

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

Vol. XXXV. No. 47.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1904

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

WARNER WAS NOMINATED

ONLY ONE BALLOT WAS NEEDED
TO DO IT.

The Other Candidates Moved to Make
It Unanimous.

As the Record predicted last week Fred M. Warner was nominated for governor on the first ballot at the republican state convention at Detroit yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Warner made a neat little speech of acceptance and was given an enthusiastic reception.

The other officers nominated were Matland, Lieut. Governor; Glader,
treasurer; Bradley, auditor general;

Who was Nominated for Governor
at Yesterday's Republican State Convention.

Rose, and commissioner Kelly,
superintendent public instruction.
The resolutions passed reaffirmed the platform formulated by the Grand Rapids convention and declared it would be optional with the any county shall adopt a primary election law.

The vote to sustain the Warner
resolution and the Grand Rapids primary platform was carried by a vote of 771 to 84. Mr. Chittick voted against the Warner platform and Mr. Northrop, the other Northville delegate, voted for it.

"A Streak of Yellow."

The above is the title of a new book which is receiving much favorable comment in the literary world,
a copy of which has been sent the Record. Its author is Matt Rose,
who is a well known Washington journalist in addition to being chief clerk of the U. S. Senate and who has been for many years a valued personal friend of the publisher of this paper.

Mr. Rose is the son of a Baptist minister and so is the hero of his book, although the story is in a sense autobiographical, but its perusal at once shows the reader that the author "knows whereof he speaks" when he portrays the lives of a class of "Christians," who, happily, are not so numerous as they once were, thanks to modern thought and progress. The book is a delicious one and is sure to have a large sale.

FRATERNAL VISIT.

Over Twenty W. R. C. Ladies Here
Tuesday.

Twenty-three members of Helier
La Favour Women's Relief Corps of Detroit were guests of the local organization Tuesday, arriving on the forenoon train and staying for home on the evening train. The visitors were met at the depot and taken to the library, where a nice luncheon was served at 12:30, the guests and the members of the local Corps making a company of sixty.

In the afternoon the regular meeting was held and a program of music, readings and informal conferences was given, both hostesses and visitors participating. At 5 o'clock a delicious supper was served. The occasion was a very delightful one to entertain and entertainers.

Bromley-Brown

Miss Beale L. Brown, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown of this place, was married to Mr. Oswald L. Bromley of Flint
in Detroit on Saturday last by Rev. Mr.
Arnold of St. Peter's Episcopal church.
They have gone to Flint to live,
where Mr. Bromley is agent for the Detroit United Railway company.

Larkins-Merritt.

Married, at the home of the bride,
parents west of town, Mr. Royce Larkins to Miss Zenaida Merritt, Wednesday evening, June 29. The young people are both well and favorably known in Northville, and the Record joins in the congratulations of their many friends.

Wixom Brothers' Circus.

Wixom Circus in all its glory will be here today. There will be the usual street parade at 1:00 o'clock and a good show is promised for both afternoon and evening. Big bills about the town give full particulars.

THE LADIES' LIBRARY ASS'N

ONE OF NORTHVILLE'S LAUD-ABLE ENTERPRISES

More than 2,700 Volumes Now on Its Shelves.

In fulfillment of the promise made last week to tell its readers something of the work done during the past year by the Library Association
the Record cannot do better than to give the following extracts from the excellent report presented at the annual meeting by the secretary,
Mrs. Mary L. Ambler:

"Upon the shelves of this library
you will find more than 2,700 volumes, including the bound magazines. Such a library is a great educator. It means much for Northville. Are the benefits to be derived from it fully appreciated? While we do not wish to criticize, we do feel that some way, some how, the people of our village do not realize what a power for good they have in this very library. How shall we interest and enthrall them is a question which has greatly puzzled your board of managers, and to which they now
call your careful attention.

"This institution cannot run without money. It needs your financial support and your whole-souled approval. As the secretary of the L. L. A. it is a pleasure to tell you, in so far as I am able, how well its board of managers has served you during the year just closing.

"For fifty-two weeks, Saturday afternoon and evening some of its ten members have opened the library
doors and made it possible for you to obtain good reading matter for less than one cent each week. In just one month, January, did the board fail to hold the regular monthly meeting required by the
by-laws of the association.

"The secretary has received and turned into the treasury from the sale of 444 cards, $54.75, from 211
books, $12.57, 162 extra books, $8.10, total of library, $29.82, sale of one book, $1.00, and cash gifts $20.00, making the receipts $102.72. This amount has been used to meet the running expenses for the insurance,
a large but necessary item for new shelving, the purchase of new books and the republishing and rebinding of others, for fuel and for other work exclusive of that done by some of the members of the board. Upon the republishing there is yet unpaid $19.75 and for new books we owe $7.11."

In addition to this indebtedness
the association also has yet to pay for the valuable new set of Woodrow Wilson's History of the American People which is to be done in monthly payments. It will easily be seen that in over another hundred of our 1,000 or more inhabitants would become card holders, these few women who are working so earnestly and unselfishly for an object so well worthy of support, would be enabled not only to make receipts and expenditures balance but have money enough left to put in the new books
so constantly demanded. The report can give, after all, but little idea of all the planning, anxious thought and real physical labor incumbent upon those in charge of this work whose only compensation is the pleasure derived from the work itself and the benefit conferred upon the people of Northville by giving them
such an institution.

Bigger Men Than Our Ancestors.
The young men of to-day has outstripped the men of past generations, in so far as physical development is considered. The change is due to the love of athletic recreation. This is the consensus of opinion among American tailors.

Digging for Thorium.
Thorium, which gives light from a gas mantle, its intensity was a curiosity twenty years ago but hundreds of persons are now making a living digging it in North Carolina, and the annual output is worth $500,000.

Must Pay for Crests.
For wearing a crest upon a finger ring without a license a man was fined $5.75 in a London court the other day.

Coal for War Purposes.
France has kept 200,000 tons of coal stored at Toulon since 1892, to be ready in case war should break out.

EAGLE'S SCREAM

IS ALL READY

FOR THE GLORIOUS-FOURTH IS A COMIN'

And so are the Woodmen of Wayne County.

The arrangements for Northville's
Fourth of July celebration in connection with the annual picnic of the Wayne County Log Rolling Association are now nearly at a close, and the committee invite to a great old time on our approaching national holiday. There are several thousand who have in this county and others in the adjoining ones, and they are all expected to be here and to bring their wives and children and sisters and cousins and aunts and uncles and neighbors
and best girls.

The souvenir programs, of which 1,000 have been gotten out at the local printers, show that no pains have been spared to arrange a list of attractions that will give everybody
a day chock full of fun, as well as a chance to win one or more of the many prizes offered in the various events.

There will be a street parade of the order, addresses, band music and a Calitranian parade. A ball game between the girls and boys, races besides various other contests with prizes for those who shall come out victorious in any or all and all the well known accessories that go to make up a genuine old fashioned, yet
up-to-date, Fourth of July celebration.

A fine display of fireworks has been secured and will be "touched off" when the right time comes, and for those who like to dance Riverside hall will be open afternoon and evening with a Detroit orchestra to furnish the music.

The exercises are to take place on the school campus, the athletic sports on the Dunlap boulevard, the ball game on the grounds of the Northville Golf club, the pyrotechnic display in the park and the picnic anywhere you want it. Everybody in Michigan is invited and visitors from other states will be cordially welcomed.

WARNER RATIFICATION.

Farmington people will give their honored citizen, Fred Warner, a
"home-coming" reception tomorrow
(Saturday) night, to which Northville people are most cordially invited. It is said it will be chock-full of enthusiasm and other good things.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kind deeds and sympathy during the burial of our brother; also the beautiful flowers.

The City in Brief.

Mrs. Wm. Blair is still improving in health.

Ray Gurr is the new clerk in Sessions' shoe store.

Mrs. Phila Hamilton has been very sick again this week.

Wayne will also have a real old fashioned Fourth of July celebration.

Mrs. H. L. Simonds was taken very ill Monday, but is now better as her many friends will be glad to know.

Lost—On Lake. Grace, Yerkes or Center street last week Wednesday, black beach belt, squares of turquoise beads.

Merritt Stanley has established billiard and cigar rooms in his building lately vacated by Hinkley & Henry.

The Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church held a picnic in the Cady Grove Tuesday afternoon.

One of the incidents of Saturday afternoon storm was the breaking of one of the big panes of glass at the library.

The street commissioner and his assistants have been busy for some time paving several of our thoroughfares with gravel.

Forrest Ball is feeling very grateful these days over a beautiful gift of flowers sent him by the Northville Circle of King's Daughters.

Several of the store fronts along Main street are receiving new Fourth of July costumes of fresh paint, making a decided improvement in the general aspect of the street.

Very pretty and appropriate souvenir folders were issued from the Record Printery for the W. R. C. on the occasion of their entertainment of their Milford sisters Tuesday.

The case of two hogs tried in Justice Beattie's court in Wyandotte has been appealed to the circuit court.—Detroit Evening News.

The News neglected to give the names of the hogs.

Queen City K. P. Lodge of Ypsilanti came here fifty strong Tuesday night and worked the third degree for the local lodge, after which the Lady Macchies served a delightful banquet in their hall.

The republican caucus Monday night was a very harmonious affair, the names of but two candidates being presented and they were elected unanimously. They were C. Chadwick and Lloyd A. Northrop.

A $3,000 fire, the origin of which is unknown, occurred on Mon. T. C. Sherwood's farm near Plymouth early Tuesday morning, destroying all his grain and sheep barns and other outbuildings in connection.

The Record was misinformed as to the time of the funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Eklund which was held on Saturday from the residence, instead of on Sunday as stated. The services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Shunk and the interment was in Rural Hill cemetery.

Hon. T. C. Sherwood of Plymouth gave an address Sunday morning in the Methodist church on "Selfishness" and it is needless to say he handled the subject in a very interesting manner. Mr. Sherwood has talked to Northville's congregations before and those who hear him always hope he will come again.

Little Evangeline Mattison, the three year old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lawrence, came very near losing her life Monday at their home here by the falling of a large barn door. All that saved the child was the fact that she was so close to the heavy door that, although it fell directly upon her, she did not receive the greatest force of its weight, which, of course, was at the end which fell outermost. The little one was badly bruised, but is not considered seriously injured.

The following is clipped from one of the Record's exchanges and refers to a former Northville pastor. "Rev. Thrasher, pastor of the Baptist church at Cornua, gave Editor Welch of the Cornua Journal the scare of his life. Calling the editor up on the phone Rev. Thrasher said excitedly, 'Come right over, Mr. Welch, a terrible accident has happened, a young lady has just lost her leg.' The editor, horror stricken, seized a bunch of copy paper and rushed to the parsonage. He saw no evidence of an accident, and the smiling minister explained that he had just married Clarence White and Miss Jessie L. Legg; the leg that was lost was her name. The editor, who is a well known politician, bought ice cream.

LETTING HIM DOWN EASY.

Daniels & Starkweather shipped nine cars of hay and three cars of wool to New York and Boston last week.

Fred Macomber has secured a position in Canadagua, N. Y., where he has charge of an electric railway depot.

Rev. Lee S. McColister of Detroit will preach in the Universalist church at Farmington at 3:15 p. m. next Sunday.

Jake Cohen has commenced his summer's work on the big steamboat Eastern States running between Detroit and Buffalo.

Lost—Small black hand satchel, on Base line Wednesday between Harrison Merritts and Clayton Dukes. Finder please leave at George Merritt's.

The losing side in the L. T. J. workers' contest gave a well attended and very enjoyable banquet to the winners at the home of Miss Jessie Clark Wednesday evening.

The ladies of the Baptist society are to serve dinners and lunches on the Fourth to all who desire them, and expect to be located in the store on the north side of Main street formerly occupied by Van Allen & Nyder.

The "experience social" of the Presbyterian ladies' first division is to take place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome this evening. The "experiences" are to be told in a "story" which will furnish a chance for some guessing as well as lots of fun. Everybody will be welcome.

Northville friends of Rev. and Mrs. O. M. Thrasher of Cornua formerly of this place have received the information that the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Thrasher is to be celebrated tomorrow, July 2, by a reception in the Baptist church of which he is pastor.

Mrs. Alfred Fry and her pupils in Northville and Plymouth gave an enjoyable piano recital in the library Wednesday evening, assisted by Mrs. Munkerson, vocalist, and Miss Trunkus, accompanist. Those who took part were Misses Maime Kohler, Edith Robinson, Mabel Munkerson, Helen Vandelaar, Bernice Koller and Carrie Brooks. Nearly all the numbers were encored.

Sunday School Enrollment.

There are within three million of as many persons enrolled in the Sunday schools of this country as in the public schools, there being thirteen million in the former and sixteen million in the latter. The total Sunday school membership throughout the whole world is twenty five million.

Refreshing Lemon Baths.

Lemon baths are popular in the West Indies. Three or four lemons are cut up and left to soak in the bath for half an hour, before it is used and lemon is also rubbed on the body. The effect is most refreshing. Lemons may be used in the same way.

Convicts Tunnel to Freedom.

Thirty convicts recently escaped from the Nikolos-Ussuri jail in Siberia, by driving a tunnel 150 feet long under the building.

Monuments for Bumpers.

A bumper is not a bouncer nor a crowder. A bumper is one who takes the shock and arrests and retards blunders. Some day money will be ready for monuments for blunder bumpers and mental lightning arresters.—Earl Pratt.

Studies Long for Naught.

Christian Busch was a student of chemistry at the University of Glessen for sixty-six semesters, but never passed. He could not remember his lessons because of an injury to the head received in a duel. He died recently.

Methodist Church Notes.

(By the Pastor)

Next Sabbath morning the sermon will be upon "What the World Owes Methodism."

Prof. Hornberger and the pastor made a bicycle trip this week, wheeling to Mt. Clemens Monday.

Several of the former pastors have sent word that they are coming to help celebrate our 70th anniversary Saturday and Sunday, July 16 and 17.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

(By the Pastor)

The Lord's Supper will be administered next Sunday morning and new members received into the church.

Remember the experience social at the picnic stage this evening. Supper served from 6:00 to 8:00 o'clock followed by an interesting program.

The service next Sunday evening will be a union patriotic service appropriate to the national and centenary. The sermon will be on "The Liberty Bell."

Despondent Views of Life.

In his first novel, "Mystic Gray," written almost in boyhood, Blamell writes: "The disappointment of manhood succeeds to the delusion of youth. Let us hope that the heritage of old age is not despair." While he writes thus in youth, with all the world before him, in his maturity he says in his finest novel, "Coningsby": "Youth is a blunder manhood a struggle, old age a regret."

Pictures of the Moon.

For some time astronomers have tried to adopt the stereoscope to astronomy, says Cosmos, Paris, and very satisfactory relief photographs of the moon have been obtained by taking views at sufficiently long intervals and utilizing the slight swinging of the moon to and fro in space. The moon appears in exaggerated relief.

Goldenrod the Favorite.

Twenty-one of the forty-five states of the Union have adopted a state flower. The goldenrod has proved to be the favored one in four states—Alabama, Missouri, Nebraska and North Dakota. None has taken the trailing arbutus (May flower), and it is suggested that New Hampshire choose it.

Decrees American Women.

A Hungarian writer Dr. Emil Reich, declares that the number of distinguished women workers in America in the domains of art, letters and science is ludicrously small compared with the number of brilliant women authors and women painters of Europe.

Old Notion of Sea Serpent.

Olaus Magnus wrote in the middle ages of a sea serpent 200 feet long and 20 feet thick which haunted rocks and caves near the sea coast, the old writer adding, "and he puts up his head on high like a pillar and catches away men, and he devours them."

Sneezing.

There is a superstition to the effect that the sneezing of a cat indicates good luck to a bride. There is another that if a cat sneezes thrice a cold will run through the family owning the cat.

Abyssinian Ostrich Feathers. Abyssinia produces the finest ostrich feathers, the price there being $1.44 to $2.31 per dozen for the best white, 95 cents to $1.93 a dozen for black and half as much for gray feathers.

Appearances are not always to be relied on; neither are all kinds of advertising. Electrical clock and similar catch-penny devices are apt to entrap the unwary. This is the local newspaper in this community that reaches the homes of the best people. It is therefore the medium the advertiser should use.

NOT GUILTY OF MURDER.

Jury Frees Katie Ludwick From Terrible Charge.

Co'dwater, Mich., June 29.—It took the jury in Katie Ludwick trial for the murder of her husband John just ten minutes to reach a verdict of not guilty. The decision was reached on the first ballot.

All day long a crowd packed every seat in the courthouse. As the words "Not guilty" fell from the juror's lips a demonstration of such magnitude that Judge Yaple was unable to suppress broke out. Handkerchiefs and hats were waving in the air for some minutes.

Katie Ludwick nearly collapsed when the happy news reached her. Already the strain of her thirteen-day trial has been telling of her.

After thanking the jail officials for the consideration which they had shown her, the young woman left the jail. Great crowds of people stood on the street to catch a glimpse of her.

OFFICERS WOUNDED.

Miners and Trammers in Fight at Calumet.

Calumet, Mich., June 29.—In a fight between striking trammers and miners at Atlantic mine several officers were wounded though not seriously, and Enock Makinen, leader of the strikers, was probably fatally wounded.

Forty trammers attacked the miners as the latter were going to work, using sticks, stones, knives and fists. A scuffle and casualties resulted. The disturbance subsequently the trammers quarreled among themselves and Henry Bakala was shot.

Died Homeless and Friendless.

Grand Rapids, Mich., June 29.—Friendless and homeless, John Sanderson, an actor who for many years had entertained the American public, is dead at St. Mary's hospital. Sick and knowing that his end was near he appeared at the hospital before the friends of the Grand Rapids summer theater. There a brave and brave heart went through his agony. Remains of Sanderson were taken to the Grand Rapids hospital and will be buried there.

LABOR and CAPITAL
By Colonel JAMES KILBOURNE, Large Employer of Labor for Thirty Years: Has Never Had a Disagreement With His Men.

It is evident that wage earners, as a class, are not getting their FULL SHARE of the profits produced jointly by labor and capital. The wonderful accumulation of wealth by the few, the frequent labor agitations, the number and proportions of labor strikes all demonstrate this.

There are, of course, exceptions; but, generally speaking, labor does not receive its full share. While it is true that the standard of living among working people has greatly improved during the present century, it is, considering the vast increase in wealth and change in general conditions during that time, still far from what it SHOULD be.

I never visit the home of a common laboring man but I am impressed with how few of the comforts—not to speak of the refinements—of life are possible for him, and HIS PATIENCE IS A CONSTANT MARVEL. To many of them "life is a tragedy too deep for tears." Improving public opinion—a growing conviction that we are our brothers' keepers—is a strong force tending to better the situation of wage earners, but while instances multiply where just and kindly relations between employer and employee prove, by their results, the benefits to each of the mutual recognition of brotherhood, making in some instances labor unions unessential, yet in the majority of cases, these are still necessary to secure just wages and, what is of still greater importance to American workingmen, THE ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF EQUAL MANHOOD.

THE GREAT DISCREPANCY BETWEEN THE REWARDS OF MANUAL AS COMPARED WITH THOSE OF OTHER LABOR, THE FABULOUS FORTUNES MADE BY SPECULATION AND THE FORMING OF GIGANTIC TRUSTS CONTROLLING THE NECESSARIES OF LIFE ARE BREEDING IN THIS COUNTRY THE SPIRIT OF SOCIALISM.

I do not, however, believe with those who prophesy a social revolution near at hand. I do not believe a speedy overturning of our present social system, imperfect as it is, would be beneficial to any of our citizens—LEAST OF ALL TO WORKING PEOPLE. While the wage system is, I trust, only a station in the advance of labor from slavery to true independence, I do not believe it will be done away with in this generation, but I do believe that many of its hardships may be alleviated, and many of its inequalities largely corrected, and great steps toward better things be taken in our time IF ORGANIZED LABOR DOES ALL IT CAN AND OUGHT TO DO by working faithfully and unitedly to correct it.

There are, it is true, many well meaning men who object strongly to trade unionism. They think that trouble comes, a check on production and a menace to social order.

That they are not always penable is true, that they are inimical to productive or social growth IS NOT TRUE, and for the laborer they are often a necessity.

One thing which can and should be done to better the condition of workmen is to shorten the hours of labor. "Man does not live by bread alone," and workmen should have greater opportunity for recreation, for sports and for reading and study.

IT IS THEIR JUST DUE, AND ONE WHICH THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO DEMAND FROM SOCIETY.

IT IS MONOPOLY THAT GIVES THE POWER TO REGULATE WAGES. OVERCAPITALIZATION MERELY ADDS AN ADDITIONAL INCENTIVE FOR LOWERING THEM.

If all monopolies in a given line are combined, the workmen in those industries have no real market for the ONLY thing they have to sell—their labor.

The two assumptions upon which overcapitalization of industrial concerns are based are that through monopoly higher prices can be obtained from the consumer and labor be regulated at their will. This would permit the enforcement of the theory, which public opinion in this country has long since condemned, that one man has the right to buy the labor of another, as he would merchandise, AT THE LOWEST OBTAINABLE PRICE; that wages must be regulated by the law of supply and demand, with no other restriction than supplying the means of BARE EXISTENCE.

Divorce Must Lead to Polygamy

By Archbishop RYAN of Philadelphia

POLYGAMY IS PRACTICED TODAY, where men have several wives, without the inconvenience and expense of keeping them together.

We are GOING BACK TO POLYGAMY, and we are going back to where we were before Christianity corrected the evil. The condition of woman in pagan times made her the slave of man; she was degraded by polygamy, degraded by divorce.

IF CHRISTIANITY LOSES ITS HOLD WOMAN WILL SINK BY DIVORCE TO THE LEVEL FROM WHENCE SHE WAS RAISED, SINK BY POLYGAMY AND THE BRUTALITY OF UNCHRISTIAN MEN.

Vacations Are a Good Investment

By JOHN DE WITT WARNER, Prominent New York Lawyer

WHILE I may not have been able to follow my inclination, I certainly believe in vacations for everybody else, and especially for my own employees.

I THINK THAT THE VACATION TENDS TO INCREASE A MAN'S WORKING CAPACITY AND RAISE THE STANDARD OF HIS MENTAL POWERS.

It keeps men out of the rut, and THE RUT IS DANGEROUS. I know I would be better off if I could follow my preaching instead of my practice in this regard.
