Vol. XL. No. 47.

NORTHVILLE, MICH., FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1910.

$1.00 Per Year in Advance

WILL CELEBRATE GLORIOUS FOURTH

Horse Races, Ball Games, Bands and Fire Crackers.

Northville will celebrate! When? July 4th to be sure. Where? At Athletic park. What will be the going? Now, you're talking. Just look at the big bills and the little bills for an answer to that question. There will be $40 cash prizes in the Athletic sports and $170 in the four races, besides two ball games with the Northville band to liven things up with music.

KING'S DAUGHTERS

TAG DAY JULY 4

There will be forty-five ladies on the streets and at Athletic Park July 4 with tags which they hope to dispose of for any sum from a penny up. All for the benefit of The King's Daughters Charity fund. They hope to have enough tags to go around and hope everyone will buy early. Their headquarters will be at the "Ardell" where they will welcome their friends and have ice cream and cake for sale.

NOW CIRCLE AITCH

MAKES ITS DEBUT

EVERLY LADIES OF PRESBYN CHURCH HAVE SOCIAL DAY.

Will Do Their Share in Building Fund Work.

Circle H of the Presbyterian church building fund was organized Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. E. Parsons. Twenty-five were present and they will undertake to raise $100. The oldest member is Mrs. Stark.

weather who is ninety-two. Mrs. Gertrude Swift came second with nearly eighty-four years. The combined ages of the twenty-five was 1694 years or an average of sixty-seven.

The prize for best knitting with goose quills for needles was awarded to Mrs. Hamilton and for the oldest relic to Mrs. W. S. Jerome. A fine collection of relics were on exhibition among which were Mrs. Jerome's book published in 1688. Mrs. M. White had a powder horn 120 years old; Mrs. Swift a pillow slip woven by her grandmother in 1772; Mrs. J. S. Sessions a pair of fire tongs 180 years old; Mrs. L. W. Simmons two Spanish coins of the dates of 1704 and 1722.

The occasion was a very enjoyable one and as a fitting final a dainty lunch was served.

BALL GAME

HERE SATURDAY

The Wabash R. R. club of Detroit will play the "Circle N" boys here tomorrow, Saturday. Big warm game may be looked for.

Carl Stimpson Hurt.

Carl Stimpson, who recently returned to Milan to work for the Bell Telephone Co., resigned his position last week and notified his parents that he would be home for the summer and again take up his work with the "Circle N" ball team. He remained, however, to play a game of ball with the Milan team Saturday and met with an accident which resulted in a broken shoulder. C. C. Sessions, accompanied by Mrs. Stimpson, went over Wednesday and brought the injured boy home. He is getting along as well as can be expected, but it will be some time before he can play ball again, much to the regret of his many friends.

The accident was occasioned by the second baseman stepping on Carl's shoulder while he (Carl) was sliding into that bag. Dr. Turner went to Milan with the others to help bring him home.

Auction Sale.

Robert Neelands will have an auction sale of household goods at his home on Beal avenue Saturday, June 25, commencing at 1.00 p. m. L. L. Brooks, auctioneer.

CIRCLE N BOYS BEAT CARLETON WED'Y

That was a good ball game Wednesday between the "Circle N" boys and the Carleton sluggers. Northville won by a score of 11 to 3. Hood for Carleton started in to pitch but after a quartet of innings, in which the Northville sluggers were busy as bees, took the balloon route and gave way for German. Harry looked good for about two innings when he too lost the lead.

And Then Their Pitcher Lost the Lead Out of His Shoes.

out of his shoes and it was all off and up, up for the former Northville boy.

The "N's" new pitcher, Brillmer, was there with all kinds of pretzel curves and hot stuff straight ones. In fact the scale maker had steam to burn, and the Carleton batters all looked alike to him. Stimpson caught him in fine style. Palmer's work in left field and at bat was a feature of the game.

GRANGE NOT IN FAVOR OF OSBORN

THE SOO ORGAN MISQUOTES THE GRANGE MASTER.

N. P. Hull Says U. P. Candidate's Reply Was NOT Satisfactory.

According to N. P. Hull, master of the state grange, the chief Osborn organs of the lower peninsula, the Saginaw Courier-Herald and Soo News, have been taking great liberties of late with a statement which is alleged to have come from the lips of Mr. Hull, but which he denies most emphatically he ever made.

On June 8 those papers came out with a bogus dispatch from Lansing in which is devoted much space to a statement that the Kelley forces had just received a knockout blow from Mr. Hull. It quoted the Grange officials as having said that out of the three replies received from gubernatorial candidates the one from Chase Osborn was the most satisfactory.

Saturday Mr. Hull gave out an unsolicited statement to the effect that the papers, to say the least, twisted things. His statement, Hull declares, was quite to the contrary. Mr. Hull further declares that since Mr. Osborn was the only man who declared himself against the tonnage tax, that his reply is one that is distinctly not satisfactory to the grange. Both Mr. Kelley and Mr. Musselman replied that they would favor a tonnage tax if that method seemed a proper one in the reassessment of the mining property. Mr. Osborn, however, bound down by the mining interests to which he owes allegiance, was forced to state that he was flatly against such a method of taxation. His reply will therefore scarcely meet the enthusiastic approval of the members of the grange who have declared firmly for the tonnage tax and the attempt of the Osbornites to manufacture sentiment falls flat with Mr. Hull's emphatic denial. —Clio Messenger

Picnic at Bräeside.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Central Presbyterian church, Detroit, held their last meeting for the season with Mrs. F. D. Eatherly at Bräeside on Tuesday afternoon. This occasion is always made a picnic gathering and the beautiful grounds were covered with happy groups, many of the members' husbands being also present. After the usual business meeting and some contests at quoits by the gentlemen more than fifty sat down at one table and enjoyed the bountiful supper spread under the trees west of the house. After supper congratulatory remarks were made by Rev. Marcus Scott and Rev. Wm. S. Jerome. The guests left for home by special car at 8:30 after a most delightful day and winning the manner of good things to Mr. and Mrs. Eatherly and those who assisted in caring for the company.

Kelley Sentiment Has Grown Wonderfully

If there was any doubt concerning the candidate around whose efforts to secure the nomination for governor on the republican ticket the greatest interest was felt, that question was placed at rest when Patrick H. Kelley made his formal opening address at Mt. Pleasant last Wednesday night.

The morning papers in every portion of the state carried his utterances in full, the evening papers followed suit and gave the matter precedence over the day's news in almost every instance. The country papers issuing once a week made heroic efforts to reproduce at least a digest of the speech and from one end of the state to the other thousands upon thousands of citizens read the address the day after it was delivered.

No candidate has heretofore evoked one-half the interest that Mr. Kelley did in his opening address and the attention given his words shows which way the undercurrent of public sentiment is running.

But better than the attention given his speech was the unanimous manner in which the daily papers commended him for it. Even the Detroit Free Press, which has been very bitter towards Governor Warner and which has even said some unkind things concerning Lieut. Governor Kelley, openly declared that he had removed the obstacles which might have blocked his path to the governor's chair and stated that there was no reason why he should not be given a trial. Out of all the papers in the state only two attacked Mr. Kelley. Both of these were papers in which Mr. Osborn is financially interested, the Sun News and the Saginaw Courier-Herald.

Certainly this is a remarkable record for any man who is running for the high office of governor, and we doubt if it is not without precedent in Michigan politics. In a single hour the lieutenant governor swept away what his enemies had harped upon as the thing which would defeat him, and stood boldly forth upon his own record, the history of which is so utterly blameless, that it would annoy his bitterest enemies if they undertook to beamrith it.

Day by day it is becoming more evident that Mr. Kelley is forging farther and farther ahead, but the one step which has taken him farthest forward was the one at Mt. Pleasant last week.—Lansing Republican.

Filled State Office Faithfully

Mr. Kelley has taken step by step in various state offices until he now occupies that of Lieutenant Governor of the state, the next highest office to that of governor and we believe because of the fact that he has filled these state offices honestly and faithfully he is all the better prepared to fill that of governor in a manner greatly to the satisfaction of the people of the state. He has stood faithfully by what he believes to be for the benefit of the people of the state in legislation and is prepared to do the same in the future as in the past.—Clio Messenger.

REUNION OF A FAMOUS CLUB

The "West Novi" Held Its First This Week.

The first reunion of the West Novi debating club, held Tuesday at its old place of meeting, the West Novi school house, was truly a "red letter day" for every former participant and a thorough enjoyment to the company of fifty or more who gathered with them to help in making the reunion the delightful success that it was.

A typical Novi picnic dinner preceded a program so "old timer" that a dozen years at least seemed to have rolled backward, and recitation, song, story and reminiscence made the hours fly like minutes. Of course parties was not lacking as the old memories came thronging back, but the sadness was resolutely put aside and only the gladness permitted to pervade the afternoon. A number of the star debaters of the palmy days of the club proved conclusively that their skill in argument and repartee had not deteriorated with disuse, and the decision by the house was just what it should have been—a tie.

This club, which was organized in 1888, was for many years the oldest and most famous literary society in Oakland county and its membership rolls held many a name that has been prominent in Michigan history. It was unanimously voted to form a permanent organization for annual meetings and N. A. Clapp and Mrs. Della Harmon of Northville were elected president and secretary, respectively, with Judd A. Richardson of Novi as treasurer.

Among former members present were Capt. J. H. Woodman of Ypsilanti, A. N. Kimball of Detroit and L. W. Lovewell of South Lyon, besides others from Milford, Walled Lake, Farmington, New Hudson and Northville.

I had considerable trouble from my kidneys for several years and I suffered constantly from dull, nagging backaches, coupled with pains through my kidneys. I doctored and tried many remedies but found no relief until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Murdock Bros. Drug Store. ## NORTHVILLE.

The City in Brief.

Cheerupberriesarise.

Nice June weather this.

Mrs. Hattie Clark who has been seriously ill the past two weeks, is convalescing.

The big rain of Monday night just missed us. Walled Lake and Plymouth got it in plenty.

Miss Genevieve Clark entertained a number of young ladies from Detroit at her home here Saturday.

The Northville school census has just been taken and the total number of school aged children is 435.

Mrs. W. H. Ambler and grandson, Carroll, have been seriously ill the past week but are on the gain now.

Catholic services will be held in their house corner Dunlap and Center streets Sunday morning at 8 o'clock standard.

Business is simply booming at the scale works. Over thirty men are at work and something over 200 scales were shipped out last week.

The Alselum people gave an exceptionally good show last week and, contrary to expectation, the theatre was comfortably cool.

Mrs. R. M. Johnson, who has been so ill in Detroit the past few months, returned to her home here Sunday. Although able to be out of doors she is very poorly.

The Northville U. S. fish station has thus far distributed 180,000 small mouth bass and has about 190,000 yet to put out between now and the first of August.

Dr. F. L. Kington has opened up a dental office in the corner offices over the Lapham State bank. Mr. Kington is a graduate of the Detroit College, class of '07.

June 28 will be the last regular K. P. meeting until last meeting night in September. Work in Third rank, followed by refreshments. All members requested to be present.

The Eastern Athletic ball club came out here Saturday and trounced our Circle N boys by a score of 3 to 0. Errors on the part of the home team were responsible for Detroit's runs.

Madame Morria, Phillips, Ely and Hinkley entertained the Clover Whist club Monday afternoon at the home of the former. A delicious lunch was served and cards played. All had a grand good time.

A Anne Fourth. The council proposed to have that kind in Northville though in reality Northville people have been remarkably conservative in this respect. The big cannon crackers and dynamite caps are to be prohibited.

The L. O. T. M. M. on June 21 initiated a class of twenty new members and have two more to initiate at the next regular meeting. Greenfield Hise was present and deputy Corlie Gilbert of Detroit did the work. A banquet was served and a jolly good time was had.

The afternoon fast train last week Friday failed to catch the south pouches and they went under the wheels of the fast moving train. The big pouch containing the records was scattered along the track for a mile. A lot of records were destroyed thus accounting for the fact that many subscribers failed to get their paper.

E. M. Starkweather has the champion ten year old Holstein milk giver of the world. The State Department recently made an official test for a week of the product of this cow and the result showed 560 lbs. of four per cent butter fat milk for the week, which was equal to twenty-seven and one-seventh pounds of butter. This is the world's record for a ten year old.

George Bradley celebrated his eighty-fourth birthday Wednesday afternoon by entertaining a number of old friends whose ages ranged from 75 to 85 years respectively. An original poem was read by Asa Randolph followed by a solo entitled "Fifty Years Ago" by Mrs. J. B. Cook. Mr. Bradley was presented with a beautiful willow rocker. A pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

There is no small amount of complaint over the way Novl officers have scraped sod from the side of the road into the middle, thus spoiling what have heretofore been unusually fine drive ways. This is specially noticeable on Grand River east of Novl village and the base line road west of Charlie Whipple's. Seemingly anyone ought to know better than to have sod into the road for an improvement in this day and age.

The notices being published relative to the cutting down of noxious weeds and brush along the highways of the state do not mean the annihilation of the really beautiful shrubs, vines, rose bushes, etc., that grow along the fences and which goes to make up the real beauty of our country roads. The law only refers to noxious weeds and objectionable brush. The others should be allowed to grow into nature's most beautiful adornment of our highways and byways.

Turn to the right. When you meet a person or vehicle you should turn to right and give half the walk or road, as the case may be. When you are overtaken by a person or vehicle moving faster than you are going, you should move over and give half the road or walk, or sufficient room to allow them to pass on your left side. These are "rules of the road," and are backed by law in every state. Fasten this item in your mind, or paste it on your dashboard and you will not get into trouble if you act according to these rules. Remember the other party has just the same rights as you.

Nansen, the great Arctic explorer, filled his house with Greenland trophies. Nansen's study was a huge room, carpeted with the skins of three white bears. His writing table was a curious affair—it looked exactly like a colossal kitchen table, being made of plain deal; but the legs were hewn out of solid tree trunks carved into weird looking serpents, with their tails in their mouths. No ordinary table could support the weight of the doctor's correspondence. For many months before he started on his polar expedition he received about 400 letters a day from persons in every quarter of the globe, volunteering their services.

A Tart Tongue.

Col. Robert C. Carter, at a Nashville banquet, was talking about campaign comrades.

"Then there was Dash of Company A," he said. "Dash had the reputation of being the nastiest-tongued man in the regiment."

"It was Private Dash, you know, who, out foraging one evening on a rich estate, came accidentally upon the owner's wife, a grande dame in evening dress."

"Dash asked her for food. She refused him. He asked again. But, still refusing, she walked away."

"No," she said, "I'll give you nothing, like a dog, like this! I'll give you nothing! My mind is made up!"

"Made up, is it?" said Dash. "Like the rest of you, eh?"

Why He Quit.

"Bondsonby has given up smoking."

"Impossible. He's been a slave to the habit for years."

"He's given it up, all right."

"Why? Did the doctor order him to do it on account of his nerves?"

"No, I don't believe so; but you know that perch of a stenographer he's had for the past few weeks? Well, I happened to overhear her say one day, when Bondsonby was listening, that she would be as willing to kiss a pig as to kiss a man who was always smoking."

Soothing.

"But those extremely violent women lunatics—how do you manage to keep them so quiet?"

"That's an idea of the new superintendent's."

"Yes?"

"Yes, he had the straightjackets made up in the peek-a-hoo style."—Puck.

Jack—No, they always remind me of a kiss through a telephone.

Eva—Gracious! In what way?

Jack—They have lost their sweetness.

ELDEST SON OF ROOSEVELT WEDS

Theodore, Jr., and Miss Eleanor Alexander Are Married.

CULMINATION OF LOVE MATCH

Former President Witnesses Ceremony in New York Church—San Francisco to Be Home of the Couple.

New York.—Of all the June weddings of 1910, the one that has attracted the most general interest was that of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., and Miss Eleanor Alexander, which was celebrated in the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church on June 20.

A large number of prominent people witnessed the ceremony, but naturally the most noticed person in the church, after the bride and groom, was Col. Theodore Roosevelt, father of the young man who was entering the state family. As a boy he rode horseback and engaged in all the other outdoor pursuits of the juvenile Roosevelt clan at their home at Oyster Bay and he took some part in athletics during his preparatory school course at Groton and his collegiate course at Harvard, but in the main he has been less enthusiastic on the subject of life in the open than his father and brother Kermit. He has always been of a studious nature and his romance with Miss Alexander is said to have had its beginnings in the mutual love of these young people for music. For all that, Teddy, Jr., has eschewed the sensational in outdoor athletics, he did participate two years ago in a balloon flight from Washington, in which he and the two army officers who were his fellow passengers had some rather exciting experiences.

There was no little surprise on the part of the public when Theodore, Jr., upon the completion of his college course two years ago, chose a business career as his life work, and still more wonder was aroused when he took employment in a Connecticut carpet factory in order to gather knowledge at first hand of the practical side of carpet manufacture. He started at the lowest round of the ladder, as an unskilled workman at a small salary. Of course he was promoted as he mastered the intricacies of the business.

of matrimony. The date of the wedding had been set to permit the attendance of the former president, and this was one of his very first social engagements after his return from abroad, for he landed in New York only two days before.

Mrs. Snowden Paine, who bore her own recent marriage was Miss Elizabeth Hertrich, was the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Roosevelt, Miss Jessie Millington Drake, Miss Janet Alexander, Miss Jean Delano and Miss Harriet Alexander.

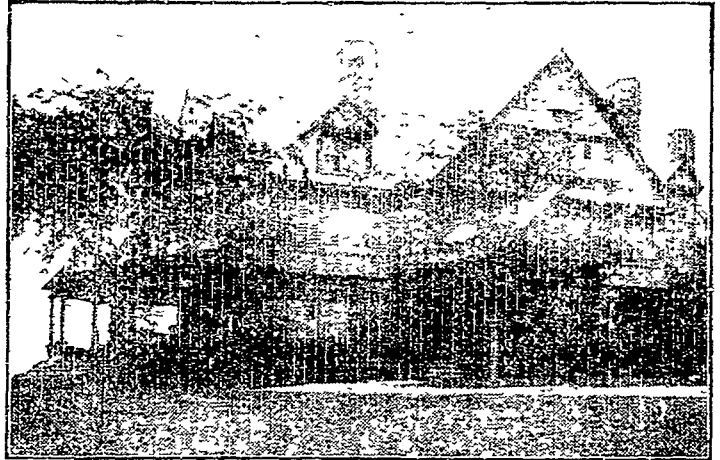

Rev. Henry M. Sanders, a great uncle of the bride, officiated, assisted by Dr. Gordon Russell of Cranford, N. J.

After the ceremony the bridal party was entertained at the home of the bride's uncle, Charles B. Alexander. At least a part of the honeymoon will be spent at Sagamore Hill, the country home of the Roosevelt family at Oyster Bay, Long Island. Later in the summer the young couple will start for San Francisco, where Mr. Roosebut he continued to live quietly in a modest boarding house. Many persons were skeptical as to whether young Roosevelt would stick to so prosaic an existence, but he is evidently determined to win his fortune in this sphere.

The H in Harington

Mrs. Harington, who is engaged to Mr. Tom Curtis, in the widow of the late Mr. W. E. Harington of Warden, Lancashire. The spelling of this ancient name with the small "h" found in old manuscripts is merely the retention of the old form of capital "H." Deeds of conveyance in the time of George II. and III. read: "George of Great Britain France and Ireland King," etc.; the form could not therefore be due to ignorance, as has been said, for in days when gentlemen of estate were gentlemen of quality such a spelling in deeds could hardly arise from lack of knowledge. The Haringtons of Warden Hall, Lancashire, prefer, like several other well known families, including the Stokes velt is to be in charge of the interests of the carpet manufacturing firm with which he has been associated for some time.

The love story of the young couple has been a quick-moving romance. Their engagement was announced only last winter, and the news was cabled to Colonel Roosevelt, resulting in the speedy receipt of his approval and congratulations. The bride, who is the daughter of Henry Addison Alexander of New York, is twenty-one years old, of a little more than medium height, slender, and of very attractive appearance, having an especially beautiful complexion. She is as animated as her famous sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth, whose house guest she was for a time just before Mrs. Longworth sailed for England to join her father.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., strongly resembles his father in looks, but is decidedly reserved and is generally credited with being far less democratic than certain other members of the and Frenches, to retain the archaic capital "H." The family trace their descent from Hugo de Meols, who came to England with the Conqueror, and they have been associated for generations with the court, army and church, and with public life.—From the Court Journal.

Raven's Sharp Trick

The best talking-bird new to the big collection in the London "Zoo" is a raven, who came to the aviary last year. "Hullo! Jack!" is his favorite remark, and it is the voice of one who meets an unworthy friend. Soon after he arrived he used his conversational powers with great effect upon a lammergeier who shares his cage (relates the London Spectator). The lammergeier had a piece of meat which the raven desired, but he was unwilling to surrender it. The raven hopped up. "Hullo! Jack!" he began and the lammergeier, against the voice of man, dropped his dinner and fled. But the lammergeier was never a bird of much spirit.

WINS LIFE FIGHT FAR UNDER SEA

DIVER CAUGHT BY STEEL RAIL FACES SUFFOCATION.

KEEPS COOL, SAVES SELF

Manages to Extricate His Air Tubes, Crawls to the Deck of a Vessel and Falls in a Faint—Goes Down Again.

Seattle, Wash.—Threatened with suffocation beneath seven fathoms of water, at the bottom of the ship beside pier No. 8, when an 800-pound rail crashed across the slender pipes that supplied him with air, Diver Henry Peterson struggled grimly against impending death and when almost exhausted managed to free himself.

While he struggled his companions above labored frantically, working the pumps that supply the life sustaining element. Somewhere beneath them, far beyond their reach, an issue was being fought out in which they could have no part.

The news of the inexplicable, sinister battle speed along the water front. Hundreds of people assembled at the scene, powerless to render aid.

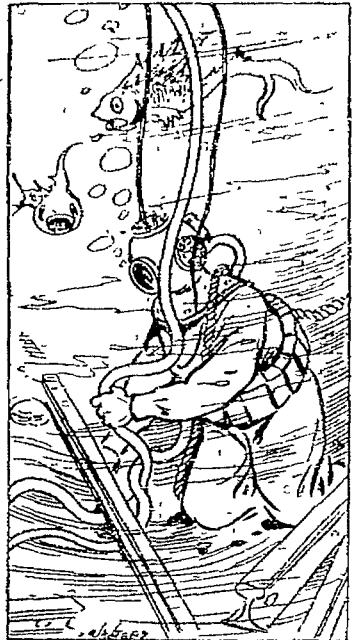

Peterson was recovering 250 tons of steel rails lost off one of the Washington Stevedoring company's scows. The rails were a portion of a consignment brought from the United Kingdom by the Blue Funnel liner Titan on its last voyage to this port. After they had been unloaded from the Titan's hold the scow capsized and dumped 741 of them, each weighing approximately 800 pounds into the bay.

Capt. Harry Finch & Son used one of the Neptune Salvage company's scows in recovering the rails. The scow has a stationary engine and a derrick for hauling the rails from the water as fast as the diver hooked one.

Peterson hooked the cable to a rail. As the engine drew the line taut preparatory to lifting it to the scow a rope attached to the derrick boom gave way. The boom, freed from restraint, swayed directly across the scow and dropped the 800-pound rail into the water, where Diver Peterson was working.

The rail fell athwart the diver, pinning the tubes which supply him with air. Realizing his predicament and seeing death from suffocation beneath the water staring him in the face, Peterson, with rare presence of mind, got down in the scow and started to disentangle the breathing tube from beneath the rail.

Giving frantic signals to those on the scow above that he was in imminent peril, Peterson struggled to loosen on the thin piping. Meanwhile the half-dozen men on the scow, fearful that a tragedy was being enacted below, did all in their power to help Peterson. The men at the pumps kept up a supply of air, but could not be certain from bubbles rising to the surface whether the life giving element reached the diver.

Struggled to Loosen the Thin Piping

When Peterson was almost exhausted he managed to disentangle the air pipe. He crawled up the ladder and was helped to the scow by Henry Finch, Jr., and several of the men. He sank limp against the rungs of the ladder by which he had ascended.

After a rest Peterson again went down into the murky depths, amid the applause of hundreds of spectators.

Authority on Hanging of Quakers.—Bearing on the controversy as to whether Quakers were hanged from the limbs of the old Boston elm, Florence E. Daggett of 559 Medford street, Charlestown, has a piece cut from the old elm 50 years ago.

On one side of the wood, which was carved at the Charlestown State prison by Captain Parker, who for 24 years was an officer on the wall, was: "Cut from the Old Boston Elm, 1860."

On the reverse side was inscribed: "Mary Dyer, a Quakeress, was hanged from this tree, June, 1660."—Boston Post.

Some people live next to nature simply because they have to live on next to nothing.

BEYOND POWER OF MAN.

Gayboys—Men are no good, eh? Wasn't it man that made us smokeless powder, horseless carriages and wireless telegraphy, eh?

Mrs. Gayboys—Yes, and I'd think more of man if he'd make you smoke less tobacco, drink less wine and spend less money!

Conditional Piety.

Two Scotch fishermen, James and Sandy, belated and befogged on a rough water, were in some trepidation lest they should never get ashore again. At last Jamie said:

"Sandy, I'm steering, and I think you'd better put up a bit of prayer."

"I don't know how," said Sandy.

"I've don't I'll chuck ye overboard," said Jamie.

Sandy began: "Oh, Lord, I never ased anything of ye for fifteen years, and if ye'll only get us safe back, I'll never trouble ye again, and—"

"Whist, Sandy," said Jamie. "The boat's touched shore; don't be holden to anybody."—Short Stories.

WESTERN CANADA

What J. J. Hill, the Great Railroad Magnate, Says About His Wheat-Producing Power.

"The greatest need of this country (United States) is a steady growth of wheat. It is the only crop that will be the providing of food for the people and the only crop that is sufficient for them. The days of our dependence on a wheat exporting country are gone. Canada is to be the great wheat country."

"The great railroad magnate is taking advantage of the situation by extending his railway lines into the wheat fields of Western Canada."

Upwards of $25 million worth of wheat is raised in 1909. Acres of the three provinces of Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba are upwards of 25 bushels per acre.

From homesteads of 160 acres, and adjoining pre-emption of 160 acres (at $3 per acre), are to be had in the choicest districts.
