MRS. CHAS. VAN VALKENBURG'S FUNERAL

Occurred from the Home Sunday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mrs. Chas. Van Valkenburg occurred from the home Sunday afternoon Rev. T. J. Murdoch officiating.

As Lottie Allen, she was born in New York state May 11, 1867 and came to Northville in 1888 with her mother and brother, Zack Allen, where she has since resided. She was married to Mr. Van Valkenburg in 1888 and to this union two children, Charles and Floyd, were born.

Mrs. Van Valkenburg was a member of the Northville Baptist church and in her daily life fully exemplified the profession of faith. She was never known to speak ill or uncharitably of any one and in her long years of suffering and pain she endured with the utmost patience, only awaiting the time of her release.

What more need be said? She died as she lived, an exemplary Christian woman, a kind and loving wife and mother, the memory of whose deeds of kindness and charity will be long remembered and cherished.

LIMITED CARS TO KALAMAZOO

D. U. R. AND M. U. R. HAVE NOW ARRANGED IT

Leave Detroit at 7:04 A. M. and Every Two Hours Thereafter.

For some weeks there have been rumors floating about to the effect that negotiations were pending for the operation of through limited electric railway service between Detroit and Kalamazoo. These rumors are now confirmed by A. D. B. VanZandt, Publicity Agent of the Detroit United Lines, who makes known the details of the service proposed—a service that is much more extensive and important than has been thought possible.

"The new through limited service," says Mr. VanZandt, "will be operated over the line of the Detroit United and of the Michigan United between Detroit and Kalamazoo without change of cars. That there should be such a service has long been recognized by the officials of both electric railway companies and some time ago a traffic agreement along this line was reached, and since then both companies have been engaged in the task of working out the details, not only of the service, but of the equipment of cars for adequate care for the service.

The M. U. R. operates a combined over-head and third rail system while ours is purely over-head and this necessitated the reconstruction of our cars so they would be able to operate over the M. U. R. tracks. This work has all been accomplished and the new schedule will be placed in effect April 5th. Under this schedule there will be six through limiteds each way daily between Detroit and Kalamazoo, all cars making the regular limited stops at present and without change of cars. These limiteds will leave Detroit at 8:00 a. m. and every two hours to 4:00 p. m. and will arrive Kalamazoo at 8:45 a. m. and every two hours to 4:45 p. m. In addition the local car leaving Ypsilanti for Jackson at 5:15 a. m. will be converted into a fast train and will arrive in Jackson at 7:00 a. m. The first westbound M. U. R. limited, while the limited leaving Kalamazoo at 6:45 p. m. for Jackson will arrive there 15 minutes late due to local arriving at Detroit at midnight.

With these changes do not exhaust the improvements in the through limited service, for in addition there will be three limiteds leaving Lakewood, 4:45 a. m. for Jackson and 7:00 a. m. for the town at 4:55 a. m. and returning leaving Detroit at 6:10 p. m. making an added stop on the D. J. & C. to Jackson and reaching the Capital City at 7:00 p. m. This will enable people to spend a full business day in Detroit without coming home the same night.

This new through interurban service will be made without charge or extra fare and the schedule is so arranged that excellent connections can be made to and from the other Detroit limited interurbans, equipping them to travel by electric car from Saginaw, Flint, Toledo and Port Huron to Battle Creek, Kalamazoo and Lansing.

The new schedule will not in any way affect the local car schedule of the D. J. & C. Ry. except as mentioned above but the limiteds will undergo changes.

UNCLE ALLEN.

"Gentle, persuasive methods are the best," said Uncle Allen Sparks, "If you want to accomplish anything worth while. You can catch more flies with a sheet of sticky paper in one afternoon than you can swat in a year."

Bogart Shond Be Re-appointed.

By a large majority the people of Northville are hoping that the splendid services of Nelson Bogart as marshal of the village during the past year will be recognized by new administration in the tendering to him of a re-appointment. Perhaps Mr. Bogart is not a candidate for re-appointment. However he has made about the best officer the village ever had and his services could be recognized in no more fitting way than by this tender of another term.

What Congressman Haugen Says

Congressman Haugen, Republican of Iowa, in a speech before the National House of Representatives, has this to say on the "Reciprocity with Canada" question:

In the proposed reciprocal trade agreement with Canada, Haugen said, "I fear the agricultural interests will suffer, and no material benefit will come to anybody. For instance, under the agreement cattle from Canada are admitted into the United States free of duty, but on mutton, lamb and other fresh meats, bacon, ham, shoulders and sides, pork barrelled and in cans, dried and smoked meats, there shall be levied a duty of 1½ cents a pound. If it is intended by this agreement to reduce the high cost of living, then the meat should also be admitted free, but with the 1½ cents per pound protection to the butchers, the one who controls and puts up the prices, two pieces of our beef will remain practically the same. The result will be cheaper cattle to the trust and higher prices to the consumer. Wheat has been placed on the free list, and the contention is that bread will be cheaper, but a tariff of fifty cents per barrel is retained on wheat and flour. I admit that wheat will go down, in fact wheat has already gone down 10¢ cents a bushel and flour has gone up. The consumer can today buy a bushel of wheat 10½ cents cheaper than he could prior to the negotiation of this treaty. I am told that one bushel of wheat will make six loaves of bread. If wheat goes down fifteen cents a bushel for every five loaves of bread one has to be willing to take a cent reduction, but will get it; will not the smiling trust in bakeries reap the profit?"

"Buy and straw go to the mill. No advantage to the consumer, a little of either is consumed for food. Barley goes to the free list, but as beer is made largely out of resin and chemicals I doubt if larger glasses will be served. The 50 cents duty on butter and cheese and five cents duty on eggs is taken off. That reduction will insure cheaper eggs, cheese and butter."

I believe that that contention will prove true, but suppose that the price on butter, cheese, and eggs, and a few other commodities will be affected. If so the reduction will be on a very few articles. The largest number of articles will not or cannot be affected by this treaty or free trade, except so far as free trade creates hard times, and hard times bring low prices. But if you have not the money to buy with low prices avail nothing. Rents and fuel will be the same, street-car fares will be the same, shoes, clothing, in fact everything you wear, will be the same; in all probability there will be no reduction in meat or flour; everything you drink will be the same; in fact, everything that enters into the cost of living will be the same, except a very few items which are sure to go lower. Can the consumer afford to take the chance? Only a few years ago Congress experimented along these lines. It did not put these articles on the free list, but it reduced the duty, and what was the result? It is a sad story. As you remember, the farmer was selling his oats and corn at ten cents a bushel, butter at eight cents, eggs at six cents, cows at eight dollars, mules and horses at twenty to thirty dollars. He was not buying automobiles, wagons, barbed wire, hardware, or lumber, or farm implements. The old wagon, the old harvester and the old buggy were repaired and made to do for another year. He got along with his old house, machinery, and own help as best he could. Many farmers devoted much of their time to enlighten their neighbors how to solve the problem. Farmers were advocating the killing of calves, believing that would solve the dairy and beef problem. With these conditions orders were coming in slow, and to the disappointment of the consumer the employer was notified that orders for goods were not coming in and that he would be compelled to close his shop for thirty days, next sixty days, then six months, and finally the shops were closed permanently and the factories and the mills were closed until the tariff was again restored, and in the meantime many of the people who had been employed were looking for jobs, offering their services at any price the employer would name, but as there was no demand for the articles which he manufactured he had no work for them to do. In the meantime the employee wandered from place to place seeking employment and opportunity to earn a dollar with which to buy the commodities which were then selling at a very low price, but as there were sixteen men for every job, and as stated by Gompers, 3,000,000 were out of employment, the consumer, the employer, were compelled to appeal to the charities, and free lodgings and souphoners were established everywhere. Caxier's army came on to Washington

How about your boy's room? Parents do not wish their boys to loaf on the street corners, much less to spend their time and money in saloons and pool rooms. Club rooms are not much better. Give your son, therefore, a room in the house that is half respects his room, where he may entertain his friends in lavish fashion. Make that room attractive that he even feels proud to show it to his companions. The boy's room, if there is such a room found in the house, is very often the catchall for discarded furniture, maimed curtains and impossible pictures. Boys appreciate a homey and pleasant room, and in a majority of cases are tempted to spend their leisure time there. Wise parents should not expect their son to find contentment in sitting in grandfather's摇椅 and then at 8 P.M. bury himself in a leather bed. Boys will be boys as long as they live.

A Northville farmer who has been busy arguing against reciprocity with Canada for two months past voted at Saturday's caucus today an Anti-reciprocity resolution on the table. Simply great!

No complaining about short measure when we have a peck of trouble.

The Cloister and the Hearth.
The variety of life, the vigor of action, the straightforward and easy mastery displayed at every step in every stage of the fiction, would of themselves be enough to place "The Cloister and the Hearth" among the very greatest masterpieces of narrative; while its tender truthfulness of sympathy, its ardor and depth of feeling, the constant sweetness of its humor, the frequent passion of its pathos, are qualities in which no other tale of adventure so stirring and incident so inexhaustible can pretend to a man's comparison with it unless we are foolish enough to risk a reference to the name of Scott—Swinburne.

Hoops for Children.

The opinion is expressed by men who have made a study of exercises for health, that it is a pity the skipping-rope and hoop have gone out of fashion for children.

It is suggested they're more excellent mediums for the physical development than bicycles and roller skates. The fact that small children are allowed to have bicycles, and consequently make no use of nature's means of progression is offered as an objection to them.

The skipping-rope and hoop require them to walk and walk. Young children should be encouraged to do this as much as possible, and always with a spring step. They need to use their feet and legs and exercise that brings them into play as is beneficial.

Making American Styles.

Although the term "American style" is heard much more frequently each season, there are few who know that it emanates legitimately from an organization of American tailors, who devote their time to designing and producing American styles, just as the French tailors and the tailors of Vienna originate new fashions yearly. Those who think enough of the subject to investigate learn that Madame la Mode Parisienne, who for so many years held undisputed sway over the civilized countries on both sides of the Atlantic, has lost much of her authority. The well-dressed English woman, who formerly bought all of her clothes in Paris, is now dividing her attention between Paris and Vienna. The American woman is beginning to patronize the American tailor.

Illustrated Rhymes.

Quite a stunt for an impromptu party of young people recently was a contest which consisted in illustrating Mother Goose rhymes. They seemed to enjoy the fun mightily and it certainly took little time or trouble to get it up.

Verses from the celebrated rhymes were written on large pieces of cardboard and they were passed with pencils.

Each boy or girl drew a picture to illustrate the rhyme or she held and the prizes were announced as being in waiting for the best.

Twenty minutes were allowed for thinking up the picture and drawing it. The first prize was a nicely illustrated book and the second a plaster of paris goose filled with bonbons.

Maxim Predicts Aerial War.

That the young men who are now experimenting in aeronautics are the ones who will save the country in the next great war is the declaration of Hudson Maxim.

"We are practically defenseless and the arrival of an aerial fleet will prove our salvation," he says. "Every hilltop in this country should be crowned with an aerial battery and a landing platform and on every mountain peak there should be an aeroplane stationed, ready for flight, for there can be no doubt about it, the outcome of the next great war will depend upon the superiority of air crafts."

May License Whistlers.

Worcester Mass., has under consideration an ordinance against whistling. One of the reasons of it is that a man thinks in case he indulges without making a legal license he may be liable for a fine.

SALEM NEWS

A meeting of those interested in the Thayer Cemetery will be held with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wheeler Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock to consider plans for the enlargement and beautifying of said yard. Try and be present.

James V. Cunningham, who made the race against Auditor Buhler two years ago and was defeated only by a narrow majority, is again the Democratic candidate and he, together with a host of personal and political friends, have gone into the campaign with a determination to win.

That there are dissensions in the Republican camp so far as this once is concerned everybody conversant with the existing order of things thoroughly understand. Auditor Robertson has been persistently and effectively, more or less, in all the business transactions of the Board. That he and his friends resent the treatment he has received goes without saying. At how. An auditor lost on 1-1-1-1 to be openly inferior of the election of the Democratic candidate and felon from another position of distinction for his singular attitude, points to the fact that Mr. Buhler did not hesitate to openly advise the choice of the same. Mr. Cunningham when the latter was a candidate against him in 1897 (Roberts on two where 1-1-1).

The Democratic candidate is putting up a rather audacious and strong personal fight to his own advantage. He is not only attacking Auditor Palmer's record for economy in public expenditure, but is trying the Auditor's one better by qualifying figures to show that he was not always accurate about the presentation of the people's money as to how problems and for which he is seeking office.

It is being shown that while County Treasurer the public money for the advertisement of the liquor license was let go with indifference by Mr. Buhler in comparison of the records of his predecessor as well as successors in the office of County Treasurer.

Candidate Cunningham has also issued a rather forceful personal platform in which he arraigns the present Board on several charges.

He charged that the actual duties of the Board of County Auditors, as at present constituted, have been made subservient to personal politics, and admits that minority representation is about the best cure that be recommended to put an end to the prevailing condition of things.

One notable thing about the Auditor's scrap is the fact that many of the political skeletons which Mr. Buhler has hatched during his quarter of a century of office-holding are coming home to roost, and that they are not particularly welcome in the Buhler camp at this time can be readily understood.

For Early Spring

THE two small hats shown here are designed on novel frames made of wire. The frames are covered with muslin and then with a light silk braid in a fancy weave. The braid is sewed to the shapes, beginning at the top of the crown, in the simplest manner. As the crowns and brims are separate, they are covered, separately, the crowns set on and sewed to place after both are covered with braid. In Fig. 1, the braid is sewed row after row with silk thread matching it in color. It is sewed to both upper and under brim, following the lines of the wire frame. This is one of the few shapes which can be successfully covered by the home milliner. As a rule, hats are difficult this spring and require the knowledge of the professional milliner to make them successfully. As the braid is very light in weight, a heavier braid requires that the facing be of another material, such as chiffon or light weight silk or ribbon, which should, to get the best effect, be shirred on.

Fig. 2 shows strips of ribbon and braid alternated about the brim. The ribbons are a light weight, satin surface, in the same color as the braid. Short lengths are shirred over the upper and under brim, alternating with strips of the braid sewed row on row together. A length of ribbon, and a length of braid consisting of three rows sewed together in a strip a yard long is used as a "rosette" made of loops of ribbon on the side, toward the neck, instead of a smart and practical hat for general wear. Fig. 3 is a band of velvet ribbon or of crushed silk draped in a "dash" over the plate where the crown sets on the brim. This shape admits of quite a variety of finishes. For youthful wearers, the single long, jaunty quill has a lot of dash and go. It is the best solution for the simplest and smartest effects, but not appropriate for any one except young wearers. A tuft of upstanding plumes or fancy feathers for older women, or loops of lace or ribbon, or any of the mountains of flowers which form a complete trimming ready to adjust, will help out the home milliner in making her Easter headwear.

WIDE CHOICE OF MATERIAL NEW STYLES IN LINGERIE

Many Charming Textures in Which This Costume for Spring Would Be Effective.

There are many charming materials among those prepared for spring dresses that would wake up successfully in this style.

The skirt is slightly full at the waist and is trimmed effectively at the lower part by silk strapping and scallops formed of silk, which gives the effect of an added and wrapped-over lower part; a silk-covered button is sewn in each scallop.

The bolero is cut like a Magyar blouse, and is trimmed to match the skirt. The underslip is of crepe-de-chine, tucked for the under-sleeves.

Hat of fine straw trimmed with a handsome ostrich feather.

Materials required for the dress: 5 yards 46 inches wide, 2 yards silk 22 inches wide.

The Overdressed Woman.

By the way, Parisians are now declaring that the conservative woman is the only really well-dressed woman; that those who rush to the front with the latest eccentricity of hat, or coat, or skirt, in order to attract attention, are not only not smart in its fashionable acception, but over and objectionably smart. They have invented a term, a contentious one, too, by which to express their disapproval. Unfortunately, the term itself is objectionable to English ears, and loses its point entirely in translation.—Harper's Bazar.

Stitching.

When sewing on the sewing machine, if the thread breaks easily, soak spool and all in water for about two minutes. This rule applies to any quality of thread.

ADVICE TO WOMEN

Women suffering from any form of illness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established this confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken.

Never has she published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which Mrs. Pinkham has to draw from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge needed in your case! She asks nothing in return except your good will and her service has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this general offer of assistance. Address Mrs. Pinkham, care of Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

It Depends on the Liver. "Is life worth living?" that depends upon the liver. Yes, and that again depends upon what you eat, and how you eat.

Henry Ward Beecher once said: "A man with a bad liver cannot be a good Christian." Henry made some mistakes, but in this statement he was eminently correct. It is only another version of a phrase frequently used by the editor of the Care of the Body: "As a man eateth so is he."

Jack—Nidge always was a flighty sort of a girl.

For brides especially have the new lingerie decided attractions. The line neckline, "V" line, stiffening are as varied as the morning hours are from the evening. They should be kept so, too, which points are worth remembering. They are more durable when lace is absent. In other words, if you are planning a sensible outfit to last more than one year, use embroidery, even the finest silks and batiste, in broderie outlasts lace. It can be used a second time in many cases.

Flounces should not be too full for the spring and summer. The straight skirt is slightly fuller, but does not flare. Its straight lines must not be interfered with by any underlacing.

Crest covers of all-over embroidery or wide flouncing are very sensible for the dressy kind. They should be cut with little fullness at the waist, for the same reason that bulk has been eliminated from the petticoat. The fitted corset cover with the circular top is the most satisfactory.

Nightgowns made on empire lines are probably moving toward first place. The short upper portion is gathered into a straight band of embroidery or beading. Flowing or puffed sleeves are quite short.

As usual, the hand-made lingerie has a value not to be gainsaid. The French importations will always be favored by the woman with money to indulge her longings.

The extremely plain lingerie with tape drawing strings and a plain scalloped edge is the kind that should appeal to practical minds. They combine daintiness with excellent wearing qualities, and they are inexpensive.

Demand a good-fitting model and a high quality of material, and your lingerie will always be in good style.

A Novel Relish.

Guests at an informal luncheon were at first puzzled by a dainty-looking relish brought out with the meat. Not until tasted was the secret revealed, when they discovered that the crisp, brown little tubes, about two inches in length, were of celery. Large, firm stalks were chosen, and after being cut were dipped in egg and cracker crumbs, fried in deep fat or sauteed in butter, and were served with a brown sauce. In the original instance this vegetable was served with fowl. It is also nice with fish creamed in the chafing dish, with oysters, etc.

The Spring Blouses.

With the influx of new waists of sheer cotton material, the veiled blouse has not been forgotten. These, in simple lines, are made to have a new air and a suggestion of warmer days by a relieving touch of embroidered batiste or linen used in place of lace.

A York and cuffs, with an insertion in the front and back, give a springlike air.

The lovely new bordered chiffon, marquisettes and crepes are also pressed into blouse service with excellent results.

School Boys' Garden.

An admirable scheme to have a school boys' garden next year, has been planned by the authorities of Elmira, N. Y. Last summer a hundred boys made good as farmers of vacant lots, and is now proposed to place practically all such unused property in the city under cultivation, the pupils of the public schools to be the gardeners and to reap the profits from their products.

Willing to Tell It.

The check which the comely young German handed in at the window of a Walnut street savings fund bank the other day was made payable to Gretchen Schmidt, and she had endorsed it simply Gretchen Smith. The man at the receiving teller's window called her back just as she was turning away to rectify the mistake.

"You don't deposit this quite this way," he explained. "See, you have forgotten the H."

The young woman looked at her check and blushed a rosy red.

"Ach, so 't hat," she murmured, and wrote hurriedly:

"Age 23."

Perhaps Not.

An instructor in a church school where much attention was paid to sacred history, dwelt particularly on the phrase "And Enoch was not, for God took him." So many times was this repeated in connection with the death of Enoch that he thought even the dullest pupil would answer correctly when asked in examination: State in the exact language of the Bible what is said of Enoch's death.

But this was the answer he got: "Enoch was not what God took him for"—Brooklyn Life.

Colds and Chills Bring Kidney Ills

February, March and April are the backache months, because they are months of colds, chills and pneumonia, with their congesting, weakening influence on the kidneys. Colds, chills, or grip strain the kidneys and start backache, urinary disorders and uric acid troubles. You feel lame, weak and tired and have headache, dizzy feelings, achy muscles and joints; too frequent, painful urinary passages, sediment, etc. Chills hurt the kidneys. Likewise well kidneys often prevent taking cold, by helping to pass off the waste matters of cold congestion. Doan's Kidney Pills are very useful in the raw winter and spring months. They stop backache and urinary disorders, keep the kidneys well and prevent colds from settling on the kidneys. Strong testimony proves it? What better evidence could you ask?

TERRIBLE CASE OF DROPSY.

Lebanon, Ind., Man Gives Vivid Description of His Suffering.

John T. Anderson, 612 W. Main St., Lebanon, Ind., says: "I was taken suddenly with agonizing pains through my kidneys, followed by a stoppage of the urine. I called in a physician, but he gave me only temporary relief, by drawing the urine with a catheter. I was soon in such agony I could not lie in bed, and for four weeks sat in a chair, propped up by pillows. After about a month, it seemed as if something burst and I passed a regular flood of water, mixed with blood and mucus. After that I had not a particle of control over the secretions. The doctor said he could do no more for me, and everyone thought I would die. My friends marvel at my recovery. Nine boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life and made a permanent cure. I gained 20 pounds and have had no trouble since."

TEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.

Restored at Last to Perfect Health by Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Narcissa Waggoner, Carterville, Ill., R. F. D. No. 2, says: "For over ten years I suffered terribly with backaches, headaches, nervous and dizzy spells. I was restless at night and in the morning arose so tired as to be almost unable to do my housework." The kidney secretions were unnatural and gave me a great deal of trouble. One day I suddenly fell to the floor where I lay for a long time unconscious. Three doctors who treated me diagnosed my case as paralysis and said they could do nothing for me. As a last resort I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and was permanently cured. I am stronger than before in many years and my kidneys are in perfect condition."

JUDGE LOUIS OTT FOR Circuit Court

Popular Candidate has made Splendid Record as Lawyer and on Bench

When the people of the townships throughout Wayne County go to the polls on election day they can make no mistake by casting their ballots for Judge Louis Ott, Candidate for Circuit Judge.

Mr. Ott, now Justice of the Peace, has every qualification which fits a man for the Circuit Bench. Born in Detroit 35 years ago, he was educated in the public schools and graduated from the Detroit College of Law.

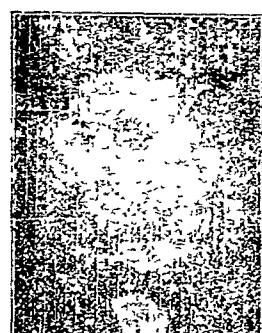

For five years he practiced law, appearing in the Wayne Circuit Court in a great many cases, involving very important litigation.

His fellow citizens, appreciating his high attainments as a lawyer, then decided that Mr. Ott's place was on the Bench, and he was elected by a surprising majority for a new candidate.

His popularity continued, and at the recent primary he was paid the high compliment of being nominated for Circuit Judge regardless of the fact that he had not the backing of any political machine.

Over 30,000 cases have appeared on Judge Ott's docket as Justice, and in a great majority of those appealed, his decisions have been sustained both by the Circuit and the Michigan Supreme Courts.

In all his rulings, Judge Ott is absolutely and everlastingly honest. He is ever fearless and always fair. Judge Ott is well equipped for the duties of the Circuit Bench, and his splendid record since entering his chosen profession makes him merit the support of all those who believe in the reign of justice in Wayne County.
