

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

Vol. XXXIV. No. 12.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1902

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

MUST PURCHASE MAIL BOXES

NO R. F. D. UNLESS FARMERS HAVE THEM.

Any-Old-Kind of a Box Will Not Answer.

Rural free mail delivery service from Northville commences tomorrow, Nov. 1, and among the necessary things for patrons to know in connection therewith is the fact that they are obliged to secure and put up a mail box of a kind officially approved by the Post Office department, according to "Order No. 739" issued July 9 over the signature of the Postmaster General.

Some of the principal features required are that the boxes must be made of galvanized sheet metal of prescribed weight and construction, must be not less than 6x18 inches in size, opening at side or top, with cover so constructed that "when closed it will thoroughly protect the mail from rain, snow or dust under all circumstances," and must be marked by the manufacturer in a conspicuous place "approved by the Postmaster General." The order further states that "each box must be erected by the roadside so that the carrier can easily obtain access to it without dismounting from his vehicle. The same box must not be used for more than one family except in the case of near relatives or those residing in the same house."

The postmaster has positive orders to direct the carriers to serve only those who meet the requirements of the Post Office department. The penalty for in any way disturbing or meddling with the mail boxes is punishment by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than three years.

HON. GRANT FELLOWS

Speaks in the Opera House Here
Monday Night.

Hon. Grant Fellows, the silver-tongued orator of Lenawee, will speak in the Opera House here next Monday night in the interests of the Republican national and state ticket.

Mr. Fellows is a little fellow, but he is one of the best and most flowery orators in the state and he is in great demand as a stump speaker. He is a good story teller as well as a fine orator, and the people of Northville are certainly to be congratulated upon having an opportunity to hear him and especially on the eve of election.

A number of the county candidates will also be present and make brief talks. The Northville band will be on deck and furnish some entertaining music. Ladies especially invited.

Tinham—Long.

An unostentatious but exceedingly pretty marriage ceremony took place Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at the home of M. Randolph, when his daughter Mrs. Belle Randolph Long became the wife of Mr. John Tinham in the presence of a few intimate friends. Rev. O. M. Thrasher was the officiating clergyman, and Miss Edna Thrasher acted as ring bearer. Mr. and Mrs. Tinham will go to their new home with the sincere good wishes of a large circle of friends both having been so long well known and very popular residents of Northville, and will be much missed in the social and musical life of the town. They will reside for the winter in Alpena where Mr. Tinham has an excellent position.

Election Returns.

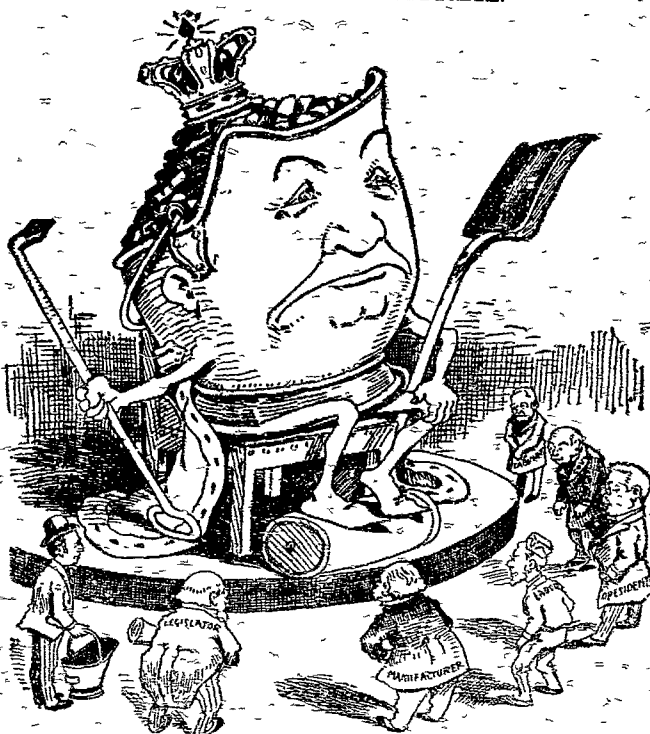

Arrangements will be made to receive election returns up to midnight Tuesday night at the Record office. Those who are interested are invited to drop in or call the Record office on the local telephone line.

Globe Cabinet.

Something new! Something grand! The new Globe Cabinet. Made entirely of metal, is air-tight and vermin proof. A great labor saver and prevents waste. Come, everybody, and see for yourself.

School Notes.

[By the Superintendent]

The Civil Government class is studying the U. S. postal laws.

The kindergarten and first grade room is being decorated with autumn colors.

Some very neat and satisfactory written tests are being handed in by high school pupils.

Our handy janitor, Mr. Webster, recently completed a very neat whirling machine for use of the physics class.

Compositions from our "A's" of the sixth grade last Tuesday afternoon told how they spent their half holiday.

Our fifth grade foot ball team played a corresponding team from Plymouth on Northville grounds last Saturday and won by a score of 21 to 0.

The fourth grade pupils have recently learned a very pretty song. They sang it, with violin accompaniment in the high school room last Tuesday morning.

The young people making up the "A" division of the sixth grade have not made a tardy mark since school commenced in September, on account of this they were given a half holiday last Monday afternoon.

The Chemistry class performed some interesting experiments last Thursday morning before the high school, the seventh and eighth grades in which they illustrated the great power of oxygen for supporting combustion.

The Physical Geography class made a field excursion last Wednesday morning for the purpose of observing facts about which they have been studying. Some fossiliferous lime stone and other excellent geological specimens were also obtained.

If any young lady from the surrounding districts would like to make her home with a private family and work for board and attend school during the winter, we should be pleased to have her call at the high school during school hours for information.

HAUG FOR PROSECUTOR.

Former Principal Northville School
Is Candidate.

Judge Edmond Haug of Detroit is the democratic nominee for prosecuting attorney of Wayne county. Mr. Haug, it will be remembered, was principal of the Northville school back in the 70's at a period before he had reached the age of 21 years and his popularity as companion, man and instructor is still a pleasant memory to those of his former students who are still here. Later he graduated from the state normal and then from the law department of the U. of M.

Mr. Haug is both an orator and a brilliant lawyer and stands in the front ranks of the profession in this state. For some years he was police judge of Detroit and had the record of making one of the very best judges that ever filled that office. He is a gentleman in every respect, an able lawyer and a fair and impartial judge and is well qualified to fill the responsible office of prosecuting attorney of Wayne county. The judge has many warm friends in Northville in both parties and they will no doubt give him a pleasant and deserving remembrance on Tuesday next.

The French government is to plow a furrow 1,500 miles long across the North African desert, from Tunis to Lake Tefah, and lay a cable in it, both to be done at one operation. The plow, drawn by an engine and moving a mile an hour, will open a furrow thirty inches deep and lay the cable in the bottom.

EACH STILL STANDS PAT

NEITHER STUDENTS NOR FAC-ULTY WILLING TO GIVE IN.

TROUBLE AT M. A. C. BEGAN TWO YEARS AGO.

MANY HAVE BEEN SUSPENDED FOR SCRAPPING.

Agricultural College, Mich., Oct. 29.—There is no change at the college, the student body remaining firm in its refusal to attend classes on account of the suspension of seventeen of their number Monday, and the faculty equally firm in its determination to enforce the discipline they think the punishment meted out requires.

Two meetings were held Tuesday by the students, and the result was to confirm them in a determination to maintain their boycott until the faculty is compelled to yield. Immediately following the second, which took place at noon, the girls held a similar meeting in the women's dormitory, at which great enthusiasm was shown and further steps taken to make the boycott firmer. Today another meeting will be held in the chapel, at which president Snyder has been requested to be present and give his view of the matter.

According to the students, the history of this affair dates to about two years ago, when the present seniors, then sophomores, overstepped the bounds of propriety by continuing the scrap through the entire year. The faculty the following year took a firm stand, declaring that scrapping must cease, and took steps to have an athletic meet between the two under classes. This plan never materialized as the classes thought that during the local field day games, which are held every spring, the athletic supremacy would be decided. This year the old custom of scrapping has again revived, and this event was indulged in with all its former spirit.

During all this period of class scrapping since two years ago, the faculty have had occasion to suspend a great many. The present seniors have suffered severely and on several occasions, for hazing and rushing, have lost many members. And when they disobeyed one of the professors on their annual visit to Chicago, the faculty threatened to extinguish the class entirely, but the united action of the class to all leave college if one went caused them in authority to hesitate in their action.

This year the suspending was again resumed with all its former vigor, and the promiscuous manner in which it has been done has aroused the ire of the entire student body. In view of the fact that this is such a small scrap as compared to others, in which from 500 to 1,500 students engage, in various colleges the student body declared the sentences of one, two and three years too great. Further, if one is punished, say they, why not punish all alike and with the same sentence.

Wants Municipal Coal Mine.
Saginaw, Mich., Oct. 29.—Mayor Baum has recommended to the council that a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of securing an enabling act from the legislature for the purpose of establishing a municipal coal mine. The council endorsed the idea by unanimous vote.

Small pox Cost Ionia $10,000.
Ionia, Mich., Oct. 29.—The board of supervisors has adjourned after auditing the smallest aggregate of tramps bills in years, they having succeeded in cutting off the industry. The saving was about offset, however, by the smallpox epidemic, which cost the county $10,000, half of which was in Ionia city.

Woodin Given Life Sentence.
Mt. Pleasant, Mich., Oct. 29.—Murdere Woodin was Tuesday sentenced to Jackson prison for life by Judge Dods for the murder of his baby and his wife's parents.

Municipal Ownership Experiments.
President George Wallace of the board of aldermen of New Haven, Conn., says that in the course of a brief conversation in that city President Roosevelt told him that he had been much interested in the story he had heard of his efforts for municipal reform and added that he expected that in the near future reforms will be effected in the District of Columbia in the nature of municipal ownership that will be an object lesson to the cities of the country.

A Great Gift.
Brigham Young's grandson has been appointed general superintendent of a Utah railway. If all his brothers and sisters and aunts travel with passes the shareholders have poor prospects of a dividend.—London Express

Typewriters in Demand.
There are forty-seven typewriter factories reported to the census bureau, with an annual product worth about $7,000,000. The foreign sales for 1900 amounted to $2,700,000.

NORTHVILLE MICH., OCT. 31, 02.

Political Questions Not Religion.

Since Mr. Townsend has been requested to deliver an address at a proposed banquet to be given by the Catholic Society here in December some of his opponents have been trying to circulate a false statement that Mr. Townsend is a Catholic. Mr. Townsend and his family are, in fact, Unitarians but we do not admit that the fact that he is or is not a Catholic makes him a better or worse man, or would make him a better or worse congressman. Mr. Townsend believes that all churches and denominations are working alike for the one great end. However, Mr. Townsend will not go to Washington as a preacher. The all important questions are these: Is he right on the money question? Is he right on the tariff question? Is he right on all the great questions that are before the people and that are likely to come before the next Congress? These are the questions Mr. Townsend has told the people in plain and explicit terms just where he stands. There is no guesswork about him. He is not a man to deceive the people or to even attempt to do it. Let Mr. Townsend's opponent come out and tell where he stands on these great national questions and then let the people make their choice. That's a fair proposition and it's all Mr. Townsend asks.

Auditor Gen'l Powers.

During his incumbency of the office to which he seeks re-election, Auditor General of Michigan a prominent feature of Mr. Powers' administration of his duties has been his strict adherence to the legal technicalities of the work. He has permitted no departures from the requirements of the law and by his course in this respect has saved to the taxpayers of the state thousands of dollars. His conscientious efforts in the complicated branch of the state service has so well looked after the state that it will be remembered that one of Mr. Powers' assistants is Hoyt Wagoner of Northville who is cashier of this department.

Perform Your Duty Tuesday.

It is the duty of every enfranchised citizen of every commonwealth to go to the polls next Tuesday and exercise the privilege given him by the constitution of the United States. This is one of the privileges conferred by our form of government that carries a duty with it, and every man should be willing to perform it without solicitation from those especially interested. All should be interested and whatever party you may belong to do not wait for someone to come and urge you, but come out and cast your vote "according to the dictates of your own conscience."

A POPULAR DIPLOMAT.

Spain's New Minister is Well Liked in Washington.

Twice since the signing of the treaty of peace has Spain been called upon to send ministers to this country, and in both cases the selection has been happy. Senor Don Emilio de Ojeda, who has just formally presented his credentials to President Roosevelt, promises to be fully as popular as his predecessor, the Duke de Arcos.

Minister Ojeda was one of the most active members of the Paris peace commission, much esteemed by his American colleagues on that body and is said to belong to the new school of diplomat, known as American, which Prince Bismarck inaugurated and of which Sir Edmund Monson is the exponent. He is a handsome man, of pleasant address, his attitude both social and official is frank, he is approachable and responsive and meets new acquaintances more than half way. Senor Ojeda speaks several languages, is well read in the literature of many countries, a creditable painter and cultivated in the hues that go to the making of a diplomat.

MODEST MISS HECKER.

Charming Personality of the Champion Woman Golfer.

Aside from her marvelous skill on the links, Miss Genevieve Hecker, the eighteen year old New York girl who has twice won the national women's golf championship, is a most interesting young woman.

Although for the past four years pages have been printed about Miss Hecker's golf accomplishments, but little has been said of her personality. She is a slender, blue eyed little girl, 5 feet 3 inches or 5 feet 4 inches tall, with a great mop of beautiful golden hair, which she wears in an enormous pompadour on the golf links as well as off.

When one hears of the 200 yard drives which this apparently fragile girl thinks a matter of course, one cannot understand how she does it, and she could not do it were it not that she is able to put every ounce of strength and weight she possesses into her shots.

Notwithstanding all the fame and glory and honor which have come to her she is still as modest and unassuming as when she had never been heard of, and when any compliments are heaped on her skill or over a victory she blushes with an embarrassment which time or frequency of recurrence cannot overcome. She cannot seem to understand the public interest in her.

Notwithstanding her modesty, however, she is absolutely non nervous in a match. She can apparently rise to any occasion and while others may occasionally make phenomenal shots happened she makes them whenever necessary. It is this quality that makes Miss Hecker the most wonderful woman golf player in this country, probably in the world.

When she is not playing golf, she leads the usual quiet life of the average young New York girl of breeding and position. During the past year her chief interest has been in the writing of a book on "Golf for Women," which is now nearly completed.

Miss Hecker, however, does not confine her recreation to golf. She is fond of the theater, dancing and most of the other pleasures which make up the round of a young girl's life.

High Salaries of Dancers.

The greatest pay a dancer ever received was $6,000 a year for six years paid to Marie Tagliani. But for shorter periods higher pay has been given. Lela Fuller is said to have received $2,475 in a single week.

His Life in Peril.

"I just seemed to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of welfare, Tex., "bitchiness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began to use Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly, run-down people. Try them. Only 50c at Geo. C. Use of Sewing Machines Increasing.

The census shows that there are sixty-five sewing machine factories in the country, whose annual output is worth $21,000,000. The business has multiplied thirteen fold in the last forty years.

Can't Impose on Devery.

"Big Chief Bill" Devery, who is making a fierce fight for the leadership of Tammany does not hesitate to spend money when there is prospect of return on the investment, but not otherwise. The other day he was busy campaigning when an intoxicated loafer said to him: "Chief, they tell me you are hiring doctors for sick folks. Get me one." Devery looked the fellow over and answered: "It ain't a doctor you want, it's a snake charmer."

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Cranfill of Troy, I. T., writes: For a number of years I was troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat. Murdoch Bros.

During Attacks Of Heart Failure. Would Appear To Be Dead.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Relieved and Cured.

"I have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is all that one can wish it to be. I was troubled with heart disease for fifteen years. I have tried many different remedies but until I tried Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I could find no relief. I was subject to headaches and had tried your Pain Pills and they were so effective. I thought your Heart Cure might help me. I would have attacks at times so severe that I would be stone blind for the time being. During these spells I would be to all appearance dead. I took the medicine strictly as directed and I can truthfully say that I am completely cured. I advise all that are troubled with heart disease to take Dr. Miles' Heart Cure at once. I write this and give my name to my fellow sufferers."—S. E. Purdy, Atkinson, Nebraska.

"I first felt the effects of a weak heart in the fall of 1898. I saw an advertisement in the Sioux City paper in which a man stated his symptoms which seemed to me to indicate a trouble similar to mine. I had a soreness in the chest at times, and in my shoulder, an oppressive choking sensation in my throat and suffered from weak and hungry spells. I was truly frightened at my condition and procured six bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. Since taking my first bottle I have never been bothered by any of the old disagreeable symptoms and now am well and consider my cure permanent."—Lewis Anderson, Kalamazoo, Mich.

One Woman's "Pin Money."
A Wayne township woman—two years ago persuaded her husband to give her an acre of land, the proceeds of which were to be her "pin money." After some solicitation she secured the desired land and forthwith planted it to strawberries. During the strawberry season of this year she sent the fruit to Detroit, and realized $111 over and above expenses.—Detroit Free Press.

SIX MEN INJURED

VICTIMS OF AN EXPLOSION—TWO CANNOT LIVE.

ANOTHER DEPLORABLE MURDER ADDED TO DETROIT'S LIST.

BOLD ATTEMPT MADE TO BLOW UP MAN'S HOUSE.

Iron Mountain, Mich., Oct. 30.—By premature explosion in Walpole mine last evening six men were injured. Two of them, Captain Benjamin Martin and John Beard, cannot live. The others were badly injured, but physicians cannot yet say whether they will die or not. The accident was very peculiar, as all the men were injured in the back. This is the first serious accident at Walpole mine in several years.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 30.—Another deplorable murder has been added to Detroit's annals of crime for 1902, for Horton Warren, proprietor of the Godefrich house, died in St. Mary's hospital at 745 last evening the victim of a bullet wound received in a vicious assault in the entrance of his own house on the midnight previous.

The deed was committed by two men who, previous to shooting Warren, had robbed a man who whose room they had broken, and they were fleeing from the house when overtaken by the proprietor and another occupant named Miller. A scuffle ensued and Warren was mortally wounded. Mrs. Warren, who resided in the room to the two men who committed the murder, tells her story as follows: "The two young men who shot my husband came into the hotel early in the evening and got rooms next to a traveling man from Milwaukee saying they were friends of his. I heard a racket upstairs and a noise in the traveling man's room. I then ran downstairs and told Mr. Miller to call my husband, who was next door. While they were coming the two robbers came down stairs and started out of the front door. My husband and Mr. Miller were just coming in, and I called for them to stop the men. Miller knocked one down and fell with him, and while my husband was trying to help him the other man fired two shots. The robbers then ran away. A score of detectives scoured the city yesterday in an effort to locate the two thugs but nothing could be found of their whereabouts.

Marshall, Mich., Oct. 30.—An attempt was made Tuesday night to blow up the residence of George Brownell, a well known Calhoun county thresher, who resides five and one half miles east of this city in Marengo township.

The officers were notified yesterday morning and Sheriff Williams, Deputy Sheriff Garfield and Officer Doud went out and made an investigation. They found eight sticks of dynamite bound together and placed in the wall in the foundation of the house. Each stick weighed a half pound, there being enough to blow the house to shivers. The dynamite was connected with one cap and a long fuse ran from the cap to a burning torch. The fuse had burned and the cap exploded but the dynamite did not go off, because of poor connection.

The officers have a clue to the guilty party, and Sheriff Williams went to Jackson and Deputy Sheriff Garfield to Albion to make further investigation.

Pitched Him Into the River.
Jackson, Mich., Oct. 30.—M. S. Lyons, seventy years of age, was caught on the high bridge yesterday afternoon in front of the Michigan Central railway's "Chicago and Boston Special" passenger train. MICHIGAN'S POSTOFFICES.

Gross Receipts For Year Total Over $3,000,000.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 30.—The gross receipts at the postoffices in Michigan during the last fiscal year were $3,798,271, according to Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Brison's annual report. This is an average annual expenditure of $152 for each man, woman and child in the state, based on an estimated population of 2,492,611.

The number of postoffices of all classes in the state was 2,919, of which 216 were presidential, and 1,803 were fourth-class offices. The number of presidential offices increased by nine during the year, and the fourth-class offices decreased by 107. The decrease in the latter class was due largely to the establishment of the rural free delivery service throughout the state, which resulted in the discontinuance of 141 offices. The report shows 169 fourth class postmasters in Michigan resigned during the year, and 49 were removed at the end of the four-year term; 12 were removed and 10 died. Two presidential postmasters resigned, there were 100 whose commissions expired and were removed for cause, 14 offices were raised from the fourth class to presidential during the year.

AFFAIR GROWING WORSE.

Yesterday afternoon four of Lansing's leading business men held a conference with President Snyder, but when seen last night the latter declined to say anything for publication.

Andrews Given 15 Days' Grace.
Lansing, Mich., Oct. 30.—Attorney Groesbeck appearing in behalf of Frank C. Andrews, the bank wrecker, was before the supreme court in chambers at noon Wednesday to secure the court's construction of its own order which declared that Andrews could be admitted to bail in the sum of $100,000.

Groesbeck wanted to know whether the court meant that each bondsman was to qualify in the sum of $100,000, or if it was intended that they should qualify for that sum in the aggregate. Whichever way the court construed its order, Groesbeck said his client would beg an extension of time in order to comply. The court listened to the attorney's plea and without any hesitation informed him that Andrews' bondsman must qualify in the aggregate sum of $200,000. The also extended the time for producing the bail fifteen days.

Andrews must furnish two bondsmen who will each qualify for the sum of $100,000—the amount of the bond required—above all liabilities. The judge also ruled that J. E. Winder was not eligible to qualify on the ground that he was a non-resident of Detroit. The attorneys for the defense will take the first ruling of the judge to the supreme court in the morning. It is said that if the supreme court agrees with Judge Murphy, no further effort will be made to furnish bail. J. Elisha Winder, $75,000, James Hanley, $50,000; David Neiderlander, $65,000; this is the sum total of the real estate offered as a pledge or bond for the release of Frank C. Andrews.

HUNT FOR PROSECUTOR.

Has Made a Good Record the Two Years Past.

Mr. Ormond F. Hunt is the Republican nominee for Prosecuting Attorney for Wayne county.

Mr. Hunt entered the office of prosecuting attorney with a mind well matured in a knowledge of the law. He had already attained a high position before the Detroit bar as a general practitioner, and later as assistant prosecuting attorney he was the man who was invariably looked to as the final authority on all law-questions that came up in the office. His knowledge of the law and his subsequent training in the practice of criminal law thus made him peculiarly fitted for the position which he has so ably filled during the past two years. His analytical mind is unerring in determining the real issue of a given cause and has been of invaluable assistance to him in the many complicated cases that have been prosecuted by him during his term of office. A noted example of Mr. Hunt's peculiar qualifications for the office of prosecuting attorney, was shown by the admirable manner in which the Andrews case has been conducted. In this case Mr. Hunt had associated with him his able assistants L. M. Graham and together they have waged a legal battle of several months against almost insurmountable difficulties, while arranged against them were the most prominent lawyers of the bar of Wayne county. The deplorable conditions existing as a result of the suspension of the City Savings Bank were bewildering, but out of the confusion and chaos Mr. Hunt and Mr. Merriam succeeded in framing an issue that has stood the test of one of the severest trials before the criminal courts of Wayne county in many years. In this case there were more lawyers arrayed against the prosecuting attorney than the entire force of the office but the prosecutor was well fortified in his position and as each phase of the famous case was presented the prosecution was equal to any emergency and came off victorious in each instance, finally securing a conviction of the noted bank wrecker.

ORMOND F. HUNT
Prosecuting Attorney for Wayne County

Mr. Hunt has been a fearless officer for the county, consistently doing his duty in endeavoring to stamp out crime, while at the same time careful to protect the innocent from unjust punishment. There has been little of the law's delay during his administration. Quick justice was meted out to the guilty one in the case of the murder of the girl Carrie Janette. Mr. Hunt conducted such a vigorous cross-examination against the man Miller that a full confession was secured and the murderer promptly sent to prison. In the Jones murder case the prosecuting attorney was equally successful. Although a hardened criminal was the perpetrator of the dastardly deed the suspected murderer was instantly arrested and the slayer of Heywood now occupies a felon's cell.

The Penberthy boiler explosion was another example of the faithful service of Mr. Hunt in his tireless endeavor in the cause of the people's rights. He gave his personal attention to the cause of the explosion and finally cleared the mystery by fixing the responsibility upon the manufacturers of the boilers.

Mr. Hunt has made his campaign for the endorsement of the people by his strict attention to the duties of his office. If he has been unable to visit his constituents throughout the county during the campaign it is because his duties keep him fully occupied. He doubtless feels that the people appreciate the efforts of a conscientious official and that his faithful attention to a proper administration of the law is sufficient reason of his re-election to the office he has filled during the past two years.

By reason of the late-lingering blossoms mentioned in last week's Record this office is indebted this week to Mrs. U. A. Tibbitts for a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas picked from her vines on October 28 as fresh and fragrant as in days of summer.

Persons who wish to insert small advertising items in the Record as late as Thursday should call at the office instead of using the item box in the post-office, as the articles will be much more certain of insertion at that time in the week if brought directly to headquarters.

A Northville minister named Jerome preached lately on the coal strike. The Record says he roasted the mine owners and railroad magnates. "We suppose he gave 'em hell. The minister is too kind. The mine owners wouldn't do any roasting or furnish heat for Northville people, unless they got big pay. Not on your life."—Adrian Press.

A very able article by one of our prominent citizens, taking issue with Secretary Warner's statement published in last week's Record regarding the state taxes, was received too late for publication this week much to our regret. The article was exceptionally well written and presented some very interesting facts from the standpoint opposite to that published in the Record.

A couple of well known Northville ladies were busily engaged in visiting the other evening on their way home from Detroit on the P. M. train, and they did so much talking that they thought they had had time to get to Northville, so when the train stopped at Stark they made for the platform. Failing to see any familiar landmarks they then thought they had been carried by their destination, but found out where they were at just in time not to become involuntary guests at the little hamlet of Stark until the next day. Moral: Don't measure railroad distances by conversational time tables.

Giving the Jury a Treat.

During the progress of a trial in a Missouri court one day recently a heavy shower began—the first rain that had fallen for a distressingly long time. The jurymen, most of whom were farmers, paid more attention to the conditions outside than to the trial and the judge suspended court for a while, remarking: "The jury can wait in the rain for a few minutes if it wants to to satisfy itself that it really can rain in Missouri."

TROUBLE ON THE FARM.

On the farms there's agitation. And there's widespread consternation. For the hunting time has opened up again.

In the paths and in the byways. In the woods and on the highways. There are packs of dogs and scores of gunning men.

Now and then a bird is sighted. And some shot are expedited. In direction that the gunner thought it went.

Here and there a squirrel scurries. And the eager hunter hurries. After it a charge for its destruction meant.

Lead pellets far are going. Missing targets that were showing. Plainly when the guns went off with fearful sound.

And the grangers off are dodging. Peering in them will be looking. Flying shot that have no other target found.

Now and then a pig is squealing. Or a hen or rooster keeling. Over suddenly in some far distant lot.

Is disclosing perforation. Evidence that by some gunner it was shot.

Now and then a cow is snorting. And around a field cowering. All because a load of shot has come this way.

Now and then a horse is rearing. And in greatest pain appearing. For it stopped another charge that went astray.

'Tis no wonder that the granger Growls each time he sees a stranger. Proving through the woods and carrying a gun.

For the shooting is alarming. To the man who does the farming. And he'll not rest easy till the season's done.

Wyandotte's council ordered to buy a $500 voting machine, but the mayor refused to sign the order there or, arguing that the city could not afford it, but allowed that the company might lead the honest count arrangement to the municipality for trial at the coming election if agreeable. The mayor is evidently bidding for popularity by taking up the season's fad of working in the most machine.

Ann Arbor students solved the fuel question for a while by stealing and burning the city's asphalt paving blocks that were left lying around until the rapid decrease in the visible supply caused an investigation by the authorities into the disappearance of the street making material. The blocks are said to be almost as effective in their newly discovered field of usefulness as the good intentions which have been referred to as forming the pavement of Satanic headquarters.

There is a difference of opinion at Ypsilanti as to just who the joke was on the other day when a couple of the friends of the editor of the Independent—with whom they must obviously have been in the habit of sharing their plunder—came to the office and generously "treated" to snow apples, gleefully announcing that they had swiped a whole bushel of the nice fruit while out driving. The fun of it was that it was discovered after a while that the apple tree was the property of the editor with whom the deprecators had so freely shared their "cooned" fruit.

When Washtenaw county's board of supervisors met last week, during their deliberations the gentlemen found themselves up against the startling fact that the "drunks" for the year had cost the county the tidy little sum of $10,000. Five hundred twenty-one "drunk and disorderly" cases had been arraigned and disposed of.

Birmingham isn't a backwoods town, but it appears that some folks there "go a huntin'" within the village limits, killing the birds and nearly doing a similar act to the sick and nervous people. The village ordinance has been turned on them but it appears not to have been heavily enough loaded to be an effective protection. It would do better work with its 1 out perhaps, as the marshal doesn't seem inclined to have his eye out for the offenders.

LORD MAYOR'S SHOW

HOW LONDON'S CHIEF MAGISTRATE IS INDUCTED INTO OFFICE.

Forms and Customs Over Five Centuries Old Still Observed—The Gorgeous Official Collar—How Lord Mayors Are Chosen.

With much pomp and circumstance and brave show of rich jewels, gilded chariots and gaudy trappings the city of London has annually for over 500 years inducted its lord mayor into office. Since 1453 and probably before that time, although there is no definite record of it, Nov. 9 has been celebrated as lord mayor's day. It is the great day in the city, and most of London's 519 mayors have observed the traditions of the occasion.

So, conforming to ancient custom, the new lord mayor, Sir Marcus Samuel, will array himself in the gorgeous robes and, bearing the jeweled mace, ride on the time honored day from Guildhall to the palace of justice to take the oath of office.

The London over which the new mayor will preside for twelve months as chief magistrate comprises only a very small part of the great metropolis. It is only a square mile in area, and its actual residents number only 36,000.

Although he has no more authority than any one else outside of his square mile of territory, the lord mayor of London is in many ways the most important mayor in the world. His little city in the heart of the great metropolis is the center of British commerce and while practically deserted at night more than a million people do business there in the daytime. British troops may not march in its streets without the permission of the corporation and the king himself may not enter it without the permission of the mayor.

Shiriff Samuel, the man for whom these honors wait, was elected on Sept. 24. Michaelmas day just as all of his predecessors were elected, before him. To become lord mayor, a citizen must first be elected a member of the board of aldermen by the corporation. There are but twenty aldermen and they hold office for one year. Once an alderman, further promotion comes from the members, who are members of the city guilds.

Each year the brethren elect two of the aldermen's clerks. The sheriffs hold office for only one year. The mayor is chosen from among those aldermen who have not passed the chair—that is been lord mayor—but who have served as sheriff.

On the day of his inauguration the mayor elect is arrayed in his gorgeous robes of office, and around his neck is placed a golden collar, to which is attached a diamond mounted jewel estimated to be worth $600,000 and to the safe keeping of which and the city plate worth a million, he is required to give a heavy bond before he is sworn in. He then ascends the coach of state. This coach has been in use since 1757. Before that date the mayors rode on horseback. The coach is an immense gilded affair and cost $50,000.

This coach, with the great mace of silver and gold, over five feet high, sticking out of the window and the mayor bobbing about inside, is the chief attraction of the lord mayor's show, which makes the 9th of November sacred. A number of floats, bodies of policeman, firemen and other civic bodies complete the procession, which all London turns out to see.

After the oath of office is administered the procession returns to the Guildhall for the crowning function, the lord mayor's banquet, which rarely costs less than $15,000. The mayor pays half and the two sheriffs the other half, which is perhaps their most important duty for the year.

Sir Marcus Samuel, the new mayor, as his name indicates, is a Hebrew and is set down in the formal biographies as a spectacle maker, which is a trifle misleading to any one unfamiliar with the quaint nomenclature of the rich old city guilds. The lord mayor elect doubtless never made a pair of spectacles in his life or any of his fathers before him. It is intended to signify simply that he belongs to the haughty and powerful guild known as the Spectacle Makers' company.

Sir Marcus is one of the great city bankers and rich enough to afford the costly luxury of living in the Mansion House for a year. He will get a salary exactly equal to that of the president of the United States and will have to spend almost twice as much on the banquets, formalities, functions, ceremonials and general gorgeousness that keep a lord mayor as busy as he really had municipal work to do.

Story of a Stick.

The reformers who hold up the German army as a pattern to be admired will perhaps allow that even its excellent discipline has some drawbacks. Among the many regulations of the military code is one which forbids anybody to present himself before a recruiting officer with a cane in his hand. Some days ago a reservist so far forgot himself as to enter the office of a recruiting sergeant major accompanied by his walking stick. For this heinous offense the unfortunate reservist was promptly court martialed and sentenced to ten weeks' imprisonment for insubordination.

Can't Impose on Devery.

"Big Chief Bill" Davery, who is making a fierce fight for the leadership of Tammany, does not hesitate to spend money when there is prospect of return on the investment, but not otherwise. The other day he was busy campaigning when an intoxicated loafer said to him "Chief, they tell me you are hiring doctors for sick folks. Get me one." Devery looked the fellow over and answered: "It ain't a doctor you want, it's a snake charmer."

The Himalaya record is held by Sir Martin Conway, who climbed the Pioneer peak, 21,000 feet high, ten years ago.
