THE WOODMEN'S BIG CELEBRATION

LARGE CROWD OF PEOPLE HERE MONDAY.

The Northville Woodmen Did Themselves Proud.

The nation's 125th birthday has come and gone and "all our pomp of yesterday is one with" all the other Fourth of July celebrations that have passed into history. But we did it. The people began to arrive while the dew was still on the curbstones and they kept on arriving all day and part of the night. A conservative estimate places the attendance at 2,000 though many think that there were at least 2,500 people in the crowd. Even the weather man made a special effort to have things in shape for the occasion. The attractions of the world's fair were temporarily overshadowed and everybody seemed to enjoy himself or herself to the utmost.

The streets and business places were appropriately decorated, nearly every building displaying the red, white and blue in some form. The arrangement of the decorations in several places was exceptionally pretty.

The parade formed at the electric depot and followed the speakers' carriages to the school grounds. The Plymouth band supplied the music in a very creditable manner and Perrin's martial band played up things between times. Mayor Harmon made a happy address of welcome at the school grounds and was heartily applauded and E. F. Burns and C. G. Mclement of Detroit delivered interesting addresses. Rev. J. M. Shank offered the invocation and read the declaration of independence.

The program as previously arranged was carried out as nearly as possible, with no greater variations than are usually demanded by circumstances on such occasions.

The winners of the prizes in the various events were as follows:

Boys' 50 yard dash—A. Garfield, Harry Black.

Men's 100 yard dash—1 Charlie Jewell, 2 Harvey White.

Fat men's race—1 E. Whipple, 2 Milt Brown.

Three lagged race—1 Snyder & Co., 2 Brown & Scherer.

Sack race—1 Jewell, 2 Bachelor.

High jump—1 Charles Hubbard.

Wheelbarrow race—1 Jewell, 2 Lanning.

Night short race—Balco.

Girls' race—1 Eva Prince, 2 Maud Miller.

Ladies' race—1 Miss Skonni, 2 Mrs. R. R. Ball.

The tug of war was declared on and the box of cigars prize was awarded to the committee for their labors.

The Calithumpian parade showed so many unique attractions that it was very difficult to name and for a time it looked as though the prize would have to be cut up into small pieces, many remarking that every one of the participants ought to have a share. It was certainly a "corner" in every feature and was one of the best attractions of the day.

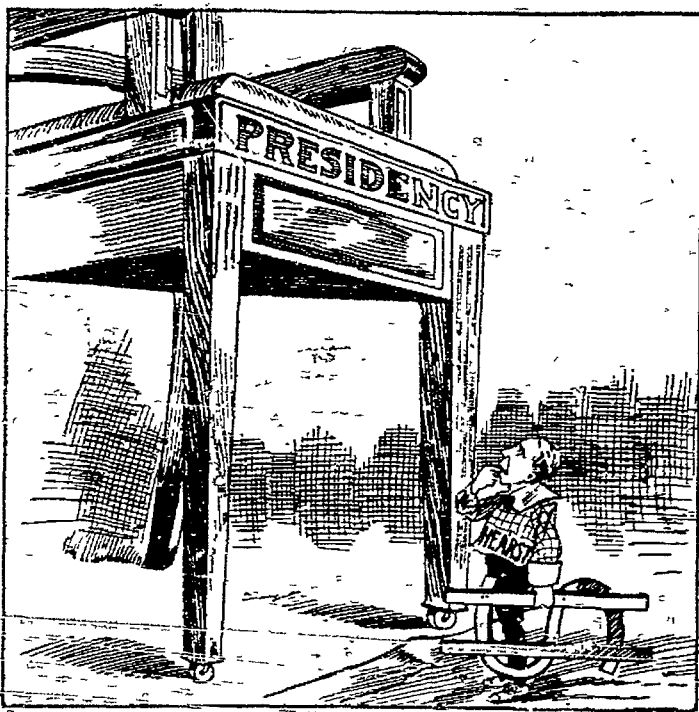

The Warner cheese factory's prize of a big cheese was finally awarded to Will Lanning and Harry Chalmers on their stalling automobile, which was a rig with a horse hitched behind as a propelling power and a steering gear consisting of a big wooden wheel attached to the dashboard.

The prize is reported to have stood on its own in favor of the umpire.

The dance in Riverside hall was well attended afternoon and evening, although to the disappointment of many of the couples it terminated rather early.

The chapter of accidents for the day lists but three casualties as so far reported, and none of those were very serious ones. Don Ball was struck in the eye by a dynamite cap, but with slight injury. Basil Bunt was quite painfully though not dangerously hurt, on three of his fingers and his by the explosion of a firecracker, which some boy, who needed killing, lighted and put into the Bunt's lad's pocket, which also contained some torpedoes. C. M. Thorston was the usual innocent spectator to become a victim, and received the most serious injury of the day. A big railroad torpedo was exploded by a passing street car and a piece of the tin struck him on the calf of the leg, inflicting a wound that required the attention of a surgeon.

TOO SHORT.

The fireworks were very pretty and were enjoyed by a big crowd. The peninsula furnishing an excellent place from which to view the display, which was "touched off" from a stand erected near the Pere Marquette depot.

Altogether the Woodmen won all sorts of laurels for their successful celebration, the credit for which is due the hustling Northville members who worked so hard for many weeks to bring it about and to those citizens who generously contributed to the expense. The work of the judges, Dr. Blanchard and H. Banton, was also highly commended.

Blue Ribbon Meeting.

The twenty-first annual renewal of the great Blue Ribbon meeting given under the auspices of the Detroit Driving club promises to exceed any of the preceding years viewed from a racing point. The historic classic events—Merchants and Manufacturers' $10,000 and Chamber of Commerce, $5,000—also the other early closing events attracted the largest entry list ever received at Grosse Pointe track. The first two named events were held on a field that was entered in the M and M there will undoubtedly be fifteen or sixteen starters, and as all of them have demonstrated in trials that they can travel a mile in 2:10 or better the race should be the fastest and best contested since the initial one in 1889. The same is true of the C of C. The largest field that ever went to the post for this race will score the word Ten of the prizes have negotiated miles from 2:04, to 2:09—thus insuring extremely fast time being made. It is the general opinion of horsemen that the record for both stakes will be beaten several seconds this year. The dates of the Blue Ribbon meet have changed to the week of July 25th. As usual the C of C will open the season on Monday and the M and M will follow Tuesday. Secretary W. J. Snyder has arranged an excellent program which offers an attraction each day. In fact each race—there are four a day—is an attraction for the reason that the best horses in training will be in their respective classes. Blue Ribbon week—July 25th—will go down in turf history as the greatest ever held.

"A Streak of Yellow."

The popular new book by Matt Rose under the above caption has come to the Record table, but it is not at all a "yellow" story. The author, Henry M. Rose, chief clerk of the U. S. senate and a successful journalist of the capital city, has been a valued personal friend of the publisher of this paper for many years, and his book, a "homey," realistic story of every day life, is a graphic illustration of the mistakes which the best intentioned Christians may make when they miss the innate conception of what Christianity really is. The book is gotten out by the Neale Publishing Co., New York and Washington.

FARMINGTON'S WARNER WELCOME

ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION AC-CORDED THE GOVERNOR

Fireworks, Parades, Speeches and Music Galore

A large delegation of Northville people, including many ladies, went over to Farmington Saturday night to assist the residents of that village in celebrating the homecoming of her honored son, Fred M. Warner, after his nomination to the highest office in the state.

The Oakland County Warner club was out in force, a big crowd from surrounding towns was assembled and the citizens of the very proud little village in Michigan had fairly outdone themselves in preparation for the event so momentous in the history of their town. The business places and private residences along Main street were profusely decorated with flags and bunting and the front of the Owen House, the upper balcony of which was utilized as a speakers' stand, was brilliant with varicolored electric lights and covered with big banners bearing the names of Roosevelt and Fairbanks, Fred M. Warner and Charles D. Green, who is a candidate for sheriff of Oakland county, while on each side of the street for a distance of five blocks, beginning at the Warner residence a row of Chinese lanterns was hung.

The gubernatorial nominee came from Detroit by automobile, and was met at the entrance of the lantern bordered avenue by the Pontiac band, the Northville military band and a torchlight procession, the numerous members of which were supplied with an abundance of Roman candles, which kept the whole line of march in a blaze of glory, while torpedoes, cannon firecrackers and a cannon added their voices to the enthusiastic welcome.

Mr. Warner, who was accompanied by his wife, was escorted to his home and then back to the hotel, where he was introduced amid great applause by H. M. Zimmerman, president of the Oakland County Warner club, as the next governor of Michigan. Mr. Warner spoke briefly and was followed by ex-Governor John T. Rich, G. W. McGee of Hudson, Judge Smith and Sam. W. Smith of Pontiac, W. W. Wedemeyer of Ann Arbor, E. M. Hopkins, F. S. Neal of Northville, John Power of Farmington and others, among them the nominees aged father, Hon. P. Dean Warner, who received an ovation from the assembly, and Frank Steele, who represented the democratic friends and neighbors of the genial and popular cheesemaker. After the speaking refreshments consisting of crackers and cheese were served in the town hall to the assembled hundreds by order of Mr. Warner.

It is not to be wondered at that Farmington folks are experts in the welcoming line, as the subject of Saturday night's demonstration has kept his fellow citizens thoroughly in practice along that line by his enviable career, giving them such frequent opportunities that they don't get a chance to forget how. Also he is more than worthily perpetuating the traditions of his adopted family in winning political honors even unto the third generation, as S. A. L. Warner, the father of Hon. P. Dean Warner, was a member of the first territorial convention of assent in 1836.

THOUSANDS ARE THERE

"UNDER THE OAKS" CELEBRA-TION AT JACKSON.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS GIVEN A HEARTY RECEPTION.

VETERAN FREMONT VOTERS GIV-ING SPECIAL ATTENTION.

Jackson, Mich., July 6.—Though "Old Sol's" genial face was hidden by clouds upon his appearance over the horizon at the early hour of 3 this morning, his reflecting presence above that dividing line between earth and sky gave the signal to the gunner, and with one tremendous boom a cannon announced to Jackson's citizens and the thousands of guests within her walls the advent of the much-planned and looked-for day when would be celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the Republican party—and known as "Under the Oaks" celebration.

Veteran Voters Claim Attention. Great crowds are here assembled. Streets, hotels, parks and many private homes are thronged. Old veterans who cast their vote for General Fremont in the beginning of this now great party claim first attention and in all sides receive the special honors. They claim quite as much attention as the distinguished guests who have come to speak to them.

The event of the morning was the arrival of the special train from Detroit bearing the speakers and special guests of the occasion. These included Hon. John Hay, secretary of state; Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks, United States senator from Indiana and the candidate of the Republican party for vice president, and Russell A. Alger, United States senator from Michigan. Distinguished Guests Arrive.

A typical committee of a great throng of people and a brass band greeted their arrival and as the distinguished men drove to the hotel from the depot much applause was accorded them as they passed along the crowded street. The arrival of the train was dignified by firing of the national salute.

From 12 until 1 o'clock a reception was given in honor of the speakers. And there again did the veteran voters who cast their ballots for Fremont receive special attention, the reception committee making sure that those old citizens were given a chance to shake hands with such prominent men in the government of the nation.

The real path of the day's celebration comes later. In Loon's park has been erected a large stand and from its platform many prominent men will speak to the great throng which at this writing has already begun to assemble.

Hon. Julius C. Burrows, United States senator from Michigan will preside, and with addresses to be made by Secretary Hay, Senators Fairbanks and Alger, "Uncle Joe" Cannon speaker of the house of representatives, and prominent men of the state the program will likely not be completed until well along toward evening.

At 8:30 p. m. on the fair grounds an elaborate display of fireworks will take place.

Jackson Doing Her Best. The city never before has appeared so such gala attire. Thousands of yards of bunting, thousands of American flags and thousands of streamers waving from buildings, ropes across the thoroughfares and flag-sticks and standards greet the eye in all directions.

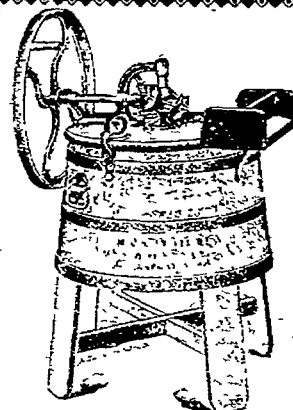

Jackson is doing her best to make this a day long to be remembered.

Charlotte, Me., July 6.—Progressive "Old Glory," a new national song by B. M. Browne and Prof. E. H. Bailey of this city will be sung for the first time by Prof. Bailey's quartet at the "Under the Oaks" celebration at Jackson.

Professor Bailey has been here for the last sixty years, during forty of which he has taught music and conducted a music store. Mr. Browne is a veteran of the civil war and is an all-around newspaperman who has many productions to his credit outside of the regular news line.

Dogs Kill and Maim Fine Sheep. Metamora, Mich., July 6.—James Taylor of Metamora lost fourteen fine blooded sheep by dogs and about forty more are so badly mangled that many will die. Taylor worked nearly all night trying to protect his flock of 200 sheep. The dogs were traced to Metamora village and found to belong to Charles Vankirk and Roy Adams and were shot at once.

Fear the Wind. Most fishermen on the French coast avoid going to sea on the first two days of November, owing to a superstitious fear of the "death wind" and the belief that drowned fishermen at that time rise and capsize boats.

My Breath.

Shortness of Breath
Is One of the Commonest Signs of Heart Disease.

Notwithstanding what many physicians say, heart disease can be cured.
Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure has permanently restored to health many thousands who had found no relief in the medicines (allopathic or homeopathic) of regular practicing physicians.
It has proved itself unique in the history of medicine, by being so uniformly successful in curing these diseases.

Nearly always, one of the first signs of trouble is shortness of breath. Whether it comes as a result of walking or running up stairs, or of other exercises, if the heart is unable to meet this extra demand upon its pumping powers—there is something wrong with it.

The very best thing you can do, is to take Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. It will go to the foundation of the trouble, and make a permanent cure by strengthening and renewing the nerves.
I know that Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is a great remedy for a number of years, I suffered from shortness of breath, smothering spells, and pains in my left side. For months at a time I would be unable to lie on my left side, and if I lay flat on my back would nearly suffocate. A friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, which I did with good results. I began to improve at once, and after taking several bottles of the Heart Cure the pains in my side and other symptoms vanished. I am now entirely well. All those dreadful smothering spells and aching of the past, "F. E. DRAKE, Middletown, O."

Dry Bananas.

Bananas dried contain their full flavor and nutrition, and weigh but one-ninth as much as in the bunch. It is proposed to evaporate them on a large scale in the counties of their origin and so save cost in transportation, cold storage and loss by decay. Dried bananas are valuable as a substitute for flour, and unquestionably the banana contains more nutriment than any other fruit.

PILES UPON TOP OF PILES.

Piles upon top of piles of people have the Piles, and DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures them. There are many different kinds of Piles, but if you get the genuine and original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve made by E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago, it cures them all. A Triple of DeWitt's, 8 C. says, "I had piles 20 years, and DeWitt's Salve cured me after everything else failed." Sold by All Druggists.

Baldheaded Men Form Club.

A bizarre club has just been formed at Fribourg. The only qualification for membership is a bald head. Persons seeking admission must have bald heads which absolutely shine.
The rules set forth that the members must meet every month in order to eat ham and listen to music.

NO PAIN SHOWN

"For years I was after me continuously," writes F. A. Gullidge, Verona, Ala. "I had a terrible case of Piles causing 21 tumors. When all failed Buckle's Arnica Salve cured me. Equally good for Burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at Geo. C.
Hurst's Drug Store."

Marble in Washington State.

It is said that marble quarries as rich as those of Italy or Vermont have been discovered in the hills of Ste-ven's county, Washington. The entire region is covered with a dense growth of lofty pines.

WEAK HEARTS

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands, swells, and puts up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result.
Kidd's Dyspepsia Cure cures what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, and contributes to nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Sold by all Druggists.

Deserves a Memorial.

That Pennsylvania inventor who has devised an alarm clock which comes to the relief of tired husbands by automatically lighting the kitchen the discouragement of divorce and the prohibition of race suicide.

AGAIN UNDER THE OAKS

FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

CELEBRATED WITH PARADES AND SPEECHES AT JACKSON.

FAIRBANKS, HAY AND CANNON THE BIG ATTRACTIONS.

Jackson, Mich., July 7.—Five thousand people assembled in Loomis park to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of the Republican party, under the oaks at Jackson on July 6, 1854. It was here that the first state convention under the name of "Republican" was held. Among the eminent speakers at yesterday's celebration were Secretary of State John Hay, eminently fitted to speak on this occasion, not only through his intimate connection with the Republican party's history, but also because of his having been a private secretary to Abraham Lincoln, the first Republican president. Other distinguished guests were Speaker Cannon of the national house of representatives, Senator Fairbanks of Indiana, vice-presidential candidate, and United States Senators Alger and Burrows of Michigan. The city was huzg with bunting, and band concerts of the main streets preceded the arrival of Secretary Hay and Senator Fairbanks, with a company of prominent Republicans, on a special train from Detroit. Speaker Cannon arrived Tuesday.

The meeting was held under the shadow of young oak trees, which well duplicate, in scene at least, the proceedings of 1854. The Fremont voters had the front seats, occupying a reserved platform by a railing valenced by tasteful drapery in the national colors.
Grand Army uniforms, crutches and silvered locks were conspicuous here, and the rapt attention of these "charter" Republicans was notable.

The program of the day opened at sunrise with an artillery salute. At 9 o'clock a band concert near the Otsego hotel was rendered in compliment to the visitors, including those who had attended the convention fifty years ago and a more numerous attendance of the "Fremont voters" of 1854.

The exercises of the forenoon began shortly before 11 o'clock at Loomis park, which is near the location of the original oak grove of 1854. The grove was disappeared and in its place are city streets and habitations.

James O'Donnell Presided.
James O'Donnell was the presiding officer. Rt. Rev. George D. Gillispie, bishop of western Michigan, delivered the invocation. Mayor William W.
Todd made an address of welcome, to which Governor Bliss responded. Attorney General Charles A. Blair followed with an oration, historical in character, the forenoon session closed with a fine address by Hon. Thomas J.
O'Brien of Grand Rapids.

Congressman Townsend and the members of the committee were active in honor of the invited guests, who were publicly received at the Otsego hotel at the close of the ceremonies of the forenoon.

The attendance was not up to expectations but was large and every part of the state was represented.

On the platform were Speaker Cannon, Senator Fairbanks, Secretary Hay, Governor Bliss, ex-Governor Rien, Senators Alger and Burrows, Gen. A. C. Spaulding, Congressman Gardner, Hamilton Lord, William Alden Smith, Sam W. Smith and Townsend, gubernatorial candidate Fred Warner, Homer Warren and George B. Horton.

The speakers in the forenoon occupied more time than was anticipated and it was late when the session took a recess. The occasion was a holiday for photographers who took many pictures of the scenes. The morning orator most signally received was Attorney General Blair.

A letter received from D. B. Knight, Kirkwood, Mo., claimed the honor of suggesting the name Republican. "The man D. B. Knight struck daylight that time," said Chairman O'Donnell. The man delighted Speaker Cannon Mayor Todd, who delivered the address of welcome is a Democrat and he did not, representing the city and disclaiming all partisanship on this occasion.

Patriots of Fifty Years Ago.
Chairman James O'Donnell, in calling the gathering to order said in part:

"You patriots of fifty years ago who labored and voted for Fremont were the pathfinders—the men who blazed the way to the glorious triumph in 1860. You pointed freedom to the kindly gaze of a hopeless race."

"In the twelve presidential campaigns since 1854, nine of them were won by the Republican party, and today its doctrines are stronger in the minds of men than ever before."

"National growth, progress and development have marked Republican control. Much of the wealth and power of the nation can be credited to the policies of the party whose semi-centennial we here celebrate. Reviewing the past, this certainly is the day of jubilee. We have incorporated the grand doctrines of the party, 'Freemen, free speech,' into law. The generation today is grateful to you men who organized this party, for surely the name of the Republican party stands over every door where a righteous cause was born."

"We march beneath the banner of the stars—every star glistening with hope for mankind. We stand in the splendor of the years of progress and prosperity, and will consecrate our country to even greater usefulness and glory."

Governor Bliss, in responding to the address of welcome of Mr. Todd, said in part:

"Standing upon this historic ground, on the fiftieth anniversary of the birth of the Republican party, one is sobered as he contemplates the history which has been written as a consequence of the famous day 'under the oaks' when the men of Michigan, forswearing their former partisan allegiance, boldly challenged the enemy who threatened freedom and national unity, resolving to be known as Republicans until the contest was ended. As Republicans and as good citizens we take pride in the great organization of men that from Lincoln to Roosevelt has not faltered in its duty to the nation, that in good and in evil times has rallied to the flag, undimmed by dangers, and has kept step to the music of the Union."

"It is a great pleasure on this honoring day, in behalf of the state, to welcome to this historic site the distinguished men within its gates today and extend to them the hospitable greetings of two and a half millions of happy, contented and prosperous people. To the veteran who has fought the fight, Michigan offers the laurel, and to the youth who ventures this year on his first campaign, a godspeed.
May fifty years hence find him as true as the fathers we have with us today."

Thomas J. O'Brien of Grand Rapids was introduced as one of the participants in the original "Under the Oaks" convention.

CASH OR WHISKERS.

Robbers Cut Telephone Wires and Rob House Near Palmyra.

Adrian, Mich., July 7.—After cutting the telephone wires connecting the house of Henry Angell, a one-legged veteran of the civil war, living near Palmyra, four miles southeast of here, with the outside world, two men bound and gagged the old man and his niece, Annette Angell, who had been keeping house for him, and robbed them of several hundred dollars in cash.

The robbers forced Angell and the girl to tell where their savings were secreted by threatening to burn off the old man's whiskers and set the house on fire. Angell is a retired gunsmith and had a number of fine firearms in the house. The robbers took these along with them, in fact, left nothing that could be of the least value to them. Officers from this city are working on the case and the sheriff has given orders to arrest every tramp within a radius of twenty-five miles of the scene of the robbery.

McGarry Has No Nap

Ironia, Mich., July 7.—Warden Fuller and other officials of the Ironia prison resent the intimation in a Detroit paper that Thomas F. McGarry, the Grand Rapids attorney sent here for complicity in the water deal, is being shown favoritism, and that he has a soft snap. When a reporter visited the prison yard McGarry was found hard at work upon the large lawn in side the walls, pushing a lawn mower and his hands showed the effect of the ten weeks of work he has had. He has entire charge of the flower beds and lawns inside the walls and has one assistant in caring for them, so that it can be seen that his time is well taken up.

Sensational Will Case.

Grand Rapids, Mich., July 7.—At the next term of the circuit court of this county there will come to trial one of the most important and probably as sensational a will case as has ever been tried in this state and it will be of special interest to the Catholics of Michigan. It will be in the form of an attempt to break the will of Mrs. Mary McNamara who died last winter and who left $40,000 to the church and to church institutions. The charge is made that she was mentally incompetent when the will was made and that

Fatal Cave-In.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 7.—A cave in at the Church street sewer buried four Italian workmen. Robert Candace, George Lenias, Tony Gosenia and Gano, all of Detroit. Canace was dead when taken out, and the others, who were buried about twenty minutes, were more or less injured. The tunnel being dug for the sewer is about three feet deep at the point of the cave-in.
The men were working on a stratum about twelve feet below the surface.

Happy Reunion

Jackson, Mich., July 7.—James M.
Dowd of Texas and his David J.
McKay of this city, brother and sister met Wednesday for the first time in thirty-one years. The children were separated when they were small, and had completely lost track of each other. McDowd was back on a visit to other relatives, and accidentally ran across the husband of his sister.

Died From Bullet Wound.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 7.— Mrs. Isaac Eagle died in a hospital here from the effects of a bullet wound in the head, inflicted by her husband.
The husband raves frantically in a cell

TEN-THOUSAND EXPECTED.

Detroit Swarming With Delegates to B. Y. P. U. Convention.

Detroit, Mich., July 6.—The pilgrims to the international convention of the B. Y. P. U. are here in hundreds and a wonderous stream of delegates is still pouring in.

Early yesterday afternoon the first hundred mark was reached and by night the registration exceeded $500.

The convention locally opens tonight with the mass gospel meeting in the Light Guard armory, at which Rev. A.
C. Dixon of the Ruggles Street Baptist church, Boston, will preach. This meeting promises to be the largest Baptist prayer meeting in the history of Detroit.

All Wednesday prayer meetings in twenty-two Detroit churches will be suspended to night and the congregations will flock to the armory. The services will open at 8 o'clock promptly. The great convention choir, part of which will be present, held its last rehearsal last night in perfect harmony, under the leadership of George M. Robinson the 600 voices made the big armory resound in a most impressive manner.

The speakers of the convention will make the Cadillac hotel their head quarters and will be the "guests of the convention." The most conservative estimate an attendance of 10,000 delegates, but preparations are being made for at least 5,000 more.

PREACHER IS INDIGNANT.

Upbraided West Bay City's Mayor For His Conduct of Affairs.

Bay City, Mich., July 6.—The good people in West Bay City are greatly shocked over the way the officials are allowing the street carnival to be run.
The streets are daily jammed and sa-tisfactions are thriving with an immense trade.

On the fourth there was no attempt to obey the state law and Rev.
W. P. Pope of the First Methodist church is going to have a house cleaning, if he can. He and Mayor Barnett met on the street and the latter was accused of neglecting his duty. Barnett was told that as his father was a Methodist minister he ought to do differ-ently. The mayor replied that he knew the saloons were wide open and he did not propose to interfere with the sport.

The interview was stormy, and now Rev. Pope says, he will preach a sermon next Sunday in which names will be mentioned. The church people generally consider themselves outraged as a result of the street fair.

PUNISHED CRUEL DRIVER.

Woman at Lansing Whipped Man in Street.

Lansing, Mich., July 6.—Romona Fowler of Pawlerville drove his horse to Lansing at such a terrific pace that when the city was reached the horse was nearly exhausted that it could scarcely walk and Fowler drove through the business section whipping the animal at every step until finally the horse fell from sheer exhaustion.

An unknown woman who witnessed the shocking performance took the whip from Fowler's hand and after striking him a couple of blows with it broke it in two. Later in the day Fowler was arrested on a charge of cruelty to animals and upon his plea of guilty was fined $24.35 with the alternative of spending thirty days in the county jail.

Lansing and also of the private banking firm of Stone & Hemmingsway of Edgar Hedden, aged respectively 15 and 14 years, of this city, have started on a bicycle trip to Adams county, Wisconsin, for a visit with relatives there. They started out with only about $5 in money, and when the "go broke" expect to earn their meals and lodging by odd jobs.

Father-in-Law Stabbed Him.

Adrian, Mich., July 6.—Charles Ott, and his father-in-law, John Rank, became engaged in a quarrel at their home on the banks of Devil's lake.
Rank stabbed Ott in the back with a long knife, the blade piercing his lungs. Ott is still alive, but it is feared he will die.

The experience social at the Presbyterian manse last Friday night was largely attended and also largely enjoyed. The service last Sunday morning was especially interesting and inspiring. The Lord's Supper was celebrated and five members were received into the church. Miss E. Ryder, Mrs. Dumas and Henry M.
