EASTERN STARS' JUNE FESTIVAL

BAZAAR AND ENTERTAINMENT IN MASONIC HALL

Extensive Preparations Being Made for the Event.

The members of Orient chapter, O. E. S. are making elaborate preparations for their June festival, which, as previously announced, is dated for the ninth, tenth and eleventh days of the "month of roses." The "Stars" have already been busily engaged for some weeks on the various kinds of work incidental to such an undertaking and announce that they are confidently expecting to surpass anything of the kind ever produced in this vicinity. Entertainments will be given on all the three evenings, and on one evening a banquet will be served. There are to be booths for the sale of fancy work, candies and other wares, and the handsome hall is so well adapted to lend itself readily to decorative skill that it will be like a scene from fairyland. Unique features will be introduced entirely new to Northville audiences, and the whole affair promises to be an event with a big E.

D. P. & N. RAILWAY.

Possibility That It May Be Discontinued

W. A. Boland and a party of gentlemen were in the village recently to look over the D. P. & N. property and there is to be something doing. Capt. Richmond was seen by the Mill and he stated that it is up to the townships through which the road passes whether the ones will be continued or not. As the matter exists now, the operating expenses exceed the receipts and the company is several thousand dollars in the hole, to say nothing about the interest on money invested. The company will therefore ask the townships for a modification of the franchise which will allow them to make a different rate between the towns and Detroit over the Ann Arbor line, the latter road now getting much the greatest share. If this is not conceded the cars will be run into the barn and kept there. If it is conceded the company promises to put on a new equipment.

While it is true that the service in the past has not been of the best, the people along the line would undoubtedly hate to see the road abandoned. The road as it is is better than none, and is found most convenient when needed. There ought to be an inclination on the part of the people to concede at least living expenses, if they believe the accommodation given them is worth it. We understand the matter will be presented to the different town boards some time next week for their consideration, when it will be seen just what changes the company desires to make in the franchise.—Plymouth Mail.

A UNIQUE FOUNTAIN

Suggested for Northville's Public Park.

A suggestion has been made several times in the past and again recently, to have a water system could be demonstrated in a very convincing manner to the people who pass through our town on our streets and electric roads. The fountain would be a beautiful sight to the many visitors who are attracted here from all directions. The plan mentioned would not only be a source of pleasure to the children, but it would also be a source of pride to the town. It would be a unique feature in the park, and it would be a source of pride to the town. It would be a unique feature in the park, and it would be a source of pride to the town. It would be a unique feature in the park, and it would be a source of pride to the town.

FIRED SHOT INTO THEM

WEDDING MERRY-MAKERS GIVEN A BAD RECEPTION.

ONE YOUNG MAN MAY DIE AS RESULT OF WOUNDS.

Hired Man of Groom Placed Under Arrest.

Romeo, Mich., May 18.—Seven young men and women of Bruce township, farmers and their girl friends, are lying riddled with buckshot, and twice as many more are congratulating themselves on their narrow escape from a similar fate—all the result of a boisterous charivari late Monday night to welcome the return of Farmer Robert Robertson and his bride of two weeks from their honeymoon.

Monday the bride and groom returned from a wedding trip. Shortly after 10 o'clock that night the Robertson home was surrounded by about twenty dark figures, the charivari party—neighbors and friends boys and girls men and women, armed with big dishes, iron spoons for drum sticks, "horse rattles," dinner bells, horns and several shotguns. At a signal the whole party set up a din, the shotguns roared, the pans clanged, and still the Robertson house seemed perfectly dead.

The uproar increased, and then suddenly an upper window was thrown open and Frank McFadden, one of the hired men who occupied the room through out a storm and blazed away into the night. Six times he loaded and fired.

Farmer Robertson, hardly realising that some serious mischief had come to the farm, rushed again to the door and fired back some ten or fifteen times, but the firing was not to be stopped.

Farmer Robertson, the husband of the bride, was severely wounded in the head and chest. John P. Kelly, a young farmer who lived near by, was also severely wounded in the head and chest. Four other young men were also wounded. All were carried to their homes, while a man set out for Dr. Buckley, at Albion, returning with him in less than an hour.

Sheriff Melnick and two deputies arrested McFadden, who declares that he did not know the shells were other than blanks. The neighborhood is taking the only sane view of the matter. It is realized that a charivari is a cruel sport and no grudge is borne against the Robertsons nor even against McFadden, who is said to be rather headstrong. He is 30 years old and lives in town.

McFadden was about thirty-five feet from the door when he was struck. One charge struck him in the left arm and shoulder and whirled him around and the charge from the other bar struck him in the other arm and side. It is also thought he was struck after he fell to the ground. Thirty-six of No. 4 shot were taken from his right arm and twenty from his left while several could not be located. They were so deeply imbedded. Others struck in the breast and one passed through his neck and is believed to have pierced the jugular vein. In addition a bullet or slug is imbedded in his leg, and four shot which struck him in the forehead cannot be removed and are believed to be imbedded in the skull.

McFadden was picked up after walking about on his hands and knees unconscious, to the David Dorrance home. His recovery is doubtful.

From all accounts nearly every person over 10 years of age living within a mile or more was on hand to the number of about forty.

MUST SERVE ON JURY.

Detroit Citizen Failed to Get Writ of Habeas Corpus.

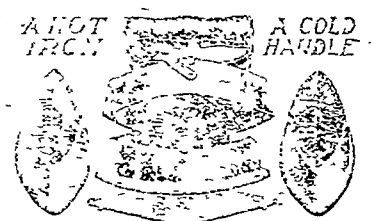

Lansing, Mich., May 18.—The supreme court late Tuesday afternoon declined to issue a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Juror Robert Tannahill who, while sitting in the Moreland case in Judge Phelan's court in Detroit, declined to permit himself to be imprisoned over Sunday.

Arguments were made to the court by Attorney Sloan representing Tannahill, and by James H. Pound for Judge Phelan. The former contended that it would be impossible to secure business men for jurors in Detroit if the jurors could be isolated and deprived of the opportunity of looking after their business.

Chief Justice Moore, in declining to issue the writ for the release of Tannahill, said that the trial court intended evidently to exercise a discretion which he believed he possessed, and that the Considine case fairly presented the question. "We have no doubt," he said "that the judge has a right to isolate the jurors until the panel is complete."

Advertising is called by some an art.

If it be an art it is the art of telling a story simply and convincingly.

Nobody knows more about the strong qualities of an establishment than the proprietor who oversees it. Other things being equal, nobody should be able to write more convincingly of the articles he offers for sale.

In a store where the employer sells goods as if he were the best salesman, the customer will not be the best salesman.

The reason is simple. He knows the goods from A to Z. He probably has purchased them. He knows his aims. His arguments carry weight because they are convincing.

The same arguments presented in the same way, with the same enthusiastic spirit, the same knowledge of detail, would attract new customers if presented through the advertising columns of this paper.

If you have not tried it, why not begin? If you have tried it and are not satisfied, let us know about it.

HOW A BEAUTIFUL WOMAN ESCAPED SPRING CATARRH BY USE OF PE-RU-NA.

Nothing Robs One of Strength Like Spring Catarrh—Spring Fever is Spring Catarrh.

MISS HELEN WHITMAN.

Miss Helen Whitman, 208 1/2 Grand avenue, Milwaukee, Wis., writes: "There is nothing like Peruna for that tired feeling, which gives you no ambition for work or play. After a prolonged illness, about a year ago I felt unable to regain my health, but four bottles of Peruna made a wonderful change and restored me to perfect health. As long as you keep your blood in good condition you are all right, and Peruna seems to fill the veins with pure, healthful blood. I thoroughly endorse it."

Have you got nerves? Well, you ought to have nerves. But they ought to be strong nerves, good nerves. Does your head tremble? You are living too fast. Does your heart flutter at times? You had better call a halt. Americans live too fast. They crowd too much into a single day. They have too little leisure. The hospital and the medicine chest are becoming necessities. It's time that we got this sort of bash.

How to Get Strong Nerves.

To repair the injury already done to your nerves. The way to do it is to do exactly as did Mattie B. Curtis, Secretary of the League of Loyal Women, Hotel Salem, Boston, Mass. She said in a recent letter: "I suffered for over a year with general weakness and dizziness. I took four bottles of Peruna, and for two months have been entirely free from these malaises."

Nervous Prostration.

There are of course a hundred quotations in which Peruna has been shown to be a powerful remedy for nervous prostration. But the following is a good one. The Editor of the Plain Dealer, Cleveland, Ohio, writes:

"I have been suffering from nervous prostration for some time. I have tried many remedies, but have not found any relief. I have now taken four bottles of Peruna, and I feel much better. I can now do my work as usual. I am very grateful to you for the information you have given me. I am, Sir, very respectfully, Yours, J. H. DIXON, Prepr."

A Spring Tonic.

Almost everybody needs a tonic in the spring. Something to brace the nerves, invigorate the brain and cleanse the blood. That Peruna will do this is beyond all question. Everyone who has tried it has had the same experience as Mrs. D. W. Timberlake, of Lynchburg, Va., who, in a recent letter, made use of the following words: "I always take a dose of Peruna after business hours, as it is a great thing for the nerves. There is no better spring tonic, and I have used about all of them."
