A PLACE WHERE THE TARIFF BOARD WOULD BE USEFUL.

B. P. O. E. HAD A DELIGHTFUL PARTY

FOUR HUNDRED PEOPLE ENJOYED BEST EVER

A Large Crowd from Pontiac was Present.

The B. P. O. E. party last Friday night was the largest and one of the most enjoyable events ever given in Northville. There were four hundred people present and 194 were dancing couples. Although the dancing floor was crowded to an uncomfortable condition until after midnight yet no one seemed to want to miss a single number and after being stepped on, elbowed, shoved and jammed into eleven different shapes, the same couples rushed pell-mell into the next shuffle. Everybody was good natured and the local Elks were right busy all the time in an endeavor to see that everybody else had a good time—and they had it.

Stone's orchestra danced up until 3:30 a. m.

The buffet novelty was a great success. The chefs were Messrs. Balden, Boyer, Sessions, Clark and Tibbitts and they did their parts in a delightful manner. The service of lemonade, coffee, roast beef and waffles, pickles, olives, celery, ice cream and cake would have been envied by the chefs of Sherry's or Delmonico's.

There were over fifty couples by special car from Pontiac present besides a large crowd from Plymouth and other towns.

The local Elks did themselves proud anyhow and if any one didn't have a good time it was because they were not present.

Doesn't Like the Noise.

Editor Record:

When a person attends a public gathering of any kind and especially after having paid an admission fee they generally wish to get their money's worth if possible, but when a party of young men get an enthusiastic that they cannot keep quiet enough to hear or let other people hear, it is very annoying. There is of course a certain crowd that applaud in such a case, while there are others in the audience, who are very much disturbed and what about the people on the stage or platform who are entertaining the people? Fun is alright in its place and to a certain extent and we are glad to see and hear the cheerful faces and voices of our boys in our public gatherings but perhaps a word to the wise is sufficient.

Canadian Reciprocity.

The Record must confess that it doesn't know all there is to know about the pro and con of this question of reciprocity with Canada. However, acting on the theory of "self preservation" and "who is who" in a horse trade, we can't for the life of us see where as fellows in the Second Congressional district can gain a cent's worth and we can see where we stand to lose. For instance where's the reciprocity? What have you bloomers-gents on t'other side of the river got to offer? You propose to send in a million tons or more of hay free where you now pay a $3 per duty. Why wouldn't that other million tons duty free tend to lower the price on the Michigan product? Why wouldn't the six cents per dozen on eggs tend to reduce the price of Michigan grown eggs?

Why wouldn't the three cents a bushel reduction on every pound of butter reduce the price of the product of the Michigan farmer with out material benefit of all to the wage earner. What are you going to give us in return? You say we can ship in our Agricultural implements and automobiles. Well we don't want to. Can't make enough autos now to supply the Eastern States demand, and Michigan farmers do not manufacture agricultural implements. Are you well to be getting a dollar a bushel a good many years under the present arrangement and we are pretty well satisfied. If we are going to trade our knives with them we want to get a lot in return. It's not a fair trade.

Try It on Some Other Country.

We would like to know which country it had entirely by mail order. Have some other country, though, and the parcels post regulation may bring it about. What would happen? The stores would stand it as long as they could, and then move away. Banks would close their doors. Newspapers have to quit; the hotels go out of business, mechanics move away, schools and churches disintegrate; sidewalks go to wreck. Buildings would be vacated, unpainted and dilapidated; strangers would take one look and flee. Isn't that precisely what would happen if an entire country was populated with people who thought everything in Chicago? Who would buy a farm so located? Be a friend to your home town and it will be a friend to you.

Now that the bath tub trust has announced a 50 per cent reduction on tub prices, people can take a half off bath again.

TRICK BIRDS OF HONG KONG

Java Sparrows Taught to Perform "Clever Stunts" for the Benefit of Travelers.

The famous Chinese conjuring birds are Java sparrows. At street corners in Hong Kong sedate old Chinese may be seen putting the birds through their tricks for the benefit of strangers. Each bird cage has a sliding door, and just outside this is a pack of little card cases, each containing a picture, and a small pot holding half a dozen grains of rice.

When the stranger, pursuant to the suggestion of the owner, hands over the necessary coin, this is placed with the pack of cards at the cage door. Then the owner will undo the fastening of the door. The bird, seeing the coin, then the cards, then the coin again as if he thought his performance was cheap. Valued at a dollar, the bird opens the door with his beak, hops out and takes a card from the pack and passes it to the master. He receives in reward one grain of rice.

The owner of the bird nature from the city received from a bird and hand it in the manner of a card. The bird, seeing the card, then the coin again as if he thought his performance was cheap. Valued at a dollar, the bird opens the door with his beak, hops out and takes a card from the pack and passes it to the master. He receives in reward one grain of rice.

Such is the case. The bird, seeing the card, then the coin again as if he thought his performance was cheap. Valued at a dollar, the bird opens the door with his beak, hops out and takes a card from the pack and passes it to the master. He receives in reward one grain of rice.

AGRICULTURE AND THE HIGH SCHOOL

Education in general may be defined as the training and development which enables an individual to live completely. The purpose then of education is to fit one for both living and getting a living, and the real function of the public school is to meet this condition. That school is best which touches most effectively the activities of human life and prepares the student to take his place and part in performing the work of the world. The regular arrangement of a course of study is for the purpose of leading the student by a succession of natural steps, up to a condition where he becomes useable and useful.

The American high school is a form of secondary education which has arisen to meet the demand for a broader universal education and to day it is the most powerful agency in shaping the character of American life, both rural and city.

It may be impossible for all our people to agree upon what should be included in a high school course of study. The subjects taught are important, but the spirit of the school and the attitude to the several vocations in life which the school creates are of the most vital concern.

There are in Michigan about twelve thousand young men and women who are going from rural communities to village and city high schools. These high schools as at present conducted are presenting to such young people very little that refers directly to the occupation of their parents and their own probable future life. The introduction of courses in manual training and domestic science has for its chief purpose the effecting of a right attitude to industrial life and pursuits and this also is the chief value to be derived from courses in agriculture.

The people are demanding general agricultural training and education and if we are to present it to the largest possible number of our young people we must use the already created system of public schools. We have nearly six hundred high schools in the state and if courses in agriculture and the manual arts were offered in each one of them we should thus reach practically every community and every home.

Not every boy born in the city should always remain there nor every boy born on the farm be a farmer. The teaching of agriculture and the manual arts in the public schools as stated above will afford an opportunity for selection and the boy from the city with rural tastes will through this special course of instruction, secure new information and a proper attitude toward the farm. The boy from the farm will have an opportunity to secure information and a new ideal of farm life but for some other vocation appeals more strongly to him, the work of the high school will discover it. Through the introduction of a course of study then we shall at least in part be able to direct the proper population and utilize it in both country and city.

The great purpose of public education is to produce an intelligent, working, virtuous and contented citizenship and that is a most happy and contented who has the right attitude to his vocation through his knowledge and skill.

The expert needs already tried in teaching agriculture in public schools and in special schools have proven beyond question its utility from an educational as well as from the practical standpoint. This experiment has covered a period of more than fifty years and it is clear that there are three general divisions of the subject which we may term the elementary, the secondary, and the college, and it is to the second of these divisions that we desire to give special attention.

The principle divisions of the art of agriculture are horticulture, crops, soils, dairying, animal industry and farm management. A scientific knowledge together with a practical working knowledge of these subjects will make for the highest degree of success for the person who engages in general agricultural pursuits. The sciences already taught in our high schools have a direct bearing upon these agricultural lines.

The investigations of the National Commission on Rural Life show that there is both an economic and a social need of clearer and better information to agricultural subjects.

FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

No explanation nor elaboration of the February Furniture Sale IDEA is necessary. People already know what it IS. The preceding four semi-annual events held at the Crowley-Milner Store have proved to the satisfaction of even the most confirmed "Doubting Thomases" that the very best class of furniture may be bought here in February and August at decisively lower prices than it usually brings. In other words, the person who has a chance to sum of money to invest in furniture can get about one-third MORE furniture, or one-third BETTER Furniture, or else, that person CAN SAVE ABOUT ONE-THIRD of the amount that the Furniture was expected to cost. Encouraged and emboldened by the splendid success of past sales, which have grown enormously since they were first inaugurated two years ago, and having full confidence that the public understands and realizes the economic features of the event, we have

As we have made clear in previous announcements and repeat again today—this furniture is the reserve stocks, the ample lines, the overproduction, etc., etc., which the furniture-makers have on hand at the close of their six months' business. It is the same grade of Furniture that we sell the whole year round at regular prices. It all comes from old, tried and true concerns who supply us with our regular stocks. So there is no question about the quality. And there is not one piece in the entire sale but what we warrant fully in material, construction and finish, the same as though we were asking the full price for it.

The Scope of this Furniture Movement Covers the Requirements of Every Home, Whether Cottage or Mansion

There are magnificent pieces and sets of the finest woods, carved and finished with elaborate care, fit to grace the most sumptuous surroundings, and especially among the Dining Furniture, there is a great deal in the Period designs, including Elizabethan, Jacobean, Tudor, Colonial, Arts and Crafts, etc., all of which furnish exhibits of unusual interest.

But the backbone of the event is, of course, the vast array of furniture of the moderate kind, which the average home demands. Substantial, well-built furniture that gives comfort and satisfaction through years of steady service.

We welcome the public to this event. Come and inspect the furniture at your leisure, and feel at perfect liberty to ask all the questions you like without incurring the slightest obligation to purchase.

Out-of-town people—especially those from the smaller cities around Detroit, where such a Furniture Sale as this would be an impossibility, will find it immensely to their advantage to attend this February Furniture Sale.

The sale starts Monday morning, January 30th, with the opening of the store, and will run the full month of February.

Charge Accounts
Will be opened with or part payments accepted from all responsible persons who would like to take advantage of this Furniture Sale, but who find it inconvenient to pay for the Furniture now.

A Small Deposit
At the time of purchase will hold any of the furniture until you are ready to place it in your home.
Shipping Charges
We will deliver to your home free of charge. If you wish to have it delivered to your home, we will charge you the cost of $5.00 or over.

All Wrong.

The Mistake is Made by Many Northville Citizens.

Don't mistake the cause of backache. To be cured you must know the cause. It is wrong to imagine relief is cure.

Backache is kidney ache. You must cure the kidneys. A Northville resident tells you how. Mrs. John Raymond, Linden Ave., Northville, Mich., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Murdock Bros. Drug store and they did me a wonderful amount of good. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches, felt tired and languid and had no strength or energy. I was unable to rest well and in the morning on arising my back was lame and sore. Doan's Kidney Pills, helped me from the first and soon after beginning their use, the disagreeable symptoms of my trouble had disappeared. I now feel better in every way. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as a remedy of great merit in cases of kidney complaint. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLure Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other."

SEVEN YEARS OF MISERY

All Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Sikeston, Mo.—"For seven years I suffered everything. I was in bed for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak I could hardly walk. I cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to me at this time, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own house work, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl."

Mrs. DEXA BERTIN, Sikeston, Mo. The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is more widely and successfully used than any other remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means had failed. Why don't you try it?

EASY CHANGE

When Coffee Is Doing Harm.

A lady writes from the land of cotton of the results of a four years' use of the food beverage—hot Postum.

"Ever since I can remember we had used coffee three times a day. It had a more or less injurious effect upon us all, and I myself suffered almost death from indigestion and nervousness caused by it."

"I know it was that, because when I would leave it off for a few days I would feel better. But it was hard to give it up, even though I realized how harmful it was to me."

"At last I found a perfectly easy way to make the change. Four years ago I abandoned the coffee habit and began to drink Postum, and I also induced the rest of the family to do the same. Even the children are allowed to drink it freely as they do water. And it has done us all great good."

"I no longer suffer from indigestion, and my nerves are in admirable tone since I began to use Postum. We never use the old coffee any more."

"We appreciate Postum as a delightful and healthful beverage, which not only invigorates but supplies the best of nourishment as well." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Winter Months on the Farm

How to Improve Them

Selecting and Testing Seeds

How to Choose the Best Grains—Winter Jobs That Result in Bigger Yields

By PROF. R. A. MOORE

Wisconsin College of Agriculture

Copyright, 1910, by Western Newspaper Union

The death knell of scrub stock, whether animals or plants, is sounding far and wide. Where formerly scrubby parent stock was once commonly used, they are gradually but surely declining in popularity. The farmer is awakening to the value of good blood. In the live stock industry breeders have educated the general farmer to an appreciation of the benefits and greater profits possible through careful selection and mating of pure-bred foundation stock. State legislation has aided in the eradication of scrub and grade animals. Public sentiment has cheapened the erstwhile popularity of scrub and grade bulls, hogs and rams, but only recently has the farmer's attention been directed to the careful selection and testing of all his seed grains and the use of only pure-bred strains of grains in his crop rotation.

By increasing the production of corn in the United States one bushel per acre an annual increase of 115,000,000 bushels would result. To augment the oat and barley fields one bushel per

The preferable device for testing is a box 20x40 inches square and usually six inches in depth. Sawdust is an excellent material to use as a germination bed, but it should first be boiled in water in order to kill bacteria or molds. The sawdust should be placed in the box about three inches deep and should be moist but not soggy.

A piece of good muslin upon which two-inch squares have been drawn with an indelible pencil and numbered to correspond with the sections and individual ears to be tested, is pulled tightly over the sawdust and tacked securely to the sides of the box. The kernels of corn taken from ear No. 1 are put into square No. 1 and from ear No. 2 in square No. 2, until all are used. A plain moistened cloth is placed over the kernels and a muslin sack made for the purpose and partially filled with sawdust, about two inches thick is placed on top of the cloth and pressed down firmly over the corn.

The tester should then be placed where it will be held at ordinary room area would mean annual increases of 34,000,000 and 1,000,000 bushels respectively. When one considers that the use of carefully selected seed will not only increase production one bushel per acre but will equally render possible the enormous importance of universal knowledge concerning the value of the grain seed to the farmer.

Importance of Proper Curing

When taken from the stalk, corn usually contains from 20 to 70 per cent of water, which, unless reduced to 10 or 12 per cent, is likely to injure the quality of the seed. In the north, where the seasons are short, we find the most convenient way of drying the corn is by the use of artificial heat.

Corn should never be placed against the south side of a building, where there is likely to be strong sunlight, as the rays of the sun will injure the vitality of the seed or the side of the ear turned toward the sun. If corn is cured by hanging under a porch or under the roof of the corn crib, it should be stored away in some dry room where it will not absorb moisture from the outside atmosphere before hard freezing weather begins.

Home Curing Devices.

Where kitchen or furnace room can be used for curing corn small hanging devices may be used for the holding of the corn. A simple and practical method is to use cord, tying the ears so they are a safe distance apart for drying. Another device is to use dove feet, placing ears between them so they can be held securely and hung on a nail or hook by a loop.

An attic which can be ventilated and has a chimney passing through it, or is directly over a heated room, so that it can be kept at a fairly uniform temperature through the winter, is an exceedingly good place to cure corn.

Testing Seed Corn.

Each ear of corn should be tested before planting and all ears rejected that do not germinate and show lack of vigor or vitality. Fifteen average ears of corn will plant one acre, using four kernels to the hill, placing the corn three and one-half feet apart between the rows.

The most perfect seed ears having kernels of a uniform width should be used for seed. These should be selected from the store room and laid out on the floor or on tables to be convenient for making the test. Care should be taken to place the ears in a building where they will not be disturbed during the period of the test, other-wise, if disarranged before comparison can be made, the results will be for naught.

The ears should be arranged in sections of tens to correspond with the sections in the seed tester, which are usually in tens. A nail-should be driven between each section and the various sections, as well as each individual ear of each section, numbered at least four kernels (sometimes six) are taken singly from different parts of each ear and placed directly in front of the ear from which taken, until kernels have been removed from all ears.

temperature or a little warmer during the day the seed reaches a temperature which it holds during the night even though the outside temperature drops several degrees the germination bed will be fairly constant.

After five or seven days have elapsed the sawdust pack should be removed and the cloth pulled back upon the corn, being careful not to disturb the kernels underneath. The kernels should be inspected to note if any have absolutely failed, if each kernel has put forth both root and growing point, and the vigor or vitality shown in the germination. All seed which does not germinate should be rejected.

Before sowing the seed remove the butts and tips as these grains are of different shape and will neither plant uniformly nor give a uniform germination. If the butts and tips kernels are planted at all they should not be used with the middle kernels, but should be planted by themselves.

Testing Small Seeds.

The prospective seed buyer should first send to the seed dealer for a sample of small seeds, such as alfalfa, clover, etc., upon which he can make a germination test. A simple seed test can readily be arranged. Take two tin plates, one a little larger than the other, cut a piece of cotton flannel to fit in the larger plate, soak the flannel in water, then squeeze out the surplus water, and put the flannel in the larger of these plates. Then place 100 or more seeds in this plate, cover the seeds with a similar pad, well moistened with water, and then cover with the smaller tin to retain the moisture. The tester should then be placed in some convenient place where the temperature ranges from 70 to 80 degrees Fahrenheit.

The tester should be examined every 24 hours to see that the pads do not become too dry. It is advisable to loosen up the lower pad occasionally to let in oxygen, which will aid in the germination of the seed. In about three days the seed will begin to germinate and at the end of five days they should all be germinated.

Good seed should give a germinating test of at least 90 to 95 per cent, better still, if it reaches 100. No clover seed should be sown that does not test at least 80 per cent.

Danger of Weeds.

Purchased seeds may be the means of bringing noxious weeds which, once established upon the farm, result in serious losses or great expense to eradicate. The annual losses caused by weeds on the farms of this country need more serious consideration than has thus far been given to the subject. We have evidence which shows certain portions of the country to be infected with weeds to an extent that makes it very advisable to carry on a determined warfare to eradicate them. For many years those interested in scientific and permanent agriculture have considered the menace of weeds and have issued warnings against them. This early work dealt almost wholly with preventive measures, largely along the line of seed inspection to insure clean seed.

The KITCHEN CABINET

ES adorned simply that in her husband's eye looks lovely. The truest mirror that an honest wife can see her beauty in.

Way of Serving Chicken.

Chicken need not be an extravagant dish, as the bits of left-over meat may be worked into croquettes, salads, creamed chicken, and numerous other dishes. The bones of the chicken need not be wasted, as they will make soup and broths.

Chicken à la Marengo.—This is said to be the dish that was served Napoleon after the battle of Marengo. Singe and clean a five-pound chicken, cut it up as for a fricassee. In a saucepan melt two tablespoonsful of butter and add three tablespoonsful of olive oil. When it is hot, add the white meat, with salt, pepper, and a clove of garlic. Mix and cook over the heat until each piece is a golden brown. Have ready a tomato sauce made from a can of tomatoes, a little onion, parsley, carrot and celery which have been cooked until thick, then rubbed through a sieve, and a tablespoonful of butter added. To the chicken add a pound of fresh mushrooms which have been peeled and sautéed in a little butter for five minutes. Arrange the chicken on a platter and add to the gravy three tablespoonsful of tomato puree; stir until it is hot. Pour over the chicken and serve.

Chicken Giblets on Toast.—Cook the giblets until tender over a slow fire, then chop fine; add the broth in which they were cooked, season with salt, pepper and a little onion, add a half cup of hot cream. Pour over buttered toast and serve.

Chicken Croquettes.—Boil a young chicken until tender, cut the meat into dice. Sauté in butter a half pound of fresh mushrooms, make a cream sauce using the broth and equal quantity of cream in making the sauce; use three tablespoonsful of butter and three of flour, cook together, then add a cup each of broth and thick cream.

Chicken cut up and baked in milk is a new dish to many. Cover the first hour of cooking and remove the cover to brown. Thicken the milk for a gravy and serve poured around the chicken.

For Washington's Birthday The red, white and blue of the flag seems to be the appropriate color scheme for Washington Birthday entertainments. There are so many pretty little things in the shops that may be used for this occasion. Boxes made in the form of drums or rocket hats, which may be used for filled nuts or bonbons.

Small flags tied to stand make very pretty decoration, they may be used to hold the place card. Fondant made into balls, and dipped into chocolate make very real looking cannon balls, and if piled cannon ball fashion add to the appropriately decorated table.

Cherries are, of course, the fruit most appropriate to the occasion, and may be used in numerous ways for decoration or on food combinations. For a children's party, a nice little surprise cake may be made, using the ordinary sponge cake mixture, which is more wholesome than the rich cake cakes for the little people. Bake them in gem pans, the little brownie tins are a nice shape. When cold, cut off a slice and scoop out the center, fill them with preserved cherries, put back the slice and cover with a boiled frosting or dip them in softened fondant.

Pineapple Lemonade. Make a syrup by boiling two cupsful of sugar and a cup of water together ten minutes, add the juice of three lemons and one can of grated pineapple. Cool, strain and dilute with one quart of water.

A delicious sandwich to serve with this lemonade is cottage cheese, well seasoned with salt and well mixed with chopped candied cherries.

French chops may be arranged on a platter to simulate a cannon and potatoes cut into balls and browned in fat may be piled to look like cannon balls. The potatoes should first be par boiled until nearly tender, then browned in hot fat.

FOR COUNTRY-WIDE EFFORT

Fees of Tuberculosis Have Plan to Use Most Powerful Weapon on Earth.

April 30 has been set aside this year as "Tuberculosis Day," and will be observed in a manner similar to that of "Tuberculosis Sunday" in 1910, when 40,000 sermons were preached on the prevention of tuberculosis. In the first official announcement of the occasion, made by the national association for the study and prevention of tuberculosis, the leaders of the movement state that they hope to enlist all of the 33,000,000 church members in country.

In one respect Tuberculosis day will differ from Tuberculosis Sunday of 1910. Instead of requesting the churches to give to the tuberculosis cause, a special Sunday service, the national association is going to ask this year that meetings, at which the subject of tuberculosis and its prevention can be discussed, be held on Sunday, April 30, or on any other day near that date, either in the week preceding or the week following. "What we want," says Mr. Livingston Farrand, executive secretary of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, in a report on this movement, "is to have this whole subject of tuberculosis discussed in all of the 209,000 churches of the United States at as nearly the same time as possible."

BLAME PHYSICIANS FOR GROWTH OF DOPE HABIT

Druggists Say Prescriptions and Not Patent Medicines the Cause.

New York—Blame for the prevalence and growth of the morphine habit was placed on the shoulders of physicians, who prescribed the drug, at a meeting of druggists here to night to protest against the recently enacted city ordinance prohibiting the sale at retail of any preparation containing morphine or its salts except upon a doctor's prescription.

The ordinance is aimed primarily at paregoric and at stomach remedies, according to members of the board of health who were instrumental in obtaining its passage. Caswell Mayo, one of the druggists, said he had made a canvass by mail of several sanitarians and the replies convinced him 90 per cent. of the victims of drugs formed the habit as a result of using prescriptions given by physicians and only 8 per cent. from using proprietary medicines.

Was Taking No Chances.

An amusing incident occurred a few days ago outside Maranz, Austria. A cow strayed from the pasture and came within reach of the fort. The officer in command suspected the presence of an automatic photographic apparatus, and had the beast seized and closely examined, and when he found nothing to justify his suspicions he turned the animal loose again, under the observation of two of his men, charged with the duty of following the suspected home to ascertain whether her owner was an Italian spy.

WARNING TO ALL PARENTS

The Tendency of Some Mothers and Fathers to "Show Off" Their Children Usually Ruins Them

When parents are the proud possessors of a very bright and clever child, there is always the risk that they may make of their offspring a self-conscious and priggish little person. It is natural enough that Tommy or Katie as the case may be, should be inclined to "show off" when their attainments are made the subject of conversation. It is extremely bad for children, converting them into conceited little men and "womenly" boys and girls with a healthy living for marbles or dolls, says Woman's Life. Many a child has been utterly ruined in disposition by a parent's openly shown pride, and the tendency to bring children forward as "stars" and to make them the center of attraction before visitors is all too sadly on the increase. It is, of course, very hard for the mother and father of a bright child to realize that the small genius is bound to be less interesting to other people than to themselves, that friends do not visit them for the sole pleasure of hearing Katie recite or Tommy sing the latest popular song in his shrill treble. It may be amusing for a while, but "show off" children are apt, later on, to show scant liking for the more solid attainments, with the result that their slower, dumber brothers and sisters leave them behind on the ladder of fame. Cultivate a child's talents by all means, but do not parade them in public before him. It may mean the ruin of a possibly fine career.
