Friends of Tariff Commission Bill Fear It Will Be Weakened-Story of Philadelphia Woman's Costly Venture in Smuggling.

· By GEORGE CLINTON. 🧭 Washington. Prior to this time in hese dispatches it has been said that President Taft had high hope that be fore the present session ended le would be able to let the country know that the "ultimate consumer" was to benefit by the opportunity to purchase some of the necessities of life at a lower price than heretofore because of the removal from them of the accubus of a tariff." The president had in mind a reciprocity treaty with Canada under the terms of which he believed he was to set froe natural products There was a good deal of scepticism in Washington concerning the president's ability to secure ratification by the senate of the treaty which would lower the tariffs. The Canadian commissioners, authorized to negotiate for the treaty, have done their errand in Washington Now it is knwn that President Tail for some time has been hard at work lifting up high tarill senators on benalf of his treaty en-deavor and the word is that he has succeeded in his task.

There seems to be some chance however that the house of represen iatives, will firsist upon having a hand in the negotiations with the country's northern neighbor Treaties of course. under the constitution, are for the senate alone to catify, but the house of representatives always has main tained that anything affecting the recenye must take legislative and not treaty form, and must originate in the representative chamber. dent Taft. Secators Cumming and Beveridge and Representative Longworth, whose name is carried in joid what many people considered to authorship on the commission bill be a graceful thing when he nominated which the administration has approved Davis Elkins, eldert son of the late Sen ed, made speeches to the celegates to phen B Elkins, to succeed his rather the convention and expressed warm in the senate. The younger Elkins in approval of its endeavors. There is, any circumstances could serve only a however, among Republicans in congress an undercurrent of opposition to tariff commission legislation. It is not to be supposed that the Republican eaders will carry their antagonism to the measure to the extent of securing its defeat, but the progressive Repub heans and a good many of the Demoerats beheve that the standpat ele ment may cause such changes to be made in the Longworth bill as to weaken its purpose and its effect. The situation is being watched most closely by the real friends of the commis-sion plan and by those who secretly are opposed to it but who will give it their support, in part at least as a Republican measure, a measure which they hope will help the party in the next election

Origin of Commission Plan.

The tariff commission legislation has and a peculiar history. It was at a gathering of business men in In dianapolis some years ago that the tariff commission plan was suggested. Members of both great political par ties smiled at the idea that congress ever could be brought to consider cus toms regulations which were recom-mended by any official wody except the majority in congress itself

At about the time that the Indian apolis meeting was held there was a convention in Chicago of representatives of those business interests which held that reciprocity was a good thing and that in some instances the tariff could be cut to the advantage of trade At this convention the tariff commission idea also was in evidence, but!

everything that was suggested was smiled at, just as the Indianapolis idea had been smiled at, by members of both houses of congress.

Things lay dormant for some time and then during the Roosevelt administration a tariff commission bill was introduced into the senate by veridge of Indiana... The bill made no headway and in fact a good many Republican members; even those who were of the low tariff persuasion, said that the scheme was chimerical.

After Mr. Taft came into office he studied the tariff commission plan and finally congress was induced to create the present turiff board. "a" board" to which comparatively little power was given. It is said, however, that both Democrats and Republicans in congress admitted that tariff board legislation was the entering wedge for a tariff commission and that one day the goal of the commission advocates would be reached. It seems likely that it will be reached at the present session

Peculiar Customs Case. Here is a curious customs case. A weeksor so ago a Philadelphia woman of high social standing, as the world views society, the wife of a prominent club man, was visiting in Mon-treal, Canada. While there she was shown some lace gowns which she considered to be of rare beauty and which were offered to her for sale. One of these gowns she liked so much that she ventured to ask the price and was told that it was $400. She paid cash for it on the spot and then she smuggled it into the United States, taking to to her home city of Phila delphia.

Some woman "friend" of the buyer of the lace gown "tipped off" the fact of the purchase and the smuggling to the agents of the treasury depart-An agent called on the husment. band of the woman and told him what he knew. The husband of course aid it was impossible that his wife could have been guilty of a fraud. In an hour or two, however, the busband was, at the office of the customs agents with his attorney, and he said that his wife had bought the gown but that her failure to pay duty was merely an inadvertence

The customs authorities had the gown appraised by experts and it, was found it could have been purchased in the United States for $75 and that the woman who paid $400 for it had been done out of $325. The husband was compelled to pay the duty on the I mied States value of the gown and also to pay a penalt. When the transaction was over he found that re and his wife together had $625 for something which could have been bought for $75 at any Philadel that department store

NORTHVILLE, MICH., JAN 20, '11.

It has been said that our present difficulty of making ends meet is not so much the high cost of living as the cost of high living There is some truth in that, but is 14 not complete or satisfactory. For the past ten years the problem of exist ence has become more and more difficult There is enough for all to live in comfort, but somehow the distribution has been unequal and unfair. 'Somebody' has the advantage and the meanness to squeeze us hard, and we are equeezed until we sweat or else we are all living too

In the darkest night we may hope for the dawn of a new day, and we storm clouds hide the sun's bright. face, we know that the sun still smiles and that there clouds will pass away Looking on the bright side may be old fashtoned and liack pered, but it has never filled to drive away the blues.

Doan's Kidney Pilis cure" the cause of disease, and that is why the cures are always lasting. This remedy strengthens and tones up the kidneys, helping them to drive out of the body the liquid poisons that cause backache and distressing kidney and urinary complaints. Northville people testify to permanent cures.

A. M. Piper, Center St., Northville, Mich., says: "I cannot say too much in favor of Doan's Kidney Pills. I had occasion to use this remedy about a year ago when I was suffering from a severe attack of kidney trouble. My back was so laime that I could hardly get around and it I sat dewn for a while, it was simest impossible for me to get up. When I stooped for lifted, sharp, shooting pains darted through me. The kiney secretions were highly colored, contained sediment and were painful in pussage. The contents of three boxes of Doan's Kidcolored, contained sediment and were paintule in passage. The contents of three-boxes of Boan's Kidney Pills, procured at Murdock Bros. Drug Store, completely cured me and I have been in good health since. I can certainly give this excellent preparetion a strong endorsement."

THE GROWTH OF TOWNS IN WESTERN CANADA

BAROMETER OF THE GROWTH OF THE AGRICULTURAL

DISTRICTS. The traveler passing through a country is impressed tavorably or otherwise by the appearance of the towns along the line of railways. As they appear prosperous and of healthy growth he at once assures himself that there is either a local industrial factor to cause it, or a splendidly developed agricultural area from which is drawn the resources that contribute or make for the growth that is so readily apparent. On the other hand, if evidence of impoverished streets, badly appearing dence's and business places and lethargic citizens, there is an absence of local industry and suffounding agricultural prosperity. There is no line of railway, whether main or branch, throughout western Canada, that through the towns or cities that are built along the ribs of steel do not convey the most favorable impression. The cause is not always apparent, but the facts are there and easily seen. In most cases the growth and the sta-bility of these towns are caused by the excellent agricultural districts that are tributary; in some cases, manufacturing enterprises have spring up, caused by the agricultural demands and needs. The Winnipeg Free Press and the Edmonton Bulletin have recently sent corps of correspondents through the provinces to secure data concerning the growth of the two or three hundred towns that have come into existence during the past two or three years. The particulars make interesting reading, and as one reads of the station house, the blacksmith shop, the boarding house and the store of April, being dwarfed in August by a hundred or more dwell-ings, by large hotels, by splendid stores, and a half dozen implement warehouses, not forgetting the two or three churches and the excellent pub lie achool buildings, it causes one to stop and think if they ever heard of such mar elous changes. Certainly not often. These are facts, though, as relified of western Canada. too, there are now cities-jes, cities of from ten to fifteen thousand prople -where five or six years ago there was but the bare prairie and the lone section post. The changes in the Ca-West during the past eight er ten years have been marvelens, and it is no file tale to say that the development in number and growth of the effices, fowns and villages there in the past decade has ecllosed any thing in the history of the building of a new country. Agriculture has been the easie, and it is a greature of the kind that is besting. The case with which an excellent productive farm capable of ylclims a eplentia dving end large profit to the operator, is such that it has encouraged thousands

Suspicious Persons

Enquired if we were "hiring" a certain "weekly" paper to abuse us.

Of course every time a spot light is turned on from any source it offers a splendid chance to talk about the merits of the products, but 'pon honor now, we are not hiring that "Weekly."

The general reader seldom cares much for the details of "scraps."

A few may have read lately some articles attacking us and may be interested in the following:

Some time ago a disagreement arose with a "Weekly." They endorsed our foods by letter, but wanted to change the form of advertising, to which we objected.

The "Weekly" discontinued inserting our advertisements while they were negotiating for some changes they wanted in the wording and shape of the advertisements, and during this correspondence our manager gave instructions to our Advertising Department to quit advertising altogether in that "Weekly."

Quite a time after the advertising had been left cut, an editorial attack came. We replied in newspapers and the scrap was on.

Then came libel suits from both sides, and some harsh words,

Generally tiresome to the public,

That "Weekly" has satacked many prominent men and reputable manufacturers...

- Our Company seems prominent -cnough for a sensational writer to go after, hunt for some little spot to criticise, then distort, twist and present it to the public under scare heads.

So an attorney from New York spent more or less time for months in Battle Creek hoping to find impurities in our foods, or dirt in the factories. After tireless spying about he summoned twenty-five of our workmen and took their testimony. Every single one testified that the foods are made of exactly the grain and ingredients printed on the packages; the wheat, barley and com being the choicest obtainable—all thoroughly cleaned—the water of the purest, and every part of the factories and machinery kept scrupulously clean.

That all proved disappointing to the "Weekly." There are very few factories, hospitals, private-or hotel and restaurant kitchens that could stand the clase spying at unexpected times and by an enemy paid to find dirt or impurities of some kind.

In any ordinary kitchen or factory he would find something to magnify and make a noise about.

But he failed utterly with the Postum Works and products. Twenty to thirty thousand people go through the factories annually and we never enquire whether they are there to spy or not. It makes no difference to us.

He next turned to discover something about our advertising that could be criticized.

An analysis of the methods and distorted statements of the "Weekly" may interest some readers, so we take up the items one by one and open them out for inspection. We will "cham up" the harsh words and make no reference in this article to the birth, growth and methods of the "Weekly" but try to coufine the discussion to the questions now at issue.

The 'Weekl'' hunted up this phreirian and because he seemed to be poor, and as it eye. 'his tendown'' bad him brought to Court to be exposed before a jury as the 'paly physician that had ever endorsed Grape-Nats'' but much to the chaptin of the 'Weekly' when our atterneys asked him if the article he wrote about coffee was true he replied, 'yes."

Statement No. 5 reads: The health officers of Mich. Mane, Penn. New Hemp and other states in their official builetins have for years been denouncing as prenosterors and fraudulent the claims in ace by the Postum Cereal Company." We do not recall any critisism except from Mich. Penn., Maine and S Dalota.

The average reader wight think that the opinions expressed by the State Officials are always correct, but that conclusion is not-loon out by facts.

As an Muscration: About thirteen years are the Dairry and Food Commission of Michigan for some personal reason printed a severe criticism on us for making Postum of Barley (according to his official chemist) at market price and selling too high. He was shown there was never a grain of barley seed in Postum: "His report was false and misleading. The governor dremissed him.

We note that a so-called . "hired has lived with one family 54 We want you to try three large years. What a compliment that is to bottles of Rexell "33" Hair Tonic the girl, and likewise to the family! The domestic service in a family used to be an institution of pleasant extended through many years. It, was in the family ten or fifteen years.
In those days domestic service was regarded as just as bonorable as keepwhich it is. We remember a girl at our home many a summer ago. Who came-from a prominent family in the country, and she stayed years for $1.25 a week, but $1.25 amounted to a great deal more than it does in these denegerate days. That girl maintained a beautiful sway over the "93" Hair Tonic, and we would go to her for bread and butter

> American Influence in Canada. =Wherever the American goes in force and in proportion to his sym-pathetic reception he leaves as a side issue the indelible impression of his vivid personality. In such wise he is changing the sedate old maritime provinces so very rapidly that you can hardly find any difference between them and Maine or Massachusetts. This is in obedience to a natural law which must bring about such results. His manners, his speech, his coinage, his means of communication, whether by land or sea, are entirely reciprocal with Canada, but as he is mighty and Canada is feeble numerically, the greater, as usual, includes the less.-F.
