SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. FRANK DOLPH

WHICH OCCURRED AT HER HOME
THURSDAY MARCH 14.

The First to Die Out of a Family of Twelve Children.

Mrs. Mary Dolph, wife of Frank Dolph, station agent at Northville, departed this life last Thursday, March 14, aged thirty-two years. Her death came as a great shock to our town as she was only ill but a few hours.

Mrs. Dolph was formerly Miss Mary Musgrove and was the first to die out of a family of twelve children. All of her sisters but one were present at the funeral. She was quiet, unassuming in manner, yet pleasing and always ready to help those in need and to perform those duties which she felt devolved upon her. She was a member of the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church and these societies turned out in large numbers to pay their last respects to their departed sister.

For a time she was president and afterwards secretary of the Aid society and during her presidency the society had one of its most prosperous years. She was quite active in the society and always present.

Her pastor, Rev. W. G. Stephens, taking as his text "Her Sun Is Gone Down While It Was Yet Day," after speaking for a time on the mysterious dispensations of divine providence and on the continuance of the soul life after death, with reference to the deceased, said in part:

"Anything that I may say can hardly add lustre to the splendid character and the noble womanhood of our departed sister but as her pastor, who has been brought into association more or less for almost three years, it must be expected that I have learned something of that life that has now gone from earth.

"In her life I saw beautifully blended simplicity, friendship and faithfulness. I always thought of her as a character humble, true, honest and good. As a woman she was most genial, utterly unselfish, large hearted and generous to a fault. Those who know her best could tell many a tale of unselfish service and kindly help and in matters that would command her judgment, she gave much of her time and influence.

"If some things done did not seem to her to be best she said but little, made no trouble, fell into line and made the best of it. She could not do anything else for the heart of our later was as tender as her brain was strong. A desirable and beautiful harmony in any woman's life. Our sister's life was enriched through her heart and was full of the finest joys of home and friendship, full also of a silent record of nameless, unremembered acts of kindness and love.

"She loved her home. It was earth's little paradise where her life as wife sheltered and shed fragrance and where she at once gave and received a wonderful love. She was the light and music of her happy home. It was her true wifehood that made her home so cheerful.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist church Sunday morning in place of the regular preaching service, where she had attended church since coming to Northville some eight years ago, and the large attendance by all classes showed that she was much thought of.

"HE PAYS THE FREIGHT."

But then, of course, the shipper is used to it and a little more or less doesn't make much difference to him.

MGR. WOODBURY HERE SATURDAY

GENERAL MANAGER OF THE IN-DEPENDENT TELEPHONE CO.

Will Spend a Lot of Money in Northville.

General Manager Woodbury of the Independent Telephone Co. of Detroit was in town with another of the officials Saturday looking over Northville with their Assistant to the General Manager, M. A. Porter, relative to extending the business here and enlarging the present plant. Mr. Woodbury says his company will shortly re-equip the entire Northville plant with a "central energy" system, doing away entirely with the ringer, the same as the Bell Co. plant at Detroit. A new large switch board is also to be put in and many other improvements will be made. The company expects to expend upwards of $25,000 here and will in all probability erect a new building and make this one of the main switching points, Mr. Woodbury says.

Railroad Farmers' Institute.

There will be a Farmers' and Citizens' meeting in Princess Rink, Northville, Monday evening, March 24, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The meeting will be addressed by different members of the M. A. C. Faculty. Everybody is invited to come. Through the generosity of the Pere Marquette railroad the "Corn Special Train" will be at the Northville station Tuesday, March 26, from 8:10 to 9:10 a. m. The Male Quartet has been engaged to sing.

Don't forget the Millinery Opening March 28th, 29th and 30th at Mrs. Tinham's 73, Center street.

An Enjoyable Event.

One of the prettiest and most delightful social affairs imaginable was the "St. Patrick's party" given by Mrs. Mark Seeley and Mrs. Roy Darwin at the former's pleasant home Monday afternoon. The color scheme, appropriate to the occasion, was carried in all the details—the exceptionally pretty and elaborate decorations of the rooms, the furnishings of the tables, the dainty refreshments, the unique game scores and the favors, the latter being tiny Irish flags of green silk with gold lettering. The hostesses were charmingly clad in white with touches of green ribbons. Over forty ladies enjoyed the function, the amusement being progressive. The first prize, a beautiful bouquet of green carnations, was won by Mrs. J. M. Green and the consolation, a cute little pipe, fell to the lot of Mrs. Frank Macomber, who secured it by "cutting" with two others having the same number. Mrs. Hogle and Mrs. Lee of Farmington and Mrs. Tinham of Northville furnished several selections of music.

Eighty-seventh Birthday.

Mrs. Sarah Lapham celebrated her eighty-seventh birthday Friday and her daughter, Emeline, entertained M. R. Wjober and wife and Mrs. E. B. Lapham of Farmington in honor of the event. Mrs. Lapham has been feeling quite comfortable of late and she greatly enjoyed the visit from the Farmington relatives and also the many calls received through the day from neighbors.

Methodist Church Notes.

"His Helpers" banquet has been postponed indefinitely.

We are sorry to know that some of the young people of our Sunday school are confined at home by an attack of measles. We hope for their speedy recovery.

Public worship next Sunday at the usual hour. Subject for evening "The Home As a Factor in a Boy's Life." Parents and all interested in the boys are invited to be present.

The W. B. M. S. met with Mrs. H. Green on Tuesday afternoon last for the transaction of business. Although some of the members were necessarily detained from the meeting, those present report a good time.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a birthday thimble party on Wednesday afternoon next at the home of Mrs. C. Balden. Members have the privilege of inviting two other friends. All who come may expect a good time.

The Young people's union meeting on Sunday evening last was largely attended and was made interesting and instructive by the leader, Mr. Hornberger. Singing by the male quartet and Master Carl VanValkenburg added much to the interest of the meeting.

Mrs. G. Tinham invites you to attend a Millinery Opening March 28-30.

Whipple-Thompson.

Relatives and friends to the number of about one hundred gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson Wednesday evening to witness the marriage of their daughter, Angeline, to Mr. Clarence Whipple.

Promptly at six o'clock Miss Minnie Lee of South Lyon began playing the wedding march and the bridal party took their places under a large canopy and bell made of evergreen and pink and white carnations. Rev. S. F. Dimmock performing the ceremony. The bride was attired in white and carried white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Eva, who wore white over pink and carried pink and white carnations. Will Heeney of Plymouth acted as best man.

After congratulations had been extended to the happy couple a dainty wedding supper was served.

After a short wedding trip to Detroit they will make Northville their future home.

The bride and groom are well known in this vicinity and the Record joins with their many friends in wishing them many years of prosperity and happiness.

Baptist Church Notes.

(By a Member.)

The Sunday school is making arrangements to observe Easter with appropriate exercises in the evening.

The subject of the sermon Sunday morning will be "A Message from the Throne of God Concerning the Unchangeableness of Christ." The evening subject will be "Help for the Helpless."

Next Wednesday afternoon occurs the Birthday party at the parsonage. At 2:30 the ladies of the church will have their usual business meeting after which the ladies whose birthdays the event commemorates will don their costumes and have charge of affairs. Tea will be served beginning at 5:30 o'clock for ten cents, to which the public is invited. Following the tea a nice program will be given.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

(By the Pastor.)

Mr. Wheaton now has a fine class of boys in our Sunday school.

The sermon next Sunday evening will be on "Preparation and Performance."

A large congregation greatly enjoyed Mr. Swift's talk last Sunday morning about his orphan boys.

The Ladies' Aid society will hold a bake sale on Saturday, March 23rd at the drug store of A. E. Stanley & Co. All ladies are requested to furnish baking.

Passion week will be observed by services held next Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings at 7:30 o'clock. Revs. D. I. Sutherland of Detroit, Ronald of Plymouth, Crain and Jeffries of Detroit will preach in the order named. These services will be preparatory to the Easter Communion. Members of other churches and the public generally are invited to join with us in their observance of the last week of Christ's life.

Republican Caucus.

The Republicans of Novi township will meet in caucus at the Novi town hall Saturday, March 23, at two o'clock p. m. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the various township offices and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. BY ORDER OF TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE.

Card of Thanks.

I wish to take this means of expressing my thankfulness and appreciation to the public for the help given and kindness shown during my late bereavement, in the loss by death of my beloved wife.

I am especially grateful to the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church, King's Daughters, L. O. T. M. M., K. O. T. M. M. and the Masonic Order for the beautiful floral offerings and also to friends for their personal remembrances.

I sincerely trust that something of the same expression of kindness and love may be given to all my friends when called to pass through a like experience. FRANK DOLPH.

SIDE LIGHTS ON MICHIGAN

RUNNING SIXTY MILES AN HOUR TRAIN GOES INTO AN OPEN SWITCH.

TWENTY-FOUR INJURED

A Train Crew Blamed For Leaving
Switch Open—Engineer and Fireman Fatally Hurt.

Saner Scene of Wreck.

With a terrific impact that awakened the entire population of the village, passenger train No. 6 known as the Chicago-New York flyer, went through an open switch and crashed into three freight cars standing on a siding in the Grand Trunk railway yards in Bancroft at 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

The train was half an hour behind schedule time and was running at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Engineer A. B. Schram and Fireman Frank Cowan did not see the open switch in the gray dawn until they were almost upon it.

Before they could make an attempt to save themselves by jumping the locomotive struck the cars on the siding and keeled over on its side.

As the engine went over, the mail and express cars leaped forward and coming off the wreck of the freight cars, were thrown towards the center of the right of way. The mail cars landed squarely on the main line. The balance of the train consisted of three passenger and four Pullman coaches. The Pullmans and one of the day coaches remained on the rails, but the two forward cars, filled with passengers, pitched to one side and were almost capsized.

The crew of a freight train are blamed for the switch being left open. Engineer A. B. Schram, Fireman Frank Cowan and J. E. Smith, composing three of the most severely injured were taken to Battle Creek. Physicians who accompanied them say they are none the worse for the journey. The doctors have little fear of any of them dying. It is considered nothing less than a miracle that the fireman and engineer escaped instant death, from the way they were pinned down under the wreckage of their engine, which was reduced to a scrap heap.

The passengers injured number 21, their wounds resulting from broken glass and escaping steam.

Born With Smallpox.

Dr. Shumway, of the state board of health, reports one very touching case in the epidemic of smallpox in Holly, Mich., where there have been 28 cases and two deaths. The superintendent of the school in Holly noted that several children had eruptions on their faces and hands and had them examined by a physician, who said that it was not smallpox. Very soon the epidemic spread and the young wife of the superintendent contracted the disease and died during childbirth. The little girl came into the world covered with pustules and it is feared that she will die also. Dr. Shumway ordered the strictest quarantine measures and general vaccination in the town.

Suddenly Called.

While Mrs. E. J. Ottaway, aged 31 years, wife of the editor of the St. Clair Republican, sat nursing her two-week-old babe Wednesday morning, she cried out: "I have become blind!" In a few moments she died.

Mrs. Ottaway was the daughter of Joe O'Connell, Justin R. Whiting, and well known. She had been married about nine years and was very popular in St. Clair. Besides her husband she leaves two small children.

Her death puzzles physicians there, as she had made good progress toward regaining her strength. The attack of blindness was accompanied by a struggle for breath.

Are Cosmopolitan.

Probably no city in Michigan can boast of being as truly cosmopolitan as Houghton. President Hall, of Calumet, says that there are 16 distinct nationalities among the 350 pupils in the high school. But it is left to Houghton to cap that record. In one school there are 10 nationalities in 35 pupils. They are Danish, Bohemian, Austrian, Scotch, French, Norwegian, Irish, German, English and Finnish, and strange to say, in the whole 35 students, there is not one child whose parents were born in the United States.

Pederson Acquitted.

Chris Pederson, hotelkeeper of Bay City, charged with manslaughter, was found not guilty Saturday evening by a jury in the circuit court. Pederson, five months ago, shot and killed Fred Westplater, treasurer of Portsmouth township, when the latter came into Pederson's saloon and announced that he was going to clean up on the proprietor. He knocked Pederson down and the latter secured a revolver, shooting Westplater when he made a second rush.

Port Huron is to have a new high school building, and the work will be commenced at once.

Frank McClellan, of St. Joseph, lay down on the street car tracks and was instantly killed. It is thought he was intoxicated.

Willie Hand, aged 8, of Port Huron, found a railroad signal torpedo, which he struck with a hammer. In the explosion which followed one eye was torn from its socket, and the other was blinded.

The Guelph Patent Cask Co.'s veneer works, the L. Cornwell sawmill and other lesser woodcrafting industries of Wolverine are at a shutdown for some time, will resume operations soon. There is plenty of lumber on hand for a long run.

CONSCIENCE.

The State Receives Money From Two Unknown Persons.

It is a fair conclusion that it is difficult for one to obtain money from the state treasury of Michigan without rendering an equivalent, since the "conscience fund" of the state on the books of the state treasurer contains but two credits. Within the recollection of the state's officials instances of money being returned to the state by men with troublesome consciences have occurred but twice, once in May, 1903, and once during last week.

There is something remarkable and quite inexplicable about these two cases. Both sums were in currency, both letters were addressed to the secretary of the state board of corrections and charities, both of the writers were from a western state, and both are unknown. The circumstances are so nearly alike in both cases as to lead to the conclusion that the one prompted the other, but how the writers came to address their letters to the secretary of the board of charities is more than any person at the capital can satisfactorily explain.

In May, 1903, Secretary Storrs, of the board of corrections and charities, received a package through the mails. It contained $150 in crisp new bills and an anonymous note asking that the money be placed in the state treasury to the credit of the state conscience fund. The package came from a small town in Iowa, the name of which Secretary Storrs does not now remember.

Nearly four years had elapsed since the above incident, when on Thursday Secretary Storrs received a letter postmarked at Hutchinson, Kas. In it was a new gold certificate for $50, accompanied by a letter written on foolscap paper, requesting that the money be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the "conscience fund." The letter was signed with the initial "B," but there was nothing else by which it could be identified.

New Losing His Mind.

Blind and a cripple, Jole Sink, 16-year-old son of Rev. C. C. Sink, of Port Huron, who has prayed as he suffered from his repeated afflictions, is gradually losing his mind, despite the services of some of the best specialists. The condition of the little boy, bright and clever as he was before his last affliction, is pitiable.

A year ago, Jole fell on an icy sidewalk and struck the back of his head, the shock causing total blindness. Since then he has become a nervous wreck and his aged parents have wheeled him about in an invalid's chair. A month ago the little fellow suffered an electric shock, and since then he has gradually lost his reason. For two days he hovered between life and death and it was only by his unflinching courage and grit that he survived.

Jole was proficient at the violin and piano and he plays and sings the whole day long and is sure, he says, that he will be made well again.

Kemp Acquitted.

Bert Kemp, the young Smith's Creek farmer, was acquitted of the charge of murdering his 1-day-old child, after the jury had deliberated more than four hours. The courtroom was densely crowded all through the last day, and there was not even a standing room when the verdict was announced. At the words "Not guilty," the men burst into cheers, in spite of the efforts of the officers to quell them. The prisoner was released, and hurried to clasp the hands of the jurors, and then he was surrounded by his mother, wife and sister. His wife fainted in his arms. He left the courtroom a free man, after 12 months of confinement. Kemp says he is going back to live at Smith's Creek.

Padding the Mails.

Senator Burrows was much astonished at the report that his frank is carrying a lot of obsolete government documents and maps through the mails to Michigan at this time, when the mails are being weighed, in order to establish the rate the railroads are to receive for carrying the mails for the next four years.

"It is a very shameful thing if anyone is using my frank or any other frank for such a purpose," said the senator this morning, "and if my frank is being used it must have been stolen. I shall make an investigation forthwith to see if I can get trace of any such trick being played at my expense."

Senator Burrows says if he finds anyone using his frank to pad the mails there will be somebody in the lockup.

Church Splits.

The Seventh Day Adventist church of Battle Creek is in a fair way to divide unless something unexpected happens. A majority of the local church members succeeded in passing new bylaws, permitting them to sell the immense tabernacle, which is construed as meaning that the church will be closed, leaving the other Adventists no place to worship. The majority say that they will resort to the courts to prevent the new articles being filed at Lansing.

The old articles of association forbade sale of church or closing it, even if two-thirds of the members forsook the city. Both sides say they will fight to a finish in the supreme court.

John Jacobson, a car repairer, was caught between two cars at Elk Rapids and brought to the hospital in a serious condition.

The "nothing doing" sign is hung out in front of the Fenwick photograph gallery because the picture man is serving a 10-day sentence in jail for alleged drunkenness.

Delisle Hawthorne, of Royal Oak, who brought suit recently to collect $50 from the D. U. R. which that company offered as a reward for the apprehension and conviction of the person stealing the company's wire, was awarded a verdict. Hawthorne caught the thief, but the D. U. R. refused payment on the plea that as Hawthorne was a D. U. R. employee his time belonged to the company. The D. U. R. say the verdict will be appealed.

DUST'S BILL.

Telegraph and Telephone Co.'s Taxes to Be Boosted.

Attorney General Bird will, it is expected, give substantial aid to the passage of the bill of Rep. Dust, of Detroit, for placing telegraph and telephone companies under the control of the state board of assessors, along with the railroads and other corporations for assessment.

The attorney general announced the employment of Prof. M. E. Cooley, of Ann Arbor, to prepare an estimate on the value of these properties within the state. He will be aided by appraisers of telegraph and telephone companies made at the time of the railroad appraisal in 1902 and the annual reports filed with the auditor general.

The attorney general sees no reason why these corporations should not pay on the same basis as other corporations and at the rate of taxation that the general property of the state bears.

Last year the Postal Telegraph Co., which operates 900 offices in the state, paid only $647 in taxes and the Western Union, whose operations are much greater, paid $5,000.

The companies pay 3 per cent on their gross earnings in Michigan as reported by them. Interstate business has never been included in these reports.

Three Amendments.

The legislature has provided for the submission of three propositions to amend the constitution at the coming election, which will be voted on by the electors of the state. The most important one is that which would remove the inhibition in the constitution against the teaching of trades in the prisons. Others are to allow Bay, Cheboygan and St. Clair counties to have boards of county auditors and to permit Ingham, Jackson and the counties of the circuit in which Isabella is located to pay their circuit judges better salaries.

STATE NEWS BRIEFS.

The Kent County Democratic Club will banquet in Grand Rapids, March 26, Woodbridge N. Ferris, of Big Rapids, is on the program, as are all candidates on the state ticket.

Although there are no candidates for office in the field on either the Republican or Democratic ticket, the St. Joseph city attorney has decided that a primary election must be held just the same. A citizens' non-partisan ticket is alone this year.

Don't Gossip.

As a rule there are not much worse afflictions that come, or get into, a community than a disease called "gossipitis". One can scarcely imagine a more contemptible trait than that of gossiping and persons who are given to it seldom realize that while they are feasting themselves on the foul stuff, like vultures upon carrion, others in all probability are filling their morbid appetite off their own short comings. Too often women, more than men, who otherwise have many delightful qualifications, are prone to spoil their other attractions by an indulgence in gossip which seems sometimes to be a part of the food necessary for their body or mind. The most contemptible class of individuals along this line are those who originate the falsehoods themselves and start them going by the old satanic trick of "I heard so," or "They say so but you musn't tell that I told you," when as a matter of fact the gossip originated in their own diseased foolish brain. If only everybody could remember that all glass houses are susceptible of breakage by thrown stones and that if everybody keeps their own doors steps clean they have all they can attend to. This little item is not intended for any one in particular nor for any particular community but it will apply equally well to many portions of the state.

It Was a Wise Move.

The republicans of Michigan will be pleased to learn that the democratic state convention held at Flint recently was one of the largest and most successful spring conventions that party has held in a number of years. It is well recognized by republicans that the existence of an aggressive, unified, principle representing democratic party is far more desirable from every point of view than the continuance of the condition of that party as it has been through recent years. No legitimate interests in Michigan will suffer through the existence of two nearly evenly divided political parties, if only it shall be true that both parties represent the honest convictions and sincere principles of their members.

Michigan's income from insurance taxes this year will not fall short of a half-million dollars, a very satisfactory increase as compared with former years. It is worthy of note, indeed, that in every department of state through which fees are received or sources of income exist, the results are beyond expectations. The present management of Michigan affairs from a business point of view is decidedly satisfactory.

The casting of a vote on election day is of more importance and value in its contribution to the influence that sustain and strengthen a government by the people than the preparation of many essays on theoretic reforms. The hand that casts the vote is the hand that rules the country.

$100 For Three Faces.

Who's the most beautiful woman in Michigan? The Detroit News Tribune is trying to discover her and is offering prizes aggregating $100 for three fascinating faces, to be selected from photographs sent in to the beauty editor. The selection will be done by a corps of experts and their pictures will appear, with others, in the half-tone magazine section of that newspaper. The whole will form a great gallery of Michigan beauties.

The pictures of these Michigan beauties the News-Tribune will publish from week to week, and as every woman in Michigan is eligible, the list will be a long one, if the friends of the beauties do their duty.

Bacteria in Gums.

Various bacteria are found by Greig Smith, a New South Wales investigator, to take part in the formation of vegetable gums. One kind produces so-called gum arabic, another an insoluble variety. Cultivation of suitable bacteria may greatly increase gum production, and the yield of unproductive species may be augmented by furnishing a little tannin.

A Non-Partisan Board.

During the last campaign for County Auditor, the daily press of the city were unanimous the interests of Wayne county would be best subserved by keeping the board of County Auditors non-partisan. With the handling of the immense amount of business entrusted to the care of the County Auditors for every other official of Wayne county, a board composed wholly of members of any one political belief can make it extremely difficult for an official of any other political faith to have a square deal in the conduct of the affairs of his office. They can hinder and harass him in the discharge of his duty.

JAMES V. CUNNINGHAM—Candidate for County Auditor.

until it is almost impossible for him to serve the electors of the county to the best of his capabilities.

With a non-partisan board every official, no matter what may be his political faith, is assured a fair hearing before the County Auditors, and is sure of being awarded treatment in keeping with his position.

Mr. James V. Cunningham, the Democratic nominee for County Auditor at the election April 1st, has every qualification necessary for the position as chief deputy in the sheriff's office for several years past he has been in close touch with the Auditor's office and is in position to know any needed reform therein, and also how difficult is the position of the minority office holder before the present board.

He possesses a fine business education, gained in a course of practical experience in public affairs, and is an energetic student of practical economy, and can be relied upon to watch carefully the expenditure of public funds. As an official of the railway men's association he is in very close touch with working men. Mr. Cunningham is conducting a clean campaign, and is meeting with a flattering reception among the voters.

An Ideal Laxative.

Physics and Cathartics which purgative, unload the bowels, and give temporary relief, but irritate, and weaken the digestive and excretory organs. ## NORTHVILLE.

The City in Brief.

The houses in town are well placarded with measles signs.

Will Walter has the stone on the ground for a new house on Dunlap street.

Mrs. George Clark, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is a little better.

Mrs. R. A. Crawford of near Milford, daughter of Mrs. M. Montgomery, has moved with her family to Chicago.

Miss Jennie Palmer gave a granite shower at her home Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Angeline Thompson.

Catholic services will be held in their house, corner Dunlap and Center streets, Sunday morning at 7:30 standard.

Miss Emeline Lapham has just received word of the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. Morrison, at her home in DeWitt.

The Northville Women's club will meet in the library hall this afternoon and each member is requested to bring a lead pencil.

Robert Neelands got his hand mixed up with a pulley in Dunbar's factory Tuesday and lost the ends of the two middle fingers.

About eighteen members of Orient Chapter, No. 77, O. E. S., attended the Wayne County Association O. E. S. held in Detroit Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Christian Science service Sunday morning at ten o'clock and Wednesday at seven p. m. at 550 Center street. Subject for Sunday: "Reality." All are cordially invited.

The rural mail carriers of this place are contemplating the purchase of motorcycles for the carrying of mail through the rural districts. They have been granted permission by the post office department at Washington to serve patrons in this manner.

So far there has been very little prospecting done as to the nominees for Township offices on either ticket but it seems to be the prevailing sentiment among the republicans to nominate Floyd Northrop for supervisor and Fred Tousey for clerk. The treasurer and highway commissioner will undoubtedly be re-nominated.

Two new safes have been bought by the Lapham Savings bank, one for books and papers and the other one of the most modern burglar proof money safes manufactured. The Wheeler store has been leased for the bank and it is expected the new concern will be ready for business about the first of April.

The entertainment given by the relief committee of the W. R. U. Monday evening to the members of the G. A. R. Post and their wives and the W. R. C. and their husbands was deserving of a far better attendance than it received. The program consisted of music, both vocal and instrumental and recitations and was well rendered.

The Democratic caucus, for the township of Northville, is called for Monday evening, March 25, at 7:00 o'clock standard time, in the village hall for the purpose of nominating township officers to be voted for at the annual election to be held on the first Monday in April next and to transact such other business as may be deemed proper.

The Republican caucus, for the township of Northville, has been called for Saturday afternoon, Mar. 23, at 2:30 standard time, in the village hall, for the purpose of nominating township officers to be voted for at the annual election to be held on the first Monday in April next and to transact such other business as may be deemed proper.

The Stereopticon lecture given in the Methodist church Sunday evening by H. L. Swift of the Beulah Land Home for Boys was very largely attended. Mr. Swift is doing a noble work and certainly deserves not only a great deal of credit but the financial support of the people of the state. His subscriptions for the day's work amounted to about $125.

Joseph Montgomery's little son narrowly escaped being run over by the 7:30 D. U. R. car Saturday night. He came out of Murdock's drug store attempting to cross the street in front of the car, was struck and fell to the ground. He only received a few bruises for which everyone was thankful. His mother had gone to Detroit that morning and the little fellow cautioned her to look out and not get run over by the cars. He is getting along very nicely.

You can buy your new Easter hat at McHugh & McHugh's next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Doan's Regulets cure constipation, tone the stomach, stimulates the liver, promote digestion and appetite and easy passages of the bowels. Ask your druggist for them. 25 cents a box.

C. J. Ball has been quite ill the past week.

Holly is suffering from an epidemic of small pox.

Mrs. W. G. Stephens is numbered among the sick.

John Joslin is on the gain although still confined to his bed.

Mrs. Fred Lyke is ill with quite a severe attack of the grip.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thurston of Clare, March 16, a son.

Jake Cohen was confined to the house the fore part of the week with the grip.

Regular Communication of Northville Lodge No. 186 F. & A. M. Monday evening, March 25. Very important.

Rev. Lee-McCollister of Detroit will preach in the Universalist church at Farmington Sunday afternoon at three o'clock.

George McFarlane and family have moved from the Harley Johnson farm to the Blackburn place on Rogers street.

Mrs. M. J. Montgomery, who was so sick at Highland, has returned to her home here. Her many friends are glad to know that she is able to be out again.

Thomas Banks of Detroit is remodeling his house on Dunlap street by adding an upper story in which he will later move with his family and will again make Northville his home.

The ladies of the Baptist church are going to have a Birthday party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Dimmock next Wednesday afternoon. A ten cent tea will be served to which the public is invited.

Measles have broken out in the school and a number of the scholars are absent on account of that fact, among them being the editor of our school notes column so we will be obliged to omit these items this week.

By the recent ruling of the post office department at Washington notices for box rent will be placed in the boxes ten days previous to the first of the quarter and must be paid within that time. This spring your box rent must be paid before April first instead of ten days after as has been the custom.

Mrs. Molly Gibbs, whose illness from a fall down cellar was reported last week, was taken to the Wayne County Home Wednesday by Rep. C. R. Benton and Marshall Aaron Taft. The poor old lady hadn't a living relative to come and take care of her and it was thought best to take her where she could have proper care and attention. The neighbors have been looking after her.

Don't forget, if intending to paint, to call on Cattermole & Dart, Northville.

An Eye to Spare.
"Be careful how you shoot that arrow this way," said the supporter of the family to the kid. "You'll put out my eye and then I can't write any more." "Why?" asked the kid; as he kept on shooting. "Can't you write with one eye?"

The Best Laxative for Children.

Parents should see to it that their children have one natural, easy movement of the bowels each day. Do not use the child with salts or gripping pills, as they are too powerful in effect, and literally tear their little insides to pieces, leaving the bowels weakened and less able to act naturally than before. Laxative Iron-Ox Tablets tone and strengthen the bowels, and stimulate all the little organs to healthy activity. Chocolate coated tablets, easy to take, never gripe or nauseate. 10c, 25c and $1.00.

Resolutions.

WHEREAS, the Divine Father of the Universe has deemed it best in his infinite wisdom to take from our midst our beloved sister, Mary E. Dolph, a member of Forget-me-not Five No. 169, L. O. T. M. M. Therefore be it RESOLVED, That our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days and that a copy of these Resolutions be printed in the Northville Record and a copy sent to the bereaved husband with the deepest sympathy of the members of the order.

Whitney's Opera House—Detroit.

The offering at the Whitney for next week will be the powerful automobile racing drama, "The Governor's Pardon." The one grand climax is the race between the two automobiles, one containing the villain and the other the heroine. The race is effectively worked up by many different mechanical effects and two big touring cars are utilized. In addition to this sensational race there is the cascade of real water, the intense and highly realistic struggle for life, the beautiful sunset, the blinding snow storm and other strong effects.

Lyceum Theater—Detroit.

Among the big musical comedies of the season is again numbered "Down the Pike," in which the Rays have made such a hit the past two seasons and which they will present at the Lyceum next week. For some time Johnny and Emma Ray have held the stage as two of the leading comedy exponents in musical farce and in "Down the Pike" both have unusual opportunities for further display of their peculiar talents. Particular attention was paid to the chorus contingent and only the most attractive girls possessed of the prettiest and sweetest voices were selected.

Jamaican Song

Jamaica has many birds, the chief of them being a variety of mocking-bird, larger than that found in the southern states of this country and somewhat differently called. As a songster it is very sweet but it seems scarcely as animated in its singing as is the delicious warbler of the gulf states. It is called a nightingale by the Jamaicans, with their English traditions to direct them but it resembles that songster even less than does the American mocking-bird.

SERIAL STORY

THE HOUSE OF A THOUSAND CANDLES

By MEREDITH NICHOLSON
Author of "THE MAIN CHANCE," "ZELDA DANERON," ETC.

Copyright 1906 by Bobbs-Merrill Co.

CHAPTER III.—Continued.

Any resentment I felt on first hearing the terms of my grandfather's will had passed. He had treated me as well as I deserved, and the least I could do was to accept the penalty he had laid upon me in a sane and amiable spirit. This train of thought occupied me as we tramped along the high way. The road now led away from the lake and through a heavy wood. Presently, on the right loomed a dark barrier, and I put out my hand and touched a wall of rough stone that rose to a height of about eight feet.

"What is this, Bates?" I asked.

"This is Glenarm land, sir. The wall was one of your grandfather's ideas. It's a quarter of a mile long and cost him a pretty penny, I warrant you. The road turns off from the lake now, but the Glenarm property is all lake front."

So there was a wall about my prison-house! I grinned cheerfully to myself. When a few moments later, my guide paused at an arched gateway in the long wall, drew from his overcoat a bunch of keys and fumbled at the lock of an iron gate, I felt the spirit of adventure quicken within me.

The gate clicked behind us and Bates found a lantern and lighted it with the ease of custom.

"I use this gate because it's nearer. The regular entrance is farther down the road. Keep close, sir, as the timber isn't much cleared."

The undergrowth was indeed heavy, and I followed the hatter of my guide with difficulty. In darkness the place seemed as wild and rough as a tropical wilderness.

"Only a little farther," rose Bates' voice ahead of me, and then "There's the light, sir," and lifting my eyes, I stumbled over the roots of a great tree, I saw for the first time the dark outlines of Glenarm House.

"Here we are, sir!" exclaimed Bates, stamping his feet upon a walk he followed him to what I assumed to be the front door of the house, where a lamp shone brightly at either side of a massive entrance. Bates flung it open without ado, and I stepped quickly into a great hall that was lighted dimly by candles fastened into brackets on the walls.

"I hope you've not expected too much, Mr. Glenarm," said Bates, with a tone of mild apology. "It's very incomplete for living purposes."

"Well, we've got to make the best of it," I answered, though without much cheer. The sound of our steps echoed in the web of a great staircase. There was not, as far as I could see, a single article of furniture in the place.

"Here's something you'll like better, sir," and Bates paused far down the hall and opened a door.

A single candle made a little pool of light in what I felt to be a large room. I was prepared for a disclosure of barren ugliness, and waited, in heart's foreboding, for the silent guide to reveal a dreary prison.

"Please sit here, sir," said Bates, "while I make a better light."

He moved through the dark room with perfect ease, struck a match, lighted a taper and went swiftly and softly about. He touched the taper to one candle after another, they seemed to be everywhere, and won from the dark a faint twilight, that yielded slowly to a growing mellow splendor of light. I have often watched the acolytes in dim cathedrals of the Old World set countless candles ablaze on magnificent altars, always with awe for the beauty of the spectacle, but in this unknown house the austere serving man, untroubled from the shadows of a lovelier scene, bewildering enchantment. You alone, of beautiful things, is lovelier than light.

The lines of the wall receded as the light increased and the rafters of the hall drew away, leaving the eyes open. I rose with a smothered exclamation of awe and stared about, watching the light in reverence as the spirit of the place wove its spell about me. Everywhere there were books; they covered the walls to the ceiling, with only long French windows and an enormous fireplace breaking the line. Above the fireplace a massive dark oak chimney-breast further emphasized the grand scale of the room. From every conceivable place—from shelves, built for the purpose, from brackets that thrust out long arms among the books, from a great crystal chandelier suspended from the ceiling, and from the breast of the chimney—innumerable candles blazed with dazzling brilliancy. I exclaimed in wonder and pleasure as Bates paused, his sorcerer's wand in hand.

Mr. Glenarm was very fond of candle-light; he liked to gather up candlesticks, and his collection was very fine. He often called this 'The House of a Thousand Candles.' There's only about a hundred here, but it was one of his conceits that when the house was finished there would be a thousand lights. He had quite a joking way, your grandfather. It suited his humor to call it a thousand. He enjoyed his own pleasantry, sir."

"I fancy he did," I replied, staring in bewilderment.

"Oil lamps might be more suited to your own taste, sir. But your grandfather would not have them. Old brass and copper were specialties with him, and he had a particular taste. Mr. Glenarm had, in glass candlesticks. He held that the crystal was most effective of all. I'll go and let in the baggageman and then serve you some supper."

He went somberly out, and I examined the room with amazed and delighted eyes. It was 50 feet long and half as wide. The hard-wood floor was covered with handsome rugs, every piece of furniture was quaint or interesting. Carved in the heavy oak paneling above the fireplace, in large Old English letters, was the inscription:

The Spirit of Man is the Candle of the Lord

and on either side great candelabra sent long arms across the hearth. All the books seemed related to architecture; German and French works stood side by side among those by English and American authorities. I found archaeology represented in a division where all the titles were Latin or Italian. I opened several cabinets that contained sketches and drawings, all in careful order, and in another I found an elaborate card catalogue, evidently the work of a practiced hand. The minute examination was too much for me. I threw myself into a great chair that might have been spilt from a cathedral, satisfied to enjoy the general effect. To find an apartment so handsome and so marked by good taste in the midst of an Indiana wood staggered me. I was so lost in contemplation that I did not hear a door opened that in that little I would not fail.

"Bates gave me my coffee, put matches within reach and left the room. I drew out my cigarette case and held it half-opened in my hand, when the glass in the window back of me cracked sharply, a bullet whistled over my head, struck the opposite wall and fell, flattened and marred on the table under my hand."

CHAPTER IV.

A Voice from the Lake.

I ran to the window and peered out into the night. The wood through which we had approached the house seemed to encompass it. The branches of a great tree brushed the panes. I was tugging at the fastening of the window when I became aware of Bates at my elbow.

"Did something happen, sir?"

His unbroken calm angered me. Some one had fired at me through a window and I had narrowly escaped being shot. I resented the unconcern with which this servant accepted the situation.

"Nothing worth mentioning. Some body tried to assassinate me, that's all," I said, in a voice that failed to be calm. "Ironic! I was still fumbling at the catch of the window."

"Allow me, sir," and he threw up the sash with an ease that increased my irritation.

I leaned out and tried to find some clue to my assailant. Bates opened another window and surveyed the dark landscape with me.

"It was a shot from without, was it, sir?"

"Of course it was; you didn't suppose I shot at myself, did you?"

He examined the broken pane and picked up the bullet from the table.

"It's a rifle ball, I should say."

I Liked the Fellow's Humility. He Served With Great Deference.

open behind me. The respectful, mournful voice of Bates announced: "There's a bite ready for you, sir."

I followed him through the hall to a small high-walled room where a table was simply set.

"This is what Mr. Glenarm called the refectory. He took his own meals here. The library was the main thing with him. He never lived to finish the house, more's the pity, sir. He would have made something very handsome of it if he'd had a few years more. But he hoped, sir, that you'd see it completed. The work was near his heart, sir."

"Yes, to be sure," I replied.

He brought cold fowl and a salad, and produced a bit of Solon of unmistakable authenticity.

"I trust the ale is cooled to your liking. It's your grandfather's favorite, if I may say it, sir."

I liked the fellow's humility. He served me with a grave deference and an accustomed hand. Candles in crystal holders shed an agreeable light upon the table; the room was snug and comfortable, and lively logs in a small fireplace crackled cheerily.

My grandfather had designed to punish me, with loneliness, as his weapon, his shade, if it lurked near me, must have been grievously disappointed. I had often eaten my bread alone, and I found a pleasure in the quiet of the strange, unknown house. There stole over me, too, the satisfaction that I was at last obeying a wish of my grandfather's; that I was doing something he would have me do. I was touched by the traces everywhere of his interest in what was to him the art of arts; there was something quite fine in his devotion to it. The little refectory had its air of distinction, though it was without decoration.

There had been, we always said in the family, something whimsical or even morbid in my grandfather's devotion to architecture; but I felt that it had really appealed to something dignified and noble in his own mind and character, and a gentler mood than I had known in years possessed my heart. He had asked little of me, and I

The bullet was half-flattened by its contact with the wall. It was a cart ridge ball of large caliber that might have been fired from either rifle or pistol.

"It's very unusual, sir," I wheeled upon him angrily and found him fumbling with the bit of metal, a troubled look on his face. He at once continued, as though anxious to allay my fears. "Quite accidental, most likely. Probably boys on the lake are shooting at ducks."

I laughed out so suddenly that Bates started back in alarm.

"You idiot!" I roared, seizing him by the collar with both hands and shaking him fiercely. "You fool, do the people out here shoot ducks at night? Do the shoot water-fowl with elephant guns and fire at people through windows just for fun?"

I threw him back against the table so that it leaped away from him, and he fell prone on the floor.

"Get up!" I commanded, "and fetch a lantern."

He said nothing but did as I bade him. We traversed the long, cheerless hall to the front door, and I sent him before me into the woodland. My notions of the geography of the region were the vaguest, but I wished to examine for myself the premises, that evidently contained a dangerous prowler. I was very angry and my rage increased as I followed Bates, who had suddenly retired within himself. We stood soon beneath the lights of the refectory window.

"The ground was covered with leaves which broke crisply under our feet. 'What lies beyond here?' I demanded.

"About a quarter of mile of woods, sir, and then the lake."

"Go ahead," I ordered, "straight to the lake."

THOUSANDS CURED!

Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy has cured thousands in every walk in life. For over thirty years it has been wonderfully successful. Its cures have been permanent, and thousands of grateful people sing its praises. Not a "patent" medicine, but a prescription used by Dr. David Kennedy in his large private practice, long before he introduced it to the public. It remains to-day the best and surest medicine for Kidney and Liver diseases, some of the most common symptoms (or results) of which are: Headache, aching eyes, backache, inability to regulate the flow of the bladder, burning and scalding pain in the affected parts, pale or discolored or cloudy kidney secretions and "brick-dust" deposits, swollen ankles, swelling under eyes, constipation, dyspepsia, rheumatism, gout and illnesses peculiar to women. Large bottles $1.00, at all druggists.

FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE. Write Dr. David Kennedy's Sons, Rondout, N. Y., for a free sample bottle and medical booklet.

Puppy Experiment. "Was in the world did you order a Welsh rabbit in this French place?" they asked her. "Of course, the cheese is about the same as you get everywhere, but how can you tell what a French Welsh rabbit will do to you afterward?"

"I'm not afraid," she informed them, placidly. "I just want to see what sort of nightmare French it will speak."

THREE BOYS HAD ECZEMA.

Were Treated at Dispensary—Did Not Improve—Suffered Five Months—Perfect Cure by Cuticura.

"My three children had eczema for five months. A little sore would appear on the head and seemed very itchy, increasing day after day. The baby had had it about a week when the second boy took the disease and a few sores developed, then the third boy took it. For the first three months I took them to the N. Dispensary, but they did not seem to improve. Then I used Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment and in a few weeks they had improved, and when their heads were well you could see nothing of the sores. ### Record Mountain Climbing.

The redoubtable enterprise of climbing Mont Blanc in midwinter has recently been successfully carried out. The climber is an artist photographer of Chamounix—M. Max Willmann. The climb took two days and nights. With M. Willmann were two guides. During all three days the weather was arctic in point of cold but otherwise splendid.

TACK THIS UP.

Simple Advice Which May Prove of Untold Value.

At the first sign of Backache or pain in the region of the Kidneys, or weakness and urinary trouble, the following simple prescription should be used:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce, Compound Kaffoon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Any good prescription pharmacy will supply these three ingredients at small cost, which can easily be mixed by shaking well in a bottle. This is said to force the Kidneys to filter the acids and poisons from the blood, overcoming the worst cases of Rheumatism.

Coolies Show Affection.

The Chinese laborers in the Van Rhu gold mines recently presented to their white manager a handsome silver tray to mark their feelings of affection, "as deep as the sea."

Stood the Test.

Alcock's Plasters have successfully stood the test of sixty years' use by the public; their virtues have never been equalled by the unscrupulous imitators who have sought to trade upon their reputation by making plasters with holes in them, and claiming them to be "just as good as Alcock's."

Alcock's plasters stand to-day endorsed by not only the highest medical authorities, but by millions of grateful patients who have proved their efficacy as a household remedy.

Physiological Mystery.

According to some curious investigations conducted by English scientists, eldest sons tend to be ornamental and youngest sons paupers. A great many thousand school children and many family histories have been examined to yield these results. First-born children were found to be, as a rule, taller and heavier, with greater ability and endurance than the others. This is in accordance with the popular feeling in many countries that the oldest child is superior to the others and deserving of special privileges. It is a well established fact that among men of genius an undue proportion are eldest sons.—Detroit Free Press.

Valuable Rubber Plant.

A German maid with a knowledge of English just sufficient to get things mixed was much interested in the house plants of her mistress, who possessed, among others, a rubber plant.

One day while sweeping the room she had occasion to move this particular plant, when she remarked that she had read in the paper that a rubber plant worth $200,000 had been in Voonsocket, and she thought it must have been a beautiful plant to have cost so much money.

Put Bismarck in Hole.

When "Bull Run" Russell, who died a short time ago, was with the German army in 1870 he reported a long interview with the crown prince (Friedrich), some expressions in which gave umbrage to Bismarck. Bismarck sent for him, lost his temper and said: "I suppose you couldn't resist showing your importance by reporting all that that 'dunderhead' confided to you?" Russell replied: "Your excellency knows that I always respect confidences; there is much that you have said to me yourself that I have not reported." Bismarck: "Pout! Anything I say to you may have been from the top of St. Paul's." "I thank your excellency," said Russell. "I shall use that permission to record your opinion of the crown prince."

SCIATIC TORTURE

A Locomotive Engineer Tells How He Was Cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Pain that seems almost unbearable is a characteristic of sciatic rheumatism. In some cases the pain is knife-like, sharp or shooting; in others it is dull and aching. Sciatica is stubborn in resisting treatment and the patient frequently suffers for years. This was the case with Mr. Herbert B. Spaulding, a locomotive engineer on the Cincinnati, New Orleans & Texas Pacific Railway, whose home is at Longview, Texas.

"While running an engine some years ago," he says, "I fell off and hurt my knee and spine, and I have always considered this to be the cause of my illness. The sciatic took hold of me from my heel to the back of my head. The pain was the worst I ever suffered in my life and my leg and back were twisted out of shape. I was under a physician's care for several months and for six months could not get out of bed. I also went to Hot Springs but came back in a worse condition than when I went."

"It was when I was down in bed that I heard of the case of a Mr. Allison, a much older man than myself who had been cured of sciatica by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I began taking the pills and soon was able to get out of bed. When I had taken six boxes I was able to work about the house and yard. I kept right on with the pills until I was cured and I have never had any return of the trouble. I have been running an engine ever since."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

FADED TO A SHADOW.

Worn Down by Five Years of Suffering from Kidney Complaint.

Mrs. Remetha Myers, of 180 South Tenth St., Ironton, O., says: "I have worked hard in my time and have been exposed again and again to changes of weather. It is no wonder my kidneys gave out and I went all to pieces. At last, for five years I was fading away and finally so weak that for six months I could not get out of the house. I was nervous, restless and sleepless at night, and lame and sore in the morning. Sometimes everything would whirl and blur before me. I bloated so badly I could not wear tight clothing, and had to put on shoes two sizes larger than usual. The urine was disordered and passages were dreadfully frequent. I got help from the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills; however, and by the time I had taken four boxes the pain and bloating were gone. I have been in good health ever since."

THE ARTISTIC WALL.

One of Solid Color Will Always Give Best Effect.

The dearest, dearest, most artistic wall is a solid colored wall. It furnishes a perfect background for all kinds of pictures, it throws them out in their correct proportions, and does not detract from their artistic value. The solid colored wall is also much better as a background for furniture, and harmonizes much more artistically with carpets and rugs than any other method of wall-treatment. The less breaking up of color on a wall the more artistic it is.

The most successful form of the solid colored wall is an alabaster wall. There is as much difference between tinted walls, as there is between shoddy and all-wool gowns. The shoddy gown holds its color for a few days, while the all-wool keeps its color, to the very last thread, so also in solid colored walls, there are shoddy walls and permanently colored walls which retain their color down to the very last particle. The ideal wall coating never rubs off, never flakes nor chips off and is always ready for a fresh coat. If there is wallpaper on the wall, soak it off with warm water, then go over the plaster after you have removed the paper with warm water to remove every trace of paste. Have the wall thoroughly clean for a clean wall cannot be built on an unclean foundation. If there are any particles of foreign matter adhering to the wall scrape them off with a putty knife. Then if there are any discolorations on the wall, size it with a material made from cheap varnish, thinned down with benzene and japan added for a drier then cover your wall with your tinting material.

Be sure your man uses a tinting material mixed with cold water. If he comes to you and asks for warm water, you can mix up your mind that there is glue in the material which he proposes to put on your wall, and you can be certain that you are going to have a shoddy wall, for glue means shoddy. Glue means that it will hold its color long enough for the man to collect his bill and not much longer. Insist on your tinting material being mixed with clear, cold water. Be sure that your wall is made from pure materials, then you will have a permanent, artistic, sanitary wall. A wall that will be a "thing of beauty and a joy forever."

To Be Refilled.

One of the suburbs of Chicago is the site of a well-known school of theology, from which go out each weekend many members of the senior class to try their voices as "supplies."

A passenger on a Monday morning train was surprised at the number of them who got off at the station.

"What are all these chaps getting off here?" he asked the brakeman. "Them?" asked the brakeman. "O, they're returned empties, for the college."—Youth's Companion.

FOOLED THE PREACHER.

A Doctor's Brother Thought Postum Was Coffee.

A wise doctor found out coffee was hurting him, so he quit drinking it. He was so busy with his practice, however, that his wife had to write how he fooled his brother, a clergyman, one day at dinner. She says:

"Doctor found coffee was hurting him and decided to give Postum a trial, and we have used it now for four years, with continued benefit. In fact, he is now free from the long train of ills that follow coffee drinking."

"To show how successful we are in making Postum properly I will relate an incident. At a dinner we gave, Doctor suggested we serve Postum instead of ordinary coffee."

"Doctor's brother, a clergyman, supposed it was old fashioned coffee and remarked, as he called for his second cup: 'If you do preach against coffee, I see you haven't forgotten how to make it.'"

This goes to show that well-made, fully boiled—Postum has much the flavor and richness of good coffee although it has an individuality all its own. A ten days' trial will prove that it has none of the poisonous effect of ordinary coffee, but will correct the troubles caused by coffee. "There's a reason." Name furnished by Postum Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

FOR SMALL DINNER

SINGLE ROSE AN EFFECTIVE TABLE DECORATION.

Colonial Vase Particularly Well Adapted for Long Stemmed Flowers—Squash and Pumpkin Pies—Cushion Novelty.

For decorations on small tables intended for the service of two or four, a vase of Faville glass, in which is placed a single orchid or pink rose, makes an attractive decoration. Roses are undoubtedly the most popular flowers for all sorts of decoration. The trouble with them, however, is that they are so expensive, and orchids are almost out of one's reach. The revival of the colonial vase is particularly well adapted for flowers with long stems, such as roses and pinks. Among the new pieces for low table decoration, none is more effective than the glass baskets used for the center and filled with flowers falling carelessly over the rim. There are also smaller ones for bon bons. The tall, beautiful compotes in white and gilt and in cut glass are used for bon bons and jellies.

The continued use of grape-fruit as a first course at dinners has made the grape-fruit glass more popular than ever. The glass resembles a tall champagne tumbler, or compote with a long stem. Into the bowl of this glass is placed a smaller one, around which shaved ice is packed. A plate with a foilie is used under each glass.

Squash pies seem more common perhaps than pumpkin because squash cooks quicker. To have a delicious pumpkin it should be cooked a long time, and it is far superior to squash for pies. The pumpkin should be carefully selected, of medium size, and very solid. Pumpkin baked in the shell the same way as Hubbard squash is drier and richer than when it is stewed.

For pies, pare and cut a medium-sized pumpkin in small pieces, and put in a kettle with a pint of water. Boil slowly for an hour or until the water is fully evaporated. Stir occasionally to prevent burning. Drain and put through a colander. To each pint of pumpkin add a pint of milk, three beaten eggs, five heaping tablespoons of sugar, a teaspoonful of ginger, two teaspoonfuls of cinnamon, and a pinch of salt. Or to each cupful of prepared pumpkin add a very little nutmeg, cinnamon, clove and salt, one half teaspoonful of ginger with a half cupful of sugar, one beaten egg, and about three cupfuls of rich milk. Pumpkin pies should always be deep ones.

Prepared pumpkin without any seasoning will keep for several days in a cool place. If placed in glass fruit jars, filled to overflowing, sealed while hot, and kept in a dark, cool room or cellar, it will keep as well as any canned fruit.

A novelty in the way of pin cushions is in the form of imported china figures representing ladies with and without hats. The bodies are of china, but the skirts are real. They are patterned after old-fashioned silks with sprays and garlands of tiny roses and are trimmed with lace and ribbon. One could imagine that the lady had on hoops. Under the skirt is hidden a pin cushion, and the pins are supposed to be put through the skirt. The price is $10.50.

To Clean Steps.

Wash the steps with plenty of clean water, wipe them dry, and then rub over lightly with a mixture made as follows. When quite dry rub with a dandelion or brush till the surface looks quite neat. Boil one quart of water with one cake of pipe clay, a tablespoonful of carbonate of lime, three ounces of size, and the same quantity of stone blue. Boil all together and use when cold.

German Way of Cooking Bass.

For two pounds of bass cut in filets, allow a quart sweet brown beef, a teaspoonful butter, a small onion sliced, six allspice, a bay leaf and a piece of honey cake two inches square, grated. Put beer and fish in the fish boiler and add salt, pepper and the allspice. Add onion, butter and bay leaf; cook 15 minutes, add crumbed honey cake; cook 15 minutes longer and serve.

Bread Pudding and Cream.

Soak a cup of bread crumbs in two cups of milk until soft, beat it smooth, add a tablespoonful of sugar, the beaten yolks of two eggs, a little salt and a half teaspoonful of vanilla. Choose a tin mold and butter slightly and stick raisins on the butter; fill the mold and put it in the oven in a pan of water and bake 20 minutes. Turn out and surround with spoonfuls of whipped cream.

Substitute for Shoe Brush.

A very good substitute for a shoe brush for removing caked mud may be made by gluing a strip of Brussels carpet to a conveniently sized piece of wood. This will quickly remove the mud from the boots without injuring the leather, while it will save the brushes from the extra hard usage to which they are subjected in a succession of wet days.

Sweet Milk for Shoes.

Sweet milk is just as good for patent shoes as for babies, only it needs to be applied differently. Remove all dust and dirt from the shoes, then wash the uppers thoroughly with milk. Let them stand a minute with the milk on them, then wipe with a soft, dry cloth. Shoes thus treated keep their brightness for a long time without needing any polish or dressing.

WOMEN IN HOSPITALS

Experiences of Mrs. Rockwood and Miss Tierney

MISS MARGARET TIERNEY MRS. CHAS. A. ROCKWOOD

A large proportion of the operations performed in our hospitals are upon women and girls for some organic trouble.

Why should this be the case?

Because they have neglected themselves, as every one of these patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in those dragging sensations, pains at left or right of abdomen, backaches, nervous exhaustion, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, and other organic weaknesses.

All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female system and if not heeded the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, has saved hundreds of women from surgical operations.

A vast fund of personal knowledge is really essential to the achievement of the highest excellence in any field of human effort.

A Knowledge of Forms, Knowledge of Functions and Knowledge of Products are all of the utmost value and in questions of life and health when a true and wholesome remedy is desired it should be remembered that Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., is an ethical product which has met with the approval of the most eminent physicians and gives universal satisfaction because it is a remedy of

Known Quality, Known Excellence and Known Component Parts and has won the valuable patronage of millions of the Well Informed of the world, who know of their own personal knowledge and from actual use that it is the first and best of family laxatives, for which no extravagant or unreasonable claims are made.

This valuable remedy has been long and favorably known under the name of—Syrup of Figs—and has attained to world-wide acceptance as the most excellent family laxative. As its pure laxative principles, obtained from Senna, are well known to physicians and the Well Informed of the world to be the best we have adopted the more elaborate name of—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna—as more fully descriptive of the remedy, but doubtless it will always be called for by the shorter name of—Syrup of Figs—and to get a beneficial effects, always note, when purchasing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, whether you call for—Syrup of Figs—or by the full name—Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes, 100,000 times each day. Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood. Keep the bowels open with Ayer's Pills.

When the Mississippi freezes. Since 1870 there have been but six seasons when the Mississippi did not freeze over, these being the years 1873, 1875, 1882, 1891, 1902, and 1906. The 30 times that it did close, the ice stopped running 30 times in December, showing that this is the month when the heavy cold usually sets in. The earliest date recorded is December 4, 1872, and the latest February 24, 1889. One season, 1895-1896, the ice froze up tight and then moved six times the variation of the temperature for the winter.

The Silhouette social at the home of T. H. McCoy Friday evening was well attended in spite of the bad condition of the roads. The pictures were very interesting. Some were so plain that they were instantly recognized while others were more puzzling. Miss Zada Angell won the book given as a prize to the one having the most correct list and Bessie Chaffy the consolation.

Word has been received by Mrs. L. M. Gould of the death of her only son, David Herbert, at Los Angeles, Cal. He was sick but a short time with pneumonia. He was born and brought up here going west when a young man. He lived for several years in Denver, Colo., where he married, his wife dying a few years later. From there he went to California where he married again. The widow and a four year old son are left to mourn his death besides his mother and sister, Mrs. C. F. Rose, who reside here. He was but thirty-five years old.

TESTED AND PROVEN.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation.

For months Northville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit.

James Ferrigan, living four miles from Milford, Mich., says: "In January, 1902, I gave a statement recommending Doan's Kidney Pills and now I am more pleased to recommend them as I think as much of this remedy now as in 1902. At that time my wife suffered very much from backache which always was worse at night. She seemed unable to rest comfortably and spent many sleepless nights. She would become so stiff and lame that she could scarcely turn around. The action of the kidneys also was irregular and she seemed to get little benefit from the many remedies she tried. Having read so much of Doan's Kidney Pills I procured a box for her. From the start she began to improve and after using two boxes was completely cured. I have not heard her complain since and we both are ardent believers in the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have no hesitation in giving her endorsement of them a second time and am very glad to do so."

THE STOMACH.

My but 'peoples' stomachs do cause a lot of trouble. I offered to wager some doctors in St. Paul, Minn., that one half of all sickness is caused by the stomach. After I assured them that my medicine did nothing but put the stomach in shape and they had spent a day listening to what people who called on me had to say, they had to agree with me. They heard people come in and tell me that for years they had been near the grave with Bright's disease, or lung trouble, or kidney complaint and all manner of diseases and that the New Discovery had cured them. Of course these people were mistaken, it was nothing but their stomachs. As a matter of fact when the stomach gives out most everything else is thrown out of order too.

C. H. POWELL.

When a person feels tired and dull and despondent, is losing flesh and doesn't sleep well, has a poor memory, a bad taste in the mouth, a coated tongue, and other troubles he's liable to believe a lot of things are the matter with him. Nine chances to one it's his stomach. I've seen Cooper's New Discovery bring back health to too many people in just this shape to believe anything else. Here's a letter about it:
"I suffered for a long time without knowing just what was the matter with me. I seldom felt like eating. I lost greatly in weight. My digestion was extremely poor and when I did eat I invariably suffered afterward. I was constipated and frequently suffered from nerve racking, violent headaches. When I heard of what the Cooper remedies were doing for others I resolved to try them."
"Relief came with the first bottle. My appetite and digestion improved rapidly. I am no longer constipated nor do I have those dreadful headaches. I sleep well and am gaining flesh." C. H. POWELL, 13 Harrison Addition, Duluth, Minn.

We are selling immense quantities of these medicines and our customers express great satisfaction.
