions, and have more heas, bigger factories, and less sleep, but when it comes to a charter election, it pulls only about half as many votes as does the fish hatchery village, which scored 37 votes while Plymouth put up but 14.—Adrian Press.

The Press evidently is not aware that Northville's factories do more business in one day than all of Plymouth's do in a whole year. Why, bless your soul, man, alive, all of Plymouth's factories would go right inside of just one of the Northville factories and then there would be room enough left to hold all they have in Adrian besides.

A west end man, one of Northville's "400," is credited with causing no end of excitement in the third ward early Wednesday morning. The chimney was on fire and the husband was startled from a sound sleep by the wife with a cry of fire. The man was rattled but he had lost none of his activity and with one bound he was up from his downy couch making for the sidewalk, improving the spare seconds by yelling fire and putting on his wearing apparel a la fireman. When the neighbors gathered they found him clothed only with a collar and a garter while a quantity of undergarments were grasped tightly in his hands which he was frantically trying to tie around his waist as he continued his confagration yell. The fire and the excitement were soon subdued without apparent damage.

In last week's report of the "Judging" meeting held in the opera house here two weeks ago The Record said that it was stated that Supervisor Hoy had drawn nearly $500. The fact of the matter was that up to that time Mr. Hoy had only drawn $142.

The Record suggests that now is just the opportune time to inspect and put in proper repair every dangerous piece of sidewalk in the village. There are numerous places where a person can, with more or less ease, receive severe injuries. The council should give this matter immediate attention.

In addition to the large number of new books purchased by the Ladies Library association, a number of valuable volumes were received, the gift of Mrs. Stout and Mr. and Mrs. Lapham. Jerry Lapham also contributed two volumes of juvenile literature. The gift is especially appreciated on account of the high order of the books contributed. An attempt was made this year to raise the standard of books purchased as far as possible, and instead of the usual large percentage of novels, a greater number of books of biography, letters, travels, etc. were selected.

NOVI LOCALS.

The cheese factory started up Wednesday.

John Hallett returned to Detroit Saturday.

Inez Sibelius of New Hudson visited at P. McGrath's Tuesday.

Frank Kemp of Kent county visited Tuesday at Duff's Diner.

It is not only "gentle" spring time, at it is becoming spring time.

The Methodist ladies will serve dinner in their church town-meeting day.

Walter Nash has been spending a few days with Birmingham relatives.

Who will get the blame for the wholesale catch made by the game warden?

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan of Salem were the guests of E. M. Goodell and wife Sunday.

Mrs. Stella Hinesbury had a sudden attack of heart trouble Sunday afternoon, but is recovering.

Mr. L. C. Perdue, Mrs. Asst. High and Mrs. Katie Perdue of Detroit are visiting friends in Novi and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Dennis are prominent Novi residents, having attended two yearlings in Northville, returned to their home.

Engine 55 which was so badly wrecked at Northville a couple of weeks ago, passed through here Sunday looking like normal new engine.

The ubiquitous cat now begins to perch on the eaves thoroughfare, as one of the sure signs that spring has "arrived" on schedule time.

Some of our and Plymouth boys were "pulled" for spearing fish. They got off by paying their fines and think now they can fish faster by catching fish with the hands.

The republican caucus resulted as follows: Supervisor, Frank B. Tanager; clerk, Geo. W. Whipple; treasurer, Arthur Jones; justice, Fred E. Quigley; highway commissioner, Lester Woodruff; drain commissioner, Henry C. Skinner; school inspector, Wm. D. Flint, to fill vacancy, Edwin T. Hazen, full term.

W. S. Wiggins had an exciting race with a Saturday, the horses getting loose from the pig and running into Delos Leaverworth's field where they were caught and returned to the owner all right. The draw-bolt came out and let the whiffletree on the horse's heels and they ran about a mile. The doctor's nerves were considerably shaken up.

Mr. Toneray, an old veteran, died at Novi lately, and the commander of the G.A.R. post, at Millford, was phoned to notify friends there of the death. The commander replied that they could do nothing in the case, as Toneray had let himself slip out of the post, by failure to pay dues. There was a commander who should hand to his resignation. No one asked for any aid, but as the dead soldier had many friends up at Millford, it was deemed best to let them know of his death. He had property enough to pay for six feet of land, and all expenses, and could have kept up dues, but could not attend the meetings, so let it go. The commander evidently has forgotten the meaning of the "E. & C." of the G.A.R. motto.—Adrian Press.

Days Simons of Northville, has invented a new calendar, and now he is able to tell when it is Sunday, without relying on the church bells or closed saloons. It is supposed to be automatic in operation and rings a bell for meals, at all hours, and it used in the W.N.C. at Novi, it will sound every motion made, and retain its gravity.—Adrian Press.

The sterling old town of Novi, which has an ornament in the republican column is one of the best towns in the county and reliably republican of late years. The supervisor from that town, Frank H. Tanager, esq., though serving his first term, won the respect and confidence of his associates on the board by his intelligent work and painstaking attention to business, and will with out doubt lead the republican ticket for supervisor this spring.—Pontiac Press.

And we predict the same faithful approval of Mr. Tanager's conduct as supervisor next November, which was shown by the vote out of a total of 70 votes cast in his favor.

The Detroit Journal at Saturday had given an account of a surprise party given by Mrs. George Richard Detroit, formerly of Novi, at which a cake was eaten which had been baked with groton oil "for a price." Three boys who attended the party lit the cake and accidentally started a fire which the effect the reason had on those who ate the cake. Several of the party were found to be in a serious condition and it required prompt action on the part of a physician, who was called to save their lives. The Journal stated that within a few minutes after eating the cake, the back yard was full of young people endeavoring to "bake" joints, all experiencing a deathly sickness.

Died at his home in Durand on Mar. 25, Franklin Monroe Groner, aged twenty-five years. He was deceased was born in Novi and was a resident here until a few years ago. He leaves behind a brother and sister to mourn his loss, both parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Groner of this place, and a wife and infant daughter. At the age of fifteen he was converted and has since been an earnest christian and member of the Methodist church. In 1896 he was married to Miss Stella Holtz of Ypsilanti, who by his industry is left well provided for. He leaves a large circle of warm friends who strongly sympathize with the bereaved ones. Death was caused by heart failure, induced by jumping from a wagon to the hard ground some time ago. The funeral occurred from the Novi Baptist church last week Friday.

The rain-fest Saturday evening prevented the members of the W.N.C. club from assembling and no meeting was held. The closing meeting of the season occurs tomorrow evening, weather permitting. The following program has been arranged, and such additions will be made as circumstances render available.

The following candidates were nominated for township offices at the "silver caucus" last Saturday: Supervisor, Chas. Bannister; clerk, Augus Kaple (prob.); treasurer, Leo L. West (prob.); justice, Della Heavenworth (prob.); highway commissioner, Geo. Hicks; school inspector, David Gage (on the board); drain commissioner, Geo. Taylor (prob.); board of review, and farm and household, Philip Clark (prob.). Wonder where the promoters of this course come to?

Now that a "silver" party has met and placed in combination a set of candidates for township offices, it seems that it is appropriate to just say to the voters of this town that it would be wise to study the money question very closely before casting a vote in favor of free and unlimited exchange of silver. The fact is, what you do this next Monday in this direction will not figure anyway, the proper place being the district conventions. And again, we don't think that the general run of voters understand the silver question sufficiently to warrant their voting for it. We don't believe that they would vote for it if they did understand it, nor do we believe this country will ever declare for it. It is a local issue, confined to the silver producing states, and if our laboring classes get a "free" silver dollar, they must get it just as they always have gotten it, by hard work.

In 1874 Oscar M. Whipple established a lumber business in this place, and continued the same until 1881 when W. A. Whipple, his younger brother, was admitted to partnership, the new firm, becoming known as Whipple Bros. The business steadily increased, their patronage coming from a wide territory and from time to time their yards were enlarged until a few years ago the F&M company put in an extra siding for them in order to give them more room. Still the business grew until today it is one of the largest lumber yards in the country, and comprises not only a lumber trade but also coal, lime, cement, apple barrels and all classes of building material. The new firm which replaces that of Whipple Bros. will be known as the Whipple-Lumber Co., composed of O. M. Whipple, W. A. Whipple and Geo. W. Whipple, each holding an equal share in the business, Geo. W. Whipple, having purchased a third interest. Aside from the above mentioned business, O. M. Whipple & Son, (Geo. W.) conduct a general fire insurance business, and George is also a member of the firm of Whipple & Nicholson, brick and tile manufacturers. We congratulate the old firm on their achievements and wish for the new firm a continuation of the prosperity which has been enjoyed in the past, and assure them of undivided confidence of the public generally.
