

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

Vol. XXVIII, No. 50.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, JULY 23, 1897.

$1.00 per Year, in advance.

CONTRACT LET.

The One for Excavating for Northville's New Park

WAS AWARDED TO H. M. DUNLAP BY THE PARK BOARD.

He Does It for a Little Less than 140 a Cubic Yard.

Will Adopt a Resolution to Legally Condemn the Property.

The park board held another meeting Wednesday night and after considering the several bids for the excavating and moving the dirt on the Argos pond grounds finally awarded the job to H. M. Dunlap, who was the lowest bidder by one-eighth of a cent. Mr. Dunlap's bid was 13 1/2 cents per cubic yard. The other bids ranged from 14 to 17 cents. The engineer's figures are that there is 8,000 yards of earth to move which will make it a $832.50 job. Mr. Dunlap will at once put a good force of men on the work.

In the matter of getting a clear title to the property the committee interviewed the Union Trust Co., of Detroit, guardians for Peter Gillespie, and they agreed that the proper way was for the village to condemn the property and take it according to law for park purposes and they put the fact in writing that they approved of the proposition and would co-operate as long as the estate was put to an expense. A resolution in this effect was offered at a special meeting of the council Wednesday night upon the recommendation of the Park board. The manner of procedure as that upon application through an attorney ordered by the village a jury of twelve men to decide the matter as to whether the village needs to take such property or not and what compensation, if any should be paid. Such a decision, if there be an appeal, is final and transfer papers of the property thus acquired is made by the courts.

FROM MR. JAQUESS

On the News' Simple-minded Editorial Article.

Editor Record.—What I was protesting against in the news was the comparison that that paper established between a Detroit and Northville congregation, to the disparagement of the latter. It was not the expression itself so much as the way in which it was used, of which I complained. Common usage, and the word in its derivation, meaning a mind not complex, profound or positive—neither agree with the News in its attempt to crawl out of a small hole. The Editor of the News can see further through a corner stone than the Record, when he asks "what is our revered brother of Albion driving at," for the point I wished to make in my statement that "Mr. Wood is compelled to leave because they cannot raise the paltry sum of $1200 a year, and that after he has made them what they are," was that sensational preaching of the Morgan Wood style, has always been, and always will be a failure.

By the way, do not place too much confidence in Webster. Scholars are looking with suspicion upon definitions from that source. Of simple-mindedness the Century Dictionary says "lacking intelligence or penetration." The Standard's definition is "defective in intellect." Alas, a most scholarly authority used the same word in his "Pleasures of the Imagination." Huxley in "The Nineteenth Century" vol XIX, page 191, has this sentence "I am a simple-minded person, wholly devoid of intellect." Tennyson and Shakespeare, the best authorities on the English language the world knows, both use the word in the same sense. It is the Northville people see a "Rare Complement" in this. I have nothing more to do but to sign myself

Yours truly
W. T. JAQUESS.

No one for a moment will question Mr. Jaquess' kindly motive for we are all aware of the big warm spot in his heart reserved for Northville people. Regarding the dictionaries, The Record notes that in all newspaper offices Webster's International is the recognized standard of authority, scholars, writers and even many of the leading Magazines to the contrary notwithstanding.

We still have a nice assortment of Laces and Embroideries to close out. Schantz Bros.

The New Telephone Co.

The Northville Telephone Co. has elected following as directors: J. M. Burgess, M. A. Porter, S. E. Cransor, R. M. Johnson, A. K. Carpenter, F. M. Warner, Geo. Whipple, W. H. Yerkes, F. D. Adams, F. S. Neal. Poles have been ordered and the line will be extended to Novi at once.

Will it Come To This?

In the great time that is coming when events shall have reached the climax we may expect that the bright young men who write police court proceedings will put their stories about in this way:

"What's the charge, officer?" asked Judge Emperor, as a timid looking old woman was escorted trembling to the bar of justice.

"The woman, your honor, was walking down Main street without any bell. A young fellow on a wheel came mightily near running over her and he would likely have been killed if he had for he was going about twenty miles an hour."

"The poor woman began to cry, and the Judge softened a little and said: 'I'm sorry, madam, but the law is inexorable. No person can walk on the public streets without a bell to warn the wheelmen. The public safety requires that no exceptions be made. I shall have to fine you $5.'"

"The woman paid the fine amid sobs and left the court room."

THEY LAID IT.

The Lutherans Did Their Church Corner Stone.

IMPOSING CEREMONIES HELD SATURDAY AFTERNOON.

Music and Speakers Were Present from Detroit City.

The German Lutherans laid the corner stone of their new church on north high street Saturday afternoon amid imposing ceremonies and in the presence of a large crowd. An orchestra from Detroit furnished the music. Rev. John Volman of St. Paul's church Detroit delivered an enthusiastic address in German and he was followed by Rev. W. Price of the First English Lutheran church of the same city who spoke in English for over forty minutes giving a brief history of the work of the Lutheran church. Rev. Mr. Reinhardt pastor of the Northville charge made the dedicatory remarks. At the close of the exercises the congregation, standing upon the church walls and temporary platform, was photographed by Brown. In the evening the members indulged in a picnic and social hop in Harmon's grove just west of the U. S. fish station and had a jolly good time.

Contractor Smith is pushing the construction of the edifice with all possible speed and, barring any bad luck, will have it ready for dedication by Sept. 1.

Inasmuch as the governor has never been in Northville the statement will be allowed to stand as read.

On how to get rid of rye that is both spring so many farmers, the Adrian Press speaks thusly—"Experience no doubt—Another way to get rid of the stuff—and the method most popular—is to pour the rye into a glass, toss it down with a sudden gulp and follow it with an ice water chaser before breaking the awful silence."

Pontiac is to have a new Masonic temple to cost $9,500. The real original figures were $9,000 but the newspapers each managed a $100 raise until it reaches us this week at $9,400 and now we go it still $100 better. If the crazy city's masonic association don't get on a hostile the papers will "bust" their bank inside of another week.

It would have been difficult to find a madder set of men than the Northville ball club when they reached the Milford depot on their way to play with the Flint team on the latter's grounds Monday. Their pitcher, German, came to Milford Saturday, expecting to join the team as they passed through here. When the train pulled in at the depot, Mr. German wasn't to be seen and a kid informed the anxiously inquiring Northvillians that he was over town somewhere. The air was blue in the vicinity of the Milford depot for a few moments and the atmosphere of the coach was heavily charged with verbal fireworks until the object of their wrath was discovered quietly enjoying his practical joke. He had kept out of sight at the depot, instructed a boy to give the information that he was over town and then boarded the train from the east side where he could easily escape observation.—Milford Times.

An exchange reports a case where a young man purchased 2,000 extra fine cigars, and had them insured for their full value, smoked them up and demanded the insurance, claiming that that they had been destroyed by fire. The case was taken to the court and the judge decided in favor of the young man. The insurance company then had the young man arrested for setting fire to his own property, and the same judge ordered that he pay a fine and go to jail for three months. (Continued on Page 2.)

Two Inky Wags.

There was a man who advertised in a paper a single time. In the paper he placed his ad. And paid for it a time.

And just because it didn't bring him customers by score, "All advertising is a waste," he said, or, rather, swore.

Not an Accident!

It is not by accident that we have built up so large a business, and that people come from miles around, and from neighboring towns to trade with us. (this is not wind or bragadocia, but facts absolutely), and it is built upon a solid foundation of business principles, and conducted in a business-like manner, and with experienced help and upon a cash basis, and no rent to pay; thus have we gained a wide reputation; and when we advertise bargains, our patrons know they will always find them. So this week we will not take the space to quote the prices but will say to you that on Saturday, July 24th at T. G.'s you will find BARGAINS in each of the following lines: Table Linens in bleached, half bleached, turkey red and buffs; White Napkins, Counterpanes, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Ladies' and Children's Hosiery, Fancy Outings, Silk Umbrellas, Boys' Cottonade Pants, Grain Bags. The only prices we will mention are that we have—

100 More of those Shirt Waists at 24c each. And we will close all Shirt Waists in stock that have been 50c, 65c and 70c at 40c each. A fine line of Calico and Percale Wrappers at 79c each.

It pays to trade at T. G.'s; quality and prices do the business. We want to do business with you, "at the busy big store."

Mrs. James Taylor St. left last week Friday for a visit to her mother, who is very ill, with no hopes of recovery.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Jane Smith continues to be very feeble, not making the progress toward recovery that her friends would be glad to see.

Mrs. C. L. Goodell and Mrs. W. D. Timp of Michigan, who have been visiting here, left last week for Detroit. Mrs. Timp going on to Milford on their return to visit friends there.

Frank Hamilton was badly poisoned one day last week while riding his gun and pistol. He is not quite so seriously ill, but is under the application of the proper remedies, and is on the road to recovery.

The cheerful workers met with the Misses Lulu and Clara Becker last Saturday, it being the election of officers. All the officers were re-elected: President Lizzie Taylor, vice president Maud Flint, secretary Via Monroe, treasurer Nellie Tibbitts.

The Record begs pardon of the friend who so kindly sent the item regarding the visit a few weeks ago to the opening of the assembly at Orion, for the non-appearance of the item, but we are sorry to say the messenger forgot to deliver it until today or two ago.

The Novi correspondent of one of our county papers is perfectly correct so far as the Golden Rule theory is concerned, but isn't it just a little bit inconsistent to advocate that principle for neighborly conduct while in the very act of accusing a neighbor of wrongdoing with out even waiting to find out whether the charge is true or not? It looks as if there were a big discrepancy between theory and practice, as is too often the case. It would seem to the most casual observer that there was need for a good deal more Christian charity all around in order to insure the proper application of that best and greatest guide for human conduct.

TOWN TALK.

The Public Aroused During the Past Week.

Crowds of People Called at Murdock Bros. Drug Store, to Get Free Samples of

DR. HOBBS SPARAGUS KIDNEY PILLS.

Hundreds Now Testing the Remedy in this Vicinity.

NOW FOR RESULTS.

An interest was created in this vicinity by the announcement in last week's issue, that a free package of Dr. Hobbs' Sparagus Kidney Pills would be given away to any person who would call and ask for it at Murdock Bros. drug store.

This interest was shown by the unexpectedly numerous calls made at the above store. Many of the callers, who are suffering from kidney complaints, expressed their astonishment at the offer to make no charge for the samples. Heretofore, the practice of medicine proprietors is to require pay in advance, and let the afflicted take the chance of cure.

The proprietors of Dr. Hobbs' Sparagus Kidney Pills are reversing this practice, preferring to exercise the golden rule of "doing to others as they would be done by."

They believe, because it has been demonstrated in every instance, that if those afflicted with kidney troubles once try these pills, they will be convinced of their great merit, and get well by their use.

For this reason they made arrangement with Murdock Bros., to freely distribute as many sample boxes as should be called for, during the last seven days. Everyone who asked for a box was given it free of charge.

Some of those calling for packages, have expressed themselves as follows:—"The science of medicine has certainly advanced when the proprietors of a remedy can take so much upon a free and universal test of its merits."

"The honest and straightforward manner in which the medicine is offered for trial, gives me confidence to use it. I hope it will prove helpful."

"Dr. Hobbs' announcement that he has made a great discovery which will cure and build up the kidneys, and his offer to prove it free of charge is a novel proposition, and gives me great hope of relief."

"This is certainly a fair proposition. I gave everything to win and nothing to lose."

Many will be curious to know what are the results of the test of those pills now going on in the neighborhood. It is a little too soon to look for results, probably another week will make them known. If those getting the samples have faithfully followed the directions, they will be encouraged to persevere in their use.

It is gratifying to learn that wherever similar distributions have taken place, there has followed a large sale of the remedy, and many letters of gratitude have been written by those who have regained lost health.

Every person who knows or suspects that the kidney or urinary passages are affected; every person who has any of the following symptoms, should make a test of these pills without delay, viz.:—Pains in the back or side, headache, nervousness, frequent thirst, shortness of breath, puffiness of the eyelids, swelling of the feet and ankles, dark colored or scanty urine, with albuminous or other deposits in the urine, too frequent urination.

We Can Produce

a better suit of clothes today for a given sum than we could even one year ago; then we showed about twenty styles of suitings at $25.00 to $30.00 the lowest price then was $20.00. What do you find now? At $17 we make a suit good enough for any man; for $20 now we produce a suit as good as we then did for $25. What a change? Just now we're having one of those specials in Pantings which have helped to make our shop so popular. A pair to order $5.50 worth $7.00. Goods always in stock.
