TWO RESIDENTS OF NORTHLILLE

ANSWERED SUMMONS OF REAPER DEATH THIS WEEK

Stephen Vradenburg and George Barnhart Passed Away

STEPHEN VRADENBURG.
Stephen Vradenburg, aged 74 years, died Tuesday at his home on Randolph street. He was an old resident of this part of the country, having lived for many years a few miles north and west of town, the family coming to this place a year or two ago to care for Wm Knap. He leaves a widow and two children. The funeral was held yesterday from the late home and the interment was in the Dolph cemetery.

GEORGE BARNHART.
George Barnhart, who died Thursday, March 23, after a few days illness, was born in this township April 27, 1844, on the Dekay farm west of town, the family homestead of his parents, Jacob and Lydia Barnhart, who were respected pioneers of this section. He was married January 27, 1867, to Matilda Marshall of Canton township, who died December 28, 1902, leaving no children. The deceased is survived by three brothers, Jerome and O. N. of Northville, Chas of Maple Rapids, and a sister, Mrs. J. N. Starkweather of this place. The funeral will be held Saturday at the home of O. N. Barnhart, Rev Wm S Jerome officiating.

Lecture Course Finished.

That Rev. John Jay Lewis, the Universalist clergymen from Boston who gave the final number in the lecture course in "That Reminds Me" in the library Monday evening, thoroughly pleased his audience may be inferred from his remarks after the lecture. "I have never faced a more intelligent and sympathetic audience." Mr. Lewis is a splendid specimen of the stately New England stock, physically and mentally, and a speaker of wide versatility as well as of trained power and culture.

Entertainment at Salem.

Tuesday evening, March 28, is the date of the Detroit Grand Brass Orchestra in the Salem Baptist church. Miss Bayard, soloist, and a noted elocutionist are also on the program. It will be fine.

Board Should Be Non-Partisan.

The board of auditors as now constituted is composed of two republicans and one democrat. While the party divisions are in their present proportions that is an ideal way of protecting the interests of all the taxpayers. Should the democrats secure a controlling majority in the county there should be one republican on the board of auditors. It is to the general interest that the board should never be strictly partisan. Auditor Scullen has proved a fair and a useful man in his present capacity.—Detroit Evening News March 14, 1905.

Baptist Church Notes.

[By a Member]

Services Sunday as usual morning and evening.

There are only four more weeks in this pastoral year and would it not be well if all who are back on their subscriptions would make an effort to pay before the close of the year that we may stand even with our pastor?

The ladies of the church will hold their regular business meeting at the parsonage next Wednesday afternoon. After the business meeting the ladies, assisted by the gentlemen, will hold a social hour. Refreshments will be served from 5 to 7 p.m.

The approaching departure of Mrs. James Dunham, who has so faithfully and efficiently filled the office of organist for some time past, is much regretted by all. Mrs. Dunham has consented to take the position left vacant by Mrs. Dunham's resignation.

Methodist Church Notes.

[By the Pastor]

The social given last week by the young men of Mrs. Cobb's class was much enjoyed and netted $9.

Subject for Sunday morning service will be "Divine Guidance," evening, "Find Out Last." Don't fail to hear the evening address.

It was gratifying to see the large attendance at our prayer and prayer service last week Thursday evening, yet there were vacant places that ought to have been filled.

Next Sunday a music meeting will be held in the church at 7:00 p.m. Messrs. McPoughill, Flint and Stinson, our evangelists, will conduct the meeting. Don't fail to hear these men.

The Ladies Aid society at Mrs. McRobert's Tuesday afternoon and evening was a very pleasant occasion. The charming hospitality extended made all feel at home.

Special services will be held at evenings of next week at 7 o'clock. The following will preach: Tuesday Rev. C. L. Blanchard of Pontiac; Wednesday Rev. A. C. Wilson of Milford; Thursday Rev. F. D. Jacobs of Detroit; Friday Rev. L. C. Thilander of Livonia; Saturday Rev. L. C. Thilander of Detroit. This list will be a service especially for young people. Our people and the public generally are cordially invited to attend these services.

The Woman's Home Missionary society met in the church Tuesday afternoon. The president read a short article on "Looking on the Bright Side" which was much enjoyed. The contents of the Mite boxes showed that the missionaries along our frontiers are not forgotten.

Former Northville-Lady Dead.
Mrs. Martha E. Cram Bates, the brilliant newspaper woman who died at Traverse City last Friday, was a former Northville girl, having been born in this vicinity. She was one of the organizers and an honorary president of the Woman's Press association, was a well known newspaper writer for forty years, and had completed a very popular young people's history of Michigan a short time before her death.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank all those who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our loved one.

MILTON BLINN,
MRS. FRANCIS AND DAUGHTER.

Startling Mortality.
Statistics show startling mortality from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, the best and most effective remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pill, M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for Constipation and Biliousness." 25 cents at Houston Phar. Co. and Murdock Bros., druggists.

Suburban News.

As the result of a recent series of meetings forty probationers were received into the Ann Arbor Methodist church last Sunday.

The Pontiac Gazette told last week of a young man who "had his heart cut off." It is to be hoped that the injury will be healed without trouble.

Ann Arbor asks the state legislature to permit the bonding of that city in the sum of $10,000 for the establishment of a municipal garbage crematory.

Ypsilanti's and Ann Arbor's Civic Improvement societies are agitating the project of constructing a public boulevard along the pretty Huron valley between the two cities.

The Duboisville and Bell Branch Methodist societies have united their forces into one organization and will soon begin the construction of a new $4,000 church building at Sang Hill.

Inch & Co., a Holly firm, gave five percent of the amount of Monday's sales to one of the local churches. It is hoped the total will foot up a large enough sum to give satisfaction without measure.

Wayne's village election campaign resolved itself into a contest between acetylene vs electric lighting, and the election of the "Citizens" ticket was a victory for the present system of illumination, the first named. Feeling between the factions ran high, and the vote was the largest ever polled in Wayne.

The two sons of Alex Fritch have as playmates a very knowing dog. When the boys were coasting this winter, the dog draws the sled up the hill, switches it around for another descent, hops on himself and contentedly waits until the boys sled up the hill, when the jolly three go down together with barks, shouts and laughter.—Oxford Leader.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

[By the Pastor]

The sermon Sunday evening will be on "A Brave Soldier."

The topic of the sermon Sunday morning will be "A Loving Invitation." It will have special reference to the communion on April 2.

The Ladies Misionary society has elected Mrs. A. S. Parsons and Mrs. Frances Norton delegates to the Presbyterian meeting at Holly April 11.

The meeting of the Ladies Aid society at Mrs. McRobert's Tuesday afternoon and evening was a very pleasant occasion. The charming hospitality extended made all feel at home.

Special services will be held at evenings of next week at 7 o'clock. The following will preach: Tuesday Rev. C. L. Blanchard of Pontiac; Wednesday Rev. A. C. Wilson of Milford; Thursday Rev. F. D. Jacobs of Detroit; Friday Rev. L. C. Thilander of Detroit. This list will be a service especially for young people. Our people and the public generally are cordially invited to attend these services.

Last year the Ladies Missionary society raised a larger amount than in any previous year, but the books for the fiscal year just closed show that this year's work has been even better, resulting in the excellent showing of $250. An effort will be made to supply every lady in the congregation with the envelopes in which any sum from five cents per month may be contributed. There were 75 contributing members this year. The society is to be congratulated on the success of its work.

A FINE RECORD

JUDGE ALFRED J. MURPHY HAS TRIED THOUSANDS OF RECORDER'S COURT CASES

In Five Years the Supreme Bench Has Not Reversed One of His Decisions.

Judge Murphy leaves the recorder's bench after six years of conscientious work, in which he has scrupulously guarded the interests of the community and made for himself a reputation that is admired by both Democrats and Republicans. He looks upon the circuit bench as a promotion and he desires the office not only for that, but for the wider legal experience that can be gained there. Criminal law has become in a manner distasteful to him and he prefers the broader practice of common law.

Judge Murphy, as judge of the recorder's court, has in the language of legal

A Personal Letter from Mr. Shaw

When looking for a new factory-superintendent two years ago, I visited the three great vehicle centers of the Central West; talked to and investigated the records of thirty men, many of them having charge of some of the largest factories in the country. I found my man. I know that we have one of the very best vehicle factory superintendents in America. He has had twenty years' experience in buggy building. At that time he has been accustomed to ing more in wages. This means we have a higher class of mechanics. The result is better quality of work.

We had over 60,000 orders in this department last year. Very busy now. Let us have a lot of good, experienced men to help. People are realizing that this is the place to buy vehicles.

MONTGOMERY WARD & CO. VEHICLE FACTORY AT CHICAGO HEIGHTS, ILL. (25 miles south of Chicago)

making high grade work. That is our class. I attended personally to the buying of materials; am thoroughly conversant with every kind, size, the weight, grade, strength, finish, price and general construction of every piece of woodwork, hardware, steel, leather, cloth, paint and varnish that goes into our work; have visited and examined the material, and have torn apart the finished work of six or eight of the largest factories; want to say that I am confident we are building a better buggy than these factories ship to the dealer at one-third more than the price we ask you. A fact. Think it over.

Our pay roll, when compared with that of other factories shows that we are paying

I know of factories who build practically but one buggy, but have possibly twenty different prices. To explain: Here is their $35.00 buggy: their $40.00 buggy has the same wheels, body, axles, gear, shafts, top, etc. as their $35.00 job, with possibly 50 cents more in little immaterial things; and so forth all the way along the line. We grade our work. We make the same small percentage of profit on a $50.00 job that we do on a $35.00. On high-priced work we are not only giving better quality of material and better finish, but more improvements and little equipments which you do not find on the cheaper rigs.

Recently a certain manufacturing concern which builds work for a catalogue house, ordered, through another party, one of our low priced buggies and had it shipped to their factory for examination. They wanted to know why people were buying Ward's vehicles. Upon receipt of the job it had so many features of the higher priced buggies, such as fine finish and was so stylish and well proportioned in every way that they concluded we had made a mistake and sent them our highest priced buggy. Imagine what they said! There was no mistake at all. The facts are (and I will stake my reputation upon it) that we are giving our customers stronger and more durable vehicles, better made in every way; easier riding, more stylishly trimmed, better finished and altogether with more lasting qualities for the money than any other buggy concern in the world.

Our vehicle business in 1904 increased 20 per cent; other houses fell behind 30 per cent. We never put a $50.00 description on a $40 job.

We have purchased material for manufacturing twice as many vehicles in 1905 as in 1904. We paid spot cash for it. We expect great things. Have really put prices upon the finished work that are extraordinarily low when considering the quality. Send us your order and we guarantee to return you good material and good labor in the shape of a good rig.

Send for Our Vehicle Catalogue

The descriptions in our vehicle catalogue are correct. We have the goods to back them up. We know what's under the paint. If you have not received a copy ask for it. Order with this understanding: That if upon receipt you are not satisfied write us and we will have the job returned, promptly refund your money and pay the expense both ways.

We shall be pleased at any time to have our customers visit our plant, and I, personally, will be glad to answer any questions regarding our work, or to assist you in any way possible in the selection of a job or to quote and purchase for you any special vehicles that we may not catalogue.

BILIUSNESS AND CONSTIPATION CURED BY THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

Because the liver is neglected people suffer with constipation, biliousness, headaches and fevers. Colds attack the lungs and contagious diseases take hold of the system. It is safe to say that if the liver were always kept in proper working order, illness would be almost unknown. Thedford's Black-Draught is so successful in curing such sickness because it is without a rival as a liver regulator. This great family medicine is not a strong and drastic drug, but a mild and healthful laxative that cures constipation and may be taken by a mere child without possible harm.

The healthful action on the liver cures biliousness. It has an invigorating effect on the kidneys. Because the liver and kidneys do not work regularly, the poisonous acids along with the waste from the bowels get back into the blood and produce contagion results.

Treatment with Thedford's Black-Draught removes the dangers which lurk in constipation, liver and kidney troubles, and will positively forestall the inroads of Bright's disease, for which disease in advanced stages there is no cure. Ask your dealer for a 25c. package of Thedford's Black-Draught.

Have it on Hand for use when your cough commences and you will prevent many a cold and perhaps worse. This Cough Medicine is carefully made from the prescription of a famous physician and we have yet to learn of a case where it did not greatly benefit the user.

Mrs. Pinkerton, who has been very ill with grip and acute bronchitis, is now convalescent, as her many friends will be glad to know.

Among the various societies spoken of last week as having remembered Mr. Neal's bereaved home with gifts of flowers, mention was accidentally omitted, by the writer of the article, of a beautiful design sent by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church.

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.

It is a wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on.

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients through her correspondence with them than the physician who personally questions them.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters, as the following are constantly pouring in.

CARPENTER BOSSED THE SHOW.

One Case Where Richard Mansfield Yielded His Authority.

Another tale of the urbanity of Mr. Mansfield, the actor, is going around the theaters.

With his company is a stage carpenter whom Mr. Mansfield considers the acme of perfection in his line, just as Richard himself is in his. Now, this carpenter, whom Mr. Mansfield would not lose for the best leading lady in the land, has his own eccentricities, even as Mr. Mansfield has his.

One afternoon during the time of rehearsal the carpenter was heard pounding with his hammer in the wings. Mr. Mansfield sent a messenger to tell the carpenter to desist, but the pounding went right on vigorously.

Finally Richard in high dudgeon strode into the wings himself, and above the noise of the poundings Mr. Mansfield's objections could be heard.

One actress, bolder than the rest, crept near the scene in the wings. She spied Richard bending over the carpenter who was on his knees pounding away.

"What do you mean?" cried Mr. Mansfield. "Why don't you stop when I tell you to?"

"Sh-sh—" said the carpenter, not ceasing to let his hammer fall.

"You—you—" cried the enraged master. "Don't you know who's talking to you, you blockhead of an old fool?"

The carpenter looked up a minute, "Speak piano, Richard," he said, "you will disgrace yourself with the people on the s'age." And he resumed his good hearty strokes.

Mr. Mansfield walked off. "The carpenter runs this show," he commented.

Some of the company think Richard's right.

JUDGE HAD TO FOLLOW.

Listened to Chauncey, But Would Willingly Have Quit.

One of the first cases which Channing Depp had after being admitted to the bar was a civil suit involving a somewhat complicated question of inheritance.

In no way daunted young Channing took it, looked up authorities all the way back to Julius Caesar and prepared an argument of a few hundred pages which seemed to him more than unanswerable. His only fear was that it might be beyond the comprehension of the court.

When the time came the young man rose and plunged in boldly. The judge seemed interested, and Channing took further courage. But at the end of an hour and a half in the middle of the most intricate part of his brief he was pointed to it, what he thought was a lack of attention on the part of the court. If we just, he had expected, the judge would be unable to appreciate the nice points of his argument.

He pointed to it, and then did "Your honor, the parson but do not follow me."

"I have no time," answered the judge, "but in this case—but I am trying to see if I can't get my way how I can't fit it here."

Why He Sprayed the Pickerel

Game warden found a man spear fishing pickerel through the ice. At the edge of the little shrub in which the fisherman was done lay a large pickerel.

The game warden stole to the man and threw open the door.

"Did you spear this pickerel?" he asked.

"I did that."

"Did you know it is against the law?"

"Well, you see that the fish isn't dead," was the assured response. "I have been spearing catfish, and that pickerel keeps getting in the way. I had to jab it lightly and lay it on the ice until I finish fishing. Then I'll put it back."

The game warden walked off—Milwaukee Sentinel

Alfred J. Murphy for Circuit Judge

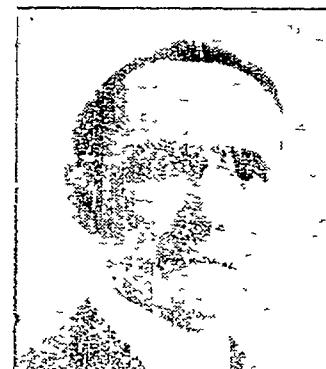

Unanimously Endorsed by the Public Press.

EDITORIAL FROM THE DETROIT FREE PRESS
FEB. 11, 1905.

JUDGE MURPHY'S LAUDABLE AMBITION

In the aspirations of Alfred J. Murphy for a position on the circuit bench the Free Press takes a particular interest because he is a graduate of its staff and under the impulse of a personal relationship it has followed his later career at the bar, and on the bench at first with interest and curiosity, and later with pride and satisfaction. It would therefore be a peculiar pleasure to convince him to the people as a man of excellent qualifications good sense and natural as well as acquired virtues, even if he had not had the singularly commanding and commanding manner among the essential requirements of a judicial officer. In his six years service in the Recorder's Court Judge Murphy has not only fulfilled the promises of his friends, as he has developed a high relish and a breadth of grasp which have been more than satisfactory. The numerous cases he has tried in the best interests of his lawfulness while the important questions that have arisen and the unanimous verdicts of his decisions, no less than his manner of carrying them over, have won for him the estimations which it best exalts his record.

In yielding to his ambition for advancement Judge Murphy has doubtless been influenced by the knowledge that continuance in office in the Circuit Court would necessarily result in narrowing rather than broadening him. There are limitations to the opportunities for legal development in that field. It is only in the possibilities of civil practice that the ambitious lawyer sees chance for the exercise of unlimited professional knowledge and skill, and it is only in the trial of criminal cases that an opportunity to develop his legal abilities is available. The only difference is in the character of their application. In selecting a political base should be determined if it is and attention is given to the people to manifest that we have no doubt that Judge Murphy will be a member of the next century of circuit judges.

MICHIGAN VOLKSBLATT,

FEB. 9, 1905.

JUDGE ALFRED J. MURPHY.

After mature deliberation and after Republians as well as Democratic friends had heartily encouraged him to step Recorder Alfred J. Murphy today decided to seek one nomination for the office of circuit judge. That he will receive it is beyond question. And there should be just as little doubt of his election for during his six years in the Recorder's Court he has given brilliant evidences of his eminent ability, devotion to duty, impartiality and fearlessness. He has known how to preserve the dignity of the court frequently under the most trying conditions, and the number of his friends and admirers has grown from day to day.

He has always known how to temper justice with mercy. Professional criminals have been made to feel the severity of the law, while the novice in a criminal career has not only been offered the opportunity for reformation, but could always be sure also of the personal support and encouragement of Judge Murphy. The charges which he has given to juries have always been praised as most able and correct expositions of the law. His eminent fitness for the responsible duties of his office are evidenced in many ways.

We congratulate him on his appointment and heartily wish him success.
