Warner Voted Right on All the Popular Issues

Examination of His Legislative Record Gives the Lie to Campaign of Misrepresentation.

[Detroit Journal, Oct. 26, 1904]

Editor The Journal: Phil Colgrove, who is making speeches for Fred M. Warner throughout the state, claims that Warner as state senator voted for the Atkinson railroad taxation bill the measure advocated by Gov. Pingree and that he also voted for the oil taxing sleeping car and express companies.

Mr. Colgrove also claims that Warner voted for the repeal of the Michigan Central special charter and for the bill reducing railroad rates in the upper peninsula.

It is also claimed that Warner severely criticized Gov. Blair for not removing from office the tax commission members who had been appointed by the late Governor General Blair in the great tax case now pending in the U. S. court.

I am a Republican and intend to vote the straight Republican ticket from Roosevelt down to corner, but if you can prove to me that Mr. Warner's record is as good as Mr. Colgrove says it is, I shall be pleased to vote for him. I do all I can for his election.

H. F. NAGEL
Detroit, October 15.

Mr. Warner was a member of the legislature which considered the bills cited by Mr. Colgrove and our correspondent, Mr. Nagel. The Journal has carefully examined the files of the journal of the senate and is able to answer all these questions save one, from the records themselves. Mr. Warner voted for the Atkinson bill at the special session in 1895, in discussing the measure see senate journal 1895, page 238.

I am in favor of the passage of this bill. I think it is in the line of equal and just taxation and should be passed.

Mr. Warner voted in favor of the bill for the taxation of sleeping cars in 1897. (Senate journal, page 1574.)

Mr. Warner was one of the twelve senators who voted May 27, 1897, to take the Michigan Central charter repeal bill from the committee on railroads. (See senate journal, page 1305.)

Mr. Warner was one of the nine senators who voted against tabling the bill which provided for the reduction of railroad fares in the upper peninsula. (See senate journal, pages 1096-1107, session 1898.)

Mr. Warner was one of the 17 senators who voted in favor of increasing the rate of taxation of express companies in the special session of 1898. See senate journal, page 360.

Mr. Warner worked and voted for every tax reform bill advocated by Gov. Pingree.

When Mr. Warner was in the senate advocating and voting for the taxation of steam railroads and other great corporate properties, Atwood, DeBerry and Baird were present.

The press of the state, and especially the chief Democratic organ in Detroit, warmly commended the work of Mr. Warner in the senate in 1895-97.

Another thing that proclaims Fred M. Warner a fearless and consistent friend of the people was the stand he took in the tax commission affidavit episode when he sided with Attorney General Blair and declared in the Detroit Free Press, June 1902.

Their action was an indication to the people that their sympathies are with the railroads in the fight for the corporation as against the state and their usefulness is gone. As the people have lost faith in them as representatives of the state, I should think that the governor ought to have acted promptly.

The Journal wrote to Attorney General Blair as to Mr. Warner's attitude toward the railroad cases now pending in the courts. Mr. Blair, in reply said:

When the hearing of the case of the board of state auditors, in which Mr. Warner was counsel, I should have been promptly advised in preparing and setting up the state's case. I have kept the board in the case, but I have not had any consultation in seeing that every member of the board has given me his undivided support and encouragement.

While Mr. Warner, Mr. McCoy and Mr. White have a right to be heard in the industrial and commercial case, the return of the case would not be to the advantage of the state and have beyond the doing of everything in my power to promote a speedy trial.

I should be glad to see that gentlemen as individuals and as a board have generally supported me throughout this litigation. Yours respectfully,
CHAS. A. BLAIR
Jackson Mich. Oct. 24.

He Stands for the Upholding of Roosevelt's Policies.

The following is an extract from the speech of Vice-President Fairbanks at Jackson, Oct. 25, in his reference to Congressman Townsend of this district:

"Now, we are a practical people; we wish to make no mistakes. How shall we make our vote count so as to advance the interests of our mills, our neighbors and our country? I tell you how. By voting for those who stand for the great doctrines of the republican party. I'm glad to meet the constituents in this congressional district who vote of the constituents of Charles E. Townsend, member of Congress. (Applause.) He is an able man. He stands well among his associates in the great national legislature. I know not who his opponent is. I doubt not

Big Meeting at the Opera House Next Monday Night.

Next Monday evening, Nov. 7, the republicans of this vicinity will hold their closing mass meeting for this campaign. The rally is to be held in the Opera House and the principal address of the evening will be given by Hon. Wm. A. Norton of St. Johns, who will discuss the issues of the campaign in a manner befitting his reputation as one of the finest speakers in the state. Several other good speakers of this county are expected to be present and everybody will be made welcome, regardless of political affiliations. Ladies are especially invited to attend.

The Soldiers' Friend

Hon. Chas. E. Townsend is a good friend of the soldier. During his first year in congress he has assisted in securing over 70 pensions for the soldiers and widows of the Civil and Spanish wars. He has interested himself in more than seven hundred pension claims and through his persistent efforts many of these are now being considered for early settlement with a view of granting to the worthy veterans the monthly allowance they are entitled to.

Overcoats and felt boots are now the fashion," says the Alderman's Corners correspondent of the South Lyon Herald. Maybe so—over at the Corners, but in this vicinity only the first mentioned articles of winter wear have appeared as yet. Folks haven't worn that kind of gear in Northville, although they may have felt like it.

Twelve years ago, Mr. Ferris, an ardent free trader, was denouncing the republican principle of protection and promising peace and prosperity if we could have "but more years of Grover." We got the grover, but none can remember the prosperity eight years ago. Mr. Ferris is running the silverite was denouncing the "crime of '73" and promising financial ruin if McKinley should be elected. McKinley was elected but it would embarrass anyone to point out the ruin. Four years ago, Mr. Ferris, a trade anti imperialist, was declaring that McKinley's election would mean the fall of popular liberty before the encroachment of the monopolistic octopus. McKinley was re-elected, but liberty is still enthroned in Big Rapids and other states and territories north of Mason and Dixon's line. Now Mr. Ferris is equally sure of the million results of machine rule if the republican party should be left in control any longer.—Lansing Republican.

SCIENCE and INVENTION

New Method of Hargening Metals.

A new patented process of hardening iron and soft steel has been introduced in Düsseldorf, Germany. The carbon requisite for the tempering is obtained by means of carbide and certain fluxes. For instance, a mixture of silicium carbide and sodium sulphate is applied to cold iron or steel and then heated to redness with it, or the red hot metals is covered with the mixture. The reaction is so rapid that even thin objects can be hardened on one side. Within a short time a plate two or three millimeters thick becomes hard enough on one side to resist the best tempered steel tool, while the other remains wholly soft. Interesting experiments were made with armor plates. A plate of seventy kilos strength was smeared six millimeters thick with the mixture, then a second plate placed upon the latter and the sandwich maintained at red heat for a couple of hours, after which it was cooled in oil. At a distance of twenty meters the hardened sides of these plates received a dozen bullets from a German rifle, model '98, without showing signs of a rip.

A Window Refrigerator.

In families lucky enough to possess an ice chest or refrigerator it is generally placed in the cellar, where it is always cooler and where the ice melts less rapidly, or sometimes it is put out in the yard. Every time an article is washed, even if it is only a glass of ice water, it means a trudge up and down stairs, which is very tiring to the housewife. A very compact and convenient substitute for the refrigerator is shown in the illustration. It will be observed at a glance how useful it would be and also the time that would be saved. The inside compartments can be arranged to suit the individual taste and they are placed where it would be most easy to reach. The idea of the inventor is to locate the unit as far as possible out of the window, in order to avoid the heat of the sun. After the article was washed, the unit could be moved in the cool air of the cellar, where it would be most easy to reach. The inventor is

Radio Active Wool

A new method of using the luminous material has recently been discovered by the Rev. S. E. Thomson, and consists of using cotton wool which has been saturated to the extent of the radium emanation. Dr. Thomson, as the result of a series of experiments, has reached the conclusion that the effects of the radium emanation and of the direct action of the radium are the same, consisting of an inflammation of the skin and the destruction of life. He subjected a number of substances, including cork, paraffin paper and cotton wool, to radium emanation, and found that the wool produced inflammatory effects on the skin. The wool, owing to its spongy nature, seemed to absorb the largest quantity of the radium emanation, and consequently was the most dangerous. Accordingly, Dr. Thomson carried on further experiments with wool so treated, which he found was most convenient for easy distribution over the body and ready application at any desired point. The emanated wool, when packed in hermetically sealed jars or other containing vessels, has its radioactivity very slowly and can be sent to any a distance desired.

Plan to Dam the Thames.

A royal commission is considering the damming of the River Thames at London. As there is a difference between high and low tides of between twenty feet, all larger vessels must be "banded" in docks which can be closed by dam gates. The object of this commission is to devise means for doing away with this annoying nuisance, and thus increasing the shipping facilities of the port. Among the plans presented is one of constructing a great dam across the Thames from Gravesend to Tilbury. This would convert the river into a great inland lake extending from Gravesend to Richmond. At the point selected for the dam the river bed is of fine sand, and the structure would give a navigable depth of thirty-five feet at Gravesend and thirty feet at London bridge, without any dredging. The proposed dam would be of concrete, granite faced, and the four locks would be 500, 700 and 1,000 feet, and from 30 to 100 feet wide. The estimated cost is $18,200,000. As all the docks could be left open there would be an annual saving of $250,000 in the cost of operating the gates.

STOLE AWAY.

Four male convicts have exemplified how easy it is to escape from the state penitentiary in Jackson, making a total of 12 who have gotten over the walls within 12 weeks. This last batch escaped in broad daylight, too. Those McGinn, Detroit, sent to the T. P. name of the last quarter are prison for four to five years for burglary, and a James Wilson, Calhoun county, seven years for burglary, term to expire Dec. 1, 1904; Edward McPherson, Ionia county, 10 years for burglary, having served six years of his sentence; John C. C. Eumet, county, 10 years for assault and robbery while armed with a dangerous weapon, term to expire in July, 1908. All four of the men were in the third grade, made up of the worst prisoners in the institution. McGinn was captured at Leas' Saturday night.

Another Upheaval.

The news that reaches Mexican coast ports through visitors from Guatemala is that this little republic is on the verge of another revolution which is to be the result of an act of war on the part of the republic of Salvador. Gen. Salvador Toledo is now preparing to invade Guatemala at the head of forces furnished by the Salvadoran republic and it is feared that the trouble once started is likely to involve all Central America.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., Nov 4 1904

Fred Warner's Record.

Opposition newspapers are trying to make it appear that the Republican candidate for governor is too friendly to the railroad corporations. Read the following which is Fred Warner's attitude relative to the taxation of railroads.

"I should give the roads fair treatment and nothing more. They are entitled to the same consideration as a private individual or corporation, but no more."

Has Snaked the Railroads. On the lines of the Michigan Central Lake Shore Grand Trunk and Wabash railroads, there are 75 miles of road in Michigan upon which the rate of passenger fare has been raised from three cents per mile to two cents under republican laws.

Merely a Coincidence? Mr. Ferris' idea of political reform seems to be comprised of just two words—elect me.

Congressman Townsend's re-election is reasonably assured. He has had but one term in congress, but he left the impress of his presence there in such a way as to make his return a matter of national desire.

Mr. Ferris' idea of political reform seems to be comprised of just two words—elect me. It is astonishing that for twenty years he never mentioned a subject that now engrosses all his time and his talk.

"I have used Peruna at various times during the past year or two with most satisfactory results. It entirely relieved me from an irritating cough—the result of excessive effort in the presidential campaign, and I am a firm believer in its efficacy for any such trouble."—Jno. M. Thurston.

Catarrh has already become a national infernal remedy for catarrh. There are practically no medicinal rivals in the field. Peruna is not a local application of temporary relief; it is a permanent cure. Peruna is a systemic remedy. It eradicates catarrh from the system. It cures catarrh wherever located. Its cures are radical and lasting. Fritz Vollmer, President Schwabacher Seegerbund, Chicago, in a recent letter to The Peruna Medicine Co., says: "My voice was so badly affected from catarrh that I was afraid I would lose it entirely. I read of some of the wonderful things your Peruna would do and thought it advisable to try some myself. I am pleased to state that in a very short time I was cured."—Fritz Vollmer. Address: The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, O., for a book of testimonials, containing letters from prominent men and women of every country.

FERRY TRIAL. WHERE IS MR. PHELPS?

A Detective Holds $50,000 in Cash for Salisbury.

On Saturday the trial of ex-Mayor Peery, of Grand Rapids, developed some new matters. Lunt K. Salisbury was hard pressed on cross-examination. Forced by Judge Perkins to reveal the name of the man who assisted him in securing the box in a Chicago safety deposit vault which was used in connection with the Barton $50,000 transaction Salisbury named his brother, Walter Salisbury, of Grand Rapids. It was also stated by the witness that the $50,000 supposed to have been returned to the Bartons was still in the hands of a detective.

Witness was again asked if he did not pay back the $50,000 to the Bartons on the express agreement that he would not be prosecuted.

"I will not discuss that matter," he answered.

Mr. Ellis insisted on an answer to his question and Prosecutor Ward objected. The court ruled that inasmuch as the Barton case had been drawn into the present case, witness must answer. Before answering the question Mr. Salisbury stated:

"I wish to make a statement on the record before I do so."

The attorney Juddkins objected to any record being made but Judge Perkins told the witness to proceed with his statement.

"I wish to say," said the witness, "that in making this statement I may be implicating others who may be prosecuted in Illinois, but I do not do so voluntarily. I offer that $50,000 with the hands of Detective McGuire, with the understanding that if prosecuted and convicted the money should be mine. The case is still pending against me and McGuire and I do not see the money."

Mr. Phelps Still Missing.

The Mystery surrounding the fate of Neil S. Phelps, the once millionaire of Battle Creek, grows deeper every hour. That he has not committed suicide is confidently asserted by everyone engaged in the search, for they say that every hook and corner where it was possible for a dead body to be hidden has been searched.

It is equally certain that he was not out of his mind on Sunday afternoon when he disappeared, for he had spoken to a number of his friends during the day. He had gone to the office of the Ellis Publishing Co., where he had his office, with one of that firm to open his mail. He had answered such letters as called for immediate reply, and did his work carefully as ever he had done it, and everything was left in good shape.

Shortly before 5 o'clock he was seen by several persons and he was then in apparently normal state of health, physical and mental. Then he disappeared as completely as if the ground had swallowed him.

Now comes the most peculiar part of the whole affair. The Michigan Central train for Chicago pulled out at 4:57, just about the time he disappeared, and a young man asserts positively that he has been waiting at Main street for the train to pass and saw Phelps's face in a Pullman car window. Some of the railway employees seem to have seen him, although he was well known to all of them.

A telephone message came to Mrs. Phelps from a Detroit woman, who said she had been in Chicago on Sunday. When she was dining with friends there a Mr. Hartley invited her to meet Mr. Phelps. She had no recollection of the matter until, on returning she read that Phelps was missing.

EIGHT SHOT.

Halloween Celebrations Shot by an Irate Farmer.

Eight young men, among the best known in the village, were shot at Smith's Creek, eight miles from Port Huron, by Farmer Joseph Lambert and his three hired men John, George and Charles Strawn, while on a party to the woods on Saturday night. One of them was killed and the others are badly injured. They are as follows:

Roy Lindsay, shot in the groin and legs and will probably die.

Chas Gaffney, shot in the hands and arms.

Ralph McCormick shot in the head and arms.

Russell Moore shot in the legs.

Wm. Sturtevant.

These young fellows had started out for a little run about 11 o'clock and were approaching Lambert's place when a straw stack. Apparently Lambert and the three hired men had all fired at the same time, using shot-guns.

Lambert had threatened that if any Halloween foolishness was started about his place he'd shoot 'em." He made good his word with a vengeance.

Roy Lindsay, the worst injured, is 27 years old and married. He is a son of James Lindsay, a well-to-do resident of Smith's Creek. The father came to Port Huron today to swear out a warrant for the arrest of Lambert and the Strawn brothers.

WASTE AND RUIN IN MOROCCO.

Beautiful Dwellings Erected and Allowed to Decay.

In Morocco they build and make, and they do both things beautifully and well, according to one who has been there. But they seldom finish. In a house faintly with fountains and arabesques and colored tiles," he says, "you will still find a corner uncompleted, a pillar which lacks the delicate finishing of the other pillars, an embrasure for a clock half ornamented, with gold flags and half left plain. And, if they seldom finish, they never by any chance repair. The mansion is built and decorated within; artists fit tiles together in a mosaic of cool colors and carve and gold and paint the little pieces of cedar wood and glue them into the light and pointed arches; the rich curtains are hung; and the master enters into his possession. There follows the procession of the generations. The tiles crack, the woodwork of the arches splits and falls and the walls break and crumble. The householder sits indifferent and the whole house cots rot. So, in the narrow streets, holes gap and the water wears a channel where it will and the mud lies thick and slippery on the rounded stones; the streets run steeply up and down the hills, wind abruptly round corners and dive into tunnels."

Temple of Serpents.

Cured Her Rheumatism.

Deep Valley, Pa., Oct. 31.—(Special)—There is deep interest in Green county over the cure of the little daughter of I. N. Whippley of Rheumatism. She was a great sufferer for five or six years and nothing seemed to do her any good till she tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. She began to improve almost at once and now she is cured and can run and play as other children do. Mr. Whippley says:

"I am indeed thankful for what Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for my daughter; they saved her from being a cripple perhaps for life."

Dodd's Kidney Pills have proved that Rheumatism is one of the results of diseased kidneys. Rheumatism is caused by Uric Acid in the blood. If the kidneys are right there can be no Uric Acid in the blood and consequently no Rheumatism. Dodd's Kidney Pills make the kidneys right.

How Tibetans Make Tea.

Tea forms one of the principal articles of commerce between Tibet and Mongolia. The native is miserable without it, and when it cannot be obtained is willing to cheat himself by various expedients, such as boiling dried onion heads, herbs or even an infusion of chips of wood. In winter, in order that he may not be without at least a suggestion of his favorite beverage, the tea imported from China is pressed into small oblong shaped bricks, and put into an earthen jar, usually sealed with wax and used as a beverage.

HAPPY WOMEN.

Besides a bad back, I had a great deal of trouble with the secretions, which were exceedingly variable, sometimes excessive and at other times scanty. The color was high, and passages were accompanied with a scalding sensation. Doan's Kidney Pills soon regulated the kidney secretions, making their color normal, and banished the inflammation which caused the scalding sensation. I can rest well, my back is strong and sound, and I feel much better in every way."

THOUGHT SHE WAS WARM.

Imagination as Good as Fire to Absent-Minded Lady.

It was a cold, drizzly afternoon, in spite of the calendar's assertion that the month was August. Mrs. Parker, who was much interested in one of the latest novels, decided that a grate fire would add materially to her enjoyment of the book.

It was the maid's day out, so the chilly woman, who was rather proud of her ability along practical lines, proceeded to build her fire. First she crumpled a newspaper and thrust it deep into the grate. Next, she carefully built an Indian tepee of slender sticks of kindling. To this, with a practiced hand, she added a selected piece of hardwood and two neat chunks of soft coal. Then, surveying the arrangement with pride, she drew her chair before the fireplace, placed her feet on the fender, and with a pleasurable sense of warmth and comfort stealing over her began to read.

Two hours later Mrs. Parker's sister bustled in.

"My!" she exclaimed. "Isn't it wretchedly cold? I'm just chilled through."

"Draw up a chair," urged Mrs. Parker, without taking her eyes from her fascinating book. "and do let me finish this page—it's the very last one. It's delightfully warm here by the fire."

"Fire?" exclaimed the visitor. "I don't see any fire."

"Why, bless my soul!" cried Mrs. Parker, suddenly coming to life. "Here's the match in my hand! I forgot to relight it!"—New York Tribune.

TIMES MUST HAVE BEEN HARD.

Limit of Financial Embarrassment Humously Described.

Two society women were talking together a few days ago, each having run up to town on some important business matter. They were sitting in the station waiting for the special 7:50 a.m. train on which each was to make her return home.

The first to speak was a large, florid, handsome blonde, who, hurrying into the waiting room, was accompanied by her maid laden up with the shies with bundles of every kind, sort and description. Noting her friend already seated and absolutely bundleless, she at once began her discourse, volubly extolling the charms and amazing cheapness of some of the midsummer bargains of which, as the maid bore ample evidence, she had so plentifully availed herself.

The bundleless one listened in rather pathetic silence until the first full period. Taking advantage of it with a deep, pathetic sigh, she turned and gazed coquishly at her friend's spoils of war.

"My dear," she said, "if macaroni was a cent a mile I couldn't afford to go this season to lace my shoes with it!"—New York Times.

STOMACH ON FIRE

ONLY A SKELETON CROUCHING BY A STOVE

Mrs. E. Deberry has an extraordinary experience and a remedy for indigestion.

Mrs. E. Deberry, of No. 115 Conover Street, Moberly, Mo., has a picture of robust health, and yet five years ago, she barely escaped death from protracted indigestion. Her experience she told the following story:

"In 1901 I began to have distressing attacks of indigestion that continued for two years. My stomach was constantly sore and burned as if it was on fire. It became finally so delicate that it would not retain even plain water. My inability to take food reduced my weight to under eight pounds, and faintness and dizzy spells in bed most of the time. I was really starving to death and besides I was extremely nervous. The doctor was perplexed. He gave me tonics which did me no good, and prescribed exercises which I was too weak to attempt.

"One day when I was so faint and chilled that I could do nothing but crawl down on the floor by the fire, my father brought me a box of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I found on trial that they would stay on my stomach like any other food. I really felt better after three doses and I kept on using them. Food began to taste well and to stay down. The pain and the burning in the pit of my stomach lessened and at last went away altogether. My weight began to increase until it reached 165 pounds and my neighbors, who were convinced that I was wasting to death before, were astonished at the change. I resumed my housework and have hardly had occasion to call a doctor since. I have recommended Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to several friends and I say to the pale, thin ones particularly, if you want to get strong and well, take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People."

These pills cure stomach troubles by their tonic action, building up the digestive organs and enabling them to do their work. Nature intended them to do. They are sold by all dealers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price. Fifty cents a box or six boxes for $3.00. Write to a druggist or to Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Secy, Lecty, N. Y. I was completely run down, unable to attend school, and did not care for any kind of society, but now I feel like a new person, and have gained seven pounds of flesh in three months.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO YOUNG GIRLS.

All young girls at this period of life are earnestly invited to write Mrs. Pinkham for advice; she has guided in a motherly way hundreds of young women; her advice is freely and cheerfully given, and her address is Lynn, Mass.

Judging from the letters she is receiving from so many young girls Mrs. Pinkham believes that our girls are often pushed altogether too near the limit of their endurance nowadays in our public schools and seminaries.

Nothing is allowed to interfere with studies, the girl must be pushed to the front and graduated with honor; often physical collapse follows, and it takes years to recover the lost vitality,—often it is never recovered.

A Young Chicago Girl Saved from Despair.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to thank you for the help and benefit I have received through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills. When I was about seventeen years old I suddenly seemed to lose my usual good health and vitality. Father said I studied too hard, but the doctor thought different and prescribed tonics, which I took by the quart without relief. Reading one day in the paper of Mrs. Paul's great cure, and finding the symptoms described answered mine, I decided I would give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. I did not say a word to the doctor; I bought it myself, and took it according to directions regularly for two months, and I found that I gradually improved, and that all pains left me, and I was my old self again."—LILLIE E. SINCLAIR, 17 E. 22d St., Chicago Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the one cure remedy to be relied upon at this important period in a young girl's life; with it she can go through with courage and safety the work she must accomplish, and fortify her physical well being so that her future life may be insured against sickness and suffering.

ARE NO WHITE ELEPHANTS.

Circus Man Explains How the Idea Was Originated.

"White elephant" is a term that oughtn't to exist," said a circus man. "White elephant" is an error—a mis-translation. "Sin pyu" is the Burmese phrase that has been translated white elephant, but "sin pyu" means light, a blonde elephant. "Sin" means elephant, pyu means paler, or lighter-hued, than the average.

"On account of this error everybody was disappointed when a sin pyu was brought to America by Barnum. The people expected to see a white instead of a blonde elephant. They looked for an animal with a skin like a white rose petal.

"A sin pyu is a light brownish red, with pink eyes, and with the nails and the interior of the ears and trunk white. It is thought to be sacred, and is worshiped like a god.

"When they catch a sin pyu they tie him with ropes of silk, and he is tamed by priests. After his taming they build a palace for him, and they put a gold crown on his forehead, and they make him a wardrobe of silk and velvet and gold embroidery, such as princes wear.

"The sin pyu's house is built of rare woods, and it abounds in gilding, in carvings, and in silken banniers. The sin pyu has a prime minister, a hundred slaves, nine priests and a corps de ballet. He never lives long. The luxuries heaped upon him soon crowd him into the grave.

PLAYED ALTOGETHER TOO WELL.

Reginald De Koven Not a Success at Dismissing Congregation.

"Reginald de Koven was touring the country with one of his operas," said a New York musician, "and a certain Sunday found him in the town of Dayton.

"They told Mr. de Koven that an Episcopal church in the neighborhood had a superb organ. Accordingly he went to that church, ascended to the organ loft, and sat beside the organist during the morning's service.

"You seem to know something about music," said the organist in a condescending way. "I'll let you dismiss the congregation if you'd like."

"Why, yes," said de Koven, "I would like that very much."

"Accordingly, at the end of the recessional, he exchanged places with the organist and began to play Mendelssohn's 'Spring Song.' He played beautifully. The Dayton people, so thrilled by the wonderful music, refused to depart. They sat in rapt enjoyment and after the 'Spring Song' was finished Mr. de Koven began Chopin's 'Lento di March.'

Suddenly a heavy hand was laid on his shoulder and he was pushed off the music stool.

"You can't dismiss a congregation," said the organist emphatically. "Watch and see how soon I'll get them out."

Capot Sauce

Capot sauce is one of the most delicious and beautiful of sauces. It is served with boiled mutton and boiled fish, such as halibut and fresh cod.

Never use a drop of water in it. Put two heaping tablespoons of butter in a pan over a very slow fire. In a other sauce pan over the fire put a pint of milk. When the butter begins to bubble in the sauce pan stir in briskly two heaping tablespoons of flour that has been sifted twice. Keep stirring the butter and flour until it is as smooth as cream, then pour it in little by little into the milk, stirring the same constantly to keep it from setting or lumping. When the milk is all in and the sauce has thickened it is very thick and very smooth, stir in another tablespoon of butter, and remove from the fire and stir in a small bottleful of capers, then salt and oil. Serve the sauce in a separate dish.

Admiral Schley Uses Pe-ru-na In His Home.

Battle of Santiago, Where Admiral Schley Made History.

ONE of the greatest naval battles in the world was the Spanish Fight Off Santiago. Never since the dispersion of the Spanish Armada has there been a more important naval victory in the onward march of civilization than in the notable event of July 23, 1898, in which the great hero, Admiral Schley, took a leading part.

It was a great naval battle. Without a moment's warning it began. Quick decision, undaunted courage, excellent discipline, resolute self-confidence—these combined in Admiral Schley to produce that dash and daring so characteristic of the American soldier.

A man must think quickly in these days. There is no time for slow action. New enterprises arise in an hour. Old ones pass away in a moment.

A multitude of great things clamor for notice. A man must take sides for or against by intuition rather than logical deduction.

One day this fighting admiral, Schley happened to be in company with others who were talking on various topics of popular interest. The subject of Peru-na was raised—its popularity as a cathartic remedy, its national importance, its extensive use.

One asked his opinion. Without a moment's hesitation, he said: "I can cheerfully state that Mrs. Schley has taken Peru-na and I believe with good effect."

Like the Battle of Santiago, the thought was sprung upon him without any warning, and he disposed of it with the same vim and decision as he did with the Spanish fleet led by the ill-fated Viscaya.

His words concerning Peru-na have gone out into the world to be repeated by a thousand tongues, because he has said them.

Like the news of his victory over Cervera, his words concerning Peru-na will be repeated by multitudes.

Except for an in-born manly independence, in a country of free speech these words never would have been uttered by an officer in such a notable position as that of Admiral Schley. Peru-na enjoys popularity because it has received such outspoken public endorsement by such a man.

One day this fighting admiral, Schley happened to be in company with others who were talking on various topics of popular interest. The subject of Peru-na was raised—its popularity as a cathartic remedy, its national importance, its extensive use.

One asked his opinion. Without a moment's hesitation, he said: "I can cheerfully state that Mrs. Schley has taken Peru-na and I believe with good effect."

Like the Battle of Santiago, the thought was sprung upon him without any warning, and he disposed of it with the same vim and decision as he did with the Spanish fleet led by the ill-fated Viscaya.

His words concerning Peru-na have gone out into the world to be repeated by a thousand tongues, because he has said them.

Like the news of his victory over Cervera, his words concerning Peru-na will be repeated by multitudes.

Except for an in-born manly independence, in a country of free speech these words never would have been uttered by an officer in such a notable position as that of Admiral Schley. Peru-na enjoys popularity because it has received such outspoken public endorsement by such a man.

HOMER ENDORSEMENT.

HUNDREDS OF NORTHVILLE CITIZENS CAN TELL YOU ALL ABOUT IT.

Home endorsement, the public expression of Northville people, should be evidence beyond dispute for every Northville reader. Surely the experience of friends and neighbors, cheerfully given by them, will carry more weight than the utterances of strangers reading in far-away places. Read the following:

Mrs. Henry Priest, husband a moulder, living at 24 Mills street, says: "I most certainly think well of Don's Kury Pills. I only permit myself to say so because I feel grateful to Don's Kidney Pills for the good they did me. Before going to the Mordok Bros' drug store and getting them, I had a dull aching pain in my back and I was also troubled with rheumatism which had annoyed me for quite a while. Before I had taken half of the box I found my condition greatly improved. Finally the pain in my back left and my rheumatism vanished."

For sale by all dealers; price 50 cents. Foster-McBarn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sole agents for the U. S. Remember the name Don's and take no substitute.
