ANOTHER SEASON OF ENTERTAINMENTS

LIBRARY MANAGERS PERSUADED TO TRY IT AGAIN.

They Have Secured a Very Fine
Series of Attractions.

In response to the many suggestions and requests of their patrons of last season, the ladies of the library board have decided to put on another course of entertainments next fall and winter, and have already contracted with the Central Lyceum Bureau for a series of five numbers. The course cannot be properly designated a "lecture course" as it embraces but one lecture, the other numbers consisting of three concerts, including a colored troupe of nine persons, a popular vocal and instrumental concert company and male quartet accompanied by a reader. A celebrated impersonator completes the list, which altogether is of a quality and price that could never be heard in a town of this size except through the instrumentality of a high class bureau. It is now up to Northville people to show whether they appreciate the efforts of the library board in this direction by extending a liberal patronage and thus securing a series of first class entertainments for our village and a lot of pleasure for themselves at a nominal price. The ladies are contemplating offering special rates to school pupils, as they have bought their course outright and are therefore able to arrange details according to their own best judgment.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Celebrated by Lansing State Republican Last week.

The State Republican, Lansing, celebrated the rounding out of a half century of existence by issuing on Tuesday of this week a 36 page anniversary number which was certainly a triumph of the printer and engraver art. It was profusely illustrated with views and portraits and furnished a valuable reference history of the industrial and institutional life of the capital city of our state. The paper, which since its inception in 1857 has passed through the various vicissitudes of weekly, semi-weekly and tri-weekly journalistic existence up to a present daily of over 1000 circulation, is published by the Robert Smith Printing Co., employing 200 persons, and having a $100,000 pay roll. The Record extends compliments and best wishes.

Death of Mrs. Risner.

Mrs. Sophia Risner died last night at the home of her son in this village, at the age of 87 years. She was for many years a respected resident of Novi township. She leaves one son, William Risner, and two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Hake of Novi and Mrs. Lottie Card of this village. The funeral will be held at the Risner home Sunday afternoon and the interment will be in the Novi cemetery.

Why He Was Beaten.

The keeper of the only saloon at Bellport, L. I. was a candidate for justice of the peace. He pledged himself to close his saloon and go out of the business. He was defeated by an overwhelming majority.

WILL ROJESTVENSKY FAN?

War game for the pennant of the far east—Bulletin. Ninth inning; Russian Eagles in Chrysanthemums out. Sioessel fired to Nogi. Kuropatkin lined the leather out to center garden, but Kuroki tossed to Gyama and Patsky died on first. Rojestyvsky came to bat amid loud cheering from the fans. Later, two strikes have been called on Rojestyvsky.

The sermon next Sunday evening will be on "Some Mistakes About Money."

The different classes in the Sunday school are to take turns providing the flowers for the church Mrs. Tinkham's class will provide them for next Sunday.

LIVONIA NEWS.

Mrs. John Cort is able to sit up most of the time now.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baze were Plymouth visitors Monday.

Our school holds just two weeks more and then all will have a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Chilson visited Mr. McLachlan's people Monday evening.

Mrs. Alex Meston, who has been quite sick the past few weeks, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Helm are rejoicing over the arrival of a son at their home May 6.

The Lord's supper was administered last Sunday at the German church at the Center.

The severe frost of Monday night it is feared will injure the fruit that is in blossom.

Rev. Mr. Bunge of Oklahoma, a former pastor here, visited old friends around the Center last week.

Farmers are somewhat afraid to plant their corn while the weather stays so cold as it may rot on low ground.

Last of Barbarous Punishment. In 1764, at Mowmouth (Eng.) assizes a girl aged 18, was burned for murdering her mistress. This was among the last punishments by burning in England.

Suburban News.

Farlington's council has appointed a committee to look up a site for a jail and sell the old one. The village wants a jail but not a bad jail. They have had the latter long enough.

Rattlesnakes are so thick already out at Orion that they are making things very lively in advance of the lively season. People who go to that popular resort this summer are assured of a rattling time.

They have vehicles with awfully big wheels over at Birmingham, as witness the following from the local paper there: "Mr. Jenks passed through our city Tuesday morning with a barn on wheels 20 1/2 and the horse trotting at a 2 1/2 clip. It was a sight worth seeing."

Don't it about those signs prohibiting spitting on the sidewalk were put up? Some of our tobacco-chewers are getting tired of shooting at the same old marks—Holly Advertiser.

The architect of the above paragraph may expectorate as a satirist of no mean ability if he can get on a remark like that often enough.

A man over in Washtenaw county lost his gold watch a year ago while plowing, and the other day while again working in the same field his plow turned up the timepiece, which, on being wound went right to doing business as though nothing had happened. It hadn't even changed to standard time.

Pontiac has a factory which makes "radium minnows," a fish bait that attracts the finny tribe in the dark, and is supposed to be especially effective for capturing the "old settlers" that live way down in the deep water. There is only one reprehensible feature about the industry and that is the stimulus it is sure to give to the business of what might be called in polite terms piscatorial prurientiation.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The Board of Review for the village of Northville will meet at the store of D. A. Wheeler in said village on Thursday and Friday, May 11 and 12, 1905, at 9 o'clock a. m. of each of said days for the purpose of reviewing the assessment roll for said village. Taxpayers desiring themselves aggrieved may be heard at that time.

Board of Review.
Dated, Northville, May 1, 1905.

Call Saturday at Mrs. Price's and see the fine display of elegant shirt waists.

Same Old Question.

A man who went to church in Philadelphia met the minister's daughter there and now he is married to her. And still the question is asked, Why do so few men go to church?—Buffalo News.

DETROIT OPERA HOUSE

The Fascinating American Artist,
Miss Henrietta Crossman, Is Coming.

Announcement of extraordinary interest for the Detroit Opera House is, of the engagement for the week beginning Monday, May 15, of the eminent comedienne, Miss Henrietta Crossman. The fact that this gifted woman is coming to Detroit will attract wide attention, and her visit is the more notable from the fact that she will appear in plays that have never been offered in that city. Miss Crossman is one of the most conspicuous artists on the American stage. So popular is she in New York that for the last five years she has been there almost continuously scoring a series of distinct triumphs. She had a run of two years in "Mistress Nell," a run of 100 nights of "As You Like It," and she made a tremendous hit in "Nance Oldfield" and "Madeline," all of which speak for her genius and the favor the public has bestowed on her.

For her engagement in Detroit a most interesting program has been arranged which will give the public an opportunity to see this artist in her most effective roles. On Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday nights and at the Saturday matinee, Miss Crossman will offer the merry comedy "Mistress Nell." On Tuesday and Friday nights (there will be no Wednesday matinee) the program will be the double bill of "Nance Oldfield" and "Madeline," one of the most interesting in Miss Crossman's repertoire. Thus for a week her offerings have been arranged which will display her splendid talent and versatility, for she will reveal her comedy gifts and depict the most serious emotions. "Mistress Nell" is a sparkling comedy as is "Nance Oldfield," while "Madeline" is the strong story of a woman scorned. "Mistress Nell" and "Madeline" are new to Detroit.

Whitney's Opera House—Detroit.

Beginning May 11 the policy of the Whitney will be changed and the management will endeavor to offer the largest and best acts that money will provide, presenting an exceptionally high class vaudeville entertainment at the exceedingly low price of five and ten cents. Nothing of this kind has ever been offered in Detroit before and that it will offer with the approval of the theater-going public is a foregone conclusion. Friday evening, May 13, will be Amateur Night at this theater. Saturday afternoon, May 20, will be Children's day, the price of admission to all children being five cents. This nominal sum entitles them to the best seats in the house.

Lyceum Theater—Detroit.

The interest displayed by the Detroit public in the coming engagement of the Vaughan Glaser Stock Company for the summer season at the Lyceum Theater augurs favorably for the success of that excellent dramatic organization. The first appearance of this company at the Lyceum takes place May 14, and the opening attraction will be "The Prisoner of Zenda," Anthony Hope's famous romance.

WOVEN BY GIANT SPIDERS.

Beautiful Piece of Silk Exhibited at Paris Exposition.
One of the wonders of the Paris exhibition of 1900 was a piece of silk, eighteen yards long and eighteen inches wide woven from the web of one giant spider of Madagascar into its manufacture onered 19 1/2 yards of spun thread. Twenty-five Lozans spiders had to be brought into requisition for the purpose, and these were secured by offering the natives so much money. No laborer or ignorant the purposes for which the insects were required and having a "get-rich-quick" desire they brought them in by the basketful—mostly dead. So that it was found necessary for the winding off machines to go to the spiders, instead of calling in the spiders to the filatures. However, the piece of cloth was finally completed, and was of a shimmering golden-yellow color.

Maternal Curiosity.
"Tommy," asked Mrs. Tecker, "I don't see Mrs. Carson's old cat in our back yard any more. What has become of it?"
"I don't know where it is now," said Tommy. "Last time I saw that cat it was going towards Michigan."
"Toward Michigan? On a train?"
"None. 'Cross the lake."
"In a boat?"
"None. It kind o' jumped into the water."
"Where?"
"Off the fishin' pier."
"You don't mean to say it was trying to swim in the lake?"
"None. I guess it couldn't have swum much, anyway, cause there was a rock tied-say, it seems to me you're gettin' awful curious about that old cat, all at once!"

A Little of Both.
He was a poor young clerk, only earning $12 per week, and when the struggling boy told him that the book was $1.25 he didn't feel that he could afford a copy. Still he didn't like to hurt her feelings, so he intimated that he'd take a copy if he could change a $10 bill.
There was no trouble about that. The little black and white she slipped open didn't contain less than $150 in new currency. "The $12 clerk" it still wondered if he'd in any mark or a philanthropist. Louisville Courier Journal

She Had No Scruples
He had just left home a couple of days ago and had pushed a $10 bill over a girl before he had left the house.
But when he awoke in the morning the money had been abstracted from his vest pocket.
"I didn't think you'd take that bill," he said to his wife with a reproachful look.
"And why not?"
"Because it is tainted money."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Looked Like It.
The man dropped a slug into the slot.
The machine was one of the kind that occasionally returns the coin instead of shooting out a slab of gum—purely for advertising purposes and to gain the customer's good will—and the slug came out again.
"Great Scott!" he exclaimed, turning red. "They've got a counterfeit detector in there, have they? What won't they do with these slot machines next!"

Conger Acquitted.
Eugene D. Conger, publisher of the Grand Rapids Herald, was indicted for conspiracy with Lani K. Salsbury and others to obtain a contract for bringing Lake Michigan water to the city by means of bribing the mayor, common council and board of public works, or some of them. It was claimed on the trial that Salsbury paid Mr. Conger $10,000 and promised him as much more. For four weeks the trial was on, ending Thursday morning in a verdict of acquittal. It is believed that Conger's acquittal will result in the quashing of the charges of conspiracy and bribery against all persons implicated by Salsbury's "confessions." It has always been claimed that the prosecution had the strongest case against Conger, and for that reason he was twice tried before others were tried. It is believed also that ex-City Clerk Lamoreaux will now change his plea to not guilty in the superior court.

Storm Was Fierce.
One of the fiercest hail and wind storms ever witnessed in Grand Rapids came up Thursday afternoon. Hail in the shape of huge, hard icicles fell with terrific force, breaking windows in hundreds of residences and doing untold damage to fruit in the surrounding country. The storm lasted an hour. The hail entirely destroyed the windows of every greenhouse in the city, entailing a total loss of $5,000. Skylights on Monroe and Canal streets were broken and 80 square feet of glass in the Gilbert block was smashed. The hail scared horses—fled on the streets and numerous highways for cures, three horses being killed and several people injured. Nearly every window in the high school was broken by hail and school was dismissed. Windows in street cars were also broken.

Herald Rescue. One 3-year-old child who disappeared at Newaygo last Saturday, was found Saturday after a convoluted search since that time. The boy was led by dogs to a hole at the end of a log on the river bank, where the child was found muddled and rigid, and barely alive. It is thought he will recover.

NORTHVILLE.

The City in Brief.

Mrs. Fannie White has been quite ill for the past week or two.

Work was commenced Tuesday on the addition to the Haddock store on Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey D. White have gone to housekeeping at No. 45 Plymouth avenue.

The Hall-Carr people are building an addition to their factory in the shape of a dry kiln.

The foundation for the new Harmon residence is finished and the carpenter work is now in progress.

Willard Cole has bought the property at the corner of Center and Yerkes streets formerly owned by the Kellogg estate.

Christian Science service Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock in Library hall. Subject, "Soul and Body." All are cordially invited.

W. T. Gurr has removed his office from the laundry block on Main street to the rooms under the Wheeler store opening on Center street.

SIR KNIGHTS ATTENTION--A special conclave of Northville commandery, K. T., next Tuesday evening for drill. Every Sir Knight is expected to be on hand to arrange for the Detroit trip.

Harley Johnson sold the Stallion "Marblegrit" by Patron 2.14, dam, Ohio M. 2.16, to Mrs. Calvin Stevens on Wednesday of this week for $2,000. This horse is considered one of the best prospects ever raised in this vicinity.

Rehearsals have commenced in the Opera House for the drama, "The Dairy Homestead" to be produced in the near future by the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church. The cast of characters and date will be given next week.

The Northville factories all fell in line on the standard time basis last week, but as their whistles blow at the same time as before according to the timepieces of the conservative folks who still cling to sun time, a good many do not realize that any change has been made. If all the clocks were turned back there would be no confusion of opinions as at present.

Why suffer with spring tiredness, mean, cross feeling, no strength, no appetite? Holister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Murdock Brothers.

Mrs. Minnie Durham still continues very ill at her home in Novi township.

The Methodist people have been giving their church a thorough cleaning this week.

The question of the day--among the women--"Have you finished house cleaning?"

Northville Camp, M. W. A., celebrated its sixth anniversary last night by a smoker and pedro party.

Regular communication of Northville lodge, F. & A. M., Monday evening, May 15th will also confer third degree.

The Senior class will serve ice cream on Saturday nights beginning May 20. Notice of place announced next week.

Our periodical cold wave came on Sunday night and Monday as usual, sending the temperature down to the actual freezing point Monday.

As announced some time ago Judge Alfred J. Murphy is to be the Memorial day orator here this year. He is a fine speaker and the local Post was fortunate in being able to secure his services.

Mrs. Susie Woolley passed through her surgical operation at St. Mary's hospital very successfully last week, although it proved to be a much more serious one than was anticipated. She is getting along very nicely.

The funeral of Mrs. Lovina Carmer was held at the John Nixon home Sunday, Rev. Sidney F. Dimmock, pastor of the Baptist church of which the deceased was a member, conducting the services. The burial was in Rural cemetery.

A number of our enthusiasts on athletics will probably attend the fourth annual field day meet of the Tri-county High School Athletic association of Chelsea, Wayne and Plymouth tomorrow in the new athletic park at the latter place, where various contests of strength and skill are to take place.

The portion of the Old Globe Furniture company's property comprising the building occupied by the Rogers shoe factory and the house and lot just west, was sold on April 29 by Receiver Phillips to Mr. Hall of the Hall-Carr Manufacturing Co. The present owners of the factory building will probably continue to occupy it for some time.

The Northville Record last week quoted in its market report "Spring chickens 10 cents" and hence the same. Perhaps the spring chickens meant, were those springing last spring. The quotations will hardly atone for the chicks of this spring. Butter pulled out, neighbor--Agricultural Press.

You may estimate that there's lots of spring in Northville, fellow paragraphist. Why, even the city drinking water comes from springs.

A good many people were greatly alarmed when the sudden pall of darkness descended yesterday forenoon during the rain storm. For a few minutes it was scarcely possible to see across an ordinary sized room, and people were excusable for thinking that a serious disturbance of the elements was coming, which, however, did not prove to be the case here at least.

Next Tuesday evening, May 16, is the date of the Baptist ladies' musical entertainment in Princess rink, to be given by the Grand River avenue Baptist church orchestra of Detroit. It is safe to say that it will be worth attending. The prices are 15 cents for adults and 10 cents for children. Several Northville people heard these musicians when they were at Salem and were very much pleased with their work.

Assistant Deputy Factory Inspector Thomas D. Evans of Detroit made his annual visit to our village factories Tuesday and during a subsequent call at the Record office remarked that our institutions average well with any of their class in the state, and that there is a considerable improvement over last year. He also spoke of our increased manufacturing facilities and considers that Northville's industrial status is rapidly advancing.

Lost--Rubber cloth Auto cover. $2 reward delivered or expressed. McDonald-Wessels Co., 29 Washington Ave., Detroit.

W. E. Ambler is now prepared to furnish packed ice cream in quart pails Sundays at 25 cents, if ordered before 11 o'clock a. m.

Old Papers for Sale.

To reduce an accumulation of old newspapers we will dispose of a limited quantity at 10 cents per 100 or two packages (40) for 5 cents. All suitable for pantry shelves or for putting under carpets. Apply at the Record office.

Intensity of Light.

Experiments justify the conclusion that increasing the intensity of light 500,000 times does not alter its velocity by as much as two feet a second.

Neglected cases make fat graveyards. Dr. Woods' Norway Pine Syrup helps men and women to a happy, vigorous old age.

DOFFS STRIPES TO PRAY.

Admiral Shows His Respect for the Scriptures in Peculiar Way.

A certain and favorite junior officer in the United States navy had for a considerable time observed that the admiral always removed his uniform coat and donned one of less pretensions when he read his Bible on Sunday mornings. He often wondered why the commander of the flagship should do so strange a thing and so one day, when the good humor of the admiral permitted the great amount of freedom such a question would require, he asked:

"Admiral, will you tell me why you always remove your uniform coat before you open your Bible for Sunday morning's reading?"

The admiral lifted his eyes and gravely stared the young officer in the face. His smile was more beatific than frowning.

"Lieutenant, I remove my uniform coat before reading the Bible because I can never give the Lord of Hosts the proper amount of respect and adoration with the stripes of an admiral embracing the arms that support the Bible."

It was a question of the price of his beard--which was in his admiral's stripes--overcoming the love he held for his Maker when he could remember his devotion to him--Lippincott's Magazine.

FIRST DUEL IN AMERICA.

Fought Between Two Servants in New England in 1621.

The first duel on record in America was fought June 18 1621 in New England between two servants who fought with sword and dagger, and both were wounded. They were sentenced to have their beards and feet tied together, and to stand four hours without meat or drink. In 1725, one young man killed another on Boston common in a night duel with swords. The survivor escaped from the country, and a severe law against dueling was enacted. During the Revolution there were a number of duels. Charles Lee and John Laurens fought, and the former was wounded. Gwynett, a signer of the Declaration of Independence was killed by Gen. McIntosh. Gen. Green was twice challenged but refused to fight, and Washington approved his refusal. The most notable duel in the country's history was when Alexander Hamilton was slain by Aaron Burr.

Dufferin and the Chicago Press.

In the year 1871 the Marquis of Dufferin and Ava then the governor general of Canada visited Chicago. Concerning that visit he has written: "The day following my arrival I went in bed with a very bad nervous headache, a fact which was announced to the public in the morning by a sensational paragraph in all the papers, to the following effect: 'His royal highness down with a cold.' Doctor sent for. In fact, all the time I was at Chicago the papers teemed with similar elegancies--the concluding leading article in the leading journal being headed 'Good-by Old Dufferin!' Another paper devoted two of its columns to a description of an interview between one of its reporters and myself, in which I communicated to my interlocutor--whom I always address as 'old fellow'--all our state secrets and a minute detail of my private affairs, though it is needless to say the author of the narrative had never been within a hundred yards of me."

Says Uncle Ras.

"I don't seem exactly the proper thing," remarked Uncle Rastus, "for me to thank de Lawd for givin' him his early bread, an' den turn right eround an' jump on his wife case hit can't no good."--Detroit Tribune.

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the like of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.

WINE OF CARDUI

Just a Nod and a Smile.
Just a little nod and smile,
Lightly given, free from guile;
Just a touch of fingers;
Just a little cheery word,
Clean forgotten soon as heard,
Yet its cadence lingers.

Just a little wayward flower,
Blooming, maybe for an hour,
Fragile in its beauty,
Yet its perfume softly stole
To a willow, rebellious soul
Turning it toward duty.

Just a laugh for just a song
Just a face within the throng--
Only these, yet often,
They shall reach a vibrant chord
In some callous heart ignored
They shall touch and soften.

Just a little "say not so!"
There's no little here below,
Large the plan of things;
Good is like the morning light
Scattering all the shades of night
Growing in its giving!

—Arion E. Anderson in Girls' Companion.

When Mrs. Stowe Awoke.

A friend of mine, a Northern woman long resident in Florida, once gave me the following account of a visit from Mrs. Stowe. I had invited her to spend the day, with several other ladies, at my villa. She came with an old white fur upper wrapped about her neck. She sat all day near the open fire, occupied apparently with her own thoughts, for she spoke to no one. When the day was well nigh spent, one of the guests related the remarkable experience of a woman who had passed through some cancer. I forget of what sort. Mrs. Stowe presently started up, all by inquiring, with some show of interest, "Did the woman live?"—Julia Ward Howe's Article on Harriet Beecher Stowe in the Reader Magazine.
