M. S. Ambler's present heads the batting in our local ball club.

M. Fred Gray of Plymouth gave a good picture and interesting talk at the men's meeting Sunday afternoon. There was a large attendance.

Stacy Bros. over their new store in the Ball block today. They made their initial bow to the public in an orthodox manner in this issue.

The advertised writers at the post office this week are for Walt R. Grich, Miss L. M. V. Bond, C. A. Dwyer, P. M.

Not following by post office was received to date for publication last week. The only reference is Mrs. Frank Fox.

Mr. New York, N. Y. Nov. 11, 1902. Received by mail from Mr. B. H. Fox, 100 Main Street, Northville, Mich. The enclosed is a copy of the same.

The day morning cold and fog. The fog stopped at the crossing on the street and subsided from 1000 to 1100. The fog was very thick and caused a great deal of trouble. The fog was very thick and caused a great deal of trouble. The fog was very thick and caused a great deal of trouble.

These were from the Northville Intelligencer.

The heavy wind of Sunday blew out a large pane of glass which A. K. Carpenter was adjusting in his rear garden. The pane was in the contact his right hand was severely cut.

The annual OAR memorial service will be held in the Methodist church Sunday evening. Rev. J. H. Herbener is to deliver the address, and the service will be a union one as usual.

A piece of seemingly well authenticated gossip is floating about among the orange blossoms of the town to the effect that Northville's society is shortly to be added to by the advent of a southern lady.

Jake Miller has harvested a fine crop of stores on his "no-thirty". If we were going to speak about the matter at all we should say that from once plowing the field over he has gathered enough stones to cover a three feet deep the entire piece of land.

The many friends of Mrs. Dr. McKenzie (nee Howe-Yerkes) of Fall River, Mass., will be glad to know that her husband who has been seriously ill is now considered to be out of danger. Mrs. Lyman Yerkes of this place is still with them, and they are at present in the south.

Frank J. Tucker, the artist, will be in Northville tomorrow, Saturday, from 2:00 until 5:00 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. Minnie Paulger, No. 27 Dunlap street, with samples of his work. All who desire instruction in oil painting are invited to call. Everyone welcome. Orders taken for crayon portraits.

Alderman Phillips is another new bicycle rider. He borrowed his son Bert's wheel last week and his first attempt was brought to a sudden stop. He had but just got nicely mounted when a big maple tree made for him. The alderman yelled for the tree to get out of the way but it kept coming nearer and nearer until there was a collision. The bike was the biggest kind of a wreck but Mr. Phillips was only laid up for a couple of days.

We are selling Bran at $12.50 per ton and middlings at $13.00. Now is the time to buy at the Northville Mills.

The township Board of Review meets in B. A. Wheeler's store, Northville Monday and Tuesday of this week; A. H. Dibble's store, Plymouth, on Wednesday and Thursday.

The grading down of Gardner bill as was ordered by the street committee this week was for the purpose of carrying off the water along the side to prevent its overflowing. People's lawns there instead of making any particular improvement to the roads. A lot of "sisters" at first thought the committee considered there was another way to care for the water.

On Thursday evening of last week the Lady Macabees of this place celebrated their 4th anniversary. The South Lyon and Farmington Ladies were represented by large delegations. The local lodge room was artistically decorated with bunting, potted plants and cut flowers. Supper was served in the Whipple hall at five o'clock after which a musical and literary program was well rendered. The occasion was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Mr. Charles Larkins, one of Northville's well-known young men was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle Crump at her home near Brighton Wednesday evening in the presence of about sixty guests. The ceremony was performed by the Methodist pastor of that village. Mr. Archie McPhail of this place was best man and Miss Ida Crump, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. They were the recipients of a beautiful lot of presents. Mr and Mrs. Larkins will go to house keeping at once on their farm two and one half miles west of the village.
