CIRCLE N BOYS

WON TWO MORE

WALLOPED MILAN TEAM LAST FRIDAY

And Ypsilanti Normal Nine on Saturday.

The Circle N boys added two more games to their long list of victories last week.

On Friday they went over to Milan and trounced the local nine there by a score of 5 to 3. It was an exceptionally good game and had enough exciting events, mixed through it to satisfy almost any one.

The really best game, of the season was pulled off here Saturday when Northville, walloped the Ypsilanti Normal team in a score of 5 to 2. The feature of the game was Johnson's pitching. Third Baseman Turner of the Northville club was badly injured during the game by having his ankle wrenched. Batteries—Johnson and Stimpson, Gleny and McCarthy.

Hieber-Fielax Wedding.

The marriage of Mr. Elias Hieber, Candidate Lutheran preacher, to Miss Mabel Fielax was solemnized at St. Paul's German church here Wednesday afternoon. There was a large number of guests present to enjoy the occasion and to wish the young couple all kinds of prosperity and happiness. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Oldenburg, well known Northville people, and a reception was given at their home in the afternoon and evening.

The bride wore a dress of white net and embroidery and veil of net and carried a bouquet of white roses. The maid of honor was Miss Cora Schuetz and the bridesmaids Hieber and Bertha Waller were bridesmaids.

The groom was attended by his brother, Emil, as best man, and Otto Haberkraft and Ernst Hoffeltz were groomsmen. The band gave them a fine send-off in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hieber will soon leave for their new field of labor at Eureka, California, where Mr. Hieber will then be installed as minister of the gospel, having three congregations to look after.

Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Northville Loan and Building Association, for the election of Directors and the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting, will be held in the Library Rooms, in the village of Northville, Michigan, Friday evening August 5, 1910 at 8 o'clock, sharp.

MRS. WM. SAUVIE

DIED SUNDAY

Had Undergone Operation on Tuesday.

The community was no little shocked Sunday morning to learn of the death of Mrs. Wm. Sauvie.

She underwent an operation last week Tuesday for the removal of an abscess which had formed internally. Dr. T. B. Henry of this place was assisted by Dr. Henry of South Lyon and Dr. Turner of this place, and found her condition much worse than was expected. Peritonitis developed later on and early Sunday morning she answered to the beckon from the other shore.

Besides the husband, two little twin girls of eight years, are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving wife and mother.

Scores of friends and relatives gathered at the home Tuesday when the funeral was held. Rev. J. W. Turner of the Northville Methodist Church officiating. The burial was in Grand Lawn cemetery near Redford.

Mrs. Sauvie was just a little past thirty-three years of age and until three years ago had enjoyed the best of health.

She was an active worker in the King's Daughters circle and in the Ladies Aid society of the Methodist church. She was loved and respected by the entire community in which she has lived and labored for upward of ten years.

Notes of Women.

A French book on the evolution of the Englishwoman finds the woman's club—which in England is a real club, not a body which holds monthly meetings—an excellent institution for both married and single. For the married woman it is her own place, where her husband cannot worry her, while for the unmarried it is a place where she need never be dull and where she can properly entertain friends of both sexes.

Thirst for Novelties.

The curse of modern life—the thirst for the new, the rage to get out of the old skin—is the blight on our literature, our art, our drama, our manners—every our morals. It is a passion without aim, or conviction, or feeling—a mere restless itch to get free from old habits and to get into something uncommon, it hardly matters what, if only it can announce itself as "unconventional."—Washington Times

Citizens Drive Hard Bargain.

Chatham square, now one of the busiest points on the lower East side, had a bad beginning. A giant negro who was a sort of king of ten superannuated slaves, was allowed to settle there, each of his subjects being required to pay a fat hog and a score of bushels of grain every year for the privilege of living there, a part of the agreement being that their children should remain slaves.

Elaborate Coffin.

Mrs. Edith Gerrard Hood lies, an English woman, whose will was proved the other day, left directions that her coffin should be enameled white and have gilt fittings and a white satin lining.

Party Injustice

"One candidate for governor in order to attract attention to his candidacy, trump up a sweeping general accusation of extravagance and corruption which is wholly untrue. He does not support the unbecoming charges he offers nor one solitary item of proof. Such methods of campaigning are to be deprecated as republican orator who goes about the state, spreading fear and calumny about his party associates, should be soundly rebuked. He does his party a serious injustice. It is easy to create an impression of evil in the public mind and which it is difficult to eradicate. In the campaign, which follows the primary, democratic orators quote the charges made by republican candidates against their own party associates. If we are to have clean politics we must shut out the candidates who resort to mud throwing."—Adrian Times.

This is true in county and national affairs as well as state. When the republican party next meets its defeat it will be because of the republican calamity howlers who previous to the primaries go about abusing their own party and opponents for the purpose of gaining favor for themselves.

Splendid Reception in Isabella.

In speaking of Mr. Kelley's opening address at Mount Pleasant the Nashville News said:

"He does not desire to appropriate honors belonging to others or to shoulder others' faults. Here lived a splendid reception and there can be no doubts about his strength in Isabella county."

Possessing a very wide acquaintance from his term in office and from campaigns covering every part of Michigan, an orator of unusual force and plausibility in regard to what anyone may say, Mr. Kelley stands as good a chance of having his case disposed of intelligently by the voters as any candidate in Michigan.—St. John's Republican.

The fraternal order of Gleaners are all intelligent farmers and are endorsing Patrick H. Kelley for governor.—Aberdeen Critic.

The Cocoa Bean.

The cocoa is a native of Venezuela. It is a red bean the size of the first joint of the finger, six or eight of these beans to the pod. The wet beans are shelled from the pods and then fermented in heaps for six days until cured. During this ferment heat is developed that will cook an egg, so they say. The cocoa bush begins bearing at five years, grows into a tree 30 feet high, and, like the olive, the older the tree the better. The beans hang from the trunk and the under side of the limbs, sticking out on the stems.

Immense Electric Oven.

Kerns, Switzerland, has an electric bakery oven, eight feet long by four wide, with a baking surface of three square yards, which will bake 100 pounds of bread at a time in two hours and three-potatoes. The furnace has 42 electrically heated tubes arranged along the base and the vaulting. The baking heat is reached in two hours, and in 12 hours eight 100-pound batches of bread can be baked at a cost of 1.6 cent per pound for heating. Even heating is insured by such means as lessening the current toward the back of the oven, where cooling is least.

Philippine Trade Statistics.

Philippine imports from the United States in the first nine months of 1909 calendar year amounted to $8,792,000 (bureau of statistics), an increase of $1,399,000 over the corresponding period of 1908. Exports to the United States totaled $7,246,000, an increase of $120,000. The low price of hemp kept down the export increase.
