Vol. XXXVII. No. 34.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, MARCH 30, 1906.

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

THE RACE IS NOW ON

REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS HAVE TOWN TICKETS.

The Interest Largely Centered On Supervisor.

Both the Republican and Democrat township tickets are regarded as strong ones and only for the fact that the former party has the advantage of a large majority there would be a decidedly interesting and probably close race. The interest will center around the election of a supervisor. Both are good clean men and are equally well known in Northville. Mr. Lly has the advantage of the Republican majority and Mr. Sessions in the fact that he is the present incumbent of the office.

The Republican caucus was held Saturday afternoon and was attended by eighty odd people. The nominations were all made by acclamation except for treasurer in which Jas. Huff won out by a vote of 57 to 26 for George Whipple.

The Democratic caucus was held Monday night with about twenty in attendance. There were no contests, all the nominations being made by acclamation.

Following are the tickets as nominated.

The dramatic bit of the evening is in the hands of Sherman & Bagley who present their original creation "Stranded," dealing with the troubles of a company attempting to play "Othello" with the assistance of a Soubrette. Prices, down stairs 25c, gallery 15c.

PASSED AWAY WEDNESDAY NIGHT

MRS. ESTHER S. NEAL, AGED EIGHTY YEARS

Was Formerly Resident of Lenawee County.

Mrs. Esther Stephenson Neal, mother of the publisher of this paper, died Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. H. Baker after a brief illness of 24 hours.

Mrs. Neal was 80 years of age. She was the last of a large family of children, all of whom excepting herself lived and died in the neighborhood of Morenci, Lenawee County.

The family came from Seneca county N. Y., to Michigan in the seventies. Mrs. Neal came to reside here with her daughter about two years ago, but owing to her advanced age and delicate health had led a retired life.

She leaves two sons, Frank S. of this place and John A. of the Rock, Onton, and one daughter, Mrs. Alice Baker, also of Northville.

The funeral will be held from the Baker residence Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. W. George Stephens, conducting the services, assisted by Rev. W. S. Jerome.

Interment will be in the Neal vault in Rural Hill cemetery.

Postponed Auction Sale.

Charles H. Tiffin's sale of horses, cows, sheep, hogs, wagons, buggies, harnesses and farm tools, postponed on account of the very bad weather takes place tomorrow, Saturday March 31, on the premises four miles southwest of town commencing at ten o'clock, with lunch and hot coffee at noon. John Bennett is the auctioneer.

Well dressed women wear Coates' stylish Millinery. Opening April 5-7.

CLARENCE SHAFER.

Two Northville boys, Clarence Shafer and Everett Orger, who were recently jailed in Detroit on the unjust charge of purloining a trombone and were released after four days and five nights, on confession of the real culprit who had been taken to Toledo for another theft.

EVERETT ORGER.

Fritch-Simmons.

A quiet and impressive wedding took place Wednesday, March 28, at two o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simmons near Farmington. The contracting parties were Dr. O. B. Fritch of Cloverdale and Miss Lilian Simmons of Livonia with Rev. S. F. Blumock as the officiating clergyman. The bride was attended by Miss Annand Child of Detroit and Dr. Charles Knapp of Detroit was groomsmen.

After the ceremony a thirty lunch was served to about thirty guests. The couple left the same evening for Cloverdale with the best wishes of many friends. There were many useful and beautiful presents.

Besides relatives and some friends guests from Detroit, Plymouth and Northville helped to make it a very enjoyable occasion.

Another Citizen "Surprised."

One of the latest "victims" in the line of surprises is "Roe" Thornton, who was given a delightful party of that nature by about forty relatives and friends Saturday evening at the home of his sister, Mrs. Morris Nichols, in honor of his 60th birthday. Mr. Thornton was lured to the scene under "false pretenses" and suddenly confronted by a whole household of "the folks" who did all sorts of things to him, including the presentation of a handsome Morris chair, with Arthur Nichols of Detroit as spokesman, who performed that act in his well known skillful manner. After recovering from his very natural embarrassment under so complete a surprise, the guest of honor enjoyed the social evening and delicious supper as heartily as did all the others. A number of out-of-town guests were present.

Baptist Church Notes.

The regular monthly business meeting of the B. Y. P. U. will be held with Miss Mary Freeman next Wednesday evening.

The lecture on Japan by Rev. W. H. Heinzman of the Salem Baptist church Tuesday evening was very interesting and much enjoyed.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

[By the Pastor]

The offering next Sunday morning will be for Foreign missions.

The sermon next Sunday evening will be on "Don't Be Fooled."

The Lord's Supper will be administered next Sunday morning and new members received into the church.

We lose a faithful Sunday school teacher in the departure of Miss Camilla Wheeler. She will be greatly missed.

We were all glad to see Mr. Gladning in his place last Sunday as assistant superintendent of the Sunday school.

The Ladies Aid society are planning an Easter fair and festival, which we hope will be a very pleasant and profitable occasion. It will be an all day affair. An interesting program in the evening.

Methodist Church Notes.

[By the Pastor]

Public service on Sunday as usual. In the evening the pastor will give an address on "Perseverance." A full attendance is desired.

The Methodist pastor of Walled Lake, Rev. L. H. Stevens, and his wife made a short visit at the parsonage on Wednesday last.

The Sunday school librarian greatly wishes the immediate return of all library books that have been out beyond the allotted time. We would say "Let all books belonging to the school be returned at once."

The attendance at the Epworth League meeting last Sunday evening was the largest we have yet seen here. The subject, "Missions in Africa," was well dealt with by the leader. If the Epworth League is a benefit to those who attend and increases in interest and larger attendance in the service which follows it will be worth while continuing it.

Suburban News.

Laurel has a Mushroom peddling club. It generally brings up to a night. Advertiser.

And the members frequently get into a stew.

Plymouth Universalist society has a new pastor, Rev. Frank W. Miller from New Hampshire. It is expected that he will be universally popular.

The Wayne Review spelled it "geese" last week, but they were wild geese anyway, and besides any long suffering proof reader knows it is a lot easier to make a mistake after the paper is printed.

The state analyst has issued a carefully indefinite opinion concerning the Plymouth milk suspected of poisoning people in that village, and now the folks know a little less than they did before about what caused the mischief.

A California girl visiting in Ann Arbor was given the first sleigh-ride of her life on March 21. Lots of people in this part of the country aren't used to having a chance to cutter round on runners at that time of year.

And now the "whiz wagon" factory prospector who is "looking for a site" has gotten as far as Holly and a considerable meeting was held Monday to consider all the considerations and cite a sign of reasons why a site there would be just the thing.

Pontiac is such a racing center that even the junk dealers have speed contests with their old nags, using their junk wagons as racing sulkeys. Two races of the above description were pulled off there last week the winner capturing a "purse" of $2.00, and the loser only getting a little sulky.

Riding on the street cars down Wyandotte way must be a treat to folks who like excitement. A free-for-all fight was indulged in by a gang of Uncle Samuel's adopted sons from over the seas the other night and it even reached the knife drawing stage before the "risk" passengers could be ejected.

The Plymouth Mail has joined the great army of weather prophets and prognosticates "a long, cold spring." The Mail's meteorological department ought to be suppressed. A country newspaper should be nothing if not optimistic, even in regard to the weather. A "long" spring would meet with general approval but a long cold one is not to be encouraged for a minute.

Held For Trial.

John Blake, slayer of Police Sergeant Fred H. Booth, has been identified by the Toledo police as John Hamilton, alias "Toledo Blade." The Toledo authorities state in a letter to Chief of Police Boyle that he has been out of an eastern prison but a short time.

The burglar who gave his name as John Hamilton has been identified as John Miller, alias Hamilton Jack, alias Scott. He participated in a burglary at Niagara Falls, Ont., June 18, 1902. The third of the trio is Jack Waipole, of Detroit. All have been identified. All three have been held to the circuit court for trial. Blake's bail was placed at $20,000.

That John Blake, slayer of Police Sergeant Fred Booth, is John Zeigler, a former resident of the south end, Saginaw, is the belief of the Saginaw police department, according to a letter received from Captain of Police Walsh of that city. The identification, though not absolute, was made by Schuyler Patterson, a former clerk of the Saginaw police court, from a photograph of Blake.

Former Detective James H. Forrest, of Toronto, says Hamilton is undoubtedly a former Hamilton, Ont., boy and known in Toronto under two names, Miller and Scott. In his young days Hamilton served a term in the Mimico industrial school, and on June 5, 1902, he was arrested here at the request of the Niagara Falls police for burglary. He was taken back to Toronto and served three years in Kingston penitentiary as presentence.

TWO ANECDOTES OF CRANE

A New York newspaper man who knew Stephen Crane, one of the most promising writers of English of his generation, died before he was 30—when he was in London just after his return from the Cuban war. He relates some amusing stories concerning the writer at the time.

One morning Crane dropped into a newspaper office to borrow a sovereign from a friend. He said that he was going to luncheon with Harold Frederic, now also dead for whom he had an admiration almost amounting to awe, but with whom he was then only slightly acquainted, though they afterward became inseparable friends.

In the middle of the afternoon Crane came back for another sovereign and told a tale of woe. He had asked Frederic on their way to luncheon to have an appetizer on their way to luncheon and had handed out the sovereign he had just borrowed in payment therefor. The barmaid had laid the change

State Tax Rate Lower than Ten Years Ago.

Some figures recently quoted by Governor Warner, relative to state receipts and state expenditures and of direct interest and importance to every Michigan taxpayer. State expenditures have increased but twenty per cent during the past ten years, while state receipts from corporations have increased over one hundred percent, and the latter ratio does not include the much larger increase provided for by state law, which it is expected the railroads will later be required to pay. The state tax rate of ten years ago was $9.20 on each one thousand dollars of property valuation. The state tax rate for the past year was $2.60 on each thousand. More than half of the total state taxes of last year were devoted to Michigan's educational and benevolent institutions, and all increase in state tax is due to increased requirements in educational and benevolent directions.

Enrollment Is a "Fair Deal."

The opposition to the requirement of the present primary election law, that voters shall be enrolled as to the party candidates they wish to assist in selecting, and that they shall not be permitted to select the candidates of the party they expect to oppose, is disappearing very rapidly. It is a requirement so reasonable and so necessary, as suggested by Grand Rapids recent experience as to make a primary election almost a farce without it. The fact that several thousand democrats voted for republican candidates, at the recent Grand Rapids primaries, whom most of these same democrats will do their best to defeat at the coming election, is a more effective argument in behalf of a provision to prevent such fraudulent voting than could be presented in pages of theorizing. The party enrollment feature of Michigan's primary election law will be approved by all who favor a fair vote and a square deal.
