THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1898

No. 1.

STREET CAR LINE AND THE FRANCHISES.

TOWNSHIP AND VILLAGE CONSID-ERED THEM WEDNESDAY.

Former Adopted One; Latter Now Drafting One.

The town board met Wednesday alternoon and granted a 30 year franchise to the Detroit Plymouth & Northville street car company. It calls for a 5 cent fare to Plymouth; 15 cents to Wayne; 35 cents to Detroit and school hildren's tickets at Stor 25 cents. The route proposed from Plymouth is north through private property to the Bradner road to Meads Mills, thence west to the Plymouth avenue road, and so in to Northville. If private property can not be purchased, the whole route from Plymouth will be over the Plymouth avenue road. Tracks, are to be built along side of highway under supervision of town board.

The council sook the matter up Wednesday night and while approv ing of a franchise similar to that granted to this company by the village of Plymouth the matter was referred to a committee to draft a Tranchise to meet the requirements of Northville. The route through the village is to be decided by the council. A difference of opinion prevails as to just what the route should be. The line will strike the village on Plymouth avenue at Jas. Palmer's place and will turn west on Beal the waravenues then on Church street to be noted fr Cady-that much is certain. Some of one citizens are of the opinion the line should then continue on Church to Main and west on Main street; while others think another turn should be made at Hirch's on Atwater and then go west on Dunlap, but there are others favoring a route vest on Gady to Center, and, if the ine is to be continued to the U.S. fish station as is now talked, on up Cady to Rogers.

The prevailing opinion is that Main street between Center and Atwater is not adequate for any increased burdens in the way of traffic and the business men are making a strong protest.

The Record believes the Dunlap street route, if the U.S. fish station is to be the terminal, is the best one of all.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

A Harmonious One Held Here Last Saturday.

The Northville township republicans held their caucus here Saturday afternoon. Dr. A. L. Blanchard was chosen chairman and Frank Harmon clerk. The following delegates were elected:

County, C. C. Chadwick, W. T. Gurr, Edwin Starkweather.

16

How the Spanish Government Labored on the Peace Terms. EABINET CHAMBER The Real Decision Was no Doubt Reached Early, but Appearances Must Be Kopt up .- From Detroit Evening News

Suburban News.

(BY D. F. H.) Location of Northville Boys Now in > ay; with prizes offered. ill participate in a team h Novi.

is reaching out for a bed ctoro. Of course, there's ley tried carbolic acid on

Mrs. Lena G. Van Every, editress of the Holly Independent, was married Saturday, July 30, to Shelley P Browne, foreman of the same paper: Plymouth is in a fair way to rival Portlac, as a theater of action for bicycle thieves. Three wheels were stolen there in one night a week or so ago The 35th Michigan regimental band is scheduled to furnish the music for the Livingston County Maccabe Association pienic at Island Lake August 18. The Fenton Independent says that our state capitol has three hundred embers of the Smith family residing The postmaster ought to here. ave a big salary.

About 75 of our exchanges-more or less-have spublished the story about Cashier Power of the Oakland Co. Savings Bank and the cigar and the Cervera autograph.

later, accosted him in regard to the matter. One word brought on another and Jamieson assaulted Goucher with a heavy cane. Justice Brewer fined Jamieson $25 and $25 costs or thirty days in the house of correction. The case will be appealed. The captain of Co. F. denies that he can from which the milk was sed that poisoned his men at Camp Eaton last week had been employed for carrying vinegar. The man whose condition was most critical Private Harding of Wyandotte, has scovered. It was thought for time that he would die.

The fight between the city of Wyandotte and the Wyandotte Electric Light Co. received a new impetus last week when the council passed resolutions to notify the company to remove all unused appliances from the streets within 20 days, and revoking all licenses, permissions, etc. heretolore granted until the securing of proper franchises. Twomen from Wyandotte, mem bers of Co. F. at Island Lake, got too much Brighton fire water last week and were arrested. One, a corporal, whose elated condition caused him to say bad things to a superior officer and a sentinel; was relegated to theranks, and the other, a private, got seven days hard labor for being drunk while on guard.

It is rumored that the laying of the electric road tracks on Main street at Plymouth may cause considerable trouble, incident to the accurate surveying necessary thereto. property owners on the south side of the street claim that those on the north side have encroached on the

α το παραγιατικά το παραγιατικά το παραγιατικά το παραγιατικά το το το παραγιατικό το το το παραγιατικό το το π

Vol XXX

| 1 pound Special Coffee                                                               | LSc |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 왕기국가 전성 전에 가장 가 구멍한 날 전기가 지갑한 것 봐. 전성화 신경은 사람이 가 가 것 가 난 것을 가 봐 있었다.                 | 25c |
| 수 없는 그는 것은 것을 많은 것을 잘 한다. 그 것을 많은 것을 많이 가지 않는 것을 | 50c |
| 이 있는 그가 안 밖에 잘 가지 않는 것이 것 같아요. 것 같아요. 그는 말에 하는 것 같아요. 가지 않는 것 같아요. 것이                | $1 |
| 20 pounds Special Coffee                                                             | $2 |

This is no trash, but a good, clean berry Coffee that you will usually pay more money for. We cannot duplicate; price will last only as long as the present supply lasts

Rollin H. Purdy,

TELEPHONE

Northville.

and the second s

Andrea Strategie Antreas

A State State

Garland & Peninsulars Lead. We have four floors and a line of Stoves on every We will soon be ready for the fall trade with the most complete line ever shown in Northville.

COAL!

ABOUT

88 Main Street.

Our orders have already exceeded any previous year and are coming every day. Chestnut, Stove and Egg still $6.00 delivered, notwithstanding the wholesale advance.

Come to Us for Baskets, Lanterns, Corn Knives and all kinds of Fall Goods.

A I

Two Spring Tooth Harrows left to be sold at a price.

| 이 이 집에 좋아 봐야? 왜 이 가 있는 것이 같이 같이 가 있는 것이 같이 | last year a  |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| Following is the list and location                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | at lively na |
| f Northville boys now serving in                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Mrs. Aug     |
| he war-with Spain. Changes will                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | commended    |
| e noted from week to week.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | the city of  |
| Frank Lewis 32d Fernandina                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | fective side |
| James Mooney                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | - F -        |
| Myron Taylor                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Novi Gu      |
| Rob. Denton "                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | ment toda    |
| Bert Hill 34th Santiago                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Milford wi   |
| Frank Bovee 31st Chickamauga                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |              |
| Bruce Babcock "                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | shoot with   |
| Fred Slater "                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | -Pontiac i   |
| 1ke Crocker 35th Island Lake                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | spring fac   |
| Will Crampton                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |              |
| Will Barley                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | millions in  |
| Lute Elliott "                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Have th      |
| Rupert Jones "                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 'eni?        |
| Ed. Mooney.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |              |

| Ed. Mooney        | 2ª .  |    |      | 23 | ÷. |
|-------------------|-------|----|------|----|----|
| John Barber       |       | ÷. | - 5  | ÷- |    |
| - Feter Doolittle | 4 e " |    |      |    | ~  |
| George Morgan     |     | e, |      |    |    |
| Carl Asch         | 44    |    | 1414 |    |    |
| -F. Harmon        | 4.6   |    | 1    |    |    |
|                   | ÷ч.   |    |      |    |    |

Walled Lake News.

Margaret Hoyt is spending the veek in Pontiac.

WHERE THEY ARE.

the War.

Orson Deversux and his son Julian |spent last Sunday at Fenton. Tra Carnes went to Owosso Wed

esday for a few weeks stay. Mrs. E. C. Rose -and daughter Emily are visiting Detroit friends Mr. and Mrs. R. Renny of Otisville are guests of Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell. Mrs. W. S. Parmenter entertained fiss Jennie Cornwell and Walter Dandison of Orchard Lake Wednes day.

Bell Donaldson of Detroit; Kate Donaldson and Bert and Will Donaldson of Fenton spent a part of this

Wayne county had 200 divorce suits and is still in the business custa Cutting of Millford l suit last week against Pontiac for $10,005. Dewalk. n Club shooting tourna-

|     | County to elect to state conven-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | week at Oscar Donaldson's.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | The latest thing-on paper-in            | street, and if this is found to be the                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                 |
|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|     | tion, cass Benton, H. Green, F.J.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | electric roads is one from Flint to     | and it will immolve the taking up of                                         | HUESTON'S                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                 |
|     | Loosey.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Farmington via. Lansing and other i     | the expensive cement walks on that                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Good                                                                                                            |
|     | Senatorial, D. F. Griswold, Will                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | and some of their centiemen friends                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | important towns which may inci-         | side                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | VVV4                                                                                                            |
|     | Thayer, M. A. Porter.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | and some of their gentlemen friendson Monday, it being her birthday.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | dentally come in the way.               | The Delray Times says Dr. North-                                             | During Stand                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Datala                                                                                                          |
| 1   | Tropiosonioni, c, at max provins, at                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Rev. Wm. S. Sayres, who has held        | The Denay Times says Dr. Horen-                                              | Drug Store.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | L'EIDK.                                                                                                         |
|     | 1. Dittactation of allocation                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | They enjoyed the afternoon on the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | Episcopal services once or twice in     | rop of Kiver Kouge has been to                                               | Q                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                 |
|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | our village, will be at Milford August  | virginia and has secured from an old                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | is what our 20c Coffee                                                                                          |
|     | it is understood that those to the 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 12 for a like purpose. There are a      | negro the identical original hatchet                                         | WE ARE FRIENDS OF THE SICK.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                 |
|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | humber of Enisconolleng at Millord      | used by our immortal G. w. with                                              | Be it Powder, Pill, Decoction,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | will make. Try it; or we                                                                                        |
|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | number of Episcopallans at Milford.     | which to cut that historic fruit tree,                                       | Compound, Liniment, Salve, or                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | can give you a Coffee at                                                                                        |
|     | French for land commissioner. The                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                         | and to the "owning up" of which                                              | Gintment that you need, we have what is good and the best.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | half that price.                                                                                                |
|     | senatorial delegates are solid for                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | in the second second in the second se | 18 year sentence for assault and rob-   |                                                                              | have what is good and the best.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                 |
|     | Senator Holmes and the representa-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | bery of Charles Clark at Wixom          |                                                                              | ABOUT PRESCRIPTIONS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | a                                                                                                               |
|     | tives are for Representative Goodell.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | several years ago, is after a pardon.   |                                                                              | The best of Medicines are none                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                 |
| 1.1 | The cancus was a largely attended []                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | been badly beaten. Who will benext?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | A petition is being circulated there-   |                                                                              | too good for sick folks. Its bad                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | We are and have been                                                                                            |
|     | one, but was very harmonious.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Mrs. Sidney Case who has been an                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | for.                                    | spanking from which George's un-                                             | enough to be sick, without run-ining chances with old and second                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                 |
| 1   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | invalid and a great sufferer for a long                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | The Milan Leader wants that             | precedented honesty did not save                                             | hand grade Drugs, that is the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | for some time selling the                                                                                       |
| 1.1 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | time, passed away Monday night.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | town to "wake up and investigate        | him. Now if anybody else is capableof producing a better relic than that | teason we buy only the very                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | V. Crackers for 5c, while                                                                                       |
| · · |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | A short service was held at the house                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | the subjects" of electric lighting and  | let them hatch-et up.                                                        | nignest quality of everything.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | some are still asking Sc                                                                                        |
|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Wednesday morning and the remains                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | waterworks for the improvement of       | The other day a deaf man from                                                | It's a great satisfaction to us to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | for the same Crackers.                                                                                          |
| 3   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | taken to Detroit for burial. She                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | the village and the convenience of its  | Adirian was giving testimony at the                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | sor the same orderers.                                                                                          |
|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | inhabitants.                            | M. E. church. The fire bell rang, to                                         | drugs will make it.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                 |
|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | her loss and two children, Mrs Ed.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Our well-known former "esteemed         | his utter ignorance of course, but he                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                 |
|     | It was reported to the provincia [                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | our wen-known former esteemed.          | prayed on. Being attracted after a                                           | WE ARE IN BUSINESS                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Call on Us                                                                                                      |
|     | police in Windsor Monday morning                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | her many months and Chas. Case of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | former aditor of the Wolly Advertiser   | while by people leaving their pewsin front of him, he stopped short and  | FOR YOUR HEALTH                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I I                                                                           |
|     | and the second                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | Mt. Clemens.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | who has been in the bicycle business    |                                                                              | The sector in the second second                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | for Fruit Cans.                                                                                                 |
|     | arrested in Northvine, on the charge                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | for the last two years, talks of start- | more who did not care to listen to                                           | Hueston's Pharmacy                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                                                                                                 |
|     | of criminal assault preferred against                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ing a factory at Flint for the manu-    | him he would gladly excuse them.                                             | TELEPHONE.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Pints, per doz.,60c                                                                                             |
| 3   | him by Hannah Brown, a domestic                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ing a factory at Fint for the manu-     | The brethren had quite a time in ex-plaining to the man from Adrian the  | La construction of the second s | Quarts "70c                                                                                                     |
|     | in James Smith's hotel, Anderdon                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                         | agues of the trouble Could this                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | 1-2 Gal. "                                                                                                      |
|     | township. The officers at once left                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | , one of the state                      | stranger have been the Adrian Press                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | Can Rubbers, doz., 5c                                                                                           |
| ~   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | to Miss Daisy C. Gouid. A host of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | iest of Wayne's citizens, was con-      | man?"Man about town" in Pon-                                                 | Agents Wanted!                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                                                                                                 |
|     | they drove down through Redford,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | friends unite in wishing them a suc-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | victed Saturday of assault and          | tiac Post.                                                                   | ingentes wanteu.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                 |
|     |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | cessful voyage on the sea of matri-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | battery on complaint of George          | Don't you believe it. When the A.                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                 |
|     | him along to Detroit with them.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | mony. The happy pair left on the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Goucher. Jamieson owns a wood           | P. man "speaks in meetin" nobody.                                            | to sell the new Rotary                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | TT                                                                                                              |
|     | The offense with which he is charged                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | afternoon train for Detroit where                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | in which blackberries grow wild.        | goes out even if the whole town is                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                 |
|     | is alleged to have been committed                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | they spent a few days and will be at                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Goucher's two girls, aged about 12      | on fire. Besides he isn't a bit hard.                                        | Washing machine. Easy to                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                 |
| مر  | some months ago.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | home at Walled Lake after Sept. 1.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |                                         | of hearing. He "catches on" too                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                 |
| 2   | l /                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Try Plymouth Rock Flour.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | chanced to pick some of these berries.  | quick.                                                                       | be made by a very little labor.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | We will not be undersold.                                                                                       |
| 9   | You invite disappointment when                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | They met one of the Jamieson boys,      | A stubborn cough or tickling in the                                          | Callon                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                 |
| []  | you experiment. DeWitt's Little                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | When you call for DeWitt's Witch                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | aged about 17 years, who promptly       | throat yields to One Minute Cough                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                 |
| 1   | Early Risers are pleasant, easy, thor-ough little pills. They cure consti-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | relieved them of the berries they       | Cure. Harmless in effect, touches the                                        | SABYON & LOATHANT                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | D A Whoolor                                                                                                     |
|     | pation and sick headache justas sare                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | had picked. Goucher, meeting            | monted It gots at anea Mundoal.                                              | (                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | B. A. Wheeler.                                                                                                  |
| }   | as you take them. Murdock Bros.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | for sores, for burns Murdock Bres.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Jamieson on the street a day or so      | Bros.                                                                        | Center St., Northville                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 199                                                                                                             |
| X   | ,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                         |                                                                              | •                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Telephone.                                                                                                      |
| ٩ŕ  | Magnetic States and the States and t |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                         |                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | and the second secon |

F.& P.M.R.R.

Trains Leave Northville as Follows: [STANDARD TIME.]

 GOING NORTH,
 GOING SOUTH,

 Train Noi 3 15 am
 Train No 4 9 57 am

 " 3 9 03 am
 " 3 C 211 pm

 " 5 2 11 pm
 * 8 S 35 pm

 " 9 7 7 3 pm
 " 19 6 30 am
 Truins Nos.3 and 9, run through to Alpena. Truin No 3 counsets at Ludington with the same io Manitow oc and Truin No 5 con-nects at Ludington with steamer for Milwanneets at Ladingron, with steamer for Milwall-fee, during season of navigation, making connections for all points. West and Northwest, Siepping and Parlor cars between Bay City, Samaw and Petroit. Connections made sit Fort Harson and Detroit in Union Opport for all points Seaso, Canada and the East. For further, mormation see time card of this company.

this company. Through sickets to all principle points in the United States and Canada on sale at lowest rates. Barging checked through W.A.CARUTHERS: Agent North rule, Mich.

F.& P.M.R.R.

TIME TABLE.

In effect May 22, 1898

-[STANDAED TIME.]

GOING NORTH rain No 1 3 27 a.m Train No 4 9 50 a.m " 3 5 9.11 am - " 9 5 26 p.m " 2 9 7.21 p.m, " 10 6 23 a.m

Draving Room Cars between Ludington, Saginate and Detroit. Connections made at Detroit in Union Bepot for all points South. Contada and the East. W. S. NICHOLSON, Agent Novi.

Deiroit, Grand Rapids & Western R. R.

(June 1974, 1898.)

 Algune Fort, Leven

 Going Esst
 a m
 p m

 Grand Rapids
 7. 600 1. 857

 Lapsing
 8. 54, 3. 500

 Howell
 ...
 10. 521

 Plynouth
 40. 351

 Plynouth
 10. 50, 5. 03

 Detroit
 ...
 11. 400

 A m
 p m

 Going West
 a m
 p m

 Deroit
 8
 900
 1 10

 Pirmonh
 8
 8 1740
 10

 Salem
 9 01
 9 01
 10

 Howell
 9
 03
 50
 3
 54

 Detroit and in
 and in

 Detroit
 i
 8 00
 1
 100

 Pirmouth
 S
 48
 1
 149

 Saleiri
 9
 01
 2 30

 Howelt
 0
 52
 2 30

 Lansing
 10
 50
 8
 44

 Grand Ladge
 11
 2
 3
 44

 Grand Ladge
 12
 3
 5 20 m<math bands</td>

 m<math bands</td>
 10
 50
 3
 44

E. PELTON Agent, G. DeHAVEN, G.P.A. Plymouth. Grand Rapids.

တို့တွေစတစ်ဆိုတွေစတစ်တွေစတစ်တွေစတ်ရှိ

Anywhere.

Anybody!

until you see what the popular

Wabash Line

Homeseeker's Excursions,

The Continental Limited.

give t cost.

the . best. time-cards, etc., to August to October. On the inst-and third Tuesdays of each month-the Wabsch will sell round trip tickets at one fare, plus $2, to many points in the west and southwest. Tickets good 21 days.

the fast train on the Wabash

Tast gaining popular favor. We we the best, service for reasonable bet. It costs you no more to have te best. White for particulars,

R. S. GIGERNWOOD. Mich. Pars. Agt. 97 Alams St. Chicago, Ill.

F. A. PALMER, A. G. P.A.

Don't

Go

p m p m

n ni

8-18 9 10

1) m

Lr

Ar

Lv

 $\Lambda r$

Trains leave Novi as follows:

An Independent' Newspaper Published every Friday morning by The Record Printer, at Northville, Michigan, and entered so the Northville Post-office as Second-Class matter.

The Northville Record.

Northville Post-office as Second-Class matter-Terms of Subscription-One year, $1.00; sur months. 500; three months, (to new sub-scribors) 25c, in advance. Single copies 5c, Advertising rates made known on applica-tion. All advertising bills must be settled monthly, wansient adverting in advance. Obituary, poetry, will not be inserted unless paid for. Cards of thanks, I cent per word inwarfably in advance. Readingnotices and resolutions, 34 cent ner word. For rent, for sale, wanted, found, lost, etc., of arcmage length, 15c for first and 10c for subsequent. Notices for religious and benorolent socie-ties, of reasonable length. One insertion free. Copy for change of advertisement chould be reserved not later than Tuesdar, 6 p. m. Norfake advertising, nor inreliable patent medicine advertising, or surthing bordering on the 'objectionable' accepted at iny prise. Practical, progressive clean, neel abordering and reliable. Nothing intentionally published thar cannot be personally endorsed.

that cannot be personally endorse F. S. NEAL, Editor and Propr.

ORTHVILLE, MICH., AUG. 12, 1898. - Lafayette, Ind.-Four small boys were drowned on the Wild Cat Creek. two miles from the city.

company's shaft were destroyed by Denver, Colo .- The excessive heat and absence of rain lately in Colorado while favorable to harvesting, has done some damage to the grain. Moline, Ill.-The 5-year old daughter of Charles Kipp of Port Byron was fatally burned at a camp firs while the family were camping in the woods

Danville, Ill.-Charles Scarce, a young man of this city, was found dead in a bathtub at his home. his death having been due to heart disease. Elword, Ind .-- Search is being made for Vestle, the pretty 20-year-old daughter of Charles Hood, who has p m been strangely missing for some days It is feared that she has met with foul play. Syracuse, N. Y.-The entire opera-ting force of the Syracuse Rapid Transit company struck, leaving the city entirely without transportation.

Rochester, N. Y.-The Rev. James F. C. Have, D. D. Vicar general of the Rochester diocese of the Roman Cath olic church and rector of the Immac ulate Conception church, is dead. St. Paul, Minn.-Unusually heav rains fell throughout the Northwest two and one-half inches being the amount in this immediate vicinity some damage was done by the heavy rain and wind.

Columbus, Ind .- Myrtle Reeves, the daughter of Thomas Reeves, a promi-uent farmer residing near Walesboro this county, committed suicide by taking morphific. Buffalo, N. V.-Fire broke out in the chapel of the Niagera university, e Catholic institution near Niagara Falls, N. Y. The chapel was almost entirely destroyed. The loss is esti-mated at $70,000. Strong endeavors are being made to get the Prince of Wales to visit the United States and Canada next sum is offering in the way of reduced rates to the East-to-the West and to the Southwest. mer.

San Francisco, Cal-Tom Tracy knocked out Frank McConnell by a swing on the jaw in the eighteenti-round at the Olympic Club gymnasium

St. Johns, N. F .- The Norwegian brigantine Tiber, Capt. Fyogstad, twenty-four days from Keykjavik, reports passing Nansen's arctic steamer Fran July 14 in latitude 62.16 north, longitude 50.26 west.

New York .- John Pettit, a millionaire real estate man and head of the John-Petitt Realty company, is missing from the city and his presence here cannot be accounted for since three weeks ago.

Yokohama-Frince Henry of Prussia has arrived at Eusan, on the southeast of Corea, and will visit Japan.

STATE 'OF MICHIGAN-In the Circuit Const for the Contry of Wayns, in Chancery: MAJOR D. GORTON, Complainant, vs. JOSEPH HETLEY, et al Delendrans, Suit rending in the Circuit Court for the Court' of Wayne in Chancery, at Detroit on the 41th day of July A. D. 1898. Present, Hon. Geo. S. Hosmer, Circuit Judge. In this cause it appearing from atifidavit on file thay the Despatch ELIZABETH L. T.

AROUND THE GLOBE The Passing Show That Makes 썲 the World's History. -The Bishop of Ballarat, in a recent ( A judge in Sydney, Australia, recent report, gives the most harrowing de- ity sentenced an offender to 12 months tails as to the results of the long- imprisonment. He accepted the result continued absence of rain in West Viclike a philosopher, his only comment toria. Bivers are dried up, water has to be carted for leagues, children hair-tad roam ever the country with buckbeing to ask the judge to make it one month more. His Honor was stag-gered by the request, but was quickly enlightened. It seems that in any sen-tence over twelve months a prisoner ets, trying to find a little water; stoch is dying by thousands on paddocks is entitled to a remission of two months and five days for good behavior, but and roads; landscapes are bare of the least trace of vegetation and look like a desert battlefield. There really has with sentences of 12 months and under been no rain for three years. The there is no rebate. His honor at once dry rivers and water holes are mala saw the reasonableness of the request rious, and give rise to fevers. Dead lambs may be seen by the hundreds; and gave the extra month as desired. The financiars of Spain have been re Danville. Ill .-- The boilers and en. sheep look like slabs of wood. The gines of the South Westville Coal heat rises to iii. degrees in the shade cently surprised to discover how much gold has existed in that country hoard as early as 9 o'clock in the morning and there are many deaths among the d up in out-of-the-way corners of the realm. A rise in the cichange has had aged and children. Ond sheep owner has lost 10,000 sheep Most farmers the effect of drawing many of these nondescript coins, dated back 20, 50 have no returns at all, not having been able to get back their seed. Feed for and 100 years, and representing Span-ish, Postugese, French and English stock is so scarce that even that brings $25 a ton. Oue niller, who was accustomed to receive 50,000 bags of wheat a year, now receives not more than 5,000. Water is brought to some oinages, out from their hiding places. places on trains, and when the trains > ple, fighting each other for water. Probably ten people know of Miss Braddon, the most popular of the wom en novelists of England, for one whi has heard of her brether. Yet Sim Ed-ward Bradion is a man of note, and has just celebrated his seventieth birth-day while still in active service as Fremier of Tesmania. His health, how-ever, is far from good, and it is possible that he may resign. His career has been long and useful, if not brilliant. At the age of 18 he went to In dia to take a commercial appointment During the mutiny he served with gal-lantry, and won admission to the Indian Civil Service. In which he attain-ed high rank. After 29 years of service he retired to private life in Tasmavia but his neighbors lasisted on sending him to Parliament, and since then he has remained in public life.

arrive they are boarded by frantic pco-

The popularity of horse racing in Russia is seriously threatened by the introduction of the reindeer as a rival of the horse. The reindeer is among the the noise. The remeter is using in swiftest of quadrupeds, and can out-strip the swiftest of hornes. It is es-estimated that he could give the fleet-est Derby winner a start of half a mile the reaches a speed of sixty miles an hour. A St. Detersburg fracehours a speed of sixty miles an hour. A St. Detersburg fracehours has constructed a special course for this new sport, and the novel excitement is looked forward to with great eagerness by sportloving Russians. It is expected that before long reindeer will be harnessed to sleighs, and that most exhibarating of pastimes made more exciting still.

The young Queen of Holland comes of age on her eighteenth birthday, which falls on the Sist of August, and ities have been praised in the way to turn the head of a less vain young person, and, in a word, she has been the idol of the mation and the pride of every Dutchman since she first won their hearts as a cute child of 7-riding a pretty little Shetland pony. She will be crowned in the New Church, Amsterdam, on September 6.

The city of Como, the birthplace, of Alexander Volta, is preparing to worthily celebrate in 1899 the hundredth anniversary of the invention of the voltaic or electric pile. To commemorate this important event, which has led to some of the greatest discoveries of .

SALALALAS ALALAS Muncle, Ind .- A large bofler at the Indiana iron works exploded, wrecked part of the immense plant and fatally njuring Albert Knapp, a shears man, who was 200 feet away from the boiler rooms. London The Statist predicts a great and an an and the second s wave of American prosperity after the war and active European business in American securities. Pierre, S. D.-The state board of assessment has increased in valuation $238,060, the corporation property in the state St. Johns, N. F .- The French cruiser Manche sailed for the Straits of Belle Isle to investigate the reported. loss of a transatiantic liner.

Springfield, II, - George Bogart, convicted in 1896 on a charge of rob-bing the city of Evanston of about $9,000 while city clerk, today made application for pardon. It was refused by the governor. Quincy, III-Quincy's entire elec-ric street railway system was sold to a Maine syndicate represented by W. B. McKinley of Chicago.

Clay Center, Kas-Levi Callin of Reckford, Ill., was killed here by a Union Pacific passengeer train. Mr. Catiin was rated as worth $750,000 and had large interests in Clay county. Springfield, III. Governor Tunner appointed John M. Darnell of Rush-ville as member of the board of livestock commissioners, to succeed Jas. E. Goddard, deceased. Denison, Tex.-James S. Washington, a lineal descendant of George Washington, died here. Seattle, Wash.—The steamer Discov-ery arrived from Alaska with sixty Klondikers and about $590,000 in gold and drafts. ÷

Das all the Latest Improvements. Popular Because of Merit. Most Durable Cyperdriter Made. Dremier Buyers do Not Experiment. Cirite for New Hrt Catalogue Free. 1 mm Smith Premier Typerriter Co., Spracuse, N. Y., U. S. A. Detroit Branch Office, No. 105 Griswold Street ... The Favorite Amusement Palacel Performances: Afternoons

The Smith

Dremier

The Walter Cluiting Machine.

Typewriter.

reasure exists.

alutation Which Will Be Beard No More on the Boulevards. That saturation connections, heard on the boulerards, "So you have at last come out of Mazas, old boy!" will-have to be abandoned forever. The famous prison hear the Gare de Lyon. which may be compared to the Hollo-way chadel in London, has been itself condemned, after having long existed as the place of condemnation of lawbreakers, says a Paris correspondent of the London Telegraph. Every day exactly eight prisoners out of the 900 onfined in it are carefully handcuiled. placed in a black van and temoved to the Sante, which is to be demolished hereafter. Mazas was built in 1845 and took the place of the La Force prison. It was for patriotic reasons it was called after Col. Mazas, who was shot at Austerlitz, but his family protested against so equivecal an honor. Hence the dail was officially known as the House of Cellular Confinement. The public, however, continued to refer to it as Mazas and that appellation will stick to it in history. It was originally given because it was on the Boulevard d'Austerlitz, and the memory of the brave colonel was thus sought to be perpetuated. Of fate years the prison chiefly contained persons condemped to one year or less and was far more comfortable than in the old days when the system of solitarý confinement in čells was rigorous ly practiced. Mazas had a few habit offenders, who purposely broke the law in order to be sent there for the winter. One of these had contrived to make himself so agreeable and popular in the place that the gover-nor used to shake hands with the fellow when he came to pass the rough weather inside the hospitable walls of the House of Cellular Confinement a year or so hence the prisons of the Seine will be established at Fresne. a short distance from Paris, where large monumental constructions are now in course of erection. The Study of Bacteria

Prof. E. E. Klein, speaking of "Modern Methods in Bacteriology'= before the Royal Institution of Great Britain a short time ago, alluded to the great advances that have been made in this science since its inauguration by Koch in 1881-1882. So far has the study of bacteria developed that it is now possible not only to count, but also to

It is thought that there are substantial noards still left. This represents fig-uratively the sciencial condition of things in the Christian world, where a vast deal of hoarded and unutilized LAST OF & PARIS PRISON.

箹

美美美美 财

EDETROIT AND CLEVELAND Fare, $1.50 Each Direction. Bertins, 75C. $1. Stateroom, $1.75. Connections are under at Oleveland with Fariliest Trains for all points East, South and Southwest, and at Detroit for all points North and Northwest. Sunday Irips Juna, July, Aug., Sept. Oct. Cnly

40-12

COMFORT,

SPEED

Warm Weather

Weakness is quickly overcome by the toning and blood enriching qualities of Hood's Sarsaparilla: This great medi-cine cures that tired feeling almost as quickly as the san dispels the morning mist. It also cures pimples, boils, salt rheum, scroinla and all other troubles originating in bad, impure blood.

HOOD'S Sarsa-America's Greatest Medicine. $1; six for $5. Hood's Pills cure billousness, indigestion.

Don't pay a widow compliments un less you are matrimonially inclined and willing to pay her bilis

The receivers of the Baltimore Ohio Railroad have turned their atten-tion to the improvement of the grades on the third division, from Cumber-land ro Graffon, or rather that portion which lies between Altamont, the top of the seventeen-mile grade, and Ter-ra Alta, where the Granherry grade be-wins in decourd The Use fa hid, where the check and the same of the passes through Deer Park and Oakland and crosses what is known as the "Glades" of the Allegeny-Mountains. The grades are short and chopy, some of grades are short and chopy, some of them being 80 to 85 feet to the mile. One of the first pieces of work to be done is now in progress at No 58 Cut, where the grade is being reduced from 81 feet to 1212 feet per mile, with equa-tions for curvature. It is expected that the cuting down of this grade will enable the receivers to increase the train load from 1,000 tons is 1,300 tons on east-bound trains. One mile of the roadway will be lowered and it is expected that the work will be com-pleted by the ziddle of October.

Don't think the unbrella that goes to the pawnshop is the only one that gets soaked.

Beauty, is Blood Deep.

Beauty is Ekone Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No. beauty withou it. Cascarets, Candy Cathar-tic cleans yo. shood and keeps it clean, by stirring up the hast liver and uniting allime purities from the body. Begin today to banist pimples, bolls, bloches. blackheads, and that sickly blicus complexion by taking Cascarets-beauty for ten conts, all, drug-gists, sadistaction guarantreed. To, Sc. Soc.

Bon't telle a girl she louts sweet enough to kiss. Actions speak louder than words.

Mothers lose they dread for "that, terrible second summer" when they have Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in the house. Nature's specific for summer complaints of every sort.

A lazy liver makes a lazy man. Bur-dock Blood Bitters is the natural, never failing remedy for a lazy liver.

Even if a man isn't well up in the ocial scale he dislikes being cut by social successful to the barber.

Action may not always bring happi ness: but there is no happiness without action.

For a perfect commerton and a clear, healthy skin, use COSMO BUTTERAMLK SOAP. Sold everywhere.

The man who persists in doing his fellow man usually ends by doing time.

No-To-Bas for Fifty Conts. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men stroug, blood pure, 50c. SL. All druggists

Don't interrupt a miser at his devo tions. It might cause him to have to count his money all over again.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA Fig SYRUP or deire wind me wich to all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALL-FORNIA FIG SYNUP Co. with the medi-cal profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It i far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company-

xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

CHAPTER II. "Now, Vi," says Ruby a few evenings later, seeking her cousin's room, and speaking to her in a tone of confidence, "I want you to do me a favor this evening."

All right, dear;" answers Violet, coiling up the long plaits of her flaxen hair with artistic precision. "How can Loblige you?"

"Well, as you know, the Champleys are coming in this evening for some music, and I want you to prevent Shell from putting herself forward in any way and talking to them. She has such a strange blunt way with stran-gers that I am always atraid of her doing of saying something outrageous." "I'm sure you needn't be," responds Vi, looking rather astonished. "She was well named 'Pearl,' for she hides herself in her shell as persistently as her namesake. He who finds out her true value will have to be a very persistent man."

"Oh, she is a good deal sharper than you think," says-Ruby, with a little sneer; "and at the same time she is so extremely odd that I never feel safe as to what she might say! I actually heard her confiding to the rector's wife the other day that our stair-carpet had been turned four times."

"Well, and if she did, there was no harm in it," declares Violet. who is far more attached to Shell than to the brilliant. Ruby. . 'Of course you don't care, because it is not your own home you are only staying here," retorts Ruby bitterly-'but for my own part I think there is no need that our poverty should be exposed to strangers. If she gets in-to conversation with either of the Champley's, I shouldn't in the least wonder at her telling them that our dinner is always badly cooked because we can't afford a new kitchen range "I don't think she would," laughed Violet. "She is quite capable of it-she is so eccentric. What other girl would in-sist upon being talled 'Shell,' when she has such a pretty name? Nothing could be sweeter than Pearl; and yet if one dares to call her by her right ham? she flies into one of her tantrums.' "She is of a practical turn of mind," laughs Vi; "she thinks Pearl too fanciful a name for a workaday mortal. I wonder what induced aunt to name you three girls after precious stones?" ="I really can't say," returns Ruby rather coldly; "perhaps the same rea son that induced your mother to name you Violet."

"Oh; I was called Violet because my sarname is Flower?" explains Ví, shadow stealing over her face as her houghts fly back to her lost mother. 'It used to be a joke of papa's that even when I-married I should not cease te be a flower.'

v ne a nower. "You are a flower of which I should be uncommonly afraid if you were not engaged," laughs Ruby. "Afraid-why?" asks Violet, opening wide her blue eyes.

"Because you are so terribly pretty," answers Ruby truthfully.

Violet knows full well that she is pretty-her milror tells her so, morn-ing, noon and night-yet she likes to hear it again; even if only from Ruby. So she waxes amiable, and gives her cousin a faithful promise that any show of forwardness on Shell's part shall be instantly suppressed

As Violet foresaw, however, there is little cause to fear any atlempt at famillarity on Shell's part. The girl has gleaned from Ruby's constant allusions to the Champleys since their return home that her elder sister contemplates with hopeful confidence the possibility House. So disgusted does Shell feet at her sister's scarcely concealed scheme that she ilimity resolves to adopt a line of conduct so totally at variance to that of Ruby that even the most obtuse man on earth must see at least that she has no desire to steal from him his free-Even when she hears that Ted Champley, the boy with whom she used to go blackberrying and nutting, is coming down with Robert, she makes up her sensible little mind to be civil to him-nothing more. So, as the evening wears away both brothers, after ineffectual attempts to nit on a congenial topic of conversa tion, come to the conclusion that the rounger daughter of the house is either somewhat deficient in intellect

No. bearable-as Shell had never had patience to read it quite through until this evening her performance is anything but a brilliant one. CHAPTER III. Edward Champley, who has taken his stand beside the plano in ex in the silk she is using, and till she has pectation of a musical treat, does his fully accomplished that intricate feat she ignores the fact even that she has been spoken to; then, turning upon him with keen eyes, which look almost piercingly dark in the lamp-light, she

Ted Champley feels taken back: his cenark-which savors in his own mind slightly of the sentimental, and indeed was made in somewhat sentimental tone-cannot he repeated in face of that stolid air of indifference on Shell's part; so he changes his former conversation for another. You seem to have become wonder-fully industrious since I saw you last.

he says, giancing anything but admiringly at the pretty garland of flowers that is growing under her white fin-

"Yes; I am very fond of work, When you saw me last I was a child, and children are so stupid they never think of anything but play," returns

Shell scornfully, pursuing her occupation as though her living depended upon it. "Upen my word," langhs Ted, "it is my belief that a good many children are wiser than their elders so observant, you know, and all that kind of thing. I really don't think you would class all children together again as being 'stupid,' if you only knew those little klds of Robert's; they are awful some moments in amazement.

that they are his own children, per-haps it is not to be wondered at."

"No, of course-that would account for it," responds Shell-quietly, and ignoring the ring of sarcasm in Ted's liking them-poor little beggars!" continues the young man bluntly, and in a voice that speaks volumes of wonder

Shell breaks into rather an affected

"Dear me,' she says wonderingly-

"have I shocked you? If so, you must lease forgive me; for I don't like thil-

Ted makes no remark for a few nio consciousness, with her well-poised head a little on one side, and all her.

attention apparently fixed upon her

"Is there anything under the sun that you do like?" asks Ted at last, in a

"Oh, yes, several things," answers

Shell briskly. "Let me see"-refleclively-"I like work, and reading, and am awfully fond of gooseberry-tart."

of laughter that Ruby-who is engaged in singing a trip with Vi and Robert

Champley-give utterance to a false tror her trembling lips, joins in his

"No; but, seriously," he says, when have both done laughing, must have. I know a few artistic tastes. I remember you used to play some very jolly preces, so you must be

Shell shakes her head in a desponwers carelessly. "I have

Shell, after a futile effort to con-

"you

Ted bursts into such a hearty peal at his companion's heartlessness.

"I don't see how any one could here says quietly-

sation for another.

little sharpers."

in a pored tone.

oice.

little laugh.

dren.

work.

note.

they merriment.

fond of music

dent manner.

"No." she ar

tone of desperation.

gers.

"I beg your pardon "

best to look cheerful under the infliction; but his most determined efforts at politeness cannot prevent a faint gleam of hope stealing into his eyes at the end of each variation. Even once he ventures on a rapturous "Thanks!"-it is when, to his horror, he sees a minor key arrangement of the air looming up before him; but Shell only glances up for a moment, and says quietly-"Oh, I haven't half finished yet!"

passes on, whilst Shell, selecting from the long disused contents of the drawer

a dreary sing-song air, sits down at the plano and commences to wade la boriously and in a very mechanical way through its twelve variations. It is a piece that requires practice and very quick playing to render it even

Whereupon her victim offers an apology and smiles a sickly smile, as he vainly tries to count how many more elf-inflicted martyrdom at one end of room, his brother Robert is being the flattered, petted and a little bit lectured at the other end by Ruby. It was really too had of you to stor away from Champley House so long! she says reproachfully.

Robert Champley looks at her for a few moments before making any answer. Unfoltunately for Ruby's scheme, he is a man who generally stops to think before he speaks, even oń trivial subjects.

"I shouldn't have come back now if it hadn't been for the children." he says at length with a sigh. Ruby catches the echo of that sigh and is all sympathy. "No one knowe better than I how very painful rour return home must have been to you, she temarks, in a "I suppose their father takes quife an interest in them?" remarks Sheil low and almost fallering tone, whilst her white cyclids well her eyes in Her companion stares at her for seemingly said retrospect: Again he looks at her; then some breaks into a rather mocking laugh, what coldly gives utterance to the one word, "Thanks!" as if she had made Well, yes-Robert does take a de-cided interest in Bob and Meg. Seeing him a speech which though distaste ful, must be responded to in some way or other.

hepe you found the dear children all that you pictured them?" pursues Ruby softly. "Yes-oh, ves; they are merry little crickets, and seem just aboat as happy as the day is long!" answers Mr.

Champley, whilst a sofiening smile re laxes his somewhat stern mouth. "It is a terrible charge for you, observes Ruby, her tone and looks full of the most profound pity.

"How so?" asks her companion, in vident surprise Ruby feels somewhat taken aback.

"Oh, it always seems to me such an ments, but sits watching her with keen impossible thing for a man to know scrutinizing eyes, expecting every in-stant that some relenting dimple about children's wants or ways!" she replies, with a little head-shake. round her lips would belie her words; but no-Shell works on in serene un-Robert Champley gives a slight laugh. "I assure you, both Bob and Meg linve neither of them any scruples about expressing their wants," he says gally; "and, as you know, I am very fortunate in my old housekeeper, Mrs. Tolley-sho is a perfect mother to the which lot of us. The babies have a treasure of a nurse, too-a sensible middle-aged woman; so on the whole I dare say we shall rub along very well.

"I don't believe in any servants being treasures." remarks Ruby skeptically; "and, besices, your children must be too old now to be left entirely to the charge of servants." "Do, you' think so?"" asks Mr.

Champley in a pondering tone. is what I have been rather atraid of myself. Bob is just seven, and poor little Meg five."

(To be Continued.)

NEVER GIVES UP ITS DEAD.

DOWN ON THE FARM. lake Superior Keeps Its Victims in th

boxes for $3.50. Mailed by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the United States.

TO MRS. PINKHAM

From Mrs. Walter E. Budd, of Patchogue, New York.

Mrs. Bunn, in the following letter, tells a familiar story of weakness and suffering, and thanks Mrs. Pinkham for complete relief: -"DEAB MES. PINEBAM:-I think it is my waist pain-ed me terribly. I could not sleep for the pain. Plasters would help for a while; but as soon as taken off, the pain would be just as bad as ever. Doctors prescribed medicine, but it gave me no relief.

"Now I feel so well and strong, have no more headaches, and no pain in side, and it is all owing to your Compound. I cannot praise it enough. It is a wonderful medicine I recommend it to every woman I know."

Allen's Foot-Ease makes tight-hiling of new shoes feel easy. It is a certain cure for sweating, callous and hot, tired, nervous, aching feet. Try it to-day. Sold by all druggets and shoe stores. By mail for 25c, in stamps. Trial package FRED: Address, Allen S. Olmsted, he Roy, N. Y. He who establishes his argument by noise nd command, shows that his reason is weak. pages there are to get through. And, whilst Edward is enduring his Wheat 40 Cents a Bushel. How to grow, wheat with big profit at 40 cents and samples of Salzer's Red Orios (80 Bisbels peracte) Winter Wheat, Rye, Oats, Clovers, etc., with Farm Seed Catalogue for 4 cents postage. JOHN A. SALZER SEED CO., La Crosse, Wis.

The Place for Your Daughters

Ind., ranks first among the educational institutions for girls. Young wonley from all parts of America and Europ are found in its classes. The faculty have just issued a catalog that con-tains much valuable data. Parents detains much valuable data. Farents de-sirous of sending their daughters to the best institution should send for this catalog before deciding on sending them elsewhere. It is under the super-vision of the Sisters of the Holy Cross and is located at Notre Dame, far from the excitement of even village life, and right among the beautiful scenes of the Creator's-handwork.

The in to-date bartender is-ab artist

when it comes to designing interior decorations.

Shake Into Your Shoes.

Shuke Into Your Shoes. Allen's Foot-Base, a powder for the Test. It cures painful, swollen, smart-ing feet and instantly takes the sting out of corns and buildins. It's the greetest conflict discovery of the age. Allen's Foot-Ease makes tight-fitting Gratitude is in liverse proportion to the bene-ht hence our ingraterude to God.

Don'l Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away

Hall's Catarrh Care

column of this paper.

Mary's Academy at Notre Dame

WODLED

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal. LE, KJ. NEW YORK, N. V. LOUISVILLE, KJ. 98600000000000 Remember the name 0 when you buy again Battle ā888888668866ā

Contraction of the second s or has developed such an alarming spirit of contradiction that she is decidedly a young woman to be avoid-

Ruby's amiable manner and social sympathy stand out in startling contrast to Shell's almost rough brusqueness of manner. Violet too does her utmost to render the evening a pleasant one for the brothers, whilst Mrs. Wilden backs them both up, as far as her natural want of energy will allow.

"Do you remember those jolly times we used to have out blackberrying, and what particularly delicious blackberryjam your cook used to make?" asks the younger brother, taking a seat beside Shell toward the end of the evening. Edward Champley is a true English-man, and, although three times already he has abandoned that seat in despair, he is still unwilling to acknowledge himself beaten.

She does not reply for a moment; she is in the act of picking out a knot no talent for anything in particular. Of course I play a little and I sketch a ittle; but I do nothing well enough for it to be pleasing to anybody but myself."

"How do you know that if you nevel give your friends the chance of judging?" asks Ted, still trying to strike some spark of emotion out of this stolid maiden.

"Oh, they are quite at liberty to judge for themselves if they like, only nobody wants to hear me play twice! answers Shell, in a tone of friendly warning.

"Will you let me hear you play once?" asks Ted cagerly.

"Oh, certainly, if you wish; only won't it be rather cruel infliction for everybody else?" says Shell naively. "No, I am sure it won't," answers her companion, in a voice of such utter confidence that packers of amusement gather around Shell's lips after the most wicked fashion. Great is Ruby's consternation and annoyance when she leaves the piano to see Shell down on her knees beside the music-stand, turning over the loose music in the drawer.

"Surely you are not going to play?" she exclaims, in a tone of mingled disapproval and annoyance, for Ruby's music is her one strong point, and she hates to be cast into the shade by her younger sister. As a rule, Shell is wont o hide her light under a bushel, and it is provcking, to say the least, that she should depart from her usual course on the present occasion. "Oh, yes, I am going to play-I have been asked!" responds Shell innocent-

With a shrug of her shoulders Ruby [familiar!"-Unsere Gesellschaft.

Depths of Its: Waters.

From the Minneapolis Tribune: Laks | Tillers of the Soil Appreciate the Little Superior never gives up its dead. Whoever encounters terrible disaster-happily infrequent in the tourist season and goes down in the angry, beautiful R. L. Pierson. Mr. Pierson, a farmer blue waters, never comes up again. by occupation, and like all hard work From those earliest days when the ing tillers of the soil he has found the hurdens the back must bear no light daring French voyagers in their trim birch bark canoes skirted the picturload to carry. Few people who never esque shores of this noble but relentlived on the farm appreciate what it means to follow the plow from sunrise less lake down to this present moment. to sunset, but if the public in general don't know how hard such work is, the those who have met their deaths in mid-Superior still lie at the stone-pavbottom. It may be that, so very kidneys do. Long hours of work of any kind means long hours for the kidcold is the water some of their bodies nevs, and they can't stand it without may have been preserved through the rebelling. When the farmer comes home tired out at night, if he only recenturies. Sometimes, not far from shore, the bodies of people who have alized that the tired feelings mostly albeen wrecked from fishing smacks or ways came from tired kidneys, and that from pleasure boats overtaken by the little wonder-workers, Doan's Kidcruel squall have been recovered but ney Pills, would right the wrong only after the most heroic efforts with brought on by over-work, life would be easier for him. Read what Mr. Pierson-says about his experience: drag net or by the diver. Once on a trip down the lakes I met a clergy-Pierson-says about his experience: Insteed when I stooped, lifted or changed my position saddenly, early in the tail of 1897, that I was always rowarded with sharp pains wross the small of my back, and in the morn-ing I was so hame and sore that I could scarcely get our of bed. The too frequest action of the, kidney secretions, especially annoying at high, plainly insistant that my kidneys were the cause of the trouble. I had often heard Doan's Kidney Pills spoken about by my nighbors, and as it was the first time I required such a preparability for two and I continued the treatment until my backache was cured and the other weakness was thereight pelicyed. I mate no mistake when I say that Doan's Kid-ney Pills cure backache and kidney complaint. Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all man who, as we passed a point of land some miles before entering the narrowing of the lake at the Soo, pointed out the place where the ill-fated Algoma went down on the reef some eight years ago, and as he looked he said, slowly, "I was at the funeral of one man who went down with her, the only reason his body is not at the bottom today with the other 38 that were lost is because it was caught in the timbers of the vessel and could not sink." Doan's Kidney Pills are sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box, or six

He: "I beg your pardon, but weren't we once engaged to be married?" She: 'It's quite likely. I thought just now saw you that your face looked Remember the name "Doan's" and take no substitute.

Wonder-Worker. Near the little town of Woods Corners, about six miles from Ionia, resides

PENSIONS Get your Pension DOUBLE QUICK Write CAPT: O'FARRELL, Pension Agent, 425 New York Avenue. WASHINGTON, D. C.

DROPSY NEW DISCOVERY: diverses areas. Send for book of destinoirdials and 10 days treatment Frse. Dr. IL.II. GREEN'S SONS, Adante. Ge VANTED-Case of bad health that R.I.Y.A.N.B Il not benefit. Send 5 cents to Ripans Chemical ... New York, for 10 samples and 1,000 testimentals.

CONSUMPTION W.N.U.--DETROIT--NO.33--1898

When Answering Advertisements Riadly Meution This Paper.

Co. D., 5th Reg. Reunion. The annual reunion of Co. D., 5th Mich, Cavalry, will be held in North ville, Tuesday, August 18. All comrades of the old Reg. are especially invited. HENRY M. WHITE, Secy.

MARVELO US RESULTS.

Ö

Ö

0

on all

What a Well Known Citizen of Lansing, Mich., Says of Drake's Dyspepsia Cure and Nerve Restorer. pepsia Cure and Nerve Residier. "I have had drspepsia for eighteen years. My troubles were indigestion; sour.stomach, acid fermentation, pal-pitation of the heart, sleeplessness and refible sick headache; which at times, would, entirely unfit me for business. I have had special treat-ment, by seven physicians, and it seems as though I have tried nearly areary headard.

seems: as though L bave tried nearly every: known or, supposed remedy, with some little relief, but would soon relapse to the old gondition. I commenced using Drake's Drzysysia Cureand Nerve Restoren new werks ago, have used two and one talk bores which have done me, more real good than all the treatment and so called remedies I have ever taken. I would advise dry person afflicted with scomach troubles, drypepsia, or neve troubles, to try this treatment. (C) 10 6 troubles, drspepsia, or nerve troubles, to try this treatment. Respectfully, EDWARD N. WOOD, March 22, 298, North-Lansing Mich." Drake's Dyspepsia Care and Nerve Restorer, is not propod up, by fictitous testimanials. Dat is demonstrating its enrative power every day, in stubborn cases of acute, chronic and nerrous dyspepsia. A trial will substantiate all that is claumed for it. For sale by Geo. C. Hieston, leading druggist of Northville. A book on stomach, and nerve troubles, their symptoms and curse, given free for the asking at the above store.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

DR. P.T. B. FEST, PHYSICIAN AND Surgeon. Office and residence at 12 Dunlap street, Northiville, Office hours 8:00 to 1000 a.m., 1200 to 3:00 p.m. ard after 6:09 p.m. Night calls attended. Phone 361. Female Diseases a Specially. Batteriol-ogical Examinations made. (994)

DR. T. B. HENRY, PHYSICIAN Surgeon Office and residence 31 Mai Street. Office in 5:00 to 10:00 a.m. 1:0 10, 3:00 and 7:00 to 3:00 p.m. Night cal promptly attended. Telephone 401.

DR.M. A_PATTERSON, HOMEOFATHIC Corner Duilap. Office hours. Sylo to 10:00 a.m.; 2:00 to 4:00 and .7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Office in Savings Bank Building. Telephone.

DR. R. M. JOHNSON. PHTSICIAN ANT Surgeon. Office Switt building Main street; residence 114 Center street. Calls promptly attended day or night. Office hours 1:00 to 9:00 prin. Telephone contex-tion, day or night.

DR. fr. S. MURIDOCK. RESIDENCE 145. D. Main street. Office hours at house from 12:00 msto 2:30 p. m. Forenoon and Econines. at Murdock Bros. Drug store, Northville. Calls, in tawn or country, am-swered promptly. 2251

R N. ROOT, DENTAL PARLOES, 69 CEN De ter street. Nitrous Oxide and Vital-ized alz administered. All work guaranteed and prices reasonable.

DR. F. CARROTHERS, DENTIST, OF Rec over T. G's store, Main streets Preservation of the Natural Teth. Crown and Bridge Work & Specialfy 4003 7

J. B. HOAR, DENTAL PARLORS OF-bies 47 Main street. Northville. Satis-faction guaranteed on all kinds of Dental work. Teeth extracted without pein by use of vitalized air.

P. E. WHFTE. NOT ARY PURLIC CON-veyancing done. Collecting a specialty, Fire and Accident Insurance. Northville Mich.

MRS. COLEBURN'S BAZAAR!

Jardiniers Brass Curtain Rods, and Novelties.

Perrin's

Livery, Feed and Sale Stable.

Best Rigs in Town. Telephone Connection

F. N. PERRIN, Propr.

RECERCECCERCERCERCE

Gordon Allan,

Tailor,

Call and see his prices.

has received his Fall Samples.

Northville.

MICHIGAN.

Flower Pots.

NORTHVILLE,

An EXTRA Redution NEGLIGEE SHIRTS.

REEDEDEDEDEDEDEDEDEDEDEDEDEDER

These goods are all the Newest Patterns, with Collars attached or Collars separate; white banded to be worn with White Collars -- any way you like them.

> See Our Window for Prices.

The Star Clothing House, 81, 83 Main St., Northville,

CONTRACTOR CONTRA

We Give Them Away Wanted, to Rent, For Sale, Etc. To Cash Trade!

Call at our store and we wil xplain how to get one free. Respectfully,

S. S. SCHANTZ. Telephone 83.

We have a full line of Ladies' and Gents' Hose at a very low figure. Call and examine... Yours for trade,

S. A. Smith & Sons., Northville, Michigan.

-Notices under this head inserted for the first have and icaper week for each subsequent lasue WANTED—If you wish help, see what a liner in the Record will do.

FUR SALE-One large Cabinet Organ- sult able for house, hall or church use. 51-ff. Mrs. Dr. J. M. Swift.

FOR SALE-My Residence and Grounds on Mill Street, Northville. 51-tf: Mrs. Dr. J. M. Switt. FOR RENT-If you have daything to rent

FOR SALE-Pine litter Itish Setter Pups, cheap if faken immediately. No better bred in America. George Mundy, Box 513, Northrille, Mich. 51045 FOR SALE CHEAP - House: and lot on Center strict near Randolph. Water works, cistern and well in connection. In quire of John Darling on 51 wop

Purely Personal.-

Miss Jessie Ely is homefrom Detroi or a two weeks' vacation.

Dr. Elliott and "wife returned to heir home in Detroit Monday. Mrs. S. E. Cranson has returned rom her outing at Orchard lake.

Mrs. H. D. Dean of Neoslio, Mo., is isiting among Northville relatives. Miss Nettie Smitherman of Ovid is he guest of Miss Ethel Vradenburg. Miss Jennie Browne of Worden is visiting at Mrs. Earl Cobb's this week Mr. and Mrs. B. Brigham have been visiting Northville relatives this week Mrs. W. R. Bnzzell and daughter spent a part of last week with her parents.

A.T. Stewart of the U.S. fish station is taking his annual fortnight vacation.

Fred Leonard and mother of nea Ovid, N. Y., are among Northville relatives.

Miss Adaline Spalding has returned from a trip to Orion, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Jesse Holdon who has been doin' California for some time has returned to Northville.

How doth the merry blking girl, Improve each shining minute. As her dainty feet the pedals whirl For everything that's in it. -N. Y. News.

the governor from here, the boys are getting more and better feed. Chas. Rogers of Scranton, Pa., was in town over Sunday, on his way home from Niagara Falls.

Chaoncey Hinman has been taking a brief vacation at Niagara Falls and Rochester, N. Y., where he visited is sister.

96000

666

۲

Ò

**()

Miss May Gove, who for some time past has been with Northville and Milford friends, left Tuesday for her  $| ext{Cupid-will}|$ ionie at Alpena-Chas G. Harrington, wife and daughter Mabel, and Ella K. Sim-onds left Tuesday for a few days uting at camp Shadyside, Cooly ake.

Mrs. Win. Slater returned Monday night from a six weeks' visit at Law ton, Jackson and Battle Creek. Mr. Slater accompanied her home from ackson.

Seymour Bower, Supt. of the Michgan fish cemmission, was among Northville friends Saturday. Mr. Bower was for some years a resident of this place. Miss Lulu Peck and her guest, Miss Fauny Levine, one of the "Fresh Air" children, were very pleasantly surprised last Saturday afternood by bout a dozen of their playmates.

Council Proceedings.

Council Proceedings. A special meeting of the village council was held Angust 10, 1898 Present: President, Sessions: Councilmen Bovee, Miller, Dolph, Barley C. Van, L. Van. On motion a continitee of three with the president as chairman was appointed. to confer with the village, attorney to draw up a proper electric car line franchise, to, be presented to the council for consideration at a nuture meeting. The president, L. Van and Bove were appointed. On motion Miller, Y. Van, Dolph and Barley were spointed a conmittee to report on a route for the car line through the fillage. Connoil adjourned. M. S. NICHOLS; elerk.

Consumption Positively Cured. Consumption Positively Eured. Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., cerifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could proute, tried all cough-remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting an in a chair; was induced to try Dr. Klüg's Naw Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business and says Br. Klüg's Naw Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much far him and also for others in his community. Dr. Klüg's New Discovery is guaranteed for Coughs, Colds ard Consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at Geo. C. Hineston's Drug Store. Hneston's Drug Store.

Thorns To Sit Upon.

IllurINS 10 SIL UJUI. Many people gather thorns by failing less beed the warning sent out by diseased kid-neys-contectiongin-parteled skin-feverish-ness-duil dragging puin-general fedling of warriness-is sure evidence of kidney and bladder trouble. Take Btah Kidney Beans at once-they willcure four-they have cured housands: of others. THE. TURNERS OF PHI LADECPHIFA make Utah Kidney Beans. L. B. Samuels, "owhy Clerk of Hickman Sounty, Cluton, Kenfacky, testilies that he baffered tor years with herrible pains in the back, ridneys and bladder-was trated by many physicians-they fare, bin no relief-he got se list ne could hardly stand alone-Ular Kidney Beans, he says, completely cured him. Ite glady recommends them to all sufferes. Hueston Tharmacy, North-tile Agent.

Turners' Little Liver Turners-A very small ill. Turn your liver, A true laxative. An fter-dinner pill.

Just the Place for a Bridal Trip. Take a cruise to Picturesque Mack nac Island, 900 miles of lake ride and it only costs $17 from Cleveland, $15 from Toledo and $12.50 from Detroit, round trip, including meals and berth. New Steel Steamers, Send 2c for illustrated pamphlet. Address A. A. Schantz, G. P.-A., D. & C., The Coast Line, Detroit, Mich.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has Lalifornia for some time has returned to Northville. Miss Adaline Parker of Ypsilanti Was the crust of Miss Spalding a Counterfeit it. Look outfor the man

New Fall Goods!

We have received our new line of Fall Suitings and extra Samples, and have everything to please: Cheviots, Serges Clay Worsteds, etc. They come in Black, Blue and Tans, with the American Army Blue in the preference. Prices as usual, low.

B. FREYDEL, The Tailor,

Main Street, Northville.

Finer line of proceries could not be found in the city of Northville. We are doing everything in our power to give our many customers entire satis-faction. If you want the best of goods let us give you a ()

**()

a)

ø

ð)

•)

U.

Tip

On good groceries. Groceries to be good must be fresh. Not fresh today but fresh every day. We keep nothing but the freshest and best goods, and if you want the tip

s (rite) Tep

Groceries at the bottom prices come to us for them. We guarantee every-thing to be the best and our goods are bound to give satisfaction. This is no fairs no fairy

Tale

It is true and all we can do for you will be convinced that all our goods are the best quality and at the lowest prices.

> Fry Bros. & Co., Northville.

Question of Fact

Did you ever read of a mariner's compass with only one point? If you have not, we suggest that you read the following: Sands & Porter Bros., Northville, point to the fact that they sell Furniture, Diners, Rockers, Suites, Couches, etc. cheaper, quality considered, than any house in the trade. We call particular attention to our line of well-selected

(@);0,0,0,0,0,0,0

(0

(

(

(0

(@

(8

ă a ce Cream! vas the guest of Miss Spalding a who attempts to deceive you when your of the week. Miss Maude Robinson and Paul Salve, the great pile cure. Murdock Bros. 00 00 00 Lumber part of the week. Old process methods must give away for new and modern ideas in any kind of fusiness. The same is true in relation to lce Cream. We manufacture it by a new method, making it superior in grain, flavor and especially in lasting qualities. Ŭ.Q. Good Oak Arm Rockers ..... $2 each Bennett of Plymouth visited at C. O. 3-niece Bedroom Suite as low as $12 Dickerson's Sunday. Keeps Folks Well. Keeps Folks Well. It is better to keep well than to get well, although when one is sick it is desirable to get well. When we con-sider that eight tenths of the ailments that afflict the American people are caused by constipation, we shall realize why it is that Baxter's Man-drake Bitters "keeps folks well," or if sick, enables them to get well. Baxter's Mandrake Bitters cures con-stipation. Mrs. J. N. Emery and daughter of ¤∘¤•¤•¤•¤• See our New brass Feet, Rococo Couches Detroit have been guests of North Latest thing out. ville relatives this week. Coal Miss Nellie Thomas and Miss Lena Peace Reigns SANDS & PORTER BROS. Whitehead have returned home from a week's visit at Ypzilanti. in every family that uses our bottled milk for infants and invalids. TELEPHONE. Mrs. W. A. Fry and children of Leslie have been spending the week BENTON & SON. with relatives and friends here. stipation. Price 25 Cents per Bottle-George Clark returned Saturday Wood Why not step in and get a bottle and by using it be assured of good health through the trying hot months We sell it and guarantee it to give satisfaction or money refunded. Geo. C. Hueston, Murdock Bros. night from a month's visit with Respect New relatives in Shiawassee county. **** Dr. J. M. Burgess and son Claude City Laundry and Bert Phillins left Monday for Your Feet Buffalo and Niagara Falls via boat.

Buffalo and Niagara Falls via boat.
The families of M. F. Stanley and same and niagra Falls via boat.
The families of M. F. Stanley and same and ninety-sight. Present, held at the Probate Court for said the very one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight. Present, Edgar O. Durfee, ludge of Probate. In the matter of the estate of HENRY S. DEKAY, deceased. On reading and filing the petition of said estate may be granted to him or some other suitable person. It is ordered, that the the three suitable for home.
Sargeant Crocker of the 35th was home from Island Lake Wednesday and Thursday on a 48 homs? furiough.
C. Hueston, Murdock Eros.
C. Hueston, Murdock Eros.
STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Wayne, state of the State of the State of the State of the State one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight. Present, Edgar O. Durfee, that a copy of the further of the organo. It is ordered, that the thirteenth fore nore, at said time of hering said petition. And it is further ordered, that the Northvile Record, and Thursday on a 48 honrs' furiough.
A true copy.) HOVEP A FLUXT Ingrister Buffalo and Niagara Falls via boat. 51 Main street. For First-Class Work give me a call. Implements and they will respect you. Give them a chance at the comfort and ease that come from wearing Stark Bros.' Sboes, and you will find that the respect extends to your pocketbook because our shoes wear longer, therefore cost less than others. ************* Collars and Cuffs a Specialty. High Gloss or Domestic Finish. We also carry a full line of Gents' Summer Underwear, Fancy Shirts and Neckties to suit all tastes. AMILY WASHINGS AT RIGHT PRICES. Bath Rooms Open Sunday Mark S. Ambler STARK BROS. Mornings up to 11 o'clock. H. SAFFORD, Pronr.. The Cash Shoemen. NORTHVILLE. home from Island Lake Holling EDGAR O. DORE 200, and Thursday on a 48 hours' furiough. (A true copy.) Homer A. FLINT, Register. Northville. NORTHVILLE

Clearance

Sale

Ends

To-morrow,

Saturday.

CARPET BUGS!

If you have them in your house call at our store and get a bottle of :: :: ::

Dead Stuck for Bugs' Price 25c.

> We recommend it. ::

MURDOCK'S PHARMACY 62 Main Street

ephone.

More than twenty million free expected to go in a party. samples of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve have been distributed by the manufacturers. What better proof moved from 52 Randolph stree connections of the street of the street

NORTHVILLE. The City in Brief. Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. Ross Aug 3, a girl. R. H. Porter is recovering from a feek's illness. James Thomas has been very ill for be past two weeks We might insist on an elevated allway or a tunnel. Only about seven took advantage f last Sunday's excursion rate to Detroit. The street commissioner has been riving Main street a needed fixing up this week.

While at Niagara Falls last week George Hueston obtained some fine odak views. The Methodist Sunday-school holds its annual picnic at Walled lake

Mr. and Mrs. John Stratton have Before leaving for her Detroit visit moved from 52 Randolph street to last week Mrs. Henry evidently did corner of Rogers and Dubuar. not split up a very big lot of wood

The Northville Record: Friday, August 12, 1898

All day he fished upon the strand, And lo, at night it came to pass Be'd used ten pounds of bait to land A lone three-quarter bass. -N. Y. Herald.

A democratic-peoples'-union sliver aucus for the township of Northville will be held in the village hall Mon-day evening to elect delegates to he state, congressional, county, senatorial and representative conventions.

For the "Harvest" excursion to Detroit on the 26th, four coaches will e left here the night before for the special use of Northville people, so that all may be assured of seats Prain leaves heré at 8:32 a.m. Round trip fáre 65 cents; children 40c. Northville business men have lan to organize a stock company ière to build an electric car line to Novi, Walled Lake, Wixom, New Judson, South Lyon, Salem and ack to this village again. It will be nown as the Northville loop line.

The ladies and young people of the Baptist church will serve supper and ce cream in the church parlors this Friday evening, beginning at 5:00 o'clock. A first class supper for only 10 cents; proceeds to apply on the Building Fund. Everybody is cor-dially invited.

Michigan farmers will hold a sum mer institute and basket picnic at Wayne, Saturday, August 13. Prof. G. H. True of the Michigan Agricultural College will address the Institute on "Making butter in a dairy of less than five cows" and "Feeding cows in a dry year."

In the replevin case of Aaron Taff vs. Wm. Denton to recover % of the crop of grain Justice Lowden renlered a decision in favor of the plaintiff for 61 bushels of wheat and $8.27 costs. C. C. Yerkes Appeared for Mr. Tafft, and W. E. Fenwick of Detroit for Mr. Denton. Some three years ago Dave Barbe lost a valuable coon dog and all sub sequent search for film was in valu until a day or two ago when Mhrshal Macomber found him at a farm house about fifteen miles wes of here. The dog was as tickled to get back as Davé was to have him. At a meeting held. Monday, night n their church, the German Lutheran action faken the week provings and started on Sunday to have a good pending their postor. Rev. Mr. Reh. time. The first thing free did was to hart, and, awaiting the action of the synod in sending another pastor, the church will be closed for, two weeks. At the request of the congregation Dr. Fest acted as their attorney.

Station Agent Carrathers is arranging for a big improvement in the shore to see the sights. After going F. & P. M.'s stock yards here. The two or three miles we started cross vards are to be all fixed up in good lots for home. Then the fun began. shape and a set of platform scales for weighing purposes is to be added. This will be appreciated by stock men in general and will bring many It kept getting thicker and thicker shipments into Northville which formerly went to Novi and Plymouth The Baptists of the state hold an which way to gobut kept strugging Assembly on the Michigan Military Academy grounds at Orchard Lake saw daylight ahead. We were almost August 16-19. Addresses will be tickled to death to think we were so given by prominent divines of the denomination, including Rev. Daniel last we reached the edge of the Shepardson, the Wheel Chair Evan-Bellet, and "Uncle Boston" Smith. The fare to Orchard Lake on all the roads from any point in the state is one fare for the round trip, good from Acgust 15 to 22 inclusive.

In all probability the council comnittee on a bicycle ordinance will report in favor of a 12 mile an hour limit on the main streets: bells attached to wheels, and keep- off the side walks. Riders will probably its annual plenic at Walled lake next Tuesday. Garruthers' Omaha excursion will leave here Sept 15. About 20 are complications, and it practically according to the provide the provided to th covers all the necessary ground.

While driving from Northville to Yovi last Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Harmon saw a large eagle sitting upon a telephone pole. The bird did not fly until they were within a short distance, and then only rose lesurely and continued to sail in easy viewing distance above them. It looked as if it might measure at least four feet perhaps more from tip to tip. It was very dark brown in color with a white headthe Michigan bald eagle. Farther on were four similar birds but not nearly as large, evidently young ones. They were sailing over the fields not very high in the air. An eagle—of the same kind—probablywas shot recently in Farmington township, measuring rour feet across

FROM FRANK LEWIS.

An Interesting Letter from a North ville Boy with the 32d.

the outspread whigs:

The following letter was received from Frank Lewis of the 32d regi-FERNANDINA, Fla:, July 25th, '98-

We have moved from Tampa you know and arecamped at Fernandina now: I do not know how long we will stay here, probably a month or two anyway. We had a fine trip. We came through some nice towns but some of the men spoiled it all by stealing everything they could. We are camped on an island. It is nice and dry here but it is some distance from the ocean, about a mile and a half, still we don't mind a little walk like that. We go bathing every day. It is fine. I never saw the ocean Too Full before and was very much pleased to find that we were to be where I could swim in it. There is a light of Feet.... house just a little way from camp. There are sharks and alligators in quantities here. Several men have been klied by the sharks down in the ay. They don't come close enough to the shore on the beach where we swim to get any of us. It is fine to swim on the large colling waves. The waves are very strong, in fact they will knock a man down. I have had an adventure already that I do not In their church, the German Lutheran care to repeat. Two of the boys, congregation voted to approve the drom my own company and myself time. The first thing we did was to run the guard. There was no need of doing this for we could get a pass by going to the first sargeant, but we were going to be independent. We went to the beach and had a nice swim. 5 Then we started down the The first thing we came to was a piece of woods that did not look very leviting, but we started through 'till finally we couldn't see ten feet in any direction. We did not know along for about an hour when we near to the end of our tramp. At woods and what a sight met our eyes! For miles in front and on either side was a vast alligator marsh. There was only one thing to do and that was to go ahead, unless we wanted to go back through the woods and I told the boys that I couldn't stand another trip in-that direction, so we started through the swamp. I don't suppose you have any idea what one of these swamps is. Well, they are covered with grass about four feet high with paths run ning in all directions where the alligators go from one creek to another. There are streams of water running through the marsh. The ground is nothing but mud. We had not gone far when we came to one

This is often the case when you buy an unknown brand of Shoes. They do not fit. They feel too_full of feet. Ours will never trouble you that way, and out prices are always as low or lower than city prices. Why shouldn't they be. We buy from the same factories, get the same styles and pay the same cold, hard cash; and as we before stated, we sell as cheaply or more so than the so called "big city stores." Walk in and look around.

5

C. A. SESSIONS, The Shoeist, NORTHVILLE. Repairing a Specialty.

| To all persons within the corporatechase a 50-lb sack of our celebratedread these prices : |                                            |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------|
| Granulated Sugar                                                                                   | ••••••5c lb                                |
| - T.C                                                                                              |                                            |
| Best Java and Mocha Coffee                                                                         |                                            |
| Lion Coffee                                                                                        | 9c lb                                      |
| Arbuckle's xxxx Coffee                                                                             | 10c lb                                     |
| Royal Baking Powder, in the cans                                                                   |                                            |
| Brooms, each                                                                                       | 10 c                                |
| Salmon,                                                                                            | 3 cans for 25c                             |
| Columbia River Salmon                                                                              | 10c can                                    |
| 10 bars Queen Anne Soap                                                                            |                                            |
| 1 lb Ground Pepper,1 lb Alspice,1 lb Cloves,1 lb Ginger,1 lb Mustard,              | Your Spicescost you only20c pound. |
| = 10 lb Sal Soda                                                                                   | 10c lb                                     |
| 1 pkg Gloss or Corn Starch                                                                         | ·····.5c⁼                                  |
| Gold Lace at per 50-1                                                                              |                                            |
|                                                                                                    |                                            |

Desperate conditions require heroic remedies. We don't want to stop our Mills. Enormous receipts of grain

| time. Murdock Bros.New Rotary Washer.Messrs. Schram & Lockhart havesecured the agency for the sale of thecelebrated "Rotary" Washing Ma-chine for Wayne county. Thismachine is entirely different from allothers, but combines the washingprincipal of all, and is an exactimitation of the work done with thehands on the wash-board. It hastaken first premium at seven statefairs and more than forty countyfairs and has had an unparalleledsale wherever introduced. The lead-ing newspapers of nine states indorseit and everyone, who has seen it triedpronounce it the best ever shown.A number of our citizens have testedit thoroughly and speak in highestpraise. Try it yourselves and besatisfied. It is highly durable, easilyoperated and washes everythingfrom lace to lorse-blankets. See itand you will want no other. 50Truth wears well. People havelearned that DeWitt's Little EarlyRisers are reliable little pills for reg-ulating the bowels, during constipa-tion and sick headache. They don'tgripe. Murdock Bros. | hev, J. J. Pheips entered upon hispastorate of the Baptist church lastSunday, and delivered two excellentdiscourses.The drug stores have a supply of"Dead Stuck" on hand, a preparationsaid to knock the spots all off ofcarpet bugs.A special meeting of the Baptistladies' missionary society is calledfor next Tuesday afternoon at 3:00o'clock in the church parlors.Rev. J. H. Herbener is taking hisannual vacation, and there will beno services in the Presbyterianchurch until the first Sunday inSeptember.The Sunday-school of the Baptistchurch picricked at Walled lakeTuesday. A perfect day, good-crowdand plenty to eat, made the occasionan enjoyable one.Since the matter of poor rations insome of the Northville boys' com-panies at Island Lake was broughtto Governor Pingree's attention amanifest improvement is noticed.Some fellow "scorching" down thehill from H. E. Cady's going southSunday alternoon, took a header inattempting to turn on Dubuar streetand plowed the dirt for a whole rod.GINL WANTED-For General House-work. Good place for a good girl. | to leave with the doctor. It lasteduntil Monday and then "Doc" grab-bed the axe and made for the wood-shed. Spitting on the handle in atrue Norwegian style he swing theglistening steel o'erhead and broughtit down with a startling whack.The blow spilt the plece of pine allright but before it accomplished thatdeed the blade capered around andtook an inch chunk out of the insideof the doctor's big toe, as slick as awhistle. Hereafter when Mrs. Henrygoes visiting she will lock up theaxe and hide the woodshed.Contrary to the talk of some peoplewho know nothing of what they aretalking about, the town clock diffi-culty is not yet adjusted. The mis-understanding is between the counciland Mr. Becker. The former claimsthat Mr. Becker's contract calls forthe proper care and running of theclock in a first-class manner, whileMr. Becker claims he was only tokeep it running, and that he is noteven supposed to wipe off the dirtand fies bave accumulated to suchan extent that it is a wonder thatthe clock keeps any time at all, thoof course this had nothing to do withthe striking part.See Ambler for your Conland Wood.Ask your dealerfor Plymouth Rock | dressed ourselves in our blankefsbecause we had no other clothes. Ihave no desire to go on anotherpleasure trip for some time.I got left at Jacksonville. Mikeand I went up town and were look-ing at everything we came to. Afterwe had been all over the town wewent back to the depot and the trainhad gone. We did not know whatto do, but just then the freight trainwith our horses and mules camealong and we jumped on that. Wedid not get to camp till after dark.Our guns and blankets were thrownin a pile beside the track. We gotour things all right, but had tosleep out doors with nothing overus; we did not get any supper either.I am all right now. I don't helievewe will drill here, because there is no | <ul> <li>selves. We have arranged to one of the largest jobbing hou guarantee the goods. Our can orders Monday.</li> <li>YERKES</li> <li>Plymouth Rock Flour makes good bread. Try it.</li> <li>See Ambler for your Coal and Wood.</li> <li>Smoke the Bradner Cigar. 41tf2p</li> <li>Visit the Spiritnalists' Camp Meeting at Grand Ledge, Aug. 21.</li> <li>Central Michigan Spiritualist Camp will have special exercises on that date and visitors will be cordially welcomed there as well as at the delightful "Seven Islands" resort near by, where a brass band will furnish music all day and add to the many attractions of the resort. D., if. R. &amp; W. R. R. train will leave Plymouth at 8:45 a. m. and leave</li> </ul> | help us, we must help our-purchase groceries, through-uses in the country, and wewasser will commence takingBROTHERS ,NORTHVILLE.Smoke the Bradner Cigar. 37ti2pOne Minute Cough Cure surprisespeople by its quick cures and childrenmay take it in large quantities with-out the least danger. It has wonfor itself the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the best reputation of anypreparation used today for colds,strought the cought of the fourthtake its advice-go to STEERS' foryour Hardware.Try it Once!It won't cost you anythingto find out.Seving Machines cleaned and re-paired: new parts farnished.Northville. J. H. Steers.Better see meif you wanta Biercle |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Plymouth Rock is best. Ask for it.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Apply to Record office. 1w1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | ļ flour.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | place. FRANK LEWIS.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Jurip rate (Sec. Geo. Deflaven, G.P.A.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Best make at the best price.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | -                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |

IN-OUR GREAT STATE

THE HAPPENINGS IN MICHIGAN BRIEFLY RELATED.

Michigan Loses Many of Her Soldier Boys by Fevers in Cuba-Michigan Naval Reserves Will Remain on th Yosemite Until the War Closes.

Elebigan Naval Reserves Mustered Out Upon order of the secretary of the avy the Michigan Naval Reserves on board the Yosemite have been mustered out and sent to, their homes, and the stanch cruiser in which they have seen service will be turned over to the Mass achusetts and Rhode Island reserves For several days, since peace negotia tion began, Secretary Long has been busy arranging to reduce the auxiliary naval force and dispose of the cruisers acquired expressly for the war with He had about decided that the Naval Reserves on the Yosemite would not be given any further active service when he received a request from Gov. Pingree, backed up by communications from several members of the Michigan delegation in congress to discharge the Michigan Reserves as soon as the department was satisfied that their services would no longer be needed Secretary Long, appreciated the fac that no class of men who went to the war sacrificed so much in the way o Important private - interests as the Michigan Reserves, and he was there fore quite willing, in view of the de struction of the Spanish fleets, that the Michigan boys should be excused from further duty, and sent home. At the time he was not quite ready to put the Yosemite out of commission, but as the Massachusetts and Rhode land reserves have been drilling hard all summer and were very anxious to go to sea for a short period at least, the ecretary say his opportunity to -kill two birds with one stone, and he therefore issued the order mustering but the Michigan Reserves and sending the New England boys aboard the cruiser Michigan Boys Stay, on the Yosemite.

When the members of the Michigan Kaval Beserves or board the U.S. erviser Yosemite learned of the action of their Tiends at home in securing an order for them to be mustered out before peace was declared they were much worked up over it. The sailor lads kept the wires hot until the navy department countermanded the order. A petition the Michigan boys sent to the secretary of the navy stated that they had gone into the regular service as common seamen, not for any espec tal love or aptitude for scrubbing decks or couling ship, but because their coun needed them. Having taken their ship into action and proven themselves competent to bandle and fight her. they desired to remain in the naval service of the United States just so long as there was any need for an auxiliary armament. In other words, hav-ing entered the fox chase, they propose to stay in and share the final honors at the taking of the brush. Consequently the order for their discharge has been revolved and they will now itseems. take their ship to Mapila to serve un Admiral Dewey.

Daring Bank Robbery.

One of the most during and suc ful robberies ever perpetrated in Mich-Igan was carried cout when the Unior bank at Richland was entered and the safe blown open with nitroglycerin, three distinct explosions being heard by a number of meople, chut the gang escaped with its boofy. According to witnesses the gang was composed of six men, who came to town on a handcar. Four were placed on guard out side the bank, which is a small woode building. The bank is owned by N. S. Whitney and P. H. Gilkey, They say the loss is between $6,000 and $7,000 mostly farmer's deposits. The loss will not affect the stabilition the institution as its owners are right men robbers were about a month late to wrecked by the three explosions of dealt in matters of interest to the Michigan Crop Report. monthly Michigan crop report The ays that the average vield of wheat per acre, is estimated for the entire state, 17.96 bu; southern counties, 18.16: central counties, 17.93; northern counties, 15.57. The figures point to a crop of shout 30,700,000 bu and the crop has been secured in fine condition. and is of excellent quality. The aver age condition of corn in the state is $2 The condition in the southern counties is substantially the same as one year ago, but in the central and northern counties it is lower. Oats are estimated to yield 29 bu per acre. Potatoes promise three-fourths, beins eighttenths, and hay nine-tenths of average crops Apples now promise in the state about two thirds of an average crop. Peaches are estimated at about seven-tenths of an average crop.

MICHIGAN NEWS ITEMS

Michigan Republican editors will

acet at Alma, Sept. 1 and 2. The postoffice at Greening Monroe outity, - has been discontinued and mail will go to Monroe Alfred Daniels, a farmer near Saline attempted to pick up a leather strap lying on his kitchen floer after dusk. the strap turned out to be a rather vely rattlesnake, and Daniels is likely to die from its bite. State Salt Inspector Caswell's report for July is as follows: Manistee county, 219,050 barrels; Mason, 84,802; St. Clair, 67,033; Saginaw, 40,955; Wayne, 40,934; Bay, 32,977; Iosco, 6,000; Midland, 4,000; total, 495.501 barrels. The wife of Lieut-Cok Vos, 32d Michigan, has sued at Grand Rapids for a separate maintenance and has also commenced suit against Rose Vandersluis for $10,000 damage for alleged alienation of affections. Miss Vandershuis is a prominent church member and well-known in society Dr. Chas. B. Nancrede, formerly professor of the U. of M., now surgeon-major of the 23d Michigan, having come home from Santiago on sick leave declared his intention to resign from the army, but Secretary Alger detailed him to service at once at one of the ev Long Island hospitals and he changed his mind. Rev. Balph H. Baldwin, rector of St. oligis church, Saginaw, has resigned is pastorate, fuid aside the robes of his calling and fled from home and friends, leaving a wife who is the daughter of a millionaire, all for a wo-- Hice Keyes--who had won bis affections and with whom he had been living as man and wife at Defroit. .Detroit business men are making ar rangements for a big Business Men's convention: August 23, 24 and 25, and 15,000 invitations are being sent to merchants throughout the state. It is pro-posed to expend $10,000 in entertaining the strangers. All of the Michigan railroads have made an excursion rate of one fare for the round trip from all points in the state. -

Corp. & Gorman and Private Vroman both Co. F. 35th Michigan were arrested for becoming intoxicated. The cornoral is said to have used insulting language to his superior officers and to have struck one of the guards. Vroman was found asleep at his post. Beth pleaded gnilty and Gorman was entenced to reduction to the ranks. Vronian was schtenced to seven days hard labor.

The Michigan department headquar ters train for the national G. A. R. encampment at Cincinnati will leave De troit, Monday, Sept. 5, via the Lake Shore railroad to Toledo from which point the route will be over the Toledo Solio Central and Big Four routes. Tickets will be on sile in Michigan. Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6, good for a contin-uous passage, commencing the day of sale, and good to return not later than Scot. 13. Commander Patrick invites all veterans and their friends to accompany him on the headquarters train-

The 16th annual meeting of the Michigan State Pharmaceutical association convened at Port Huron with a It appears from the latest reports of Targe atlandance. Mayor Stevens, ex-the stockhollers of the bank that the tanded a cordial welcome and the address was responded to by D. E. Prall? make a great haul, as the amount on St Saginaw. The annual address delivdeposit was $70.000 at that time: The little building was badly of Cadillac, was quite lengthy and

PEACE NEGOTIATIONS. anish Reply to Uncle Sam's Terms No

Altorether Satisfactory.

The negotiations looking toward a reaty of peace between the United States and Spain progress slowly. After the terms which the U.S. gov ernment demanded had been presented to Spain, the latter, through M. Cam bon, the French ambassador at Wash ington, asked for certain modifications Firmly, but courteously, the Presiden has declined the earnest appeal of the French ambassador to modify the United States demands, except in slight and comparatively unimportant, re spects. One of these was that the com mission to be appointed to settle the terms of peace shall meet outside of the United States, and preferably in France. The President sees no mate rial objection to granting this request. and it is said to be practically settled that the conferences will be held in Paris

The Madrid government, through M Cambon, proponded a number of ques-tions as to the time when Spain would be expected to evacuate Cuba and the territory to be ceded the United States; and as to what provision would be made by the United States to protect the interests of Spanish subject in these islands, while the eracuation was in progress. There, is one point, however, which the Spanish authorities apparently, fail fully to comprehend and Secretary Day made a special cell upon the amhassador for the purpose principally of making perfectly dear this one point. The point was that the evacuation of Cuba, Porto Rico and one of the Ladrone islands to be se-lected by the United States and then permanent session to this government was made a question precedent to all peace negotiations, and not until these terms had been fully complied with. will this government consent to entertain any peace, propositions whatever,

Spain's Reply to Our Terms. The reply of the Spanish govern ment to the peace terms offered by the United-States was handed to President United States was handed to President McKinley after considerable delay. The doctment passed through five translations. It was first copied from the original into the Spanish employ Rey for transmission to the Spanish ambassador at Paris, the latter readered it in French to the French government and there it was ciphered again to be sent to M. Cambon, the French ambassador, at Washington, who transformed it into English and finally presented it to President Me Kinley at the White House.

The President and cabinet had aleady assembled by agreement when the ambassador arrived and Spain's re-ply was considered for an hour and a half by the cadinet. At the conclusion of the conference the secretary of state made the formal statement that both ing whatever could be said on the sub ject at that time. The prolonged dis-cussion was believed to indicate that the Spanish answer was not satisfac tory in all respects, but it could not be concluded that the answer was unsat isfactory entirely, for, in that case, ac cording to the President's statement beretofore made. his offer would have been definitely withdrawn and the war resumed "with greater energy than before

The reply of the Spanish governmen is understood to be a document embrac ing about 1,200 words, and is said to be divided into five points or heads, namely: Cuba, Porto Rico, Ladrone is lands, occupation of Manila, and appointment of a commission, which are treated in the order named. So far as could be learned, no mention is made of the Cuban debt. The retention of arms and ammunition by the Spanish troops comes in for indirect reference under the head of Cuba. As to Cuba the American terms domanded the evac uation of the island without specify ing the future form of government The Spanish reply is said to accept the principle that Spanish sovereignty over Cuba will terminate, but it is understood to take up the future government of the island, and because of the extent of Spanish interests there, is said to take the view, either expressed or m-plied that the United States should administer the affairs of the island. As to the time of evacuating Cuba, this is a detail which the Spanish reply is can be left to the commission for final determination. The American conditions as to Porto Rico, the Ladrones Manila, etc., are believed to be accepted, but the topics are treated a some length and it will require the full text to show how far the language used may be construed as an accept The provision as to the commisance. sion is to consist of five commissioners on each side, with Paris as the prob able meeting place. The Spanish reply is said to develop somewhat the scope of the commission, leaving to it not only the determination of the of the future of the Philippines, but also the dctails involved in the ar rangement of a lasting peace. The outcome of the conference is un-known, but the best opinion obtain able is that the matter is still open that Amoassador Cambon will repor to Spain the results of his efforts and the desires of this government, and that another reply from Spain as to some details will be necessary to a tinal conclusion.

MILES IS MOVING.

AMERICAN TROOPS PRESSING TOWARD SAN JUAN.

Almost the Whole Southern Half of th Island Under Control of Gen. Miles-Navy Ready to Bombard San Juan

Fortifications at Any Time: Capt. Goodrich, commander of the auxiliary cruiser St. Louis, seized the morts and harbors of Arroyo and Guay ama, 40 and 45 miles, respectively, cast of Ponce, and hoisted the Stars and Stripes over both places. They will probably be used as a base of opera-tions for the second division of the American army, the advance of which under Maj. Gon. Brooke was landed at Arroyo by the St. Louis. Gen. Brooke at once marched north and took the town of Cavey, on the military road which mas from Ponce to San Juan and directly east of Aibonito. Thus Gen. Brooke will be able either to disregard the Spanish force at the latter point and to push on to San Juan or to close in upon it from the rear. The natural strength of the Spanish strong hold at Aibonito and the character of the defensive works erected there nc: cessitated a flank movement and this is what Gen. Brooke accomplished. Gen. Miles having received informa-tion that the fife military road from Fonce to San Juan had been mined by the Spaniards between Jaun Duz, and Aibonito fermed a new plan, in accord ance with which Gen. Stone, with some Wisconsin troops, pressed rapidly toward Arceibo, on the northern coast of the Island and Gen. Brooke will advance toward San Juan from Arroyo Gen. Stone, after occupying Adjuantas to the north of Ponce, took Co. C. Sec ond Wisconsin, as far north as Utuado, 15 miles beyond Adjuantas. The road is impracticable for the transportation of artillery and wagous, but the cavalry and infantry will have no trouble in advancing by this route to Arceibo from which point a railroad and a good dirt read extend to San Juan. - The ar tillery and wagons will sent by transports to Arceibo. While San Juan is thus being threat ened from the west by the advance of Gen. Stone's troops, those under Gen. Brooke will have seized the Ponce military road beyond the danger points and from which place the Americans can advance rupidly. The Spanish forces which prepared to resist the Americans at Albonito are likely to find themselves beset by Americans on both sides, as the forces from Ponce are steadily pushing forward and their outposts are now 20 miles beyond Ponce

The American navy has occupied as a harbor and base of supplies for the San Juan operations a large bay within the line of islands and reefs at San Juan point, 25 miles from Morro castle. This splendid auchorage was unsus pected. The outside seems to be made up of small islands. The entrance to the channel is tortuous. Fourteen of our ships are there and others are com ing and when the American army appears before San Juan. The fleet will Thomas, succeeding Gen. Wade. bombard the fortifications and make other diversions to keep the enemy busy at every point, while the army attacks the city from the land side.

Gen. Brooke's advance guard entered Guyamo after sharp, skirmishing, in which several on both sides were which several on wounded. The Spanish force at Gay-amo, numbering 500, were driven back toward Cayey with the loss of one killed and two wounder. Gen. Haines occupies, the town, Maj. Hagler's while reconnoitering forces, near Coamo, ran into the enemy's pickets, and was fired upon. Thirty shots were fired, but no one was injured.

Augusti Ready to Surrender Manila Hong Kong dispatch say: Admiral Dewey has received word from Gapt. Gen. Augusti that he is willing to sur render so soon as he can do so honor ably. It is believed that he will only Dewey ex make a show of resistance. pects to take the city without losing a man. Should Dewey and Merritt begin the attack Augusti will propose to capitulate on these terms. The Span-ish troops to march out with the the bonurs of war: the soldiers and officers to be permitted to return on parole to

SPANISH ATTACK AMERICANS

Manila the Scone of a Battle in Which the Dons Were Twice Reputsed.

Dispatches from Hong. Kong say: The German steamer Petrarch has arrived from Manila and reports that the Spanish attacked the American troops inder Gen. Merritt encamped south of Manila. The Spanish force numbering 3,000 men charged upon the positions occupied by the Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers; First battalion California volunteers, Battery A. Utah artillery, and First battalion, Third. U. S. artillery. The fighting continued three hours and the Spanish repeatedly charged the American lines, being repulsed with heavy losses each time. The American loss was 14 killed and 27 wounded, the Spanish loss is estimated at 200 killed and 300 wounded. The American vol unteers acquitted thomselves with great bravery. The insurgents did not participate in the light.

The Unifed States-Canadian Commission. The joint commission appointed by he United States and Great Britain to consider various matters of importance between the U. S. and Canada, will meet at Queepec on August 23. Among the matters to be considered will be the question of seal hunting in the Being sea and Pacific ocean; more friendly fishing, regulations on both. Atlantic and Pacific coasts; establishing the Alaska-Canadian boundary; transportation of merchandise between two points in one country through terri-tory of the other: alien labor laws; mining rights of citizens of one coun-try in the territory of the other, reciprocal customs duties on the products of the soil or industry of each country; a revision of the agreement of 1817, respecting naval vessels on the Great lakes, so that, while the argument may not be wholly abrogated it will be so amended as to permit lake shipbuilders to compete with plants along the Atlantic and Pacific coasts in the construction, of small year ressels, which need not increasarily receive their armaments until they reach tide vater; for completion of the marking of the frontier line by land or water; provisions for the conversance of persons in the lawful custody of the offcers of one country, through the terri-tory of the other; reciprocity in wrecking and salvage rights.

15 Regiments More for Porto Rico. The war department has ordered Maj. Gen. Wades who was placed in command at Camp. Thomas after the departure of Gen. Brooke, to proceed to Porto Rico with 15 more regiments of volunteers, which are to form a profsional division, the regiments be selected from various brigades. The following regiments have been selected? First Rhode Island," First North Carolina, First New Hamsphire, First New Jersey, Second Texas, First Maine, Jersey, Second Texas, First Maine, Fourth Missouri, First Mabaum, First Vermont, First West Virginia, First Kentucky, Third Tennessee, 22d New York, First Arkansas, 52d Iowa, Third Virginia, First Delaware and First Märvland.

Maj.-Gen. J. C. Breckinridge has asumed command of the army at Camp

Washington: The First Ohio cavalry, now at Tampa, will form part of the next expedition to be sent to the as-sistance of Gen. Miles in Porto Rico.

Gen. Coppinger, of the Fourth army corps, with headquarters at Tampa received orders to go to Porto Ricont once. This order was something of a surprise to Gen. Coppinger as he enpected to go to Fernandiza with a part of his corps which has been moved there.

NOTES ON THE WAR SITUATION

It is now assorted that the proposed camp at Montauk Point, L. I., for the American troops at Santiago, will have to be abandoned because of a lack of drinking water.

Owing to the defiant attitude of the Philippine insurgents about Manila Gen. Merritt has asked that his force of 20,900 American troops be increased to 50,400 as soon as possible to place him in a position to meet any ener-gency which may arise.

Gen. Garcia, it is said, has become a strong advocate of the annexation of Cuba to the United States. Fear of Negro domination has led to his comGET AWAY FROM SANTIAGO.

Gen. Shafter's Army Being Transported to Northern Camps.

Maj.-Gen. Shafter called a meeting of every commanding and medical officer of his corps at Santiago to consider the recommendation of the department that the army be moved to interior to a healthier location. Col. Roosevelt handed Gen. Shafter a letter in which he gave it as his opinion that if the army is kept in Cuba luring the next two months one half of the soldiers will die, as an epidemic of genuine yellow fever is sure to break out which would ruin. from the standpoint of military efficiency, the flower of the American army. While the sick list exceeds 4,000 it effords but a faint index of the debilitation of our forces. Not 10 per cent are fit for active work. Every shifting of the camp doubles the sick rate and, besides the coast is as healthy as the interior at this period. For these reasons Col. Roosevelt urged the immediate transportation of the army north. Following this a paper was signed by every American general officer present, stating, "This army must be moved at once, or perish. As the army can be safely moved now, the persons responsible for preventing such a move will be responsible for the un-necessary loss of thousands of lives." Gen. Shafter at once cabled this to Washington and a conference at the wasnington and a conference at the White House took action for the prompt transportation of the army from Cuba to the splendid camp at Montauk Point, L. I. The first thoops moved will be the five cavalry regi-ments, including the Rough Riders -

Troops Hurrying From Santiago Maj.-Gen. Shafter began to move his troops to the transports as soon as he received orders to send them a to more healthy camp at-Montauk Point, Long Island. There were six transports at Santiago at the time and they were ordered to discharge their cargoes and o get yeady without loss of time. Gen. Shafter's orders for the movement of his command provides the following program. The embarkation of the Third and Sixth regular cavalry, then the First regular cavalry and First vol-uniteer cavalry (Rough Riders) For the present the Ninth and Tenth cavalry will remain in camp. The First brigade of Gen. Lewton's division. under Gen. Chaffee, will go next.« The volunteer regiments will next be shipped in the following order: First Illi-nois, First District of Columbia, 71st NewsYork, Ninth Massachusetts, Seeond Massachusetis, Eighth Illinois, 23d Michigan, 34th Michigan.

THE WAR SITUATION.

Contracts have been let for a submarine cable telegraph from San Francisco to Hobolulu, the Ladrones, the Philippines and Hong Kong. It will ost S10.000.000 and is to be completed within six months.

The Spanish gunboat Levte surren lered voluntarily to Admiral Dewey at Manila. Lieuz Peral, the other, reported that he had come out of the l'ampangas river, having been beset on all sides by rebels, who had cut off all food supplies, and Spanish at Pampangas were starving. The Leyte had on heard a load of sick and wounded. Including many women. Admiral Dewey held them as prisoners of war unfil Manila's fate is decided. A considerable sum of money was found on board and Admiral Dewey ordered the offi cers and crew of the Leyte paid in fullout of it.

Gen. Miles has cabled that he has all the troops needed for the conquest of the island of Posto Rico. The retary of war, therefore, issued orders stopping the dispatch of reinforce-ments. This leaves all of Gen. Wade's provisional corps of 18 regiments still in the United States and also stopped the Third Kentucky and Fifth Illinois of Gen. Grant's brigade, which were about to embark on transports at Newport News, A large force of heavy artillery under Gen. Rödgers at Tampa was also about to embark, but ordered to be returned to the stations occupied before the war began.

THE MARKETS.

LIVE STOCK.

dvnamite

V

Richland is a village of 300 inhabitants situated near Gull lake, Kalamazoc county.

More Michigan Boys Die at Santiago Later additions to Michigan's death list are: Sergt. John Oliver, Iron Mountain, Co. E. 34th Michigan, consumption: Albert J. Chapman, Big Rapids, Co. A, 34th, malarial, fever and gastritis: Arthur Fesetter, Saginaw, Co. C, 33d, yellow fever.

Henry Kocster, jr., Negaunce, Co. L. 34th Michigan, malaria; Peter P.-Haan, Calumet, Co. D. 34th, malaria; Joseph Greiner, Calumet, Co. D. 34th, malaria; Geo. Martin, Escanaba, Co. L. 34th. nalaria; Peter L. Vanderpoen, Co. L 54th, malaria; Patrick Nealy, Co. F. 54th, yellow fever; Oven Thornton. Co. B. 34th, yellow fever; Corp. M. C. Nottingham, Co. M. 23d, scute menin-gitis; Thos. V. Jilbert, Co. D. 34th, malaria; Dallas Tannay, Co. K. 34th. malaria; A. J. Grills, Co. H. 34th. typhoid: Frank J. Muck. Co. D. 34th typhoid and gastric fever.

A new postoffice has been established at Goodwell, Newsygo county, with Mary J. Seward as postmaster.

Maj. H. H. Bandholtz has arrived at Camp Eaton from Santiago and taken command of the third battalion, 35th Michigan.

Benj. E. Rolph. Co. F. 32d Michigan. who died of fever at Fernandina, was given a soldier's burial at his former home at Coldwater.

The remains of John Hiland, Co. D 84th Michigan, who was overcome by heat at Camp Alger, were sent to Calmmet for interment

Other members of the associa tion presented papers on kindred sub-jects. Games, boat rides, trolley party, dancing and a banquet were a part of the programme for the entertainment of the delegates.

THE NEWS CONDENSED.

It is reported that the prince of Wales will visit the United States and Canada next year.

The monitor Monterey and three transports which were delayed at Honolulu, have arrived at Manila. Cleveland capitalists have organized a $500,000 company to manufacture smokeless powder and have contracts to furnish, the government 10,000 pounds each week.

Capt. Casper F. Goodrich, of the auxiliary cruiser St. Louis has been or-dered to the command of the Newark, Commodore Watson's new flagship, to succeed Capt. Albert S. Barber, who has been transferred to the battleship Oregon on account of the illness of Capt. Charles E. Clark-

Trustworthy estimates place the 1898 wheat yield at the highest in the history of the United States.

Washington: The Fifth Illinois, which was formerly a part of Gen. Grant's brigade and was replaced by the 160th Indiana.

Brig.-Gen. John S. Poland died at Asheville, N. C., of fever contracted at Chickamauga. When the war began with Spain Poland was colonel of the 17th U. S. Infantry at Columbus, O. He was a graduate of West Point; served with distinction through the civil war and had been in the army

States and a state of the states continuously ever since.

The Hawaiian commission, composed f Senator Cullom, of Illinois; Senato Morgan, of Alabama, and Rep. Hitt. of Illinois, has sailed from San Francisco for Honolulu on the steamer Mariposa. In their work on the islands the com missioners will be joined by Sanford B. Dole, president of the Hawaiian republic, and Judge Freer, of the Hawaiian supreme court as members of the commission.

Capt. Clark, of the battleship Oregon, has been invalided and ordered home to recuperate. Capt. Barker, of the cruiser Newark, has been assigned to the command of the Oregon.

Spain and an assurance to be given that the lives and property of Spaniards will be protected from naval attack A dispatch from Madrid says: The government has received a dispatch from Capt.-Gen. Augusti, saving that he had heard of the disaster of Admiral Cervera's squadron, the capitulation of Santiago and the opening of peace negotiations. Gen. Augusti adds that he has improvised defenses, but his supare diminishings. The rifle a munition is daily decreasing and that for the mountain guns is about ex-hausted. The garrison is enteebled by daily losses, and it is only by valor and endurance of their suffering that the troops are able to repulse the enemy. Nevertheless, Gen. Augusti declares, the government must understand that valor will not alone suffice to hold the civy. There are limits to physical endurance, the troops have had no rest and no relief, and consequently under such circumstances it will be impossible to continue resistance unless support is received.

Capt. Charles D., Sigsbee, who comnanded the battleship Maine when she met her fate in Havana harbor, and vho has since commanded the auxiliary cruiser St. Paul since the war began, has been ordered to relieved Capi: John W. Philip of the command of the battleship Texas, now undergoing repairs at Brooklyn. Capt. Philip will be assigned to shore duty, probably the command of the Mare Island havy yard at San Francisco.

That extreme diplomatic tension ex-ists between St. Petersburg and Lon-don over the Chinese situation is generally admitted at London.

and, it is said, the large mujority of the white officers in the Cuban army are in favor of annexation. Acting upon recommendations of

Surgeon.-Gen. Sternberg the war department decided to abandon Camp Alger, near Washington, because of its unsanitary condition. The new camp is located near Manassas, Va., about 40 miles south of Washington and near the old Bull Run battlefield. The 20,000 troops at Camp Alger will march overland to the new camp

Secretary Long has announced that as soon as peace is declared he proposes to re-estabish the European and Pacific squadrons, retaining in the service some of the best auxiliary emisers and yachts which have been doing effective duty in Cuban waters. There is a prospect of the dispatch of strong reinforcements to Rear Admiral Dewey. and the secretary intends to attach to each station a force strong enough to demonstrate to foreign governments the ability of the United States to defend itself.

The talk of an extra session of conress being called to ratify the treaty of peace and formulate laws for the government of our newly acquired territory is somewhat premature. It is said that even with the terms of peace agreed to it would require two or three months to complete the formal treaty and as congress meets in regular session in December an extra session is unnecessary. As to the goverment of new territory, that will necessarily be under military rule for some time. Regimental canteens are disappear-

Detroit-ist grades....4 25(215) wer grades...3 09(240) Detroit-4,57 4.75 3.25 6 25 Cleveland— lest gratles....375@100 lower grades...301g365 5 50 4 00 . 4.0) 273 4 00 Cincinnati---Best grades...4 03 24 50 Lower grades...301 (40) 4 25 3 00 6 03 < 63 3 75 Pittsburg-Best grades.... 4 75 75 23 Lower grades...3 25 64 5) 4 75 6 00 4 25 4 20 4 00 GRAIN, ETC. Wheat, Corn. No 2 red No. 2 mix Oats, 2 white New York 32 7.32% 28/7 28 77@17% 70 170 3923914 Chicago 83 7.337 71@71% 71@:1% *Dotroit 35 (3) 26/2.26% Toledo 71@11% Cincinnati 75379% 240,21% 35 . 5. 25@25 312 71 Cleveland 70.72,70 25 225 Pittsburg 7 = 72 @72 3. 1814 34.7.36 Buffalo 72 672 2022 Buillaid 12672 136.28 2023 *Detroit=Hav, Na. 1 (inothy 39.3) per ton Potatoes, new Michigan, 45c per ho. Live Poultry, spring chickens, 2c ner h: fown 7% turkeys, 6c; ducks, 7c. Eggs, strictly fresh.72c per doz. Butter, dairy, 1c per ho; creanery, 10c.

C. G. Campbell's grain elevator and general store at Atlanta was totally destroyed by fire. Loss about $2,500; partially insured.

The first detachment of the Third brigade. First army corps, in command of Brig.-Gen. Fred D. Grant, consisting of six companies of the First Ken tucky, embarked on the transport Hudson at Newport News for Porto Rico The remainder of regiment and the Third Kentucky and 160th Indiana, with two batteries of Pennsylvania ing from Camp Thomas through the urtillery, are to follow as soon transpersistent work of wives and mothers. ports arrive.

YourLiver avverveveveververver Araanaraanaraanaanaanaa needs coaxing, not crowding. Dr. Ayer's Fills stand with-out a rival as a reliable medicine for liver complaint. They cure constipation, and they cure its consequences, piles.

biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, nausea, coated tongue, foul breath, bad taste, palpitation, nervousness, irrita-bility, and many other maladies that have their root in constipation. They are a specific for all diseases of the stomach and howels, and keep the body in a condition of sound health.

"I have used Ager's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."-JAMES QUINN, 90 Middle Street, Hartford, Conn.

Take Ayer's Pills

IRONING MADE EASY.

HAS MANY IMITATORS, BUT NO EQUAL. This Starch is prepared on scientific principles, by men who have had years of experience in fancy laundering. It restores old linen and summer dresses to their natural whiteness and imparts a beautiful and lasting finish. The only starch that is perfectly harmless. Contains no arsenic, alum or other injurious sobstance. Can be used even for a baby powder.

ASK YOUR GROCER FOR IT AND TAKE NO OTHER. ******

NEW KAVEN CONN. AN

STARCH

MANES-COLLARS AND CUTTS STIFF AND RICE AS WHEN FIRST BOUGHT IN MI

CREPARDIONIAURONA MEN.

THE POUND OF THIS STARCH WILL SO AS FAR AS A POUND AND A HALF OF ANY OTHER STARCH.

"J.C.HUBINGER BROS C?

P GREAT INVENTION

. 25 Free. Family Refrigerators to be teed from grad Built to Order, Lind with Odorfees Woo afty. Also a spectal line of Refrigerators LERS. Refrigerators of all kinds and s the FARMER. abits at the Offic State Fair, a State Fair, indianapolis, lilin MOCRAY REFRIGERATOR AND COLD STORAGE CONIPANY, 50 Mill St. Kendailville. Ind . U. S. A

THE UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME, NOTRE DAME, INDIANA.

FULLCOURSESINClassics Letters Science, Law, Clvii, Mechanical and Electrical Engi-neering: Thorough Preparatory and Commercial Rooms Free to all Students who have com

Senior Year, of any of the Col Determined and the second s

st. Mary's Academy, rsity of Notre Dame

ST. MARY'S ACADENTY for young hadles, now en-bering upon its forty-fourth year of active educa-tional work, has carned the zepuration of being one of the most thoroughly equipped and screessful

Don't think because a man loses his head he quits talking through his hat.

The Truman Moss Estate of Croswell, Mich., whose ad, appears in this issue, is the oldest firm in the real estate business in Michigan. They have large tracts of farming lands in the state and sell farms of liberal terms, buyers being allowed from 10 to 25 years in which to pay for same. It will pay you to write them for particulars.

The string a woman ties around her husband's finger is a forget-me-not Ordinary: household accidents have

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

HONESTY" THE SUBJECT MAT-TER LAST SUNDAY.

From the Text, I. Timothy, vi., 9: "They That Will Be Rich Fall Into a Temptation and a Snare, and Into Many Foolish and Burtful Insts"

That is the Niagara Falls over which rush a multitude of souls, namely the determination to have the money anyhow, right or wrong. Tell me how a man gets his money and what he does with it, and I will tell you his character and what will be him destiny in this world and the next. I propose to speak today about the ruinous modes of getting monay.

In all our city, state and national elections large sums of money are used in bribery. Politics, from being the science of good government, has often been draggled into the synonym for truculency and turpitude. A monster sin, plausible, potent, pestiferous, has gone forth to do its dreadful work in all ages. Its two hands are rotten with leprosy. It keeps its right hand hidden in a deep pocket. The left hand is clenched, and with its ichorous knuckle it taps at the door of the court-room the legislative hall, the congress and the parliament. The door swings open and the monster enters and glides through the aisle of the council chamber as softly as a slippered page, and then, it takes its right hand from its deep pocket and offers it in salutation to judge or legislator. If that hand be taken; and the palm of the intruder cross the palm of the official the leprosy crosses from palm to palm in a round blotch, round as a gold eagle, and the virus spreads and the doom is fixed and the victim perishes. Let bribery, accursed of God and man, stand up for trial

The Bible arraigns it again and again. Samuel says of his two sons, again. Samuel says of his two spins, who became judges, "They took bribes" and perverted judgspent." David, says of some of his pursuers, "Their right hand is full of bribes." Amos says of some men in his day, "They take a bribe and turn aside the poor in the Eliphaz foretells the crushing gate." blows of God's indignation, declaring, "Fires shall consume the tabernacles of bribery."

It is no light temptation. The might. lest have fallen under it. Lord Bacon; Lord Chancellor of England, tounder of our medern science, author of "Novum Organum," and a whole Ubrary of books, the leading thinker of his century, so precocious that when a little child he was asked by Queen Elizabeth. "How old are you?" he respond-I am two years younger than your Majesty's happy reign;" of whose ora-tory Ben Jonson wrote, "The fear of man that heard him was lest he overv should make an end;" having an income which you would suppose would have put him beyond the temptation of brihery-thirty-six thousand dollars a year, and Twickenham Court, a-gift, and princely estates in Hertfordshireyet under the templation to bribery. falling flat into ruin, and on his confession of taking bribes, as excuse that all his predecessors took them; he was fined two hundred thousand dollars-or what corresponds with our two hun-dred thousand dollars and imprisoned in London Tower.

The black chapter in English, Irish, French and American politics is the chapter of bribery. Sonre of you re-member the Pacific mail subsidies. Most of you remember the awful tragedy of the Credit Mabilier. Under the temptation to bribery Benedict Arnold sold the fort in the Highlands for $31-575. For this sin Gorgey betrayed Hungary Ahithopel forsook David and Judas kissed Christ. When I see so many of the illustricus going down unthis temptation it makes me think of the red dragon spoken of in Revelation, with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns, drawing a third part of the stars of heaven down after him. The lobbies of the Legislatures of this country control the country. The land is drunk with bribery! "Oh," says some one, " "there's no need of talking

Those women who complain that they are very often insulted, need to under tand that there is something in their carriage to invite insult. There are men at Albany, and at Harrisburg, and at Washington, who would no more be approached by a bribe than a pirate boat with a few cutlasses would dare to attack a British man-of-war with two banks of guns on each side loaded o the touch-hole. They are incorruptible men, and they are the few men who. are to save the city and save the land. Meanwhile, my advice is, keep out of politics unless you are invulnerable to this style of temptation. Indeed, if even you are naturally strong, you need religious buttressing. Nothing but the grace of God can sustain our public. men and make them what we wish. wish there might come an old-fashoned revival of religion, that it-might reak out in congress and the legislatures and bring many of the leading Republicans and Democrats down on the anxious seat of repentance. That day will come, or something better, for the Bible declares that kings and queens shall become nursing fathers and mothers to the church: and if the greater in authority, then certainly the less. My charge also, to parents is, member that this evil of bribery often begins in the home circle, and in the lursery. Do not bribe your children. reach them to do that which is right, and not because of the ten cents or the orange which you will give them. There is a great difference between rewarding virtue and making the profits thereof the impelling motive. That becaus man who is honest merely 'honesty is the best policy" is already a moral bankrupt.

My charge is to you, in all depart ments of life, steer clear of bribery all of you. Every man and woman at some time will be tempted to do wrong for compensation. The bribe may not be offered in money. It may be offered in social position. Let us remember that there is a day coming when the most secret transaction of private life and of public life, will come up for reprehension: . In any community there may be some who have misappropriated trust funds. Put them back, or, if you have so hopelessiv involved them that you care not put them back; confess the whole thing to those whom you have wronged, and you will sleep better nights, and you will have the beater chance for your soul. What a sad thing it would be if, after you are dead. administrator should find out from the account-books, or from the lack of youghers that you were not only bankrupt in estate, but that you lost your soul! A blustering young man arrived at a hotel in the West, and he saw a man on the sidewalk whom he supposed to be a laborer, and in a rough way, as no. man has a right to address a laborer, said to him, "Carry this trunk up-stairs." The man cairied the trunk upstairs and came down, and then the young man gave him a quarter of a dollar which was clipped, and instead of being twenty-five ceuts it was worth only twenty cents. Then the young man gave his card to the laborer and said, "You take this up to Governor Then the young Grimes: I want to see him." "Ah." said the laborer, "I. am Governor Grimes." "Oh." said the young man, "you-I-excuse me." Then the governor said: 'I was much impressed by the letter you wrote me asking for a certain office in my cift, and 7 had made up my mind you should have it: but a yours man who will cheat a laborer out of five cents would swindle the government of the state if he got his hands on it. I don't want you. Good morning, sir."

I do not suppose there was ever a better specimen of honesty than was found in the Duke of Weilington. He marched with his army over the French frontier, and the army was suffering, and he scarcely knew how to get along. Plenty of plunder all about, but he commanded none of the nlunder to be taken. He writes home these remarkable words "We are overwhelmed with debts, and I can scarcely stir out of my house on ac- friend was deeply impressed, but when I told him later the facts in the case

I am glad that some one has set to music that scene in August, 1881; when a young girl saved from death a whole rail train of passengers. Some of you remember that out West in that year on a stormy night a hurricane blew down part of a railroad bridge. A freight train came along and it crashed into the ruin, and the engineer and conductor perished. There was a girl living in her father's cabin near the disaster, and she heard the crash of the freight train, and she knew that in a few moments an express was due. She lighted a lantern and clambered up on the one beam of the wrecked bridge on to the main bridge, which was trestle work, and started to cross amid the thunder and the lightning of the tempest, and the raging of the torrent beneath. One misstep and it would have been death. Amid all that horror the lantern went out. Crawling sometimes, and sometimes walking over the slippery rails, and over the trestle work, she came to the other side of the river. She wanted to get to the telegraph station, where tbe express train did not stop, so that the danger might be telegraphed to the station where the train did stop. The train was due in a few minutes. She was one mile off from the telegraph straion, but fortunately the train was With cut and bruised feet she late flew like the wind. Coming up to the telegraph station, panting with almost deadly exhalistion, she had only strength to shout, the bridge is down!" when she dropped unconscious, and could hardly be resuscitated. The nessage was sent from that station to the next station, and the train halted, and that night that brave girl sayed the lives of hundreds of passengers, and sayed many homes from descla But every street is a track, tion and every style of business is a track, and every day is a track, and every hight is a track, and multitudes under the power of temptation come sweeping on and sweeping down toward perfls raging and terrific. God help us to go out and stop the train! Let us throw some signal. Let us give some warning. By the throne of God let us flash some influence to stop the downward progress- Beware! The bridge is down the Beware! chasm is deep, and the lightnings of God set all the night of sin on fire with this warning "He that, being aften reproved, hardeneth his neck, stall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy."

A Stay-at-Home Traveler. "There is," said the man from Boston, a very curious person over in Boston, He is a man now 43 years of age, and he has never been away_from Boston: In early life he developed a strong tendency for travel, and with this end in view he would plan a trip four months ahead to Norway. Then he would go to the Boston atheneum and look up dafa relating to Norway three languages and then for four nonths he would saturate himself with Norway until it came time to go. Then he would argue that it was uscless it go to the trouble and expense of going to a place about which he knew so much and he would set about planning another trip with the same results. As he not only read all the books relating to the spots to which he intended to go but carried on a voluminous correspondence with travclers, geographical societies and explorers throughout the world, he has collected a perfect encyclopedia of in formation about countries other than his own. Mentally be has traversed the habitable globe, yet physically he has never been outside of Boston. I once introduced him to a friend of mine who had just come from shooting elehants in Africa. Why, the home traveler knew more about elephant shootng in a minute than the man who had just come from killing elephants did. He corrected him as to the proper price to be paid beaters, and as to the right kind of rifle to use and then said that he agreed with Cant. So-and-So of the British army that a particular rifle was the best at a certain distance, although at close range he must say that he did agree with M M M-, the eminent - the eminent French explorer, who said, etc. friend was deeply impressed, but when

BEAUTIFUL HOMES. Tendency of the Age Is Toward

The:

Maral Decorstions, Brobably at no time in the world's history has so zauch attention been paid to the interior discontation of homes as at present. No home, no matter how humble, is without its han diwork that helps to besutify the apart-ments and make the surroundings more cheerful. The tasts of the American people has kept pace with the age and almost every day brings forth something new in the way of a picture, a draping, a piece of furniture of form of mural decoration. One latest of these has been given to the world by the celebrated artist. Muville, world by the celebrated artist, Muville, in a series of four handsome porcelaim game plaques. Not for years has any-thing as handsome in this line been seen. The subjects represented by these plaques are American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant, American Quait and English Snipe. They are handsome paintings and are especially designed for hanging an dispersion designed for hanging on dining-room walls though their richness and beauty entities them to a place in the parlor of any home. These original plaques have been purchased at a cost of $50,-006 by J. C. Hubinger Bros. Co. manutacturers of the celebrated Elastie Starch, and in order to enable their numerous customers to become posses-cors of these handsome works of art they have had them reproduced by special process in all the rich colors and beauty of the original. They are inished, on heavy cardboard, pressed and embossed in the shape of a plaque and trimmed with a field of gold. They measure forty inches in circumscrence and contain no freading matters or advertisement whatever, Until September 1st Messrs, J. C. Hahinger Bros. Co. propose to distribute these plaques free to their customers. Every purchaser of three ten-cent pack-ages of Elastic Starch, flat-from brand, manufactured by J. C. Hubinger Bros. Co. is entitled to receive one of these Co. is entitled to receive one of these handsome plaques free from their gro-cer. Old and new customers alike are entitled to the befrefits of this offer. These plaques will not be sent through the mail, the only way to obtain them being from your grocer. Every grocery store in the country has Flastic Starch for sale. It is the oldest and best laundry starch on the market, and us the most perfect cold process starch ever inverted. It is the only starch made, by men who thoroughly under-stand the laundry business, and the only starch that will not injure the finest fabric. It has been the standard for est habit. It has been the summard host a quarter of a century, and as an evi-dence of how good it is twenty-two million packages were sold last year. Ask your dealer, to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute. Bear in mind that this offer holds good a short time only had should be taken advantage of without delay.

THE BEST DICTIONARY.

What World's Best Scholars Say AbonD the Standard.

The Sunday School Times, Philadelphia, Pa., May 11, 1895; "Continual use of the first volume, since its issue, bas shown the work to be a weighty, thorough, fich, accurate, authoritative, and convenient addition to lexico-graphical material. The collaborative method reaches high water mark, and produces =bold, original, independent, and scholarly results."

Notes and Querles, London, April 19, 1895: "So far as the English language is concerned, it may claim to be the most ambitious and comprehensive yet given in its integrity to the world. The work is all that it pretends to be, a splendid bequest to the English-speak-ing races. The book is the most valuable and the most convenient work in its class extant."

The Scotsman, Edinburgh, April 1, 1895: "Different dictionaries suit dif-ferent sorts of men and different sorts of libraries; but it is not rash to say that the man or library which owns the Standard need not have any other."

William J. Milne, president of New York State Normal College, June 5, 1895: "It defines every word with such discrimination and thoroughness that the keenest scholars in philosophy, sci-ence, literature, art, will find in it the most lucid, accurate, and comprehens-ive definitions to be found anywhere."

J. G. Fitch, LL,D., Department of Education, London, Eng., March 25,

| institutions in the United States. The Academybuildings are beautifully situated on an eminence                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | no terrors when there's a bottle of Dr.                                                          | lars, because every man has his price."                                                  | demand what is due to them." Yet                                                                                              | he was most indignant."-N. Y. Mail                                           | 1895: "The book bears throughout                                                   |   |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---|
| buildings are beautifully situated on an eminenceover-looking the pictures are banks of the St. JosephEiver. All the branches of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Thomas' Eclectric Oil in the medicine                                                            | The net holigitality Even boothoniam                                                     | at the very time the French peasantry                                                                                         | and Express.                                                                 | abundant evidence of care and thought                                              | • |
| A Thorough English and                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | chest. Heals burns, cuts, braises, sprains. Instant relief.                                      | and the Dark Ages have, furnished                                                        | were bringing their valuables to him                                                                                          |                                                                              | and scholarship. I cannot doubt that                                               | 1 |
| Classical Education                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | sprains. Instant renei.                                                                          | specimens of incorruptibility. A cadi                                                    | to keep. A celebrated writer says of                                                                                          | Grumbling at One's Self.                                                     | it will be accepted as an authority of the                                         |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | The absent are never without fault                                                               | of Smyrna had a case brought before                                                      |                                                                                                                               | Don't be deceived. In grumbling at:yourself you may be really complain-  | highest rank in the department of phil-                                            |   |
| including Greek, Latin, French and German are,taught by a Faculty of competent teachers. On com-pleting the full course of studies students receive                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | nor the present without excuse.                                                                  | him on trial. A man gave him five hun-                                                   | grander or more nobly original than                                                                                           | ing against God and against His per-                                         | ology."                                                                            |   |
| the                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                  | dred ducais in bribery. The case came                                                    | this admission. This old soldier, after-                                                                                      | missive, if not His active, providence.                                      | 🕐 se                                           |   |
| Regular Collegiate Degree of                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Itching piles? Never mind if every-                                                              | on. The briber had many witnesses.                                                       | thirty years' service, this iron man                                                                                          | Moreover, growling at yourself only                                          | The Engineer and Iron Trades Adver-                                                |   |
| Litt. B. A. B. or A. M.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | thing else failed to cure you. Try                                                               | The near man on the other side                                                           | and victorious general, established in                                                                                        | keeps up in you the spirit of complain-                                      | tiser, Glasgow, April 4, 1895: "Taken                                              |   |
| The Conservatory of Music is conducted on                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Doan's Ointment. No failure there.                                                               | had no witnesses. At the close                                                           | an enemy's country at the head of an                                                                                          | ing. What right have you to murmur                                           | altogether, the sum total is, the Stand-                                           |   |
| The Conservatory of Music is conducted onthe plan of the best Classical Conservatories of Eu-rope. Three instrumental lessons, and one in theory,weekly, are included in the regular taition; extra                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 50 cents, at any drug store.                                                                     | of the case the cadi said:                                                               | immense army, is afraid of his cred-                                                                                          | against yourself any more than                                               | ard Dictionary is without a peer. It is                                            |   |
| weekly, are included in the regular tuition; extra                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Hush money usually speaks for both                                                               | "This poor man-has no witnesses, he                                                      | itors! This is a kind of fear that has                                                                                        | against others and against God?                                              | a distinct gain to literature, to science,                                         |   |
| practice pro rate.The Art Department is modelled after the best                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | parties in the transaction.                                                                      |                                                                                          | seldom troubled conquerors and in-                                                                                            | Are you sure that these groun-                                               | And to education."                                                                 |   |
| Art Schoold in-Europe.Preparatory and Minim Departments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                  | five hundred witnesses against the                                                       | vaders, and I doubt if the annals of                                                                                          | ings against yourself are not so many                                        | See display advertisement of how to                                                |   |
| Pupils who need primary training, and those of ten-                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | COSMO BUTTERMILK TOILET SOAP                                                                     | other side." Then pulling out the bag                                                    |                                                                                                                               | valves by which you ventilate a com-                                         | obtain the Standard Dictionary by                                                  |   |
| Art School in Europe.Treparatory and Minim DepartmentsPupla who need primary training, and those of ten-der age, are here carefully prepared for the Academic Gourse and Advanced Course                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | makes the skin soft, white and healthy.Sold everywhere.                                      | of ducats from under the ottoman, he                                                     |                                                                                                                               | plaining disposition that dares not                                          | making a small payment down, the re-                                               |   |
| demic Course and Advanced Course.Book-keeping. Phonography and Typewriting ex-tra. Every variety of Fancy Needlework taught.For catalogue containing full information, address                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Sold Bvery where                                                                                 | dashed it down at the feet of the briber.                                                | Oh! is it not high time that we                                                                                               | ventilate itself on God. on others, on                                       | mainder in installments.                                                           | ł |
| For catalogue containing fuil information, address                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | Patrictism begins at home, but does                                                              | saying, "I give my decision against                                                      | preach the morals of the Gospel right                                                                                         | your circumstances? Can you not and                                          |                                                                                    |   |
| DIRECTRESS OF THE ACADEMY,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | not end there.                                                                                   | you." Epaminondas offered a bribe,                                                       | beside the faith of the Gospel? Mr.                                                                                           | some better business than finding fault                                      | Tours in the Rocky Mountains.                                                      |   |
| St. Marv's Academy.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                                                                                  | said, "I will do this thing if it be right,                                              | Froude, the celebrated English histo-                                                                                         | even with yourself? Try repentance,                                          | The "Scenie Line of the World" the                                                 |   |
| · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | To Cure Constipution Forever,                                                                    | and if it be wrong, all your goods can-                                                  | rian, has written of his own country                                                                                          | reform, regeneration, entire sanctifica-                                     | Denver & Rio Grande Railroad, offers                                               |   |
| NOTRE DAME P. O., INDIANA.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | Take Cascarets Candy Cathartie. 10c or 25c.If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money. | not persuade me."                                                                        | these remarkable words: "From the                                                                                             | tion-anything but growlingEx.                                                | to tourists in Colorado, Utah and NewMexico the choicest resorts, and to the = |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  | The President of the American Con-                                                       | great house in the city of London io.                                                                                         |                                                                              | trans-continental traveler the grandest                                            |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 00000000000000                                                                                   | gress during the American Revolution.                                                    | the village grocer, the commercial life                                                                                       | Praise, Honor and Respect.                                                   | scenery. Two separate and distinct                                                 |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | A                                                                                                | General Reed, was offered ten thou-                                                      | of Fogland has been saturated with                                                                                            | Praise, honor and respect-these are                                          | routes through the Rocky Monntains.                                                |   |
| X X                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                                                  | sand guineas by foreign commissioners                                                    | fraud. So deep has it gone that a                                                                                             | sweet to all men. It is not surprising                                       | all through tickets available via either.                                          |   |
| Remember the name                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 📽 Remember the name 📽                                                                            | It he would betray his country. He re-                                                   | strictly honest tradesman can hardly                                                                                          | to us that they are sweet to the man                                         | The direct line to Cripple Creek, the                                              |   |
| 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | (B) (B) (B)                                                                                      | plied: "Gentlemen, I am a very poor                                                      | hold his ground against competition.                                                                                          | who deserves them. They are the re-                                          | greatest gold camp on earth. Doubledaily train service with through Pull-      |   |
| 🔮 when you buy 💆                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | 🚱 when you buy 🧕                                                                                 | man, but tell your King he is not rich                                                   | You can no longer trust that any arti-                                                                                        | wards of noble action, high character,                                       | man sleepers and tourists' cars between                                            |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  | enough to buy me." But why go so far,                                                    | cle you buy is the thing which it pre-                                                                                        | real worth. As the laborer is proud                                          | Denver and San Francisco.                                                          |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  | when you and I, if we move in honor-                                                     | tends to be. We have false weights.                                                                                           | and happy at the close of the day to                                         | The best line to Utah, Idaho, Mon-                                                 |   |
| again 🦉                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | again 🥨                                                                                          | able society, know men and women                                                         | false measures, cheating, and shod-                                                                                           | receive his wages, feeling that he has                                       | tana, Oregon and Washington via the                                                |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  | who by all the forces of earth and hell                                                  | dy everywhere. And yet the clergy                                                                                             | earned what he receives and that it                                          | "Ogden Gateway."                                                                   | 3 |
| again agai |                                                                                                  | could not be bribed. They would no                                                       | have seen all this grow up in absolute                                                                                        | is all his own, and honorably his own,                                       | Write S. K. Hoover, G. P. & T. A.,Denver, Colo., for illustrated descrip-      |   |
| skattleAkkes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | BattleAx+ S                                                                                      | more be bribed than you would think                                                      | indifference. Many hundreds of ser-                                                                                           | so the man who has, and knows he has,                                        | tive pamphlets.                                                                    |   |
| X CLIGH AAA                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                  | of tempting an angel of light to ex-                                                     | mons have I heard in England on the                                                                                           | the honor and respect of the commun-                                         |                                                                                    |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  | change heaven for the pit. To offer a                                                    | divine mission of the clergy, on bish-                                                                                        | ity, and who receives the praise of his                                      | Life is a crazy guilt arrangement in                                               |   |
| 2 PLUG X                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                  | bribe is villainy, but it is a very poor                                                 | ops, and on justification, and the theory                                                                                     | friends, and knows it is justly his, can                                     | flesh and blood,                                                                   | 7 |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                  |                                                                                          |                                                                                                                               | I was here he date hered                                                     |                                                                                    |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | S PLUC S                                                                                         | compliment to the man to whom it is                                                      | of good works, and verbal inspiration.                                                                                        | not but be delighted.                                                        | Concept is superior to small enman                                                 |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | X PLUG X                                                                                         | offered.                                                                                 | and the efficacy of the sacraments; but                                                                                       | · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·                                        | Conceit is superior to small envies                                                |   |
| s Š                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | ă ă ă                                                                                            | offered.Thave not much faith in those people                                         | and the efficacy of the sacraments; butduring all these thirty wonderful years,                                           | If some men were to accuse them-                                             | and jealousies.                                                                    |   |
| 5 09666868 08                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Sessessesses                                                                                     | offered.I have not much faith in those peoplewho go about bragging how much they | and the efficacy of the sacraments; butduring all these thirty wonderful years,never one that I can recollect on com- | If some men were to accuse them-selves of being liars, lots of their ac- | and jealousies.Fools are too unique and bizarre to                             |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | ă ă ă                                                                                            | offered.Thave not much faith in those people                                         | and the efficacy of the sacraments; butduring all these thirty wonderful years,never one that I can recollect on com- | If some men were to accuse them-                                             | and jealousies.                                                                    |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | ă ă ă                                                                                            | offered.I have not much faith in those peoplewho go about bragging how much they | and the efficacy of the sacraments; butduring all these thirty wonderful years,never one that I can recollect on com- | If some men were to accuse them-selves of being liars, lots of their ac- | and jealousies.Fools are too unique and bizarre to                             |   |
|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | ă ă ă                                                                                            | offered.I have not much faith in those peoplewho go about bragging how much they | and the efficacy of the sacraments; butduring all these thirty wonderful years,never one that I can recollect on com- | If some men were to accuse them-selves of being liars, lots of their ac- | and jealousies.Fools are too unique and bizarre to                             |   |

The Northvill e Record: Friday, August 12, 1898.

Speaking about Baking Powder!

Chicago Yeast SELLS 25c

As there is no better Baking and evening. Powder than these brands you of them all carry on a funeral, or fun the town offices.—Adrian Press Miss Cora Tickner of Walled Lake was in town Tuesday afternoon to attend the funeral of Mrs. John Perkins.

Choice 10c. C. E. Goodell. NOVI. TELEPHONE.

RIGIO COLORIO a a a contra a l

made at any price, we offer auspices of the Novi Gun club is in progress today. The very pretty program invitations sent out by the lub have been flatteringly commented upon by those fortunate enough o receive one. They were in the hape of a folder, printed with bronze blue link upon yellow bond paper. The artistic job was the work of the Record Printery.

Another Old Settler Gone.

Novi News.

NEIGHBORHOOD

Mrs. Heck is visiting in Ohio. Mrs. C. E. Goodell is on the sick list.

Willie Austin is under the doctor's căře.

Mrs. Ella Spencer is visiting at Pinckney. The Orchard-Lake campers have returned home. The carpenters have begun work on the schoolhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dunham spent Monday at Milford.

Fred Duries is entertaining his sister, Miss Emile Duriee. Mark Coonly of Petroit is visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. L. Becker,

The Cheerful Workers will meet with Miss Lulu Becker Saturday. Miss Ida Hayden of Massachusetts is visiting her uncle. D. C. Dunham Mr. and Mrs. C. Beardsley of Detroit were guests at W. West's this week. Miss Cora Hake is visiting friends and relatives at Pontiac this week. The West Novi Junior club met with Rov Hammond last Monday night. Messrs. Byron Power and James Clark of Millord were Novi allers last week

The ball game between Novi and South Lyon resulted in a score favorable to Novi.

The Misses Perigo of Owosso and Mrs. Pratt of Walled Lake visited Nettie Richardson last Eriday. Mr. Babrock, wife and daughter of Detroit were in town Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Perkins.

Wm. VanVleet and family and the Misses Marshall and Tibbitts are spending the week in a cottage at Straits lake.

The Baptist and Methodist Sunday schools hold their annual pienic to day in Mr. Chapman's orchard, Walled Lake.

There are five or six of our Novi girls who are making arrangements to attend the Northville High-school the coming school year

Argonaut club met with Mr. and Mrs. Jud Richardson last week Thursday night. Although many members were absent, they did not fall to participate in their usual pleasant and profitable time.

Mrs. Frank Rice's music class held

Rev. J. B. Reynolds of New York reached in the Baptist church last Sunday, morning and evening - He came a-wheel to Michigan, landing at Wixom. He was one sent to us and Goodell's brand sets 10c many friends of Rev. J. Ward Stone will be glad to know that he will fill the pulpit next Sunday morning

A shooting tournament under the Novi, Mich., August 10, 1898 .- (Staff lor.)-After an illness: of four years the last fifteen months of which was spentinentire helplessness, Mrs. John Perkins passed to a christian's rest last Saturday evening. She was born in York state in 1822 and came to Novi in 1838. When the Baptist church was organized here in 1843 she was one of the charter members. In 1813 she was united in marriage to John Perkins, who with one daugh ter. Stella, and a brother, Calvin Graves, of this place still survive her. Another daughter, Olive Bab cock died 27 years ago. Her illness was challacterized by a deep and patient faith=n Christ. The funeral ervices were held at the residence Tuesday alternoon, Rev. Mr. Tickner officiating. Many were the floral offerings and kind acts of neighbors and friends who sympathize with thể bereaved. A. M.

Wixom News.

Miss Olive Wixom of Novi is at the arsonage this week. Miss Linna Fuller of Howell is isiting relatives here. Misses Minnie Major and Etta Burch of Milford visited friends here last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Merithew visited er brother and wife last Thursday und Friday.

Rev. Mr. Roblyson, our pastor, has esigned his pastorate and expects to eave early in October. Mrs. B. D. Burch returned Saturday romher visit at Adrian, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Smith.

Lightning gave Mr. Erwin a close call Monday afternoon, by striking the corner of the bay-window.

Prof. Bailey of Coldwater, and Mr. Holland, a teacher at Cambria, Hills dale county, were guests at the par onage last week

Mrs. Robert Bialy of Bay City and Mrs. Levi P. Larcom of West Bay City are being entertained at the home of Mrs. C. P. Larcom this week The entertainment last week Wednesday night was well attended, conidering the unpleasantness of the evening. The proceeds amounted to $6.60.

Mrs. Swartout of New Hudson, a niece of Mrs. Frank Heath, died Sunday morning and her four-daysold baby boy died soon-after. The uneral occurred Tuesday.

Second-hand wheels can be bought at Chambers. Bros.'. At least, one a picnic in Randall Chapman's or- has been bought, so I am informed chard at the foot of Walled lake last and perhaps more can be, Quite an

RADE Pays

Inventory Nearly Complete

and I find more stock than I expected, and more short lengths and remnants than I propose to keep; therefore, Saturday I commence a sale on all short lengths and small lots. Now is your time to pick up many useful articles. Lots of goods at a great saving to your purse.

Our present sale has been a hummer of a success in moving lots of goods and I continue the sale for one S week, adding all short lengths and remnants. This sale ends the evening of August 19. On August 20 will go out of business or add 5 years more. Watch the Record next week.

As ever your business friend.

UYNNYNYNYNY

Salem News.

Miss Fannie Burnett is attending he summer school of the U. of M. Quite a crowd of Salem people tool n the Port Huron excursion Tuesday. The Misses Robins of Howell hav been calling on Salem friends this Mrs. Peter Coldren of Northville has been cailing on Salem friends the past week. Mrs. C. H. Coldren entertained a ew of her lady friends at tea las Wednesday. Mrs. O. A. Sober of Superior called on her sister; Mrs. Cody Burnett, one day last week. Miss Grace Wilson of Walled Lake is visiting her sister. Mrs. Will Rider and other Salem friends this week.

The Mesdames W. B. and J. N Thompson of Peebles Corners wer guests of Mrs. H. B. Thayer at-dinner on Thursday. The Salem Farmers' Club had a Farmington News.

J. B. Pettibone and wife are entertaining friends Mrs. T. H. McGee is entertaining lend from Saginaw. Mrs. Cetella Murray is encamp at Walled lake this week. Will Way of Detroit is the guest o is cousin, Lewis Thayer. Mrs. B. B. Mosher has returned from her New Hudson visit. Those who did Niagara Falls las week highly enjoyed the trip.

Frank Brown of Northville was Farmington caller on Saturday last. Benry Skinner of Novi was a Farmington caller last week Friday Dr. Shler, presiding elder, preached n the Methodist church Sunday norning. Mrs. Lucinda Webster left Monday or an extended visit with her son Will in Chicago. Miss Louisa VanMeter of Detroit is spending a few days at the home of Rev. D. M. Ward. J.L. Hogle and family are enter taining Mrs Walker Brown and Miss alice DuBois of Detroit. M. A. Gray and wife of La Grange ere the guests of R. E. Wolfe and family a part of last week. Miss Lizzle Dallass and niece, famle Dallass of Philadelphia, Pa., re visiting Mrs. Anna Ely. Mrs. Oscar Harger of Detroit is spending a few days at their summer esidence west of the village. Fred Follett and Miss Maude Ed wards spent Sunday at the home of Miss Jennie Comstock in Southfield.

Miss Jennie L. White and her guests Mr. and Mrs. (L.A. White of Davison, were at Orchard lake one day last veek

Mrs. W. H. Lloyd, who has been naving her eyes treated in Saginaw, has returned home somewhat im proved.

J. P. HHES, E. S. Pettibone, Joseph Graham and their families, and Miss fannie Jackson spent Sunday at Belle Isle.

Mrs. A. W. Holbrook and daughter Grace of Belleville have returned home after a few days' visit with Farmingon friends.

Epworth League devotional meeting next Sunday evening will be con-ducted by E. M. Moore. Subject: Helping others."

Mrs. E.C. Grace and daughter Lulu were Pontiac visitors Monday. Culu will remain for a two weeks' visit at he home of her uncle, J. J. Green Miss Lulu Hardenberg of Detroit who has been visiting her grand-parents, Jas. P. Allen and wife, and other relatives, returned home Tues lay.

Miss Charlotte Ada -Wolfe will egin teaching school in what is mown as the White district on the Base line, September 5. May succes attend her:

Clyde White, editor of the Davison Gazette, who has been visiting his grandfather, M. Augustus White, and other relatives, has returned home leaves Detroit, at 6:30 p.m. Bicycles His wife will spend a few days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fuller at Northville.

For broken surfaces, sores, insect bites, burns, skin disenses and espec-lally piles, there is one reliable remedy. De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. When you call for DeWitt's don't accept consterfeits or frauds. You will not be disappointed with DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Murdock Bros.

Harvest Excursion to Detroit. The F. & P. M. R. R. will run a spe cial train to Detroit Friday August 26. Train leaves Wixom at 8:15 a.m. iare .90. Novi 8:24. fare .75; Northville 8:32, fare for adults .65, children .40;

ns<sup>3</sup>'sent free. John Sebastian, G. P. A., Chicago. train leaves Detroit at 6:25 p. m.

BURGLAR EPIDEMIC.

Oakland County Is Thus Sorely Afflicted.

An organized gang of burglars seems to be operating in Oakland county and vicinity. Last week several places at Milford, Farmington and White Lake were entered and small amounts taken. Howell and Brighton were also visited at about the same time and the evidence is that it was the work of the same gang. Officers of the county are at work upon the case but so far have received no clue.

of cod liver oil with hypophosphiles will certainly help you. Almost everyone can take it, and it will not disturb the weakest stomach. It changes the light color of poor blood to a healthy and rich red. It nourishes the brain; gives power to the nerves. It brings back your old weight and strength. All Druggists. 50c. and $1. DUTL & DOWNE, CHEMISIS, MEW TOTE.

đ

asneneñeñenenenenenenenenen Go_to Woodman & Cray for your

SALT and Meats. Fresh Fish received every Thurs

v evening.

Give us a Trial. Telephone 51.

Woodman & Cray, Jake Miller's old stand, 75 Center St., NORTHVILLE. ienenenenenenenenenenenenen

Looks Like Linen!

Shirts and Collars, when properly-laundried, look like linen-not like celluloid. We do the Linen way and they last much longer tco-

Wagons call for and deliver.

THE

Peerless Steam Laundry 50 Main St., Northville. F. B. MACOMBER, Proprietor.

F. & P. M. Detroit Excursion.

The F. & P. M. Rv. will run special train to Detroit, Sunday, August 14. Train leaves Wixom at 9:16 a.m.; Novi 9:25; Northville 9:33; Plymouth 9:40. Fare for the round trip, 50 cents. Returning, train and baby cabs free.

The Finest Train in The West, via The Great Rock Island Route-

The Rocky Mountain Limited, fast and superbly equipped, leaves Chicago daily at 4:30 p. m. and arrives at Denver and Colorado Springs at 8:00 p.m. next day. This train is new, built expressly for Colorado service and is the best in the field for the tourist and business man enroute to the Rocky Mountain resorts and ities. Write for nandsome descru tive book "Manitou and the Mountains" sent free.

|              | was photographed and the picturewill always serve as a reminder of                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                          | large and enthusiastic meeting at thehome of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Don-                                                                                                                                                           |                                                                                                                                      |
|--------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|              | the event.                                                                                                                                    |                                                                                                                                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | .caaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa                                                                                               |
| т.з      | The Novites who attended theentertainment at Samuel Lamb'slast week Wednesday night reporta "decided success" socially as well as | Miss Hattie Milner of South Lyonis visiting Mrs. Ephraim Burch.                                                                                                      | a six weeks' trip through Illicols,Iowa, Nebraska and Wisconsin. Hesays Michigan will do yet for him.                                                                                                                        | 8 WR KAN INIPIRSI YALL                                                                                                               |
|              | financially. Proceeds, which exceeded $10, were for the benefit of the West Farmington Sunday-school.Two females on the order "tough"    | Lake.Mrs. Hannah Chapman of Milford                                                                                                                                  | has been visiting his parents andother Salem friends, has returned toChicago where he is one of the em-                                                                                                                      | on Lawns, Organdies, Madras Cloths, Ginghams, Prints, Lappets, White Goods,                                                          |
|              | happened to invade Novi one daylately, and were ordered out oftown. The authorities had drafted                                       | is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. M.Chambers.                                                                                                                        | ployees in the mammoth MerchantTailoring establishment of Reinach,Uman & Co. His family will remain                                                                                                                          | Gloves, Mitts, etc. All of above (and many more) goods have been greatly re-                                                         |
|              | a general order for all toughs toleave the place, when it was foundthat if it were enforced, there                                    | Saturday evening.                                                                                                                                                        | The Salem Veterans' associationwill hold their annual meeting at thehome of Mr <sup>2</sup> and Mrs. Harvey Pack-                                                                                                            | half prices and some at less                                                                                                         |
|              | The Royal is the highest grade baking powderknown. Actual tests show it goes one-third further than any other brand.                  | Miss Mearns, who has been visitingat Mrs. Hartland's the past twoweeks, returned to Detroit Sunday.                                                              | expected to be present and make theprincipal addresses. All are invited.                                                                                                                                                         | quality is.50c Shirt Waist for25c $12 Men's Suits at$6.49                                                                      |
| •*•• | QOYAI                                                                                                                                         | R. B. Cummings sued Mrs. Mosherfor a store bill. The hearing washeld at the residence of EugeneFurman.                                                       | refreshments. Remember the date,                                                                                                                                                                                                     | $1, $1.25 Shirt Waists for 69c Medium priced Suits$1.50 Wrappers                                                              |
|              |                                                                                                                                               | Mrs. Adams and Miss FrancesAdams, who have been visiting atMrs. Beebe's, returned home Satur-day. Mrs. Reebe accompanied themas far as Ypsilanti.        | How To Leok Good.Good looks are real'y more than skindeep, depending entirely on a healthycondition of all the vital organs. Ifthe liver be inactive, you have a biffouslook; if your stomach be disordered, you | 5c, 8c Lawns at3c yd to 16 yrs, at25c pr                                                                                             |
| . • ·        | BAKING                                                                                                                                        | Bucklen's Annica Salve.The best salve in the world for cuts,bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever                                                            | have a dyspeptic look; if your kidneysbe affected, you have a pinched look.Secure good health, and you will sur-ly have rood looka. "Electric Bitters"                                                                   | Our loss is your gain. Remember, the balance of this month you savehard-earned dollars by investing in Dry Goods and Clothing at |
| -12      | POWDERAbsolutely Pure                                                                                                                     | sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains,corns, and all skin eruptions, and pos-tively cares piles, or no pay requiredto be computed to give before autisfue | lis a good Alterative and Tonic. Actsdirectly on the stomach, liver andkidneys. Purifies the blood, curesnimples, blotches and boils, and gives                                                                          | Bring us your Eggs.We want them in exchange for goods. T. J. Perkins & G                                                         |
|              | ROVAL DAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK,                                                                                                            | tion or money refunded. Price 25 centsper box, For sale by Geo. C. Hueston.The Druggist.                                                                         | a good complexion. Every bottleguaranteed. Sold at Geo. C. Hueston'sDrug Stere. 50 cents per pottle. 5                                                                                                                       | 600000000000000000000000000000000000000                                                                                              |