IDEAL WEATHER GOOD PROGRAM

WERE FEATURES OF MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES

Judge Murphr's Address Enthusiastically Commended.

Although in the early part of the day it looked as if the proverbial Decoration day showers—which, by the way, are absent quite as often as present—were to interfere with the exercises, the weather conditions proved to be perfect after all.

The program for the day as previously arranged was carried out in an excellent manner and great credit is due those who planned and worked for its success. A large crowd of people from the surrounding country and villages was present and many from a distance took the opportunity to come back to Northville to meet and greet their living friends and pay loving tribute to those who have passed on into the great silence.

Judge Alfred J. Murphr's address in Princess rink was listened to by a large and attentive audience and won golden opinions from all who heard it. The young judge is a peculiarly pleasing speaker and his address was brilliant, scholarly and polished as well as thoroughly patriotic. The speaker was introduced by Commander Lawrence of the local Post G. A. R., the prayer made by Rev. W. G. Stephens and a portion of Lincoln's immortal address at Gettysburg was read by Wm. H. Hutton.

The beautiful ceremonial of paying tribute to the soldier-soldier dead was observed here for the first time and took place at the bridge near Rural Hill cemetery. In charge of the W. R. C. The music for the day was only provided by the citizens band of Millford and added greatly to the impressiveness of the service.

Altogether the observance of the day sacred to the memory of our country's departed defenders was one of the most successful Northville has ever had and but for one thing would have been entirely satisfactory. The sentiment here, as well as in so many other places, has long been much against the allowance of any games or sports on a day which has been dedicated to solemn services for the dead, and to many the occasion was greatly marred by the fact that a ball game was played, as our village has prided herself for some years on the absence of anything of the kind on Memorial day.

Lutheran attended union church services in honor of the Memorial time were held Sunday evening in the Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. C. F. Dunning, preaching an able and appropriate sermon, emphasizing the duties of our country and making an earnest appeal for the herpism of clean living and a earnest fighting for the good and true. The pastors of the other churches assisted in the opening service. Special music was given by the choir and the church was handsomely decorated with flowers and the national colors, with a draped vacant chair on the platform in memory of Henry Nichols, a member of the G. A. R. Post who died during the past year. Large delegations were present from the G. A. R. and W. R. C.

HE MAY CLASH WITH MACHINE

GOV. WARNER NOT SATISFIED WITH TAX COMMISSION.

Detroit Tribune Thinks Max Be Dom's Next Week.

By H. M. S. Detroit Tribune

LANSING, Mich., May 24.—Before the session closes Gov. Warner and the remnants of the old railroad machine in and out of the senate will clash in a hard test of supremacy.

The governor is not satisfied with the Lovell tax commission bill and will try to amend it. He will try to amend it in the upper house so that it will take effect within 30 days, or at least within a reasonably early time after the passage. In plain terms, the governor has not given up the fight to oust L. E. and says at once, instead of waiting until Sept. 1, 1906.

Gov. Warner, it is well known, helped to put the Lovell bill through the house, but the bill has not been of his own making.

Now he is satisfied that the bill won't do that the protests against it should be heeded. It is not a sure thing that he can turn this trick, although he did squeeze it through the house from the leaders of the senate on the primary election bill.

It is now a fact, positively, that those close to the governor think he is opposed to the passage of the Galbraith bill, which specifically gives the tax commission the power of expropriation between general and corporate property. The cry against this bill has not been raised by men who believe its principle—originally a Pinney principle—is wrong, but by men who say that the tax commission is not the commission to be entrusted with the enormous power of an absolutely arbitrary nature which this bill confers.

"Let us have a clean sweep and a new three man commission," say the governor and his immediate friends, "and then it will be time enough to pass the Galbraith bill, but not till then."

Last week it was claimed there were 62 votes pledged for the Galbraith bill, practically the same number that voted for the passage of the Lovell bill. But Gov. Warner is not behind the Galbraith bill and that makes a mountain of difference with any bill in the lower house.

The Ladies Aid society will meet in the chapel next Tuesday afternoon. The president wishes all the quilt blocks brought in.

Children's Day will be observed Sunday morning, June 11. Any wanting their children baptized at that time will kindly let the pastor know.

We were pleased to see quite a few in the church on Sunday morning who were once members of this church, but are now living in Detroit and other places. They seem to enjoy coming back and worshipping with former friends. We are sorry they left us. Come often.

The concert to take place in the church on Tuesday evening promises to be good. It is expected that a large audience will greet the artists. Tickets 10c and 20c. Notice to Water Users.

Lycium Theater—Detroit.

The Vaughn Glaser Stock company have in preparation for their Lycium patrons another Nat Goodwin success, "A Glided Fool" having been selected for the week of June 4. Perhaps the so-called "dress suit plays" have found most favor with stock audiences and the demand for them has manifested itself in various ways. In offering "A Glided Fool" Mr. Glaser has selected a play that gives both himself and all the favorites in his company most excellent opportunities.

Suburban News.

A Washtenaw county couple who have eight children were divorced the other day. President Teddy should be appealed to not to permit such a promising family to be disrupted.

It is stated that Carleton "sports" are training roosters for the prize arena. The local police authorities should be spurred to activity or such illegal cackleations or law and order may as well be thrown to the crows.

A Trenton man found a wad of the old time "shloplaster" money stuffed into a rat hole in an old house he was tearing down. The find was worth about $100 and in consequence the rat hole market is decidedly lively now in Trenton.

One of the periodical "live snake-in-the-stomach" stories was made to apply to a Fenton woman recently, but the independent series that there has been any snake in anybody's stomach anywhere in that region. There may be snakes out there but they aren't occupying the eternal economy of the inhabitants. They don't even have 'em in their boots.

Pinchburgh hunters have formed an organization with officers, etc., and when they emulate the example of the big game hunter and go hunting, they abide in the wilderness. It is supposed to designate an indication of the fact that they will drink nothing stronger than ginger tea to keep the cold out.

A rattlesnake with fangs in rattles was found in Pontiac one day last week during the excavating for the big building on Saginaw street. It was in a fully an inch number of rattles for the snake, but we didn't suppose Ponty was so primitive. They're the leading bears in the bath houses and dens on the front porches next thing they know.

Whitney's Opera House—Detroit.

The fourth week of popular vaudeville at the Whitney will bring forth a list of exceptionally clever acts. The headliner will be Annie Abbott, the Georgia Magnet, who accomplishes some wonderful feats in strength and while her weight is something less than a hundred pounds she handles men of three times her weight with ease. The balance of the bill is exceptionally good.

A CITY HALL TOO

FLINT LIKELY TO PAY CORNER STONE FOR ONE IN JUNE

Plans Under Way to Make This One of a Fine Group of Public Structures

On Tuesday and in the city of Flint a celebration will be held in honor of the corner stone of the new city hall. The plans for the new building have been made in a manner, commensurate with its historical importance and a record of the municipal progress and program enjoyed by the great Vehicle City in the world.

A more this week is indicative of the spirit and enterprise of Flint and its people. The new building is a masterpiece of architecture and will be a landmark in the city.

Probably not in a thousand times would a city prepare to celebrate its fifth anniversary under such auspicious circumstances. A handsome new $100,000 city hall has just been completed and will be formally dedicated at this time. A beautiful $25,000 Carnegie library will be formally opened with appropriate ceremonies and an address by President Wood at the University of Michigan.

The corner stone of the new federal building to cost $77,000 will be laid, an appropriation having been made by congress for this purpose and Vice President Fairbanks having promised to deliver an address. Now in addition to a remarkable group of buildings, the plan of the city and enterprising citizens of Flint are coming to the conclusion that they must also lay the corner stone of a new $50,000 city hall and a tall building the city to vote on this proposition has passed the legislature and a special election has been called for the purpose. There is no question whatever but that the vote will be in the affirmative, as the feeling is unanimous in favor of the new building and a Flint taxpayer who would make serious objections to the new structure would really feel ashamed of himself so keen is the spirit for improvements and so substantial is the prosperity and growth of the city.

Envelopes.

The letters X, XX, XXX on envelope boxes indicate that the standard reams of paper, twenty-four by thirty-six inches, from which they are made, are respectively forty, fifty and sixty pound paper. The terms light, medium and heavy are also applied. The figures on such boxes indicate the size in inches of the envelopes but nothing to do with the weight.

BOY RESCUED AFTER TEN MINUTES UNDER WATER.

A LABORER'S PERILOUS RIDE, SUFFERING AGONY FROM BROKEN LEG.

BOY LOSES HIS LIFE BY CAVE-IN OF A SAND PIT—ONE ESCAPES.

Riding in Agony.

After suffering untold agony on the road, William Sherer was rescued from under the train when it stopped at the Michigan Central station in Kalamazoo Saturday afternoon. He was suffering from a badly mangled right leg. Sherer was thrown out of employment in Chicago by the big strike there, and started for Flint, where he had been promised a job. Having no money, he found a berth on the trucks of a freight car. Shortly after the train pulled out of Niles his leg struck something in the roadbed and was thrown into the gearing of the truck and mangled it was fifty miles, or over an hour and a half before the next stop of the train, and all that time Sherer suffered untold agony. He was unable to shift his leg into a less uncomfortable position for fear of falling from his perch, and he was even unable to take hold of a cruet to stop the flow of blood.

THE RUSSIANS LOST TWENTY-TWO SHIPS

SO TOGO REPORTS, SAYING, ALSO, THAT ROJESTVENSKY IS A PRISONER.

Every Battleship in the Defeated Fleet Sunk or Captured--Nebogatoff a Prisoner-- Damaged Ships Reach Port.

ROJESTVENSKY WRECKED, WOUNDED AND CAPTURED.

An official dispatch from Tokyo says that the battleship Kriaz Souvaroff, Admiral Rojestvensky's flagship, went down in the action and Admiral Rojestvensky was taken on board a torpedo boat which, with the admiral, was captured. He is wounded.

Thirteen Russian warships sunk; eight Russian warships captured--four of this total of twenty-one being the czar's battleships--300 Russian prisoners taken, including Admiral Nebogatoff; a hundred thousand tons of the czar's fighting material lying as junk at the bottom of the Korean straits; a hundred millions of the czar's foubles gone with his sunken and surrendered ships, the naval prestige of the Russian empire lost for a generation, a few scattered Russian ships chased and shuffling somewhere to shelter, and the admiral of the Russian Armada a lost and ruined man--such are the terrific results of the great naval battle of Saturday and Sunday, May 27-28, 1905, as told in the Tokyo dispatches.

The loss of Rojestvensky's ship and capture and that of Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, is the climax to the disaster of the former, for every ship of his division has either been sent to the bottom or has passed under the Japanese flag. While the Russian sea power is broken, Tojo claims that he brought about its destruction with practically no damage to himself. It is an astonishing statement, but he repeats it officially. The dispatches from St. Petersburg about the claim of Japanese immunity, but until Tojo chooses to revise his report it must stand. A naval wonder standing in the same column of sea marvels with Howe's fight at Manila and the American's destruction of Cervera at Santiago. Even allowing that the new Russian vessels that are not included in the Japanese list of sunk or surrendered have escaped to Vladivostok, that possibility will not alter the fact that the battles of Tsushima have not only virtually but have actually annihilated the Russian navy in the east.

The official report of Tojo's marvelous victory received by the Japanese legation in Washington contains only a modest statement of facts by Admiral Tojo without a note of exultation or boast by the victor. The reports follow:

Tokyo, May 29. Report received from Admiral Tojo at the Japanese headquarters. First report received morning May 27. Immediately upon the receipt of report that Russian squadron was in sight, our combined squadron started for attack. Weather is fine today, but with heavy seas.

Second report received night May 27. "Combined squadron attacked Russian squadron today in Okinoshima (southeast of Tsushima) and defeated it, sinking at least four ships and inflicting heavy damage upon others. Damage to our ships is insignificant. Our destroyer and torpedo flotillas defeated attack after sunset."

Third report received Monday, May 29. "Main force of our combined squadron continued pursuit since the 27th and attacked 28th near Liancourt rocks (northeast of Okinoshima), squadron consisting of Nicholas I (battleship), Orel (battleship), Semyon Apraksin and Izumrud (cruisers) while remaining ten vessels surrendered. No damage to our ships. According to statements of prisoners, vessels sunk in engagement May 27 were Burzoino (battleship), Alexandra III (battleship), Zveniching and three other ships.

"Real Admiral Nebogatoff and about 2000 other Russians were taken prisoners."

The following are damages suffered by enemy in addition to those given above since commencement of battle as reported by commanders not under immediate command of Tojo and by observation stations:

Sunk--Ammunition Nachmoff, Domitri Donkoi, Svetlana, Admiral Usakov, Kamchatka, Irutshush and three destroyers. "Captured--Vlaemir Mo, on ash foundered after capture. One special service ship, whose name unknown, and one destroyer captured.

"Russian losses definitely known so far may be classified as follows: Two battleships, one coast defense ship, five cruisers, two special ships, three destroyers were sunk; two battleships, two coast defense ships, one special service ship, one destroyer were captured. It is not yet clear whether three vessels as stated by prisoners to have been sunk are included or not in above list. There are more than 1,000 prisoners besides 2,000 taken by main force of combined squadron."

THE LEGISLATURE.

It will be impossible for this legislature to hold down the amount of money to be raised by taxation during the next two years to the figure of two years ago, even though the most strenuous efforts have been made to prevent anything from going through in the way of a new institution. The house ways and means committee, which has done the most active work with the ax, has given up any hope of holding down the appropriations to the level of 1903, but it is announced that the increase will not be more than $500,000. The increase, according to Chairman Ward, will be between $250,000 and $500,000, depending somewhat upon the action of the senate. The total for 1903 was about $8,000,000. He points to the fact that the expense of maintaining our asylums for the insane alone has increased by $200,000, in fact, when the natural increase of expense in all institutions is taken into consideration the record will really amount to a reduction. Ward expects that some economy may result from the bill of the state board of corrections and charities, in fixing the amount to be paid by the state for the care of each inmate, shall meet with the state board of auditors, and that the governor shall have the same right to veto their acts, as he now possesses in the matter of measures enacted by the legislature. At present these boards fix the amount to be paid by the state without any interference from other state officials.

Saginaw Kicks.

The action of the state military board in ordering the mustering-out of Company C, M. N. G. stationed in Saginaw, east side, has caused a strong protest to go to Gov. Warner. More lobbying has been done in the past few days on this matter than on any state action this year. Former Gov. Bliss has joined in the movement. The company has been in existence for thirty-two years and its rolls contain the names of many of Saginaw's prominent citizens. Incidentally they give an explanation for the profusion of military titles that for years have been bantered about by "mutual-admiration society," Saginaw ways. In no city in the state are there so many "colonels," "captains," etc., etc., prefixed to the names of business and professional men as here, and it is true that a muster call could draw out a full-sized battalion of what is now generally termed "feather bed" generals.

Those Awful Ham Sandwiches.

The careful hostess happened casually to follow with her eyes a guest who had just taken a ham sandwich. As he took the first bite she noticed an expression on his face, which she had not hitherto associated with the consumption of ham sandwiches, and her glance immediately ceased to be casual. The guest, unconscious of observation, made his way slowly but surely to the fire, and with infinite delicacy cast away the ham sandwich. In great agitation, the hostess watched the remaining sandwiches, and with deepening emotion saw another and another great executive the same maneuver. She had the rest of the sandwiches removed, and tried to forget them for the time being. Afterwards a searching investigation revealed the awful truth. One of her small children had abstracted all the ham from the sandwiches, and substituted pieces of an old red flannel garment, carefully trimmed to sandwich size—Exchange.

The Cingalese Dr. Harvey says, have decided views on woman's charms: they have written a book on this subject. They refuse to call a woman beautiful unless she has the following characteristics: Her hair must be voluminous like the tail of a peacock, long, reaching to the knees and remaining in beautiful curls. Her nose must be the bridge of the hawk, her lips must be red and the color of coral, her eyes must be large and sparkling like stars.

A Bad Score

Of Masculine Gender.

Coming in from a child's theatrical performance recently, a little girl mentioned her father, who had been in the play as a saucer, says the Philadelphia Record. This was a dramatic citation was passed around and pondered on in family conversation without any satisfactory explanation. At last the boy was asked if he could himself tell what he meant by a saucer. "Why," he replied after due deliberation, "it's the same thing as a saucer, only it's of masculine gender."

Neuralgia And Other Pain.

All pain in any disease is nerve pain, the result of a turbulent condition of the nerves. The stinging, lacerating, darting, burning, agonizing pain that comes from the prominent nerve branches, or sensory nerves is neuralgia, and is the "big brother" of all the other pains.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills rarely ever fail to relieve these pains by soothing these larger nerves, and restoring their tranquility.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills leave no bad after-effects, and are a reliable remedy for every kind of pain, such as headache, backache, stomachache, sciatica, rheumatism and neuralgia. They also relieve Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Car-Sickness, and Distress after eating.

"For many years I have been a constant sufferer from neuralgia and headache, and have never been able to obtain any relief from various headache powders and capsules until I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They always cure my headache in five minutes time." FRED R. SWINGLEY, Cashier Nat. Bank, Addison, Neb.
