MILKING-MACHINES

NORTHVILLE FOLKS SAW THEM DO BUSINESS.

Visited Big Warner-Smith Farm in Huron County.

Several Northville people were members of the party of a hundred or more of Governor Warner's Oakland and Wayne county neighbors and friends who enjoyed the delightful hospitality of the governor and Congressman Smith at their big farm near Owego, Huron county, the first of this week.

To those who had never visited it, as well as to those who had previously been there, the beautiful thousand acre farm with its four hundred acres under cultivation by the work of seven teams and ten men, its fine growing crops, up-to-date buildings, tools and equipments, model cheese factory and blooded live stock were objects of the liveliest interest, but of all the sights the visitors were treated to, the most novel and absorbing was the milking by machinery of the seventy-one cows that constitute the dairy herd of this celebrated farm.

Six machines are used, and the mechanical milkers, manipulated by two men, do in an hour and a half the same amount of milk-gathering that formerly took eight men just double that amount of time to accomplish. Besides their value as time and labor-savers, the ingenious machines do the work under conditions of absolute cleanliness utterly impossible to hand-work, even with every imaginable observance of the rules of the best sanitation.

The power is supplied by a gasoline engine which operates an air-pump in a building adjoining the neat cement-floored stalls where the cows are milked. Connection is made with a metal air-valved pipe running along near the ceiling by means of rubber hose extending to each stall to which the tubes of the machines are attached, two cows at a time being milked with each machine, by the simple process of air-suction. The milk is drawn through the four tubes applied to each udder and flows through another pipe into a tightly closed receptacle, about ten minutes being sufficient to exhaust the supply from two animals. This milking outfit, including the engine and all the appurtenances, cost about $800.

After the guests had finished their inspection of the premises, a delicious luncheon was served on the roomy porch of the farm house by Farm Superintendent and Mrs. Bradner and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Oldenburg of the cheese factory, and then the big farm wagons that had brought the visitors from the station 2 1/2 miles away were brought round to take them back again, after a day which all acknowledged to be among the pleasantest of their experience.

SHE HAS LIVED EIGHTY-EIGHT YEARS

MRS. CATHARINE OVENSHERE OF THIS PLACE

Became a Resident of this Vicinity Nearly Seventy Years Ago.

A very interesting personality among the long-time residents of Northville, but one who leads so quiet and retired a life that the pleasure of knowing her is not now given to a large circle, is Mrs. Catherine Slagle Ovenshere, mother of Mrs. L. K. Simonds of High Street, whose home she has shared for some years past.

Mrs. Ovenshere was born in Trumansburg, N. Y., July 18, 1818, and hence has just begun her eighty-ninth year of life.

She was the wife of John Ovenshere who was a prominent and respected

MRS. CATHARINE OVENSHERE. Probably Northville's oldest woman, inhabitant and she is still bright and attractive.

figure in Northville's business life for about 40 years as a furniture dealer and was known in that capacity all over this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovenshere were married in 1835, and two years later came to Michigan, settling on a farm in southwestern Oakland county about 3 1/2 miles northwest of Northville. In 1853 they moved into the village and Mr. Ovenshere embarked in the business he was to follow for so long a period. He died in 1902. They were the parents of five sons and daughters, only one of whom, Mrs. Simonds, is now living. In appearance Mrs. Ovenshere is very much younger than the date of her birth attests, and her erect figure might be envied by many women young enough to be her granddaughters. She has also retained her mental faculties to a remarkable degree and has a very sweet face and charming manner. A combination of figures peculiar enough to be worth nothing is found in Mrs. Ovenshere's birth-date as will be noticed, and "18" ought certainly to be her "lucky number."

Suburban News.

South Lyon is to try the street fair and carnival racket this year. The dates are from the 13th to the 15th—inclusive—of the present month.

An uncle and nephew aged respectively 64 and 49 years, went to the county clerk's office at Ann Arbor together one day last week and secured licenses to wed the ladies of their choice.

Sneak thieves are pestering Fenton, money, watches, jewelry and food having been taken from various houses. The local Sherlock Holmeses have been thus far baffled in their efforts to diagnose the cases.

Oxford's municipal laws not only prohibit the use of sidewalks for bicycle riding, but express wagons and carts of all kinds except baby buggies must keep off. A spell of enforcing the ordinance is now on.

Rather tired buggies are very nice to ride in but too noisy for the safety of pedestrians. A Rochester lady was run over by a rig of that kind the other evening and has received some of the best of tired body ever since.

The Farmington Enterprise office must have been a dog-gone busy printery last week. In one column that paper announced that a brown bound pup might be called for there and in another described a three colored hound as obtainable by a similar process.

The Oxford Leader is enlarging its subscription list and incidentally starting a series of neighborhood rows by offering tickets to the State fair grounds and all that in them is, to the most popular young lady in each of five Oakland county towns including its own. The voting blanks are printed in the paper and there are no free copies.

The latest and queerest snake story comes from Jackson. A lady living near that city found in the white of a fresh egg a "snake" four inches long, pure white in color and about as large around as a wheat straw, with two black specks in lieu of eyes. The varmint, which appeared to be harmless, is at present taking an alcohol bath at Albion college.

Six empty beer-bottles are legal tender for one full one at Detroit and even small boys are allowed to make the swap, three ten year olds having been discovered in the act of emptying one thus obtained a short time ago. There's very likely to be beer row when their parents find it out. Men who would do a thing of that kind deserve to be supplied with another variety of beer.

The several members of an Ypsilanti family got greatly excited one night recently because two different strangers at two different times attempted to come into the house of the aforesaid family during a pouring rain. The reign of unstudied and promiscuous hospitality hasn't yet begun at Ypsilanti and a tight rein seems to be kept on any tendencies of that kind. It's a wet town for wet folks if it isn't a dry town for dry folks.

KEPT PROMISE TO THE LETTER.

But New Yorker Was Not Entirely Barred From Whisky.

A portly man walked into a Gilded Gehenna on Broadway the other night and requested the barkeeper to pour him out a drink of scotch. The portly man kept his thumbs thrust into the armpits of his waistcoat. The barkeeper poured out the whisky and shored the glass across the bar. "Thanks," said the portly man. "Now would you mind holding the glass up to my mouth while I drink it?"

With a wondering stare the barkeeper held up the glass and the round customer drank the whisky with a sigh of satisfaction. "A man who has watched the proceedings with interest" uttered from the shoulder. "Pardon me, sir," he said, "if I seem to be unduly inquisitive, but you seem to be possessed of two good hands. Would you mind telling me why you could not lift that glass yourself?"

"Oh, that's all right," replied the gentleman of the robust build with a mellow rumble. "You see I promised my wife that never again would I raise a glass of whisky to my lips! Promise to a wife are sacred, you know."—New York Press.

Spectacle Eagles

Many birds are provided with natural spectacles, a transparent membrane called the third eyelid. This third eyelid, when not in use, lies folded in the inner corner of the eye. Two muscles work it, spreading it over the corner or folding it up again much more cleverly than a man can put on or take off his spectacles. But for the third eyelid the eagle could not look at the sun. — Detroit Free Press.

RUSSIAN STRIFE.

Although the mutinies at Sveaborg have been ended and one of Cronstadt has been practically put down, the outlook is still black. The revolutionists, whose hands were suddenly forced by the premature rising at Sveaborg, apparently are undaunted at these initial reverses, and intend to persist in their programme of calling a general strike.

It can be stated definitely that the first step toward a dictatorship may be taken by the nomination of Grand Duke Nicholas to the chief command of all troops in Russia.

A mutiny of huge proportions is believed to be in progress at Sevastopol. There is every indication that the rebels have gained the upper hand.

There is much uncertainty regarding conditions in Odessa. There have been persistent reports that a portion of the garrison were preparing to kill their officers and take possession of the barracks and equipment after ward putting themselves at the service of the revolutionists.

After an all night secret session at Toulon, Finland the council of workmen deputies decided to overcome the obstacle offered by the apathy of the railroad men toward the general strike, by the use of bombs.

The fate of the general strike, which although it is expected to close to 70,000 men in St. Petersburg, has met with only slight response in other sections of Russia probably will be decided with an adverse expression of public opinion.

The Democracy of Michigan in convention assembled firmly reasserts its allegiance to the principles of majority rule and pure Democracy wherein laws are proposed, enacted and executed for the sole purpose of protecting the interest of all the people without favor or special privilege to any class or individual.

One. Evils under the form of combinations and trusts, which have so shocked the moral conscience of the nation in the last few years are a direct outcome of class legislation by the Republican party conferring privileges upon corporations at the expense of the common people. A continuance of such legislation is now threatened by the many bills of like character as for instance the ship subsidy bill, and inadequate remedial laws enacted by the recent congress, showing that there is no honest purpose on the part of the Republican party to relieve the people from the evils thus cast upon them by this unjust class legislation. Their affiliations with the classes thus favored make it absolutely impossible to obtain relief from Republican sources. In proof of the uncertainty of the Republican party not affording any relief from these national evils, we have but to refer to their action in rejecting the Shot Herself.

Mrs. Allen Shattuck, aged 65, of Lansing, wife of a well known Grand Army man, ended her life by shooting herself in the head. She had made an attempt earlier in the day, but failed to inflict a fatal wound. Her husband had then hidden the revolver, but she discovered it and sent a bullet into her temple, dying instantly. She was the mother of nine children, all of whom are living, one being Mrs. Frank Van Black, of Detroit.

When women cry at a wedding it's hard to tell whether it's from sympathy or envy.

In the Illinois primary, Senator Cullem "put it over" Gov. Dick Yates by 25,000 votes.

The Chicago East & Dye Co.'s plant in West Branch was partially destroyed by fire. The loss of $5,000 is covered by insurance, and the burned building will be rebuilt at once.

Ed. Miller, for years a confirmed morphine fiend, has left the Kalama zoo jail cured of the habit. When he came to the jail, he was so weak he begged the officers not to give him the drug no matter how much he might beg for it. He apparently suffered no old agonies for several days, but the officers were firm in their promise to help him, and did not heed his appeals. Miller says now that he has no desire for morphine.

proposition of Senator La Follette, regarding railroad rate legislation, which, if adopted, would have brought certain relief, and was in perfect accord with the declarations on that subject in the Democratic platform of 1896.

Fully believing in the honesty, integrity and wisdom of William Jennings-Bryan, and that under his leadership the people would receive relief from the many ills above referred to, we commend him to the people of the United States as candidate for president in 1908.

Two. We favor the nomination of all candidates for office by direct vote of the people and will do everything in our power to secure legislation directly to that end. We favor the adoption of such legislation or constitutional amendments as shall provide, viz:

(a) For the election of railroad and tax commissioners by direct vote of the people.

(b) We favor home rule, giving to any city, village, county or township the right to decide for itself, subject to the referendum and matters of purely local interest, regarding local taxes and the question of owning and operating any given public utility, requiring franchise rights, or granting of franchise for such ownership to a private company.

(c) We are in favor of the nomination and election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

(d) We favor the repeal of the so-called indeterminate sentence law, and restoring to the judges discretion in the punishment of persons convicted of crime.

(e) We are opposed to a political pardon board and in favor of its abolition.

(f) We reaffirm our faith in popular government by majority vote and pledge ourselves to enact the same by the adoption of that principle of pure Democracy, the initiative and referendum and popular recall.

Three. We are in favor of a passenger rate on railroads not exceeding two cents per mile in the southern peninsula of this state and not exceeding three cents per mile in the northern peninsula.

Four. We must emphatically declare for the election of delegates to the forthcoming constitutional convention by non-partisan method and that any candidate for delegate may have his name on such candidate placed on the official ballot, if a petition by a reasonable number of voters is filed in his behalf. The names on the official ballot should be without party or other designation. We demand an amendment to the election law by eliminating the cross at the head of the ballot and in place thereof require placing a cross before the name of each candidate for whom the voter desires to vote.

Five. We condemn in the press, in public debate, in the action of the legislature and in passing the change of venue law, which makes it possible for a litigant upon making a prescribed affidavit without examination as to the truth of the statements therein made, to have his case transferred to another circuit, thus placing a premium upon perjury and discommodating litigants and making the trial of causes a farce.

Six. We believe that laws should be enacted making it a criminal offense for any member of the state legislature, or a state officer, to accept or use free transportation from any railroad or transportation company.

Seven. We denounce the present primary election law as a fraud and sham, and pledge ourselves to enact a primary law simple and workable and that will not, in its operation deprive any voter of his franchise.

Eight. Our state government needs readjustment upon the lines of greater economy and better business methods. We urge the voters of Michigan to lay aside party prejudices, to elect members of the legislature who are in sympathy with honest primary reform and the other principles herein enumerated, and to unite with us in electing the state officers nominated at this convention who are pledged to the earnest support of those principles.

Killed the Conductor.

Conductor "Bud" Stone, aged 21, of Saginaw, was killed by a stab in the back which severed an artery, the deed being done by Tony Bartello, aged 45, an Italian who sought revenge for a practical joke played on him which he attributed to his victim. Stone was conductor of a Pere Marquette work train operating near Lowell, Mich., which are quartered about 40 Italians mostly from Detroit, and Bartello was one of these. He became intoxicated and went to the caboose, where Stone was about to retire, and attacked him. Stone, after receiving the wound in his leg, leaped from the car, calling for help, but fell before going far and died in a few moments.

No one can understand why men show so much anxiety regarding a woman's age.

Three times out of four fault finding is merely an expression of impatience, and the only good it does is to relieve the irritable feeling caused by the discovery of some one with whom we are at odds.

A special train on the D. & M. railroad ran down a handcar with Albert Stewart and John Mulholland aboard. Both Stewart's legs were broken and he was otherwise badly bruised, but Mulholland was scarcely scratched.

The Bank Closed.

The Milwaukee Avenue State bank, one of the largest banks outside of the downtown district in Chicago, closed its doors Monday following a run on the institution. The first intimation of trouble was the appearance at the bank of 20 policemen, who had been dispatched to prevent anticipated disorders, the police department having been notified officially that one of the officers of the bank had absconded.

Henry W. Harris, cashier of the bank, is missing and a warrant charging him with embezzlement has been sworn out. At the same time State Bank Examiner C. C. Jones issued a statement to the effect that the whereabouts of some officers of the bank is unknown to him and that the bank is without an official head.

A Lost Child.

Hundreds of persons were searching the woods around the Allouez mine Tuesday for the 3-year-old son of John Karala, who has been missing for a week. The father has offered $100 reward for the recovery of his child and Allouez township offers another $100 if the child is not found the Calumet & Hecla, Allouez, Tamarack, Osceola and several other mining companies will furnish men to make a systematic search of the woods. The Houghton County Street Railway Co. is providing special cars without charge.

Aged Man Missing.

Frederick Reule, aged 69, has disappeared completely since June 18, when two of his sons took him to the depot in Jackson for a trip to visit relatives in Lyons, N. Y. The aged man never reached his destination nor can any trace of him be found in any of the cities between there and Lyons. He had about $40 in his purse when he left and was in the best of health. His two sons have been constantly searching for him and are now completely discouraged.

BOY'S TERRIBLE ECZEMA.

"When my little boy was six months old, he had eczema. The sores extended so quickly over the whole body that we at once called in the doctor. We then went to another doctor, but he could not help him, and in our despair we went to a third one. Matters became so bad that he had regular holes in his cheeks, large enough to put a finger into. The food had to be given with a spoon, for his mouth was closed with crusts as thick as a finger, and whenever he opened the mouth they began to bleed and suppurate, as did also his eyes. Hands, arms, chest and back, in short the whole body was covered over and over. We had no rest by day or night. Whenever he was laid in his bed, we had to pin his hands down; otherwise he would scratch his face and make an open sore. I think his face must have looked most fearful."

"We finally thought nothing could help, and I had made up my mind to send my wife with the child to Europe, hoping that the sea air might cure him. Otherwise he was to be put under good medical care there. But, Lord be blessed, matters came differently, and we soon saw a miracle. A friend of ours spoke about Cuticura. We made a trial with Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent, and within ten days or two weeks we noticed a decided improvement. Just as quickly as the sickness had appeared it also began to disappear, and within ten weeks the child was absolutely well, and his skin was smooth and white as never before. F. Hohrath, President of the C. L. Hohrath Company, Manufacturers of Silk Ribbons, 4 to 20, Rank Alley, South Bethlehem, Pa., June 5, 1905."

PHYSICIAN SAYS

Children Thrive on Grape Nuts and Cream.

A Mass physician has found a cure for constipation in children—eating fifteen cases—by feeding them Grape Nuts.

Some time ago," he writes, "I became interested in your food, Grape Nuts, as a cure for constipation in children. Having tried it in my own family, I have advised it in fifteen cases in which all suffered with constipation more or less severe. The result has been absolute relief in all."

"I write this that other children may be benefited."

How much better it is thus to bring about a healthy action in the bowels of growing children by natural means, than to feed them with improper food, requiring some kind of cathartic at intervals to overcome constipation.

Grape Nuts gives energy to the entire nervous system including the nerves that cause the natural contraction and relaxation of the bowels, muscles, that propel the food mass along.

It is predigested also, and the blood easily absorbs the food as it goes through the body, storing up vitality and force for the functions of all the organs.

Children especially should get the right start as to habits of living. They should grow into bright, strong, cheerful men and women. Grape Nuts solve the question of the start; a wholesome appetite will do the rest.

Children's teeth are benefited by chewing Grape Nuts, also. Your dentist will tell you that a certain amount of exercise in chewing firm food, is necessary to grow strong, beautiful teeth.

Even these exercise just the same as muscles, if they are to grow strong and firm as nature intended. Grape Nuts gives the exercise and also gives material from which good teeth are made.

Not Railroad Controlled.

Another point was gained in the state's behalf, recently through a decision by the supreme court that no bar existed against the collection of the four million dollars in back taxes, claimed to be due from the Michigan Central Railroad, by reason of the time that had elapsed since the taxes were claimed to be due. The position taken by the railroad company was that the state is barred by the statute of limitations. This claim was set aside by the supreme court. Whether or not the state will finally succeed in its effort to collect the several million dollars thought to be due from the Michigan Central railroad it is quite evident that every available resource of the law will be aggressively made use of in that direction. It is interesting to recall in this connection that throughout the state campaign of two years ago it was declared by Fred Warner's opponents that the state administration would be controlled by the railroads and would be favorable to all railroad schemes and purposes. With that declaration in mind the history of Michigan affairs since the first day of January, 1905, will be interesting for review purposes during the coming state campaign.

Saves Taxpayers $40,000.

Statements made in several newspapers, last week, that the cost to the state of providing for the insane had been increased one cent per day for each patient at the recent joint meeting of asylum boards, would have been correct if a directly opposite declaration had been made. The truth is that a decrease of one cent per day for each inmate was decided on at the recent meeting referred to, a saving of more than $100,000 and this in the cost of maintaining asylum patients.
followed a similar cut made by the same board not far ago. The total saving to the taxpayers of the state through these two reductions will be about $40,000. Governor Warner is a member of the joint asylum board and has been very influential in the economy, but the credit for the reduction belongs as well to the members of the asylum boards and to the asylum managements.

Atwood Not the Engineer.

In a long editorial on "Who is Atwood" among other things the Pontiac Gazette says:

He made the Bliss administration a sublime example of spineless government and the honest but weak-kneed governor a valiant of his intrigues.

And here again the Gazette is quite mistaken if it thinks Mr. Atwood operated the Bliss administration.
Had he done so it would have been quite of another character in many respects. The real engineering of the Bliss administration was from Detroit and not from the Railroad Commissioner's office. Mr. Atwood has been made the scape goat of about all the bad politics in the state. He has been led about, unfettered and called names and half the people believe he is the greatest villain alive, which he isn't. The unwritten history of the Bliss administration would surprise some people who think Mr. Atwood was

A VETERAN OF THE SPANISH WAR

Expresses His Great Faith In Pe-ru-na.

Pe-ru-na Is a Tonic Especially Adapted to the Prevention and Relief of All Catarrhal Ailments Due to the Vicissitudes of Climate and Exposure Experienced by the Soldier.

An Old Soldier's Praise.

Mr. F. B. Cox, Center Oak, Pa., writes:
"I was taken with hemorrhages of the stomach and had from one to three a year."

"The doctors said my stomach could not be cured, and it was only a question of how soon one of these spells would kill me, and I was given up several times, as they had no hopes for me."

"I finally wrote to you, and you said if it was not a cancer or a tumor, Pe-ru-na would cure me."

"I commenced taking Pe-ru-na right away, and have never had one of those spells since."

"I am an old soldier, one of Phil Sheridan's Rough Riders, and pretty nearly played out now, but I have a pretty good stomach again."

Assistant War Correspondent Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Mr. H. B. Manley, Assistant War Correspondent during the war in China care "Black and White," 688 Craig St., Montreal, Canada, writes:

"When a man travels in extremely hot or cold climates, he realizes how valuable a friend he has if he carries a bottle of Pe-ru-na."

"I know of no article in my traveling outfit which I have learned to prize higher."

"If you are suffering with the extreme heat, Pe-ru-na restores you, or if you are afflicted with a cold, a gripe or bronchitis, Pe-ru-na restores you in a short time."

"If you suffer with sleeplessness or if your appetite is poor, again Pe-ru-na acts as a good, true friend and is the tonic needed."

"I have tried it for months and am only too glad to acknowledge it as a true, loyal standby in times of trouble.
I do not hesitate to recommend it to all."

J. T. Markland, a well-known businessman of Cincinnati, O., address R. R.
No. 1, Mt. Washington, Ohio, writes:

"I find that in my case Pe-ru-na is a fresh builder. I am now at work every day, and have gained ten pounds. I took your Pe-ru-na according to directions and the result was more than I expected. I took no other medicine but Pe-ru-na, and it accomplished all. You sold me in your first letter that you thought Pe-ru-na would cure me and it has. I am seventy-three years old and can attend to my business as usual."

COL. ARTHUR L. HAMILTON.

Gallant Porto Rican Soldier Gives Praise to Pe-ru-na.

Col. Arthur L. Hamilton, of the Seventh Ohio Volunteers, writes from 239 Goodale St., Columbus, O., as follows:

"Besides having the merits of Pe-ru-na fully demonstrated in my family, I have a number of friends who have taken it for catarrh and stomach trouble, and all unite in praising it. As a remedy for catarrh, I can fully recommend it."

In a later letter to Dr. Hartman, Col. Hamilton writes:
"My command used your Pe-ru-na during our service in the Spanish-American War and I will say this, that if the War Department records are consulted, it will be found that the casualties in my regiment were less than in any other regiment of the Army Corps while at Camp Alger, Meade and Bunkell. The total deaths in my regiment, during the seven months' service, were seven out of a total number of 1400. I, of course, cannot help but think that Pe-ru-na certainly was a great benefit to my command."

In a recent letter, Col. Hamilton says:
"I have used Pe-ru-na myself and in my family for the last seven years.
I have already written you about the good results I experienced with your remedy during the Spanish-American War."

In old age the mucous membrane becomes thickened and partly loses their function.

This leads to partial loss of hearing, smell and taste, as well as digestive disturbance.

Pe-ru-na corrects all this by its efficient operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.

One bottle will convince anyone. Once used and Pe-ru-na becomes a lifelong stand-by with old and young.

For free medical advice, address Dr.
H. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Manufacturing Co., Columbus, O. All correspondence held strictly confidential.

Mr. Fred Deraweh, Ridgely, Tenn., writes:
"We have been using Pe-ru-na for five years. I believe that it is the best medicine that I know of."
"I and my wife and our thirteen children do not need any doctor, since we use Pe-ru-na."

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.
One reason why Pe-ru-na has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind.
Pe-ru-na has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of the catarrh.

The Mexican children are delightfully interesting. Courtesy with them seems to be ingrained. As soon as they can talk they become Chesterfields, while their innate kindness prompts them to many a delicate attention.

PHILOSOPHICAL POINTS.

The fatted calf never loves the prodigal son.
Truth never runs around asking people to believe it.
Alas, that fools are prosperous. Is it their poverty or reward?
How many of us in belaboring to the tom-toms forget the violins?
To think an original thought is to take a step nearer the divine.
People who need to be continually propped up are not worth the pro.
When man becomes suddenly good they should be excited immediately.
It is easier for some people to be false than the impossible than the possible.
Before it was thrown down, the Golden Calf had a son, and it is still moving around the world.
It is self-evident that to successfully fathom the motives of men one must be a man him-elf. To an idiot—to a lunatic—ad men are either idiots or lunatics.

MEANING OF MOLES.

On the right side of the upper lip a mole promises great good fortune to both sexes.
A mole on the neck, in man or woman, promises a long and happy life, wealth and fame.
A science, or pseudo-science, of moles has existed among the Pennsylvanians Dutch for many years.
A man with a mole in the middle of his forehead has a cruel mind, a woman with such a mole is foolish, idle and envious.
A man with a mole on the left side of the upper lip rarely marries, and such a mole in the case of a woman denotes suffering.
A mole on the right side of a man's forehead denotes wonderful luck; on the right side of a woman's forehead, gifts from the dead.
On the left side of a man's forehead a mole denotes a long term in prison; on the left side of a woman's forehead, two husbands, and a life of exile.
According to this science, no one is without a mole or two, and these are some of the prognostications that mole-wearers may draw from their brown ornaments.

"NO TROUBLE"

To Change from Coffee to Postum
"Postum has done a world of good for me," writes an illis. man.
"I've had indigestion nearly all my life but never dreamed coffee was the cause of my trouble until last Spring. I got so bad I was in misery all the time.
"A coffee drinker for 20 years, it irritated my stomach and nerves, yet I was just crazy for it. After drinking it with my meals, I would leave the table, go out and lose my meal and the coffee too. Then I'd be as hungry as ever.
"A friend advised me to quit coffee and use Postum—said it cured him. Since taking his advice I retain my food and get all the good out of it. I don't have those awful hungry spells.
"I changed from coffee to Postum without any trouble whatever, felt better from the first day I drank it. I am well now and give the credit to Postum." Name given by Postum Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in "There's a Reason."

PENINSULAR HAPPENINGS

MICHIGAN GUARDSMEN IN CAMP FOR A TEN DAYS' TOUR OF DUTY.

SOME STRENUOUS WORK

Incidents of the Journey and the Arrival at Camp—Heat and Dust Were Stifling.

Tornado Tears Up Things.

Nearly 2,200 strong, the brigade of Michigan National Guards went into camp Saturday at Fort Benjamin Harrison, near Indianapolis, Ind., for a ten days' tour of duty. Blistering heat and dust inches deep greeted the citizen soldiers from the Wolverine state as they defrained at the camp siding, and it was a cause for general thanksgiving that no drills were scheduled for the first day in the field.

The afternoon and evening were devoted entirely to making camp, and getting things in shape, and Sunday the boys were similarly employed, so that on Monday morning everything will be in readiness for the tour of hard work which has been laid out by Brig-Gen. Carter, U. S. A., commanding the maneuver camp.

In spite of the heat and dust the Michigan boys went to work preparing their canvas homes with enthusiasm, and within an hour after the arrival of the first train load of troops the tents began to spring up like mushrooms.

Some 5,000 regular troops were already in camp when the Michigan men arrived, making the total number of soldiers on the grounds up to 10,000, including all branches of the service. The site selected for the encampment is an excellent one, but owing to the fact that there has been no rain here for some time, the dust makes things rather unpleasant at present.

Like San Francisco from her ashes, Camp Benjamin Harrison is rising from the havoc and wreck of Monday night's tornado. A number of tents, again in position, bear tribute to the work done since the storm. In the morning the scene is still one of confusion. The sound of mallets and axes interspersed with hoarse commands, resounds through the camp. The bands are all playing the regimental commanders feeling that the boys need music to stimulate them in the midst of the ruin which surrounds them.

All possible aid in rebuilding work has been lent by Gen. W. H. Carter, the United States army officer in charge, and the Michigan forces have been given a corps of regular army engineers.

Gen. Hiram says he cannot estimate the damage. The quartermaster's department suffered the most and the supplies are pretty well ruined. While the accident will interfere with the program arranged, yet all possible aid will be made to go about with the men as soon as possible.

The divided hospital tent was one of the first blown down, and the sick had a serious time of it until the hospital cars could rally and pull the canvas back over their cots.

The scene during the blow beggars description. The entire brigade line and governor's row was down some of the regimental and battalion quarters were level with the ground, and riders and terror (eleven horses galloped over the rolling grounds. The soldiers' tents were crashing to earth, and the panic-stricken regiments covered from the blinding sheets of rain and terrific flashes of lightning that lit up the gloomy scene. After the rain had abated somewhat the songs of the Red Cross ambulances were sounding wildly and men were being dragged from smothering canvases in rapid endeavor to see if anyone had been injured.

During the storm the bands of the First and Second regiments of Michigan infantry played "Michigan My Michigan." Under this inspiration the troops worked like beavers to repair their wrecked habitations. But the condition of things was such that many commanders leave for the health of their men if kept in the water-soaked quarters all night, and about 500 of the men were quartered in hotels in Indianapolis, under leave until Tuesday.

New Naturalization Law.
Attorney General Bird has received a copy of the new naturalization law recently signed by President Roosevelt. It places many new restrictions and safeguards about the process of transforming foreigners into American citizens. The clerks of all courts having jurisdiction in naturalization cases are required to make certification to the department at Washington that they are duly qualified clerks of such courts. Blanks will be forwarded to these clerks and they must carefully account for each one and return any that may be mutilated or not used.

No certificate of naturalization may be issued within 30 days prior to a general election—applicants are required to speak the English language, to testify to belief in constituted government and to swear that they are not polygamists in practice or belief.

DRIVEN INSANE.

Fear of "Mormon-Avengers"—Drives a Staid Couple Mad.

Driven insane by fear of Mormon "avengers," Charles Beuchel and his wife made desperate attempts to end their lives. When they were discovered Beuchel was perched in the limbs of a tree on the banks of Bad river and his raving wife crouched at the foot of the tree, worn out and almost naked from her frantic efforts to join her husband, so that they could hang themselves together.

Beuchel is aged 48 and his wife 42. With their six children they live in Marion township. Mrs. Beuchel said that at one time she was a Mormon girl in Utah and that she ran away. Recently she declared, she was informed by supernatural agencies that the Mormon church would seek revenge and that she and her husband would be killed and their children kidnapped and taken back to Utah.

His wife's persistent communion with Mormon spirits finally convinced Beuchel, who had always been regarded as sound mentally, that she was right in her fears, and they decided to best the Mormon "slayers."

They walked to Bad creek arm in arm and lay down in the middle of the stream, but the water was too shallow and they decided to try hanging. The bedraggled, dripping and mudstained pair dragged themselves out of the river and Beuchel clambered up the tree to arrange the gallows.

With shredded pieces of his coat in the form of a rope tied to his neck and to a limb, Beuchel hastened to jump off into eternity because his wife could not climb up and join him, while she sat at the bottom of the tree making weird gesticulations at the moon, to ward off the Mormons who were supposed to be seeking their lives.

In this condition the pair were found in the morning by neighbors, whose efforts even then to induce them to go to their home on a 40-acre farm nearby were unavailing.

Finally Dr. Bennett, of Briant Center, was sent for, and being convinced that the couple are insane he brought them to Saginaw, where they were placed in the county jail. Medical authorities believe a few days' separation of the two will restore Beuchel to his senses, but there is little hope for the woman's reason.

The Dog Was Mad.

It has been definitely determined that the dog which bit former City Assessor A. L. Campbell and Walter Williams, of Kalamazoo, had hydrophobia. Mr. Campbell and Mr. Williams are at Ann Arbor for treatment at the Pastern Institute.

A rabbit which was inoculated with the emulsion made from the spinal cord and the brain of the dog was in the last stages of the disease.

"That rabbit has been the most interesting thing in Ann Arbor to me," said Mr. Campbell. "I know now that I was bitten by a mad dog. It is just five and if there was an inventory of its effects such as is furnished by the Pastern Institute, I would commit suicide rather than go down through the cruel agonies to death. But then, there is no danger to me since the Pasteur treatment is at hand."

Babe Was Burned.

David Thomas and his wife, of St. Charles, Mich., took their children to home alone while they went to the Seventh Day Adventist campmeeting, seven miles away. The children were all dead when about 11 o'clock the lamp exploded.

John, aged 12, proved himself a hero. He rescued his 7-year-old sister, Grace, and his brother, David, aged 11, and returned for Rosetta the baby, aged 1. The smoke and flames were so heavy he could not locate her, however, and he was compelled to retreat. By the time neighbors had arrived the house was a mass of flames and when Thomas and his wife returned their house was in ruins. The baby's body was found, but the head and arms had been burned off.

Burned His Hand Off.

Peter Cuth, aged 12, grasped the top wire of a fence in Kalamazoo, laying his right wrist upon the wire. There was a flash and a yell from the boy and his right hand dropped to the ground, burned completely off by electricity. The wire had been charged by a high tension wire of the Commonwealth Power Co. falling upon it a block away.

The Cuth boy was rendered unconscious and fell against the fence. Several persons were near by, but none dared try to remove his body for several moments. He was taken to Borgess hospital, where his arm was amputated at the shoulder. His recovery is doubtful.

Warm Town This.

The feud which has torn McMillan upside down and resulted in the arrest of 10 well known citizens on charges of arson, a dozen or more fires being laid to them, is causing more excitement. First fights on the streets between members of the two factions are of almost daily occurrence and the sheriff was called on Sunday night to quell a riot.

Henry Marks' barn was burned to the ground Monday night, the loss being about $2,500. It was doubtless the work of firebugs. Marks is one of the men out on bail charged with being implicated in the several previous fires.

Gov. Warner and Democratic Candidate Kramerie are expected to attend the jubilee in Ovid August 29 and 30.

There were 139 arrests in Detroit Sunday, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, a record breaking number.

Rena Cardiff, aged 19, of Bay City, swallowed carbolic acid, but was disengaged by doctors, who were able to save her life. She says that she will try again.

Gov. Warner has honored the resignation of the governor of Ohio for Charles Reeves, who is named in Toledo for abandonment of his child. Reeves was arrested in Detroit.

What Joy They Bring To Every Home

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play—when in health—and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs, obtained, by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs always has the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

The American tramp must look out for his laurels in the matter of sealing rides. A Roumanian recently succeeded in lodging himself on the pipes underneath a dining-car of the Orient express at Costanza, on the Black sea, these pipes affording a sort of shelf about 20 inches wide. He left his bed in Paris 53 hours later. It is remarked that at the end of the journey he was very dusty hungry and thirsty, and possessed a capital amounting to five cents.

India's Cotton Crop.

The cotton crop of India was larger last year, 1905, than the general average. About 20,000,000 acres were planted in cotton and the yield was about 3,500,000 bales. During the year there were exported from India to other countries over 2,125,000 bales of raw cotton at a value of over $81,000,000, the four countries, Japan, Germany, Belgium and Italy, in the order named, being the largest purchasers; they together buying nearly 1,500,000 bales of Indian cotton, while Japan alone took nearly 500,000 bales.
