SATURDAY NIGHT IN NORTHVILLE

LAST SATURDAY NIGHT?

Last Saturday evening's entertainment varied greatly from the preceding ones of this season. Jay Clegg, sales manager for the Universal Motor Truck company of Detroit was given authority to procure means of entertainment for the crowd. He brought to Northville, via motor truck, a troupe of professional entertainers, singers and comedians, who, to judge from the hearty applauding of the audience, were highly successful in their efforts. A good hit was made when one sang a song telling of the returns to be made in our village "when Joe Montgomery is our mayor". The stage upon which the performers performed was the dray owned by forecauld citizen of Northville. A discourse on the merits of the Universal Motor Truck was also heard. The band played a selection between each vaudeville act and added to the enjoyment of the affair.

Orders for the flashlight pictures taken some time ago, were taken at the half hardware. All above the cost of producing, in the sale of these pictures, will be given to the church.

At the close of the above program, the crowd hiked for the rink to dance till 11:30. Music was furnished by Roy Gray and Clifford McFarlan.

The crowd on the streets was said to be the largest yet on any Saturday night.

THIS SATURDAY NIGHT.

The usual band concert will take place this Saturday evening along with a few intermingled sports for ladies, gentlemen, boys and girls to take part in. Come to the do's, see and partake of the fun.

T E Murdock's men's shot putting contest—for the gentlemen who can boost a 25 lb bag of shot at arms length above his head the most times in succession will be awarded as first prize a box of 25 good smokes; 2nd prize, briar pipe.

Brock & Co Peanut shucking race, a $5.00 fancy salad dish as 1st prize to lady who gets the meats out of a pound of unsalted peanuts in the quickest time and to the next lady a 30c cracker jar.

Edwin White, of "The White House," has for the best exhibition of rope skipping by a girl, a sofa pillow and cord as first prize and a silk scarf as second prize. Girls, bring your favorite skipping rope.

"Apple Dip," for boys—Ordinary apples will be placed in partially filled tubs of water and the young man who can recover the largest number of apples without the use of their hands or feet will be presented with cash prizes as follows:

First prize, 50c; 2nd and 3rd prizes, each 25c. Come and see this.

will be worth your while. Every thing free all the time.

Also there will be another one of those enjoyable parties in the rink

PRESBYTERY MEETING MONDAY AND TUESDAY

PROMINENT SPEAKERS WILL BE PRESENT FROM DETROIT, ANN ARBOR AND YPSILANTI.

The Detroit Presbytery is to be the guest of the Northville Presbyterian church at the Fall Meeting, which is to be held Monday evening, Sept. 15, and Tuesday, Sept. 16. It is expected that 10 or 50 of the Presbyterian ministers and elders of Detroit and vicinity will be present at this meeting.

The opening session Monday night will be a service of celebration over the completion of the work of rebuilding the church. Three of Detroit's prominent ministers are to speak at this service. The theme of the evening will be "The Modern Needs of the Church." Rev. J. P. Fitch, pastor of the Jefferson avenue church, who was formerly pastor of a prominent church of New York state, will speak on the subject from the standpoint of buildings and equipment. Dr. Hugh Jack, formerly of Peoria, Ill., recently installed pastor of the Central church, will speak on the needs of the church as to organization, and Dr. James M. Barclay of the Forest avenue church is to speak on the subject from a spiritual standpoint.

This service is designed particularly for the community of Northville. A welcome is extended to all, and those who in any way contributed to the rebuilding enterprise are specially urged to be present. The addresses by these able men and the special music combined with the occasion, will make this service universal, memorable. Remember the date, Monday night the 15th.

The session on Tuesday will be devoted to the consideration of such business as usually comes before the Presbytery.

The ladies of the church will serve dinner for the visitors in the church parlor.

DETROIT, THE MAGIC CITY.

I am in a position to select lots for you situated in the most rapidly growing section of Detroit, through one of the principle street car lines of the city. One seven-cent quarter ticket enables you to reach any part of the city from this Sub-Division. The lots are all high and dry, within easy walking distance of great many of the leading factories.

Write for full particulars and plots at once—don't delay—to M. G. McIntosh, 58 Home Bank Building, Detroit, Mich.

A Record Want Ad will help you exchange something you have and don't want for something you haven't and do want.

For the purpose of receiving said collections I will be at my office until Sept. 21. W. J. LANNING, Village Treasurer.

DO NOT KILL THE LITTLE CALVES

ILLINOIS CONGRESSMAN WOULD PROHIBIT UNDER 2 YEARS

Says It Would Solve the High Price of Beef to Consumer.

The conservation of calves as a means of lowering the high cost of living is a plan formulated by Representative Britton, of Illinois, who has been investigating the scarcity of beef cattle and the consequent high cost of meat.

Representative Britton on Monday introduced a bill designed to prevent the killing of calves and to insure an increase in the meat supply. This measure would make a misdemeanor the shipment in interstate commerce of beef cattle killed under two years of age.

"In 1911," said Mr. Britton, "Eight million calves were slaughtered. If these calves had been allowed to live for two years, and allowing 1,400 pounds as an average weight for a two-year-old cow or steer, they would have produced 11,200,000,000 pounds of beef to supply the scarcity we now feel."

Another feature is that it is said that Detroit hucksters come out in the country and buy up young calves, from the age of a few hours to that of one week, and after killing them, they are sold to Detroit dealers, who wait at the age, and to that of one week and after kill-

Stories are told that even calves that die soon after birth have a value as veal and that these hucksters know places in Detroit where they can get hold of the animal before it has been dead too long.

$200.00 CASH GIVEN AWAY.

Commencing about Sept. 30 James Huff, the hardware-man, will inaugurate a penny vote coupon contest. Every cent's worth of trade, or payment on account, gets one vote for any church, lodge or benevolent society. The prizes will be cash and will amount to $200. The first prize alone will be $75 in gold. The plan will be further outlined in Huff's ad from week to week and the nominating blanks will be printed in the Record next week, and the result of the vote published each week. The contest will close Christmas eve.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

All Northville village taxes must be paid on or before Sept. 30, or the real estate will have to be returned for unpaid tax and personal property levied upon and sold.

For the purpose of receiving said collections I will be at my office until Sept. 21. W. J. LANNING, Village Treasurer.

WEEK'S CALENDAR

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES. (By the Pastor.)

The pastor returned Tuesday after having a month's vacation on account of his health, which is greatly improved. He will now begin his work with a stronger zeal, and is hoping that the work will go on rapidly.

Preaching at 10 a. m. Sunday by the pastor. Theme: "The Changeable and Unchangeable State of Man."

Sunday school at 11:15. Preaching at 7 o'clock in the evening. Theme: "Life and Death."

Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

A warm welcome awaits all who attend our services.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES. (By the Pastor.)

Sunday morning service at 10:00 o'clock. Sermon topic: "Substitutes for Religion."

Evening service at 7:00 o'clock. Subject: "Looking, Longing, Living, Lifting—Upward."

The pastor is expected to be present at both services this Sunday.

The Conference is on at Ypsilanti. Anyone going to the Conference will get much good and possibly some inspiration for work during the coming year. Look me up should you come.

The Missionary society will hold its regular September meeting at the parsonage next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30. Supper will be served at 5:30 to honor of the Queen Easter girls.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES. (By the Pastor.)

Morning service at 10:00 o'clock. Subject: "The Humanity of God." Sunday school at 11:20. C. E. at 6:00 o'clock.

Evening service at 7:00 o'clock. Subject: "An Ancient Hymn with a Modern Message."

The members of the church are reminded of the meeting of the Presbytery to be held at the church Monday evening and Tuesday of next week. The opening meeting when three of Detroit's prominent ministers will speak, will be of special interest to the members of the community. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The young people are reminded of the C. E. social at the church tonight. An invitation is extended to all the young people and their friends.

Just The Thing!

JUST THE THING for these sultry days; make the kitchen at home as comfortable as possible for your housekeeper. No better suggestion than a "Perfection Oil" Cooking Stove, or one of our "Quick Meal" Gasoline Stoves. The Perfection Oil Cooker has proved the standard for the last five years. There is and have been many imitations of the Perfection Cooker, but it is only a matter of time when we all will go back to the guaranteed "Perfection" Oil Cooking Stove.

ANY GASOLINE STOVE IN OUR STORE AT LESS THAN FACTORY COST—UNTIL THE PRESENT STOCK IS REASONABLY REDUCED.

GOING BACK TO THE FARM.

One of the most serious problems that confronts the economic world today is to keep the young man on farms. For many years there has been a tendency to congregate in the cities and to such an extent has this been carried that all the vocations of city life have been so overcrowded that today it is well nigh impossible for a stranger to get a foothold. For every situation there are a score of applicants, and the young man who has no influential friends to render him aid is indeed unfortunate. We have long believed that this condition of affairs would correct itself. One of the reasons that our young men have been so willing to leave the old country home has been the lack of country attractions. This can hardly be said to hold good today. The trolley car, telephone and free rural delivery have well-nigh wiped out the distinctions between city and suburban life. Another powerful factor now working for the upbuilding of the country life is the agricultural college. Our young men are fast learning that farming is no longer the haphazard business of a former day, but is one of the most exacting and scientific pursuits. With this knowledge comes a higher respect for the vocation and a stronger desire to enter the industry. The tide is thus gradually but surely turning, and the time is near at hand when farming will be held in the same regard here that it has long been in England. In that country when a man achieves financial success he at once seeks a country estate for a home.

Here the reverse has long held true, and the city home has been held up as the ideal. The false notion of ethics is rapidly going to the wall, and a more exalted idea of the country life is taking its place. Rich and poor alike are beginning to take to the farm.

If any member of the Detroit Chamber of Commerce or the Wolverine Auto Club lived out Michigan or Grand River avenue, those streets near the city limits would have been put in a passable condition long ago. The members however have an idea that no one lives outside of Detroit except at Orchard Lake and Bloomfield Hills.

Also Grand River road at the city limits was "Made in Detroit."

SCHOOL NOTES.

John VanAtta is back in school again.

There are 25 pupils enrolled in grade Two.

There are forty pupils enrolled in the Kindergarten.

Edward Martin entered the A class of the Sixth grade, Monday.

There are nine boys and eleven girls in grade Eight this semester.

Edmund Yerkes, who just entered school this month, has now entered the A class.

Virginia Holt entered the K class, having taken the B class work in St. Paul, Minnesota.

The pupils in grade Eight are very grateful for their new ceiling. The room looks fine. Many thanks.

Some of the B class pupils in the Second grade are doing very good work in telling historical stories.

Kindergarten pupils who brought flowers this week are: Viola Chapman, Virginia Holt, Karl Schultz, Lynion Haddock.

Grade Five has opened with a good attendance, and every face looks as though they meant to do their best work.

There are nine new pupils in grade Eight who have not been enrolled in this school before. This looks pretty good for Northville.

We are sorry to lose Helen and Henry Holmes, who have enrolled in the Ann Arbor school, as their parents contemplate moving to that city.

Mr. J. R. Miller of Detroit, formerly Superintendent of Big Rapids schools for fourteen years, was present at the Teachers' meeting Monday afternoon and gave an instructive address.

The present enrollment is as follows: High school, 95; 8th grade, 20; 7th grade, 23; 6th grade, 24; 5th grade, 32; 4th grade, 25; 3rd grade, 44; 2nd grade, 25; 1st grade, 35; Kindergarten, 41. Total, 370.

Lester Cook from the Maybury school and Anna Stewart of the McKinley school of Detroit, are now pupils in grade Five. Also Elsie Brassow and Lillie Schroder from nearby schools are numbered among the new pupils.

Miss Effie Wills, who has taught in the business colleges of Detroit and Saginaw, has charge of the commercial work again this year. A fine class in bookkeeping has been organized and is using Hammond's text.

At the next general Teachers' meeting Miss Bullis will give a

Ever Watchful

A Little Care May Save Many Northville Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health. The discharge not excessive or infrequent. Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for weak kidneys.

Let a Northville citizen tell you how they work.

Mrs. Martha Taylor, Center St., Northville, Mich., says: "The first symptom of kidney trouble were severe pains through the small of my back and after I stooped over I could hardly straighten again. At times I was dizzy and nervous. The kidney secretions were unnatural. Finally, I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, and got a supply at T. E. Murdock's drug store. They proved so good that I kept on taking them until I was completely cured. I am glad to confirm all I said some years ago, about Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

When "The Sign of Six" starts in the Record in a few weeks you will want to be in on our list so that you can read the story in your own paper. Call us up and we'll be to put it there now.

On Saturday, October 11 there will be held at Wyandotte, Detroit and Plymouth, at R. F. D. carrier station location. Those passing the examination will be eligible to appointment at first vacancy anywhere in this country.

Under the new highway law the state will pay an award of $24 per mile to any township keeping up the roads. This upkeep feature will only require that a common wood scraper be used and that mud holes be drained off or filled with gravel. This ought to be an incentive for the betterment of some roads where the authorities do not feel able to build a whole mile.

HOLE IN THE FENCE

By WALTER JOSEPH DELANEY.
"The hole in the fence!" marmured Wade Rayner, in his sleep.

"Poor fellow!" spoke David Rose, leaning solicitously over his fever-stricken comrade. "He is thinking of home—dreaming of the dear old place we may neither of us ever see again."

It was a chill dreary scene, one calculated to banish the remotest suggestion of home and its comforts, its serenity, its fond strong shelter:

An Alaskan winter held a grim frozen landscape locked in the embrace of pitiless ice and snow. Where a shelf of rock protruded the two prospectors had sought refuge the evening previous—ill, half famished, worn out.

It had been at the suggestion of Rose, the older of the two, that his chosen friend had invested his all in an outfit and joined him in braving the rigors of the great Nome trail in quest of the wonderful gold fields that were making princes of paupers daily.

Thus far it had been all experiment, disappointment, vain fruitless effort.

A few days previous, however, they had met a sick crippled miner going home to die. He told of a partly developed claim upon the Yukon, workable the year round. He showed his papers of ownership, he told a seemingly straight story. The partners ventured their last capital, a bare hundred dollars, and had started out to locate their treasure.

And now, for twenty-four hours poor Wade had been stricken with fever, delirious a part of the time, no medicine available, not even a decent shelter.

But he was dreaming, and the stories of his fancy kept at bay all the grim realities surrounding him.

The hole in the fence! How it came back to him—the break in the rails, side of the edge of the home village, that seemed to shut in that little

"Another!" he breathed. "It must be true. I will go. What right have I, a beggar, a broken man, to intrude upon her welfare?"

He tottered away. A man passed him by, stared at him, went on, looked back. In a vague baffling tremor Wade Rayner made his way along back to the hole in the fence. There, leaning against the aged timbers, he looked out on the dark world beyond. Its cheerlessness seemed all there was left for him.

"Another!" he breathed. "It must be true. I will go. What right have I, a beggar, a broken man, to intrude upon her welfare?"

He turned at the sound of footsteps. The man who had passed him with a stare was hurrying with a white robed form towards him.

"I was not mistaken, Miss Woolson," he said. "See, it is, it must be—"

"Wade! oh, my lost darling, Wade!" and May Woolson was in his arms.

He had come back—oh, that was all, enough, everything—she robbed out her heart's devotion. Beggar?—oh, what was that against the flowing wealth of love! love! love. He was ill—who would nurse him, she would with back brightness to the dimmed eyes, courage for the wavering soul. Come! come! to waiting hearts—sister, friends, partner—

Partner? Then David Rose?—turned, after searching far and wide for the dear friend he gave up as dead. But rich—the great claim! He had gone to it, sold it, and the shrouds of his dead partner safely set aside.

But she in bridal costume? Oh, how her glad heart laughed! My dear! my dear!—the attire for the wedding of Rose and Ida.

A bride? yes, upon this, the joyous night of his return, his only, and now! this golden hour, and the very angels seemed to sing in echo of her pure, ravishing joy!

my hands and knees, but I must get home!"

"We'll help you do it," said the superintendent, but in his secret mind he doubted if the applicant would survive one-half the journey planned.

Ambition was dead in Wade Rayner, hope pretty near, but love!—poor, ill, beggar, still did love seem to shine, a beckoning beacon at the far distant end of the lonely desert trail.

At last! Heaven seemed near when finally the wearied pack train reached the first post of civilization. Wade Rayner had received a little package of gold dust for his services as an attendant on the train. In an inside pocket he carried two minute nuggets. They represented all he had found in the land where he had expected to gather the yellow treasure all along the highways.

He converted these small possessions into current coin. Then a train for the east. More dreams, rapid, eager, suspenseful, and one evening home!

The train ran five miles from the village and he had to cover the rest of the distance on foot. How strange to near the old sand pits, the creek stretch and then the hole in the fence! Ah! beyond that the loved one. Here had he seen May Woolson last. She seemed to beckon him on and he crossed lots to the little garden surrounding the Woolson home.

The house was lighted. How glad some, how welcoming it looked! And there was a light in May's own room—and May herself.

She stood before a mirror dressed in bridal attire, wedding flowers in her hair. A chill struck the heart of the gazer.

"She believes me dead and—"

He tottered away. A man passed him by, stared at him, went on, looked back. In a vague baffling tremor Wade Rayner made his way along back to the hole in the fence. There, leaning against the aged timbers, he looked out on the dark world beyond. Its cheerlessness seemed all there was left for him.

FIRST REWARD OF AMBITION

Polish Writer Tells of Emotion Produced by Sight of and Contact With an English Ship.

Joseph Conrad has told in his book, "A Personal Record," how he happened to become an English writer. What is perhaps not so well known is how he, a Polish aristocrat, entered the British marine. From his fifteenth year, though he had not six words of the language in which he afterwards wrote "Nostradamus" and "The Mirror of the Sea," his ambition was to be an English seaman. After much opposition he began to see his way clear and he has recorded his emotion when his hand first touched an English ship. "There are ships," he says, "I have known well by sight whose name I have forgotten; but the name of that ship seen once so many years ago in the clear rush of a cold, pale sunrise, I have not forgotten. How could I—the first English ship on whose side I ever laid my hand! The name—I read it letter by letter on the bow—"James Westcott." Not very romantic, you will say. The name of a very considerable, well-known, and universally respected North-country shipowner, I believe, James Westcott! What better name could an honorable hard-working ship have? To me the very grouping of the letters is alive with romantic feeling of her reality as I saw her floating motionless and borrowed—an ideal grace from the austere purity of the light."

Plain Facts.

"Washington threw a dollar across the Potomac."

"That fact was overrated."

"Who ever excelled it?"

"Washington himself, the time he threw 3,000 troops across the Delaware."

That's Why.

"There's a pack train starting next week," explained the trader. "It's all ready for the dogs are light, the trail bad and the sledges carrying men and meat mounful of all kinds of the best friend he had in the world."

Early Days of Cigarmaking.

At one time, in the early history of this country cigarmaking was an important industry in Germany and large quantities of German-made cigars came to the United States. The first separate tabulation of cigar imports was in 1804, and in that year 4,000,000 were brought into the United States, nearly all of them coming from the West Indies.

Backache Warns You

Backache is one of Nature's warnings of kidney weakness. Kidney disease kills thousands every year.

Don't neglect a bad back. If your back is lame—if it hurts to stoop or lift—if there is irregularity of the secretions—suspect your kidneys. If you suffer headaches, dizziness and are tired, nervous and worn-out, you have further proof.

Use Doan's Kidney Pills, a fine remedy for bad backs and weak kidneys.

As Indiana Case.

John D. Whitaker, 105 N. East St., Madison, Ind., says: "Dark circles appeared around my eyes and my ankles were inflamed and swollen. I was all the time under a physician. My back ached constantly and I was in a constant state of depression and expense. Treatment of Doan's Kidney Pills helped me from the first and before long restored me to good health."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dredged disease that science has been able to cure in its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the infection of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and exciting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of their cure that they offer a Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for their testimonial. Address: F. J.
