VILLAGE AFFAIRS

THE FINANCIAL CONDITION IS MUCH IMPROVED.

Mayor Harmon and Council Are to Be Congratulated.

The financial condition of the village has greatly improved since Mr. Harmon and a portion of the present council took hold of the village affairs. Three years ago the village was "in the hole." Besides being badly in debt, there was no money in the treasury. Today there is something like $1,000 in the treasury, no debts beyond the bonds,

Northville people all want him again for village president and he will have no opposition.

and $2,000 in the sinking fund. That is certainly a creditable showing for the president and his co-workers, the present council, who have lent Mr. Harmon such loyal support.

Tom Murdock, who has been the efficient village clerk for many years, has again had the compliment paid him of being endorsed by both caucuses.

HERE'S TWO MORE NEW CLOTHING STORES

Northville is to have two more clothing and gent's furnishings stores. Louis Strauss has leased the Freydel store and has opened up with a new line of men's and boys' clothing and furnishings. See ad elsewhere.

Will Gorton, a former Northville boy, late with Mabley & Co. of Toledo, has leased the Becker store and will open it with a new line of clothing and gent's furnishings and make a specialty of merchant tailoring. Ad next week telling all about it.

MRS. CHARLES WATERMAN

Died Tuesday February 27, Aged 54 Years.

Mrs. Anna Ellis Waterman, wife of Chas. D. Waterman, died of pneumonia at their home here Tuesday morning, after an illness of but little more than a week. She was 54 years of age and was the second wife of Mr. Waterman, to whom she was married in 1894. Mrs. Waterman was born in England, coming to this country about 22 years ago. She has been a resident of Northville and vicinity for the past twenty years.

She was a member of the Episcopal church, but had been an attendant of the Presbyterian church during her residence here. She leaves, besides the husband an only brother, Harry Ellis, of Chicago.

The funeral is to be held from the home this Friday afternoon, Rev. W. S. Jerome conducting the services. The interment will be in Rural Hill Cemetery.

WANTED HARMON

PRESENT MAYOR INDUCED TO ACCEPT NOMINATION.

Heads Citizens' Ticket—Endorsed by Workmen.

The citizens of Northville evidently want Mayor Harmon to stand for reelection again, and they expressed it to him in an unmistakable manner, by circulating a petition to that effect last week. Later Mr. Harmon was cornered up in the bank where a meeting was being held in the interest of the establishment of an automobile factory here, and the petition, a very lengthy one, was presented to him.

Mr. Harmon had fully decided to retire from the office at the end of his present term, but felt that the compliment thus paid him by his fellow citizens demanded recognition, and was the only inducement that could have prevailed on him to again take up the care and responsibilities involved, so consented with as good grace as the circumstances permitted. As a result he heads the ticket nominated at the Citizens' caucus on Monday evening, and the nomination was endorsed at the Workmen's caucus on the following night.

CITIZENS' CAUCUS

The Citizens' caucus was held Monday night with L. A. Babbitt as chairman and W. E. Ambler as secretary. The following ticket was nominated:

President—F. S. Harmon
Trustees—T. G. Richardson, A. K. Carpenter, A. H. Kohler,
Clerk—T. E. Murdock
Treasurer—L. W. Simmons
Assessor—M. F. Stanley
Committee—E. K. Starkweather,
F. N. Perlin, E. Vandenburg

WORKMEN'S CAUCUS

The Workmen's caucus was held Tuesday night with W. H. Hutton as chairman and John Neufeld as clerk. The following were nominated:

President—F. S. Harmon
Trustees—T. G. Richardson, W. H. Carpenter, W. H. Hutton
Clerk—T. E. Murdock
Treasurer—L. W. Simmons
Assessor—M. F. Stanley
Committee—W. H. Hutton, W. H. Cattermole, J. R. Ganson

"General apathy" was in evidence at both caucuses. The Citizens had about twenty-five in attendance and the Workmen's was attended by about ten less, the indications being that everybody was satisfied with those who are on both tickets will select which one they will run on.

Methodist Church Notes.

[By the Pastor.]

Public worship next Sunday as usual. Subject for morning is "The Miracle of Success" evening, "Who Is My Neighbor?"

Last Sunday the weather was not pleasant, but a lady walked three miles to attend public worship. This did not take place at Northville.

Sunday school follows the close of the morning service. Our school is well attended but still there is room. We ask the parents to help us in the training of the young.

The beautiful flowers placed on the pulpit last Sunday added much to the service. The ladies who are so thoughtful will kindly accept our thanks.

We spent Wednesday evening with the pastor of Whitmore Lake who is now engaged in special revival meetings at Novi. He is a namesake of ours, a splendid man, doing a good work.

We had the pleasure of attending the W. H. M. S. of the Detroit district last Tuesday held in the Central M. E. church. The attendance was large. There were only two charges on the district not represented by lady members. One was—. I felt sorry that it was so. The president expressed her surprise.

Card of Thanks.

We sincerely thank all who so kindly assisted us during our mother's sickness and death, and all who sent flowers.

GEO. REAR AND FAMILY.

Clark-Johnson.

The marriage of Miss Clara Johnson to Mr. Frank D. Clark of Ypsilanti was solemnized at six o'clock Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Johnson by Rev. W. G. Stephens of the Methodist church, in the presence of sixty-five guests. The decorations were very handsome, the ceremony taking place beneath a large floral bell with an electric light in the center. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white organdie and carried cream roses. Little Genevieve Durfee of Novi acted as flower girl and little Gibson Carpenter of this place as page. The Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches were played during the ceremony by Miss Daisy Rogers of Hudson. A large number of handsome presents were received. Mr. and Mrs. Clark left during the evening for a few days' visit in Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor. They will reside in Novi.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

IN ONE FACTORY.

Northville has been proudly claiming to have the oldest factory enterprise in Michigan, and the reason the claim must now be relinquished is a wedding that took place in Detroit last week.

Asa Porter, a highly respected citizen of this place, celebrates his 25th birthday, which comes but two days later in the month than George Washington's, by ceasing to be an employee of the Globe factory, and in so doing closes a term of service there of a quarter of a century's steady employment. And not only did Mr. Porter faithfully perform his duties during all these years, but what is still more remarkable, has not lost one working day of this past year that made him an octogenarian.

Last week Wednesday his grand daughter, Miss Shirley Thurn, one of the prettiest and best liked girls in the village, who has been her grand father's housekeeper since the death of his wife a few years ago, became the bride of Frank C. Passage of Detroit, and the young couple prevailed on the old gentleman to celebrate his birthday and their wedding by deciding that after one he should shouldn't work in a shop.

Mr. Porter is in excellent health and declares that he feels just as

ASA PORTER

He retires from active work at the age of eighty years, having labored for twenty-five years in one Northville factory.

young at heart as he ever did, but admits that he does get tired some what more easily than when he began the job he has just relinquished.

He says that a notable improvement has taken place in the machinery used in the shops during his work there and that while not much more work was done by hand than now the efficiency of the machines has been gradually increased until the modern ones would scarcely be recognized as used for the same purposes as the first mechanisms employed.

Besides his notable record of faithful industry carried into extreme old age, Mr. Porter has the distinction of having been the second white boy born in his native town, Farmington, where he "arrived" Feb. 24, 1826.

STATE NEWS

THE GALBRAITH LAW IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL SAYS COURT.

COMMISSION MUST LEVY TAX ON THE RAILROADS AT $17.40 PER $1,000.

JUSTICE MONTGOMERY WROTE THE OPINION WHICH ALL CONCURRED IN.

The Law Is Void.

The Galbraith equalization law is unconstitutional. What the last legislature sought to do in the passage of the Galbraith law was held void by the supreme court in an opinion rendered shortly before noon Monday. The court grants the writ of mandamus applied for by Attorney-General Bird, to compel the state board of assessors to reconvene and fix a rate for the taxation of railroads that shall be determined by using the assessed value of the general property of the state as the divisor of the total amount of taxes paid. This rate is $17.40 per $1,000, instead of $14.61, which the assessors found by adding $300,000,000 to the assessed value of the state on the theory that general property was not assessed at cash value.

Justice Montgomery wrote the opinion, which is concurred in by other justices who sat—McAlvay, Grant, Osterlander and Hooker.

The opinion quotes the contention of Attorney-General Bird that Section 11 of Article 14 of the constitution provides the manner of ascertaining the rate and that the act known as the Galbraith equalization law was in conflict therewith. The railroad companies contended that the constitution does not forbid the legislature from providing for ascertainment of a true basis of taxation.

The court drew a distinction between that contention and the position of the board of assessors, which was that the constitutional provision itself conferred upon the board the power to determine according to its best judgment what the average rate levied on other property of the state may be.

"It is not to be denied that the provisions of the state have shown in the many attempts to evade the constitutional provision for the taxation of property at its full cash value, that the opinion 'No' is intended to imply that if the corrective was intended to be conferred by this constitutional provision upon the board, that they have acted not lawfully or impartially, but in a way which is not within the limits before them, and which is void."

The court then stated that the question of the validity of the constitutional provision is not the controlling question, but the question is whether it is valid. "There is little room for construction," continues the court. "The important word is the rate of taxation upon each property shall be the rate which the state board of assessors shall ascertain and determine as the average rate levied upon other property upon which an ad valorem tax is assessed for state, county, township, school and municipal purposes."

It is very clear that this excludes all idea that provision might be made for ascertaining in average rate by taking in account of property upon which no taxes are assessed. To do so would be to go outside to be an average employed.

The opinion states further that the question is not an intricate or difficult one. "The language employed in this amendment is plain, clear English. It requires no interpretation."

The opinion is in line with final action already taken by the state board of assessors, which anticipated such a decision from the court. The application of the rate of $17.40 to railroad valuations of $260,000,000, instead of the rate of $14.61 means an increase in taxes of about $556,000 for the railroads.

Farmers Combine.

Forty per cent of the farmers of central and southern Michigan have joined the American Society of Equity, and with their 200,000 confederates in Indiana will go on strike March 1 to force the price of their produce up to the minimum price set by the officers of the association, which has its headquarters in Indianapolis. This is the announcement of Milo M. Marsh, of Lansing, who has been active for some months in perfecting the organization of the society in Michigan.

Marsh is a former newspaper man. He takes an optimistic view of the outlook for the organization, and says the farmers are taking up to the power which they possess to get better prices for their produce, if they only insist upon their rights.

Thorne M. Rupert, of Northville, a prominent member of the Michigan Bean Growers Association, is authority for the statement that the members of the state will join hands in this move with their fellow grangers.

Mrs. James J. Garrison, of Jackson, died from injuries caused by a fall when she alighted from a car. It is alleged that the car started too soon.

An enthusiastic meeting of Republicans in Traverse City was almost unanimous for nominating city and ward officers by direct vote for the spring election. The city committee has authorized a call for primaries for that purpose.

He started to walk across the lake on the ice, which in a place where it had been cut, was too thin to sustain him. He had no relatives in that locality.

Seventeen beaver skins have been forwarded to Game Warden Chapman by his deputies at Marquette, and will be sold at public auction. The hides are worth considerable money, the game warden says, as there are enough to make two overcoats and a fine lady's jacket. Some of them were taken from very young animals. They were seized in Joe Charbeneau's possession, an old-time Lake Superior rapper now over 70 years of age, who has been fined $50 or 90 days in jail.

COAL STRIKE

THE PRESIDENT AND THE COAL MINERS ONCE MORE.

CROWWELL, CANAL ATTORNEY, ADMITS THAT HE GOT SOME THOUSANDS.

OHIO AND THE SUNNY SOUTH UNDER THE SNOW WHICH FELL PLENTIFULLY.

The Threatened Strike.

Information bearing the seal of undoubted authority makes it certain that while President Roosevelt does not regard his letter to John Mitchell as an act of intervention in the coal mining trouble, he does believe that his letter will be a means of averting a strike.

If the letter fails of its purpose, however, there can be no doubt, in view of the taking of this first step, that when the situation becomes crucial President Roosevelt will act as he did when the anthracite trouble was at its worst.

The decisive act of intervention will come when business paralysis or the sufferings of the poor makes it seem, according to the president's view, that it is his duty as the people's executive to step in between the miners and the operators to put an end to the strike.

Crowwell's Admission.

Wm. Nelson Crowwell, attorney for the old Panama Canal Co., told Senator Morgan during the inquiry into canal affairs before the senate committee Tuesday that he had received not more than $200,000 out of the $400,000 paid the company by the government, but that he had not yet rendered his account for his services.

The information was elicited after another sharp passage at arms with Mr. Morgan in which Crowwell stated that he did not think the matter any of the senator's business, as it involved the relations between counsel and client.

Heavy Snow Fall.

Monday night's snow storm was one of the heaviest and most widespread of the winter in Ohio. It covered the entire Ohio valley. In Cincinnati only three or four inches of snow fell, but at Branton, O., it is reported to have reached a depth of 19 inches on the lake.

A fall of seven inches during the night was reported at Chardon, W. Va., and snow was falling there Tuesday. The heaviest snowfall in Ohio was reported Tuesday from various sections of Kentucky.

The storm was particularly severe at Owensboro, where the city was in darkness all night on account of the destruction of electric high wires, communication by telegraph and telephone was interrupted, and business interrupted.

Twelve inches of snow are reported at Mount Sterling and Cynthiana. Many heads of cattle perished of exposure near Mount Sterling. In Lexington and throughout the blue grass region, the fall amounted to six inches, and in Louisville, the official record of precipitation is 12 inches. The snow, which began about 5 p. m., continued throughout the night, and was followed Tuesday by clouds and somewhat colder weather.

Frightened Frenchman.

Considerable confusion has been caused in Paris by an article on the United States, written by M. Ernest Lagarde, editor of the Revue. The article says:

With all its outward air of activity and external development the United States, which has no immediate neighbors, becomes one of the absorbing and menacing nations of the globe.

Every year its domain is enlarged by the creation of new states, or externally by the spreading and acquisition of spheres of influence. The shadow of the United States moves irresistibly onward, growing larger day by day, and chasing before it the signs of European possession, covering all the lands and all the seas, which will soon be united by the Panama canal.

Hastening the Inquiry.

Preceded by debate which indicated no hesitancy, but rather a relish in taking action against alleged railroad combinations, the house agreed with opposition to the Tillman-Gulespie resolution directing the interstate commerce commission to make an immediate inquiry and report regarding alleged restraints of trade on the part of certain railroads in the handling of coal and oil.

The resolution was not in the form in which it passed the senate and will go back to that body for its second action. The debate occupied an hour and consisted of a succession of speeches in denunciation of alleged practices and an endorsement of the proposed investigations.

Col. Robert Hannigan, a ranchman, of Denning, N. M., who was kidnapped by bandits near Silver City, N. M., and held for ransom, has been released. It was necessary to pay the bandits twice and $1,000. It is said, was secured by them.

Madame Bell-Ranske is telling Philadelphia that singing cured her daughter of consumption. She says singing is more valuable as a means of health than it is as an art. She is trying to have voice culture installed in the public schools.

George Winter, an 18-year-old boy of New York, has been released from jail twice after admitting stealing $12 from his employer. He told the judge that he was a good boy until he met this employer. The latter had taught him to play the horses and play poker. Every Saturday night the employer used to win back his wages from him, he said.

HOCH HANGED.

Johann Hoch, polygamist, convicted of the murder of his wife, Maria Welker Hoch, and suspected of the murder of a dozen other women, was hanged in the Cook county jail Friday at 1:34 p. m.

Three times respited, Hoch insisted to the last that he be granted all the delay that the law conceded him. Under the wording of his sentence the criminal was to hang between the hours of 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. When the last resource of his attorneys, an appeal to the federal court on a violation of the Fourteenth amendment to the constitution which states that a man shall not be deprived of his life without due procedure of law, had been denied, Hoch abandoned all hope of saving his life but still insisted that he be allowed to live as near to 2 o'clock as possible.

When Jailer Whitman, who has long been a friend of Hoch, appeared in his cell and remarked: "It's all off, Johann, nothing more can be done for you," Hoch replied:

"That's all right. It's all right, but I want to have all that is coming to me in point of time. I'll go when 1:30 o'clock comes; but if you try to take me before that time, I'll fight."

"It would not do you any good to fight," replied Jailer Whitman.

"I know that," replied Hoch, "but I want all that is coming to me. I'll go all right at 1:30."

The jailer, after consultation with Deputy Sheriff Peters, agreed to the delay. Hoch then asked that his difficulty be set for his wish was granted and he was given an evident relish and apparently without thought that he would never enjoy another meal.

It was exactly 1:32 o'clock when Hoch, preceded by Deputy Sheriff Peters and attended by Jailer John J. Whitman, Rev. Aschieten and Rev. J. R. Burkland stepped upon the scaffold. Two minutes later Hoch was a corpse.

He walked upon the scaffold quietly and stood directly under the noose with heels together and head erect like a soldier on parade. He was pale, but composed and full of courage.

"Do you want to say anything?" asked Deputy Sheriff Peters.

"Yes," said Hoch, who said in a strong German accent:

"Father, forgive me, they know not what they do. I must die an innocent man. Good-bye."

He chopped off the last words in a short incisive manner and before his voice was silenced, the drop fell.

Coal Miners' Strike.

Patrons J. Robbins, chairman of the Pittsburgh Coal Co. and leader of the bureau of coal operators, declared upon his arrival from New York that he found no possibility of averting a coal strike. Mr. Robbins said he had met President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers, in New York at the house of the president of the United States.

"I have no authority to settle for the operators and Mr. Mitchell cannot settle for the miners," said Mr. Robbins. "I do not think there is any possibility of averting a bituminous coal strike on April 1st."

ON THE IRRIGATED FARMS

In the valleys of the Grand, Gunnison, North Fork and Roaring Fork Rivers and in the San Luis and Ute and Pahre Valleys, of Colorado, and the Farmington district of New Mexico, farming, stockraising and fruit growing are carried on in a way that is a revelation to the farmer in the east.

For those who desire to make new homes, there is no other region that offers better advantages than Western Colorado—a land of blue skies and sunshine, with a temperate and even climate where the cradle of the desert needs but to be irrigated and watered in order to yield a "blossom as the rose." Several illustrated publications, giving valuable information in regard to the agricultural, horticultural and live stock interests of this great western section, have been prepared by the DENVER & RIO GRANDE RAILROAD and can be obtained by addressing:

HUMOR IN ENGLISH ELECTIONS

Ample in conversation and some men who are not contented. He is on the billboards in the British capital. Campaign now on foot. I am opposed to the fact because it is a disgrace to the British Empire. It is a disgrace to the British Empire. It is a disgrace to the British Empire.

Two million tickets were issued by the British Empire. The first traders wanted to know, in the light of the election, what became of the complaint of publisher that there is little demand for fiction.

If you want a happy new year, vote for Brown. A happy new year, for the British Empire. A happy new year, for the British Empire. A happy new year, for the British Empire.

At a meeting in North Camberwell a woman becker wanted Dr. Macnamara to tell the voters whether he would favor repeal of the blasphemy laws. "Oh," exclaimed the doctor, "I'm a golfer!"

Patrolman windows were used by the unionists. candidate at Grimsby. "Anybody," remarked his opponent, "can see through a device of that kind."

THRONE ROOM OF CZARINA

Her Majesty's throne room at the winter palace fronted on a court which was surrounded by well-built walls with curiously shaped doors and windows and ornamented yellow and green tiled designs at intervals, writes Katherine A. Carl in the December Century. In the center of the wall in front was the immense gateway, with wooden folding doors, which had just opened for her passage. The veranda of the throne room had two rooms projecting upon it, making it a rectangular space with walls around three of its sides. The veranda was quite different from any at the summer palace where they run the whole length of the buildings, back and front.

Entering, I was struck by the beauty of the great central hall—the harmony of its proportions, the somber splendor of its color. It seemed to me the most satisfying, the most picturesque of all the restful, harmonious Chinese interiors I had seen. With its dull red walls and its splendid coffered ceiling glowing in color and glinting in gold, the central dome, with elaborately carved pendentives, being painted in brilliant primary colors, subdued to a rich harmony by the demi-obscurity, for it had no lantern and received its light from the windows below.

The curious feature of the domes in several of the palaces in the Violet City, so effective from within, giving elevation and space to the interiors, is that they are not visible from the outside of the edifice. The beautiful straight line of the roof, with its upturned corners remains intact in its purity and retains its restful simplicity.

The hall was paved with great blocks of highly polished black marble, which dimly reflected the glowing splendor of the walls and ceiling. In the center of one side was a low dais, richly carpeted, on which stood a great antique throne and footstool of red lacquer, framed in ebony and inlaid with cloisonne, the three-leaved screen behind was of bronze, with landscapes in low relief. On each side a giant in golden character gave the needed touch of brilliancy to the somber massiveness of the dais.

Great wooden doors, with huge gilded dragons in high relief, opened into apartments to the right and left of this splendid hall. These portals were always thrown wide, and heavily padded satin portieres hung from the eaves. The front and rear of the hall were almost entirely of glass, with the pillars that supported the roof standing clear between the windows—the lower half of plate glass the upper transparent Korean paper.

Those Electric Lights.

A well known taxpayer suggests to the Record that it is to be hoped the new council will take up the matter of all night electric light service. The inconvenience of the present method of shutting off the lights at 11:30 has been many times alluded to, and it is a very great inconvenience not only to those who arrive in or leave town on the late cars, but also in cases of sickness and death. The added expense, as has been shown, would not be great and the general sentiment seems to be all in favor of such extension of the service.

Northville is beginning to be spoken of as a back number town in this connection as it is about the only town in Michigan using electricity for illuminating purposes that does not run its plant from dark until daylight.

Whitney's Opera House—Detroit.

The thrilling military drama, "Marching through Georgia," will be the offering at the Whitney next week. Mr. Hart has used incidents occurring during the war of the rebellion as the theme of his play, the various scenes of which are located among the ruins of Sherman's March to the Sea. The interest is furnished by the traits of two young lovers, a southerner and a Northerner, who meet daily except Wednesday.

Lyceum Theater—Detroit.

"The Woman of the Case," at the Lyceum next week, comes here direct from a four months' run at the Herald Square Theater, New York. A wife must prove her husband innocent of a murder with which he has been wrongfully and vindictively charged. There is but one way to win the truth out of the woman who is his chief accuser—a woman of the town. The wife must incarnate herself into the woman's confidence, play upon her weaknesses, eventually live her personal life, finally to the telling of the tale that shall prove that the murder was really a suicide. Matinee Wednesday and Saturday.

Suburban News.

The opera house at Wayne has been converted into a roller skating rink. "So wheels the world along."

A gold watch stolen from a Carleton man on the occasion of the celebrated masquerade at Monroe a couple of months ago has been discovered in a Detroit pawn shop.

We've always heard that it was better for people with gold watches to keep away from ratty places and this proves it. Some people, however, may have pawned their watch before they went.

A hay rack party was one of the amusements of River Rouge people last week. They ate their supper with forks, of course, and enjoyed themselves well that they "stuffed" for no more.

One of the professors at Michigan University has been drawn on the circuit court jury for March. He should be particularly adapted to get along with all the different classes represented.

Politics which oughtn't to have anything to do with church affairs, unless as a candidate for forgiveness, and money, which is a very important factor in religious work, have in combination caused such dissensions in a Wyandotte congregation that the church has closed for repairs to the ceiling, or sciences self-esteem and other elevated mental qualities are concerned.

An especially engaging young man collected a goodly harvest of dollars from Pontiac Elks and Knights of Columbus last week for the purpose of getting up an album for those orders with pictures of all the members. A well known local photographer was to take the pictures. The only negatives so far secured are those in answer to questions relative to the whereabouts of the album man.

The Sunday services of one of the religious societies of Ypsilanti that has no church building are held in the justice court room. It is a horrible thought, on the hypothesis of psychic ramifications, that some of the general-badness microbes disseminated by the law-breakers who attend the week-day services might get loose and be hanging around Sundays and become incorporated into the moral systems of some of the particularly good meetin' folks, to neutralize all the good teachings and break out sometime with startling effect. The thought is certainly terrifying—if not profoundly sensible.

LORIMER IN SHEPHERD KING.

Great Biblical Production at Detroit Opera House Next Week.

Mr. Wright Lorimer's appearance in "The Shepherd King" at the Detroit Opera House for one week beginning Monday, March 5th, including Wednesday and Saturday matinees, has attracted considerable attention throughout this vicinity, and his engagement promises to be unusually successful. Mr. Lorimer's creation of the character of David is said to be a remarkable one and will be viewed with unusual interest by many people, who realize the dramatic possibilities of this remarkable personage in Talmudic history. Mr. Lorimer and his company of 120 players will be seen for the first time in Detroit in the stupendous production of the four act powerful romantic drama, "The Shepherd King," now in its third season. This attraction is under the management of Wm. A. Brady and will be given in Detroit with exactly the same production and cast seen during the successful runs in New York and Boston. Mr. Lorimer is one of the foremost romantic actors of the day and in his acting of the role of David, as well as in writing and producing such a masterful drama as "The Shepherd King," has demonstrated that he is one of the most able men on the American stage. "The Shepherd King" is founded on the early history of David of Israel as related in the Second Book of Samuel and First Book of Kings in the Old Testament, and covers that period of David's life from the time he left his father's home on the hills of Judea, until he became King of Israel at the death of Saul and his son Jonathan. "The Shepherd King" is a master play masterfully preterred, and during the engagement the orchestra will be increased to twenty-five musicians. Mail orders accompanied by remittances and self addressed stamped envelope for return, are now received.

We want you to know that Calcura Solvent, Dr. Kennedy's latest medicine, is no ordinary remedy. That it is based upon a new principle of the cause and cure of kidney and bladder troubles.

Calcura Solvent's power to cure diseases of the kidney and bladder is the happy result of the efforts of that skilled physician and surgeon, Dr. David Kennedy, to make a medicine that would dissolve and expel from the system stone, gravel and uric acid. In this way, Calcura Solvent not only cures the disease but also removes the irritating cause. It is not a patent medicine but a prescription used by Dr. Kennedy in his large private practice with uniform success.

To insure you with the same confidence that we have, we make this remarkable guarantee. We hereby guarantee to refund the money to any sufferer from kidney or bladder troubles who uses Calcura Solvent and is not benefited, and we further agree to act on the user's word as to proof. If you are not well, you cannot afford to neglect the use of Calcura on this guarantee. A. J. Hughes, Secy.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its terrible effects, blood disease is called the "silent killer." It may be either hereditary or contracted, and while it is a crime to have the disease, it is a crime to permit it to remain in the system. It may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, redness of the skin, eruptions of blotches, sores in the mouth or on the tongue, sore throat, falling out of hair, disordered stomach, and a general depression of the system. If you have any of these symptoms don't neglect yourself. You have no time to lose. Beware of "old fog" treatment—beverage of purgative—beverage of tonics and Bane. OUR NEW METHOD TRIKA VIT is guaranteed to cure this disease never to return. Bank hours will protect you. Our treatment is not in vogue in any way, but reaches the very root of the disease and eliminates all poisons from the system. All symptoms of disease gradually disappear. The blood comes pure and clear, the system is cleansed and purified, and the patient feels prepared to go on with the life. 25 years in Detroit. 250,000 cured.
