Vol. XXXIII. No. 37.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1902.

PIONEER WILLOWS OF THIS VICINITY

TWIGS BROUGHT HERE BY CAPT.
DUNLAP.

They Came from New York State in
Year of 1836.

A well known Northville lady furnishes the Record with the following interesting history of the pioneer willows of this vicinity and which owing to the fact that this is Arbor Day is especially appropos:

"About the year 1812 one Wm. Duncan, nephew of Alexander Wilson, the ornithologist, and brother of William and James Duncan of South Lyon, was teaching school in Philadelphia, and wishing to visit his friend, Andrew Dunlap, of Ovid, Seneca county, New York, he placed his wardrobe in a silk handkerchief and started on a summer vacation tour. Becoming tired of carrying his bundle he cut a branch from a willow tree near Philadelphia and hung his 'Saratoga' on that and carried it on his shoulder. Arriving there the stick was plunged in the damp earth. It soon rooted and became the pioneer willow of Seneca county.

"In the year 1836 Capt. Dunlap of this place while on a visit to his old home in Ovid cut from those trees a few canes and they became the ancestral trees from which all the yellow willows in this vicinity are descended.

"Many of the older residents may remember the first row planted where the Catholic church now stands.

"In connection with this it might be added that the maples in front of Mr. Joslin's residence were planted there 62 years ago this spring.

BRAVE COL. BALDWIN.

He's a Wolverine Product and Has Relatives in Northville.

The commander of the battalion of American troops operating in the island of Mindanao, and which by Tuesday's dispatches has already had two engagements with our Mohammedan colonists, is a veteran Michigan soldier, Col. Frank Baldwin, a brother-in-law of Mrs. M. T. Wallace of this place.

Col. Baldwin is the only officer in active service now who has twice been awarded a medal of honor for conspicuous acts of bravery in the face of the enemy. He is regarded as one of the bravest officers in the army. One of his old army friends on duty at the war department said this week in Washington that if it is fighting the Moros are looking for Baldwin will give it to them in plenty.

Mrs. Annie Smith Dead.

After a long and suffering illness Mrs. Annie Smith, a well known Northville lady, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. O. Webster, Saturday evening, aged 55 years, five months and eight days. Mrs. Smith was born on the Atlantic Ocean while her parents were coming to this country. The funeral occurred from the home Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. S. Jerome officiating. The burial was in Rural Hill.

R. H. Beal Died Yesterday.

Rollin H. Beal for many years a well known and highly respected resident of this place, died at his home in Detroit early yesterday morning. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Nina Clark of this place, and four sons. The funeral will be held from the late home this afternoon and the interment will be at Ionia.

Story of a stick.

The reformers who hold up the German army as a pattern to be admired will perhaps allow that even its excellent discipline has some drawbacks. Among the many regulations of the military code is one which forbids anybody to present himself before a recruiting officer with a cane in his hand. Some days ago a reservist so far forgot himself as to enter the office of a recruiting sergeant major accompanied by his walking stick. For this heinous offense the unfortunate reservist was promptly court martialed and sentenced to ten weeks' imprisonment for insubordination.

JACKSON FOR 18 MONTHS

Wm. Groner of Holly Goes for Blackmail.

The case of Wm. Groner charged with attempting to blackmail Wm. Phillips of this place came up at Pontiac Tuesday. Groner pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 18 months in Jackson prison.

For once a man with a hold-up scheme tackled the wrong person. The maximum penalty for the crime was two years but Groner's plea of guilty probably had something to do with the judge's whitening down the time by six months.

STOP DEFACING SOLDIERS' CANNON

THE G. A. R. POST WILL GO AFTER SOME ONE.

Hold It in Sacred Remembrance
Same As Any Monument.

Some few years ago the old soldiers of the village with the assistance of the citizens of Northville at great expense and labor procured from the government a fine cannon, mounted it on a trunnion and placed it on the soldiers lot in Rural Hill cemetery. The post has also kept the gun painted at considerable labor and expense but upon examination find the gun has been defaced by scratching names on it, going so far as to scratch the paint off down to the steel, and at two different times the chain that holds the tampon in the gun has been broken.

The gun was placed on the lot as a monument to the memory of our comrades and we feel that it is as sacred as any monument in the cemetery. We have the names of the perpetrators of the outrage and if it occurs again we will prosecute them to the full extent the law.

(Signed) E. K. SIMONSON,
Attest Commander
B. G. WEBSTER, Adjutant

Crushed Under Falling Doors.

Muskegon, Mich., April 24.—Walter E. Story, chief clerk at the American tin plate mills, was standing by the large iron sliding doors through which a switch engine was passing with some empty cars, when one of the cars caught the door and threw it to the ground, crushing Mr. Story underneath. His condition is critical.

Love Leads to Suicide.

Frankfort, Mich., April 24.—Claude Whitbeck is said to have been infatuated with a young society lady of this city, who offered him little encouragement. Realizing that his suit was hopeless, he swallowed a dose of laudanum, from the effects of which he died.

Will Quarantine Philippine Ships.
Bremen, April 24.—A quarantine has been ordered against all ships arriving here from the Philippines owing to the outbreak of cholera in the Philippine Islands.

Hard to Tell Chinaman's Age.

How old is a Chinaman? Can you give a good guess? It is harder to tell than the age of a negro. The Chinaman has no beard and his hair is of a jet and glossy blackness, which turns gray only at an extreme age, when a Caucasian head would be either snow white or bald.

Then, again, the Chinese have the most perfect nervous system of any people in the world and do not wrinkle up with age. They can stand any amount of opium smoking without material injury that would send a white man to his grave or an insane asylum. So you have little to go by.

A Chinaman will look 30 when he is 20 and when he is 50. If you ask him his age he will place it at least 10 years ahead, for he holds old age to be honorable, and among his people he will be respected and looked up to by all his juniors.—Washington Post.

Well Worth the Trouble.

It is only half-rate people who ignore cost and shrink from calculation, says an intelligent woman who carries her intelligence into everything, the corners of her pantry and the depths of her flour barrel. In her opinion, you have no more right to cheat yourself out of the quality and quantity of good your income should yield than you should cheat your neighbor, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger. The comfort of knowing one is fairly dealt with is worth occasional trouble. All good dealers respect a customer who sees for herself to such matters. Too many shops will take advantage of a careless buyer, while they correctly deal with one who demands her dues.

WAYNE COUNTY TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

THREE DAYS OF IT IN DETROIT
NEXT WEEK.

Some Way Up Talkers Will Be on the Platform.

The Wayne County Teachers' Inspiration Institute and Association will be held in the Western High-school, 30700 ten avenue and Baker streets Detroit, May 1, 2 and 3. There will be interesting addresses by Prof. F. A. Barbour of the Ypsilanti Normal, Hon. H. R. Pattengill of Lansing and Prof. J. A. Hughes of Toronto, Ont. These talks will be very interesting to the teachers and one day's loss in the school room will be more than made up by the better work they will be able to do after attending the institute. On the last day of the institute, Saturday, will be held the usual association banquet Prof. C. B. Hall, one of Wayne county's most enthusiastic educational workers, will have charge of the banquet and select the speakers and musicians.

Prof. Hughes, public school inspector for Toronto, Ontario, will have an important position on the program. Mr. Hughes is one of the most popular lecturers on educational matters in Canada.

The schools of Wayne county, outside the City of Detroit, are taught by 288 teachers. Of these 93 hold State Normal certificates, 27 first grade and State certificates issued to college graduates, 102 have second grade certificates and 58 have third grades, while six are teaching on special certificates. Six years ago there were only about one fourth as many teachers holding Normal and first grade certificates as there are today, and there were nearly 200 holding third grade certificates where there are less than 60 today. With the above showing of better grade teachers the schools ought to be improved. It is a fact that teachers who attend Institutes and Teachers' associations are interested in their school work and make the very best teachers, and directors in hiring teachers should inquire of them for their certificates of Institute attendance.

Money in Apples.

A prominent Virginia apple grower, telling of the development of the industry in that state, declares that on an orchard of about eight acres one of his neighbors raised 300 trees, when this year yielded 1,100 barrels of first-class merchantable fruit. They sold for $50 a barrel in the orchard, the buyer furnishing the barrels and defraying the expenses of packing. A 1,000-tree orchard on an adjoining farm cleared $5,800 one year and $6,000 two years later. This is an average of $6 a tree, so that it will readily be seen that a good crop is a very lucrative investment.

Gas Jet For "Jays".

Hotelkeepers who offer accommodations of the kind preferred by casual visitors from the country will learn with pleasure that a burner is about to be put on the market which the inexperienced lodger may blow out if he wants to without any ill effects. Its parts are so arranged that to afford a gas passage a certain amount of heat must be applied to expand them. While thus expanded they offer a gasway sufficient for illumination. When the flame is extinguished the rapid cooling of the parts causes them to contract, which closes the gasway in less than one minute. What little gas escapes in the interval of cooling, which is facilitated by the shape of the parts and their thinness, is not enough to do harm to life or health.

His Phonetic Understanding.

"The gravity which is supposed to attend all court proceedings was seriously disturbed in a New York courtroom one day last week," said a young lawyer who had just returned from a business trip to that city. "I was present at the trial of a case before one of the municipal judges—a case in which I was interested because it had to do with automobiles. One of the witnesses was a German, and gave his testimony through an interpreter. In the course of the examination he said he had driven an automobile to Cedarhurst."

"What's that?" asked the judge.

"To Cedarhurst," replied the interpreter.

"His honor looked puzzled.

"What did he want to see the hearer for?" he asked."

New World to Kemp.

Detroit, Mich., April 24.—Robinson Kemp, the aged prisoner at the house of correction, who is at last pardoned by President Roosevelt, has been 16 years in prison. He does not say much about his past life, nor does he go into the details of the murder for which he was sentenced to death on the gallows, which through the clemency of President Grover Cleveland was commuted to life imprisonment. His mother was a Choctaw squaw, his father a white man. He says he is going back to his old farm near Dallas, Tex. Kemp says he has never seen a trolley car, a bicycle or an automobile; the world will all be new to him, he added, but he has been improving his time in prison and has read many books. He now writes English pretty well, besides reading and writing four tribal languages. He formed a lasting love for Supt. McDonnell and said a good word for the house of correction and its superintendent.

K. P.'s Had a Gay Time.

Traverse City, Mich., April 24.—Hundreds of Knights of Pythias from all over northern Michigan participated last night in the installation of Lalla Rookh temple, D. O. K. K. The ceremonies were in charge of Divan Kaaba temple of Grand Rapids. They were held in Steinberg's opera house, and were followed by an elaborate banquet covers being laid for 400. It was the biggest fraternal event ever held in northern Michigan. An elaborate street parade preceded the secret ceremonies at which a class of 50 was initiated. When the Grand Imperial Prince Leo A. Caro, he was arrested, handcuffed and carried through the main streets in a patrol wagon before being discharged at the hotel. He had wired the local managers to have the patrol ready, and they obeyed orders.

Police Found a Valuable Clue.

Traverse City, Mich., April 24.—When John A. Hargreaves appears to be examined on a charge of murdering his wife today, a dramatic scene is expected. The accused murderer will be confronted with the instrument with which the police firmly believe that the deed was committed. The instrument which the officers believe was used to inflict the wounds on the woman's head and body is an old saw handle. It was found, after a prolonged search of the Hargreaves premises under the woodshed steps and is covered with blood and white hair. That the blood was from a human being was demonstrated by analysis, and the hair is similar to that which grew on the head of the victim Hargreaves has steadily maintained that his wife died from the effects of an epileptic struggle in which, he says, she fell against the furniture of the room.

Michigan Inventors.

Washington April 24.—Michigan patents were granted Tuesday as follows: Wm. B. Anderson, Pontiac, account file, Cyril P. Brown, Spring Lake, folding pen, Philip Drinkaus, Detroit, machine for cutting picture mat; Charles M. Kimball, Port Huron, ore concentrator, Ransom E. Olds, Detroit, motor vehicle; Francis C. Osborn, Detroit, computing scale; Silas H. Reynolds, Grand Rapids, caster, Ryfus F. Sprague, Greenville, powder driver tool; Austin P. Warner, Battle Creek, printing press; Isaac M. Warner, Union City, telegraph pole or fence post.

Illness in Michigan.

Lansing, Mich., April 24.—Reports to the state board of health from representative physicians in active general practice in various sections of the state indicate that rheumatism, bronchitis, tonsillitis, influenza and neuralgia, in the order named, caused the most sickness in Michigan during the past week. Meningitis was reported at 7 places, whooping cough at 17, diphtheria at 17, typhoid fever at 32, scarlet fever at 35, measles at 91, smallpox at 126 and consumption at 214.

Landslide Sunk a Launch.

Muskegon, Mich., April 24.—A big landslide occurred at Sylvan Beach at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, about 30 feet south of the picnic dock. The slide carried the boat house of F. D. Russell of St. Louis, Mo., in a white lake. A launch valued at $3,500 was in the boat house and this he buried in 30 feet of water. The life-saving crew is at work endeavoring to raise the launch.

Brace Up, There.

The Northville Record affects not to believe that a Jackson man applied to the state board of health because his bees had the hives and pronounced it a "cell." This does not see comb the dignity of an editor.—Detroit Tribune

How Will It End.

The drawing of Mr. Stearns into the governor race by those republicans agitating for county offices or jobs in Wayne may yet prove of great value to the democratic party. It is a fight now to a finish between the two republican factions (Bliss and Stearns), while the democrats are trying to get in upon the bill yelling "sicken" as they watch those of the oppositely-situated household tear each other to pieces in the valley below. The dirty cantinella hurled by each faction will make nice implements of war to be used later in the season in county units and the democrats are quietly gathering it up for that purpose. Already two or more candidates are being announced for about every office as a result of the Stearns fight in Wayne county against Governor Bliss and no matter who wins there is bound to be some spots galore that will not be wiped out until the ballots are cast in November. The battle is on in real earnest and it promises to be a merry one from now on till November with the Stearns forces trying to take the forts by storm while the Bliss people are lining up their warriors in a defensive attitude.

Lifting the King.

One of the picturesque English coronation ceremonies which have been discontinued is that of lifting the king. In the old days the monarch always slept at the palace or Westminster on the night before the coronation. The regalia which is still, technically speaking, in the possession of the dean and chapter of Westminster were brought to Westminster Hall in preparation for the ceremony. These were arranged on a long table, the crown, the scepter, the spurs and so on. The king when he descended from the palace to Westminster Hall, was lifted by his nobles on a marble chair, which by the way, perished in the ruins of the abbey or parliament when they were burned sixty or seventy years ago.

The lifting of the king into this chair was a survival of the old Saxon custom of carrying the king on his shield. The custom survived up to the time of the coronation of George IV. When the monarch was seated in the chair he at once directed by pointing his finger which one of his nobles should carry the various parts of the regalia to the abbey, and the procession began.

Innovation in Japan.

One feature of the western civilization has just made its first appearance in Japan where a native woman has brought suit for breach of promise, hitherto an unknown procedure in the land of the chrysanthemum. The lady in question is a wise young widow, who induced her well-to-do wooer to sign an agreement that in case either party changed his mind he should forfeit 1,000 yen to the other. The prospective bridegroom broke the engagement.

Why His Wife Shrieked.

"God story they got out about the professor, hey?"
"What's the matter, did he forget again?"
"Naw. Better than that. His wife got up the other morning and was slipping her shoes on when she gave a little shriek. 'What's the matter?' he asked."
"Why, I was putting my shoe on and a snake slipped out of it," she cried.
"Only one?" said the professor.
"Why, there should have been three. I put them there last night to keep them warm."—Louisville Courier-Journal

Mark of Greatness.

High on the scroll of fame
A great man wrote his name;
But here is a lesson—be it
From force of habit he wrote it so
That not a soul in the crowd below
Was ever able to read it.
—Chicago Tribune

A SLANDER REFUTED.

How old is the baroness?
"Oh, that's something that nobody has felt able to find out."
"And still people say that women can't keep secrets?"—Punch

Strenuous Life.
Peaceful business methods oft
Succeed where others fail;
Yet see—this chair pod sits
Keen fighting tooth and fang.
—Chicago Daily News

His Worst Enemy.
"I believe strictness" say more men are killed in a times by beans than bullets remarked the thin black cat.
"I can believe it," responded the white cat with one eye. "I have never been hit yet by a revolver bullet, but I know that boys with bean shooters will be the death of me!"—Brooklyn Eagle

Secret of Her Success.
Fond Mother—I understand you made quite an impression at Mrs.
Upperben's pink tea yesterday. What subject did you discuss?
Fair Daughter—I didn't discuss anything, mamma. I sat down on a plate of cake.—Chicago Daily News

Soothing Explanation.
He—I hear that you have been talking about me.
She—No, indeed. I make it a point never to speak of my friends unless
I can say something good of them, and so I have not mentioned you at all.—Tit-Bits.

Sufficient Cause.
Judge—What are your grounds for a divorce, sir?
Plaintiff—My wife married me to reform me and after we settled down didn't have sense enough to give up the idea.
Judge—Granted.—Brooklyn Life

The New Password.
Gazem (after he has succeeded in waking his wife)—Open the door!
Mrs. Gazem (head out of secondstory window)—Are you bored?
"Yes."
"Then say, 'reciprocity'!"—Harlem Life

All That Was Lacking.
Glady—Yes, Rupert and I are engaged; but it's a secret, as yet.
Edith—As yet?
Glady—Yes—until I can succeed in making him comprehend that we are engaged.—Puck.

Danger in a Compliment.
"Todd, your wife has a voice like velvet."
"Gracious! Don't talk so loud. If she heard that, I should have to get her a new dress to match it."—Tit-Bits.

Genial Conduct.
Jones—Aren't you and Jenkins friendly?
Brown—Friendly? Of course; every time he comes in my store he buys a little something on credit.—Detroit Free Press.

His Unlucky Day.
"Friday may be an unlucky day for some people, but Thursday is mine. That's the day on which I proposed."
"Oh, yes, and the girl rejected you?"
"No; she accepted me!"—Tit-Bits.

No Family Skeletons.
"Well, there is one advantage in living in a flat."
"What is that?"
"The closets are too shallow to conceal a skeleton!"—N. Y. Herald.

A Troublesome Witness.
Mother (angrily)—Did he dare to kiss you more than once?
Daughter (evasively)—Well, mamma, I know it wasn't less than once.—Puck.

The Man of the House.
Stranger—Is the man of the house in?
Servant—Yes, but the woman of the house won't let him come out.—N. Y. Weekly.

"Dead Broke."
"Is he broke?"
"I guess so. He said if air was five cents a barrel he'd suffocate!"—Indianapolis News.

A Swiss Law.

There is in existence an unrepented law in Switzerland, which forbids the wearing of hats more than eighteen inches in diameter, artificial flowers and foreign feathers, under a heavy penalty.

The little folks love Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to take, perfectly harmless, positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma.

A seat on the New York stock exchange is worth $75,000 which makes it rather an expensive place for the owner to go back and sit down.

After a woman gets married and has children, she is lucky if she gets time to read any other than the doctor book.

Bodily pain loses its terror if you have a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Instant relief in cases of burns, cuts, sprains, accidents of any sort.

"Itching hemorrhoids were the plague of my life. Was almost wild. Doan's Ointment cured me quickly and permanently, after doctors had failed." C. F. Cornwell, Valley Street, Saugerties, N. Y.

Reprieve in the Senate.
In the course of a speech in the senate Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts took a fling at the Green-mountain state by saying "No man in Vermont is allowed to vote until he has made $5,000 trading horses with Massachusetts people." A ripple of laughter caused by this remark was turned to a roar when Senator Proctor of Vermont said in his deep bass: "Yes, and we all vote."

THEY ALL SAY SO.
Not Only in Northville But in Every City and Town in the Union.

If the reader took the time and trouble to ask his fellow residents of Northville the simple question given below, he would obtain but one answer. If he would read the statements now being published in Northville, which refer to this answer, it would surprise him to note that they number so many. And many more could be, and may be, published, but in the meantime ask the first person you meet what cures backache. The answer will be, Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a citizen who endorses our claim.

Mr. Chas. Elliott, drayman, living on Riverstreet says: "I am only too pleased to add my testimony to the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Murdock Bros. drug store. They have been used in my family with the best results, more especially by my wife, who was annoyed with a dull aching pain in her back. I never hear her complain now. We both endorse Doan's Kidney Pills as the finest remedy on the market. We heartily recommend them to all sufferers from backache or other kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Doan's and take no other.

American Woman Honored.
Mrs. Anna Conover, formerly an American actress, who has been the soul of the campaign for preventing cruelty to Paris cab horses, has been officially listed for decoration with the cross of the Legion of Honor.

A Good Hearted Man.

or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse will occur, the danger of neglecting treatment is certainly a very risky matter. If you are short of breath, have pain in left side, smothering spells, palpitation, unable to lie on side, especially the left, you should begin taking

J. A. Kreamer.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

J. A. Kreamer of Arkansas City, Kans., says: "My heart was so bad it was impossible for me to lie down, and I could neither sleep nor rest. My decline was rapid, and I realized I must get help soon. I was advised to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which I did, and candidly believe it saved my life."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists on guarantee.

May Vaccinate Plants.
French botanists are endeavoring to vaccinate plants against parasitic diseases. As the elementary functions are the same in animals and plants there seems to be no reason why their diseases, whether arising from microbes or fungus, should not be treated in the same way.

Sand Eaters at St. Louis.
St. Louis has a peculiar sect in the shape of a community of sand-eaters, composed of seventy-five men and women. The sand-eaters take every day a spoonful of sand. They believe that grit is necessary in every animal, and that many stomach troubles are due to the absence of grit in the stomach.

HAD TO MORTGAGE

Pontiac Man's Tobacco Venture Got Him in Trouble.

HE PLUNGED TOO HEAVILY

McKenzie Bank at Algonac Fails—Depositors Will Lose Greater Part of $32,000—Senator Moore Was Interested.

Pontiac, Mich., April 24.—Henry C. Ward of Pontiac has conveyed all his property to his son, Franklin B. Ward, as trustee for the benefit of his creditors. The transfer was put on fire April 15, being recorded simultaneously in Pontiac, Gaylord, Kalkaska, Grayling, and in Sandwich, Ont. The matter was very quietly conducted, and it was only Wednesday that the facts became known.

Mr. Ward's difficulties grow out of his extensive tobacco interests in Leamington, Ont. He started several months ago to engage in the tobacco manufacturing business there. He was not willing to go into the business on a small scale, but went in with all his might. He made contracts through Joseph M. Henry and R. R. Kenyon of Leamington with about 2,000 farmers in Essex county to furnish him with tobacco. When the tobacco was raised and the factory completed, Mr. Ward found it impossible to raise funds to purchase the tobacco, which amounted to about 2,000,000 pounds. Joseph Henry, who acted as solicitor for Mr. Ward in obtaining the contracts, caused his arrest a short time ago in Windsor, claiming, with Kenyon, nearly $15,000 commission.

Some of the farmers were willing to keep their tobacco and sell it elsewhere, but a few became angry and threatened to bring suits to attach Mr. Ward's property in Michigan, and to embarrass him in other ways. Mr. Ward is said to be perfectly willing to pay just claims.

"We can now see that father jumped into the tobacco business altogether too strongly," says Fred Ward, his son. "He was not content to make a little ripple, but wanted to plunge. We can also see that there has been mismanagement in a great many ways. The property covered by the mortgage covers everything that could be found belonging to father."

It is stated that the mortgage filed by Henry C. Ward will not have the slightest effect on any of the concerns or people of this city.

Algonac, Mich., April 24.—The bank belonging to the Algonac Banking Co. was closed Wednesday. J. Will McKenzie and P. J. Keen are the principal stockholders, the former being manager. The bank contained about $32,000 in deposits, the greater part of which will probably be lost, as the present assets of the bank are very poor.

Senator George W. Moore and Fred T. Moore are known to have loaned McKenzie about $9,000 at different times on good and bad paper. They are protected by about $15,000 worth of paper, but some of it is in bad shape.

It is stated on good authority that George W. Carman, the head of the Marine Savings bank of Marine City, will open a new bank at Algonac. Mr. Carman is known all over the state and has been in the banking business since 1879.

There is the probability that considerable litigation will follow the failure, as bankruptcy proceedings will be started.

Money for Old Woman's Home.

Grand Rapids, Mich., April 24.—E. L. McDonnell, a wealthy lumberman, formerly of Muskegon, died here Sunday of erysipelas, and by his side was Miss Virginia Pratt of Cincinnati, to whom he was to have married a week ago. His will was filed Wednesday, disposing of property estimated at $100,000. He leaves $40,000 to establish a home for indigent old women at Farmington, Ill.; $5,000 to his fiancée, Miss Pratt; $5,000 each to father and sister; his household goods and personal effects to his niece, and all the residue, estimated to exceed $50,000, to the proposed old woman's home.

MICHIGAN BRIEFS.

The third annual reunion of the Thirty-first Michigan infantry will be held in Jackson May 15.

Mary Schmidt, aged 86, died in a buggy while being driven from Mt. Clemens to her home at Waldenburg.

The New Boston hotel at Carlton was struck by lightning and John Stoflet, the proprietor, was rendered unconscious.

A Cho farmer went to Flint the other day to get a suit of clothes. He got drunk and was robbed of $30 and wore his old clothes home.

Richard Bailey, a Flint hackman, while cleaning his hack, found a roll of bills amounting to $32. He has the money, no owner putting in a claim yet for it.

Two rural mail routes have been ordered established out of Merrill, Saginaw county. Population served, 1,939. Carriers, Adelbert Hollenback and Richard Boli.

Elmer Green and Zina McDowell, of Tustin, while driving in the country near Bristol, were struck by a falling tree. Green was instantly killed, while McDowell escaped with a few severe bruises.

It looks now as if the new union depot to be built at Benton Harbor will go to St. Joseph instead, the railway officials being sore at the action of the Benton Harbor council suggesting an ordinance limiting the speed of trains inside the limits in an unreasonable degree. It is intimated the Big Four will enter St. Joe over the Big Marquette, thus relegating Benton Harbor to the rank of a way station.

A BLOODY MURDER.

Traverse City Man Kills Wife in Fit of Insane Frenzy.

Traverse City, Mich., April 22.—Between 7 and 7:30 Monday morning John Hargreaves called Mrs. Antoine Eltsner, a neighbor, to his house, saying his wife needed help. Mrs. Eltsner went to the house and into the bedroom, where Mrs. Hargreaves lay on the floor, with a pool of blood about her. She fled from the house in terror and met Gus Stevens, who, after looking in, notified the authorities.

The coroner was summoned, a jury impaneled and Hargreaves placed in custody. The body lay partially dressed, with the feet under the bed. Her head was horribly bruised in several places, there were scratches on her face and hand, her knees and elbows were badly bruised and terrible marks and wounds on her throat, showing choking.

Hargreaves claims she bruised herself in her insane frenzy. He carries a bruise on his face, which he received by falling against a bureau while trying to quiet her. Her underwear had several spots of blood on it.

Hargreaves and his wife both had terrible tempers, and it is thought they engaged in a wordy quarrel, which increased until Hargreaves lost all control of himself and crushed the life out of her before he realized what he was doing.

Hargreaves is in jail and now admits he killed his wife, while coming out of a trance. He is an epileptic.

Bad Fire in Trenton.

Trenton, Mich., April 22.—This village received a baptism of fire Monday that destroyed a dozen buildings, with a loss of nearly $15,000, and threatened at one time to wipe out the town. The fire started at 10:15 o'clock in a barn in the rear of Ghas Tieser's butcher shop, on Washington street. The fire spread to the ice house and sheds of Frank Court, which were soon in ashes. Fanned by a strong wind that accelerated their march of destruction, the flames swept northward, destroying the ice house and barn of Mrs. Albert Yanke, the barn belonging to Jared Munroe and the brick building at the corner of Front and St. Joseph streets, which he also owns.

Ann Arbor Certainly Likes Beer.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 22.—An effort is being made by a Detroit promoter to organize the Western brewery of this city into a stock company with $50,000 or $75,000 capital. A Cincinnati brewer has subscribed $3,000, and it is claimed that if he takes hold of the concern beer will be made of a quality that can compete with any brewery in the country. One of the reasons given for the concern being a paying one is that a number of local saloonkeepers are interested. An average of 100 barrels of beer are consumed in Ann Arbor every day, for which $6 a barrel is paid. This makes $600 a day, or $200,000 a year, and four-fifths of this money is now sent out of the city.

Poisoned by Canned Beef.

Nashville, Mich., April 22.—The entire family of Wm. Holsington of this place are ill from eating canned beef. The little 3-year-old daughter of Lee Holsington died Sunday, and their 3-year-old son is so ill that the doctors say he cannot recover. The beef was of the ordinary unseasoned variety and was bought by Holsington in Battle Creek. The case has added complication in view of the fact that the family is under quarantine from smallpox, to which they were exposed while visiting in Battle Creek a week ago. The other members of the family are reported out of danger, so far as the poisoning is concerned, although the period of inoculation is not yet past.

Injuries May Prove Fatal.

Detroit, Mich., April 22.—John T. Mitchell, a driver of a milk wagon, stands a pretty good chance of serving a term in prison. Monday morning he was accused by Police Captain McKenzie while driving his outfit on the western boulevard, which is an offense to the law. McKenzie endeavored to stop the horse, but Mitchell gave the animal a lick, the policeman was thrown down, and horse and wagon ran over him. McKenzie received injuries from which he may die. Mitchell was arrested.

New School for Battle Creek.

Battle Creek, Mich., April 22.—The work of demolishing one of the oldest ward school buildings in the city has commenced and stakes are already set for a handsome new structure that is to be erected in its place. The school rooms of the city are now overcrowded and new buildings are to be built to accommodate the growing demand.

Detroit Law Graduates.

Detroit, Mich., April 22.—The graduating exercises of the Detroit Homeopathic college will be held this afternoon at 2:30 p. m. at the Detroit opera house. The graduates are: H. O. McMahon, president, Charles S. Strain, valedictorian; C. A. Martin, L. F. C. Wendt, G. R. Crumshank, Mrs. F. M. Way.

Gets a Federal Job.

Owosso, Mich., April 22.—George L. Van Dyne has been ordered to report at Washington at once for a position in the treasury department. The place was secured for him by Congressman Fordney. Van Dyne has a great war record and his appointment is a popular one with the veterans.

Missing Man's Body Found.

Benton Harbor, Mich., April 22.—The body of Michael Cullina, aged 60, a well-to-do farmer living near Sister lakes, who has been missing for four days, has been taken out of the canal. He was a hard drinker and is supposed to have fallen in while under the influence of liquor.

Car Killed an Aged Man.

Jackson, Mich., April 22.—George Lord, aged 87 years, was struck by a Jackson & Suburban traction car near Grass Lake last night while driving across the track, and received injuries from which he died half an hour later.

WAS AN ACTIVE MAN.

Edwin Conely Is Dead at His Home in Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., April 21.—Edwin Forrest Conely, jurist, literateur and prominent citizen, died early Sunday morning at his home, 37 Davenport street, aged 54 years. Until a week ago he was apparently in his usual health, his sudden demise following an operation for the removal of gall stones, from which he had suffered for two years.

Edwin Forrest Conely, who was the youngest of 11 children, was about 22 years of age when the family removed to Michigan. He remained on the farm long enough to become thoroughly versed in practical farming, and his early education was received at Brighton and Jackson, Mich.

He read law with S. F. Hubbard of Howell, Olney Hawkins of Ann Arbor and D. B. & H. M. Duffield of Detroit. He also attended the University of Michigan law school.

Mr. Conely became a resident of Detroit just 32 years ago, and in the autumn of the same year was admitted to the bar upon examination in the supreme court. He has practiced in all the local courts, and in the state and national appellate courts. He has also practiced in Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and New York.

Mr. Conely was elected to the legislature of 1877-78, receiving the democratic nomination for speaker of the house and serving as a member of the judiciary and library committees. He was a delegate to the national democratic convention of 1880, which nominated Gen. Hancock for the presidency, and the following year received the democratic nomination for judge of the recorder's court, being defeated after an excellent run. A little later he took charge of the police department.

Mr. Conely was for many years counsel for the Fort Wayne & Belle Isle Railway Co., and was connected with important cases, involving corporations acting under municipal franchises. Professional duties compelled him to decline an appointment on the health board, and he resigned a law chair at the University of Michigan for the same reason. In 1892 he became a member of the library commission. The same year he was elected a delegate to the national democratic convention at Chicago, and with Gen. Patrick Collins and Don M. Dickinson and change of the floor work for Grover Cleveland. A year later he was appointed a member of the state municipal commission by Gov. Rich.

He was connected with the state troops for 13 years, serving as captain of the Detroit Light Guard, major of the Fourteenth Infantry, and as colonel and aide-de-camp, and president of the state military board.

Into the Sugar Trust.

Bay City, Mich., April 21.—Negotiations which have been pending several days between the stockholders of the Bay City sugar factory and the representatives of the Havemeyers were consummated Saturday afternoon, when G. G. Scrantom of Detroit turned over to stockholders a certified check in exchange for one-half the stock of the company and left on the evening train for home. The Havemeyer director will be Charles B. Warren of Detroit who is also director in other Michigan factories in which Havemeyer has obtained an interest, viz: Carg, Crossell and Alma. The Bay City factory will continue to be run by the same officers and managed in the same manner as heretofore.

Great Hive Was Victorious.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 21.—Saturday Judge Kinne filed his opinion in the case of the Great Hive, Ladies of the Maccabees vs. the Supreme Hive Ladies of the Maccabees. The case was brought to determine the right of the Great Hive to expand its work to points outside the state and to institute subordinate hives without interference by the Supreme Hive. The decision is of interest to the 150,000 ladies belonging to the two orders. It is in favor of the Great Hive, giving it right to its name and secret work and privilege to extend its benefits to other states.

U. of M. Summer School.

Ann Arbor, Mich., April 21.—The announcements for the summer school of the University of Michigan are issued. The tuition fee has been reduced to $15 regardless of the number of courses taken, one course meaning one hour a day, five days in the week and for six weeks. The summer school of the literary department will begin June 25 and will close August 22. The medical summer session will commence on June 23 and will close August 8. The law department summer school will open June 23 and will last for eight weeks.

Assets Went Cheap.

Niles, Mich., April 21.—The remaining assets of the defunct Citizens' National bank have been sold at public auction by the receiver. Assets aggregating $30,000 and consisting of notes, brought only $161. The bank's affairs will be wound up by May 1. Receiver Rhode thinks the bank will pay depositors 10 per cent dividend, making 90 per cent in all.

London Fire Cost Seven Lives.

London, April 21.—A fire broke out at midnight last night in Hackney, a popular suburb of London, in a printer's warehouse three stories high, the top floor of which was used for living rooms. A dozen fire engines arrived promptly, but the flames were of overmastering power and it was impossible to enter the building. When the flames were finally under control the charred bodies of a man, two women and four children were found.

Hundreds Are Prosecuted.

Kingston, Jamaica, April 21.—A riot out outbreak occurred Saturday at Annotta Bay, on the north coast of the island. It was confined chiefly to a conflict between the police and coolies employed on an estate. Police reinforcements which were immediately sent from Port of France, put a stop to the fight. Numerous persons were injured. Hundreds of persons are being prosecuted in the island for the non-payment of taxes.

Stuart Robson's Reminiscence.

Stuart Robson spoke in happy vein before the curtain at the Hyperion Theater, New Haven, a few evenings ago. He said: "Just forty-three years ago, the first time I appeared before a New Haven audience, I was arrested by the sheriff of this city because I didn't have money enough to pay my theatrical license, which was $20. It was a $15 house. In those days Yale University discriminated in favor of the circus, which only had to pay a license of $5."

SUFFERED THREE YEARS. CATARRH OF STOMACH.

Miss Evelyn Morse writes from 651 Adams Street, Minneapolis, Minn., as follows:

"I suffered for nearly three years with catarrh of the stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, until a friend advised me to try Peruna. Although skeptical, I tried it, and found it helped me within the first week. I kept taking it for three months, and am pleased to say that it cured me entirely, and I have had no symptoms of its return. I am only too glad to recommend it."—EVELYN MORSE.

Adia Brittain, of Sekitan, O., writes: "After using your wonderful Peruna three months, I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna. I can now get around and do my housework, and think Peruna the greatest medicine I ever used."—Adia Brittain.

Mrs. Lizzie Blevins, 102 Boliver street, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I candidly feel Peruna was the means of saving my life, for I suffered for months from catarrh of the stomach. Two bottles of Peruna cured me."—Mrs. Lizzie Blevins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

School Notes.

(By the Superintendent)

Motto: "Young man what you make of your life depends upon the forethought with which you face the future."—Rev. E. B. Allen

The botany class took their first field excursion last week.

Report cards will be sent out next Wednesday evening.

In the eighth grade, section two won the horseshoe last Friday.

Eugene and Raymond DesAutels took up work in our school this week.

Several new pictures have been added to the eighth grade art gallery recently.

The seventh grade geography class is making some excellent maps of Michigan.

One member of the botany class talks about the stomata on plants as being like "ruddy fuzz."

Members of the seventh grade are reading "Snowbound," and committing to memory "Thanatopsis."

The eighth grade has chosen blue and yellow as class colors and "We strive to climb higher" as a class motto.

The Wayne, Plymouth and Northville schools are arranging for a field day to be held in Plymouth May 10th.

Remember Arbor Day exercises are to be held in the rink this evening commencing at eight o'clock. School children free; adults, five cents.

Sam and Paul Penfield are again at their desks after about two months' vacation sight seeing and enjoying life in the tropical climate.

Members of the physics class have been studying electricity lately and this week set up a telegraphic circuit connecting the laboratory and office.

The question of note book paper is one that parents would do well to give some attention. Many of the younger children are using too much paper. Of course, the teachers can control the matter to a great extent, but if the parents would assist in a measure the extravagance would be more permanently checked. We always like to see children supplied with the necessary articles for school but we wish to hold them responsible for the good care and economical use of what parents provide. We feel safe in saying that fully one-third of all the note book paper brought into the school is not used. We suggest this as a remedy with the younger children that parents require the child to show them the old note book before a new one is purchased and then they can determine whether habits of economy or extravagance are being practiced. No child need complain that the leaves come out of their tablets; these can be made fast by a cord or paper fasteners or by sewing.

To Cure a Cold in One Day Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25 cents

Sudden Inspiration.

"We have with us this evening" the master of ceremonies said, "a gentleman from the Sandwich Islands, who kindly consented to sing a song—" "It's name!" demanded several rude boys in the rear seats. The chairman was non-plussed, but only for a moment. "The gentleman from Hawaii who has so kindly consented to assist us this evening," he went on, with a contemptuous glance at the rear seats, "will sing a selection entitled 'How I Love My Honolulu!'" The gentleman from Hawaii then proceeded to sing something in Kanaka, and nobody was the wiser.—Chicago Tribune.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Lingham of Milford were guests at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. Will Barley, Sunday.

Miss Grace Yerkes entertained friends from Salem and Ann Arbor last Friday and Saturday. Miss Yerkes resumed school work again Monday.

JUST AS GOOD AS THEY LOOK

That's one of the best points of excellence in Traver's Clothes—they are just as good as they look—no slighting of details that insure long wear, no pressing and pulling to give the garments a good appearance—every garment is made thoroughly as it should be to insure lasting good shape, hard wear, and neat stylish appearance.

The best there is in Clothing, that's what you get at this store and for fair prices too—we sell the best not the cheapest—the highest quality is what we seek—and never try for the kind that sells for low prices.

None Better Than
Those $10, $12 and $15 Suits
for Men

And the variety is pleasing—contains blues, blacks and the neatest of fancy mixtures in single and double breasted styles—all sizes.

WE'VE STRUCK OUR GAIT.

Yes, and jumping jewhickens, how it does keep us humping! When we're not loading up farmers' wagons with lumber and building material, we're busy getting in new stock.

Well, we're here for business—the more the merrier, so join the crowd when you want some building material and come where satisfaction fills the very air. That's here.

Don't forget either, we carry a full and complete line of Wagons, Carriages and Farm Implements. We can give you the best that's going, and save you money besides.

M. S. AMBLER & CO., NORTHVILLE.

The American Bell & Foundry Co shipped a fine deal of three bells to a church at Nazareth, Pa., last week.

If some local capital will take hold of the project a company for the manufacture of steel horse collars can be induced to locate here.

Catholic services will be held at the home of Mrs. Ives on Duval street Wednesday evening, April 30th, at 7:30 and Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Fr. Hally, pastor.

Next Sunday afternoon Rev. Lee S. McClester of Detroit will preach at the Universalist church, Farmington, on "Natural Religion." From this date on he will preach there every two weeks in the afternoon.

Again and for the four hundred and forty-fourth time the Record wishes to state that "Cards of Thanks" and obituary poetry are invariably charged for at the rate of one cent per word cash in advance. Nothing of the kind published otherwise.

The members of the Northville Woman's club, assisted by the school, are making preparations for Arbor Day exercises to be held in the park this Friday evening. There is room for every man, woman and child in town. Come one, come all. Children free; adults 5 cents.

C. B. Horton of Colorado, brother of E. S. Horton of this place, has lately been promoted to the assistant superintendency of the Rocky Mountain Division of the Western Union Telegraph company. The office is a very important one and carries with it a snug salary.

The school board of River Rouge not only were unanimous in electing Arthur S. Nichols as superintendent of their schools for another year, but also added $100 increase in salary. This is the second time within a year that they have emphasized their appreciation of Mr. Nichols' work by raising his salary.

Frank Shafer has enlisted Detroit capital to form a stock company for the purpose of manufacturing his gasoline light machine. Shafer went to Chicago this week to show his machine to the board of underwriters of insurance and as soon as they give their approval the manufacture will be commenced on a large scale.

Miss Jessie Ely of Detroit, formerly of this place, and Mr. Lloyd Myers of that city were married on Wednesday at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. E. Paulger, in that city. Mr. Myers is one of the most popular young men in Detroit and until recently was employed in Burton's Abstract office. They will make their future home in Ohio.

Northville is republican. Taxes will this year be 30 per cent higher than ever before. That's what is known as a logical sequence and the inevitable consequence. Republicanism comes high, and yet there are people who want it and then kick like bronchos because the price runs along the lines of expansion and robbery. This spring the republican supervisor was elected by 328 to 97.—Adrian Press.

The Press will be surprised to know that Northville has a democratic mayor and that half the aldermen are also democrats, the marshal is of the same faith and so is the street commissioner and assessor, but this council has no more to do with the increased taxation than has the Press man. Sides, the supervisor of the town has nothing to do with village taxes.

We handle croquet sets, base balls, ball clubs, catching mits, in fact a complete line of all kinds of sporting goods. CARPENTER & HUFF BROS.

Makes children eat, sleep and grow. Makes mother strong and vigorous. Makes a healthy family. That's what Rocky Mountain Tea does. 35 cents. Murdock Bros.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework. Good wages and no washing. Apply to P. O. Box 22 or Record office.

A large amount of cement walks are being laid on Main street this week.

On May 2nd the local gun club will shoot for a pair of rubber boots donated by Chas. Sessions. Highest score in 25 bird race gets the boots.

Mrs. Rayson, Barnum, Budd, Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Salem, the little folks and Mrs. Lizzie Cobb gave the latter's mother, Mrs. Clark, a pleasant surprise Monday at the home of her brother-in-law, James Clark, in honor of her sixtieth birthday.

The German Lutheran society will give a dance and box social at the home of John Balco, four miles west and one mile north of this village, on Saturday evening, April 26. Everybody invited and a good time is assured. The quilt drawing will take place at this time.

CHAS. LAWRENCE, Trustee.

A most remarkable occurrence took place in Northville last week. A man found a $5 bill on the steps leading to the office of one of Northville's lawyers and turned it over to the disciple of Blackstone. The disciple denied the ownership of the greenback and at once advertised in the Record for the proprietor of the william. The ad. caught the penetrating eye of Judge Webster and after sticking his two fingers in his vest pocket a few times and bringing them out empty, he hid himself to the lawyer's office and after proving his title to the five spot and promising to not repeat the offense he was made happy by the return of his property.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

[By the Pastor.]

The sermon next Sunday evening will be on "They Say."

Methodist Church Notes.

[By the Pastor.]

Remember the League sale of baked goods at Fry Bros' store Saturday.

Dr. Potts gave a fine address for the W. F. M. S. Sunday evening and the 1 hour offering amounted to over ten dollars.

The pastor will speak Sunday morning on "The Church and the Children," and the evening topic will be "Romanism in Our Island Possessions."

Bros. Peter Barley, Chas. Dolph and Frank Fry accompanied Mr. Lloyd to Farmington to the special meeting in the Methodist church at that place on Sunday afternoon Farmington Methodists during the day raised over $900 for church improvements.

At the prayer meeting next Thursday evening the W. F. M. S. will be represented by three of their members with ten minute papers or addresses in regard to the missionary work carried on by that society. Let us have a large attendance to listen to these papers and join us in prayer for our Home Missions.

The pastor and his wife attended the missionary conference at Wayne Tuesday of this week. The attendance was small but the papers and addresses were good. Of 36 pastoral charges classified on this district, ours holds 16th place in point of liberality to missions last year. Surely we can by an effort hold that place this year.

Record Rainfalls.

The world's record for a 24-hour rainfall, hitherto held by Queensland, was equaled at Papaia, on the windward coast of the island of Hawaii, on Christmas day, when the rain gauge showed a fall of forty inches. Papaia is a little headland. Its formation is such that it always gets the brunt of the rains brought to that coast by the northeast trade winds. At Hana, on the eastern and exposed end of Maui, where twenty-one inches of rain fell in twenty-four hours, fourteen inches fell in four hours, making it is believed, a world's record for a four-hour period.

Gardening Taught in Sweden.

Scientific gardening is taught in the national schools of Sweden and in the seminars for the education of national school teachers. There is a school garden in nearly every rural school district in the kingdom. The garden is placed near the schoolhouse, and the children receive practical instruction in the cultivation of plants, berries, flowers, herbs and fruits, the management of hotbeds, greenhouses, etc.

Jirikiasha Men in a Walk.

A great walking competition in Tokyo in which most of the competitors were jirikiasha men resulted in a fiasco, none of the men completing the minimum of seventy miles. This excited some surprise as the jirikiasha men have immensely developed legs. The result is attributed to their want of staying power.

A Card.

We, the undersigned do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50 cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25 cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded. MURDOCK BROS. GEO. C. HUESTON.

Love of Dress.

Walled Lake News.

C. F. Rose and family are moving into the rooms over the new hardware store.

If you need anything in the line of forks, rakes, hoes, etc., call on C. F. Rose.

Dr. Rush Hoyt of Detroit and Hiram Hoyt of Muskegon visited their mother here the first of the week.

S. M. Gage has sold his stock of goods to Silas Rice of Milford who will move into the brick store the first of May. Mr. Rice has a large stock of dry goods and groceries at Milford which he will bring with him here. Mr. Gage will keep the post-office in the same building.

A Walled Lake farmer sold his chickens by weight to a traveling buyer and wondered at the manner in which the birds, which he had thought were unusually plump ones, failed to pull down the scales. The buyer forgot his scales when he left, and the farmer, in investigating them, found that they were set so they would weigh only a certain amount and everything over that didn't count. When the buyer returned for the scales there was a little business transacted which cost the chicken dealer more than he had saved by means of his scales for several days.

A pretty wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bentley April 26, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter Cora, to Roy Donaldson. At seven o'clock the wedding march was played by Mrs. Gertrude Erwin and Rev. J. P. Cooper performed the ceremony. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of white and carried carnations. A dainty luncheon was served by the three sisters of the bride. The presents were numerous and valuable. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Donaldson of Trenton, cousins of the groom, who were recently married, accompanied them to Detroit, for a two days outing, after which they all went to Trenton. They will go to housekeeping at once in New Hudson, where the groom is clerking for E. J. Rice. The young people are very popular here and the best wishes of the entire community go with them to their new home.

Shot in His Left Leg.

For all kinds of sores, burns, bruises, or other wounds DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a sure cure. Skin diseases yield to it at once. Never fails in cases of piles, cooling and healing. None genuine but DeWitt's. Beware of counterfeits. "I suffered for many years from a sore caused by a gunshot wound in my left leg," says A. S. Fuller, English, Ind. "It would not heal and gave me much trouble. I used all kinds of remedies to no purpose until I tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A few boxes completely cured me." Murdock Bros.

United States Senator McCreary.

James P. McCreary, who has been elected United States senator from Kentucky, was appointed by the president in 1892 one of the five commissioners to represent the United States in the international monetary conference. In that conference he distinguished himself as an advocate of bimetalism.

Small Men in Congress.

Mr. Lessler, the man who defeated Perry Belmont for Congress, is not quite five feet tall, weighs about seventy-five pounds and wears boy's shoes. He is a brainy chap, however, and philosophically remarks "Alexander Stephens was the smallest man in congress and one of the greatest. There is hope for me." Congressman Lever of South Carolina is also quite small. A new doorkeeper announced his intention to put out "that kid" of the house one morning, but was informed that the "kid" was the honorable gentleman from South Carolina.

Oral Advertising.

The latest plague to afflict New York city is the "oral advertiser." He has made his appearance on street cars and on ferry boats, and usually advertises some remedy which will cure almost any disease. Passengers in an uptown elevated train were rather startled by hearing a man cry in a loud voice that "Mothers-in-law are not cranky—they are sick and in need"—then he cried out the merits of a well-known remedy and had disappeared into the next car before the passengers gained their breath and composure.

Deserved Rebuke.

A newspaper man who desired to interview Rt. Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, was, by a servant's error, shown into Mr. Balfour's study while another visitor was with him, writes an exchange. With a foolish want of tact the reporter tried to induce the leader of the house of commons to talk while this third person was still in the room. "Will you," replied Mr. Balfour to a query of the newspaper man, in his sweetest, gentlest manner, "be so kind as to go outside the door and close it."

Let it Alone.

Scott's Emulsion is not a good medicine for fat folks. We have never tried giving it to a real fat person. We don't dare. You see Scott's Emulsion builds new flesh. Fat people don't want it. Strong people don't need it.

But if you are thin Scott's Emulsion is the medicine for you. It doesn't tire you out. There is no strain. The work is all natural and easy. You just take the medicine and that's all there is to it.

The next thing you know you feel better—you eat better—and you weigh more. It is a quiet worker.

Mrs. Malissa Whiteacre of Howell is visiting at Henry and Frank Whitaker's this week. She came to attend the funeral of the latter's father, Jas. Whitaker, of Plymouth township.
Died at his residence four miles west of Plymouth village on Sunday, April 26th, James Whitaker, perhaps better known as "Uncle Jimmy," in the 90th year of his age. In some respects he was a very remarkable man, a great lover of sport and adventure. At the time of the gold excitement in California he crossed the plains on the overland route in a covered wagon drawn by four ponies. Mr. Whitaker had been twice married and was the father of nine children, six of whom are still living. His birthplace was near Canterbury, England, from which place he came to America at the age of 19. He was a man who had seen many hardships in his day having at one time received a fracture of his hip compelling him to use crutches the rest of his life, but for all that he was cheerful. The funeral was held at the home Tuesday, Rev. Mr. Whitney of Salem officiating.

Who Pays the Printer?

When you go around from printer to printer getting bids on a job and then giving it to the lowest bidder, you get an indifferently good job—one with no particularly good points—one that sells no goods for you, then who pays the printer?

YOU DO.

When you pick out a good printer, giving him all your work, educating him to an idea of your needs, and paying a fair price for the work you get, your printer matter (when secured at the Record Printery) necessarily creates a favorable impression for you and for what you offer, and becomes a factor in selling your goods. Then who pays the printer? Your customer.

HE DOES.

HAD LONG STRUGGLE

Miss Julia Marlowe Chats About Her Career on the Stage.

Worked Hard and Faithfully for Years Before Obtaining Recognition—Won Her Way Sure—But Slowly.

Miss Julia Marlowe, in an interesting article in the Philharmonic magazine, relates the details of the long struggle which led to her recognition. After reading her story it is not difficult to understand why she writes: "I feel I could not go through it again." Born in England, her parents came to this country when she was a little girl, and chose Kansas, not altogether fortunately for themselves, for their abode. But the need which was the chief reason for the commencement of the stage career of their daughter cannot now be viewed other than as a happy circumstance. Those were the days of the juvenile opera troupes, and of one of them the child became a member. Her pretty talent attracted the attention of the manageress of the company, and to that woman, whom Miss Marlowe does not name, she gave the credit for her after rigorous training.

The manageress adopted the girl, who then was 13 years old, and took her to New York to begin her actual stage education. For three years it lasted, with intermissions only of two weeks each summer and holidays on the Fourth of July, Christmas and New Year's day.

"My mornings," Miss Marlowe writes, "were devoted to reading aloud and to going over plays with my instructor. Whole dramas were acted out, my adopted aunt my only audience, holding the book and reading the other parts. In the majority of them I have never appeared, nor was it intended that I should. The aim was that I should build up an extensive repertory and familiarize myself with the conceptions of the world's great dramatists. Tables and chairs served to indicate the scenery and the positions of other players in the act. In the balcony scene of 'Romeo and Juliet' the back of the sofa was the balcony rail, and over it, with my eyes fixed tenderly upon a worn piece in the carpet, I first delivered Juliet's good-night to her lover.

"After three or four hours in the morning came luncheon, a simple, hearty meal. Then the morning's routine was repeated throughout the afternoon.

"Such severe physical exercise as fencing and gymnastics were an important feature of my training. Standing six feet from the wall with a rapier in my hand I would lunge for a hundred times successively at a tiny wafer—perhaps a quarter of an inch in diameter—pasted to the wall. It came to be considered not extraordinary when I pierced the wafer 99 out of 100 times.

"But the most essential of all was the cultivation of my voice. That part of my training was entirely musical, the purpose being to give me such an experience as every singer intended for the opera undergoes, to render my voice an instrument which could be played upon in all its parts and instantly made to respond to any emotion without any evidence of effort. To this day I take two vocal lessons a week, like any beginner. I never had any so-called elocutionary training."

The strife for recognition itself came after the three years of study were over. The 16-year-old girl was determined upon an independent career, and to every one of New York's chief managers she went resolutely asking not for a place in their company, but for their sponsorship. In telling the experience she gives no names, but it is not difficult to pick out the managers upon whom she called. Most of them still live. Their reception was alike in the particular that they refused to assist her. Two of them gave her advice on the manner of her readings—bad advice, she was sure—and two others offered her a position in their stock companies. One laughed at her pretensions, and him she hated.

Not discouraged by defeat and more than ever resolved to accept the domination of no manager, she at last determined to give a special performance on her own account. In October, 1897, she and her instructor raised sufficient money to enable her to appear as Parthenia at an experimental matinee at the Bijou theater. The fruit of her daring was honest critical praise and the attention of persons interested in theatrical art and in theatrical business. From that time on she won her way, not rapidly, but surely. Work, she says in conclusion, has been the only magic in her achievements.

How She Knew.

A little girl from a crowded tenement-house was delightedly telling a friend in the college settlement about her teacher, relates the Youth's Companion.

"She's just a perfect lady, that's what she is," said the child.
"Huh! How do you know she's a perfect lady?" questioned her friend.
"You've known her only two days."
"It's easy enough telling," was the indignant answer. "I know she's a perfect lady because she makes me feel polite all the time."

No Cause for Worry.

Flap—I'm in love, and the only disagreeable thing about it is, that the girl is older than I.
Jack—How old are you now?
Flap—18.
"And the lady is what?"
"Twenty-two."
"Make your mind easy, my boy. By the time you are 21 she'll be only 25."
Tit-Bits.

An Opinion on Art.

"Don't you think that modern actors are more repressed in their methods than the old timers were?" asked the friend.
"Yes," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes, "scenery has become so elaborate and expensive that we have to carry ourselves with more caution in order not to damage it."—Washington Star.

To One About to Step Off.

The Daddy—Let me give you a bit of advice, my dear. To a man the heart of the woman he loves is like an oil country.
The Daughter—How can that be, pa?
The Daddy—The interest is intense only so long as there is prospect of new discoveries.—Life.

Keeping Up Appearances.

"Why do you insist so earnestly that your salary ought to be raised? You don't need the money."
"That's true," answered Senator Sorghum. "But you don't imagine I'm going to be so careless as to let my earnest and frugal constituents think I don't need it do you?"—Washington Star.

His Little Game.

Fred—I think Charley must be losing his mind. I saw him deliberately break several good cigars and then replace them in his vest pocket.
Tom—Oh, he is merely trying to make his girl jealous. She will see those broken cigars and think he has been hugging some other girl.—Chicago Daily News.

A Business Head.

Old Bullion (on his deathbed)—All my property is willed to you, but I'm afraid my children by my first wife will make a contest and then the lawyers will get it.
Young Wife—Don't worry, my love. I can easily fix that. I'll marry one of the lawyers.—N. Y. Weekly.

She Was Not Economical.

Benham—Do you remember that before we were married you said you could never be a poor man's wife?
Mrs. Benham—Well, I wasn't, was I?
Benham—No, but you will be soon if you keep on at the rate you are going now.—Judge.

Objection Was Unanimous.

"So you did not marry Miss Moneybags, after all?"
"No her family all objected."
"But if the girl liked you—"
"Do not misunderstand me, she was as much opposed to it as any of them."—Tit-Bits.

A Wish.

"Al-ek," the aeronaut exclaimed, "Success my hopes would crown. If this same airship would go up as fast as it comes down."
—Washington Star.

A LIFE WELL SPENT.

Curate—It must be a comfort to you, Mrs. Smith, to reflect that your life has been well spent.

Mrs. Smith—Yes, pretty well, thank you, sir. I've buried three husbands in my time.—Sketch.

The Cannons.

A cannon, exceedingly canny. One morning remarked to his granny, "A cannon can can anything that he can, but a cannon can't can a can, can he?"
—Boston Globe.

What's in a Name?

"Do you call this realistic fiction?" asked the critic.
"Certainly," replied the author.
"What's the matter with it?"
"It's altogether too probable," answered the critic.—Chicago Post.

Enough Torture.

She—It's a pity you haven't a mind of your own.
Cholly—Jove, I ought to have. You give me a piece of yours often enough!—Harlem Life.

A Checkered Career.

Manager—Have you ever had any experience on the stage?
Chorus Girl—I have had all my experiences on the stage, sir!—Brooklyn Life.

Knew the Penalty.

In Esquire Roberts' court, in Fulton, Ky., recently a boy was put on the witness stand, and to ascertain if he knew the nature of an oath the justice interviewed him as follows:

"Do you know the nature of an oath?"
"Don't know whether I do or not."
"Well, if you should tell a lie, do you know where you would go when you died?"
"Yes, sir."
"Where?"
"Well, when we moved out here pap said if any of us lied he would take us back to Arkansaw, and I reckon he's as good as his word."—Chicago Journal.

How, Indeed?

If "falk is cheap"
How does it pass
That we should speak
Of talk as "cheap?"
—Philadelphia Press.

CHEERFUL PROSPECT.

"Henry, you like Aunt Martha, don't you?"
"Yes, dear, of course!"
"Well, will you swear to marry her if I die first? I shouldn't rest if you were to take up with some young person."—Ally Sloper.

The Hidden Thought.

Heides was claims he saw just what he thinks, because man never speaks out his inmost honest thought about his own ends or——Chicago Record Herald.

An Honest Love.

Mrs. Styles—Did your husband ever have more than one love affair?
Mrs. Styles—No, only one, I believe.
"And that was when he fell in love with you?"
"Oh, no, no; he fell in love with himself long before he met me!"
—Yonkers Statesman.

Not a Realist.

"Do you approve of realism in the drama?"

"Certainly not," answered Miss Cayenne. "If people on the stage talked and behaved as stupidly as they do in real life there would be no excuse for going to the theater."—Washington Star.

The Victim Talks Back.

"I see," said the keeper of the boarding-house, "a certain seed in Russia considers hair sinful."
"Well," replied the quiet young man, "they would have no reason to complain of my mattress being at all sinful."—Yonkers Statesman.

Equal to the Emergency.

Teacher (severely)—Tommy, there are three words wrongly spelled in this exercise!
Tommy (unblushingly)—Well, m'am, you must remember my folks didn't have the educational advantages I have.—Puck.

Realism.

"Do you believe in realism in the drama?" asked the friend.
"I do," answered Mr. Stormington Barnes. "Many is the time I would have given a great deal to play Macbeth with a real banquet."—Washington Star.

Commendable Progress.

Mrs. Higblower—How is your daughter getting on with her music lessons?
Mrs. Dimpleton—Splendidly! She can play the piano now without interrupting the conversation.—Town Topics.

Well Known.

Lawson—Jackson tells me that he is pretty well known in your town.
Lawson—I should say he was. Why, there isn't a man in the place that would lend him $5.—Somerville Journal.

No Choice.

Bleeker—Has your wife made any plans for the summer yet?
Baxter—No; it's too early. Why, she hasn't even tried to find out where I don't want her to go yet!—Puck.

Art Is Long.

Bill—How long was your friend, the artist, working on that canvas?
Will—Eight years. Took him six months to paint it and seven years and a half trying to sell it.—Tit-Bits.

In Matrimonial Affairs.

"He's a grandfather, and yet he's going to marry that young Miss Kittle Skittish."
"Yes, he's old enough not to know any better."—Chicago Post.

Bobby Had an Idea.

The Woman—Little boys should be seen and not heard.
The Boy—So that the women can say it all, I suppose.—Yonkers Statesman.

Didn't Want Her for a Nurse.
Mrs. Hoyle—How did your husband get over his illness so quickly?
Mrs. Doyle—I threatened to send for mother to take care of him.—Judge.

Bombarding the Sky.

Prof. Willis L. Moore of the agricultural department in a recent report ridicules the idea that storms of any kind may be induced, dispelled or controlled by bombarding the clouds. Prof. Cleveland Abbe of the weather bureau agrees with his conclusions and in a recent paper criticizes Prof. Franklin's argument for the rational plausibility and possible effectiveness of cannonading the sky with vortex rings for the prevention of hailstorms. Dr. Moore and Dr. Abbe should know that a great many people in Europe besides ignorant peasants believe that hailstorms may be averted by the influence of explosives, and the faith they profess is too well grounded in experience, or what passes for experience, to be shaken by anybody's ipse dixit. No doubt they are mistaken, but to show that they are would require that experiments be made under conditions similar to those which have established their confidence.

Women Students and Marriage.

President M. Carey Thomas of Bryn Mawr college, in a published letter on the subject of higher education, shows that there are now more than 21,000 women studying in colleges, and that these constitute 27.4 per cent of all college students. Relative to marriage, she says: "College women, like other women are dependent on men for marriage, and the college presidents who enjoin upon us to teach women womanly virtues and educate them to become wives and mothers should begin by educating their own college men to become husbands."

New Year's Vows in Paris.

Paris gave up this New Year, after many centuries, the Red Mass in the Sainte Chapelle for the judges of the higher courts. This was done by order of the Minister of Justice on account of the intermeddling with political affairs of the religious orders. The ardent Catholic judges and lawyers attended instead a mass celebrated by Cardinal Richard in the Church of St. Germain l'Auxerrois, opposite the Louvre, whose bells gave the signal for the massacre of St. Bartholomew.

Wields A Sharp A.

Millions marvel at the multitude of maladies cut off by Dr. King's New Life Pills—the most distressing too! Stomach, liver and bowel troubles, dyspepsia, loss of appetite, jaundice, biliousness, fever, malaria, all fall before these wonder workers. "Be at George C. Hueston's drug store."

WIT AND WISDOM FROM BOOKS.

He should will a thing and do it. That's a man!—"Orlo" and His Wife.
One has often to draw upon the imagination even in serious "realism."—"Confessions of a Caricaturist."
Wherever a man strays aside from the beaten path, there he finds the devil waiting for him—"The God Seeker."

One man should not pay attention to another according to the point of view, but according to the impulse of the heart.—"Orlo" and His Wife.

There are few lives without that delightful element of "possibility" which makes some men not only endurable, but hopeful—"Trinity Bells."

There is no advantage in being poor if you can't be common. It would be like being well off without a taste for music or artichokes—"The Last of the Knickerbockers."

Suburban News.

Carlton is coquetting with the incorporation idea.

"Shut waists are ripe," says the St. Clair Republican. "Sure" seems to be a new word for a good many girls.

The Fenton Independent is undeniably very up on middle age, having reached its thirty-fourth birthday, and we notice it has a new wrinkle occasionally.

Farmington people are feeling justly elated over the fact that in addition to the new school building, their High School making it a twelfth grade institution.

The Farmington Enterprise goes out next week (next) one better by stating that a month before the council was called without a "second" vote. Probably meant dropped instead of carried.

Milford township woodchucks—and incidentally some contiguous township's—are worth fifteen cents per bushel this year, but the price of eggs is non-existent and scarce—and will be up accordingly.

Ypsilanti proudly claims to be the distinction of having been the former dwelling place of two Detroit celebrities—Mrs. Heywood and the negro murderer John Scott. Early influences can never be entirely overcome.

Pontiac had ambitious aspirations for a new $5,000 theater, but will have to work along without one for the present as the financial enthusiasm of the citizens is not quite up to that stage.

Ann Arbor has a recently organized anti-cigarette league with 75 members to begin with who are pledged not only to abstain from using the accursed implement in question but to use all their influence against its use by others.

The next time in order will be an automobile excursion, but we decided not to take our auto out until later in the season—delay times.

Just so probably Pro W. will not use his privilege of steam traction until later in the season—delay times.

A little son of Mark Crawford of Farmington had a birthday celebration the other day which he will probably always remember. Both boys or one of his legs were broken in a friendly attempt of several of his schoolmates to administer the customary birthday drubbing.

At an adjourned school meeting a majority of Plymouth taxpayers last week decided that it was neither necessary or expedient to borrow $50,000 to enlarge and improve the High School building so the young idea will have to shoot under present conditions for a while.

A good one is told on one of Milford's doctors. A few days ago he was called to the bedside of a patient. He pulled out his watch, felt the man's pulse and began to count, "seven, eight, nine, ten, jack, queen, king—" The patient immediately burst out laughing and got well.

A Holly man has just sold for $15 a double harness which he has used for twenty-two years, and has given his order for a new one to the same man who made the first mentioned one, and who will get the job of making the next if he wants it. The harnessmaker is evidently a bit of an artist along his particular lines.

The Great Dismal Swamp

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of malaria germs. So is low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles, and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial trouble. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for malaria and stomach and liver trouble," writes John Charleston, of Evesville, O., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c. Geo. C. Huston guarantees satisfaction.

the profession whose cripple condition was well calculated to excite compassion in the breasts of the unsuspecting were subjected to examination and found wanting in bone (or bony) side disabilities. They were lame because of the real thing of course.

A Birmingham man advertises for "any number of setting hens from one to fifty." If he wants 'em to make chicken pies of it seems as if he ought to be more particular about the age of 'em, especially in consideration of the high price of fuel. If he wants them for incubator purposes maybe age and experience would count for more than youth and beauty.

The twentieth century woman is nothing if not resourceful. A frivolous Farmington fowl recently jumped (or flew) her job of perpetuating her species on the eve of fruition, but the thrifty proprietress, nothing daunted, took the deserted consignment of prospective poultry to bed with her and in due time triumphantly produced thirteen thrifty chicks as unmistakable evidence that no unreliable, unfaithful set'n hen was going to get the better of her, anyway. It is not too much to hope that this egg-sample of fertility in eggshells may throw new light on that long egg-sisting and egg-heating question "which is the mother of the chicken," etc., etc. "This eggshattering possibility to egg-sample, but in any event it is safe to say that Carrie Nation's hatchet is absolutely nowhere compared to this 'live Farmington."

Whitney's Opera House—Detroit.

A thrilling story of love and life in New England is unfolded in "A Ragged Hero," which is to be the attraction at the Whitney Opera all next week, beginning with a matinee April 27. It is a dream that tends to prove that heroes are not confined to the highly born and wealthy. A race between a hobble, upon which the heroine is seen dashing down hill, and a railroad train which crosses at the slope is one of the exciting events. Usual matinees daily except on Wednesday.

Wonderland Temple Theatre—Detroit.

Mile Adgie's performing lions which were to have been the chief attraction at Wonderland Temple theatre this week did not arrive in this country soon enough to get to Detroit in time to open last Monday. Consequently they will be seen in Detroit's vaudeville palace next week. This is one of the most wonderful acts in the world. Other big features of next week's program will be Mattie Kren and company in "The Wheeler Wilcox's first playlet 'Her First Divorce Case' and Tom Lewis and Sam J. Ryan in their comedy sketch 'The Two Actors'."

Lyceum Theatre—Detroit.

Next week at the Lyceum the Pike Theatre company will offer for the first time at popular prices. "The Christian" which will be remembered for its great success when Viola Allen starred in it two seasons ago. The Pike company has secured this play from Lasker & Co. by the payment of the largest royalty ever put forth for a stock play, nearly one thousand dollars being charged for the rights to produce it for a week. The production will be complete in every way, the stage settings and ensembles being copied from photographs of the Viola Allen production which was seen here at two dollar prices.

Critiques Theological Seminaries.

Dr. McConnell says some of the theological seminaries need a shaking up, and says that their aim seems to be a quantity rather than quality.

SPEED AND STOP CHECK.

An Ingenious Device That Helps Overburdened Truck Horses and Their Owners.

An ingenious little device that is proving a boon to overburdened horses and is bringing woe to many a careless, dilatory or brutal driver is to be seen nowadays on the delivery wagons of many big mercantile houses, breweries and trucking companies. In these days of sharp competition and good wages it is essential to the success of large business enterprises that the greatest possible service be obtained from men and horses alike, but wise employers, who take pride in their handsome delivery animals and pay tidy sums for stanch themselves, find no economy in overworking their draught animals. But try as they would, the managers of many business concerns having 50 or 100 or more horses found it almost an impossibility to place the responsibility for abuses until the "speed and stop check" or indicator of which there are several patterns, came into the market to aid the work of the Bergh society delivery superintendent and stable bosses.

ANTI-CRUELTY DEVICE (Designed to Give Relief to Overburdened Truck Horses)

Now if Fritz or Patrick stops at his favorite saloon to play a game of pinball with his crumpies and then compels his horses to make up the lost time afterward it is as indicated on the "speed and stop check" indicated on the fashion of the cyclist's arm clock, with a face about five inches across and divided by minute and hour lines. A clock hand moves continuously, but another dial is so arranged that it records only while the wagon moves, stamping each quarter mile as it is wheeled off. The indicator is attached to a rear wheel, and if a driver stops the time hand goes on but the distance marker does not. With the number of miles traveled the time consumed and the stops all indicated, it is easy for the employer to tell at a glance if his horses have been overdriven and if the driver has been attending to duty promptly.

MISS VIVIAN SARTORIS.

Granddaughter of Gen. L. S. Grant Has Decided to Retire from the Social World

Miss Vivian Sartoris, of Washington, D. C., the beautiful granddaughter of Gen. L. S. Grant, has decided to retire completely from the social world and devote herself to an artistic and musical career. Miss Sartoris at present is in Paris, spending 12 hours a day in fitting herself for the examination to the Ecole des Beaux Arts. Miss Vivian is the elder of the two daughters of Algernon and Mrs. Sartoris, her mother being the only daughter of Gen. Grant. She was one of the most beautiful and attractive girls of Washington society, and rumors of her engagement

MISS VIVIAN SARTORIS (Will Devote Her Life to Artistic and Musical Pursuits)

ment or marriage have been frequent.

In a recent letter to her mother Miss Sartoris explains that she believed herself in love with Mr. Balfour, but as the time of the wedding approached she discovered her unfittedness to assume the responsibilities of matrimony. Mrs. Sartoris tells her friends she does not think her elder daughter will ever marry.

None of her relatives is surprised at the announcement of her absolute withdrawal from society and devoting her brilliant talents to art and music. A few of her friends believe that she will essay an operatic career, but her entrance to the Ecole des Beaux Arts would indicate that her ambition is to become a painter or sculptor.

Woman with a Bright Idea.
An Alton (Ill.) woman has started a crusade against men who will not work and support their families. She wants an ordinance passed requiring such men to be arrested and put at work on the rock pile with wages. The money she would turn over to the families for their support.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

Most opportunities are talked into idle dreams.

Children are a necessity that is as expensive as luxuries.

Great men look into other people's mirrors; small men into their own.

When you have it, it's prosperity; when the other fellow has it, it's luck.

About the time a man gets used to being a husband he has to begin to get used to being a father.

Women don't worry so much about how the other half lives as how the better half lives away from home.

Divorce in Europe.

Divorce was established in Germany in 1875. From 1881 to 1885 the yearly number of divorces was about 8,000, while of late years it exceeds 10,000. In England divorce was established in 1857. During the years 1853-1862 the annual number was about 200, in 1894 about 550; in 1898 about 650. In Austria where only non-Catholics can apply for a divorce, the number of demands for divorce increased 25 per cent in four years, and in Belgium about 20 per cent in four years.

Chronic Bronchitis Cured.

"For ten years I had chronic bronchitis so bad that at times I could not speak above a whisper," writes Mr. Joseph Coffman, of Montmorency, Ind. "I tried all remedies available, but with no success. Fortunately my employer suggested that I try Foley's Honey and Tar. Its effect was almost miraculous, and I am now cured of the disease. On my recommendation many people have used Foley's Honey and Tar, and always with satisfaction. Murdock Bros."

Different Kinds of Sects.

There are in the United States thirteen distinct kinds of Baptists, seventeen kinds of Methodists, twelve kinds of Presbyterians, and twenty-two kinds of Lutherans. When there can be so much variation, it ought to be easy for religious people to find something to suit them.

A Nearly Fatal Runaway.

Started a horrible ulcer on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill., which defied doctors and all remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. Just as good for Boils, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Corns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c at Geo. C. Huston's drug store.

Another Irish Bull.

Whatever may be the general state of agricultural Ireland, one thing seems certain. There is no decrease in the annual crop of bulls. One of the latest appeared in "Answers to Correspondents" in a Connecticut newspaper. It read: "Your abusive letter to us is so scurrilous that we will not even acknowledge the receipt of it."

Dreadful Attack of Whooping Cough.

Mrs. Ellen Harrison, of 300 Park Ave., Kansas City, Mo., writes as follows: "Our two children had a severe attack of whooping cough, one of them in the paroxysm of coughing would often faint and bleed at the nose. We tried everything we heard of without getting relief. We then called in our family doctor who prescribed Foley's Honey and Tar. With the very first dose they began to improve and we feel that it has saved their lives." Rouse-substitutes. Murdock Bros.

Spent Eight Cents in Campaign.

Richard Evans, who was recently a candidate for the London common council and was defeated, in his report of expenses declared that he had spent only fourpence in his campaign.

MORTGAGE SALE.

Default having been made in the payment of principal and interest on a certain mortgage made by James K. Lowrey of Northville, Michigan, to Mary E. Lapham, of the same place, dated November 19th, 1894, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Wayne County, Michigan, on the 21st day of November 1894, in Liber 28 of Mortgages on page 25 and on which there is claimed to be due at this date the sum of two hundred and sixty-three and 10/100 dollars ($263.12) and no part in law or equity having been instituted to recover the money secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, the same having become operative according to the statutes in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Monday, the nineteenth day of May 1902, at twelve o'clock, noon, local time, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder at the west front door of the City Hall, in the City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan, that being the building in which the Circuit Court for the County of Wayne is held, the premises described in said mortgage or sufficient to satisfy said indebtedness, costs and expenses of sale including an attorney fee of fifteen dollars as is provided for in said mortgage and is allowed by law, to wit: All that certain piece or parcel of land situate and being in the Village of Northville, County of Wayne, and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the northwest corner of the southwest quarter of section three in town one, south of range eight east, thence east on the quarter line of said section to a point two hundred and twenty feet west from the center of Rogers street, thence south parallel with the west line of said section about one hundred and forty-five (45) feet to a point of intersection with the east line of said section (said James K. Lowrey), thence west along the north line of said Metta Nash's land about thirty-three (33) feet to the west line of said Metta Nash's land, thence south parallel with the west line of said section three about one hundred and sixteen (16) feet to the north line of the Glover Condensed Milk Company's subdivision of the Village of Northville, thence west along the north line of said subdivision to the west line of section three, thence north on the west line of said section three to the place of beginning.

MARY E. LAPHAM,
C. C. YERKES, Attorney for Mortgagee.
Dated, February 18th, 1902.
