ANOTHER INDUSTRY

DAVIS, WILLIAMS, & CO. TO MAKE NEW PRODUCT

New Machinery Has Already Been Installed.

Davis, Williams, & Co. of Detroit have purchased the factory, formerly owned by the Ravage Milk Products Co., and will engage in the manufacture of a new product. New machinery has been installed and work will begin at once. D. M. Hurry is again taking charge of the plant.

JOHN TATE DEAD.

Exemplary Young Man Succumbs to Typhoid Fever.

John, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jule Tate, living west of town, died Wednesday night of typhoid fever, aged eighteen years. He was an exemplary young man and the community will keenly feel his untimely death. The parents have the sympathy of their friends in this sad affliction. We go to press too early to give particulars about the funeral.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The firm of Cattermole & Dart has this day been dissolved by mutual consent of both parties, Mr. Dart retiring. Mr. Cattermole continues the business. All outstanding accounts are payable to the said Mr. Cattermole, he also assumes all indebtedness.

CATTERMOLE & DART AFTER SEVERAL YEARS' BUSINESS.

Harness and Farm Implement Trade Carried on by Former.

Cattermole & Dart, who have been engaged in the harness making and farm implement business here for several years, by mutual consent dissolved partnership last Friday. Mr. Dart retiring and Mr. Cattermole still continuing in the business. Arthur Grant, a former employee, has been engaged to do the harness work.

Mr. Cattermole's reputation as a business man is well known throughout the surrounding country, and it is predicted by many that he will do as thriving a business in the future as in the past.

Mr. Dart, the retiring member of the firm, has not yet decided what he will do, but his many friends wish him success in whatever he undertakes.

OPINIONS FROM THE STATE PRESS

KNOCKS PINGREE AND WARNER AND BOOMS ATWOOD.

"There never was in Michigan politics a more rotten political machine than that which Fred M. Warner has builded and upon which he bases his hope of success for a third-term nomination. In comparison with the main spokes and cogs and pinions of that machine Atwood is an incarnation of sublimated political ethics."—Allegan Press.

Now, who would you guess was the moldier of this literary gem? Why, Allegan's only Edwy Reid, of course. Edwy used to talk and write the same way about Gov. Pingree and his machine, but somehow the good gray governor got there just the same.

LOTS OF THIRD TERMERS.

A closer examination of the records show that in addition to having elected John S. Barry governor three times and James B. Porter secretary of state three times, Michigan has elected some other men to state offices three or more times. Jacob M. Howard was elected attorney-general three times, serving from Jan. 1, 1855, to Dec. 31, 1860. Wm. Humphrey was elected auditor-general four times, his first term beginning Jan. 1, 1867, and his fourth term ending Dec. 31, 1874. John M. Gregory was elected superintendent of public instruction three terms, and was succeeded by Oramel Hoxford, who served for four consecutive terms, the seven terms of the two extending from Jan. 1859, to Dec. 31,

1872. Supreme Justices Cooley, Christiancy and Campbell were all elected three times.—Detroit News

WILL NOT HINGE ON THIRD TERMISM

The contest for the republican nomination for governor next year will not hinge upon the "third term" issue, no matter what efforts the bosses and machine men may make in that direction. They would oppose any other man who stood unalterably for genuine primary reform just as strongly as they will oppose Gov. Warner. The people know this and will not be deceived, when the issue is made directly and presented vigorously, as it will be next year. Gov. Warner would not have stood for re-nomination if the legislature had amended the primary law in accordance with the popular demand. His entry, like that of Gov. LaFollette of Wisconsin, and Gov. Cummins, of Iowa, is for the sole purpose of carrying to completion reforms that the people want and the bosses persistently contend against. That the result will be the same as the results in Wisconsin and Iowa, the Times has not the least doubt.—Port Huron Times.

THINKS IT WILL RE-ROOSEVELT

It is the prospect that Taft cannot get all the factions together to insure his nomination that convinces Washington that Mr. Roosevelt is more nearly convinced than ever he was that in order to assure a continuance of his policies unbroken he will have to take the nomination himself.—Washington News Dispatcher.

A Complete Surprise.

A number of neighbors and friends gave Mrs. Geo. Axford a complete surprise last Thursday afternoon and evening by walking in and taking possession of the house. Each lady carried a suspicious looking package which proved to be something good to eat. Before leaving for their homes, they presented Mrs. Axford with a souvenir spoon, a reminder of Northville and the many kind friends who regret her going away. Whist was played and Mrs. R. R. Darwin won the first prize. Mrs. Axford expects to leave in about two weeks for her home in Tecumseh.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

(By the Pastor.)

Miss Mae Coldren very acceptably supplied Mrs. Tinham's place as organist last Sunday.

Our Sunday school wish our faithful superintendent, J. O. Knapp, a pleasant journey and visit in the east.

The Sunday evening sermon will be the second of the series on "The Young Man's Story." The topic will be "Seeing the World."

The quarterly tea given by the Ladies' Missionary society at the home of Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Curtis Tuesday evening was very largely attended. The base line ladies certainly know how to entertain.

Baptist Church Notes.

(By a Member.)

Services as usual Sunday. The subject of the morning sermon will be "Form and Formality." Evening subject, "A Review of the Lord's Prayer."

Methodist Church Notes.

(By the Pastor.)

The Woman's Home Missionary society will meet with Mrs. Balden on Dunlap street next Tuesday, Nov. 19.

An interesting and largely attended meeting of the Ladies Aid society was held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Ambler Tuesday afternoon.

Did you chance to be at Sunday school last Sunday? If not, you missed one of the best sessions recently held, with the largest attendance for some time. Let us have a still larger attendance next Sunday.

The ladies of the Aid society are highly gratified at the success of the chicken pie supper served last week. The results even exceeded expectations. The committee in charge is deserving of credit for the excellent management of the supper.

The pastor will preach at both services next Sunday. Were you present last Sunday? If not, come next Sunday; if you were, come again. We try to make people feel at home among us and to make it worth their while to attend church.

It is expected that a mission study class will soon be formed among the young people of the Epworth League. Already enough have indicated a wish to join the class to assure its successful organization. Every member of the League and every young person in the church is asked to join the class if possible.

The first quarterly conference was held Tuesday evening, Presiding Elder Sweet in the chair. Encouraging reports from different departments of the church were made, and the spirit of aggressiveness and optimism seems to have become general. The people of the church are to be congratulated upon the energy and harmony that has signalized the beginning of our year's work. It promises to be a year of substantial advance.

Valuable Land.

The proposition is being discussed to pull down the Bank of England building, which is one story in height and covers eight acres, house it in a seven-story building on a portion of the site and sell the remainder of the land, the value of which is estimated at $32,500,000.

A WORD FOR THE DANDIES.

Fine Clothes and Brave Hearts a Most Effective Combination.

One is sorry for the dandies of our day, because, though their clothes fit ever so well, and are ever so fresh, custom prescribes a dark or subfuscane, and no lace, no velvet (above all, not on coat collars); no slashes, puffs and vandyings; no pearls and gold; no gules and azure. The common trousers are shapely things, and, for perfection, you need two pairs every day. Genius is stunted, display is checked, and, though you may wear brilliant hose with knickerbockers in the country, glorious waistcoats are rarely seen except in the windows of tailors' shops at Oxford and Cambridge. The dandy can only cultivate immaculate neatness and perfection of fit. Our officers at Ladysmith, when the place was relieved looked like skeletons, but were as spruce and neat, I have been told, as ever they showed in the park. They cultivated self respect, like Stendhal, the celebrated novelist, who was said to have been the only man that shaved every day in the dreadful winter retreat from Moscow. This is the dandyism which we admire, the perfection of personal self respect exhibited in Julius Caesar, Claverhouse and Montrose, combining his loveclock, like the Three Hundred of Thermopylae on the morning of his shameful death. He went to the gibbet "like a bridegroom to his bride." History, and "the human heart by which we live," have an immortal tenderness for the great, the wise, the brave, who have died dandies as they lived—gallant hearts and stately gentlemen—Century Magazine.

MADE HIS BLUFF STRONG.

Trouble Was the Horse Would Not Be Reasonable.

Charles H. Wilson, the superintendent of Alfred G. Vanderbilt's remarkable stables said at Newport of a groom he had discharged: "The man was a bluff. He pretended to know all about horses, when in truth he could hardly tell a hackney from a cow. We soon got on to him. His case was like the fake blacksmith's. There was a chap who thought blacksmithing looked simple and easy, and so, being out of work, he decided to have a try at it. He went to a smith and asked for a job. 'Well,' said the smith, 'you are a strong, likely-looking fellow. What experience have you had?' 'Eleven years,' was the prompt answer. 'All right, I'll try you,' said the blacksmith. 'Shoe that mare while I go home to dinner.' The smith, on his return from dinner frowned, and said to the new hand, 'What, haven't you got that mare shod yet?' The bluffer, but his lip, flushed and replied: 'I can't get her confounded foot in the vice.'"

Liquor She Floated In.

On their arrival in New Zealand, according to London Tri-Bits, a party of English people drank the health of the vessel which had brought them safely to their destination. One of the gentlemen who was asked to join in this ceremony replied "No, I am a teetotaler, but I'll willingly drink success to the ship in the liquor she floats in." A friend disappeared and returned with a glass of water. After a complimentary apostrophe to the ship, the recipient tossed the water off at once, but immediately spluttered: "Ugh—ah—oh—this is—oh—what on earth is this?" "That?" said his friend. "Why, you've drunk success to our noble ship in the identical liquor she floats in."

Second Thought.

Second thoughts are often best, even in a case of love at first sight.

THE STATE IN GENERAL

EDNA BRASS, AFTER TWENTY-ONE YEARS IN PRISON, IS PAROLED.

RELATIVES TO TAKE HER

Pledged Guilty With a Hired Man Crafts, Her Paramour, When Charged With Murder of Her Husband.

After the Weary Years.

Word was conveyed Thursday to Mrs. Edna L. Brass, who has served 21 years of a life sentence in the Detroit house of correction, for the murder of her husband in Muskegon county in 1886, that Gov. Warner had commuted her sentence to 35 years, which, with good time, permits her release Friday. An uncle is coming from California to take her to that state. "Mrs. Brass is a frail little woman. 'When I came in here 21 years ago I weighed 115 pounds,' she said. Today she weighs about 90 pounds. And this in spite of the most regular mode of living, regular and good meals and with no material worry, except the desire for freedom."

The woman was charged jointly with James Crafts with the murder of her husband, Miles Brass. Crafts, who was a hired man, is serving a life sentence at Jackson for the crime. Both pleaded guilty.

It developed in the investigation that Crafts and the woman had been living under improper relations, and that Crafts exerted an unusual control over her. She was of weak physical force and not strong mentally, and the pardon board found the universal opinion that Crafts was the party who engineered and perpetrated the crime.

After Brass was murdered his body was buried in a root cellar. His absence aroused suspicion, and as Crafts and Mrs. Brass were living together, an investigation was started. Searchers had about abandoned their quest for the missing man, when, while digging in the root cellar, they discovered the protruding head of the victim, who had been buried deeply in the earth. It is believed that Crafts, brained Brass with a flat iron while he slept.

The pardon board believes Mrs. Brass story, that she did not participate in the killing and did not know that Crafts intended to commit murder. She admits, however, that she knew Crafts was intending to chastise him severely. The trial court, the prosecuting attorney who tried the case, many citizens and Superintendent McDonald, of the house of correction, all recommended clemency.

The James Purdy Mystery.

It is nearly a month now since James Purdy, prominent cattle buyer of Columbiaville, went to the Soo to buy stock, left the Park hotel, drove off in a buggy with a strange man, and still no word from him or the least clue as to his whereabouts. His brother has been searching for him, and a reward is to be offered by the sheriff of Chippewa county.

The horse Purdy drove away October 14 returned with the reins dragging on the ground and the buggy empty. It is a desolate country a few miles out from the Soo, and cattle buyers are known to carry much money. It is thought that perhaps a clump of bushes, a brush heap or a deep mud hole along a lonely road in the northern wilderness holds the mystery.

"Who is the strange man Purdy drove away with that day?" is one of the questions which the cattle man's friends are asking.

A Gruesome Exhibit.

During the recent session of the pardon board Nancy Flood, of Grand Rapids, who is serving a life sentence in the Detroit house of correction for the murder of a farm hand tried again to secure a pardon. At infinite pains and with not a little skill Mrs. Flood has prepared a miniature of her home where the shooting occurred, showing every detail of the tragedy, even to the body of the victim with the top of his head blown off and the gun lying on the floor. Even the blood stains on the wall were reproduced.

A member of the board said it was the most gruesome exhibit that ever came under his notice. It is believed to be unlikely that the board will recommend the pardon of the woman for the present.

Mr. Stewart as a Candidate.

It is reported that Nathaniel H. Stewart, of Kalamazoo, will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor next fall.

Stewart, when asked if he was an avowed candidate for the nomination, declared that he was not, but added: "If I should run and be elected governor, let me tell you right now, I would be governor and there would be no question about it. The condition of our state today is deplorable, made so by a lot of cheap politicians. And there would be none of this modern Democracy for me. I would only run on a good old Jeffersonian platform."

Stewart has long been active in Democratic politics and is one of the leaders of the party in this state.

Attorneys Murfin, Geer and Whiting had a verbal combat at Ann Arbor during a recess in the Frank C. Andrews case and the lie was passed several times.

Letters from a brother in Cedar Springs and a sister in Chatham, Ont., from whom she had not heard in 30 years, have been received by Mrs. Ren Bullard, of Allegan, and a reunion will be held Thanksgiving.

The Pere Marquette has satisfactorily settled 35 claims which resulted from the practical destruction of Kent City in April from locomotive sparks, and the suits in the Grand Rapids federal court have been withdrawn.

The Grand Trunk bought the City Inn property, at Kalamazoo, just opposite the G. R. & I. depot as a depot site and has obtained a right of way into the city.

D. M. FERRY DEAD.

Heart Failure Claims Detroit's Millionaire Seed Merchant.

Dexter Mason Ferry, head of the great seed firm which bears his name and widely known throughout the state in business and political life, was found dead in bed in his residence, 1040 Woodward avenue, early Monday morning. Although Mr. Ferry had not been in robust health during the last year, he had suffered from no illness and was apparently in his usual health when he retired Sunday evening. Saturday he had visited his office as usual and had made no complaint of feeling ill. Monday morning he did not arise at the usual time and when members of the family went to his room, it was found that he had passed away.

Once a Farmhand.

Mr. Ferry's life is the story of steady development from the humble position of farm hand, and later of errand boy in the city, to the high place of a millionaire business man whose achievements were the result of persistent and skillful devotion to business, and of methods entirely free from the spectacular ways of latter-day high finance. Incidents in his life, showing how he labored hard to seize every educational advantage; no matter how meager, and other later facts reveal the type of successful business man that is sometimes designated as old-fashioned.

Dexter M. Ferry was born in Lowell, Lewis county, N. Y., on August 8, 1833. He was the son of a wagon maker.

STATE BRIEFS.

Mr. and Mrs. William Parmelee, of Hilliards, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday. Sixty-two relatives and friends were guests.

Authorities of the Kalamazoo asylum has asked probate judges to refrain from sending any but the dangerously insane to the hospital, unless relatives are too poor to care for them. The asylum is overcrowded.

The Apollo club, a musical organization of men of Kalamazoo, will probably disband after an existence of four years. The club is unable to get its funds from the defunct Bowman bank, which also has the music in its vault.

Of the 16 criminal cases on the docket at Marshall, 12 are for alleged violations of the liquor law, the complaining witness being Sheriff Graham, who has been pursuing a vigorous crusade against blind pigs and houses of ill-fame.

Judge Wiest refused to grant a divorce to Mrs. Esther Baird, of Lansing, from her husband, Alvin J. Baird, on the ground that he was a drunkard because Mrs. Baird admitted she knew Baird drank whisky before she married him.

John Costello, a leading merchant, since 1870 a resident of Marquette, is dead. He was sheriff for sixteen years and for 10 consecutive years county clerk and registrar of deeds. He was born in Prince Edward Island in March, 1846.

Gov. Warner issued requisitions for Wilbur B. Reading, an attorney held in Buffalo for St. Joseph authorities on a bigamy charge, Harry Neal in Montana, wanted in Muskegon for wife desertion, and Henry C. Matkoski, held in California for the Detroit police on a perjury charge.

An unknown man, suffering from the stings of conscience, following his conversion to Christianity, called at the residence of David Moore, 521 Davis street, Kalamazoo, and returned $1, which he said was the proceeds of two burglaries committed in that residence last summer. He was well dressed and is believed to have been converted by the rescue mission.

In answer to a question from the New York World, Senator William Alden Smith replied: "I do not think it desirable to have an extra session of congress for considering the financial situation. Whatever legislation may be needed to strengthen our commercial and industrial conditions should be taken up with deliberation and care, and not under the whip and spur."

H. H. Eberard, of Kalamazoo, has resigned as general manager of the Munising Paper Co., a million-dollar corporation in which the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Co. is interested, in order that he may give more attention to the upbuilding and enlargement of the Detroit Sulphite, Pulp & Paper Co. His successor is L. R. Stewart, of Maine, one of the best known paper makers in the country.

In the damage suit of Peter Forster against Dr. J. E. Randall, of Bay City for $10,000 damages because of alleged malpractice, the jury was out 2 1/2 and a half hours without being able to reach an agreement. Four of the members voted on every one of the 100 ballots taken in favor of a verdict of no cause of action. The case was on trial all week and grew out of treatment to a broken leg.

The announcement from the auditor-general's office that the apportionment of the primary school money gives Kent county only $4 per capita created consternation among the members of the local board of education. It means that the teachers' salary fund will run $22,000 short next spring and that this amount will have to be raised in some manner. The amount may have to be drawn from the general city fund and placed in the school budget to swell that estimate, which already promises to be a record-breaker.

A rabid dog snapped at County Poor Commissioner Gordon, of Muskegon, and though his trousers were torn a roll of bills in his pocket stopped the animal's teeth before it reached the skin.

Gov. Warner has appointed George Clapperton, of Grand Rapids, Horace M. Oren, of Saint Ste. Marie, and John F. Wilkinson, delegates to the national conference on state and local taxes in Columbus, O.

Emmett Bull, of Kalamazoo, lost one of his legs Wednesday when he tried to jump from a rapidly moving freight train near Battle Creek and fell under the wheels.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., NOV. 15, '07.

Low Changes Often.

Governor Warner is to be congratulated on the fact that Lew Rowley, late Democratic referee for the sixth congressional district, does not think he should be accorded a third term. These congratulations are not offered because of any desire to belittle Mr. Rowley's influence with his fellow mortals or his standing as a Democratic politician, but simply because his present opposition is an assurance of his future enthusiastic support. Mr. Rowley is as stable in his opinions as the wind which blows from one quarter today only to blow with even greater force from the opposite point of the compass tomorrow. It will be recalled that it is only a few short months ago that he delivered himself of such a flattering estimate of Theodore Roosevelt that the President was moved to address him a personal letter of thanks. But alas! Within the past three weeks the former Lansing editor has been impelled to write another estimate of the self-same president in which he makes that much discussed individual out an ogre which threatens the early and complete destruction of our beloved country. If Lew does not believe his record, it will only be a short time before he is out boomer the governor "to beat the band." Hence our congratulations.

Lieutenant Governors Vote.

In a recent communication to a Detroit newspaper Representative, Joseph Creusel makes a carefully prepared argument in opposition to the proposal to incorporate in the new constitution a provision giving the Lieutenant Governor the casting vote in all cases of a deadlock in the senate without making any observation as to the merits of Mr. Creusel's argument or of his position on this question. The Record submits that the new constitution should embody some positive provision on this subject. The present constitution declares that the official named shall have the casting vote, but the supreme court has interpreted this to mean that he shall exercise this right only in cases where it will in no wise affect the result. It is worse than folly to continue such a meaningless provision in the constitution.

Fads and Fancies Before Con-Con.

It is evident that the constitutional convention has a vast task ahead of it in the way of clearing the decks of the almost endless number of fads and fancies that have been and are still being dumped into its proposal basket. While a large number of excellent proposals have been made there have also been brought forward for consideration about every cranky scheme of government that anyone has exploited during the past two or three decades. It is reassuring to know that the disposition of a majority of the delegates is to propose a constitution which shall depart as little from the organic law that has served the state so well for more than half a century as is consistent with a proper regard for needed changes incident to the growth and development of the Commonwealth.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Friends Were Alarmed—

Advised Change of Climate.

Miss Mildred Keller, 718 13th street, N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I can safely recommend Peruna for catarrh. I had it for years and it would respond to no kind of treatment, or if it did it was only temporary, and on the slightest provocation the trouble would come back."

"I was in such a state that my friends were alarmed about me, and I was advised to leave this climate. Then I tried Peruna, and to my great joy found it helped me from the first dose I took, and a few bottles cured me."

"It built up my constitution, I regained my appetite, and I feel that I am perfectly well and strong."—Mildred Keller.

NOVI NEWS.

One of the saddest deaths that has occurred here in some time was that of Mrs. L. K. Bullen Sunday evening of heart failure caused from childbirth.

Mrs. Bullen was twenty-six years old and had been married a little over two years. She had been a resident of this place nearly all of that time and had endeared herself to all with whom she came in contact. She was an accomplished pianist and was always ready and willing to play when asked to do so. Her presence in the community will be greatly missed, but the memory of her sweet smile and sunny disposition will live forever. The husband has the sympathy of all in his sad bereavement. The remains of the mother and baby were taken to Parma, her former home, for burial Monday afternoon.

Several children in this vicinity have the whooping cough which has decreased the number of the school children so greatly that there is talk of closing school.

The Best Laxative for Children.

Parents should see to it that their children have one natural, easy movement of the bowels each day. Do not dose the child with salts or griping pills, as they are too powerful in effect, and literally tear their little insides to pieces, leaving the bowels weakened and less able to act naturally than before. Laxative Iron-Ox Tablets tone and strengthen the bowels, and stimulate all the little organs to healthy activity. Chocolate coated tablets, easy to take, never gripe or nauseate. 30c, 50c and $1.00. For sale and recommended by Murdock Bros., Druggists.

Marlin

Why is the Marlin 12 gauge take-down repeating shotgun the best all-around shotgun that money can buy?
Marlin shotguns are made of the best material obtainable for the purpose. They are strong and sure, and work under all conditions. The breech block and working parts are cut from solid steel drop-forgings; the barrels are of special rolled steel or of "Special Smokeless Steel."
The lines of Marlin shotguns are pleasing--the balance is perfect. They pattern perfectly and have wonderful penetration.
The solid top and side ejection assure safety and comfort. This is the gun you have been needing.
Send six cents for our catalogue, which explains every Marlin in detail and is full of other valuable gun lore.
The Marlin Firearms Co., 42 Willow Street, New Haven, Conn.

Mo-Ka COFFEE

Maintains its high standard of quality despite the advance in the price of green coffees.
The roasters of MO-KA are determined that the quality of this brand shall not suffer. The grade will be kept up; its many friends will not be disappointed. Have you tried it? Ask your Grocer.

Prosperous Germany.
New factories are springing up like mushrooms in the Rhine country, and all are built substantially. There is a general complaint, in consequence, of the scarcity of labor. It has been said that no man in Germany is idle unless he chooses.

CONFIRMED PROOF.

Residents of Northville Cannot Doubt what Has Been Twice Proved.

In gratitude for complete relief from aches and pains of bad back--from distressing kidney ills--thousands have publicly recommended Doan's Kidney Pills. Residents of Northville, who so testified years ago, now say their cures were permanent. This testimony doubly proves the worth of Doan's Kidney Pills to Northville kidney sufferers.

Henry Priest, retired molder, living on Mill street, Northville, Mich., says: "Mrs. Priest and I have as great confidence in the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills today as we had five years ago when Mrs. Priest allowed a statement telling her experience with this remedy to be published in our local papers. I have also used the pills with gratifying results. I was annoyed by a severe backache which made my work more than ordinarily difficult to perform. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Murdock Bros' Drug store. In a short time this backache vanished and I now have no trouble of the kind. Mrs. Priest suffered severe aching across her back accompanied with rheumatic pains so bad at times that she could hardly get around. After using Doan's Kidney Pills all her aches and pains disappeared. We both heartily endorse the claims made for your remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name--Doan's--and take no other.

Clothing of Trees.
Mr. David Garrick Longworth, who has been traveling in Africa, spent several months in Nairobi. "I found the natives making good use of the bark of the trees they cut down," he states. "After drying it they hammered it into shape and made decent clothing for themselves."
