

THE NORTHVILLE RECORD.

Vol. XXXVI. No. 14

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1904.

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

SOME OF THE WINNERS AT TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

GOV. FRED M. WARNER
Elected Governor of Michigan by about 60,000 majority.

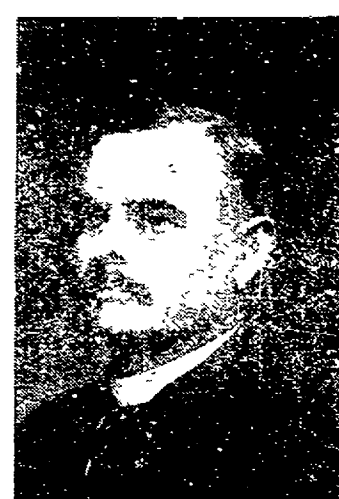

DR. J. B. BRADLEY
Auditor General-Elect of Michigan by a big majority.

CONG. CHAS. E. TOWNSEND
Re-elected Congressman from this District by 10,000 Majority.

T. HAWLEY CHRISTIAN
Elected County Auditor for the third time.

ORRIN P. GULLEY
Newly re-elected Register of Deeds by a Big Majority.

ORMOND F. HUNT
For the third time elected Prosecuting Attorney.

LARGE VOTE CAST IN NORTHVILLE

THE REPUBLICANS WERE MUCH IN EVIDENCE.

Were 579 Votes Cast--Lots of Cutting.

An exceptionally large vote was cast here at Tuesday's election. In all 579, although it did not come up to that of four years ago. Cass Benton received the highest vote on the ticket, his majority being 216. Louis Hines received 201 being the high man on the county ticket, with Judge Barlee and O. P. Gulley next with 151 each. Fred Martindale was 176 to the good.

Congressman Townsend was high man on the state ticket, though Mr. Kirk's friends were busy as bees in the interests of the candidate from Ypsilanti. Mr. Townsend pulled out of here with a majority of 267.

The democrats centered their work on Ferris and were aided by not a few republicans but their prophecy that Ferris would carry the town was not fulfilled and Warner took 115 majority out of Northville.

Nearly every man in the republic can ticket all over the state was elected by goodly state majorities--in fact it was a regular landslide. Benton represented was elected by a very large majority 151, as was Martindale for senator.

Townsend is re-elected by something like 9,000 majority, 2,275 of which was given by Wayne county. Warner carried nearly all the townships, but ran behind in the city of Detroit, though Mr. Ferris' majority was much less in this county than was Durand's two years ago.

The voting machine proved a great success and the exact vote was given out within five minutes after the closing of the polls. There was lots of cutting done, but on the outside the work done for the various candidates was of the quiet order.

Mrs. John Buchner Is Dead.

Just as we go to press this morning we learn that Mrs. John Buchner, who had been ill for some time, died last night. Further announcement next week.

Miss Annie Walters Died Saturday.

Miss Aggie Walters died at the home of her brother, Charles Walters, of this place, Saturday, November 5, of pulmonary thrombus. She came here from Detroit two months ago, her former home being in Essex, Canada. She was 26 years of age and leaves a father, mother and five brothers. The funeral was held from the Walters home Wednesday, Nov. 3, at 10 o'clock, officiating, Rev. W. S. Jerome officiating, and the body was taken to Elmwood cemetery, Detroit by the D. L. R. funeral car.

Death of Mrs. Mary Brown.

Mrs. Mary Brown died at her home on the base line, three miles west of Northville, last Friday morning, Nov. 4, after a three weeks' illness. She was born in Washenaw county, Michigan, Sept. 15, 1838, and was married to the late David K. Brown October 29, 1861. Four daughters and one son survive their parents. Mrs. Brown became a Christian in her early years and had long been a member of the Congregational church in Salem. Her beautiful and sincere Christian life has been an influence never to be forgotten by the loved ones she has left to mourn her death. The funeral was held at the late residence Sunday afternoon, Nov. 7, at 2 o'clock, officiating, Rev. Sidney F. Dimmock, officiating.

St. Mary's Society Banquet.

St. Mary's Catholic society of this place will hold their annual banquet and entertainment in the opera house building next Tuesday evening, Nov. 15, and if precedent goes for anything it will certainly be an extremely enjoyable affair. Among the special attractions promised are an address by Hon. John E. Kennedy of Detroit, who is one of those speakers who can mingle unpathos and instruction together in a most irresistible manner, and make an audience laugh or be serious according to his will. Assistant Corporation Council P. M. J. Hally of Detroit and others will also speak and a comical one act comedy and vocal and instrumental music by Detroit professionals are also on the program. The only and inimitable "Jimmie" Lynch of Pontiac will act as roaster at the banquet, which is to be served in the vacant store in the north part of the building, while the entertainment will take place in the opera house proper.

No Patent on Him.

A well known Northville Republican says to the Record "It is suggested that President Roosevelt carried the ticket through for the Republicans. Well, who is Roosevelt? Isn't he a Republican? The Republicans picked him out just the same as they picked out Lincoln, Grant, McKinley and others. There is no patent on that kind of men nor have the Republicans a trust on their species. Why don't the Democrats pick out a Roosevelt to carry their ticket through?"

Suburban News.

The fly has down—Oxford Leader. And the snake has sneaked.

Mr. Knaf is a Trenton baker. He makes knize knaf bread for anybody.

A correspondent of the Wyandotte Republican speaks of a lady who died after being dangerously ill for several weeks.

Holly at last has prospects of obtaining an additional water supply after months of effort and consequent heavy expense. This is well.

There is really some hope of reform for Carleton. One of the local meat dealers announced through the Times that his market will be closed Sundays until next spring.

In the school notes of one of the Record's exchange grammar is spelled with an e in the final syllable. Less "grammar" and more spelling seems to be needed in that school.

Thirteen deer killed in Lyon township's record for the season so far. The hunters are evidently not superstitious or they would have tried hard to make the number one more before the started. But then they can easily kill off one.

The Ladies' Aid society at Newburg is opulent enough to own silver spoons to use at its public functions, but two of them—the spoons, not the ladies—have already been stolen by ungrateful guests. Then as has must lost—'s the old lady said resignedly when her one solitary one died.

One of the shots who occasionally will get out with a gun in spite of all precautions killed a 750 horse-horn or a Genesee county farmer the other day. He may have thought it a deer, although there aren't any there, and it is likely to be—with an a—if the officers who are at work on the case find out who was the shooter.

The "deadly cabbage snake" story, which has been so widely circulated as happening at Milan, turns out to have been the result of a scheme from the fertile brain of a local joker, who manufactured the "serpent" from a horsehair "preserved" in a bottle of alcohol. Thus the tale proves to be but the sequel of another tall, a switch-off, as it were.

The Companion Informs and Entertains.

The Youth's Companion uses entertainment as a means rather than an end, conveying always in its fiction and its articles some convincing truth or some contribution to the useful knowledge of its readers.

The 225 men and women enlisted to write for the Companion represent an infinite variety of talents and callings. Through the Companion they address not only the young and impressionable, but the fathers and mothers of the nation. The entire family claim a share in the good things which fill the Companion's pages.

Full Illustrated Announcement, describing the principal features of the Companion's new volume for 1905 will be sent to any address free.

The new subscribers for 1905 will receive all the issues of the Companion for the remaining weeks of 1904 free from the time of subscription, also the Companion "Carnations" calendar for 1905, lithographed in twelve colors and gold.

While Wm. Thoroator's rig was out standing in front of one of the stores on Center street Monday evening, two packages containing pounds of meat were stolen from the buggy. A larger package with ten pounds in it was left unmolested, probably being too large for the thief to get away with unnoticed.

The second entertainment of the Star Lyceum Lecture course under the management of the Ladies Library association will take place next Thursday evening November 17. The attraction this time is the Lyceum Ladies' Concert Co. of Chicago, and it is expected that an unusual treat is in store for the patrons of the course and for all others who wish to attend. The concert is to be given in the Presbyterian church, and everybody is invited to come and enjoy it at the prices stated on the bills.

Northville was visited by burglars last Friday night, with Hueston's drug store, Hetley & Balden's meat market and Stark Bros.' store as the objective points. The buildings were entered by means of a skeleton key, the three locks being of the same style, although the legitimate keys were not interchangeable. Cash was evidently what was wanted as the money drawers only were disturbed with the exception that at Hueston's the visitors treated themselves to some prime whiskey. The "haul" amounted to only a few dollars in money.

A Revery

Here at mine ease long years ago. Ere yet my heart had grown to know...

"And so you positively refuse to give up this intimacy?" "Really you ask too much, aunty. What else can I do in this stupid place?"

"Never mention that man to me again"

"I have said that man to me again," I thought you ought to consider Mr. Trevor's feelings. It is not fair to him; he does not know about Tom. I hope you had better tell him."

turned and she re-entered the carriage and was rapidly driven away, not forgetting to throw me a kiss as she was about to go.

"Lose Tom," she repeated. "No danger of that—couldn't get rid of him even if I wanted to." Then she fell to musing, and a tender look came into her deep blue eyes.

"Thinking it was the waiter, I shouted 'Come in!' The door opened, and, to my utter amazement, there stood the beautiful blonde, all smiles and blushes.

Fine sense of personal comfort. threw the sweets and the letter on the floor, flung herself face down on a couch and commenced weeping.

"Why, what is this?" exclaimed her aunt. She bent over the prostrate form and said, "Flossie, dear, tell me."

"There, there," I said, and listen to poor old aunty. Nay, I insist. If I am not mistaken, you left off just when she sat on his lap."

way. Flossie, awed by the unaccustomed severity of tone, obeyed. "She came down on her own accord and sat on my lap. Fortunately, I had a box of sweets, and I was offering her some when there came another tap at the door."

"The very thing!" cried Flossie, all smiles. And the next week found them bound for the fatherland.—Louis K. Fulton in Chicago American.

CAUGHT IN WRONG BLUFF.

Good idea, but unfortunately the Credits were Empty. A clock in a nearby tower had just tolled on the hour of 3 as he rose unsteadily from the card table.

After a half hour's work in which all the lamp-post and telegraph poles insisted on getting in his way, he arrived at his home, took out his bunch of keys, at last found the elusive key-hole and softly opening the door.

"Is that you, Jean?" came his wife's voice from the bed. "Yes, dear," he replied. "Well, what in the world are you doing?" she asked.

Best in the World. Cream, Ark., Nov. 7.—(Special)—After eighteen months' suffering from Epilepsy, Backache and Kidney Complaint, Mr. W. H. Smith of this place is a well man again.

Tennyson in Bitter Mood. Arthur W. Allen, the veteran composer, says that during a period in Tennyson's life when the poet knew but little of his own mind.

What One Kicker Can Do. One cowboy who had been around a camp in Utah and made the impression that a pack of at least twenty big wolves are looking for a place to eat the campers.
