A VERY HOT AND QUICK FIRE!

NORTHROP'S LAUNDRY GUTTED IN LESS THAN TEN MINUTES.

The Fire Department's Quick Work Saved the Building.

The hottest and quickest blaze ever occurring in Northville was that of Saturday morning last in Northrop's laundry in the Adams building. It was all over in fifteen minutes, and of about $200 worth of laundry in and out of wash only a dozen or two collars which were in the press were saved. The inside of the building on the first floor used for laundry purposes as well as the office was badly scorched, the flames even catching in the exposed wood work outside and doing as much damage as possible in the short time.

Mr. Northrop had just finished pumping air into the gasoline tank when a seam in the can gave way and a stream spouted out in the blaze on the iron heater and "bang" went. George quickly ran to the front door and gave the alarm, and though the engine house is just across the street, the whole lower floor was all ablaze before the water could be turned on. The department wasn't but a few moments extinguishing the flames, however. The comparative small damage to Mr. Northrop's machinery, as well as to the building which is owned by F. D. Adams of Detroit, was covered by insurance and the laundry will be in operation again next week. In the meantime Mr. Macomber of the Peerless has kindly tendered the use of his laundry to Mr. Northrop that he might continue to care for his customers until repairs on his own plant are finished. Northrop was in luck in that he took out his insurance but the day before the fire.

EARLY HISTORY OF NOVI TOWN.

[The following paper read by Robert Yerkes at the dedication of the Novi Town Hall, Sept. 9, 1876, will be of special interest to Oakland county readers:]

The saddest duty of the historian is to place on record the names of those who were once real factors in population and progress of the town; but who have passed forever from its scenes of activity and life.

Beginning at its S. E. corner, going N. and then E. up and down the Section lines I have compiled the following mortuary list: Mrs. Dr. John C. Emery, Bela Chase and wife, Edson Chase, Peter Chase, Abel Chase and wife, Zachariah Eddy and wife, Mrs. Cromwell Clark, Dexter Mitchell and wife, Saville Aldrich and wife, Benajah Aldrich and wife, Pitts Taft and wife, Wm. Taft, Hiram Wilmarth, Ainsel Hames, Asa Sha, Nathan Noyes and wife, Bethel Howard and wife, Bishop Overhille and wife, John Blain and wife, James Brown and wife, Mr. Chapel, Mr. Gensman, Mr. Patton, Lewis Vradenburg, Aaron Vradenburg and wife, Willis Pardee, James Smith, Avery Lee, William Wilson and wife, John Ball and wife, James Clark, Daniel Lee, James Wixom, Mrs. Jonathan Neal, James Palmer, Abel Eddy, Joseph Chambers, Daniel E. Matthews, Samuel White and wife, Samuel Jones, George Rogers and wife, William Rogers, Lyman Andrews and wife, Samuel Hungerford and wife, Mr. Kaple, Cornelius McCrumb, Joseph Eddy and wife, Jonah Knapp and wife, Mrs. Sarah Thornton, Henry Knapp and wife, Mrs. James Van Dune, Mrs. Veltuan, Mrs. John C. The pioneer of fifty years ago in a locality such as Novi then was felt entirely beyond the reach of outside aid; he must bear alone his poverty, his misfortunes, and severest trials. The emigrant of yesterday or today rides to his prairie home in an easy car, his provisions are transported in the same way;—his misfortune overtake him the world is at his back, if drought sear his corn, or grasshoppers light in his wheatfield, his wall comes down over the wires and in an instant response is made.

Not so with our first settlers. When Thomas Pinkerton and William Yerkes came here they walked 500 miles with axes and knapsacks on their shoulders. When their families and friends came they were ten days on Lake Erie and four weeks on the journey. Some of them were taken sick on the way and anxious days sleepless nights filled up the measure of time, and there was not an isolated case. Scores of our pioneers repeated their struggles, went through their sufferings, perhaps in varied form, but still the same.

After the hardships of the journey had been endured they found themselves in an unbroken wilderness, the sun in its daily round scarcely shone upon its surface; gave where Walled Lake glanced and glittered in its light. Home and its comforts they had yet to create; they were sick and no physician; wanted bread and flouring mill twenty miles away. In strength, in weakness, in health, in disease, through storm and sunshine they must travel on in the stern battle.

They were men and women of limited means; they wanted a home for themselves and families after them and hope hung her bow of promise, her glittering pennon in the far west of their lives. Between them and fruition all these trials must be endured, all these adverse circumstances met and conquered. And right nobly have they fulfilled their mission.

On some it may be the sun went down before they reached the goal, but a great majority have come out of the conflict more than Roman fathers, better than Spartan mothers. "And have hope's promises been illusive?" Could you take a bird's eye view of our town to-day you would see each section line running north, south, east or west, thrown into a hard, and in most cases well worked roadway, on which pass and repass the travel of the town. You would see a broad gravelled road—like the Appian way of old Rome—leading from the commercial metropolis to the political capital of our State; you would see a well constructed railway traversing its extent from south-eastern to north-western corner, over which rolls the car of commerce, carrying the products of the soil, the manufactory, or the mine with tireless energy and incredible speed. By its side stretches the electric wire—that wonder of the 19th century—over which the untamed but obedient lightning flies at the bidding of man. You will see parks of woodland, none too large, all over town. On every side are smiling

Used by British Soldiers in Africa.

Capt. C. G. Dennison is well known all over Africa as commander of the forces that captured the famous rebel Galshe. Under date of Nov. 4, 1897, from Vryburg, Bechuanaland, he writes: "Before starting on the last campaign I bought a quantity of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which I used myself when troubled with bowel complaint, and had given to my men, and in every case it proved most beneficial." THE D. & N. W. RY. IS COMING NOW.

WILL BE IN OPERATION TO FARM- INGTON BY DECEMBER 1

And to Northville on or Before January 1st.

The officials of the Detroit and Northwestern railway company announce that they expect to have their line from Detroit to Pontiac completed and in operation by December 1st. Cars are to be running to Farmington, by next week, and gangs of workmen are grading and laying track at both ends between Farmington, Orchard Lake and Northville.

Mr. Brownell states that where the line is completed to Detroit, there will be few electric railways so well equipped and able to furnish good service as the Detroit and Northwestern. Especial attention is being paid to the road bed in its building, the aim being to make it so smooth and even that cars can run at great speed without any inconvenience or unpleasantness to passengers. The cars themselves will be of the latest type and equipped with motors that can and will make time.

The power house at Farmington will be completed within a short time. The building itself is 210 by 125 feet in size, and in it is installed the most desirable patterns of machinery. There are three 200-horse power engines with direct connected dynamos. The contract for the car barns was let to a Detroit firm last week. The dimensions of the building are 50 by 225 feet, and the contract price is $12,000. The power house and car barns are located on the same street and directly opposite each other.

The Northville end of the line will be in operation by January 1st, the company claims.

WAYNE COUNTY S. S. CONVENTION.

ELEVENTH ANNUAL WAS HELD AT WAYNE LAST WEEK.

W. C. Prouty of That Village Is the New President.

The eleventh annual convention of the Wayne County Sunday-school association was held in the M. E. church at Wayne last week, the attendance being very large. For years the president of the association has been a Detroit man, but the country members made a special effort to elect one from their own numbers, and succeeded in landing W. C. Prouty of Wayne. The other officers elected were: Leonard Laurence, vice-president; Rev. N. W. Cary, secretary; F. M. Thompson, treasurer.

The treasurer reported a shortage of $103 for the year's work and Rev. Stringer was called to the platform and proceeded to raise the amount in $5 and $1 pledges.

In the evening the church was so crowded that many were turned away. Rev. D. D. MacLaurin gave the principal address. A large delegation of Detroit people were present and returned at 9:35 by a special car on the electric road.

HIGH STATE TAXES.

They Have Boosted the Tax-Rate in Wayne County.

The rate of taxes for state and county purposes in Wayne county this fall will be $3.75 per $1,000, as compared with the $2.74 rate of last fall. It has just been figured out by Michael Halloran, of the assessors' office, who was clerk of the supervisors' committees in the session just closed. The rate for county purposes is $1.10, showing no material change, but the great increase in state taxes this year makes the state tax rate in Wayne county $2.65.

Suburban News.

The Central Michigan Times (Mt. Pleasant) is unmistakably and unequivocally a "yellow journal" or at least it was last week when it came out in a canary colored costume from head to tail.

As Elmer Huston was climbing into his delivery wagon yesterday noon, he slipped and fell between the thills back of the horse, which, at once, began to kick and run.—Plymouth Mail.

Huston had no business keeping a pair of broncho thills on his premises. Thills that will kick and run ought to be hopped, or tied fast to a D. P. & N. street car.

Postmaster Elch of Pontiac, an ex-Editor, is still annoying his neighbors with his pen. This time however its a pig-pen in his back yard and the smell is said to be worse than some of his former editorials. The neighbors have appealed to the law, but the stamp dealer says he will appeal even to the supreme court to protect his hogs.

"Next year," says the Rochester Era, "we may expect to read something like the following in the daily paper:—About ten o'clock this morning a horseless milk wagon loaded with cowless milk collided with a brainless rider on a chainless wheel. The luckless wheelman was badly injured; and being horseless, he was taken in a horseless cab to the home of the friendless."

A St. Johns minister made the cold shivers wriggle up and down the spinal columns of some of his superstitious parishioners by choosing Friday, and the thirteenth day of the month at that, for the laying of the corner stone of a new church. To make the matter still more blood curdling he was the thirteenth pastor of that particular church organization and the building committee was composed of thirteen members. We await the result in breathless suspense. Don't know how long that suspense can exist without breathing, however.

In glancing over the names of those editors of the country papers that assembled at the Griswold House, Detroit, recently, one is naturally led to reflect upon the awful calamity that would befall this nation should any one of those so-called "moulders of public opinion," by accident, design, want of proper support or nourishment, kick the bucket.—Pon-tiac Post.

And the Post's man can glance over the names of the editors belonging to the Michigan, or any other press association or even names in the cabinet of the president of the United States and reach the same conclusion. "The world would still turn round," though there would of course be a lot of bumping and jarring in case the Post's man should "kick the bucket."

The Featon Independent had a damp bad experience last week and any one but a newspaper man or a minister would have used swear words. After smashing up a job press, the roof of the building, left, and left nothing but the blue sky for a covering o'er head. The sky was too far above the office to be of any particular use in case of rain, and it was a case of rain just as soon as the roof left and the way the witness made for the Independent office was a sight. Bathing suits and life preservers were donned and by a heroic effort the paper was finally issued but at last accounts the editors and typos were still all hanging on a line in the back yard drying off.

As it is "faddish" and every day is becoming more-so for Edith to change her name to Edythe, and May to Mae, and Mabel to Mabelle, and Ada to Adah, and Blanche to Blanche, and Ora to Orah, and Della to Dellah, and "sich-like," we have decided to adopt a cognomen likewise freakish, get in behind the band and say "program." Henceforth and in the future we wish to be known as Edytor Wylum Henry Pique. Might just as well be in sulphuric bades with appendicitis as to be out of style. Next week we calculate to blow ourselves for a new shoe string, a bottle of perfumery and a pair of red ribbed galluses. Then we can dress up and get out in society and be somebody. We have stayed in just as long as is prudent on account of a homely sounding name and a scanty wardrobe.—Linden Leader.

Notice—Life insurance companies will reduce the rate 33 per cent. to all who agree to use Rocky Mountain Tea. A wise measure. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., NOV. 3, 1899.

The Servant Girl Question.

The servant girl question is discussed in a comparatively new phase by the Pontiac Post's "Man about Town" who inquires that the solution of the vexatious problem is in sight as indicated by the employment of men in many Chicago homes as servants for general housework instead of women. The writer referred to asserts—substantially—in support of a probable epoch of male house servants that the men thus employed are more tractable and obedient, "know their place" much better, have better judgment about their work, besides a thorough ability to realize the "snap" they get in securing in addition to their wages, board and a comfortable home as well as stated hours at their own disposal. It is quite probable that the above qualities are shown by those men who have entered upon this new field of labor for their sex—if only on the "new broom" principle; and another advantage would be the fact of their possession of a much larger amount of the physical strength required to perform the manifold duties of a household which would make the occupation a much different affair to them than to a woman. However, the subject in question has had a good deal of tentative discussion before it became—as the M. A. T. affirms it to be—an assured fact. The danger of the male sex being reduced to extremities in the industrial field has been repeatedly pointed out by those who have viewed with distrust the incursions of women into all the possible—and many seemingly impossible—avenues of employment to the exclusion of their brothers; and as domestic service appeared to be the least popular of all the kinds of work traditionally belonging to "the quiet sex," it was the first that felt the effect of the new conditions. Of course we have long had "man milliners" and "man dressmakers" but they are in something the same proportion as the "woman barbers" and "woman blacksmiths" we occasionally hear of. The fact remains that the men are being out-numbered, and also out-classed in the quality of the work performed in so many trades and professions by women, that it has really become a serious question what they are to do. If they can fill the vacancies—and the long lamented deficiencies—also—in domestic service, it will be not only a boon to humanity but will settle two vexatious problems, one a new, and the other an old grievance, and the modern "woman movement" will not have evolved itself out of generations of causes in vain.

Saturday night again! Somehow or another, one more week has slipped by and joined the thousands of other weeks that have passed and gone since time was anew. Tomorrow the black-coated dominie will preach to us, and perhaps tell us that we should make the most of our moments, and do a little good every day. Monday we take up our troubles again, and before we know it another week will have vanished into oblivion of the past. Then the preacher will preach and Monday will come again. The weeks pass like moving pictures on a screen. They attract attention for a moment—and then we hunger for the next one. It comes, goes, another and another. Then the lights go out and the show is over.—Lansing Journal.

We recently remarked on the "Washington letter" in the country newspaper as about the most chestnutty thing possible in the journalistic line; but now for genuine prehistoric flavor commend us to the "fashion article" which at the present season of the year—or just as likely in the dead of winter—starts off like this: "The coming of summer brings into serious consideration the question of the cool, dainty ethereal fabrics that are to be factors in the summer girl's campaign; etc., etc."

Some men talk about owning their business. But as a matter of fact in most cases his business owns him. His whole life is regulated by the demands of the business. The time at which he rises, his breakfast hour, the time given to meals, are all determined by business obligations. He rushes through lunch because he can't spare the time from business; he can't eat leisurely. He won't take a rest because he is needed at the store or office. He is in fact an absolute slave to business.

The present month merits the title of "Golden October." There have been many pleasant days. The decaying and dying foliage presents an attractive yet suggestive picture. A drive in the country at this season of the year is delightful and many persons take advantage of the opportunity. The roads are good, the air bracing and the scenery charming.

Suburban News.

River Rouge is now an incorporated village and will hold its first village election Nov. 27.

A patient at the Pontiac asylum committed suicide recently by jabbing a large hairpin into her throat.

Farmington has organized a "Park Improvement Society" to devise ways and means to utilize the site purchased by the village some time ago.

Fifty-three deaths were reported in Oakland county in September. Of this number Nov. had three. Farmington village and township three and Milford one.

Milan township's supervisor was elected this year for the twenty-eighth consecutive time. Milan! but that's a long time for a man to fill one position!

The fifteenth annual camp-fire of the GAR and WRC at Milford last week was pronounced the best ever held there. Ex Gov. Rich, Judge VanZile and "Sammy" Smith were the only delinquents among the advertised speakers.

Wyandotte's board of health has been instructed by the city council to forbid using the sidewalks as substitutes for cuspidors. If the citizens conform to the requirement they may expect to rate higher in the record for cleanliness.

Among Wyandotte's rapid movements toward metropolitanism is the advancement of the burglary industry which is assuming a numerical proportion as the "woman barbers" and "woman blacksmiths" we occasionally hear of. The fact remains that the men are being out-numbered, and also out-classed in the quality of the work performed in so many trades and professions by women, that it has really become a serious question what they are to do. If they can fill the vacancies—and the long lamented deficiencies—also—in domestic service, it will be not only a boon to humanity but will settle two vexatious problems, one a new, and the other an old grievance, and the modern "woman movement" will not have evolved itself out of generations of causes in vain.

And Admiral Devey couldn't come to Three Oaks after all. However, that little town has won for itself lasting fame because of its nerve in tendering the invitation, and it probably has a sufficient supply left to astonish folks some more when the chance comes.

Farmers who have lately been digging wells in the vicinity of Fowlerville have found the water unfit to use owing to the presence of oil in it and now the Standard company is going to investigate. Meantime everybody is excited and visions of wealth and odors of petroleum permeate the air. Well, well! hope its oil true.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, to know that the people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds that have been cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia that have averted and of the children that have been saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine, for sale by Geo. C. Huston, Druggist.

SMALLPOX VICTIMS

SAGINAW INFESTED WITH THE DREADED DISEASE.

CASE ACCIDENTALLY DISCOVERED SATURDAY EVENING.

PRECAUTIONS TAKEN TO GUARD AGAINST ITS SPREAD.

Saginaw, Mich., Oct. 30.—Smallpox made its appearance in Saginaw Saturday evening, but fortunately, although discovered by accident, it was promptly taken in hand by the authorities.

The victims are Albert and Edward Hellas, aged respectively 23 and 16 years. They reside in Buena Vista just over the corporation limits and there is a large family, all of whom have in consequence been exposed. The young men came to the office of Dr. Pease on a private business matter, and while there one of the victims showed the doctor his hands, which were covered with blanches and asked what they were. The physician, at once pronounced it smallpox and summoned the health officer who, coincided with the diagnosis. The patients were immediately isolated, pest-houses being improvised on the river, and every precaution taken to guard against the disease spreading the plague.

It is supposed they contracted the disease from some one of the Maple Grove victims, it having developed that the quarantining in that township has been ineffective.

SMALLPOX QUARANTINE.

Lansing Health Officers Having a Hard Time Enforcing It.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 30.—The fact that the cases of smallpox prevailing at several places in Michigan are of a mild form has given the local health officers a vast amount of trouble in enforcing the quarantine regulations. In some cases patients sick with the disease have been hidden from the health officers until a large number of persons had been exposed, while in other cases persons have escaped from the quarantine and spread the disease. It is feared that when the cold weather comes, and the disease becomes more malignant, it will give the health officers serious trouble. The Maple Grove health officer, in whose jurisdiction there has been about 30 cases, has applied to the state board of health for assistance in enforcing quarantine regulations.

St. Joseph people are also excited over an outbreak in Benton Harbor. They have asked the state board of health to officially determine if the disease existing there is smallpox and will maintain a strict quarantine if their fears are realized.

Said to Be a Fraud.

Ann Arbor, Mich., October 30.—A telegram was received Saturday from the German National Bank of Oshkosh, Wis., stating that one George B. Davis had deposited there a check for $1,200 on the State Savings Bank of this city, and asking whether Davis had that sum on deposit here. A reply was sent at once to the effect that Davis and his check are both frauds. Sheriff Gillen also telegraphed instructions to arrest the man but seems to have been too late. Davis struck Ann Arbor Tuesday and in eight hours is alleged to have cleaned up $70 or more by the use of bogus checks on the bank at Danby, Pa. He seems to have made his next stop at Oshkosh, Wis., and the telegram from that city indicates that he is operating under the plan which proved so successful here.

STATE SPECIALS.

It takes three older folks running overtime to keep Tekonsha people from going thirsty.

Twenty-one thousand down eyes are stored in a warehouse at Otsego bay longing to a firm, c. produce dealers.

The first wild skins of the season were brought into Gladwin last week for the collection of the bounty thereon.

A new three-story brick hotel, with all the up-to-date improvements, is one of the good things down on the bills for Cadillac next season.

What timber there is left in Cass county is being gobbled up by buyers this fall. The high price of lumber making the demand strong.

Notwithstanding the high wages offered for men to work in the woods, lumber operators in the upper peninsula are compelled to work their camps short-handed.

A big brewery will be built at Olfert by a stock company composed of business men of the place. The contract has already been let for the erection of the buildings.

A tract of 100 acres of hardwood timber located near Vernon, one of the few such tracts remaining in the county, has been sold to Bay City lumber operators and will be cut this winter.

Harland Houghtaling, who has a farm north of Standish, harvested a sugar beet the other day which measured four feet and three inches in length, and thinks he has done about as well as the next man.

Farmers all around Tekonsha are suffering from the depredations of thieves, who do business on a wholesale scale. One farmer lost six fine lambs in one night at the hands of the unregenerate state prison candidates, and another farmer $40 worth of clover seed.

Another industry which will give employment to a number of men has been added to Newaygo's growing list. It is a sawmill which the local improvement company is building to manufacture the timber it has been purchasing in large tracts around the county.

MICHIGAN SWAMP LANDS.

Total Acreage Is 26,519,240. Land and 25,894,400 of Water.

Washington, Oct. 27.—The commissioner of the general land office in his annual report, says that during the last fiscal year forty acres of swamp land was patented in Michigan, making a total of 5,675,714 acres since grants first were made. The vacant public lands in the state now amount to 478,013 acres, all of which have been surveyed. Of this area, 37,746 acres have been reserved from entry. The total acreage of the state is given as 36,819,200 acres of land, and 27,894,400 acres of water.

The commissioner's report also shows a grand total of 329,308,035 acres of unappropriated and unreserved public lands in the United States. The disposal of public lands during the fiscal year shows an increase of 223,515 acres as compared with the aggregate of the previous year.

The adjustment of the Northern Pacific grants shows 36,770,000 acres as the quantity of lands to which that company is entitled and there is still due the company 14,851,832 acres. The whole area of the grant to the Union Pacific is found to be 12,129,512 acres, of which 5,153,046 acres is still due. The whole area of the grant to the St. Paul, Minneapolis, & Manitoba company is 1,277,226 acres and the company has actually received an excess of 10,975 acres. The adjustment of the Northern Pacific grant shows there will be a deficiency of more than half a million acres of the grant of May 31, 1870. A deficiency also may be found under the grant of 1884.

STATE LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.

Ninth Annual Meeting of the Michigan Body Held at Ypsilanti.

Ypsilanti, Mich., Oct. 27.—The Michigan Library Association is holding its ninth annual meeting at the Normal College. The meeting was called to order by E. A. Lyman, principal of the Normal, and the response made by H. M. C. Yerk, president of the association. A paper on "What Tools and How to Use Them" was read by Julia S. Wood, of the Hackley public library. "Women's Literary Clubs" was discussed by Ellen Dean, of the Grand Rapids library. "City and Open Shelves" by Cella M. Waldo, of the Jackson public library. In the evening discussion of "The State Library Commissions and Their Work" were held by H. M. C. Yerk, of Detroit; R. P. Haynes, of Cincinnati; Robinson Locke, of Chicago; J. M. C. Smith, of Charlotte, Mich.; and others. At the close of the evening meeting an informal reception was held in the Normal College library rooms. Papers will be read by Mary Jordan, of the Central Normal at Mt. Pleasant; W. J. McKone, of Albion; and Mary Berkey, of the Normal training school.

In the Supreme Court.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 27.—The following cases were submitted Thursday: People vs. Butler (170); People vs. Heide (171); People vs. Bennett (172); People vs. Smith (180); People vs. Warren (182); People vs. Allen (183); People vs. Carter (187); People vs. Youngs (188); People vs. Lonsdale (189); Stephens vs. Leonard (71); Lawrence vs. Morse (90); Thorne vs. Mead (91); Holmes vs. Deppert (94); auditor-general vs. Longyear (73).

Call for Friday: 65, 96, 30, 97, 98, 11, 100, 102, 106, 108, 114, 115, 116, 117, 118.

People vs. Thompson, the case arising out of the boiler explosion in the Detroit Journal building a few years ago, will be argued on Tuesday, Nov. 14, to which date the court will adjourn to-morrow.

Doctors' Certificates.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 27.—The state board of medical examiners held an adjourned meeting here Thursday afternoon and did considerable routine business. Among other matters a resolution was adopted providing that physicians may deposit their diplomas and certificates with any member of the board instead of having to go to Lansing or Detroit to seek the secretary. As the board members are well scattered geographically about the state, this will be a great convenience and save time and expense to the doctors. No action was taken upon the graduates of the independent medical colleges and when their applications for registration come in they will be held over until the next meeting, when a full board is present.

Want Their Money.

Lansing, Mich., Oct. 27.—Although the home for the feeble-minded at LaPeer sustained a loss of $1,203.88 by fire last July, the management has been unable to get the money from the state to make good the loss. The governor has a duty to perform in connection with calling the board of auditors together to pass upon the claim jointly with himself. He has not taken the steps to help the institution out of its difficulty and contractors are clamoring for their money, to the great embarrassment of the superintendent and board of managers.

Michigan Pensions.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Michigan pensions were granted Thursday as follows: Original—Charles Gearing, Au Sable, $6. Additional—Carlos A. Webster, Maple Rapids, $6 to $8; Spencer W. Haynes, Soldiers' home, $6 to $12. Restoration and increase—Wm. Siv, dead, Jackson, $6 to $8. Increase—John Erickson, Muskegon, $6 to $10; John D. Sutherland, Stanton, $12 to $14. Widows, etc.—Mary A. Firestone, Marlin, $12; Agnes Siv, Jackson, $5; Lavinia Wyatt, Fairfax, $5; Hannah Merrill, Carsenville, $8.

Arm and Leg Mangled.

Grand Haven, Mich., Oct. 27.—Gerrit Vandenberg, a young man who is car checker at the Grand Trunk depot, met with a sad accident this afternoon. He was riding outside of the caboose of a freight train near Spring Lake, when he slipped and fell between the rails. Four men passed over his left arm and his left leg was broken and mangled. Despite his injuries he did not lose consciousness. The arm will be taken off at the shoulder. The young man graduated from Grand Haven high school last June.

BILIOUS-NESS

Do you get up with a headache?
Is there a bad taste in your mouth?
Then you have a poor appetite and a weak digestion. You are frequently dizzy, always feel dull and drowsy. You have cold hands and feet. You get but little benefit from your food. You have no ambition to work and the sharp pains of neuralgia dart through your body.
What is the cause of all this trouble?
Constipated bowels.

Ayer's PILLS

will give you prompt relief and certain cure.

Keep Your Blood Pure.
If you have neglected your case a long time, you had better take

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

also. It will remove all impurities that have been accumulating in your blood and will greatly strengthen your nerves.

Write the Doctor.
There may be something about your case you do not quite understand. Write the doctor freely, tell him how you are suffering. You will promptly receive the best medical advice. Address,
Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

The Bane of the Mosquito.

The bane of the mosquito is simply a toolbox, wherein the mosquito keeps six miniature surgical instruments in perfect order. Two of these instruments are exactly counterparts of the surgeon's lance, one is a spear with a double-barbed head, the fourth is a needle of exquisite fineness, a saw and a pump going to make up the complement. The spear is the largest of the six tools, and is used for making the initial puncture; next the lances or knives are brought into play to cause the blood to flow more freely. In case this last operation fails of having the desired effect, the saw and the needle are carefully and feelingly inserted in a lateral direction in the victim's flesh. The pump, the most delicate of all six of the instruments, is used in transferring the blood to the insect's stomach.

Does the Baby Thrive

If not, something must be wrong with its food. If the mother's milk doesn't nourish it, she needs SCOTT'S EMULSION. It supplies the elements of fat required for the baby. If baby is not nourished by its artificial food, then it requires

Scott's Emulsion

Half a tea-spoonful three or four times a day in its bottle will move the desired effect. It seems to have a magical effect upon babies and children. A fifty-cent bottle will prove the truth of our statements.

Should be taken in summer as well as winter.

RAILROAD ABSORPTION

BIG MICHIGAN ROADS TO BE CONSOLIDATED.

SPECIAL MEETING OF F. & P. M. STOCKHOLDERS AT SAGINAW.

D. G. R. & W. AND C. & N. W. ALSO IN THE DEAL.

Saginaw, Mich., Nov. 2.—A special meeting of the stockholders of the Flint & Pere Marquette railroad will be held at the company's offices in this city for the purpose of considering and taking action upon the following propositions: "A proposition to sell to the Pere Marquette Railroad Co. all the property, rights and franchises of said Flint & Pere Marquette Railroad Co., and a proposition to lease and a proposition to sell said property, rights and franchises, to Chicago & West Michigan Railway Co., and also a proposition for the lease by the Flint & Pere Marquette Railroad Co. and a proposition for the purchase by said company, of all the property, rights and franchises of Detroit, Grand Rapids & Western Railroad Co. and Chicago & West Michigan Railroad Co. (including any property, rights and franchises that the last-named company may acquire from Chicago & North Michigan Railroad Co.) and if the above-mentioned propositions, or any modifications thereof, are approved by the stockholders, to authorize the necessary action to carry the same into effect."

It is generally believed that the stockholders will vote to sell to the Pere Marquette Railroad Co., a corporation which filed articles a few weeks ago, ostensibly to construct a line of railroad from Pentwater to Manistee, but in reality believed to have been organized for the purpose of absorbing the other roads involved in the consolidation deal. The stockholders of the Detroit, Grand Rapids & Western Michigan roads meet at Grand Rapids on Friday to vote on the same propositions that will come before the Flint & Pere Marquette stockholders, and it is the belief that the same action will be taken and the Pere Marquette Co. will absorb the three roads.

Michigan Pensions.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Michigan pensions were granted Wednesday as follows: Original—Edgar Sprague, Kent City, $9; Wm. H. Sweet, Iron Mountain, $12; Elmer M. Kent, Holland, $8; Wm. Shorter, Big Lake, $8; Alonzo T. Lyon, Detroit, $8; Edward O'Brien, Mackinac Island, $6. Restoration—James H. Lee, Belding, $12. Increase—Lucius B. Mills, Hesperia, $4 to $6; Edward S. Hirst, Penton, $4 to $14; Henry Darling, Loomis, $8 to $12; Charles W. Ellis, Charlotte, $24 to $30; Reuben W. Hodges, Horton, $18. Widows—Sarah A. Pallette, Warren, $8.

Has No Standing in Michigan.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—Insurance Commissioner Stevens has been informed that the Jewelers' Security Alliance of New York, which insures jewelers against loss by burglary, is doing business in this state. The company is a national affair and has no standing with the insurance department of the state. Its losses have so far been paid promptly. It is understood, and many Michigan jewelers are insured in it.

STATE SPECIALS.

The following carriers in the Grand Rapids postoffice have been promoted from third- to second class, the salary in each case increased to $850 a year: Stephen F. Hilton, Louis F. Herdon, Cornelius Niemeihouse, John Pfeiffer, Edward G. Rasch, William P. Seybold.

The pardon board will meet in Colon this week to investigate the case of Adolph Swartz, who was convicted of murder and is now serving a life sentence. It has always been claimed that Swartz was convicted upon circumstantial evidence of the most flimsy character.

A South Haven druggist refused to make the weekly report to the prosecuting attorney of his liquor sales, as provided by a law passed by the last legislature to apply to local option counties, and has been bound over to the Circuit Court, the idea being to test the constitutionality of the law.

Battle Creek is so sore over the way in which the city was "scooped" by the board of supervisors in the equalization of taxes that there is talk of asking the legislature to cut the county in two, leaving Battle Creek in one-half and Marshall in the other, the total valuation of which was left just the same as last year, in the other.

Belding is a pretty busy place these days. All the factories in the city—and there are a lot of them—are behind on their orders and running overtime to catch up, and many new houses are being built to supply the demand. The new railroad from Lowell will also strike the city before long and help things along.

During the month of September, the state analyst in the pure food department examined 123 samples of food products of which 59 were found pure, and 64 adulterated. Flavoring extracts were found to be adulterated in a majority of the samples examined, but only suspected samples were analyzed. Prosecutions for selling adulterated extracts are promised.

Athens is now coming into line for a cement factory, a company having been organized with $120,000 capital, which amount will shortly, it is asserted, be increased to $1,000,000, for the purpose of putting in an up-to-date cement plant in the village. Should this be done, it would be a big thing for Athens, as 100 to 200 men would be given steady employment.

NEW PERE MARQUETTE.

Filed Its Articles of Incorporation Wednesday.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—The consolidation of the Flint & Pere Marquette, the Chicago & West Michigan and the Detroit, Grand Rapids & Western railroads has at last been consummated. The articles of incorporation of the new Pere Marquette Railroad Co. having been filed with the secretary of state Wednesday. The new company has a capital stock of $28,000,000, and a franchise fee of $14,000. The purpose of the new company is to acquire the lines of railroad mentioned and to operate them. The directors of the company represent the several companies in the consolidation. They are: Sanford T. Crapo, C. M. Head, James E. Howard, Clark S. McMillen, F. A. Nimms, Arthur Pittsford, Henry C. Potter, Jr., Urial B. Rogers, Edwin Saunders, James H. Simpson and Russell Wallace.

Starving and Deserted.

Houghton, Mich., Nov. 2.—J. H. Gregory, sub-contractor on building a section of the copper range railroad several miles northeast of Mass City, is alleged to have secured an advance of $2,000 on his estimate of the work and the loan of an equal amount from C. E. Loss & Co., contractors for the entire line, two weeks ago and disappeared. All goods and supplies and implements at this camp were immediately attached by local creditors, and when a representative of Loss & Co. reached camp Gregory's 100 employees were literally starving in the wilderness, having had no food for two days as well as being unpaid.

Gregory has been located in Chicago and Loss & Co. will take legal steps against him, under civil or criminal law.

St. Clair's Salt Plant.

St. Clair, Mich., Nov. 2.—President C. F. Moore, of the Diamond Crystal Salt Co., said that there is probably no foundation for the connection of the Diamond Crystal Salt Co. with any proposed plant at Wyandotte. This strong St. Clair concern has just completed additions to their plant here, greatly increasing their capacity. The rumor that the Diamond Crystal Co. was to enter the Wyandotte field undoubtedly has its origin in the fact that John S. Clark, former superintendent of the Diamond Crystal Co., is endeavoring to interest capital in the establishment of salt works at Wyandotte.

Diseases in Michigan.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—Reports to the board of health show that pneumonia, neuritis, bronchitis, tonsillitis and diarrhea, in the order named, caused the most sickness in Michigan during the week ending Oct. 28. Consumption was reported in 205 places; typhoid fever, 321; scarlet fever, 73; diphtheria, 29; measles, 23; whooping cough, 17; smallpox, 8, and cerebrospinal meningitis at 5.

Runaway Couple Heard From.

Houghton, Mich., Nov. 2.—Agnes Kramer and William Bain, the 16-year-old white girl and 30-year-old negro who disappeared Monday night from Laurium, walked 45 miles to Houghton the same night and took the morning train for Detroit. The father of the girl is in Chicago undergoing a surgical operation and the mother is ill and almost or quite insane from worry and grief.

Walls Fell In.

Lansing, Mich., Nov. 2.—John Lucas, a brick mason, was buried beneath the falling walls of a building owned by H. E. Olds, of Detroit, Wednesday noon, and was extricated with only slight injuries. The walls were newly erected, and it is alleged, the mortar used was too green in view of the season of the year. The damage to the building is several hundred dollars.

Funston Sues Ireland.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 2.—A special from Albuquerque, N. M., says: Gen. Funston, who is en route home with the mustered-out Twentieth Kansas regiment, has wired his Toledo attorneys to bring proceedings against Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, for criminal libel, and also against the Monitor, a Catholic paper of San Francisco. In a recent interview in Chicago, Ireland was quoted as saying that Funston had been charged with looting Catholic churches in the Philippines. Ireland called on Funston to deny or the public would be obliged to believe him guilty.

Coinings at the Philadelphia Mint.

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—During October more than 20,000,000 pieces of money were coined at the mint in this city, representing a total value of $3,263,563.26. Of these 175,000 were Costa Rica coins, of 20, 10 and 5 colon value, worth altogether $688,023. Of United States money there were 26,000 eagles, 1,602,000 half dollars, 3,368,000 quarters and 3,580,000 dimes. In nickels and pennies 11,250,000 pieces were cast, valued together at $304,450.

The Civil Service.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Chief Examiner Serven, of the civil service commission, in his annual report says 48,303 persons were examined for entrance to the government service. Not quite 75 per cent of the candidates passed. The committee has decided to abolish the internal revenue boards of examiners and examinations formerly conducted by them will be hereafter conducted by examiners sent from Washington.

Samoa Negotiations.

London, Nov. 2.—While the Samoan negotiations continue, it can be said they are in such a condition that there is small possibility of reaching an agreement in the near future. The United States has informed the foreign office that it heartily indorses the proposal for the government of Samoa by one power, but that, so far, no plan has been suggested which appears satisfactory to the United States.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT

TWO MEN BLOWN TO FRAGMENTS AT THE CUNDY MINE.

PREMATURE BLAST OF DYNAMITE IN THE GRAY SHAFT.

SECOND FATALITY IN THE SAME PLACE WITHIN A WEEK.

Iron Mountain, Mich., Oct. 31.—Another terrible accident occurred here Monday morning on the same level and in nearly the same spot of the Cundy mine where three men were blown to pieces last Tuesday. Richard Knight and John Bedro, two miners, were standing over a charge of dynamite when it exploded prematurely and they were blown to pieces. Their helper was seriously injured at the same time. Neither of the victims was married.

The accident is supposed to have been caused in the same manner as that of last Tuesday, by the men using an iron scraper to nudge the cartridge of dynamite. The scraper is a spoon-shaped contrivance used for clearing out drill holes. It is made of iron and it is contrary to the rules of all mines to use it for tamping purposes, a round stick being furnished. By using it, however, several moments are gained in driving a cartridge in place.

It is thought that a piece of granite became dislodged and fell into the hole, and when the iron was driven down on the powder a spark was struck, causing the explosion.

Body Floating in Saginaw River.

Saginaw, Mich., Oct. 31.—A dead body was found in the Saginaw river, back of the old power house of the Triction company, south of the Michigan Central Railroad bridge. It was identified as that of Charles H. Blower, a well-known resident of James township. Two bad bruises were found, one on the forehead and the other on the temple. The body had been in the water some hours, but the fact that it was floating indicates drowning was not the cause of death. Deceased left home Saturday morning about 7 o'clock, and that evening about 6 o'clock he was at a saloon, on Gratiot street, where he left a package with the bartender, saying he would call for it later. On his person was the sum of $10 in cash. He had held positions of township clerk, treasurer, school inspector, and at the time of his death he was school moderator of the fourth district. The opinion seems to be that death was the result of some accident.

Oxford Not in It.

Ann Arbor, Mich., October 31.—The Unity Club lecture course opened Monday night, Edgus W. D. Harriman presenting a scholarly and interesting paper on "Oxford and Its Colleges." During the past summer the judges spent some time at this ancient seat of learning, with peculiar opportunities for critical study of its ideas and methods, and he asserts that, with the exception of old English literature and history, in no single line do the opportunities it offers compare favorably with those offered at the University of Michigan.

Guilt of Breaking Quarantine.

Mason, Mich., Oct. 31.—Solomon Amstutz and John Oliver, of this city, pleaded guilty of breaking a quarantine imposed on account of diphtheria. Sentence was suspended and the danger from spreading the disease is past, when justice will be dealt out to them. There are three cases in the city at present and the authorities are using every effort to prevent the disease from being spread.

STATE SPECIALS.

Mackinac Island is to have a system of water works next season, a company having been formed with a capital of $100,000 to put in such a plant.

The health record in Ovid this year beat the past in every respect. There has not been a contagious disease of any class in the village for a whole year.

Contrary to the usual custom, most of the sawmills along the Menominee river will this season run full blast right up to freezing weather. The high price and strong demand for lumber is the cause.

The residents of the section north and west of Oxford, up toward Hadley and Ortonville, are trying to secure an extension in their direction of the electric road now being built to Oxford from Detroit.

The marl beds around Black Lake, situated on the line between Presque Isle and Cheboygan counties, are said to be of exceeding richness and have lately been investigated by a Detroit capitalist with a view of establishing a mammoth cement plant there.

There is some insect pest at work in the wheat fields around Mendon which is destroying the new growth of wheat at a rapid rate. Specimens of the bugs, which are an inch to an inch and a half long, have been sent to the Agricultural College to be identified.

More than half of the total losses of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Co. in Emmet, Cheboygan and Charlevoix counties the past twelve months were from lightning. In fact, the losses from this cause were more for the twelve months than for the previous twelve years in the company's existence.

Port Huron grocers had an organization for the purpose of keeping prices up, but one who was not in the association began to cut rates on his goods, and soon had the trade coming his way so fast that those who were in the trust had to "go and do likewise" or run the risk of having their profits materially cut down.

NOVEMBER THANKSGIVING.

We've oysters from the dark blue sea.
As fat and plump as they can be.
They're good to fry, and good to stew—
And good to stuff a turkey too.

The kind of oysters Fry Bros. sell
Have pearls in every other shell.
They're shipped to Fry Bros. every day—
Right from the bed in Chesapeake bay.

We've celery in bunches tied;
That's good to serve with oysters fried.
The kind of celery Fry Bros. keep
Will bring to the nervous, peaceful sleep.

Thanksgiving day will soon be round,
And new fresh nic-nacs by qt. or lb.
And funny groceries by the score,
Will grace Fry Bros. grocery store.

a host of pretty girls and clever comedians. The plot of the comedy concerns the trials of Molly Iree who is led to believe herself the victim of hereditary insanity—the trouble she causes her family and the queer scrapes into which she plunges the whole neighborhood make up the story of the play.

School Notes.

[School notes are printed exactly as written by the pupil.]

Northville High-school will play foot ball with Wayne High-school this afternoon. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

Only two tardy marks were made by the 92 pupils of the sixth grade during October.

The third and fourth grades are planning to have Thanksgiving exercises.

Out of an enrollment of 71 in the Primary department, 23 were neither absent nor tardy during last month.

The fifth grade wrote a very good illustrated story of Columbus last week.

Edwin Bratt who has recently been attending school at Flint is with us again and has entered the eighth grade.

The pupils of the third grade have been laboring with map drawing for the past week.

There were only 3 tardy marks in the first grade and also in the eighth grade last month.

The fifth and sixth grade pupils are very proud of their new picture of St. Cecilia which is nicely framed.
Elmer Perrin donated the most soap wrappers towards obtaining it.

The third grade have a new bookcase in one corner of their room it not only improves the looks of the room but it is also very convenient for the scholars.

Miss Mary Sleater and Miss Pearl Little are in school again after several days illness.

Preliminary steps are already being taken toward placing the High-schools on the State Normal list of accredited schools. A. R. S.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS

RECORDS OF MICHIGAN SOLDIERS TO BE PUBLISHED.

COMPLETE ROSTER OF EVERY MAN WHO ENLISTED.

WAR DEPARTMENT WILL CO- OPERATE IN THE COMPILATION.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—The secretary of war has signed an order de-recting Gen. Ainsworth to proceed to Michigan for a conference with the officials of the adjutant-general's department of the records of the Michigan troops during the war of the rebellion. This is one of the most important undertakings of an historical character which the State has ever attempted and it is a significant fact that Michigan is in the front rank of the commonwealths of the Union in thus perpetuating the records of the brave men who responded so promptly to their country's call in the early sixties. The purpose is to publish a complete roster, including the name and record of every man who enlisted in the war of the rebellion from the State of Michigan, and the herculean character of the task may be gathered from the fact that the lowest estimate that has been made is that it will make at least thirty large octavo volumes.

The assignment of Gen. Ainsworth to confer with the State officials regarding this matter has been made at the request of Gov. Piggree and because of Gen. Ainsworth's remarkable record and achievements in the war department.

Gen. Ainsworth recently had a conference with the assistant adjutant-general of Michigan as to the condition of the Michigan records, at which it was developed that in some particulars they were only fragmentary, but it is hoped that with the cooperation of the war department a sufficiently complete compilation can be made to present briefly at least the record of every Michigan man who bore arms in the rebellion. Gen. Ainsworth expects to start for Michigan about November 15 and will spend several days at Detroit and Lansing.

Eloped with a Negro.

Calumet, Mich., Nov. 1.—Excitement here over the elopement of pretty 16-year-old Agnes Kraemer with a colored sewer laborer is still intense and the feeling against the negro is strong.
William Hall is the only negro who has not been accounted for and he is thought to be the man who enticed the girl away. The police in many cities have been notified to arrest him if found. Nicholas Kraemer, the father of the girl, is undergoing eye treatment at Milwaukee and her mother here is crazed with grief. The officials express little doubt that the girl and negro have left the country.

STATE SPECIALS.

While walking along the street Mrs.
Harry Bossh, of Ann Arbor, was struck by a bullet fired by some unknown person and severely injured. It is believed that the shot was accidental.

On Monday, while operating a corn husker near Wellsview, a young man named Milford Loring lost his left arm, which was drawn into the machinery. Amputation below the elbow was necessary.

A couple of colored men held up a white laborer at Ann Arbor Tuesday night. A colored girl enticed him up a side street and then the two men knocked him down and relieved him of his pocketbook.

No new cases of smallpox have been reported at Saginaw. The two patients are suffering from a high fever, and the attending physicians state
there is no question as to the accuracy of the diagnosis.

The Michigan Central is expending $10,000 in beautifying the grounds adjoining the depot at Ann Arbor. Mrs.
Frances Copley Seaver, of Chicago, prepared the plans for the work and is herself directing the fifteen laborers employed. The grounds will be given up largely to shrubbery and vines.

SOME OF THE REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY YOUR MILK AT BENTON'S DAIRY:

FIRST. Having been nine years in the business we know something about the handling of milk.

SECOND. We produce all our milk while we have of years back been compelled to buy milk at times, we have this season increased our dairy to the full wants of our customers and while increasing quantity we have not failed to raise the quality.

THIRD. The thorough, careful, clean and wholesome way of handling has given us the reputation of furnishing milk for infants that has brought forth the results looked for from the most fond and loving mother.

The Wayne county poor commissioners estimate that it will require in the neighborhood of ninety thousand dollars to take care of the county poor this coming year.

Christian Science Service Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Subject: "Mortals and Immortals." and Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the WCTU hall. All are cordially invited.

The "Patriotic festival" to be held in the rink by the WRC has been dated for Wednesday afternoon and evening, Nov. 15. Watch out for a good time. Every patriotic citizen ought to be interested.

The case of Geo. Rattenbury vs. the village of Northville came up in chancery in Detroit Wednesday. Judge Carpenter took the matter under consideration and will render his decision in a day or two.

The Record was in error last week in stating that Mr. Dubuar had leased any part of his mill to Geo. Francis. Mr. Francis simply goes to work as head sawer in the saw mill. The Record was misinformed.

The C. E. Halloween frolic at the rink Tuesday night was a decided success. There was a large crowd present and everybody had a whole armful of fun. The receipts will net the society something like $25.

The first meeting of the YMCA will be held next Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Rev. W. H. Lloyd will speak. Subject: "Debts." All men are cordially invited to be present. Election of officers will occur Nov. 12.

The Lady Maccabees are the proud possessors of a spang new Singer piano in their hall. The ladies rent its use to the other societies occupying the rooms and they are looking forward to many pleasant winter evenings.

A meeting of the Wayne County Teachers' Association will be held at Belleville High school Saturday President Lightbody, of Woodmere, will preside. A banquet will be held in the afternoon and addresses will be made by various teachers.

E. M. Starkweather has sold his four year old pacer Expert King by Expert Price. 2.13% dam Bell Fearnaught by Royal Fearnaught 1504 to Frank Davenport of Grass Lake for $350 cash. This is a fast young horse and was purchased for the New York speedway.

The increased police force on Halloween night together with Mayor Burgess' proclamation doubtless had much to do with the unusual quietness of that occasion. Wednesday mornings dawn found all horse blocks, hitching posts, signs and other movable articles in the village in their accustomed places. And yet the boys say they had lots of fun.

B. O. Webster of the Northville U. S. fish station is up on Belle Isle guarding fish which are being caught by fishermen and left in crates, provided by the government along the shore until ready for spawning. W. H. Safford also of the Northville station is doing the same act for Uncle Sam over on Grass Island. Young Bowers has gone up North to help Filkins from the Alpena station in the same line of business.

In C. R. Benton, the taxpayers of Northville township have a man made of the right stuff to protect his constituency. As a member of the sub-committee on equalization he did good work as the representation of a township of progressive people. He made a claim for a reduction of the assessed valuation, a claim that he considered just and right, and although opposed by Lawyer Starkweather, supervisor of his sister town "Plymouth," won the day. Such men as Mr. Benton are good men to represent the people and his people always know where to find him.—Springwells Times.

In speaking of the equalization of Northville township by the board of county supervisors last week the Record's statement that Supervisor Benton secured a reduction on the equalization of over $35,000 and that the Globe Co.'s assessment was not reduced on account of the fire, was criticised as being false. We thought we knew what we were talking about and a peep into the tax rolls of 1898 and 1899 is sufficient proof that we did. In 1898 the Globe was assessed real and personal $50,200. This year same property is assessed to Am. School Farm Co. and the Globe in a total of $45,000 or but $5,200 less than last year. The assessment was made however previous to the fire and the figures were never changed afterwards. The reduction of $5,000 was in personal property and included lumber, etc., which had been used up since 1898. Supervisor Benton is entitled to all the credit the Record gave him, and more too.

Remember December is coming and with it the King's Daughter's annual fair and apron sale for which they are making great preparations. A good collection of holiday goods will be a specialty.

A well known merchant who ought to know what he is talking about says: "By the time the average merchant is 50 he has money enough due him in bad debts to support him the rest of his life—if he could collect it." You may know something about it.

If there's any one in town who is tired of this life and desires to try some other they will have to go no further than to "catch" hold of an electric light wire any of these cool evenings. The current is up to about 5,000 volts now and a little touch will tumble a man up side down in a short time.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve chicken pie at the rink Tuesday evening Nov. 7. Supper from 5:30 until all are filled. Come early and avoid the rush, and then be sure and stay to hear the cooks sing. Remember the time and place—Tuesday evening at the rink. Admission 20 cents.

Our local merchants have received a large amount of their fall and winter stocks. While last month is reported to have been a "quiet" one in business, this month will be a busy one. Prices generally have been good with the farmers, and when their work for the season is completed they will begin to trade.

The township Sunday school convention held at Plymouth last week elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, T. S. Clark, Vice President, S. F. Chilson, Secretary, Mrs. Eliza Larkins, Treasurer, V. E. Hill. The meeting was not as well attended as some of the previous ones but to those present it was exceedingly helpful.

The American Express Co's office has been moved up town into the store of Merritt & Co and E. A. Merritt appointed agent. F. N. Perrin will continue in the free delivery department which will be extended throughout the entire residence part of the village. The advent of the new electric roads in town doubtless had much to do toward the American's change as the new roads intend to handle package express and freight. The office in Merritt's store will be connected by telephone to the Northville and New State telephone office.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, Nervous Prostration, or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Sample bottles at Murdoch Bros.

The above cut is a very correct picture of J. H. Moore's new Wonderland Theatre in Detroit, which is to be opened to the public next week Monday, Nov. 6. This museum and theatre is unquestionably the largest, prettiest, most comfortable and most modern equipped of any similar amusement palace in the United States. Northville people have a little interest in Wonderland in that it was seated throughout by the Globe Furniture Company of this place. For 10c one can see more at Wonderland than would cost ten times that amount in most places.

AN EDUCATED SWINDLER.

History of an Alsatian Who Secured Vast Sums of Money By Fraud.

IS AN EXPERT CHEMIST.

A Glasgow Firm Gave Up Twenty Thousand Dollars for His Coloring Process.

Came to America Where He Operated With Great Success—His Experience in New York and San Francisco—Said to Have Realized Five Million Dollars in Chile
Where He Met His Downfall.

Foremost in the ranks of the world's swindlers, probably stands Alfred Paraf, a native of Alsace, handsome, polished, well educated, noted for his keen intelligence and ready wit, as well as many qualities. He was remarkably proficient in chemistry, taking a genuine delight in the study in his youth, and following his early education with a series of chemical experiments in his own laboratory. After he left school he set out upon his travels, and having exhausted the funds allowed him by his father in profligate expenditure, he found himself stranded in Glasgow. This incident may be said to have launched the clever young fellow upon the career he afterward pursued to his eventual disgrace and downfall. He engaged the most elegant hotel, visited a firm of wealthy manufacturers and announced himself as the discoverer of a new and cheap dye for calico printing. Plunging into the laboratory of the establishment the brilliant young fellow actually succeeded in supporting his assertions and was rewarded with $4,000 in gold for the right to the use of his new coloring process. This sum was soon dissipated in new extravagances, and again reduced to sore straits, he compounded a new color and sold the secret of the dye to his uncle, a rich manufacturer in Paris, for 50,000 francs.

Before this sum was entirely scattered to the winds he landed in New York, made himself known as a distinguished chemist, and cleared $50,000 by the sale of a new "aniline black" succeeding in escaping with his spoils before the real owner and patience of the process arrived to dispute his claims. He next swindled Governor Sprague of Rhode Island, out of $25,000 on a failed process for the cheap extraction of bladder, and during the eighteen months that elapsed before the bubble burst is known to have incurred expenses exceeding $100,000, contracting large pecuniary obligations of ready money, in addition to his outlay. He next invented oleomargarine and contrived to organize a stock company with a capital of $500,000 for its manufacture. Investigation proved that he had only worked out the idea of the Parisian, Meze Mouriez, the original inventor of the process, but then Paraf's American company dispatched a son of Professor Doremus to Paris to save his own standing by the purchase of the American right, which was obtained for $10,000.

Paraf, still a shareholder, next went to San Francisco to dispose of the right to manufacture oleomargarine in California, and to superintend the erection of works. During his absence the old company in New York collapsed and a new one was founded, from which Paraf was excluded. Paraf then disappeared from San Francisco, where his career had been marked by the same lavish style of living, and was next heard from in Santiago, Chile. He was accompanied by his pretended servant, Francisco Rogel, who afterward turned out to be a skilled chemist, and aided and abetted by this clever accomplice he launched upon the unsuspecting Chileans the most flagrant swindle known in history. Presenting himself to the highest officials and social leaders of the South American republic, ingratiating himself with them by means of his accomplished manners and brilliant intellect, he confided to them the discovery of a process by which the dreams of the ancient alchemists could be realized and the base metals be transmuted into gold. A series of experiments, which Paraf knew so well how to conduct, persuaded them of the truth of his claims, and they zealously embarked upon the great enterprise. Smelting works were built and preliminary experiments resulted in a yield of $18,000 worth of gold from a single ton of low-grade copper ore. The company's stock ran up to fabulous prices. Shares, the par value of which was $1,000, sold at $14,000 apiece. Paraf, disposing of his own stock when the excitement ran highest, is estimated to have placed $5,000,000 to his personal credit. He delayed escape from the country a little too long. A director of the company, having his suspicions aroused, conducted some private experiments in the smelting works during the absence of Paraf and Rogel, and the discovery was made that all the gold recovered had been placed in the "reagent" which Paraf claimed to have discovered. This substance was found to be a hyposulphide of soda and gold, which resists the most powerful reagents, but readily yields to metal containing oxide of lead or iron. Paraf's life was only saved by his rescue from the indignant populace by the officers of the law. He was sentenced to five years' exile the time to be passed at hard labor under guard in the Chilean settlement of Valdivia.

Distance of Stars from the Earth.
There are stars so far distant from this earth that if the glad tidings of that first Christmas eighteen hundred years ago had been despatched then by an electric current which could speed seven times round our globe between every two ticks of the clock, they would not yet have received them.

SEVERELY DEALT WITH.

A Traveling Salesman Brutally Attacked at Sturgis.

Sturgis, Mich., Oct. 31.—H. H. Hooper, traveling salesman for the Kane Marble Works, of this city, was held up late Monday night while returning home from his employer's residence. As he was walking past Oak Lane cemetery on South Northwa street, two men stepped in front of him from the dark shadows of the many trees along the sidewalk and grabbed him, with the remark, "Now we will fix you." One commenced to choke Mr. Hooper while the other tried to see how hard he could kick him. He managed to throw him back, but they gave him no chance to escape but knocked him down and pounded and kicked him nearly to insensibility.

It is generally believed that they had no intention of robbery, but that they were waiting for some one with the intention of squaring an old account. At least his money and watch were not disturbed.

Train Wreckers Near Port Huron.

Port Huron, Mich., Oct. 31.—F. & P. M. railway officials here are considerably exercised over an alleged attempt at train wrecking Sunday evening. Several miles north of this city on the Port Austin division of the road, a quantity of ties had been placed on the track as an obstruction, but luckily the train to strike them was a freight, which was running slowly, and no particular damage resulted, the ties being scattered in all directions. Last Thursday an obstruction was also found on the track in this locality, but as it was thought to have been the work of small boys no particular attention was given the matter. The officers are now investigating the case.

Smallpox at Benton Harbor.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Oct. 31.—Dr. George E. Rainey, inspector of contagious diseases for the Michigan board of health, also a physician of Lansing, visited this place, and as a result of an investigation advised the state health department this message: "Cases are undoubtedly smallpox. Thorough system of quarantine is maintained." The decision of Inspector Rainey simply corroborates the action of City Health Officer Rygo, who one week ago placed the smallpox sign on the several places that he had quarantined ten days previous. There are now ten smallpox cases, and no new ones within the past week.

Body Almost Dismembered.

Owosso, Mich., October 31.—Ferdinand B. Hauze, an inmate for two years at the county house, a few miles south of this city, was killed on the coal mine spur Monday afternoon by a Grand Trunk freight train. He was walking on the track, did not hear the engine's warning and was run over and instantly killed. The wheels passed over his neck and right shoulder, almost cutting the head from his body.

Michigan Pensioners.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Michigan pensioners were granted Monday as follows: Original—John Brown, Stanton, $6; Additional—Daniel Jason, Stanton, $6 to $8; Increase—Ambrose H. Lyman, Concord, $10 to $12; Samuel B. Reed, Durand, $6 to $8; William M. Carroll, Onondaga, $14 to $24; Peter W. Pruden, West Bay City, $14 to $17. Issue—John B. Beemer, Ashley, $8.

Auditors' Awards.

Lansing, Mich., October 31.—During the fiscal year ending June 30 last the awards of the Board of State Auditors aggregated $300,000. An indication how the allowances of this board have increased is furnished by the report of the board which shows that in 1893 the allowances were $224,704.

Christmas Boxes for Soldiers.

New York, Oct. 31.—At the army pier in Brooklyn Monday a corps of men were busily engaged receiving and recording the wagon loads of boxes which came in from all parts of the country for the United States soldiers in the Philippines. The government furnishes free transportation and many persons are taking advantage of the fact to send Christmas boxes to their relatives and friends in Manila. Not only were there packages from individuals, but many firms sent presents and among these was a large box of literature for sick soldiers. It is expected that the transport Thomas, which sails on Saturday with the Forty-seventh Regiment, will take most of the 3,000 packages now at the pier. After her departure other gifts will be forwarded by the Meade, Logan and Crook.

Admiral Schley's Orders.

Washington, Oct. 31.—Secretary Long has said that he did not contemplate making any change in Admiral Schley's orders. So far, these are nothing more than a direction to take command of the South Atlantic squadron. Nothing has been decided by the department as to the dispatch of one or more warships to South Africa. Secretary Long pointed out that that section of the world is within the geographical bounds of the South Atlantic station. Therefore, Admiral Schley will be at perfect liberty to go there or anywhere else on his station after he takes command. Respecting the mooted increase in the strength of the South Atlantic squadron, the secretary said he would not hesitate to increase the number of ships on the station if there were necessity for it.

Want a 10 Per Cent Increase.

Fall River, Mass., October 31.—The mill operatives of Fall River, through their representatives in the textile council have asked for an increase of 10 per cent in wages, to take effect November 13. The manufacturers through their committee replied they had no power to grant the increase asked, but would refer the request back to their association for instructions. The conference lasted three hours and the proceedings were harmonious and the discussion full. The request was for an increase of 10 per cent on the old basis of 2-3-4 cents per yard for regulars.

NAPIER'S BIG GOLD NUGGET

His Remarkable Story of Finding the Large and Famous Chunk.

IT WEIGHED 146 POUNDS.

It Got Him an Introduction to Queen
Victoria and Was the Cause of His Ruin.

The Difficulties Encountered in Getting It to a Place of Safety—Afterward Exhibited in the British Museum—Was Eventually Sold to the Bank of England for $50,000.

The recent shipment to England of a "big" nugget valued at $50,000 recalls the famous Napier nugget found in the Australian diggings forty years ago. The front end of Mr. Napier's name is Samuel H. He resided in Bathurst, N. B. nearly all his life and was once elected to the Legislature, but his chief fame rests on the fact that he once upon a time picked up the biggest chunk of gold that ever gladdened the heart of man.

"It was in 1854," said Mr. Napier, "that I left this country for Australia on the bark Marco Polo, which, when condemned was believed to be the oldest sailing craft afloat. She was a chicken, even in the fifties. I sailed four voyages from Liverpool to Melbourne, chiefly as purser and second mate, before I caught the mining fever. In 1857 I started for the diggings and remained there a year and a half. I went to Bendigo first and then staked a claim at Kingover, about forty miles from the Bendigo diggings, on an alluvial of the Murrumbidgee called the Loddon. I had been at Kingover about six months when I found the celebrated Napier or Bianche Barkly nugget. My brother, Charles H. Napier, was in partnership with me, and our cook and general handy man about camp was an Englishman, 70 years of age, Robert Ambrose. He is dead now, or if he isn't, it is plenty true he was."

The Kingover diggings was a small one compared with the Bendigo, and didn't pay out much at first. It was on August 14, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, that we made the big strike. We had dug down about fourteen feet to the pipe-dirt stratum and were shuffling around in the bottom of the shaft more dead than alive from the heat. Old Ambrose lit his pipe and leaned against the side of the hole for a rest. Just then I struck something with my pick. I turned it up so the light could strike it, and by jimmiey, there it was a hunk of gold as big as a Hubbard squash!

"Well, that minute I knew our fortune was made. Old Ambrose got excited and jumped around till I thought he'd have the whole diggings down upon us. Charles and I kept cool and covered the nugget up in the earth and didn't go high it for the rest of the day. After night we lugged the beauty to our tent and covered it up in the bedding.

About midnight we set to work as quiet as possible with our picks and sunk a shaft down about six feet underneath the table in the tent and buried the nugget out of sight. For several months it stayed there, with us eating it over it, walking over it, sleeping on it and dreaming about it, and not a soul at the diggings any the wiser. Ambrose used to talk in his sleep, but we found that a good dose of gin would settle that, and he generally got all he could cleverly stay away. Sometimes we lay awake all night with our guns handy in case we were molested, for there were plenty of tough subjects at the diggings that would have made short work of us if they had guessed our secret."

"Well, about the middle of November we bought a horse and cart and lit out for Melbourne, having in the meantime dug out our claim and piled up enough of the yellow stuff to carry us to London. It took us four days and four nights to reach Melbourne, and I hardly slept a wink on the way. The nugget was packed up in a rough box with some old clothes, and we told every one we met that we were going to New Zealand. We carried our arms with us for fear of being suspected. When we reached Melbourne we took private lodgings, and the next morning lugged her ladyship down to the Bank of Victoria and made all the necessary arrangements for shipping her, and we never saw her again until I produced the necessary documents at the Bank of England in London. Of course by this time the thing had leaked out, and in no time the city of Melbourne was crazy with excitement. We sold our beauty to the Bank of England for $10,000 sterling, my brother and I dividing the profits equally and pooling in handsomely for old Ambrose. How much did it weigh? The heft of that nugget was just 146 pounds 4 ounces and 3 pennyweights, and when it was smelted it was found to be 23 1/2 carats fine, containing only 10 ounces of dress. For some time it was exhibited in the British Museum by permission of the bank, and there is a cast of it there now, as well as one at Kingston College, Ontario.

"While in London we were presented to the Queen. She sent her carriage and a battalion of mounted police to take the nugget and us to the palace. We stopped with her for lunch, and I must say she made herself a generally agreeable. I teetered the Prince of Wales on my knee, for he was only a and then, and he promised to come to Canada to see me, which he did about eight years afterward. Then I went to Liverpool and got married, and went into the ship chandlery and sail-making business, and pretty soon every ounce of that nugget was gone to kingdom come. Mind you, I got no fault to find with marriage in general, but I didn't seem to strike a pay-streak. So then I came back to my old home, and when I got here the boys took hold in earnest and elected me at the head of the poll by 140 majority. But the nugget was my ruin after all, for I've done nothing since but hunt for gold on the Nashville, the Mississippi and the Nappadoggon. I found lots of signs, but nothing to pan out.

The Detested Rosas.
For extraordinary, incredible, diabolical wickedness the name of Rosas has become a proverb in South America. It is barely 20 years since he died; yet when the people of the River Plate speak of him, we seem to be hearing of some half-mad Ethiopian Sultan or hero of the "Arabian Nights," a creature of other clay than ordinary men; a being, half devilish, half divine, slavishly worshipped by all, capricious, vindictive, ruthless, slaying in the dark by some mysterious power his enemies, his refractory slaves, and even those who dreaded and hated in silence, not to be caught unawares, brot against plots, free from ordinary human infirmities, knowing neither fatigue, nor fear, violent, too, and fantastic, striking astonishment and a kind of superstitious dread by his mad freaks, his dangerous haunter, and his fits of savage generosity or cruelty.

Such is the Rosas of popular tradition; nor does the picture so drawn seem exaggerated in the light of authentic records. But Rosas was more than this; he was who gave the first real, solid government to a young nation which numbers to-day 4,000,000 souls, and has the largest city of the southern hemisphere for its capital. He practically secured internal peace, with brief interruptions to a country torn by incessant revolution and civil war. He was the creator of the Argentine Confederation—by force, perhaps; but force was the order of the day, and he arose from among a crowd of condottieri party chiefs, half soldiers, half bandits, as a despotic figure in spirit as regardless of law and restraint as contemptuous of human life as Rosas himself. To him more than to anyone it is due that Argentine is one country instead of containing half a dozen rival and discordant republics.

Couldn't Juggle Without His Jag.

"Queer thing about jugglers," said an old-time vandyville manager, "I had one of the best jugglers in the business under my management once, and he had no sooner opened than he started on a highly ornamental spree. He did his work all right, but I got tired seeing him wandering around with his jag, and told him I would cancel his date at once if he took another drink. He promised to stop, and that night he treated the audience to a few things not on the programme. For instance, a bottle slipped out of his hand and nearly brained the orchestra leader. Then he dropped a pyramid of glasses and scattered pieces all over the parquet. He wound up by letting a cannon ball roll into the footlights and smashed eight or ten dollars' worth of fancy incenseburners. When he came off, I asked him as a special personal favor to get drunk again and stay drunk till the balance of the engagement. He said he was ready to do anything to oblige, and his subsequent performances were superb. Between times he would lie in a stupor on a trunk in his dressing room. Queer people, jugglers."

Human Nature Is Queer.
A Chicago woman waded into the lake chin deep with the evident intention of drowning herself. A young man caught her in the act, revolved a shotgun at her and told her he would blaze away if she did not come in out of the wet. The bluff went and the young lady waded ashore again. This reminds one of the ancient story of a man who sallied forth with a rope to hang himself. While he was tying the rope to a tree he spied a bull making for him and immediately ran for his life. Human nature is a queer mixture of inconsistencies.

Interesting Facts.

Quiet and warmth are the medicines of the four footed philosopher. If a dog is ailing he rolls himself into a ball in a warm corner and eats little or nothing until he is well. Many time rest is the only medicine needed by the sick, but we seldom follow this example.

The hiped loses the instinct of the animals. He fumes, frets, takes stimulants and medicines, and gives no chance to the recuperative force of nature. If he, too, would retire to his bed, keep warm and eat next to nothing for a while those waste and poisonous matters which produce the disorder would be expelled in due time.

The machinery which carries on involuntary motion when the body is at rest expels from it from two to eight pounds of waste material in every twenty-four hours; the physician of experience says so. He also claims that with bathing and half-fasting, when there are indications of illness, the system in ordinary cases will take care of itself.

Dreams and Inventions.

"It is wonderful how many persons get their first ideas of what afterward proved to be valuable inventions while asleep or dreaming," observed a Patent Office examiner. "Others, after working weeks or months on an invention during their waking hours have had the whole thing come clear to them during a dream. On the other hand, I have known of inventors to see in their dreams the impracticability of their inventions on which they had obtained patents, and to change them so as they would be practical. In withdrawing their application for amendment or improvement there are a number of instances where inventors admit that they got the better idea during a dream. Some of the most successful money making patents were in this way dreamed, rather than worked out."

MARK S. AMBLER,

THIS CAT WEARS DIAMONDS.

His Owner Has Had His Ears Pierced for Rings.

In Cumberland, Md., there is a big, handsome cat, black as jet, except for a dash of white on the chest and forepaws. This cat is conspicuous over all other cats because in each ear he wears a sparkling and valuable diamond earring.

Sebastian is his name, and he is believed to be the only cat in the world that wears earrings. Sebastian is the property of Mrs. Cornelia Anderson, a pet, and came to her under unusual circumstances. Mrs. Anderson went on a trip to Europe two years ago, and while on her way home, as she was passing through the streets of Southampton, England, to board the steamship, she was followed by Sebastian, who was then a wild, unkempt, homeless wail. She tried to drive him away, but somehow the animal managed to get on board. Sebastian is unusually strong and courageous, and is able to hold his own against any dog in the neighborhood. Indeed, when a dog on feline murder bent happens to spy Sebastian, with tail bristling and slaughter in his eye, the dog generally suddenly remembers a pressing engagement in another street and hurries off. Sebastian has a cat of his own at the dinner table, and a handsomely decorated cot to recline in. He takes a milk bath regularly every day. His ears were pierced by Mrs. Anderson, who thought it would be a novel idea to adorn him with diamond earrings. At first he did not relish the idea at all, but now that he has gotten used to them he carries his beautiful decorations with a dignity in conformity with his exaggerated idea of his own importance. —New York Herald.
