HENRY NEAL AND WIFE CELEBRATED

THEIR 60TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

A decidedly pleasant event was W. D. Neal, Courtright, Ont., Rev. that at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. and Mrs. W. S. Jerome and F. S. Neal B. Reynolds here Saturday afternoon when there was celebrated the sixtleth wedding anniversary of Mrs. Reynold's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Neal. A special car-from Detroit brought out the children and grandchildren, and they were conveyed to the farm home in bay-racked wagons filled with straw and blankets. It was a novel contract to the big automobiles which some of the party are familiar with in Detroit. Besides Mr. and Mrs Reynolds and the "bride and groom" there were thirty-niue guests present as follows: Mrs. C. A. Hempstead of Algonac. Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Neal, R. H. Neal, Miss May Neal, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Neal and son, Mrs. W. W. Cline and three children, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Neal and children, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Neal, T. S. Neal and wife, Myron Neal, H. Neal Jones, Miss Nellie Pottinger, Rev. and Mrs. S. T. Marquis, Dean of St. Paul cathedral, Miss Jennie Thorp, James and Ray Pottinger, all of Detroit, Mrs. S. J. Wal-of Northville.

Of the above list nine were children Neal, W. C. Neal and A. F. Neal of the Acme White Lead Works, M. A. closely. Mr. Craft was ably accom-Neal of the Central Paint and Glass company, Mrs. W. W. Cline, all of Detroit, Mrs. C. A. Hempstead of Algonac, Mrs. S.J. Wallace of Port Austin, Mrs. Reynolds and Miss L. C. Neal of this place. There were also present eleven grandchildren. The here.

A huge bouquet of American Beauty tions. roses bearing blossoms in number to represent each of the children and the aged couple came with the compliments of the president, officials and other friends of the Acme White Lead cổmpany.

Mr. Neal is eighty-one years of age and Mrs. Nealisseventy-six and both are enjoying excellent health. Until about a year ago they lived in De troit.

Before leaving for the cara delight lace and daughter of Port Austin, ful lunch was served which every-Miss L. C. Neal, now of Northville, body enjoyed most hugely.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society will be held at the parsonage Thursday afternoon of next week at two o'clock. After the business and election of officers, a social time will be enjoyed. All of the church and congregation are invited. Come and bring a box lunch. Tea will be served by the hostess.

In spite of the inclemency of the weather a large congregation gathered on Sunday evening attesting the interest that people have in the origin and growth of denominationalism. Messra. Grant, Cochran, Ryder and Walters rendered the beautifu! male quartet "Where Jesus Is," in a very feeling way adding much to the beauty of the service. We trust that the male quartet will be a frequent feature of the evening service to which the organist, Mrs. Tinham, gives much careful preparaprising that troubles never come sin-gle; they are all married."

THE GRINDING OF LENSES FOR SPECTACLES

Is a delicate operation. It requires skilled workmen at high salaries to grind lenses by prescription. The smallest deviation from the proper curvature makes a big difference in the lenses. The measurements are made by very sensitive instruments, and our lenses are ground for us by workmen of the highest skill and scientific training.

SYNOPSIS.

Three girls — Elizabeth, Gabrielle and Elise-started for Canada to spend the summer there. On board stramer they were frightened by an apparently demented stranger, who, finding a bag belonging to one of them, took enjoyment in scrutinizing a photo of the-tirlo. Elise shared her stategoom with a Mrs. Graham, also bound for Canada. The young women on a sightseeing tour met Mrs. Graham, anxiously awaiting her fugshand, who had a mania for saling They were introduced to Lord Wilfird and Lady. Edith A cottage by the ocean was rented by the trio for the summer. Elizabeth learned that a frond of her father's was to call. Two men called, one of them being the queer-acting stranger on the steamer The girls were not at home, but discovered by the cards left that one of the men was Elizabeth's father's friend The men proved to be John'Ct Blake and Gerdon Rennett. A wisp of yellow-hair from Mr Graham's pocket fell into the hands of Elise Mrs Graham's hair was bluck. Lady Edith told the girls of. a robberry of jewels at the hotel Tearing for the safety of her own sems, she left them in a safe at the cottage. Mr. Gordon Bennett was properly introduced, explained his queer actions, returned the lost bag and told of mysterious doings of a year before connected with the cottage Exploring the cellar, one of the girls found a spinny cull-button, the evact counterpart of which both Gordon Bennett and Ledy Edith were found to possess, also Dise alone explored the cellar, overhearing a conversation there between Mary Anne and aman He proved to be her son charged with nurder. The young women agreed to keep the secret Lady Edith Gordon bennett and Ledy median actions, the spinnx key Elise and Gordon Bennett day Edith and Mr Graham, the later displaying a marvelotic barltone voice. At a supper which, was held on the rocks Elizabeth rather mysteriously lost her ring, causing a search by the entire party.

It was a very beautiful world, too. as the sun sank slowly out of sight, leaving the heavens tinted with scaret and gold, fading here and there to ariber and palest pink, and we instructively grew silent while watch ηα=it

Finally Mr Bennett touched me on the shoulder "Look," he said.

I turned in the direction he inducated and saw a little skiff under full sail, heading for the open sea. The white canvas gleamed losily pink in the sunset glow, and we could see the figure of a man silhouerted against the sky A fresh breeze had spring up and the boat cut through—the ives, now careening to one side until the sails seemed to dip in the wa ter, now righting itself and darting forward as though exulting in its dangerous freedom Steadily onward it went, and as I watched it Mr. Graham's song returned to me Almost unconsciously I repeated a few lines

"Where the far-away dim horizon Touches the mist-bound sea,
There heth an Unknown Kingdom
With its gates ajar for me."

"Yes," said Gordon Bennett, adding after a moment, 'it is Graham, you

I contradicted him at once, secure in my superior knowledge.

Mrs Graham was far from well. He is with her, of course' I rose as I spoke, for it was time to go home, and Mr. Bennett rose also. He looked at me in a puzzled, incredulous sort of way and once or twice seemed about to speak, but thought better of it As we walked toward Mr. Biake I remembered the shadows and my fright of the previous night. I began to tell him about it, but a gleam of gold caught my eye and Î saw he was wearing the scarf-pin with the Sphinx's head. For some reason the sight of this pin checked the words on my lips and a feeling of distrust arose in my heart, totally vinjustifiable.

Mr. Blake joined us and we walked slowly home in silence, interrupted only by occasional perfunctory remarks. I was conscious of a return of my former depression, also of an inclination to be very disagreeable funniest experience. I'm glad my indeed should any one give me the slightest provocation.

Perhaps my companions realized this, for at the turn of the path they said good-by and went on to the village leaving me to return to the cottage alone. Far in the distance I saw woman's figure I thought might be Gabrielle coming home along the shore, and I decided to wait for her

So I went around to our little slip. ntending to sit upon the ledge until she arrived. Much to my surprise, I found it already occupied, for Mrs. Graham sat, or rather crouched, upon the ledge muffled in a thick shawl. Her thin hands were clasped so tightly together that the veins stood out ike cords and the knuckles were blue and prominent. Although it was evident from her absorption that she had not heard me approach she displayed no surprise when I sat down beside her and when I stoke she answered as hough I had been there all the time.

In reply she raised her hand and pointed toward the ocean. "He is out there."

"Mr. Graham?" "Yes."

Sordon Bennett had been right, and this was the way Mr. Graham looked after his invalid wife. I tried not to show the indignation Is felt as I suggested she would be better at

"I told him to go" She was at once on the defensive "He would have stayed with me if I had asked "He would him. I wanted him to go But, oh-She collapsed again and shivered convulsively

"The sauff is so little and the ocean is so big."

"He goes so often I should think you would be accustomed to lt." I fear my voice was not very sympathetic, but, as Gabrielle said, there one's nervous system. She was look-ing-straight at me now with an exssion of terror in her large dark eyes. "Often," she whispered, "often? Ah, you don't-know! Day or night when the fancy takes possession of him he has to go, he says he cannot help it. Last hight—and to night. —"Last night"" I ejaculated "You don't mean to say he left you last night?"

She immediately stiffened, resenting the implied cuticism.

"There was one reason he should I was all right as soon as I got to bed. He was restless and wakeful and I did not_need attention best he should go I was quite comfortable at home"

Quite comfortable! I could imagine the thin white face upon the pillow, with frightened eyes stating into the darkness hour after hour throughou

"For several years my husband was a missionary in the Southwest. Every one in that high and dry atmosphere has more or less trouble with dandruff and my daughter's scalp became so encrusted with it that I was alarmed for fear she would lose all her hair. After trying various remedies, in desperation I bought a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. They left the scalp beautifully clean and free from dandruff, and I am happy to say that the Cuticura Remedies were a complete success. "I'll walk along up with you," she "Say, you're Solomon Pratt, ain't you? I heard about you. Nate Scudder told pa. He said he'd let this place to Sol Pratt and a couple of crazy men from New-York. What's their names?" "Well, there's Lycurgus and Editha and Ulysses and Napoleon and Marguerite and Dewey he's the baby. Great names, ain't they? - Pa's doings, naming 'em that way was. Pa says there's nothing like hitching a grand name to a young one; gives 'em something to live up to, he says. His own name's Washington, but he ain't broke his back living up to it, far's as I can see; and ma used to say the same afore she died."

"O-o-h!" says I- 'I see." I knew who she was now. I hadn't lived around Wellmouth so very long, but I'd heard of Washington Sparrow. He ived in a little slab shanty off in the roods about a mile from Scudder's, and had the name of being the laziest man

We'd reached the house by this time and I left Eureka Florina in the kitchen and went to my room to change my duds When I come down the Twins was in the kitchen, too, and I could hear the Sparrow girl's tongue going like a house afire. Marfin had just paid her for the quahaugs and she was felling how scarce they'd got to be in the bay, and how her brother had worked to get a few bedded and how he'd sold a couple of quarts to the Baptist minister's wife and what she said about em and so ca The Heav enlies seemed to be enjoying every minute of it, judging by the way they laughed.

Hartiey spoke then "We're looking for a cook," he says "Will you come and cook for us, and help about the house beie? Mr Pratt finds the job too big for one man'

If there is a deficit in the hospital finances at the end of the year Mr. Mather is usually only too happy to write out a check that will more than make it up.

This has gone on from year to year The state treasury is again on the until whenever anything is broken or verge of bankruptcy. The balance of damaged about the place the nurses cash on hand Wednesday was only and other employes look upon the loss until whenever anything is broken or damaged about the place the nurses as just that much out of Mr. Mather's generous, pocket. If a nurse drops a saucer she will smile and remark: "Poor Samuel!" Among many of the nurses the remark is almost a byword whenever anything goes wrong.

Not long ago, so runs the story.
Mr. Mather was at the hospital visiting a member of his family who was ill. He was unfortunate enough to lean against a vase of flowers on a table. The vase fell to the floor and broke.

Two nurses were standing by. They exchanged glances, and one of them mused absent-mindedly "Poor Sa-" And then she happened to think Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Unswer This Question

When shown positive and reliable proof that a certain remedy had cured numerous cases of female ills, wouldn't any sensible woman conclude that the same remedy would also benefit her if suffering with the same trouble?

Here are two letters which prove the efficiency of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bed Banks, Miss. # Words are inadequate to express what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for mo. I suffered from a female disease and weakness which the doctors said was caused by a fibroid tumor, and I commenced to think there was no help for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman after all other means had failed. My friends are all asking what has belped me so much, and I gladly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Willie Edwards.

Hampstead, Maryland.—" Before taking Lydia E. Finkham's Vegetable Compound I was weak and nervous, and could not be on my feet half a day without suffering. The doctors told me I never would be well without an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than all the doctors, and I hope this valuable medicine may come into the hands of many more suffering women."— Mrs. Jeseph H. Dandy.

We will pay a handsome reward to any person who will prove to us that these letters are not genuine and truthful -or that either of these women were paid in any way for their testimonials, or that the letters are published without their permission, or that the original letter from each did not come to us entirely unsolicited.

What more proof can any one ask?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Millions of Lives Lost

The Awful Toll Collected by Consumption* -

If people could only understand that Catarrh is an internal scrofula -that nothing applied externally does much good-they would not need to be warned so often about this fatal disease, which, when neglected, invariably ends up in Consumption, at the cost of millions ol lives every year. Yet catarrh is easily cured if the right treatment is employed.

Catarrh is caused by germs in the blood which circulate throughout the entire system. External remedies give but temporary ease. Although the effects are often seen in the form of pimples, rash, eczeme or dry scaly akin, the trouble is internal, and can never be cured by external remedies.

The only way to cure Catarrh is by employing a medicine which is absorbed and carried by the blood to all parta of the system, so that the mucous membrane or internal lining of the body is thoroughly medicated, soothed. disinfected of germ matter, and the soreness healed-

We have a remedy prepared from the prescription of a physician who for thirty years studied and made Catarrh a specialty and whose record of success was a cure in every case where his treatment was followed as prescribed. That remedy is Rexall Mucu-Tone. We are so positive that it -will cure Catarra in all its various forms, whether acute or chronic, that we promise to return every penny paid us for the medicine in every case where it falls to cure or for any reason does not satisfy the user.

We want you to try Rexalf Mucu-Tone on our recommendation and guarantee. We are right here where you live, and you do not contract any obligation or risk when you try Rexalf Mucy-Tone on our guarantee We have Rexall Mucu-Tone in two sizes. The prices are 50c and $1 Very often the 50c size effects a cure. Of course, in chronic cases a longer treatment is necessary. The average in such instances is three $1.00 bottles. A. E.
