"THEY CAN'T DO IT AGAIN"

SAY THE SOUTHSIDE BUSINESS MEN

Who Will Endeavor to Prove It Next Tuesday.

The Southside business men are so worked up over their defeat by the Northside team in the ball game last Tuesday, that another chance will be given them to prove the truth of their assertions that "they couldn't do that again." The game will be played next Tuesday afternoon, September 24. Same time, same place, same fun.

Frank Thompson will endeavor to diminish the (apparent) number of his hands and feet. Charley Blackburn says he will be busy all the week getting rosin on his shoes in order to give some one else a chance to get the prize for the falling down first. There's no telling what Ed Hinkley will do. It is reported that one defeat in the last game will be remedied, as the umpires for this game will be selected from the National League.

Come down to the ball grounds and see the fun, anyhow. No admission, reserved seats free of charge.

P. S. There will be 12 players and one umpire on each side and the losers will pay for the supper which the Presbyterian ladies will serve.

Auction Sale.

Simon Mehringer widower, will sell at public auction (tomorrow) Saturday afternoon all his household goods at his home "Doe Kator" house on Rogers street, L. L. Brooks auctioneer. Sale begins at 2 p. m.

The notices and recommendations for this number are very favorable, and the local committee is convinced that the company will give the greatest satisfaction.

The canvass for season tickets is going forward actively. It is suggested that every family be ready to give Mrs. J. B. Cook their order when she calls. It would be still better, if folks would telephone her, independent phone, and tell her just how many tickets to bring. School tickets will be placed with Supt. F. W. Wheaton for sale next week.

NEW REGISTRATION ON THIS YEAR

EACH VOTER MUST DO IT EVERY FOUR YEARS

No Matter if You Are Registered; Do It Again.

Every voter who desires to take part in the November election must register in October or else he will be deprived of the privilege. It matters not whether he is at present registered or that he voted at the spring election, village election, or at the primaries. It must be done all over again every four years and this is the four-year period.

The town board will meet in the village hall October 7, 8 and 9 for this purpose. The board also states that voters must appear in person.

Severe Reflection.

A discussion on appointments to the Most Noble Order of the Thistle gave rise to a caustic saying on the part of Diarmid. Among the names suggested was that of a certain peer, who displayed more zeal than judgment in his support of the Conservative party. "Oh, no!" remarked his ungrateful chief, "I couldn't give Lord the Thistle. He'd eat it!"

Just Being Fooled.

It should be remembered that the Bull Moose party is not the Republican party. No one can consistently vote the Bull Moose ticket for presidential electors unless he votes the entire ticket including U. S. senator congressmen, legislature and county ticket. If the Moose ticket is up for a principal then the principal should be shown to be something fairer, more consistent and honest than to simply make it a piece of spite work to beat Mr. Taft. The Republican party will live long after Mr. Taft and all the present-day voters are dead and gone, but the Bull Moose party, which was born and reared in the cradle of spite and rivalry, will never be heard of from the moment Theodore Roosevelt quits it. It is a one man party and a one man boss, with one aim and one principal—to defeat the Republican party. The Bull Mooseers in Northville believe they are in this new wagon for a principal—at least some of them do—but some day they will wake up to the fact that they have been fooled. The Republican party may be defeated this fall but if it is, then Woodrow Wilson and not Theodore Roosevelt will be President.

Partners in Town Business.

A village, a town, a city, is a partnership. All of us here are in business together. Ownership of property is individual, but our prosperity as a whole is closely bound up in each others' interests. If you have a house to rent, goods to sell, labor to sell, your success in getting a good price for such service depends on the prosperity of your neighbors. If they are doing well, they will pay fair prices, and as times go these prices tend to rise. On the other hand, if your neighbors are not succeeding, they will haggle for the last cent for your house, your goods, your labor. The prices for these services will tend to fall. When you buy goods away from home, you work to reduce the prosperity of your neighbors. Thereby they become less able to do any thing to help you, and you have failed to build up business ties with them so that they feel no personal interest in you. When you buy goods at home, you increase the prosperity of your neighbors. They are not merely better able thereby to help you along in return, but you have created business friendships that make them want to help you. Buying at home pays!

Charcoal in the Ice Box. A piece of charcoal in the ice box will take away the disagreeable "ice box" smell. THE PARCELS POST

SOON OPERATIVE

MAY REQUIRE AUTOMOBILES AND LUMBER WAGONS

Eleven Pound 72 Inch Articles Are Mailable.

Postmaster M. N. Johnson has not yet been advised as to when the new parcels post system will be adopted in the local office but is expecting to receive instructions from the department any day. He says he understands the department will not undertake to install the system in all the offices of the country at once but will take them a few at a time until all are equipped for it. The system probably will be adopted in much the same manner as was the postal savings bank.

Wayne and Oakland county citizens expect to be much benefited by the law which becomes effective January 1. The local office will have thrust upon it extra work and new equipment probably will be needed. Whether the new equipment will mean automobiles or motorcycle with delivery wagon attachment is a thing which has not yet been determined. The motorcycle has proven effective in the delivery of registered mail in the larger cities and the government may determine to use it for the parcels post.

Under the new law any article is mailable if not over 11 pounds in weight and more than 72 inches in length and girth combined. The only restriction is that parcels are unmailable where they are likely to injure mails or postal equipment. Regardless of distance the flat rate is one cent per ounce if the parcel weighs not more than four ounces. Above four ounces rates are by the pound and vary with distance. The maximum payment is 15 cents. This means that a package weighing 11 pounds may be sent for 15 cents. Groceries, meat and produce may be sent by mail when complying with the rules. The merchandise probably will be handled in hampers the way it is in England.

Around the parcels post idea is carried much farther than it will be in this country under the present law.

Here At Home

Northville Citizens Gladly Testify and Confidently Recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

It is testimony like the following that has placed Doan's Kidney Pills so far above competitors. When people right here at home raise their voice in praise there is no room left for doubt. Read the public statement of a Northville citizen:

A. H. Piper, Center St., Northville, Mich., says: "I cannot say too much in praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. I had occasion to use this remedy about a year ago when I was suffering from a severe attack of kidney trouble. My back was so lame that I could hardly get around and I sat down for awhile, it was almost impossible for me to get up. When I stooped or lifted, sharp pains darted through me. The kidney secretions were highly colored, contained sediment and were painful in passage. The contents of three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Murdock Bros. Drug Store, completely cured me and I have been in good health since. I can certainly give this excellent preparation a strong endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Put in Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

tell you to remember that there will five men inside whose prejudices are all in favor of law and order."
 pushed past Hughes and entered the court-house, followed by Yancy and Murrell. "We'll let 'em in where I talk to 'em," he said almost gaily.
 Besides, they'll come in anyhow when they get ready, so there's no sense in scolding them."
 In the court-house, Murrell, bound and foot, was seated between Harrington and the Earl of Lambeth the little raised-off space below the judge's bench. Fear and suffering had unched his unshaven cheeks and given a wild light to his deeply sunk eyes. At sight of Yancy a smooth-exclamation broke from his lips;
 he had supposed this man dead these many months!
 Hughes had abandoned his post, and the crowd, suddenly grown clamorous, narrowed the narrow entrance. One of the doors, borne from its hinges, went down with a crash. The judge, a fierce light flashing from his eyes, turned to Yancy.
 "No matter what happens, this fellow Murrell is not to escape—if he tries on his friends to rescue him he is to be shot!"
 The hall was filling with swarthy, bustling men, the floor shook beneath their heavy tread; then they rushed into the court-room and saved Murrell with a great shout. But Murrell, bound, in rage, and silent, his face frozen in a wolfish grin, was a depressing sight, and the boldest felt

"May be you don't know this is county property?" the sheriff was saying. And that you have taken unlawful possession of it for an unlawful purpose? I am going to open them down a parcel of strangers can't keep this office of a building there any money has bought and paid for. While he was speaking, the judge had washed his way through the crowd to the foot of the steps.

That was very nicely said, Mr. Betts," observed the judge. He smiled widely and sweetly. The shag of gave him a hostile glare. "Do you know that Morrow has left town?" the judge went on.

"I ain't got nothin' to do with Judge Morrow. It's my duty to see that this building is ready for him when he's mind to open court in it."

"You are willing to assist the reputation of the law by opening these doors?" inquired the judge affably.

"I shorlown am," said Betts. "Why, some of these folks are our leading people."

The judge turned to the crowd, and spoke in a tone of excessive civility just a word, gentlemen!—the sheriff is right; it is your court house and you should not be kept out of it. No doubt there are some of you whose presence in this building will sooner or later be urgently desired. We are going to let all who wish to enter, but less noisy now, the crowd spread itself out among the benches, or streamed up into the tiny gallery at the back of the building. Man after man had hurried forward, intent on seeing beyond the railing, but each had encountered the judge, formidable and forbidding, and had turned aside. Gradually the many parts of the scenery over the little promontory surrounding the entire focus of the play on Simon Pike. It was in unobtrusive recognition of that moral earthquake was in a tribute to the indignity of his sudden outrage, that he would be deemed worth consideration.

He was charmed to hear his name called in a whisper from lip to lip. Still, it was true they knew him! He struck his ponderous shoulder and made a gesture commanding silence. He stood, shabby and debauched, he's like some old war horse who lifts the odor of battle that the wind confidently brings to his nostrils.

"Don't let him speak!" cried a voice, and a twin it succeeded.

"Cool and undomitable the judge lifted for it to subside. He saw that the color was stealing back into Marcus' face. The outlaw was feeling that he was a leader not overthrown. These were his friends and followers. Surely was their fate, too. In a flash in the storm of sound the judge attempted to make himself heard, but his words were lost in the angry roar that descended on him.

"Don't let him speak! Kill him! Kill him!"

A score of men sprang to their feet from all sides came the flick of and pistol hammers—as they were worn to the full cock. The judge's seemed to rest on a breath. He lung about on his heel and gave a t nod to Yancy and Cavendish.

g, falling back a step, tossed their is to their shoulders and covered rrill. A sudden hush grew up out the tumult; the cries, angry and ring, dwindled to a murmur, and a d pall of silence rested on the wooded room.

The very taste of triumph was in judge's mouth. Then came a com-ation at the back of the building.
a ripple of comment, and Colonel atress elbowed his way through the wd. At sight of his enemy the ge's face went from white to red, le his eyes blazed; but for the moment the force of his emotions left a speechless. Here and there, as advanced, Fentress recognized a

Improved Spanking Machine.
An electric spanking machine, operated by electricity and warranted to cure all youngsters, was exhibited at New York recently. The electric spanker is constructed somewhat similar to an electric vibrator. The preliminary preparations for an electric spanking are the same as in the old days. When the child is ready the hard rubber disk is applied to the area under treatment and the current turned on. The disks are provided for the larger offenders. To add to the other advantages of the electric spanker, it should be said it does not pain the child more than the child

English nobles lost money. The letter patent granted for the utility of a baron cost £150, and for of a baronet £100 payable to the lord of inland revenue. Other expenses to be incurred by the newly-enobled include crests or new coats-arms, while some wish to have their heraldic trees properly made. Consequently the Herald's office is busy after the issue of a list of honors, and the total expenses of a baron are not far short of £499, those of a baronet exceed £207.

UP AGAINST THE HURDLES

FIRST YEAR VOTERS

They Should Vote With Republican Party.

It Has Stood for Progressive Policies Within-Sane Lines and Has Given the Country Unexampled Prosperity.

Between three and four million young men in the United States will this year cast their first vote. Every one of them should vote for President Taft and the Republican party.

In choosing his political affiliation the first voter should thoroughly study the platforms, principles and records of the great political parties, before allying himself with either. If he goes into the record of facts impartially, he cannot escape the conviction that his choice must be with the Republican party. From Lincoln to Taft, with one single exception, every president of the United States has accepted the inspiring Republican doctrine. The Republican party preserved the Union, abolished slavery, freed Cuba, rescued the Philippines and Porto Rico from three centuries of Spanish tyranny, secured the open door of trade in China and is building the Panama Canal, making the old world dream of centuries come true and rekindling the world's highways of commerce. In addition to all this, its beneficent policies and wise administration have resulted in the progress of the nation, with commercial development and national wealth reaching a point almost beyond imagination.

Democrats Are Destructive.

On the other hand, the first voter will find that the Democratic party has always been an obstructive and destructive party instead of constructive, that when in power it has always brought disaster to the country not only because of its incapacity and incompetency, but also because it has invariably destroyed manufacturing interests by attempting to foist free trade upon the American people. And it is always been on the "wrong side of everything, and if it could have had its way would have destroyed the credit of the nation with the free coinage of silver. In the last Democratic administration the national debt increased and distrust and panic paralyzed the great industrial system of the country. The value of farm products decreased $500,000,000, banks closed, business firms failed, factories were silent and three million able-bodied men were begging for work. These things happened during the short administration of the Democratic party, which has done nothing for progress, nothing for the cause of liberty and freedom, and nothing for the glory of our common country, for more than half a century.

Republican Party Will Live.

The first voter will not be deceived by the attack now made upon the Republican party by men who are smarting under the sting of disappointed ambition. This is not the first year in which the Republican party has been subjected to similar experiences. There was the bolt of the Liberal Republicans to Horace Greeley in 1872, the defections in the early 90's to the Farmers' Alliance, Greenback and Populist parties and the withdrawal of the Silver Republicans in 1896. Republican presidents—Lincoln, Grant and McKinley—have been loaded with the vilest abuse by their contemporaries just as President Taft is assailed today. But the Republican party has survived all these experiences just as it will survive the present attempt to bring about its destruction.

The men who left the Republican party in the past have gone down to political oblivion. Those who have remained with the Republican party have, on the contrary, proudly participated in its great achievements.

The Republican party offers to the first voter the splendid record of its past and the glorious promise of its future.

TRUSTS ARE FOR T. R.

Their Directors Contribute to His Campaign Fund.

Harvester Trust Perkins and Steel Trust Munsey Give Him Half of Total Amount Contributed.

Roosevelt's cry of "Stop thief," has not succeeded in diverting public attention from the liberal support which he is receiving from the big trusts. Among the significant contributions to the third party campaign funds the past week were those of George W. Perkins, a director of the Harvester Trust, and Frank A. Munsey of the Steel Trust, for $15,000 each. Perkins says that more will be forthcoming when needed. He cannot be charged with ingratitude.

The Harvester Trust was organized during Roosevelt's administration with a paper capitalization of one hundred and thirty million dollars. The tangible assets upon which this vast amount of inflated stock was issued amounted at the time to only thirty millions of dollars. Ex-Senator Hanna brought of North Dakota declared that a word from Roosevelt, who was then president, would have prevented the formation of this great combine. But the word was not spoken. The deal went through and the "farmers who buy Harvester Trust implements have been helping to pay the dividends on this extra one hundred millions of watered stock ever since. Later in the Roosevelt administration the department of justice, on its own initiative, was about to begin prosecution against this trust for violation of the Sherman law. But Mr. Perkins appealed to his friend, President Roosevelt, and by the president's personal order the proceedings were stopped. Mr. Perkins has not been a power in the White House during the present administration, and by direction of President Taft a suit is now pending to dissolve the Harvester Trust. Is it any wonder that Mr. Perkins contributes liberally to the third term campaign fund?

And is it any wonder that Mr. Frank A. Munsey is equally liberal? When it is remembered that he is a heavy stockholder in the Steel Trust, whose coffers were enriched to the extent of sixty millions of unearned dollars by the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company, its most dangerous competitor—an absorption which a recent congressional investigation declares to have been plainly against the law, and which never would have been made except for the promise obtained in advance from President Roosevelt that the law would not be invoked against it.

These are not campaign slanders. They are acknowledged and undisputed truths. And they are set down here merely to make it clear why it happens that George W. Perkins, a director of the Harvester Trust, and Frank A. Munsey, heavily interested in the Steel Trust, can afford to be generous with their funds in financing the third term campaign. They found Colonel Roosevelt a friend indeed when he was last in the White House and from their point of view they are fully warranted in drawing upon their plerotic bank accounts to put him back again.

A Word to the Farmers.

From the Leavenworth (Kan.) Times.
If the farmers want good times to continue, they will vote for Taft. If they want to take the chance of getting less for their crops, they will vote for either Roosevelt or Wilson.

Some close observer has remarked that the longer Col. Roosevelt reflects over his past life, the more certain he is that he never made a mistake.

You may have noticed that the colonel has no hard words for the bosses who are for him.
