UNCLE SAM—"I'M SO NERVOUS!"

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES

LOT OF 'EM MENTIONED FOR THE VARIOUS OFFICES

Of Township of Northville—Election Time Fast Approaching.

Republican candidates of the various township offices are already bobbing up. Jud Lanning will be a candidate for nomination as supervisor and will probably have no opposition for the second term. Henry Fry will also receive a re-nomination as clerk. Marvin Sloan and H. O. Wade, we understand are candidates for the honor of the treasuryship. Mr. Sloan is a well known farmer living west of town, vice president of the McKinley club and an all around good fellow. If nominated and elected he would have an office in one of the stores here. Mr. Wade is a well known resident of this place, a contractor and builder and an old soldier of the war of the rebellion. Like Mr. Sloan, Mr. Wade is also a loyal good fellow and would also have an office in the village. The mantle would be safe on either of those gentlemen's shoulders. Clare Brigham will be candidate for renomination of justice, and for the vacancy caused by F. E. Quigley's resignation D. F. Griswold is mentioned as one of the candidates. Floyd Northrop will also be candidate for the renomination of highway commissioner and he will probably have no opposition. The time for the caucuses is not far away and some of the candidates are hustling around among the voters in anticipation of the event.

MRS. STILLSON DIED MONDAY.

She Had Been a Patient Sufferer for Months.

After months of patient suffering Mrs. Allison Stillson died at her home in Northside of spinal affection Monday night. She was highly respected throughout the neighborhood and wherever known. Besides the husband deceased leaves three daughters and a sister, Mrs. Keyes of Pomona, but none of this place.

Mrs. Stillson was born at Farmington, Feb. 3, 1868, where she remained until her marriage to Allison Stillson in 1887, after which they made their home in different parts of the state until they finally located in Northville in the fall of 1896.

By the death of Mrs. Stillson three bright girls are left in tender years to learn the inexpressible loss they have sustained in being thus early deprived of a loving mother's care.

The eldest daughter is only in her fourteenth year, while the youngest of the three is but nine years old.

Mrs. Stillson united with the M. E. church here some six years ago, and has been recognized from that time to her untimely death as a quiet, unassuming, but thoughtful and consistent Christian, devoted to the interest of her family and the welfare of those about her.

The funeral was held from the late home Thursday afternoon, Rev. W. H. Lloyd officiating.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted during the sickness and burial of my husband, also to those who contributed flowers.

POSTAL CLERK MILLER

WOULDN'T PAY TICKET.

WANTS TO KNOW

SHOULD

Base of Rate Between

How and Why.

When coming up from Wayne Saturday night on the D. P. & N. 8:15 car, Postal Clerk Miller tendered the conductor 15 cents for the fare as called for by the Northville ordinance. The conductor demanded the 20 cents called for by the Wayne ordinance and upon Mr. Miller's refusal to cough up another nickel the sandy ticket collector attempted to put him off the car. Miller struck a bull pup to a root and hung on to his ride—and also his nickel. There was an exchange of cards and Mrs. Miller proposed to go into court and make a test case to see whether the company can charge 20 cents from Wayne to Northville when their Northville franchise says 15 cents.

The case came up before Judge Webster Wednesday morning. The conductor changed his plea to guilty of assault and then paid his fine, and thus avoided any test case of the ordinance. The conductor claimed that Mr. Miller gave him 15 cents and said nothing about his destination. That is the company's rate from Wayne to Plymouth and after leaving Plymouth he demanded five cents more as the fare to Northville, which Mr. Miller refused to pay. Attorney C. C. Yerkes appeared for the company.

MARCUS G. B. SWIFT

Died at Fall River, Mass., Last Week Saturday.

Marcus George Barker Swift at the age of 54 years died at his home in Fall River, on Feb. 22. Mr. Swift was born at Ferrisville, just east of here, was the nephew and adopted son of the late Dr. J. M. Swift of Northville, and a grandson of Rev. Marcus Swift, a prominent pioneer Methodist preacher in Wayne county. Mr. Swift, though a mere boy, served through the civil war in a Michigan regiment. He graduated from the Northville High school and from the University of Michigan law school in 1872. He taught at Chelsea and practiced law one year at Ithaca, Mich. He married Miss Mary D. Milne, daughter of Rev. Alexander Milne of Fall River, and went to that city in 1874, forming a law partnership with Judge Braley, now of the superior court. For some years he had been the senior partner of the law firm of Swift, Grime & Swift, his son, James Marcus Swift U. of M. '95, being associated with him. He was a prominent official in Grand Army and Masonic circles, and was for many years a member of the Fall River school board. He had a very large law practice, but had been in failing health for several years. His widow, three sons, two daughters and one sister, Mrs. James A. Dubuar, of this place survive him.

Northville Miracles.

Says the Record: "Every baby born in Northville lately has been twins." That's the only place in America where one baby can be twins. No doubt Northville people are considerably exercised over the duplicate increase. Neal is the only man in town who is calm. He isn't on the duplicate circuit.—Adrian Press. Yes, he is. The electors of his legislative district say they are going to give him another trial.—Detroit Tribune.

The Village Election.

The Record desires again, to call the attention of the tax-payers of the village to the importance of the approaching village election. Every taxpayer in the place is a stockholder in the affairs of the village, and the council is the board of directors.

There is not much question but what the legal fare between Wayne and Northville on the electric road is 15 cents. However the road is laboring under financial difficulties and probably need every nickel they can get hold of.

In referring to the antics of the Kentucky congressman in making a kick about the reception to Prince Henry, the record got Gen. Joe Wheeler, an ex-member of Congress, mixed with Congressman Chas. K. Wheeler of that state.

It will be a satisfactory after thought to Prince Henry that he will not know what he has missed by not coming to Northville.

Prince Henry has now heard the other U. S. national air about "Hot Time in the Old Town of New York."

The Baptists must have had a hot time in the old rink Tuesday night to have set the roof a fire.

Anyhow there was considerable force in the arguments of Senators Tillman and McLaurum.

Contented Customer. "One of the curses of modern business," remarked the passenger with the side-whiskers, "is the habit so many people have of buying goods and then bringing them back and changing them. It keeps one clerk busy nearly all the time at my store making exchanges."

Never Hit Him at All. The Judge—What did you hit this man with, anyway? Prisoner—I didn't hit 'im wit' anything, yer honor.

Right in the Swim. "Well," he remarked, thoughtfully, "there are some disappointments and drawbacks to my occupation, but it is a satisfaction to know that I am in the swim, as it were."

A Mean Restriction. "O! My!" exclaimed the young wife, reading over the insurance policy on her husband's life in her favor, "this insurance company is just hateful!"

Correspondent (over telephone)—Oldest inhabitant died here at age of 110. How many yards? Managing Editor—Fifty yards.

There was a fellow in here, a manager, and was going to sue me. I said the railroad official's clerk.

Y'ou, French! "Tell that young man just how you feel about his literary light."

He returned. "I come back for something you forgot to give me a B. I. when my husband returned to the house a few minutes after leaving."

Let it now be. I've earned it. It is not a good idea, young man. —Chicago Tribune.

Just as she likes. To beavers of 60 exams. Let it now be. I've earned it. It is not a good idea, young man. —Chicago Tribune.

Apparently Not. Cumso—I've noticed that the Italian women in New York never wear hats or bonnets on the streets.

A Candid Statement. He—Do you suppose you will ever get tired of my making love to you? She—There's no reason why I shouldn't. —Detroit Free Press.

Hooked. Mrs. Newlywed—The night you proposed you acted like a fish out of water. Mr. Newlywed—I was—and very cleverly landed, too! —Puck.

In a Beany. Patron—Give me some ground hog. Waiter—What d'yer mean? Patron—Some eggs.—Judge.

Plight of Turkey's New Minister to the United States.

After Tarrying Six Months at Washington He Is Not Yet Properly Accredited to the Roosevelt Administration.

Minister Cheikh Bey, the new Turkish diplomatic representative at Washington, is occupying the most unique position known in the annals of diplomacy. His official presence is still unknown to the administration of Mr. Roosevelt, although he has been in the city for six months or more.

When the papers are received custom requires that he at once call upon the secretary of state, who will then arrange an interview with the president, to be held in the blue room of the white house.

The secretary of the legation is Sidkey Bey who has the distinction of having remained longer at the same post than any other official representative of the suit in.

MINISTER CHEIKH BEY, Turkish Diplomatic Representative to the United States.

In looks he is blond, not much over five feet above the earth, and slightly inclined to embonpoint. He speaks English, French, German, Greek, Turkish and Armenian, with equal fluency, and is distinguished by his interest in archaeological research.

Young Arustum Sidkey Bey, the other member of the legation coterie, is noted as being the only representative of the sultan's official family to have been born in this country.

Although little more than a baby he can speak three languages and is very popular with his American playmates. Through them he has become acquainted with Santa Claus, and so firmly does he believe in the old elf that he makes daily visits to the chimney piece hoping there to find new toys.

Schley & Santiago BY GEORGE EDWARD GRAHAM. The Most Sensational Book of the Day. The true story of the famous cruise of the Flying Squadron under Commodore W. H. Schley, including the blockade and destruction of the Spanish fleet, TOLL FOR THE FIRST TIME. Contains an autograph endorsement and personal account of the battle by Rear Admiral Schley. "The facts of the story of the movements and operations of the Flying Squadron as the author tells them in this book are correct." —W. S. SCHLEY. An interesting narrative of facts explains the so-called "Retrograde Movement," the "Loop," the "Coaling Problem," and settles conclusively every adverse ruling of the Court of Inquiry. PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT, when governor of New York, said:—"Mr. Graham's story is the most accurate and readable of the naval fighting during the war. It needed just as much courage to go about taking photographs as it did to work the guns." THE NEW YORK HERALD says:—"Mr. Graham, in the telling of facts, leaves the reader free to make the deductions that several naval officers need a Court of Inquiry to re-establish their reputations, if they can be re-established." No subject has ever been before the public that has interested everybody as the manner in which Admiral Schley has been treated, and the American people demand the full recognition of the hero of Santiago. This book tells everything just as it occurred and as the eyewitnesses saw it. The book is selling like wildfire. Liberal commissions, outfits and books now ready. FOR TWENTY-ONE YEARS
Catarrh Remedies and Doctors Failed—Pe-ru-na Cured.
MR. A. E. KIDD

ELGIN, ILL.—In a very recent communication from this place comes the news that Mr. Arthur Ernest Kidd, a well-known architect of that city, has made complete recovery from catarrh of the head from which he had suffered for nearly a quarter of a century. He writes from 18 Hamilton ave.:
"I am 42 years of age, and have had catarrh of the head for over half of my life, as a result of scarlet fever, followed by typhoid fever. I got so bad that I was almost constantly coughing and clearing my throat. The catarrh greatly impaired my eyesight, and the hearing in one ear, and reduced my weight to 110 pounds.
"I tried nearly every catarrh remedy advertised, besides a great many different physicians' treatments, all of which failed.
"I had heard and read of Peruna, and finally decided to try it two months ago. I have now taken seven bottles, and weigh 172 pounds. Never felt happier or more energetic. Feel tip top."—A. E. KIDD.
If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

The eighth grade take great pride in being punctual. Only one tardy mark has been made by them in the past nine weeks.
The exercises held in grades 1 and 2 last Friday afternoon were especially interesting. A large number of visitors were present and a good program was carried out by the pupils.
The United States Patent Office Gazette comes to our reading table every week. This is a pamphlet of about 250 pages containing cuts and descriptions of all patents issued during the week.
The spelling contest between the eighth grade and "sweet sixteen" from the High-school resulted in a tie. The Misses Susie Dandison and Mabel Stark tied with each other on several words when finally both young ladies misspelled the word "crystallize." All seemed well pleased with the result and the best of feeling prevailed. Several visitors were present to enjoy the contest.

A Legacy of the Grip
Is often a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the splendid tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore health and good spirits after an attack of grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50c. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed by Geo. C. Hueston.

Clerk's Wise Suggestion.
"I have lately been much troubled with dyspepsia, belching and sour stomach," writes M. S. Mead, leading pharmacist of Attleboro, Mass. "I could eat hardly anything without suffering several hours. My clerk suggested that I try Kodol Dyspepsia Cure which I did with most happy results. I have had no more trouble and when one can go to eating mince pie, cheese, candy and nuts after such a time, then dyspepsia must be pretty good. I endorse Kodol Dyspepsia Cure heartily. You don't have to diet. Eat all the good food you want, but don't overload the stomach. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests your food."—Murdock Bros.

Stop the Blight

It is a sad thing to see fine fruit trees spoiled by the blight. You can always tell them from the rest. They never do well afterwards but stay small and sticky. It is worse to see a blight strike children. Good health is the natural right of children. But some of them don't get their rights. While the rest grow big and strong one stays small and weak. Scott's Emulsion can stop that blight. There is no reason why such a child should stay small. Scott's Emulsion is a medicine with lots of strength in it—the kind of strength that makes things grow. Scott's Emulsion makes children grow, makes them eat, makes them sleep, makes them play. Give the weak child a chance. Scott's Emulsion will make it catch up with the rest.

This picture represents the Trade Mark of Scott's Emulsion and is on the wrapper of every bottle. Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c and $1. all druggists.

OF LOCAL INTEREST. Some People We Know and We Will Profit by Hearing About Them. This is a purely local event. It took place in Northville, Mich., not in Buffalo, N. Y. You are asked to investigate it, asked to believe a citizen's word, to confirm a citizen's statement. Any article that is endorsed, that obtains resident advocates, is more worthy of confidence than a far off foreign article, testified to by foreign people. Mr. Stephen Safford of Main street, clerk at Fry Bros' Grocery store, says: "My wife had kidney trouble and believing in the old adage that a stitch in time often saves the garment and that a few doses of medicine often wards off severe cases of sickness we thought it wise to do something at once, and seeing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended so highly by prominent people all over the state we determined to test their virtue and procured a box at Mardock Bros' drug store. Two or three days' treatment was sufficient for the symptoms to entirely disappear. We know of others who have used Doan's Kidney Pills with the same good results. We do not hesitate to endorse so valuable a remedy." Doan's Kidney Pills for sale by all dealers. Price 50c per box. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S. That's perfectly right, brother, just keep correcting the independent's mistakes while we keep making them. We have been in the business long enough to recognize our infallibility is not up to your standard. My hat is not to be used to never make a mistake—Lenton Independent.

Whitney's Opera House—Detroit.

"Human Hearts," the idyl of the Arkansas Hills, will be produced at the Whitney Opera House all next week. Gerall St Paul, Ark., says: "From 1865 I suffered with the protruding, bleeding piles and could find nothing to help me until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quick relief he had and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable? One Minute Cough Cure is safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it."—Murdock Bros.

A Celebrated Case.

John Douglas of Melvern, when a young man, swore at a murder trial in Illinois that he saw one man stab another by the light of the moon. Abe Lincoln, who was attorney for the defendant, showed by an almanac that there was no moon on the night of the murder. Douglas has never yet unraveled the mystery of the defendant's acquittal.

An Improvised Abbreviation.

The telegraph operators in Washington who each day and night were compelled to send the name of Mrs. Bonine, accused of the mysterious hotel murder, an almost endless number of times, devised a way to shorten their work. The numeral 9 was used for the last syllable of Mrs. Bonine's name. The word as sent telegraphically appeared "Bo-9."

Superlative Degree People.
A Louisiana jury upheld a lynching because the persons that participated in it "were among the best citizens of the country." Lynchings are always managed by the best citizens, and it is a question if the country would not be better off with fewer of these superlative degree people.—Detroit Free Press.
