THE NEW WOMAN

SATURDAY NIGHT IN NORTHVILLE

LAST SATURDAY NIGHT.

Last Saturday evening a street entertainment for the town, country and visiting folks drew the usual large crowd regardless of the absence of our city band which had an engagement at Redford. The orchestra music which had been played could not be procured and after much hustling by the committee and the Asylum Theatre management, Mr. Remond, the Asylum singer, consented to give several selections for the people's entertainment. His efforts were much enjoyed and appreciated by all.

In the ladies' apple paring race Mrs. Herman Schmidt won first prize while Mrs. Barney Schultz received second. J. S. Haddock furnished the apples. The Johnston Watch & Jewelry Co. gave the prizes.

The driving contest for ladies held by Perrin's livery, was a very close affair. Mrs. H. W. Loesser was awarded first prize and Mrs. Ernest Abler second. Stewart Montgomery, Wm. Lanning, Jr., and Lester Stage acted as judges.

The boys' boxing contest created considerable amusement for the spectators. Lester Thompson and John Burch were awarded the prizes offered by the Peerless laundry.

The girls' penny scramble was a very lady-like affair, to the profit of the participants. Boys, we will have one for you later when Lee Shipley has some more pennies to give away.

An older novel feature of the evening was an old-time hoe-down by our townsman, Puc Hosmer, notwithstanding his 71 years and R. H. Wilson, a base liner of equal age. They proved that they were boys just as young as they used to be, much to the amusement of the crowd. Come again, and welcome.

THIS SATURDAY NIGHT.

The usual band concert will take place this Saturday evening and a special treat in the line of a regular street entertainment is scheduled for this evening under the supervision of Mr. Jay Cross of the Universal Motor Truck Co. of Detroit. Mr. Cross will bring his own specialties and the assurance that Northville Truck will be on display for the better evening's fun than any this season. A large Universal Motor Truck will be on display for the benefit of everybody and anyone who may wish information on the merits of this make of machine, will be gladly supplied for the asking. Bring the wife, family and visiting friends to town Saturday night. Everything free and you are welcome.

A Record Want Ad will help you exchange something you have and don't want for something you haven't and do want.

ASK COUNCIL FOR GAS FRANCHISE

PROPOSITION WILL LATER BE SUBMITTED TO PEOPLE FOR VOTE.

C. A. Fox and Andrew J. Moore of Pontiac recently appeared before the village council asking that a franchise for the installing and operating of a gas plant in Northville for heating and lighting purposes for a period of 30 years be granted them. The council are in favor of a gas system being installed, and to that the matter under which the franchise—and one will soon be submitted to the voters for approval.

It is their purpose to build one producing plant for Northville and Plymouth, and in which village the plant would be built the gentlemen could not state at this time.

A gas plant for Northville would be a great thing and without a doubt the proposition will carry.

DETROIT, THE MAGIC CITY

WILSON-ALSBORO.

Mr. Wm. Wilson and Mrs. Nellie Alsboro of South Lyon were united in marriage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Bogart Sunday evening by Rev. R. M. Pierce. The groom is quite well known in Northville where his many friends wish them much happiness and prosperity.

NOTICE

It does not pay to let a disagreeable temper drive a kind and faithful wife from your bed and home as I did mine by disagreeable words and actions. I wish to let the people know that I did wrong and want her back and will say this to warn others not to listen to outside gossipers.

CHARLES BLUNK.

The Voice a Pearl.

Elmer Burrill says of the voice: "Watch it day by day, as a pearl of great price, for it will be worth more to you in the days to come than the best pearl hid in the sea. A kind voice in joy, like a lark's song, to a hearth at home. Train it to sweet tones now and it will keep in tune through life."

SYNOPSIS.

Major McDonald, commanding a company of soldiers, is sent to the frontier to investigate a series of mysterious deaths. He finds a trail of blood and discovers a plot to murder him. He is surrounded by a large force of soldiers and is killed. His body is found by a group of men, and they bury it. The story ends with a group of men standing over the grave.

CHAPTER XXXVIII—Continued.

At the Cimarron the half-breed Indian collapsed, falling from his saddle into the snow utterly exhausted. Staggering himself like a drunken man, the sergeant dragged the nervous body into a crevice of the bluff out of the wild sweep of the wind, tramped aside the snow into a wall of shelter, built a hasty fire and poured hot coffee between the shivering lips. With the earliest gray of another dawn, the white man caught the strongest form, and rode on alone. He never knew the story of these hours—only that his trail led straight into the north. He rode erect at first then leaning forward clinging to the mane, now and then he staggered along on foot dragging his pony by the rein. Once he stopped to eat, breaking the ice in a creek for water. It began to snow, the thick fall of flakes blotting out the horizon, leaving him to stumble blindly through the murk. Then darkness came, wrapping him in a cloak of silence in the midst of that unspeakable desert. His limbs stiffened, his brain reeled from intense fatigue. He dragged himself back into the saddle, pressing the pony into a slow trot. Suddenly out of the wall of gloom sprang the yellow lights of Camp Supply. Beneath these twinkling eyes of guidance there burst the red glare of a fire. Even as he saw it the pony fell, but the exhausted man had forgotten now everything but duty. The knowledge that he had won the fellow's gloved hand came sharply up to his cap visor, Sheridan snapped out:

"Orderly, see if you recognize this man."

Erect, the very impersonation of military discipline, the soldier crossed the room, and stared into the unshaven face of the sergeant. Suddenly his eyes brightened, and he wheeled about as if on a pivot, again bringing his gloved hand up in salute.

"Eet vas Colonel Hamlin, I tink ya," he said in strong German accent. "I know heem."

The sergeant gripped his arm, bringing his face about once more.

"You are Shultz—Sergeant-Major Shultz?" he cried. "What ever became of you? What is it you know?"

"Wait a minute, Hamlin," said Sheridan quickly, rising to his feet. "I can explain this much better than that Dutchman. He means well enough, but his tongue twists it."

LETTER FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

ATTORNEY GENERAL CLEANS UP BATCH OF WORK BEFORE VACATION.

HOLDS SCHOOL PROPERTY CAN NOT BE RENTED.

State Fire Marshal Reminds Rural School Boards That the Law Requires Fire Drills Once Each Month.

(By Gurd M. Hayes.)

Before leaving for a week's vacation Attorney General Fellows affixed his signature to a number of opinions and cleaned up practically all of the work in the state's legal department.

Fellows informed A. C. Graham, whose term as state salt inspector expired August 14, when the law passed at the last session abolishing the office went into effect, that he could not draw pay for closing up the affairs of the department after his term expired.

The law requires the salt inspector to return pro rata to the factories all money in his possession when the office was abolished.

An Ann Arbor citizen who objected to paying his telephone rental in advance of service rendered inquired whether the company could require an advance payment.

The attorney general also holds that school property cannot be rented. When school property is no longer available for the purpose for which it was intended, it should be sold, says the attorney general in another opinion.

Fellows informed a Grand Rapids minister that it was not a violation of the new medical law to pray over the sick and afflicted and that there was nothing to prevent the "laying on of hands."

As Fellows construes the law Deputy Superintendent of Public Instruction Keller is entitled to sit as a member of the state board of education while Superintendent Wright is sick or absent from the state.

At this session of the year the state's legal department receives many inquiries from local option counties relative to the manufacture and sale of cider. The question has been passed upon many times and to day Fellows holds that it was not a violation of the War Cration law for a proprietor of a cider mill to use custom work.

In the case of a township treasurer in Grand Traverse county who was elected last year and who failed to qualify, Fellows informed the township board that it was authorized to appoint a treasurer. The present incumbent, as already served two terms, and is therefore not eligible to the appointment.

The last legislature passed a law providing for the appointment of a state veterinarian. The state live stock sanitary commission wanted the office of the veterinarian located at East Lansing, but the law says that it shall be at Lansing and Fellows informed the commission that it must obey the law in this respect.

FOUR KILLED IN AUTO RACE WRECK

DRIVER DODGES SMALL NEGRO BOY AND DASHES CAR INTO FENCE

OCCUPANTS OF TWO MACHINES BEHIND MEET DEATH

Four Cars Smashed Up and All Drivers and Mechanicians Are More or Less Seriously Injured

Nashville, Tenn.—Death claimed a heavy toll in the Labor Day automobile races at the state fair grounds when four of the six high-powered cars entered in the 25-mile free-for-all were wrecked, four of the racers being killed. Two received minor injuries. Two cars, with their drivers and mechanicians flashed through the tangled wreckage of broken cars and maimed bodies, the occupants escaping injury.

The dead are: John W. Sherrill, driver of Buick car No. 3; Thomas P. Bridges, mechanician of Buick car No. 3; William Sherrod, driver of Stutz car No. 2; and "Gooch" Brown, mechanician of Stutz car No. 3.

The six cars were speeding around the circular track at a terrible rate of speed, with the Studebaker "Whisk-broom" carrying the lifted No. 13 about 200 yards in the lead of Mercer, No. 2.

On the fifth lap, Clyde Donovan, driving the "Whiskbroom," feeling his right front wheel give way, after swerving to avoid striking a Negro boy, turned into the outside fence to avoid blocking the track. The wreckage of the fence turned back into the track in the path of the succeeding cars.

Both occupants of the Buick car were killed instantly, and Sherwood and Brown, of the Stutz, died of their injuries within a few minutes.

U. S. Holds Last Lottery. Glasgow, Mont.—At a minute past midnight Monday registration under the direction of Judge J. W. Whitten of the interior department began for the drawing of lands in the Fort Peck Indian reservation in northwestern Montana, embodying 1,345,000 acres.

This will mark the last big land lottery in the United States. The Fort Peck reservation contains altogether more than 2,000,000 acres.

The drawing will be held here beginning September 23. It is estimated that 50,000 will file applications.

While picking cucumbers during a hail in an electrical storm, James Adams, of West Branch, was killed by a bolt of lightning.

Fire from a spark thrown by a traction engine used for baling straw at the farm of C. Matthews in Alpine township, Kent county, destroyed all eight buildings on the place, cremated one horse and several pigs, and entailed a loss of $10,000. Matthews was not at home at the time.

While several boys looked on, unable to help him, Milo Walrath, 25 years old, a graduate student at the University of Chicago, was drowned in Bear lake Monday evening. He was the guest of President Vauck, of Hillsdale college, where he graduated in 1910. He had taught school in Japan for two years.

Ann Arbor Boy Drowned. Philip Ninko, 20 years old, of Ann Arbor, was drowned in the Huron river while bathing with his brother. Ninko was ready to leave the water when he slipped into a hole 15 feet deep. He called for help and his brother caught him by the hand, but was unable to save him. The current carried the body several hundred yards and it was an hour before it was found. A pulmotor was used for two hours without effect.

A Foundation for Health Grape-Nuts

Many people are half-sick because of wrong diet. White bread, rich meats, gravies and pastry put thousands into the "all-out-of-sorts" crowd.

If you feel "out-of-sorts," suppose you change food 10 days—and try

Grape-Nuts

This food is a perfectly balanced ration made of whole wheat and malted barley, thoroughly cooked and ready to eat from the package. Digests easily—generally in about one hour.

Grape-Nuts contains all the rich nutrition of the grain, including the vital mineral salts (grown in the grain) which Nature designed for rebuilding muscle, nerve and brain cells. White bread is lacking in these salts.

A regular morning dish of Grape-Nuts and cream has brought rosy-cheeked, clear-brained health to thousands.

"There's a Reason"

TORTOISE SETS CHURCH AFIRE

Part of Denver (Colo.) Pastor Upsets Lamp and Threatening Blaze Follows.

The average fire in church edifices is either the result of a defective furnace that was "all right last spring" or the work of an insane or revengeful incendiary. It is rare that a church fire originates in any other manner. But from the west, which never seems to have the ancient custom of Athens, seeking "either to hear or tell some new thing," comes the startling and well authenticated report that a harmless and unassuming tortoise has set fire to St. Mark's church, Denver, Colo., and that a disastrous conflagration was all but averted. the singing of the hymns and the reading of the responses or the Psalter, we are not informed, but whatever the cause, the tortoise upset a lamp and the fire resulted.

What Puzzled Him. "What are you puzzling about?" "I'm writing a sketch for vaudeville on the current political situation." "Well, you ought to have plenty of good stuff to put in." ## THE CLARKSTON BANK FAILURE.

The failure of the Jossman state bank at Clarkston for $142,000, through the "plunging" of its cashier, leads one to wonder if the state banking laws and modes of examination do not require further improvements. To permit the theft of depositors' money to such an extent as that amount of money from so small a bank shows something lacking on the part of the bank directors as well as on the part that comes under state supervision.

Like most crimes, it teaches, no new lesson, but simply rubs in an old one. The one-man bank, the cashier who dabbles in other things and lives high, the directors who don't direct—these are the same old features that usually turn up in all such cases. They are the old familiar cause of the majority of failures, whether in Wall street or at Clark's corners. Perhaps they are commoner in the small places because it is easier in a small place for one man to win the blind trust of the whole community.

If there had even been one pair of sharp eyes around Young Jossman, it seems hardly possible that he could have gotten away with more than $100,000 in that small village without raising a breath of suspicion. But evidently all eyes were closed, and Jossman himself was the blindest of all.

THE MEXICAN QUESTION.

The Mexican war is still on. Despite President Wilson's money vote and Secretary of State Bryan's Chautauque galvanizing. The president's message to the Mexican government was at best a wish wash affair and rounded like a Sunday school teacher's class talk. The only slap on the wrist that Mexico got out of it was the fact that the U. S. would put that country in a state of money siege. In other words if the Huerta administration didn't quit business, Uncle Sam would endeavor to shut off its money resources. In the mean time American lives and property are being destroyed and Huerta is snapping his fingers at the big man across the Rio Grande.

DROWNING VICTIMS

This is the season when from death claims many of its victims through the medium of drowning. The news of the day is interspersed with accounts of people having lost their lives in water, and the larger part of the victims are those who sought refreshments in a bath, canoeing and sailing. Year after year these fatalities occur and the numbers being continually on the increase. The sad record of one season seemingly carries no lesson to the pleasure seekers, and a more appalling death record marks the close of each season. It is not to be assumed that these sports will be in any degree rendered less popular by the perusal of the death record but these sad statistics should have some influence with parents who are in the habit of permitting their children to go into or on the water at all times unattended. A wholesale restraint on the part of the parents and guardians would undoubtedly result in the saving of many lives.

The parcel post system is of great convenience to the public. It fills a long felt want that express companies could not or would not meet. As an adjunct to the rural free delivery alone, it is of inexpressible benefit. That the usefulness of the system will be increased, there is not the shadow of a doubt.

SOUTHERN WAYS OF COOKING VEGETABLES.

For turnip greens, gather the young plants when the roots are just forming and while they are tender, wash thoroughly and put on to boil with a piece of fat salt pork. Let the meat cook for an hour before the greens are added, as they will need but an hour's cooking. To make the dumplings to serve with the greens, take a pint of sifted cornmeal, add soda, salt and boiling water to make a stiff dough. When this is cool enough to handle, dip the hands in water and shape the dough into small dumplings, drop one by one into the boiling greens and cook them for half an hour. Dip out with a skimmer. Take up the greens and drain and chop fine, and pile with the dumplings as a border on a large platter. This is a dish which the southerners long for as did our early fathers for the fish pots of Egypt.

Summer Squash.—Have a spider ready with a spoonful of two of hot fat, add a chopped onion, and when well browned add the summer squash thinly sliced and steamed until tender, and season well before serving.

Fried Corn.—Shave off the tips of the grains with a sharp knife and scrape with the back of the knife. Have ready a spider with hot fat, a tablespoonful will be sufficient for an ordinary amount of corn. Turn in the corn, add seasonings and stir constantly to prevent burning. When cooked, set back and let steam for a half hour to cook the corn well. Serve this with fried chicken.

New Potatoes.—Boil, drain, and when tender put the potatoes into a dish with a lump of butter, add a cup of cream which has been cooked with flour to chicken, pour this over the potatoes and serve.

Summer Salad.—Take the young shoots of cucumber, under lettuce, the tender top of green corn, sliced fine and add a little hot butter to each and add a tablespoonful of vinegar and salt. Let it stand in the sun and serve in a bowl with a little cold dressing.

MORE GOOD THINGS.

These southern biscuits are good to serve for any occasion, and are especially good split and toasted. Scald a pint of milk with a teaspoonful of lard, two of butter, and two of sugar and two of salt. Dissolve a half of a yeast cake in a little of the cooled milk, beat an egg and add to it, then mix all together with six cupfuls of flour. Beat and set to rise in a covered pan or mixing bowl. For six o'clock tea, put the sponge to rise at ten o'clock in the morning. At three in the afternoon knead and roll out for ordinary biscuit, cut with a small cutter, brush the top of each biscuit with butter, and put to rise. They should be very light, a little more than double their original bulk. Bake in a hot oven for fifteen minutes, or perhaps twenty.

The addition of a cup of mashed potato to these biscuits when the sponge is set makes them very moist, and of good flavor.

Scotch Potato Soles.—Shut a cup of milk, a half of flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and a half teaspoonful of salt, rub in a third of a cup of butter and add a cup of mashed potatoes. Make a soft dough, by adding a beaten egg and milk to roll. If the potato is moist no milk will be needed. Divide the dough into three parts and roll in rounds half an inch thick, cut and bake in a hot oven. Serve butter and serve hot.

Boneless Birds.—Cut your veal cutlets into two inch squares, pound until thin, salt and pepper, lay on a spring of parsley, with a piece of bacon, roll up and sew with two toothpicks. Roll in flour and brown in a little fat, summer gently in a little water until tender—it will take two hours. Remove the birds and add a little cream to the gravy in the pan, the addition of flour made smooth with milk need not be done if there is flour enough in the pan for the birds. Pour over the birds and serve.

Peas and Lettuce.—Prepare lettuce sprouts with finely chopped, but chopped peas and add a little cream and a little oil and a little salt.

TEACHING HOT WEATHER DISHES

With a little practice you can make a dish which is both delicious and easy to make. Try the following recipes.

Tomatoes Stuffed With Nuts.—Scald, peel, core and scoop out the tomatoes and fill them with finely chopped pecan meats and cold cooked green peas. When ready to serve, heap a tablespoonful of mayonnaise on each and serve on lettuce leaves for a supper dish. This is a dish high in food value.

Bean Salad.—Drain a can of beans which comes with tomato sauce from the can. Peel tomatoes cut in halves, take out the seeds and fill each with beans, heaping them up. Place each half on lettuce and pour over a highly seasoned French dressing.

Banana Salad.—Slice very ripe bananas over lettuce leaves, allowing one large banana for each person. Chill and serve with French dressing at serving time.

Nova Scotia Eggs.—Prepare rounds of toast, and when well buttered, cover with codfish in a white sauce, the fish being soaked over night and shredded, then add to the white sauce. After placing the toast, put a poached egg on each and serve on a platter garnished with parsley.

Cold fruit soups are palatable to some, but fresh fruit is much easier to prepare and is always well liked. Fresh sorrel shredded with lettuce and cabbage makes a most tasty salad served with French dressing.

Easily Earned.—What do you make a week?" asked a magistrate before whom an Italian organ grinder appeared, charging a fellow musician with breaking his instrument.

"Twenty-five dollaire," was the answer.

"What?" exclaimed the magistrate.

"Twenty-five dollars a week for grinding an organ?"

"No, sare; not for grind; for shut up and go away"—Harper's Weekly.

SIXTEEN DEAD IN NEW HAVEN WRECK

WHITE MOUNTAIN EXPRESS IN REAR END COLLISION WITH BAR HARBOR LIMITED

VICTIMS ARE RESORTERS ON WAY TO HOMES

Failure to See Block Signal and Wet Tracks Cause Flier to Crash Into Two Wooden Pullman Coaches

New Haven, Conn.—Sixteen persons lost their lives and 40 were injured when the White Mountain express, bound for New York, crashed into the rear end of the second section of the Bar Harbor Limited, bearing sojourners from Maine summer resorts, on the New Haven railroad, just outside the city limits, Tuesday.

Failure to see a block signal veiled in a thick fog is given as the cause of the accident by Engineer A. B. Miller, who says that as soon as he realized the danger he did all he could to stop the train. The brakes would not hold on the wet track, and the train, running down grade, plowed as it was through two wooden Pullman cars, splintered them to kindling and killed or wounded most of the sleeping passengers in their berths.

The accident recalled the recent wreck on the New Haven railroad at Stamford, Conn., when a second-section train failed to take its brakes and overran a block dealing death to passengers of the first section.

The shock of the collision was so terrific that linen and bed clothing from the berths in the sleepers was swept out of the broken windows and carried to the telegraph wires and poles near by, where it still hung when the wrecking trains arrived.

The White Mountain express was severely scratched by the collision, proceeded on its way after a few hours' delay, arriving at the station here at 9:40 and proceeding at once to New York.

Marine Band to Visit State.

Washington—President Wilson has announced that he has granted the United States marine band a long leave of absence, so that the famous organization may make the fourth tour of its history. The trip will be from September 20 to November 15, and will take the band to New York, New Orleans, San Francisco, Honolulu, Manila, and other points in the Pacific.

Probably one of the four was killed in the collision of the train, which was reported to have occurred at the station.

MEXICO MUST PAY DAMAGES

International Commission Will Determine Amount Due U. S. From Huerta Government For War Losses

Washington—Mexico will have to settle to the last cent the millions of dollars damage done to property owned by Americans in the southern republic, since the reign of rebellion began three years ago. During the present fall in the negotiations between the United States and the Huerta government the state department is turning its attention to the immense indebtedness that Huerta is piling up to be settled by his successors.

An international commission will ascertain this indebtedness, it was definitely stated Saturday.

Officials of the state department said that by reason of the Madero rebellion and the present disturbance Americans already had sustained a loss of $500,000,000. The international commission will be charged with ascertaining.

Strike Riots in Dublin.

Dublin—There were furious riots in several parts of this city Sunday, especially in Sackville street where Thomas Larkin, secretary of the Transport Workers' union, one of the tramway strike leaders for whom a warrant was out for a seditious speech Friday night, was arrested. During the fighting one person was killed and hundreds of others were taken to the hospitals. The city is greatly excited.

GIRL KILLED IN STRIKE RIOTS

MINERS INFLAMED BY SHOOTING OF CHILD BY SPECIAL DEPUTIES.

TROOPS HOLD MOB IN CHECK ON LABOR DAY.

Federation Official Scores Speaker Who Urges Defense of Property Rights. Says Human Rights Should Come First.

Calumet, Mich.—The shooting of Margaret Fazakas, the 15-year-old Hungarian girl, by special deputies in the North Kearsarge location Labor day morning, has aroused the striking miners throughout the copper country and the military and civil authorities are alarmed.

Inflamed by the reference to the shooting by federation leaders as a "cold blooded murder," some of the strikers are threatening renaissance, causing General Abbey, in command of the state militia, to urge officers to increase vigilance.

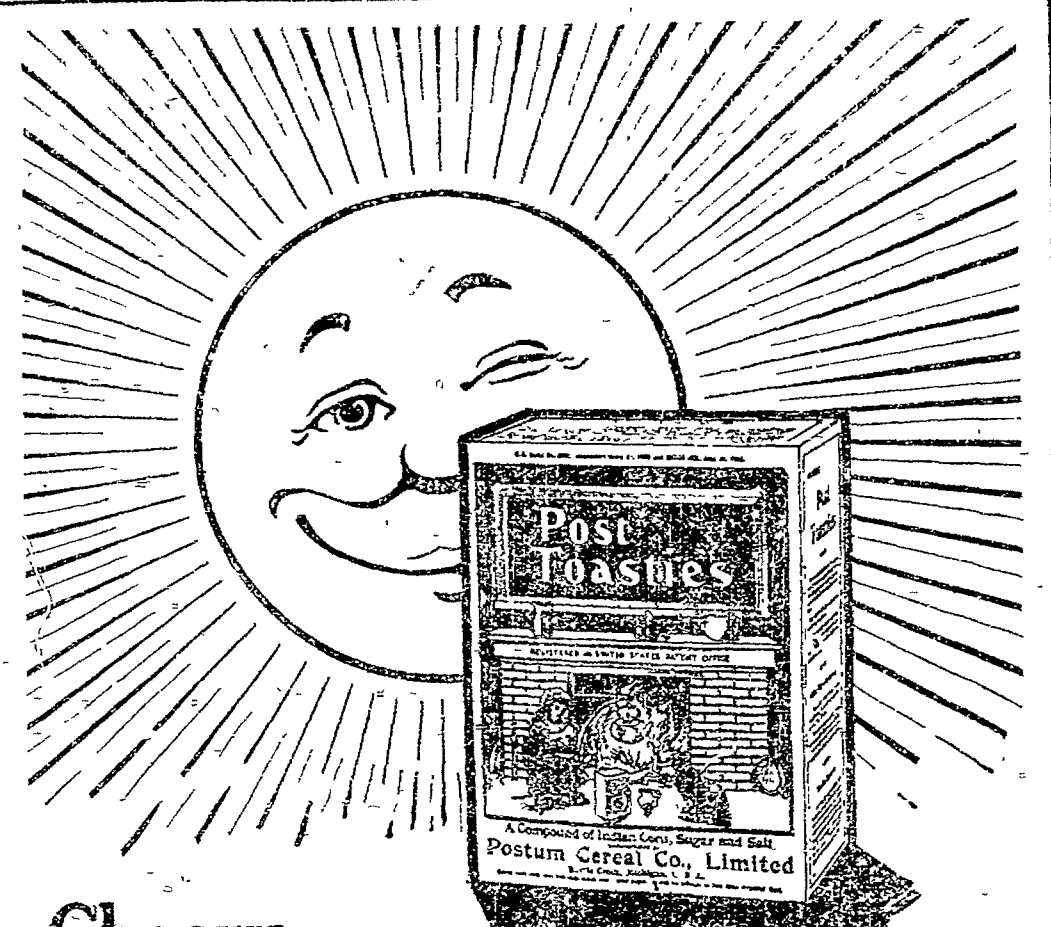

The cavalry was rushed to Centennial Heights, just north of Calumet, on a gallop Monday afternoon to disperse a crowd of strikers, women and children that seemed determined to mob the special deputies. The troopers were subjected to the same treatment accorded the deputies, but succeeded in dispersing the mob.

Judge George C. Bentley, of Houghton, one of the speakers at the Labor day celebration in Hancock, was severely scored by Guy E. Miller, member of the executive committee of the Western Federation of Miners. Judge Bentley urged peace, law and order, and defended property rights, while Mr. Miller contended that human life was in the balance in this strike and was deserving of more consideration than property rights.

With a tented village

A big area has been appropriated off at the Woodward avenue grounds, and preparations are now under way for the completion of the country canvas abodes which will house visitors during fair week.

These will not be merely tent shelters but will contain all the necessary comforts of sleeping quarters. The district will, of course, be properly policed, and provisions will be served by the tented village.

The innovation is but another step in the evolution of the new fair management. The idea that the Michigan State Fair should be a family gathering and not strictly limited to the members of the sterner sex. It was this very absence of adequate sleeping accommodations which prevented the entire family partaking of the pleasures of the Wolverine State's holiday in the past.

The farmers' housewife always dreaded the rush on the cars and the trouble of finding a place to stay while in the city and consequently could not figure on taking the children to town.

This year rural Michigan can figure on getting to the fair, say, in the morning and spending the entire day on the grounds and seeing everything worth seeing and never be annoyed with the attendant jam on getting a town house car after it is over. Then, again, as is often the case, the fair does not fail that he can see the fair property in one day. By sleeping at the grounds, he can get up bright and early and start in sightseeing again without even getting tired.

What the fair is
A gigantic convention of Michigan's agricultural and industrial interests.
A post-graduate course for successful farmers and a primary summer school for the boys and girls.

An educational center for the entire family, whether from the city or rural districts.

An annual proof of the greatness of the Wolverine State.

A Reminder.
Don't forget to take a ride on the new giant roller coaster at the Michigan State Fair Sept. 15-20. It is absolutely safe. Let the children have the time of their lives.

STARS TO RACE AT STATE FAIR

$40,000 in Purses Offered For Grand Circuit.

THE LARGEST ENTRY LIST.

All Leading Turf Performers Will Compete For Rich Prizes—State Breeders' Futurity Decided For First Time—Foremost Reinsman to Drive.

This year the Michigan State Fair will hang up no less than $40,000 for trotters and pacers, which will undoubtedly attract the biggest fields of any classic ever decided at the Detroit oval.

The Michigan stake alone returns $10,000 to its winner, and forty-five owners have signed their intention of competing for this rich award.

Second in importance will be the 212 pace, which boasts of no less than twenty-five nominees, while the 205 has seventeen and the 210 has twenty-three. These numbers are larger than in any grand circuit city.

On top of these headliners there will be sixteen life closing classes, with awards of $1,000 or over, exclusive of the first Futurity of the Michigan Trotting Horse Breeders' Association. This first named event promises to blossom into a State Fair racing institution. It will unquestionably bring together the best three year olds in the Wolverine State and is creating interest in all parts of the state, as there are about forty eligibles.

As Frank B. Walker will do the starting and A. J. Keating will act as presiding judge the State Fair races will be conducted on the highest possible plane.

MUSIC BY PRIZE BAND.

Weber's Gifted Artists at the State Fair.

All music lovers will welcome the announcement that John C. Weber's prize band has been secured for the opening concert at the Michigan State Fair.

This internationally known collection of musicians, gifted soloists and instrumentalists will offer an afternoon and evening program of the selections of which will be arranged to please all tastes of music devotees.

The fair officials are very enthusiastic over the acquisition of the famous Weber band, as it looked for some time as if the demand for this organization abroad would prevent its appearing at the fair.

Peculiar Natural Fact.

One of the puzzles of nature is the fact that many springs show an increased flow of water several hours before a coming rain begins to fall. Various explanations have been attempted, the most plausible being that the weather before a storm is often of the kind which checks loss of moisture from the ground by evaporation and hence leaves more to feed the springs.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.
