THE OTHER SIDE OF THE PICTURE.

ANOTHER RECORD REPRESENTATIVE HAS A SAY ABOUT NOVI.

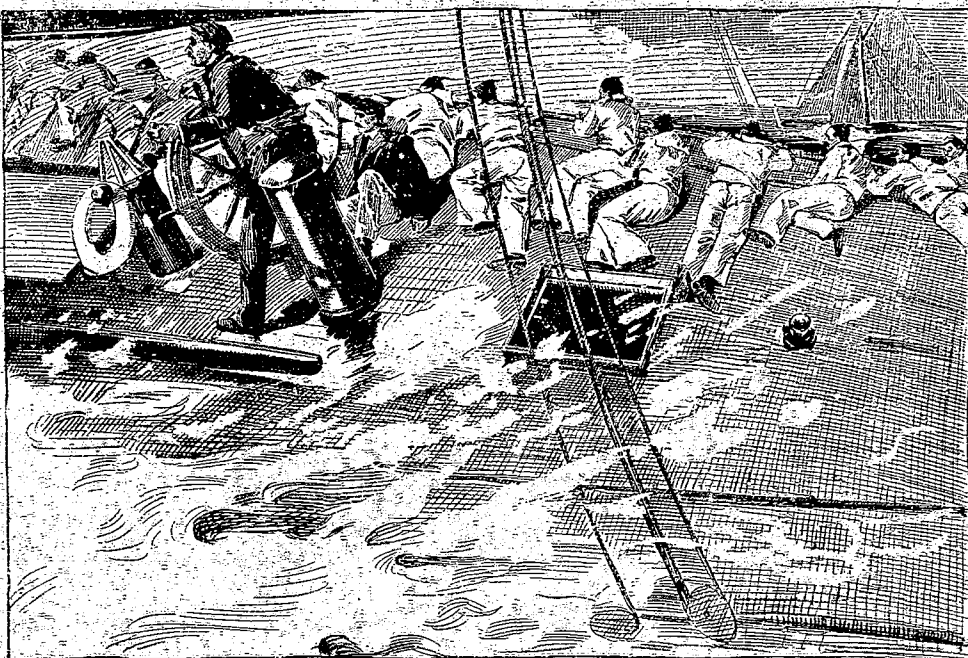

Town Has Done Its Share to Make Michigan Great.

NORTHVILLE, Oct. 3, 1899.—(Staff Cor.)—Were one to take pains to pick out all the flaws in the character of any person and emphasize them by enumerating them all together without the saving grace of a contrasting quality, there would be found enough failings in many a grand life to make its retrospect vastly different than when those faults are left in their places, to be softened or overshadowed by their proximity to the excellent traits that go to make up the completed character. The same rule applies to communities as to individuals. In a recent article in this paper the dark side of the picture was so prominently presented that to many a reader unacquainted with the history of Novi as a whole, the impression would be given that its records would fit in appropriately with those of the dark ages. To be sure a deserved tribute was given to the earlier settlers of the township, but the inhabitants who have been since that time and are still making the history of the community, were so completely ignored with a few exceptions that a stranger might naturally imagine the place to be principally peopled by wild west desperadoes, and dangerous to life, limb, and property of one with hardihood enough to venture within its boundaries. On the contrary, there are a lot of people who will still insist upon believing Novi, past, present, and future, a pretty good place to stay in; and who are aware that despite a series of fatalities which have had very little bearing upon the general character of her people, she has held and still holds a prominent and worthy place morally, and intellectually as well as politically and financially, in the life of one of the finest counties in the best of the grandest country on the globe. We have been shown the darkest side of her life picture but after all it is the shadows that help to bring out more fully the higher lights and accentuate the brighter tints, so we can take a view of her better history, brought into bolder relief by contrast with what has been placed before us.

There is no doubt that if the written and unwritten records of many a township were searched, every casualty and crime brought to light, with sudden deaths from natural causes, suicides of persons who had moved to other localities, and even the past acts of those temporarily insane from trouble, plenty of material could be found for sensationalism in all directions. Of course it is the acknowledged prerogative of the journalist as of the lawyer, to emphasize the features of his chosen side of a case, and ignore those of the other; so, as did the writer of the former article we claim our privilege, confident that we hold the stronger evidence.

From the very first the people of Novi have never been obliged to see their township occupy an obscure position in the county. She has helped in many ways to make "Old Oakland" celebrated. From Michigan's earliest days of self government Novi has been from time to time represented in the legislative councils of the state. (By the way it is probably largely owing to the fact that none of her good material entered into the composition of the late lamented legislative body that caused it to be "unwept and unhonored" if not unsung.) As early as 1837 one of her pioneer citizens Wm. Yerkes represented his district as a legislator, and was again thus honored in 1856. In 1843 Daniel Lee, in 1879 George Yerkes, and A. N. Kimmis Jr. in '95-6, also in '97-8 were worthy members of the house of representatives. Henry H. Harmon, in early manhood a resident of Novi, was in 1863-4 a Michigan congressman and was judge of probate in Livingston county. James Hueston, a member of the house of 1883-5 was at one time Novi's resident physician. Eli Woodman, later a legislator, and a prominent physician, received a part of his education in Novi. E. S.

SCENE ON THE DECK OF THE COLUMBIA WHILE BEATING TO WINDWARD IN A RECENT TRIAL RACE WITH DEFENDER.

—From Detroit Evening News.

Woodman a long time resident and an able lawyer was a member of the constitutional convention of 1850. James M. Wilkinson, afterward State Treasurer was born and raised in the town. A. N. Kimmis Sr. filled the office of sheriff of the county and of deputy U. S. Marshal and many other citizens of the town have held positions of honor and profit in the service of the state and country. The present circuit court commissioner of Oakland, Geo. Hogle is one of the representative younger men who is helping to give the town its reputable standing. To the medical profession Novi has given such men as Dr. J. M. Burgess of Northville, Dr. E. A. Chapman of Walled Lake and several others well known in different parts of the state. The names of her successful teachers are legion, and the young people she has sent out into the world as telegraphers, civil engineers, stenographers, music teachers and to fill other lucrative and responsible positions are too many to designate.

Her names are or have been on the rolls of all on best institutions of learning, and her erstwhile citizens are doing honorable work from pulpit and press. Her military history shows the names of many who gave of their health and strength on battle field and in prison pen, and her little cemetery shows many a flag marked grave on the day of tribute to the country's dead. The first war speech in the State was made in one of her school houses by E. S. Woodman. She has the oldest literary society in Michigan; the West Novi Debating Club in whose membership have been a large majority of her distinguished sons mentioned above, besides many others of her best farmers and professional men whom we have not space to enumerate. She has one of the finest agricultural districts in the state and her little Station has long been acknowledged as the best produce market any where in the region. Her schools, churches and Sunday schools will stand comparison with any in America and she has given one of her most promising young lives to the cause of Christianity in far Japan. Her farmers' clubs are of the best, and her people are noted far and wide for their hospitality, intelligence and generosity.

Although she never expects her village to be a Chicago or a New York, evidences that she is neither dead nor yet sleeping are to be seen in the two flourishing churches, cheese factory, four general stores, meat market, hotel, two blacksmith shops, tile factory, saw mill, barber shop, fruit evaporator, cooper shop and lumber yard, and in the many new buildings erected within the past year or two.

We are fully aware that many other things might be advanced in commendation of a town famous for its good as well as its bad history; but as the Record must devote a part of its space to other matters for a few weeks, we will mention in addition only the peculiar quality in Novi atmosphere—the logical outcome of her infinite variety of good points—which makes those who have once been of her number ever after ward her loyal admirers, and whose hearts must always have a warm place in them for the people and the institutions of the dear old town. And that this is just as true of the chronicler of the darker pages of her story as of the present writer there is not the slightest doubt. Take the two parts of the picture and intermingle the light and shade as time and circumstance the pencil and brush in the hand of the Great Artist of the Universe have done and the result is one upon which the search light of fair and honest criticism may be turned without fear for the future or undue regret for the past.

WILL DIBBLE DROPPED DEAD

OF APOPLEXY IN DETROIT LAST SATURDAY MORNING.

He Was A Former Well Known Northville Business Man

W. W. Dibble, one of the city agents for the Vail-Crane Baking Co., dropped dead Saturday morning while loading his wagon in front of the bakery in Detroit. Death was due to apoplexy and Coroner Hoffman held no inquest. Dibble was 56 years of age and 20 years had been employed by the Vail-Crane concern. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, the A.O.U.W. and the Maccabees. A widow, two daughters and a son, Charles L. Dibble, a member of the 31st Michigan volunteers, survive him. The remains were brought here Monday and after brief service at the cemetery were placed in the Oakwood vault. Mr. Dibble was a son of Mrs. Bedford of this place and back in the 70's he was a resident of Northville and conducted a grocery store, which was located where Murdock's drug store now stands, and he lived in a house which then occupied the site now taken by Dr. Burgess' home.

A Letter from Mrs. Gardner.

Newark, O. T., Oct. 7, '99. Editor Neal—It is now some weeks since I left my home in Northville for this western region. I was favored all the way except for the extreme heat and dust. We had abundance of rain through Indiana and Missouri and such extreme heat, which has not yet entirely left us in this region. I found my friends well and eagerly waiting to receive me. It does not seem possible a country can make such advancement as this has in the six years of its occupancy. Such fine orchards and gardens—small fruits with grapes, melons, sweet potatoes and pea nuts in abundance. It is estimated the corn crop will average ninety bushels to the acre, and in height measures from ten to seven-

Couldn't Satisfy 'Em All.

Editor Record:—I trust your readers will not think that I could have satisfied every body's fancy in my historical sketch of Novi. It was not my idea to go into details but simply to draw a word picture of the past and present, interspersed with few details. I should, however, have gone out of my way long enough to have stated that among other good things that used to abound in the township, were water melons, maple sugar and other delicious fruits. I know this from experience, but I didn't care to go into details and spoil the article. F. E. CIGLEY.

The Record wishes to state that while it has received some criticism on the article in question, there have been fully enough compliments extended to offset.

"I wish to express my thanks to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for having put on the market such a wonderful medicine," says W. W. Massingill, of Beaumont, Texas. There are many thousands of mothers whose children have been saved from attacks of dysentery and cholera infantum who must also feel thankful. It is for sale by Geo. C. Hueston, Druggist.

PHILANTHROPY'S FIRST FRUIT.

Baby Gets a Home Through the Sophia Brauenlich Fund.

Mrs. Sophia Brauenlich, who died recently in New York, left a part of her estate as a fund by means of which infant girls of New York city might be provided with homes in the country. Mrs. Brauenlich was a firm believer in the transmission of the virtues or vices of the parents to their children and in order to remove the offspring of the vicious from contaminating influences she established this fund. The first child to receive the benefits of this fund was sent to a home in New Jersey last week. She and her mother had lived for weeks on crackers and water and the mother gladly gave up her child upon assurance that she would be well cared for. The mother is related to a good family, but her marriage was distasteful to her parents and she was disowned. She is now in the last stages of consumption and will be cared for until the end comes, which cannot be long delayed. The Sophia Brauenlich fund has been increased by other donations and will soon be of such dimensions as to enable the society having its control to care for nearly a hundred friendless little ones. For each girl sent out there is a fund put away at interest until she is 18 years old, so that in case anything should happen to her foster parents she will be provided for. There now is in Hasbrouck Heights a home waiting for a little girl that shall be found by the Sophia fund to answer all requirements. Meantime the fund is paying for the support of a beautiful Brooklyn baby, who is with its impoverished mother until the poor woman can bring herself to the point of giving up her child.

It is like cream; but will feed and nourish when cream will not. Babies and children will thrive and grow fat on it when their ordinary food does not nourish them.

IN OUR GREAT STATE.

THE HAPPENINGS IN MICHIGAN BRIEFLY RELATED.

An Important Case to Determine the Rights of a Bishop is Occupying the Attention of the Supreme Court—Supervisors Must Make Reports.

Rights of a Bishop.
An important case involving the tenure of Catholic church property was argued in the supreme court at Lansing on the 5th. The complainant in the case is Bishop Foley and the defendants are members of the Catholic church at Dor, Allegan county. Some of the members of the church did not agree with the remainder and proposed to build a new church in opposition to the bishop's wishes, claiming that they were the owners of the church property and had a right to build a church wherever they pleased. Bishop Foley obtained an injunction restraining such action on the part of the parishioners, but upon a trial of the case in the circuit court the injunction was dissolved and an appeal was taken by the bishop. The decision of the supreme court will determine whether the bishop is the real owner in fee of Catholic church property, or whether he holds it in trust for the benefit of the church. The land upon which it was proposed to build the church was owned by the bishop as all church property is owned by him, and it was argued pretty plainly that the bishop's title is absolute. In case he should make an assignment for the benefit of his creditors all church property held by him could be sold for his debts and the only reliance which the Catholic people have in the matter of church property is upon the integrity of their bishops. The outcome of the case will be watched with interest by all Catholics.

Supervisors Must Make Reports.
Supervisors will be interested in an opinion given by Secretary of State Stearns by Atty. Gen. Oren on the 5th. It appears that some of the supervisors do not take kindly to the duty of gathering and reporting farm statistics, and in several instances they have wilfully neglected to do this work. Secretary Stearns asked if alleged lack of time or the fact that the law allows no compensation for the work is a valid defense in this regard. He also asked if the supervisor or the secretary of state is the judge of the sufficiency of the report required. The attorney-general says the law makes it the duty of supervisors to make full and true reports as to farm products, etc., and makes it the duty of the secretary of state to report failure to comply with this provision to the prosecuting attorney, who in turn is required to enforce the penalty provided for failure to make a full and true report. Secretary Stearns proposes to bring the offending supervisors to time.

Stampede at a Funeral.
West Branch was the scene of the wildest excitement on the morning of the 10th. A funeral procession was moving along Main street, when the pair of horses bring up the rear of the long line of carriages, became frightened at a locomotive which was standing on the tracks near the street and puffing. The driver lost control of the animals and they started on a mad race through the procession. Other horses became stampeded and began running in every direction. A dozen carriages were overturned and wrecked and their occupants thrown to the ground. All were more or less injured. When the panic finally subsided there were only three carriages left in the procession. A dozen pairs of horses ran away, and the street presented a sight, the wreckage being distributed over several blocks.

Shot Himself With Her Lover's Pistol.
Miss Ellen Myers shot and killed herself at her father's home just west of Shepherd on the 9th. Anderson Lawrence, who has been paying attentions to Miss Myers for some time was a visitor at the house, and when supper was announced, Miss Myers asked Lawrence for his revolver, telling him she wished to try her mark shooting cats. A few minutes later a shot was heard, and as the girl did not return to the house, her father stepped outside to see what had happened, and found that the girl was dead. She had shot herself through the brain. The cause of her act is not known.

Diseases in Michigan.

Reports to the state board of health show that rheumatism, diarrhea, neuralgia, bronchitis and tonsillitis is the order named caused the most sickness in Michigan during the week ending September 30. Consumption was reported at 205 places; typhoid fever, 106; scarlet fever, 57; diphtheria, 19; whooping cough, 18; measles, 9; cerebrospinal meningitis, 3; small-pox, 1.

Plainwell boasts that she is known throughout the state as the "town of pretty girls."

Burglars stole Harry Jewett's trousers at Port Huron, but what he mourns the most is the $80 which one of the pockets contained.

A farmer near Grand Haven has been experimenting in the raising of peanuts this season, with such success that he may go into the business on a large scale next year, as he has demonstrated that the soil thereabouts is well adapted for the growing of the goobers.

When apples began to drop so badly some time ago a Tekonsha man sold the product of his orchard for $450, and thought he had made a good thing out of it. The fruit has now been picked, and measures over 700 barrels, and the seller figures that he lost about $350 on the deal.

Weekly Crop Bulletin.

In the Michigan crop report for October, issued by Secretary of State Stearns on the 9th, the statement is made that the September weather was peculiar in many respects. Frequent showers early in the month aided materially in preparing the ground for seeding to wheat. They also promised to help potatoes, but the killing frosts of the middle of the month put a stop to all growth. A notable feature of the month was a snow storm.

The most important feature of the report is the final estimate of this year's wheat crop in Michigan. The total number of acres of wheat on the ground last April, as returned by the supervisors, was 1,914,941. Of this, 1,443,344 acres were in the southern counties, 342,474 in the central, and 129,123 in the northern. According to reports received from crop correspondents, 77 per cent of these acres were harvested. The per cent in the southern counties was 79, in the central 66, and in the northern 86. This would indicate that the total number of acres harvested was 1,408,131 for the entire state.

The final estimated yield per acre for the number of acres harvested is eight bushels in the southern counties, six in the central, nine in the northern and eight for the state. This would make the total estimated yield for the state, 12,000,000 bushels.

The acreage of wheat sown this fall, as compared with an average is 90 per cent in the southern counties, 81 in the central, 88 in the northern and 85 in the state. The average date of sowing wheat was Sept. 20.

The estimated yield of oats per acre is 33 bushels; corn, 31; potatoes, 68, and beans 12.

The total acreage of buckwheat is 24,591 and the average yield per acre is 11 bushels for the state.

The total number of bushels of wheat reported marketed by farmers in September at the flouring mills is 417,882, and at the elevators, 412,489, a total of $20,371. The total number of bushels reported marketed in the two months ending Oct. 1, was 2,334,247, or 1,533,034 more bushels than for the same two months of last year. The total amount of wheat shipped by railroads from the various stations for the month was 471,071 bushels.

Mortgages in the State on the Decrease.

Labor Commissioner Cox has received returns from all the register of deeds of the state in regard to the number of mortgages filed during the present year. The reports show that up to the present time three per cent fewer mortgages have been filed than were placed on record during the same period last year. There have been 12 per cent more discharges. The rate of interest and the average amount of the mortgages have been reduced. A majority were given as a part of the purchase price of property rather than for money borrowed.

Must Report Communicable Diseases.

Attorney-General Oren says: "The opinion given by me regarding Christian Scientists had no reference to the Chandler bill. It referred to section 4453, compiled laws of 1897, and was to the effect that Christian Science healers come under the terms of that section as persons acting as physicians who are required to report the extent of dangerous and communicable diseases under certain penalties. I have given no opinion as to the status of Christian Scientist under the new medical act."

George and Helen Have Consented.

Preparations are being made at Three Oaks to give Admiral Geo. Dewey a reception that will be remembered as the greatest thing of its kind that ever occurred in southwestern Michigan. Nothing is known as yet when it will be, as the admiral will set his own time. Miss Helen Gould has also consented to be present, providing she has no engagement at that time.

During the winter of 1897 Mr. James Reed, one of the leading citizens and merchants of Clay, Clay Co., W. Va., struck his leg against a cake of ice in such a manner as to bruise it severely. It became very much swollen and pained him so badly that he could not walk without the aid of crutches. He was treated by physicians, also used several kinds of liniment and two and a half gallons of whisky in bathing it, but nothing gave any relief until he began using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. This brought almost a complete cure in a week time and he believes that had he not used this remedy his leg would have had to be amputated. Pain Balm is unequalled for sprains, bruises and rheumatism. For sale by Geo. Hueston, Druggist.

A Letter from Mrs. Gardner.

teen and one half feet—this is by actual measurement. The wheat crop was not quite as good last year as the year previous, still it was good. Business is thriving, and every one seems to be doing well. Newkirk, the county seat of Kay county, six years ago the sixteenth of this month at 12:00 o'clock, did not exist. It now has 25,000 inhabitants and is about to be incorporated as a city. Business is very prosperous. I wonder what our busy town of Northville would think of the business done here in a single day or week. Northville has two hardware stores—so has Newkirk. One store here lately sold $1,000 in goods every day in the week until Saturday when the sale reached $5,000. It is astonishing how much business is done here, and still I do not believe the people work as hard as they do in our state. Court is now in session, which brings some excitement. I was astonished to learn that the governor of this territory is none other than Cassius M. Barnes, born and brought up at Albion, Mich., and a schoolmate of mine during my college course. I could write many more things of this country and its people, but I will not further tax your time. I have not sufficient love for this country to be willing to make it my home and I shall ere long turn my face toward the east. Hoping this will find Northville and her people prospering I will close.

Mrs. JOHN GARDNER.

School Notes.

[School notes are printed exactly as written by the pupils.]

Mery and Roy Lindsay of the second grade expect soon to move to Ann Arbor.

Mr. Czar Cook of West Branch visited the High School Tuesday A. M.

The third and fourth grades are reading "Little Men" three mornings in the week. They are very much interested in it.

The 5th and 6th grades have recitations each Friday afternoon.

Bessie Jackson of the 6th grade has been sick with fever for the past three weeks.

The 5th and 6th grades are at work collecting Queen Anne soap wrappers. Three fine pictures, Lincoln, Dewey and the Madonna, have already been added to the school by this means. Parents please buy this soap and send us the wrappers.

The 6th grade pupils are reading Whittier's "Snow Bound."

It was with rising pride that the N. H. S. Foot-ball Team, who were to leave on the afternoon train for Wayne, came to school Tuesday afternoon. But they did not realize the full solemnity of the occasion until the pathetic song "Farewell to Home" was sung. Many eyes were suggestive of tears when the line, while lowly lying, was reached. The remaining seniors, not feeling that sufficient homage had been paid the team, went down to bid them adieu. The girls they left behind them anxiously awaited results and rejoiced greatly when they received the telephone message that the score stood 5 to 5.

Forest Roberts, when asked what kind of a time he had after the game, said "It was all right." He afterwards explained by saying that he had been taken for Hobson.

The High School passed the following resolution. Resolved; that we give a vote of thanks to the girls of the Wayne High School for the pleasant reception given our boys, after the foot-ball game Tuesday afternoon.

—M. B.

$5.00 Reward.

A Rabbit's Stupidity.

"I saw a curious incident not long ago which seems to show that the rabbit, like other wild creatures, has room in its brain for only one idea at a time," says a lover of animals. "I was walking up a lane, with three dogs trotting in front. A smart little fox terrier and a fat black cocker spaniel led the way side by side, and another very fat cocker waddled after them, about ten paces in the rear. A rabbit bolted out of the hedge just after two dogs had passed, and, coming face to face with the very fat cocker, wheeled and dashed up the lane, passing the other two dogs so closely that the fox terrier raced alongside poor bunny for half a dozen yards and caught him. The curious part of the business was that the rabbit, when bolting from the dog behind, almost ran into the two dogs in front and, plainly, did not see them at all till it had passed them and the fox terrier gave chase. I suppose its thoughts and energies were centered on escape from the roly-poly dog, which, had the rabbit only known it, could have caught a swallow on the wing as soon as its frightened self."

A court plaster peddler was around in Plymouth last week but the folks there were not stuck on his way of doing business. He made himself so much at home in one house as to go up stairs and sort over some jewelry, but being interrupted he failed to make a selection.

The local nimrods report some fine squirrel hunting these days.

Come and see the "Old Maids" at the Opera House tonight, 10 and 15 cts.

A rare thing! Not one old maid but twenty, at the Opera House tonight.

Engineers were out this week surveying the site for the new electric light plant.

Will H. Safford of this place has been appointed laborer at the Northville U. S. Fish Station.

The many friends of James A. Thomas will learn with regret that he is seriously ill again.

Appropriate tableaux given at the "Hallowe'en Frolic." Afterwards refreshments and fun. All for one dime.

Old Maid's Convention at the Opera House tonight. Music, recitations, little reporter, great rejuvenator, lots of fun.

The Northville Condensery company held its annual meeting Monday and re-elected the same set of officers for the ensuing year.

There will be regular convocation of Union chapter No. 55, RAM on Wednesday evening, Oct. 18. A full attendance is requested.

No matter how old you are or how young you are you cannot fail to have a good time at the "Hallowe'en Frolic." Don't miss it.

Christian science service Sunday morning at 10:30. Subject: Probation after death, and Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the WCTU hall.

The regular semi-occasional mix-up occurred at the south end of the F. & P. M. depot here Monday morning. In attempting to make a "flying" switch two loaded cars were derailed, causing a short delay to the north bound passenger train.

"Flying" switches are strictly forbidden by the company and the penalty in this case will probably put a stop to the practice—for a while.

The prospects now are that this village and town will have to "sic" the courts after the D. P. & N. company in order to get proper crossings fixed over their tracks, residences and farms. For months people have been discommoded in a very annoying and apparently, needless manner, and that serious damage to life and property has not resulted has been a matter of luck rather than good management.

The first class in dancing, which was organized last Friday evening, numbered nearly forty from among the best young people of the village. Such a beginning gives promise of an enjoyable and instructive term. Many who intend joining this class were unable to attend owing to other engagements, and it is expected there will be a still larger attendance tonight. Mr. Wood's system of teaching embodies the thoroughly scientific methods and all who attend may be certain of becoming correct dancers. There will be no Tuesday night class but all adults, married or single, will be included in the Friday night class. It is believed that this arrangement will be more satisfactory to all.

The stockholders of the new wood work factory met Monday night and completed the preliminary organization. The stock, excepting about $1,000 is now all taken and that is almost sure to be gobbled up within a week or ten days. There is every assurance of good big dividends being derived and people who have their money lying around in banks drawing little or no interest are not apt to be long in taking advantage of the investment.

A royal welcome was extended to Rev. W. H. Lloyd and wife at the Methodist church parlors Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League and Ladies' Aid Society. Some very excellent music was furnished by both Mrs. Long and Miss Clarkson and the choir.

W. H. Hutton was chairman of the evening and welcoming addresses were given by F. R. Beal representing the church; C. A. Dolph the Epworth League; Prof. J. Loeffler the Sunday school; Mrs. C. J. Ball the Ladies' Aid; Ray Neeland and Gladys Cobb the Junior League. Pastor Lloyd responded very fittingly after which the reception was held and then a banquet was spread, making a very pleasant evening. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd were made to feel that the church and people were with them, and that their home and work here would be a pleasant one.

The annual inspection of Northville W. R. C. occurred Wednesday evening of this week at G. A. R. hall. The inspecting officer, Mrs. E. B. McKinstry of Detroit, and the officers of the corps were very pleasantly entertained at afternoon tea by the president, Mrs. Mary Ambler, the inspection taking place at the regular meeting in the evening. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served and a delightful social hour enjoyed, the corps officers becoming the entertainers. Mrs. Banks of Detroit, a valued member of the organization, was a guest and her presence was the occasion of much pleasure. The inspector—who was the organizer of the corps nine years ago—was highly pleased with the condition of affairs, and announced that she could find no ground for any criticism whatever. Mrs. McKinstry, who is well known throughout the state as an able and efficient W. R. C. officer, is also a delightful person—to meet socially. Her present visit—and it is hoped future ones—will be productive of many pleasant memories.

Does It Pay to Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the most severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case, take the ONLY remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles. "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. Sample bottles at Murdock Bros.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin troupe gave a good show at the Opera house Tuesday night to the usual large audience. Some how or other Uncle Tom shows never grow old and for year in and year out there is no opera house attraction that has quite the same drawing power.

"I got a letter from a friend in the trade last week," says the Monthly Visitor. He lives in one of the small Illinois towns. Among other things he remarked the fact that a salesman was in his town a short time ago and sold 10,000 Pennsylvania sweat-shop cigars in one day, while he, with home labor and much better goods, had a mighty hard time to get rid of 700. I'm not at all surprised. It's that way in lots of places. Most men are so tickled when an eastern traveling man calls on them that they'd buy mud if he had it to sell. It looks so much bigger to buy your cigars of So-and-So of New York or Philadelphia, don't you know. And did you ever notice that often these same people buy their cigars two thousand miles away are generally the most eloquent about "patronizing home industry" when one of their neighbors is going to buy something? Yes, this is a funny world.

Once more our only Justice Wixon has been a victim of the Willy Joker.
Not long ago, Newt had some funny experience with a shot gun, and now he has been at it again. Charlie Green induced Newt to go to Walled Lake to shoot ducks, and when near Wights Cottage, a beautiful "duck" was seen out among the rushes, and Newt carefully crept down along the shore, and began firing. Six shots were directed at the "duck," and not a feather stirred. Then Green suggested that black powder be used instead of smokeless, and again the fusillade began, until upwards of fifteen loads had been fired, when the "duck" was wounded. Billy Vogt was rowing by, and Newt hailed him, and after wading out to the boat, spoiling the polish on his tans, the two hurried to the poor duck only to find that it was a loon, wired and anchored and dead as hay. Of course Newt is mad but every body else seems tickled half to death.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D.
Williams of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she was wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a Godsend to weak, sickly run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Geo. C. Hueston, Druggist.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainville, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated a month by her family physician but grew worse.
He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefitted from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well; now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this

In Memoriam.

To the memory of Mrs. Lina Hamilton, who died September 28, 1899.

She has crossed the silent river
And is safe on the other shore.
In the presence of her Savior
To dwell forever more.

Of the parting sad and lonely
For the loved ones left behind
There is hope for them in Jesus
If they trust Him, they will find.

Father, mother, darling daughters,
Dear companion fond and true.
Loving sister, only brother,
Of how much we feel for you.

"Just as I am," her only plea
That Jesus died to save
And so dear Lord accept of me
For this is all I crave.

No more her suffering patient form
Within her home we'll see
And so dear Lord accept of me
She's now from pain set free.

—Mrs. Cleantha Sloan.

Lyceum—Detroit.

The critics of Hoyt are continually worrying themselves and the public by trying to find out the secret of his success. When theatrical business is bad all over the country, Hoyt's shows, one and all, continue to roll up large profits. The solution of this problem is that Mr. Hoyt values the dollar in one town or city, just as highly as the coin of New York, and gives the same competent cast and stage accessories in Detroit as he does in New York.

A Trip to China. Mr. Hoyt's greatest success and most laughable comedy will be presented at the Lyceum all this week with all the scenery, stage accessories and mechanical effects, precisely the same as given at Hoyt's Theatre,
New York.

Next week "Shannon of the Sixth."

Whitney's—Detroit.

Manager Stair announces for his attraction at the Whitney Grand for this week, the Chinese-American play-"King of the Opium Ring," which proved such a sensational success at the Academy of Music, New York, last spring, playing to the immense capacity of the theatre for six weeks.
The enthusiasm manifested concerning the play is not a cause for wonder when it is understood that the effects of the entertainment are bizarre and unusual. The several stage settings represents various localities in San Francisco's famous Chinatown. The sensational scene of the piece, is reached in the third act, when three Chinamen form a perpendicular column and rescue the imprisoned
"Queen" from the third story of a highlanders' den and carry her to a place of safety across the street. The modern operatic of opium smoking is realistically pictured. Matinees daily except Wednesday.

Next week "On the Wabash."
