FISH CULTURISTS DOING BUSINESS

NORTHLVILLE STATION HANDLES
40,000,000 EMBRYO FISHES

Close of Fiscal Year in July Will Show Large Results.

The fiscal year of the Bureau of Fisheries comes to a close in July, and the records at the Northville station will show how important a place that institution holds in this necessary and ever-growing government industry for the benefit of the future food supply of the United States. The fact that the plant here is among the finest in the United States in location, arrangement, equipment and efficiency has long been undisputed, and that it is well worth visiting is attested to by a large number of people every season.

During the year now drawing to a close, the Northville station has handled 40,000,000 lake trout eggs and 800,000 brook trout fry. Ten million of the eggs went to various government and state stations, 6,000,000 to the Charlevoix substation, 6,000,000 to Alpena, and 7,000,000 to Sault Ste Marie for hatching and placing later in the great lakes. The brook trout fry were distributed to parties in this state, Ohio and Indiana.

From the Detroit sub-station, where W.H. Thayer is foreman, 1,000,000 whitefish eggs came to Northville to be shipped to New Zealand, an undertaking which was successfully carried out in spite of the 10,000 miles of intervening land and water travel and varieties of temperature, showing plainly the intelligent skill with which they were handled and packed.

The work of getting the sprawn of the wall eyed pike is now in progress. The new cement ponds that have been built here for bass culture will be utilized in June for that purpose. A. T. Stewart is now acting foreman at the Northville station. B. O. Webster is in charge at Charlevoix and H. G. Elkinton at Alpena.

Baptist Church Notes.

(By a Member.)

The pastor will preach a sermon Sunday morning appropriate to Easter and special music will be given.

The ladies of the church will meet at Mrs. A. P. Scott's Wednesday, April 26. Dinner will be served at noon. A large attendance is desired.

Extend Thanks.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church sincerely thank every one who assisted in any way to make the Easter fair a success.

Minnie Gardner, President.
Emma Stark, Chairman Com.

Auction Sale.

An executor's sale of household goods is to be held tomorrow—Saturday afternoon at the late home of Mrs. Maria Gardner on Dunlap street, commencing at one o'clock. L. L. Brooks, auctioneer.

The little folks love Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Pleasant to take; perfectly harmless; positive cure for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma.

Evans-Crocker.

Miss Violet Crocker and Mr. Fred Evans, former well-known young people of this place, were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's mother in Detroit. Both have many friends here who wish them a long and happy life. The Record joins in the congratulations.

Standard Time for Northville.

The standard time question is now up to Northville for discussion and many people have already made up their minds that it is time for us to get in line with the procession and be at least as progressive as our over-conservative old state metropolises. Of course the sun—or the son—will not rise or set any earlier if we turn our clocks back 28 minutes when Detroit does on May 1, but there is something in being up to date even if we become a little slower—apparently, not practically—to get there. President Harmon is decidedly in favor of the change, which he thinks should have been made long ago, and the Rogers shoe factory adopted it some time since.

Serious Accident Monday.

The latest addition to the large number of men in Northville with hands maimed for life by shop machinery is John Palmer, who lost a part of his right hand at the shoe factory Monday afternoon by a machine which he was operating. The first finger was taken entirely off and the second badly mangled, although it is now considered safe from amputation. Mr. Palmer was only to work this week at the factory, having less than half an hour before the accident occurred accepted a much more lucrative position with a painter and decorator in Detroit, where he was to begin work next Monday.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

(By the Pastor.)

The fair was a great success financially and otherwise. $132 was made clear of expenses.

Mr. Jerome was called to Pontiac Monday to officiate at the funeral of Miss Eliza A. Matthews.

F. M. Leech of the Detroit Y.M.C.A. gave a very earnest and interesting address last Sunday evening.

The pastor and Elder C. E. Rydell represented the church at the meeting of the Presbytery in Detroit on Tuesday.

Those who did not contribute to the Presbyterian assessment Sunday will have another opportunity to do so next Sunday.

There are still a few bottles of liquid vinegar left from the fair. All who have tried it are loud in its praise. Inquire of Mrs. Jerome. There was also left from the sale one dozen of the beautiful hand-painted place cards contributed by Mrs. C. B. Burr of Flint.

The sermon and services next Sunday morning will be appropriate to Easter. The music by the chorus choir under direction of Mrs. J. B. Tinham will include "The Resurrection" by Shelley, arranged for boys and ladies' voices by Mrs. Tinham; "Lift Your Voices" by Schnecker and "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth" (Handel) violin solo, Forrest Ball.

An Orion man sold 80 turkeys for $30, and he is now justified in being prone to "talk turkey" to his neighbors.

A man named Whittle got his finger too close to a machine in a Fenton factory and the digit was whittled off with neatness and dispatch. Mr. Whittle will not whittle for some time again.

The Independent closes its thirty-seventh year this week and its founder has been at the helm for the whole time without a skip. The Fenton business man who can beat this record is entitled to an easy chair in our show window.—Fenton Independent.

A man with a record like that can afford to be independent.

A Pontiac girl lost her pocketbook containing, among other things, $5, a theater ticket and a library check. A day or two later she found the two latter articles while going over the same route. The finder evidently had conscientious scruples against going to the theater or reading novels.

Miss Bessie Stone, the Holly music teacher who gained such notoriety a few weeks ago by her picture happening to resemble a girl with whom Carl Christensen, a recently imported Dane, had fallen in love, has insured herself protection by marrying a boy of 18, five years her junior. He will no longer allow her picture to be exhibited any longer.

Regarding an item to the effect that an 80 year old Oxford lady has her washing done and out on the line by 5 a.m. Monday, the Northville Record rises to remark that washing on Sunday is not considered good form down that way. Northville is so generally slow that they are unable to appreciate the fact that our 80 year old girls can do two or three washings on a Monday morning without turning a hair.

"Sloxy" instrumentation, but we let it pass.

A young ball player, who has lately come into prominence at Ann Arbor in Mr. Schlappmann of Birmingham. When he gets mad at any decisions of the umpire all he will have to do is to go to Ben Franklin's infirmary several better and instead of counting foul spell his own name.

It would answer the double purpose, if he spelled it out loud, of giving his own anger time to cool and of effectually quieting the offender.

Lyceum Theater—Detroit.

The offering at the Lyceum for one week beginning next Sunday evening will be the popular comedian and golden-voiced singer, Al. H. Wilson in a magnificent revival of that beautiful dramatic play by Sidney E. Pitts, entitled "The Witch on the Rhine." Mr. Wilson sings six new songs during the evening, the success of each song being so strongly marked that the question as to which one is the best is purely a matter of personal opinion.

Whitney's Opera House—Detroit.

The sermon and services next Sunday morning will be appropriate to Easter. The music by the chorus choir under direction of Mrs. J. B. Tinham will include "The Resurrection" by Shelley, arranged for boys and ladies' voices by Mrs. Tinham; "Lift Your Voices" by Schnecker and "I Know that My Redeemer Liveth" (Handel) violin solo, Forrest Ball.

Methodist Church Notes.

(By the Pastor.)
Epworth League service will begin at 6:30 to be followed by preaching service at 7:30. Subject for the evening, "The Wrong Road."

The Woman's Home Missionary society held its usual monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon in the parsonage. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant and profitable time was enjoyed by all.

Easter will be observed next Sunday morning by a special sermon on "The Resurrection of Christ." The choir will sing "Christ Is Risen" by L. O. Emerson and "The Lord Is Risen" by Mrs. Carrie B. Adams.

The pastor attended the preachers' meeting in the Central Methodist church last Monday morning. The paper read by Dr. Hickey was thoughtful and scholarly and called forth words of commendation mingled with some criticism.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., APR. 21, 1906.

The Primary Bill.

Present indications are that a primary election bill will be agreed to by both branches of our state legislature providing not only that local and district domination shall be made by direct vote in cities and counties and districts where the people so desire but that the nomination of governor and lieutenant governor by direct vote will be included in the option to be submitted to the people of the entire state through their respective political parties, at an election for that purpose alone to be held on the second Tuesday in June, 1906. Some further changes may be made in the details of the bill which passed the lower house last week, but that it will retain the option of nominating some state officers is altogether probable. The final submission of the entire matter to a vote of the people will give interest and purpose to the full discussion of the details of the proposition which the intervening time will permit after its adoption.

Governor Warner is advocating the passage of the bill and it is quite certain to become a law.

A Quiet Time.

In the opinion of some newspaper the first three months of Governor Warner's administration has been tame and colorless. From the stand-point of a newspaper that regards something in state affairs as desirable the statement may be true, Gov. Warner has not sought to attract public attention to himself, but quietly and in his own business-like way he has given careful and thoughtful attention to every detail requiring his official attention since the first day of the present year. It is not at all probable that the people of Michigan would regard with any sort of favor an administration that would meet the views of a dime novel writer. Of course the governor might liven things up by knocking the dome from off the capitol or throwing some one out of a second story window, but in all probability he won't.

Did somebody say something about winter lingering in the lap of spring?

Z.C. Blackburn has commenced his work as nightwatchman for the village.

Catholic services will be held in Chadwick's hall Sunday morning at 8:00 o'clock.

George Rattenbury is to reopen the Exchange hotel for public patronage on May 1.

Mrs. Gilbert Kimball, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is somewhat better.

The senior class of the high school are wearing class rings instead of class pins this year.

Judge Gurr has established a neat little office in the west room of the Star laundry building.

A car will leave Clarencenville for Northville at 3 a.m. after the dance Monday evening, April 24.

The Clover Leaf club is to give another party Thursday evening April 27, in Princess Room.

Hinkley & Henry have sold their bowling alley outfit to parties from Hillsdale, who shipped it to that place Wednesday.

The township of Northville has guarded against possible burglarizing of its funds by installing a safe in the clerk's office.

K. O. P. ATTENTION! Regular convention of Mystic Lodge No. 100 Tuesday evening, April 25. A full attendance is requested.

Mrs. Woolley is still ill and will not resume her school work until fall. Miss Margaret Thompson is at present taking her place.

Wm. Phillips sustained a severe injury to his shoulder and was otherwise badly bruised by a fall on a loose board in a sidewalk on Church street Monday evening.

George S. Larkins has accepted the position of assistant cashier with the National Biscuit Company, Detroit, where he has been a bookkeeper for nearly two years.

Even the popcorn wagon and the croquet irrevocables could not stave off the real winter weather we have had this week. It's certainly not been a very good "growing time"—except for the ash piles—so far this April.

J. A. Dabur's men go back next Monday to the lumber camp between Wixom and Milford to finish the job of sawing which they commenced last fall and worked at part of the winter. Mrs. Frank Reynolds is to do the cooking for the men.

Mrs. I. N. Starkweather, who has been one of the substitutes in the Jolly Encré club during the winter, entertained the members very delightfully at her pleasant home Tuesday evening. The club holds its final meeting for the season at Mrs. A. W. Old's next Tuesday night.

The recent unexpected and disastrous failure of the Owosso bank emphasizes anew the necessity for a state law such as Governor Warner has been advocating so long, as a safeguard against the all too frequent collapses of this kind.

The school board has tendered all the teachers their present positions for another year and all have accepted except two, Misses Young and Hale, who have resigned and will go elsewhere to teach, much to the regret of Northville people. No teachers have as yet been secured to fill the vacancies.

The Easter fair given by the Presbyterian ladies was a great success from start to finish and reflects much credit on all participating in any of its features. The society realized a profit of over $130. The president of the Aid Society, Mrs. C. A. Gardner, and the chairman of the fair committee, Mrs. Will Stark, are receiving many congratulations on their executive ability and untiring and efficient work.

The managers of the library are already being urged by the Northville people to put on another lecture course next season and may perhaps do so if sufficient support be promised in advance to insure reasonable success. The ladies have worked very hard for the comparatively small sum they netted on the course last winter, but feel that this first experience would be a great help in any subsequent venture of the kind. They have had several promising propositions already made them by different bureaus.

Miss Bovee's is the place to get fitted with corsets:

Mrs. James Dunham is very ill.

Mrs. George Angell who has been very sick is better.

Mrs. Babbitt, Sr., is recovering from her recent illness.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hinman Thursday, April 20, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean have a new daughter, born last week.

The Old Club held the last of its social parties on Monday evening.

Regular meeting of Orient chapter No. 77 O. E. S. this Friday evening.

Special communication of Northville Lodge F. & A. M. next Monday evening, April 24, to work 1st degree.

Christian Science service Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock in Library Hall. Subject, "Everlasting Punishment."

A ball game is on for this afternoon between the town team and the high school boys, the second this season.

Mr. and Mrs. John Franklin have moved into a part of Julius Northrop's house.

Mike Robbins, who has been very sick with appendicitis, is now on the road to recovery.

Fred Rorabacher has a badly bruised finger as the result of getting it caught while unloading pig iron at the foundry Monday.

A neat little catalogue of the Methodist Sunday-school library is being issued by the Record Priory, and will be ready for use Sunday.

New telephones have been installed by the Northville company for G. H. Baker, St. 11, 2s.; Cattermole & Dart, 292; the Hall-Carr Manufacturing Co., 911; E. K. Simonds', 223; J. W. Perkins, 411.

The handsome Biggell carpet sweeper donated the Presbyterian ladies for their Easter fair by the manufacturers at Grand Rapids. $3 for the net profit, and a lot of satisfaction to the purchaser.

Charlotte Freydl was struck on the temple by a baseball while watching a game at the ball grounds Monday and knocked insensible. He was very sick for a while but apparently came out all right after a few hours.

Mrs. Isaac Crocker gave a very enjoyable party for her driving class in Princess Room last night. The invitations were unique, and the decorations of the hall were especially pretty, 400 yards of crepe paper being used to bring about the unusually charming effect.

Mrs. John Palmer has just received her annual invitation to the reunion of the graduates of the Barstow school in Detroit. The invitations have plenty of the original school building and of the first teacher and are very attractively gotten up.

A recent issue of the Arkansas City Daily Traveler containing a picture and write-up of the elegant Fifth Avenue hotel just completed there says this, among other good things, of a former Northville boy, Royal Starkweather, who is to be the manager of the big hotel: "An agreeable gentleman and hotel manager he is a top notcher and has this reputation all over the west and southwest. He will make the hotel a complete success." Mr. Starkweather's many friends are glad to learn of his deserved advancement.

Somebody Says That

When a woman asks a number of questions she is possessed of idle curiosity. When a man asks a number he is animated by a keen desire to improve his mind and enlarge his sphere of knowledge. That is just another one of the little differences between the sexes which ought to show a woman the utter impossibility of ever hoping to attain equality with man.

Named for "Grand Monarque."

When La Salle entered the gulf of Mexico in 1662 he founded the fort of St. Louis and named it for Louis XIV of France and the surrounding territory he called, "Louisiana." The inhabitants of this country originally were French and Spanish settlers, and their descendants even to-day are called "Creoles."

EVERY ONE ASKS HIM

HOW HE GOT RID OF HIS OBSTINATE MUSCULAR RHEUMATISM.

Mr. Jones Tells of the Way by Which He Treated Himself Successfully—When Doctors Failed.

Six physicians, all of them good, one of them a specialist, had done their best for Mr. Jones at different times during three years, and still he suffered fearfully from the tortures of rheumatism.

The rheumatism that had been dormant in his system was suddenly brought to an acute stage by exposure while he was drawing ice in February, 1901. From that time on for a period of more than three years he was a constant sufferer. He tried many kinds of treatment, but the rheumatism wouldn't budge. When regular doctors failed, and one remedy after another proved useless, many said: "I should think he would give it up, and save his money."

Of his condition at this time, Mr. Jones says: "My rheumatism started in my right thigh, but in time it appeared in every muscle of my body. I lost the use of my left arm entirely and nearly lost the use of my right one. My feet were badly affected, especially the bottoms of the heels. When my right side was affected there was swelling, but the left side didn't swell when the disease settled there. The internal organs didn't seem to be involved at all. The trouble was all in the muscles and the nerves."

Among the few who still encouraged Mr. Jones to think that a cure might yet be found was a friend who had received great confidence in Dr. William's Pink Pills, and acting on her advice he bought a box of them in September, 1904. The story of what followed is brief, but nothing could be more satisfactory.

"When I was on the third box," says Mr. Jones, "I could realize a change for the better. I felt sure then that Dr. William's Pink Pills were the right medicine for my case. I kept on with them for several weeks longer and now I am entirely well, and everybody is asking what I took."

Mr. William Jones lives at Oxford, Mich. Dr. William's Pink Pills effect wonderful cures in rheumatism, because they work directly on the blood which is the seat of the disease. They are sold by every druggist.

JOAN OF THE SWORD LAND

By S. R. CROCKETT, Author of "The Raiders," etc.

(Copyright, 1898, 1900, by S. R. Crockett.)

CHAPTER I.

The Hall of the Guard.

Loud sang the laughter in the hall of the men-at-arms at Castle Kernsberg. There had come an embassy from the hereditary Princess of Plassenburg, recently established upon the throne of her ancestors, to the Duchess Joan of Hohenstein, ruler of that cluster of hill castles which is called collectively Masureland, and which includes, besides Hohenstein, the original Eagle's Eye, Kernswalde, also, and Marienfeld.

Above, in the hall of audience, the ambassador, one Leopold von Desaster, a great lord and most learned counsellor of state, sat alone, while the young duchess, the sweet, easy princess, as you name her, Joan of the Sword, as we are proud to say, Foot it for your life!"

The lad listened with erected head and haughty eyes to the tale, but answered not a word.

"Now," cried Werner, with his cap in his hand and his brows bent upon the youth, "dance for us as you used upon the Baltic, when the maids came in fresh, from their, stirring and the newest kirtles were donned. Dance, I say! Foot it for your life!"

The lad Maurice von Lylean stood with his bold eyes upon his tormentors.

"Curse of Bor-Russia," he said at last, in speech that trembled with anger, "you may vex the soul of a Danish gentleman with your aspirations, you may wound his body, but you will never be able to stand up to him in battle. You will never be worthy to eat or drink with him, to take his hand in comradeship, or to ride a tilt with him. Pigs of the sty you are, man by man of you—Wends and boors, and no king's gentleman!"

Hans Trenek lit his springald's pretty wrist-buckle!" said Werner.

At the word the man laid down his partisan and lifted the ball high between his two hands.

"Now dance!" commanded Werner.

Lion roared, and we went to Castle Lynar and made an end—saw of this spitting Sparhawk, whom our master would not let us kill, and whom now we keep with clipped wings for our sport."

The lad listened with erected head and haughty eyes to the tale, but answered not a word.

PAINFUL PERIODS

Suggestions How to Find Relief from Such Suffering.

Miss Nellie Holmes

Mrs. Tillie Hart

While no woman is entirely free from periodical suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality. If it is painful or irregular something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to a serious derangement of the whole female organism.

More than fifty thousand women have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes painful and irregular menstruation.

It provides a safe and sure way of escape from distressing and dangerous weaknesses and diseases.

The two following letters tell so convincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will do for women, they cannot fail to bring hope to thousands of sufferers.

Miss Nellie Holmes of 540 N. Davison Street, Buffalo, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

Your medicine is indeed an ideal medicine for women. I suffered misery for years with painful periods, headaches and bearing-down pains. I consulted two different physicians but failed to get any relief. A friend from the East advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so, and no longer suffer as I did before. My periods are natural; every ache and pain is gone, and my general health is much improved. I advise all women who suffer to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. Tillie Hart, of Larimore, N. D., writes:

I might have been spared many months of suffering and pain had I only known of the efficacy of Lydia E. Pinkham's Waiting For Sixth Generation.

One year when we were spending our vacation in Maine a large party was held at one of the neighboring farmhouses. It was to celebrate the 93rd birthday of an old resident in the vicinity. There were five generations present. A local photographer, Mr. Robins, was to take their picture. He was very slow, and the baby, about 6 months old, was very uneasy.

One of the farmers who was standing near by said: "Well, Robins, the sixth generation will be here before you get that picture taken if you don't hurry up!" Boston Herald.

HE HAD A MANIA FOR PROPOSING

Excuse of an Ardent Irishman Who Dated a Widow.

A weakness for proposing marriage to any good-looking woman he came across, was part of the defense raised in a breach of promise action heard at Liverpool assizes, says the London Mail.

The ardent lover was James W. O'Hara, formerly a village gardener, who two years ago became entitled, with his two sisters, to £24,000 left by an aunt. The woman who sued was a middle-aged widow, Martha Fairhurst of Ashton, Ormskirk.

The wooing was not romantic, and Mr. O'Hara's views, continued counsel, were represented in words of Owen Meredith:

We may live without poetry, music or art,
We may live without conscience and live without heart;
We may live without friends, we may live without books.
But civilized man cannot live without cooks.

At first the widow thought Mr. O'Hara was "merely chaffing her," but he wrote a formal offer of marriage, asked the consent of her sons and daughters and invited neighbors to the wedding. Then his ardor cooled and he refused explanations.

The defense was Mr. O'Hara had an inclination for making proposals when intoxicated. A woman said Mr. O'Hara had asked her, as well as her mother and her sister, to be his wife, while another witness remarked that two or three other women were waiting the result of the present action before going for Mr. O'Hara for solatiums for blighted hopes.

The jury awarded Mrs. Fairhurst £225 damages.

PRINCESS STARTS A CAFE.

But It Is a Charity Establishment for the Poor of Athens.

Society at Athens was invited to the inauguration of the new restaurant for the poor, or "Systis," established by the crown princess of Greece, near the Acropolis.

The ceremony of the inauguration was honored by the presence of the king and queen and all the members of the royal family, says the New York Herald. Princess Sophie herself was the first to taste the food which the poor of the city will have at a nominal price.

A large number of poor people were waiting outside and entered as soon as the doors were opened, most of them being aged men, women and children. They were served on that day by the most distinguished women of Athens.

The king and members of the royal family went frequently to the kitchen and through the room and took great pleasure in seeing the satisfaction of the poor people.

A similar restaurant for the poor called "Systis," is already in existence in another quarter of the city, near the market; due to the same benevolent founders. Princess Sophie has already acquired the name of "Good Prince," and has made herself more popular than ever by her new establishment.

Wait For Sixth Generation.

One year when we were spending our vacation in Maine a large party was held at one of the neighboring farmhouses. It was to celebrate the 93rd birthday of an old resident in the vicinity. There were five generations present. A local photographer, Mr. Robins, was to take their picture. He was very slow, and the baby, about 6 months old, was very uneasy.

One of the farmers who was standing near by said: "Well, Robins, the sixth generation will be here before you get that picture taken if you don't hurry up!" Boston Herald.

Many a Northville Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Northville. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter. Read the following statement:

"Mrs. L. E. Van Atta, living at 66 Randolph Street, says: 'I most assuredly think Doan's Kidney Pills a remedy of great merit. I was both tried for some time with a dull, aching, insatiable feeling in my back, which to say the least was very annoying. In some way Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and thinking if they did not do me any good they would do me any harm, I purchased a box at Murdoch Bros.' drug store and began the treatment. I will cheerfully say this: I derived more benefit from them than any other remedy I ever used.'

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50c. per box. Foster Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Let an EXPERT BUGGY MAKER INSIDE FACTS

Give you some

Mr. F. L. Shaw, manager of our vehicle interests, bought two buggies from the same house the other day. One cost $18.00 more than the other. Then he took the buggies all apart to see just why one was higher priced than the other. Here is what he found out:

Both buggies had exactly the same seat and back, same size body, same wheels, shafts and everything else, except that the higher priced one had 14-oz. cloth-trimmed instead of Kerol, found in the cheaper; a leather boot, instead of rubbers; a better axe, and the finish on the woodwork was slightly better, but not very much.

Read the difference—and learn how easily price can be raised without changing the grade, in a buggy.

SIDE BY SIDE:

Difference in Cost $3.80. Difference in Price to You $18.00.

What do they give for the $18.00 difference in price?

The actual difference in cost, to the buggy maker, did not exceed $3.80, yet one buggy costs you $18.00 more than the other.

Now, either the factory making and selling these buggies to the house Mr. Shaw bought from, was fooling the house, or the house was fooling you. In either case, you were paying $18.00 for $3.80 worth.

We tell you these things because we believe in a square deal!

There isn't one purchaser of a buggy in a hundred—no, nor in a thousand—who can tell of his own knowledge the cause for the difference in prices between one buggy and another.

We make our own buggies.

We are the only general merchandising concern in the world that does. The prices to you on our different buggies are based on the manufacturing costs.

We make the same small percentage of profit on a $70.00 rig that we do on a $40.00 outfit, and you get full value for every dollar you pay.

The difference in our buggies is not merely in the price. It's in the quality.

If you are a judge of buggy values we ask you to compare our vehicles with any maker you know of, price for price.

If you are not an expert judge of buggy values, you are safe to order from us, for we give honest value for every dollar you spend. And we guarantee you satisfaction.

The thousands who have purchased vehicles of us write us of their perfect satisfaction and of $10.00 to $50.00 saved on each one.

Our New Vehicle Catalogue tells the truth without exaggeration. It describes in detail just the rig you want. Safe rig, safe price, safe house to deal with. Let us send you this vehicle catalogue, free. Remember, Mr. F. L. Shaw, an expert vehicle man, looks after your interest.
