HOW ABOUT THOSE LEFT BEHIND?

SATURDAY NIGHT IN NORTHVILLE

Last Saturday evening was the banner one, so far this season, in bringing out a crowd. Everybody was seemingly well paid for the effort, as the band concert was even better than usual and the program of events was very entertaining. Judging by the way the people "stuck" till the last thing, the efforts to entertain them were appreciated.

Olsenburg's men's relay race was "some" contest. Emil Tashka, Fred Baiko, Ralph Gotta and Norman Tashka winning first prize, a box of cigars. Milt Brown, Ber Lyko, H. Kroeger, Jas Savage and Chas Johnston each had a good drink of soda water for second prize.

The orange-peeling contest was quite amusing and showed some clever work on the part of the participants. Frank Cosarelli, the fruit-dealer furnished the oranges and J. S. Haddock donated the prizes which were awarded as follows: One dozen fruit cans to Florence Clark of Detroit, 6 bars Queen Ann soap to Mrs. Richard Weil and one dozen jelly tumblers to Mrs. Jas. Ford.

The whistling contest was very funny, and while Albert Kenyon won first prize, he nearly lost his breath before the time was called. Robert Weil is undoubtedly whistling yet over his good luck in winning second. Dr. Paul Alexander paid the bill—50 cents—for all the ice cream these two boys could eat. Makes about five dishes apiece, doesn't it?

J. W. Cole took home the handsome charm offered by the Superior Churn Co. to the person bringing the largest crowd of people who live outside the corporation, to Northville on that evening. Mr. Cole landed 24 individuals in town with a big wagon drawn by two white horses and a white mule. Come again, J. W.

The feature event of the evening was, however, the baby contest. Mrs. Belle McCully, the nautilus, offering a bonnet or one silver dollar, to the best reared baby under 18 months of age. The judges were E. K. Starkweather, Ernest Miller and John Schults and they found it a very difficult proposition. Indeed after putting the infants (as well as their mothers) to a hard test seemingly necessary to decide the winner, by keeping them on exhibition long enough to make most any one un-natured, they decided in favor of the 13 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Schults. The other ladies were treated to ice cream by the judges.

This Saturday night's attractions are all unusually fine. As before, the band boys will give a concert, beginning at 7 o'clock. Dr. A. J. Hackett has arranged for a ladies' singing contest. The lady singing No. 10 male in a 24 part choir, in the shortest time, will receive a dollar box of tooth powder, while the next swiftest one will be given a 50 cent tube of tooth paste. The doctor says he will give each of the remaining contestants a free tooth cleaning treatment. Now ladies, don't pound your fingers, but hit the nail on the head. Wm. Gorton will have a spelling contest, open to any one 16 years of age and under. First prize, $1.50 in cash or trade, second, 50 cents in cash or trade. As an added attraction, the committee has engaged the Northville Male Quartette to sing several selections, and you don't want to fail to be on hand to hear them. If you like the Saturday night program, tell your friends about them, persuade them to attend just one of them, and you won't have to do any more persuading. Try it.

NORTHVILLE MAY GET GAS PLANT

PONTIAC PROMOTORS ARE SEEKING A FRANCHISE

Will Be a Boon to Residents of This Place.

Parties from Pontiac were here last week looking over the towns of Northville and Plymouth with a view of putting up a plant here or at Plymouth to manufacture gas to supply the two places.

The promoters will appear before the council at their next meeting, upon invitation of President Schrader, and the council will doubtless take action on the matter of a franchise so that it may be put up to a vote of the people at an early date.

The plant would necessarily have to be located along, or near, the P. M. tracks, so that coal could be delivered direct from the cars to the furnace chutes.

The company proposes to supply gas principally for fuel purposes. With the present ascending price of gasoline together with its poorer quality, the gas question ought to appeal to every resident of the village—as a fuel proposition.

NOTICE.

During my stay at Walled Lake I shall observe regular office hours on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday, only, of each week. Other days by appointment. Phone Griswold cottage on Walled Lake exchange 51. Advt. DR. TOM HENRY.

That Lost Balance.
A young lady while out boat riding one day in a park, attempted to change seats, and fell overboard. When she was brought up gasping and struggling, the usual crowd gathered around and asked how it happened. "Oh, I just lost my balance," she began, when a little Jewish boy, who had been listening open-mouthed, said: "Youse loose your balance, lad, I will find it for youse."

N. A. M. PAID SOLO?

MULHALL CHARGES J. E. WATSON OF INDIANA DREW SALARY FROM ASSOCIATION.

PROMISED $10,000 AS BONUS

In Return, Witness Testifies Before Senate Board, Recipient Agreed to Work for Passage of Law Creating Tariff Commission.

Washington, July 22.—Testimony given before the senate lobby committee on Monday by Col. Martin M. Mulhall charged that James E. Watson of Indiana, when he was a member of congress, accepted money in payment for his services in behalf of a tariff commission bill.

Mulhall said that Representative Watson was on the secret pay roll of the National Manufacturers' association and drew $250 a week, in addition to a lump sum of $500 paid him as a retainer.

The association, Mulhall testified, also promised Watson $10,000 in cash when the tariff commission bill was passed.

Says Watson Kept Blacklist. The witness informed the senators that it was a blacklist of members of congress prepared by James E. Watson and one Childs, a clerk of the house committee on war claims.

Among others in the list were the names of Representative Nichols and W. B. Wilson of Pennsylvania, Victor Murdock of Kansas, Morse, Lenroot and Nelson of Wisconsin, Haugen of Iowa, Harris Maynard of West Virginia and Champ Clark of Missouri.

"When did you get that list?" asked Senator Reed.

"Before election," replied Mulhall. "That's a list representing the members of the National Association of Manufacturers was opposed to and wanted to beat. We made every effort to drive them back to private life."

In another list was the name of James T. McDermott of the Fourth Illinois district but it had been crossed out with pencil marks.

Urges Spanking for Beveridge. In a letter written to Mulhall in October, Schwelmen is quoted as saying:

"I do hope that when James E. Watson gets in the governor's chair he will lay a half dozen of his good friends (?) over his knee and spank them to teach the band including your special friend Senator Beveridge. I hate false friends more than I do the worst enemies."

"Mulhall was apparently much troubled by a two days' rest, as he began the oral explanation of the items of correspondence in the hands of the committee."

The late Representative Henry C. Aldrich of New Jersey, secretary of the Republican congressional committee in 1908, seemed to have incurred the enmity of Mulhall in October of that year, Mulhall wrote to Senator Schwelmen.

"I told the gentleman that the manufacturers of this country are filled with phobias. When I was through Mr. Aldrich's office an apology came that he would be good from this time on but I plainly gave him to understand that when he comes up for re-election he would hear from me."

Mulhall did not fully explain why he had fallen out with Louisenlager.

TAKE MILITANT AFTER RIOT

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst Arrested—Followers Use Batons on Detectives

London July 22.—In one of the fiercest riots which has marked the suffragette propaganda in Great Britain, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, leader of the militants, was arrested here with six of her followers. The fight with the detectives came when the officers tried to arrest Mrs. Pankhurst as she was entering the Pavilion Music hall where her daughter Sylvia and other prominent suffragettes were holding a meeting.

Mrs. Pankhurst was seized after a violent struggle and when the frenzied women saw their leader in the hands of the officers they charged upon them, using batons and all sorts of weapons to wrest their leader away. Mrs. Pankhurst was taken to Holloway jail.

FIREBUG ON JOHN D.'S ESTATE

Two Attempts Made to Burn Home of His Sculptor at Tarrytown, N. Y.

Tarrytown, N. Y., July 22.—That a firebug is at work on John D. Rockefeller's estate is the belief of his neighbors. Two attempts have been made to burn the home of his sculptor, Emil Seiburn, and the residents now believe that the Rockefeller estate is not due to spontaneous combustion in the hay loft.

It is peculiar coincidence that while Rockefeller has deputies and agents guarding his estate, he had three. As soon as he allowed the deputy to go the fire began.

SETH LOW IN ATTEMPT TO END RAIL QUARREL

President of the National Civic Federation Attempts to Settle Differences in Arbitration.

New York, July 19.—Seth Low, president of the National Civic Federation, which was instrumental in smoothing the way for arbitration under the Newlands act of the wage dispute between the eastern railroads, and their trainmen and conductors, came forward again in an endeavor to straighten out the tangle arising from the roads demands that their grievances be arbitrated along with those of the men.

Mr. Low, who has sided with the unions in their contention that the railroads could not properly affect their troubles into the situation at this stage, met the conference committee of railroad managers in the hope that some agreement might be reached.

The stand of the trainmen and conductors, as voiced by their leaders Messrs. Lee and Garretson, is that the roads acted in bad faith, demanding something not "even debatable." This causes a deadlock in the proceedings.

The trainmen declare that the railroads, in insisting upon arbitration of their own grievances at this time, could have selected no surer way of driving the men from the service.

The sincerity of the roads is questioned by the employees who point out that prior to the mediation conference with the president last Monday no intimation was given by the roads that they proposed to air their demands before the federal arbitration body. The present attitude of the roads is characterized as a "flagrant violation of faith."

OVER 50 GIRLS PERISH IN FIRE

TERRIBLE CATASTROPHE IN CLOTHING FACTORY IN BINGHAMTON.

FIRST ALARM IS NOT RESPONDED TO PROMPTLY.

Terrible Toll of Lives Results When Employees Find Themselves Cut Off From Stairways and Become Panic Stricken.

Fifty-two persons, most of them women and girls, and all employed in the frame tender-box factory of the Binghamton, (N. Y.) Clothing Co. died in a fire which swept that building. Fifty more persons are injured, a dozen of them mortally.

While many girls lost their lives because they did not heed the alarm of fire, it seems certain that the narrow stairway and inadequate fire escapes would not have furnished sufficient arteries of egress in such a fire had the 125 employees responded promptly to the call.

When the fire alarm throughout the factory sounded the girls on the third and fourth floors, one hundred in number, turned leisurely in their seats and at the signal to rise stopped to adjust their clothing and proceeded slowly towards the stairs.

On a landing stood a man clapping his hands, saying "Move faster, girls." This man is believed to be S. D. Dimmock, a foreman in the factory, who is missing and who sacrificed his life in an attempt to save the scores of employees. The girls passed down to the third floor, to find the stairway filled with smoke and flames they turned and ran back to the fourth floor, in their panic trampling down and crushing each other.

At the rear of the building was a fire escape. Twenty-five girls crowded to this and clinging to the iron rods screaming for help paralyzed with fear and unable to descend or ever drop to the ground. At the south side of the building was another fire escape. Soon this was crowded with a struggling mass of humanity shrieking for aid. The first fire company to arrive was attracted to the scene as it was passing down an adjacent street to the first alarm in coming girls jumping from the upper windows.

Many of the employees were of Slavonic and Italian origin and highly excitable. The flames fed by their oil on, shreds of clothing and the usual debris of an overall factory sweep through the four stories with a velocity and lapped out of the windows in huge sheets, blocking up the fire escape, driving flaming the clinging human forms like withered leaves, sending them tumbling to the earth. Great efforts were made to drag the living and dead from beneath the thin of life.

When the firemen set to work it was feared the entire business section of the city would be wiped out. Help was sent from Lockport and the Erie and companies between Chicago and New York, which are holding an interstate tournament in Binghamton, donated their fighting clothes and rendered assistance.

Rioting at the Vatican

After 24 hours of wild rioting on the part of the pope's Swiss guards, during which the men were shorn of their military powers at the Vatican, order was restored.

The demands of the soldiers which caused the mutiny will not be granted. The soldiers had asked concessions raising the embargo against them visiting wine shops and other stores along the Tiber, the right to choose their own commander, the increase of the guards quota and a demand that no punishment be meted out to them for their mutinous conduct.

Great alarm was felt among the Vatican officials for fear that the soldiers would force their way into the pope's presence. It is stated unofficially that severe penalties will be meted out to the guard.

Silk Mill Partly Wrecked

The explosion of a bomb partly wrecked the Heiveta silk mills at Paterson, N. J., the resultant excitement bringing hundreds of workers who have recently been on strike, from their beds to the streets.

Great damage was done to the machinery and other fittings of the factory, many windows were broken and one wall crushed in.

The Heiveta mills constitute one of the largest plants among the several affected by the past four months strike of the Paterson silk workers. Several thousand of the strikers have recently been returning to their work without having won their demands.

A contract for the construction of 10,378 square yards or more of concrete pavement at St. Johns, has been awarded James McKay of Detroit for $15,000.00.

The Michigan Retail Jewelers' association selected Grand Rapids for the 1914 meetings. Officers were elected as follows: President, A. F. Toepel, Detroit; first vice-president, Max Jennings, St. Clair; second vice-president, Donald W. Martin, Saginaw; secretary, J. G. Davenport, Battle Creek; treasurer, J. H. Garlick, Detroit.

THE HAPPY MAN.

The happiest man in the world is the common, every day chap who makes his own living, pays his own bills and has the respect of his neighbors. He saves a little money as he goes along, but doesn't try to get a corner on his local output and he is not a slave to ambition or society.
He never expects to wear out his trousers in the senate and when he glides out of bed in the morning he never wastes any time trying to pick out the right tint of socks, suspenders and necktie that will blend with the general effect.

He only wears a high collar when he feels like it, and when his perform begins to jump, he jerks out his knife and cuts a four inch gash in the side of his shoe and nothing is said about it in the local paper. He never has to set up nights to pol-itice his conscience. He believes in the doctrine of live and let live.
When he encounters one of the needy,
he doesn't stutter with his pocket book. The plain plug of a man is happy because he is satisfied and he doesn't half of his time yearning

PARCEL POST C O D.

Postmasters throughout the country have received instructions for handling C O D parcel post packages. The regulations went into effect July 1.

Charges are now collected from addresses, providing the amount does not exceed $100. The fee for collection will be 10 cents in parcel post stamps, to be affixed by the sender.
This fee will also insure the package against loss to the actual value of the contents not exceeding $50.

The sender will get a receipt showing the amount to be collected, the amount also appearing on the tag attached to the package. The addresser will receive the package on the tag, which will serve as an application for a money order C O D packages may be collected for mailing by rural carriers and will be delivered by city and rural carriers and special delivery messengers.
Such packages will not be mailable either to the Philippines or the Canal zone.

Rural mail carriers in the vicinity of Spokane have started an organized campaign to secure good roads, holding out to the public the promise of better delivery as a reward. Every rural carrier has undertaken the task of urging upon township supervisors in his district the necessity of building good and permanent highways.
In several sections where good roads obtain, the carriers are using autos in covering their routes, to the great improvement of the service. Secretary Frank W. Gupelbet, of the Spokane County Good Roads association, says the automobile will supplant the horse drawn mail wagons as soon as all main highways are in excellent shape.

President Wilson and Congressman Peakes are still running the government at Washington while William Jennings Bryan is out lecturing the people.

—Directing Children Aright.

The young need to be taught that although there is sometimes a pleasure of the senses in committing sin,
it is inevitably followed by remorse
and punishment. Crime, remorse, punishment form an inseparable trio.
On the other hand, while it is often hard to do right, the sense of satisfaction, self-respect and self-control that follows right action is worth all the effort made.

Eggnog for Invalids.

Separate the yolk from the white of an egg, beat the yolk thoroughly and then beat the white to a froth, add a heaping teaspoonful of sugar, a trifle of salt. Stir these into the yolk and then add the white. Add enough milk to fill the glass and stir. Add either one or one-half spoonful of sherry.
The salt offsets the flavor of the egg.

So They Danced After All.

At the conference of orthodox rabbis held in London last March a resolution was adopted discouraging dancing on the ground that "the practice of dancing—men with women—is contrary to good morals."—New York Tribune.

Amenities.

"I've just been introduced to Professor Smythe; such a charming man to talk to! He doesn't make one feel a fool, in spite of his cleverness." "Ah, my dear, but that's because of his cleverness."—Punch.

SHE BEAT HER WAY
ACROSS CONTINENT

To Join Fiance Pretty Flood
Survivor "Hoboes" It.

Venice, Cal.—Miss Ethel Johnston, a beautiful young woman from Dayton, arrived here in begrimed and torn boy's costume to join her fiance.

Miss Johnston and J. L. Perry had been sweethearts in Dayton. The youth moved west a short time ago, the better to prepare a home for his sweetheart, and was beginning to see the silver lined cloud when the flood swept down upon Dayton.

Miss Johnston was making her home with her aunt in that city and suffered the loss of her only relative as well as her home.

She cut her hair short, donned boy's clothing and struck out with but a few dollars for the coast. She traveled almost the entire distance on freight trains, in empty box cars, on flat cars, brake beams and bumpers, only occasionally being able to obtain the comfort of the speedy billed baggage car.

Once, when she was discovered riding a brake beam, she was taken into the engine and made to stoke to earn her passage.

She reached Venice almost famished,
but happy. She did not stop to change her toilet, but as soon as she learned the Perry residence ran all the way
there and threw herself into her fiance's arms.

Perry and his mother have provided the girl with feminine attire, and the couple will go to San Francisco to be married.

CLARENCE DARROW "BROKE."

Labor Unions Asked to Raise Fund
For McNamara's Lawyer.

Chicago.—Clarence S. Darrow surprised the Chicago Federation of Labor at a meeting here by walking in and taking a seat. He was given a rousing reception and addressed the federation on the child labor question.
Later it developed that Darrow's fortune of $150,000 had been swallowed up in his two trials.

A letter was read from President Charles H. Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners calling on all union labor organizations to subscribe to a fund to assist Darrow in his third trial. This move was endorsed by the federation, and collections will be made. The trial is set for June 16.

Uses Fire to Stop Dog Fight.

Bellefontaine, O.—Fire was used to separate fighting bulldogs after they had created a panic in the Big Four station and driven people scurrying from the platforms. It appeared impossible to separate the dogs, which seemed to be in a death clutch, until a commercial traveler, using his own cigar and that of another man, pressed the lighted ends against the noses
of the two combatants.

Will Keep Evans' Diary Secret.

London.—Mrs. Evans, widow of Seaman Evans, one of the victims of Scott's antarctic expedition, who received her husband's diary from the hands of Commander Evans, says that she is forbidden to publish the diary
for two years.

Whitewater, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicines so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by all dealers.

Fingers and the Calendar.

No doubt most people remember the number of days in any particular month by recalling the rhymes they learned at school. Another method is practiced in Iceland, and it is so simple and ingenious as to be worth knowing. Shut the fist and let the knuckle of the forefinger represent January with its thirty-one days, and the depression between that and the next knuckle will represent February with its lesser number of days. And thus every month that corresponds to a knuckle will be found to contain thirty-one days; and every month that corresponds to a depression a less number of days. The little finger will represent July, and beginning again with the forefinger knuckle it stands for August, and from this one continues to count through the months of the year.—Harper's Weekly.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio,
by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.
Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

The Penalty of Overwork

Many Northville People are Beginning to Feel the Strain.

The heavy tax of overwork—the extra strain so necessary to many trades and occupations—is hard on the kidneys. The kidneys begin to feel in their work and the poisonous matter collects in the system. If your work seems hard for you, if you have a lame, weak or aching back, if you seem tired and listless, if you notice sediment in the urine, unnatural color or irregular passages and seem to be running down without apparent cause, begin at once with Doan's Kidney Pills, the remedy that has proven so beneficial to your neighbors. It has brought strength to the backs of thousands of working men and women. Read Northville proof.

F. S. Fry, West St., Northville, Mich., says: "Stooping over while shoveling coal and such work gave me a lame back. There were pains across my loins and my kidneys were weak. I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills and got some. They cured me of the trouble, and I don't feel it any more."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McMurray Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Many persons are puzzled to understand the terms, "four penny," "six penny," "ten penny," means as applied to nails. "Four penny" means four pounds to the thousand nails, and "six penny" means six pounds to the thousand, and so on. It is an English term and meant at first, "ten pounds" nails (the thousand being understood) but the English clipped it to "ten pence," and from that it degenerated until penny was substituted for pounds.

Ray Pope and Will Thomas were up before Judge Noble yesterday morning on a charge of being drunk and disorderly on the street the previous evening. They each paid a fine of $10 which included costs, instead of going to the House of Correction. Judge Noble warned them that a repetition of the offense would land them beyond the help of a fine. If the dealers who sell the liquor to men like this were compelled to pay these fines, it is just possible they might shut off the flow of the red juice a few drinks previous to the fighting stage.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Dr. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes, "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it. One of Chamberlain's advertising letters came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want." For sale by all dealers.—Advertisement.

It is rumored that a dance will be added to the regular Saturday evening program. Pretty good plan.

An interdenominational conference of rural workers and workers will be held at Alma college from July 23 to August 2.

We found this in our item box: "John says he thinks the church cheap, enough if he did have to buy ice cream for his load."

Mrs. R. M. Pierce received word this week from her father, Mr. Payne at Sedus, N. Y., that his large coal and lumber yard had been completely destroyed by fire. This loss will be $12,000.

A party consisting of Roy Clark, James Venturino, J. S. Haddock and Rev. S. J. Slough motored to Walled Lake Tuesday afternoon. They returned home in the evening with somewhat less than 100 fish.

The four Richardson families and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Requa of Flint, Mrs. Maude Penrett and daughter, Thelma, and the latter's cousins, Helen Kotter and Russell Hendrix of Detroit, paddled at Walled Lake Tuesday.

An unknown man lost control of his automobile on the hill on Randolph street Sunday night and the machine plowed through F. Krenger's potato patch and got as far as the creek on his farm before the man got his grip on things.

While the contractors were working on the new municipal dam this week they struck a big spring of water, which promises to flow enough to take care of all the population of Northville if it can be corralled and pumped into the main.

A valuable horse belonging to J. O. Munro of Novi got into a keg of poison one day last week and before a veterinary could be summoned, it died. Mr. Munro tried for 45 minutes to get a Northville veterinary on the phone, but owing to the very poor service now in existence, he was unable to secure aid.

In round numbers the country spends a quarter of a billion dollars every year on its army and navy, the biennial appropriations carrying almost two dollars for military and naval purposes for each dollar devoted to other expenditures. If, in round numbers, the country spends $300,000,000 every year on its army and navy, it is terrifying to contemplate the expenditure of $6,000,000 (the amount prayed for by a congressman) on good roads—2 cents for good roads and 98 cents for soldiers, forts, sailors and battleships. What think ye?

Good intentions are seldom negotiable for cash. Ask the lazy school boy why he doesn't study and advance with his class. He will tell you that he intends to sometime, but he never does. Ask any improvident man or woman why they don't lay up something for a rainy day. They will tell you that they intend to sometime—but they never do. Ask any slow, unprogressive business man why he doesn't discard his old antiquated ways of business and adopt new, up-to-date, progressive methods of sales and advertising. All such will tell you they intend to next week or next month or next year—but they never do.

The KITCHEN CABINET

It is the shadows of life that make the beauty of life.

SEASONABLE DISHES.

Make three-inch cubes of bread, hollow out in the form of a box, brush with melted butter and brown in the oven. Fill with salmon and peas, creamed together.

Raspberry and Currant Conserve.—Cover two boxes of currants with water, stew and strain, add a box of stewed and strained raspberries, a cup of stoned raisins, a cup of almonds chopped, and pulp and juice of two oranges. Add one cupful of sugar to each cupful of fruit juice and cook slowly until it jellies. Pour into glasses, cover when cool, and keep in a cool, dark place.

Hot Ham Sandwiches.—Spread boiled ham finely chopped on buttered bread, arrange like sandwiches, dip in egg and milk and fry a golden brown in butter. Serve with tomato salad.

Blueberry Cake.—Cream a tablespoonful of butter, add a cupful of sugar and when well mixed two unbeaten eggs. Beat well five minutes, add a teaspoonful of vanilla, a few shavings of nutmeg two teaspoonfuls of baking powder sifted with two cupfuls of flour; add at the last a pint of well-sifted blueberries. Bake in a loaf and serve warm with butter.

Fried Chicken.—Fly the pieces of chicken until brown in butter, then add a cupful of boiling water and simmer for half an hour. Remove the cover from the pan and cook down and brown. The gravy is especially nice when chicken is cooked this way.

Ginger Cobbler.—Cut in dice one piece cucumber; slice two oranges and three lemons, sprinkle with a cupful of powdered sugar; add a cupful of ginger syrup and put on ice for two hours. Add two quarts of ginger ale and a cup of sugar syrup. Place a block of ice in a punch bowl and pour over the mixture, garnish with raspberries and serve at once.

Peach D'Amour.—Fill tall glasses with peach ice cream, add sufficient raspberry juice to color and run down through the cream, on top place a spoonful of sweetened and flavored ice cream. Garnish with a few fresh raspberries or a maraschino cherry.

A recipe for a happy day.
A heart full of thankfulness, a humble soul full of hopefulness, an early morning prayer, a smile to greet the morning, with a kind word as key to open the door and greet the day, whatever it brings to thee, a patient trust in Providence to sweeten all the way—all these combined with thankfulness will make a happy day.
—Walter Paine.

DISHES FOR ENTERTAINING

Food can never be too nice or too dainty to serve to our friends and when we entertain them it is a pleasure to give them something unusual and pleasing.

Hamburg Cream With Fruit Juice.—Put a cupful each of raspberry and currant juice in a double boiler over the fire. Beat the yolks of nine eggs, add a cup of sugar and beat again; add the juice scalding hot to the eggs and sugar (a little at a time) and return to the boiler to cook until it thickens. Remove from the heat and fold into the mixture the whites of nine eggs beaten stiff. Serve in sherbet glasses with macaroons.

Strawberry Trifle.—Cut strawberries in halves and mix with fine granulated sugar, let stand an hour. Arrange lady fingers log cabin fashion and the sugared berries in the open space. Cover with sweetened whipped cream.

Rhubarb Baked With Figs.—Cover well washed figs with boiling water and cook until the water is nearly evaporated. Cut a pound of rhubarb (unpeeled, if young) into inch pieces, put a layer into a baking dish, sprinkle with a teaspoon of sugar; add a few figs, then a layer of rhubarb until a pound of rhubarb and half a pound of figs have been used. Add a few teaspoonfuls of hot water and bake, covered in a slow oven, until the rhubarb is tender. Dates or raisins may take the place of figs.

Frozen Boston Pudding.—Grate half a loaf of Boston brown bread that is at least a day old, pour over it a pint of hot cream, allowing it to stand until cold. Prepare a rich boiled custard by scalding a pint of milk and adding three well beaten eggs and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Cook until the custard coats the spoon. When cold, add the bread crumbs and half a pint of sweetened whipped cream. Flavor with a few drops of almond extract and turn at once into the freezer. When frozen remove the cream to a chilled flat pudding dish, cover with crumbs of macaroons and bury in ice and salt until serving time.

Knowledge and wisdom, far from being one, often dwell in different dwellings. In heads replete with thoughts of other men, wisdom is in minds attentive to their own.

CURRY DISHES.

Curry is a combination of condiments and seeds, which is highly thought of in the Orient, and which is used in many dishes in America, with a growing liking.

Curry of Mutton.—Fry one large onion, cut fine in two tablespoonfuls of butter. Mix one tablespoonful of curry powder, one teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of flour, and stir it into the butter and onion. Add gradually one pint of hot water or stock. Cut two pounds of lean mutton into small bits and brown them in the fat, then add the sauce and simmer until tender. Place the meat on a hot dish and arrange a border of rice around the meat.

India Curry.—Wipe a slice of veal a half inch thick, weighing one and a half pounds, brown in a hot frying pan, quickly searing both sides. Place on a board and cut in one-inch pieces. Fry two sliced onions in a half cup of butter until brown, remove the onions and add the meat and a half tablespoonful of curry, then cover with boiling water. Cook slowly until the meat is tender. Thicken with flour mixed with water to pour, add a tablespoonful of vinegar, and serve with rice.

Curried Eggs.—Remove the shells from six hard cooked eggs and cut in halves or slices. Fry a tablespoonful of chopped onion in a tablespoonful of butter, add a tablespoonful of cornstarch, or two of flour mixed with half a tablespoonful of curry powder. Pour on slowly one and a half cups of stock, milk or cream add salt and pepper to taste. Simmer until the onions are soft, add the eggs, and when warmed through serve, poured over toast or in a shallow dish. Any cold cooked fish may be served in place of the eggs.

Attention is the only remedy for dissatisfied people and evil influences. How many people have died in hospitals who would have been saved had they attended to their path of duty and who had then who loved them and who had then who loved them so.

VEAL AS SUMMER FOOD

Veal, at its best, is not especially high in food value, and if put on the market too young is liable to excite serious gastric disturbance, making it a dangerous food. Good veal may be known by its pinkish color and white fat, if the meat lacks color the animal has either been killed or was too young to kill.

A calf should be from six to eight weeks old before putting on the market.

Veal Loaf.—Chop three pounds of veal and a half pound of salt pork. Mix with two well beaten eggs, one cupful of crumbs two teaspoonfuls of salt a sprinkling of mace, pepper and allspice and a tablespoonful of onion juice. Mold in a small tin unrolled and pour over it a beaten egg, and sprinkle with crumbs. Set in a moderate oven and bake two hours, basting with butter and water. Serve cold.

Veal Curry With Rice.—Cook until tender two pounds of veal cut from the neck, add a small sliced onion and cook with the meat. Cut the meat into small pieces and thicken the gravy with a tablespoonful of flour for each cup of liquid. Stir in three teaspoonfuls of curry powder and salt as needed. Serve in a border of cooked rice.

Veal Birds.—Cut thin slices of veal from the loin, pound to a fourth of an inch in thickness; trim the pieces two and a half by four inches. Chop the trimmings fine with a square inch of pork for each bird; add half as much cracker crumbs as of meat. Season with salt, pepper, thyme, onion, lemon and cayenne. Dredge with salt, pepper and flour and cook a golden brown in butter. Half cover with cream and let them simmer until tender. The mixture of crumbs and meat is to be mixed with egg and spread on each piece and then roll and skewer with toothpicks.

Nellie Maxwell.

Once Was Enough.
Little Sterling had been taken to church to be baptized, and being quite indignant about the water being put on his head he remarked while coming out, "Well, I'll never get married again."

Age of Contests.
"How many times have you been arrested?" asked the court. "I'm sorry, Judge," replied Flooding Pete, "but I've lost count. There isn't anybody keeping a record here."

Gone Forever.
Mother (to little Ethel sobbing as if her heart was broken)—Well, well, what is the matter, dear?
Ethel—Tabby got lost.
Mother—Never mind, darling, we'll advertise in the papers for Tabby.
Ethel (still sobbing)—She'll never, never come home 'cause she can't read.

Liquid blue is a weak solution. Avoid it. Buy Red Cross Ball Blue, the blue that's all blue. Ask your grocer. Adv.

Stung.
"I want my money back for these here socks," said the man as he handed the clerk a package. "The sign you had up said the socks was guaranteed for three months."

"Well, what's the matter with the socks?" asked the clerk.
"I only wore them three weeks, and I had to take them off and buy another pair because this pair had holes in the toes," replied the man.

Legal Opinion.
"A cat sits on my back fence every night, and he yowls and howls and yowls. Now, I don't want to have any trouble with Neighbor Jones, but this thing has gone far enough, and I want you to tell me what to do."
The young lawyer looked as solemn as an old, sick owl, and said not a word.

"I have a right to shoot the cat, haven't I?"
"I would hardly say that," replied young Coke Blackstone. "The cat does not belong to you, as I understand it."
"No, but the fence does."
"Then," concluded the light of law, "I think it safe to say you have a perfect right to tear down the fence."

Her Varying Preference.
Until a girl is eighteen any sort of uniform supplies a man with the necessary credentials. But after that her interest does not respond to anything short of a pair of shoulder straps.

Made a Difference.
"Darn those cats!" "Don't shoot, Abner. I think the one with the contralto voice is our Tabby."—Washington Herald.

Not the Way.
An "advanced" woman tells the New York Tribune that "women are headed straight for trousers." We beg to inform the dear girl that the manner of approach must be reversed before the effort can be successful.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children.—Soothing, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, allays pain, cures wind colic, teething, etc.

Negligence Called Manslaughter.
The case of Stehr vs. State before the Supreme Court of Nebraska, involved the sentence of a father for from one to ten years in the penitentiary for criminal negligence, because during a blizzard in Nebraska, when the weather was bitter cold, he permitted the fire to go out, snow drifted through a crack in the door and a broken windowpane, and the bedding of all the members of the family was frozen stiff. The feet of one of the children were frozen, and although such fact was apparent to the father no physician was called in for 10 days, when amputation was found to be necessary and the child died of blood poisoning. The defendant was convicted of manslaughter for criminal negligence in failing to provide medical care after he discovered the frozen condition of the child's feet. In affirming the conviction the court held that for a parent having special charge of an infant child culpably to neglect it so that death ensues as a consequence is manslaughter, although death or grievous bodily harm was not intended, and if the parent has not the means for the child's nurture it is his duty to apply to the public authorities for relief.

Overdid It.
"What's the matter?" asked the lawyer's friend. "Been in a railroad accident?"
"No. I had a jury case the other day, and I argued so elaborately for the purpose of making it appear that my client was a fool instead of a knave that I got him acquitted on that plea."

"What has that to do with your appearance?"
"He met me outside, after court had adjourned."—Judge.

What Made Him Sick.
Certainly public employees who have to submit daily to a rapid fire of well-meant but needless questions may be excused if they occasionally turn upon their persecutors. An elevator boy, in the New York Tribune, was one of the victims.

"Don't you ever feel sick going up and down in this elevator all day?" a fussy lady asked him.
"Yes, ma'am," courteously replied the elevator boy.

"Is it the motion going down?" pursued the lady.
"No, ma'am."
"The going up?"
"No, ma'am."
"Is it the stopping that does it?"
"No, ma'am."
"Then what is it?"
"Answering questions, ma'am."

Willing to Oblige.
At a reception the other evening I overheard the following. A young engaged couple were sitting by themselves when a friend came along and said:

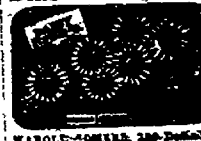

"You two seem very happy over here away from the rest of the crowd."
"We are," replied the girl, "won't you join us?"
"Sorry I can't," said the friend, "I'm not a minister. But I'll call on you wish."—Exchange.

How Simple.
"My dear," said Mrs. Snaggs to her husband, "what is a canard?"
"Don't you know what a canard is?" queried Snaggs, rather eagerly.
"Why, the word itself conveys its own meaning."
"Does it? Well, really, I can't see it. What does it mean, dear?"
"Why, a canard is something one can hardly believe, of course."
"Oh, to be sure. Why couldn't I think of that?"

Wasn't Overlooking Anything.
"That lawyer of mine has a nerve."
"Why so?"
"Listen to this item in his bill: 'For waking up in the night and thinking over your case, $5.'"
—Pathfinder.

Telling a Secret.

It is doubtful whether the person who asserted that secrets were made to tell, foresaw, even in his most cynical mood, anything like the following conversation in Das Hobe:

"Lottie tells me that you told her the secret that I told you not to tell anyone."
"On, isn't she mean? I told her not to tell you that I told it to her."
"Yes, I told her that I wouldn't tell you if she told me, so please don't tell her that I told you!"
